JURY VISIT SCENE, THEN SAY GUILTY

Gardiner Claims That He was Trying to Catch Guilty Party.

After deliberating for two hours and then visiting the scene in automobiles, a jury in the County Court this afternoon returned a verdict of guilty against Frank Gardiner, charged with attempting to break and enter the store of Altek Taylor near East St. John.

Judge J. A. Barry, who presided, adjourned the court until June 10, when civil cases will be taken up. Gardiner will likely be sentenced at that time.

W. M. Ryan conducted the prosecution and W. A. Ross appeared on behalf of the prisoner.

Evidence for the crown was given by Mr. Taylor, who owned the store, and Detective Saunders and Kilpatrick, who made the arrest.

Prisoner on Stand. Taking the stand in his own defence, the prisoner said that there was a shower being held at his home that evening and, as he did not care to arrive home before the ladies had left the house, he took a walk as far as the dry dock. While in the vicinity of the Taylor store, he said, he heard a crash and immediately afterwards saw a man run from the store; he followed in an effort to overtake the culprit, picking up a stone on the way and putting it in his pocket. The other man disappeared and a few minutes later the detectives grabbed himself. He said he told them about the other man but that they refused to go in search of him. This closed the evidence.

The jury retired at 11:10 and just two hours later they reported that they were unable to come to an agreement. They suggested that a visit to the scene of the crime might clear up some of the doubt in the minds of the dissenting jurors, so cars were ordered by the court and the jury left in charge of two constables for East St. John.

The jury was composed of Frank Barber, Victor Scott, William Warner, Alfred Fraser, Frank Banks, Walter S. Knowles, Frederick Bryden, James Laidlaw, Harrison T. Bullock, Ernest Nagle, Heber E. Collins and Walter Logan.

NOW—A Written Guarantee to Grow Hair

Costs Nothing. Unless you grow hair, the Van Ess 3-bottle treatment is absolutely guaranteed. You are the sole judge. The treatment is sold by your own dealer. All we require is a signature showing you have purchased a sixty-day treatment. If it fails, we refund your money. Hence you assume no risk making this test.

No Hair—No Money is our proposition. We have a new method of treating the scalp. To grow hair. To stop falling hair. This is to offer you, under absolute money-back guarantee, the new VAN ESS Treatment which, under actual tests, grows hair on 91 heads in 100.

The name is VAN ESS Liquid Scalp Massage. Infected Sebum. We have traced about 91% of all baldness and falling hair to infection of the scalp oil (Sebum). It is an oil that forms at the roots of the hair. Its natural function is to lubricate the hair.

But Sebum cures on the scalp. It forms a breeding place for bacteria. It clogs to hair and destroys it. It lodges in hair follicles and plugs them. Then germs by the millions start to feed upon the hair. Loss of hair is soon marked. Then with neglect comes total baldness.

But it does not kill the hair roots. Hence when you remove the new hair has a chance to grow. This is a scientific fact. Medical journals are full of it. VAN ESS LABORATORIES, INC. Toronto, Canada. United States: 25 East 42nd St., Chicago, Ill.

Now We Remove It. The VAN ESS treatment combats the infected Sebum and removes it. It is applied in a new way—scientific way. (Note the illustration at right). It penetrates to the follicles of the hair. It combats the Sebum and removes it. Results are marked. They are quick. It stops falling hair. We have demonstrated that it grows new hair.

We use you to try it. Obtain it at any drug or department store. Use a 60-day treatment plan. Your money refunded if results are not obtained.

Over 400,000 Men Have Made This Test.

RED CROSS MEETS. At the monthly meeting of the Red Cross Hospital Committee, held this morning, a resolution of the sense of loss sustained in the death of Dr. J. A. McCarthy and of appreciation of his work for the ex-servicemen, was unanimously adopted and ordered placed on the minutes.

Mrs. L. P. D. Tilley presided and others present were Mrs. G. E. Barbour, Mrs. Walter Harrison, Mrs. E. R. Taylor, Mrs. W. H. Shaw, Mrs. H. Lawrence, Mrs. C. B. Allan, Mrs. J. H. Bonnell, Mrs. F. White, Mrs. J. H. Doody, Mrs. J. V. Anglin, Mrs. F. Fairweather, Mrs. F. B. Ellis and Miss Jarvis.

Mrs. Doody, for the drives committee, reported that five auto drives had been held during the month and 84 of the soldiers had enjoyed them. Reports were submitted by the visitors for Lancaster and the County hospitals. It was said that one patient at the County Hospital had died and a spray of flowers had been sent from the Red Cross.

The meeting was then addressed by Dr. Skinner in connection with the hospital work. It was reported that the indent for the last month had been filled and all bills were ordered paid.

LINIMENT FOUND TO BE POWERFUL GERMICIDE

Originally, Absorbine Jr. was sold only as a pain reliever and an embrocation. It was quickly discovered that the liniment was positive death to all forms of germ life, and it is now used as a mouth wash, for wound dressing and for all disinfecting purposes.
Another surprise was yet in store. A Wm. Pratt of Springfield, Mass., applied Absorbine Jr. to a varicose vein to relieve the intense pain. Not only did the pain leave, but he noticed every day the swollen vein becoming smaller. The treatment was kept up and, today, Mr. Pratt's legs, though he has never used anything else on them, are as smooth as when he was a boy. It has now been proved that Absorbine Jr. is an actual specific for varicose veins, leg ulcers, boils, pyorrhea and a number of other ailments and injuries besides that for which it was first prepared. Nothing serves so many every day purposes and nothing is better entitled to its place in every home. When it is needed, it will be needed in a hurry. Don't wait for someone to be hurt. Get it at your druggist's today. $1.25 every where.

TO FOCUS THOUGHT ON MAGNA CHARTA

Appeal Circulated to Observe Third Sunday in June as Liberty Day.

An appeal has been sent out for the general observance of the third Sunday in June as "Liberty Day" to commemorate the signing of Magna Charta at Runnymede on June 15, 1215, which was virtually the recognition of the great principle of individual freedom as now known as English speaking peoples the world over. Last year, it is stated, there were 90,000 churches, Sunday schools and newspapers that observed the day and it is hoped that this year there will be at least 90,000.

The movement for this annual observance was started 14 years ago by J. W. Hamilton, of St. Paul, Minn., who is the founder, executive secretary and treasurer of the International Magna Charta Day Association. Membership in the association is open to every man, woman and child of the British Isles, United States, Canada, Newfoundland, South Africa, Australia and New Zealand and to those residing in other countries. There is no fee for membership and the only obligation entailed is that the member shall take time on Magna Charta Sunday to think of what the great charter has done for liberty and to speak of the day to others.

The president of the association is Rev. William J. Johnstone, D. D., L. D. The association is urging that the field of Runnymede be placed in charge of a national trust and that a temple of liberty be erected there, with stones contributed from all parts of the seven nations.

It has been said of Magna Charta that "to have produced it, to have matured it, to have preserved it constitute the immortal claim of England upon the esteem of mankind." The association in urging commemoration of the day on which it was signed has in mind the essential and actual solidarity of the seven countries. The unity inherent in the race and British and American friendship to be the greatest asset left to civilization today.

C. W. Romans, who is most actively interested in the local observance of Magna Charta Day, has sent requests to clergymen in the city asking for pulp reference and is himself conducting a campaign on behalf of the commemoration of the anniversary.

ACIDS IN STOMACH CAUSE INDIGESTION

Create Gas, Sourness and Pain—How to Treat.

Medical authorities state that nearly nine-tenths of the cases of stomach trouble, indigestion, sourness, burning, gas, bloating, nausea, etc., are due to an excess of hydrochloric acid in the stomach and not as some believe to a lack of digestive juices. The delicate stomach lining is irritated, digestion is delayed and food sours, causing the disagreeable symptoms which every stomach sufferer knows so well.

Artificial digestants are not needed in such cases and may do real harm. Try laying aside all digestive aids and instead get from any druggist a few ounces of Bisurated Magnesia and take a teaspoonful in a quarter glass of water right after eating. This sweetens the stomach, prevents the formation of excess acid and there is no sourness, gas or pain. Bisurated Magnesia (in powder or tablet form—never liquid or milk) is harmless to the stomach, inexpensive to take and is the most efficient form of magnesia for stomach purposes. It is used by thousands of people who enjoy their meals with no more fear of indigestion.

Not all Englishmen drop their "h's" of course. To many of them such clipped words as "ot" and "orse" sound as unpleasant as they do to us. The story is told that on one occasion a case having to do with a horse was being tried before Justice Darling and the plaintiff's attorney kept referring to the animal as a "orse." Justice Darling stood it as long as he could, then he said: "Mr. X,

KIPLING RESPONDS.

Probably the only monument to Canada's soldier dead bearing an inscription written by Rudyard Kipling will be that of the little city of Sault Ste. Marie. Probably, too, in all North America, this Canadian town will be the only one having this distinction.

be in a frame of mind receptive to religious instruction. It is necessary to have legislation to prevent the abuse of the Sabbath, but it is still necessary to remember that the more the churches succeed in leading people to adopt real Christian principles, the less necessary will any form of compulsion become.

THOSE COLONIES.

Some Germans are already suggesting that their country will soon recover the colonies it lost as a result of the war, and what some are thinking today more will be thinking tomorrow.

The question of the lost colonies was brought up the other day by the president of the Reichsbank in addressing a meeting of leading business men.

OF COURSE. (Detroit Free Press.) When mother encourages Johnnie to pick dandelions and bring them into the house, of course she may be doing so merely because she thinks the blossoms are pretty.

THE BONUS FOR U. S. SOLDIERS

The United States Congress evidently does not share President Coolidge's idea of the importance of conserving the financial strength of the country which makes the republic pre-eminent for the time being, in the business of the world.

It is hard to avoid the conclusion that politics played a large part in the decision of the two houses of Congress. The United States was only a year and a half in the war as against Germany, but she has shown good judgment, in the main, and done well considering her general position.

This country has paid out something like 170 millions in war service gratuities, placed 29,000 soldiers on the farms with loans aggregating 60 millions, spent 5 millions on vocational training and secured loans for insurance on 75,000 policies.

GONE BLIND

(Barbara Young in N. Y. Times.) Starting into the dark! And the dark stares back at me. Not a black darkness, no. Gray like a mist or fog—

Now God is playing a game, shutting away the sun, And the blessed light of the stars, And the lace of the apple blooms, Shutting the shadows out—

I stood in a sunny place— Latrodia, color of gold! Tully flowers, color of flame; Crocus, blue as her eyes!

It is strange to walk in the dark. In the mist and the fog all day. But I am not afraid— Never afraid nor alone.

And you, you were all so gay. Thinking I did not know! I could feel God pressing His hands, And whispering, "Guess whose's here!"

DEATHS

Frank B. Roland.

Mrs. James Ferguson, of Fairville, received a telegram yesterday telling of the death of her brother-in-law, Frank B. Roland, who died in Arizona, May 29, after an extended illness. Mrs. Roland and their two children, who have been residing in Montreal, left immediately for Arizona on receiving the news. Mr. Roland was sales manager for the William Davis Co., Montreal, previous to the illness, which overtook him three years ago. One year ago he went west to gain strength but never recovered. He was born in Burlington, Vermont, where his parents reside. His wife was formerly Miss Stella Hodd, of Chesley street, St. John. Many expressions of sympathy were tendered the bereaved wife and children under such particularly sad circumstances.

Mrs. Margaret M. Scribner.

Mrs. Margaret Scribner died on Thursday at the home of her niece, Mrs. W. W. Chase, in the 81st year of her age, after a long illness. Many friends will regret to hear of her passing. In her earlier life she was an active member and worker in the old Leinster street Baptist church. For many years she was matron of the Baptist seminary at St. Martins and later at the Old Ladies' Home in Yarmouth. She is survived by five nieces and several nephews. The funeral will take place on Saturday afternoon at 2.30 from the residence of W. W. Chase, 168 Queen street.

DRIVES COMPLETED.

The drives on the Nashwaak River were completed Wednesday evening. The Nashwaak Pulp Company's drive and those of other operators on the river reached almost 82,000,000 feet. Rafting operations, which were commenced a week ago but which were delayed for a few days owing to wind and high water in the main river, have been resumed and Wednesday the first raft of logs was despatched to the company's mill at St. John. In Russia there are 1,400 women in every 1,000 men.

Quill pens are still made from the long wing feathers of geese.

ADVENTURES OF THE TWINS

By Olive Roberts Barton

MISTER CROW HEARS FINE NEWS.

His wife met him at the door.

"I don't care whether it's honest or not," declared Mister Crow sourly, "but just as soon as Farmer Jones' corn is up, I'm going to take my wife and children to the cornfield on a picnic and eat all the nice juicy young sprouts of corn I can hold. And I'm going to tell them to eat all they can hold, too. So now there!"

"Shame on you, Mister Crow," said Mister Bags, the fairy storekeeper. "Why, pickles and porcupines! If all the birds felt the same as you do, there wouldn't be any corn left to grow up at all. And there wouldn't be any nice roasting ears next fall for the children to eat. And worst of all, there wouldn't be any corn to get dry and store away, so that the horses and cows and chickens and pigs and turkeys won't starve to death next winter."

"Humph! What do I care!" cried Mister Crow. "You sound exactly like a lecture, Mister Bags, and I don't like lectures. And the cows and chickens may as well starve as me."

"But you won't starve. There are lots and lots of things for you to eat, Mister Crow," said Nancy. "You sound just like a lecture, too!" declared the big black bird. "And I didn't come in to be lectured. I came in to find out if Farmer Jones had bought his seed corn yet for planting."

"Yes, he has," snapped Mister Bags. "And if you take any of it, I hope the scarecrow gets after you."

"Ha, ha, ha!" laughed Mister Crow, now in a very good humor because he'd found out what he came for. "The scarecrow isn't anything but some old sticks dressed up and that old gun he carries isn't worth a bean-shooter. It's only a stick, too. I'm a wise old crow, I am. You can't fool me. Ha, ha, ha!"

And he stumbled out of the door, still crying ha, ha, ha (which sounded like caw, caw, caw) and nearly knocked over Cutie Cottontail who had come in to buy a bag of candy.

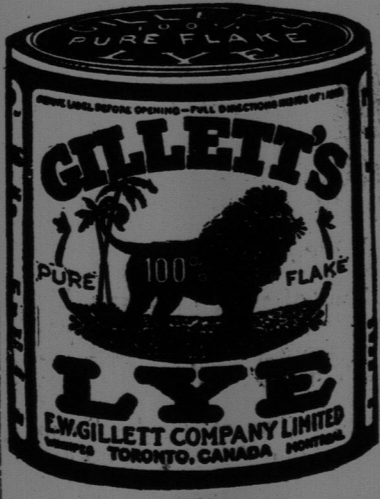

"Oh, get out of my way," exclaimed Mister Crow, showing him rudely. "Where are your manners?"

You can't blame Cutie for making a face at him behind his back, for the bad manners were all Mister Crow's—nobody else's in the world.

More good news awaited Mister Crow upon his arrival home. His wife met him at the door with the words, "What do you think, Christopher? Today as I was sitting on a fence beside the corn field, I thought I saw something green sticking up out of the mud. So I flew down and tasted it—and what do you souse it was! Corn! It's starting to sprout all over the field. By tomorrow it will be up as plain as day and we can take the children and have a picnic. I ate quite a few grains which came up easily, and they were the most delicious things I ever put into my mouth."

"Hooray!" cried Mister Crow, flapping his black wings and grinning until he nearly put his beak out of joint. "I'm going over this minute! It's not dark yet, and maybe I can get a bite or two. I'm nearly starved!"

Away he flew. (To be continued.)

Mothers know a dose of DR. CALDWELL'S LAXATIVE SYRUP PEPSIN Will keep them fit

'First Aid' For Sick Children

THE experienced mother is not alarmed when a child becomes sick. She knows that most of the ailments of childhood are trifling. If it seems serious she calls a doctor, but whether or not she calls him, she gives, first of all, a good laxative medicine. The doctor would advise that anyway. It is his "first aid." Such experienced mothers as Mrs. G. R. Paquette, Pierreville, Que., and Mrs. J. E. Beale, 325 Johnson Av., Winnipeg, always give Dr. Caldwell's Laxative Syrup Pepsin at the first indication of sickness. Such timely doses have saved them much worry.

The Meaning of "Good" All doctors agree that a thorough cleaning out of the bowels is of first importance for it removes dangerous intestinal poisons. They will also advise a "good laxative," and by "good" they mean one that is effective and yet harmless.

They know that there are physics that never should be given to children—calomel, which is mercury and loosens the teeth; phosphorated oil, a coal-tar drug that causes skin trouble; salts, which concentrate the blood and dry up the saliva. They consider Dr. Caldwell's Laxative Syrup Pepsin safe for all ages as they know it is a simple vegetable compound of Egyptian senna with pepsin and agreeable aromatics. The formula is on the package.

Give Laxative for Colds Adults should have at least one movement of the bowels every 24 hours, and children two or three. Failure to have it means constipation, then headache, biliousness, drowsiness, lack of appetite. Give a dose of Dr. Caldwell's Laxative Syrup Pepsin at bedtime, and there will be health and good feeling by morning. A dose costs less than a cent, and a bottle can be had at any drug store. Colds and constipation come together, so if you notice coughing or sneezing stop it at once with Laxative Syrup Pepsin.

Want to Try It Free Before Buying... "Syrup Pepsin," 24 Caldwell Bldg., Toronto, Ont. FABLES ON HEALTH Teaching "Bath Habit"

The scene presented in the Mann household when the "neck-and-ears" washing ceremony was performed was not materially different from that to be found wherever lusty lunged youngsters romped.

The appearance of rag and brush was invariably the signal for walls and wriggling. Yet the lesson of cleanliness must be taught.

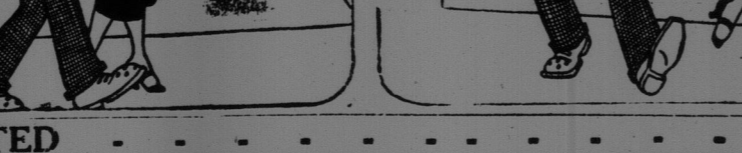

Parents should make every effort to educate the children into enjoying their bath. A difficult and frequently unsuccessful task is this oftentimes when a boy in his teens is being dealt with. Regular bathing times can be associated with games in some cases, but it is preferable that the youngsters be taught to enjoy the bath for its own sake. If, as a little tottled, the baby is taught to love a clean body the task will be made easier in later years. Many parents wait too long before beginning the cleanliness education. When grown-ups themselves look upon the skin as a mere covering for the body, what can be expected of youngsters? The skin is an important organ, and not a mere covering. A clean skin carries off waste matter and a daily bath aids in the health of the skin. Get the growing children in the bath habit.

Blackheads Go Quick By This Simple Method
Blackheads—big ones or little ones—soft ones or hard ones—on any part of the body go quick by a simple method that just dissolves them. To do this get about two ounces of peroxide powder from your druggist—sprinkle a little on a hot, wet cloth—rub over the blackheads briskly for a few seconds—and wash off. You'll wonder where the blackheads have gone. Pinching and squeezing blackheads only open the pores of the skin and leave them large and unsightly, while the simple application of peroxide powder and the water dissolve them right out, leaving the skin soft and the pores in their natural condition.

FOUR GENERATIONS ATTEND CEREMONY

Mrs. Rhoda Wright Celebrates 83rd Birthday at Martinon.

Four generations were doubly represented at the celebration of the eighty-third birthday of Mrs. Rhoda Wright, of Pleasant Point, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Stephen Stevens and Mr. Stevens at Martinon last evening. There were 80 members of the family present and Mrs. Wright thoroughly enjoyed her birthday. She is remarkably active and keenly alert and interested in events of today. She had just finished making a quilt on her birthday and was more than a little proud of her strength and energy in undertaking household tasks.

BOOKS PRESENTED TO ALBERT SCHOOL

Gift to the Library Made by Members of Brunswick Chapter.

A school library in the new Albert school in West St. John is something to which the pupils and teachers of the school are looking forward eagerly and several recent gifts have made those hopes seem not impossible of fulfillment. Yesterday afternoon the members of the executive of Brunswick Chapter, I. O. O. E., visited the school and presented several volumes, mostly of an historical nature, which were gratefully received by Miss Harriet Smith, principal of the school, on behalf of the staff and pupils. The presentation was made by Mrs. Herbert Wetmore, regent.

Besides the gift of Brunswick Chapter, the school library has been increased by the addition of a set of reference books, presented by Mrs. I.

The members wore their full regalia with flowing white cloaks bearing a cross of red on their left shoulders and made a picturesque group. The order is one of the oldest in the Masonic fraternity and has always made a special observance of Ascension Day.

The service followed the order prescribed for such occasions and was

THE EVENING TIMES-STAR, ST. JOHN, N. B., FRIDAY, MAY 30, 1922.

VERY OPTIMISTIC OF PALESTINE'S FUTURE

Zionist Leader, Visiting Here, Tells of Industrial Awakening.

"Before 15 or 20 years at the least, have elapsed, Palestine will be an example to the rest of the world of what concentrated effort can do in improving the condition of the most backward countries." This was the statement made in an interview last evening by Dr. S. Shapiro, D.D., Ph.D., a leader in the Zionist movement, and one of the original pioneers of the Zionists in Palestine, who arrived here yesterday in the interest of the Keren Hayesod, Palestine Foundation Fund. As Dr. Shapiro could not talk English the interview was accomplished through the assistance of A. Bab, principal of the Hebrew school here, at whose home 61 Summer street, Dr. Shapiro is a guest.

From almost a desert Palestine has been transformed in the space of a few years into a country, which all Jews of the world may be proud to claim as their fatherland, he said. Towns have sprung up out of the desert sands. Railroads have been built, and new permanent roads laid. Oil wells have been sunk and coal mines discovered. Hydro electric power is fast gaining in popularity, and if the present plans of the engineers, working on the project come to fruition, the harnessing of the Jordan will supply the whole of the country with all the electricity required, or to be required, for power and lighting purposes, he said.

Says Workers Wanted.

The labor question, once a very serious problem, in Palestine, has been settled, Dr. Shapiro said, and at the present time it is a case of looking for men to work rather than men looking for work. The tobacco industry, which many considered as impracticable in the country, is growing very rapidly he said, so much so that only recently the Zionist Foundation had had to import 2,000 laborers from other countries to meet the demand for help in this industry.

The silk industry is also coming to the fore, he said, and it is firmly believed that within a short time it will have developed into one of the foremost industries in the country. Oil has been discovered and already several oil petroleum wells are yielding highly. Although no coal has yet been mined, coal fields have been discovered, the extent of which will not be known until the crew of engineers now on a survey will have made their report. It is known, however, he said, that the deposits are very extensive.

Says Transportation Cheap.

Transportation is cheap in Palestine now, he said, owing to the fact that the Zionist organization have greatly increased the mileage of railroads, as well as the condition of the roadbed and equipment. The country districts are well served and easily accessible through the building of permanent roads of concrete and asphalt. More money is being expended on the railroads and roads all the time, he said.

Some ten new colonies have been built since 1918, and are in a flourishing condition. They are inhabited for the most part by Jews from Poland, Russia and Rumania, and other sections seriously affected by the aftermath of the world war. The United States, Canada and England, have sent engineers to the country, and these are carrying on large undertakings.

Jaffa and Tel-Aviv are already using hydro power and light generated by the waters of the Jordan, and, said Dr. Shapiro, if the controversy between England and Greece, to be heard by the International Court next month, is found in favor of the British, within a comparatively short time the whole of the country will be supplied with all the electricity it can use for lighting and power.

Arab-Jew Friction.

The people of Palestine from time immemorial, he said, had drawn their water from open wells, but this has been done away with and water is now being piped to the houses. Sewerage systems have been installed and living conditions made almost as modern as in a large city, said Dr. Shapiro. With the adoption of the new water system, malaria has almost entirely disappeared from the country. The bogs where the mosquito, which carried the malaria germ, were wont to breed in millions, have been drained and filled in so that the insect has also disappeared. Up until a short time ago, he said, the relations between the Jews and the Arabs were not so friendly as they might have been. This condition of things has changed for the better. The

SIMPLICITY MARKS LATEST GRADUATION FROCKS

This Season's Dresses Fit Father's Pocket-book and Mother's Taste

Three Graduation frocks. Left, for High School graduate, dressy white organdie and lace. Centre, for college girl, white georgette crepe. Right, another high school commencement frock of white lace-trimmed organdie.

(By Marian Hale.)

The girl graduate of this season will dress like a school girl, not a society debut.

A survey of the smartest shops fails to disclose any of the creations such as parents and teachers disapproved of so thoroughly a few years ago. Since so many of the smart boarding schools have adopted the middie blouse and white skirt as the regulation graduation outfit, high schools have followed their lead.

And the heavy expenditure of father's income that used to be a part of the commencement programme is not necessary this year. For graduation frocks were never more simple, more attractive or available at more reasonable prices.

In cotton materials there are the organdies, plain or embroidered, and voile with dots, checks, overplaids and lace stripes that require practically no trimming. And there are lovely sheer handkerchief liness, dotted swisses and novelty materials.

Silk used to be frowned upon for the school girl but the white crepe de chine dress of the sport type is so useful and such a general favorite that we find it recommended very highly for a commencement dress.

Georgette crepe is used very simply for the school girl, usually with a slightly bouffant frock and lace ruffles or flowers, or with a bit of embroidery or hand hemstitching.

Though sheer dresses are usually worn over plain white slips there are many flesh-colored ones shown and a bit of color either in the slip or sash or about the corsage is quite the rule.

trouble seemed to lie, he said, in the fact that the large farm owners could no longer exploit the laborer, after the advent of the Zionist organization in Palestine, for, with their coming, work increased so rapidly that the laborer had no longer to depend on the Arab farmer for employment. The standard of living of the common people had greatly improved, he said. Theatres have made their appearance, he said, and are being well patronized. Sport, has been introduced and is being rapidly adopted in the schools and among the adults. Music is flourishing.

In the university, he said, the faculties of Philosophy and Law had already begun to operate. Medicine will commence with the opening of the university next year. The professors have been secured from the United States, Germany and Austria. England is to supply the professors for the engineering course.

In the schools, Hebrew and English are being taught. More than 12,000 children are in attendance. The Zionist organizations are operating the schools, he said, and are receiving a subsidy from the Government.

A great change for the better had taken place in Palestine, he said, since the British mandate was established.

The tourist business is good and is producing more wealth in the country, he said, because of the fact that the tourists are carrying away from Palestine many things as souvenirs.

S. Shapiro, Ph. D., D. D., was born in Odessa, Russia. He graduated in 1912 from the University of Berlin with the degree of Doctor of Philosophy, later taking the degree of D. D. from the University of Bratislav in Czechoslovakia. He was one of the original pioneers of the Zionist organization in Palestine, where, he said, he worked as a laborer for three years, in order to get the thing started. Recently he has been commissioned to bring the message of the Zionists to the old world and the new.

Dr. Shapiro will address the Jewish community and all the local Hebrew organizations at a mass meeting at 8 o'clock on Sunday night. On Saturday he plans holding a religious ceremony.

He leaves for Nova Scotia next week.

An Austrian tourist travelling in the west of Ireland asked an old woman how far it was to the nearest town. She said, "It was five miles two years ago, but some English brutes came over with chains and made it seven, and our hearts are broke walking it ever since, bad luck to them!"

Britons Join In Honoring War Dead of U. S. Army

DECORATE GRAVES IN ENGLAND

Place Flowers and Stars and Stripes on Resting Places of Soldiers.

RECIPROCATION

U.S. Ambassador Leads Americans Honoring Britain's Unknown Warrior.

(By PERCY M. SARR.) (United Press Staff Correspondent.) London, May 30.—Wherever Americans who fell in the Great War are buried on English soil, Britons joined with Americans today in honoring their memory.

The custom of placing flowers upon graves of the war dead on Decoration Day is one that appeals to the British and increasing numbers each year take part in the ceremonies and see that a star and stripes marks the burial place of the U. S. warrior.

Today U. S. Ambassador Kellogg headed a committee of Americans honoring Britain's unknown warrior, in return, and placed a wreath upon the simple slab in Westminster Abbey and another at the cenotaph in White Hall.

Memorial Day services were conducted in St. Margaret's Church in Westminster by the Rev. Mr. Carnegie, Dean of the Abbey, and chaplain of the House of Commons.

At Brookwood Cemetery graves of 435 U. S. soldiers and sailors were decorated. About half this number was killed when the troop ship Tuscania was torpedoed in February 1918.

There are about 180 other U. S. graves in this country and some 80 in Ireland.

KILLING OLD TRADITIONS.

(Toronto Globe.) Government officials are now matter-of-factly altogether. Now they're gone and another popular and romantic notion all to pieces, writes our Cobalt correspondent. The hammer-throwing blacksmith, Fred La Rose, whose chance shot at a passing fox, and given credit for the first discovery of silver at Cobalt, attains no such distinction in the booklet which the Ontario Department of Mines has prepared for distribution at the British Empire Exhibition.

"It is the fashion," reads in part, this disturbing document, "to go to a French-Canadian blacksmith named Fred La Rose, whose business it was to sharpen the drills of a railway construction gang, threw a piece of steel at a prowling fox, and on recovering at his missile, found that it had knocked off a fragment of reddish, copperlike mineral, which proved to be nicolite or kuperf nickel, subsequently found to be associated with native silver."

This was at Long Lake, subsequently renamed Cobalt, in the fall of 1903 and La Rose made application for a patent, standing on Sept. 29 of that year. By the department says, James H. McKinley and Ernest Darragh, woodsmen, had found silver on Aug. 1, and they did not file proof of discovery until Oct. 6. The booklet recalls that mining men regarded the occurrence as a freak and refused to take the discoveries seriously until further discoveries had demonstrated to even the most skeptical that one of the greatest silver areas the world has known had been stumbled upon.

IF.

(Pittsburgh Chronicle Telegraph.) "If the French soldiers had refused to fire upon the border into France," said a clerical speaker at the Methodist General Conference, "the German soldiers would have said to their commanders: 'You said the French were attacking us. Lead us back home again.'"

"If a revenge gentleman encounters a gang of burglars in the middle of the night and refuses to fire at them, remarking: 'You see I am not attacking you,' the burglars may be expected to take their departure without delay, pausing only to apologize for their intrusion."

"If the analogy does not seem quite accurate, at any rate everybody knows that if an invaded nation always promptly surrenders and throw up its hands, there would be no wars. There was no war last summer between Italy and Greece because the smelly nation promptly backed down and handed over a large sum of money to the big fellow, while the League of Nations, that should have played the role of international police, was loafing on the job. Why all this discussion of ways to abolish war and insure peace, when the professional soldiers have the simplest scheme in the world? If a nation is attacked, let it refuse to fight. The pacifists say the assaults will then turn right around and march away to the music of 'Home, Sweet Home.' But even if they do not, there will be no war. The old proverb says it takes two to make a quarrel. Decline to get peeved, even if the invader takes everything you've got and beats you for not having more. Then war will be impossible. Mr. Bole's $50,000 prize seems to have gone to the wrong fellow."

British Columbia lumbermen are said to be considering the feasibility of using elephants in their logging camps.

FRENCH FLIER AND HIS ARMY PLANE

THE FRENCH ARMY PLANE IN WHICH LIEUTENANT DOISY IS MAKING A RECORD FLIGHT AROUND THE WORLD. Doisy, who has made himself the hero of the hour, is 32. At 18 he volunteered for the army. In 1912 transferred to the aviation service and in 1913 he was made a pilot.

TELLS OF EARLY BANKING HERE

Publication Gives Interesting Data of Old St. John and Province.

The following historical data, taken from Castell Hopkins' Encyclopedia of Canada, gives in short metre some interesting facts about the early history of the city and province and goes into early banking history at some length.

On May 15, 1785, the charter was issued to St. John, making it the oldest incorporated town in Canada. On August 16, 1785, New Brunswick was made a separate province with a population of 11,467. On June 20, 1857, the first fire occurred in St. John. On September 28, 1852, the Legislative Assembly of the province was abolished.

The first vessel to cross the Atlantic under steam power alone was the Royal William, which sailed from Pictou, N. S., on August 18, 1833.

First N. B. Bank. The first bank in New Brunswick was established by an act of the local legislature under the name of the Bank of New Brunswick. It received the royal assent on March 25, 1820. As expressed in the preamble of the act, it was the opinion of the House of Assembly that "the establishment of a bank in the City of St. John will promote the interests of the province by increasing the means of circulation."

The charter of the St. Stephen's Bank was passed in 1836, created a corporation capitalized for $25,000. The City Bank was incorporated in the same year. Its location was to be St. John, and its capital was $100,000, half to be paid in one year and half within five years. But it had a very brief existence. The Bank of New Brunswick received permission to double its capital in 1837, and by an act of two years later the City Bank was united with it.

In 1837 the local legislature granted the Bank of British North America powers to sue and be sued in the name of a local officer, and facilitated its business in other ways.

The Shelburne Bank was incorporated in 1837, the Miramichi Bank in 1837 and the People's Bank of New Brunswick in 1844. The Miramichi Bank was proposed for Chatham, N. B., and its authorized capital was $20,000. The People's Bank was established at Fredericton with a capital stock of $50,000.

In the sessions of 1867 and 1867 the establishment of a number of new corporations was also authorized—the Albert Bank, the Woodstock Bank, the Northern Bank, the Merchants' Bank of New Brunswick and the Eastern Bank of New Brunswick. To none of them, however, was the necessary capital paid up, and they were therefore as unsuccessful as the Miramichi and Shelburne banks of the preceding decade.

At the time that New Brunswick entered Confederation, the Bank of New Brunswick, the Commercial Bank of New Brunswick, the St. Stephen's Bank and the People's Bank were in operation, the Westmorland Bank in liquidation, and the five other charters just named still available.

The Canadian Banking Act was renewed in 1880 under the auspices of Sir Leonard Tilley as Finance Minister. In 1880, the Banking Act was again amended and renewed. The measure was introduced on March 20 by Hon. George E. Foster.

Letters To The Editor

THAT GASOLINE STATION.

To the Editor of The Times-Star: Sir,—In your issue this evening there is a statement that residents of the immediate district asked for a gasoline station on the lot at the corner of Princess and Germain street. The fact is that Mr. Lawton asked "the residents of the immediate district" to sign a statement that it is very dangerous to the proposal—quite a different thing—and "the residents of the immediate district" refused. The Mayor is right when he says it would be a shame to put a service station in that locality. Objections come so quickly to mind that I only need to close with thanks for space.

ROBERT S. COUPE, 147 Germain street, May 29, 1924.

CATTLE ON ROADS.

To the Editor of The Times-Star: Sir,—I noticed in last evening's paper a letter regarding cattle running loose on the country roads, and I am also of the opinion that it is very dangerous, especially on trunk roads where there is heavy tourist travel.

As the matter has been brought before the public I hope the proper authorities will see that cattle are fenced in before any serious accident occurs.

Thanking you for your kindness in publishing letters of this kind, I remain, Sir, your obedient servant.

ASKS RETURN TO PIOUS CUSTOMS

Pope Voices Hopes in Proclaiming 1925 as Holy Year.

Rome, May 29.—In a papal bull issued today, addressed to "the prelates, bishops, and all the faithful," Pope Pius declares 1925, a "Holy Year." He calls upon all to "celebrate the twenty-second jubilee of the bull constituting a long invitation to the faithful to restore human society and return to holy customs. The Pontiff prays fervently that all non-Catholics should seek refuge in the true Church of Jesus Christ, and also that conditions in Palestine may be ordered arranged in the way demanded by the rights of the Catholic religion."

"In the perfection of charity," says the Pontiff, "the love of God and all the faithful, which through age-long and deplorable differences keep far from the Roman Church, be joined to us. Nothing that could happen would be dearer or more pleasing to us than that, if not all collectively, many at least, from their bosoms should pass to the one and only fold of Christ on this occasion of great jubilee. We should embrace them with special affection, numbering them among our dearest sons."

Peace Not Distant, He Says.

Continuing, the Pontiff says the jubilee will be an occasion when he and all the faithful should ask special things of God.

"I speak of peace," said the Pontiff, "not of peace written in treaties, but peace written on hearts, which must be restored among the peoples. Though today it is not as distant as in the past, it still is more remote than all of us desire. At the tomb of the Apostles I implore this precious boon—that Christ, the Prince of Peace, who with his sign calmed the waves of the Gallilean Sea, moved with pity for his people, should command that the tempests by which Europe is being beaten down be calmed, in order that a durable peace and charity, too long forgotten, should again be embraced by the peoples and inspire governments."

"Do Penance," He Says.

The Pope adjured the faithful, men and women, to avoid profane distractions and adopt a spirit of penitence. He said they should show modesty of expression and in manners, and above all in clothes. And that they should seek during the Holy Year exclusively the interests of their souls.

ONTARIO HYDRO SHOWS PROGRESS

Commission Gives Warning That Further Expansion is Necessary.

Toronto, May 29.—A revenue of $15,742,931, a surplus of $345,888, and an increase in power distributed of 569,944 horsepower to 685,468 horsepower are reported in the annual report issued by the Ontario Hydro Electric Commission. The year is regarded by the Commission as one of unprecedentedly successful operation. The report gives $241,853,201 as the capital which the province now has invested in the Hydro undertaking, and at the same time gives warning that further expansion is urgently necessary.

JARDINE TO JAIL FOR SIX MONTHS

Newcastle, May 29.—Irving Jardine, of Blackville, who was adjudged guilty of assaulting David Coughlan, was sentenced to six months in jail by Judge LeBlanc in the Superior Court Thursday night. Mr. Scott, in charging the jury, said that the defendant, in which the dividing lines of property are involved, was continued with evidence by A. E. Hanson, T. W. Corker and Arnold Adams.

THE NOMINATION OF MRS. SCOTT IN VANCOUVER

Reference was made yesterday to Mrs. S. D. Scott, formerly of St. John, being a candidate for the British Columbia legislature. The Province of May 29 says:—

WOMAN AND TIME

(Victoria Colonist.) "Time is woman's only enemy," says the London Daily News. "It is the years and the changes they bring to face and figure that she fights desperately, even unto the last transformation and the ultimate cosmetic. Man, a more natural creature, less vain of his appearance, allows time to line and change him as it will, and is no believer in the power of little pots. He casts an approving but not necessarily a deceived eye, upon woman as she comes into his vision, sometimes rather like a sunset, rejuvenated by the aids of art. Upon him must be laid the blame for woman's desire to repair the ravages of time, for he will not worship wrinkles. It is supposed to be one of a woman's duties to keep a man young, and to do this successfully she must remain young herself. Man does not say to her, with Browning: 'Grow old along with me; but remain young or I will grow indifferent.' This is a form of tyranny to which women have not only been willing, but desperately anxious to submit, in the abiding amazement of men. In using the appliances of art they believe they retain that 'mystery' in which their power is supposed to lie. But all the time they know and men know that there is no more 'mystery' about them than there is about window panes."

An Irishman recently landed in New York found himself lunching at the same table with a loquacious American judge. In course of conversation the judge disclosed his identity, adding: "You would be a long time in the Old Country before you would have the honor of lunching with a judge."

"Indeed, I'm thinking you would be a long time in the old country before they made you a judge," was Pat's reply.

SOCIAL HYGIENE COUNCIL GRIEVED

Pass Resolution of Regret at the Death of Dr. J. A. McCarthy.

A tribute of respect was paid to Dr. J. A. McCarthy at the meeting of the Social Hygiene Council last night in the Health Centre when a resolution of deep regret at his death was passed unanimously, being moved by Hon. Dr. W. F. Roberts, Minister of Health, and seconded by R. T. Hayes, M. L. A.

The resolution was as follows: Inasmuch as death has so suddenly and unexpectedly removed from our midst and from our companionship Dr. McCarthy, Chief of the Social Hygiene Division of the N. B. Department of Health and Chief of the Clinic of this Division held at this Health Centre.

And further inasmuch as Dr. McCarthy has manifested so great a personal interest in the establishment and maintenance of such services from their inception, sparing no pains, regardless of how great the sacrifice, in making these services most efficient.

Therefore resolved that this meeting express its most sincere regret at the untimely removal of a man of the prime of life, and at a time when his services seem almost indispensable, of one whose future seemed so full of promise and good works.

And be it further resolved that the warm and tender sympathy of this Association be extended to his bereaved wife and his daughter, and his aged father, and that this resolution be entered upon the minutes of the Association and a copy sent to his widow and father.

Fredericton, May 29.—The inspection of the cadet corps of the Fredericton High School took place this afternoon with Lt. Col. A. B. Snow, of St. John, the inspecting officer. The inspection was on the officers square, Queen street, and was witnessed by many interested spectators until the heavy rain drove them away.

The customary battalion and company movements were required, also drill with arms, extended order, physical training and signalling. The drum and bugle band of the school was in attendance. John E. Page of the school staff, is officer commanding and three companies were on parade. Colonel Snow addressed the unit after the inspection and complimented all ranks highly upon the showing made and expressed the opinion that the unit looked better than the year before. Reference also was made to the fact that snap shots taken of guard-of-honor furnished by the unit at the cadet camp at Sussex last year, by members of the staff of Lord Byng had been used to illustrate the efficiency of cadet corps.

SAYS ART OF WORK MUST BE REGAINED

Advertising Man Suggests a Panacea for Present Business Ills

"Get back to hard work; keep everlastingly hammering at the business of the day," this was the prescription given last night by H. E. Stephenson, of Montreal, secretary-treasurer of A. McKim, Ltd., advertising agents to bring back prosperity to the country. The business man and the salesman, he said, had lost the habit of working hard as the art of business men was almost as easy to sell goods from 1914 to 1920 as it was to give them away, he declared.

As a consequence the old line traveler and business men had got out of the hang of really selling when the after-war slump set in and up to the present they have not recovered. It is the younger generation of aggressive business men has not yet come into their own and business still languishes, Mr. Stephenson held.

The lost art of working hard was only one factor in this advertising expert's analysis of the present unsettled period of business. Unseasonable winters, three of them in a row, had also contributed to upset the normal trend of events.

The two lines hardest hit primarily by the weather, he said, were clothing and proprietary medicines. With a prolonged winter people made the old winter overcoat last through the brief spring season until it was time to shed the overcoat altogether. They bought no spring coat and as a result the clothing business suffered. And other businesses suffered in consequence.

On the Public Side. The other side of the hard work picture for the business man was the state of the public mind, he said. During the war, with plenty of money in circulation, people bought pretty well as much and as often as they wanted. The subsequent depression had its accompanying financial stringency, made buyers more critical and they were still in a "you show me" state of mind.

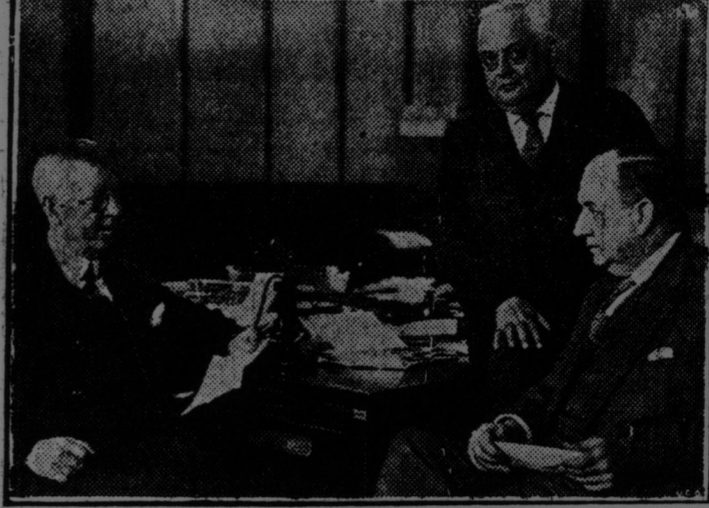

The public was not in a purchasing mood, said Mr. Stephenson, and there was one reason why the salesman and the business man had to work harder to sell, which was only another way of saying he had to work harder to increase his business.

One result of this state of the public mind Mr. Stephenson thought would be more frequent and shorter advertisements in the daily papers. When the public was in a buying mood all it needed was one big push to make it go into a store and buy its hats, clothes and other articles. Now more persuasion would have to be used, however.

That meant that the advertiser would be more frequent and more frequent in order to implant the desire to buy and actually move the prospect to purchase. Though advertisements might be smaller and more frequent he did not anticipate any diminution in the amount of newspaper space used. It was a case of different distribution, that was.

Mr. Stephenson is on his way back to Montreal after visiting several places in the Maritime Provinces. He thinks

Fredericton, May 29.—The inspection of the cadet corps of the Fredericton High School took place this afternoon with Lt. Col. A. B. Snow, of St. John, the inspecting officer. POLLOCK FOUND GUILTY.

ROLL CALL HELD.

The annual roll call of the Fairville Baptist church was held Wednesday evening in the church and was largely attended. Rev. Clifford Clark, president, Rev. G. C. Warren, of the Brunswick street Baptist church, Fredericton, gave the address. E. C. Gilman sang a pleasing solo. He was accompanied by Mrs. Girvan. The choir furnished an anthem. After roll call, refreshments were served by a committee of ladies.

MILITANT LADY ASTOR.

(New York Times.) Lady Astor continues to add to the gaiety of nations as well as that of the British Parliament. She is becoming a maker of phrases that stick in the memory, perhaps her most brilliant achievement in that line having been her statement at this week, in the course of a debate on child labor, that some of the extreme members on the side of the present government "wanted to get to heaven without praying, and to get the best of this world without paying."

Thereby she hit her political opponents, the Communists and Socialists as well as both barrels of her shotgun, for those to whom she referred certainly show both of the aspirations mentioned, though their ideas of heaven are much different from her own. That they want to get the best of this world without paying they hardly would deny, though of course they would talk at length about both the definition of paying and the obligation to pay.

The provision in the bill which excluded this lively discussion well made fourteen the age at which children, if unemployed, were to come into the category of adults without work, thus retaining Government dole. One would expect this to be defended only by parents eager to exploit the earning capacity of children at the earliest possible moment and in entire disregard of their welfare either of mind or body. It would take children out of school with education hardly begun and condemn them, or most of them, for life to ill-remunerated toil.

Was a Minister of Labor under a Premier? The Ramsey MacDonald Government that is incomprehensible, but it gave Lady Astor a fine opportunity for the exercise of her powers of sarcasm and wit and a chance to say that the grinding capitalists of other days had been no more indifferent to the interests of childhood.

ONTARIO TOURISTS FAVOR N. B.

Will Come Here for Summer if Cottages Can be Secured.

N. B. ROADS PRAISED

Visitor Says They are in Fine Condition Despite Recent Rains.

There are many people throughout Ontario who would like to spend the summer or part of the summer along the Atlantic coast of Canada but are prevented from doing so on account of the fact that they have been unable to get in touch with the owners of cottages. This information was brought to the city by F. H. Kitto, engineer to the natural resources intelligence service, Department of the Interior, Ottawa, who arrived by automobile last evening from Upper Canada and left again this morning for Nova Scotia.

Mr. Kitto was engaged last year in making a survey of the natural resources of Nova Scotia and is proceeding there to complete his work this year.

N. B. Roads Good.

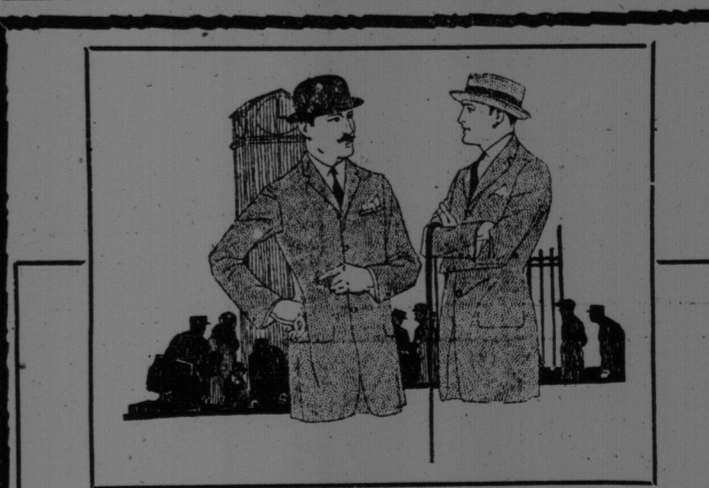

While in the city, Mr. Kitto called upon T. P. Regan, president, and J. Charlton Berrie, secretary, of the New Brunswick Automobile Association. He said that he had found the roads through the province in excellent condition, and was able to suggest to the N. B. A. A. officers a few places on the route from Edmundston to St. John where the markings of the trunk roads might be improved. A note was made of these places and will be sent out for erection there by the association.

The visitor said that there was an increasing feeling in Ontario in favor of vacationing in Canada and that the interest in the Maritime Provinces, particularly among those who liked the enjoyment of the cool salt air during the warm period, was becoming gradually more marked. He knew personally of some people who would like to come down this way for a time this summer and understood that there were many more with similar tastes, but the difficulty of securing summer cottages stood in the way.

Mr. Berrie informed Mr. Kitto that he had on hand information as to several cottages that could be rented for the summer and that anyone requiring them need only to get in touch with him.

Asked this morning if his department intended carrying out a natural resources survey in New Brunswick, similar to the one which was now completing in Nova Scotia, Mr. Kitto said that the matter was receiving consideration at Ottawa. While on the way through the province he had hoped to see the Government buildings in Fredericton, where he had met Premier Veniot and other government officials.

The fact that he had been able to make the through trip from Ottawa to St. John without having to use chains, in spite of the heavy rains which had occurred earlier in the week, was evidence of the excellent condition of the roads, Mr. Kitto said.

DELEGATES PLEDGE SOCIETIES' BACKING

Fifty Endorse Social Hygiene Council—Dr. Gordon Bates Speaks.

The hearty support and ready cooperation of the representatives of about 80 of the city's most active organizations were pledged to the St. John Social Hygiene Council at its re-organization meeting last night, when the various representatives were enrolled as members of the council. The meeting was held in the Health Centre with F. T. Barbour presiding in the absence of W. A. Lockhart.

Dr. Gordon Bates, of Toronto, secretary of the Canadian Social Hygiene Council, told of the urgent need of obtaining the interest and active co-operation of every section of the community to stamp out diseases which threatened all alike and brought in their wake incalculable suffering, misery and loss. Mayor Potts expressed appreciation of Dr. Bates' address and a cordial vote of thanks was extended to Dr. Bates on the motion of Dr. Roberts, seconded by County Warden Wigmore.

Dr. Roberts spoke appreciatively of what Dr. Bates had done in his vigorous campaign against trashy literature which he knew to be a menace to the morals of the people. It was the result of Dr. Bates' efforts that the two great railways of Canada had forbidden the sale of this literature on the bookstands in their stations. Dr. Bates had also instituted so thorough a canvass to create public sentiment that there was hope that the Dominion grant to carry on the campaign against venereal diseases would be the full amount of $200,000.

Mrs. J. H. Dooey, for the committee appointed to name a secretary, reported that Mrs. William Phillips had been chosen and she was warmly greeted on taking office.

Dr. Bates paid a tribute to the work of Dr. J. A. McCarthy in pioneering effort for social hygiene and said he considered the social hygiene movement the greatest that had ever been launched. He declared the prevalence of venereal diseases to be amazing and said that each group of citizens, lawyers, magistrates, doctors, recreation experts, educators and clergymen need to be awake to the situation as it existed.

Makes Suggestions.

He cited a special case and pointed out the things which could be remedied and which made for the spread of venereal diseases. These things were an unfair double moral standard, lack of a place of detention for girls who had been led astray through ignorance and lack of aid in helping those who sought to reform. There was a very definite relation between the campaign against venereal diseases and the attainment of the social reforms great leaders were striving for.

Dr. Bates characterized Rotary Club and similar organizations as something really worth while that had just come nobly knew how and coupled with the good which these organizations accomplished was the fact that woman's point of view counted at the present time, would have a significant influence in the coming years. These were factors in the advancement of the social hygiene movement.

As to the work which a local committee was to undertake, Dr. Bates suggested first an effort to get those who were infected, many of whom were unaware of it, to receive treatment, to have examinations made of institution inmates and then present significant facts to the Government.

Recreation Facilities.

As constructive work he urged education of children in idealism, saying the parents should give instruction. With regard to medical inspection before marriage, he believed before long this would be compulsory and made so thorough the combined action of the churches, the medical profession and the people, not by Government. He advocated more supervised playgrounds for children, the organization of recreation facilities in church parish halls, the formation of a clergyman's committee in the Social Hygiene Council and a close study of local conditions.

Mayor Potts believed the churches could do much good in providing recreational facilities and expressed the opinion that after war conditions must be responsible for the city having had 6,000 cases in one year as stated by Dr. Roberts.

Dr. Roberts explained that he had used incorrect figures in making that statement. The actual figures were that 5,000 cases had been treated in the whole of New Brunswick at all the venereal disease clinics since they were first opened in 1920. Dr. Bates said that war had not aggravated conditions of venereal disease. Those conditions were much the same the world over.

MURDOCK GIVES BACK THE MONEY

Minister of Labor Returns Deposits Withdrawn From the Home Bank.

Toronto, May 29—Hon. James Murdock, Minister of Labor, has given back to the liquidators all the money that he withdrew from the Home Bank. When Gus Porter, M. P., made the charges against Mr. Murdock in the House of Commons, the Minister of Labor presented correspondence with G. T. Clarkson, liquidator, showing that he had returned more than $1,000 of the $4,000 he withdrew and proposed to pay it all back. Today the liquidators are in possession of the entire amount from Mr. Murdock as set out in Mr. Clarkson's letter. It means that Mr. Murdock has returned the $4,000 withdrawal minus the 25 per cent dividend which was paid to depositors, placing himself in the position of a depositor who had more than $4,000 on deposit when the bank failed.

Charges regarding the propriety of Mr. Murdock's conduct in withdrawing the money before the bank closed are being heard before a special committee at Ottawa.

Arthur Wentworth Hamilton Eaton, D.D., Anglican clergyman, of Boston, regarding descendants of one Alexander Fraser, who is said to have established the first book store in St. John. He was an advertiser in the papers of 1848. Records of this fact are to be found at the Public Library, it was stated by Mrs. A. C. Watters, of 28 Albert street.

Shamrocks and Vets Have a Thrilling Match—Former Win Out.

The Shamrocks vanquished the Vets in the professional league fixture on the East End diamond last evening by a score of 6 to 5 in a game replete with exciting plays and stellar catches. The fans were given a rare treat for it was another case of the result being in doubt until the third man was retired at the end of the eighth inning when the game was called on account of darkness.

A SHAMROCK FAN.

The first inning saw the start of the exciting play. The Shamrocks were quickly retired and in the last half the Vets garnered two runs due to a couple of errors and a clean single. There was no more scoring until the third inning when the Shamrocks sent a runner across the plate. In the fourth they secured four runs which gave them a commanding lead. The Vets have back one of the runs in their half, another in the sixth and another in the eighth, but as their opponent also failed in the eighth they maintained a one run margin which was sufficient to win out.

One of the features of the game was a sensational catch made by "Left" Doherty at the end of the seventh inning. He was standing waiting for the ball that was sailing in his direction and suddenly realized that he was in the air. He started back and then catapulted himself in the air spearing the flying horseshoe. He landed on his shoulders and head and was slightly stunned but held the ball.

Burke started the game for the Vets, but was withdrawn in the fourth inning and Tippetts replaced him. Hansen pitched seven innings for the Shamrocks and as a result of an injury to his right hand retired when the inning was over. Malcolm finished the eighth inning.

The umpiring of Fred Mahoney and William Riley was satisfactory to both players and fans and their all-around work is meeting with general approval.

St. Louis Pitchers Generous to Detroit—The Cubs Move Along.

New York, N. Y., May 30—The extreme generosity of five St. Louis pitchers, who handed out 12 free tickets to Detroit, has caused the Cubs to move along. The Cubs were victorious in the two National League games which were not checked by the weather, the former making it three out of four over the Phillies with a 5 to 4 win, while the latter bumped off the Pirates, 2 to 2.

Walter Henline, Philadelphia catcher, had an inconsistent day. At bat he was a hero with a triple, double and a single out of four trips to the plate, but he was hit by a perfect throw and this passed ball admitted a run which Boston made the most of.

Howard Kean, Cub pitcher, was a complete puzzle to the Pirates and the Chicago team attained a position in the league ranks from which it can hop into the lead with the first indication of a weakening on the part of the Giants.

"EDDIE" DANSTON DOES A COMEBACK

Holds Royals Hitless for Six Innings and Wins Out, 3 to 1.

A tall young gentleman by the name of "Eddie" Johnston gave an excellent demonstration of the art of performing the comeback stunt in the South End League last evening when for six innings he turned back the Royals in a monotonous style with hardly the semblance of a hit and with his teammates giving him full support. The score was 3 to 1. Last year, "Eddie" won the title for the Royals when he twirled for the St. John Baptist team and the same old story was expected last night when he stepped on the rubber. Instead, they found the young south-paw's offerings unhittable and when Lenihan singled in the fourth for the Gunners, stole second and rode home on Mountain's double, the game was pretty near won for "Eddie." Two innings went by, however, before any further scores. Opening the seventh frame, Carpenter landed safely. Cummings ran for him as Carpenter and Austen collided heavily at first in the fifth inning. Barry poked a healthy double, Cummings scoring. Barry deposited No. 3 a few minutes later. The Royals roared grous when Young connected safely in the last half of the seventh. McAleer had got on safely before that and the Royals scored when Nelson slashed a sizzler to the outfield. Johnston tightened up here and from then on was unbeatable.

Diggs pitched good ball, striking out 12 men and allowing but six hits. By bunching them, however, the Gunners won the game which was one of the best played in the history of the South End. Last night's game is the second of the season in which a team fielded without an error, the Royals doing it Monday night. The brand of baseball these days is far above anything seen on these grounds in previous years. Although the seasons have been played every night with very little wild throwing around the bases as would be expected from sore arms in color, the Gunners are leading the procession with 3 wins and no losses. The Royals are within striking distance but will have to play snappy baseball to keep pace with the military outfit. These two teams will play an exhibition game tonight.

Majority of Regulars Were Able to Make the Trip.

The Shamrocks baseball team left this afternoon for Moncton, where they will play one game this evening in the New Brunswick League. The majority of the regulars were able to make satisfactory arrangements to get away and as a result local followers of the team are confident that they will make a good showing in the railway town. Manager Coughlan had not definitely decided who he would assign to mound duty, but said he might start Stafford or Lawlor.

LOCAL TERRIER WINS AT MONTREAL

"Warrior Red Devil" Awarded First and Winners at Show.

George Gray received glad tidings yesterday from a telegram from Montreal informing him that his Irish terrier, "Warrior Red Devil," went to first and winners at the Sporting Terrier Show of the Montreal Kennel Association, which was held yesterday. The information was forwarded to Mr. Gray by B. A. Ross, who is well known to all dog fanciers in these parts.

CONNOLLY ARRIVES FOR THE BIG FIGHT

Gate Crasher Extraordinary Will View the Gibbons-Carpenter Bout.

Local boxing fans are awaiting with considerable interest the outcome of the Tom Gibbons-Georges Carpenter bout for ten rounds with no decision, at Michigan City on Saturday, although opinion seems pretty near unanimous that Gibbons will win handily in view of his showing with Jack Dempsey, heavyweight champion, as compared with the Frenchman, and also in view of Carpenter's poor showing against Battling Siki. E. W. Dickerson will referee.

Games Tonight

The class of ball the fans are being handed out these nights on diamonds in all parts of the city only serves to whet the appetites of the spectators. The first meeting of the season, the St. John public when they tackle the War Vets on the East End grounds. The capital outfit is not the weakest crew it was last year. Nevertheless, he's a little outfit and with the St. Stephen boys, Vincent Shields, on the mound, they are going to prove one tough nut to slice up. Manager Shea announces this morning that Mr. Caruthers, the left-handed artist who nearly but not quite, pitched a no-hit game recently, will be on the leaving side for the locals and our versatile friend, Mr. Vanstone, will receive. Cole will catch for Fredericton. All this has possibilities for plenty of excitement.

The big game in the amateur division is slated for the Nashua Park tonight when the Portland, captained by "Charlie" Gorman, meet the St. John team. The Nashua Park is an open secret that Gorman & Co. are out for the title now held by the Saints and as this will be the first meeting of the season, the outcome is awaited with interest. Murphy and Fitzgerald will do battery duty for the champions while Hamann and Logan perform for the North End crew.

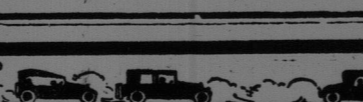

No league game will be played on the South End diamond tonight but the Machine Gunners, league leaders, and the Trojans will play an exhibition. No matter what it is, it is bound to be a good game. Potter will twirl for the Trojans and Cummings for the Gunners.

A quiet squabble takes place on the North End diamond this evening when the Water Department will try and dig a grave for the baseball ambitions of the Public Work's department. Gormley and McEachern are the battery for Commissioner Frink's hearties while Johnston and Hatfield perform for Commissioner Wigmore's merry men.

A meeting of those interested in the formation of a City Church Baseball League will be held at the Y. M. C. A. at 8 o'clock this evening. At least two representatives of each Protestant church in the city are requested to be present. The schedule for the season will be drawn up at tonight's meeting if the league can be formed.

TITLE BOUT TONIGHT

New York, N. Y., May 30—Pancho Villa and Frankie Ash will meet tonight in the Nostrand A. C. for the flyweight title.

Make Fundy Pull Even Better

Without knowing it you may be having too rich a mixture with Fundy Gas—being so quick to start on the spark it behaves so beautifully the condition goes unnoticed.

You'll burn less gas, get more mileage and save still more money if the carburetor is changed from the adjustment for ordinary gas. Other gas burns 8 times its volume in air—Fundy fifteen.

Few motorists are onto this dodge, but in spite of the fact all find Fundy snappier, cleaner and cheaper in the long run.

WIND WAS FLUKY FOR MODEL YACHTS

First Series of Races Held Last Evening on Lily Lake.

Eleven model yachts of the 30-inch class competed in the first series of races for the season held on Lily Lake last evening by the St. John Model Yacht Club. There was quite a large number of spectators present to witness the contests. The wind was anything but favorable for racing, it was fluky and extremely light. It changed frequently after calm and it was almost impossible to keep the miniature yachts on their course which really took some of the pleasure out of the game and made it less interesting than if there had been a steady wind.

The course decided on was a reach close hauled from one end of the lake to the other. The boats in the first heat had scarcely started when the light breeze shifted and the yachts took a course towards the shore, causing their owners to pick them up and make them tack several times before reaching the finish line. On many occasions the breeze proved so baffling that it meant a constant attendance on the boats.

The result of the first heat was as follows: First, Georgie B. owned by George McA. Bilzard; second, Helen S., owned by George McA. Bilzard; third, Mist, owned by C. McManus.

Weather conditions for the second heat were even worse than the first, some of the yachts sailing only about half the distance of the course when they were becalmed. Three yachts, however, finished in the following order: First, Canada, owned by C. Carvill; second, Pastime, owned by W. E. Weil; third, Nagol, owned by Willie Logan.

At the finish of the second heat, the wind having died out entirely, the committee in charge decided that the finals would be postponed until Friday, June 6, at 7 p.m., on which evening the 36-inch class boats will race, so the final of the 30-inch yachts will be an extra attraction.

BARNEY MOONEY SUSTAINS INJURY

Breaks Small Bone in His Foot—Confined to His Home.

Friends of Barney Mooney, star second baseman of the Shamrocks, will regret to learn that he is confined to his home as a result of an injury sustained during one of the opening games of the season. In some manner he broke a small bone in his left foot. It is expected he will be out of the game for a few weeks.

SHY ON DOUBLE PLAYS

The Washington infield which made a record last season for double plays, isn't working with its customary smoothness this year. Peck and Harris don't appear to have hit their stride as yet.

"SURE TO PLAY IN OLYMPICS," MLE. LENGLEN TELLS REPORTER

Paris, May 30—"I am all right again, as you can see for yourself," Mlle. Susanne Lenglen, the French tennis champion of the world, informed the Matin's Nice correspondent. "Please deny the imaginative stories current about my health. The doctors have authorized me to begin training again, and without the slightest doubt shall take part in the Olympic games. The correspondent describes Mlle. Lenglen as having fresh color and an elegant manner, and, he adds, if somewhat thinner, her features are not drawn. He was unable to induce her to give an opinion of Miss Helen Wills, the American champion.

TO SEEK OPPONENT FOR BENNY LEONARD

State Commission Asks Promoters to Stage an Elimination Contest.

Arriving at the conclusion that there appeared to be at the present time no outstanding contender for the world's lightweight championship, now held by Benny Leonard, the New York State Athletic Commission, at its recent regular meeting, asked the leading boxing promoters in the metropolitan district to organize a committee and co-operate in the staging of a series of elimination bouts which would determine the local opponent for Leonard this year. Announcement of this invitation to the promoters was made at the conclusion of the meeting by Chairman George Brower.

According to Mr. Brower, the proposition met with the unanimous approval of practically all of the leading promoters who signified their willingness to do all they could to arrange bouts between the foremost lightweight contenders in the country in order to produce the best man available. The promoters who will form the committee and pledged their support to the movement were Tex Rickard, Charles Henderson of the Nostrand A. C., Simon Flaherty of the Queensboro, A. C., Jimmy Johnston, matchmaker for the Polo Grounds and Yankee Stadium, and Charles Brierley of the Pioneer A. C. They will arrange for a meeting at once.

While the meeting was in progress, Rickard stated that he considered the plan a sound and logical one, and added that he thought the match scheduled for tonight at the New York Velodrom between Johnny Dundee and Luis Vincentini probably would help to clear the situation. The commission's one stipulation, Chairman Brower stated, was that the series of elimination bouts must be completed before the end of July.

OLYMPICS, 12; WOLVES, 3

The Olympics defeat the Wolves on the King George diamond last night by a score 12 to 3. This is the second game for the Olympics, winning the series of three games. The batteries for the winners were Poshay and Lunny, for the losers, McConnell and Buckley. The Olympics wish to accept the challenge of the Wolves in place of the Red Wings game to be played on the King George diamond tonight at 7.30.

FIRST LEAGUE GAME IN SUSSEX

The Home Team Will Meet Hampton in Feature Holiday Attraction.

(Kings County Record.) The first game to be played in Sussex in the Kings County League series is scheduled for Tuesday morning, June 3rd, to commence at 10 o'clock, when Hampton and Sussex will battle for supremacy. The S. A. A. C. team have been putting in some good practice and appear to be playing better ball than last year.

John LeClair and H. I. Evans will be in the pitchers' box and the receiving end will be looked after by Clyde McDougall and Joe LeClair.

The diamond on the Sussex ball field this season is very fast.

The game on Tuesday morning next between Hampton and Sussex promises to be a dandy good one, as both teams are determined to win. The Hampton team is considerably strengthened this year, and will make the champions of last season go some to win.

The first league game of 1924 schedule was staged at Norton on May 24, between Hampton and Norton, but was called off at the finish of the fourth inning on account of the heavy rainfall. The next game is scheduled for Friday, May 30th, when Norton and Hampton will play at Hampton. The game will start at 6.45 p.m.

Petiodic has a good ball team this season, among the players being several who were members of the Annapolis and Penobscot teams of last year and previous. A series of exhibition games between the S. A. A. C. and Petiodic teams is being arranged. At Petiodic a new ball field has been secured and has been put in excellent shape for playing on.

Lloyd reports that he is in good condition and will join the Shamrocks in the near future. He was a valued member of the pitching staff of St. Peter's team.

JAPS PIN HOPES ON THEIR RUNNERS

Expect Marathoners to Break Into Point Column—Their Records.

Tokio, May 30.—(Associated Press.)—Japan's middle and long distance runners carry the greatest hopes for breaking into the point column in the Olympic games at Paris. It is from the distance runners that most is expected. The national Olympic tryouts held in Tokio recently uncovered two hitherto unknown stars who have a better chance than any others of the small hand soon to start for Paris of carrying the Rising Sun emblem to victory.

Shiso Kanaguri, graduate of the Tokio Higher Normal School and now a Tokio teacher, won the marathon in the tryouts in the very creditable time of 2:36.9, less than four minutes slower than the time made by Kolehmainen, the Finn, in winning the long distance classic at Antwerp in 1920. The course over which Kanaguri made his record is not a trying one, but the race was run in the rain, and his performance speaks well for his chances at Paris.

A small, bespectacled youth, Kikunosuke Tajiro, of Chuo University, scored a decisive victory in the 10,000-metre run, negotiating the distance in 32:48.8-5. The winning time at Antwerp was 31:45.2-5, which indicates that Tajiro also has a chance of at least to score.

If Japan comes to all at Paris she will take pride in the results. It was a shock to the athletic fans of this country when their 1920 Olympic team failed to bring back a single point. Eight track and field athletes, five swimmers and one wrestler were named by the executive committee of the Japan Amateur Athletic Association after the tryouts to represent Japan at Paris. Three of these men already are in America or Europe. The rest, accompanied by a small staff of coaches, trainers and officials, have sailed.

Japan also plans to be represented in the tennis events of the Olympics, but the team has not been named. If possible it will be composed of men who will also be members of the Davis Cup team, most of whom are already in the United States. Tennis was the only branch of the Antwerp games in which Japan made a creditable showing.

Ichioya Kumage making his way into the semi-finals and Kumage and Kashio also reaching the final round in the men's doubles, where they lost to Turnbull and Woosnam, the British pair.

The expenses of the Japanese Olympic team will be paid in part by the government, which has appropriated $30,000 for that purpose, and partly by public subscription. The total cost is estimated at $60,000.

ALUMNAE PLAY BADMINTON

St. Vincent's Alumnae played its preliminary games of badminton at their room in St. John the Baptist school last evening, and will play off for the finals this evening. Refreshments will be served at the close. Miss Kathleen O'Brien will be convener. There were more than 75 present and many contestants for the preliminaries. Twelve separate doubles and 14 singles were played. The games were closely contested.

ED. SHEVLIN PUTS TANSEY OUT IN 4TH

Boston, Mass., May 29.—Eddie Shevlin, of Roxbury, New England welter-weight champion, knocked out Tansey Norton, of Roxbury, in the fourth round of a scheduled 12-round match here tonight. Shevlin began a driving offensive, with hard rights and lefts mostly to the face, in the third round and succeeded in retiring Norton with his eyes nearly closed.

In the fourth round, at the sound of the bell Shevlin again drove in. Within 30 seconds he knocked Norton down for the count of nine as he rose floored him against a sharp right to the jaw. Norton's seconds threw in the towel before the referee finished counting, for the fight was obviously over. In the opening round Shevlin had a shade the best of it but Norton led in the second round except when Shevlin was close in.

It was a fast match, both contestants appearing to be anxious to inflict heavy damage. Before the fight started Norton questioned the amount of tape used by Shevlin on his hands and the ensuing argument warmed both for the fray. Shevlin weighed in at 144 and Norton at 145 pounds.

In the preliminary Andy Martin, of Roxbury, gained the decision over Jimmy Corradi, of Berlin, N. H. Scoop White, of Worcester, won the decision over Al Sears, of East Boston, in a fast eight round semi-final.

URGE SPEED IN POLO SELECTION

British Press Fears Team Will be Handicapped—Need Practice.

There is some disquietude in the English polo world over the selection of the team that is to meet the Americans this season for the international cup and six times which the four will have in which to get in shape for the match. Fears are expressed that the team will go into the struggle unprepared through lack of practice in which the principal teaching should be to beat America at its own game—that of excelling in long and accurate hitting and variety of strokes. In the opinion of one English critic, "The pity of it is that we have come so close to the beginning of a new polo season with nothing definite decided as to the exact composition of our team."

In the London Field "R. C. R." sums up the English situation in part, as follows: "When a while ago it was announced that Viscount Wimborne, Lieut. Col. E. D. Miller and Lieut. Col. R. J. Ritson had been appointed as a special sub-committee of the Hurlington Polo Committee—now the governing body of the game in this country—to select the England team for this year's encounter with America for the international cup, much satisfaction was expressed. It was generally recognized that here were three men whose previous experience in the organization of such a club well fitted them for the job in hand. It was to Viscount Wimborne that we were indebted in great measure for the recovery of the cup from America in 1914, for he was financially responsible for the sending out of the successful side; while Colonel Miller acted as Captain and Colonel Ritson as manager of the Duke of Westminster's side which the year previously made what was to prove an unavailing attempt to lift the trophy.

"Consequently, it is not surprising that we still felt despite the fact that no sort of endeavor was made during last season, in spite of casualties to likely candidates, to start the selection of a team. It was pointed out that, taking the list of handicaps as a guide, more players than usual were entitled to have their claims considered for places in the team. Hence the necessity for an early tryout of this talent. We have become so accustomed to procrastinating until almost the last moment in such matters—that was the principal cause of our failure two years ago, Major 'Rattle' Barrett being introduced at almost the eleventh hour—that year we were not to be should fall into the same injudicious complacency as of yore.

"It was fully recognized that if we were to have a chance of regaining the trophy from America we must prepare ourselves both in regard to choice of men and of ponies. Respecting the former it was vitally necessary that our players be not only brilliant individualists but be able to act together in corporate unity, to play the game as a four-man team, polo in its true sense, and to stand a chance of beating them we must prepare to worst them at their own game. No other method we are likely to conceive of can have a likely chance of prevailing. Time, here, is of the very essence of the contract. Perfect combination cannot be acquired in a day, or even a week or a month.

"Moreover, we are a long way behind the Americans not only in long but in accurate hitting, and in variety of strokes all round the pony at various angles and paces. Stroke production, like perfect combination, is a question of practice, and before we can hope to regain the cup our players, one and all, must improve and greatly develop their striking powers. Long and accurate hitting and fast galloping are with a proper understanding by the players of one another's methods, the principal factors requisite in an international team; good polo is impossible without them.

"The players provisionally selected are Major T. W. Kirkwood, No. 1; Major G. H. Phipps-Hornby, No. 2; Major F. B. Hurdall, No. 3; and Lord Cholmondeley, back. That this is not the strongest side that could be chosen is self-evident to any one who knows anything about polo. And it is in consequence of this that so much disquiet exists.

"What is clear is that this provisional team is not necessarily the one

NEWS NOTES GATHERED FROM WORLD OF STAGE AND SCREEN

HOLLYWOOD NOW LOOKS FOR ACTORS

Trek East After the Winter Slump Causes Great Shortage.

Hollywood, May 29.—Hollywood expects a shortage of motion picture players this summer. Unless many of the screen celebrities now working in the New York are brought back to the Pacific Coast, producers will experience a dearth of acting talent, according to M. C. Levee, president of the United Studios and producer of Maurice Tourneur pictures.

George Price, who has been touring the United States in theatricals for the last ten months, returns today to the city for his two months' vacation. Mr. Price is well known in St. John, where he had many friends when associated with the W. Hawker & Sons, Ltd., drug business, Prince William street. He also won great esteem in amateur theatricals, where he learned that his art warranted a more practical use of his talent. Mr. Price has been playing for several years with United States stock companies and has had great success.

The "Boosters" of the Y. W. C. A. took a hand in presenting flowers last evening at the Opera House when the Y. W. C. A. play, which has been running since the beginning of a new polo season with nothing definitely decided as to the exact composition of our team, remains in a state of flux. And this, in the nature of things, is bound to be inimical to our chances of ultimate success.

JACKIE GETS AN INVITATION FROM DUKE OF ATHOLL

The Duke of Atholl, president of "Save the Children First Fund," has asked me to write this letter, and, as we do not know your address, we are just going to put, Jackie Coogan, America on it.

Thus ended a letter from Mrs. A. Leggett in London asking Jackie's aid in behalf of a worthy charity which it is hoped Jackie would be able to serve when he makes his grand tour to the Holy Land next September, bringing food and clothing for the orphans of the Near East. And Jackie got the letter promptly. It couldn't have come more swiftly if it had borne his street address in Hollywood. The identity of our screen stars may not be clear to European potentates and kings, but there isn't a postmaster or letter carrier in the United States that doesn't know Jackie Coogan and where he lives. Jackie hopes to leave Los Angeles

Following the slump here this winter, many popular screen players left Hollywood for New York, where they have been busily engaged during the past few months. With production rapidly coming back to its summer peak it has already become difficult to cast a picture. This is merely an indication of what the situation will be two months from now, when studios will be working night and day to finish the product for next fall and winter.

BARNEY FRANCIS IS DISCIPLINED

Miler is Ordered Off the Field at Rothesay by Coach

That no indifference or disobedience will be tolerated at the Olympic training camp at Rothesay was emphasized this morning when Coach Johnnie Dee ordered Barney Francis off the field and told him to remain off until he changes his attitude. Francis is Canadian champion one-miler. He arrived at the camp yesterday from his home in Prince Edward Island. Owing to his conceded inability, Coach Dee said he was taking particular pains to get him ready for the trials in Moncton next week, hoping that he would be successful in making such a Canadian team. However, this morning, he said, Francis refused to obey orders and went about his work indifferently. Mr. Dee said he then disciplined him. Unless this athletic changes his attitude, Mr. Dee said, he could return to his home.

In conversation with a Times-Star reporter today, Mr. Dee said the people of the Maritime Provinces were financing the camp, so that the boys would have every opportunity of getting into the best possible condition to vie with the leading athletes of the Dominion. He said that it was no easy task to get athletes in such a big event and in order to get the best results there must be perfect co-operation. He said if he showed partially he would destroy the morale of the team and he had no intention of doing any such thing. He said it was immaterial to him whether the offender was Francis or any other athlete; all must obey the rules or else go home. He said that he reported the affair to A. W. Covey, president of the A. A. U. of C., and would look to him to see that his word was law.

With reference to the work today, Coach Dee said the boys had been out of their run early this morning and following a rest and breakfast, indulged in a good workout. He is enthusiastic over the showing they are making and is confident that there will be some surprises in store at Moncton. May Get Foley. Mr. Covey announced this morning that an effort would be made to secure the services of Tom Foley to train the winners of the boxing events in the preliminary trials here next week. Mr. Foley has been instructing the Halifax entrants and has been in charge of a training school for some years. He is a former champion boxer himself and is conceded to be an excellent instructor. He is expected here next week with the Halifax boxers and an effort will then be made to have him take over this important post. Walter O'Toole, coach of the wrestling squad, announced this morning that his charges would appear in exhibition bouts in the Y. M. C. A. next Monday evening. It will be a private showing for the benefit of local officials conducting the big meet.

East St. John Troop and Officers Congratulated on Their Success.

The annual meeting of the troop committee of Boy Scout Troop No. 6, East St. John, was held last evening in the Edith Avenue hall, with G. G. Elliott in the chair. E. Logan, secretary-treasurer, presented his report for the year, which showed that the report had been very successful. These present included, besides the chairman and secretary, Committee members H. Franklin and F. D. Foley, Scoutmaster O. J. Lawson, L. L. Johnson, secretary of the Scouts district council, P. McIntyre, Mrs. R. Kirkpatrick, Mrs. Margaret Whipple, Mrs. O. J. Lawson and Mrs. A. Lewis. Scoutmaster Lawson gave a brief talk on scouting and its principles, particularly stressing the necessity of co-operation by the parents. The district secretary also spoke, commending the troop on its success, the scoutmaster, and especially the committee which took so great an interest in the troop. He urged that a man be sent this year to attend the Gilwell Training Camp for scoutmasters.

WAS MAINE MUD

An automobile which arrived here yesterday from the United States attracted considerable attention in passing through the city on account of the fact that the tires were covered with mud—there was hardly a square inch of the body and top that was not caked thickly with the soil from the roads.

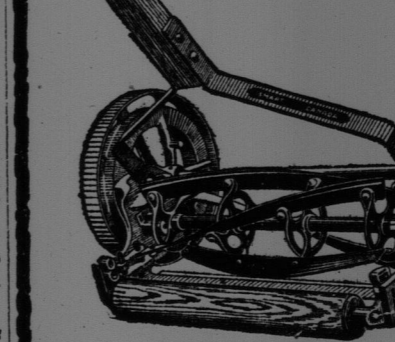

While standing in Union street the visiting car attracted the attention of T. P. Regan, president of the New Brunswick Automobile Association, who always alert when matters concerning the province roads are concerned, enquired of the visitor where he managed to pick up such a liberal cargo of mud. "Not in New Brunswick," Mr. Regan was told. It appeared that the tourist had run into a bad stretch of highway between Bangor and Machias, Me. and it was there, following the heavy rain of the first part of the week, that he had received his splattering. He added that the roads through the western part of New Brunswick were in excellent condition.

MAKES SUGGESTION. Commissioner Harding suggested this morning that citizens could do much to prevent unnecessary alarm and turning out of the firemen if, instead of pulling the hook at a box if a horse fell into a hole, or in case of accidents of that nature, they would telephone to the hook and ladder station and tell what was wanted.

As Hiram Sees It

"Hiram," said The Times reporter to Mr. Hiram Hornbeam, "you are a rather tiresome old wretch. You come in here every day and disturb me when I am thinking high thoughts. You talk piffle, and your whiskers offend me." "Well, well, well," said Hiram. "Ain't that too bad. I'm real sorry for you. Why don't you print some of them there high thoughts I have seen 'em in the paper." "You could not appreciate them," said the reporter. "You are a commonplace person." "An' you're one of the elect-I s'pose," said Hiram. "Nothin' like bevin' a good opinion of yourself. Well, sir, as far as I'm concerned, I'm just a common, everyday critter—like most other folks. I understand them an' they understand me. We do our best—an' let it go at that. An' one of the things that makes us tickled with ourselves is runnin' up agin fellers like you—that thinks you're the cat's whiskers—yes, sir."
