Advantageous to Independents.

In his dissenting judgment Sir Henry Drayton holds that the long distance con-tract with competitive independent comelection of officers took place. The fol-lowing officers were elected: Captain, R. L. Sargeantson; treasurer. H. Par-frey, J.P.; secretary, S. Weller; quar-termaster, John Fox; committee, J. Sal-mon, W. S. Tucker, H. Downes, A. Ray-nor and R. Kirk. The name of the organization will now be the British Imperial Rifle Association. Major A. H. O'Brien said: "Every other business and profession is inciden-tal to the war. Altho I do not mean that panies is disadvantageous to the Bell panies is disadvantageous to the Bell and advantageous to the independent companies. The best evidence of that i fact, he says, is that the independents ardently desire it and urgently press their claims. The compansation which the board deems just and expedient is for actual use, connection or communi-cation for actual facility cupplied and its subsequent use and it cannot be con-strued as to include compensation for loss in business, which the Bell Telephone may experience as a result of independent companies having the long distance con-

The losses to the Bell Company, Sir Henry says, are not in connection with the long distance business, but rewith the long distance business, but re-sult from the loss of local subscribers and their annual rents. Telephone dupil-cation makes for public inconvenience and experience has shown that in one Ontario municipality at least as soon at the Bell Company, left the field as a result of popular symmetry for a least in-issitution, the rates were immediately put up by the local concern.

WEDNESDAY MORNING, SEPT. 15.

Wickett, alderman of the second ward. issued an open letter to the ratepayers dealing with the conditions which our system of local improvement has brought about, and pointing out the necessity of early and drastic reform. Dr. Wickett has followed up his previous letter with one on the need of reform in the city's financial affairs which should give the ratepayers who are more concerned with their own interests than with political shuffles or the howling of placemen and wirepullers, a portentous punch in their pecuniary plexus.

Dr. Morley Wickett may not be the only alderman who has paid attention to the city's finances, but he is the only one who has had the courage to set his conclusions in cold type, and he has had less gratitude than criticism so far for his pains. People do not like to be confronted with unwelcome facts, and they are the less inbeen in any degree responsible for their existence. Dr. Wickett has simply appealed from the city hall to the people. Any newspaper which represents the people must pay attention to his statements.

sets worth $60,000,000. It is evident that any carelessness or tendency to leakage by lack of stringent supervinothing but the strictest honesty governed the management.

Some of the costly mistakes made by the city are mentioned by Dr. Wickett. The main drainage plans are wrong. The sewage disposal plant will cost five or six millions to make right. The slow sand and water filter system is a mistake. Property outside the city as well as in should have contributed to improvements like the Bloor street viaduct. Piecemeal annexations have cost more than a properly comprehensive annexation plan would have-done. The bungling in the sale of city debentures means a heavy loss to the city and the ratepayers. Debentures which should have been sold in block last January, as advised, were dribbled out and are not, even, inclined now to dribble. The future alone can show how much this mistaken policy will cost.

It is on the exhaustion of the city's borrowing powers that Dr. Wickett chiefly concentrates his attention. The present limit is roughly fifty millions. The gross debt is upwards of ninetytwo millions. Of this, exempted in accordance with the act covering revenue-producing * /property, waterworks, car lines, hydro-electric, etc., are amounts reaching forty-two millions. The debt, exclusive of these exemptions, is placed at $50,118,017. The excess over the legal limit Dr. Wickett figures at $407,411.

With an increase in the assessment this year of $25,000,000, additional borrowing power is bestowed at $1,-900,000. But this is already much more than absorbed by various commitments. Dr. Wickett concludes that the city's borrowing powers are exhausted, and while nine millions of general debt matures in the next six years. fresh expenditures are in sight amounting to forty-five millions, half of which are non-revenue producing.

"All this means, if it means anything," he says, "that Toronto must face the problem of either calling a halt in her development or radically changing her financial policy. Without wasting words, the problem is one of considerable magnitude, and demands our earnest consideration." It is well to remember that Dr. Wickett is not pessimistic, except as to the result of continuing the present disastrous policy. He desires to introduce publicity into the city's methods of handling its financial affairs. This would help the city locally and in the financial markets, he believes, for, apart from errors of judgment, the city has nothing to hide.

R will be necessary to petition the legislature to increase temporarily the city's borrowing powers. There must be greater foresight, rigid economy, an end to juggling with the tax rate, made most of our great fortunes. But the general policy of the province has not been such as to promote general sion may result in huge loss, altho speculation. Yet the deplorable result wrought by over-capitalization in the lumber business of the United States cannot but have a reflex action upon the business in this country. It might be said in passing that while the lumber business in all its ramifications employs a number of people and is subject to many sharp reverses it is on the whole an interest which seldom appeals to the government for aid or to the public for sympathy. The workers who fell the trees and bring the logs to market retain something of the happy-go-lucky spirit of former days. The men who toil in the forest live simply, work hard, take long chances and accept without murmuring rather scant returns for a hard but venturesome life. Gold Not Wanted

The National City Bank of New York still flies the storm signals on account of the rising tide of gold imports to the United States. In its bulletin for September we are told that the United States has now more gold than it needs, and that an excess supply can result in only one of two things, either the gold will be hoarded and later on returned to other countries, with a loss of interest, or it will Austro-Hungarian ambassador to the form a basis for a widening of credit which must bring on a general period Sept. 22 for Copenhagenof inflation. New enterprises, it is said, will create an enormous demand for labor in the market, already restricted, and wages will rise to such a level that, after the war, American manufacturers will not be able to compete in foreign markets. That will then result, we are told, in a general liquidation and something like a financial panic. This line of reasonhas been constantly followed by he National City Bank, credited with being the fiscal agent of the Standard of the money trust. How well it is grounded in reason we need not de-

Dats opened unchanged to ½c higher, and were steady following. Barley was ½c higher for September, while flax for October was 2¼c, and 2c for December higher.
