YEAR-END SALES

IN LADIES' READY-TO-WEAR

We have been busy since Christmas in this section grouping, sorting and listing for this great year-end clearance—and in most cases the price is just half regular. In this section particularly the necessity of this is most apparent, as preparation for the great January white sale is now under way, and every available yard of space is needed on this floor; as only a few days remain to make this clearance, the prices are more sharply cut and should bring an early response tomorrow. Dresses, Suits, Skirts, Blouses, Petticoats, Underwear and Millinery are strongly featured in this sale.

Ladies' Suits, Dresses and Skirts Half-Price

All odd lines and accumulations of broken size ranges have been grouped for speedy clearance tomorrow at half-price. We cannot give individual descriptions of each as the assortments are too varied, only a few of each, in some cases individual models, but these are new and correct in style-eighty garments in all to go at half-price tomorrow, as follows:

30 Ladies' Suits in Cheviot and Serge, Navy and Black, Prices $15 to $25, Year - End Sale Half-Price, $7.50 to $12.50

25 Dresses in Taffetas and Crepe de Chines, in navy, rose, reseda, grey; regu-25 Ladies' Dress Skirts in silk and serge; regular $7.50 to $15.00. Special $3.75 and $7.50

Manufacturer's Seconds Ladies' Underwear

This is the final clearing of our contract made with the manufacturer earlier in the season for the season's mill seconds in ladies' knitted underwear. We sold a part shipment of these goods about two months ago, and this week (tomorrow) we offer the balance as follows-under present price conditions and the prospects for next year we would advise looking at least a year ahead when such a sale as this s is offered.

In all his sketches we see the humor ous side of human nature, even in the faces of sea fowl and fishes and other animal life, which he sprinkles around profusely. At one time it is the curate in conversation with a bluejacket, who says, "My man, how you must love the sea," to which the bluejacket makes reply, "Beggin' your pardon, your reverence; fishes were made for the sea and humans for the beach. Now, do I look like a haddock?" Then again it is a gigantic armed lobster, a sea "tank," which bears down upon a boatload of terrified Germans, or a naval airman fishing with a dummy baby as bait to capture a German sub. Another time a naval pilot turns the tables on an officious German officer. He loops the loop, thereby ejecting the same pompous officer into mid-air. A purely comic sketch is that in which the skipper, on being asked if he has anything to report, replies in this manner: "Yeth, dropped my falth teeth in the thea, nd I've been living on thlopth ever

A Poor Life-Motto.

Dear Miss Grey,—This is my second letter to the Mail-Box. While reading the letters of your page the other wide.

I saw a letter from "A Friend of Timothy," which made me sympathize with her. The farm is not a place of the with her. The farm is not a place of filleness I'll tell you that, for I live on the farm myself. When a young couple start up and have nothing much to live on, it takes all the money they can make to live; they have to be at work all the time, and not be too well clothed at that. The townspeople laugh at some of the poor farmers who have to save every cent they make to live. If it were not for the farmors the wealthy people in towns would not be there today. The farmers are the wealthy people in towns would not be there today. The farmers grow the wheat which they eat, and what's more, when the farmers take in their wheat to sell, they weigh it and give them their price, and when they buy flour, the miller weighs it out again for them and makes the farmers pay his price. Why not the farmers put a price on it themselves? Alas! If they did the millers wouldn't take it and keep the flour. They are not making enough to suit themselves. Turn about is fair play, but the farm-Turn about is fair play, but the farm- also is wearing the King's khaki, and istry motives do not excuse him for fleeing his native country on the eve of being called to the colors, but they may account for his secret departure. Despite vigorous denials of Snowy Baker and others interested in the promotion of boxing there, Australia is no longer a land of wealth and plenty for pugilistic stars.

Following is a letter just at hand which was written at the time Darcy made his exit. It is from a certain American who is prominent in international boxing circles, and who is "in the know" of things in Australia. Naturally he prefers to have his name withheld. He has waxed prosperous in the land of the kangaroo, and does not wish to lose the natives' good opin on by knocking. Darcy's desertion is old news now, but our correspondent springs some enlightening and interesting information anent that event, boxing conditions generally on the island continent, and American exponents of the science.

Natural Gas

Is a product of the Province of Ontario, and is a much more desirable fuel than coal imported from the United States.

The HENRY L. DOHERTY COMPANY has spent millions of dollars in exploiting fields, purchasing gas wells, laying pipe lines and equipping villages, towns, cities and townships for the delivery of natural gas, and have been rewarded by an abundant supply.

When the war broke out, a large percentage of the HENRY L. DOHERTY (Cities Services) Securities were held in Great Britain and few of them have been sold by British investors since that time, showing their faith in the company. Cities Services Securities were one of the few public utility securities held as collateral for the British War Loan.

Tilbury Gas has made it possible to keep up and increase the enormous supplies of munitions in the cities where it is available.

Premiers of Dominions Called to Conference for Either War or Peace

LONDON, Dec. 26 .- The secretary of state for the colonies has sent a telegram to the Dominion explaining the purposes of the forthcoming imperial conference announced by Premier Lloyd George. The telegram explains that what the Government contemplates is not an ordinary imperial conference, but a special war conference of the empire.

The prime minister of each of the Dominions is "invited to attend a series of special meetings of the war cabinet in order to consider urgent questions affecting the prosecution of the war, possible conditions on which in agreement with our allies, we could assent to its termination, and problems which would then immediately arise. The premiers are urged to attend at an early date-not later than the end of February.

both little boys and girls. A whole city full of interesting little people-120 pieces. And something is happening every minute that will hold the interest of the kiddies for hours. A wonderful secret discovery makes John Doe, the baker; John Bull, the butcher, and Heave-Ho, the sailor, suddenly grow to be giants, to the great consternation of the little city. "Bell Boy," the kitten, suddenly becomes a tiger, and knocks buildings down with his tail! All these exciting events are told in a most remarkable book called "The Giants of Lilliputania.

And as the interested kiddies read this book they build the little citythe City Hall, the Woman's Club, the Chinese Laundry, the Department Stores and the Giant Airship, and watch the little people step from the storybook into real life. Then they play the story them-
