CALL A MEETING TO AROUSE
CITIZENS, SAYS JUDGE FORBES

Need Competent Men to Safeguard the City's Interests—First of Series of Interviews to Ascertain Opinion of Leading Citizens

In order to arouse wider interest in civic affairs the Star is commencing a canvass of a number of prominent citizens to ascertain their ideas on the following question: "What should be done to bring to the average citizen a fuller realization of his duties as a citizen and to make this realization a working force for better government?"

Hon. J. G. Forbes, when approached by a representative of this paper, was inclined to judge the city government according to the way the future of the harbor and therefore the future of the city is safeguarded.

He said: "The first thing that should be done is to call a mass meeting of the citizens in order that they may be fully aroused to the importance of the situation. Such a movement should be in the hands of some body which has a recognized standing in the community such as the Board of Trade, and steps should be taken to organize with a view to bringing out as candidates for the council competent men—who would be capable of pointing out and dealing with the position we are now in. We have a debt of two million dollars and though our only asset of importance is the harbor, it is proposed to give the harbor away. If part of the harbor is given to the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway, part to some other railway and the balance to the government the city will be done for. We need competent men to see that the interests of the city are conserved and if the harbor is placed in commission to see that the city gets proper compensation."

LIQUOR DEALERS TRIED TO GET RID OF INFORMER

But He Failed to Take Their Advice, Has Been Arrested, and Will Appear in Coming Trials.

MONCTON, Feb. 6.—Making him believe that they were doing him an act of kindness, Fred Allan, a Scott Act informer, was a few nights ago driven to Seaboard by a number of liquor dealers and there told to keep on going. They gave him ten dollars, at the same time telling him if he did not clear out they would lay a charge against him for selling liquor contrary to the Scott Act.

Allan, thinking he would be dealt with the same as Jones, who is now awaiting trial before the county court on a like charge, and who is also a Scott Act informer, agreed to do it, but got as far as Petticoat, where he communicated with the police here, the result being that he was arrested on a warrant and now awaits Scott Act cases, when he will give evidence for the prosecution.

BARK FOR HONOLULU
TWO MONTHS OVERDUE

NEW YORK, N. Y., Feb. 6.—Failure of the four masted bark Fort George to arrive at Honolulu, for which port she sailed from New York on July 28 last, or to have been spoken any word since last August, have given rise to fears for her safety. Her agent here stated today that while the bark had not been given up for lost, there were grounds for anxiety regarding her, as she was about two months overdue.

On board the vessel when she left here for her trip around the Horn were Captain Fullerton and his wife and a crew of eighteen. She was laden with 2,500 tons of general merchandise.

ENGLAND HAS SUDDENLY GONE CRAZY OVER THE FEAR OF A POSSIBLE GERMAN INVASION

Defence of the Island the Sole Topic of Convention Everywhere—Recent Play Developed the Agitation—Recruiting in London—Naval Expansion

NEW YORK, Feb. 6.—A Times despatch from London says: England apparently is in a panic over the possibility of invasion by a hostile army. Numerous incidents following the production of the play "An Englishman's Home" built on such a possibility, shows the state of mind of the general public.

Lord Escher, having appealed to the Daily Mail for 11,000 volunteers to complete the quota of the public of London in the territorial army, an anonymous reader has sent him a check for $50,000 to assist in his work of recruiting this force.

The solemn warnings which Lord Roberts has been uttering for two years and the fervid speeches which Mr. Haldane, the minister of war, has been making all over the country, have done their work and suddenly, under the influence of the realistic play, the whole people have awakened to a realization of what war would mean. Nothing is talked in the streets, the club and the home except the defense of the island. Efforts are being made to recruit the territorial army and the Admiralty is asking the Government for authority to lay down six Dreadnoughts this year.

BILL TO PROVIDE
PENSIONS FOR TEACHERS

Will be Introduced at Coming Session—Miss Peters Wants Playgrounds—Military Drill for Schools.

FREDERICTON, N. B., Feb. 6.—At the session of the Board of Education yesterday the question of providing pensions for teachers was discussed and it was decided to present a bill to the Legislature this coming session with that end in view.

A letter was read from Miss Mabel Peters, St. John, recommending that provision be made in the school law for the establishment of improved school play grounds.

A communication was also read from Sir Frederick Borden, Minister of Militia, recommending the establishment in the New Brunswick school of a system of physical drill to be followed by elementary military training and rifle shooting. The minister pointed out that the system had been recommended and adopted by the Nova Scotia Council of Militia. Instruction. The master was referred to Dr. Inch and Premier Hazen.

Hon. John Morrissey leaves for Ottawa this evening to join a Mitchell delegation seeking favors at the hands of the Federal Government, including the Dominion exhibition grant.

TWENTY FIVE MILLIONS
TO IMPROVE RAILWAY

Southern Pacific Embarks on Big Project, Including a Six Mile Tunnel.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Feb. 6.—The Southern Pacific Railway Company has just announced at Bowmen, a few miles from Auburn in this state, a lease from which it will construct improvements to its right of way over the Sierra Nevada mountains, costing $25,000,000. The contemplated improvements will give the company two lines from Roseville to Truckee, and a lower grade by 1000 feet than the present line traversed. Among the great engineering feats involved is a construction of a tunnel six miles in length. Four years will be allowed for the completion of the tunnel. As headquarters for the work the company has leased the ranches and a new erection on them $50,000 worth of buildings for the accommodation of the men who will be employed in the task.

OIL PAINTINGS STOLEN IN VIENNA HAVE BEEN RECOVERED IN NEW JERSEY

NEW YORK, Feb. 6.—Two oil paintings of great value, Arnold Böcklin's "Fishing Satyr" and a cattle picture by Troyen, stripped from their stretchers in the private gallery of Baron Leopold von Lieben, in Vienna, by a faithless butler, were recovered last week from the thief at Passaic and are now on their way back to their rightful owner.

The details of the recovery of these important works of art, stolen more than three years ago, suggest the theft and the long deferred return of the famous Gainsborough portrait of the Duchess of Devonshire. The man who regained the paintings is Wenzel Danek who is employed by a private detective agency in Vienna.

DEMAND SAME RIGHTS
AS OTHER FOREIGNERS

Or Good Reason Why Not, Says Japanese

Think Themselves Superior to the Other Asiatics—California Speculating on Legislation.

DENVER, Colo., Feb. 6.—Equality with other foreign nationalities in the United States or a very good and sufficient reason why not, is the demand of the Japanese in America, according to Takeo Sagara, secretary of the Japanese association of Colorado.

"We consider ourselves superior as a race to the Chinese, Korean and other Asiatics and we do not want to be classed with them, and will demand our rights, granted the Japanese by treaty and under the constitution of the United States to be treated on equal terms with the French, German or American, or people of any other nationality," said the secretary.

The Asiatic section of the Pacific coast amounts to little," he continued. "The number of Japanese in the United States are decreasing and will probably continue to do so. There are about 4,000 Chinese in Colorado and 500 in Denver."

The statement that there are only 500 Japanese in Denver is denied by Chief of Police Armstrong, who says that a conservative estimate shows between 3,000 and 4,000 in this city.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Feb. 6.—Governor Gillett, who is now in this city, refuses to divulge the reasons which led Speaker Phillip Stanton of the assembly yesterday to make the dramatic appeal for delay which resulted in the postponement of consideration of the Japanese school segregation bill until next Wednesday.

It is considered significant that Senator Cammetti, who introduced the school bill in the upper house should have had the measure referred to the committee on education. He is himself a member of this committee, and it is generally believed, no matter what the fate of the bill may be later, that it will have a favorable report.

CRISIS EXPECTED IN
GERMANY'S PARLIAMENT

Dissolution Coming Soon, and Retirement of Chancellor Von Bulow.

NEW YORK, N. Y., Feb. 6.—A Berlin cable to the Times says that the rumors of the approaching collapse of the finance reform bill for the dissolution of the Reichstag, and the retirement of Chancellor Von Bulow are freely circulated.

In the parliamentary house today circumstantial statements were made to the effect that the government was facing certain defeat by advocating the proposed outlay.

It is now believed that the chancellor can't remain in office much longer.

The storm lasted many hours and leveled a strip many miles long, and in scarcely any instance did the inmates escape injuries.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Feb. 6.—Ah Sam, a Chinese, arrested for visiting a gambling place has subpoenaed the mayor, the supervisors, the chief of police and 300 prominent clubmen and club women to testify at his trial which will take place Tuesday afternoon. It is not announced what sort of testimony the distinguished witnesses are supposed to give but it is generally surmised that they will be required to offer expert opinion to prove that a social club and gambling have no logical connection. Ah Sam is a member of the Asiatic Club which the police say is a gambling house, but which the members contend exists for social purposes.

HORRIBLE DEATH OF ITALIAN LABORER

Body Torn to Pieces by an Explosion of Dynamite

He Was Engaged on a Dangerous Job—Charge Exploded as He Was About to Pick It Up for Use.

FREDERICTON, Feb. 6.—An Italian laborer who is employed as a railway may by the G. T. R. near Cross Creek, was the victim of a fatal accident at noon on Friday.

The unfortunate man was working as a member of a crew for Wheaton Bros., who have a sub-contract, at present located nine miles from Cross Creek. It was the duty of the victim to carry dynamite from the place where it was being stored, two or three yards to the cutting where the other men were working.

He was in the vicinity for this purpose when the other workmen heard an explosion and on going to the scene of the tragedy found the Italian lying on the ground in an unconscious condition. The dynamite had evidently exploded while he was in the act of picking it up.

The unfortunate man's abdomen was so lacerated that his bowels protruded. His lower limbs were also badly injured and less serious wounds inflicted on other parts of his body.

He was brought to Jonah's hotel at Cross Creek where surgical aid was rendered by Dr. Sterling but despite the best attention he passed away at 7 o'clock this morning. The body of the unfortunate Italian is being prepared for burial and will probably be interred in the Roman Catholic cemetery at Stanley.

THEIR ARRIVAL BRINGS TROUBLE

Suspended Player the Cause

BOUND TO PLAY HIM

But Charlottetown Abbie's Object and Game is Called Off

CHARLOTTETOWN, P. E. I., Feb. 5.—The Victoria hockeyists, who have been playing in New Brunswick and Nova Scotia, and whose tour was brought to an end by the suspension by the M. P. A. A. in response to the request of the Island Hockey League, returned home today, the bulletin announcing their suspension having been posted at New Glasgow yesterday.

Their arrival brought trouble in hockey circles here tonight. The fourth match of the Island League series was to take place between the Abbeviets and Victoria.

The latter insisted on playing Ramsey, one of the suspended players who arrived here today. The Abbeviets declined to play unless Ramsey was put off, claiming they would thereby be rendered liable to disqualification.

Refused to go on

Although the Victoria had voted Ramsey out of the club and asked for his suspension, together with the other offenders, they refused to go on unless he was kept on. The proposition was made by the Abbeviets to play under protest, but the referee, Roy Baker of Summerside, declared it could not be. As a representative of the Summerside Crystalles, he said that team would not play the Abbeviets if the latter played a team containing a suspended player.

After half an hour's argument the deadlock could not be broken. There was no playing, and the game went to the Abbeviets by default. Twelve hundred people were present and those who did not wait for the intermediate match were refunded their money.

There was much excitement and indignation, but no disorder.

Although the delegates on the board were divided as to whether or not these payments constituted professionalism, it was unanimously decided that the allowances be discontinued.

Englishman Takes Lead in Marathon Race at Start

Gains Rapidly on Indian During First Twelve Miles

But Weakens as Race Nears End and Longboat Overtakes Him

Garden Thronged With Excited Thousands—Canadians Cheer Indian

MADISON SQUARE GARDEN, N. Y., Feb. 5.—Main-line an even, swinging stride which rarely varied, Tom Longboat, the Onondaga Indian from Canada, won the indoor Marathon race tonight at Madison Square Garden when victory seemed almost within the grasp of the plucky 26-year-old champion runner, Alfred Shrub, who collapsed in the twenty-fifth mile, leaving the Indian to finish alone.

Longboat's time for the race was 3 hours 35 minutes, 49 2/3 seconds, which is nearly eight minutes behind the record made by Dorando, the Italian, in his race with Johnny Hayes, the Olympic Marathon winner, last fall. The Indian finished in fine fettle and was in no wise distressed.

Garden Thronged

The big Garden was thronged with excited thousands, who cheered the two contestants almost continually throughout the race. Shrub, as was predicted by his followers, set out at the pistol shot and ran steadily and bravely. He gained lap after lap on his Indian rival, who continued to run steadily but slowly.

Shrub was still strong, he fell back again to his former pace. Nearing the twenty-fifth mile Shrub became visibly distressed and frequently had to walk, during which periods Longboat regained several laps. Longboat never began to relax his pace.

Crowd Gathers Early

A large crowd gathered long before the doors of the big amphitheatre opened last night to meet here because of the contention that to measure stride. The best time over the garden course was made by Dorando, the Italian, in a race with John Hayes, the winner of the Olympic Marathon in London last summer. The Italian was afterward defeated in a Marathon contest at the Garden by Longboat.

Shrub ruled favorite in the early wagers at 7 to 5. Trained to the minute, Shrub appeared in perfect condition when he entered his dressing-rooms at the Garden. The Indian also made a good impression as he donned his running attire.

With both runners right as trivets and confident of victory, the spectators looked forward to the most spirited of any in-door Marathon. Shrub's admirers spoke of the marvelous speed with which the Englishman covers distances up to fifteen miles and declared that he would easily run the Indian off his feet. Friends of Longboat argued that he could keep within distance of Shrub early in the race and then successfully sprint in the last few miles.

There was some delay in getting the race started, but at 8:15 p. m. the two men were lined up, and a minute later they were sent away. Shrub immediately took the lead and, setting a fast pace, gradually increased the distance between himself and the Indian.

Shrub's tactics soon became plain. He quickened his pace after going a lap or so, and though Longboat ran with an easy stride it was evident that the pace was too hot for him. When Shrub finished the third lap the Indian was a third of a lap behind, and from then on the end of the first mile, which Shrub finished in 4 minutes 32 seconds, the Indian slowly but surely fell behind.

At the end of the mile Longboat was three-quarters of a lap behind, and at the end of the tenth, or the eleventh lap, the Indian just trailed in after the English runner. At the end of the second mile Shrub was leading by nearly a lap and a half. The time for the two miles was 10:18 1/2.

Shrub's running won him the admiration of the crowd, frequently expressed in cheers and shouts of encouragement. But Longboat, with his graceful lops, had a lot of friends who did not seem to lose confidence as the Englishman got a comfortable lead. "Shrub can never stand that gait to the end," shouted one of the Indian's backers, and it truly seemed so. This must be so, for Shrub finished five miles in 27:54. Shrub was two and one-half laps ahead at this time, but it was noted that while he had gained two laps in the first three miles he had added only an additional half lap in the next two miles.

TOM LONGBOAT AND HIS BACKER, TOM FLANAGAN

Shrub's plan appeared to be to run a fast mile or two, during which he made decided gains and then to trot apparently to reserve his wind and strength. His sprint always created an uproar in the crowd, the spectators cheering him frantically.

The Englishman gained another two and one-half laps in the second five miles, and was five laps or half a mile ahead when the ten miles were finished. The time for the ten miles mark was 57:32 1/2. Longboat's time in his race with Dorando was 58:57 1/2, nearly a minute and a half behind Shrub's time tonight.

Shrub increased his lead to six laps at the twelfth mile, but the Indian would not be overted out of his long swinging stride. Near the fifteenth mile he picked up about fifty yards. Shrub, however, continued to open up the distance between himself and his competitor, and the fifteenth mile mark found him six and a half laps ahead. Shrub's time for the fifteen miles was 1:01:28 minutes, 23 1/2 seconds.

Shrub's running was a revelation to the spectators, who continually cheered the flying Englishman as he sped steadily around the track and drew further away from Longboat. The Indian tried vainly to cut down this lead, but Shrub showed no traces of weariness and continued his fast pace. Unable to keep up, Longboat dropped his sprint and fell back to his old pace, with the result that Shrub gained an additional lap, making seven laps in all at the 17th mile.

During the running of the 19th and 20th miles Shrub broke into a fine burst of speed and, though the Indian responded gamely, the Briton gained the eighth lap. His time for twenty miles was 2 hours, 1 minute and 34 1/2 seconds.

The Englishman's cheering admirers were given a fright, when in the twenty-first mile Shrub suddenly stopped to change his shoes. During his brief absence from the track Longboat gained one of his lost laps, but Shrub came on the course again and started at a lively clip with the evident intention of regaining the lost lap.

Tom Flanagan, the Indian's old manager, brought Longboat's wife out on the track to encourage her husband. Pandemonium broke loose in the Garden during the twenty-second mile, when Shrub walked a few yards. It was apparent that he was in some distress, but he was soon off again with a swinging stride, though it could be seen that his pace had slackened perceptibly. Cheered on by his wife and the shouts of his friends, Longboat increased his pace and soon began rapidly to cut down the lead of the now fast firing Englishman.

The end of the 23rd mile found Longboat only four laps behind Shrub, who frequently broke his pace and walked to rest himself. The Indian kept relentlessly on and in the first half of the 24th mile caused a hurricane of applause by regaining another lap on his rival.

Shrub was in evident distress and it was only by plucky effort that he kept struggling on. Longboat regained another lap at the end of the 24th mile, and was now but a scant lap ahead in the second lap of the 25th mile. Longboat ran without any seeming distress while Shrub, unable to run any faster, began to walk.

Longboat quickly took the lead and the Englishman collapsed on the track, leaving the triumphant Indian to finish the race.

Previous to the Marathon the five-mile match race between Robert Hallen of New York and Mike Spring of Brooklyn, in which Spring was allowed a handicap of ten seconds, was won by Hallen by 1 1/4 laps. Time, 27:20 1/2.

KEEN CONTEST ON VICTORIA ALLEYS

St. Josephs Defeat Irish Literary Team After Hard Fight

In the Inter-Society Bowling League on the Victoria A. C. alleys last evening the St. Joseph's and Irish Literary teams played a most exciting game. The former, quite fittingly finally won out by the small margin of one point. The game was probably the keenest fought on the alleys since they were opened several weeks ago.

Excellent bowling was done by the members of both clubs. The teams had an average of over eighty, while some high scores were made by the individual players.

The first string was captured by the I. L. B. by one point. St. Joseph's landed the second with twenty-four points to the good, while the I. L. B. won by twenty-two points on the third string.

U. N. B. DEFEATS MOUNT ALLISON

First Game in Intercollegiate Series Played at Capital

FREDERICTON, N. B., Feb. 5.—The first game in the inter-collegiate Hockey League was played at the Arctic Rink tonight in the presence of a large number of fans, between the U. N. B. and Mount Allison team, resulting in a grand victory for the U. N. B. to the tune of 7 to 1.

The playing was very brilliant and swift at times and rather rough. Geo. McA. Hinzard, of St. John, was referee and handled the game well. The score at the end of the first half was 5 to 0.

MODERN WARSHIPS.

In the Navy Yard at Newport News, there was launched today the battleship Delaware, the latest fighting machine constructed by the United States. Newspapers across the border have for some time been publishing descriptions of this warship, and in the different paragraphs there has been no absence of superlatives. The Delaware is spoken of generally as not only surpassing anything afloat, but far and away ahead of any battleship now under construction or projected. Her armor is the heaviest and her armament the most powerful known; her speed of 21 knots is positively the highest for a vessel of this class, and her displacement of 23,950 tons, is 510 tons greater than that of any battleship ever built, or so far planned. In defense, the maximum protection is provided by both the armor plating and the interior design of the ship. She will carry a main battery of ten 16-inch guns, all of which may be used in broadside fire. It will be noted that the Delaware will be not only four or five knots faster than the Delaware, but that she will carry equal armament, and will be somewhat heavier in construction. Moreover, the Delaware is not by any means the latest in British naval architecture. Since the completion of the Dreadnought some three or four years ago, two new classes of battleships are considered in design very much in advance, but the Admiralty continues the construction of such vessels as the Bellerophon, the St. Vincent and the Neptune in order that the Dreadnought squadron may be completed.

The New York Evening Post, a short time ago, entered into a discussion of the relative merits of the United States and British warships, and told some very unpleasant truths about the former, pointing out that in view of the formidable record of 23 knots, it was scarcely wise to apply superlatives to the Delaware and the North Dakota. It was argued that as speed is of prime importance in these days, the advantages of 21 knots as compared with 23 are not really discernible.

HOUSE HUNTING.

The landlords of St. John literally have the people by the throats and are feeding from them every cent that can be extorted. Without the slightest reason or excuse rents have been advanced during the past few days. The rents of the houses of almost fifty per cent, and previous to that time they were higher than was necessary. Property owners are vainly justifying their advances by which they may justify the policy they are pursuing, but at the bottom of the whole thing is the real and genuine reason, and that is the fact that the houses in St. John meet the requirements of the people. The demand is stronger than it ever has been; the number of available flats and houses is small. The result naturally is a better-seller than for any other place that offers twenty or thirty prospective lessees applying for every tenement which promises to become vacant, and these home-seekers bidding against each other, raising the rents to the great delight of the landlords. House-hunting in St. John has become to be a serious undertaking. It would be less troublesome if there were any possibility of the homeless ones ultimately finding comfortable quarters, but under present conditions scores of families must either suffer all forms of inconvenience in badly built, poorly arranged houses, or submit themselves in order to pay excessive rents. St. John houses are for the most part parlors, stairs and basements. Apparently the builders of flats have been possessed with the idea that a householder cares nothing about bedrooms or kitchen so long as there are double parlors. The prevailing form of architecture has thus been a Queen Anne front and a Mary Ann back. Bedrooms in which the door cannot be closed if the cover is left off the soap dish, kitchens in which there is no room to turn after a scullion of coal is brought in, and a dark and chilly hall, are the prevailing fashion. In self-contained houses so called—though why this title goodness only knows—it does not matter whether there are two or three or four floors there is always a basement, as if people wanted to live underground. They will be below the surface long enough without living there. Basements are always damp, and are usually dark. Moreover they involve running upstairs from morning until night to answer innumerable calls at the door. Not one out of ten houses or flats in this city is adapted to convenience of housekeeping.

If the landlords had anything attractive to offer there would be some slight excuse for fairly profitable rates, but under the circumstances the present charges are nothing short of extortionate. If the buildings were new, it by reason of the advances during late years in labor and materials they had cost much, no one would object to the owners seeking adequate returns on their investments. But very few houses have been built for rental during the past ten or a dozen years. They were put up in the days of cheap lumber and cheap work. They are earning now very high dividends on their original cost, and the greater expenditure for repairs or the prospective higher taxation do not justify the present advances in rents. A man who spends sixty dollars per year for repairs to a house could perhaps have had the same work done ten years ago for forty dollars, yet for this extra outlay of twenty dollars he demands one hundred dollars more in rent. The owner of a two-apartment house worth $3,000 fears that next year his taxes may be raised eight cents on the hundred dollars. If his property is assessed as high as $2,000—which is improbable—he will be asked to pay $1.50 additional, and to reimburse him for this very doubtful outlay he is taking action a year ahead by putting $30 more on the rent.

Truly we live on an age of philanthropy. Mother (reprovingly)—Don't you know that you should never let a man kiss your daughter?—But mamma, it seems so forward for a girl to do the kissing. "Sometimes I episode," said Uncle Eben, "that do nothing but make a man truly loves work is de one dat's hirtin' somebody else to do it."

Man with the Bulging Brow—Awful sloppy, isn't it? Man with the Bulging Nose—It ain't half as sloppy for me as it is for me. My overcoat's in soak. When Over Cleveland's son Richard was born his good friend Joseph Jefferson drove over to Gray Gables to congratulate the father. "How many pounds does the child weigh?" asked the noted actor. "Fifteen," was the reply. "Fifteen?" asked the attending physician, who had just come in. Mr. Cleveland assured the doctor that he must be mistaken. "The child weighs fifteen pounds," said he; "I weighed him myself with the scales Joe and I use when we go fishing."

Reporter—But, Senator, in a government like ours don't you believe in the principle of rotation in office? eminent Statesman—I certainly do, young man. That's why I have a revolving chair in my office.

"Does the baby talk yet?" asked a friend of the family. "No," replied the baby's disgraced little brother, "the baby doesn't need to talk." "Doesn't need to talk?" "No. All the baby has to do is to yell, and it gets anything there is in the house that's worth having."

The bachelor girl looked down coyly. "You want to know why I never married?" she said. "Is this idle curiosity or do you mean business?" "Business," replied the pert young man. "I ought to get a column of copy out of this interview."

Willie had tried by various means to interest his father in conversation. "Can't you see I'm trying to read?" said the disappointed parent. "Now, don't bother me." Willie was silent for almost a minute. Then, reluctantly: "Awful accident in the subway today." Father looked up with interest. "What's that?" "No, what was the accident in the subway?" "Why," replied Willie, edging toward the door, "a woman had her eye on a seat and a man sat on it."

SATURDAY SERMONETTE

GOT WHAT HE WANTED.

The story is told that General Jackson's colored body servant was asked after the General's death, if he thought his master had gone to heaven. Of course it was an impertinent question, but the faithful old servant was equal to the occasion. "I don't know, massa," was the answer, "but I reckon that if he wanted to go he went." That tells what the man, who knew the great man's strength of will, better, perhaps, than any other, thought of the power of that determined will. It was good theology for the colored man when he said that if the General wanted to go to heaven, he went. The Kingdom of Heaven can be won by the determined will and so can the kingdom of earth. It is not obstacles, hindrances, "bad luck" that keeps us from winning the kingdom we want, but lack of will power, and courage.

It is true and common-place to say that brains alone cannot win, but it is true. The bravest men are often beaten by men who are less brave but have more determination. We generally get what we want, if we want it with all our heart. We tap with our finger tips the doors we want to enter and wonder that they do not open to our tapping. If we want heaven, the doors will open to us. If we want anything smaller than heaven that, too, will be given us when we want it as men want treasures for which they fight.

PRIDE KILLS FAMOUS WIT; RECLUSE TO HIDE POVERTY

Smith Edward Lane Dies in Tenement—Had No Food, But Kapt Salt He Wore When Presented at Court.

NEW YORK, Feb. 5.—Smith Edward Lane, who was once one of the wits of the Century and Union Clubs, an after-dinner speaker at the banquets of the Sons of the American Revolution and the St. Nicholas Societies and in the administration of Mayor Smith, 23, passed away in a tenement house today.

Though there was no fire in his room and the shelves of his cupboard held nothing but empty boxes and jars that had once contained food, the court suit of silk with small and silk stockings that Mr. Lane had worn at a levee of King Edward in 1893 were hanging in his closet, together with suits of evening clothes and the state sword that he had carried at his side when presented to royalty.

One of the two friends that Mr. Lane had left in the world said that Lane's pride had been with him to the end and that few persons knew that the one-time leader in Tammany, lawyer and clubman had been reduced to ten years where none could see his shame and poverty.

Mrs. Arnold, caretaker for the house where Mr. Lane had lived for seven years, knew that her solitary tenant had been ill for four weeks. He was in his sixties, and though he tried bravely to conceal his infirmity, he had been forced to admit that during recent weeks he had been to see a doctor.

"Just a little trouble with the throat—nothing serious," was the way Mr. Lane explained his visit to the physician. But four days ago he had been unable to leave his bed, and Mrs. Arnold sent word to former Mayor Ely, one of the two friends that Mr. Lane had.

This morning Mrs. Arnold knocked at Mr. Lane's door. He answered, "A half hour later Charles D. Bergen, secretary for Mr. Ely, knocked at the door. He had come to remove the sick man to a hospital.

There was no response. Mr. Lane had. "Don't say that Mr. Lane died of starvation," said Mr. Ely's secretary, later. "That wouldn't be right. I think he died of pride; that was all."

The widow came promptly, so promptly that she found Miss Jengler still at the station. They met, and the girl agreed to part with her fiancée for her $325 which the widow paid.

QUESTION OF MENELIK'S SUCCESSOR CAUSES TROUBLE

JERUSALEM, Feb. 5.—The latest reports received here say that King Menelik of Abyssinia has had a relapse and his condition is serious. At present he is at Debra Libanos, a place about 100 miles from Addis Abeba. He has had a grave dispute with the question concerning the succession to the throne and his grandson Addis Asefa, aged twelve, has been selected as heir. The minister of war has left Addis Abeba with an army, but his destination is not known.

Up to the present time the peace in Abyssinia has not been disturbed.

TRAIN WAS DERAILED BY AUTOMATIC DANGER SIGNAL

BOSTON, Mass., Feb. 5.—The derauling of the Boston and Maine express train which left Boston for Portland at 6 p. m. last Wednesday night, at Scarborough Crossing, Maine, was due to the failure of the engineer to observe the danger signals, according to General Superintendent Chas. E. Lee. It was at first reported that a broken wheel was probably the cause of the accident.

Mr. Lee says: "The fullest investigation has shown that this accident was solely due to the failure of the train's locomotive engineer to obey the home and distant interlocking signals that were set at danger, and that the train left the track at the derailing switch which was open, and is always the case when the signals are set at danger."

ENGLAND CALLED TO ARMS.

LONDON, Feb. 5.—The National Service League, the object of which is to bring about an armistice military training in Great Britain, has taken advantage of the stir caused by the anonymous play "An Englishman's Boy" to issue an urgent appeal in behalf of its object.

It gives the details of a scheme by which within four years 400,000 trained men could be added to the home defence army. It contends that the extra cost would not exceed $20,000,000 instead of $100,000,000, as stated in Parliament.

CHIEF STEWARD WAS SMUGGLING JEWELRY

Package Worth $1,000 Traced to Him—Held in Bonds for $300.

PORTLAND, Me., Feb. 6.—This afternoon, Special Treasury Agent L. W. Zean furnished information to United States District Attorney Whitehouse which led to the arrest of Benjamin J. Priest, chief steward of the steamship Haverford which arrived here Tuesday on a warrant alleging the smuggling of rings, diamonds and watches to the value of $1,000. Priest registered a package at the local post-office Wednesday to a Philadelphia promoter and from here the package was traced to Philadelphia where the address, it is understood, was arrested with the package in his possession and later in the day the arrest of Priest followed.

The warrant on which Priest was arrested alleges that he smuggled two gold rings each with three diamonds, one valued at $300 and the other at $100, and worth of the value of $100 and a diamond pin of the value of $200.

Priest is a resident of Liverpool and has been in the employ of the American Line for thirty years. Several arrests have been made for smuggling in recent years in Philadelphia and on information received the local customs officials—operating with the treasury agents went to work on the informant and the result was that the arrests were made today.

Priest was arraigned before United States Commissioner Bradley and pleaded guilty and waived a hearing and was held in $300 bonds for his appearance before the April term of the United States court in this city. Priest, on his examination, claimed that he was bringing the goods over from Liverpool at the request of a friend who requested that the same be forwarded to Philadelphia. Priest asserts that he did not know the contents of the package were foreign goods but that he understood the goods had been pawned and were being returned to the owner. He was secured and Priest was allowed to go so that he can sail with his ship when he leaves this port tomorrow.

JAPANESE COMPOSITIONS.

Japanese "types" have their troubles. K. Sugimura, literary editor of the Tokyo Asahi Shimbun, says that he especially admires the Linotype typesetting machines. "Unfortunately we are unable to use them in Japan, for our language has forty-seven letters, as well as over 2,000 Chinese characters, and such a number of types is, of course, beyond the capabilities of any machine yet invented. In the printing office of our newspaper in Tokyo the compositor must often walk the whole length of the room to fetch one character, instead of standing in one place before a single case, as the English or American compositor can do.

THIS MAN'S MARRIAGE WAS ONLY GOOD JOKE

When Charged With Bigamy Says He Did Not Marry Other Girl for Keeps.

NEW YORK, Feb. 5.—Legal papers on filed today in the Supreme Court in a suit brought by Kate Nekut for an absolute divorce from her husband, George Nekut, contain a story of an alleged marriage of Nekut and Mollie Mull.

The girl had been attending school in a convent in New York, and was the wife of a man who had been married to her mother.

She said that she met him at the home of Fannie and Mollie Mull, 343 East 133rd street, and that they introduced Nekut to her as the intended husband of Mollie Mull.

Mrs. Klein asserted that between April 21 and May 15 of that year she and her husband, Nekut, lived together in their rooms together, and said "they occupied the same as though they were husband and wife."

Mrs. Klein said that she heard Nekut say that he had secured a divorce from his wife, and that he was free to marry Mollie Mull.

NOT SO EASY TO GET RICH, SAYS JOHN D. ROCKEFELLER

Tells of His Early Struggles When He Worked Three Whole Months for $50—Spent Three Weeks Looking for His First Job.

NEW YORK, Feb. 5.—John D. Rockefeller, in his latest article, which appears in the World's Work today, declares that it is difficult to get rich, and illustrates his argument with his own early experiences.

"I owe him a great debt for the practical ways in which he trained me. From early boyhood I kept a little book which I called 'Ledger A.'"

The author says he came of a family of modest means in which there was a close family life which he counts a blessing. His first business deal consisted in selling turkeys which his mother gave him for "minding them."

High school and bookkeeping in a commercial college in Cleveland completed Mr. Rockefeller's scholastic experience. Then for three weeks he walked the streets asking merchants if they "didn't want a boy."

SENTENCED FRIDAY

Italians Accused of Murder in Good Spirits Now

Officer Miles McCrea of Andover was in the city last evening, taking an Italian to the Dorchester penitentiary. The prisoner was Francesco Jussappe and was sent to Dorchester for three years.

The trial was held at Andover before Judge Carleton yesterday. The witness, Constable McCrea also gave evidence, telling the facts leading up to the arrest, as related in The Sun.

John Eammanst also testified. He declared that he was a witness to the prisoner's stealing the money. G. M. Moore, a clever interpreter, was present at the trial and repeated the evidence to the prisoner.

Upon receiving sentence Jussappe was on the verge of collapsing, but was quietly taken from the court house. Mr. McCrea was asked by the reporter concerning the two Italians now awaiting trial for the murder of Edward Green near Piaster Brook.

Mr. Swin will return to the city on Monday and next week will hold special meetings in the Waterloo street church each evening, starting at 8 o'clock.

Rev. Mr. Townsend will occupy the pulpit in Mr. Swin's stead tomorrow morning while Dr. Hannah will speak in the evening.

Her Sweetheart Arrested on Suspicion of Being Guilty Party

DATON, Ohio, Feb. 5.—Another murder mystery has been added to the long list which already shames this city. Late today the body of a young woman was dragged out of a cistern in the rear of a vacant house.

The discovery was made by Charles O. Weaver, a contractor, who was employed by the owner of the Matthews residence to prepare the residence for occupancy. He at once notified the police.

The body was badly decomposed and the features were almost unrecognizable. The face shows bruises and other evidences of violence are plainly visible.

Albert Wilkie, employed at a sewing machine factory, was arrested here tonight on suspicion. Wilkie was the sweetheart of the murdered girl, but says he has not seen her since she came to the city on December 23.

Groping Children

BY JAMES OPPENHEIM.

"The group laughed merrily, for they liked her and her wildfire enthusiasm, and they cheered good-by as the car stopped, gathered them in and whisked them away. Jane walked rapidly across the town and took the Second Avenue elevated. She sat down in a corner, flushed and excited in a fever of the future. For the moment she was honest, as far removed from the rags on her body and the Russian twang in her speech—all absorbed in the world of her work, her strength, her dreams. Medicine to her was the breath of life; it led her through marvels of adventure and discovery into her treatment house hands—hands that had sturdily groped out and until they touched the shining world beyond. She had been put in unimagined powers, and the thrill of this new strength made her blood sing through her veins. Her Jewish mentality needed only the stimulus of daily work to grow by leaps and bounds. There seemed to be nothing she could not achieve.

But then, like a shock, came Carol Street. She hurried out, and down the steps and to the street she turned. And there, as ever, a hill-top advertisement of her man condition stood the Father, leaning against a post and buried in a Yiddish paper. The flashing brilliant face looked toward the Old Testament prophet, on whose head was armed an absurd faded derby. She took a sharp breath and had half a mind to hurry by without speaking, but the deep dresser instinctively felt the presence of a customer and glanced up.

"Ach," he murmured, "Johanna!" She paused near him, and flushed red.

"Father," she snapped, "can't you call me Jane?"

He shook his head and smiled.

"Excuse," he breathed, "I forget much, Jane." Suddenly he seemed to awaken, "hurry home, Little Esther is sick."

"Sick," echoed Jane, "she sick? Again?"

He shrugged his shoulders and said nothing. Where the English word slipped him there was nothing to say, for Jane did not tolerate Yiddish.

Then, for the first time, she remembered her mother's words in the morning and trudged on guiltily down the street under the elevated structure. The street was so narrow that this structure roofed it over and made it a gloomy arcade everlastingly damp and wet. A stream of people moved up and down. At the next corner the "old road" curved into Division street, and in the center of this was home.

Jane's mood went bitter. Up town lay her own kingdom, her work, her personality—the Jane Grabo who was in the intellectual center of a group of bright minds; down here was only the crass realism, the obscurity, the shame and the squalor. She suddenly remembered the afternoon's experiment, and thought of her home as a cancer in her life and no ultra-violet rays to disperse it—a cancer she had to ashamedly hide, and that ate her heart out.

The tenement was four-story high, in an artificial flower factory; in the cellar lived the Matches. Man the beggar who made his way into up-town brownstone houses with a single box of unbreakable matches. Jane entered the narrow, humped hall and went up the steep stairs, and knocked on the front door. After a minute she was narrowly opened—as if she were the landlord or the installment man, she thought—and her mother peered "Ach, you!" she muttered, and flung the door wide.

"What's the matter with Esther?" snapped Jane, as she strode into the bedroom. At the edge of the bed sat one of the thin, big-eyed girls sewing feverishly. In the bed lay Esther, tossing and groaning.

"Oh!" Jane snorted. "Why, this ain't enough to stifle a person! Can't you keep the window open, Mother? Won't you ever learn that?"

The fat, bloodless woman sighed heavily.

Strength From Food

COMES But it must be well digested.

The power to think well, work well, sleep well, and enjoy life depends mainly upon the ability of your digestive organs to extract strength and nourishment from food. When digestion fails, as in dyspepsia and indigestion, the body is starved, no matter how much food is eaten. It also becomes poisoned. Food remaining in the stomach ferments, producing poisonous gases, which, being absorbed into the blood, shatter the nerves, dull the brain, create disease, and give rise to headaches, languor, loss of appetite, palpitation, flatulence, and other disorders of the blood and nerves. When the stomach, liver and kidneys fail to perform their functions perfectly, there is no remedy which will so soon restore them to health and vigor as Mother Seigel's Syrup. As a digestive tonic and stomachic remedy it has no equal. This is the testimony of thousands. Mrs. Peter Brennan, Peterville, P. E. I., writing on August 16th, 1908, says:— "Our little daughter, Annie May, suffered from stomachic malady and headaches for nearly three years. We tried numerous remedies but nothing seemed to do her any good until we gave her a fair trial of Mother Seigel's Syrup. She has now taken the contents of two bottles and to-day she is in perfect health."

CULTURE OF THE PAST HELPS JAPAN IN MODERN LIFE

NEW YORK, Feb. 5.—Speaking at the eighth annual dinner of the Jewelers' Twenty-Four Carat Club, at Delmonico's, Kōchichi Midzuno, Consul General from Japan, declared his country bears the kindest feelings toward the United States and that the anti-Japanese movement in this country would never gain sufficient momentum to cause serious trouble.

It had been expected that the Japanese Ambassador would be present, but the Consul General came in his stead. His utterances were understood to have the official sanction of his government. During his speech he said: "What Japan has accomplished in the last half century in all branches of what you call civilization is so well known to you that I scarcely need speak about it. But, gentlemen, we should not overlook the fact that our own security of two thousand years. If our forefathers had not been fostered in the school of Oriental culture we of the new Japan would not have been able to digest the Occidental civilization when we were brought in contact with it."

TURKEY MEANS TO BE GREAT NAVAL POWER

Officers Coming With Sperry to Study American Methods. Meajet That Formerly Prevailed in the Service Has Been Replaced by Efficiency and Training.

The Turks, and especially the Grand Vizier, the Naval Minister and naval circles generally are intensely interested in the approaching visit of the American fleet to Turkish waters because this is the first occasion since the revolution that the fleet of a great power has visited any of the Ottoman ports, and the Turkish authorities are therefore anxious to impress on their visitors that fact that they are civilized now, and even on the road to become one of the great naval powers themselves, writes a special correspondent to the New York Times from Constantinople.

Some time ago the Turkish Navy ministry approached the American Embassy here with a request to offer facilities to a number of Turkish officers who were invited to accompany the fleet to America on what may be called a tour of investigation, and the Embassy responded by offering to convey these officers to America on the ships of the squadron which is now expected in the Red Sea.

The Turkish Government gratefully accepted this offer and expects to send

HOPED WHOLE FLEET WOULD COME

He hoped very much that the whole American fleet would visit Smyrna, where they would find the Medjidieh—an American-built war vessel with which the Turks are much pleased that the Admira in command of the squadron would pass the Dardanelles in his own ship in order to visit Constantinople.

"It is not permitted, of course," he added with a smile, "that foreign battleships should pass the Dardanelles, but I think we can make an exception in favor of Admiral Sperry."

His excellency returned to this subject again and again, thus showing how very anxious he is to make a long visit to the American fleet, and in any case that Lieut. Burhaneddin, the only one of the Sultan's sons who is a naval officer, will go down to Smyrna to meet the American and welcome them to Turkey.

Lieut. nearly all the prominent officers one meets today in Turkey, Arif Pasha is a new man, for he came in the first appointed by Kiamil Pasha when that veteran took office his last time. He is a practical sailor, and has been a long time commander in chief of the fleet (such as it was), and is an energetic, clear-headed organizer, the very type of man needed for rebuilding the Ottoman navy. He is in the prime of life, that is, between forty and fifty years of age, and his dark hair and beard are streaked with gray. His face is of an European type, and his named bow shows that he must have been on the water a good deal during the last few weeks.

MILLION DOLLAR CHURCH TO BE ERECTED IN NEW YORK

NEW YORK, Feb. 5.—If the present plans carry, work on the new million dollar edifice to be erected by the parish of St. Thomas' Episcopal Church on its present site, Fifth avenue and Fifty-third street, will be started shortly after Easter. If the new structure is not begun by then it will be either because the contracts are not all signed or the money is not all in hand. The papers will be signed just as soon as the Plan and Scope Committee of the church and the contractors can agree on all details. According to the Rev. Dr. Ernest M. Sillars, the rector, who is chairman of the Plan and Scope committee, it is very likely that the money will all have been donated by then.

At present about $500,000 has been subscribed in cash or pledges. Much of this and a great deal more was given shortly after the church was destroyed by fire in 1905.

HAD GIVEN UP HOPE

But Dr. Williams' Pink Pills Restored Vigorous Health

Medicine of the old fashioned kind will sometimes relieve the symptoms of disease, though they never touch the disease itself—they never cure. Ordinary medicine leaves behind them indigestion, constipation and headaches. Purgatives leave those taking them weak and exhausted. On the other hand Dr. Williams' Pink Pills do direct good to the body, the blood and the nerves. They all the veins and strengthen the nerves; they cure disease by rooting it out of the blood. They always do good—they cannot possibly do harm.

Mrs. George R. Wilson, Montreal, N. B., says: "A few years ago after confinement I contracted a severe cold and although I took considerable medicine I got no better. In fact my condition was gradually getting worse. I was all run down, had no appetite and grew so weak that I could not do my household work. At last the doctor who was attending me told my husband that I was going into a decline, and he advised me to give up. A sister had died of consumption. When almost in despair a friend suggested my taking Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and I got half a dozen boxes, and before I had used them all I was able to do my household work again and was in better health than I had enjoyed for years. I believe Dr. Williams' Pink Pills saved me from going into consumption, and I warmly recommend them to every weak person."

Sold by all medicine dealers or by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

PRACTICE BEING KEPT UP

We have 25 torpedo boats, 18 torpedo boat destroyers, and a number of ships of different types. We have not yet decided on what type we shall choose for our new fleet. Our vessels now engage a good deal in gunnery and torpedo practice and are continually visiting the Sea of Marmora for that purpose. They will also engage from time to time in the works of mercy which it sometimes falls to the lot of warship to undertake. As soon as the minister is a man of the terrible calamity which has just occurred in Calabria and Sicily, we decided to send one of our cruisers to the scene of the catastrophe in order to combine with the Italian, French, English, and other war vessels on the spot in affording all the assistance in our power to the afflicted population."

In connection with this latter remark of the minister I may add that as soon as the news of the earthquake in southern Italy was communicated to the deputies, one of them—a venerable Mohammedan mollah—arose and publicly offered up for the victims of the disaster a prayer in which he was heartily joined by all the deputies present.

After the interview the minister placed his own magnificent steam launch at my disposal, and asked Admiral Said Pasha, son of the grand vizier, and one of the ablest and most popular of the naval chiefs, to accompany me on board the battleship Mesoudieh. That vessel lies in the Hospitaller right opposite Yildiz Kiosk, and with one of its ten-inch guns trained on the barracks which Sultan Abdul Hamid has constructed near his palace, and in which his trusty Albanian and Syrian guards are housed.

The tables are certainly turned with a vengeance on Abdul Hamid, for the spot where the imperial yacht, the Stamboul, is moored, and Etchegrouh bay at anchor for so many years, while the yachts now lie in the Hospitaller, and the Ottoman war vessels being all in a state of indescribable filth, rust, and demoralization are exaggerated. In short, we must consider seriously the possibility of a new naval power appearing in the Levant, the Red Sea and the Black Sea.

Public Ownership of Telephones

WINNIPEG, Feb. 5.—A surplus of $250,000 and a reduction in rates promised after one year's operation of the telephone lines of the province is the showing made by public ownership in Manitoba. In addition to the surplus the government has constructed six hundred miles of long distance lines and a number of rural systems. The system purchased from the Bell Company by the government in January, 1908, and a reduction of rates was promised. A bill is now being prepared for Manitoba legislature providing for reductions of from 20 to 35 per cent in rates.

The report of the Department of Education was tabled in the legislature this afternoon. It contains the opinion of Donald MacMaster, K. C., member of the British commons, Mr. MacMaster is a Canadian, and says the government of Manitoba has the power to enact a compulsory education and also to inspect denominational schools. But should they put such measure in force there is no doubt a minority would have reasonable grounds on which to appeal to the Governor (General in Council, claiming that their rights and privileges, as subjects of the King, were affected, and that they were fairly entitled to be exempted from contributing to the support of public schools.

"BACK TO THE LAND"
TRIED IN SHEFFIELD
Experiment Succeeded in Nearly 100 Cases
—Drink Trade Shows
By Wills.

LONDON, Feb. 5.—The resignation of the Most Rev. Dr. Francis McCormack Bishop of Galway and Kilmacduagh, and its acceptance at Rome are announced in Dublin. Dr. McCormack is the senior Irish bishop. He is 76 years of age.

DRINK TRADE PROFITS
From figures which have been compiled by a reliable authority it appears that the wills of 148 persons connected with the wine and spirit trade were proved in the United Kingdom during 1908, showing personally amounting to £2,485,000, or an average of £23,255. During the preceding year the number of wills proved was 155, and the net personal amount £2,346,000, or an average of £23,667.

TAIL OF THE EARTH.
For alleged libel arising out of a comment on an advertisement of an astronomical weather almanack which he produced, Mr. Benjamin George Jenkins sued The Daily News, Limited. The advertisement in question began: "Have you seen the Great Earth? It is believed to be the tail of the earth!" Judgment was given by Mr. Justice Sutton for the defendants with costs.

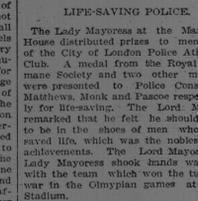

"BACK TO THE LAND."
A successful experiment has been tried in the Sheffield of sending a number of the unemployed into the agricultural districts of Lincolnshire where situations have been found for them. Nearly 100 men, most of whom had some previous knowledge of farm work, have been in regular agricultural employment, and many of them, having decided to make their home definitely "on the land" have sent for their wives and families. The experiment was initiated by the Sheffield police court missionary.

LIFE-SAVING POLICE.
The Lady Mayores at the Mansion House distributed prizes to members of the City of London Police Athletic Club. A medal from the Royal Humane Society and two other medals were presented to Police Constable Matthews, Monk and Pascoe respectively for life-saving. The Lord Mayor remarked that he felt he should like to be in the shoes of those who have saved life, which was the noblest of achievements. The Lord Mayor and Lady Mayores shook hands warmly with the team which won the tug-of-war in the Olympic games at the Stadium.

RHEUMATISM
HERE IS HOPE

I want every chronic rheumatism to throw away all medicine, all balms, all plasters, and give MINTON'S RHEUMATISM REMEDY a trial. No matter what your doctor may say, no matter how prejudiced you may be against all advertised remedies, go it one to your drug-gate and get a bottle of the RHEUMATISM REMEDY. If it fails to give satisfaction, I will refund your money—Mintons Remedy is ready to contain 20 salt-grains, an opium extract, morphine or other harmful drugs. It is put to the guarantee of the Pure Food and Drug Act. Sold by all druggists. Price, 25c.

Anty Drudge Ends Troubles.

Mr. Suburbs—"I'm just going into the drug store to get a supply of quinine, Anty. My wife had the house like a Turkish steam-bath with boiling clothes before I came out and I can feel myself catching cold already."
Anty Drudge—"That's too bad, Mr. Suburbs. I'll just go right up there and show Mrs. Suburbs how to do her washing with Fels-Naptha in lukewarm water without boiling or hard-rubbing. Then you'll never have steam or odors in the house on washday and it will be so much easier for your wife."

"With Winter's chills, come washday ills."

Ever heard that old rhyme? It's going out of date now. Every woman who abandons the old back-breaking, health-wrecking, washboiler, hot-water way of washing clothes, and uses Fels-Naptha in lukewarm water, is giving it a kick farther back.

Fels-Naptha soap has done more than anything else in the world to take the ill-out of washday. Especially in Winter.

The Fels-Naptha method does away with boiling and nauseous steam and sickening odors. Does away with washtub drudgery and reddened hands and face.

With Fels-Naptha you wash clothes comfortably, in lukewarm water, without hard-rubbing, and the clothes are far cleaner and last longer—flannels, woollens, colored woods as well as the white things.

If you aren't in the procession, better join. Get a cake of Fels-Naptha to-day and see just how easy a washing can be.

Follow carefully the directions on the red and green wrapper.

H. M. S. NEPTUNE.

Work Begun on a Huge $2,000,000 Warship.

(London Standard.)

PORTSMOUTH, Feb. 5.—The laying down of the first keel-plate of his Majesty's ship Neptune in the dockyard was not attended by any ceremonial such as has marked the commencement of her three predecessors on the building slip at Portsmouth—the Dreadnought, the Bellerophon and the St. Vincent. The reason for this departure from custom was that Lady Faithlove, wife of the commander-in-chief, who was to have performed the inaugural ceremony, was indisposed and a family bereavement also conducted to the conclusion of the original intention. The Neptune is to cost in round figures two millions sterling, and her dimensions are well comprising with those of the name-ship of her class, as shown in the following table:

Dreadnought, Neptune.
Length.....490 ft. 50 ft.
Breadth.....52 ft. 56 ft.
Displacement, 17,500 tons.....20,250 tons
The new battleship is, therefore, to have about a thousand tons more displacement than the St. Vincent, recently launched from the same slip. She will be provided, like her predecessors, with turbine engines of 25,000 horse-power and be armed with ten 12 in. guns for her main armament but the arrangement of these will be modified to increase the range of effective broadside and stern fire, and her secondary armament to repel torpedo boat attacks will probably consist of new pattern 4.7 guns. The vessel is to be ready to hold the pennant within two years.

COAL AND IRON CO.

IN RECEIVER'S HANDS

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Feb. 5.—The Birmingham Coal and Iron Company was placed in the hands of receivers today and Judge Thomas G. Jones of the federal court, named A. W. Smith and James Bonnyman as the receivers. The petitioning creditors are the Aetna Powder Company and others.
The Birmingham company has properties in this district valued at over $8,000,000. The company is closely allied with the Atlanta, Birmingham and Atlantic R. R. interests, of which H. M. Atkinson was recently made receiver.

BRITISH GOVERNMENT
FACES GRAVE CRISIS;
ELECTIONS IN SIGHT

NEWCASTLE-ON-TYNE, Feb. 5.—Winston Spencer Churchill, president of the Board of Trade, in a speech here tonight, said that a general election "already is on our horizon and will not be improperly retarded."
Such a statement by a member of the government will cause a flutter in political circles. There have been rumors lately of considerable differences of opinion among members of the cabinet on the navy question, an influential section being opposed to a great increase in the building programme. It is believed, however, that in his speech tonight, Mr. Churchill was not alluding to this discussion, but to the probability of a dissolution of parliament after the next session or as an outcome of difficulties in meeting a large deficit in the next budget.

A Grave Crisis

LONDON, Feb. 5.—The Daily Express this morning says:
"The government is faced by a grave crisis. The loads of the admiralty demand a building programme of six Dreadnoughts and have threatened to resign if a body unless their programme is accepted. Several members of the cabinet, who consider four Dreadnoughts enough, are wavering. Viscount Morley, secretary for India; David Lloyd-George, chancellor of the exchequer; John Burns, president of the local government board, and Winston Churchill, president of the board of trade, strongly opposed Sir Edward Grey, the foreign secretary, as firmly as he upholds the sea lords' demands."

CANADA THIRD ON LIST OF WHEAT SHIPPING COUNTRIES

LONDON, Feb. 5.—In the current number of the Journal of the Board of Agriculture an analysis is given of the imports of foodstuffs into the United Kingdom in 1908. The figures show that Canada is holding her own in the matter of wheat shipments. The total value of the principal articles of food imported last year was £183,689,000, as against £188,333,000 in 1907 and £181,604,000 in 1906. The increase in value during recent years has been due almost entirely to a rise in price and not to any substantial growth as regards the quantities.
The decline in cattle and beef imports were almost entirely confined to the United States, from which we obtained 1,432,000 cwt., a falling off of nearly 1,000,000 cwt. as compared with 3,500,000 cwt. from the Argentine. Though the value of wheat imported last year was greater than that of 1907, the quantity was less by over 4,000,000 cwt. From the Argentine came 31,680,000 cwt.; United States, 27,123,000; Canada, 14,442,000; Russia, 4,610,000, and Australia, 5,113. India sent less than 2,000,000 cwt.

PARTIES AGREE THAT HOUSE SHOULD KNOW
TERMS OF TREATIES

Laurier and Borden Exchange Views on Subject

Country Should Know Provisions of Treaty, Laurier Declares

Excellent Progress Made by House During Week

OTTAWA, Feb. 5.—The common day, after hearing a brief interchange of views between the leader of the opposition and the prime minister relative to constitutional usage in the matter of treaty rights of the Canadian parliament, settled down to a quiet two hours with estimates for inside civil service before adjournment at six o'clock. Good progress was made and the house adjourned with a comparatively good week's work to its credit. The fact that the estimates are this early in the session beginning to slip through without demerit fire from the opposition side gives good indication that the session will be a short and business-like one.

It is some time since a communication from the Imperial government was the subject of criticism in the house of commons, and it was therefore with no ordinary degree of interest that the members heard a discussion at the opening of this afternoon's session based on the terms of Earl Crew's dispatch submitted to the house yesterday explaining that in withholding the terms of the new treaty with the United States from parliament until ratification by the King, a regular constitutional practice, was being followed. In calling attention to the communication from the secretary of state for the colonies, Mr. Borden appeared to be anxious rather to make his position clear in regard to the question of treaty powers to criticize Earl Crew's was correct, in practice there had been several cases in which treaties had been presented to the Imperial parliament before they had been ratified by his majesty. "Too general and sweeping," was his comment upon the colonial secretary's statements. He did not see that there would be any danger or detriment in making the terms of a treaty known when once it had been signed by plenipotentiaries and it would be both undesirable and unfortunate if the people were kept in ignorance of the treaties because of diplomatic traditions. He further noted that Canadians were at a disadvantage as compared with the United States in the matter of a treaty before it became effective. The United States senate now had a waterways treaty under consideration, and interested parties in the States know its terms, while Canadians were kept in ignorance. He understood the treaty had not yet been ratified by the U. S. senate.

QUOTED AUTHORITIES.

In the controversy in view he quoted from Todd and other constitutional authorities to show that while in theory Earl Crew was correct, in practice there had been several cases in which treaties had been presented to the Imperial parliament before they had been ratified by his majesty. "Too general and sweeping," was his comment upon the colonial secretary's statements. He did not see that there would be any danger or detriment in making the terms of a treaty known when once it had been signed by plenipotentiaries and it would be both undesirable and unfortunate if the people were kept in ignorance of the treaties because of diplomatic traditions. He further noted that Canadians were at a disadvantage as compared with the United States in the matter of a treaty before it became effective. The United States senate now had a waterways treaty under consideration, and interested parties in the States know its terms, while Canadians were kept in ignorance. He understood the treaty had not yet been ratified by the U. S. senate.

SENATE OPPOSES IT.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier—"My informant is that it has been with confidence in opposition in the American senate."
Mr. Borden pointed out that in such case it might be a long time before it was ratified.
Sir Wilfrid—"Perhaps not at all."
Mr. Borden—"Then are we to remain forever in ignorance of the terms of this treaty? It seems to me undesirable and unfortunate that such should be the result. I do not think that it is a result imposed by any diplomatic necessity."

The Prime Minister, while hinting that the leader of the opposition had misinterpreted the spirit of Earl Crew's dispatch, heartily endorsed the view that treaties should be communicated to parliament and people the moment they were signed by plenipotentiaries. Parliamentary usage declared Sir Wilfrid should be developed with the times, and in these days when the power of the press was reflected in the national life of every country it would be not a disadvantage to a country to know the provisions of a treaty in which it was interested even before it was ratified by the King.

The Prime Minister found another opportunity to ventilate his views upon what he regards as short-comings. In the committee of supply estimates for civil service in agriculture and labor departments were put through.

BULGARIA MUST WITHDRAW THEM

Turkey Says Troops Must Leave

THE SITUATION

Under Threat of Armed Forces Cannot Listen to Russian Proposals

CONSTANTINOPLE, Feb. 5.—The Sultan summoned Kiamil Pacha to the Yildik Kiosk today and informed him that though he was favorable to the Russian proposal it was indispensable that before its acceptance Bulgaria should be called upon to withdraw her troops from the Turkish frontier as the prestige of the Ottoman empire would suffer if the belief gained ground that the Porte had concluded an agreement as the result of pressure from Bulgaria. A delegation from the parliamentary deputation of the Young Turk committee this evening called on Kiamil Pacha and made a similar declaration, adding that parliament would overthrow the Grand Vizier if there was any suspicion that Bulgaria threatens to add force to the government's acceptance of the Russian proposal.

Kiamil Pacha approved these declarations and added that unless the troops were withdrawn from the frontier he would never consent to the agreement, not even if Bulgaria and Russia should offer an indemnity of 20,000,000.
The opinion is held that only Kiamil Pacha and the Turkish ambassador at St. Petersburg have complete knowledge of the Russian-Turkish-Bulgarian negotiations, and that it is for this reason that hostility is shown to Kiamil Pacha in Turkish political circles. It is admitted that if the Bulgarian troops are withdrawn from the Turkish frontier it would facilitate the acceptance of the Russian proposal, for not only are they supported by the ambassadors of France and England, but even the Italian. It is confirmed that up to yesterday morning the ambassadors were ignorant of the intentions of Russia. One ambassador said today that the Russian proposal was very advantageous for Turkey, which would receive in cash $2,000,000 and 4,000,000 of annual payments.

The journals Ikdam and the Yennî Gazette print with reserve and without comment the Russian proposal, announcing that nothing is yet known. Of the reply of Turkey, on the other hand, the Taninle and the Ghoural Ummer express satisfaction, declaring that Turkey should accept it at once. They add that they do not clearly understand the financial combination. The Minister of War wishes categorically to deny the mobilization of an army corps at Salonica and Thessalonica, adding that the lists of reservists have been verified.
The council of the cabinet has approved the protocol of the Austro-Turkish agreement, except in certain minor details. Kiamil Pacha has called upon the dock laborers to cease their boycott, which they promised to do. The boycott committee has reserved its decision.

RESCUES CHILD FROM

CLAWS OF BIG EAGLE

Girl of 5 Years Was Being Carried Away by the Huge Bird

OTTAWA, N. Y., Feb. 5.—Josiah Ointree, a farmer, residing on the edge of the Adirondacks, at Plattsburgh, barely saved his five-year-old daughter from being carried off by an eagle late yesterday.

Yesterday Ointree was attracted by the screams of the child. Hastening from the barn he was horrified to see the child in the clutches of the big bird. His outcries frightened the eagle, and it dropped the child unharmed on the roof of a building near the barn. The father took a chance shot, but except for the loss of a few feathers, the bird flew away unharmed.

Ointree had observed the eagle about his sheep pens for several days.

Miss M. R. Morin, 335 Ontario St., Montreal, writes to Mrs. Pinkham: "I was in very poor health and doctored for months, receiving very little benefit. I had lost all ambition, was nervous, and subject to dizzy spells and painful periods each month."
"A friend suggested Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound as the proper medicine for me. I procured a bottle of this remedy and began taking, and before it was finished, I felt so much better that I continued its use and gave it a thorough test, with the result I am to-day well and a much healthier girl than I was three years ago. I have no more painful periods, dizziness or nervous troubles."

EVANS IS LOOKING FOR A RACE WITH SOMEONE

Will Keep on Trying Until Logan or Belyea Agree to Meet Him in a Series.

"Happy" Evans is unhappy. He has been trying for the last five or six weeks to arrange a series of races, but has had hard luck. Still he is not down cast and is determined to keep on until he sees he is beaten, and so let it be known that he is in the game for sport and is not a quitter. Talking to the Star yesterday, Walter said he found it difficult to understand why it was that Logan was compelled to retire from skating this season when challenged by him, but still able to enter the Montreal races when he pleased to do so. "I challenged him when it was understood he would be prepared to skate, and he accepted; then we tried to arrange the races, but getting with the longest, but Logan balked. There was a whole lot of talk until finally Fred told me that his boss wouldn't let him off to train. It seems the boss let him off to go to Montreal and now I am laying for him. I will be out with another challenge whenever he comes back. I want to know that Logan can easily beat me. I am put down as only a second rater, and I want to find out if this is true.

"I don't claim to be a skater; I have only been on the ice four times in the last two weeks, but there will be some satisfaction to me in knowing just how fast I can go alongside of some of the other fellows.

"Then I challenged Belyea and he backed out after accepting. I wanted to skate him three races of different distances but he held out for two halves and a mile, or two miles and a half, or something like that, which was not the challenge. However I am going to keep at them until we have a proper series. I am not insinuating that I can lick any of them, but I know I am not much good, but I want to see just how fast I can skate alongside Logan and Belyea, and perhaps if I am not much of a skater, I may be just as good a sport.

"There will be something doing when Logan comes back from Montreal."

If you have a plate that no dentist has been able to make fit, why not try us; we have satisfied thousands and why not you?

Our teeth are so natural in shape, color and the expression they afford to the features as to defy detection EVEN BY A DENTIST unless closely examined.

Our new attachment holds them as solid almost as though they were riveted in the mouth.

DON'T MAKE THE MISTAKE OF GIVING YOUR ORDER FOR A SET OF TEETH BEFORE SEEING US.

MONTREAL RACES TODAY

This afternoon on the outdoor track in Montreal, Fred Logan is to try conclusions with Ed. Lamy, Bush and the many others who are aspirants for championship honors. It has been a hard fight during the last week between Bush and Lamy at championship meets, Lamy having somewhat the better of it.

Logan claims that he is not in the best of condition for today's races, but thinks that he has a good chance to win some of the events.

In addition to Logan in Montreal there are Gordon Nuttall, who won the championship boys' event last winter, Ingraham and Coleman.
