CHURCHILL SCORES FOR TERT AGREEMENT

SETTLEMENT IN FRANCE'S FAVOR, SOME DECLARE

Chancellor In Statement Fails To Mention Moratorium

PAY STARTS IN 1930

LONDON, Aug. 27.—Considerable surprise, and not altogether pleasurable, has been aroused here by the terms of the provisional settlement of the French debt to Great Britain, as arranged by Right Hon. Winston Churchill, Chancellor of the Exchequer, and Joseph Caillaux, the French Minister of Finance.

"Each of us had to put a little water in our wine," said M. Caillaux in discussing the terms of the agreement, under which France would pay her debt of $223,000,000 in sixty-two annual payments of $21,800,000 each, starting in 1930, if France's negotiations for wiping out her debt to the United States prove satisfactory, and if the French government gives its approval.

PUBLIC CRITICAL. While some persons are of the opinion that the dilution referred to by M. Caillaux, will prove good for both countries, there are others who very strongly express the viewpoint that Great Britain is getting too much of the water, and France too much of the wine. The position, however, has not yet been finally mixed, and the people here are waiting to see whether the forthcoming Franco-American negotiations will bring about a prohibitory influence on the suggested composition of the Anglo-French agreement.

TAX BURDEN. One adverse criticism of the proposal that France make the sixty-two annual payments, is that, if this basis were accepted, it would impose upon the British taxpayer, the payment of a larger proportion of the interest on the French war debt, than on the French taxpayer, and this is regarded as an impossible position from the British viewpoint.

Another objection is to the proposed moratorium for France until 1930, when the French treasury would be relieved of adding to the Bank of France to liquidate its debt of 1,800,000,000 francs to the Bank of England. It is considered as strange that Churchill's statement did not refer to it.

M. Caillaux left for Paris at 11 o'clock this morning. Before his departure he issued a statement, expressing "special gratitude" to Mr. Churchill for his great cordiality and his "most sincere desire to reach an agreement."

EFFECT IN U. S. WASHINGTON, Aug. 27.—Developments in the foreign debt situation abroad were regarded by observers here, as likely to have the effect of seriously complicating the forthcoming negotiations for funding the debts of France and Italy, to the United States.

Structure is Magnificent 6-Story Building at Toronto; Ferguson, Sir William Mulock, Mayor Foster Laud Company

TORONTO, Aug. 26—After thirty-eight years of ever-expanding business the Manufacturers Life Insurance Company reached not the culmination, but a milestone in its history, with the opening yesterday afternoon by Hon. P. C. Larkin, High Commissioner for Canada, in London, of its magnificent new headquarters building on Bloor street, between Jarvis and Church streets.

A notable gathering was present for the ceremony, including the Premier of Ontario, Hon. G. Howard Ferguson, the Chief Justice, Sir William Mulock, and the Mayor of Toronto, Mr. Thomas Foster, all of whom paid tributes to the honorable history of the company and congratulated the officers on the present accomplishment.

The speakers at the banquet, with which the opening was celebrated, were unanimous in praise of the building as an architectural acquisition to the city. It is six stories high, with basement, and is of dressed Indiana limestone on a pink Millford granite base. No unobtrusive fire escapes mar its appearance. There is no classic beauty in the straight lines, the only embellishment being a Doric colonnade with six fluted columns, and the dignity of austere simplicity is peculiarly befitting to a home of modern business.

The massiveness of the building suggests a stability which skyscraper fails to convey, and aroused admiring comments from all who saw it for the first time.

GOODERHAM PRESIDES. The president of the company, W. G. Gooderham, introduced the high commissioner to the gathering outside the building, the key having been handed to Hon. Mr. Larkin by the architect, H. Sprague, he formally declared the building open and the company repaired to the dining room on the sixth floor. In addition to those already mentioned there were at the head table J. K. McDonald, president of the Confederation Life, H. C. Cox, vice president of Canada Life, Rev. Canon H. J. Cody, whose church, St. Paul's, is the main facade of the building, and the Rev. Canon H. J. Wood, Col. Alex. Fraser, representing the Lieut.-Governor, L. Goldman, president North American Gas Co., J. B. McKee, general manager of the Manufacturers Life, and the directors, C. C. Dalton, Douglas Ross, William Stone, Col. Wilkes, M. H. Gooderham, F. G. Oster and E. R. C. Clarkson. W. G. Gooderham presided.

CONGRATULATES COMPANY. The first speaker after the loyal toast was Hon. P. C. Larkin, who congratulated the company on its growth, saying that the new building was a monument to the wisdom of Canadians and a sign of their appreciation of the most valuable of all commercial interests.

"For," he commented, "I think it can be said of life insurance that it blesses him that gives and him that takes." He said that the first life insurance was written in 1883 in England, and added, amid laughter, that the first "risk" died within a year, leaving a policy of $285 for the maintenance of his dependents, a not inconsiderable sum in those days. Next, he said, there was $800,000,000 of life insurance in the United States and Canada. He hoped the Manufacturers Life would keep on its course until everyone in Canada had made provision for those dependent on him. He then declared the building open for business "for the benefit of the community."

AGENTS CALLED SPLENDID. "Looking over the record of your company," said Premier Ferguson, "I venture to think the company is to be congratulated on its splendid staff of agents. Business comes from the activity of the agents and very little from those who sit at the head office," he remarked, amid laughter.

Life insurance, he went on, was something of which those connected with it might well be proud. At no time in the history of Canada had a policyholder lost a single dollar by reason of reverses in business. That was a wonderful record which, he thought, could not be equalled by any other business.

WORK OF DR. BANTING. "Governments," he commented, "can well co-operate with life insurance companies in the interests of the general public. Such work as Dr. Banting has done not only means increased business for life insurance companies, but by lessening risk to the company reduces cost to the policyholder. I think you will always find that the Ontario Government is prepared to promote investigation that will promote the health and lengthen the life of our people. That is where we can co-operate most closely with life insurance companies."

In concluding the Premier said that among the leading companies which operated in the Dominion, and its position was justified by its activities, while its splendid service entitled it to the congratulations of everybody.

CONFEDERATE OF ACTIVITIES. Mayor Foster commented on the spread of the company's activities in other parts of the Empire and the world, drawing attention to the advertising that Canada gained thereby. Regarding the location of the new headquarters he thought that the directors had chosen an excellent site, along one

THE BRITISH NEWSPAPER MEN

The coming of the British newspaper representatives to the Maritime Provinces will doubtless lead to more intelligent discussion of this part of Canada in the Journals represented by the visitors. Ten of Great Britain's leading newspapers sent qualified writers to gather information at first hand, and it is their intention, after visiting all parts of Canada, to give to their readers their impressions of Canadian life and Canadian opportunities.

Grand Lodge Hears Excellent Reports at Opening Session Here

NET INCREASE FOR LAST YEAR IS 165

Details of Finances and Other Matters Show Good 12 Months

Reports submitted at the 88th annual communication of the Masonic Grand Lodge of New Brunswick, which convened in this city this afternoon at 2:30, show that the order on July 30, 1925, had 5,955 members in the province, an increase of 165 over the previous year.

A large number of representatives were present at the opening of the Grand Lodge and the reports submitted were all of encouraging nature, showing that progress had been made in all branches during the year. The financial report was especially pleasing showing a large balance in the general fund and in the fund of benevolence.

The Grand Master, George D. Ellis, of this city, presided at the opening session and welcomed the visiting delegates to Grand Lodge.

The Grand Master, George D. Ellis, said in his address that it was with much satisfaction that he welcomed the 88th annual communication of the Grand Lodge of New Brunswick and extended congratulations on the prosperity of the fraternity all over the jurisdiction.

During the year the order had been called on to mourn the passing of the following members: George Cogoon, P. D. G. M., Zion Lodge No. 21; S. H. Flewelling, P. S. G. W., The Corinthian Lodge, No. 15; J. W. Wilson, P. G. Secretary, Albion Lodge, No. 1; Henry Howlett, P. G. D., Benjamin Lodge, No. 81; George Blake, P. G. D., Albion Lodge, No. 1; R. W. L. Tibbitts, Hiram Lodge, No. 6; Bertram E. Smith, Keith Lodge, No. 1; J. B. Barrett, Alley Lodge, No. 14; John P. Lunn, Albert Lodge, No. 84; Wm. Vaughan, Sussex Lodge, No. 7; John Edward A. Hoyt, Albion Lodge, No. 1; R. Duncan Smith, Saint John's Lodge, No. 2; Patrick J. Gray, Salisbury Lodge, No. 20; Wm. H. McCleod, Lodge St. Andrew, No. 14.

Speaking of outstanding matter of the year, he said: "The most notable event in England is the completion of a fund of more than $280,000, for the erection of a great Masonic Temple in London, which is to be a memorial to the activities of the Grand Lodge of England and a memorial to the English Masons who fell in the Great War. This great fund has been raised by voluntary contribution without calling upon the funds of Grand Lodge for assistance, and without interfering in any way with the very generous contributions which our English brethren make to Masonic charities.

"The Grand Lodge of Ireland has this year celebrated with fitting ceremonies the two hundredth anniversary of its organization. I regret that I was unable to accept the invitation to witness these ceremonies. Freemasonry in New Brunswick is deeply indebted to Irish Masonry.

"I am credibly informed that the Grand Orient of Belgium has abandoned the requirements of a belief in God and has removed the Bible from its altars, thus placing itself beyond the bounds of Masonic recognition. We cannot ignore the Fatherhood of God and yet assert the Brotherhood of man. Several lodges in the Eastern Star exist in this province and each of them, I believe, meets in the local lodge room. This Order is favorably viewed in Scotland, but has been sternly banned by the United Grand Lodge of England and the Grand Lodge of Ireland. The sister jurisdiction of Scotland has likewise discouraged it with this subject. The use of private lodge rooms is greatly to be deprecated."

On October 28 Hartland Lodge, No. 46, was duly constituted, consecrated and dedicated. Official visits were paid to Carleton Union Lodge, No. 8; Saint John's Lodge, No. 21; New Brunswick Lodge, No. 22; The Corinthian Lodge, No. 15; Hibernia Lodge, No. 81; Sunbury Lodge, No. 42; Hiram Lodge, No. 6; St. Mark's Lodge, No. 51; St. George Lodge, No. 12; Campbellton Lodge, No. 82; Restigouche Lodge, No. 25 and Lodge Saint John, No. 27.

MEMORIAL TO ANTARCTIC HEROES

At Mount Wise, Devonport, England, this memorial has just been unveiled to Captain Scott and his four comrades who perished in the Antarctic in 1912, five men who faced death as heroes. tion of the caste system in India, which is meeting with remarkable success. Another is seen in the many signs of a new approach in the historic churches of Christendom, the most spectacular instance of which is the recent visit to England of great dignitaries of the Eastern Church. For the first time in history, two patriarchs of the Greek church, the Patriarch of Jerusalem and the Patriarch of Alexandria, attended by other ecclesiastics of high rank and dignity, have been cordially received and welcomed in the principal cities of England and have taken part in the ceremonies of the English cathedrals. Only those of anti-Christian sympathies can fail to see in this a promise of greater things to come. The attitude of the members of our fraternity towards all these movements can be well expressed by a recent saying of Sir Oliver Lodge: "Depend upon it, nothing is happening. Things are not left to chance. Everything is amenable to law and order. Everything points to a rational plan, of which we know neither the beginning nor the end, but toward which we can help. In face of all that, shall we allow ourselves to squabble about trifling details? Or shall we realize that we are the heirs of all the ages, that the destiny of mankind is being partly entrusted to us, and that humanity has a future, a potential future, beyond our wildest dreams?"

GRAND SECRETARY. Grand Secretary J. T. Hart reported that the receipts of his office during the last 12 months had been quite abnormal by reason of the special assessments for the sale of masonic aprons and past grand aprons. The lodge payments of fees and dues had been exceeded, hitherto but once, viz., in 1921-1922. These lodge payments amounted to $6,208.29 under the following heading: Initiation fees $1,304.00; Affiliations, dispensations, sundries 275.51; Annual dues 4,628.20.

The result of the first year's special assessment for the sinking fund whereby to meet the $20,000 of bonds maturing in 1929 will surely be regarded with satisfaction, he says. Up to July 26, when the books of Grand Lodge were closed, 85 lodges had paid the assessment for 1924 to the amount of $48,790. Two other lodges have since remitted, as no doubt will the remaining six, carrying the total to well over $50,000.

MEMBERSHIP 5,955. With perhaps two exceptions, the lodges had a year of prosperity and of active work, with a resulting increase in membership. The following figures are taken from the synopsis of the returns: Initiated 828; Passed 922; Reinstated 808; Johned 55; Reinstated 19; Withdrawn 379; Suspended 61; Total membership December 27, 1924, 5,955.

The dispensations granted by the M. W. Grand Master, 38 in number, were for the usual purposes, as many as 16 authorizing the wearing of regalia at divine services; to confer regalia at short intervals, nine; to inter with Masonic ceremony, two; to wear regalia at a social reception, one; and five lodges were given permission to install officers on December 29, inasmuch as Saint John's Day, the 27th, fell on Saturday.

Commissions have been received for the following brethren appointing them Grand Representatives as follows: W. Alvah C. Toy, Grand Lodge of Alabama; W. Andrew D. McCalin, Grand Lodge of New Hampshire; W. Malcolm L. McPhail, Grand Lodge of South Carolina; W. Herbert Priestman, Grand Lodge of Oregon.

The M. W. Grand Master by commissions under the seal of Grand Lodge has appointed the following Grand Representatives of New Brunswick: W. Bro. Lloyd L. Gough of Memphis, near the Grand Lodge of Tennessee; W. Bro. Clarence Hill of Port Washington, near the Grand Lodge of Wisconsin; W. Bro. John Pasterst of Weiser, near the Grand Lodge of Idaho. Since the last Annual Communication 329 Grand Lodge certificates, bearing the Grand Master's name, have been issued to lodge secretaries. This is the full number called for by returns so that at date there are no arrears.

GENERAL PURPOSES. The Board of General Purposes reported a continuing increase in the Fund of Benevolence, which amounts to $24,682.18 and that the recommendation for a Masonic Home had been laid on the table as the financial obligations for the next five years precluded any effective action along this line at present. The grand treasurer,

Jane Wheaton, R. N., Campbellton, and Gertrude, Vera, Margaret, Rhoda and Ethel, at home, and a sister, Miss Dell, in the west. The funeral will be held Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Rev. Mr. Philip, pastor of the United church, will officiate. Interment will be at Upper Sackville.

Robert Bab. Much sympathy will be extended to Mr. and Mrs. G. Clayton Bab, 100 Wright street, in the loss of their infant son, Robert, who died on Monday. The funeral was held yesterday afternoon.

For 20 years Mrs. Dawson had been secretary of the Women's Missionary Society of the First Baptist church here, a position she filled with much devotion and ability. Devonshire Folk in N. B. Meet Visiting British Newspaper Man

Tell Him This Province Best—Farming Much as in Their Home Place.

There is a great similarity in many ways between the farming in New Brunswick and that in Devonshire, England, according to Reginald A. Colwill, of Plymouth, one of the party of ten British journalists now touring Canada as guests of the C. P. R.

AN AGRICULTURAL COUNTY. Devonshire is the second largest county in England and, with the exception of Plymouth and the holiday resorts on the coast, is all agricultural country.

Mr. Colwill said last night that the farming there was all mixed and greatly resembled that here. One marked difference was the lateness of our season, giving little chance for second crops of hay. It was strange, he said.

For an Englishman to see hay and corn being harvested at the same time.

TO URGE EXTENSION. The hay crops here seemed larger, he said, the yield to the acre being considerably greater than in Devonshire. He had been much interested in the efforts being made to encourage the raising of alfalfa, a crop seldom seen in Devonshire, and he intended on his return to advocate a more extensive use of it. The name there for the same purpose is lucerne.

During the whole of the time he had been in Canada and he had driven through many miles of agricultural country—he had not seen a single sheep he said. He thought the farmers of the province would do well to give consideration to the South Devon breeds of cattle. The cows were heavy milk producers, he said, being known in England as "milk tanks." The animals were all heavy and it was no uncommon sight at one of the ordinary fairs to see a bull weighing more than a ton. He had seen none of the breed here.

IMPRESSIONS BY METHODS. The potatoes were better here than in England, he said, many fine fields having been passed, especially in the Woodstock district.

The two-piece suit above consists of straight pleated skirt and coat which has darts to make it fit the hips, and fastens with two buttons low at the front. A vestee of which contributes to its daintiness.

The Lure of Towns

The activity, the scope, the variety and gaiety of towns draw people irresistibly to forsake the free, healthy range of life in the open air for a sedentary existence. Nature cannot maintain the functions in working order under these conditions, and the result is only too frequently headaches, biliousness, dyspepsia, and other disagreeable, due to accumulated poisons in the system. In such cases Andrews is invaluable. Gently but effectively the occasional dose will correct life's little ills and make living anywhere a joy.

Waistlines To Appear In Fall Fashions

LONDON, Aug. 27.—Waistlines are coming back.

Possibly also the " Gibson Girl" type of basom figure will all the rage again a year or so hence, but of this fashion experts are more skeptical. Concession of the sleek trim figured girdle today into the high-busted, round-hipped classic of the 'nineties, the fashionists says, can't be accomplished in one short season, if indeed at all.

But the mere defining of the waistline will be easy. In fact it has already been accomplished and millinery's fall clothes showing in the fashionable shops are made with high waistlines, well defined.

Parents' Busy Time is Here in Getting Little Ones Ready After Holidays.

CHILDREN of North End homes—and there are 3,362 on the school lists—in common with those of other parts of the city will be off to school again next Monday after the pleasant and the building-up of the happy days of the long summer vacation.

The parents may look upon the provisions made for the education of their little ones with pride. The fine buildings that have been erected in that section of the city for the carrying on of this work. Among these are the playgrounds, the various public schools of that part of Saint John. This page also will be of value to fathers and mothers who must fit out those in their care for the attendance during the new term, and here are suggestions in the line of clothing and footwear and school supplies that will be useful in selecting these necessities. A word about the schools follows:

VOCATIONAL. The vocational school, Douglas avenue, now under construction, when completed will give this city the most up-to-date educational institution of its kind in the lower provinces and the equal of anything in Canada.

The building will be 297 feet in frontage and 62 feet wide, having two cells, one 113 feet by 64 feet and the other 113 feet by 67 feet. In one cell there will be the workshop building, the class rooms for applied arts and the heating plant. In the other cell there will be placed the gymnasium, auditorium with stage and gallery, the shower bath and the swimming pool. There is to be no basement pool.

HOLY TRINITY. On the ground floor there will be 29 classrooms in addition to the boiler rooms and coal rooms, swimming pool, boys and girls shower baths, girls rest room and cloak room, the toilets, lecture room and blissing room.

On the first floor will be 16 classrooms, the auditorium, gymnasium with apparatus room and instructor's room opening off the principal's room, teachers' room and the toilets.

On the second floor are to be 10 classrooms, the cloak rooms and the balcony of the auditorium with a motion picture booth.

LORNE SCHOOL. The Lorne school, located on Newman street, is a building of which the Board of School Trustees and the citizens generally are proud. It is a two-story and basement and located in it are nine departments. The principal is Miss Alice G. Gale. Located in this building are the domestic science and

BRITISH VISITORS DELIGHTED WITH B. Prosperity Dawning In Maritimes, Trade Boards Informed

P. E. I. OUTLOOK IS BRIGHTEST IN YEARS, IS REPORT

Mail Order System Under Attack—Fisher Taxation Urged

CORNELL REPORTED AS TRAFFIC EXPERT

Local Freight Rate Reduction Urged as Mostly Needed

CHARLOTTETOWN, Aug. 26—An attack upon the system that permits mail order houses to monopolize the cash business, while local retailers have to carry the credit, and the expressed belief that prosperity was dawning in the Maritime Provinces, were features of the discussion this afternoon at the fourth annual meeting of the Associated Boards of Trade, held at Summerside.

J. O. Hyndman, Charlottetown, president of the organization, referring to business prospects said that bankers who were in a position to judge, had described the outlook in Prince Edward Island, as the brightest for many years.

MEETING STIRS INTEREST.

Interest was displayed in the meeting to be held in Charlottetown between Premiers of the three Maritime Provinces together with members of the cabinets and members of the Federal House of Commons.

MAIL ORDER BUSINESS.

Mail order business was causing the commercial enterprise of the Maritimes, said the president, and while he desired no restriction upon trade, he believed that local business houses had been discriminated against by having to pay Dominion and local taxes, whereas outside firms were exempt to now spent in the home shops, Maritime export provincial taxes. If the millions now spent in mail order houses had been spent in the home shops, Maritime merchants would be able to reduce prices and overhead costs, and employment would be provided for hundreds who now are forced to emigrate, he declared.

BELDING SPEAKS.

Maritime problems received consideration. At the second session which was held at the end of a banquet the chief speaker was A. M. Belding, of Saint John, who discussed Canadian problems in the light of his recent tour across Canada and reviewed the steps taken preliminary to the Maritime Conference at Charlottetown and the subsequent Canadian conference in the west.

Belding, who came to the island specially on the invitation of J. O. Hyndman, president of the Associated Boards, received a most sympathetic hearing and a unanimous standing vote of thanks moved by Mr. Hyndman, seconded by F. J. Rogers, who complimented the speaker on his clear and reasonable presentation of his case free from bitterness or recrimination.

Other speakers tonight were three of the federal members of parliament, Hon. John E. Sinclair, J. J. Hughes, A. E. McLean, Premier J. D. Stewart and Hon. J. H. Myers, Minister of Agriculture.

EXPERT APPOINTED.

The Premier announced that the freight traffic expert for the Maritime Provinces, Mr. Cornell, had been appointed and would begin work immediately. The establishment of a beet sugar industry for Prince Edward Island was referred to by A. E. McLean, M. P., who said he had correspondence with a firm that was willing to undertake if guaranteed 3,500 acres of beets.

Mr. Myers said that his department had distributed samples of beet seed to farmers this spring and samples of bean seed with a view of interesting the people in canning of green beans.

FREIGHT RATES TALKED.

The matter of freight rates was discussed by J. J. Hughes, M. P., and others, the statement being made that reduction of local rates would be even more beneficial than lower long-haul rates.

Hon. John E. Sinclair said that there was nothing the matter with the Maritimes and he believed individual and co-operative effort would solve the post-war problems. Resolutions passed tonight dealt mainly into local questions, including the need of better loading facilities for automobiles crossing on the ferry, the carrying of lights at night

REGINA, Sask., Aug. 26—Miss Florence Campbell, 38, a trained nurse who recently returned from China, where she served seven years in the Methodist Missionary service, was found dead in a garage at the home of W. J. Vancey, Grand Coulee, Sask., near here today.

The body was hanging from a rope. Recently she had been under the care of a Regina physician, who treated her for a nervous breakdown.

SOLUTION OF PROBLEM.

At the afternoon meeting there was an interesting discussion on outside mail order houses which were declared to work hardships to local merchants, the opinion being expressed that more modern business methods at home, co-operative mass buying, and consequent lower selling prices would help solve the problem. The taxation of mail order concerns was also advocated.

Members of the Farmers' Institutes and the Women's Institutes took part in the discussions.

BAXTER HOPES QUODDY PLAN IS FEASIBLE

Says N. B. Will Get Part of Power From Fundy Development

REITERATES STAND ON GRAND FALLS WORK

Premier-Designate Believes Hydro Market in Province is Good

MONTREAL, Aug. 26—Thorough investigation will be made into the soundness of the Grand Falls Power scheme in New Brunswick before the new government will permit further construction of the plant there, Premier-elect J. B. Baxter, of New Brunswick, stated here today.

Dr. Baxter said he would have to be satisfied that the estimate of cost would not be exceeded and that sufficient power could be sold to meet the cost of construction. "The days of speculative finance in New Brunswick are over," he said.

The Dominion Construction Company, to which the contract for the development was let by the present government, understands that the work will not be proceeded with at present, he said.

He believed there was a good market for power at low prices in New Brunswick, especially if more mills could be established in the province.

Dr. Baxter repeated his former statement that he would not support the export of power to the United States.

Mr. Baxter expressed great interest in the proposal of the Grand Falls Power and he hoped the scheme would proceed to open before Labor case New Brunswick would get a part of the power, although the scheme was of United States origin.

TAXATION INTOLERABLE.

"The people of the Maritimes are residing as the rest of Canada, what that the spending of money itself does not constitute the political policy and that the weight of taxation has become an intolerable burden."

The Opposition believed the support of thousands of Liberals who are dissatisfied with conditions, and that dissatisfaction pertaining to the Federal Government, said Mr. Baxter in an interview here this evening.

Mr. Baxter is in Montreal "on a holiday" and returns to Saint John tomorrow night.

BRAIN AND BRAUN EXPORT

"In the Maritime Provinces we have nearly a million people," continued Mr. Baxter. "We are not holding our own natural increase. It is all very well to say that our principal exports are lumber, coal, fish and potatoes, but there is a far greater export taking place daily, which is sapping the province of its most vital element. We are exporting brain and brawn in the persons of our young people, who have to go abroad in search of a living."

Mr. Baxter felt that if the Maritimes receive their share of attention from the Federal Government this condition would be improved. He pointed to excessive freight rates which were hampering trade.

The Maritimes people were not "quitters," he stated, and had no desire to escape the burdens of Confederation, but they wanted in return an opportunity for the legitimate development of their natural resources.

FOR OPENING OF SCHOOLS EARLY

Dr. W. S. Carter, Education Superintendent, Speaks of Objections

Overloaded Curriculum — Believes Most Parents Against Longer Vacation.

Dr. W. S. Carter, Chief Superintendent of Education in New Brunswick, who was in the city yesterday on his way to Fredericton, commented with approval upon the fact that the city schools will open before Labor Day this year. He said he was glad to see that Saint John was "coming to its senses." There was just one town in the province, St. Stephen, which had deferred the opening of their schools until after Labor Day this year.

Dr. Carter believed that the man who had said this was a "soft egg" was quite right so far as the education of children was concerned. There were protests against an "over-loaded" curriculum, much agitation against home study, and now great disturbance about the early opening of the schools.

SEES BETTER TEACHERS.

He said if the facts were realized there were 85 per cent. of the parents who were glad to have their children go back to school at the proper date of opening.

With reference to the number of students expected to attend the Provincial Normal School, Dr. Carter said that since the number had been limited to 80 there was keen competition among the applicants and scholastic records were made the determining factor in selection. He considered that a better trained body of teachers throughout the province. Of the 800 admitted to Normal School one-sixth are those taking third-class licenses, three-sixths taking second-class licenses and two-sixths taking first-class licenses.

Phone Men Hear of Technical Education

Round table discussions of technical subjects concluded the business part of the day's program. Golf matches, motoring and a theatre party this evening made up the social side of the day's activities.

OVERSEAS JOURNALISTS GIVE HEARTY PRAISE OF COUNTRY

Pleased By All-Provincial Menu at McKenna Luncheon; Seaboard Visioned Ranking Among Most Prosperous Parts of Empire

THAT the astonishment and delight which marked the enjoyment of the New Brunswick-produced bill of fare at the luncheon tendered British press representatives by J. D. McKenna, in the Admiral Beatty Hotel yesterday, was in keeping with the surprise and delight he had been experiencing as he journeyed through this province, was the remark made by J. F. Chapter, of the Westminster Gazette, in responding to the guest-toast on behalf of his party.

The British writer made it plain that such a varied menu of delicious viands produced within the confines of New Brunswick was a matter of amazement to him and failed with the wonderment English people as a whole would experience when they had the opportunity of eating this particular part of Canada as he was doing. Inferentially the speaker confessed that he had previously no idea of the resources and beauties of New Brunswick.

HOST MCKENNA'S WELCOME.

After the luncheon had been fully served, Host J. D. McKenna, president of the New Brunswick Publishing Company—Telegraph-Journal and Times-Star—proposed the health of the King, justly honored. Mr. McKenna then welcomed the visiting Britishers and characterized it as a unique experience in his career in the Maritime Provinces that a distinguished party of Old Countrymen should really discover there is such a place as the Maritime Provinces of Canada. This mild irony elicited a hearty laugh.

Thanks were due to J. Harry Smith, of the C. P. R. publicity department, for arranging the visit of the newsmen and to the speaker's privilege to co-operate in the mapping out of his eastern itinerary.

SEES MANY CHANGES.

Mr. Chapter said he had visited Canada fourteen years ago, and upon this his second visit, he saw great and varied improvements. One of these changes he observed was a tendency to eliminate divisional fences, hedges and walls which separated one neighbor from another. To him the elimination of neighborhood boundaries was in the nature of a promise for better times. It was his hope that any fences or hedges that existed between Canada and the Motherland would soon be removed and new understandings would take their place.

"We have already learned," said the speaker, "that there are many things about us English that you do not understand, and from these impressions we have received we shall surely be able to relate truthfully to our folks at home something about Canada and its people. England and Canada have joint interests and we are earnestly trying to study them. If we were only talking of the vast country of the Dominion, we would have to reconstruct our department of adjectives. However, we must see the whole picture and then place the adjectives in their proper order."

DR. TAYLOR'S TOAST.

It was Dr. F. R. Taylor, K. C., who formally tendered the toast to the distinguished party. In an engaging five-minute speech he led the visitors through a resume of the history of Saint John and New Brunswick's place in the British Empire, at the time when the Empire was in the making. He referred to the settlement of Nova Scotia by the Scotch about 800 years ago—an important link in empire—and sketched the early struggles of the founders of Saint John during the French occupation, coloring his remarks with high-lighted references to the river and open battles of LaFour and Acadia on way to Saint John preceding British occupation.

For these reasons, indeed, he said, Saint John, New Brunswick, was entitled to the consideration of loyal British visitors, since they were the oldest of Crown possessions in this part of the world and had been the burden-bearers and producers so essential to the upbuilding of Canada as a whole.

FERTILE COUNTRY.

Doubtless the visitors in proceeding through New Brunswick had seen the fertile expanses of the upper reaches of the Saint John River, the wonderful agricultural resources of Carleton county; comfortable home properties, which conditions, he said, obtained right down through the province and that matter throughout the three Maritime Provinces. This was an assurance that after the depression now affecting some of our industries, this seaboard part of Canada would be ranking with the most prosperous in the whole far-flung field of our Empire.

Dr. Taylor was greatly pleased to propose the health of the British newspapermen for he asked, was it not they after all who moulded the public opinion of the homeland? "It is the newspapers to which we must look for preservation of the integrity of the British Empire and the upbuilding and maintenance of its greatness," he declared.

MR. CHAPTER'S REPLY.

When Mr. Chapters arose to respond to the toast he was loudly acclaimed, a compliment for which he expressed due gratitude, although, he explained, he was merely a roter and not selected to respond in any order of merit. The English party was speech-making in turn and it was his pleasure to address the happy luncheon party on this occasion. The Westminster Gazette writer extended heartfelt thanks on behalf of himself and colleagues for the elaborate entertainment provided and then paid New Brunswick the striking compliment referred to in the opening paragraph.

CANADA A MOVING PICTURE.

Mr. Chapter felt that upon returning to England he would look at Canada in retrospect. Indeed our vast Dominion would pass through his memory as a delightful moving picture. He had come to Canada to hear, to see, and, he hoped, to understand.

"We of England," he said, "and you of Canada represent a sort of Imperial equation—you on the one side and we on the other, and the X, or unknown quantity, is the question. 'What does the future hold for us?' As we traveling journalists come to your country you are, as it were, stepping over the news of Canada. We propose to go inside, see what kind of people live here; to find out, if possible, what their prospects are—in this world at any rate."

"Now, personally," continued the speaker, "I should very much like to find out more about the man behind such a meal as we have eaten, to know more of the productivity of the country and its possibilities."

PLAYGROUNDS AT ST. PETER'S CLOSE

Good Programme of Sports in North End—Choir For Exhibition Rehearses.

A field day of sports was held yesterday afternoon to mark the closing of St. Peter's playgrounds for the season. Great crowds of children and many grown-ups attended and the event was a splendid success. Rev. James Moran, C. S. S. R., rector of St. Peter's, directed the sports and was assisted by the playground supervisor, Miss Genevieve Dwyer, and members of the executive of the Saint John north sub-division of the Catholic Women's League. The program included baseball, tennis, other games, running races, potato races and bicycle races. The winners in the different events were awarded suitable prizes.

EXHIBITION CHOR SINGS.

The playgrounds have had a successful season and on some days there have been as many as 200 children present. Under the direction of Miss Dwyer the girls employed their time in handicraft work, chiefly in making dainty garments or household articles for a hope chest. A number of these are displayed in the window of J. Marcus, Ltd., in Dock street. The letting is specially attractive and the fact that much of it is the work of children of nine and ten years of age is something to marvel at.

In the evening there was a large attendance at the garden party on the grounds and the choir of 200 voices which will give free concerts at the exhibition held a special rehearsal under the direction of Father Moran.

There were representatives present from nearly all the chapters in the province.

C. N. R. TO OPERATE ELECTRIC COACHES

To Carry Baggage and Passengers—Will Generate Own Power.

MONTREAL, Aug. 26.—Passenger carrying cars, operated by electricity, developed by a generator installed within the body of the car, will be put into service on certain lines of the central region of the Canadian National Railways within a few days.

Known as the Diesel-Electric Car, this type of car is a development of an entirely new development in motive power and brings to a successful close one of the most interesting chapters in the romantic story of the evolution of rail transportation in North America.

Two types of these cars have been designed. One has a body with an over-all length of 60 feet, set on two four wheel trucks. This car can pull a trailer when desired. The second and larger type is known as the articulated car. It consists of two bodies, with a total over-all length of 102 feet, set on three four-wheel trucks.

The rear end of one and the forward end of the other body are attached to the centre truck. The entrance between cars is protected by a canvas cover in much the same fashion as the vestibule ends of the passenger cars on steam trains.

Both the small and the articulated cars are built to carry passenger, express and baggage. The passenger carrying capacity of the smaller car is 66, of which 18 can be accommodated in seats in the baggage end. The articulated car can carry 126 passengers, of which 88 can be accommodated in the baggage end.

$3,000 DAMAGE IN FIRE AT WELSFORD

Dwelling and Outbuildings Occupied by Saint John Man Destroyed.

WELSFORD, N.B., Aug. 26.—Fire this evening totally destroyed the two-story dwelling, woodhouse and shed belonging to the estate of the late Elizabeth Woods. The house was occupied by James McKinney of H. M. customs department, Saint John, and his family. The origin of the fire was unknown but it started in the inside of the house and had gained so much headway when discovered that all hope of saving the building was abandoned and the fire-fighters turned their attention to getting out the furniture.

The fire gained rapidly, however, and it was possible to save only the piano and a few other pieces of furniture. A barn nearby escaped. The damage is estimated at between $8,000 and $4,000 and is only partly covered by insurance. The furniture loss is also partly covered.

Drunkenness Shows Increase in Britain

LONDON, Aug. 26.—Statistics of the convictions for drunkenness in England and Wales for the year, show a slight increase over the previous year, although in London there has been a decrease.

Nearly 84 per cent of the total number 79,082, were males. There were 13 convictions for drunkenness per 100,000 of population during the past year, which represents less than half the pre-war aggregate. The increase in the number of convictions is due to increased drinking of methylated spirits, this being accounted for largely by the London portion of the statistics.

Hottest August Day Here In Eight Years Sends Mercury Up to The 84-Degree Mark

THE hottest August day since Aug. 7, 1917, was yesterday, so the records at the Meteorological Observatory showed. D. L. Hutchinson, director, said that the thermometer had registered 84 degrees, the same temperature as that reached in August eight years ago. For nearly three hours in the afternoon the mercury was hovering in the altitudes above the 80 mark and by 10 o'clock at night had only slid down to 64 degrees.

By that hour there was a fresh northwest breeze blowing and the air was invigorating once more.

RANGE WAS 30 DEGREES

The heat of yesterday could in no way compare with the sultriness and oppressiveness of the early June day this year when all records were smashed and a temperature of 89 was experienced. At the peak point of 84 yesterday there was still a freshness in the lazy wind and citizens could go about their business without too great discomfort.

The places which have for stock in trade cool drinks and frozen delicacies did a thriving business and the bathing places proved an irresistible attraction.

There was considerable variation in the temperature since the lowest point was 55 degrees, in the early morning, and the mercury had to do some swift climbing in making the 30 degree range.

Fire Is Fought On Loch Lomond Road

As the wind fanned the embers of brush fires by the roadside along the Loch Lomond road last night the flames leaped out and fire which looked dangerous was running towards the woods within a few seconds. Earlier in the day men working in the road had set fire to piles of brush gathered together at intervals along a stretch of about a quarter of a mile. The fires were thought to be out but when the wind got up at midnight the flames were quickly started.

Word of the danger was sent into the city and J. E. Keane, contractor for work on the roads, took his full crew of about 90 men to fight the fire. It was under control within a short time and was practically all out by 11 o'clock. Some brush was burned but no great damage was done.

ACID STOMACH IS DANGEROUS

Sufferers From Indigestion or Stomach Trouble CUT THIS OUT

"Stomach trouble, dyspepsia, indigestion, sourness, gas, heartburn, food fermentation, etc., are caused nine times in ten by chronic acid stomach," says a well known authority.

Burning hydrochloric acid develops in the stomach at an alarming rate. The acid irritates and inflames the delicate stomach lining and often leads to gastritis accompanied by dangerous stomach ulcers. Don't dose an acid stomach with pepper or artificial digestants that only give temporary relief from pain by driving the sour, fermenting food out of the stomach into the intestine.

Instead, neutralize or sweeten your acid stomach after meals with a little hot water and Blaudart Magnesia and not only will the pain in the stomach be relieved but the food will be digested naturally. There is nothing better than Blaudart Magnesia to sweeten and settle an acid stomach. It soaks up the harmful excess acid like a sponge or blotting paper and your stomach acts and feels fine in just a few minutes. Blaudart Magnesia can be obtained from any reliable druggist in either powder or tablet form. It is safe, reliable, easy and pleasant to use. It is a laxative and is not at all expensive.

WOMEN ORGANIZE IN AID OF ORPHANS

Members of Societies Are Allied Departments For October Fair.

The preliminary organization of the women's committees for the fair to be held during the first two weeks in October in aid of the New Brunswick Protestant Orphanage was effected at an enthusiastic and well attended meeting yesterday afternoon in the Orange Hall, Gormain street. The women entered into the plans with alacrity and much zeal.

The Pythian Sisters members were assigned the home cooking and confectionery booth. The Loyal True Blue members undertook to have charge of the ice cream booth. The members of the Loyal Orange Benevolent Association arranged to conduct the country store. The King's Daughters, uniting with the Women's Christian Temperance Union, will have charge of the fancy work and apron booth and the Monday Night Club will conduct a baby booth. There are several other booths to be arranged for later.

William M. Campbell, chairman, and J. E. Arthur, secretary of the general committee of the fair, outlined the plans.

Packers Insist Police Be Sent From Ottawa to Stop Action

Complainants Refuse to Give Specific Instances of Law-breaking

OTTAWA, Aug. 26.—Revival of the question of the Federal Government employing its police to enforce the lobster fishing regulations in Northern New Brunswick and in Prince Edward Island has come with a number of urgent representations to the Department of Marine and Fisheries in the last ten days from the Maritime Manufacturers Association, whose executive met a few days ago at Amherst.

In telegrams and letters they are urging the department again to employ men of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police to investigate and prosecute alleged violations of the lobster regulations by fishermen. They declare that there continues to be a flagrant case of illegal fishing and canning of lobsters and the Prince Edward Island canners protest vigorously against granting the request of the fishermen for an extension of the lobster season.

The canners, however, have declined to furnish this specific evidence and have asked the Government to proceed to investigate and prosecute on its own account. What action will finally be taken has yet to be determined.

THAT FRESH FROM THE GARDEN TASTE

The fruits and vegetables used in the 57 Varieties grow in all parts of the world—wherever sun and soil combine to produce the best.

Nearby to these gardens and orchards are Heinz Kitchens, insuring that "fresh from the garden" flavor of every variety bearing the name Heinz.

Firm, sun-ripened tomatoes find themselves transformed into delicious Ketchup while their vine freshness is upon them. Rosy apples are pressed for cider vinegar while in their full tree-vigor and flavor. Pickles are salted while tender and garden-crisp.

And so with the rest of the 57—garden freshness and flavor distinguishing all.

Planted by Heinz, from seed developed by Heinz—grown under Heinz supervision—and then prepared in kitchens that are the pride of the whole world—is it any wonder that all of the 57 Varieties are so truly and uniformly good?

Gibbard Solid Walnut

On Request, We Repeat The "One" Price Offer

SO successful were we in marketing some special Gibbard suites on the ONE price system last spring—and we have had so many requests to repeat the offer—that we have arranged with a number of leading furniture stores in Ontario and Quebec to sell our newest Queen Anne Bedroom Suite at ONE cash price.

One Cash Price $247 (Slightly Extra for Credit)

This price, which is very moderate, is for the double bed, dresser, chiffonette and vanity. The bench, chairs, night table and toilet are extra. The price on this suite is no greater, in some cases less, than you would have to pay for a suite of "part" walnut. And this suite is SOLID WALNUT.

The same care has been taken in building and finishing this suite as in other Gibbard Suites. It is a beauty—a prize worth securing.

It is of genuine Solid Walnut—solid walnut exteriors, solid walnut posts, solid walnut case rails, and so on. It carries the Gibbard Guarantee tag—also a Crimson Price Tag with the prices in plain figures.

The sketch of this suite does not do justice to the beauty of the walnut wood, or to the perfection of the finish, the durability of which is guaranteed.

Only a limited number of this handsome suite have been built. Act promptly if you desire one. The suite can be obtained in either our standard walnut color or French Walnut. If this suite is not procurable in your locality, write us, giving your dealer's name, and we will arrange to have you supplied.

HIGH COMMISSIONER OPENS MANUFACTURERS LIFE BLDG.

Insurance Company Occupies Exclusively Own 6-Story Building

History Since Its Inception in 1887 Has Been One of Continuous Growth

Yesterday afternoon witnessed the official opening...

The interesting ceremony marked the culmination of one era in the Company's history...

The history of the Manufacturers Life is one of growth...

Probably the most outstanding of these is Sir John A. Macdonald...

Just twenty years after Confederation had been consummated...

To launch a new life insurance company is no easy task...

On Aug. 19, 1887, the Company issued its first policy...

Cardinal Principles At this point it is important to note the cardinal principles...

(1) To practice more than ordinary discrimination in selecting risks.

(2) To secure very careful and judicious investment of funds.

(3) To incorporate in their policies every attractive feature consistent with good practice.

(4) To use every desirable means of widening the area of the Company's usefulness...

(5) To keep the cost of doing business within the approved ratio to the volume of business secured.

(6) To carefully conserve the business secured and keep it in force.

As the Company grew, the benefits of these principles became apparent.

Like all Canadian Life Companies, the Manufacturers Life is under close Government supervision.

In the matter of improving policy contracts, the Manufacturers Life has always been a leader...

Most important of all, perhaps, from the policyholder's standpoint, is the Company's rule of prompt payment of claims.

The securing of new business, the cost of getting it, and its conservation once it is on the books, has always been epidemics, earthquakes and similar catastrophes is brought down to the irreducible minimum.

From a national viewpoint, the writing of insurance abroad is an excellent one.

When the last decade of the 19th century opened, the Manufacturers Life had thrown off its swaddling clothes and was striding ahead at a steadily increasing pace.

The total amount of business in force at the end of 1920 amounted to $6,800,000, under four thousand and seven policies.

Remarkable as these figures appear, at the time, they seem very small by contrast with those of today.

In 1924, the Manufacturers Life wrote almost as much new insurance in one month as the total in force equalled in 1894.

Geo. Gooderham Becomes President. The death of Sir John A. Macdonald in 1891 threw a shadow over the entire Dominion.

Succeeding Sir John A. Macdonald, Mr. George Gooderham, President of the Bank of Toronto, a prominent financier and one of Canada's wealthiest men, was elected to the Presidency.

Mr. Gooderham was connected with many of the country's best known industries, and took a keen interest in the Company.

FIGURES SHOW STEADY GROWTH FOR YEARS

Many Interesting Figures in Thirty-eight Years' History

SPLENDID PROGRESS Great Increases Revealed By Each Succeeding Annual Statement

When one realizes that it is only 38 years since the Manufacturers Life wrote its first policy...

The growth in insurance in force, from nothing to over $10,000,000, touched on elsewhere on this page...

At the end of the first year of business the Company had assets amounting to $155,877.

Following the cessation of hostilities the Company withdrew back to its original position in the Home Office and Field Office of the staff who so ably served their country.

Although the war years were very trying to life insurance companies, the Manufacturers Life was not only able to continue its business but to expand it.

Life insurance has become an ideal method of making provision for one's own future, as well as that of dependents...

The Company's income has, of course, grown rapidly with its business. The income from premiums has increased with the ever-growing volume of new insurance...

HAS OCCUPIED SEVEN HOMES IN 38 YEARS

Manufacturers Life Has Needed Larger Offices Frequently

The new Manufacturers Life Building is not only in architecture an outstanding feature of one of Toronto's most important streets...

The location was selected with that in mind. The Manufacturers Life is the first big company to leave the congested downtown financial district for the better surroundings farther north.

From the standpoint of air and quiet, it is much more convenient to the homes of the staff.

The land for the building was purchased from the Toronto Board of Education. It has a frontage of 300 feet on Bloor street...

The building itself is one of Toronto's finest examples of classic architecture. It is 136 feet in length and 45ft. in width...

In 1898 the Head Office was again moved—this time to large quarters in the McKinnon Building on Melinda Street.

For fourteen years these offices sufficed. But in 1910 more room became imperative. The Company had purchased the Lavoie Building at King and Yonge Streets...

But in 1916 another move was necessary—this time to the Dominion Bank Building on the opposite corner of King and Yonge Streets.

Starting with one entire floor, the Company gradually acquired more and more space until three floors were occupied when the final move was made this year to the new Head Office building on Bloor Street.

WORLD-WIDE BUSINESS HAS MANY BRANCHES

World-wide Nature of Organization Shown By Foreign Agencies

"EXPORTING" INSURANCE 41 Countries Contribute Their Share of Great Volume of Business

Many Canadians do not realize that Canada has an important "export" business in other things besides the products of factory and farm.

Life insurance is one of these. The Manufacturers Life does business in many foreign countries. And it is not a small business.

Among the leading agencies every month are always some of these foreign offices.

The Company began its foreign business in 1893 in Bermuda. For some time extension was confined to the West Indies and Spanish America.

Grenada and Jamaica were opened in 1898 in Bermuda. For some time extension was confined to the West Indies and Spanish America.

Tobago, Haiti, 1897 not only saw an extension of business to the West Indies and Spanish America but the opening of British Honduras and Costa Rica.

Witnessed the Company's first venture into the Orient. Business was written this year in Shanghai and other Chinese ports. A year later the Empire of Japan was opened. Agencies were established in the Straits Settlements and India in 1901, and in the Philippine Islands in 1902.

In 1903 the Company commenced business in the United States, with a branch office in Detroit.

Today the Company is licensed to do business in eight States, which have been opened up from time to time during the last sixteen years.

Following Michigan, Pennsylvania was entered in 1908, Illinois in 1909, Ohio in 1910 and at the first of the present year the States of Oregon and Washington were opened.

In 1914 the Company commenced business in South Africa, in the Transvaal and in Cape Colony.

Modern Gypsy Quits Wagon; Tours Country In Automobile

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Aug. 27.—No more does the Gypsy, like the Arab, pack up his tent and staid away, for the Gypsy of today is as modern as the Flapper and the Sheik.

For weeks the Gypsy now-a-days prepares to move he ropes up his luggage, drops the slatted doors on his country and other livestock, bundles up his bed-clothing, rolls up his tent, rounds up the numerous rollicking children and then—chugs away in a high-powered automobile.

And he does not travel in the lowly driver. He uses a high-priced car or often three or four, depending on the number in the tribe. Mudspattered, perhaps scaly and bedraggled as to paint, the car may be, but the motor is shining and purring a tune that bespeaks the well-kept engine. Equipped with spot lights, windshield wipers, and all of the newest in appliances, the caravan rolls along through cities and villages, until a likely spot for the camp is found.

ATHLETICS AND SENATORS WITHOUT DEPENDABLE PITCHERS

HURLERS UNABLE TO STOP HEAVY BLAST OF HITS

The Leaders in Pennant Race Have Bad Week

NEW YORK, Aug. 27.—The west is giving out trouble in equal portions to the American league champion candidates—Washington and Philadelphia. Victims of three straight defeats, the Athletics and Senators are without a dependable pitcher.

Use Five Twirlers. The St. Louis Browns, whose bludgeons stopped the Philadelphia pennant drive last week, turned their batting thunder on Washington yesterday.

The Athletics have dropped seven of their nine western games, but are still only one game behind Washington.

The Pittsburgh Pirates, now generally considered as the next National League champions, won back half of the full game which they lost Tuesday to the Giants.

Irish Meusel's 18th circuit clout of the season, in the eighth, gave the Giants the opener, 6 to 5, while the second game went 18 frames before the visitors got past over the winning run, 2 to 1.

The Robins regained fourth place from the Cardinals by beating them, 4 to 2, Philadelphia's 20 hits defeated the Cubs, 12 to 9, and Chicago dropped to seventh place.

Woman To Match Skill Against Foremost Racing Motorboat Pilots

Along The Sport Trail

IT MUST BE EVIDENT to all close followers of baseball that some of the greatest stars the game ever boasted are passing. Chief among these is the erstwhile "King of Swat," the mighty Babe Ruth.

THE INTEREST manifested in the first of a series of three slugsy races being held under the auspices of the R. K. Y. C. suggests well for a big revival in this aquatic sport.

THE COMING SERIES between the Water Department and Sussex to decide the baseball championship of this section of the province should create considerable interest in local circles.

FANS HERE were rather surprised to hear of Johnny Brown's victory over Roy Chisholm.

HORSEMEN throughout the Maritime Provinces will sympathize with Fred King in the loss of his pacer, Patchen King, which had to be shot Tuesday evening after he broke a leg at Moospath park.

Star Trio Put Reds In Running

In the last few weeks of play the Cincinnati Reds have jumped into the pennant-contender class in the National League.

From fifth place they have leaped to within fairly close reach of the Pirates and Giants, pace-setters since early in the chase, over a short stretch.

Much of the success of the Hendrick combination has been due to the stellar pitching of Luque, Donohue, and Rixey. They have borne the brunt of the pitching assignments, and have been turning in victories far too often for the hopes of New York and Pirate fans.

All of which brings up the question: Can they emulate the sensational work of the Boston Braves' great triumvirate, composed of James, Rudolph and Tyler, back in 1914?

It will be recalled that in that never-to-be-forgotten campaign the Braves jumped from a cellar berth early in July to a pennant and world championship. The feat earned the appellation of "baseball's miracle team." It was justly deserved.

COAL SUBSIDY CRITICIZED IN OLD COUNTRY

MINERS' LEADERS PRAISE BALDWIN

News Topics of Interest in Correspondence From London

Correspondence of The Times-Star. LONDON, Aug. 26.—Business people are still keenly criticizing, not only the policy, but still more the form of the Government's coal subsidy. As to the policy of a subsidy, the cabinet are less attacked than the coal owners. Business men contend that with really up-to-date methods and efficient management the coal industry ought to afford a decent wage to the miners, and reports that some owners had accumulated huge dumps of coal in anticipation of a stoppage and a big rise in prices create a bad impression. It was this action that really caused the railway and transport unions to declare solidarity for the miners. As to details of the subsidy, the main criticism is that the taxpayers' money will go to wealthy as well as impoverished pits, and that what was officially termed a wages subvention looks like a profits donation. These criticisms are absolutely non-political.

LABOR MEN AND PREMIER.

Whatever others may say about things, one fact is noteworthy in the recent coal negotiations. All the Labor leaders who met him personally speak in glowing terms about Mr. Baldwin. This applies even to those extremists who come within the Red category. What seems most to have impressed them so favorably is Mr. Baldwin's complete outspoken frankness and absence of "side". They retained an impression of honest sincerity on the Prime Minister's part, of sympathetic understanding, and an earnest desire to avoid anything resembling political trickiness. In future negotiations this strong impression may be a valuable asset to the cabinet.

A BIG THREE.

Whatever scepticism the public mind may entertain from past experience about the practical results of the Government's new Credits Act Commission, there need be none about the capacity of the Big Three who compose it. Lords Colwyn, Chalmers, and Bradbury are a most impressive trio, combining immense practical business knowledge with extremely varied official experience. Lord Colwyn, the chairman, has huge business activities, covering cotton, rubber, railways, banks and other commercial concerns, besides being an old hand on public commissions. Lord Chalmers fought his way to the control of the treasury by sheer merit, after winning access at competitive examination. He is a distinguished Oxonian, former Oxford, and during the war was Governor of Ceylon. Lord Bradbury owns a household name, and showed his courage as well as his capacity on the Reparations Commission.

GERMANY'S SHIPPING CRISIS.

The city is watching with considerable anxiety the present position of the German shipping industry, which is short of money, and unable to meet its obligations. Last week one firm of solicitors arrested eight German ships in different world ports on account of bunkers and fuel oil which had not been paid for. It is now only too clear that the low-priced contracts accepted by German shippers last year were the result of a desperate policy to keep the yards open even at a heavy loss. Now not even this can be done, and

Critics Ridicule Modernized Presentation of Hamlet

LONDON, Aug. 26.—The liveliest criticism of the presentation of Hamlet in the Kingsway Theatre here last night with Cecil Hardwicke as Hamlet and the other characters wearing modern dress is given by the Yorkshire Post. "As Mark Twain said of Wagner's music," says the Post, "it was not nearly so bad as it sounded." "Polonius in a long frock coat and soapy manner suggested a highly superior shop-walker." "Claudius, taking a whiskey-and-soda before kneeling down to say his

Princess of Wales is Good Enough for Me"

MR. HARDY'S "TESS." One London newspaper describes Miss Gwen Frangon Davies, a beautiful young actress selected to play the title-role in the forthcoming dramatization of Thomas Hardy's "Tess" as "English"! Wales must be much less susceptible than Scotland if this slight is permitted to pass unrebuked ex cathedra. Miss Frangon Davies is petite, with a fascinating Celtic beauty and a graceful carriage, and, more important still even in stage equipment, is an actress of real intelligence and sympathy and great range of emotional expression. As Cleopatra in the Birmingham Repertory Company's West End production of Mr. Shaw's "Caesar and Cleopatra," she acted superbly, and set quite a controversy going by wearing a distinctly carryotig wig. She is studying her new part down in the Hardy country, as Mr. Hardy's guest, and the poet-novelist will certainly find the youthful actress an appreciative and apt student.

RAYMOND COULSON.

The tragic death of Raymond Coulson, vanquished after a gallant struggle by constant ill health, robs Fleet street of one of its best men. His father was formerly well known to both Manchester and London journalists, and his younger brother, Leslie, author of "From An Outpost," fell as a sergeant in the London of the Somme. Raymond was equally gifted as writer and painter, but one of the most charming of companions, had a restless quest of adventure. Ballooning, flying, unconventional travel, yachting, and soldiering—he tried them all, and knew the world from the Kyber Pass to Galway. In 1914, with a straw hat and cane as luggage, he crossed over to Belgium as war correspondent, and had some thrilling experiences. "Once his car only just got him away from German snipers, he and his boat left Ostend pier, Belgium, and he had given up his parliamentary work, and almost packed up for permanent residence in the South of France.

MR. SHAW'S LITTLE JOKE.

One of the notable achievements of American journalism during the celebrated Monkeyville trial, as the Tennessee Dadaist controversy was dubbed, was an article from G. B. Shaw, who unmercifully flayed the late Mr. Bryan's arguments as prosecuting counsel. Mr. Shaw was asked by the American syndicate's agent to write the article, told that he would have an audience of 20,000,000 readers, and requested to name his own fee. Mr. Shaw replied that Americans were not nearly so cute as he had thought. If he had been asked how much he would pay to be given the privilege of talking to twenty million Americans, he would most certainly have said $500. But since they insisted on paying him well, he would compassion their commercial ineptitude and knock off $50. He was paid $240 for his article.

GUIDE FOR AVIATORS IS NEW INVENTION

Radio Beacon is Expected to Solve Difficulties of Steering Safely.

DAYTON, O., Aug. 27.—One of the most difficult problems confronting aviators—that of steering correctly—may be solved in a new invention developed by the engineering division of the United States Air Service at McCook field here.

The solution is believed to have been reached, partially at least, through the development of a radio beacon. The inventor is Captain W. H. Murphy, of the United States Signal Corps. The beacon has been installed at Monmouth, and is ready for immediate service for the guidance of fliers jetting that city and Chicago.

The theory of the radio beacon is simple. A directional antenna is erected on the broadcasting station. Two signals are sent out on slightly varying directions. One signal follows a course slightly to the right of the aircraft's route. The other goes slightly to the left.

Half way between these courses the signals merge into one. When the flier hears the latter signal he knows he is on the right course.

MISERABLE AND ALWAYS IN PAIN

Lydia E. Finkham's Vegetable Compound a Dependable Help to Mothers

Port Greville, N. S.—"I took your medicine for a terrible pain in my side and for weakness and headaches. I seemed to float all over, too, and my feet and hands were the worst. I am the mother of four children and I am nursing my baby—the first one of four I could nurse and took Lydia E. Finkham's Vegetable Compound before the baby's birth, so you can see how much it helped me. I cannot praise it too highly for what it has done for me. I took all kinds of medicine, but the Vegetable Compound is the only one that has helped me for any length of time. I recommend it to any one with troubles like mine and you may use my letter for a testimonial."—Mrs. ROBERT MCQUILLAN, Port Greville, Nova Scotia.

Before and after childbirth the mother will find Lydia E. Finkham's Vegetable Compound a blessing.

Many, many letters are received giving the same sort of experience as is given in this letter. But only the mother benefited, but the child is good result pass on to the child.

No harmful drugs are used in the preparation of this medicine—just roots and herbs—and it can be taken in safety by the nursing mother.

98 out of every 100 women reported benefit from it since in a recent canvass among women users of this medicine.

GLASS SNAKES

Origin of the story of glass, or jointed snakes lies in the fact that there is a legless lizard, which looks like, but is not a snake, which has a very brittle tail. Frequently pieces of the tail are broken off and lost. While the lizard can not rejoin its broken tail, it can and does grow a new tail.

SAILINGS WILL BE FORTNIGHTLY

Manchester Line Increases Summer Service to Saint John

Two Recently Launched Steamships are to be Placed on This Route

The Manchester Line is increasing its summer service to this port from sailing every three weeks to a fortnightly one. The first steamship under the changed schedule—the Manchester Exchange—is already en route here from Manchester and is due on Wednesday. In addition the line is placing two of its brand new steamers on the route.

MAIDEN VOYAGE.
The Manchester Citizen, which is to leave Manchester on Sept. 5 for Saint John, will be on her maiden voyage. The Manchester Commerce, which will start on this service on Oct. 3, is a sister ship and has made only one voyage, a trip to Montreal.

Both these steamships are of the medium-sized up-to-date type of freighters. They were built this year at Haverton-on-Tees. They are 3,065 tons net and 5,110 tons gross register. They have a cruising speed of 12 knots.

This summer service is direct from Manchester to Saint John and back to Manchester via Philadelphia and other United States ports. The addition of these two new steamers enables the fortnightly service to be maintained.

TRADE GROWTH.
The fact that the Canadian trade is increasing is also reported from the fact that the Furness Line has withdrawn the steamers Wheatmore and Balenore, two large, fast freighters from the Liverpool-Philadelphia trade and placed them on the London-Montreal service. This makes five freighters maintaining this run. The others are Cornish Point, Ariano and Comino.

PROMINENT WEST END CITIZEN DEAD

Alexander Wilson, proprietor of the Western House, West Saint John, a well-known and popular citizen, died last evening after a serious illness extending over two months. He was a native of this city and was 75 years of age. After completing his education in local schools he took up the study of engineering and for several years was engineer of the harbor ferry. He then accepted a position as engineer on one of the Standard Oil liners. Later he located in Charleston, South Carolina, and resided there for several years. He returned to Saint John near the end of 1909 and took over the management of the Western House from his mother-in-law, the late Mrs. Mary Quinlan. Fifteen years ago infection developed in one of his legs and amputation was found necessary. He continued his activities despite this handicap until two years ago when the other leg also had to be amputated.

Mr. Wilson is survived by two sons and three daughters. Two of his grand children, his sons are Ronald A. of Boston, and Alexander Wilson, at present manager of the Western House. His daughters are, Mrs. George E. Nugent of this city, Mrs. John A. Barry of West Saint John, wife of the late Barry of the County Court. The funeral will be held on Saturday morning.

Mr. Wilson was a man of sterling character and enjoyed the respect and esteem of a wide circle of friends who will regret to learn of his death.
