THREE NURSES KILLED

Enemy's Aerial Assaults Plainly Betray New Deliberate Policy.

London, Aug. 26 .- (Via Reuter's Ottawa Agency).- "Attacks on military hospitals on both French and British fronts," says Reuter's correspondent at French army headquarters, "are becoming so frequent and deliberate making them, the Germans are intenmaking them, the Germans are intentionally working a new vein of 'fright-fulness.' On the might of the 20th three hospitals in the Verdun sector alone were bombed by enemy airmen. HAMILTON NEWS

Hamilton, Aug. 26 .- Mrs. Abraham A

* WAR SUMMARY * THE DAY'S EVENTS REVIEWED

HE Italians have won a great success in the capture of Monte Santo, protecting the Bainsizza Plateau from the west, and they are rapidly pushing forward against the retreating Austrians in order to win a complete victory. The region of this breach lies northeast of Gorizia, across the Isonzo. It is a plateau about 2000 feet high, extending eastward to the Puster Thal and other natural avenues of foe communication, and its occupation by the allies will enable the advance to continue rapidly on Trieste and Laibach. Monte Santo withstood a two years' siege; the enemy confidently entrusted his fortunes to its strength to save Trieste and he light-heartedly proceeded with designs against Ru-.

A combined turning movement and frontal attack succeeded in cap- Indian Boy's Death Imminent turing this formidable mountain from the Austrians. The Italians effected a surprise by speedily throwing under cover of night no fewer than fourteen bridges across the Isonzo. One Italian column made a direct frontal assault against the enemy defence lines of Sommer-Kobelik-Madoni, and another went round these lines and attacked the Jelnik-Vrh front, breaking thru and getting in the rear of Monte Santo. The Special to The Toronto World. Austrians then began a retreat across the Bainsizza Plateau, with the Italians in close pursuit. They are making fierce resistance, but the strong pressure of their pursuers is preventing the making of strong stands so far. The Italians captured immense booty, including 75 guns and great depots of provisions and other supplies.

The Italians have already taken nearly 24,000 prisoners in this present offensive, but if it succeeds as they plan and are confident that it will, they will have a great many more. Their chief aids to victory ford Mills, about nine miles north of were their tremendous superiority of guns and their complete dominance the air. These great advantages will also serve to carry them much further into Austrian territory. The Germans, however, no matter how hard-pressed, always seem to have reinforcements within easy call, and they may yet be able to forward a sufficient number to check the Italians, altho their chief effort lately, outside of the west, has been against Riga, following their check in Rumania. Cadorna, who ranks high among allied generals and who has enjoyed the signal success of making the first clear break thru in trench fighting in the west, is not the man to stay his attacks from want of boldness, so he is sure to exploit his advantage to its utmost limits.

The French, again advancing on the eastern bank of the River Meuse, north of Verdun, captured yesterday 4509 yards of strong German trenches between Mormont Farm and Bois Le Charme, and also the Bois des Fosses and Bois Beaumont. This success represents a penetration of the German front for about 1100 yards, and the new French front now runs thru the southern outskirts of Beaumont Village. The Germans made a desperate stand.

The French advance from Verdun is a direct threat, the yet faint, to Montmedy Junction, about twelve miles to the northward, in the opening stages of a movement to cut off the enemy from some of his important bases and to isolate and surround Metz. The capture of Montmedy Junction, if the French movement should achieve its full success, would deprive the Germans in northwestern France of the use of their railways thru Luxemburg and thru Metz. Further to the north is Sedan, the memory of which France burns to wipe out. At present, however, the best that may be looked for is an advance far enough to permit the French to bring Montmedy Junction under their artillery fire.

The British army suddenly transferred its activity from its extreme left to its extreme right flank yesterday when it attacked the enemy on a mile front north of St. Quentin and east of Margicourt and penetrated the enemy's defence to a depth of half a mile. The two chief points falling to the British assault were the Cologne and Malakoff farms. The British troops have consolidated the ground won. They also, in Belgium, defeated a temporarily successful German attempt to secure possession of the northwest corner of Inverness Copse on the Menin road. They adyanced their lines slightly in fighting southeast of St. Julien.

The German effort against Riga appears to have ended suddenly when the Russians retired to the River Aa, for the name of Riga no longer appears in German or Russian official reports. Whether it is because the Italians have broken the Austrian front, or because the Russian defences present too formidable obstacles for forcing without lengthy artillery preparation and previous careful reconnoitring, at any rate the danger to Riga appears to be past, at least for the present.

"The Brandenburg reserve division was practically wiped out as a fighting unit. Of its three regiments, 69 officers and 2,794 men, well over one-third of its entire bayonet strength, officers and 2,794 men, well over one-third of its entire bayonet strength, were captured. The whole divisional organization, with its cooks, cyclists and even its band, fell into our hands. The band had been sent into the front line on Goose Hill to take their part in the battle as fighting men, and were captured on Monday morning with all that was left of the division. The long locks of the musicians distinguished them at a hundred yards tinguished them at a hundred yards from the rank and file of the German prisoners, whose heads are shaved like those of convicts in England, and it was their unwonted profusion of heiry adornment which led to the discovery of their real business as soldiers.

In Women's Suits Fashion Favors Longer Coats and Slimmer Skirts

S HE HAS BEEN PRACTICAL rather than capricious in designing Autumn suits, and the result is immensely pleasing. The materials which are most popular in their making are serges, gabardines, poplins, velours and broadcloths in supple weaves, which allow for the graceful gatherings or pleatings of skirt and coat. Collars are not quite so broad, and fasten closely about throat, and trimmings are frequently black military braid and buttons. Though skirts flare less, they are more pleasingly made with attractions.

predominating colors of the season appear in the array of smart mits, including taupe, Burgundy, beetroot, balsam green, Madura, Java, purple, Characteristic of the moderation of price which rules, note the figure in the upper left-hand corner—with what grace she wears her poplin suit at $27.50. Were she to revolve for inspection you might see how attractive is the back of her suit, also. Inch tucks extend across, forming a tight waistline, with rows of buttons on either side and gatherings beneath; the deep collar is also tucked and button-trimmed. The tucks appear at either side of front and on cuffs. This charming suit may be had in balsam, Java, navy and black, and is priced

Subdued Colors and Soft Weaves Characterize Women's Coats

OSSIBLY THE CASUAL OBSERVER would fail to note any differences in the coats of the present and the past season. But they exist principally in their broader collars, which are frequently of plush or fur; in their which are not so often of the tying variety, and in their skirts, which swirl and flare less. Furthermore, attractive and new pockets give distinctive touches. In materials velours proves most popular, though (in moderately-priced lines) seavers, kerseys, witneys and burellas are in demand. The darker color tones are in evidence, including taupe, beetroot, concord, Java, navy and black.

One interesting line at $17.50 is fashioned of fine velours, with graceful back, broad self collar trimmed with colored bone buttons, large pockets jauntily button-trimmed on one side, wide belt, which encircles a normal waistline, and Wack, and moderately priced at $17.50.

Of quaint design is the little frock in illustration number four, noned of navy serge, with pleats from shoulder yoke, panel front, wide patent belt, over which fastens a single large pocket. Its little collar is embroidered in color, and the moderate price is $10.50.

Fascinating Milinery and Coats for Wee Tots

HERE ARE QUAINT BONNETS, large and small, of corded silk and crepe de Chine. Particularly for baby boys have little hats been made of cream corded silk with soft crowns, little rolling brims and ribbon ties. Children of two to six years may have hats of velvet, plush or corduroy, mostly fashioned in quaint mushroom shape, some being fur-trimmed. Colors include rose, midnight and navy blues, balsam and lighter greens tan and white. Attractive little coats are here in chinchilla, diagonal cheviot and beaver cloth in

In Attractive Millinery Featured for Tuesday Are Misses' and Children's Hats

ELVET, DAME FASHION'S favorite for winter, seems more popular than ever, while with it is used silk and occasionally felt. Shapes incline to be small, and shirring or machinemade pin tucks often distinguish the crowns and break the monotony of the plain velvet in the larger hats. In a misses hat of medium size a novel feature noted was three large tucks finishing the edge; rather like this in effect is the double brim on a smart rolling sailor, while another has the brim cut out in front and a smart little cluster of loops forming an effective accent just at that point. The "irregular" shape is a novelty of the season, in which the brim is unexpectedly wide at the side of the front. The "cushion" brim is rolled around the edge. The Aviators and the sectional crowns are smart, new ideas. Trimmings of wool fruits, coques, feathers and pom-poms, tassels, twisted velvet in bows are all distinctive features developed in novel ways this year. The colors most favored are black, marine blue, purple, Madura brown, and frequently these are in combinations with lighter hues, such

Among the children's hats are the most alluring velvet shapes, frequently plain or corded shirring, fine tucking or the new "puffed" crown, which is a novelty. Fancy designs made with chenille form a trimming much favored, and rivalling it are tassels and pleatings of ribbon. Prices ready-to-wear hats are from, for Misses', $5.00 to $8.50. Children's, $3.50 to $6.50.

The Ever-Present Serge Frock Shares Its Popularity With Satin

NE OF THE NEW FEATURES of Autumn frocks is the draped skirt, or that which, for the want of a better name, is dubbed the "Melon" skirt, extending at either hip and narrowing towards feet, thereby acquiring its name. The bodice is frequently cut on the "chemise" line, being straight, with sleeves fitting closely at wrist and having many surprises in the way of belts. Serge prevails for the informal frock, though satin crepe de Chine and crepe meteor are prominent.

The woman desirous of having a smart frock at a moderate price should approve of the attractive model in illustration number 7. It is of fine quality serge, the bodice in loose basque style, prettily patterned in silk braid, and having overcollar of white silk. The long, straight sleeve has button-trimmed band below elbow. Pockets which extend on either side at hip are button-trimmed, and the sole adornment of its fully gathered skirt. Price, $25.00.

Fascinating Autumn Modes for Misses

N COATS ARE SWAGGER STYLES cut with skirts which do not swirl so extensively as those of last season, collars which are broader than ever, and pockets of many designs. In lieu of material velours leads, and has several followers, including tweeds, cheviots, beavers and chinchillas. Colors are rich and dark, with taupe, beetroot, Java, twilight, navy and twilight, navy and

In frocks there is a diversity of design in serge and silk. The former might be worn for school or afternoon, in so many charming styles is it fashioned, new touches being given by flaring panels on skirt, ofttimes embroidered in color, or at feet. The basque-like bodice, with its straight lines, is quite prominent. Navy and black lead in frocks of serge, though they may be had in the dark tones of

In skirts, novelty silks are being used for afternoon wear, while the ever-popular serge, gabardine and poplin appear in smart styles for general wear. In suits, the coats have larger collars, are cut on straight lines, with attractive belts and pockets, many adorned with buttons and embroidery or braid; skirts are a little more ornate than usual, with attractive pockets, belts and fullness at waist.

One item of particular interest is the suit portrayed in illustration five, the model being girlish and cut on simple, straight lines, with bone buttons for the sole adornment. The skirt has self belt, with fullness at back, two patch pockets adorning front, with straps from belt. Obtainable in fine quality poplin in balsam and navy, at $27.50.

Skirts Which Are Straight of Line and Have Pleasant Surprises in the Way of Pockets

HE WOMAN IN QUEST of a smart separate skirt will be truly delighted with those which await her selection. For afternoon wear there are such weaves as satin and taffeta, while, for general purposes, velours, gabardine, serge and poplin are duly popular.

Depicted on the figure in illustration number six is a charming model of satin, with soft crush girdle, panel front and back, broad pockets on either side, which are pleated, the pleats being continued to base of skirt. Price, $15.00.

Filmy Georgette Crepe is Still Reigning Monarch in Blousedom

CILKS AND DAINTY VOILES are her ladies-in-waiting, however, and appear in many attractive forms. Embroideries of beads and silk are favored ornamentations.

That illustrated on lady number 6 is of fine Georgette crepe, with pretty designs of beads and silk, plainly hemstitched collar and cuffs. Obtainable in flesh, maize and white. Price $12.50!

In the Cosy World of Furs Long-haired Peltries Are Favored

UXURIOUS FURS OF WOLF or lynx or fox are preferred in musts and stoles, the latter offering some radical changes in their designing. They strangely resemble the quaint capes of other days, with many tails used for their adornment; animal effects are justly popular also, while muffs are still large and round. Hudson seal coats, in their luxuriant beauty, are greatly to the fore, made with flat cape collars which are of lynx, fox, sable, opossum or Kolinsky. Muskrat coats are also in demand and vastly popular for motoring and general wear.

EXHIBITION OPENS TODAY BETTER THAN EVER BEFORE

All is Ready for Duke's Touch to Set in Motion the Great Fair That Marks Fiftieth Anniversary of Confederation.

When the gates of the Canadian National Exhibition are thrown open at 8 o'clock this morning it will mark the beginning of what promises to be the most eventful period in its history. In presentation of the nation's enterprises, in science and art and in educational value it will far surpass snything yet attempted by the directors. Every sphere in the life of the Dominion, from the products of the soil to the most modern accomplishments of science will be represented in a colossal undertaking that must leave a lasting impression on the minds of its patrons.

From the time of its inception the Enthibition has experienced epochmsking periods, but "Confederation Year" will mark the crowning achievement of a career of success. Keeping abreast of the times and by diligent pursuit in every field of endeavor those responsible for the conduct of the fair have provided a reyelation that will amaze even those who claim acquaintance with the in-

Service—with every man and woman in line—is the dominant feature of the Exhibition.

Production and Thrift.

Without losing sight of what Canada has done, the fair will show the way to greater effort thru the coon of the agencies of indust dministration. In this respe it notably differs from the purpose of other years. Not in theory does it say: "Use every energy and every resource to produce more and sconomize to the denial of luxuries even mize to the denial of luxuries even in food," but in practical demonstration. Even the farmer, who is supposed to know how to obtain the best results from the soil, is given a lesson. About forty tractors will show him the cultivation of soil, and experts from the Ontario Agricultural Department will advise him on the selection and raising of crops. Then the kitchen, where the housewife is suppreme, will be invaded. She will be taught by experts in scientific cooking how she can apply thrift with advantage. With a careful selection of food she will be shown how to prepare the most appetizing dishes at prepare the most appetizing dishes at the least possible cost and with the least possible degree of waste. EXHIBITION'S MESSAGE TO PEOPLE OF CANADA

National Progress and Patriotic Pride and Patriotism Are Dominent Notes of Canada's National Fair for Jubilee Year of Canadian Confederation.

The Canadian National Exhibition is Toronto's biggest asset. It advertises the city and the Dominion of Canada the world over. This year thrift, conservation of natural resources, intensive production and improved marketing methods are emphasized in every department, and this, with patriotic pride in the present and infectious faith and optimism in the future of Canada, forms the dominant, note for the jubilee year of Canadian Confederation. Every one interested in the newly found industrial independence of Canada, as shown by her adaptability and resourcefulness in meeting the vital problems of war time, should visit the Exhibition. Here will be visualized the progress that has been made in time-saving appliances of all descriptions, to offset the absent manlabor; here will also be shown the uses of hitherto rejected foodstuffs and substitutes of others now urgently needed by the motherland to feed the boys in khaki fighting for us overseas; and the increase in industrial and agricultural production will be strikingly demonstrated. Our prodigal and traditional waste will cease if the object lessons which the Exhibition has prepared are taken advantage of and applied to everyday home and business life. Inquiries from outside the city indicate a larger attendance than ever before, and this with good weather and the increased community pride which has been aroused among people of Toronto in their wonderful Exhibition, should insure a record attendance. Let the slogan be "BEAT THE MILLION," and to do this all say, "LET'S GO."

STREET CAR MEN FAVOR THE AWARD

Employes' Mass Meeting Accepts Finding of Board of Conciliation.

MAJORITY LARGE

Number of Men Vote Against It, Favoring Closed

Acceptance by a vote of 684 to 289 of the award made by the board of conciliation of which Judge Snider was chairman, in the controversy between the Toronto Rallway Company and the Street Railwaymen's Union, was made by the employes in a meet-ing at the Star Theatre early Sunday The vote was taken after three and

The vote was taken after three and a half hours' discussion and consideration of the report handed down by the arbitrators. The new schedule which provides a seven-cents an hour increase dating from June 16, for two years and better working conditions, becomes effective contingent only upon, the acceptance of the award by the approach of the ward by the corporation. Alderman William D. Robbins. financial secretary of the union, yesterday expressed the hope that the company would adopt the new agreement.

Those who voted against the acceptance of the award favored a closed shop and a change in the working schedule as a substitute for the arrangement decided upon by the board of conciliation. There was little discussion concerning the wage increase involved in the report, this part of the award apparently being satisfactory. The original demands of the union called for a straight 10-centsan-hour raise in pay, but the men always gave the impression that they would not hold firm in this particular if their other demands were partially if not wholly met.

would not hold firm in this particular if their other demands were partially if not wholly met.

Would Harm Exhibition.

Several pertinent arguments were presented by the leaders in their advocacy of the endorsement of the board's report. The speakers told the 1000 union men that the Canadian National Exhibition demanded that the cars continue in operation and that a strike at this time would prove a calamity to those desiring the success of the annual fair.

It was pointed out that the public had supported the men in their first walk-out because it sympathized with their demands and desired a change in their favor, but that the people would not support another strike movement since the board's award was apparently a fair one, and to this argument the men gave attention. It was also pointed out that the board of conciliation had evidently investigated every phase of the controversy and had arrived at a solution which for the time being should be accepted. The speakers declared that the people would not take kindly in the inconvenience of another suspension of street car operation in view of the fact that investigation, confered that the people would not take kindly to the inconvenience of another suspension of street car operation in view of the fact that investigation, confered that the people would not take kindly to the inconvenience of another suspension of street car operation in view of the fact that investigation, confered that the people would not take kindly to the inconvenience of another suspension of street car operation in view of the fact that investigation, confered that the people would not take kindly to the inconvenience of another suspension of street car operation in view of the fact that investigation, confered that the people would not take kindly to the inconvenience of another suspension of street car operation in view of the fact that investigation, confered that the people would not take kindly to the inconvenience of another suspension of street car operation in view of the fact that of the fact that investigation, conferences and an impartial review of all sides of the controversy had resulted posts.

Real Economy and the Other Kind

Thinking people are saying to each other: "We must economize now." Just what does this mean?

Does it mean that breakfast is to be minus the palatable, refreshing fruit and the bit of bacon? Are the eggs to be reserved for coldstorage and our morning meal confined to simple bread with the thinnest spreading of butter? Yes!and also no! Here are two answers, each directly opposite. Now figure it out for yourself and you'll possibly decide that true economy means more than the mere giving up of something. What about economy of time? Isn't it possible to contribute liberally to the nation's requirements by practising real economy and conserving the time that's wasted in the everyday frivols, And again, what about this angle: A lot of women think it real economy to pay, say, forty dollars for a well-tailored suit, although there are plenty of suits offered at $20 and less. And in the matter of shoes, women find it pro-fitable and economical to buy Murray-Kay shoes at $7 or Suppose it's a coat you need, a coat that looks and feels luxurious, that has been made up, say, of Muskrat skins dyed like the sumptuous Seal -in other words a coat of Hudson Seal of specially selected skins and modelled in the latest style lines-lined with a richly beautiful silk cord poplin. Suppose, we say, that you need such a coat, wouldn't a saving of about $30.00 tempt you to buy now? Well, that's about what we can do for you. We have in mind a beautiful coat at $172.50, the winter price of which will be over $200.00.

THE NEED OF ORGANIZATION

By Benjamin Apthorp Gould

The present war differs essentially from every other war in history in the underlying fact that it is fought by nations rather than by armies. This differences changes essentially the effect inpon modern society of the existence of a state of war, and creates a condition which requires treatment totally different from that which has ever before been needed. It is the culmination in war of the gradual evolution of the social and political structure of the world into hitherto unsuspected complexities.

but that nation which failed first in this respect would have had to acknowledge itself conquered.

In like manner, if Canada is to take the fullest share in the war of which the nation is capable, it is needed to protect the work of the population which serves in the active forces be organized but that the great bulk of the population which remains at home in Canada, far from the social and political structure of the working force to supply needs other than those of man power. period of comparative idleness, with the origination of industry in the hands of individuals, who, seeing no chance of profit, naturally refuse to the social and political structure of the world into hitherto unsuspected com-

The more thoroly the country is so organized, the more thoroly the country is so organized, the more feetive will it be in the war, not only in making its own contributions to the fighting forces more telling, but in helping to supply those necessities which the allies particularly require.

Two thinself the profits of their brigandage, or else they lived openly off the country and took such booty as presented itself within their reach.

Two things are of prime importance to enable Canada to accomplish this great duty to her civilians. The first is that the mass of the people shall it was stated tonight. Many of the country will be out to help a state of the people shall it was stated tonight. Many of the country will be contributions to the fighting forces more telling, but in helping to supply those necessities which the allies particularly require.

Many of the country will be contributions to the fighting forces more telling, but in helping to supply those necessities which the allies particularly require.

With the growth of organization in the world, the various armies likewise became more highly organized, until at the outbreak of the present war they had become huge, expensive and complex creations. The European balance of power made it necessary that the different nations should maintain constantly growing armies, supported even on a peace basis at enormous expense, and should have a framework prepared on which a further tremendous expansion to a war basis could be quickly effected. If this war had been of a duration of only a few months, as was generally anticipated at the outset, it could have been carried out by the armies themselves and by the provision which before the outbreak of war had been made for the support and munitioning of these With the growth of organization in support and munitioning of these armies. Two things are of prime importance to enable Canada to accomplish this great duty to her civilians. The first is that the mass of the people shall be made to recognize the necessity of action on their part, and shall be made to see that it is impossible for them under existing circumstances to continue to devote themselves to their own affairs without regard to the needs of the country. The second is that the effective energies of the Canadian people shall be directed into the various necessary activities in a proportion as just as possible. The people must work wisely.

It is of course out of the question to expect that any approach to a complete organization of the country is possible. We can never attain perfection; we can only make progress toward it. On the other hand, every step in the direction of such organization increases the effectiveness of what the country is able to do. SWIMMING AND DANGER.

Editor World: Approximately, one person is drowned every day in Ontario during the summer months, according to statistics. Without examining the records, but judging from the information water on a considerable length of these paradys.

The temperature of the water, especially in the Great Lakes, varies from day to day, and, where it would be comparatively and to attempt it on another. So great is the difference in the affect of cold water on individuals, depending, as it does, on the physical condition of the psychola condition of the psychola condition of the swimmer at the time, and other conditions, that where one might plunge with impunity, another may easily be overcome.

Only yesterday the writer witnessed the spectacle of the pear-drowning of a good, strong swimmer, not twenty paces from the shore, where, had it not been for the heavy surf, he could have waded to safety. The man had been swimming, not far out—not even so far as girls had been seen to swim the same afternoon—and, apparently, having tired, started toward shore. He had almost reached safety, when, from some cause not known to the writer, he was unable to make further progress, and was simply buffeted inward by the surf. His calls for help brought other bathers to the rescue, who ran out to a depth reaching their armpits, and dragged the unfortunate man to safety. He soon revived and was able to walk home, but had he been a little farther from shore, had the swells not aided his progress towards the beach, or had he been a mul of less endurance, it appears that he surely would have drowned.

Now, Mr. Editor, the burden of this letter is that it may help in this way to empassize the dangern of swimming. The writer is a swimmer, and loves it, so may not be accused of prejudice against the practice. There is no more exhilarating pastime or more wholesome indulgence than a good swim for anyone, but that its devotees are to frequently carried away by the exuberance of the indulgence is deplorable.

devotees are so frequently carried away by the exuberance of the indulgence is deplorable.

It would be worse than useless to call attention to the danger, and thus place added obstacles in the path of the timid, without at least suggesting a remedy. The remedy, however, is so simple and so obvious to all that it is not likely to be heeded until there's some sort of a change in the mental attitude of the public. The swimming is just as good and just as enjoyable parallel with the shore as it is in a straightaway course from safety.

From a lifeiong association and close observance of swimming and swimmers the writer is convinced that it is nothing short of a bumptious, foothardy bravado that inspires swimmers to strike out into the lake in face of what they themselves must know is huminent peril. Sometimes one does it because another does; more often it is to show a seeming superiority in aquatics, which, after all, is as false as the security into which they plunge.

Let those who swim best not be invested into dangerous depths and set a worthy example by keeping parallel with the shore, and the percentage of drownings in Chiaric each year will appreciably dwindle.

THE BAROMETER.

Redemption of nations and peoples who are figiting in the present conflict abroad for the liberty of manitic abroad for justice and right-swill follow this war in accordance will, the prophecies of Jesus Christ, NJ. in a sermon on "The Test of War" before a large congregation in the 'fimothy Eaton Memorial Church, St. Clair avenue, last night. Rev. Mr. Dawson formerly lived in Loncon, England.

THE BAROMETER.

He cited Cromwell's War, the Revolutionary War and the War of the Retellion to show that no great freedom was ever accomplished for the geople save by the sword. In a rich tribute he lauded the spirit of King Albert of Belgium, who had only to do nothing to save his kingdom, yet refused to yield to the demands of Germany. The speaker pointed to the Belgians in support of his declarations that peoples must prove worthy to be redeemed.

Taking as his text, "And when these things come to pass look out. Lift up your heads because your redemption draws nigh," the speaker said: "The redemption of the world and of the soul comes in some cases thru war. The one supreme prayer and aim in this war is that men may be accounted worthy.

and aim in this war is that men may be accounted worthy.

"We look upon a vision of universal war and actual reality far exceeding in scope of destruction and widespread misery the war which swept away the Roman Empire. Ferhaps a century will pass before there will be a historian who will see this vast panoramic event in its full perspective, but we should gain some idea of its meaning.

when he told them that nation would rise against nation. So are we perplexed. It seemed to me that my whole faith in human progress and the uplift of humanity was gone in the first few days of the war. In the released barbarity worse than primeval savagery. I felt I would be glad to die. We thought war had fallen of its ewn weight, and then came the thunderclap. How are we to explain thunderclap. How are we to explain this war to our own soul.

"Jesus impressed the fact that na-tions are sometimes actually re-ce-med by war. We must look up. not down, and see the cosmic process which works toward redemption. It is an unwelcome doctrine. Men want peace, some for ethical. some for moral reasons. There has been pro-DEATHS.

Says Soldiers' Families Should Be Protected From High Living Costs.

A remarkable word picture of the pardships endured by the boys in France was given by Rev. Major Burch last evening in Parkdale Presbyterian Church. He spoke on "A Year With the Boys in France," and told of his personal observations and experiences. From the time when the 10th Brigade, 4th Division, crossed the sea from England to France, when they were encamped in French Flanders, the march to Belgium and then into the Ypres salient, the outstanding feature had been the splendid spirit of the gallant boys overseas. He gave a description of trench mortar warfare, and said either in the trench, in front or at the rear, no place was safe. "The only place safer than another," he told them, "was where you are not, and you cannot get there."

The speaker told of how men who had probably never been known by the Christian church had enlisted from a sense of duty. They had left their wives and families, but the country had promised to keep them. Yet even while those promises were being made, arrangements were also being made by corporations, individuals and societies to prey upon their families by means of undue prices placed upon their food and clothing. "Which I say is unfair and devilish," he maintained.

In conclusion he spoke of the letters and the parcels sent by the women, and the eagerness with which they were waited for by the men. The saddest thing was to see the faces of those men who have been forgotten, and in conclusion he urged his hearers to continue writing and sending things to their men friends at the front.

It hardly seems necessary to say that if one builds an edifice that one hopes will endure the foundation must be carefully laid with due regard to the laws that sovean the construction of good buildings. Yet in spite of this time-worn and time-proven assertion, golfers begin with a little careless instruction from friends, who themselves play an indifferent same and expect to develop in a few years into fine players.

The poor swings, the indifferent stances, all the faults in fact of a wholiy unrhythmical game, frequently are due to a wrong start. All subsequent practice can only confirm the errors of the wrong start.

Fractice does make perfect, but the repetition of error merely sends one farther along the wrong road. There is no virtue in practice unless it is the right kind. The wrong kind only confirms bad habits. It is here that good professional instruction, beginning with the first swing altempted, makes itself felt. I do not say that a good game cannot be built up without professional instruction—but the chances are against the self-taught man, for he sets forth upon a long, difficult road, and unless he have the courage and strength to retrace many a step, to pause and tear down and constantly build anew, he will never accomplish the thing he has set out to do.

It is because I have wasted many precious hours undoing faulty work that I try to emphasize the importance of at a transition period when the rubber cored ball was just beginning to be substituted for the old guita. New methods of play were them being instituted. Course had been built for the old ball and the new distances made changes inevitable. I did a vast amount of experimenting and much of my labor had to be

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS.

Question—I have been using thick transle grips on my clubs. But I am told that thin handles give better results. What is your opinion?

Answer—Thick handle grips are hardly advisable because they place the weight at the wrong end of the club.

Question—I do not seem able to overcome my fault of trying to hit the ball too hard. Can you suggest anything that will help me?

Answer—Since you have diagnosed your difficulty the remedy is in your own hands. When you are driving, just stop and remember that in swinging too hard the chances are 39 out of 100 that you will slice, "puil" or top the ball. It is just a question of confidence and calmness with you. Remember that what little you might gain in distance when you swing too hard you will more than likely lose because of lack of precision.

Question—I find that I shall have to wear glasses to play well. What kind should I get?

Answer—Wear sporting spectacles rather than eye-glasses. They are steady at all times, and because the rims and glasses are large you will get a field vision so big that you will be hardly conscious you are wearing glasses.

American Soccer Challenge Cup Ties

New York, Aug. 25.—At a meeting of the National Succer Challenge Cup Committee of the United States Football Association, field at the Broadway Central Hotel, Thomas M. Bagnall, of Harrison, N.J. and Thomas W. Cahill, of 126 Nassau street, New York, were elected chairman, and seasofast. man and secretary, respectively, of the committee for the coming season. The principal business on the agenda was to arrange the dates for playing off the ties for the National Soccer Cup. The following were decided upon:

Preliminary round, to be played off on In golf, as in every other game demanding skill, beginning right is of the autmost importance. It fitly illustrates the old saing that a good beginning is half the battle. Nothing of consequence can be done in a haphazard manner. It hardly seems necessary to say that if one builds an edifice that one hopes will endure the foundation must be carefully laid with due regard to the laws that goveen the construction of good buildings. Yet in spite of this time-worm and time-proven assertion, golfers beginning with a little construction of good buildings. second round, Dec. 23; third round, Feb. 10 fourth round, March 3; semi-finals, March 21; final tie, April 21.
Entries for this season's competition must be in the hands of the committee by noon, Cci. 6th.

As in past seasons, the above dates were arranged so as not to clash with those oxcided upon by the American Football Association, who have selected the following for playing off the ties in their cup competition: First round, Oct. 27 and 28; second round, Nov. 24 and 25; third round. Dec. 29 and 30; fourth round. Jan. 26 and 27; semi-finals, March 9 and 10; final tie, April 6 and 7.

Entries for the A.F.A. cup competition must also be received by Oct. 8th by the secretary. A. N. Beveridge, 283 Maple street, Kearny, N.J.

MERELY BLUFFING

Special to The Toronto World.

Windsor, Aug. 26.—There was an air of tense expectancy among parishioners of Our Lady of the Lake Roman Catholic Church, Ford, Ont., when they gathered for mass this morning, due to popular belief that his lordship, Bishop H. F. Fallon of London, would be present, and that the feud existing in the parish over the appointment of Rev. F. R. Laurendeau by the bishop, as successor to the late F. R. Beaudoin, would be given a further ventilating. However, his lordship had another engagement is putting up a great bluff in connection with the talk of putting conscniption immediately into operation. He said it was not the government's intention to do more than make in the following and the parish since the late F. R. Beaudoin took charge of it.

This afternoon, a hundred or more men of the church, practically all of the parish since the late F.

men of the church, practically all of them French, held a meeting, in the course of which it was made clear that the malcontents still remain firm in their opposition to the bishop and not to accept his appointee as their priest. Shortly before adjournment an announcement was made that a massmeeting of the French-Canadians of Essex County would be held a week Monday night at Ford, "to express disapproval of Bishop Fallon's action in appointing teachers to separate schools who cannot speak French."

The reading of this notice was great.

The reading of this notice was greeted with cheers as was also the statement that a letter had been sent Bishop Fallon, in reply to the latter's communication in which the head of the diocese is declared "to be responting. OF MONEY EARNED

Editor World: Will you permit me Editor World: Will you permit me thru your publication to remind the men and women still engaged in making munitions in Canada that of necessity, and we may be grateful that this is so, the production of war material must be of temporary duration. Let me emphasize, therefore, that prudence and common sense demand that the earnings derived from the labor in which munition workers are now engaged should be, not only for personal reasons, but for national reasons, conserved to the utmost extent. To squander wages at any time is imprident, but to squander wages derived from a passing employment at this time is to be untrue to the best interests of the country.

I am led to make this public statement owing to some incidents that have come to my attention during the last fortnight. If these incidents are numerous, even in a modified form, the result must be deplorable, and while my faith in the Canadian people is such that I cannot believe the improvidence is widespread, I nevertheless feel it my duty to make the above statement.

Before a monster crowd at Queen Alexandra grounds on Saturday Nationals capped the first from Broad-views by 6 to 2, due to their ability to connect when bingles meant runs. Sam Adams and Tommy Dalzell practically decided the issue by their hitting. Houli-han twirled good ball for the winners and struck out six. Athletics backed up Newman's great pitching with high-class fielding and turned in an errorless game. The work of Belleghem around the second bag was the big feature of the contest. Bell had six putouts and four assists, and was the pivot in two fast double plays. Shannon, Brown and Newman of Athletics and Lynch and Moran of Royals all got two hits each. Frank Hallians umpired both games in first-class manner. Scores:

THE DUKE ARRIVES TO OPEN THE FAIR

Program of Visit Provides for Four Busy Days Here.

MANY ENGAGEMENTS

Inspection of Flying Camps and Hospitals Is Arranged for.

His excellency the governor general, who is to officially open the Canadian National Exhibition today. Will arrive on the regular train from Ottawa at the Union Station this morning. He will immediately proceed to Government House, where he will be the guest of the lieutenant-governor. Tomorrow morning he will attend a meeting of the council of the Red Cross Society and will take lunch with the Exhibition directors at the administration building. He will formally open the fair at 2.15 c'clock, and at 3 will review the war veterans in front of the grand stand and present the Victoria Cross to the father of the late Sergt. Sifton, to whom it was awarded for gallantny in the field. He will also present to Mrs. J. Allon Fraser of Paris. emphasize these marvels.

Like its great predecessor, "The Birth of a Nation," "Intolerance" is strictly a spectacle. It is, in fact, a series of spectacles based on a theme as old as the world itself, and possessing an appeal that grips the hearts of all. Its magnitude is astounding and its realism is overwhelming. The one theme. Love's been treated in so masterful a way by Mr. Griffith that it leaves the minds of the spectators reeling with wonderment. "Intolerance" is at once the best that can be done in photography and acting, and is backed up by the greatest outlay on scenic effects that has ever been made, an outlay, according to the producers of $2,000,-600. One might be skeptical as to the truth of this assertion before seeing the picture. American producers have ever been accredited with an ability for exaggeration; but the picture itself is a splendid refort to the skeptical

In power of appeal all four stories seem equally strong, and in the artis-try of their setting there is little dif-ference between them; but by far the that having to do with the assault of that having to do with the assault of the Persian world conqueror on the walls of Babylon. Whether anything to surpass this colossal spectacle (the words are from the advertisements of "Intolerance," and well chosen) will ever be accomplished may seriously be doubted, and the producer who can equal 4t will be a master in his call-ing.

Again in his rehearsal of those historic events of the Saviour's passion, Mr. Griffith shows his artistic ability at the very best. He handles the greatest story in history with a reverential tenderness, and he brings to the minds of the spectators the thought that here is the best thing that the moving picture is capable of.

"THE FLAME" COMING.

In "The Flame," which comes to the Alexandra for a third visit for the week beginning next Monday, Richard Walton Tully has given the public a spectacular drama with a great popular appeal, as was evident by the crowded houses attracted on its last two visits. Seats for "The Flame" go on sale Thursday morning.

"A DAUGHTER OF THE GODS."

In "A Daughter of the Gods," the offering at the Grand Opera House twice daily during the period of the fair the children will be given a rare treat. Beautiful mermaids, half-girl and halffish, will play for them on pink coral ledges under opaline skies and call their sisters from the far horizon on the edge of the world. Hundreds of dwarfs, mounted on donkeys, rush into battle and are transformed by the fairy queen into gigantic warriors clad in suits of armor; scenes to make the eyes sparkle and one's breath come faster; scenes of joy, of beauty; of happiness and kindliness; the playfulness of the child's heart and brain caught by cameras and put into a picture for little people and big people, War conditions abroad have placed upon the American farmers the responsibility for the continuing and improvement of the horse industry; hence it is especially important at this time that horse breeders give particular consideration to the selection of a proper sire. The influence of the sire is pre-eminent, because he directly affects a greater humber of cftspring than does the single female. There can be no improvement or grading up process by the use of scrub sires. It is not a paying proposition simply to breed mares to any stallions that may be available. Alex. Morrison of Creemore, government expert judge of the standing field crop competitions, was here last week judging the entries in the local competition. The prizes were awarded in the following order: Andrew Schmidt, Jas. G. Thomson, Alex. Fischer, Matt. Weiler, D. Borno. Mr. Morrison commended all the exhibitors on the excellence of their crops. The cider mills in the district will do a very slim business this fall, owing to the almost total absence of apples. It is estimated that about two hundred barrels will comprise the whole crop for Carrick this year.

The judging of the field crop competition in oats held by the Meaford and St. Vincent Agricultural Society was held on Monday last. The judge, Walter Baldock, was highly pleased with the crops in this section, and expressed the belief that they and expressed the belief that they were exceptionally good and without doubt better than in most districts. Mr. William Pollock, 7th line (Minnitchill) is to be congratulated upon again winning first prize. He is a "sure winner" when it comes to growing oats, as this is the third year in succession in which he has captured the red ribbon. The honor is so much the greater this year, perhaps, in view of the fact that there was such keen competition. The following are the prize winners: 1st, Wm. Pollock; 2nd, Everett Martin; 3rd, Chas. R. Shields; 4th, J. M. dardener; 5th, F. J. Eston; 6th, J. E. The Farmers' Club will hold a special meeting in Wesley Hall on Saturday evening next at 8 o'clock. The coal situation will be discussed, as well as other important business. A full attendance is requested dener; 5th, F. J. Eston; 6th, J. E. Lougheed; 7th, E. Almond.

CLAREMONT.

So much rain is keeping the harvest back. We hope for better weather.

There was a bumper crop of raspberries here this season, which was a good thing, as there are no apples. Other crops are excellent. There will be plenty of feed for stock this winter.

ORANGEVILLE.

Mr. John Delaney has sold his 200 acre farm to Mr. Geo. Morrison, of The Dufferin House, for $9,500, taking in part payment the hotel property at a valuation of $2,000. Mr. Morrison intends to stock and run a sheep farm, for which the Delaney property is said to be very suitable. He will also build a trout pond on the farm. He will get possession on Notwember 1st, Mr. Delaney, who has been in indifferent health for some years, will move to Orangeville. The deal was put thru by Auctioneer J. B. Irwin.

Cutting of oats has commenced in the east of Mono.

Indications are that the potato crop will be heavy this year. In this district the acreage planted is somewhat larger than the average.

The worst electrical storm in years passed over this locality on Monday afternoon. It is said that seven barns were destroyed within a few miles radius of Claremont, including those of Cecil Story and E. Kedshaw in the immediate vicinity. The former also lost several implements and the latter five horses and 13 hogs. A heavy fall of hall which accompanied the storm destroyed a number of fields of grain. Some of the hall-stones were the size of hense eggs and broke a number of windows.

BIG OAT CROP.

"Oats in our section are running up to eighty and ninety bushels per acre," said Mr. S. O. Beck of Haldimand County. "Indeed, I believe some fields will reach the hundred mark. When you see the shocks standing on the ground you wonder how such crops ever grew on the land. Wheat is very variable, running from ten to forty bushels per acre." Harvesting is now in full swing, and crops are exceptionally good, and the newly-seeded meadows are most satisfactory. In fact, it is a rare thing to see every kind of crop so good and promising. Roy Lawrence, with his steam thresher, is again at work, and wheat and barley are both turning out well.

Tom Wilson's berry patch has been a lively hive for the past fortnight. Hundreds of gollars worth of berries have been taken from it. In fact it might be said Tom is feeding a multitude, altho he does not profess to be a worker of miracles.

Field Crop Competition.

The field crop competition in oats took place on Tuesday and Wednesday of this week, and the ruling stood as follows:

W. L. Dixon, 90 1-2 pts.; James Mather, 96; Mex Grierson, 89 1-2; James P. Park, ir., 88; Wilbert Blyth, 87 1-2; Dan. Edge, 85 1-2; Matt. Barber, 85. S. B. Strothers, of Lucknow, was the judge.

BALDERSON FARMERS PICNIC

Ben. Boylen, 5th line of York, has a field of oats, a portion of the straw of which measured seven feet. The heads were well filled and the grain a good sample.

C. E. Cutts, of Esquesing Township, has purchased a 100-acre farm at Acton, belonging to Joseph Flynn. Sale was made by J. A. Willoughby, Georgetown. The United Farmers of Balderson will hold their annual picnic in Herbert Stewart's grove on the 9th line of Drummond on Thursday, Aug. 30th. Good program of speeches, Elliott Brothers' Pipe Band, games in the afternoon, and an extra good supper.

There were fifteen entries in the field crop competition, consisting of five acres of oats, conducted by the Agricultural Sosiety of Woodbridge. Judge Virtue of Durham made the following awards:

A. J. Witherspoon, Humber, 98 1-2 pts; Jas. Bell, Eider's Mills, 89; R. T. Wood, Etobicoke, 86 1-2; W. C. Dobson, Humber, 86; A. C. McNeil, Maple, 85 1-2; A. L. McNeil, Woodbridge, 34; R. L. Robertson, Purpleville, 83 1-2.

John Whitmore, reeve of Vaughan, was one of the first to begin threshing operations and had a yield of 300 bushels of wheat from six acres. During the storm of Thursday afternoon last lightning struck a shock of grain in H Vale's field on the base line just south of the yiliage. It was entirely burnt, but the fire did not spread beyond that.

The lighting of an aeroplane on the farm of R. H. Cronk created quite a sensation a few days ago. It had lost its bearings, and about fifty people collected to see it before it rose once more to continue its flight. Several of the farmers in this vicinity are busy threshing and all report the wheat yield as good. Oats and barley are exceptionally heavy. Harvest is well under way, but a great amount of grain is still in the fields. The scarcity of help is a great drawback.

Farmers living in the neighbor-nood are incensed at the action of certain Grand Valley parties who are said to have shot some young wild ducks on the Mud Lake in East Garafraxa a short time ago.

of Club's Efforts.

The letters printed below give Yood for thought to all who have made some effort to help bear the burdens of others since the opening of the Canada's soldier boys and families of help, and it is good news to near of actual results having been accomplished along this line.

Many find it easy to criticize the suggestions and efforts of others in the early stages, but the actual accomplishment of results atmed at is beyond censure and is certainly worthly of praise. Let it be said to its credit that the War Production Club has now witnessed the fruits of, its activities and has the satisfaction of knowing that good has been done, the suggestion of the time; and readers will doubtless remember the publication of letters from both farmers and volunteers in June 4 issue of The Toronto World. The following letters graphically portray the activities in aid of the soldiers wives by preparing help hackyard, gardens for planting:

The editor will welcome any suggestions you may have to offer in regard to the market problem. This is a public matter of the most pressing importance.

Do not neglect your opportunity for service. There are many vital questions to be answered concerning market conditions, "What are your purposes and desires in regard to the food problem?" "Does the producer secure full value for produce sold?"

"Are our methods of transportation good? Transportation is a very important factor; does it interest you?"

"Are our roads in good condition?"

"Do the railways co-operate with the producer in all respects?" 'Is the location of the market place adequate to meet the demands "What is the best method for grading and packing products for

LONG DISCUSSION

Vote of Twenty-five Million For Purchase of Stock

Contract For Two Wooden Vessels Cause of Some

Comment

By a Staff Reporter.

Ottawa, Ont., Aug. 25.—There was a long discussion in committee of supply in the commons this afternoon on Hon. Frank Cochrane's vote of twenty-five millions for the purchase of railway rolling stock, including six thousand cars. Hon. Frank Oliver wanted to know if the entire six thousand would be required for the government railway system, or if some of them were for the C. N. R.

Mr. Cochrane replied that four thousand cars would be required for the government system. As for the other two thousand, they would be required not only by the C. N. R., but by the Grand Trunk and other railways. He explained that the coal shippers of Grand Trunk and other railways. He explained that the coal shippers of the United States are now anxious to have their cars returned immediately, with the result that they cannot be used in Canada for carrying sand and gravel. This means a further shortage in the supply of cars ordinarily available and increased demand upon the government for more rolling stock.

Hon. Wm. Pugsley said he was glad to see the government take action in regard to rolling stock even at this late hour. He regretted that at the beginning of the war the Canadian railways had not appointed a small executive to control the rolling stock as had been done in the United States.

Number of Difficulties.

R. B. Bennett pointed out a number of difficulties in the way of such action in Canada, incidentally mentioning that it would call for considerable sacrifice on the part of the C. P. R. to have to pool its rolling stock with the more poorly equipped railways.

with the more poorly equipped railways.

Mr. Cochrane fn reply to questions explained that of the six thousand cars ordered 4000 would be supplied by the Canada Car Company, 1000 by the Eastern Car Company and 1000 by the National Car Company. Deliveries are to be made between October 11 and February 1.

Mr. Oliver read a letter which he said he had received from the front stating that all kinds of light rails are being used in connection with the military operations, and stating that there was plenty of material on hand. He remarked that in view of this evidence there did not appear to be much need for taking up G. T. P. rails and transferring C. N. R. rails, as had been done west of Edmonton.

"All I know," said Mr. Cochrane, "is that we got our instructions from the

Mr. Oliver criticized the action of the government in connection with the sending of the rails to France. He claimed that proper judgment had not been exercised in lifting the rails.

To this Mr. Cochrane replied: "All I can say is that we followed instructions from the British Government, and I think they know what they want. At any rate I am prepared to give them what they want."

W. E. Knowles of Moose Jaw switched the discussion to members of the railway board by asking the minister if it was desirable to have mombers of the board accept the loan of cars from railway companies. He maintained that the members of the board that the members of the board that the members of the board that the price was far too low, and so the cost and ten per cent. of the board accept the loan of cars from railway companies. A long fight over the item followed, Mr. Pugsley taking the stand that the firms should not have been allowed to break their contract to deliver the vessels for $23,000 each.

Finally Mr. Cochrane suggested that they had better let the item drop, But Mr. Pugsley did not care to assume the responsibility for this action.

H. H. Stevens, of Vancouver, explained that just subsequent to entering into this contract the imperial Munitions Board entered the shipbuilding field, and secured practically complete control of necessary supplies and the price of material advanced greatly.

Mr. Knowles admitted that Hon-Frank Cochrane administered his department "pretty fairly and in a many taken upon himself to anticipate the approval of parliament. He shought the minister should have got the approval of parliament before entering into the contract.

After some further discussion it was agreed that the trouble was due to a misunderstanding and the item was allowed to stand over.

Shortly before six o'clock the item of Quebec and Saguenay, the Quebec Montmorency and Charlevokx, and the Lottinisers and Meganitic rallways was allowed to stand over.

Shortly before six o'clock the item of Quebec and Saguenay, the Quebec Montmorency and Charlevokx, and the Lottinisers and Meganite rallways was taken under consideration.

Mr. Cochrane explained that this was a re-vote of the sum in the self-mates for last year, or at least a part of that sum. The difference in the vote and the vote of l'st year which had exceeded four million delaway had been spent in works required to protect the road from further deciration.

week-end and is still expected to do better. An increase in the dividend is now confidently predicted and there appear to be substantial reasons for trust companies for the week shows that they hold $68,776,920 reserve in buying of Steel of Canada by hirting that the company will put itself on a plane with Nova Scotia and Dominion Steel by acquiring an ore supply of its own. Those operating the stock in the market are more concerned in selling the shares than in getting an ore body, which is easier talked of than accomplished, and the stock would be best left with those who now have it. Saturday's Toronto market was quite tame, with active businers only in Dominion Steel, which closed at 67 3-1. A few odd lots of Winnibeg Railway were cleaned off the inarket at better prices.

WHOLESALE FRUIT AND VEGETABLES

The wholesale fruit market was slow and draggy Saturday, with lower prices on most offerings, especially in anything which was shipped at all heavily, as the shipments were too late in arriving for Saturday's trade.

Respheries.

There were again a few raspberries shipped in, which sold at 20c per box.

Lawton Berries.

Lawton Berries.

Lawton berries came in in large quantities, and declined materially in price, opening at 18c per box and closing at 12c per box. A great number of them were quite wet, which also affected the price. Plums.

Plums were shipped in more heavily than heretofore this season, the six-quart leans at 30c to 55c, and 11-quart leans at 50c to 51, a very few extra choice ones bringing $1.25 per 11-quert lean basket.

Peaches.

Peaches also arrived freely, and were generally of a ctter quality, the six-quart leans at 40c to 55c, and 11-quart leans at 60c to $1.

40c.

Tomatoes.

While tometoes continued to bring about the same range of prices as on Friday, they were quite a lot easier, and more sold at the lower prices, the 11-quart baskets selling at 30c to 60c, an oad one bringing 65c, while the six-quarts went at 25c to 35c.

Corn.

Corn again varied greatly in quality, some poor track being disposed of at 8c per dozen, other grades ranging from that price up to 20c and 25c per dozen for choice.

Green Peppers.

per dozen, other grades ranging from that price up to 20c and 25c per dozen for choice.

Green Peppers.

Green peppers were a very slow sale, and are beglining to glut the market, mostly selling at 50c per 11-quart basket, a few going as high as 75c per 11-quart.

Apples declined, the 11-quart baskets selling at 35c to 75c, a few choice ones in 11-quart leno baskets bringing 80c.

A. A. Worksanon had a car of Ontario potatoes, selling at $2 per bag: a car of California onions, selling at $3,50 per 100-1b. sack.

McWilliam & Everist had a car of oranges, selling at $4.50 per case, according to 42c.

H. Peters had a car of cantaloupes, selling at $3.75 per case: a car of Oranges, selling at $4.50 per case.

White & Co. had a car of pears, selling at $3.75 per case: a car of California fruits—plums at $2 to $2.25 per case, and peaches at $1.50 to $2 per case.

Both marke's had a larger attendance

Both marke's had a larger attendance of farmers and market gardeners than usual, the wagon section of the old $t. Lawrence being filled up and one or two wagons having to stand out on the street, for the first time this season.

Butter was quite firm, as it was not brought in in large enough quantities to satisfy the demand, and sold at 45c to 50c per pound, the bulk selfing at 45c to 47c per pound.

New-laid eggs were quite a slow sale, and gradually weakened in price, opening at 50c to 55c per dozen, and closing at 47c per dozen. There were a few dozen which again brought in quite freely, especially at the North Toronto market, where they proved a much slower sale than a week ago. They sold all the way from 30c to 40c per lb., only a few going at 40c, and the bulk bringing 35c. Spring chickens were also brought in in larger quantities, and tho tney had a very good demand, the supply was rather heavy, catasing prices to decline later in the day. Whe bulk sold at 25c to 30c per lb.

Vegetables were brought in in sepecially as the mount of the same went at 22c to 25c per lb.

Vegetables were brought in in especially heavy quantities, and opened at about stationary prices, closing out in the afternoon at great reductions. Corn sold all the vay from 15c to 30c per lb.
