NOW." The venerable Past - is past; Tis dark, and shines not in the lay

Twas good, no doubt-tis gone at last-There dawns another day. Why should we sit where ivies creep, And shroud ourselves in charnels deep ;

Or the world's yesterdays deplore, Mid crumbling rains' mossy hoar Why should we see with dead mon's eve. Looking at Was from morn to night,

When the beautious Now, the divine To BE, Woo with their charms our living sight? Why should we hear but echoes dull

When the world of sound so beautiful, Will give us music of our own ? Why in the darkness will we grope, When the sun, in heven's resplendent cope. Shines as bright as ever it shone !

" Now is a fact that men deplofe Though it might bless them evermore Would they but fashion it aright : Tis ever new, 'tis ever bright.
