SOLDIERS OF SECOND CONTINGENT WILL BE HERE AT LEAST SIX WEEKS MORE

Mayor Frink Brings Important News Home From Ottawa

No General Mobilization - Most of Mail Handled at Halifax but Steamers All Will Come Here-The Remounts-General Hughes Speaks of a City Saloon

The friends of the men who have enlisted with the 96th battalion and the other branches of the second contingent will be glad to learn that they are to remain here for at least six weeks longer, and probably more. This announcement was made by Mayor Frink this morning on his return from Ottawa, where he had an interesting interview with Major General Hon. Col. Sam Hughes.

One of the chief purposes of His Worship's trip to Ottawa was to learn the plans for the forwarding of the second contingent with the idea of having St. John selected as the point of mobilization if the soldiers were to be massed at any one place before their departure. The minister of militia assured the mayor that there would be no mobilization, but that the troops would be kept at the points at which they were enlisted until they were ready to sail. When that time came they would be forwarded from inland points just in time to board the transports on which they would cross the ocean.

With regard to the plans for recruiting for the third contingent, Mayor General Hughes said that there would be recruited in St. John one and a half squadrons of cavalry (about 800 men) and two additional companies of infantry (about 400 men). Recruiting will be carried on also at other places in the province, at Fredericton for one place and the applications of Chatham and Moncton to be named as recruiting centres are under consideration.

In company with J. M. Robinson of the St. John Board of Trade, Mayor Frink also interviewed Hon. J. D. Hazen with regard to the sailings of the winter fishermen called on for great sacrifice in the cause of empire.

London, Dec. 7.—An order issued by admiralty yesterday that the whole fishing fleet in the Fifth of Forth, Scotland, cease operations has been received with consternation by a thousand fishermen who say they face ruin. The population also is excited as the people believe the prices of fish will advance beyond the reach of the people, whose principal food is fish. The Fifth ports will be closed to fishing until the end of the war.

A break in the sugar refinery main occurred on Saturday in Erin street, opposite the tannery. The workmen of the water and sewerage department were busy all Saturday night, and completed repairs, but when the water was turned on the pipe gave way again. They are still at work, but expect to have the job completed today.

A start has been made on the work of laying a new water main through the Marble Cove district, using the cutting in which the new sewer was laid last year. One of the chief uses of the new line will be to provide fire protection for the buildings, wharves and steamers which have, in the past, been unprotected.

The water extension in Durham street has been completed by the department.

Phelix and Pherdinand WEATHER BULLETIN

Issued by authority of the Department of Marine and Fisheries, R. F. Stupart, director of meteorological service.

mail steamers. There had been a proposal to divide the service, but this was opposed and the arrangement has been made that all the mail steamers will come to St. John. They will call at Halifax inward and outward and that port will probably get the bulk of the mail business and a large share of passenger traffic, but St. John will get almost all the freight business.

The Horses. Mayor Frink also took advantage of the trip to Ottawa to interview the military director general with regard to the prospects for the shipment of horses for the imperial remount department from the United States through Canada. The director general gave, as his opinion, that the danger of infection from the cattle plague was too great to allow any lessening of the restrictions at present. He informed the mayor that the Grand Trunk Railway was considering a plan for shipping horses from some border point, probably Sarnia, to the Atlantic port in sealed cars by express trains. Owing to the heavy requirements of the winter traffic he did not have much hope that this plan could be worked out.

A Saloon Matter. In conversation with Mayor General Hughes, Mayor Frink referred to the protests which had been made against the city saloon. The minister of militia expressed himself as strongly opposed to the idea of allowing such a place to continue doing business at the gates of the army. He pointed out that he had no jurisdiction in the matter, but that he thought the provincial or municipal authorities might find some means by which the saloon might be compelled to cease operations at least while the soldiers are stationed there.

Comrade Was Cleaning Gun in Armory - Trooper is Kicked by Horse. Just a few moments after he had come off guard duty about noon today, Thomas Cardy, a member of the 26th Infantry Battalion was shot in the left thigh by a comrade-in-arms who was cleaning his gun. Both had been on guard duty and had been relieved. The accident happened in one of the smaller rooms of the main floor of the armory. Cardy was rushed to the General Public Hospital where he is now being treated for the wound. It is not definitely known how serious the injury is, but it is not regarded as tending to be fatal. Witnesses of the shooting say it was purely accidental. Cardy belongs to the North Shore.

NEW OUTBREAK OF FOOT AND MOUTH DISEASE. Boston, Dec. 7.—One of the worst outbreaks since the hoof and mouth disease epidemic in Massachusetts was reported to the state board of agriculture on Friday from Richolm on the farm of J. H. Barney who owns 24 cattle, 1500 hogs and an "indefinite number" of poultry. It has not been determined whether all the animals will have to be killed.

Mr. Walker issued the following statement: "The disease, we have every reason to believe, is substantially under control. We are much disturbed, however, by the alarming number of new cases discovered all over the state in the last few days. These outbreaks are entirely unnecessary and are due to the abnormal curiosity of the general public. The danger of infection is grossly over-estimated. The people do not realize the serious danger of carrying the disease, and persist in besieging this office with requests for permits to view infected cattle. The disease will not be exterminated until this curiosity abates."

HAD MARCH-OUT. The members of the newly formed rifle club in the city, some fifty in number, had a march-out on Saturday afternoon as far as Torryburn. The walk was done in an hour and thirty minutes, and they came in an hour and twenty-five. They had supper at Newcombe's.

GUILTY OF MURDER IS MAINE VERDICT

Jury Finds Against Alden Boulter in Houlton Trial

SULLIVAN CASE IS OPENED

Houlton, Me., Dec. 7.—Guilty of murder was a verdict reported against Alden Boulter, a Woodland boy, who killed his sweetheart, Emma Jensen, at Caribou, on June 28, by the jury at the conclusion of his trial in the supreme court on Saturday. The jury was out one hour and thirty-seven minutes. The defense contended that the shots which hit the girl were fired to save her from harm at the hands of a circus man.

Dr. Dudley Placed on Trial and Work of Choosing a Jury is Begun—Kate O. Michaud Pleads Not Guilty and is Remanded. The Sullivan case is opened.

Dr. Lionel Dudley was then placed on trial before Associate Justice George F. Haley on the charges of murder and performing an illegal operation upon Mildred Sullivan of Houlton on Sept. 10.

Miss Sullivan is the 17-year-old girl whose body was exhumed from its hidden grave at Presque Isle a little more than two months after her disappearance while ostensibly attending the county fair there.

The trial will require ten days at least, as both the prosecution and defense have long lists of witnesses. The state depends on Kate O. Michaud of Wallagons plantation to repeat her alleged confession.

Miss Michaud and Alice Pelletier, a young woman of Presque Isle, were indicted on the same charges as were reported against Dr. Dudley and Ambrose Bridge of Houlton, is charged with being an accessory before the fact of the alleged operation, but the state's attorneys decided to try Doctor Dudley first.

Kate O. Michaud was arraigned and pleaded not guilty and was remanded for trial.

Doctor Dudley, pale, but smiling, and immaculately dressed, was brought into the court room and seated near his co-defensive array of counsel. He smiled pleasantly to several friends as he recognized them in the crowd which filled the small room. The work of selecting a jury now is going on.

Dover-Foxcroft, Dec. 7.—An inspection of the supreme court docket for Piscataquis county brought forth the Mildred Sullivan case in Arrostook is not the first entanglement of Ambrose Bridge of Houlton. The case on the Piscataquis docket is that of Peris L. Stubbs of Brownville against Ambrose Bridge of Houlton. Bridge did not appear in court and a default is recorded on the court docket.

ONLY ONE END TO IT, SAYS BORDEN

Premier, in Montreal, Speaks on the War

BRITAIN'S POSITION

Montreal, Dec. 7.—"The challenge of Germany to the British navy—the safeguard of our empire—has been a remarkable for nearly twenty years," declared Sir Robert Borden in an address before the Canadian Club this afternoon. "A decisive battle would forever ruin the United Kingdom and shatter the British Empire to its foundations and change profoundly the destiny of its component parts."

The premier's speech was listened to by an audience that more than filled the banquet room at the Windsor Hotel. He spoke of many topics relating to the war, of Germany's ambition, of the momentous nature of the struggle, of the part the navy and the army are playing, of the utmost devotion and earnest self-governing dominions and their share of the alien enemies within Canada and finally the only conclusion possible, however long delayed—to overthrow the most powerful and highly organized system of militarism that ever existed.

"Much has been said and written," the premier remarked, "as to the direct causes which involved our empire in this conflict. The utmost devotion and earnestness characterized the efforts of Mr. Asquith and Sir Edward Grey first to prevent war and next to narrow the conflict. The view has been expressed that an earlier declaration of Great Britain's determination would possibly have saved the situation. Those who are familiar with the later phases of constitutional government in Great Britain understand thoroughly that the British government could have taken no other course than that which they did adopt."

"You do not need to be told of the momentous nature of the struggle in which we are engaged. Every man in Canada will realize that it challenges the continued existence of this Empire and involves the destiny of its dominions."

Thirty thousand Canadians now on Salisbury Plain will soon be at the front and 50,000 more are in training in Canada. As fresh contingents go forward, further forces will be enlisted as long as the need continues. In this great testing time, Canada has made known to the empire and to the world her true spirit. It has animated the men who are fighting in thousands to do Sunlight and in every city, village and hamlet are busy in manifold activities for the soldier wherever needed.

"We cannot yet foresee the end of this conflict, but there can be only one conclusion, however long delayed."

Proposed Memorial to Miss Mabel Peters. At a meeting of the executive of the National Council of Women of Canada, held recently in Toronto, the following resolution was moved by Dr. Augusta Gulen, and seconded by Mrs. Huettis, was unanimously adopted:

"Resolved that this National Council of Women now assembled in executive session desire to express to the executive of the National Council of Women of Canada, as well as to her co-workers in St. John, their sympathy in the great bereavement."

"This executive committee realizes that all Canada owes a lasting debt of gratitude to our departed member, and, inasmuch as Miss Peters was the first woman who introduced supervised playgrounds in Canada, that this executive, as a memorial to Miss Peters, will do all in its power to further the formation of a National Supervised Playgrounds Association for Canada."

SEVENTY-FIVE YEARS OLD; HE SKATES FROM SHEFFIELD TO CAPITAL

Shepherd Taylor Starts Home Over Ice After Transacting Business - Church Re-opening

ENGLAND'S SPEECH AT THE JAPANESE DIET OPENING

Fredericton, Dec. 7.—Stephen Taylor, of Sheffield, seventy-five years of age, skated from his home in this city this morning in two hours. The distance is seventeen miles. After transacting some business in the city he left for home on skates.

Recruiting for the field battery here has been stopped and as the unit is over strength there will likely be some pressing out before it starts on foreign service.

The body of Mrs. Beverly Robinson, who died in Winnipeg, will arrive here tomorrow for burial.

Brunswick street Baptist church, which has been undergoing extensive repairs, will be re-opened on next Sunday. Rev. Dr. MacDonald, editor of the Maritime Baptist, will be the preacher at both services. Rev. Mr. Newcomb, who is recovering from his recent illness, expects to be able to attend. The large pipe organ has been removed from the choir to the rear of the pulpit.

London, Ont., Dec. 7.—William Phillips of Thorndale, twenty-five years of age, was instantly killed, and Miss M. Smith of the same place, probably fatally injured when a buggy in which they were riding was struck at a crossing by a C. P. E. yard engine last night.

Canadian Soldiers Dead in Scotland. Ottawa, Dec. 7.—Casualty, Canadian Expeditionary Force—Dec. 5, No. 18679, Private Francis John Ross, 5th Battalion, at Scottish hospital, Aberdeen, of cerebro spinal meningitis. Next of kin Francis Ross, Pine Lake, Alberta.

ALLIES CONTINUE TO MAKE GAINS IN WEST; LODZ STILL IN RUSSIANS' HANDS?

Paris, Dec. 7 (3 p. m.)—The French war office gave out an official communication this afternoon as follows:—

NO CHANGE ON SUNDAY. Petrograd, Dec. 7.—An official communication issued by the general staff says:—

FIGHTING ON SWISS FRONTIER. London, Dec. 7.—The Times correspondent at Bern says:—

BALKANS IN LINE WITH ALLIES' VIEWS. London, Dec. 7.—Progress has been made toward an understanding in the Balkan states, which will be satisfactory to the allies, according to the Athens correspondent of the Telegraph, who understands that a basis has been reached for a rapprochement between Serbia and Bulgaria. The British, Russian and French ministers have visited Eleutherios Venizelos, the Greek premier, the correspondent reports, and the correspondent says that the Greek newspapers declare that the visits concerned proposals that Greece should assist Serbia.

DARING WORK OF RUSSIAN CAVALRY WHICH WILL LIVE IN HISTORY. London, Dec. 7.—The Times correspondent wires from Petrograd:—

"The fighting near Lodz has been marked by very striking episodes. The Novos Vyvema correspondent writes that during attacks by the Siberian cavalry at Ragow Brest, Tushin and Tusk and on the line to Zdzislawice will be commemorated in history."

The forest between Krupin and Brest is a continuous German graveyard. One Russian regiment, which already has won renown early in the war, charged a howitzer battery of the enemy. The centre broke before the hail of fire, but nothing could arrest the rush on the flanks. They cut down the guns, captured the howitzers and cleared the way for the infantry. How unexpected and terrible was this joint attack appeared from the firing of the village of Krupin where maddened German soldiers were seeking refuge. They were burned alive when Russian shells set the huts on fire.

"Wednesday morning the Germans left Zdzislawice to storm Lodz, but did not reach even the Russian trenches. The columns on their bayonets while the Russian batteries stalled them. The struggle lasted several hours. The Germans strained every effort to pierce the Russian infantry line, but in vain."

Russians Still Occupy Lodz. New York, Dec. 7.—A cable to the Herald from London this morning says:—

The great movement of German troops from Belgium and Germany to reinforce Field Marshal Von Hindenburg in Poland, apparently is having its effect. While Petrograd is silent on the great struggle, and Berlin says the "offensive is progressing normally," "official advice says that serious fighting is taking place at Iow, thirty miles from Warsaw. The Russian centre at Lodz, the southeast of Lodz. Both of these towns, like Lodz, are situated on the main roads to the Polish capital, and are far in advance of any positions from which the Germans heretofore have been reported since their retreat from Warsaw in October.

The new offensive by Field Marshal Von Hindenburg began on Thursday last, when, falling in his attempt to pierce the Russian centre at Lodz, he commenced another effort to envelope the opposing flanks. This drive, from the unofficial reports, has progressed approximately twenty miles on each flank, and leaves Lodz, still in the possession of the Russians, as the top of the Russian arch that extends toward the West frontiers.

Serbian Success Reported. Paris, Dec. 7.—A despatch from Nisa, Serbia, to the Havas Agency, reports that the Serbians, since December 5, have resumed a vigorous offensive and that the Serbian troops on Friday pursued the enemy's right wing as far as the Kolubara River, and the Austrians abandoned four of their batteries.

MINES DESTROYED. London, Dec. 7.—A Stockholm despatch to Reuters states that five Swedish steamers Luna and Everilda struck mines off the Finnish coast and both steamers sunk. The crew of the Luna was saved, but all aboard the Everilda except one man, were lost.

Prisoners in Ontario. Kingston, Ont., Dec. 7.—Seventy more prisoners of war have arrived at Fort Henry, where they now are 615 interned.

ENGLAND'S SPEECH AT THE JAPANESE DIET OPENING. Tokyo, Dec. 7.—The opening of the Japanese Diet today was a brilliant function.

"I am happy to announce," the emperor said, "that the alliance with Great Britain and the entente has been cemented in the present critical stage by stronger bonds of amity. Our army and navy have crushed the enemy in co-operation with our ally and peace in the Orient is gradually being restored. But the great war is not yet ended. We rely on the loyalty and bravery of our subjects. We wish to attain the object as quickly as possible."

The emperor requested the diet to cooperate harmoniously with the programme of the administration and pass its financial budgets and necessary political measures.

READY TO BANKRUPT CANADA, SAYS MEIGHEN

Cabinet Member Says No Sacrifice too Great to Make—Liquor Traffic Restriction

WINNIPEG. Dec. 7.—Addressing the annual meeting of the Winnipeg Canadian Club, Hon. Arthur Meighen aroused great enthusiasm when he declared that the "Canadian government stands ready to bankrupt this dominion to support the mother country in this war, for it is our war in the best sense of the word, and no sacrifice is too great for us to make at this time. No other considerations animate us."

The club adopted a resolution favoring greater restrictions on the liquor traffic during war time.

ENEMY'S CAPTAIN IS ON WAY TO ENGLAND AS PRISONER OF WAR

London, Dec. 7.—Capt. Von Mueller of the German cruiser Engden, which was run ashore recently in the Indian Ocean during a fight with the Australian cruiser Sydney, is being brought to England, where he will be confined as a prisoner of war.

Thus will be averted the controversy which appeared to be threatening in Australia. Cable dispatches said there was a proposal to give Captain Von Mueller a great reception and that this proposal had aroused a storm of opposition. It is not known where Captain Von Mueller will be detained.

EXPECT BORDEN TO SPEAK IN SEVERAL PLACES IN PROVINCES

Ottawa, Ont., Dec. 7.—Sir Robert Borden will go to Halifax next week. On the seventeenth he will address a meeting of business men in Truro. It is expected that he will speak at other places in the maritime provinces.

ENJOYED A CHOWDER. After the members of the St. John Boys' Club had engaged in their scout games in Rockwood Park on Saturday afternoon, they were treated to a hot chowder, prepared in the log cabin by Mrs. C. D. Howard. Superintendent Howard and Harry Scott were in charge of the boys, who greatly enjoyed the afternoon.

SAY ANGELUS A SIGNAL; GERMAN DESTROY ANGEL MONASTRY

Paris, Dec. 7.—A despatch to the Havas Agency from Petrograd says:—

"The Germans have destroyed the monastery of Lenozca, about fifteen miles northwest of Lodz, which has been in existence for 1000 years. The pretext was that the ringing of the Angelus was a signal to the Russians. In the attack a priest and two monks were killed."

SEVERELY BURNED
Clothing of Mrs. Byrne of Canon Street Caught Fire From Stove

Mrs. Timothy Byrne of Canon street in the public hospital in a critical condition as the result of burns received about nine o'clock this morning. She was standing in front of a stove when the flames from an open door caught her clothing. The upper part of her body was severely burnt, and Mrs. Byrne was then removed to the hospital. It is feared she may not recover.

THE GOOD SAMARITAN OF THE BATTLEFIELD

To the Editor of the Times: Dear Sir,—In the multiplicity of appeals now before the people of Canada, there is one which is unique in its purpose, and therefore also in its claims. The Red Cross Society exists to collect funds and material, and to provide assistance to the sick and wounded in time of war, supplementary to that provided by the official naval and medical departments. There is no need to enlarge upon the claims of the Red Cross or to multiply instances of its usefulness. The Good Samaritan of the battlefield, it sees a blind in every sick or wounded man, binds up his wounds and takes care of him. One instance of the sort of work done by the Red Cross Society comes to hand from Lady Perrott, a member of the Joint War Committee of the Red Cross and St. John's Ambulance Society in London. At seven o'clock one evening a telephone message came in to the Red Cross office from the British consul at a French seaport, saying that 700 wounded men were waiting there to cross the channel to an English hospital next day, and that there were no blankets to cover them. In two hours the Red Cross Society shipped the necessary blankets and they reached France in time to be used for the wounded men. This story both shows the "emergency" nature of Red Cross work and answers the oft-repeated question, "why does the Red Cross need warm clothing and knitted goods?" The wounded are not always treated in steam-heated wards. They are treated in tents and in all kinds of improvised hospitals. They have to be transferred from the battlefield to the hospital, and from hospital to hospital by stretcher, motor, train or ship. Their needs cannot be measured by the ordinary requirements of hospital patients, and we rely upon the Canadian people to respond liberally to our appeal for funds and material to carry on this work on the broadest possible interpretation of its sphere of action. What are the Needs of the Society? We need funds to purchase regular surgical and medical supplies of all sorts, including the motor ambulances which are doing such noble work in carrying the wounded as quickly and painlessly as possible to the hospitals. Each of them costs about $2,000, according to the approved war office pattern. Money is also needed to fill the requests for blankets, underwear, sweaters and overcoats, which are being transferred to the hospitals in London. These are garments which cannot be made by the women of the country. Subscriptions will be gratefully received by treasurers Hackensack Meadows. (Amherst Graduates' Quarterly.) At close of day, whether of gainful strife Or fruitless toil that brings but pain and hate, From out the city's maddening surge we're borne Toward home filled towns and ached country seas. Between these lies, but all too soon passed o'er, A stretch of idle land; and through it flows the gray-brown quiet stream; for brown and gray If flow it doth—the lacy Hackensack. Broad streamed, low banked it lies, or moves, between Unvaried fields of sober brown. Untouched Of any hand are these save hers who spread them there for rest of eye and soul of man? Requisite fit for his serene constant toil Since nature thrust him forth to earn his bread! Not e'en the midday sky can make quite blue The gray-brown quiet stream; for brown and gray Are restless sights and "Rest for Man" was what She called the work which here our fathers' butts that edge the stream, man built, appear not to intrude. They do not Nor vaunt themselves! There is no war of hate Or greed—waging 'neath their peaceful roof. For these are homes of simple fishermen; Mayhap such homes as He lodged in who taught The fisher folk who toiled on Galilee! In rusty black-brown suits the crows flap by, And fearlessly on ponderous wings come bird Gray clad, perhaps a gull such as old Walt Saw hovering o'er the neighboring bay, Now wheels and dips for food into the Below. Save these and some slow ship Its tedious way up stream or ever flows, In all the stretch of restful land, in all The endless sky o'erhead, naught else Here spring will come with cloth of green to hide The waste by winter wrought. Flowers shall softly bloom and laugh as children laugh Among the grass in some deep summer field. Her hidden nest a humble bird shall brood o'er and see at length the nestlings fly in. Wings, makings and other broods shall come. In this brown grass, 'neath those brown clouds, once more Of life is sprung full wide, while we seek far To know its span. The blackbird flashes in His flight shall fill the midmost summer day With song. Till, when the gray days come, in myriads they'll seek the land of sun And leave the dry brown march to rains and snow. And save for glistening frosts, and patches of snow, it tells so till spring brings back its life. All through the change of wheeling bird, grass, now here, now gone, of flowers and ghosts of flowers, Of hush and stir and armorous throated song. The meadows stand, for some, unchanged. They bring In every shifting phrase, to him who looks And him who bends his ear that gift of peace Which comes to those who stand in old cathedrals high and, bowing, wait to hear. The prayer that marks the end of evensong. Harry Greenwood Grover.

THE SOLDIER'S CHRISTMAS

Those who desire to join in with the women's Canadian Club in providing a Christmas dinner for the soldiers at the army, are urged to send a card to Mrs. A. R. Melrose, 64 Orange street, stating what they will send. The things needed are turkeys, plum pudding, mince pie and cranberry sauce. Contributions from friends of the soldiers in other parts of the province will be gratefully accepted, as there are so many young men from out of town in the ranks of the battalion. SEVEN FINE PUPS. Melrose Midgie, a pedigree fox terrier bitch, owned by Percy S. Clarke, of 46 Wright street, last night gave birth to seven well developed pups. The father is Oxford Nemo, Mr. Clarke's near champion. Both mother and father are registered and pedigreed.

RECENT TYPHOID OUTBREAK NOT CAUSED BY WATER

The origin of the epidemic of typhoid at the annex of the provincial hospital is still a mystery. Dr. Anglin sent a sample of the water used in the institution to an analyst for examination and has received the report. The verdict is that the water is perfectly good and contains no evidence of contagion. This possible source of the trouble is thus removed and there has been no evidence to point to any other cause. As the disease is now under control and no new cases have developed interest in the cause of the last outbreak is more or less academic.

DIED TODAY

The death of Mrs. Catherine Gillis, widow of Daniel Gillis, occurred this morning at her home 45 Harrison street after an illness lasting only about a week. She was in her 82nd year and had worked for many years in Fairville and North End where she was very highly esteemed. Three sons and two daughters survive. The sons are John A. of Halifax, William of Boston, and Edward of Fairville. Mrs. John Purcell, of Randolph, Mass., and Miss Anna Gillis at home are the daughters.

When you feel a Gold coming on think of Laxative Bromo Quinine Cures a Gold in One Day

It acts as a tonic-laxative and removes the cause of all colds and also "relieves the feverish conditions and headache which are usually associated with colds." Colds cause Headache, Neuralgia and Grip — Laxative Bromo Quinine removes the cause. This remedy is better than the ordinary Quinine as it combines the tonic and other properties of Quinine, with a laxative and can be taken by anyone without causing nervousness or ringing in the head

An excellent remedy for Coughs and Colds. Relieves the Cough and also the feverish conditions and Headache, which are usually associated with colds. The second or third dose will relieve the Cough and Headache and will move the bowels well within 8 or 10 hours, when the cold will be relieved. In treating colds it is very important that the bowels should move well every day. This preparation moves the bowels gently without griping, and arouses the liver and all the secretions in action. Directions—Adults take two tablets in the morning and should be taken immediately after each meal. Children take one tablet sufficient to keep the bowels open freely until the Cough and Cold is relieved, then take one-half the dose for a few days. Children who are not old enough to swallow pills, the tablet can be broken or cut in half and given in proportion to age. To be swallowed not chewed. For headache, take 2 tablets every 2 or 3 hours until relieved. (Fac-simile of label on back of Laxative Bromo Quinine box)

At a meeting of the South African National Union held in Johannesburg the chairman said that it was rumored that it was intended to raise the price of Cape Wines. He hoped this would not be the case, and emphasized that the present was not the finest opportunity Cape wine producers had of popularizing their produce. If the people could now be induced to buy Cape wines and brandies they would realize how good they were and would continue to use them in the future.

CHICAGO HAS FIRST MUNICIPAL DANCE. From Mayor Harrison Down 7,000 Make Big Success of City's Experiment

Father Dearborn, for many years a social recluse, was host of the other night at his own coming out party and 7,000 of his children danced with him, says a Chicago despatch.

And the dancing was just as it used to be when Father Dearborn was a boy. There were no tangoes, fox trots, maxims, bunny hops, Philadelphia tips or lioness dances—let's see! oh yes, the waltz and two-step, they were called—came back into their own.

It was Chicago's first "municipal dance," and possibly because Mayor Funkhouser was expected a thick layer of policemen and policemen was spread around the walls of the big Dreamland dance hall at Van Buren and Pulaski streets before the doors were thrown open.

Within the police cordon were other rings of professional social workers' amateur social workers and investigators all equipped with orders to stop anything that faintly resembled the dances of the modern school.

Major Funkhouser was not the only public character by any means who honored Father Dearborn with his presence. From Mayor Harrison to the office boy in the Department of Public Works, office in the City Hall, folk were there.

From Chief Gleason and Assistant Chief Schuetzler, hands in kid gloves and debonairly conversing with silk clad women, to Probationary Patrolman Murphy, walking in his uniform before the appraising glances of a pair of more experienced lady officers, the police department was represented.

Then there was County Judge Owens and Municipal Judge Goodnow and all sorts and conditions of judges in black robes, together with Assistant State's Attorneys Whyte and Sullivan and a contingent from the North Side.

There were present, too, many persons whose faces were familiar to the assistant prosecutors and to the police officials, who had met them in a professional way. But there was no misunderstanding. "Ratty the Dip" and "Smelly the Rat" were out for pleasure and not for business.

But the bulwarks of the whole affair, the official dances, notwithstanding, were the thousands of Johns and Marys who had come to see what fun there could be in city supervised dancing. When it was all over the Johns and Marys, a bit tired and impressed with the tepidness of the old time dances, indicated by a rising vote that they would come again—and come often.

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 6.—Joseph Chatterton, widely known as a singer and actor under the stage name of Signor Perugini, died on Friday in the Forest Home near Torresdale, a suburb, where he had been a resident since January. He was a native of England but much of his success was made in this country as a member of the once famous McCall Opera Company.

Perugini married Lillian Russell in 1894 and was her third husband. Four months after the ceremony they separated and in the following year were divorced. He was in failing health when he entered the Forest Home for aged and indigent actors. Perugini was about sixty years.

away to fall long at the sides and back; or the fronts may be rounded away at the bottom to emphasize the circular effect.

The model is designed both for ladies and misses, 3 1/2 yards of 44-inch or 4 1/2 yards of 46-inch material being required to make it in average size. The yoke and flare collar are cut from a fold of material, but the cape is laid on an open width to cut.

In making the first step is to hem the front and yoke, closely following notches. The back seam is closed and pressed open carefully. Use beating threads as freely as desired, for this helps greatly in making it "look right". Now, underface upper edge of cape section to 1 1/2 inch below creoline of center.

small "v" perforations; gather on creoline of small "v" perforations. Adjust yoke to position, center-backs and front seam, attaching gathers along small "v" perforations near lower edge of yoke, bringing single large and double small "v" perforations together.

If made high neck, sew turn-over collar to neck edge as notched, roll as desired. If desired open neck with flare collar, pleat collar, bringing slot to corresponding single small "v" perforations and press. Stitch canvas under-neck collar from neck edge to double "v" perforations. Sew collar to neck edge, center-backs even and along line of double small "v" perforations in front, large "v" perforations even.

Pictorial Review cape No. 5979. Sizes 22, 24, 26, 28, 30, 32, 34, 36, 38 and 44 inches bust. Price, 15 cents.

Patterns published in this series may be obtained by sending price of pattern in cash or stamps to The Evening Times Pattern Department, 23 Canterbury street, St. John. As a rule it takes about one week to deliver the patterns to the buyer. Those sending money must be careful (1) to write the number of the pattern plainly (2) to write their name and post office address clearly, and (3) to enclose the price.

The War and The Stage

Unprofitable Season Along Broadway and General Conditions Through States; Percy Haswell in Stock; Bruce MacRae in New Play; Local Musical Comedy; Fortune For Mary Pickford

Whether the war or the death of visitors in New York is responsible for the condition, theatrical managers are reporting the most unprofitable period in the history of the theatre. Plays which are universally recognized as big hits are greeted by half-filled houses, while attractions which in any ordinary year would be drawing fair audiences are struggling along with little or no business. With the possible exception of "Chin Chin," the Montgomery-Stone piece, not a single production in New York is playing to "standing room only."

This depression in theatrical business is not confined to New York. Throughout the country managers are complaining of poor business.

Among some of the prominent producers there is talk of a sweeping reduction in salaries, following the example of the big vaudeville interests. Recently the salary of every artist playing United Booking "Time" was cut anywhere from ten to thirty-three per cent.

That the managers are going ahead with their plans, however, in spite of the poor conditions, is shown by the fact that all plays announced among their plans last summer are gradually reaching the light of production. It is significant to note that up to Nov. 1, fifty-seven plays and playlets have been produced this season, whereas for the same period last year but forty-nine had been staged.

Ben Linn and several chorus girls, all of the John Bunny show, were the principals in a midnight auto smashup just outside of Detroit, resulting in a broken arm and a bent rib for Linn, who is one of Bunny's principal assistants in the distribution of comedy.

The girls were badly shaken up and thoroughly frightened. The troupe were out enjoying a late ride when their machine, driven by Linn, collided with an auto bound in an opposite direction.

The return of Elsie Wallace and Ralph Austin to the city this week as members of the Thompson Musical Comedy Company gave pleasure to the many patrons of the Opera House who have been delighted with the productions of this company during the last few weeks.

Miss Wallace and Mr. Austin are very popular about St. John, following their stay here with the Mack's Revue, and this was shown at each presentation of "Breaking Into Society," when applause on their every appearance signalled the pleasure of the audience. Mr. Westminster added further to his laurels as a comedian this week, displaying remarkable versatility and cleverness in his portrayal of a Hebrew. Some of the song numbers this week were particularly bright and enjoyable.

Klaw & Erlanger and Percy Haswell have entered into an arrangement whereby Miss Haswell will appear at the head of her own stock company at the Crescent Theatre, St. John.

Joseph Weber has placed "Sutter" by Guy Bolton, author of "The Rule of Three," in rehearsal. In the cast will be the McKee, Mary Chambers, Alice Lindahl and Mary Nash.

Henry Arthur Jones got the idea for "Mary Goes First" at a dinner party given by son-in-law six years ago in Gibraltar. The son-in-law was one of the British commissioners appointed to sit on the Moroccan tribunal engaging the English authorities at that time, and among other of his duties was giving of an official dinner party to the various dignitaries. As the latter represented every rank in the United Kingdom, from a Duke to plain Mr. Jones, the question of precedence as a nightmare for the host, and so impressed the son-in-law that he immediately drafted a scenario for a play, with the question of who should go in first to dinner as the theme thereof. Instead, however, of making them the protagonists as they were in the original dinner party, Mr. Jones substituted a pair of ladies.

MAY PICKFORD GETS $104,000 FOR YEAR

The "Variety," a leading New York publication says: "One hundred and given thousand dollars for one year was contract entered into last week by Adolph Zukor of the Famous Players-Lasky Co. with Mary Pickford, the film star. It was a renewal of a contract which Miss Pickford had held with the same company for $1,000 weekly, or $52,000 the year preceding."

The F. E. agreement was reached between Mr. Zukor and Miss Pickford, despite an offer from another picture firm to the actress for $200,000 also for one year. It is said Miss Pickford was not satisfied with the financial outlook of the larger offer, although the competing concern offered to deposit $50,000 as a guarantee.

The following from a New York exchange may be one means of eliminating the lower class of film from the screen: Charles Pathe opens an interesting avenue of thought in his view, that the picture field will gradually evolve into conditions resembling those of book publishing. "The producer," he says, "will take a position similar to that of the author of the book. When he has completed his production he will offer it to the film 'publisher,' that is, a company which, after the picture has been accepted, will take his negative and produce the number of copies necessary and attend to the distribution. Different film 'publishers' will gather about them a group of producers. Just as the authors of books are linked usually with some certain book publishers. Mr. Pathe's plan includes, of course, one point of difference between the book and film fields. The picture 'publisher' will be willing to advance the producer the necessary capital before work is started on the production, so that it follows he will be reasonably confident that the production will come up to the mark. But, take the other possibility. Perhaps the 'publisher' refuses the completed production as not up to his standard. The producer, following the practice of authors, offers it to the next publisher and the next, as long as the rejections continue, each time stepping down in the scale. With all producers doing this it is natural to expect that we will soon have our film publishers graded. Then that patron going to a theatre supplied by one publisher will know that it is to see pictures 'published' by the Scribners and Harpers; the patron of different tastes may find a theatre on a par with 'Deedee

NO GREAT FUN TO BE CROWN PRINCE OF EGYPT

Crown Prince Elect

This chubby little lad looks as if he'd like to play a game of baseball in the back lot—but he never does. He is the Crown Prince of Egypt, and is so carefully guarded by teachers and soldiers that he never gets a chance to play games with other small boys.

If the little crown prince bears nothing of games and sports, he hears a great deal of war these days, for his father, the Khedive of Egypt, has joined the Turks against the allies in the "great war."

THE PRINCE OF WALES AT THE FRONT

London, Dec. 8.—The Times' military correspondent, giving an account of the life led by the Prince of Wales at the front, says:

"He has won golden opinions. Personally of alligat physique and almost fragile-looking, the prince was but little known to the army until he joined it, and now that he is becoming known, it is a revelation.

He is among the keenest and hardest soldiers in the army. He walks more than six miles before breakfast every morning, drives his own car, spends every moment of the working day in acquainting himself with the situation of the troops and the service of the army.

"Although nominally attached to Sir John French's staff, he is not chained there. He is being attached in turn to army corps, divisional and brigade headquarters, and he is undergoing an education which no books can ever give him.

"Only the other day he occupied a fighting trench for a night, a house rocking and shaking day and night with the constant detonations of bombardments, and he has visited the trenches including those of the Indian army. It will be difficult to keep him out of the firing line of his Grenadiers.

"A more zealous and indefatigable young officer does not serve with the king's troops. He has a quiet, confident dignity which is most attractive, and his character and intelligence aroused the enthusiasm of all who met him.

"It was not exactly the expression of a courtier, but it was the expression of a truth, when an old soldier looked wistfully after him and muttered, half to himself: 'That's a good boy!'

TO LIBERATE THE SLAVS

Russia's Purpose And War Must Go On 'Till Austria is Crushed

Petrograd, Dec. 8.—The Bourse Gazette says: "Regarding rumors that Austria is desirous of concluding a separate peace with Russia by agreeing to cede Galicia to her enemy and allow Serbia access to the Adriatic and also cede to that country Bosnia and Herzegovina, it can be stated they will be refused.

"Russia's purpose is to effect a liberation of the Slavs. The Austrian Empire is so deeply rooted that no diplomat would consent to an agreement until the Austrian resources are completely exhausted.

"Russian diplomats would never consent to any overtures looking to a separate agreement with Austro-Hungary or Hungary alone.

"The war must go on, Austria must be crushed. Then and then alone can the hope for any movement looking toward peace."

London, Dec. 7.—A young Canadian private, Victor Albert Baker, an engine driver of the C. P. R., is back to Sallaard after one of the most hastily made matches on record.

RETURN OF U-9 TO KIEL

New York, Dec. 6.—Dr. F. Zimmerman, of Newark, has received an interesting letter from his brother, Kurt, first lieutenant in the German navy. It says:

"Yesterday morning the U-9 submarine which destroyed the English cruisers, passed us. We of the (name of battleship), and of course the crews of the other ships anchoring here, greeted the U-9 with hearty hurrahs. The bands of all ships played 'Die Wacht am Rhein.'"

"It seemed a triumphal procession. 'I have seen a copy of the war diary of U-9. Weddigen's notes are short and to the point of military exactness. 'A hit he gave her the English are not such beasts as most of their allies. On August 28 they saved a good many of our men when our cruisers went down, in the most gallant manner.'"

DREADED PARIS APACHES HAVE INVADDED UNITED STATES, ASSERT POLICE!

Daring "Silent Murders"—Strangling—In Sensational Crime Wave—Noosed Rope, the European System, Only Clue To Latest Baffling Slayings in Chicago—Criminals Flee To States to Escape Army Service in France

THE LATEST APACHE MURDER

Flashlight photograph taken just as police and reporters arrived in the scene of the Chicago hat factory where Emil Emsheimer, the victim, was strangled. Emsheimer's body, with the peculiar rope still about the neck, is seen lying on the floor.

Chicago, Ill., Dec. 5.—Have the terrible Apache garroters of Paris invaded the United States?

The Chicago police, utterly baffled by a series of atrocious murders, all committed in the exact style used by the Apaches, are arriving at the conclusion that a band of the garroters are operating in Chicago, and possibly also in New York. In both places a strange wave of crime is now prevailing.

The brutal daylight murder of Emil Emsheimer, a wealthy hat manufacturer, as he sat at his desk one afternoon a few days ago in his place of business a few doors off State street and the methods used by the murderers, coupled with the other crimes, have startled the police.

They believe that either two or three of the men who committed the nine atrocious murders in one quarter of Paris in 1911 have reached Chicago or that a band of Chicago thugs reading of the methods of the Apaches has adopted their system of murder—the "silent system" of strangling.

The killing of Nicholas T. Burns, a wealthy rope manufacturer, the police now incline to think can be traced to the same gang of organized murderers and, after the discovery of the method in which Emsheimer was killed, the detectives renewed their efforts in the Burns case to see whether or not Burns was strangled rather than poisoned.

To add color to the Apache theory a report has been received by both New York and Chicago police as well as by the police of other cities from the Prefect of Police in Paris that to escape the service in the army many of the most notorious criminals of Paris have fled to the United States by way of Italy and American police have been warned to watch for them.

Scores were rounded up and sent to the firing line, but many others got away. Had they gone to England they would have been arrested and sent back to France as deserters. The United States was the only spot in the world open to them.

The theory that the "loop murderers" committed in the downtown business district of Chicago, are the work of an Apache gang has been strengthened greatly by the discovery of a rope which was bound and noosed around the throat of the murdered hat manufacturer.

At first the police thought the rope a

COULD NOT SLEEP OR DO HOUSEWORK

The Grippe Left Mrs. Findley in Such a Weak, Nervous Condition That Her Case Was Serious.

Severy, Kans.—"The Grippe left me in a very weak, nervous, run-down condition. I was too weak to do my housework and could not sleep. I tried different medicines without benefit and finally one day read about Vinol, and decided to try it. In a very short time I could see an improvement and after taking two bottles I have a good appetite and my health and strength was restored.

"I think Vinol is a grand medicine and every weak, nervous, run-down woman should take it."—Mrs. Geo. Findley, Severy, Kans.

Vinol creates strength because it contains all the medicinal tissue-building elements of cod liver oil actually taken from fresh, healthy cod's livers. To this is added peptonate of iron, a most essential element for the blood, all dissolved in a delicious tonic native wine. Vinol creates an appetite, aids digestion, makes pure healthy blood. In this natural manner it builds up the run-down, weak and nervous system, replaces weakness with strength. If Vinol fails to create strength after sickness we will return your money.

THE APPLE MEN

Why is there no horticultural hall of fame? While looking through a fruit book this morning, I was struck by the number of apples that have been named after people, and I began to wonder vaguely what those people looked like. It has been a pleasing custom with humanity to erect statues to those who have achieved much but the men who have given us wonderful apples have been allowed to pass into oblivion. It is just possible that we might be able to secure portraits—mellow old daguerotypes, in red plush frames, of McIntosh who gave us the McIntosh Red, and of Colonel Swazie who developed the Swazie Pomme Gris, but beyond these two everything seems blank. Baxter, Gideon, Mann, Patten, Porter, Scott, Tolman, Wagner, and Whitney—all have excellent apples named after them but their names are not even "names in a remembered rhyme." Poets painters and sculptors have neglected to preserve their features and good qualities with imperishable art, and yet their names may prove imperishable on account of the apples they gave us. Then again, who can tell me anything of Fanny, Martha, and Louise? The latter we know was Princess Louise as the apple was introduced during the time she occupied Rideau Hall, but Fanny and Martha must ever remain mysterious heroines of horticulture. Loved they were and admired beyond a doubt, or they would never have had apples named after them.

I have purposely omitted two names from this list because the prominence still given to the apples named after them led me to speculate about them at greater length and more fancifully. There is Ben Davis. What kind of a man was he? I imagine he was a shrewd Yankee of the class that invented wooden nutmegs—a bluffer, and a good horse trader. A true picture of him would probably show him with his tongue in his cheek, and a suspicion of a wink hovering on his eyelid. The rascal must have known what a joke he was playing on posterity in introducing his beautifully colored, beautifully formed, tempting and disappointing apple. As a practical joker Ben deserves a niche in the humorous corner of our Hall of Fame.

But the man who kindles my imagination is Baldwin. He deserves a better fate than to be merely a name for his apple is still about our most serviceable winter variety. It is handsome, finely flavored, a good keeper, and equal to the best. Perhaps because the only Baldwin I ever knew were clergymen I think of him as a fine upright man, of sterling quality. Moreover, we have Milton's authority for thinking well of him. "None but such as are good men can give good gifts," and Baldwin's gift to humanity was of the best. According to the apple book he must have lived in Massachusetts and I like to think that he was of good Puritan stock and probably a passenger on the Mayflower, for the Baldwin apple is packed from core to skin with sterling qualities.

I am glad to know that many Baldwin's have been placed in storage this season, and along in January and February they will appear on the market in prime condition. If you try them then I am sure you will join me in extolling the virtues of the unknown Baldwin who gave us this excellent apple.

TABLET IN MEMORY OF WILLIAM CAMPBELL

An interesting and impressive ceremony took place in St. Andrew's Presbyterian church last evening, when a tablet to the memory of the late William Campbell, organizer of the first St. John Lodge F. & A. M., a former elder of St. Andrew's church, first mayor of St. John, one of the founders of the St. John Grammar school, and once connected with many of the charitable institutions of the city. The monument was erected by members of St. John's Lodge No. 2 F. & A. M. and was unveiled last evening by Dr. H. S. Bridges, F. G. M., and formally entrusted by him on behalf of St. John's Lodge to the trustees of St. Andrew's church. Dr. A. D. Smith, on behalf of the trustees, expressed their willingness and pleasure in accepting the charge of being entrusted with the monument erected to the memory of such a man. Dr. Bridges in unveiling the tablet referred to the notable services rendered by Mr. Campbell both to the city and to St. Andrew's church. He also drew the attention of the congregation to a tablet on the same wall, previously erected by the lodge to the memory of the late Rev. William Donald, D. D., first grand chaplain, and said it was fitting that the two tablets should have been placed side by side.

BACKACHE WAS SO BAD COULD NOT SWEEP THE FLOOR.

For backache, lame or weak back, one of the commonest and most distressing symptoms of kidney inaction, there is no remedy so equal to Doan's Kidney Pills for taking out the stiches, twinges and twinges, limbering up the stiff back and giving perfect relief and comfort to all poor, suffering women who suffer so much from a weak lame back.

Mrs. Blackburn, R.R. No. 1, Fishburn, Alta., writes: "I take pleasure in writing you stating the benefit I have received by using Doan's Kidney Pills. About three years ago I was terribly afflicted with lame back, and was so bad I could not even sweep my floor. I was advised to try your kidney pills. Before I had used one box there was a great improvement as my back was much better. However, I kept on taking them until my back was completely cured. I highly recommend these pills for lame back."

Doan's Kidney Pills are 50c per box, or 3 boxes for $1.25, at all dealers or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Millburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

When ordering direct specify "Doan's."

WHAT CATARRH IS

It has been said that every third person is troubled with catarrh in some form. Science has shown that nasal catarrh indicates a weakened condition of the mucous membranes of the nose, throat and lungs, and local treatments in the form of snuffs and vapors do little, if any good. To correct catarrh you should treat its cause by cleansing your blood with the medicinal food and a building tonic, free from harmful drugs or opiates. Try it.

Your Government protects you "Made in Canada" means security

"If you want a thing well done, do it yourself." This saying is nearly as old as the English language. It can be applied to Canada's trade at this moment better than ever in her history. Canada can rely no more on imports from Europe and other lands. The only way to fill her needs is to "do it yourself"—and then it will assuredly be well done.

Canada can produce anything that ever was, or can be manufactured abroad. It is only her lack of interest and neglect to try that has prevented the production of these articles of import. The time is now ripe to manufacture at home—to make and boost "Made in Canada" goods.

Buy Canadian flour, Canadian cloth, Canadian hardware, Canadian beverages, Canadian Gin—the of the most popular drinks in this country. In buying and boosting Canadian manufactures you have the support and help of all right-thinking Canadians. RED CROSS GIN, the only gin made

Government label is on every bottle

Compare this Government guarantee with the state of imported gin. You don't know what you drink when you use imported gin. It may only be two days old when it is sent to Canada. How are you to know differently? You have no guide to its quality as a fit drink for the delicate human body.

When you drink gin, insist on getting gin of home manufacture, not only because you are a good son of Canada, but because there is a guarantee of maturity behind every bottle of Canadian gin sold—see the Government label on every bottle.

Chinese in Major League
Chicago, Dec. 7.—A full blooded Chinese baseball player has been signed by the Chicago club of the American League. He is Lal Tin, captain of the Honolulu Chinese team. Mr. Callahan of the local club said Tin had been ordered to report for practice when the training season opens in Paso Robles, Cal.

in February. This is the first Chinese player to be signed to play with a major league club. Captain Tin's regular position is short stop. He batted .300 while playing in Honolulu. He holds two Hawaiian athletic records, a 100-yard dash in 10 2/5 and thirteen feet in the broad jump.

Bender to the Feds
"Chief" Albert Bender, famous pitcher of the Philadelphia American League, has signed a contract with the Federal League.

Fatalities of a Season
Chicago, Dec. 7.—Thirty-five deaths and 918 injuries were caused by baseball during 1914, according to figures made public today by a sport writer. Of the players who died from injuries, twenty were hit by pitched balls, five were struck by bats, four were in collisions, four over-exercised themselves, one was hurt sliding to a base, and one was killed in a fight.

SHORT JABS FOR ALL-ROUND SPORTS

VOLUNTEERS VS. PROFESSIONALS

The man familiar with military affairs may have been struck with surprise in reading in the newspapers that Lord Kitchener's army of volunteers would not be ready for service till next spring. Light is thrown on this circumstance by a British military expert, in the Encyclopaedia Britannica. He suggests the necessity of long training for volunteers in a comparison of professional and unprofessional troops. Says his authority: "Even the briefest and briefest discussion of the vast subject of war would be incomplete without some reference to the relative merits of professional and unprofessional soldiers. Voluntary service still holds its ground in the Anglo-Saxon states, and both the United Kingdom and America will have to a great extent to rely, in case of conflicts which tax all their resources, on troops who have neither the practice nor the discipline of their standing armies. What will be the value of these amateurs when pitted against regulars? "Putting the question of moral aside as leading us too far afield, it is clear that the individual amateur must depend upon his training. If, like the majority of the Boers, he is a good shot, a good scout, a good skirmisher, and, if mounted, a good horseman and horsemaster, he is undeniably a most useful soldier. But whether amateurs en masse, that is, when organized into battalions and brigades, are thoroughly mob carrying pikers and flat-locks in the

LIEUTENANT MORGAN AT SCENE OF FIGHTING

Other Officers Also Given Opportunity to See Operations Against Germans

At least one officer who went from St. John with the first Canadian contingent is on the scene of activities in northern France at present, a cablegram having been received on Saturday at the home of Lieut. Cuthbert J. Morgan in Main Street that he was leaving for the front with some brother officers.

The information was that he would return to Salisbury Plain to join his regiment. Because of this it is presumed that he and some other officers from the Canadian force have been granted permission to visit the vicinity of the firing line in France to get a practical insight into the operations in the field, this being recognized as a valuable feature in the education of an officer on active service.

ELECTION AND PRESENTATION
The members of the Men's Brotherhood of Tabernacle Baptist church elected officers at their annual meeting yesterday afternoon. Fred Crawford is the new president and Alex. Brown vice-president. Wm. U. Hatfield retired from the office of president which he has held for the last three years, and in appreciation of his services the class yesterday presented him a handsomely bound Bible. The presentation was made by Rev. F. P. Dennison in behalf of the members assembled.

QUARANTINE IS LIFTED FROM CANADA'S POTATOES

The secretary of agriculture at Washington on Friday lifted the quarantine against Canadian potatoes laid on Dec. 22, 1913, and hereafter Canadian potatoes will be permitted to enter the United States upon compliance with the regulations governing the importation of potatoes, issued by the secretary of agriculture on Dec. 30, 1913, as modified by Plant Quarantine Decision No. 7, issued on Friday. Decision No. 7 provides that, in the case of foreign countries contiguous to the United States, potatoes that have been grown from clean seed, on land which has not produced a diseased crop, or that have not been in contact with any source of infection, and which have been inspected and certified under regulations approved by the Federal Horticultural board may be admitted.

Under the regulations governing the entry of foreign potatoes into the United States, a permit for the entry of potatoes must first be taken out by the importer. Such potatoes must be officially certified by the country of origin as free from infection, and will be again examined at the port of entry, by the inspectors of the department of agriculture. If any diseased potatoes are found in the shipment the entire shipment will be refused entry. Furthermore, if the Federal Horticultural board finds disease in potatoes offered for entry, it is authorized under the regulations to cancel all out-standing permits for the country of origin and to refuse further permits for the importation of potatoes from such country. Copies of these regulations may be had by application to the U. S. Department of Agriculture.

Brother Survived The Fearful Fighting In Battle of Mons

Robert Shea of the 26th Gets Good News From the Firing Line—Three of Them in the Service

A postal card received this morning by Robert Shea, a big, broad-shouldered, Irishman in the 26th Battalion, brought joy to his heart for it gave the glad news that his brother Edward had come through the battle of Mons unscathed. His brother is a member of the Munster Fusiliers, the regiment whose name will be forever famous because of their gallantry in the battle of Mons when they came to the relief of a battery of British artillery and fought a brave but hopeless fight against overwhelming numbers of Germans. Of some 1,100 men in the Munster Fusiliers were able to answer the roll when next the strength was measured, and Edward Shea was one of them—the others had sacrificed their lives in the cause of Britain, or were wounded or taken prisoners. The Sheas are well represented in the fighting arms at present. Two of them are at the front with the English forces, Edward with what is left of the gallant Munsters and John with the Army Service Corps, while the local representative is a stalwart member of the 26th. He has seen foreign service in Africa and India, and is "just itching" to get a whack at those Germans" as he said today. Eight years' service with the British Army, two spent in South Africa and six with the Royal Horse Artillery in India, have made him a soldier, every inch of him. Kenmare, county Kerry, is his home, but he has resided in St. John for some years. His honest face beamed with joy this morning as he read the news that his brother had survived the dreadful slaughter of what he termed "one of the best scraps of the whole fight."

BOYS BEFORE COURT ON STEALING CHARGES

The Responsibility of Parents Spoken in Connection With Case

Two brothers, one thirteen years of age and the other ten, and another boy also ten years of age were arrested on Saturday morning on a charge of breaking and entering a summer house on the estate of D. R. Jack at Duck Cove and stealing clothing and other articles. The two brothers are also charged with breaking and entering the home of Mrs. M. E. Littlehale in Prince street West St. John on December 2 and stealing two rings and other jewelry, a revolver, cartridges and about $80 in cash. The burglary was committed while Mrs. Littlehale and her two daughters were at the hospital.

The boys all pleaded guilty in the juvenile court this morning and were remanded to separate cells. A fourth boy who is said to have been with the three who was not brought to the police station as he was under eight years of age and it was thought by the police that he was too young to know what he had done. The arrests were made by Sergeant Finley and Policeman Watson of the West Side and Policeman Stinson of Fairville.

Rev. W. R. Robinson appeared in court in the interests of the two boys. He said that their parents were not able to appear as the father was laid up with blood poisoning and the mother had to work to support the family. The magistrate, however, insisted that the boys must be represented by one of their parents or guardian. The father of the other boy was in court and was told by the magistrate that he would be liable to a fine of $30 for the conduct of his boy. "There ain't a week commented the magistrate, "but boys are brought here again and again. It's the same old story. There are more boys here now in one month than in one year a quarter of a century ago and people say St. John is getting better. I don't know what it will be like one year from now if it keeps on. The fathers are liable to a penalty, it's no use talking about the ten commandments or anything else, we've got to touch their pockets and this does not include any of the regular features such as the game room with its leagues and tournaments and the reading room with its up-to-date magazines and papers.

On Sunday morning about forty boys listened to an inspiring address from W. C. Cross on "Services." Mr. Cross showed that the best things in the world were secured only in proportion to what we gave, both as regards our time, our money and ourselves.

BOYS' DIVISION Y. M. C. A.

One hundred boys in Bible study, thirty on hikes, sixty-nine at the Saturday friends talk, forty at the Sunday morning meeting, fifty at a social evening, a leaders' training class, a school for working boys and all the regular gymnasium classes, this was what went on in Y. M. C. activity for boys during the last week and is a fair indication of what goes on every week, during the winter months, and this does not include any of the regular features such as the game room with its leagues and tournaments and the reading room with its up-to-date magazines and papers.

NOT GOING. Friends of Miss Frances Brandt, last year's leading lady with the Thompson Woods Stock Company, will be interested to know that she has cancelled her engagement with the stock theatre in Calgary, where she was to have played this season, and returned to the United States. Business was not encouraging in the west. A local young woman, Miss Kathleen Walker, was to have joined Miss Brandt but on account of the cancellation of the latter's engagement, she will not now go west.

HEARTY RESPONSE. The annual collection in St. John the Baptist church in aid of the St. Vincent de Paul Society's work in that parish was taken yesterday and amounted to $194.60. The high tea held two weeks ago netted $397, of which $200 was given to the St. Vincent de Paul Society, and the remainder used for the purchase of books for the Sunday school library.

THE PRETORIAN. Allan line S. S. Pretorian is due at Glasgow from Quebec at five o'clock tomorrow morning.

REPORTED BY POLICE FOR CARRYING ON THE SUNDAY CONCERT

Sons of England Committee Named—All Who Were There Liable

Members of the police force attended the sacred concert held in the Imperial Theatre last evening by order of Chief Clark, and a report against the Sons of England Society has been entered on the police books by Deputy Chief Jenkins and Detective Fred Lucas. The entry reads "that a committee of the Sons of England Society are reported for violation of section 7 of an act regarding the Lord's Day by conducting a concert in the Imperial theatre, St. John, at which a fee of twenty-five, thirty-five or fifty cents was charged for admission to such concert on Sunday, December 6, 1914.

Following are the names of the committee referred to: T. H. Carter, chairman; L. A. Belyea, treasurer; Charles Ledford, secretary; Dr. A. E. Loggie, chairman programme committee, and Edward Sears.

No other persons have so far been reported although the police say that all those who took part in the performance and even those who paid for seats have violated the letter of the law. Chief Clark, in speaking to a Times reporter this morning regarding the report said that it had been made since the section referred to had been violated, that he would have to refer the matter to the attorney-general and that it would rest with him as to whether or not the matter would be brought before the courts.

JOKER'S VISIT. Fred Freshwater's Joker, the canine collector for the Patriotic Fund, succeeded in getting $37.76 for the fund during his recent visit to St. John, according to a letter received by R. E. Armstrong of the Board of Trade this morning.

AN APPROPRIATE TRIBUTE. Among the many floral tributes at the funeral of A. H. Hilyard yesterday was one of special appropriateness, in the form of a stick of timber beautifully worked out in flowers. It was from the Campbellton Boom Company.

Each Man His Own Santa Claus When It Comes to Clothing

Winter Clothing needs are insistent—can't be put aside much longer. Many men have delayed the purchase of a Winter Overcoat because the weather has been mild. But be assured there will be plenty of cold Winter weather before the trees are in leaf again, and there is no better time than today to buy your Overcoat.

You can choose from a much larger variety at Oak Hall than any other store has to offer. We have more styles at each price and a larger variety of clothes and patterns in each style than can be seen anywhere else.

You'll find the right Overcoat here for your particular needs at any price you'll choose to pay.
