JUNE OR JULY FOR ELECTION IN MANITOBA

Meanwhile Norris is to Carry on Business of Province.

Lieutenant Governor Opposes Idea of Group Government—Necessary Supply to be Voted and Essential Legislation Arranged.

(Canadian Press)

Winnipeg, March 21.—The Norris government, which resigned on Friday following passage of the Talbot vote of ensure resolution will remain in office until necessary supply is voted by the legislature and legislation considered essential in the interests of the province is enacted. This course was urged by the lieutenant-governor Sir James Aikens in a long statement which was raised by Premier Norris at a session of the house last night and was approved by the members of the Independent Farmer, Labor and Conservative groups. The only opponent was Joseph Bernier of St. James, who claims to be the leader of a straight independent party consisting of three. Mr. Bernier favored a provisional government representing opposition groups, saying this was a good time to try out group government.

This morning representatives of the groups, including the government group conferred with the object of arranging a legislative programme calculated to meet with the acceptance of the majority in the legislature. It is regarded as probable that the business to be conducted will keep the house in session till the end of the month, when the legislature will be dissolved with a general election set for the end of June or early in July. In his letter the lieutenant-governor expressed himself in unmistakable terms against the formation of a provisional government, composed of members of opposition groups, and his contentions in this respect were challenged by F. J. Dixon, leader of the Labor group and by Mr. Bernier. "It is not evident," stated the lieutenant-governor, "that if the leader of any of these groups were called upon to assume government, he would be able to appeal to them. I am satisfied from the contentions, the disputes and the conflicting views of the several groups or parties in the assembly that it is not only improbable but practically impossible for them to work together in harmony or to form an administration strong and enduring or which would efficiently and beneficially carry on His Majesty's government in Manitoba."

Ceremony at Waterloo Station Today Not Attended by His Majesty.

London, March 21.—King George will be no anxiety, but it was not thought prudent that he expose himself to the cold winds at the station.

A lofty arch at the entrance bears the names of France, Belgium, Mesopotamia, the North Sea, and other regions where there was decisive fighting.

DENIES STATEMENT ATTRIBUTED TO HIM BY BORAH

New York, March 21.—Paul D. Cravath last night issued a statement denying that he ever had said, as Senator Borah quoted him in the senate, that there was an "unwritten agreement" that the U. S. and Great Britain should act together in an emergency in the Pacific. "There is not the remotest foundation for the statement reported to have been made by Senator Borah in the senate, in which my name was used. I cannot make my denial too strong," he said.

PRINCE AT COLOMBO

Colombo, March 21.—The British battleship Renown, with the Prince of Wales aboard, arrived here this morning.

USE WIRELESS IN HUNTING DOWN RUNNERS

Washington, March 21.—Run runners along the Canadian border will be hunted by wireless according to advices received yesterday by Commissioner Haynes from Colonel R. C. Vandercreek, head of the Michigan department of public safety. A system of wireless communication, he said, will be installed along the length of the Canadian-Michigan border as a part of the concerted campaign by U. S. and Canadian officials against the illicit importation of liquor into this country.

IN PARLIAMENT

Speakers Touch on Variety of Subjects in Federal House Discussion.

Ottawa, March 21.—(Canadian Press)—In the House of Commons the debate on the address was continued by William Irvine (Labor, Calgary East) who said that the government today seemed to want to mould men to itself rather than be moulded by them. The premier had said that he invited Progressives into his cabinet, but it was on condition that they become Liberals. The system tended to drive Labor members into a camp of the government or of the opposition. Labor might be forced to differ from the government on matters of principle and this difference might result in the defeat of the government and its consequent resignation. This system, he declared, to be wrong. The defeat of the government should not necessarily follow the defeat of a government measure. Mr. Irvine suggested a committee composed of representatives of retail trades, manufacturers, labor and agriculturalists to investigate the trades system.

J. J. Hughes, Liberal, Kings, P. E. I., said that the idea of bringing immigrants to Canada to take up land was being favorably received but it would be better to improve conditions so that those now on the land would stay there. He said Prince Edward Island's markets had been ruined by the late government. He urged the government to cease its methods of endeavoring to get income tax cut out if the farmers, declaring that this tax in respect to farmers was intolerable and foolish.

H. H. Stevens, (Conservative, Vancouver Centre) declared that the Conservatives stood for the inauguration of a voluntary wheat pool system. While not wishing to interfere with the powers of the railway commission, he thought parliament might well deliberate on the advisability of reducing commodity freight rates. The rates were too high on commodities. He was opposed to bringing in immigrants who remained in Canada but a short time and then crossed over to the U. S. He advised calling the president and other officials of the Merchants Bank before the committee on banking and commerce to get information as to the steps which led up to the crash of the institution.

Herbert Marler (Liberal, St. Lawrence—St. George Montreal) said that, though the government owned the railway, it was in his power to assist the government in giving the national railways a fair policy. He declared that the "Canadian Government Merchant Marine" policy was barren, bereft and destitute of all reason and should never have been undertaken.

J. Pritchard, (Progressive, North Wellington) took the ground that the Progressives were not seeking class legislation except where legislation of special interest to the farmers would be of benefit to the whole country. If agriculture was made profitable there would be no need to worry about the national debt. W. G. Raymond, (Liberal, Brantford) declared that the tariff was a tax and as such, it was unfair to contend that farm implements should be free from it while the tools of the carpenter or blacksmith were made to pay duty. Mr. Raymond moved adjournment of the debate and the House rose at 11 p. m.

SAUVE MOTION IN QUEBEC HOUSE IS DEFEATED

Quebec, March 21.—(Canadian Press).—On the eve of prorogation, a motion by Arthur Sauve, leader of the opposition, calling for a royal commission inquiry into alleged trafficking in colonization lots by former and present members of the Quebec legislature, was defeated and defeated in the assembly last night.

TURN TO RIGHT LIKELY THE RULE AFTER DECEMBER 1

Fredericton, N. B., March 21.—Hon. P. J. Veniot today said that he expected December 1, 1922, would be the date the turn to the right rule of the road would go into effect in New Brunswick and Nova Scotia if the permissive legislation now before the Nova Scotia legislature is passed. "We are all ready in New Brunswick," he said, "and December 1—between seasons' date—looks to me to be the logical time to bring the change into effect."

As Hiram Sees It

"Hiram," said the Times reporter to Mr. Hiram Hornbeam, "you see this paragraph in this newspaper?" "Yes, sir," said Hiram, "I don't need no glasses to read it." "I've been reading it over for you," said the reporter, "and trying to figure out what it says in my mind—and I can't. Did your brain ever get that way?" "After I had the grippe once," said Hiram, "I didn't do no thinkin' fer quite a spell. Hanner said I hadn't sprawl enough to get out of my own way." "I guess it must be the March weather," said the reporter, "if I were you, I would have speed enough to get it number." "Hain't been tryin' to find out whether whiskey has the same old taste—hev you?" queried Hiram. "I can't even offer that excuse," said the reporter, "I wouldn't be able to put it in words. It would be too much effort. What were we talking about, anyway?" "Did I say anything?" said Hiram, "is some of Hanner's ground henlock, black cherry an' sassafras tonic. I'll bring you some tomorrow."

HAD TO GET OUT BY THE WINDOWS

Moncton, N. B., March 21.—Fire early this morning destroyed the residence of Harry Colborne of Lewisville. The estimated loss is about $6,000. The fire had gained considerable headway before it was seen. The owners were unable to save any of their belongings and had to make their escape from the building by window. Destruction of the residence was the family's first loss. The residence was formerly the property of E. J. Thompson, who now lives in British Columbia.

CITY HALL AND HYDRO MATTERS

Mr. Chamberlain added that the government intended to put a motion clearly raising the question as to whether it possessed the confidence of the house.

"The whole house will recognize that it would be impossible for us to ask the premier to go to Genoa if there were any doubt about his authority."

MACLACHLAN TO LABOR MINISTER

Will Keep on Preaching Coal Production Cut.

Halifax, N. S., March 21.—The Herald publishes today a telegram which Secretary J. B. McLachlan, of the U. M. W. of America, District 26, is said to have addressed to Hon. James Murdock, minister of labor, in reply to the latter's protest against the manifesto of the miners' secretary urging the miners to reduce production.

In part Mr. McLachlan said: "Replying to your telegram of Saturday I wish to state that in the manifesto issued by me, neither the thing known as sabotage nor the word itself was mentioned. Once, however, I did in that document strongly advise the miners to cut down production to a point where all profits of the British Empire Steel Corporation would be absorbed. This is nothing dishonest about it; you to the contrary, notwithstanding."

Mr. McLachlan added that the miners have no wage agreement and will not pay dividends on "acres of idle junk, known as the steel works."

LITTLE NEEDED FOR CIVIL WAR IN IRELAND

Conditions on Ulster Border Reported Very Bad.

Suggestion of Joint Action by the Governments of the North and South—Factional Feeling Runs High in the Six Counties.

(Canadian Press Cable.)

London, March 21.—The dangers of the situation in Ireland are emphasized by the morning newspapers, several of which take the view that little more would be needed to start actual civil war. Sniping between the entrenched forces on either side of the Ulster border has been going on for several days and yesterday machine guns were reported to have been brought into action. Meanwhile, disturbances continue throughout the six counties areas of Ulster.

Moderate opinion in the south favors joint action by the northern and southern governments to relieve the tension on the border, according to the Aimes Dublin correspondent, and it is hinted elsewhere that a earnest conference between Arthur Griffith and Michael Collins yesterday was partly concerned with the possibility of securing such action. It was thought this might involve a preliminary meeting of Mr. Collins with Premier Sir James Craig of Ulster.

Reports of murders, incendiarism and other outrages in the northern districts, where the tension between the Protestants and Catholics is most severe, fill a large space in the newspapers. The violent denunciations of each faction against the other suggest that appointment of the blame in numerous instances is difficult and perhaps impossible to decide, but they show the fierce state of factional feeling which dangerously threatens the general peace.

No late development in the affairs along the border is reported for the moment, but the Belfast police late last night reported that the telegraph and telephone wires in County Tyrone and in parts of the counties of Armagh and Londonderry had been cut, and Belfast was consequently unable to communicate with those districts.

In consequence of the continued lawlessness in Belfast itself the carmen of the city announced yesterday their determination to cease work today on the ground that they were insufficiently protected from the gunmen.

GUNNERY KILL MAN; A BATTLE ENSUES

Belfast, March 21.—James Magee was shot by gunmen in Hartigue street last night. Military forces were rushed to the scene, but met with a fusillade of revolver shots under cover of which the assassins escaped. Magee died this morning. Miss McPhail replied that, as she did not believe in the upper house, she could not urge the appointment.

HIGH WAGES DID NOT EASE UNREST

Discontent Prevailed in the Highly Paid Industries in Great Britain.

(Montreal Gazette.) That unrest was just as acute when wages were high as when they were low, was the assertion made by Henry Somerville, of Oxford, in lecturing last night at the Loyola School of Sociology and Social Service on "The Future of Industry." Higher wages did not seem to be any cure for discontent and trouble just in those industries which had been highest paid, among which were the miners, and there had been most unrest when there was plenty of employment. For two years following the armistice discontent had been so serious in Britain that many people had feared a revolution. Those fears were perhaps exaggerated, but they were, nevertheless, genuine. There was no reason then to think that the raising of wages would ever cure discontent; yet this discontent must be removed if the working of the industrial system was to be made possible.

THE HYDRO QUESTION

The Standard says: "Neither the public generally, nor even a majority of the citizens, have, nor has anyone else, the least idea what the cost of civic distribution of the Musquash current is going to be. There is the whole trouble. If this were known, the city could tell at once just where it was at. Current is offered at the city at 1.2 cents at the switchboard at Fairville. Current costs the Power Company 1.5 cents at its switchboard, at the present price of coal. It will cost a trifle less when the cheaper coal is used. There is therefore very little difference in the cost at the switchboard between these systems; and from the switchboard to the consumer the costs of distribution cannot vary much under a system of civic distribution from that which obtains under the Power Company."

It is here stated that the electric current developed by a steam plant costs the New Brunswick Power Company 1.5 cents, and that with cheaper coal the costs will be less. The claim is that made that the company can produce the current about as cheaply as it can be done at Musquash, and is almost doing it now. If that is true, the company must have been making a very fat profit, and the citizens can readily understand why it wants to go on making that profit. The Standard article makes it clear that if the distribution of the Musquash current is given to the power company there will be no appreciable reduction of rates, and so far as St. John is concerned the Musquash development will be of no benefit whatever. Are the people to be fooled in this way? And is it surprising that the demand for civic distribution and cheaper light and power grows more insistent day by day? Those who make this demand are thus insulted by the Standard:

"The simple fact of the matter is that a certain section of the community which tries to make up in noise and pertinacity what it lacks in influence, is out to try and knife the Power Company, and is prepared to take any chances whatever to attain this end." The Standard voices the aims and desires of the New Brunswick Power Company.

THE BOLSHEVISTS

The miners' strike in South Africa was short lived. The Bolshevist attempt to bring about a revolution has failed. The Montreal Gazette, reviewing the situation, says: "The quick decision of the Smuts government saved the country from terrible bloodshed and other outrages. Lenin himself made an open declaration at the congress of the Third Internationale that 'we must use this breathing space in order carefully to prepare the revolution in capitalist states,' and that to this end 'the awakening of millions of workers in the colonies and dependencies' must be undertaken. This was a definite threat to take hostile action against British interests. The rising in South Africa was essentially anti-British, and it will be discovered that, as in other places, the Soviet government supplied the arms and money to help on the revolutionists. The Bolshevists never sleep. They do not idle their time away, but are always busy preaching their pernicious doctrines which, alas, too often find listeners sufficiently sympathetic to become members of the gang. The Indian trouble is due in part to Bolshevist revolutionists. They are still busy in Southern Ireland. Plotting is at the moment active in Persia, in Turkestan, in Angola and in Afghanistan. There are other places as well. General Smuts is deserving of special commendation for the very excellent manner in which he has handled an awkward uprising of fanatical revolutionists in the South African Union."

MACLAGHLAN'S CHALLENGE Secretary MacLachlan of the United Mine Workers has given very foolish counsel to the miners of Nova Scotia. He would have them cut the production of the mines, or, in other words, loaf on the job. That doctrine cannot safely be preached and acted on in this country. The Halifax Chronicle says: "The very men upon whom Secretary MacLachlan is urging this dishonest and dishonorable conduct would be ultimately, if not presently, the greatest sufferers. But certain it is, it would seriously prejudice the industrial development of the province and the prosperity of its people. We have heard far too much of the monthings of this Mr. MacLachlan and his kind of late, but this is the first time in the history of Nova Scotia that such a monstrous proposal has been openly advocated and blatantly proclaimed. It is some satisfaction at least that it does not emanate from a native of the province, and it is to be hoped that the mine workers, the men who really work, will promptly repudiate such mad leadership, which is not only repugnant to honorable conduct and fair dealing, but is bound to react to the great injury of the miners themselves."

The Norris government will remain at the helm in Manitoba until supply has been voted and essential legislation enacted. The house will then be dissolved and the Farmers expect to win.

OUR CASE AT OTTAWA

The following summary report of a portion of the recent speech of Mr. E. M. Macdonald, M.P., in parliament is of special interest to maritime province readers: "The Intercolonial Railway in the maritime provinces, Mr. Macdonald said, was built under legislation of the Imperial government and from 1877 to 1918 was operated on the lines laid down by that legislation. The late Dominion government by order-in-council had appointed the directors of the C. N. R. to manage the I. C. R. Headquarters were removed from Moncton to Toronto and a situation was created which subsequently became intolerable. Maritime members were asking the cancellation of the order-in-council of the late government and the appointment of a general manager in sympathy with maritime necessities. "The maritime provinces, Mr. Macdonald said, are only asking for rights which they enjoyed for forty years, and under both political parties. "The maritime railway difficulty was not like that of British Columbia, or the prairies. A Progressive member had stated that it required 60 per cent. of the value of western grain to pay transportation charges to Port Arthur. It required 80 per cent. of the value of Cape Breton coal to pay the transportation charges to Montreal. Last year one million tons of coal were purchased in the United States and hauled the long distance to Quebec, while Cape Breton miners were idle. (This was one example of how the maritime provinces were being treated. Full thought and consideration must be given to the problem, and if any government proposed to take away the rights and privileges of the maritime provinces, under the British North America Act, it would be the duty of the provincial legislatures to appeal to the Imperial government. The maritime provinces were willing to pay any proper charges, but did not propose to allow an unsympathetic management in Toronto, which did not know and did not care, to run maritime affairs. The present railway situation was not brought about by any act of the Liberal party. The late government had taken over the Canadian Northern Railway and the Grand Trunk Railway without any consideration for the future."

If war breaks out in Ireland it will be a war of the Irish and not between the Irish and the English. Not only is there strife between north and south, but between the two sections in the south. The situation, however, is not hopeless. The Irish Free State will presently emerge and set its house in order.

No. 2—Friendship. When the wintry day's declining, Storm clouds meet our upward gaze; Not the glorious sun see the light, Look beyond the sparkling perils, Friendship's star is ever bright. Friendship true and never-dying, Gilding trouble's darkest wave; Firm as fate, and death-defying, Stronger still beyond the grave.

Though we see our loved ones leave us, Sailing from their native shore; Though the parting sore may grieve us, And we see them never more— Love can smile across the ocean, Faith can reach from land to land, Pledge we then a life's devotion, Heart to heart, and hand to hand. Friendship true and never-dying, Gilding trouble's darkest wave; Firm as fate, and death-defying, Stronger still beyond the grave. HOPE A. THOMSON.

The Actor Courtroom

Two young men seated in a trolley car were discussing the prodigious size of the nose of a man seated opposite them. At length one of the young men stepped across the aisle and said: "Pardon me, sir, but would you mind telling me why your nose is so large?" The other man, who was an actor, addressed lowered his newspaper and glanced kindly at his inquirer. "Not at all," he responded; "it's very simple. I've always kept out of other people's business, and let it grow."—Judge.

OFF THE STREET OUT OF HARM

It means "everything" to a boy to have a place to play and the right kind of fellows to play with. Associates can make or break his future. To help the boy in passing through the important transition period of boyhood, with its many temptations, into the fulness of clear, healthy manhood, is the objective for which the Y. M. C. A. strives. Tomorrow the business people of the city will be asked to subscribe for a fund to help pay the cost of this important work for the year 1922. Eight thousand dollars is the amount and 500 former subscribers will be canvassed in an endeavor to raise it. It is felt by those in charge of the campaign that there are many citizens who may be anxious to help but are not on the list, therefore they will not be approached by the canvassers. A special committee has been appointed to take up the list, and a letter will be sent to each of them. A telephone message to Main 8940 will bring a worker hot foot to your office for your cheque or pledge. MEET THE CANVASSER WITH A SMILE TOMORROW AND DON'T SAY NO. 3-21

LOCAL NEWS

At the meeting of the Rotary Club yesterday the following nominations were brought forward:—President, Dr. H. H. Barton; vice-president, Rev. B. A. Armstrong; secretary, Donaldson Hunt; treasurer, A. E. Everett; directors, Dr. H. L. Spangler, H. Mont Jones, Frank Lewis, Hugh Reynolds and A. L. Foster. Dr. Spangler became a director because of being immediate past president. Two others are to be chosen.

The Baptist ministers of the city met yesterday afternoon for a monthly conference. Rev. C. J. Smith read a paper on the place of the minister in a time of transition and reconstruction. After some discussion a resolution was passed expressing the opposition of the conference to the measure introduced into the house of assembly for the purpose of imposing a tax on liquors now held, or which might hereafter be held, in the St. John warehouses. The conference was of the opinion that such a measure would ultimately become the centre of an extensive illicit traffic in liquor.

In the case against Walter W. Bell, charged with having liquor in his beer shop on Union street, Inspector Journey gave evidence similar to that given previously. He told of being refused admittance to the back shop for a period of ten minutes. After getting in he saw a bottle of whiskey in an adjoining room, but it disappeared before he could get to it. He also noticed a strong smell of liquor in the premises. Inspector Killen gave similar evidence. Daniel Mullin, K. C., and E. S. Ritchie appeared for the defence and W. M. Ryan for the prosecution.

JUDGE LONGLEY

(Halifax Chronicle) In the death of Mr. Justice Longley, of the Supreme Court of Nova Scotia, there passes away a gentleman who had been a conspicuous figure in the public life of this Province for a very long period. He was a member of the Legislature of Nova Scotia practically without interruption for twenty-three years, and he had been a judge of the Supreme Court for seventeen years, constituting a term of public service in high places, rarely excelled in this or any other Province of the Dominion.

Although Mr. Justice Longley's health had been precarious for several years and in a critical state during the past few months, he possessed such a remarkable vitality and exhibited so great recuperative powers that his death will be a shock to the general public, who did not realize that his health had become so weak. He was confined to his bed during the early part of the winter, but his indomitable spirit overcame the weakness of his body, and only a few weeks ago he was able to be out again, having been present at the weekly luncheon of the Commercial Club, of which he was an enthusiastic member, and having participated in other activities of a social nature. But it was evident to his most intimate friends and associates that although he was making a gallant fight against the inroads of disease, weakness was creeping fast upon him, and so the end came suddenly after a comparatively short period in the hospital.

Mr. Justice Longley entered public life as a member of the House of Assembly for his native County of Annapolis, for which he was first elected in 1882, and which he continued to represent up to the time of his appointment to the Bench in 1905. When Hon. W. S. Field became Premier of Nova Scotia and formed his Government in 1884, he selected as his Attorney-General Mr. Longley, who was then a young lawyer practising in Halifax, and engaged in a newspaper work on both The Morning Chronicle and The Acadia Recorder. Mr. Longley held the position of Chief Law Officer of the Crown for a period of twenty-one years, establishing a record in this respect which has never been equalled in this Province and, we believe, has only been excelled, if at all, by Sir Oliver Mowat in Ontario. There was only one interruption in that long period, and that was for a short space of time in 1896, when he resigned his portfolio and seat in the House of Assembly to contest Annapolis for the House of Commons. He was successful in that contest, but was immediately thereafter re-elected to the House of Assembly and resumed his portfolio of Attorney-General in Hon. George H. Murray's Government, holding that portfolio until his appointment to the Supreme Court Bench in 1905.

A few years ago Mr. Justice Longley suffered a stroke of paralysis, which greatly weakened him physically and lessened his energy as a member of the bench. It is to be hoped that he has recovered much of his old-time vigor, and he maintained almost to the end his mental alertness and his lively interest in public affairs. He had the distinction almost immediately after his appointment to the bench of trying one of the most important cases which ever came before the supreme court of Nova Scotia, namely, the celebrated case between the Dominion Coal Company and the Dominion Steel Company, and it was a notable tribute to Mr. Justice Longley that the decision which he gave in that case was subsequently upheld in the highest court of the realm. In addition to his political and judicial work Mr. Justice Longley was active in literary and historical efforts, and among the most noteworthy of these were his "Life of Joseph Howe," "The Life of Sir Charles Tupper," and "The Political History of Nova Scotia," a very valuable contribution to the magazines and historical publications in Canada and the United States. As a politician Mr. Longley was keen, shrewd, and during his career he was one of the most effective speakers on behalf of the Liberal cause in this province, skillful in his political and judicial work Mr. Justice Longley was active in literary and historical efforts, and among the most noteworthy of these were his "Life of Joseph Howe," "The Life of Sir Charles Tupper," and "The Political History of Nova Scotia," a very valuable contribution to the magazines and historical publications in Canada and the United States. and the late James Inglis. He was educated in the schools of Shediac and when a young man became a telegrapher on the Intercolonial railroad, afterwards joining the Canadian Pacific railroad staff. Along the line and among his host of friends he was invariably known as "Sandy." He left St. John twelve years ago, and for the past eight years had been assistant roadmaster on the Grand Trunk Pacific. Early this year his health began to fail and on February 1 he left Endako and went to the hospital at Prince George to undergo an operation for the removal of a kidney. He was in such a weakened condition that he did not survive the operation. Although he died far from home he had good friends in British Columbia in the persons of the officials of the Brotherhood of Railway Telegraphers, who took charge of the body and shipped it east for burial. During his illness the members of the order gave Mr. Inglis every attention, and after his death sent a beautiful wreath to be laid on the casket at the funeral, which will take place from his late home in Shediac on Thursday. The body is expected to arrive in Shediac tomorrow.

Mr. Inglis leaves his mother, two brothers and three sisters. The brothers are Fred. S. Inglis of F. S. Inglis & Co., Shediac, and Robert B. of Milverton, (Ont.). The sisters are Mrs. W. H. Irving, of Moncton, Mrs. W. G. Loggie of Loggieville and Mrs. S. C. Purdy, of Amherst, to whom the sincere sympathy of many friends will be tendered.

A Danger Signal—Tender and Bleeding Gums

Healthy teeth cannot live in diseased tissue. Gums tainted with Pyorrhoea are dangerously diseased. For not only the teeth are affected, but Pyorrhoea germs seep into the body, lower its vitality and cause many ills.

Pyorrhoea begins with tender and bleeding gums. Then the gums recede, the teeth decay, loosen and fall out, or must be extracted to rid the system of the poisonous germs that breed in pockets about them.

Four out of five people over forty have this disease. But you need not have it. Visit your dentist often for tooth and gum inspection. And keep Pyorrhoea away by using Forhan's For the Gums.

Forhan's For the Gums will prevent Pyorrhoea—or check its progress—if used in time and used consistently. Ordinary dentifrices cannot do this. Forhan's keeps the gums hard and healthy, the teeth white and clean. If you have tender or bleeding gums, start using it today. If gum-shrinkage has already set in, use Forhan's according to directions, and consult a dentist immediately for special treatment.

the Income Tax deducted therefrom for last year, that a further claim can now be made in respect of the current financial year.

To those of your readers who possess such income and have not yet made their claims, I would point out that by the Finance Act 1920 a British Subject resident out of the United Kingdom is entitled to recover the whole or part of the Income Tax deducted from income arising in this country. With tax at 6s in the £ it means a very considerable addition to the income of such persons.

In addition to the above claims any person whether British subject or otherwise may recover the whole of the tax deducted from the interest on foreign and colonial securities paid through this country for the past three years. I have known these claims to amount to hundreds of pounds.

I have made the subject of Income Tax claims my special study and am prepared to give the benefit of my experience to any of your readers without charge, as it occurs to me that it is a great pity that many thousands of pounds should be lost annually through ignorance of a legal right.

I shall be very pleased to reply to any enquiries sent to me at the address stated below.

I am, Sir, Yours faithfully

"Quo Vadis" One of the Most Absorbing and Thrilling Productions Ever Screened, the Times of Nero Portrayed.

The motion picture "fan" of today demands thrills, adventure, love interest and "something to carry home and think about."

"Quo Vadis" is one of the most absorbingly interesting and thrilling productions that ever have been screened.

The scene is Rome in the time of Nero, most corrupt of the Caesars, when the Eternal City was the melting pot of the world.

WAS TROUBLED WITH HER STOMACH FOR FIVE YEARS

Mrs. Samuel Ward, Millersdale, Sask., writes: "I feel that I must write to you before another day passes I am so happy and so grateful to your splendid medicine, Burdock Blood Bitters, for after an illness of five years I am better."

I had stomach trouble so bad I could not bear the smell and taste of food of any kind, and got so thin and weak I could not work. I had four doctors attend me, but they did me no good. I was in no pain, but felt so ill, at times, I thought I would die, in fact, all my friends were sure I could not live many weeks.

This time last year I saw where a man was relieved of stomach trouble by Burdock Blood Bitters, so my husband got two bottles, I had no faith in it after all the different medicines I had taken. However, he insisted, and after the first two days I began to feel better, and after the first bottle I felt so much better I went out a little every day, but could not go alone I was so weak, but I soon got so I could walk and eat, and have got quite stout.

I am nearly seventy years of age, and can now do all my housework. You may make use of this letter if you wish, as it may be the means of making others as well and as happy as am.

as anything in the drama or in literature. The scenes are tremendously real and spectacular. Nothing more realistic has ever been accomplished in photographic art than the portrayal of the great royal banquets, the burning of Rome and the scenes in the arena.

This great production will be shown for the last three times today at the Queen Square Theatre.

GOVERNMENT HAS APPROVED MERGER OF TWO BIG BANKS

Ottawa, March 20—The government has approved the merger of the Merchants Bank and the Bank of Montreal, it was announced tonight by Hon. W. S. Fielding, minister of finance. In his report to the cabinet on the merger, Mr. Fielding touched on recent banking amalgamations, remarking that he would, in ordinary circumstances, be unwilling to recommend further restriction of competition by the amalgamation of any two of the larger banks.

HISTORIC BARK GRAY HOUND IS LOST AT SEA

New Bedford, Mass., March 20—The bark Gray Hound, second oldest whale steamer, has been lost at sea off the coast of Guineas, according to a cablegram received here from St. Vincent (B. W. I.) All the crew was saved. The Gray Hound which had hunted whales in every sea had been operating since 1920 as a Cape Verde packet. She sailed from this port last November for the Cape Verde Islands, and later left the islands on trading business to the coast of Africa.

The bark Gray Hound was built in 1851 at New Bedford. She registered 109 tons net and 178 gross. The bark figured in several exciting adventures during her career of seventy-one years. During the United States civil war she escaped sinking by the Confederate warship Alabama, through speed while Captain Simms was engaged in sinking several of her consorts. The Confederates succeeded in sinking the greatest part of the New Bedford fleet of whales which was very large when the war began.

WILL FIGHT DEEP WATERWAYS PLAN

(Canadian Press Despatch.)

Ottawa, March 20—A deputation representing the Montreal Board of Trade, Montreal Chamber of Commerce, the Shipping Federation of Canada, the boards of trade of Quebec and Hull, accompanied by the Mayors of Montreal, Quebec, Hull, and Alton, will tomorrow interview Hon. W. S. Fielding, acting prime minister, and members of the cabinet in support of Premier Taschereau's plan in his efforts against the St. Lawrence deep waterways scheme. The delegation will protest against the construction of the deep waterway at the present time and against alienation of any of the water powers of Quebec. The point will be taken that if a canal is to be constructed it should be by an all-Canadian route and one of which all the powers will be used for the benefit of Canada.

SYDNEY ALDERMAN WAS NOT DRUNK

Sydney, N. S., March 20—After a series of sensational hearings which have attracted the largest attendance seen in local courts for years, Alderman M. A. MacKenzie was today completely exonerated by Judge Muggah, who dismissed the charge of intoxication preferred against the alderman by a city policeman. The affair rose out of the recent civic elections. Immediate action against the policeman for malicious prosecution will be taken.

AMATEUR PLAY IN WEST ST. JOHN

The annual play in honor of St. Patrick's memory and for the benefit of the orphans was produced last night in St. Patrick's hall, w. c., by members of the Church of the Assumption congregation, the presentations being attended by a large number, who were delighted with the handling of the roles in "The Private Secretary" the vehicle chosen, and particularly with the work of the orchestra under the direction of F. Wadlington. This organization, although created only last September, has made great strides under Mr. Wadlington's training, and their playing of Irish tunes and the classics last evening won for them rounds of applause.

Messrs. Joyce, Kelleher, Owens bore the brunt of the work in the play and did exceedingly well. The cast of characters follows: Mr. Marsland, E. Fitzgerald, Harry Marsland, Edward Morrissey, Mr. Cattermole, S. J. Joyce, Douglas Cattermole, F. C. Owens; Robert Spalding, private secretary, James Kelleher; Sydney Gibbet, Walter Ring; John, a servant, C. Quinn; Knox, J. Coughlan; Edith Marsland, Miss B. Parren; Eva Webster, Miss Farren; Mrs. Stead, Miss L. O'Reilly; Miss Ashford, a spiritualist, Miss Susie Murphy.

NO ANGLO-U. S. AGREEMENT

(Canadian Press Despatch.) Washington, March 20—Charges of an unwritten agreement between the United States and Great Britain to act together in any case arising under the four power Pacific treaty brought on another storm of debate today in the senate.

Senator Borah (Republican, Idaho), started the fireworks by reading a statement said to have been made by Paul D. Cravath, a New York lawyer, saying he had "been told by every member of the American delegation" that an understanding for future co-operation between the two governments in any emergency in the Pacific had been reached at the arms conference.

The assertion promptly was denied by both Senators Lodge (Republican, Massachusetts), and Underwood (Democrat, Alabama), both of whom were members of the delegation.

ANOTHER LOCK ON THE BACK DOOR OF UNCLE SAM

Washington, March 20—That United States immigration laws will be changed so that aliens will be required to live five years in "contiguous territory" before they can be admitted is an announcement made by Chairman Johnson of the house committee on immigration. This will check large numbers of aliens under the present law, remain in Canada, Mexico or Cuba for one year, and are then eligible to enter the United States.

The basket social under the auspices of the Kings' Edward Lodge No. 30, "Prentice Boys' Association, in their hall in Guildford street, last evening was attended by more than 300 persons. The affair was a complete success. The committee in charge was composed of W. H. Price, F. Carvell and Edwin Clark.

RHEUMATISM vs. T.R.C.'s

Rheumatism and similar troubles invariably yield to this T.R.C.'s (Templeton's Rheumatic Capsules) treatment. Many doctors and many hundreds of druggists from coast to coast will confirm this truth. The hundreds of testimonial letters in our files show that T.R.C.'s have successfully treated Rheumatism, Lumbago, Neuritis, Sciatica and acute Neuralgia of all kinds. But the best evidence is your own experience. If you suffer we want you to try this guaranteed non-injurious remedy. Our expense. Druggists sell T.R.C.'s $1.00 per box. For free trial write T.R.C. Co., 56 Colborne St., Toronto.

FOR EMERGENCY PREPAREDNESS

Miss V. M. MacDonald, who is the emissary of the Canadian Red Cross, in the launching of the emergency preparedness programme which the society is seeking to establish with the co-operation of existing agencies, addressed informally a gathering of the heads of women's organizations at the residence of Mrs. C. B. Allan yesterday afternoon, when she was the guest of honor at tea, and in the evening she spoke to the St. John chapter of the Graduate Nurses' Association at its regular meeting in the nurses' home of the general public hospital. On both occasions Miss MacDonald greatly impressed her hearers and the cause she advocated was given ready sympathy.

Mrs. B. Allan received her guests and a delightful opportunity was given them to have an informal talk with Miss MacDonald. Mrs. F. C. Beatty presided at the prettily appointed tea table and those assisting in the serving were Mrs. Wetmore Merritt, Mrs. Ernest Bowman, Miss Mabel Thomson and Miss E. H. Jarvis. Mrs. McManus, of the Halifax Council of Women, also was a guest and was welcomed.

At the meeting of the nurses' association in the evening, Miss M. Murdoch, president of the provincial chapter, was in the chair and Miss MacDonald suggested that the association should arrange for the enrollment of all nurses in the province so that they might be available for service in any part of Canada for emergency relief. A committee of three was appointed by the association to attend the next meeting of the Red Cross society to obtain information as to the scheme the society proposes to follow in this province. Miss MacDonald also spoke of the national memorial to the nurses who lost their lives in the war. Miss MacDonald leaves this morning for Prince Edward Island and will speak at Charlottetown. She has nearly completed her tour of the province in the interests of emergency preparedness and everywhere has met with encouraging support.

Dispitch Fails to get Farm and Bride, so Must Go Home.

Sarnia, March 17—Dirty, ragged and unshaven, Louis Dispitch of Missouri, came to Canada for a farm and a bride. Several sprightly young ladies who saw him and looked him over and turned away. They didn't know that $640 was tucked away in his faded blue jeans; that he had come to Canada, and set himself up on a Canadian farm. Immigration officials, however, were also "from Missouri" and deemed this insufficient to launch his enterprise, so Louis was forced to return and find his farm and bride elsewhere.

FAIRVILLE EPWORTH LEAGUE

The Epworth League of the Fairville Methodist church had a much enjoyed programme at its meeting last night and there was a large attendance of members. Rev. J. M. Rice, the pastor, was the chairman for the evening and William McIntosh delighted the gathering with an illustrated lecture on a trip down the St. John River.

TRINITY YOUNG WOMEN. The Young Women's Guild of Trinity church had an interesting programme at its meeting last night. Miss Ethel H. Jarvis showed the slides, "Our Church at Work," which portrayed the work of the church in the mission fields overseas and in Canada and she also gave an interesting address on missions. An appeal for clothing and bedding for Grenfell missions was received and it was decided to send some articles of clothing, but no definite plans were made as to the nature of the articles. There was a large attendance of members at the meeting and Miss Dorothy Robson, its president, was in the chair.

NEEDLESS ALARM

Another needless alarm was added to the list last evening when a careless citizen noticed smoke issuing from what he supposed was the roof of Mrs. A. Seely's house at 22 Queen street, but he failed to take the trouble to investigate and find out that it was from the chimney. He raved in the alarm from Box 35 at 11:15 o'clock and the department quickly responded. The residents of the house were amazed when the fire-fighters appeared at the door and asked the whereabouts of the blaze. After a brief examination, it was shown what had caused the trouble. This is the second unnecessary signal that has been sent in from this box within the last two weeks.

Young Girls Need Care

FROM the age of twelve a girl needs all the care the thoughtful mother can give. Many a woman has suffered years of pain and misery—the victim of thoughtlessness or ignorance of the mother who should have guided her during this time. If she complains of headaches, pains in the back and lower limbs, or if you notice a slowness of thought, nervousness or irritability on the part of your daughter make life easier for her. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is especially adapted for such conditions. It can be taken in safety by any woman, young or old.

Cobourg, Ontario—"Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was recommended to me for my daughter. She had trouble every month which left her in a weak and nervous condition with weak back and pain in her right side. She had these troubles for three years and frequently was unable to attend school. She has become regular and feels much better since she began taking the Vegetable Compound, and attends school regularly. She is gaining steadily and I have no hesitation in recommending Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to others, as it has done so much for my daughter."—Mrs. JOHN TOMS, Ball St., Cobourg, Ont.

Hamilton, Ontario—"When my daughter was thirteen and until she was fifteen, she suffered every month so that she could hardly move around the house, and when she would have the pains in school she would have to be carried home. She also had headaches, dizzy and faint spells, and soreness in her back. I saw your advertisement in the 'Hamilton Spectator' and got Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for her. She does not have the least bit of trouble now, and we recommend your medicine. She works in a candy-shop now and seems well and strong."—Mrs. L. P. CLARKE, 83 Oxford St., Hamilton, Ontario.

PRINCESS FATIMA'S
DIAMOND WILL BE SOLD IN FEW DAYS

Sons Handicapped in Raising
Money by Lack of Shaving
Materials—29 Trunks are Held.

New York, March 21.—Where is the Princess Fatima of Afghanistan? Nobody knows, or rather nobody but herself and her lawyer, and he won't tell. Since the Princess and her three sons visited Captain Gloster Armstrong, British consul-general, that she would not leave this country while there was a last desperate chance of regaining her giraffe diamond, the Darya-i-Nour, and the £100,000 in a taxicab, nothing has been heard of her.

The remaining fourteen of her twenty-nine trunks are being held by her last ally in Lexington avenue, while the United States immigration authorities are awarding a report to Washington recommending that the Princess and her family are aliens with no visible means of support, they should be deported.

Those in close touch with the Princess' affairs agreed that her situation was one of desperation. In four or five days the court order to sell the diamond, to settle the claim of Magna Dave, will be sent to Sheriff Percival Noyes. It was aid by her attorney. In the meantime, the immigration authorities have sent the result of an investigation to the Secretary of Labor recommending that the Princess be deported.

Dave's claim on the diamond amounts to $2,200, and the Princess decided yesterday to take a last chance of raising the money and regaining the diamond before it is sold or she makes the trip to Ellis island.

Due to these complications, the United States Treasury Department is taking steps to have the diamond turned over to it because Fatima did not pay duty on it when it entered the country. So today, while Fatima remains in seclusion, the two eldest princes have been scurrying around, trying to get somebody to advance the money to pay off the claim.

Fourteen of the Princess' twenty-nine pieces of baggage are at the rooming house of Mrs. J. Wylie, 301 Lexington avenue, who is holding them because the Princess still owes for the rooms, which she has occupied since last November. The British consul-general paid for the last three weeks of her stay, but there were many weeks before that. Mrs. Wylie said this morning with determination. When Baby Comes
WHAT a joy to mother's heart when baby comes! What a relief after months of anxiety and nerve strain! Mother is happy and expects soon to be strong and well again. But frequently reaction sets in, and when the excitement is over she is left weak and limp and does not seem to build up the way she should. Fortunate the mother who has at hand the kindly nurse or attentive friend to tell her how Dr. Chase's Nerve Food will help her at this critical time. Now more than ever the mother requires the assistance of a blood-forming, tissue-building, nerve-invigorating treatment, and these requirements are admirably met by Dr. Chase's Nerve Food.

HEART WOULD BEAT
LIKE A
Trip Hammer

Heart trouble has of late years become very prevalent. Sometimes a pain catches you in the region of the heart, now and then your heart skips beats, palpitates, throbs, or beats with such rapidity and violence you think it is going to burst.

You have weak and dizzy spells, sinking sensations, are nervous, irritable and depressed, and if you attempt to walk upstairs or any distance you get all out of breath. We know of a remedy that will do so much to help the heart regain strength and vigor, regulate its beat and restore it to a healthy, normal condition as will MILBURN'S HEART AND NERVE PILLS.

MILBURN'S HEART AND NERVE PILLS
Mrs. Chadwick, Delhi, Ont., writes:—I had palpitation of the heart, and the least exercise, such as going upstairs or a trip-hammer, and at times I was dizzy and had a sinking sensation as if my time were near.

New York Spirit Fastens Rejected Drawing on Wall of Waldorf Hotel.

A phenomenon, as startling and mysterious to the officers and directors of the Society of Independent Artists as were the ghostly manifestations in Antigonish to the MacDonalds and Dr. Walcott, was revealed at the artists' exhibition on the top floor of the Waldorf yesterday.

The New York spirit mailed a rejected drawing to a wall, and, above it, hammered four tacks in a card which told that the picture was the work of Mrs. Emma Mabel Field of Chicago, and was called "Impressionistic Personality Portrait of Miss Edith Bennett."

EVIDENCE ON BIGAMY CHARGE

Edith May Whipple Testifies Against Grant.
 Says They Went Through Ceremony in North End Last Month—Alleged That Grant Had Been Married by "Ralph Connor" in 1912.

The case against Alexander Clark Grant, aged thirty-nine, charged with marrying Edith May Whipple in St. John on February 23, when he had a wife living, was taken up this morning in the police court. The woman he had gone through the second marriage with gave evidence.

Edith May Whipple testified that she lived at 3 Whipple street, West St. John. She had met the defendant over a year ago at the Lancaster D. S. C. R. hospital, where he was an orderly. She had gone there to see her brother, who was a patient in the hospital. Last September, she said, she had started "going with" or "keeping company with" the defendant and he had asked her to marry him. He got a license which he showed her, and they went through the marriage ceremony on February 23, before Rev. W. H. Spencer, of St. Matthew's church, Douglas avenue, at Mr. Spencer's house. Two certificates of marriage were produced in court. Her sister, Miss Beatrice Whipple and Ellsworth Earle MacDonald, from Toronto, were the witnesses at the ceremony.
 She went back to her home, and the accused went to his boarding house until Friday, March 3, when they left for Toronto, reaching there on Saturday. They stayed for a few days at a hotel and started light housekeeping in a furnished room at 54 Elm street. Acting on information she received from a friend, she asked him if he had been married before, and he replied that he had, but was separated from his wife, L. McRitchie, for the defence, said he would not cross-examine. This finished the evidence today and the case was set over to Friday, when, it is understood, that Grant's first wife, now living in St. Andrews, will appear.
 It is alleged by the prosecution that Grant was married in Winnipeg in April, 1912, by Rev. Charles Gordon, more commonly known as Ralph Connor, the noted author; that he was formerly a Presbyterian minister, having preached at McAdam for three or four years; and that he has not been living with his wife since his return from France, where he was with the Canadian Expeditionary Force.

WOULD MEAN A LOSS OF $24,000

Incomes Involved in Proposed County Assessment Bill—Nearly a Million Dollars—Mayor and Commissioners at Fredericton Tomorrow.

It is estimated that some $24,000 in taxes would have been lost to the City of St. John had the proposed assessment bill, scheduled to come before the meeting of the municipal committee of the New Brunswick legislature tomorrow, been allowed to pass in its entirety, so it was said by Commissioner Bullock at City Hall this morning.
 Yesterday objection was taken to a clause in the proposed bill by which the taxes from incomes of all persons residing in St. John county should go to the parish in which they were resident. It was said that this would affect about 1,000 persons, whose aggregate incomes amount to nearly $1,000,000 and from which this city received last year in taxes more than $24,000.
 It was said at City Hall this morning that it was not anticipated that there would be any objection raised to the elimination of the offending clause from the bill.
 His Worship Mayor Schofield, accompanied by Commissioner Bullock, of the harbor department, and E. Murray Olive, chairman of the board of assessors, and possible Commissioner Frink, of the public works department, will be in Fredericton tomorrow when the county bills are before the legislature committee.
 Other bills from St. John county to be considered include an act to fix the valuation of Ready's Beverages, Ltd., the amount of $80,000 being proposed; an act to fix the valuation of T. S. Simms & Co., Ltd., for a period of ten years for school purposes at $60,000 and for all other purposes, $30,000; the company to pay also an additional $400 a year for the use of the highway board of Lancaster besides the highway rates which the company would ordinarily be liable to pay; an act relating to highway rates in Lancaster; an act to amend an act to provide police protection for the county of St. John, by which the county will be authorized to collect $5 from transient house owners and $3 from owners of houses, mills or factories other than dwelling houses for summer use; and an act relating to severance in the Parish of Simonds.

R. and later he and his partner, Mr. Smith, conducted the Empire hotel in Brandon. He later had charge of the Moosejaw Club in winters and spent the summers on a farm which he purchased and worked. Maybe there is someone who doesn't think Marie Prevost is the cutest little trick on the globe, but he or she couldn't be located at the Unique Theatre last night, where the intriguing Universal star's newest feature, "Nobody's Fool" had its premiere. Playing opposite the delightful little coquette is Harry Myers, famous "Connecticut Yankee in King Arthur's Court." As the naive, eccentric horn-rimmed author, Harrison Alger, Myers almost surpasses his former comedy masterpiece. Harrison Alger comes of a strange tribe, almost extinct now—a tribe of woman haters. In order to escape his pet aversion he accepts his friends' (Dr. Hardy) kind offer of the use of his mountain cabin. There Polly Gordon, as charmingly portrayed by Miss Prevost, decides to abandon the wild life in the city for the simple restfulness of a transplanted mountain maiden, Mrs. Hardy, but recently estranged from her husband, Dr. Hardy, offers Polly the use of her mountain cabin. Polly arrives first and is rapturously greeted by Ah Gone, the Chinese cook and caretaker. She immediately makes herself at home and proceeds to go wash lards and masters. The Turkish flapper of today has developed a taste for European clothes, Paris hats and high-heeled slippers, and now the poor Turk who can't support her in the style to which she is becoming accustomed has found himself in very difficult straits.

"Women in Turkey have gained greater freedom since the war than they ever knew before, but it is doubtful if they can keep it when the country is restored to normal. A woman there is merely a chattel, without opportunity for education or organization. She has no rights, and can be divorced at the will of her husband. Women appear more in public now than formerly; they are no longer compelled to cover their faces with veils, and in a few other respects they have gained minor advantages.

"Their little freedom is rather the result of opportunity than of a liberal-minded policy by the government. The Nationalist Party, led by Mustafa Kemal, controls Turkey and is now busy fighting the Greeks. The men are away, and the women are making the most of it. But there is little likelihood of any permanent advantage for women or progress toward emancipation while the Turks govern themselves."

SUBWAY PASSENGERS RUSH GUARD, OPEN DOOR

Refusal to Let Crowd Leave Train Stalled at Station Almost Causes a Riot.

A stalled Lexington avenue subway train at the Nevins street station, Brooklyn, the other morning led to a scene of disorder when the crowded passengers tried to get out. The guard on one of the cars was asked to open the door, but refused to budge until he got orders. The passengers became impatient and made a rush for the guard, pushing him aside. They opened the doors and reached the platform. This was observed by the passengers in other cars, and they lost patience. The station master ordered that all of the doors be opened when the situation was growing serious, and the passengers scrambled out to the platform. Women were shoved aside, some lost their hats and others had their coats torn.

The motor of the stalled train went dead, and the accident caused a tie-up for half an hour, passengers said. A statement from the Interborough contained the information that the tie-up began at 9.12 a. m. and ended at 9.22. The stalled train was side-tracked and service for Manhattan-bound trains resumed.

GUM AND CANDY COST MORR IN U. S. THAN ARMY UPKEEP

Washington, March 21.—In the debate in the House of Representatives on the question of reductions in the army, statistics were given to show that the per capita expenditure for the maintenance of the army paled into insignificance when compared with the national expenditures for pleasure or non-essential commodities. For instance, the country spent for admission to theatres, concerts, caparets, baseball games and other similar entertainments $897,000,000 last year—more than twice the appropriation for

Those Pretty Teeth

How careful people get them

Careful people—millions of them—are brushing their teeth in a new way. They do it almost the world over, and largely by dental advice. Whiter teeth is one result. You see them everywhere. Now we urge you to try the method which they use. Ask us for a ten-day test.

Just remove the film

It is film that makes teeth dingy. That viscous coat clings to the teeth, enters crevices and stays. The tooth brush used in old ways has left much of it intact.

Film is what discolors, not the teeth. Film is the basis of tartar. Most people's teeth are kept cloudy by it, more or less.

Film also holds food substance which ferments and forms acids. It holds the acids in contact with the teeth to cause decay. It breeds millions of germs, and they, with tartar, are the chief cause of pyorrhea.

All these troubles have been constantly increasing. And most of them are traced to film which old-way brushing left on teeth.

What must be done

Dental science, after long research, has found two film combatants. Able authorities have proved their efficiency. Now leading dentists, here and abroad, are urging their daily use.

A new-type dentifrice has been created, called Pepsodent. It complies with modern requirements. And these film-fighting methods are embodied in it. Every use attacks the film in two effective ways.

Aids Nature too

Gummy starch deposits also cling to teeth, and often ferment and form acids. To digest them, Nature puts a starch digestant in the saliva. Every use of Pepsodent multiplies that starch digestant. Nature puts alkalis in the saliva to neutralize those acids. Each use of Pepsodent multiplies those alkalis.

Thus Pepsodent daily brings five desired effects. It has brought to millions, as it will to you, a new conception of clean teeth.

Send the coupon for a 10-Day Tube and watch the delightful effects. Note how clean the teeth feel after using. Mark the absence of the viscous film. See how teeth whiten as the film-coats disappear.

See the new beauty, feel the new cleanliness. Then judge for yourself what such results may mean to you and yours. This is too important to forget. Cut out the coupon now.

The Charm of a Sunny Kitchen

HAPPY is the woman with sunshine in her kitchen. SMP Diamond Ware and SMP Pearl Ware and sunshine seem to go together. They add a flash of sunny brightness wherever they are.

Diamond Ware is light blue and white with a milk-white lining. Pearl Ware is light grey and white. Diamond and Pearl Ware pots and pans almost seem to look up and smile at you, they are so cheerful in color, so clean and bright-looking.

Diamond or Pearl WARE

"A Face of Porcelain and A Heart of Steel"

And it doesn't take metal polish, steel wool or a lot of work to keep Diamond or Pearl kitchen utensils bright and smiling, either. Soap and hot water—that's all! There are no joints or cracks to catch food particles; grease won't stick to SMP enamel. It's porcelain—like china. There is nothing to absorb moisture, taints, flavors or stains. And unbreakable besides, because SMP Diamond and Pearl Ware utensils are made on a base of steel.

The SMP trade mark in the Pointed Shield is on every piece of Diamond and Pearl Ware. Look for it.

Do you know that a Diamond or Pearl Ware pot that sold for $1.50 last year, can be bought now for 90 cents?

The will provides for a trust fund of $5,000 for the rector, warden and vestrymen of Grace church, at Tremont and Vyse avenues, the Bronx, and gives $5,000 to the Methodist Episcopal church at West Farms. A fund of $5,000 is set aside to provide for the decedent's cats and dogs.

Girl's Scalp Torn

Caledon, Ont., March 21.—When her hair caught in a rapidly-revolving shaft, Miss May Young had her scalp practically torn from her head. Only her presence of mind prevented the entire scalp from being torn off. Unable to release her hair, she threw herself against the shaft, causing the coupling to bind and bringing the motor to a standstill.

Her hands were terribly burned by friction from holding the shaft, and about three-quarters of her hair was pulled out. Dr. T. H. Henry of Orangeville is attending her, and it is expected that no permanent disfigurement will result.

Miss Young is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Young of Caledon. She was in the act of replacing a belt on a small electric motor, used for operating the cream separator, when the accident occurred.

Pera, Mass., March 21.—"I've got enough to do. I'll be hanged if I chase everybody's cows and chickens, too." In these words Frank Creamer called a halt to the honors given him at town meeting. The nineteen voters of this Berkshire town had just elected Creamer moderator, town clerk, selectman, treasurer, tax collector, overseer of the poor, and member of the health board. Then some one nominated him for field driver, and he called quits.

DRIVES BALL 415 YARDS.
One of the most remarkable golfing drives on record was that made recently by Frank E. Dennis, professional to the Crewe Club at Haslington, England, the ball coming to rest 415 yards from the tee. The drive was witnessed by two players, was measured by the green-keeper and afterward by a schoolmaster in the employ of the club secretary, and found to be correct. The ground was very hard, there was a gentle wind from behind and the green is slightly below the level of the tee. Dennis is a very powerful young golfer, noted for the distance he gets with his wooden clubs.

Washington, March 21.—Riflemen to defend the world's marksmanship title for the United States in the 1922 international matches in Milan, June 9, will be selected by open competition among army, navy, marine corps, national guard and civilian contestants, so the National Board for the Promotion of Rifle Practice announced. The try-out shoot will be held on the Marine Corps Rifle Range at Quantico, Va., May 8, 4, 5 and 6. The scores made there will determine the personnel of the American team, which is expected to leave for Cherbourg May 16 on the Shipping Board liner Old North State. They will return to the United States about July 4. The American team, in winning the world's championships in the international team and individual rifle matches and for shooting in the standing, kneeling and prone positions at Lyons, France, in 1921, administer the first defeat in eighteen years to Swiss contenders.

ATHLETES MAY BE PAID WHILE LAID UP,
SAYS A. W. COVEY

The larger portion of the time at last night's meeting of the City Baseball League representatives was taken up with discussion with A. W. Covey, president of the M. P. B. A. U. of C., of various points arising from the demand for affidavits, which has been causing so much agitation in amateur ranks. The answers given by him have cleared the local atmosphere to some extent, but plans for the formation of the city league under the same rules as last season have not yet definitely decided on. The arguments between representatives of the teams and Mr. Covey waxed hot at times, but as a result of the meeting the continuance of the three teams together in the amateur ranks was brought nearer to a realization than it has been since the question of signing the affidavit was first raised. Mr. Covey will attend a meeting of the St. Peter's team in the near future to try to clear up all questions now under dispute.

Last night's meeting opened in the Commercial Club rooms, in Prince William street, with Frank White, president of the city league, in the chair. A report of the meeting of the committee which had interviewed Mr. Covey on Saturday was given to the members. Mr. Covey wished that the various amateur clubs would fight the attempt of the independents to ruin amateur sport with accusations, by flatly contradicting false reports and asking the originator to prove his charge or get out of sport.

In reply to a query, Mr. Covey said that he had received the sanction of the executive of the local branch of the amateur association and of the Canadian association to carry out the plan of securing affidavits. He also announced that the president of the Quebec branch had decided to insist on the signing of affidavits. One man at the meeting contended that these men could not honestly take the affidavit, Mr. Covey said that they could, but if their consciences would not permit them to take the affidavit after being told officially that this did not hinder them doing so, a clause containing the time and nature of the accident could be inserted in the form, specifying also the amount they received, and these notations which would show they were acting in good faith. Mr. Covey also announced that an athlete could receive up to $150 for a meal without being professionalized, no matter what he actually paid for the meal. He showed that the affidavit only asked that the athlete should be in good standing in 1914 and did not insist that he had never received money, prior to that time. The latter clause, he said, was only applied to the period since November, 1919.

Mr. Covey admitted that the original list had contained many prominent local athletes, but he said that several of them were not on the second list, which included only men against whom sworn affidavits had been made. He said that he had 200 names on the second list.

Mr. Covey then requested that he be given an opportunity to address the St. Peter's baseball team before they made a definite declaration regarding their policy for the coming season. This offer was promptly accepted by J. Dever and G. McGovern, both of the team. A suggestion to black-list certain managers and promoters of sports, who were said to be trying to ruin amateur sport in the maritime provinces, was introduced at the meeting and received some discussion. No steps were taken, however, to recommend any such drastic action by the amateur authorities, although many of those present seemed to think that it would be a long step to-

IMPERIAL CROWDS SAT BREATHLESS

Whilst "Saturday Night" Thrills Piled One Upon Another—A Masterly Production.

The weather was most inclement yesterday afternoon and last night but not sufficient to deter large crowds of people from enjoying Imperial Theatre's super Paramount production "Saturday Night."

During the evening business was of overflow volume, a line-up of people gracing the sidewalk waiting for the second show. Proving itself delightful entertainment for the average picture lover who has social if not matrimonial aspirations, Cecil B. DeMille's picture, by Jeanie Macpherson, was heartily received. The story of this excellent photoplay deals with two young society folk who after breaking their own engagement marry outside their set and live to repent their rashness. Even the other man and woman concerned discover their error when it is too late, but fate takes a hand later and after many thrilling scenes, Cupid straightens out the matter to the satisfaction of those concerned. Mr. DeMille has handled a delicate subject with his customary skill and discernment, and there isn't a jarring note throughout the development of the story. As usual, the production is massive and artistically a gem like other screen classics bearing the DeMille trade mark. The leading roles are in the hands of such capable artists as Leatrice Joy, Conrad Nagel, Edith Roberts, Jack Mower, Theodore Roberts and Julia Faye. From start to finish "Saturday Night" is supremely reliable. Its thrilling fire scenes, Coney Island flashes, trestle, train and auto accident, sumptuous house parties, etc., were of the most compelling value to the tout ensemble.

The varying moods and climaxes of the big nine-reel production were most realistically developed by the Imperial's splendid orchestra and with the characteristic elaborateness of all DeMille productions this story of love in high places and low places seemed to be in a class all by itself. It will be repeated this afternoon and evening, the usual four shows.

Tomorrow Imperial Theatre continues its series of big programmes with a circus-like picturisation of the million dollar photoplay, "The Son of Wallingford." Vitagraph's best bet in the last five years. This is a picture that will set the town talking and bring back to the Imperial's screen a jolly lot of familiar faces.

NORTHERN BUSH HIDES MYSTERY

Report from James Bay Revives Speculation of Surmised Oil Field—Aeroplane on Hunt.

Cochrane, March 21.—Word has just been brought here by the Hudson's Bay Company packet from Moose Factory that the free trading firm of Laduke & Snape have sold out everything, and are on their way out to the steel with the Revellon Freres mail packet. Exactly what this report signifies has not yet been ascertained, but considerable interest has been aroused owing to the prominence which both members of the firm hold in the northern parts of the region. Mr. Snape, who went into the James Bay country some fifteen years ago as an employe of Revellon Freres, went into partnership with Mr. Laduke, in is made doubly acceptable by reason of the exquisite flavour. All grocers sell 'Salada' in sealed metal packets.

In addition to being one of the original stakers of the Belcher Island iron properties, has interests in many other ventures in the north. The last word heard here of his movements was that he had gone out into the territory where an aeroplane is now on a scouting expedition to investigate an explosion which occurred last fall east of Moose Factory.

It was thought that this explosion was the result of the ignition of oil by bush fires which were burning in the vicinity. Whether or not Mr. Laduke has staked out oil properties there and sold out the party which arrived there by a route is a question interesting to many who are bent on similar expeditions during the coming summer.

Take no needless risks!

Eddy's is the safe match — the head is on tight—can't fly off!

May you never know the paralyzing fear of an unexpected blaze—from a match head flying off like a rocket!

To increase the margin of safety, the head of every Eddy match is glued to stay on tight—it can't fly off a flame!

A man strikes an Eddy match. There is a big hot flame that burns bright and steadily. If he shakes out the flame and drops the match on the wooden floor, among sawdust, paper or shavings, it falls dead—black-out—cold—entirely freed from fire risk, with the head still on it.

Every Eddy match now leaving the factory will do just that. It is treated with chemicals to prevent the dangerous "after-glow"—is made self-extinguishing.

First in Safety, first in Convenience, first in Economy, the Eddy ideal still prevails—"The most of the best for the money"—since 1851.

East or West, Eddy's Best.
