The Voice of UNB

FOUNDERS' DAY TODAY

Ivory Tower Defended Tonight

UNB is celebrating its 182 anniversary today. The day has been set aside to honor the men and women who established this university in 1785.

A debate will begin today's activities at 4 p.m. at Memorial Hall when members of the faculty, students and guest, Dr. Gerald S. Graham, Rhodes Professor of Imperial History at London University will debate the resolution that Canadian Confederation is doomed.

J. George Chaisson, a second year law student, will take the negative along with Professor Graham. J. T. H. Wilbur, associate professor in History at UNB and George W. Kitchen, a fourth year Arts student will take the affirmative.

After a buffet dinner which will be held at McConnell Hall at 6 p.m. for special guests. At 8 p.m. Dr. Graham will make an address entitled "In Defence of The Ivory Tower" at Memorial Hall.

A special ceremony during the celebration will be the paying of the Quit Rent. This is a traditional payment dating back to the origin of the University. It is in acknowledgement of the grant of 5,900 acres of land made to the University in 1800. Dr. Colin B. Mackay will make the payment to Lieutenant Governor John B. McNair. The payment will be one farthing for every one hundred acres of land.

Students will have from 4 p.m. off today in order to attend the debate.

DR. GERALD S. GRAHAM

PLEAS TO C.I.A. USELESS

by STEVE MacFARLANE

The U.S. Youth Council, the World Assembly of Youth, and the International Student Conference, the Washington Evening Star announced recently, should be added to the list of student organizations exposed as jackals of the Central Intelligence Agency.

The American government admitted on Tuesday, February 14, that the National Student Association, America's biggest student organization, had been receiving funds from the CIA for over ten years.

Following the recent announcement that the CIA had extended its influence to the Canadian Union of Students, of which UNB is a member, David R. Young, Vice-President of CUS, wrote a letter to Prime Minister Pearson.

In his letter, Mr. Young went through the formality of requesting the Prime Minister to go through the formality of asking the American government to go through the formality of asking its CIA to stay out of the organization.

Mr. Young then naively requested that the Prime Minister release any top secret information that may exist concerning RCMP involvement in CUS. "We ask for assurance," Mr. Young said, "that the RCMP is not engaged in any similar operations."

We wonder why the vice-president of the organization is not capable of ascertaining this himself.

Through diligent reading of the entire Matt Helm series, this writer feels that he has been made aware of the inner workings of the American intelligence service. I would inform Mr. Young that his pleas would do no good.

LaPierre to Be On Campus

Laurier LaPierre will be on campus April 3 as the guest of the SRC. He will address the students on "Canada: A Huff and A Puff."

Presently, Mr. LaPierre is helping two University of Ottawa students with their Centennial Project. They are making a long play record of Sir Wilfred Laurier's speeches. Mr. LaPierre is delivering some of the statesman's most famous speeches while Patrick Watson, LaPierre's fellow co-host on the now defunct "This Hour Has Seven Days" is producing the record.

The record, to be released in both English and French by mid March is to bring out the stature of Laurier as a statesman. RCA Victor is releasing the record and Metropolitan Life Insurance Company has purchased the first 25,000 copies to be distributed to Canadian High Schools.

The two students, Jim Marmino and Mark Assaf got the idea for their project while doing post graduate work for their M.A. degrees.

SUPA Men Coming to UNB

Richard Paterak, information distributor for draft-age Americans who wish to come to Canada will be one of the three SUPA workers here Monday.

Apparently there are more ways of avoiding the "draft" than merely closing the door.

Three people concerned about the Vietnam problem will arrive on the UNB campus on March 6th. Richard Paterak, an American draft-resister, will be speaking on his association with draft-resisters and the present state of American society. Danny Drache, a staff worker for SUPA (Student Union for Peace Action) and a graduate of Queen's, will speak on Canada's role in the war and its relation to Canadian independence.

Brenda Berck, a staff member of CFSC, will be talking on "The Medical Aid to Vietnam Program" and will provide a pacifist view of the war.

Students should find the speeches very interesting and thought-provoking considering the publicity given to recent incidents concerning draft-dodgers.

Richard Paterak, recent guest on the CBC program "Sunday" is in charge of the SUPA information program for Americans seeking information for immigration. He is responsible for the distribution of the pamphlet, "Escape From Freedom". It details the ins and outs of migrating into Canada for those who wish to escape the Draft. The 12

Law Students to Pay Same But Receive Rebates

The SRC Meeting

John Oliver, Finance Chairman, proposed that all tickets be printed by the SRC and that their distribution be left to the individual committees. He also said that Law fees will be maintained at $35 a student but that they will change the rebate from $10 to $5.

Another motion was passed later that Law students should have to buy a yearbook since they will be given a $5 rebate. They are being given this rebate because they didn't want the yearbook.

Open Rooms

John Skelton proposed a motion that the SRC reaffirm the principle of open rooms at certain times as specified by Residence Representative Council. Peter Blair, first Vice-President, said, that they needed to put constant pressure on the Ryan Commission and the Administration. The report that was given to the Ryan Commission was from the past Council. "We want to make our own stand now." This motion was passed 8-6-4.

Education Committee

Madeleine Long was unanimously appointed Education Committee Chairman and will now occupy a non-voting seat on the Council.

SRC will talk to Senate

Wayne Beach, another

Council member, and a member from the RRC will talk to the Senate next week on the Bailey Report which was about the future of the University.

Carnival

It was announced that a committee will be set up to see if changes are necessary in the present UNB-STU Winter Carnival organization. Two members from UNB will be appointed by Peter Blair and two from STU have already been appointed by Jim Asher, STU Council President. This report is expected to be handed in by March 19 at the latest.

Handbook

The Student Handbook which according to Allan Pressman is invaluable to Freshman at Orientation time will be enlarged to include facts on SRC future plans, Course Evaluation, Co-op Housing and other things pertinent to SRC members. This book will be co-ordinated by Jim Belding, Public Relations Officer of the SRC.

Announcements

Wayne Beach announced at the last meeting of the SRC will be on March 19. He also said the target date for the opening of the new library will be May 15. CUS announced that the Company of Young Canadians will be on campus Monday and Tuesday, Feb. 26 and 27 on a program.

New Business

The CUS Chairman, Brian Stafford, was asked by the floor if CUS was being subsidized by the CIA or the RCMP and if they were what was UNB going to do about it. Mr. Stafford said that official releases from CUS denied that they had not received any money from the CIA. It was then brought up on the floor that Doug Ward, National President of CUS admitted receiving $1500 through Pepsi-Cola Co., which was acting as a front for the CIA at this time. When asked what CUS intended to do about this situation Mr. Stafford replied, "Nothing."

SRC Hotseat

Next week an informal booth will be initiated in the upper foyer of the Student Centre. An SRC Representative will be present to answer questions on the business, policies, programs and future ideas of the SRC. There will be two of these representatives in the hot seat during the course of an afternoon. They will be there Wednesday, Thursday and Friday afternoon each week from 1:30 to 4:30 to answer all questions posed by interested students.

Power Mad and Uninformed

It was not enough that the Students' Representative Council should contemplate paying salaries to its members commensurate to the number of hours its sits.

Again, last Sunday, they exercised another act of uncertain logic by raising law student fees to make them equal to others and then giving them a rebate, making their fees unequal again.

Their activities are not restricted to the first day of the week. During the week they are busy dreaming up machinations to enhance their position as saviors of student finances. Last week the Drama Society, was seen as a possible subject for scandal.

The Society was criticized for having a bank account separate from the SRC. This organization found it necessary to have one for current expenses because of the problem of squeezing money from the SRC on matters already budgeted - not to mention the length of time it takes after they agree to give it.

The SRC requested that the account be turned over to them. The money received, it was alleged would be turned over to the Brunswickan to aid in its finances. As editor, I had never heard of this plan.

Either the new SRC, particularly members of the executive who have never sat before on the Council, have impressed themselves tremendously with their new power, or they don't know what they are doing. It appears to be both.

However, this sudden nosing into Drama Society finances, in light of previous agreements with the Society which have stood for three years, the cry that the Brunswickan is being mishandled appears that the SRC is in some sort of financial jam itself.

We are awaiting, as students, the auditors report of their financial standing.

Founders' Day

Today we celebrate our anniversary as a University. It hardly looks like a jubilant celebration in which students will take part.

The debate, the only real occasion for student participation today is on a negative rather hackneyed topic. Students will be given that period of time off to enjoy it, however.

The only tradition to be maintained today will be the paying of the Quit Rent, which dates back to 1800. We hope that authenticity will be maintained, at least, and farthings, instead of quarters will be used.

If we, as students, are to be expected to look on Founder's Day with respect, it should not be a holiday resurrected yearly only. As a student, I believe that our current expansion detracts from the maintenance of such traditions.

Go to Dr. Graham's address tonight and learn how we can maintain ourselves in our Ivory Tower and tradition, despite the crowded quarters.

LADY DUNN

the inside will appear in the Brunswickan next week. This publication will be financed by the proceeds from the Lady Dunn a go go held last weekend.

The staff wishes to thank the women of Lady Dunn for their support as well as other individuals who will make the publication of the inside possible.

Brunswickan

Established in 1867, the Brunswickan is Canada's oldest student publication. It is published weekly for the students of the University of New Brunswick at Fredericton, N.B. Opinions expressed are not necessarily those of the Student Representative Council. Subscriptions $4 a year. Authorized as second class mail, Post Office Department, Ottawa. The Brunswickan office is located at the Memorial Students Centre, UNB, Fredericton, N.B., telephone 475-5191. This paper was printed at Capital Free Press, Brunswick Street, Fredericton.

PROPOSED S.R.C. HOTSEAT IN "STUD".....

Letters to the Editor

COMMENDATION - AND CRITICISM

Editor:

I should like to endorse part of your latest editorial - the section I interpret as being critical of the gulf between the university and the wider community - but also to challenge some of your assessment.

It is indeed shameful that the Indian community is neglected. But surely this is only the closest of an almost endless list of problems (other underprivileged groups in Canada, second-class citizens in other nations, grinding poverty in Asia, lack of personal freedom elsewhere, vicious Africa...) It is important that each of these should be of sufficient concern to someone, somewhere, for progress to be possible. Any one individual or group has but limited time and energy, and it is rather presumptuous to suggest what their personal priorities should be.

To my mind, the damning indictment should be of those who are concerned only with their personal problems and prospects, and have concern for none of the wider issues. I am afraid that the local situation is really one in which the same rather small band is concerned about all situations of injustice and discrimination, and the majority are dedicated to their own achievement and comfort.

Finally, may I suggest that you are simply incorrect when you assert that every body of professors and students of our size is parasitic (consider the Coady International Institute at Antigonish, for example)? And surely you do not advocate ignorance and neglect of what many regard as the major problem we shall have to confront sometime, possibly soon; namely, the continuance of white obligation and systematic race-discrimination in Southern Africa.

Yours sincerely,
R. T. McKinnell

5. The University Project
Waterloo, Ontario.
A crucial look at University today.

6. Inner City Service Project
Vancouver, B.C.

A look at downtown Vancouver, the Inner City.

If any of these projects capture your interest, attend a meeting specifically to throw around questions and ideas about summer projects at The Tartan Room, Student Centre, Friday, February 24 at 6:30 p.m.

Deadline for application submissions is March 1.

"Mutter Corage" to be Shown at Playhouse

The German Department has made arrangements to exhibit the East German Movie MUTTER COURAGE, which is a cinematographic document of the stage-play of the same name by Bertolt Brecht. The film will be shown in the Playhouse, Fredericton, on SUNDAY, March 5, 1967 at 2:00 (time of screening subject to slight modifications in view of the length of the feature.)

The film is entirely in German; with an introduction by Dr. Owen, it is in cinemascope, black-and white, and is the only print in existence on the North American continent. It was made in the Theater am Schiffbauerdamm in East Berlin, Brecht's own theatre, the title role is played by his wife, Helene Weigel, with music by Paul Dessau. The entire production follows the original staging by Bert Brecht.

The film runs approximately 3 hrs. in length and has no English subtitles. We strongly urge that those intending to get the greatest enjoyment from this rare film read the play before hand in the English version, which will be available at the University bookstore.

Admission will be free.

STUDENTS NEEDED FOR LIBRARY MOVE

It is planned to move the University Library from the Bonar Law-Bennett building to the new Harriet Irving building in the period May 8 to May 31. It is estimated it will take 14 eight-hour working days or approximately three five-day weeks to complete the task. The Maritime Moving and Storage Company has been selected as the professional movers, and in addition to their normal crews of professional movers there is a requirement for fourteen (14) male students for actual packing and transportation. These students will be employed by the Maritime Moving and Storage Co. and will be paid $1.50 per hour or $12.00 for an eight hour day, and they will work a five day week.

Students must be 18 years of age and physically capable of carrying the heavy loads and the manhandling of loaded cardboard cartons. The students must also be prepared to work for the entire period necessary to complete the move.

Students interested should apply to the Director of Personnel's office, Room 3, Annex B, and arrange for an interview.

SRC NOTICES

The SRC passed the following motion during their Sunday meeting on February 26, whereas:

- 1) As long as the principle that residences must be self-supporting is accepted, the administration can justify increases in residence fees by pointing to increased costs.
- 2) The academic cost of university are paid only in part by student fees.
- 3) Residences are integral parts of the educational experience.

Be it resolved that residence costs should be partly subsidized. Be it further resolved that the SRC should press for recognition of this principle.

The SRC is now calling for names of interested students with reference to co-operative housing. The Students Council wishes to see this program on its feet by early next year. Any student or organization interested in co-op housing is asked to write or see Wayne Beach or Lawson Hunter. For further information drop in to the SRC Office at your earliest convenience.

FOR RAIDERS

Hope High For Championship

UNB Red Raiders moved into second place in the Maritime Basketball league and knocked Dalhousie Tigers out of the championship race with two victories last weekend over Mount A and Dalhousie. The Raiders were very nearly upset by a determined but lack lustre Mount Allison squad on Friday night, but salvaged a 63-49 victory.

Mount "A"

Play was very slow in the first quarter and the two teams stayed within a couple of points of each other. Mount A showed very good hustle and defence, while all the UNB first string except Patterson seemed to be asleep on the floor.

The Raiders came back in the second half knowing that they now had to work hard to win. Their defence tightened up like a vise on Mount "A's" weak offence. But the Raiders' offence was still cold and it took almost till the fourth quarter for them to snag the lead.

Dalhousie

The UNB-Dalhousie game was the last, and appropriately, one of the most important home games for four year Raider veterans Rick Cotter and Dan Patterson. They showed why they have been perennial first-stringers by leading UNB to victory with 16 and 14 points respectively.

In the first half, the Raiders seemed to regain the shooting prowess that was absent the night before - hitting 50% from the floor (but not from the line!!) to lead almost all the first half and finish the game - 66-59.

By the By

An apology is owed to Danny Patterson. I was in error when I reported that Dave Nutbrown won the Winter Carnival Most Valuable Player Award. Dan Patterson won the award. And a defence - I am not responsible nor do I have any use for the derogatory pre-game write-ups in the basketball programs put out by Gary Davis and company.

One day our lapinary friend was busy making a short hop across campus when she espied a truck transporting copious quantities of carrot cupcakes.

but such culinary consummations call for capital.

and capital, kiddies, means like Sanks.

funny we should mention that.

now lappy was short of cash, this isn't surprising, because we would be hard put to advertise this way if she weren't.

So she romped over to the Campus Bank, which was nearby, natch, and garnered a few pfennigs therefrom.

and she still had time to catch the cupcake vendor and blow the lot before he was out of sight.

so we have a happy lappy.
