

CONSTITUTION
OF THE
ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

OF THE
Presbyterian College, Montreal,

Adopted by the Alma Mater Society, April 3rd, 1890.

CONSTITUTION.

I. This Society shall be called the Alumni Association of the Presbyterian College, Montreal.

II. The object of the Association shall be to further among the Alumni a spirit of loyal attachment to the college, to promote its welfare by such means as may be devised from time to time and to perpetuate the bond of union among its members.

III. All, who have been students in theology in the college for at least one year or who have received degrees in theology therefrom, and have maintained a good reputation, and students in the graduating class, shall be members of this Association.

IV. Professors, Lecturers, the Board of Management, and Senate of the College shall be ex-officio members of the Association.

V. The officers of the Association shall consist of a President, two Vice-Presidents, a Secretary-Treasurer, a Necrologist and a Bibliographer, who, with three others, shall be elected annually by ballot, and shall form the Executive Committee, which shall transact the business during the interim of meetings.

VI. The annual meeting of the Association shall be held on the same day the session closes, and at such an hour as may be appointed from year to year.

VII. Special meetings of the Association may be called by the President on the written request of five members, or by the Executive Committee, notice thereof and object therefor, being given in the College Journal at least two weeks previous.

VIII. The order of business at the annual meeting shall be as follows:—

- ✓ 1. Devotional services.
 - ✓ 2. Reading minutes of previous meeting.
 - ✓ 3. Report of Secretary-Treasurer.
 - ✓ 4. Necrologist's and Bibliographer's Reports.

- ✓5. Election of Officers.
- ✓6. Nomination of Representative Senators.
- ✓7. Resolutions discussed.
- ✓8. Statements from Alumni by classes.
- ✓9. Miscellaneous Business.

IX. The Alumni will endeavour to meet together during Synod and Assembly meetings to foster the bond of union between themselves and to further the interests of their Alma Mater.

X. Alterations may be made to this constitution at the annual meeting by a two-thirds vote of the members present, provided notice of such amendment be given in the College Journal or other religious paper a month previous.

BY-LAWS.

I. It shall be the duty of the President and Vice-Presidents to preside at all meetings, and in their absence a chairman shall be chosen.

II. The Secretary-Treasurer shall make a minute of every meeting of the Association or Executive Committee, receive all moneys paid to the Association, and shall submit to the annual meeting a statement of the receipts and disbursements of the same.

III. The Bibliographer shall, as far as possible, procure copies of books and other literary works written or prepared by the Alumni, that they may form what shall be known as the Library of the Alumni. He shall prepare a written report of all such literary works to be read at the annual meeting of the Association.

IV. The Necrologist shall, as far as possible, keep a record of all deaths that occur among the Alumni or students and prepare a brief memoir of the life of each. This report shall be printed from time to time and filed with the papers of the Association.

V. The Executive Committee shall meet at the call of the President or any three of its members, after at least one week's notice, to devise methods to promote the work of the Association, and shall submit a programme of entertainment at the annual meeting.

VI. Every member of the Association shall contribute one dollar annually to the treasury, and no member whose dues are unpaid shall have the right of voting at either an annual or special meeting of the Association.

VII. Alterations or additions may be made to these by-laws at any meeting called in the manner prescribed in the constitution by a majority vote of the members present.
