Enemy Desperate; Strikes Hard Again

Wave After Wave in Attack on French But Footing Only at One Point—Fighting in Macedonia

Paris, May 19.—The Germans once more returned to the attack on the Aisne front last night, hurling troops in waves against the French positions northwest of Braye-en-Laonnois. The war office announces that the Germans were unable to reach the French lines except on the extreme western part of the front attacked, where some German detachments won footing, advanced treacherously, and captured some prisoners. The Germans used burning liquid in an unsuccessful attack northwest of Rheims.

London, May 19.—"The enemy have again heavily counter attacked our new positions on the Struma front (Macedonia) but were driven back with loss," says an official announcement made here today.

"The royal naval air service successfully bombed the airfield and camp at Drama."

BRITISH REPORT
London, May 19.—"We made a successful raid last night northeast of Goubaux and brought back prisoners and a machine gun," says today's official account on the Franco-Belgian front operations. "Hostile raids were repulsed east of Loos, northeast of Armentieres and east of Ypres."

Paris, May 19.—The French statement follows: "After a violent bombardment yesterday evening, the Germans attacked our lines in the region northwest of Braye-en-Laonnois, from Epine-De-Chevigny as far as the Oise Canal. Our artillery and machine gun fire broke up the futile attack, and the Germans were not able to approach our positions except on the western end of the attacking front, where some fraction of the enemy's forces gained a footing in advanced trenches. A score of prisoners remained in our hands."

"On the California plateau skirmishes and grenade lighting occurred. Northwest of Rheims the Germans attacked our small posts south of Courcy, employing liquid fire. They were repulsed by our fire."

AUSTRIA ADMITS A FURTHER LOSS
London, May 19.—The loss of Monte Kuk is admitted by the Austrians in the official statement issued by the Austrian war office on Friday. The statement says: "In the eastern and southern sectors there is nothing to report. The intense battle continues. Monte Kuk, southeast of Piava, was abandoned yesterday morning after two days of varied fighting of the greatest ferocity. Our troops took up positions several hundred metres east of the hill. In the Gorizia region remarkable calm prevailed during the day. After night fall, refraining from any artillery preparation, the enemy suddenly dashed forward in dense masses but all his efforts to gain a foothold in our lines failed before the cool defence of our brave troops."

"Early today the enemy strongly attacked Monte Hanto, but was repelled after hand-to-hand fighting. Since the beginning of the infantry battle we have brought in more than 3,000 prisoners. In the Fitch and Ploceen sectors and in the southern Tyrol the Italian artillery fire has increased."

IMPORTANT CHANGE ON NORTH SIDE OF KING SQUARE COMING

Another important change in the aspect of the northern side of King square is contemplated. Plans are being prepared for an extensive addition to the LaTour apartments, to make room for which it will be necessary to remove one of the old wooden buildings now standing there. The plans call for the removal of the four-story wooden building between the apartments and the Park Hotel, and on the site to erect a substantial brick building, four stories high, will be erected, connecting with the LaTour building. The ground floor provision will be made for modernly planned stores, and the upper floors will be divided into nine self-contained apartments, with living-room, kitchenette, bath and one or two bedrooms. The plans are now being prepared by F. Neil Brodie.

WINS IN MONTREAL
Many St. John people will be interested to learn that in the Montreal Patriotic Dog Show which has been held yesterday and today, St. John dogs carried off honors in several classes. The Tyrone Brown, Irish setter, a very promising pup owned by Guy S. Lordy, 23 Broad street, won the first prize in the Junior and senior puppies, novice dogs, and second in the maiden prize. The dog also captured the Tyrone trophy for the best Canadian bred pup. The news was received this morning by Mr. Lordy in the form of a congratulatory despatch from a friend in Montreal.

THEIR FIRST COMMUNION
One hundred and fifteen boys and girls received their first Holy Communion in the Cathedral this morning at the eight o'clock mass. His Lordship Bishop LeTouche celebrated the mass and officiated at communion.

BURIED TODAY
The funeral of Mrs. Sarah Tuck took place this afternoon from Centenary church. Services were conducted by Rev. W. H. Barroughall. Interment was made in Fernhill. The pall bearers were Chief Justice McLeod, Senator Thorne, Dr. A. F. McAvaney, T. H. Estabrook and Hon. J. G. Forbes. The funeral was attended by many friends and the floral offerings were numerous.

SPAIN DEMANDS IMMEDIATE SATISFACTION
London, May 19.—A Madrid despatch to the Exchange Telegraph Company says that the note sent by the Spanish government to Berlin in regard to the sinking of the Spanish steamer Patrio is demanded immediate satisfaction and guarantees for the future.

The Patrio note was presented to the German foreign office yesterday. The Spanish premier, Marquis de Prieto, announced in Madrid that the note was couched in such terms as the importance of safeguarding the lives and property of Spaniards demanded.

WAR MINISTER'S ORDER TO THE RUSSIAN ARMY

All Must Do Part to Avert Peril

NOTICE TO OFFICERS

A Ward Also For Deserters—Commanders Return to Front After Conferences—The Make-up of the Cabinet

Petrograd, May 19, via London.—The war minister has issued the following order of the day to the army: "The country is in danger. Each one must do what he can to avert the peril. No request to be allowed to resign, made by officers in high command with a desire to escape responsibility at a time so grave, will be accepted by me. Deserters are enjoined to return to the army and fight by May 28. All infractions of this order will be severely punished."

After a conference with the government and democratic parties held at the Duma committee and the council of deputies, the commanding general has returned to the front. M. Miliukov, former foreign minister, has refused to accept the ministry of education because his presence in the cabinet would involve a responsibility for the projected foreign policy of the administration. He considers this policy dangerous and likely to compromise Russia's relations with her allies.

The Cabinet.
Petrograd, May 19, via London.—The government and democratic parties have agreed to distribute the portfolios of the new cabinet as follows:—Premier and Minister of the Interior, Prince Lvov; Minister of Foreign Affairs, Tereschenko; Commerce and Industry, Konovalev; State Affairs, Godoff (socialist); Labor, Skobeljev; Justice, Peresvetoff; Food and Supplies, Pleschchinskoff; War and Marine, Kerensky; Finance, Shingarov; Posts and Telegraphs, Terentjev; Ways and Communications, Nersisyan.

Prof. Grimm is appointed minister of the interior. The cabinet will meet on Monday. Secretary of the first Duma is minister of public aid.

No Separate Peace.
Petrograd, May 19.—The provisional government declared today that it is united in the rejection of a separate peace and that it adopts as its aim the establishment of a general peace which will not tend either to domination over other nations or to the seizure of their national possessions, a peace without annexations or reparations.

SON OF MAJOR MARKHAM HAS BEEN WOUNDED
The news that his son has been wounded was received this morning by Major Alfred J. Markham, who, since his return from the front, has been in charge of the pensions office for New Brunswick. The official despatch announced that Corporal Ralph Turnbull Markham, infantry, was admitted to the 14 General Hospital, Wimercau, on May 10, suffering from gunshot wound in the left shoulder.

Corporal Markham is only nineteen years of age. He enlisted in an Upper Canadian battalion while it was here, crossed to England with them and was transferred to another unit at the front.

PTE. HARRY SMITH EXPECTED HOME FROM WAR TONIGHT
Private Harry Smith of Loch Lomond has arrived in Quebec, according to word received in the city, following severe wounds received on the battlefields of Flanders. Private Smith was wounded in the arms and legs and after spending considerable time in hospital in both France and England he was given permission to proceed to his home in Canada. The real extent of his wounds is not definitely known here. It is expected to arrive in the city this evening and will be extended a hearty welcome by many friends.

VOLUNTEER FARM SERVICE
Manager Hallam of the Canadian Bank of Commerce advises the production committee of the Board of Trade that the local office of his bank has arranged to give, so far as practicable, an extra week's vacation to any officer who would spend his entire time in farm work, or in other arrangements.

Ontario Flour Drops
Another encouraging change occurred in the flour market this morning when a drop of seventy cents a barrel in the price of Ontario flour was recorded. The price now is $15.15 a barrel, wholesale.

Views Of People and Papers On Conscription Plan

Toronto, May 19.—The Globe says: "The big problem before Canada today is the problem of war. The first step necessary to insure the active co-operation of the dominion in the final phases of the campaign is the compulsory organization of all the military resources of the country to fight the battle of human freedom by proxy. Voluntary recruiting in Canada is almost at a standstill. It is too late to amend the past. The ravages of war have rendered obsolete principles of war that passed muster a year ago. There is but one course now to pursue if the honor of Canada is to be preserved. Until the war is ended, Canada must be a nation in arms. Those who will not volunteer must be made to serve. The fighting divisions of Canada must be reinforced by Canadians."

The Mail says: "There will be rejoicing in the Canadian lines in the war area when the two words of Sir Robert Borden's speech of yesterday are flashed to the front—the words 'compulsory service.' Sir Robert says the time has come for resorting to selective drafts to maintain our four divisions throughout the war. Volunteerism has done well in Canada, but not well enough—for every Canadian who holds a place in the front lines there must be at least four well-trained men in reserve. It is said that at one time Germany had nine men behind every one she had at the front. Britain and France will continue to make good the waste of war so long as they have man power to draw on."

The Ottawa Journal says: "When congress at Washington passed the compulsory military service bill, a sigh of relief went up in Canada. We all realized from our own experience with the system of voluntary enlistment that only by selective conscription in its full stature in the war against the Hun could we avoid any serious military making for weakness and impotence. A similar sigh of relief will go up in Canada over the announcement of Sir Robert Borden."

La Patrie
Montreal, May 19.—La Patrie (Conservative) says: "The grave and inevitable determination which the government has reached will doubtless be received in our province in the same spirit as in other provinces. In the hours of anguish through which we are passing the Canadian people can have but a single aim and a single desire—the triumph of the cause of right and justice over German barbarism."

London, Ont. May 19.—The Advertiser says: "The public in general, including many eligible young men will breathe more freely because of the announcement. The voice of the recruiting speaker will be silenced. Men who say they have been harassed and kept out of the army will no longer have an excuse. From all walks of life men will be drawn into a democratic army, and it is to be hoped that democratic promotion will be the rule as with the French."

The Ontario Press says: "Many young men will be glad to have the decision made for them. It is grossly unfair to suppose that those who will be summoned under conscription are all slackers. Canada pledged the last man and the last dollar and we are going to live up to the promise. The government that plans to summon the needed men will not hesitate also to conscript wealth in any degree that may be necessary."

Quebec, May 19.—The Chronicle (Conservative) says: "Premier Borden has announced selective conscription for Canada. In taking this action he will have the support of all right-minded and patriotic citizens. The line is critical and the voluntary system has long outlived its usefulness."

Prominent Men Support It.
Toronto, May 19.—Satisfaction at the conscription scheme announced by Sir Robert Borden was expressed last night by several representative men. Sir W. Hearst, premier of Ontario, said: "I was very pleased to know that conscription has been introduced." Sir William Mulock, premier of Quebec, said: "Everything in the district," said General Logie, "is in splendid shape for the war. The military men in the district have been waiting for several months past." With regard to equipment he said: "The military district has large supplies on hand which have been brought in within the last few months."

President R. A. Falconer, of the University of Toronto, said: "I am glad indeed to know that the government has introduced the bill. I have felt for a long time that it was the only fair and right thing to do."

FATHER COLLETTRE DEAD
Venerable Priest Who Was Well Known in St. John
The older Catholic residents of this city and vicinity will hear with regret the news that the late Rev. Father Collettrette was one of the oldest priests of this diocese, having been in the priesthood for seventy years, during all of which he was actively engaged in the parish of Cape Blomidon.

Corporal Markham is only nineteen years of age. He enlisted in an Upper Canadian battalion while it was here, crossed to England with them and was transferred to another unit at the front.

Prices in the local country market today were as follows:—Beef, fifteen to thirty-two cents; veal, ten to twenty-two cents; mutton, ten to twenty-four cents; turkey, forty-five cents; chicken, thirty-five cents; butter, forty-two cents; eggs, forty cents; pork, twenty-eight to thirty cents; and scarce; potatoes, eighty-five cents a peck or $8 a barrel; rindubar from twelve to eighteen cents; cabbage, twenty-five to thirty cents and onions ten cents.

FIVE CHILDREN SLEEPING IN ONE DARK ROOM
The S. P. C., the Children's Aid, the medical health officer and the trustee officer were all interested in a case before them this morning. A family of eight live in four rooms in which Dr. Melvin says not more than three, or at most four persons should live. Five children, the eldest fourteen years, have been sleeping in a dark room for a week. The children are insufficiently clad and very dirty, and two of school age not at school. The father earns enough to keep the family in a fair degree of comfort, the oldest boy works and there is assigned pay from one of the two sons at the front. It is not there a case of poverty, but of neglect and shiftlessness.

Sufficient evidence was given to warrant placing the children in care of the Children's Aid Society, but by general agreement the parents were given one more chance to provide a clean home, with rooms enough for health and hygiene, and to clothe the children and send them to school. If they fail, the law will take its course. The parents are healthy and comparatively young.

THE FIGHT IN THE ADRIATIC.
London, May 19.—Naval commentators in the London morning papers regard the fighting in the Adriatic as a riding dash for the prize. The Germans have made familiar in the North Sea. Similar raids have been previously made in the Straits of Otranto with some success, notably in last July and December. The drifters, it is said, are used as watch vessels, and the proposal of home rule for a part of Ireland involves great imperial dangers and strengthening of the Sinn Fein movement which is actively sedition and pro-German."

WOULD SUE LUXEMBURG AN INDEPENDENT STATE
Paris, May 19.—A resolution calling for the independence of Luxembourg, in close union with France, England, Russia and the United States has been adopted at a meeting of one thousand natives of that principality under the presidency of P. Bretonno.

MONCTON WOMAN DIES OF BURNS
Moncton, N. B., May 19.—Mrs. Albert Beaumont died this morning in the hospital as the result of burns received while at work in her home on Monday. She was forty-one years of age. Her husband and two daughters survive.

NEWS TODAY FROM CANADIAN FRONT
(By Stewart Lyon, special correspondent of the Canadian Press in France. Canadian Army Headquarters, May 19.—Following up yesterday's bombardment of the electrical station at Avion, patrols from the division holding our line at this point explored the enemy's position. His trenches were found to be heavily manned in evident anticipation of the attack. The patrols bombed them and in view of their crowded condition must have inflicted considerable casualties.

Throughout the night the enemy was restless on the sector to the left of the Canadians. His guns put up a heavy barrage on the front held by the British as well as the Canadians west of Lens. Berlin will doubtless report another desperate attack on the defenses of Lens has been repulsed, whereas the whole affair consisted of one small raid by the British and patrol engagements by two Canadians.

The morale of the enemy on this front is suffering under the fire of our heavy artillery.

HINTS FOR GARDENING

(By W. Saxby Blair, Supt. Experimental Station, N. S.)

ONIONS.

Onions do best on a light loamy soil rich in plant food. Light loams can be worked to better advantage than heavy loams and do not dry out so badly during summer. An abundance of available plant food is necessary if profitable crops are to be obtained, and consequently a soil that has been manured for several seasons previously should be selected. The land should be free from stone, and weed seeds.

Onions may be grown in the same land year after year, and it cannot be made too rich. Well-rotted manure and manure applied in the fall and ploughed in shallow, about four inches deep, is one of the best fertilizers. Fifteen tons per acre annually is a good application. If the soil is well supplied with vegetable matter, successful crops may be grown with commercial fertilizers applied at the rate of 500 to 1,000 pounds per acre. This is sown broadcast and harrowed in just before seeding.

The ground can be best prepared with the disc spring-tooth, and smoothing harrows, and should be well pulverized to a depth of four inches.

The seed is sown in rows on the level ground twelve to fourteen inches apart and one-quarter inch deep at the rate of 8-12 pounds per acre. A hand seeder is usually used. A seeder and wheel hoe combined can be purchased from any seed merchant at a reasonable rate. Seeding should be done as soon in the spring as possible, so that the plants will get well established before the dry, hot weather of summer.

Maintenance tillage is done principally with the wheel hoe, and consists in keeping the surface ground loose around the plants and all weeds removed. The falling down and withering of the tops indicates maturity, at which time the onions should be pulled. They are left for a week to dry, after which they may be topped and put into slatted crates or put into these crates after being topped, taken to a shed and allowed to cure for two or three weeks, after which they are ready for market. The advantage of the crate is that a small bulk of onions is together with plenty of ventilation, which is very necessary for curing or curing for storage or shipment. They should not be stored in bags or in large piles in bulk. They may be stored in slatted bins arranged one above another, ten inches to twelve inches apart. If stored the temperature should be kept as low as possible and the air dry.

Onions may be started in flats in the hotbed or greenhouse ten to twelve weeks before ready to plant, being set in the open ground early in the spring. The seed should not be sown too thickly. One and one-half to two pounds of seed will give sufficient plants to set an acre, spacing the plants four inches apart in rows one foot apart. The disadvantage is the expense of the flats for curing or curing for storage or shipment.

For securing early onions and onions of large size this practice is advisable.

Announcement!

We take pleasure in announcing to the public of St. John the fact that we have purchased and will take over on May 21st, the store, stock and fixtures of the Phillips' Stores at the corner of Douglas Avenue and Main street.

Our intention is to operate there a grocery store that will rank second to none in the lower provinces both in point of service and price. The cash system of selling will be introduced entirely—no charge accounts. By eliminating charge accounts we remove the greatest cause for high price. Cash selling requires no bookkeeping, cuts out bad debts, and by buying for cash we can secure the lowest net prices which we pass on to the consumer.

The location is in every way highly desirable, and the capacity of the store is sufficient to make the quicker turn over more than compensate for any additional expense a store larger than either of our present stores would entail.

The store of E. Roy Robertson at 599 Main street, and that of Harold C. Robertson at 854 Main street, will close after May 31st. In the mean time the three stores are prepared to serve you promptly, courteously and at the lowest prices.

THE SLEEPER AWAKES

Sir Robert Borden did not wait for Sir Sam Hughes to move his resolution for compulsory service. He did not wait for the Win-the-War convention in Montreal next week. He had waited nearly three years, but political expediency prompted him yesterday to get in ahead of Sir Sam and the Montreal convention. Hence the announcement of "compulsory military enlistment on a selective basis." If, however, this means that only men are to be conscripted, Sir Robert will have to try again. Of course his scheme cannot be judged until it is presented in detail to parliament. It is at least gratifying that Sir Sam's announcement of a resolution calling for compulsory service, the example of the Convention and the example of the United States have galvanized the government at Ottawa into some semblance of animation. The country is ready to endorse a fair and comprehensive plan, bringing about equality of service and the elimination of the patronage committee, in order that Canada may no longer waste her energies or lag behind in her war policy. This much may be said in advance of the presentation of the government's plan of action. That plan will be discussed and judged on its merits when we know what it provides.

With regard to the imperial cabinet, or cabinet of governments of the Dominions, Sir Robert makes it clear that nothing will be done till after the war, and that even then the hopes of the dyed-in-the-wool Imperialists will not be realized. There is to be no interference with local autonomy, and no common fiscal policy. The imperial cabinet will be merely advisory. It was a foregone conclusion that hereafter the Dominions would be consulted in relation to foreign policy. This war made that inevitable.

Sir Robert Borden, fresh from the front, emphasizes the fact that unless recruits are secured there will be but a small Canadian army in the field. We know that because a month's casualties have disposed of a whole army division. How Sir Robert proposes to get the men needed we shall soon know.

THE NEED OF PRODUCTION

"The war is to be won by the country that can stand starvation the longest."

This striking sentence is from an address delivered in Bahgor city hall this week by Mr. Maurice D. Jones of the University of Maine. He was making a plea for increased production, and what he said about New England largely applies to this part of Canada. He said:

"New England does not anywhere near feel herself as secure as the west. The matter of transportation in our own country may arise. The already overloaded freight facilities may become more congested and the best lines will be taken over for government service. In order to do her part in the world war New England must become as nearly self-supporting as possible. We will have plenty to eat this summer, but the real pinch is coming next winter and in the spring following. Boy Scouts, boys' and girls' clubs and other organizations are out to do their part. Factories have assigned garden plots to their employees in many cases to grow crops, urging the farmer to grow more crops. In summary we face a serious food shortage, we face the question of feeding the Allies, we face a labor shortage in transportation facilities, and lastly, we face the patriotic duty of every person becoming as nearly self-supporting as possible during the coming months, in order to allow those unable to have gardens the opportunity to purchase food-stuffs at a reasonable rate."

"If conditions are not bettered," continued Mr. Jones, "the time is coming when some of us may go hungry. Since we have gotten into this war we have discovered that the allied nations are indeed short of crops due to the lack of men to raise them. Here in the United States for the past two years the crops have been much below normal. During that time we have drawn upon our supplies of former years. Then besides this we have been drawing heavily upon both crops and surplus for exportation. During the past year we have exported $8,000,000 worth of produce and food-stuffs or about two-thirds of the total. The May reports show that even the wheat state, Kansas, has only raised 50 per cent of her normal crop, and during the past ten years the average has been only 86 per cent, in that state. In the country as a whole the crop has only been 73 per cent of normal. The allied armies of France and England have demanded 300,000,000 bushels of wheat, and we have not the supply to meet the demand. Argentine has had a grain shortage, and has closed her doors to the demand. The corn production has only been three-fourths as large as the crop of last year and only about two-thirds of the regular crop, has been grown during the past season. Last year the harvest of barley was about 55,000,000 bushels. Even cold storage is short and when it gets into storage cost 11 cents more per dozen than they did last year. We must expect that

A DAY

(By Douglas Malloch.)

This is the end of our day, my dear, Nay, I know that the sun is glowing High on the mountain above us here— 'Tis the smile of a friend in going, Warmer now on your cheek he lingers, Warner now than in day's high noon, Touching your eyes with his tender fingers, Knowing the night shall come so soon.

This is the light of the hour of parting, This is the holiest hour of all, When the tears from the heart are starting, And the shades of the evening fall.

While the shades of the evening fall, This is the hour when we close our eyes, Than in our moment that was the maddest, This is the fading of everything.

This is the happiest hour and saddest, There is an ending to every way, There is an hour for us all to sever.

Life is a parting and not a meeting, A comradeship of a lonely mile, Only an hour for a passing greeting, Surely the God that has brought us twain Into the world to walk together Somewhere shall give us two again.

Another day in the summer weather.

THE PRODUCTION CAMPAIGN

Toronto papers show that a great deal of attention is being given in the towns to increased production. For example, a Bradford letter says:—

"A group of fifty men who own a farm on the Paris road have secured a government tractor, and will put fifty acres in potatoes and fifty acres in beans, in the latter case setting a precedent for bean-growing on such large scale. They do not expect that the experiment will be a financial success, but do it to further production."

In Galt they have a Vacant Lands Production Association, and the city council is considering the cultivation of twenty or thirty acres, to raise vegetables to be sold at cost. All over the province the people in the cities and towns are giving more attention than ever before to the production of vegetable crops. This will help to provide substitutes for food products that can be sent overseas.

Powers' he makes several amusing references to Mr. Roosevelt.

It appears that Roosevelt was in the habit of dividing presidents into two classes, "Lincoln Presidents" and "Buchanan Presidents," in the former of which he placed himself, while relegating Taft to the latter. "The identification of Mr. Roosevelt with Mr. Lincoln might otherwise have escaped notice," says Mr. Taft, who adds:

"It suggests a story which a friend of mine told me of his little daughter Mary. As he came walking home after a business day, she ran out from the house to greet him, all glow with the importance of what she wished to tell him. She said, 'Papa, I am the best scholar in the class'—"

95% OF ILLNESS DUE TO ONE CAUSE

Physicians agree that 95 per cent of all illness is possible only because of accumulated waste in the Colon (Lower Intestine).

In fact, the most eminent of the World's Specialists claim that if the Colon were always kept clean the average life of humanity would be doubled.

There is now a new and simple method of cleaning the Colon of this poisonous waste, and keeping it clean, pure and healthy. Of curing Constipation and the depressing bilious attacks which make us dull, blue and inert—without any spirit of ambition.

That method is Internal Bathing with warm water, administered by the "J. B. L. Cascade" apply termed "Nature's Cure."

Over 500,000 people are now enthusiastically using this modern warm water cure, and Physicians are prescribing it everywhere. It is making sick folks well and well folks better, stronger, more ambitious, energetic and confident.

This letter from Mr. A. Maclean, of Conger Lumber Co., Parry Sound, Ont., a sufferer for 35 years from Constipation, is very valuable:

Parry Sound, Ont.
Dr. Chas. A. Tyrrell, Toronto:
Dear Doctor—I have used the J. B. L. Cascade since I received it 21 days ago with wonderful results. Before I started this treatment I could not pass one day without taking medicine; since have not taken one dose, and feel so much better in every way.

I have been troubled with Constipation for the past 35 or 40 years, and, of course, at my age cannot expect a speedy cure, as I am now in my 78th year, but the relief it has already given me is a promise of the good it will do for me.

I think a good many orders will come from Parry Sound as the treatment becomes known.

I cannot speak too highly of the Cascade treatment, and will surely talk much about it.

Yours gratefully,
A. MACLEAN.

The "J. B. L. Cascade" is now being explained and shown at E. Clinton Brown's, Druggist, corner Union and Waterloo streets; also F. W. Munro, Dispensing Chemist, 387 Main street, St. John, N. B., and they will be glad to explain its action and uses to you in detail.

If you cannot call, you should write today to Chas. A. Tyrrell, M. T. 108 College street, Toronto, for booklet, "Why Man of Today Is Only 50 Per Cent Efficient."

DEMAND GOVERNMENT CONTROL OF FOOD SUPPLIES

Labor Leaders Voice Sentiments of Their Followers at Open-air Meeting in King Square—Representative Government or Immediate Election—Conscription of Wealth

At the mass meeting last evening in King Square, held under the auspices of the Trades and Labor Council, a demand was made for immediate government control of food and prices, and the appointment of a national convention of all classes to advise with the government in the conduct of the war, and if these were refused, that permission should not be given for the prolongation of the present government, but a general election should be held at once.

Other denunciations in the empire had, early in the war, passed laws to control the price of foodstuffs and other necessities, and staff in Canada to ensure the government, even at this late date, to enact similar laws. It is a matter of common knowledge that the price of the elevators in the west are jammed full with grain held there by capitalists and combines who have and are today exploiting the resources of the country. He then introduced the first speaker of the evening, J. P. O'Brien, president of the local plumbers' association.

Mr. O'Brien said he was glad to have the opportunity of placing before the people a few facts with respect to the high cost of living which is falling most heavily on the working class. He referred to the fact that at the beginning of the war Australia had taken over the control of food in Canada, while food in other classes is held in Canada today by speculators until the people pay the price which is set on it. He then stated that the men of the rank and file, who had left Canada to fight for the empire, were drawn from the laboring class because these were the class of men who had the stuff in them to endure the hardships they naturally expect to see that things at home have been carried on in a decent manner, and to know that their wives or their families have the benefit of food at a reasonable price. He stated that he found that even the price of flour is beyond the reach of the poor man. As a matter of fact, he said, he had seen a chicken, he has to be satisfied with a gasp. He referred to the fact that the local plumbers are today on strike, and this strike, he said, was caused by the fact that the men find it an utter impossibility to get along on the wages which they had been receiving in view of the enormous increase in the price of all necessities.

The great trouble with Canada, he said, was that we send too many lawyers and doctors to parliament, and they are not qualified to legislate in the interests of the working man. He said that Ontario is being imported who can subsist on a bag of flour and a bucket of water, fare which would be repulsive to the workingman who in the past twenty years has by means of the education, fitted himself for the best offices in the land. It is absolutely essential that the voice of the people be heard, and the unanimous demand to the government they put an end to food gambling and to the control of all supplies to that people of small means and wages may be able to secure food for their families.

A Glaring Instance.
Chairman Daily said that today boys are being asked to go on the farms at the rate of $2 per month. In the fall the farmer will sell his potatoes, which would perhaps cost him $1 per barrel to raise, at $7 per barrel. This is one reason why the people want the government to control prices.

J. F. Dighe, business agent for the Longshoremen's Union, was the next speaker, and he referred to the matter as the problem of the high cost of existence and a most serious one at that. The federal government, he said, after three years of warfare seems to be gradually awakening to the fact that the workingman is to be taken into consideration after all. It is said that there is some prospect of food prices being controlled now, but even at this late date the government is not saying a word as to the control of the railways or of the munition plants or of other essentials which enter into the life of the country. Everything has increased so much

"Resolved, That unless the government responds to same, we will place ourselves on record as being opposed to any extension of the life of the present parliament, and demand a general election."

J. W. Bruce, general organizer for the plumbers, was the final speaker of the evening, and he made an address which evoked hearty cheers and it was evident that the conditions today are so onerous and the burden on the working classes is so intolerable that people have been compelled to make a movement of this kind. He wasted no time in preliminaries but got right down to his subject.

The trouble up to the present, he said, was that everybody was afraid to speak but the conditions today are so onerous and the burden on the working classes is so intolerable that people have been compelled to make a movement of this kind. He wasted no time in preliminaries but got right down to his subject.

Could Not Lift Stick of Wood

Would Almost Faint From Severe Pain in Back—Doctors Could Not Get the Kidneys Set Right

Benton, N. B., May 4.—A great many people suffer the results of deranged kidneys and do not understand the cause of trouble or the way to obtain cure. The writer of this letter suffered excruciating pains in the back and in vain his physician tried to cure him. For some reason or other his medicines did not have the desired effect.

Mr. Olt's brother was a merchant selling among other medicines, Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, and he heard his customers telling about how they felt after their use. This led to Mr. Olt's putting them to the test, with the splendid results reported in this letter.

Mr. E. C. Olt, Benton, Carleton county (N. B.), writes: "I am glad to let you know how much your medicine has done for me. I suffered from my kidneys, which at one time were so bad I could not lift a stick of wood without getting on my knees, and then would almost faint from the pain in my back. I consulted a doctor about it, and he gave me some medicine, but it did not help me. My brother, who is a merchant, and carries all your medicines, advised me to try Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. I got one box, and they helped me, so I got another one, and kept on until I had taken five boxes, which at one time were so bad I could not lift a stick of wood without getting on my knees, and then would almost faint from the pain in my back. I consulted a doctor about it, and he gave me some medicine, but it did not help me. My brother, who is a merchant, and carries all your medicines, advised me to try Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. FREE TO ASTHMA SUFFERERS

A New Home Cure That Anyone Can Use Without Discomfort or Loss of Time.

We have a New Method that cures Asthma, and we want you to try it at our expense. No matter whether your case is of long-standing or recent development, whether it is present as occasional or chronic Asthma, you should send for a free trial of our method. No matter in what climate you live, no matter what your age or occupation, if you are troubled with asthma, our method should relieve you promptly.

We especially want to send it to those apparently hopeless cases, where all forms of inhalers, douches, opium preparations, fumes, "patent smokes," etc., have failed. We want to show everyone at our own expense, that this new method is designed to end all difficult breathing, all wheezing, and all those terrible paroxysms at once and for all time.

This free offer is too important to neglect a single day. Write now and then begin the method at once. Send no money. Simply mail coupon below. Do It Today.

"IF YOU WOULD KNOW THE VALUE OF MONEY, TRY TO BORROW SOME"

—Said Ben Franklin.

John Bull can borrow all he wants at 5 per cent. Reputable business firms have to pay a little more. But when you, as an individual, go out to borrow money, you have to mortgage your real estate and pay 6 per cent, or else you mortgage your soul and pay an even higher rate of interest.

Buying a pair of shoes on a charge account is exactly the same in principle as borrowing the price of the shoe. And while no interest charge appears on the surface, it's there just the same--in the price you finally pay.

The Man In The Street

Conscription! At Last! But why not sooner?
Even the men who are liable for service will not object to the plan—provided the other fellow gets the same deal.

Having become accustomed to the idea of "compulsion" in military service, perhaps the cry of "conscription" as applied to the conscription of wealth will not carry so much weight in future.

The premier's announcement regarding selective drafts carries no intimation that a sudden marriage will bar an eligible from service.

Will the claims of the lack-eyed potato patch be sufficient to make an eligible exempt?

In answer to inquiries we would inform the public that the posters displayed in public places, bearing the inscription "Give the Men a Chance," have nothing to do with the campaign for women's suffrage.

The Salvation Army officer who preached a sermon at the head of the street the other evening, on a text taken from the news columns of The Times, knows where to look for the real dope.

An evidently long-suffering subscriber rises to ask a question of the Man-in-the-Street. He inquires: "Who is the meanest man on earth?" and answers his own question thus: "The man who wants to read the newspaper; is to mean to buy one for himself and borrows one from his neighbor."

Even in these days when every one poses as more or less an authority on military matters there are a few things which need explaining. A citizen discovered one of these mysteries when he noticed the abbreviation "Pte." before the names of a great many soldiers. "What does that stand for?" he asked. "Is that a short way of writing Peter? There ain't that many shapes named Peter in the army is there?" he wanted to know.

And then there is the old lady who has been woefully puzzled by the use of the term "carry on," so popular in military circles. "I do not think our soldiers should be carrying on in such times as these; I should think that they would take life more seriously," she says.

While the owner of the Apohaqui store is regretting the loss of the thousand dollars the burglars stole, probably the chief regret felt by a lot of folk is that the burglars did not take the irregularly promissory notes at the same time.

We don't seem to hear of so many fishing parties this spring. What is the trouble, the lack of bottled bait?

HE GAVE UP ALL

This is a picture of Pte. Joseph E. Duplisse, whose death in action on May 18 is reported in the Times this week. Word came to his mother, Mrs. Mary Ann Duplisse of Simonds street.

YEAR'S WORK OF WEST SIDE S.C.A.

Summary of Reports at Annual Meeting—Mrs. A. W. Fraser Elected President

At the regular meeting of the West Side Soldiers' Comforts Association on May 9, the following officers were elected: Mrs. A. W. Fraser, president; Mrs. Long, 1st vice-president; Mrs. J. Brittain, 2nd vice-president; Mrs. W. A. Tobin, 3rd vice-president; Miss M. A. Clark, recording secretary; Mrs. W. L. Kelly, assistant secretary; Mrs. G. Barrett, treasurer; Miss J. Sinclair, assistant treasurer; Miss M. L. Tobin, corresponding secretary; Mrs. A. Hatfield, convener of yarn committee; Mrs. F. Bell, convener of tobacco committee; Mrs. J. Henderson, convener of towels committee; Mrs. M. Christopher and Mrs. O. H. King, convener of sewing committee.

The total receipts for the year were $1,889.14. Of this the sum of $300 was made by the sewing circle. Lists of pairs of socks have been knit by the members, and 75 pairs donated. Fourteen dozen pairs of socks and twelve dozen pairs mittens were bought. The sum of $224.65 was spent for yarn and other comforts $228.88 and $249.48 for tobacco and cigarettes. Five hundred towels were made. These have been packed and sent to the boys in the trenches.

The expenses for the year for fuel, light, paper, etc., were $137.07; donated by the Mother Association, $25. We wish to thank the people of the West Side for their generous support; also the ladies of the Charlotte street church, the Railway Freight Handlers' Union, Messdames F. Hart, W. O. Dunham, M. Dural, James Bryson, A. Martinson, Messrs. Grey, A. Martinson and A. Gregory for generous donations; the "Practice boys" for the use of the hall; also H. Willis for delivering parcels.

MOLLIE I. TOBIN, Corresponding Secretary.

LOCAL NEWS

STILL QUIET.
Again the police books record a clean page. Yesterday there were no arrests.

BIRTHS AND MARRIAGES.
Eleven marriages and seventeen births—nine boys and eight girls—were reported to the registrar during the week.

A BIT HEAVY.
There are complaints from the police that the men doing street duty are still in their winter uniforms. Most of the men have been supplied with their summer suits and are now only waiting the order that will allow them to get into their new spring and summer garb.

SOME LOTS LEFT.
Some eighteen lots of land near the Parks Convalescent Home, offered by Miss Parks for use in connection with the food production campaign, have already been taken up, but a dozen or so still are available. Those wanting to take up growing of vegetables should call at Miss Parks' home, Mount Pleasant, or telephone.

MUST ATTEND SCHOOL.
Six boys were present in the juvenile court this morning on report from Juvenile Officer McMann for non-attendance at school. In nearly all the cases the parents of the boys were in court and also the principals of the respective schools. Satisfactory excuses were offered for some of the irregularities and the boys were told to attend school in the future.

NOVELTY SHOWER.
A party of about fifty young folks invaded the home of Miss Catherine McGuire, Golden Grove, last evening and tendered her a novelty shower. Articles varied and valuable were received and the bride-elect was given an agreeable surprise. A pleasant evening was whiled away in dancing and other amusements and the party was brought to a close at an early hour this morning. Miss McGuire will be a principal in a future interesting event.

ON THE LOOK-OUT.
The local police, especially the detective department, are actively engaged watching the various incoming trails and also places where possible suspects might congregate for some information that might lead to the arrest of those gully in connection with the robbery in Apohaqui. Descriptions of two strangers seen in the vicinity of the Jones' store some few days ago were very exact, and the local officials have very little to work on.

A BRIDGE CASE.
Harry O'Neill, driver of a bakery team, was before the police magistrate this morning on charge of driving his horse over the new bridge faster than permitted by law, and also with using abusive language to the caretaker of the bridge when brought to task. The driver said that his horse became intimidated at a nearby engine. The case was set over until Monday morning to allow the caretaker time to secure witnesses. The caretaker intimated that there would be other charges.

FIRE THIS MORNING.
The fire department was called to a three-story wooden dwelling at 137 Marsh road this morning about eight o'clock, to extinguish a rather stubborn blaze in the upper flat occupied by William Lamm, who is the owner of the house. The fire was started by a spark lighting on the dry shingle roof. The flames spread quickly and when the chemical arrived it was with difficulty that the seat of the fire was reached. It was found necessary to cut away part of the roof and bits with the damage done by the fire and water caused loss estimated at about $400.

THE LATE SEASON

St. John, N. B., May 18, 1917.

To the Editor of the Times:—
On May 18, 1888, Centennial year—the trees in our parks and squares were in almost full bloom. Many of the earlier varieties had a summery appearance. Today, May 18, 1917, they are not much more than sprouts. I have kept a record since 1888 and by May 20 in an average year our trees are beginning to leaf out nicely, except the slower varieties, such as elms, etc., which are somewhat later. I thought this might interest some of our readers.

Yours very truly,
W. F. B. PATTERSON.

Rheims Cathedral on Verge of Total Destruction

Restoration Impossible

Eternal Monument to Savagery—Priceless Treasures Lost—Brave Cardinal Remains

Paris, May 14.—I have just visited Rheims in company with Whitney Warren, who was invited by the French government to make a new report on the condition of the cathedral in view of the recent terrific bombardment. This is the third time that the American architect has been called upon to give his professional study to the systematic destruction of the building.

In as much as entrance is now barred to everyone on account of the danger of falling debris, I was especially included in the official permit by General Neville. For three hours we wandered undisturbed and unaccompanied through the magnificent ruin, taking dozens of photographs. Mr. Warren making minute comparisons of the present condition with that of the time of his last visit, six months ago. In summing up his findings, he said:

"The cathedral is now in grave danger of total destruction. In the recent bombardment, seven of the flying buttresses were shot away, so that the walls, particularly those of the transept, are so weak that just one chance shot would bring all that portion of the building tumbling down. The walls are full of cracks and are really just hanging together, depending only on the thin iron supports, inserted through the masonry. Considering the entire cathedral, I would say that three chance shots, or possibly half a dozen, would raise it to the ground.

Can Never Be Restored

"With the loss of the flying buttresses, the pressure on the other supports has become so great against the outer walls that they are bulging out. New cracks are appearing constantly so that the vicinity of the cathedral is very unsafe. It could be saved if no more shells hit it. I don't mean it could be restored. It is too badly smashed ever to be restored, except in spots. What I mean is it could be preserved as it is—a wonderful and inspiring ruin, quite as magnificent in its way as the Roman Colosseum. No matter what further destruction occurs it seems to me it should be kept simply as a ruin to let the whole world see throughout all time what savagery the Germans really are. Even to preserve it would be a difficult task, but nowadays it is possible to preserve almost anything, and I believe a temporary support could be installed, both inside and outside the walls, that would prevent them falling until they could be sufficiently strengthened and again made intact. However, the Germans are probably able to prevent the building being saved, as they seem intent on its total destruction.

"I was a clerk in a store in Jamaica but had to give up my position on account of kidney trouble. I purchased one box of Gin Pills from a local Druggist and before it was all finished I was entirely better and able to return to my work. I recommended them to a friend who was also in a similar condition and he tried them with the same good result. should say its condition is over 90 per cent. worse. The whole exterior is now too badly scarred for any modern restoration to make anything of it. The magnificent hautes-reliefs of the fourteenth century, that covered one entire interior end wall, are by some miracle, still all intact. They are now covered, as they are carved out of the cathedral itself. I am glad to see the authorities are now busy above the tower's wall covering them, but inasmuch as the Germans have lately been sending shells of 280-millimetres into the building, it will be more than a miracle if they escape.

German Excuses False

"Of course it is impossible to see that the German statement that the cathedral has been shelled because it is used as an observation post is only another of their lies. The cathedral towers are about eighty metres high, and you can count about sixteen French observation balloons hereabouts that are at least three hundred metres high. What good would the towers be as an observation post when they say that the shells hitting the cathedral have been accidental, and that they did not really mean to destroy it, because, as you can so easily see on approaching Rheims in the distance, the cathedral looms above the town's big German are ruthlessly destroying this great work of art because they are what they are—that is to say, because they are Germans, just Germans. There is no name to call anyone that could be worse."

"The interior of the cathedral is now so bad that it is impossible to keep the rubbish cleared, as was the case up to a month ago, when visitors were constantly taken there. There was only one hole in the roof, but now there is a succession of great holes and fissures joining them, so that the floor is in places five feet deep with crumbled masonry. The high altar has totally disappeared and the priestly stained glass of the windows has now all gone.

"The greatest miracle of all is that the building has resisted destruction so long." Mr. Warren explained. "It is only the great thickness of the walls and the stone arches of the roof that have saved it from falling long ago.

Spite Bombardment

During the period of the war preceding the great Allied offensive April, it out a great change from a few months ago. Like Verdun and Arras, the place is gradually disintegrating, falling into final ruin. Up to the last bombardment, about 17,000 of the 120,000 inhabitants of before the war remained there, but then about 10,000 more were evacuated, leaving 7,000 as the present population. The famous hotel, Lion d'Or, in the square facing the cathedral, which had kept open throughout, was finally compelled to close its doors, and the carriage which has become famous for the pertinacity of their drivers in remaining to conduct sightseers through the town were also compelled to quit. But even during the beginning of the final heavy shelling, they held on. When one side of the street was getting shelled, the entire line of vehicles took their stand on the opposite side, a little further along, where there was comparative safety, and often artillery officers brought up from various points would leave their military automobiles at division headquarters, installed in one of the famous champagne cellars, and calmly hire a carriage to drive them out to the batteries.

Speaking of champagne cellars, an officer at headquarters told me that the inhabitants are counting on the vintage now bottled in the city to restore the city after the war. He said that there are 800,000,000 bottles, at a present valuation of $140,000,000. It is proposed that, instead of selling this labelled by the year, that for sentimental reasons it be called "The War Brand," and that the entire output be disposed of under such a label as the authentic champagne of Rheims that resisted the German.

Our drive through the city showed scarcely a single house that has escaped at least partial destruction, and whole districts wiped out entirely. The Hotel de Ville is a complete wreck. There is nothing standing, but fragments of the outer walls. This destruction was also part of the last bombardment. At the end of the tour, we returned to the Place de la Cathedrale, and turned off into the Rue du Cardinal de Lorraine, where in an old palace adjoining the cathedral gardens there still lives Mgr. Lucon, cardinal of Rheims. He is eighty-two years of age, and except for a trip to attend the conclave that elected the present Pope, he has not passed a day away from his beloved cathedral since the beginning of the war. Although half his palace is in ruins—that sixteen times during the last bombardment—we were received with all the

Lift Corns Off With Fingers

Doesn't hurt a bit! Corns and calluses loosen and fall off! Magic!

Few drops of Freezone take all pain and soreness from corns instantly

No humping! Any corn, whether hard or soft or between the toes, will loosen right up and lift out, without a particle of pain or soreness.

Wonderful discovery by Cincinnati man

This remarkable drug is called Freezone and is a compound of ether discovered by a Cincinnati man. Ask at any drug store for a small bottle of Freezone which will cost but a trifle, but is sufficient to rid one's feet of every corn or callus. Put a few drops directly upon any tender, aching corn or callus. Instantly the soreness disappears and shortly the corn or callus drops off.

Tiny bottles of Freezone cost but a few cents at any drug store.

A glance at the analysis below, and the following certificate of the well-known research laboratory in London, England, which made the analysis, shows Sanagen to be a more valuable preparation than the former Sanatogen.

"It will be seen that Sanagen is richer in phosphorus than Sanatogen, and contains less moisture, and in our opinion, is the better preparation of the two."

It will be observed that the most striking difference in the two analyses is the richness of Sanagen in the nerve restoring phosphorus content.

Tired Nervous Mothers

A mother who is overworked, tired, nervous, irritable—on the verge of hysteria makes an unhappy home. The very thing she does not want to do.

Such a condition often develops a serious derangement of the feminine organs, causing irritability, despondency, sleepless nights and nervous prostration. At such times remember there is a tried and true remedy,

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

For forty years this famous Vegetable Medicine has been conquering the ills of women and the very best proof of this is such letters as these:

Northport, N.Y.—"I suffered from a female trouble and doctors for years, using all kinds of treatments, but the doctor said I would have nervous prostration. I was so nervous and had such bearing down feelings and headaches, and my housework kept me on my feet, so much that I had to do something, and I was persuaded against my will to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I found the first bottle helped me and I year ago I was miserable. I again bought Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, taking it regularly, and I now consider myself a well woman. I have told a lot of women about it. Some would rather pay a doctor, but some have tried it and found it helped them as I said it would." Mrs. JOHN ALEXANDER, Northport, N.Y.

For many years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been the standard remedy for female ills. No one sick with woman's ailments does justice to herself if she does not try this famous medicine made from roots and herbs, it has restored so many suffering women to health. Lydia E. SHOULD EXTEND
LOANS TO FARMERS

Secretary Webber of Food Production of Public Safety Committee Talks of Farmers' Problems

(Bangor Commercial)

Two conclusions vital to Maine have been reached by George C. Webber, of Auburn, secretary of the food production and conservation committee of the public safety committee work for this state. One is that the state should immediately extend loans to the farmers who need them, in sums from $250 to $500. The other is that, if this is not done, and perhaps if it is done, that the state should fix a minimum price for staple crops.

"My opinion," said Mr. Webber to a Lewiston Journal reporter, Thursday, "is based on two weeks' work continuously, day by day, in charge of the farm and crop survey for Androscoggin county. Of the two methods of procedure, I believe that the loans up to $500 is the better."

"I also may add in this connection," he went on to say, "that it would seem only just for the state to make these loans to reliable citizens, without interest charges, unless, perhaps, there was a bumper crop. My reason for this viewpoint is due to manifest injustice worked to the farmer, in asking him to launch out in excess acreage, with risks which exceed those which most business men are incurring today and against which they are guarding by conservatism in investment."

Moreover, it cannot be put too strongly before the whole state that either arrangement is adopted by the state officials some very definite announcement of the people of Maine should be authorized at once. If this is not done by the end of this week, or Monday of next week, all the time and labor and gratuitous services of the men making the county surveys will be of comparatively little value.

"What will be the result?" continued survey, who would do much more than they will do if the state does either of these two things, make loans up to $500, or else guarantee a minimum price for products next fall.

"To cite one case, a man told me he would plant considerable more acreage if he only had a horse, but can't figure out to buy one at this time. Now if the state would loan him, preferably free of interest, $250, he could buy his horse and the state would net what would result from his increased acreage."

"In another instance, a farmer has a son old enough to work on the farm and also one hired man in his employ. He has a large farm and if he could obtain $250 to carry him along through June and July he could make this big farm of real service to the state. But he is tied up without some such financing."

"For three years the farmers have been hit hard, with bad luck for crops and high prices. I know what I am talking about, too," he added. "For I have operated a farm of my own and I realize some of the real difficulties these citizens have encountered through this recent period."

"I can cite one of the best farmers in Androscoggin county today who wants $250 to time him over a hard place this spring and if he had this money he would make it tell for crop production."

"Not unlike the last man, in another case I recall to mind, right here near home, where the farmer told me that he was anxious to stay on his place and work his own farm. But he said that he had suffered a series of reverses—he had lost a horse, there had been illness in his family, and a fire had burned some of his buildings—and he needed $150 to fix him up so he could stay at home and not go out to work for somebody else, as seems necessary if without financing."

The Great Importance of Prohibition!

Hon. Nicholas Isorguine
Inspector of State Savings Banks of Russian Empire states, in regard to effect of Prohibition:

"We have about doubled in less than three years the amount accumulated in seventy-three years previous to the outbreak of the war, for our State banks are about seventy-five years old."

Former Atty.-Gen. Baxter in introducing the Prohibition Act said: "I do not think that I need discuss the question of whether Prohibition prohibits. That depends upon you and me. If those in the community who hold the moral forces under their particular care—they do their duty—if they let petty things go and if they stand back of the men who live under the law and persistently and insistently urge these men to respect the law—for without respect the law becomes of no value whatsoever—respect this law as they would any other law, if the moral and social leaders of our country will but rise to the occasion and do their duty, there is no fear but that a prohibitory law, like any other law, can be enforced within the Province of New Brunswick."

Premier Foster as leader of the Opposition, in speaking of Prohibition said: "That in his opinion the Temperance question is not a question of party politics. Prohibition, after all, affects everyone directly or indirectly and is therefore too big and broad a matter to be dealt with politically. The law is to-day on the Statute Books, and if we are returned to power when May 1st comes the Prohibition bill will be put into effect, and we will enforce it as far as it lies in our power to do so."

In these critical days when governing bodies the world over are imploring everyone to increase production of food, when our armies are crying for men, munitions, ships—when every resource, however small, is a vital asset—waste is intolerable.

New Brunswick stands second to none in her loyalty to the vital cause of the Empire. Of her sacrifices of precious boys, her wealth and resources she is justly proud. With effective Prohibition laws in force throughout the province, she will tolerate no waste due to lax enforcement of Prohibition. Her resolve, however, demands a united public opinion in favor of strictest enforcement.

Help to Enforce Prohibition

The "PIONEER" (published in Toronto) is authority for the statement that in Canada the total value of foodstuffs destroyed by the liquor traffic in 1916 was approximately $4,244,090.22. Add to this the immense loss of transportation facilities, clogged and hindered by carrying the grain to destruction, and again conveying the product of the breweries and distilleries to make precious men less efficient in this solemn hour!

Russia—

Some idea of the enormous effect of Prohibition is afforded by the wonderful example of Russia. The whole country is "bone dry." The people declare they never will backslide to vodka. In spite of the fact that millions of producers have been in the army the savings of the people enormously increased. In 1912 and 1913 they were saving, per year, about $20,000,000. In the first five months under Prohibition they saved $60,000,000. In 1915 the banks took in $265,000,000. For the first half of 1916, the Russian people saved $300,000,000!

The shortage of revenue from the tax on vodka is gradually being made up by increase in other revenue, due to the savings and greater efficiency of the people. In spite of the ravages of war there is less begging and misery. "With vodka on her back, she could never have held the Germans back. Russia has helped to save Europe."

On May 1st 1917, the putting into effect of the Prohibition Act in New Brunswick placed in our hands a powerful instrument. The success of Prohibition depends upon our use of the instrument, just the same as success in battle depends upon the general's intelligent, vigorous use of his forces.

No matter where you live, whether your district is under the Canada Temperance Act or under the new Prohibition Act, you are urged to use every legitimate means within your power of support and aid the officers of the law in their sworn duty of enforcement.

Use your influence to build up such a weight of public opinion in favor of strictest enforcement of both the Scott Act and the Prohibition Act that the success of Province-wide Prohibition will be permanent.

the Hague tribunal. The manifesto, which is said to have been written at the request of a group of prominent Bulgars, reads as follows:

"Without distinction of political parties, my French friends and I have organized in Paris enthusiastic manifestations in favor of the oppressed peoples of the Ottoman empire."

"For the last thirty years, together with our English friends, Gladstone at their head, we have protested against the massacres perpetrated by Turkey in Europe and Asia. We have supported with all our strength, both in parliament and before the public opinion of our own countries, the miserable martyred Armenian, Greek, Bulgarian, Serbian, and Roumanian peoples. In 1912 we applauded the union of these nations against the despotism of the Turks. We even pleaded extenuating circumstances for Bulgaria when, the victim and the dupe of a most infamous military coup d'etat, she violated the Balkan pact and treacherously attacked her own allies."

"Bulgaria has been well punished for this treason. The second Balkan war was for her the most disastrous chastisement. At that time we understood that the unhappy Bulgarians were only the tools of the Bulgarian military government, without scruples, and of the alien monarch associated with this group. While the Bulgarian people, exhausted by two wars, tried to effect their own renaissance by work, Czar Ferdinand thought of nothing but of achieving his own personal ambitions. For him the youth of Bulgaria lived for no other purpose than to sacrifice itself against the despotism of the Turks. We

"In the past I devoted myself to the cause of the Bulgarian nation, and I will devote myself to it today, but this time to defend it against its czar, Czar Ferdinand, half German, half French, having no Bulgarian blood at all in his veins, a false Christian, neither Roman Catholic nor Orthodox nor Protestant, a veritable Judas, a traitor to all countries and to all religions, the assassin of his own people, cursed by millions of mothers, wives and children—all the world desires that, at last, he shall pay the penalty of his crimes. What remains of the Bulgarians can believe me when I declare that they have been shamefully deceived and that there is nothing left for them to do but to rise in rebellion against the unspeakable Czar Ferdinand."

Hindenburg is a True Barbarian

Told a Neutral Diplomat He Enjoyed Slaughter

Grins, Never Laughs

A Mistake to Suppose He Was Unknown in Germany Before the War

(By a Neutral Diplomat.) It is a mistake to suppose that Hindenburg was a "dig out" or a man whose name was unknown to Germany until the war brought him into prominence. So far back as 1904 I heard his name mentioned in well-informed military quarters in Berlin as a general who would have a prominent command in the German army in the event of a big European war.

I first met the general at a dinner party at the foreign office in Berlin about twelve years ago. I was introduced across the table to him by Prince Bulow, who was sitting next to Hindenburg.

The general's mouth was full, as it usually is when he is sitting with anything to eat before him.

He grinned, and when he had swallowed what was in his mouth, was about to say something to me when he apparently changed his mind, grinned at me again, and went on with the business of eating.

Hindenburg, by the way, always grins when amused. I met him on several occasions, but I never heard him laugh, no matter how amused he was at anything.

He expresses his sense of amusement always by a grin, and about his grin there is something distinctly satanic.

The only subject Hindenburg could talk on with any degree of interest was war. It was easy, once he was comfortably settled in his chair in the evening, and had his pipe under way, to start him on the subject.

"War," he said, "is the natural occupation of a soldier, when not engaged in fighting, however, he may be occupied, he is occupied uselessly. He is like a barrister without briefs or a surgeon without patients." Then, after a pause, and puffing at his big meerschaum pipe, he went on:

"In the next European war you will see killing on the biggest scale ever seen before. It will be a war not between two nations, but between races—Teuton against Slav. It will be a war without mercy, as war ought to be. Barbarians understand war better than we Europeans. They have no rules, no code, no conventions in war. Kill your enemy in any way you can, and when you have killed him in sufficient numbers so that he can no longer resist you, enslave him—that is the barbarian theory of war, and it is the right one."

Hindenburg later settles on you before the quarter strikes," said an excited old gentleman. Seven birds alighted on the Australian, and as the clock struck half a crown was duly handed over.

SUMMER CAMPS IN FORESTS
Fresno, California, has secured the use of 15 acres on the shores of Huntington lake, in the Sierra national forest, on which to establish a camp to provide summer outings for 11,000 school children and their parents. California State Normal School now occupies a portion of the same forest. In connection with the regular six-weeks summer course, this school gives a course in woodcraft and general forestry subjects. The students visit the nearby forest service ranger stations and lookout towers, and study the government's methods of fire protection.

Los Angeles was the first city in California to establish a vacation camp in the national forests. A tract of land in the Angeles forest has been rented, and a large camp built, costing about $8,000. This camp consists of a log and stone lodge, 46 furnished cottages, tennis and croquet courts, baseball grounds and handball courts. A ten-day trip can be made at a cost which is within the reach of practically everyone. By this means thousands of residents of the city have been able to spend their vacations in the mountains.

Studebaker

Road-Conquering Power

Power—and plenty of reserve power—is absolutely necessary in the car built for Canadian service. Not merely "claimed" horse-power—but actual, usable road horse-power.

In the Studebaker FOUR at $1375 the owner is sure of full forty horse-power, and in the SIX at $1685 full fifty horse-power—reserve power for all the exigencies of crowded traffic, steep hills and rough, heavy roads.

In ratio of power to weight the Studebaker is probably the most powerful car on the market.

Because of the perfect balance of the chassis it is a common occurrence for owners to get from 8,000 to 10,000 miles from a single set of tires.

Come in and see the new Series 18 Studebaker cars. Examine them carefully—ride in them—drive them. Let us convince you that to equal the Studebaker in power—or any other essential of good motor car construction—you have to pay hundreds of dollars more.

The Car We Chose —And Why

With 31 Extra Features—24% Added Luxury—100% Over-Strength

We have chosen the Mitchell among all cars in its class, after months of investigation. As motor car dealers, we have staked our future on it.

The extra values make this car resistless. It makes other cars seem incomplete. The man who knows what we know is bound to choose this car. Please come and see the hundred ways in which Mitchells are distinct.

Why It Dominates
You hear the Mitchell everywhere discussed. The sale doubles every year. The factory now covers 45 acres, yet there never are Mitchells enough. Let us show you why.

There are 31 features which nearly all cars omit. Things like a power tire pump, dashboard engine primer, reversible headlights, ball-bearing steering gear.

There is superlative luxury. The makers this year added 24 per cent to the cost of finish, upholstery and beauty. The Mitchell is by far the handsomest car in its class.

There are handles for entering, a light in the tonneau, a locked compartment for valuables. There is paired upholstery of rare-grade leather, and very deep cushion springs. There are cantilever rear springs—52 inches long—so the car rides like an aeroplane.

Lifetime Endurance
Every important part in Mitchells has 100 per cent over-strength. That is twice the usual margin of safety. There are oversize parts. There are over 440 parts built of toughened steel. There are driving parts of Chrome-Vanadium. There are springs which have never been broken.

These extra values will cost $4,000.00 on this year's Mitchell output. Just for extra features, added beauty and over-strength, beyond most like-class cars.

Exclusive Styles
Then there are eight new-style bodies, all exclusive to the Mitchell. All are designed by Mitchell artists and built in Mitchell shops.

Before designing this new line, Mitchell experts examined 257 new models. So the Mitchells combine every known attraction. You have never seen so many beauties in a single car.

Due to John W. Bate
All these extra values are paid for by factory savings. They are due to John W. Bate, the famous efficiency expert. He built and equipped this model plant to build this one type economically. He has spent years of effort and millions of dollars to cut the factory cost in two.

Two Sizes—Eight Styles
The Mitchell line includes two sizes and eight body styles. It offers everything the fine-car buyer wants. It offers more than any other line of Sixes.

Come and see the new styles, just brought in. See how they differ from other cars—in a hundred ways. We promise you an interesting hour.

TWO SIZES

Mitchell—a roomy 7-passenger Six, with 127-inch wheelbase and a highly-developed 48-horsepower motor. $1460 F. O. B. Racine

Mitchell Junior—a 5-passenger Six on similar lines, with 128-inch wheelbase and a 46-horsepower motor. $1195 F. O. B. Racine

Kaiser Worries Over Lost Ring

Recent Reverses in Battle Blamed an Disappearance of Famous Heirloom

The Brandenburg ring is missing, if reports may be believed. And Kaiser Wilhelm is greatly worried as a result, according to some of those who profess to know. For he is a thorough believer in the legend which connects the fate of the Hohenzollern dynasty with the fabled ring. Several times in the past it is reported to have disappeared, and on each occasion misfortune has befallen the House of Prussia.

It is said that Frederick the Great found the ring when he came to the throne, hidden in a strongly built case, with a memorandum written by his father, as follows:

"This ring was given to me by my father on his deathbed, with the reminder that so long as it was preserved in the House of Brandenburg this would not only prosper, but would grow and prosper."

Frederick the Great carefully guarded the ring, and although professing to care for it merely as an heirloom, his confidence in its occult powers.

The ring, of little value, contained a gold band with a dark colored stone mounted in it, was the object of several attempts at theft during Frederick's reign. When he came to die the Countess Liechtenau removed it from his hand. Frederick stirred uneasily, and said:

"Her den Ring."

"He is asking for a blessing," quickly said the Countess, and those about the monarch's bedside thought the request nothing more than the vagary of a dying man.

The loss of the ring, according to the legend, resulted in the disastrous defeat of Prussia by Napoleon. The Countess, mindful of the old monarch's belief, finally yielded the ring to Frederick Wilhelm in 1814, whereupon the tide of fortune turned.

When Kaiser Wilhelm came to the throne he inherited the ring along with other jewels, and is said to have become a passionate believer in the old superstition. He has paid heed to many prophecies concerning his reign, and one report affirms that he convinced himself the stone in the ring was the eye of a toad and therefore the sign of unending fortune.

Whatever the extent of Wilhelm's belief in the Brandenburg ring, German peasants are whispering the rumor that it is missing. Until the ring is found again, they say, only disaster can befall Prussia's arms, in its disappearance they see cause for all recent reverses. To illustrate:

SERBS OBLIMED UP SHEER PRECIPICE

Took Important Bulgar Position Without Loss of Single Man

Serbian Headquarters, May 19.—On Monday the Serbs proceeded to attack the Bulgarian third line of defenses on the front of Dobropole. At Meplena, further east, a small party of our men stormed a precipitous height crowned with trenches manned by hundreds of Bulgarians. Even our staff officers were lost in wonder at this performance, the approach to the heights was almost sheer precipice. From the top the defenders, being unable to fire, threw rocks and grenades. It was the outermost defense of Golobito. Its possession, obtained without the loss of a single man, is valuable, as facilitating further operations. The whole of Height 1824, which constitutes the third Bulgarian line of defense of Dobropole, was captured. Parts of the heights were recovered by enemy counter-attacks. The Serbs again attacked and continued the fight till late in the morning, when the position remained in our hands.

In these engagements, the Bulgarians for the first time employed appreciable quantities of gas, but their effect in the open air was almost nil. Our forces were slight, thanks to the Serbian mode of assault. Bulgarian prisoners say they never see our men until they seem to spring from the ground close in front. The approach of the Serbs is catlike. They steal up in ones, two and threes on all sides, and at a given signal leap forward with a startling yell, which the Bulgars dread. French prisoners report that the captured trenches as well as those on the crest of Dobropole, are full of Bulgarian dead.

ST. VITUS DANCE

Even the Most Severe Cases Can Be Cured by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills

Is your child fidgety, restless, or irritable? Are the hands shaky or the arms jerky? Does the face twitch? Do the muscles tremble or draw? These are signs of St. Vitus Dance, a nervous disease which is confined chiefly to young children, but which affects highly-strung women, and sometimes men. St. Vitus Dance is caused by disordered nerves, due to poor blood, and is always cured by the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills which fill the veins with new, rich, red blood, strengthening the nerves, and thus drawing out the disease. Here is a proof: Mrs. John A. Cunningham, Lower Calabash, N. S., says: "When my daughter Myrtle was about nine years of age she became afflicted with St. Vitus Dance. The trouble ultimately became so bad that she could not hold anything in her hands, and had to be fed like a child. She could not even walk across the floor without help. She was treated for some time by a physician, but did not show any improvement. One day a neighbor said she had read of a case of St. Vitus Dance cured by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and we decided to give this medicine a trial. By the time the third box was used there was some improvement in her condition, and we continued giving her the pills for about a month longer when she was entirely cured, and has not since had the least return of the trouble. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills cured my daughter from any dealer in medicine or by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont."

RECENT DEATHS

Alex. Grey Milne.
Many friends will hear with regret of the death of Alexander Grey Milne, of Springfield (Mass.), who died at his home in this city, May 17. He had been in poor health for some time and came to Springfield two weeks before his death in hope that the change would benefit him, but in spite of all that skilled physicians could do he passed peacefully away on May 12. He was a native of St. John, N. B., and was a son of the late Alex. G. Milne, of the firm of Milne, Gault & Co. He was a young man of sterling character and of a kindly disposition that endeared him to all who knew him. He leaves a wife, formerly Miss Mac Corbett, of Revere (Mass.), one sister, Mrs. H. W. Andrews, and one brother, George Milne, both of Springfield (Mass.); also a large number of other relatives and friends.

RECENT WEDDINGS

Pitt-Earle.
A very pretty ceremony was performed yesterday afternoon at the residence of Rev. Gideon Swinburn, officiating, when Percy Malcolm Pitt, of this city, was united in marriage to Carrie Idora Earle, of St. John, N. B. The bride was suitably attired in a grey traveling suit with hat to match. They were attended by their parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. Green with the groom's former home was situated. They expect eventually to reside in St. John. Mr. Pitt is a carpenter by occupation.

Had Violent Coughing Fits

Looked Like Consumptive

Mrs. Marjy Whiten, North Forks, N. S., writes: "Having taken five bottles of Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup, during the past few weeks, to relieve a chronic cough and general chest trouble, allow me to express my unbounded satisfaction and thanks as to its sterling qualities. A short time ago I became subject to violent coughing fits at night and during the day, and in the morning, I began losing weight, and all my friends cheerfully informed me that I was going into consumption."

After taking the Dr. Wood's I am pleased to relate that the cough has entirely disappeared and I have since regained the lost weight. I have no hesitation in recommending Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup.

There are many imitations of "Dr. Wood's" on the market, so see that none of these so-called "pine syrups" are handed out to you when you ask for "Dr. Wood's." It has been on the market for twenty-five years, is put up in a yellow wrapper, three pine trees on the label, make price 50c and 90c. Manufactured only by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

CLASH IN ADRIATIC

London, May 17.—(Delayed by censorship)—It is officially announced that the transport Cameronian has been sunk. One hundred and forty men on board are missing.

London, May 18.—The British admiralty announced today that fourteen drifters had been sunk in a raid by Austrian light cruisers in the Adriatic Sea, and that the British light cruiser Dartmouth was torpedoed in a subsequent engagement with the Austrian warships, but reached port safely.

The admiralty states that the British warships Dartmouth and Bristol pursued the Austrian vessels to a point near Cattaro when, battleships coming to their assistance, the British vessels were compelled to withdraw.

THISTLES WIN FROM SHAMROCKS

Second Game in St. Peter's School Boys League Played Yesterday

The second game in St. Peter's school boys league took place yesterday on the Y. M. C. diamond in the rear of Clarendon street. The game was between the young Thistles and young Shamrocks, and was won by the former by a score of four to two. Despite the fact that the participants are only young they put up a brand of baseball which would do credit to older boys.

The line-up of the teams was as follows:—

A RHYMED LETTER FROM TRENCHES

A friend in St. John has received the following letter from a soldier who left St. John with the 104th and was directed to France with another unit: Dear Herb, would you like to glance at a soldier's life out here in France? Then on your nose your glasses bend, And excuse the rhyme I hereby send:

The night is dark, the wind does blow, As off I tramp on sentry go. The rain, worse luck, is falling fast, And foreign rats come rumin' past. All in the trenches there I stand, And not unlike a log of wood; With feet half frozen and crumby, too, For there's lots of company if you but know!

But we don't mind out here in France, The unwashed clothes and shirts and pants; We'll do our bit whatever comes, Along with the mice and rats and crones. And wade through mud and water deep To our dugouts in which we sleep. With rifles, bayonets, and iron ration, Bully beef, biscuits, and iron ration, For dainties they are out of fashion. In a land of war and condemnation, But still we're not downhearted yet, We can stand the cold, the rain and wet. We're on the job to smash the Hun, And do it we will no fear, my son! Though lonely now we're well set. When Xmas puddings we did get, And letters, parcels, pipes or fags, Just suits us chaps when this life jags; But when tired out and feeling grim They tot us out a drop of rum.

At night when bullets are whizzing near, And Fritz sends up his starlight clear, To see if his enemies are near, Us Canadian lads in no way fear, With loaded rifle lying near. But before old Fritz reloads his guns Our artillery answers back the Huns; Then our acropolis try to get at times A shot or a peep behind the lines. And then there's fighting in the air, And noises more than enough and to spare. You'll see the planes go circling round, One high, one nearer to the ground, Like eagles in their ready flight, They come and go and fade from sight. And anti-aircraft guns reply.

ALLOW SPORT TO CONTINUE IN ENGLAND

London, May 15.—The government has reconsidered its decision regarding the future of flat racing, and decided to make substantial concessions and allow the sport to continue at Newmarket. The successful appeal made by large numbers of owners, trainers and breeders has brought great satisfaction to all followers of horse racing throughout the country.

The famous "Derby," the biggest classic of the English season, will be run off on May 30th and the "Oaks" on June 1, both to be decided at the first extra meeting at Newmarket.

A meeting of the increased food production campaign for the county of St. John, was held last evening in the board room of the Y. M. C. A. School, chairman of the committee, presided. Reports of the various meetings held throughout the province were given and in all cases they went to show that the farmer intends to do his bit. A car load of seed potatoes will arrive in St. John on Monday, to be sold to the farmer at cost, also a car load of fertilizer is to be brought here during the week for the same purpose.

Entertainment Prices And The High Cost Of Living
Imperial Theatre Will Adhere to Usual Low Scale For All Programmes During War
Serious Financial Risk Entailed But Hearty Co-operation of the Public is Expected to Make Plan Possible

STARTING THIS MONDAY, with Clara Kimball Young in "The Price She Paid," the Imperial Theatre will have one standard scale of admission prices for all its programmes—the scale known as "the usual prices," viz.: 5c. and 10c. at the matinees, and 10c. and 15c. in the evenings with the box seats at 25c.

FOR THE PAST FEW WEEKS special prices have been asked for extra-special film features which have cost the Imperial almost triple the usual rental rate to import, but in view of the continued high cost of living and feeling that usual prices should ensure a greater volume of patronage and thus protect the investment, it has been decided to keep to the lower rates.

THIS IS A WARTIME MEASURE in full appreciation of the food conditions and other stringencies. St. John people have always supported the Imperial's efforts to give them the best, and in return the Imperial is going to risk serious losses by selling its super-feature bills at ordinary prices. Everywhere else in Canada big features command the 25c. scale.

THEREFORE, IF THE PUBLIC CO-OPERATES with a volume of patronage sufficient to warrant continuing expensive film contracts for Mary Pickford, Clara Kimball Young, Douglas Fairbanks, Robert Warwick, George M. Cohan and other exclusive stars, the Imperial will feel that its decision has been appreciated.

AMONG THE BIG FEATURES COMING ARE Mary Pickford in "A Romance of the Redwoods," "The Poor Little Rich Girl," "Rebecca of Sunnybrook Farm," "Peter Pan" and "Peg o' My Heart," Douglas Fairbanks in "In Again, Out Again," Robert Warwick in "The Argyle Case" and "The Court of St. Simon," Clara Kimball Young in "The Poolish Virgin," "The Easiest Way," etc., and Norma Talmadge in "The Law of Compensation." In a short while other stars will be specialized.

BESIDES THE EXTRA-SPECIAL PHOTOPLAYS just mentioned, the Imperial has contracts for a return of those delightful World's Tours by Gaumont of Paris; the new Century Life single-reelers of Vitagraph—kiddies, animals, birds and pets; a string of Triangle masterpieces, featuring Douglas Fairbanks and William S. Hart, the two most talked-of men in pictures today, and the world-renowned Keystone Comedies with Roscoe Arbuckle, now a specialized star. Vitagraph features and serials of any good brand will also mark the Imperial's programmes.

LONDON TO INDIA WITHOUT CHANGING

Details of the Proposed Channel Tunnel Given by Sir Francis Fox

Fascinating details of the Channel Tunnel and what it means in traveling were given by Sir Francis Fox to the Royal Geographical Society in London.

Sir Francis said that owing to the necessity of keeping the Channel Tunnel well within the thickness of the grey chalk (the most suitable material of all through which to bore a tunnel), there would be a slight curve. The maximum depth of water over the Channel would be from 160 to 180 feet, and the roof of chalk over the structure had been fixed at a minimum of 100 feet.

The tunnel would consist of two tubes of 18 feet diameter. All the work would be done by electrically-driven machinery and excavation and other operations would be carried on simultaneously at many points, and a record speed would be reached. The tunnel could be worked and ventilated and pumped by electricity from a Kent power station ten miles inland.

The tunnel would have a dip in the level of the rails forming a water-lock by which the tunnel could, in case of emergency, be filled with water from floor to roof for the length of a mile. This would be under the control of Dover Castle, and the entrance and exit of both tunnels would be under the gun-fire of the Dover forts.

Trains would be run direct from

Not Too Dear

After a long discussion with a parliamentary church building committee which had done its best to cut down his estimates, Pugin, the great ecclesiastical architect, explained with a fine irony: "Say eightpence more, gentlemen, and have a nice tower and spire!"

Selective Draft is the Government Plan for Filling Thinning Ranks

Cheers From Both Sides of House When Premier Announces That Definite Policy Has Been Decided on—To Provide for Probably 100,000 Men

Ottawa, May 18.—Conscription is coming. After nearly three years of war Sir Robert Borden announced in the commons this afternoon that the voluntary system had been exhausted and that the government had decided to bring down a measure providing for "compulsory military enlistment on a selective basis."

Conscription will apply to the reinforcements needed at the front in order to keep up Canada's present army of four divisions and the number set by the premier for the first call is at least 50,000—"and it will probably be 100,000."

The announcement was made at the end of a speech of over two hours' duration dealing with the results of the premier's two months in the Old Land. It was received by cheers in which members on both sides of the house participated.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier, who rose at once when the premier concluded, declared that the measure when brought down would be considered from the attitude the opposition had taken from the outset of the war.

"We are determined," said the Liberal leader, "to do our full duty to the best of our judgment and in such a way as to secure that the best methods are adopted to bring about that victory for which we are all longing, and which we all hope will come certainly, whether it comes early or late. To the government proposals, when made known in detail, we promise due and fair consideration."

GOVERNMENT DECIDED ONLY ON THURSDAY.

The government's decision on the conscription measure was made yesterday after an all-day sitting of the cabinet, and after Sir Sam Hughes had notified Sir Robert that his resolution for compulsory service would be brought up next week. It came as a surprise even to the government's followers in the house. The abandonment of the voluntary system, as Sir Robert explained, was the response to the message given to the premier by the soldiers overseas to the people of Canada. The war, he declared, could not, in his opinion, end this year, and "a great struggle still lies before us." Germany has put 1,000,000 more men into the western front this spring than she had last spring. The Russian condition could throw her full weight into the conflict. A greater effort still was needed by Canada. The conscription measure will be brought down to the house almost immediately and it is understood that it will be based on the plan just adopted in the United States.

ONE CONCRETE ANNOUNCEMENT.

The greater part of the premier's speech was taken up with his reference to the proceedings of the imperial war cabinet and its outgrowth, the imperial cabinet, or cabinet of governments of the overseas dominions, which is to be an annual conference in London hereafter to consult upon matters of common interest to the empire. As Sir Wilfrid Laurier pointed out, this was about the only concrete thing which Sir Robert was able to announce as a result of his London mission.

The imperial cabinet, Sir Robert explained, is to be a purely consultative body with no executive authority and its recommendations, before coming into effect, must be accepted by each of the self-governing dominions. The reconstruction of the constitution of the British empire is apparently still in a decidedly nebulous state and any definite action is to be left over until after the war.

One thing, however, Sir Robert was emphatic about—483 in this he endorsed the policy for which Sir Wilfrid has always stood—the absolute preservation of local autonomy in each of the self-governing dominions. On the question of imperial preferential trade the premier also fell in line with the Liberal leader by declaring that any fiscal arrangement must be left to each of the contracting parties and should not be made a question of barrier or of interference from outside. In any event, there was no question of free taxation in England. The main proposal, he added, concretely referred only to better, cheaper and more economic facilities of transportation.

Concerning the after-the-war conference on the remodeling of the empire's constitution Sir Robert made the somewhat vague announcement that he would "ask the leaders of the opposition party to go with me to that conference."

USE DUMMY U-BOATS AT ZEEBRUGGE NOW

London, May 19.—According to dispatches from Amsterdam the intensive bombardments by British seaplanes of the German submarine base at Zeebrugge, on the Belgian coast, have forced the Germans to use many tricks to escape serious damage. One method discovered is the construction of dummy submarines of wood, which act as decoys while the real submarines scurry up the canals and hide under bomb-proof shelters built in the canal banks.

The British aviators now carry their raids inland until they find the U-boats' refuge. Hereafter when the British machines appeared the Germans' decoys were sunk out of harbor and took up positions just inside the outer mine fields, but during the last raids these decoys have occupied the airmen only to run into a heavy fire from a British flotilla, which shells them back into harbor. There they came under the fire of the sea planes.

Zeebrugge is heavily defended with sand dunes, and there are subterranean railways by which great naval guns are carried from one emplacement to another.

MORE EVIDENCE THAT HOTELS CAN DO WITHOUT BAR

Americans Coming to Canada Prove That LUNCH COUNTERS and Cafeteria Service Can Make Big Profits

(Financial Times)

In view of the changed conditions in regard to hotel investments in the Province of Quebec, it may be interesting to holders of hotel securities to review the fact that similar legislation has had upon the hotel business in the United States and in other parts of Canada.

The hotel-keepers of the United States evidently recognizing the detrimental effects of prohibition, are rapidly preparing themselves for dry conditions and Ontario and Quebec hotelkeepers could well afford to read a page from the book that the American hotelmen are writing.

The American hotelman has no hopes of the return of the bar in districts which are now strictly temperate. It is not because he thinks that governments are opposed to liquor, but rather that he understands that public opinion is opposed to the sale of alcoholic concoctions.

A visitor to the States nowadays finds two distinct classes in the hotel business. The most noticeable class, of course, is the saloon-keeper, who is rapidly being wiped out of business. The saloon-keepers aim to make their money from the bar. The other class is the bona fide hotel man, who builds handsome and beautiful structures and not only aims to, but actually does, make his money from the rental of accommodations to the traveling public.

Prefers Lunch Room to Bar.

An idea of just how keenly business-like are the real hotelmen of the U.S.A. can be gathered from the observations of the manager of one of the biggest hotels near the border. This manager, recognizing the approach of prohibition, recommended the transformation of the grill room into an artistic cafeteria, giving the assurance that it could be made highly profitable. He points out that the bar has been taking care of the losses of the restaurant, but he advises that it would be much better to have a lunch counter than a bar, and says that light wines and beer could be served at the tables instead of over the bar. This manager believes that the installation of first-class cafeteria service and the changing of the bar into a lunch counter would double the profits. He notes that many hotels are abolishing bars, and serving wines at the table, but not at a public bar.

Travelers interviewed, after visits to the United States insist that the bar there is a thing of the past, and that even in cases where conditions are still wet, hotel proprietors are abolishing the bar of their own accord, and are simply serving refreshments at the tables.

Ignored Source of Profit.

For many years hotelmen throughout North America paid no attention to the restaurant business, but counted on the bar to pay the total cost of operation of the whole hotel. They developed their bar business, but did not try to raise the restaurant and accommodation departments of the concern out of its infancy; neither did they spend any money for nourishment for this end of the hotel. Since the advent of prohibition in parts of the States, changes have occurred, and hoteliers find that the restaurant and accommodation of not only dry hotels but also wet hotels, are being highly developed.

There is money in the restaurant business. Numerous Americans have demonstrated that on Canadian soil. In the last decade we find eating places of the style of Howles, Thompsons, Childs, Walfords, and others springing up and flourishing, even in war times, when the cost of food stuffs is much higher than under normal conditions. These American restaurant keepers come to Montreal and Toronto and pay $10.00 per foot for land (as in Toronto), $50,000 on
