HATS OFF TODAY TO LITTLE SERBIA

Given Lion's Share of Honor in Capture of Monastir—Victory There is of Much Importance—Quiet on Western Front

London, Nov. 20.—The Serbians are given the lion's share of honor by the morning papers in discussing the fall of Monastir. The capture of Hill 1212 by the Serbians and their rapid advance to Hill 1878, threatening the Bulgarian's only avenue of retreat along the Pripet road, is considered the main factor in forcing the hasty evacuation of the city.

Military opinion insists that the allies must now advance toward Pripet, using Monastir as a base and from there to Neogin on the Vardar. From the latter town, they say that Bulgarian positions east of the Cerna could be outflanked and the frontier passes opened to the allied forces, which are now engaged northwest of Salomki. The fall of Monastir is considered as clearly showing the superiority of the allies over the German-Bulgarian forces in view of the formidable defenses which had been created around the city.

A Notable Victory.

Paris, Nov. 20.—Allied troops have been complete victors on the Macedonian front from the river Cerna to Lake Prespa, according to an announcement made by the French war office this afternoon.

This success reached its culmination yesterday with the entrance of French cavalry into Monastir at 8.30 a. m. During the same day French troops moved out to the north of Monastir and captured Hill No. 821 and other villages in this vicinity. They also took 650 prisoners and a considerable quantity of war material.

Must Quit Greece.

London, Nov. 20.—An Athens despatch says the German, Austro-Hungarian, Bulgarian and Turkish ministers to Greece have been informed by Vice-Admiral Du Fournet, commander of the allied fleet, that they must leave Greece by Wednesday.

Enemy Report

Berlin, Nov. 20.—The Austro-German campaign against the Roumanians and their Russian allies has gained further success. Near Comulping the Roumanians, whose forces are demoralized, made attacks yesterday but were repulsed.

New German formations have reached the Macedonian front. The new positions north of Monastir were taken up without pressure from the allies. Serb advances in the Moglenia region were repulsed.

Quiet on West Front

London, Nov. 20.—The war office announced today that the situation on the Franco-Belgian front is unchanged.

Paris, Nov. 20.—The French official communication re fighting in France says: "The night passed in relative quiet on all fronts."

Cold on East Front

Berlin, Nov. 20.—Operations along the eastern front have been only of a minor character. There has been no serious fighting activity has been limited.

Roumanians Still Give Way

Petrograd, Nov. 20.—The Roumanians are still retreating southward before the invading Austro-German troops in the Jial Valley region.

AUSTRALIAN GENERAL IS DEAD OF WOUNDS

London, Nov. 20.—Brigadier General Duncan J. Glasford died in France on November 12, as a result of a wound from a shell. He was one of the principal Australian commanders and was director of military training in Australia for four years preceding the war.

GERMANS AND BULGARS BEATEN AT MONASTIR ARE IN HEAD-LONG FLIGHT

London, Nov. 20.—The retreat of the German-Bulgarian force from Monastir in the direction of Pripet is a debacle, from Rome. The Entente troops are pursuing the fleeing foe and have occupied villages north of Monastir, taking prisoners as they advanced.

The Serbians are delaying entering which have virtually destroyed the city

SCRIPTURE USED TO GET OUT NEWS OF FAMINE AND SCOURGE IN SULTAN'S LAND

A message evidently intended to convey the news that Turkey is suffering from famine and cholera has been received by the American Board of Missions from a medical nurse who is engaged in Turkey. The message, which was received by postcard, appears in the November issue of the Christian Workers' magazine. Apparently the censorship rules forbade any reference to these conditions and the writer evaded the rule by quoting Scripture.

The message read: "We soon shall have to test the first part of Job 5-20, and still sooner, even now, the last of Psalm 91. Dr. Hamilton's famous remedy is much in demand here."

The first portion of Scripture quoted indirectly is "In famine he shall redeem thee from death," and the second "and from the noisome pestilence." The remedy mentioned is one used in cholera cases.

IN WALL STREET TODAY

New York, Nov. 20.—Amalgamation affected railroad brotherhoods and twelve unions of other railroad workers in effort to obtain eight-hour day for all railway employes.

Dow Jones & Company estimates that United States Steel in 1916-17 will earn over $100 a share on common stock.

Wheat Via Hudson's Bay?

St. John, Nfld., Nov. 20.—The belief that the export of wheat from Western Canada to Europe by way of Hudson's Bay may be begun in the autumn of 1917 was expressed by officers of the Newfoundland sealing steamer Vascope, which has just returned after her last trip of the season to Fort Nelson.

They said that the construction of a railway from Winnipeg to Fort Nelson, and the building of shipping terminals at that port, warranted the expectation that a start on the use of the new route would be made before the close of navigation next fall.

MARRIED IN STATES

A wedding of interest took place in Springfield, Mass., on November 16, when Miss E. Garrick and Thomas H. Brown, formerly in business here, were united in marriage. The Springfield Union publishes the following:—

One of the late autumn weddings took place last night at eight o'clock when Miss Ella Garrick and Thomas H. Brown were married in the home of the bridegroom's sister, Mrs. James Lowery of 39 South Boulevard street, Milton.

Rev. Oliver Loud, Miss June Wood of Springfield was bridesmaid and John F. Brown, brother of the bridegroom, was best man. Mrs. Oliver B. Loud sang, "O Promise Me," and played the wedding march. The bride's dress was white chiffon over white silk and she carried a shower bouquet of white roses. The bridesmaid was dressed in white crepe de chine and carried pink and white carnations. Richard Brown presented the bride. The ceremony was performed under an arch of evergreen from which hung a large wedding bell. Many beautiful gifts were received of silver, cut glass, furniture and a purse of money. About seventy-five friends and relatives were present, some of whom were from St. John, N. B., the former home of the bride and bridegroom. After a wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Brown will reside in Portland street, where they will be at home to their friends after January 1.

PLAN TO BRING BRITISH WAR WIDOWS TO THIS COUNTRY AFTER WAR

Salvation Army Project Outlined by Commissioner Lamb

Expectation is that Many of the Women Will Find Husbands Among Canadian Farmers—Government Support Assured

Chicago, Nov. 20.—Thousands of British war widows and their children are to be transported to Canada with the expectation that many of the women will be married to Canadian farmers, according to plans outlined here today by David Lamb of London, commissioner of the international emigration society of the Salvation Army.

Commissioner Lamb, who has made a tour of Canada, said he had received assurances of the support of the plan from both the Canadian and the British governments.

"At the close of the war," he said, "men will return from trenches expecting, with reason, that their old positions, now filled by women, will be open to them. But women, especially widows with children, will not willingly give them up."

Mr. Lamb said that the demand for the privilege of such emigration was such as to enable the army to select only those suited physically and mentally to the good colonies. He added that no woman would be placed aboard ship until arrangements had been made for her employment.

CONGRATULATIONS TO LIBERAL CHIEFTAIN; 75 YEARS OLD TODAY

Ottawa, Ont., Nov. 20.—Sir Wilfrid Laurier celebrated his seventy-fifth anniversary of his birth. The former premier is in good health, apparently better than a year ago. ## DEPOSIT OF SILVER AND LEAD FOUND BY GUIDE

Fredrickton, N. B., Nov. 20.—What is believed to be a valuable deposit of silver and lead has been discovered at Windfall Hill, a hardwood ridge located in the Parish of Stanley, midway between the Taxis and Soudier rivers, Miramichi rivers. The find was made by Wm. Griffin, a guide, of Cross Creek. He has procured a provincial license and now has mining experts at work. The ore is said to be rich. Local capitalists are preparing to organize a company. J. E. Flanagan, of Montreal, a mining expert, was here last week looking into the proposition. He was well pleased with samples and intimated that he would be willing to take a financial interest.

The police on Saturday afternoon made a Scott Act raid on Long's hotel, and seized two bottles of liquor which they found in a man supposed to be employed there.

Ald. McLellan and City Engineer McKnight returned on Saturday from the upper provinces, where they purchased two snow plows for the city.

SAYS SOME OF 140TH HAVE BEEN UNDER FIRE

A letter received in Fredrickton today from Lieut. Bruce McFarlane of the 140th Battalion, says that men of his unit landed in France at twenty-nine days after leaving Canada. He says he occupies a dugout with Lieut. Willard McGooley of St. John, and Lieut. Aiden Good of Fredrickton. McFarlane's company took part in an engagement but suffered no casualties.

TWO NAMES MENTIONED

London, Nov. 20.—The most probable appointment to the position of food controller is considered to be Sir George Saltmarsh, formerly president of the London Corn Trade Association, and during the war the government's chief adviser on corn supplies, or Baron Devonport, chairman of the Port Authority of London, who is an all-round expert on shipping and food supply questions.

The Wheat Market

Chicago, Nov. 20.—Wheat developed strength today after a hesitating start. Word from Liverpool that supplies are not met requirements had a bullish effect. Opening prices here, which varied from 1-1/2 to 1-3/4, advanced, with December at 177-1/2 to 177-3/4, and May at 183-1/2 to 184-5/8, were followed by moderate losses all around and then by a decided upturn.

He was playing with a loaded cartridge when it exploded, injuring his left hand severely. He was brought to the General Public Hospital. Dr. Dunlop is in attendance.

One of Greatest Flights Ever Made By Airman

Particulars of Daring Attack on Munich Station by Captain de Beauchamps

London, Nov. 20.—A despatch to the London Times from Vienna says: All Italian aviation camps and anti-aircraft batteries had been notified of the flight of Captain de Beauchamps and were on the lookout for him.

Particulars of one of the greatest flights in the history of aviation are that the airman left the Haute Marne department at 7.30 a.m., on an aerial machine of the Nieuport model and in unfavorable weather conditions. His sole lay over Cologne and the Black Forest. He kept at a great height and eluded the vigilance of the Germans. The air currents were key, and at moments the enterprise seemed desperate. Munich was reached at midday, and the airman swooped down on the station and let fall six bombs from a height of a few hundred feet.

He says the effect of the explosion was quite visible.

Rising swiftly again, he flew south-east, following the valley of the Inn of Innsbruck. Reaching the lower Piave, he mistook it for the beginning of the Venetian Lagoons, and at 3.48 landed in a field near San Dona Di Piava. The aeroplane remained in perfect condition during the entire flight, but the motor and propeller were slightly damaged in the act of landing.

Beauchamps maintained a speed of slightly more than 60 miles an hour for the first three hours covered, and reached a height of between 12,000 and 16,000 feet. The velocity of the wind currents varied from sixteen feet a minute at 8,000 feet to seventy-two feet a minute at 10,000 feet. The French airman received a great welcome in Venice.

CALL FOR NEW MEN IN DELIBERATIONS OF BRITISH ADMIRALTY

London Newspapers Critical Because of Recent Happenings

Channel Raid and Submarine Operations Bases of Articles Suggesting That New Ideas be Brought into Play

London, Nov. 20.—There has been growing criticism of the Admiralty lately owing to the recent channel raid and the increase of submarine operations. The Post, Mail and Star commented pointedly on this subject last week, and the Daily Telegraph this morning, in a long editorial, says that the admiralty is strangely unaffected by changes due to the war.

It adds that the nation's faith in Admiral Jellicoe's fleet is undiminished but it is perhaps inevitable that the nation should wonder whether the admiralty would not gain fresh blood introduced into its deliberations. Above all things the nation needs a board of admiralty open to new methods.

"Would it not be well if seamen fresh from the sea, experienced in the phase of warfare now being pursued by the enemy, were given a more commanding voice in our naval affairs?"

WAGNER PLAYED; THE AUDIENCE QUIETLY PUT END TO CONCERT

Rome, Nov. 20.—An attempt to introduce some of Wagner's music into a concert conducted by Toscanini resulted in an uproar which brought the performance to a premature conclusion.

The orchestra had commenced the funeral march from Götterdämmerung when there were loud shouts of "It is for the victims of the Padua." A storm of imprecations against Wagner and Germany came from all parts of the great auditorium and the concert had to be abandoned.

PROTEST IN ROME AGAINST SLAYING OF NON-COMBATANTS IN PADUA

Paris, Nov. 20.—The private automobile is a luxury which can be dispensed with in war time, in the opinion of the economic commission, which urges the government to suppress without delay or reduce the number of automobiles not strictly utilized in the public service or destined for industrial or commercial uses. The report also recommends that the military authorities use the railroads if possible instead of automobiles and a careful check be kept on the use of oil and gasoline.

Churchill Writes Of The Fall Of Antwerp

Says Admiralty Had Urged Vigorous Measures

Valuable Time Lost, Adds Former Minister—"Situation Could Have Been Saved Week Earlier But Belgians, Unaided Too Long, Lost Confidence"

London, Nov. 20.—Colonel Winston Churchill, former First Lord of the Admiralty, who has been a prominent figure in newspaper discussions recently, yesterday began, in the Sunday Pictorial, a story of the siege and fall of Antwerp. He says that the admiralty at the outset urged the immense importance of Antwerp and the need of vigorous measures for its defense, but that nothing was done during the entire month of September.

Only when the German bombardment started and the insistent cry for help came from the Belgians, he says, did the Anglo-French governments consult and decide upon steps for relief.

Col. Churchill claims his visit to Antwerp saying: "It was a natural decision of a small group of ministers who met at Lord Kitchener's house at midnight that someone in authority, who knew the whole situation, should travel swiftly into the city and ascertain what should be done."

The article concludes with the statement that the situation could have been saved a week earlier, but Belgians left unaided too long, lost confidence.

New York, Nov. 20.—Twenty unexploded bombs were found in the sugar cargo of the American steamer Sarnia, upon her arrival at Cherbourg, France, after a voyage, starting from New York on September 2, during which the vessel caught fire from a cause unknown, according to Fourth Mate Wybrance of the Sarnia, who arrived here today on the American Line steamer New York from Liverpool.

Sugar made up the bulk of the cargoes of the Sarnia and the barge Avondale, which she had in tow, upon leaving New York. The fire set was extinguished without serious damage, Wybrance said, and the two vessels put in at Havre to discharge part of the cargo. It was not until they reached Cherbourg that the sugar was unloaded.

HOW LONG CAN GERMANY HOLD OUT?

If you think of Germany in terms of a contestant in a relay race, with her rivals putting in a fresh runner at each heat—now French, now Russian, and last of all British—while the German runner has to make the whole course alone, you will exactly catch the idea that is in the Allied mind and the basic principle of Allied strategy.

We may have a whole year of pounding before there is any real evidence of exhaustion; conceivably more, although this is unlikely, but the inexorable logic of a war of attrition must not be mistaken, and the attention of observers should not be distracted from this solid detail by any brilliant strategic combination which wins a local triumph against a new foe at the cost of another day of casualties, which must hasten the day of ultimate exhaustion.

Effects of the Verdun Failure

Barometer Which Shows How The War Goes

Campaign a Failure

Somme Front Battle Not Yet Decided, But Also Points to Certainty of Allied Victory

With the evacuation of Fort Vaux by the Germans, the great enterprise at Verdun may be said to have come to an end, with Germany suffering defeat in the third great battle in France. She was beaten at the Marne; she has been beaten at Verdun; she is losing on the Somme, but the Somme battle continues. The Brooklyn Eagle in considering the Battle of Verdun observes that all great movements have their own barometers, sure indicators of the measure of success they are achieving.

All the world knows what the Germans tried to do at Verdun, although there will always be difference of opinion as to its effect upon the military situation had the effort succeeded. The immediate aim was to take Verdun. Had this been accomplished the political effect in Germany would have been good, and equally bad in France. Would the capture of Verdun have been followed by another desperate effort of the Germans to reach Paris, not from Verdun, but from a point further north where the German lines are still only about fifty miles from the French capital?

All Have Failed.

The Allied offensive along the Somme is the answer to the German contention that the streets of Verdun would make it impossible for the Entente powers to make any great effort this year. The fact that the French have been able to capture the positions which the Germans took months to occupy is an answer to the claim that the defence of Verdun was such a costly effort that for the purpose of relieving the French army. From whatever angle the battle may be regarded, it is seen that the capture of Verdun would have been a great stroke.

The German Goal.

Had the Germans achieved their objective in the course of the summer they would merely have made a dent in the French lines; the lines would have been moved back from one set of trenches to another set of trenches. Whether the Germans did throughout the summer make really desperate efforts to take the town may be doubted. They may have concluded either that it could not be taken, although there is a well-defined rumor to the effect that Joffre was always willing to let them have it at a price, or that the political and military value of the capture was not worth the German lives that would be sacrificed.

The Tide Turns.

Then the French suddenly struck, and took the greater part of Fleury. The gain was not important, but it was significant at the height of the offensive along the Somme the Allies were still strong enough to undertake an offensive at Verdun. For some weeks before this time the German official reports had failed to make any particular mention of Verdun. The Kaiser and his advisers were hoping that the German people would be forgetting that there was such a place, that it was the scene of one of the greatest battles in the world's history, a German defeat of unprecedented magnitude. In the past few days a remarkable change has come over the German communique, for Berlin announced the loss of Fort Vaux before Paris did. The German people were told months ago that Vaux was one of the keys to Verdun; they know now that the key has been wrested from the falling grip of the Crown Prince. If the attack upon Verdun was undertaken chiefly as a political move, it may prove a boomerang, and may become as important in the internal history of Germany as in the military history of the war.

Little Courtesies of War.

The Young Lady (going on a visit across seas, to nervous aunt)—We're all right, Auntie. Don't you worry about the voyage, it's soon over. Besides, I expect we shall have destroyers to look after us.

Prisoner—Dunno, ma'am.

Lady Visitor—How can that be? You must have been sentenced for a definite period.

South Shore Service

The recommendation of the St. John board, looking to an improved service between St. John and Yarmouth and intermediate points, has been approved by the Trade and Commerce Department. Under the terms of this recommendation, the present contractors are required to place on the route a steamship of a capacity of not less than 1,500 tons, and a speed of eleven knots, in each year between St. John and Yarmouth, calling en route at Tiverton, Westport and Preepoot, both ways, and to serve by a subsidiary steamer, on through rates, the ports of Sandy Cove, Mink Cove, Little River and Weymouth.

The Port Arthur board of trade has passed a resolution endorsing that of the St. John board, regarding "Canadian Ports and Canadian Railways for Canadian Business."

The secretary of the London, England, Chamber of Commerce, in acknowledging the receipt of the St. John board's resolution, urging the shipment of goods between Great Britain and Canada through Canadian ports, says it will mention the subject in a special circular to members.

SIR SAM'S SUCCESSOR

Ottawa, Ont., Nov. 20—The appointment of a successor to General Sir Sam Hughes is expected to be made by Sir Robert Borden soon after his return from New York on Wednesday. Political circles fully expect it to be Hon. A. E. Kemp, unless his work on the war purchasing commission be regarded as occupying too much of his time. In any event the new minister will be relieved of much of his work by the parliamentary secretary, F. B. McCurdy.

FOOD SOURING IN STOMACH CAUSES INDIGESTION, GAS

"Pape's Diapepsin" ends all stomach distress in five minutes

Wonder what upset your stomach— which portion of the food did the danger do you? Well, don't bother. If your stomach is in a revolt; if sour, gassy and upset, and what you just ate has fermented into stubborn lumps; head dizzy and aches; belch gases and acids and eructate undigested food; breath foul, tongue coated—just take a little Pape's Diapepsin and in five minutes you wonder what became of the indigestion and distress.

Millions of men and women today know that it is needless to have a bad stomach. A little Diapepsin occasionally keeps this delicate organ regulated and they eat their favorite foods without fear.

If your stomach doesn't take care of your liberal limit without rebellion; if your food is a damage instead of a help, remember the quickest, surest, most harmless relief is Pape's Diapepsin which costs only fifty cents for a large case at drug stores. It's truly wonderful—it digests food and sets things straight, so gentle and easily that it is really astonishing. Please, for your sake, don't go on and on with a weak, disordered stomach; it's so unnecessary.

season of popularity for this theatre. The house is to be congratulated on its judgment of what the people want, and especially in providing it, giving something really good.

The performance opened with a two-reel comedy picture "Cold Hearts and Hot Flames," one of the L-Ko comedies, this one featuring the inimitable Billy Ritchie in an exceptionally good comedy picture. It introduced some things that were new even in these days when the field has been well sown for novel ideas. It afforded a lot of amusement.

The first vaudeville act was that of The Todd-Nards, equilibrist and hand balancers. They proved a very agile pair of young men who go through astounding athletic feats with enviable nonchalance. It is a snappy act, and it took with everybody. When it was concluded the success of the vaudeville policy was assured.

Mazarto and Rosa appeared in a refined musical act which won hearty applause. Mazarto introduced something new in the playing of two clarinets at one time and Miss Rosa sang and accompanied herself on the cello. There were other very taking features in this act.

The Sterlings provided a western act, with bright dialogue, some songs and a very clever exhibition of rifle shooting, which won the hearty plaudits of the audience. In all it was a very bright, clean and satisfying performance and there were many expressions of satisfaction as the people filed out after enjoying it. There has been practically a new stage erected and very pretty scenery as well as good lighting effects installed to make the Gem ready for the change in its amusement policy. The programme given on last Saturday will be continued until Wednesday when there will be a change of pictures, while the vaudeville artists will introduce some new features.

Theater Crowded to Capacity and Everybody Enjoys Three Clever Acts and a Comedy Picture

That the Gem management has correctly gauged the desires of the people of St. John was abundantly evident on Saturday when the popular Waterloo street amusement house changed from motion pictures to three excellent vaudeville acts and one two reel "movie." Patronage was large at the afternoon performance at half past two o'clock, but it was overwhelming in the evening when, at both performances, 7:15 and 8:30 o'clock, the house was crowded to capacity; in fact for the second performance it was quite an accomplishment to get past the ticket taker. Inauguration of the change of policy at the Gem was a decided success and assured a new

Buy Rubbers and Overshoes For Their Little Feet and at the Same Time Save the Expensive Shoes From Injury by Water, Ice and Snow

The woman who has several little tots to provide with shoes will welcome the announcement that, through the efforts of the British Government, the price of rubber has been reduced so that the rubber shoes that keep the little ones' feet dry have not advanced in price, as other footwear has. Here's an opportunity for the mother to keep the kiddies dry-shod and, at the same time, save the expensive little shoes, that have almost doubled in price.

Mothers should buy rubbers this fall, not only to keep the children's feet dry, but to keep the fall rains and the snow water from rotting the expensive leather in their shoes. The economical woman will appreciate this and at the same time hers will be a patriotic act, a service to the British Government, every time she buys a pair of rubbers. 21

By "Looping the Loop" British Aviator Gets "Drop" on Enemy

Before the war exhibition flights in which "looping the loop" was the great attraction packed our acroderome grounds with holiday sightseers. The performance at that time was considered nothing but a freak of nerves and reckless daring—a "circus trick"—but nothing more. Its possible utility was scoffed at. The war has changed that. "Looping the loop" has proved to be a very valuable air battle evolution. By "looping the loop" a British aviator brought about the defeat and destruction of an enemy seaplane.

Hullum, an aviator, was petrolling in the air off Ostend. When he was at a height of 12,000 feet he noticed about 500 feet below him a German seaplane. Shooting down at the plane did not appear to him, as sailing from a height at a movable object below would not meet with any success, so he decided performing the "looping the loop," which would bring him below the enemy.

of escaping, he had to give battle. Well aware that he was a capital target for the British aviator, he moved in all directions to lessen the danger of being hit, the British pilot following all the movements. The seaplane slid down, and Hullum again looped the loop, coming about 100 feet below the enemy. The British pilot commenced firing, and after a short battle he hit the seaplane in its vital parts, bringing it down headlong in flames—London Illustrated News.

YOUR RIGHTS IN THE STREET. Another judge has reminded the Canadian public that the pedestrian has certain very important rights which must not be overridden by drivers of teams, trams, or motor cars, and which will not be overridden if the ordinary citizen is aware of his rights, and those in authority keep themselves posted in regard to the law and its relation to modern traffic conditions.

The first thing to be noted is that a man who drives a motor car rapidly through traffic and keeps sounding his horn on the assumption that pedestrians are supposed to be deaf for safety every time they hear the alarm is not relying upon any legal or reasonable fact. A first essential is that those charged with the regulation of traffic should understand thoroughly the rights of all concerned, and should govern themselves accordingly.

We take from the Montreal Mail some portions of a recent decision by Mr. Justice Cross in a case in the Court of Appeal. He was giving judgment in favor of a pedestrian who was injured in a street car collision. Justice Cross said: "One cannot but be impressed with the conviction that conditions of present-day city street traffic are quite unduly adapted to the peril of the pedestrian. Formerly, he had not much to fear but butchers' carts and runaway horses. Now he must contend with out for tram cars and for silently-running motor-vehicles which may come from various directions. Because the great majority of pedestrians, for the sake of bodily safety, run for shelter like hunted animals when they hear the car going or motor horn, pedestrians are in danger of coming to think that such vehicles have some sort of right of way over foot-passengers."

"That delusion may perhaps be strengthened if it be found that traffic-regulating policemen confine their attention to vehicles as if pedestrians deserved no consideration. "It should be made clear that such an idea will find no acceptance in a court of law. It should be made clear that the King's highways are for the use of all his subjects and all peaceful wayfarers, and that if there is to be any regulation at crossing and busy places it should be in the way of giving the greatest protection to those who use it most."

This is indeed most healthful and public-spirited doctrine. The Times commend it not only to pedestrians, but to owners of vehicles of all sorts, and particularly to the police authorities and those judges who have to do with cases arising from traffic accidents. Justice is the basis of all law—justice and regard for the public welfare. Mr. Justice Cross very properly points out that traffic policemen too frequently overlook the rights of pedestrians, and forget that the drivers of vehicles of all sorts have no more claim upon the foot of the streets than those on foot. Inasmuch as the street car, the motor car, or the delivery wagon has more motive power than the citizen foot, the drivers of such vehicles are tempted to take advantage of their superior force. Yielding to that temptation should be checked by traffic policemen in the first instance, and by judges in court if the case passes beyond the sphere of police regulation.

There is no reason in the world why pedestrians should hop about, as Mr. Justice Cross says, "like hunted animals." With increasing traffic there is bound to be more congestion, but modern conditions have in no way abridged the freedom of the individual, and those charged with authority will do well to keep this fact in mind. Since carelessness or timidity with respect to the assertion of the rights of individuals is bound to lead to increased encroachment upon and growing loss of those rights, it is highly important that the average citizen should know his rights and should not hesitate to insist upon them within reason.

Traffic conditions in St. John, have changed very materially during the last few years, and from many recent occurrences it would appear well that the sound doctrine contained in the judgment of Mr. Justice Cross should be given careful consideration.

NEW USE FOR AEROPLANES. In the strenuous days through which we are passing, the aeroplane is commanding more and more attention as an adjunct to the armies of the contending nations. Almost daily we read of contests in the air, and on some days these aerial combats on the battle front in France alone have reached as large a number as sixty or seventy. The army aviator has become the eyes of the land forces, for he seeks out the position of the enemy battery and, by signalling to the force below, designates this position and so directs the artillery fire. Much of the recent success of the Allies on the western front has been due to the courage, vigilance, ability and superiority in numbers and quality of machines of the British and French air patrols over the German over-land routes.

In peaceful pursuits we also see the aeroplane coming into more general use. It has already been utilized as a speedy mail carrier; it is used as a passenger transport across the English channel in war work; and now we find it in operation as a fire patrol in one or two of the wooded states in the American republic. The main object in this use of air craft is the prompt discovery of forest fires, and the quick notification of the forest rangers so that prompt steps may be goods. It watches the importing merchants, examines invoices and books of account, authorizes its agents to enter warehouses where imported goods are stored. It has keen-eyed detectives looking out for infractions to be noted. It has agents investigating the working of the anti-dumping laws, which are intended to prevent the undervaluation of imports. All these laws are thoroughly enforced.

What is the reason? There are two powerful motives for enforcement. First, the Dominion government wants the revenue. Second, the protected manufacturers are keenly interested in preventing the importation of such goods as they produce. If they hear of any infraction of the customs laws, it is to their interest to let the government know, and the government is glad to get the information. But at the same time the government does not wait to receive information—it seeks out offences against these laws. The Star's contention has been that the consumers' interests are entitled to the same kind of guardianship by the government.

AS THE MANUFACTURER IS PROTECTED BY THE DOMINION GOVERNMENT, SO THE CONSUMER OUGHT TO BE PROTECTED, AND THE DOMINION GOVERNMENT OUGHT TO TAKE THE WHOLE RESPONSIBILITY FOR ENFORCEMENT, AND ORGANIZE A STAFF FOR THAT PURPOSE. There would be an additional motive for energetic enforcement if all excess profits were taken for public purposes. The Dominion government would then be as eager to collect the revenue from profits as it is now eager to collect the revenue from imports. The collectors would vie with each other in their zeal for big returns.

Not only so, but the taking of excess profits would discourage the making of such profits. There would be no object in piling up big profits if it were known that every dollar of them went into the public treasury instead of into the pockets of the manufacturer or middleman. In this way profits would be automatically reduced, and the consumer would get the benefit of lower prices. The cheaper the goods, the bigger the sale, and the manufacturer would rather sell a large quantity at the lower price than a small quantity at the higher price. The higher price would be of no use to the seller, because the difference would go into the public treasury. Let the Dominion government take the whole of the excess profits in taxation, and organize a staff of agents to collect the money and enforce the law. And let it be as keen at prosecuting and punishing offenders against the law for the protection of the consumer as it now is about prosecuting and punishing smugglers.

WILSON'S POPULAR VOTE His Remarkable Gain Over His 1912 Figures—Hughes Exceeded the Vote of Both Taft and Roosevelt (Robert C. Brooks of Swarthmore, Pa. in the Philadelphia Public Ledger.) In 1912 Taft and Roosevelt together polled 7,609,942 popular votes, or only a few thousand less than the popular vote of the Republican party in 1908 and 1904. This year Mr. Hughes polled 8,160,401 popular votes, an increase of only 550,459, or 7 2-10 per cent. over 1912. Mr. Wilson's vote in 1912 was 6,286,214, or less than Mr. Bryan received each of the three times he ran for the presidency. This year Mr. Wilson's popular vote rose to 8,568,713, an increase of 2,277,499, or 36 2-10 per cent. over 1912. In other words, while the Republican party has taken a feeble step forward, the Democratic party has gone ahead with seven-league boots. Mr. Wilson's gains in the separate states are amazing. To cite first those which he carried, the figures in thousands for 1912 and 1916 are as follows: California 288 to 466; Idaho, 84 to 68; North Dakota, 29 to 54; Ohio, 423 to 578; Utah, 86 to 77; Wyoming, 15 to 25. In the states where women voted for the first time his gains over 1912 are even more amazing, thus, in thousands again: Kansas, from 143 to 215; Mon-

PAINS IN SIDE AND BACK How Mrs. Kelly Suffered and How She was Cured.

Burlington, Wis.—"I was very irregular, and had pains in my side and back, but after taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Tablets and using two bottles of the Sanative Wash I am fully convinced that I am entirely cured of these troubles, and feel better all over. I know your remedies have done me worlds of good and I hope every suffering woman will give them a trial."—Mrs. A. W. KELLY, 710 Chestnut Street, Burlington, Wis.

The many convincing testimonials constantly published in the newspapers ought to be proof enough to women who suffer from those distressing ills peculiar to their sex that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the medicine they need. This good old root and herb remedy has proved unequalled for these dreadful ills; it contains what is needed to restore woman's health and strength. If there is any peculiarity in your case requiring special advice, write the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential), Lynn, Mass., for free advice.

Wilson's popular vote in Pennsylvania this year shows a gain over 1912 of 116,110, or 29 1-10 per cent. Hughes' popular vote in Pennsylvania actually fell below the combined vote of Taft and Roosevelt in 1912 by 22,610 votes a decline of 8 1-10 per cent. All over the country, therefore, there was a mighty upsurge of Democracy. Everywhere it broke through the crust with volcanic violence except in the northeastern quarter of the country and even there it produced a ground swell that has shattered old political landmarks.

The Hour of No Regrets. (A Sunday Morning Review.) No smile too sweet, no kiss too long, No fib too neat, nor sip too strong, No costly dower of dainty debts, Besmirch that hour of no regrets.

No blighted troth, no worthless shares No speeches worth, no nested mares, No soul to scour, no boastful lies, Mar that brief hour of no regrets. No trumpet nose, no nightmare shock, Broke bounds from 2 to 3 o'clock, Nor penance waits, nor sorrow frets My holy hour of no regrets. How black so'er my past may be, I did no sin from 2 to 3. Time in a golden circle sets That jewelled hour of no regrets. —A. W. in the London Chronicle

CANADIANS SHARE IN BRITISH ADVANCE

With the British Armies in France, Nov. 18, Via London, Nov. 19—British and Canadian troops won a battle in a snowstorm this morning. Advancing on both sides of the river in easterly and northerly directions they took about 800 prisoners, and established a new line on both sides and at the edge of the village of Grandcourt, for the possession of which severe fighting continued throughout the day.

London, Nov. 19—After having been for some months men without a country the Serbians are again to establish their capital on native soil. Monastir, for which the Entente forces have been struggling since the advance from their base at Saloniki began, has been evacuated by the German and Bulgarian forces, and occupied by the French and a considerable number of Serbs.

On the Transylvania front the Austro-Germans, at almost all points, continue to make progress against the Russian and Roumanian forces, or to hold them back without gains when they attack.

The body will be brought here for burial, arriving by train on Thursday morning and interment will be made at Seaview.

Frederick C. Parker.
 Many will be sorry to learn of the death of Frederick Cyprian Parker, son of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Parker, who passed away yesterday after a lingering illness at his parents' home, 27 Goodrich street.

Mr. Parker, who was popularly known as "Happy," because of his sunny and cheerful disposition, was widely known about the city and was held in the very highest regard by all who knew him. He had been ailing for the last nine years, but was not considered permanently ill until the first of this year. During the last few years he had been engaged in business with his father, who is local manager for the Confederation Life Association.

He leaves to mourn besides his parents, two brothers—Ralph of the "Z" trench mortar battery, who is now at the front, and Gerald, at home; also one sister, Mildred, at home.

Joseph Baxter
 Joseph Baxter, for fifty years one of St. John's best known and most respected citizens, died yesterday at his residence, 275 Charlotte street, at the advanced age of 86 years. The sympathy of many friends will go out to the family in their latest bereavement as the funeral of Mrs. Baxter was held yesterday afternoon, she having died just three days before her husband. The late Mr. Baxter was a native of Dumfries, Scotland, but coming to St. John half a century ago, has since been a resident of the city where he has been widely known and greatly esteemed. Mr. Baxter's calling has been the sea and for many years he was identified with the Troop ships which made such a name for St. John in foreign parts. For years Mr. Baxter was also connected with the ferry service but, of late years, he has been retired, though in fairly good health, considering his years. There was no better known resident of the south-western part of the city than the late Mr. Baxter and his death will be regretted by his many friends. He leaves to mourn one son, T. L. Baxter, and two daughters, the Misses Florence and Jennie Baxter. In June last the late Mr. and Mrs. Baxter reached the golden jubilee of their wedding. Mr. Baxter has been one of the prominent members of St. John the Baptist church and, with exception of the time of the St. John fire, has resided at his late residence for a great many years.

The funeral will be held tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock from his late residence, 275 Charlotte street to St. John the Baptist church.

The funeral of Mrs. Margaret Baxter was attended by a large number of friends and was held yesterday afternoon, at 2:30 o'clock from her late residence, 275 Charlotte street, to St. John the Baptist church. The funeral service was read by Rev. F. J. McMurray in the presence of a large number of sympathizing friends and burial was made in the new Catholic cemetery. Relatives of the deceased bore the pall.

The death is announced at Mount St. Vincent's Convent, Halifax, of Sister Regina, for over half a century a sister of charity. Sister Regina was Miss Burns, a sister of the late Hon. Kennedy F. Burns of Bathurst. She was a half-sister of T. M. Burns of Bathurst.

SHIP WAR SUPPLIES THROUGH CANADIAN PORTS

According to recent reports springing from authoritative sources, it is learned that the request of the different Canadian boards of trade throughout the maritime provinces that so far as possible all goods be shipped through Canadian ports, instead of through American ocean cuts, has been complied with and the result will be that St. John will benefit greatly by the decision in the matter.

Children Had Eczema Doctors Failed to Cure

Two Letters Which Prove the Efficiency of Dr. Chase's Ointment as a Cure for Eczema.

Fortunate are the mothers who know the virtue of Dr. Chase's Ointment, for there is no treatment so suitable for use after the bath to relieve irritation and chafing and to thereby prevent eczema and similar skin diseases.

Mrs. W. L. Barnes, Timmins, Ont., writes: "I want to tell you about the case of my little boy, who had baby eczema when he was three months old. It started on the top of his head, on his forehead and around his ears. The doctors failed to do him any good, so I tried Dr. Chase's Ointment on the recommendation of a friend, and in a month's time the child was entirely free of this disagreeable skin disease. He is now four years old, and has never had any further trouble from ailments of this kind. I also have great faith in Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, and believe that it cannot be beaten as a restorative for bald, nervous women."

Mrs. George McNair, River Charles, N. B., writes: "We use Dr. Chase's Ointment in our home, and would not wish for anything better for cuts, burns and bruises. A few years ago a friend of mine, whose baby was terribly afflicted with eczema had her child treated by their own family physician, but the little one got no better. They tried several remedies, but they all proved useless in this case. Upon the advice of a neighbor they got Dr. Chase's Ointment, and before the first box was used the child was completely cured. I can also recommend Dr. Chase's Nerve Food to suffering friends who I know will be glad to learn of something to relieve their nervous trouble. You have my permission to use this letter for the benefit of others."

WINDSOR HOTEL DIVIDEND.

The Windsor Hotel Company of Montreal has just declared its first dividend in two years--one of four per cent. for the year ended October 31 last, payable on December 1. In 1914 the company paid a total of 4 per cent in two half yearly distributions of 2-1/2 per cent and 1-1/2 per cent, against 5 per cent in 1913, and 10 per cent, previously. The war, of course, has largely affected the hotel business, but this dividend should be once more forthcoming indicates a greatly improved situation.

THE MARKETS AT A GLANCE

The following comment on the market situation as regards food stuffs appeared in Canadian Grocer last week: An upward tendency is still the keynote in food products. Flour is now well over $10 a barrel, the actual quotation being $10.40 Toronto, in car lots. Sugar is slightly easier in the market, due to the lower price paid for raws in New York. All Canadian refiners are again quoting on the same basis; the three refiners who were quoting fifteen cents above the other manufacturer have returned to the lower level. This does not mean that there has actually been a decline in sugar. While sugar was quoted by three refiners at 15 cents above one other refiner, sales were actually made by all refiners on the basis of the lowest quotation. Provisions of all kinds are firm. Live hogs hold near the level of last week. New laid eggs continue to be even scarcer and are quoted two cents to five cents a dozen higher. Butter inclines to higher levels. Cheese advanced a half cent a pound. Pure lard and compound lard went up a half cent. Owing to the big demand for cottonseed oil used in compound lard there has been a firming tendency. There has been a big demand for fats and oils of all kinds and in the face of easier prices for live hogs lard has been advancing. Fancy Barbadoes molasses is firm and higher in price. Evaporated apples advanced during the week. All dried fruits are firm in price. Some Australian currants are being brought into the Toronto market. Beans are at high levels, with advances recorded during the week. Considerable quantities of foreign beans are being brought in. Canned salmon in certain brands is higher in price. The Canadian market has absorbed large quantities of American canned goods. It is conservatively estimated

He is well known in St. John as "Big Alf." His home was in this city up until five years ago.

A St. John Man. Major Eric MacDonald, of St. John (N. B.), probably the youngest major in the Canadian forces, was selected to command the guard of honor on the occasion of the Duke of Cornwall's visit to the Canadian troops at the front.

Ambulance Draft. It is reported that another overseas draft has been called from the No. 8 Field Ambulance Corps. The second draft, it is understood, will consist of positions while the first one, which has not yet sailed, calls for thirty-five men. To Clean Hair Brushes. Take a cupful of cornmeal and fill the brush, rubbing gently with the hand. As it absorbs the grease and dirt shake it out and use fresh meal till the brush is cleaned thoroughly. This is better than ammonia, as there is no water to injure or loosen the back of the brush.

Salt dissolved in alcohol will often remove grease spots from clothing.

EXCRUCIATING PAINS IN THE BACK CAN BE CURED BY USING DOAN'S KIDNEY PILLS

Many women suffer from excruciating pains in the back. They are not even able to look after the common duties of their household. The whole trouble is that the kidneys have become affected. On the first sign of a weak, lame, aching back you should not neglect it, for if you do some serious kidney trouble will follow.

What you want is a kidney remedy, not a "cure all," but a remedy for the kidneys only. This you will find in Doan's Kidney Pills. Mrs. Wm. L. Peck, Sardis, B. C., writes: "I have the greatest pleasure in telling you that I used three boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills and I find that I am entirely cured after having suffered for two years. My back used to hurt me so that I would almost cry out with the pain. I would advise any one suffering from kidney trouble to go at once and get a box of Doan's Kidney Pills."

WEAK, AILING CHILDREN Made Well and Strong by Simple Remedy.

Here is another letter that has just come to our attention, showing the power of Vinol to build up health and strength for weak, puny, ailing children. Mrs. F. Humphries, of Oshawa, Ont., says: "I wish to say that I am more than pleased with your Vinol. I have a little boy who is four years old and for the past three years he has been very delicate. Every little while he would be ill with his chest and lungs, and each time the doctors would say there was very little hope for his recovery; and after he would pull through it would leave him weaker every time. He was terribly pale and had no energy at all. He would sit a whole morning or afternoon looking at pictures or playing with any little thing but would not run about. At last I made up my mind to try Vinol, having read of it in one of your books which I had from Mrs. J. Lovell; and he had taken only half of one bottle when I could see a decided improvement in him. He now runs about all day long and is looking much brighter and more color in his face; and I tell every one it is Vinol that did him good." Mrs. Humphries, Duke Street, Oshawa, Ont.

(American Sportsman.) When a man bets his money, tries for his very life, and is beaten, then gets chesty and spreads the word around that he did not win on account of his desire to avoid a record so late in the season, he is a detriment to the sport, and, unfortunately, he has too many of such individuals. Just such talk causes many of the innocent bystanders to conclude that the light harness sport is made up in the most part of cheats. We like to see a man active in the sport who is a true sportsman and is willing to admit, when defeated, that the achievement was a true bill on that day at least.

EVEN CROSS, SICK CHILDREN LOVE SYRUP OF FIGS

If Feverish, Bilious, Constipated, Give Fruit Laxative at Once. Don't scold your fretful, peevish child. See if tongue is coated; this is a sure sign its little stomach, liver and bowels are clogged with sour waste. When listless, pale, feverish, full of cold, breath bad, throat sore, doesn't eat, sleep or act naturally, has stomach-ache, indigestion, diarrhoea, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the foul waste, the sour bile and fermenting food passes out of the bowels and you have a well and playful child again. Children love this harmless "fruit laxative," and mothers can rest easy after giving it, because it never fails to make their little "inside" clean and sweet.

Haig's Triumph Won by Science

Result of Monday's Battle Testifies to Careful Preparation

German Road for Supplies, Bridge Across the Ancre and Machine Gun Positions Subjected to Continual Bombardment by British Artillery

(By Percival Gibbon in Toronto Globe) With the British Army on the Somme, Nov. 18.—The moment has not even yet arrived when it is possible to enumerate the whole of our gains in Monday's great battle, for our gains on the ground are enlarging themselves while I write. Two thousand or so prisoners of last night have already grown to some 5,000, and the glorious total of Douaumont is in sight, and the machine guns which we failed to discover in the fight, dotted like poisonous weeds among the long galleries of the wonderful "tunnel" at St. Pierre Division.

Scientific Preparation. What was lacking in the first accounts as they came up in the stress of those hours when our men were yet digging in their new gun lines, and while there were yet caches and pockets of undetected Germans in little isolated trenches about the countryside, he said that he was crossing the scientific co-ordination of the means of war which made the victory on this scale possible. The moment of assault when the barrage lifted and pounced forward and the eager infantry waves flowed over the parapets came only at the close of long stages of detailed and scientific preparation. In that section of the field which lay south of the An-cre, for example, our victory reveals how complete was our previous observation of enemy dispositions of strength and communications. His one practicable road for supplies and relief, was peppered with shrapnel by day and night, his bridges across the Ancre were shelled continually, his machine gun positions were covered by our shells, and his communications were cut. Doses of intense fire and the day of attack happened to be on which the 89th Division was being relieved by the 1st Division of the New Land 23rd, so both divisions were caught on the ground and held there by our barrage to swell the number of dead and prisoners.

The pockets made a curious situation. They varied in quality from desperate and brave men who came suddenly out of the earth when our men had passed to seize their legitimate advantage of ambush and open fire on them from trenches, to poor limpid creatures, dazed and unmanned by the shelling, who came timidly up from the broken ditches and followed along with hands above their heads.

They were rounded. How often we hear it said of a man or woman that "they were rounded in health," which accounts for their present sickness. For that reason it is important that when you find you tire easily, when your nerves are troublesome or your work is irksome, you should strengthen your system immediately with the blood-enriching, tissue-building food in Scott's Emulsion which contains the purest cod liver oil and is free from harmful drugs.

WAGE INCREASES FOR LONGSHOREMEN AND COAL HANDLERS. Following a compromise offer of two and one-half cents per hour, offered by steamship companies at a meeting of their representatives and a delegation from the St. John Longshoremen, held at Montreal last week, the local branch cast an almost unanimous vote yesterday afternoon to accept the proposition, and their wages for the winter will be $7-1-2 cents per hour, against their original request of 40 cents. More than 800 men

Coal Handlers. One hundred and fifty coal handlers in the port of St. John are going to work this morning, under an advance of 15 cents an hour over their old winter schedule, which allowed them 88 cents an hour for winter work and 40 cents for summer.

Mr. Dickie's Farewell. Rev. Gordon Dickie, pastor of St. Stephen's church, preached his farewell sermon last night. He took as his text: "I am not ashamed of the Gospel of Jesus Christ." Mr. and Mrs. Dickie will leave tonight for Sydney where they will take the steamer for St. John's, Newfoundland, where Mr. Dickie will be minister of the Presbyterian church.

Ferronose is the best preparation for brain workers, and those inclined to a sedentary life. It improves the appetite, insures good digestion, regulates the bowels, and helps the stomach to do its work. Lawyers, ministers, and those whose occupation entails much thinking and brain labor, will find Ferronose of immense value, because of its power to stimulate mental activity. Students who take Ferronose regularly, find it not only clears the brain, and makes it more receptive, but makes them strong in body as well as mind.

ANYONE SEE THEM?
Chief of Police Simpson is in receipt of a letter from Boston asking him to attempt to find a bunch of keys said to have been lost in this city. The letter was dated November 16, and contained the information that while a dog set was being played in the Imperial theatre the keys unlocking the dog cages had been lost between the Lansdowne House and the head of King street during the week of November 6. From the tone of the letter it would indicate that the keys were very valuable and could be replaced only at considerable cost.

Another forward step is under contemplation by the season and trustee congregation of St. David's Presbyterian church. These boards are recommending that a deaconess be appointed by the congregation to assist the minister in the work among the strangers and the needy. The recommendation will be dealt with at the annual meeting of the congregation in January. Whether it will be adopted will depend largely upon a canvass which is to be made among the members of the congregation this week. A much larger sum than the present revenue is being asked of the congregation to meet the demands for 1917 and the canvass is intended to demonstrate how much of the required sum will be forthcoming.
