SAYS QUEBEC IS ENVIED BY ALL Premier Taschereau at Exhibition Banquet More Than $80,000,000 Spent for Good Roads and Policy Will be Continued—Plan of Model Farms in All Counties.

Quebec, Sept. 9.—(Canadian Press)—The thirtieth anniversary of the founding of the Order of Agricultural Excellence in the Province of Quebec, was commemorated last night at the Quebec exhibition by a banquet which was attended by upwards of 400. Among the speakers was Premier Taschereau. He said Quebec was today envied by all the other provinces. He said the government had spent more than $80,000,000 for good roads and there were now 8,000 miles of good roads in the province. It would continue its policy of good roads, but the government could not do all. It was for the municipalities to co-operate.

P. J. FITZPATRICK IS PRESIDENT

Today's Proceedings at Meeting of the N. B. Funeral Directors.

At the meeting of the Funeral Directors' Association this morning, Hon. Dr. Roberts addressed the members, commending them on their efforts for higher education in their profession, and for their co-operation with the health officers.

Dr. Melvin explained the relationship of the health legislation to the undertaking profession. A committee was appointed to meet the health officer in the near future to explain their views on the printed forms now in use by the undertakers.

BUMPER CROPS

U. S. Report on Conditions in September Very Optimistic.

Washington, Sept. 8.—The greatest corn crop in the history of the United States is in prospect this year's harvest. Forecast of production based on September 1 conditions was placed at 3,131,000,000 bushels yesterday, 6,000,000 bushels more than the previous highest crop on record, which was in 1912.

Tobacco also is a record crop this year and will probably exceed the best previous production by 114,000,000 pounds.

Earthquake Victims More Than Five Hundred

In Fivizzano Alone the Number 432 Dozen More Shocks Reported—Towns Virtually Destroyed—Injured Filling the Hospitals—More Than 10,000 Homeless.

Florence, Sept. 9.—The number of dead from Tuesday's earthquake is steadily growing. The latest advices from Fivizzano bring the total of dead there alone up to 432, while in Vignatta, 124 are dead and about 1,000 injured.

RECENT WEDDINGS

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. John B. Jenkins, 182 Duke street, West St. John, yesterday afternoon at 3.30 o'clock, their daughter, Miss Josephine Irene, was united in marriage with George Edward Barlow of Montreal. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. Heaney, B. A., in the presence of a company of friends and relatives of the contracting parties. The bride was given in marriage by her father and was attended by her sister, Miss Edith, while William T. Jenkins did the honors for the groom and Miss Muriel Seelye acted as flower girl. The bride wore a tailored suit of blue broadcloth with hat to match and a corsage bouquet of Ophelia roses. The bridesmaid was attired in a blue serge suit and carried a bouquet of white and pink roses. After the ceremony a dainty repast was served. The gifts received were numerous and gave evidence of the esteem in which the bride and bridegroom are held. The bridegroom's gifts to the bride were a gold wrist watch and pearl pendant; to the bridesmaid a pearl sunburst and to the groomsmen gold cuff links. Mr. Barlow is a St. John man and has the position now as manager of the A. C. Gregson Company, Limited, with headquarters at Montreal. The young couple left on the evening train for Montreal where they will reside.

The marriage of Joseph D. Guest, of St. John, and Blanche MacAuley, daughter of Thomas MacAuley, of West St. John, took place at the parsonage of the Charlotte street Baptist church, 272 Tower street, West St. John, last evening, when the pastor, Rev. J. H. Jenner, officiated. Mr. and Mrs. Guest left for their honeymoon at Montreal. The bride and groom. Following the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Guest left for a short wedding tour and on their return they will reside in West St. John.

Miss Jennie M., daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Colwell, 208 Watson street, West St. John, and J. Eldon Hayden of Riley Brook, Victoria county, were married yesterday afternoon by Rev. W. R. Robinson, assisted by Rev. W. W. Howe. The ceremony took place at the home of the bride's parents which was suitably decorated for the occasion. The bride, who was unattended, wore white organdy tulle with veil caught with orange blossoms and carried a bridal bouquet of sweet peas. Little Evelyn, and Alma McFarlane, cousins of the bride, acted as flower girls, wearing lockets, presents from the groom. Miss M. E. Mullin played the wedding march. There were many gifts of cut glass, silver and linen. Following the ceremony there was a reception, the happy couple afterwards leaving on a tour of the province. They will reside at Riley Brook.

Out-of-town guests included Mrs. John Quinn, Riley Brook; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hayden, Waterville, Carleton Co.; Miss Mary Hayden, Hartland; Mrs. F. A. Fairweather and family, Hartford (Conn.) and Mrs. Hurtle, Worcester (Mass.).

At Trinity church yesterday afternoon the Rev. Canon R. A. Armstrong united in marriage Miss Bernice Cameron and Herbert R. Sanson, both of this city. The bride was becomingly attired in a suit of brown velvet with beaver trimmings, with hat to match and carried a bouquet of Ophelia roses. She was attended by Miss Margaret Earle, and the groom was supported by Gordon Moore. After the ceremony the happy couple left on a trip to Boston and New York. On their return they will reside at 240 Rock land Road. Many beautiful gifts were received by the young couple, who are very popular.

John Stephen Pike of 164 Waterloo street, and Miss Myrtle Z. Marsters of Thorne avenue, were united in marriage in the Tabernacle church yesterday afternoon by Rev. Isaac Brindley. Mr. Pike was attended by Stephen Crowley and the bride by her sister, Miss Phyllis Marsters. Miss Owens played the wedding march. There was an elaborate floral display and many friends were present.

Many friends will read with pleasure of the marriage of Miss Florence Christina Saunders, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George F. Saunders of Model Farm, Kings county, to Arthur Russell Day of Bradford (R.L.). The marriage took place at 27 Bentley street, the home of H. M. Saunders, brother of the bride, at 8.80 yesterday afternoon. The Rev. Isaac Brindley, pastor of the Tabernacle church, officiated. Miss Bessie Saunders, sister of the bride, acted as bridesmaid, while Walter S. Saunders, brother of the bride, supported the groom. The house was beautifully decorated for the occasion. Following the ceremony a buffet luncheon was served. Immediately after the bride and groom motored to Model Farm, the home of the bride's parents, where a reception was held.

A pleasant event took place at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Chapman, of Pinder, York county (N. B.), on Sept. 1, when their eldest daughter, Bessie A., became the wife of Lee N. Stairs, a returned soldier, of Temperance Vale. The ceremony was performed by Rev. T. D. Bell in the presence of immediate friends. The bride was becomingly dressed in white silk crepe de chine with bridal veil and orange blossoms, and carried a shower bouquet. After partaking of a wedding breakfast, Mr. and Mrs. Stairs motored to Hawkesbury, where they took the St. John Valley train for a bridal tour through the province.

A quiet wedding took place at Kingston Rectory on Monday evening when Irene Veronica Bridges was united in marriage with Harry Morley Coffey, both of St. John. The officiating clergyman was the Rev. Henry Waterton, Rector of Kingston. Mr. Edward Piers was the groomsmen and Miss Jennie Coffey, bridesmaid. Mrs. Waterton played the Wedding March and also sang while the register was being signed. Mr. and Mrs. Coffey will reside in St. John.

Hatfield-McDade
At St. Alphonsus church, Hampton yesterday morning, Miss Mary Josephine McDade and George Wilfred Hatfield were married with nuptial mass, by Rev. A. P. Allen of the Cathedral staff. The bride is the eldest daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Dennis McDade, Hampton, and the groom belongs to Waltham, Mass.

Scarff-Jack
The Montreal Gazette announces that the marriage of Miss Sylvia Warren Scarff, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Scarff, to Mr. H. Alexander Jack, son of Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Jack, of Derby, England, will take place at the bride's home, 85 Arlington avenue, at half-past six on September 14th.

Miss Scarff is a sister of Mrs. H. D. Ellis, Rothesay.

Miss Norah Lansdowne Wetmore, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George L. Wetmore of Coverdale, was united in marriage in St. George's church, Moncton, on Wednesday, to Guy Launeston Short of this city. Rev. Canon Sism performed the ceremony. Miss Marjorie Wetmore, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid, and Hassen Short, brother of the groom, was groomsmen. Included in the out of town guests were Mrs. J. S. MacLaren and Miss Snider, of St. John.

Miss Marjorie Trider Colpitts, daughter of Robert C. Colpitts, of Moncton, was united in marriage at the home of her father yesterday, by Rev. Hammond Johnson, assisted by Rev. C. K. Hudson, to Leon P. Ludgate of Woodstock.

Among the out of town guests was Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Heine, St. John.

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred A. Clark, Newton, Mass., recently, Miss Bertha Maude Clarke of Newport, D. L., was united in marriage to Peter Lewis Ogilvie of Hatfield's Point, by Rev. Charles W. Beaharis of Newton. The bride was given away by her brother, Fred A. Clarke, and Mrs. Letroy W. Baxter of Eden Park, sister of the bride, was matron of honor, while Dr. L. W. Baxter of Providence, R. I., supported the groom. Miss Mildred D. Baxter rendered the wedding march.

At Toronto on September 7 an interesting wedding took place at the home of Mrs. S. Glascock, Macdonnell avenue, when Miss Sarah Edith Jackson of Pittsfield, Mass., became the wife of Ernest O. Shields, of St. John, N. B. Rev. Mr. Kearney performed the ceremony. The bride, who was given away by M. F. Connor, was attended by little Miss Marguerite Elliot, as flower girl, and Master Edgar Kensinger, as ring bearer. On their return from the Muskoka Lakes Mr. and Mrs. Shields will reside at 55 Macdonnell avenue.

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Jones Keohan, his mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Loring, a sister, Mrs. Francis McKenney, and a brother, Thomas Keohan, of Oakland (Cal.) The burial was at Campobello.

MILLINERY OPENING

It Is Today at the M. R. A. Ltd. Stores — Of Great Interest.

Visitors from all over the city and many strangers in town were in attendance at the autumn millinery opening at the M. R. A. store today.

The event was one of great interest to fashion loving women, and the hat styles for autumn and winter proved to be more fascinating than ever—originally and cleverness of design being evident in all the different varieties of fashionable headwear.

An oriental note could be noticed in many of the modes of the moment, these introduced the influence of the Chinese, Japanese and Egyptian, of course cleverly adapted to the style ideas of our own women.

Off the face hats, betons in smart variations and others of unusual shape, fashioned of duvety, Lyons velvet, fashions plush and felt were seen in such charming new shades as chow brown, cimeo pink, copper and lemon yellow.

Everywhere feathers were in evidence, many of these lunched in iridescent effects. Metallic brocades, touches of hand embroidery, ribbons and fancy ornaments are among the new and favored trimming ideas.

Choice of color, shape and fabric allows a broad variety for the fall season and for charm and distinctive style, the hats shown at this opening appeared alike to all.

This opening will be continued on Friday and Saturday, and any who have not yet had an opportunity to see these captivating styles may do so on those days.

THE M. R. A. EXHIBIT AT FAIR IS ONE OF UNUSUAL MERIT

The M. R. A. exhibit on the second floor of the main exhibition building is one of unusual beauty and merit and has been meeting with much favorable criticism. Just glancing at the booth where the furs and women's garments are displayed one is impressed with the exquisite harmony of color and on further study it is noticeable that no matter from what angle one looks at this display, every garment is in full view and the effect is equally attractive.

The design of the background is one of massive pillars, with archway in the middle. The color scheme is old ivory and gold relieved by a deep border and interior scene of blended blue and green. Large ornamental urns and vases of flowers artistically arranged are in the same harmony of color.

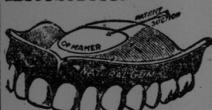

The floor is covered here and there with small, rich, rugs from the orient and on opposite sides are fine grizzly bear and tiger rugs. This display is gilded in and reveals among other things:— A very luxurious coat of Alaska seal with collar and cuffs of real sable. Price of this garment is $2,250.

A fine Muskrat coat with large collar and wide striped band around bottom. Valued at $1,100. Wonderful capey wraps of nutria, Hudson seal and mole. Rich neck piece of sable, silver fox, mole, seal, fisher and squirrel.

The hats showing are of original design and are creations of foremost milliners. One "sandy" hat of unusual contour is fashioned of bright red French velvet ribbon with no other color in relief. The hat shown on the model is an American concept, designed by "Schwalbe" of New York.

A suit of mole velour with collar and cuffs of beaver, and a stunning afternoon frock of gorrolette crepe and crepe meteor in a color combination of mahogany and navy are also most fascinating.

300 WEDDINGS IN ONE DAY London, Eng., Sept. 9.—The housing shortage is generally blamed for the decrease in the marriage rate, but in Preston the reverse is the case, for marriages have largely increased during the present year. Preston has a population of only 108,000, but a record was established when 300 marriages were performed in one day.

CATTLE PLAGUE PRECAUTIONS. Paris, France, Sept. 9.—To prevent a repetition of the cattle plague, which, after the war of 1870, killed hundreds of thousands of cattle in France, the authorities are taking special precautions. The plague has broken out in Belgium near the French frontier and the importation into France of ruminant domestic animals has been prohibited.

HERE'S A NICE PROFIT. Napoleonville, La., Sept. 9.—One example of the effect of the increased price of sugar was shown here recently when the Himalaya company's plantation holdings were sold for $350,000. The plantation was bought eleven years ago for $20,000.

The design of the background is one of massive pillars, with archway in the middle. The color scheme is old ivory and gold relieved by a deep border and interior scene of blended blue and green. Large ornamental urns and vases of flowers artistically arranged are in the same harmony of color.

The booth where the furs and women's garments are displayed one is impressed with the exquisite harmony of color and on further study it is noticeable that no matter from what angle one looks at this display, every garment is in full view and the effect is equally attractive.

Whether these things display reflect more credit upon the store that can get together such a collection of fine articles and the artist who designed and arranged this wonderful display has great reason to be pleased.

TENDER GUMS A WARNING

Beware of gum tenderness that warns of Pylorhea. Four out of five people over forty have Pylorhea—many under forty also. Loosening teeth indicate Pylorhea. Bleeding gums, too. Remember—these inflamed, bleeding gums act as so many doorways for disease germs to enter the system—inflicting the joints or tonsils—or causing other ailments.

Forhan's positively prevents Pylorhea, if used in time and used consistently. As it hardens the gums the teeth become firmer.

Brush your teeth with Forhan's. It cleans the teeth scientifically—keeps them white and clean. If gum-irritation has already set in, start using Forhan's and consult a dentist immediately for special treatment.

MORNING NEWS

OVER THE WIRES The announcement that the Ford Motor Company of Canada, Ltd. intends to build a five million plant in Montreal, or that the company is seeking wharfage at that port, is untrue, according to an announcement made by C. S. Hobson, Montreal branch manager. Organization for the next civic election and complete and definite understanding between organized labor and organized farmers were matters discussed at a meeting of the Moncton Amalgamated Central Labor Unions last night. The memory of Archbishop the Venerable E. S. W. Pentreath was honored recently in the church of All Saints at Clifton by the erection of a brass lectern of gothic design. The archdeacon was born at Clifton and it was largely due to his efforts that the present church at that place was built.

The Evening Times and Star

ST. JOHN, N. B., SEPTEMBER 9, 1920.

The St. John Evening Times is printed at 27 and 29 Canterbury Street, every evening (Sunday excepted) by The St. John Times Printing and Publishing Co., Ltd., a company incorporated under the Joint Stock Companies Act.

THE COUNCIL DOES WELL.

The city council yesterday took a definite step toward clearing up the harbor situation when it rejected a motion to submit the harbor commission act to a plebiscite. The next step will be to cancel the former motion approving of certain portions of the act, and to call upon the federal government to carry out the 1911 agreement, and also to provide terminal facilities for its own railway and steamship traffic in the eastern side of the harbor.

The members of the city council could not consistently send to a plebiscite a measure of which they did not themselves approve, without at first voting on it themselves, after fully stating their own views for public information. The present harbor commission act does not meet with their approval, and it should be got out of the way at once, so that the whole question of harbor improvement may be taken up with the government as it would have been taken up and carried on if somebody had not wished this harbor commission scheme upon the city. No one will have the hardihood to assert that the government will do nothing. It must go on, in the interests of the country and its trade, with the work of nationalizing this port, as was promised by Sir Robert Borden. It is not in a spirit of antagonism toward the government, or with any desire to drive a hard bargain that the citizens are opposed to the present harbor commission act. It is not a fair act. It takes everything, and gives practically nothing compared with the future value of what it takes. Nor does it give any assurance whatever that harbor facilities would be provided one day faster than is being done under present conditions. There is no cause for alarm. St. John is a national port whose facilities are essential to the safety and success of the trade of Canada. It must be developed.

Commissioner Thornton is quite right in assuming that the government will not force the present harbor commission act, and he is to be commended for frankly declaring he cannot accept it as it stands. As to the position of the government, if for lack of facilities the trade of this port does not expand in proportion to the growth in the rest of the country, the people may fairly ask themselves what benefit they derive from a confederation to compass which they taxed themselves cheerfully for so many years.

THE LEAGUE NOT WRECKED. It goes without saying that the League of Nations without the participation of the United States could not be a complete success. It is none the less true that the League exists and is functioning to good purpose. Challenging a recent assertion by Senator Harding that the League is "a failure and a wreck beyond the possibility of repair," Mr. Raymond B. Fosdick, in a letter to the New York Times, serves a useful purpose by setting forth what the League has already accomplished and what it is going on to do in the interests of world-peace and reconstruction. In the first place he says:—

"The League of Nations is now composed of thirty-nine member nations, representing seven-eighths of the people of the globe. Practically all the nations of the world have joined it except the United States, Russia, Mexico and the German and Austria. It will be admitted at the meeting of the assembly of the League to be held at Geneva in November. It is significant that the Germans participated fully at the International Seaman's Conference of the League at Genoa, and not only the Germans but the Austrians, Hungarians and Bulgarians have been invited to the International Financial Conference of the League at Brussels on Sept. 24."

The government has made it possible, by additions to the grain conveyor system this year for the C. P. R. to do a much larger business at West St. John next winter. It is also providing a new waiting room to accommodate five hundred steamship passengers. And this without harbor commission. Does anybody believe the government will not also proceed to provide for its own railways and steamships on the east side when the city council has thrown the present harbor commission act into the discard?

In West Orange, New Jersey, they have a new terror for youthful evil-doers. They are sentenced to go to bed at half-past six o'clock, and must submit weekly to the court a report signed by their parents to the effect that the order has been obeyed. Somebody is always taking the joy out of boy life.

Interest in the exhibition grows from day to day. The universal expression is that in its varied features it surpasses former fairs. The Child Welfare Department is always thronged, and none are so interested as the parents of little children.

has been appointed, as provided for in Article XXII, of the covenant, to supervise the administration of the territories and peoples freed from German and Turkish rule.

3. The plans for a Permanent Court of International Justice have been completed and are ready for submission to the Assembly of the League at its meeting in November.

4. The Council will place before the Assembly in November the proposal for a joint committee to work out the plans and principles of economic blockade as the strongest guarantee of world peace and the greatest restraint on a bandit nation that the countries of the world have ever agreed to put into effect.

5. The Financial Conference called by the League of Nations for the last of this month is the most important international gathering since the Conference of Versailles. The League has brought together a mass of information on world economic matters such as has never been available before, covering such subjects as international finance, credits, currency, exchange, &c.

6. Single-handed in Poland, with funds provided by its members, the League is fighting the typhus epidemic, doing its best to keep back from the rest of the world the food of this fearful scourge. The estimated cost of this work is $15,000,000.

7. The League is undertaking the task of repatriating the half million prisoners of war—Russians, Germans, Poles, Hungarians, Roumanians, &c.—who, due to lack of transit facilities, are still retained in enemy countries. It is estimated that 100,000 of these men will be returned to their homes before Christmas.

8. The League has established an International Health Office, a bureau to fight the international exploitation of opium and other drugs, and a division to suppress the international trade in women and girls.

Surely this is not the record of an organization that is hopelessly wrecked. The United States is vitally interested in all these things the League is dealing with, and the American people know it. It is not to be believed that they will permit petty political considerations to prevent their country from assuming its full share of responsibility in the community of nations. Mr. Fosdick, in his letter to the New York Times, puts the issue squarely up to them when he says:—

"The League is far from 'wrecked.' It is going ahead most courageously, rapidly organizing its work, regardless of the United States. We cannot destroy it, nor can we substitute another league in its place. Indeed, the latter contention is the sheerest absurdity. We have only two choices—to stay outside of a community of nations organized for co-operation and peace and thereby lose our whole place in the world, or to come into the League (with reservations, if we think necessary) and put our shoulder to the wheel in all those great movements for which American foreign policy has always stood."

The unhappy young man who committed suicide yesterday, and left a long letter of explanation, reviewing his short life, was evidently not strong in body or mind. It is a pathetic story of full manhood, and yet threw up the sponge. He makes a serious charge to the effect that he was induced by false representations to come to Canada, and if there is any basis of truth in the charge those who made such representations ought to be punished. There can be no doubt that he came hoping to make a home in Canada for his wife and child, but he lacked either the capacity or the determination to make a winning fight. It is a heart-breaking message that goes over the sea to the waiting wife and mother.

The government has made it possible, by additions to the grain conveyor system this year for the C. P. R. to do a much larger business at West St. John next winter. It is also providing a new waiting room to accommodate five hundred steamship passengers. And this without harbor commission. Does anybody believe the government will not also proceed to provide for its own railways and steamships on the east side when the city council has thrown the present harbor commission act into the discard?

Commissioner Frink, then mayor of the city, did a great deal toward securing the harbor agreement of 1911. He should be much gratified to see it revived again, with some hope that it may be made effective.

IN THE NIGHT.

I'm thinking things too fierce to print, for health has met disaster, and here I have a strip of lint, and there a porous plaster. One recent eve I sought my couch as chigger as a bunny; I had no symptoms of a grouch, and all my life seemed sunny. I thought, before I went to sleep, how much I should be grateful, that I had no diseases cheap, no ailments punk and hateful. And gratitude was two feet wide in all my pleasant thinking; "the gods are good to me," I sighed, to slumber softly sinking. And in the morning when I woke I had some rime diseases; catastrophe at one fell stroke, had placed me with the cheeres. My legs were stiff as wooden limbs, my back seemed prone to breaking, and I had sore and swollen glands, and my muscles shivered aching. When I got hurt I try to smile, and frame a cheer-up ditty, for I'll be better in a while—I ask no mortal's pity. I raise no wailings of despair, I spring no bitter weeping; but, gentle reader, is it fair, to seek one when he's sleeping? Is it good form to swat a bard and fill him with diseases, when he is dreaming (of his guard) of sprightly campaign wheezes?

CANADA—EAST AND WEST

Domestic Happenings of Other Days

THE IROQUOIS MOSES.

Although the parent body of the famous Indians, the Iroquois, had its home south of the border in the United States, there were affiliated tribes in Canada. It was therefore possible for the future Moses of the tribe to be born in an Indian tepee north of Lake Ontario. His name was Dekanawida, and around his name some wonderful tales are clustered. According to the legends of the Iroquois he was born of virgin birth and lived somewhere in the latter half of the sixteenth century. They declare that his mother was told by the spirits that he would be the scourge of the tribes and that she tried unsuccessfully three times to drown the babe. Thereupon she decided that the Great Spirit had some marvellous work for him to do and ceased attempting to take his life. When he had grown to manhood, following a conviction that he had much to do for his people, he set out on a trip to the land of the Mohawks. There he set himself up as a prophet with the mission of establishing a great peace among the Indians. Declaring that peace and plenty were better than war and poverty, he formed the Indian tribes into great confederacy in which the rights of the squaws of the Iroquois were recognized. Through the confederation the tribes were able to overcome all their enemies; the laws of the Indian Moses granted the existence of the tribes. It is said by the redmen that the tribal regulations of the present day came to them first through Dekanawida.

LIGHTER VEIN.

Had his Legal Remedy. "A cat sits on my fence every night and makes the night hideous with his infernal howl. Now, I don't want to have any bother with my neighbor, but this nuisance has gone far enough, and I want you to advise me what to do?" The young lawyer looked as solemn as an owl and answered not a word. "I have a right to shoot that cat, haven't I?" "You would hardly say that," replied the young lawyer. "That does not belong to you, as I understand."

JAPANESE WRITING HELD AS FINE ART

Hours Spent in Producing Letters Machine Could Turn Out in Minutes.

Formerly, and even at the present time, handwriting was an important art in Japan. Education, and the culture of individuals were measured in terms of how dexterously one handled the brush and how artistically he could draw curves and lines of Japanese letters, which are composed of forty-eight kansas (syllabary), and the thousands of Chinese characters. Indeed, the art of handwriting was elevated to an extent equal, if not superior, to the art of painting. Visitors to Japan will notice how calligraphic the Chinese characters are being originally pictographs, they are singularly susceptible of artistic drawing. Washington, Sept. 9.—The theory that alcohol addicts have become candy eaters is not based on fact, according to Walter C. CZECH SOKOLS IN RHYTHMIC DRILLS

12,000 Men and 12,000 Girls in Remarkable Athletic Spectacle in Prague.

A grand performance of the United Sokols of All Czechoslovakia, writes the London Times correspondent in Prague, was held on the congress ground in the presence of the president of the republic, ministers, foreign delegates, and altogether about 100,000 people, and elicited unanimous admiration. The foreign visitors especially, who for the first time saw the unique spectacle of 12,000 men succeeded by 12,000 handsome, athletic young women perform a series of rhythmic drills with harmony and perfect rhythm, were filled with enthusiasm. "This alone was worth the journey of coming from London," said one member of the city corporation. The congress ground occupies a large part of the summit of one of the hills overlooking Prague. It is laid out with a quarter of a mile each way, and its four sides are closed by public stands capable of accommodating some 100,000 people. The construction of the stands and sheds took months, and before they were half finished the workmen struck for more pay. The Sokols were at the limit of their means simply to get their work themselves to finish the grand stands. This shows the pluck and decision guiding them.

An Imposing Spectacle.

Sharply at 3 o'clock the president entered the arena, and the grand stand, almost immediately the imposing defile began. In ranks thirty-two deep, 8,000 men started from one side of the arena and marched to the opposite side, marking time to the sound of the music played by a band of 150 musicians. They marched into the centre arena and divided into files of sixteen, and then divided again into lines with faultless precision. This drew forth applause that echoed from tribune to tribune. A trumpet note marked each new movement.

Beauty Draws Out Tears.

After a sort of interlude by the French athletes the trumpet again sounded, and from their side of the arena 12,000 young women, dressed in short dark skirts, white blouses and red caps, entered the arena. They marched in perfect order, their arms and shoulders were bare. The beauty of their performance was such that it really drew tears from many eyes. They divided and began their march in different figures from the men.

Beauty Draws Out Tears.

Their drill was entirely different to that of the men. The movements of their heads, shoulders, arms and hands now and then followed exactly the thrills and flourishes of the music, followed by pretty steps like the first movement of a dance. They had come from the towns and villages in every part of the republic. Their training had taken months, even years. They marched lightly and perfectly as they entered, applauded by the hundred thousand admiring spectators. Words can give but a poor picture of the Sokols of Prague.

WITH $40,000,000 AID SAYS JEWS STILL SUFFER

Dr. Krass, Back from Europe, Tells of Persecutions in Poland and Hungary.

(New York Times) The French liner France arrived yesterday from Havre with 1,300 passengers. Two baby girls were born in the stowage of Armenian mothers. The voyage occupied nine days, because France is economizing her coal. Among the 475 passengers in the first cabin was Dr. Nathan Krass, rabbi of the Central Synagogue and member of the American Jewish Relief and Distribution Committee, who for two months has been visiting the various distributing centres established abroad. In a statement he said: "Although the American Jews have raised about forty millions of dollars in the last four years, many non-Jews contributing quite liberally, for the suffering Jews of Eastern Europe, this amount was inadequate to do constructive relief work. We kept millions of children and adults alive in the hopes that the conditions would soon alter living conditions as to enable the Jews to care for themselves. Our hopes were vain. Conditions everywhere are practically worse than in 1914.

"On account of the awful instability in Poland conditions generally are bad there and the greatest sufferers are the Jews. Pogroms are very frequent. The Jews are accused of being sympathetic toward the Bolsheviks and more than that, they are accused of being Bolsheviks. The Polish Jews are loyal to Poland. A little before I left several thousand Jewish soldiers who had volunteered in the Polish army were incarcerated and stripped of their uniforms, with no charges against them. As the Bolsheviks advanced upon various towns the Poles evacuated, but before leaving would loot and attack the Jews. I know that the moral reprobation on the part of the United States and England would have a sobering effect and would safeguard the Jews from further outrages.

As a result of these outrages thousands of Jews have fled to Czechoslovakia, where they are fugitives without any means of earning a livelihood. In Prague, for example, I saw in the morning sherry rooms at the Jewish cemetery a number of such fugitive families. "In Vienna alone there are more than eighty thousand fugitives, and more are entering daily. While I was in Vienna I heard rumblings of anti-semitism, and I would not at all be surprised if an outbreak should occur during the elections in October.

"In Hungary the Red terror fomented by the Bolsheviks has been supplanted by the White terror carried on by the counter-revolutionists. Because a few Jews were associated with the Bolshevik movement in Hungary—as well as 88 per cent of the immediate leaders were non-Jews—there have been unbelievable pogroms in Hungary, particularly in Budapest. "Thousands of Jews driven to despair have been baptized in the hope that this would wash the mark of condemnation from their trembling souls."

With regard to Russia, Dr. Krass said that no matter what form of government finally is established in that country, the Jews cannot expect more treatment or suffer more than at present. In Germany he said that he found the sentiment in favor of the Republican Party because of the belief that peace between the two countries would follow Republican victory.

SPECIAL LABELS HELP TO HOLD THE 'TRANSFER TRUCK' The Meyer Bros. Drug Co., of Fort Wayne, Ind., has adopted an interesting method of speeding up sales. It is the "Transfer Truck," where all the street car lines of the city converge and where there are always great numbers of people transferring from one line to another at all hours of the day and evening. It is, therefore, natural that the store should secure a large share of patronage from the "transfers." In fact, it is the custom for people who are waiting to hurry into the store and make a purchase of some needed article before their car arrives.

It is for the purpose of helping these patrons get what they want quickly that the store has adopted its "speeding up" plan. This plan consists in grouping all goods of a certain class in a certain showcase and in plainly labeling this case in large letters so that every one in a hurry can see at once just what the case contains. Here, for instance, are some of the labels appearing on the cases: Face powders, face creams, perfumes, shaving soaps, toilet soaps, writing paper and stationery, cold creams and laxatives, candies, hair brushes, combs, etc., rubber goods. Of course, the articles displayed on the counters directly in front of the showcases are the same articles that are carried in the showcases. This obviates confusion and helps sales materially.

This plan has not alone the effect of making it easier for customers to get what they want quickly, but it also makes it possible for the clerks to handle more sales in less time. Each salesperson behind the counters attends to a certain number of cases and consequently handles a certain line of goods. There is no running around the store from one showcase to another to secure the articles that the customers want to purchase.

Great Bargains In Ladies' American High Class Footwear Offered By Waterbury & Rising, Ltd.

Read the Reason Carefully

The 80 p.c. duty on shoes and the exchange on Canadian money, makes it impossible for us to give our customers value in American boots and shoes, it really means about 50 p.c. added, for which no value is received.

Therefore, we have decided to close out all our Ladies' fine American shoes at startling prices, including 573 pairs of the famous "Dorothy Dodd" quality in Black, Grey, Brown and Patent leathers as follows:

10 different styles at $ 8.00 per pair, present value $11.00 to $12.50.

8 different styles at $11.00 per pair, present value $13.00 to $15.00.

10 different styles at $12.00 per pair, present value $16.00 to $21.00.

A great many of these goods were bought before the big advance and have even better stock than if purchased today.

Call early for first selection. Positively no sale goods on approval.

DAUGHTER OF MINISTER OF AGRICULTURE WEDS.

Victoria, B. C., Sept. 8.—The wedding of Miss Jean Tolmie, daughter of the Hon. Dr. S. F. Tolmie, federal minister of agriculture, to Major Leonard Robb Andrews of Toronto, was celebrated here yesterday in Christ Church Cathedral.

GIVES HUSBAND TO SISTER

London, Eng., Sept. 8.—Alfred John Williams, 21, was arraigned on a charge of bigamy in marrying Ethel Westbrook, 21, his wife's sister. Miss Westbrook told the police that her sister told her "Williams wanted you and if he can't have you he will go away. Rather than let him go you can have him." She said she married him in order that her sister would not lose her husband.

BELGIAN WAR GRATUITIES

Brussels, Belgium, Sept. 8.—The Belgian Chamber has passed a bill providing for the payment of a gratuity to men who took part in the war. It provides for a gratuity of $15 for every month of service at the front and of $10 a month for service behind the lines and for prisoners of war and men who were interned.

CAUTIOUS IN MATRIMONY

London, Eng., Sept. 8.—The Rye Board of Guardians have received a request from a man living in the district to supply him with a housekeeper, stating that if after a week he found her satisfactory he would marry her. The board declined the request.

NO DEAD MARCH OR BELLS

London, Eng., Sept. 8.—In his will W. J. Watson directed that no minute bell or muffled peal of bells be rung at his funeral, no pulpits be used and that his body be buried in the cemetery. He said that certain old members of the council opposed him and consistently insulted him, despite the fact that they were elected to support the mayorality.

MAYOR GOES ON STRIKE

London, Eng., Sept. 8.—Dunstable's Mayor has gone on strike as a protest against his treatment by the local council. He said that certain old members of the council opposed him and consistently insulted him, despite the fact that they were elected to support the mayorality.

BETTER OUTLOOK FOR SHOW TODAY

Attendance Yesterday Was Slim - Aggregate Ahead of 1914 - Child Welfare Exhibit Centre of Attraction.

TODAY'S PROGRAMME.

(The exhibition is operating on Atlantic standard time.) 9.30 a.m.—Judging of heavy horses and swine resumed. 11.00 a.m.—Airplane flight by Captain Stevens. 2.30 p.m.—Band concert by the City Cornet band. 3.15 p.m.—Free attractions before the grand stand. 4.30 p.m.—Dancing and Cabaret, Amusement Hall. 7.30 p.m.—Band concert in the main building and before the grand stand. 8.00 p.m.—Free attractions before the grand stand. 9.15 p.m.—Illuminated airplane flight by Captain Stevens.

Unfavorable weather conditions yesterday morning and afternoon caused a slump in the attendance at the exhibition and the total figures for the day showed only 6,482 paid admissions. The total attendance for the four days aggregated 37,268, which is over 8,000 better than in 1914, but considerably behind other years. However, during the three remaining days record crowds are expected. One of the features yesterday afternoon was the aeroplane flight made by Captain Stevens, who circled the ground and swept down at times within a short distance of the fair grounds. Judging was also resumed during the afternoon. In the main building interest centred around the child welfare exhibits and every booth was visited by a continuous stream of people. The fireworks in the evening were enjoyed by all, many bonfires and rockets were set off and the principal features, namely set pieces showing the Niagara Falls, the Prince of Wales and His Majesty King George evoked considerable applause.

Child Welfare. Great interest continues to centre around the child welfare exhibits in the eastern annex. Yesterday every booth was visited by a continuous stream of interested persons, who were informed of all the various departmental activities. In the well baby clinic Dr. Loggie examined seven little citizens and found not one that could be called absolutely normal. This statement is expected to arouse the curiosity of other parents and it is hoped that the clinic will be well patronized today. Every baby that passes as normal is presented with an engraved certificate by the provincial department of health. The dental booth was presided over by Dr. Graham and Dr. Farrar, who examined the teeth of more than three dozen children during the day. It was announced at the department yesterday that Dr. L. D. V. Chipman will have charge of the special treatment, and Dr. Fenwick Bould the dental treatment in the section on Friday and that a lecture for mothers upon the subject of adolescence will be given by Mrs. Gertrude Hasbrouck. The "picks" resumed yesterday and the midway again took on new life after being forced to shut down on account of the weather. One of the motorcycle riders in the midway yesterday had a bad fall and added to the excitement of his performance when his machine died while he was near the top of the motorcade and the rider was dropped to the bottom of the cup. He was not badly hurt. Last night a new attraction was offered the grand stand patrons when the Wallace comedy acrobats were announced. The team is composed of a one-legged gymnast and his wife who together and individually perform some clever and daring feats on the rings and in hand balancing. The Whirling Arabs, from the "Garden of Allah" production made another hit with their performance and are winning the reputation of being among the best acrobats ever shown on any stage in the city. After the fireworks display Miss Winifred Evans sang (by request) several of the late popular songs, assisted by the City Cornet Band. Judging at Dog Show. Judging at the New Brunswick Kennel Club's annual dog show was continued yesterday afternoon and evening and resulted as follows: English Bulldogs—Puppy dogs and bitches: First, Shrapnel (owned by C. POPULAR BOOTH OF LA TOUR FLOUR ATTRACTS HUNDREDS. Housewives Enjoy Interesting Talks on Right Bread Flour, and Receive Novel Souvenirs. Prominent among the prettiest and most interesting booths at the exhibition, that of the Fowler Milling Company, Limited, enjoys an exceptionally large share of popularity, especially with housewives who are delighted with the instructive talks by the genial manager and members of his staff who explain just how to select the proper flour for the best bread and point out why La Tour Flour is best adapted to this purpose, producing, as it does, a beautiful flaky loaf of snowy whiteness and tender golden-brown crust—a loaf of delicate, nutlike flavor, containing the most strengthening and health-giving properties of the choicest Manitoba hard spring wheat in the most easily digested form. The booth decorations are in excellent taste, and La Tour Flour, the firm's finest product, in bags and barrels, is nicely displayed, with attractive cards setting forth the many advantages of La Tour Flour which, in addition to making the best bread, produces delicious rolls, cakes and pastries. All questions relative to bread-making and the choice of flour are cheerfully answered, and callers at the La Tour Flour booth are presented with novel mementos of their visit. Those who have not yet attended the exhibition will be abundantly repaid by a visit to the pretty booth of the Fowler Milling Company, Limited, millers of La Tour Flour.

SEIZE $4,900,000 AS EXCESS PROFITS. U. S. Government Claims Kerr Corporation Made $90 on Each $10 Share. Washington, Sept. 9.—The biggest and most drastic seizure of money ever made by the Government under the excess profits tax law, was revealed here when it became known that Federal agents took forcible possession of $4,900,000 in the Chase National Bank, New York, immediately after it had been paid by the Kerr Corporation. The $4,900,000 was payment in full made in bills of large denominations for 49,000 shares of stock in the Kerr Corporation at $100 per share. It is the contention of the Government that the stock cost Kerr and Clegg $10 per share and that the profit is therefore $90 per share. As it was reported that both men had engaged passage from New York for Europe and would sail at an early date, the Government was desirous of making sure that full payment of tax would be made.

RUN STORE LIKE A GOVERNMENT

Large New York Firm Introduces System - How It Is Carried On.

New York, Sept. 9.—The republican plan of government for employees, introduced in certain industrial plants throughout the country, has been adopted by a large New York department store. Another and more radical system of representation prevailing in the government of the United States. The employees elect members of their own house of representatives and senate directly, while the executive department, consisting of a cabinet of five, is named by the corporation officials. The judicial functions are carried out by a joint justice committee from the legislative bodies. All branches of the store government derive their powers from a constitution somewhat similar to the constitution of the nation. The fixing of wage scales and working conditions are included in the broad powers of the house and senate, while the justice committee may bring about the expulsion of an employee from the concern or if they find a worker has been unjustly discharged, they can have him reinstated. The acts of the legislature may be vetoed by the cabinet, but this has not been necessary as yet, it was said by officials of the concern. Improvement of the service rendered by the store to its customers is the aim of much of the legislation enacted by the workers, but the bettering of the morale of the force of employees also brings many bills to the floor of the house and senate, which convene one day each week. Recently a bill providing for the installation of a motion picture machine to provide "movies" in the building was passed and the management is to spend $8,000 a year in carrying out its provisions. Another bill provided for the location and installation of new individual lockers in the basement where employees might hang their coats and hats. Passing much of the responsibility for the conduct of the institution onto the shoulders of the employees has brought about many improvements, most of them originating in suggestions put into use and no suggestion is rejected until an investigation has been made by the committee. An increase in the earning power of each employee is one of the purposes of the new store government and economy divided among the saving in the percentage of operating expense. A merit system has been inaugurated by the workers, grades for each employee being made out monthly on the basis of ability, experience and cooperative work. An average grade is reached by balancing the scores in for all workers by their direct supervisors—floor managers, assistant buyers and department heads. Salaries go up along with the rating and promotions also are based on them. The house of representatives membership is elected directly by all of the employees, each electing one representative and their assistants. These two groups elect the senators of whom there are fourteen members with sixteen representatives. Half the membership of each body changes semi-annually, the electors holding office one year. The five standing committees from each body include those on justice, cooperation, economy and service. So soon as this industrial democracy plan has gone beyond its infancy, its originators hope to take the public into the organization in some way. Already observance of the wishes of customers has resulted in bills directed toward making shopping more pleasant and suggestions for other changes are expected to come from outside the store after the government grows beyond the embryonic stage. Washington, Sept. 8.—Women from countries that remained neutral and from those that took opposite sides in the late war will assemble in the first meeting since 1914 at the Quinquennial congress of the International Council of Women, at Christiania, Norway, September 8 to 17. The object of the congress is to provide a means of communication between women's organizations in all countries on questions relating to the welfare of the commonwealth, the family and the individual. Some 400 women, including several Americans, have enrolled to attend. Discussions will be held on such subjects as new lines in the system of education, international aspects of public health, the housing problem, the campaign against social diseases, and the League of Nations. Delegates will be received in the Royal Palace by Queen Maud of Norway, the city of Christiania will tender a luncheon and they will be entertained by various civic societies. The meetings of the council are to be held in the Norwegian Parliament building.

PASTOR SCORES DANCING MASTERS. Naming of Minuet the Wesleyan Insult to Christian World. London, Sept. 8.—Novel features characterize a series of experiments about to be made by the Ministry of Agriculture in connection with the movement to exterminate the foot and mouth disease among cattle. This disease has been particularly prevalent among live stock in England during the last two years. For some time the Ministry of Agriculture has been preparing for exhaustive research work against this enemy of live stock, and experts, not only of England, but of the continent, selected because of their special knowledge of the subject, have been invited to join in the research work, which includes experiments in connection with every phase of the disease. Will Do All Work at Sea. One of the novel features which will characterize these experiments is that the work will be done at sea, since the foot and mouth disease is held to be contagious, and no chances will be taken that would make possible its spread. It is the purpose of the Admiralty and the Ministry of Agriculture that obsolete vessels be used for the experiments, and that these vessels be equipped with laboratories and all facilities for the carrying on of the work, which will be begun immediately. There will be no publicity in connection with the experiments until they are completed. Officials of the Ministry of Agriculture stated that it was "too serious a matter to limit the work which would be done by able and earnest men," and that they should be at liberty to carry on their experiments "without interference." For this reason the position of the floating laboratories will be kept secret, and special isolation quarters will be provided for the workers. May Weed Out Immunes. Although it is impossible for officials of the Ministry of Agriculture to forecast the result of the investigations, they express the opinion that it was quite certain a valuable amount of data would be obtained which would be of great benefit to stock breeders. For example, it was said, it may be found that certain breeds of cattle are immune from the foot and mouth disease, just as certain varieties of potatoes are immune from the wart disease. In this connection it was recalled that the work of the Foot and Mouth Commission in India in 1912 was rendered more effective by the discovery that Indian cattle were not subject to the disease.

REWARDS EXTENDED FOR A. J. SMALL. Offer of $50,000 to Stand Good Until February 1, 1921. (Toronto Mail and Empire). At the request of Mrs. Ambrose J. Small and Dr. B. G. Connolly, managing director of the Capital Trust Corporation, and Frank J. Hughes, solicitor for the committee of the estate, J. A. C. Cameron, officials referred under the Arbitration Act, at Osgoode Hall yesterday extended until Feb. 1 the rewards offered to bring about a solution of the mysterious disappearance of Ambrose Small, millionaire theatrical manager, from Toronto, on Dec. 2 last. A sum of $30,000 is offered for information which will lead to the apprehension of the whereabouts of Mr. Small, and $15,000 to the person furnishing proof of his death. For information which will result in the arrest of John Doughty, Mr. Small's secretary, who vanished soon after his employer. A warrant is out for the arrest of Doughty on a charge of kidnaping Mr. Small and for the theft of $183,000 worth of Victory Bonds, Mr. Small's property, which had been taken from a safety deposit vault. The original period during which the rewards were to be effective expired on Sept. 1, and it was the desire of Mrs. Small that the court sanction an extension of the period for another six months. The whole civilized world will again be circled with descriptions of both missing men. So far no trace of the missing $183,000 worth of Victory Bonds has been presented for payment.

BLIND, MINUS HANDS, CAN DRESS AND SHAVE. Washington, Sept. 9.—Blind, with both hands gone, Carl Bronner, a sailor, is able, after a few months' training here, to dress, feed and shave himself with a minimum of assistance. Bronner's injuries were inflicted by a hand grenade which exploded. His case became known to Louis Young of New York, who 18 years ago lost both hands, also in an explosion. Young came to Washington, and, recognizing artificial hands that had been given Bronner, adjusted a small strap to his wrists. That evening Bronner combbed his hair. SPORTS FOR WOMEN ONLY. Chesham, Eng., Sept. 8.—A sports meeting for only aged 7 to 70, has become an annual affair in Chesham. In the tug of war the team of maidens beat the matrons. A 64-year old woman won the sprint race.

SUICIDE AT THE SALVATION ARMY HOSTEL

Welshman Writes Life Story and Then Puts a Bullet Through Heart - Inquest on Monday.

Leaving behind him three letters, one to the chief of police, one to his wife and one to a friend, William Ambrose John, a Welshman, sent a bullet through his heart at the Salvation Army hostel last night and died almost immediately. He was discovered by Patrick Mahoney and Alfred Gernally who, sitting a few rooms away, heard the revolver report about 6.55 o'clock, and rushing to the room, found the victim on the bed with a bullet through his heart and a smoking 32 calibre revolver beside him. The letters were on a chair beside the bed. Mr. Sheard, the commandant, was summoned and he telephoned police headquarters. Dr. A. E. Logie, Coroner H. A. Porter, Police Constables Harry Donahue and E. Thomas soon arrived. The body was examined by Dr. Logie who pronounced death to have been almost instantaneous. The dead man had been in the army and bore his discharge button with the inscription B-1582 on the lapel of his coat. He was but twenty-one years of age, and had come to this country but a few months ago with a friend Robert Johnson, to whom he left a letter.

That suicide was contemplated several days ago is evidenced by the fact that the letter was written on Sunday. All the money the victim had on him was fifty-five cents and an English penny. These and a few other articles were in care of the police. Commandant Sheard said this morning that when John and his friend, Robert Johnson, came to the city they were without funds and the Army gave them board and lodgings for two weeks until they found work. Every cent, however, had been paid up as soon as employment was found.

Coroner Porter will hold an inquest on Monday night. The tone of the letters clearly indicated that the victim was despondent. It reads as follows: "36 St. James Street, Sept. 7. 'To Whom It May Concern: 'This is to certify that I am William Ambrose John, at present of this address, but my home is at No. 5 Temple Terrace, Morrilton, Swansea, Glamorgan, Glamorgan, England, my wife and child being at present residing there. When you read this I shall be gone to that other world away from grief and sorrow, but before I go I would like to unfold to you, whoever you are, a little of my life's history. I am quite willing for this to be published in the daily papers for it may stir the hearts of some of the people enough to help my poor wife and child who are at present destitute at home, whilst I, God help me, am in the same plight and unable to help them. 'This is my story: I was born on May 12, 1899, in Morrilton, South Wales, of Welsh parents—the best parents a child ever had. Immediately I was born I was the cause of trouble for my mother. God bless her, never recovered after the confinement of me but remained a cripple unable to lie down, stand up or walk until she died when I was the age of sixteen. My mother was the greatest heroine I have ever known and I'm sure that if she had lived I would not be in the predicament I'm in now. Up to the time of her death I was spoiled and pampered by all, especially my mother, who did not bear me any grudge though I was the cause of all her suffering and grief. After her death, in May, 1915, things went on just as usual, my dear father and my two sisters running the house as had been done previously. But things were not the same. My mother's armchair, wherein she had spent the last few years of her life, day and night, was a constant reminder to me of her death and I grieved terribly, although no one suspected it. 'My two brothers, Eddie and Thomas Robert, were at the war and though I tried again and again to enlist they would not let me, being under age. In August, 1915, we received news of my brother Eddie's death in the Dardanelles. This extra blow made it harder than ever for me to stay at home and in the end, by cheating my age, I managed to join the Royal Marine Light Infantry and was posted at Deal. Here a new life seemed to open to me and I was really happy until my father claimed me out as I was under age. Back again at home life was as dull as ever and that empty armchair was constantly mocking me. I stuck it for a few months then I again enlisted, this time in the A. S. C. M. T. as an automobile driver, being stationed in all parts of the country and finally being posted at the army post office, Regent's Park, London. While there something seemed to go wrong in my head for I was sent to the Middlesex County War Hospital and after two months' treatment was again discharged from the army, going home. 'I obtained work as an omnibus driver and there met my wife, who was a lady conductor. I immediately fell in love with her and she with me, and, like young people generally do, we wanted to be married immediately, but of this her mother would not hear and my poor father's death of a broken heart, put a stop to all such thoughts for the time being. Well, my wife's mother still held out against our marriage and at last in desperation I again enlisted. In a few months my wife's mother repented and, obtaining special leave of absence, I came home and got married, returning at once to my depot. Well, I was buffeted about in the army from one regiment to another as unit and at last was again discharged for the third time. This time I was sent home as a coal miner. My wife and I lived for a while in furnished rooms; then, on the death of my wife's sister, we went to live with my mother-in-law. We did not live happily with her so we moved to my old home, Morrilton, where our baby girl was born. We lived happily together there, the happiest time of my life—for I had a good splendid wife, a nice home and we loved our baby and one another. It was a perfect home of love until I got persuaded to try my luck in Canada in the coal mines, for at that time an agent of the Dominion Coal Company, Sydney, was advertising for miners all over England. 'From a friend I borrowed sufficient money to take me across, confident from the advertisements that I would soon have enough to repay him and to send for my wife and child. Accordingly I crossed from Liverpool on July 20 on the C. P. O. S. Victorian, sailing with the delegates to the press conference, arriving in Sydney on July 27 and proceeding at once to the Dominion Coal Company mines in New Waterford. Then came the awakening. We found the promises of the company were like all promises—made to be broken. They had guaranteed to pay us $4.75 to $5 a day but we soon found that the best man there did not earn that. We started work and found that in order to earn a living wage we would have to cut out on an average of twenty tons of coal a day. Well that was impossible for they had insufficient tools and boxes so that we could only earn about $3 a day and out of that we had to pay for powder and various other stoppages. I worked for a fortnight and when I went for my pay there was none there for me. I had all gone in stoppages, board, U. M. W., doctor, etc., and I was still in debt to them, so they said. This put me in a fine fix. There I was, owing nearly $30 at home and my wife waiting for money from me and I didn't have a cent in my pocket. So a friend and I determined to strike out and find some other place where we could earn some money, my friend having a wife and seven children at home. We traveled by seven children at home. We traveled by train to Toronto and from there to St. John, obtaining work at the Atlantic Sugar Refineries. This was hard labor again and my friend and I were not getting on our feet while I stayed on, hoping against hope that I would strike lucky and at the same time wondering what my wife was doing about money for I had been unable to send her any. 'Last Friday I received her first letter and it nearly broke my heart to read it. She had sold the house to pay back my debts and had, in order to procure money for food, been forced to pawn her wedding ring. You can imagine how I was feeling then! Worst of all my sister, whom I had depended on to help her, had turned her back on her. I immediately drew all money coming to me from the sugar refinery, determined to go back home and went to see a shipping agent about working my way across. He promised to find me a ship sailing on Monday for Newcastle or Swansea but I suppose he failed to procure my berth. 'The worst blow was to fall yet. On opening my pocketbook I found all my money, $20, gone. Where? I don't know. I either lost them or had them stolen. So here I am out of work, penniless and owing money for my board. I'm desperate and I might as well finish it all. The coward's way, I know, but perhaps it's best for all. Only please do not bring in a verdict of "suicide whilst of unsound mind" at the inquest. I am as sane now as I ever was and am going to shoot myself deliberately. 'Before I go, I would like to ask the Canadian people to make some kind of collection for my wife and child. Checks I know, but I've got to something for my loved ones. Also, will you please try to get the Dominion Coal Company from using any more men from the old when under false promises. This is country under false promises. This is all. I shall meet my Maker with a smile on my face. I'm going to my dear mother, father and brother. Goodbye. (Sgd.) "AMBROSE JOHN."

"P. S.—Will some kind gentleman see to it that my personal effects are sent with me and I have a suit case home to my wife. I have a suit case with me and I have the name of B. Cooper, No. 2 Colliery, New Aberdeen, Glace Bay (C. B.), who is looking after my box. I would like my wife to have these things as there are a few personal mementoes among them. "AMBROSE JOHN."

GARDEN PARTY IS BIG SUCCESS

The postponed garden party, bridge, sale and entertainment held by the De Monts Chapter, I. O. O. E. yesterday was a complete success in every detail. The party was held in the house at 230 Germain street. Bridge tables were arranged in the large reception room on the second floor; a novelty book was arranged on the table next to the entrance. Refreshments were served from the dining room which was attractively decorated with autumn flowers, golden glow and red leaves.

Mrs. W. E. Foster, the regent of the chapter, and Mrs. Ambrose received the guests and the arrangements for the entertainment were carried out under the direction of Mrs. Stewart Skinner, the convener. A "grab" table with a very pretty article was placed in the entrance and was in charge of Mrs. H. A. Powell and "Madame Chiero" the mystic gypsy, told fortunes in a bona fide spirit. Mrs. Harry Robinson served at the ice cream table. Mrs. E. T. Sturdee was the doorkeeper and Mrs. Andrew Jack was the caterer for the bridge arrangements. Presiding over the pouring of the refreshment table were Mrs. A. W. Adams and Mrs. D. P. Chisholm. The conveners of the refreshment committee were Mrs. Clarence D. Forest and Mrs. W. W. White. At the "Pass it on" table, where some very attractive articles were offered for sale, Mrs. Sherwood Skinner was the convener and her assistants were Mrs. F. E. Sayre, Mrs. Herbert Schofield and Miss Laura Hazen.

Mrs. Cortland Robinson arranged the interpretive dancing and directed it. The solo dances were given by three little girls, Betty Mullin, Ethel Powell and Ruth Anna Foster. Miss Kathleen Sturdee and Miss Dorothy Bilard took part in the Golden Butterfly dance and the children in the Flower Fairies dance were Zoe Paterson, Katherine Mullin, Mary Matthews, Ruth Anna Foster, Eleanor Foster and Helen Blanchet. The bridge prizes were won by Mrs. Campbell Mackay, Mrs. G. E. S. Keator and Mrs. Thomas Guy. All members of the chapter aided in making the entertainment a very pleasant social affair and a decided financial success.

AN S. P. C. PROBLEM

Representatives of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty and the Animal Rescue League met with Miss Schofield yesterday afternoon to discuss the situation in which the league is placed by the loss of opportunity to dispose of bodies of animals by the destruction of the fertilizer plant in East St. John. The future of the work of the league in the interests of the sick, suffering and used animals in the city was thoroughly gone into. It was decided that as there were some particulars concerning which more data could be secured, another meeting should be held when this information had been gleaned and when representatives of the board of health also might be present so that matters could be disposed of finally.

THEIR FIFTIETH ANNUAL MEETING

The fiftieth annual meeting of the Women's Missionary Aid Society of the Germain street Baptist church was held yesterday afternoon in the parlors of the Germain street Baptist institute, on the same site as that of the old vestry in which the original organization meeting was held. The society was able to look back with considerable pride on the record of its half century of fruitful endeavor. While the meeting was not made the occasion of a jubilee celebration, plans were made for holding a jubilee observance in the church next week when Mrs. Edna Wilson, of Woodstock, will be present to address a public gathering. The complete financial returns were not available at yesterday's meeting but it was estimated that the receipts for the year had totalled $750. The election of officers resulted in the re-election of president, secretary, treasurer and vice-president. Mrs. Edward Archibald was newly elected as vice-president. The officers for the coming year are: president, Mrs. S. S. Pool; vice-presidents, Mrs. Edward Archibald and Mrs. N. C. Scott; treasurer, Mrs. L. Rising, and secretary, Mrs. G. W. Farber.

COLLEGE OPENS AGAIN IN FINE NEW BUILDING

Chatham, N. B., Sept. 8.—St. Thomas' College reopened today for the fall term. A year ago last March the college building and all the equipment were totally destroyed by fire. At that time the boarders through lack of accommodation were forced to return home and the day scholars finished the term in the Knights of Columbus building here. Immediately after the fire arrangements were made for the rebuilding of a new college. The present building is one of the finest of its kind in the province and was constructed with a view to enlarging it at a later date. It is of brick and freestone and everything inside is most modern and up-to-date. The college is under the patronage of the Bishop of Chatham and the direction of the Basildon and Fredericton, Rev. F. S. Dowling, on behalf of the Social Service Council of New Brunswick, asked for closer co-operation between the two organizations and that they be merged into one organization. The Temperance Alliance Council decided that closer co-operation was desirable and favored the appointment of a committee to look into the possibilities of the present work and the future amalgamation of the two bodies. The government is to be asked to increase the salaries of the chief liquor inspector and the sub-inspectors. The Council also passed a resolution regretting the suggested retirement of the chief liquor inspector and approving the action of the executive committee in arranging to retain his services as secretary of the Alliance, should he decide to vacate the office he now holds. It was also decided that the executive committee must be apparent that only an infinitely minute particle of whatever matter may be given off from his body or clothing can possibly reach the nostrils of any one deer in the herd. Yes, if the man is completely screened from sight by a rise in the surface of the ground the caribou will nevertheless catch the taint in the air. They would be warned of the presence of a wolf in the same way.

THE COUNCIL OF THE TEMPERANCE ALLIANCE MEETS

Fredericton, N. B., Sept. 8.—The Council of the Temperance Alliance in session here, yesterday, selected Rev. Z. I. Fash, as secretary, in place of Rev. F. E. Boothroyd. Rev. F. S. Dowling, on behalf of the Social Service Council of New Brunswick, asked for closer co-operation between the two organizations and that they be merged into one organization. The Temperance Alliance Council decided that closer co-operation was desirable and favored the appointment of a committee to look into the possibilities of the present work and the future amalgamation of the two bodies. The government is to be asked to increase the salaries of the chief liquor inspector and the sub-inspectors. The Council also passed a resolution regretting the suggested retirement of the chief liquor inspector and approving the action of the executive committee in arranging to retain his services as secretary of the Alliance, should he decide to vacate the office he now holds. It was also decided that the executive committee must be apparent that only an infinitely minute particle of whatever matter may be given off from his body or clothing can possibly reach the nostrils of any one deer in the herd. Yes, if the man is completely screened from sight by a rise in the surface of the ground the caribou will nevertheless catch the taint in the air. They would be warned of the presence of a wolf in the same way.

SCIENCE BAFFLED BY SCENTS

Some time ago there was held in England a "Wonders of Science Exhibition" which served to reveal many marvels to the public unfamiliar with the work done with the microscope. More people are familiar, to some extent, with the microscope than with the microphone. The microphone magnifies sound as the microscope does things seen. The microphone is the instrument used by the scientist in taking pictures of things shown by the microscope. More people are familiar, to some extent, with the microphone than with the microscope. They know it is possible to make objects entirely outside of the range of natural human vision visible by the use of the telescope for great distances and by the microscope for minute things close by; but few have any knowledge of the device by which it is possible to hear a fly walk or a caterpillar crawl. Many other wonders of science were shown at Sorbiton, but neither there nor anywhere else has science demonstrated its ability to help the sense of smell; it can do marvels for sight, hearing and touch, but not for the humble and useful nose. In that field the accomplishments of science have been nil. Let a man stand two miles, say, to windward of the point where a herd of caribou will cross an open plain over which a fresh breeze is sweeping and it must be apparent that only an infinitely minute particle of whatever matter may be given off from his body or clothing can possibly reach the nostrils of any one deer in the herd. Yes, if the man is completely screened from sight by a rise in the surface of the ground the caribou will nevertheless catch the taint in the air. They would be warned of the presence of a wolf in the same way.

DEATH OF SEAMAN. The death of Reginald Bowen, formerly steward steward at Manchester Merchant, occurred in the General Public Hospital last night about 10.30. He was removed from the steamer while she was in port here. The funeral will be held tomorrow afternoon.

ABLE TO GO TO CAPITAL. William Shea, a C. P. R. conductor who was injured by the collapsing of the Union Depot roof structure some months ago, was taken to his home in Fredericton last evening. Despite the fact that it will be months before he will be able to use the fractured limb he has otherwise recovered and he is very grateful to the St. John Infirmary authorities, attendants and doctors for their never failing kindness and also to his many friends. It will be necessary for Shea to return to St. John at intervals for treatment.

VERDICT FOR PLAINTIFF. In the County court before His Honor Judge Armstrong yesterday afternoon the case of Dean vs Green was heard in claim by Dean against Green. Harry C. Green for loss and injury done some furniture and effects of his in transit by the defendant's motor trucks from the C. N. R. station to Loch Lomond. After evidence was taken in the matter a verdict of $32.50 was returned for the plaintiff. R. A. Davidson appeared for the plaintiff and L. P. D. Wiley, K.C., for the defendant.

SEPTEMBER BRIDES

A most attractive wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred A. Clarke, 248 Tremont street, Newton, Mass., on September 5, when Miss Bertha Maude Clarke of Newport, R. I., was united in marriage to Peter Lewis Ogilvie of Hatfield's Point, N. B. The ceremony took place in the bay window of the living room beneath a bower of gladioli and autumn flowers. The bride, who carried a bouquet of white asters, looked charming in a gown of white satin with an over drapery of georgette banded with satin. The veil was caught with lilies of the valley. The double ring service was performed by Rev. Chas. W. Brashares of Newton. The bride was given away by her brother, Fred A. Clarke of Newton. Mrs. Leroy W. Baxter of Eden Park, only sister of the bride acted as matron and carried pink asters. The groom's attendant was Dr. L. W. Baxter of Providence, R. I. The wedding cake was prepared by Mrs. D. Baxter of Providence, niece of the bride. There was a large display of presents including silver, silverware and linen. A salad supper was served by Mrs. Fred A. Clarke, who wore blue silk. The bride's cake was cut by the bride.

After a reception which was attended by relatives and friends, from Winthrop, Providence, Newport, Jamestown, Mr. and Mrs. Ogilvie left for Canada on their honeymoon and will reside at Hatfield's Point.

Cook-Johnston. A quiet wedding was solemnized last evening at St. Mary's rectory, by Rev. R. Taylor McKim, when Miss Margaret Matilda Johnston of Loch Lomond, was united in marriage to Jesse Thomas Cook of Hatfield's Point. The ceremony was performed in the presence of a few immediate friends and relatives while Miss Anna Johnston, sister of the bride, wore a bridesmaid and William J. Johnston, brother of the bride, supported the groom. The bride was becomingly attired in a dress of cream with hat to match and wore a corsage bouquet of brides' roses. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Cook left by automobile for a short honeymoon trip and on their return will reside in the city.

Armstrong-Morris. At the residence of the officiating clergyman, Rev. R. Taylor McKim, rector of St. Mary's church, last evening Miss Agnes Ann Morris of Chatham, was united in marriage to William Theodore Armstrong of this city. The bride was attired in a suit of silk with hat to match and carried a bridal bouquet. Miss Mary A. Lacey was bridesmaid while John Armstrong, supported the groom. Mr. and Mrs. Armstrong will reside in the North End.

You Never Know Where He Will Pop Up Next

Great actors and actresses are often referred to as being versatile, but even the greatest of them has a peer. He is the personification of versatility and in addition he is thoroughly ubiquitous, an almost psychic phenomenon. He is here today; tomorrow he may be anywhere on the green earth where the foot of man can tread. And added to all these his character displays a hundred kinds of paradox. Last week his generous heart offered consolation to a sufferer; today he turned a miserable tenant out of the only shelter that was available for her and her family. Yesterday he was a model of propriety; today he is held in disdain by the street-sweeper. This morning a universe sang his praises; this afternoon the hot coals of decision are heaped upon his head. He is one moment as rich as a Croesus; the next, as poor as Job's turkey. On Monday morning he was referred to as a captain of industry; on Tuesday, "shiftless, good-for-nothing idler" was applied to him. On Wednesday he was leading the gallant army of the Poles against the Bolsheviks; on Thursday he was starting off for the wilds of the Arctic; Friday saw him laid to rest in a peaceful cemetery; on Saturday his voice was heard in eloquent oratory at an international convention. His name? Everyone, great and small, young and aged, has heard it a thousand times and will go on hearing it until eternity faces them. It is Mr. What-Do-You-Call-Him.

MERRY CLICK OF TURNSTILES TODAY

Indication of Banner Day at Exhibition — Some of the Features.

From all indications today will be a banner one at the exhibition. The weather is ideal and a record crowd is expected to be in attendance this afternoon and evening. Although there were only about 500 present this morning at noon there was a steady stream of people wending their way to the grounds. Those present this morning took advantage of an opportunity to inspect the various exhibits and view in comfort the prize winners. Nearly all of the judging has been completed. This morning J. D.'Brien of Brigtown, Ont., finished the sheep and pigs, while this afternoon J. M. McCallum of Shakespear, Ont., will conclude judging the heavy horses.

The sheep exhibited were exceptionally good and competition for leading honors was keen. A Shopper man, owned by Boswell, of French Port, P.E.I., won the silver cup for the best in the show. This man also won a silver cup, which was awarded by several amateur judges.

A feature of the pigs exhibit was the entries from the Boys Pig Club, which has twenty-five branches throughout the province and which is under the New Brunswick department of Agriculture. In addition to special prizes, which they are among themselves, they also entered in the open classes and won first prizes in all classes in which they showed.

The fire works this evening promise to be the best yet shown during the fair. Two men from Hamilton, Ont., were busily engaged all morning getting ready their special displays and with fine weather prevailing they expect to be able to show them to better advantage than any day since the exhibition opened. Last night they were handicapped by dampness which affected the fuses and made ignition difficult.

Another feature will be an aeroplane flight, which will be made by Captain Steven. His flight over the city and grounds at noon today was witnessed by many and the daily trips continue to be popular. Morrell, proprietor of Morrell's Garage was a passenger during the flight. Speaking on his return, he said, it was much the same sensation as driving fast in an automobile. He said they took four dips, but they were over so quickly he could hardly realize that they had made them.

COMMON COUNCIL

Report on Street Flushing — Traffic Control at Ferry Entrance — The Mispéc Pulp Mill.

A few small matters engaged the city commissioners at this morning's committee meeting. Commissioner Frink read an application from the New Brunswick Telephone Company for permission to erect seven poles in Mount Pleasant avenue, two replacing poles already in position, and five new ones. The matter was referred to the commissioner of public works and the road engineer for a report.

Commissioner Thornton said that he noticed that at Breese's corner there were two poles close together, one of them some distance from the curb and he did not remember the council having given authority for it being erected. Commissioner Frink said that he understood that one of these was to be removed as soon as the street railway work at that point was completed, and he promised to bring a report on the matter.

Asked by the mayor regarding flushing of the city streets, Commissioner Frink reported that the work had been commenced on Tuesday night and good results were obtained. Dock street, Mill street, Water street and a section of the North End had been done through the co-operation of the water, the public safety and his own department. Commissioner Bullock reported a defective cover on a manhole in Water street. Commissioner Jones said he would investigate.

Commissioner Thornton spoke of the matter of traffic control near the east side ferry floats. He said that reports of pedestrians being endangered by reckless driving of automobiles had reached him, and suggested that the gateman at the ferry might assist in looking after the traffic to and from the boats.

Commissioner Jones brought up the matter of the disposal of material in the old pulp mill at Mispéc and suggested that the other members of the council accompany him to the site in the near future. This was agreed to.

It was reported by Commissioner Jones, in response to an enquiry from Commissioner Thornton, that the bond of the contractors for the completing of the Spruce Lake main extension was being prepared but it had not yet been presented to him for approval.

The mayor presided and all the commissioners and the common clerk were present at the meeting.

POLICE COURT

In the police court this morning Peter Wood and Peter Yapp were charged with acting together and stealing a ladies' fur coat, a suit of clothes and a pair of blankets, the property of Mustafa Abraham, 65 Erin street and valued at $50. The case was postponed until tomorrow at noon when Detective Donahue, who is now ill at his home, will be able to give evidence. R. J. MacInnis is acting for the defence. The accused were sent into jail.

George H. Brooks was charged with non-support but the case was postponed until tomorrow morning, when according to the magistrate another charge will be laid in view of certain evidence brought out this morning by Mr. Brooks.

Patrick O'Keefe was charged with being drunk, assaulting and beating Mrs. Martha E. Huggan in her house and doing damage to her store in 118 St. Patrick street. He pleaded guilty to being drunk but said he did not know anything about the other charges. He was remanded.

Two men charged with drunkenness pleaded guilty and were also remanded to jail.

HELD OUT LONG AS HE COULD

Halifax Man Was Planning to Quit Work When He Began Taking Tanlac—Is O. K. Now.

"I had held out as long as I could and was planning to quit work altogether at the time I got hold of Tanlac but now I am feeling fine and call myself a well man once more," said Edward Rent, of Sackville, Nova Scotia, a few days ago.

"I had been troubled, day in and day out for nearly four years with an awful case of chronic indigestion. My appetite was practically gone and many a time I went all day long without eating scarcely a bite. I had intense pains in the pit of my stomach that nearly doubled me up and at times was so nauseated that I could not keep down the little I had eaten. Dizzy spells often came on me and sometimes I had terrific headaches that nearly set me wild. My back hurt awfully and lots of nights I lay awake hour after hour waiting for morning to come. Then when I did get up I could hardly muster enough strength to get out of bed. All day long I didn't seem to have any strength or energy left and felt ready to give up just any time."

"But I know what it means to enjoy good health now, for Tanlac has put me back in the shape and I can't tell there was ever anything but Tanlac and don't mind telling any man that I consider it a medicine that can't be equalled."

Tanlac is sold in St. John by the Ross Drug Company and F. W. Murray; by G. W. McKay, Beaver Harbor; Willard J. Colwell, Evans; C. V. Parsons, Highland; John F. Meagher, Debec; O. D. Hanson, Lepreau; E. L. Conley, Leonardville; N. H. Johnson, Clarendon Station; and by the leading druggists in every town.—(Advt.)

GEN. SEELY'S REPLY

The secretary of the Canadian Club has received the following letter from Major-General John Bernard Seely, who commanded the Canadian Cavalry Brigade during the late war and who soon is to visit Canada. The letter is self-explanatory.

"My Dear Sir—I am much honored by your invitation, which you conveyed to me in your letter, that I should meet the members of your club during my visit to Canada.

I am much afraid that as I have to go straight through to the west in order to meet my old comrades of the Canadian Cavalry Brigade, the majority of whom live in that part of Canada, it will not be possible for me to come to New Brunswick. But you may be sure that if it can in any way be arranged, I will not fail to accept your most kind invitation.

Please carry my best wishes to all the members of the club.

Yours sincerely, JOHN BERNARD SEELY, Brooke House, Isle of Wight.

MOTION FOR PLEBISCITE IS REJECTED

Harbor Commission Is Again Before Council

The Tri-Party Agreement to Be Taken Up—To Negotiate for Rifle Range Purchase.

After more than an hour's discussion yesterday afternoon, when two resolutions had gone down to defeat, further consideration of the matter of harbor commission was laid over by the common council until a date to be agreed upon later by the commissioners. A resolution calling for a plebiscite on October 14, moved by Mr. Frink, was defeated, the council thereby eliminating the suggested plebiscite feature from the plan.

D. B. Hanna, general manager of the C. N. R. lines had gone west, and Mayor Schofield, and although a telegram had been sent to him there had been no reply. Mr. Hanna was to have been in the city this week to discuss the matter with the council. Mayor Schofield said that sufficient opportunity had been given to others to express themselves upon the subject and he thought it now was up to the council to decide, one way or another. Personally, he was in favor of getting the matter before the people as soon as possible, but a point to be considered was the settlement by the government of the money that had been spent in harbor improvement since the act was passed. He had been given to understand by Hon. R. W. Wigmore that the matter would be settled by order-in-council.

For a Plebiscite.

With the idea of starting the ball rolling, he said, Mr. Frink submitted a resolution that called for a plebiscite to be held upon the matter on October 14 next and which provided that a memorial be presented to the government immediately afterward setting forth the fact that there had been a considerable expenditure of money on the harbor properties while the act had been under discussion by the common council and that the common council trusts such expenditures would receive favorable consideration on presentation to the government.

Saying that he did so to get the matter under discussion, Mr. Jones seconded this resolution and the reading of it was taken up section by section. The first section was supported by Mayor Schofield and Mr. Frink only, and so the whole matter was dropped.

Mr. Thornton said that he was ready to vote upon the matter at any time but he thought that better terms could be secured now, with Hon. Mr. Wigmore in the cabinet. If the government "came through" with regard to the ferries, he was prepared to give way on some of his objections.

Reviewing the situation, Mr. Frink said that four-fifths of the council must approve of the act before it could be offered to the public, there had been a lot of discussion and nothing had been accomplished; the only statement that had been made by Hon. C. C. Ballantyne, minister of marine and fisheries, was the effect that there would be no obstruction to harbor traffic, that the ferries would be provided for and that his signature upon the matter was as good as an order-in-council. It was understood, he said, that there would be no harbor development until the act was settled by the council and by the people and, failing that, the city would have to go back to the agreement of 1911. St. John now was a national port with an ever increasing trade, said the commissioner, and it should be through with building wharves for the benefit of the Canadian government, the C. P. R. and the C. N. R.

At the present time there were, on the west side of the harbor, city properties worth more than $1,200,000 that were steadily depreciating and when the act passed the house, setting a price for the whole harbor far lower than was anticipated, the common council had such a protest sent to Ottawa by the common council. The statement had been made by Hon. C. C. Ballantyne, minister of marine and fisheries, that development at St. John was waiting the decision of the people, and this was the way conditions were at the present time.

"Surely the government is not going to force this matter," said Mr. Thornton, "I, for one, am not ready to accept it as it stands. Are you?" he asked, pointing to Mr. Frink who did not reply. "I understand that we must be satisfied as to the value of the act before we can offer it to the public; we must decide first, and I can say right now that I am not in favor of it as it stands."

Where They Stand.

"We ought to be able to settle the matter right now then," said Mr. Frink. "The commissioner of public safety has just said that he is not in favor of the act; the commissioner of water and sewerage has said that he is not in favor of the act; the commissioner of harbors, ferries and public lands is quite evidently opposed to it.

"No," said Mr. Bullock, "the act is not worthy to be set before the people."

Notice of Motion.

Mr. Bullock then brought up the following resolution, which was questioned on a point of order by Mr. Frink, and was discussed for some time.

"Whereas, the question of harbor commission has been before the people for a long time and the placing of the harbor in commission may be a national as well as a local advantage, the act as passed by the federal government is not satisfactory to the common council and it is therefore resolved that the motion as passed in common council on November 19, 1919, be rescinded, and further resolved, that the government be requested to equip the government wharves with grain conveyors in accordance with the spirit of the tri-party agreement of 1911, and that the common council be asked to provide suitable terminals and docks for the C. N. R. traffic on the east side of the harbor and thereby help to relieve the increased congestion that is happening every year at this port, and that a copy of this resolution be sent to the C. N. R. officials, Toronto; Hon. C. C. Ballantyne, minister of marine and fisheries, Ottawa; Hon. R. W. Wigmore, minister of customs and inland revenue, and S. E. Elkin, M. P. for St. John, and the committee of the common council, made under date of November 19, 1919, and referring to the reservation of the ferries by the city upon the east side of the harbor, and that the resolution be read by the common clerk, Mr. Bullock's resolution was considered. Before adjourning Mr. Bullock gave notice that he would submit the same resolution at the next meeting of the council upon the harbor question, which probably will be held next Tuesday.

The reports of the commissioner of finance and public affairs, regarding payments during August to the amount of $16,251.88, and the committee of the whole regarding the appeal of the Lansdowne avenue residents in connection with laying a pavement and sidewalk in that thoroughfare, were adopted. No action was reported upon the latter recommendation.

An application from A. Coeman to place an electric sign above his store at D Duke street was referred to the commissioner of public works and the city engineer.

SUFFERED DAY AND NIGHT

The Tortures of Dyspepsia Relieved By "Fruit-a-tives"

Little Bras D'or, C. B. "I was a terrible sufferer from Dyspepsia and Constipation for years. I had pain after eating, belching gas, constant headaches and did not sleep well at night. Finally, a friend told me to try 'Fruit-a-tives.' In a week, the constipation was corrected and soon I was free of pain, headaches and that miserable feeling that accompanied Dyspepsia. I continued to take this splendid fruit medicine and now I am well, strong and vigorous." ROBERT NEWTON. A box, 6 for $2.00, trial size 25c. missioner of public affairs for a report. The matter of appropriating the rifle range, brought up at the July 29 meeting of the council, was again referred to by Mr. Frink, who said the city engineer had prepared a plan of the area, showing the greatest length as 4,500 feet and the greatest width 676 feet, containing forty-seven acres or so. The land was level to a great extent and with easy access from Main street, Metcalfe street, and with drainage through the Newman brook, a splendid area was available for building sites. On the other hand, the large area made the property good for the purpose of an exhibition. His recommendation that he be empowered to negotiate with the department of militia and defence for the purchase of the area, at a price not to exceed a certain amount an acre, was adopted.

The action of the commissioner of public safety and public property, in closing the North and South Market streets during Labor Day was approved. These streets are the private property of the city.

Upon recommendation of Mr. Jones, permission was given to the New Brunswick Construction Company, Limited, to erect workmen's shacks on city property while they are engaged in reconstructing a roadway for the provincial government along the Spruce Lake region. The site in question is 140 feet from the roadway and 250 feet from the lake. The buildings are to be subject to the approval of the city engineer.

With regard to suggestion by Mr. Thornton that some use should be made of the surplus flowers at King square, Mr. Frink announced that he had instructed the superintendent of streets to have some cut and present them to the Red Cross booth at the exhibition. Mayor Schofield said the fountain had not been in operation for more than a week but Mr. Frink countered with the observation that he could not be supposed to handle the thousand cases of flowers with the squares, and that he would have the matter referred to the superintendent of streets.

Permission was given to Mr. Jones to divert the sewer of First street through the Millidge property, a course suggested at a previous meeting of the council, which will cost about $600, in comparison with an estimate of $2,000 made for changing the drain in the ordinary way.

Authority to erect seven or eight street lights at the City line was given to Mr. Thornton, who said he had given notice remaining in this year's appropriation to pay for the work. The Lancaster councillors would pay one-half of the expense, he said.

The matter of establishing a government employment office in the city was brought up by Mayor Schofield, who said the Trades and Labor Council and quite a number of employers were in favor of the movement. The cost to the city would be between $1,250 and $1,500 a year. Upon recommendation of Mr. Jones, the matter was held over until the next council meeting.

Mr. Bullock said that he was preparing a hero medal for all valorous deeds performed in the city and for which the city will make recognition; he cited the recent case in Carleton, when Dr. A. Gregory rescued a young lad from drowning.

FIRST MEETINGS FOR ORGANIZATION

Summoned by a call published by J. Fred Belyea, chairman of the Liberal executive, friends of Dr. A. F. Emery, nominated to oppose Hon. R. W. Wigmore, held a meeting last evening in Wogan hall, Charlotte street, for the purpose of organizing the wards of the city and the various districts of St. John county. District organization meetings were held last night also in Beaconsfield, Fairville and Simonds, so delegates from those sections did not come to the city. The list follows: William Sullivan, conductor; Ernest Dorman, E. Walsh, C. Rhodenizer, S. Doucette, H. Seaboyer, A. Hughes, William Hardy, L. Croft, S. Carver, M. Publicover, D. Fisher, D. Delorey, O. Aulenback, M. C. Mailman, P. S. Moorshead (conductor), T. K. Knox, C. Baker, B. Knox, H. Cameron (conductor), James H. Hirtle, W. Resier, R. L. Giffin, R. Connolly, George England, J. A. Martin, Amos G. McKenzie (conductor), William S. Leithland, George W. McCarthy and William H. McKinnon. McKinnon, an engineer, stopped his train at a washout, preventing an accident, and George England, section foreman, discovered a dangerous washout.

104 EGGS IN 104 DAYS LAID BY BARRED ROCKS

Ottawa, Ont., Sept. 9.—A record yet to be beaten in continuous egg-laying has, according to E. C. Eford, Dominion poultry husbandman, been made by a barred rock pullet at the Experimental Farm, Ottawa, N. S. This pullet has laid 104 eggs in 104 days. As a rule a hen lays two or three days and then misses a day, and some are known to lay one or two dozen without a break, but never before, in the knowledge of the Dominion Poultry Department has a hen laid 104 eggs within a month.

BRAVE WIFE GETS AN ALBERT MEDAL

King Honors Woman Who Defended Husband and Son.

London, Sept. 9.—The Albert Medal has been awarded by the king to Mrs. Emmitt, wife of Frederick Emmitt, station master of Peshawar, in recognition of her gallant conduct on the occasion of a murderous attack upon her husband last December.

On December 7, 1919, Mrs. Emmitt and her children were sitting with her husband, who was in bed with fever. The eldest boy, aged seventeen, had occasion to go into the sitting room, and as he entered that room he found an Indian coming in from the garden. On the boy questioning the man as to what he was doing, the intruder immediately attacked him with an axe, breaking the boy's forearm. The boy closed with his assailant and on his mother coming into the room she found that the man who had dropped his axe, was stabbing her son with a dagger. She at once rushed to her son's assistance and seized the man, never relaxing her hold, in spite of receiving a stab in her side. At this stage her husband came from his sick-bed to the rescue; the Indian wrenched himself free from Mrs. Emmitt and stabbed Mr. Emmitt in the thigh. Thereupon Mrs. Emmitt again seized the man by the wrist, and in spite of receiving several more wounds on her hand and arm succeeded in getting hold of the handle of the dagger. Eventually, with the aid of some servants, the assailant was overpowered and Mrs. Emmitt continued to show the greatest courage by ignoring her own wounds until both her husband and son had been attended to and sent to hospital. All three have now recovered, and their assailant, who proved to be a murderous fanatic, was tried, sentenced and duly hanged. There can be no doubt that Mrs. Emmitt's bravery saved her son's life and probably her husband's too.

Petersborough, Eng., Sept. 9.—The death of an ex-soldier at Castor is the climax of a sad story of the war. Mr. and Mrs. Jakes had six sons. They served the army at the outbreak of hostilities. Two were killed, one was wounded twice, another lost his sight and Mrs. Jakes died from shock, heart-broken. Now a third son has died from his wounds.

A Nervous Wreck

By DR. VALENTINE MOTT PIERCE. How many business men feel fagged out, nervous, with a "soggy brain"—worn out completely before the day and its tremendous tasks are half over? Try the right way! Clean the body first. That will help your nerves, your head and your circulation. Your doctor will tell you that anything from a headache or a common cold to gripe or a serious illness may result from allowing food to ferment in the intestines. Don't give the body a chance to absorb the poisons. Remove the toxins from the system and give the tissues of the body aid to resist disease by taking an occasional laxative such as castor oil, or a tiny pill made up of May-apple, aloin, jalap, and sold by most druggists as Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets.

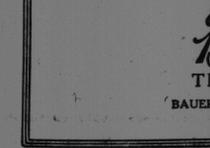

The kidneys and bladder suffer from the wear and tear, and we get chronic inflammations sometimes indicated by backache, painful voiding of water—dull, heavy feelings. Perhaps the uric acid is stored up in the system in excessive amount, and consequently when the urate salts are deposited in muscles and joints one suffers from lumbago (pain in back), rheumatic pains, gout, etc.

Nothing will act so nicely as Anuric (anti-uric-acid), a recent discovery of Doctor Pierce's which can be had at all drug stores. Anuric aids in cleaning the bladder and kidneys—consequently those suffering from rheumatism, lumbago and gout are benefited and the body is put in a cleaner, healthier state.

Either way ends every corn

Use Blue-jay as you like best. Apply liquid Blue-jay from a bottle, or use the Blue-jay plaster. The effects on the corn are identical. The pain stops. And the entire corn quickly loosens and comes out. Blue-jay now is ending some two million corns a month. It has so reduced corn troubles that most folks never have them. It will end them all when all folks know about it.

Don't give the body a chance to absorb the poisons. Remove the toxins from the system and give the tissues of the body aid to resist disease by taking an occasional laxative such as castor oil, or a tiny pill made up of May-apple, aloin, jalap, and sold by most druggists as Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets.

The kidneys and bladder suffer from the wear and tear, and we get chronic inflammations sometimes indicated by backache, painful voiding of water—dull, heavy feelings. Perhaps the uric acid is stored up in the system in excessive amount, and consequently when the urate salts are deposited in muscles and joints one suffers from lumbago (pain in back), rheumatic pains, gout, etc.

Nothing will act so nicely as Anuric (anti-uric-acid), a recent discovery of Doctor Pierce's which can be had at all drug stores. Anuric aids in cleaning the bladder and kidneys—consequently those suffering from rheumatism, lumbago and gout are benefited and the body is put in a cleaner, healthier state.

Either way ends every corn

Use Blue-jay as you like best. Apply liquid Blue-jay from a bottle, or use the Blue-jay plaster. The effects on the corn are identical. The pain stops. And the entire corn quickly loosens and comes out. Blue-jay now is ending some two million corns a month. It has so reduced corn troubles that most folks never have them. It will end them all when all folks know about it.

BRAVE WIFE GETS AN ALBERT MEDAL

King Honors Woman Who Defended Husband and Son.

London, Sept. 9.—The Albert Medal has been awarded by the king to Mrs. Emmitt, wife of Frederick Emmitt, station master of Peshawar, in recognition of her gallant conduct on the occasion of a murderous attack upon her husband last December.

On December 7, 1919, Mrs. Emmitt and her children were sitting with her husband, who was in bed with fever. The eldest boy, aged seventeen, had occasion to go into the sitting room, and as he entered that room he found an Indian coming in from the garden. On the boy questioning the man as to what he was doing, the intruder immediately attacked him with an axe, breaking the boy's forearm. The boy closed with his assailant and on his mother coming into the room she found that the man who had dropped his axe, was stabbing her son with a dagger. She at once rushed to her son's assistance and seized the man, never relaxing her hold, in spite of receiving a stab in her side. At this stage her husband came from his sick-bed to the rescue; the Indian wrenched himself free from Mrs. Emmitt and stabbed Mr. Emmitt in the thigh. Thereupon Mrs. Emmitt again seized the man by the wrist, and in spite of receiving several more wounds on her hand and arm succeeded in getting hold of the handle of the dagger. Eventually, with the aid of some servants, the assailant was overpowered and Mrs. Emmitt continued to show the greatest courage by ignoring her own wounds until both her husband and son had been attended to and sent to hospital. All three have now recovered, and their assailant, who proved to be a murderous fanatic, was tried, sentenced and duly hanged. There can be no doubt that Mrs. Emmitt's bravery saved her son's life and probably her husband's too.

Petersborough, Eng., Sept. 9.—The death of an ex-soldier at Castor is the climax of a sad story of the war. Mr. and Mrs. Jakes had six sons. They served the army at the outbreak of hostilities. Two were killed, one was wounded twice, another lost his sight and Mrs. Jakes died from shock, heart-broken. Now a third son has died from his wounds.

CAN RECEIVE 1,000 WORDS A MINUTE

Amazing Apparatus to Be Placed in Radio Station on Long Island.

Washington, Sept. 9.—The stupendous new radio station, now to be erected on Long Island near New York, will contain an amazing apparatus credited with being able to receive 1,000 words a minute. This instrument was designed by the General Electric Company in Schenectady. It operates on a photographic principle. A lightweight mirror flutters in electro-magnetic tune with minute electric impulses coming from the distant towers out in the field. The oscillations vary according to the Morse code of dots and dashes.

FIRST MEETINGS FOR ORGANIZATION

Summoned by a call published by J. Fred Belyea, chairman of the Liberal executive, friends of Dr. A. F. Emery, nominated to oppose Hon. R. W. Wigmore, held a meeting last evening in Wogan hall, Charlotte street, for the purpose of organizing the wards of the city and the various districts of St. John county. District organization meetings were held last night also in Beaconsfield, Fairville and Simonds, so delegates from those sections did not come to the city. The list follows: William Sullivan, conductor; Ernest Dorman, E. Walsh, C. Rhodenizer, S. Doucette, H. Seaboyer, A. Hughes, William Hardy, L. Croft, S. Carver, M. Publicover, D. Fisher, D. Delorey, O. Aulenback, M. C. Mailman, P. S. Moorshead (conductor), T. K. Knox, C. Baker, B. Knox, H. Cameron (conductor), James H. Hirtle, W. Resier, R. L. Giffin, R. Connolly, George England, J. A. Martin, Amos G. McKenzie (conductor), William S. Leithland, George W. McCarthy and William H. McKinnon. McKinnon, an engineer, stopped his train at a washout, preventing an accident, and George England, section foreman, discovered a dangerous washout.

TO SPEAK IN TRURO

Truro, N. S., Sept. 8.—It is announced tonight that Sir George Foster, minister of trade and commerce, will address a meeting here in the interest of Hon. F. B. McCurdy on Friday evening, Sept. 17.

C. N. R. MEN COMMENDED

Thirty C. N. R. men in the maritime provinces have recently been commended for meritorious service in emergencies. The list follows: William Sullivan, conductor; Ernest Dorman, E. Walsh, C. ON CAMPAIGN FOR PROHIBITION MAN PRESIDENT

Next to Liquor Issue Party Turns to League of Nations Question.

Chicago, Sept. 9.—Maintenance of the federal prohibition laws is the keynote of the prohibition party's presidential campaign, said W. G. Calderwood, prohibition campaign manager, discussing the issues as viewed by his party.

"The position of the party in this campaign," he said, "is that the prohibition party is needed in the failure of the major parties to take any stand on the prohibition question."

"Next to prohibition, our candidates will discuss the League of Nations. I think we take the best stand of any on this question. We urge immediate ratification of the league treaty together with the covenant. We believe the quickest and best way to obtain what changes are needed is to get into the league and fix it from the inside, according as experience teaches, rather than stand around theorizing to no effect on the outside and so blocking progress."

The speaking tour of the prohibition party's presidential nominee, Aaron S. Watkins of Germantown, O., began on September 6. The vice-presidential candidate, D. Leigh Colvin, of New York had already been on the road several weeks. He is swinging through the west.

Mr. Watkins' first trip will carry him through the middle west and both he and Mr. Colvin will knock off for a con-ple of days around September 23 to attend the International Congress Against Alcoholism in Washington. From there the candidates will go east and south, touring separately for the most part but holding occasional joint meetings in important eastern cities.

Campaign headquarters are situated in Chicago, at national headquarters of the party, W. G. Calderwood, the campaign manager, is a member of the prohibition national committee and a resident of Minneapolis.

"EVIL EYE" WOMAN TERRORIZES TOWN

French Police Asked to Banish or Keep Her Under Surveillance.

Paris, Sept. 8.—The terror caused by the Salem witches was recalled here, when residents of Louveciennes, on the edge of the Marly-le-Roi Forest, in the Seine-et-Oise, appealed to the police for protection from an "evil eye" of the medieval ages. Even educated inhabitants of the district fear her spell and are threatening to move away from Louveciennes unless the woman is banished or kept under surveillance.

Inasmuch as the French law prohibits burning at the stake, which is the only known cure for such a spell, the woman is still at large, and the police commissioner of the district is awaiting instructions from the Paris prefecture before taking any radical measures.

According to residents of Louveciennes, who piously make the sign of the cross whenever mentioning her, the woman is a war refugee from the Ardennes, having lost her husband and her sons in the war. Her look is said to be deadlier than the claws of any beast, and that all she needs to do is to look at anything or anyone and it or they immediately wither or fall victims of some illness.

It was said that a profiteering hotel-

THINKS SEARCH FOR TREASURE OF OLD DAYS VAIN

Galveston, Texas, Sept. 9.—Searchers after buried silver on the mainland opposite Pete Island, eighteen miles southeast of Corpus Christi, Tex., probably are doomed to disappointment, in the opinion of Dr. J. O. Dyer, a local writer on historical and scientific subjects. The rush of treasure seekers began with the discovery recently of twenty-five skeletons, popularly believed by many to be those of members of the crew of a Spanish treasure ship which foundered off the Texas coast early in the eighteenth century. No record of any such wreck is available.

The "life" of a skeleton buried in the sands of the beaches of the coastal country, Dr. Dyer points out, is not more than forty years.

He says also treasure ships from Mexico to Spain were discontinued after 1820, partly because of the activities of Jean Lafitte's fleet of buccaners.

Even before that time the Spaniards tried to avoid excessive losses from storms and Lafitte's fleet of buccanering vessels and fifty Spaniards transported less than twenty tons of silver bullion to the vessel. Then, the current rate in Mexico was approximately $10 a troy pound. The most valuable of all Lafitte's prizes, the Sevilla, carried only $150,000 in specie.

Lafitte's captured treasure, according to the records extant, was buried in three caches. Two of these were located on Galveston Island and the third on a small island to the east, which was completely washed away during a storm in 1829.

There have been many reports of the discovery on this coast of caches of coin or chests from trading ships containing from $3,000 to $15,000.

THE BUSINESS COLUMN

EDITED BY MANSFIELD F. HOUSE

"It's Good Business to Watch Your Phony," Says Tom

Earl Tom, grocer, of Haven, Kan., is a convert to the systematic use of the telephone in merchandising, especially by a merchant who operates his own delivery service. He says that he has markedly increased his sales in this manner and believes that any merchant who will give the matter thought will be able to do the same thing. Tom's telephone has worked the telephone angle of his business until he has it systematized and working smoothly.

"Since the customer who buys by telephone—forms her opinion of your store to a large extent by the voice and manner of the clerk who takes her order," says Tom, "the sort of a man who answers the telephone is very important. This clerk should be especially tactful, patient and obliging. Courtesy and the voice with a smile go a long way toward making a favorable impression on the customer.

"If the phone clerk can sit at a desk to take the orders it will do much to put him at his ease so he can devote his attention entirely to selling the goods and servicing the customer. It is very convenient to have at the telephone a list of particularly reasonable suggestions. The busy housewife will appreciate this service more than you may think. For picnics, school lunches and box socials there are dried beef, potted meat, peanut butter, cheese, pork and beans, olives, preserves, and a dozen other items. A similar list of goods for salads of all kinds will prove helpful. In hot weather various materials for iced drinks will be found useful in building up sales."

"Say it With Flowers"

If he is an "ungrateful pup," say it with diffidence.
If she is a sour old girl, say it with catnip.
If he is in the poultry business, say it with old hens and chickens.
If he deals in seafood, say it with oyster plants.
If he deals in watches, say it with 4 o'clocks.
If she is a sensitive soul, say it with touch-me-nots.
If he is a spiritualist, say it with live forever.
If she is going to be married soon, say it with a bridal wreath.
If she got engaged in the fog at the seashore, say it with love-in-a-hurry.
If she is a flirt, say it with sprays of the butterfly bush.
If she is divided in her affection, say it with love entangled.
If they are the parents of a new infant, say it with baby-breath.
If he is bilious, say it with liver-wurst.
If he is a tubercular, say it with "love-beal-you."
If she is inclined to be tyrannical wife to a Hollander, say it with dutchman's breeches.
If he is a Hollander who smokes constantly, say it with dutchman's pipes.
If he is an extravagant with footwear, say it with slippers.
If he is going into the sheep business, say it with phlox.
If he's a nut, say it with daffodils.

"You've Got to Show Them How It Works," Says Parsons

To sell vacuum cleaners the electrical appliance dealer must make his store sufficiently attractive to induce customers to take an interest in their demonstration. In other words, the retailer must have a proper place in which to show the uses and conveniences of this youthful but already giant strong appliances in the East.

"To make a success of the vacuum cleaner from a sales standpoint it must be attractively displayed and demonstrated," Mr. Parsons stated. "This is where the average dealer falls down. He is too dependent and not wide awake enough. He should place more reliance on himself. Selling vacuum cleaners is a straight merchandise business. There are two ways to sell them—to wait for people to come in and ask for a demonstration, or to go out and solicit the trade. We find dealers are soliciting their customers and these are the ones who are getting the biggest slice of the business."

Can New Hats Make Fat Women Beautiful?

Science can do almost anything and fashion trails along not far behind—but when the Retail Millinery Association of America recently advised for women "in the neighborhood of 250 pounds" to be made beautiful through the art of the milliner alone. New York shook its collective head and cynically remarked: "It can't be done."

Then it recalled

the case of the "hottest girl in the city" who, when the association experts finished, with her looked like a combination Gibson-Christy-Fisher model, and wondered if, after all, the thing could be accomplished.

But it was Booker Washington Lincoln Jones who had to bear the brunt of the assault. Booker Washington manipulates the elevator in the Wilson Building where the Retail Millinery Association has its offices, and he informed the universe that he hoped the

LORD DESBOROUGH, EMPIRE SPORTSMAN

Character Sketch of British Sporting Peer Who is Coming to Canada This Month.

(By Lou E. Marsh.) Toronto, Sept. 8.—For one day the athletes of the Canadian Olympic team of 1908 were bashful and ill at ease with Lord Desborough, the famous British sporting peer who is to preside over the Ninth Congress of the Chambers of Commerce of the Empire, which is to meet in Toronto on September 16th.

After then it was "Dessy, old chap," not quite as familiar-like as it sounds, but toned to indicate a sort of deferential spirit of comradeship which sprang up instantly between the Canucks and the titled sportsman who was head of the British Olympic committee in charge of the games that year.

Today I asked Jack Tait, the Toronto winner, who was on that team, what he thought of Lord Desborough.

"Good fellow! Fine fellow!" he replied instantly.

Today I asked Captain Elwood A. Hughes, manager of sports day at the exhibition, who took Jim Corry, the Canadian Marathon champion, to England and won the Sporting Life trophy, what he thought of Lord Desborough, who he met at that event.

"Good fellow! Fine fellow!" he replied instantly and enthusiastically. "One of the finest sportsmen I ever met," and Hughes has met them from Athens to Stockholm and from New York to Frisco.

Lord Desborough—Good Fellow, would be the epitome of this if sporting men in Great Britain and her colonies had anything to say about it, for Lord Desborough is just as popular among South African, Australian and Indian athletes as he is among Canadians and those in the old country. Any man who can make and hold through forty years of active connection with sport a reputation as a "Fine Fellow" can stand on his own two feet in any company.

I know but mighty little about Lord Desborough outside of his sporting activities, but he certainly has now a niche in the Sporting Hall of Fame. I was with the Canadian team at the 1908 Olympic in London, and remember him there.

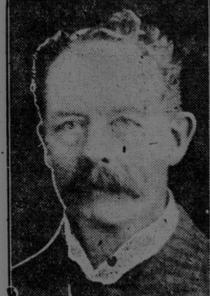

The first day he came into the training room at the station and the boys were all introduced to him. He was very formal and in at ease with him. The next time he visited us was during training hours. He sauntered in alone and promptly clapped the bare back of the athlete on the rubbing board. The latter, I think, it was Walt Andrews, the cyclist, thinking it was one of the boys, rolled over and whacked his tormentor rigorously with a wet towel. When he found out who it was he sought to apologize, but Lord Desborough entered so heartily into the spirit of the fun that then and there he became "Dessy" to the entire team. In fact only J. G. Merrick and Morton Crow, the managers of the team, called him Lord Desborough around the Canadian training quarters.

And I found it was the same with the rest of the colonial athletes.

QUIT TOBACCO

So easy to drop Cigarette, Cigar, or Chewing habit

No-To-Bac has helped thousands to break the costly, nerve-shattering tobacco habit. Whenever you have a longing for a smoke or chew, just place a harmless No-To-Bac tablet in your mouth instead. All desire stops. Shortly the habit is completely broken, and you are better off mentally, physically, unanxiously. It's so easy, so simple—Get a box of No-To-Bac and if it doesn't release you from all craving for tobacco in any form, your druggist will refund your money without question. No-To-Bac is made by the owners of Casarets, therefore is thoroughly reliable.

Right Hon. Lord Desborough, K. C. V. O., empire builder and noted sportsman who will preside at big convention opening in Toronto September 16. He presented three aeroplanes to Canada during the war.

Lord Desborough was in his day a real athlete. He made his athletic fame in open amateur competition and was an all round sportsman. He could run, ride, drive, row, punt, play cricket, fence, and swim with the best of them. He even swam the Niagara River twice from pure love of adventure. The turbulent water on a visit here away back in the eighties and he peddled off and proceeded to battle his way across.

Lord Desborough is of Cornish descent. He was born on October 20th, 1855, the son of Charles W. Grenfell, who represented Sandwich and Windsor in the British House of Commons.

He sprang into athletic fame at Harrow in 1876. He showed ability as a mile runner and bowled for his college against Eaton two years in succession. In 1874 he went to Malliol College, Oxford, where he took up long distance running and rowing and rowed for Oxford against Cambridge in 1877 and 1878.

In 1877 he was in the crew which rowed the famous dead heat with Cambridge. It was a gruelling contest all the way, but young Grenfell, like the rest of the lads, gave his every last ounce in the effort to win. The crew did come back on the row off and rowed Cambridge dizzy.

The unique honor of simultaneously holding the presidency of both the Boat and Athletic Club at Oxford fell to him in his college years and he was subsequently president of the famous Marylebone Cricket Club. Along about this time, while spending a vacation in Switzerland, he succeeded in eight days the Little Walterham, the Rothhorn, Monte Rosa, the Matterhorn, the Weisshorn, a superb exhibition of strength, agility and stamina.

After leaving Oxford in 1879 young Grenfell went in for rowing and with his crew heard the finishing gun first in several notable events. Even after he became a member of parliament he competed in regattas and as a member of the famous Leander crew rowed in a Grand Challenge Cup final and held the amateur punting championship while a member of the house. He was fond of engaging in unique feats. Once he stroked an eight oared crew across the turbulent English Channel and with two others sculled from Oxford to London in twenty-two hours. He was one of the founders of both the Queen's Club and Bath Club.

In addition to being president of the British Olympic Committee in 1908 he has always been a pillar of amateur sport in England and is now president of the Lawn Tennis Association, the Croquet Association, and the Amateur Fencing Association.

He has shot big game in India and Canada, angled for tarpon and other big fish, fenced, drives a four-in-hand, and in fact tackled every thing in the sporting line that an English gentleman may engage in from foot racing to elephant shooting and has, since he has left the nine active sporting events to younger blood, had a place in the government of about every sport worth while in the Old Country.

If you want to know anything about Lord Desborough's political, fraternal and social career, you'll have to ask "Politician" and "The Tattler," but I do know that when war broke out his two sons, Captain, the Honourable Julian Henry Francis Grenfell, D. S. D., of the Royal Dragons, and the younger son, Honourable Gerald William Grenfell, of the Rifle Brigade, went to the front on the first call, served with distinction and both fell "On Flander's Fields."

Lord Desborough himself engaged in war work, was deputy director of the War Office and was responsible for the Upper Thames bridges and the London water supply intakes and was president of the National Motor Volunteers.

No man in England worked more incessantly or uselessly during the war than Lord Desborough.

JUBILEE OF "PRO" BASEBALL IS TO BE OBSERVED

Chicago, Sept. 9.—The fiftieth anniversary of the first professional baseball championship game will be celebrated by the Old Timers' Baseball Association at a banquet here on October 13.

The game was played between the Cincinnati Red Stockings and the Chicago White Stockings on October 13, 1870, at the old Dexter Driving Park in this city. The Cincinnati aggregation went down to defeat 16 to 3 at the hands of the Chicago team.

This game was practically the beginning of professional baseball, according to Al G. Spink of Chicago, secretary of the old association. The Old Timers' Baseball Association was organized about a year ago. It takes in persons who played in or who saw the game and now has about 1,000 members. Tom Foley, manager of the old White Stockings team, is a member.

YOUTH RESPONDS TO SONG "KISS ME"

New York, Sept. 9.—(Associated Press) The prima donna of an up-town burlesque show sang "Come to My Arms and Kiss Me," to Magistrate Simms in the Harlem Court last week.

Whereupon he, without hesitation, fined nineteen-year-old Charles Solber $3 for climbing over theatre footlights to answer the same call of the same singer last Monday.

Solber, charged with disorderly conduct, following an "explosion of emotion" when he mounted the stage from his first row seat after the song had been "sung at him," declared he could not resist the appeal.

Magistrate Simms decided that first hand information was best, and decreed that "Come to My Arms and Kiss Me" be rendered in court.

DEVELOPMENT IN OYSTER CULTURE

W. F. Wells Has Conducted Interesting Experiment in Hatching Young Shell Fish.

West Sayville, N. Y., Sept. 8.—Propagation of young oysters all ready to "set out" guaranteed to multiply with proper care into a flourishing brood, may result from experiments just concluded by W. F. Wells, of the New York Conservation Commission, who today reported on his extensive study of oyster breeding.

Mr. Wells, at his laboratory on the shore of the Great South Bay, has succeeded in keeping alive millions of young oysters from the larva to the "set" stage. In his report he said that hatcheries modeled after his plant can be built wherein the oysters may be incubated until time to set them out in deep waters.

His method for developing oyster "sets" from oyster seed, or spaw, removes one of the chief obstacles in the commercial propagation of oysters, Mr. Wells said.

"The seeds are so small," he explained, "from the time they are laid by the oyster until they are mature enough to attach themselves to a surface in sets, that experimenters have had the greatest difficulty in devising a practicable commercial method of keeping the tiny shellfish supplied with a fresh supply of salt water and food without washing them all down the drain."

"When the oysters reach the set stage, they can safely be put in the beds to fend for themselves. After that time the oyster grows very rapidly for a period of some weeks and gains full maturity within three or four years."

One of the chief obstacles, that of handling the larvae, or tiny eggs, while changing their water, the report says, was overcome by the use of a centrifugal machine, which concentrates the eggs in a small receptacle. The hatching apparatus was made of a series of large inverted glass carboys, fitted with tubes which permitted a fresh supply of salt water and air to percolate so gradually that the development of the eggs was not retarded. Microscopic examination is necessary following the gradual development of the eggs to the "set" stage.

Mr. Wells declared it is a well-known fact that in the last 10 years the production of oysters has been very much reduced. It was to determine the exact cause of this reduction, he said, that his studies were undertaken. It has been suggested, he said, that pollution of the waters has injured many of the most productive beds in Connecticut and in the vicinity of New York.

FORCE A CONVICT OUT OF SING SING

Charles Ortner Could Have Gone Free Two Years Ago, But Insisted on Staying.

Ossining, Sept. 8.—Officials of Sing Sing have announced today that they were making preparations to throw Charles Ortner, a stubborn inmate, out of the prison. He could not be coaxed to leave.

Ortner was eligible for parole nearly two years ago, but refused to all invitations to sign his parole application and leave. He received an indeterminate sentence of from two to four years in Queens County. He had been charged with assaulting Alexander Gross, a fellow employe, in a mill in Whitestone, L. I., with an iron weight.

When his minimum sentence expired, nearly two years ago, Warden William H. Moyer tried to induce Ortner to sign a parole application and leave Sing Sing. He refused to sign anything. Later Warden Edward V. Brophy coaxed him to go home.

"The judge said two to four years," protested Ortner, "and nothing about signing anything. So I will not sign; I'm perfectly satisfied here."

Major Lewis E. Lewis, the warden, admitted today that Sing Sing officials have given up all hopes of getting rid of Ortner, who peacefully persists in his refusal to sign anything.

"His time is nearly up," said Major Lewis, "and we are going to put him out bodily."

Ortner has been doing hard, laborious work in Sing Sing, but he has not prejudiced him against prison life there.

Because of his "staying quality" the officials let him work outside the walls as a "trusty." He is the only prisoner would waver could not be tempted to escape if left unguarded. When his maximum four years' sentence expires very soon, Ortner need not sign a parole application, as he will have served the full sentence in prison and therefore must be discharged absolutely free and not placed on parole. 6,000 AWAIT SHIPS IN SICILY; MANY AMERICANS HELD ABROAD. Washington, Sept. 9.—The State Department has received a report from Palermo, Italy, stating that American citizens and Italian residents of the United States, who have gone to Italy to visit their relatives, have been unable to secure early return passage to the United States, particularly in second and third classes as all the accommodations on the passenger steamers are taken up several months in advance. The report stated that on Aug. 1 there were more than 6,000 persons in Sicily awaiting transportation to the United States and that steamship service from Palermo consisted of one sailing at intervals of eight days, the steamer embarking an average of 400 immigrants each time. The delays, the report added, have caused considerable hardship.

SAYS THAT CANCER IS CAUSED BY SALT Suggests That Potassium Nitrate May Cause Relief. It is the theory of Dr. Edward Percy Robinson, of New York, that cancer is produced by too much salt (calcium chloride) in the blood, and that it can be cured by administering potassium nitrate. Dr. Robinson has published several articles on this subject. He now returns to verify this method, all of which are decidedly improved and several of which it is a constituent.

WHERE THE BABY GETS HIS BLUE EYES FROM London, Sept. 9.—Where baby gets his blue eyes from is said to have been discovered by Dr. H. Bryn of Norway. After examining 884 persons, Dr. Bryn found that when all the parents and grandparents had blue eyes all the children were blue-eyed, while when some of the grandparents' eyes were brown, only about 90 out of 100 of the children had blue eyes.

METHODISTS TAKE PART IN NOVA SCOTIA DRY CAMPAIGN Rev. John Coburn, field secretary of the Social Service Department of the Methodist Church, has left Toronto for Nova Scotia, where he will take part in the referendum campaign for that province. Along with Alberta, Manitoba and Saskatchewan, Nova Scotia will vote on Oct. 25, under the Canada Temperance Act, to decide whether importation of liquor will be permitted or not.

Cross-Cut Saw Handles

No. 122 Rod Through Handle

No. 4

No. 5

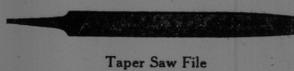

No. 5, Reversible Handles, light.
No. 9, Reversible Handles, heavy.
No. 122 Loop Handles.

The No. 122 Handle, when on saw, exerts a pressure from top of handle to bottom edge of blade, thus insuring a strong, firm grip on saw, without possibility of lost motion or wobbling.

PYRO ROOFING

Unaffected By Heat, Cold, Sun, or Rain

PYRO is a first class roofing in every respect and its advantages over other prepared or "Ready" Roofings is due to the fact that there is no coal-tar used in PYRO. This means that it does not dry up and become brittle under exposure to the heat of the sun. For this reason it retains its strength and pliability almost indefinitely, instead of becoming hard and cracking, as do roofings made of substitutes for natural asphalt.

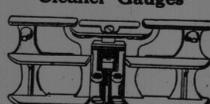

Put up in rolls containing 108 square feet, with cement and tacks—all ready to put on the roof.

On quantities we will quote you a special price, delivered to your nearest Railway Station or Steamboat Landing.
