Maritimes 'Fed Up' With Promises, Says M'Kenna In Closing

Want Action Towards Getting Share of Partnership Under Confederation, He Tells Royal Commission

NEXT SESSION AT CHARLOTTETOWN

Angus McLean Advocates Reciprocity in Wood and Its Products Between Canada and United States; Hon. J. L. O'Brien Declares N. B. Lumber Scale Unjust

THE CASE for New Brunswick was completed before the Royal Commission on Monday with the evidence of Angus McLean, G. P. Ruickbie, C. M. Matheson and Hon. J. L. O'Brien, and a summing up by J. D. McKenna. In his summing up of the case Mr. McKenna pointed out that since 1886 there had been a definite policy of development of the west by the Federal Government, and as definite a lack of policy of development of the Maritime Provinces, and that these provinces were 'fed up' with political promises and wanted action toward getting their share of the partnership entered into at Confederation. He thanked the members of the Commission for the sympathetic hearing they had given the New Brunswick witnesses who appeared before them. In his evidence Mr. McLean advocated complete reciprocity between the United States and Canada in wood and wood products, no duty on any article made from wood by either country.

Before adjourning the sitting the chairman of the Commission, Sir Andrew Macdonald, expressed his pleasure at meeting the several witnesses who had been called to give evidence on Monday. The next sitting of the Commission will be at Charlottetown, opening on Friday. The members of the Commission will leave this afternoon by automobile and the secretary, E. MacLure Stammers, will go tomorrow morning.

MR. McLEAN COMMENTED

Before calling the first witness, Angus McLean, president and general manager of the Bathurst Lumber Co., the chairman thanked Mr. McLean for the very clear and concise statements which had been given to the Commission and said that all that would be necessary would be to discuss this brief with him. Mr. McLean was assisted by G. P. Ruickbie.

In answer to Sir Andrew, Mr. McLean said that his firm at present employed 1,200 men. In 1920 they had employed 2,500 men. The decline in number employed was caused by the decline in the lumber industry, caused by the changing order from long lumber to pulp and paper, which was not yet completed.

EQUAL FREIGHT RATES

Mr. McLean said he recommended the same freight rate for New Brunswick wood and wood products as from Quebec because they were entitled to the same rate where there was only one line of railway as where there was competition from various lines of railways. The C. N. R. had been asked by the company to put this principle in action and refused because they claimed the United States railways would not share in it. They also felt they were entitled to have this principle applied because of the fact that this was a basic industry of the province and as such should receive consideration.

They were asking for reduction in freight rates on lumber shipments to United States points because of being shut out of the European market in order to get to the European market they asked that it be made possible to land lumber in Europe at the same rate all the year round, and it for this reason they asked the same rate for Montreal as to Saint John and Halifax for export.

PANAMA TRAFFIC INCREASES

Mr. Ruickbie said that in 1920, the total volume of lumber exported from Canada to the United States was equal to 11 per cent. In the year 1924 this had increased to 77 per cent. In answer to Sir Andrew, Mr. McLean said that today the selling price of lumber in the Boston market was about 40 per cent. higher than it was in 1914, while the freight rates had increased about 65 per cent.

PRODUCTION COSTS MORE

Mr. McLean said they were producing the lumber as cheaply today as they did years ago, so far as labor costs were concerned. The increase in

CHURCH DISORDERS RAGING IN ODESSA

Canadian Press MOSCOW, Aug. 4.—Special dispatches to the Pravda report serious disorders in Odessa, arising from the transfer of several churches from the old Orthodox church to the new Living Church. Six priests of the older organization, who were celebrating mass in the Alexander Church, in a suburb, were attacked by angry crowds. The dispatches say women spat in the priests' faces, while the priests rushed to their defense. Militia was summoned to the scene to save the priests with greatest difficulty, but not before five of them had been badly mauled. One girl among the mob was seriously injured.

POINCARÉ OUT TO ESTABLISH RECORD

PARIS, Aug. 4.—Premier Poincaré seems in a fair way to beat the French legislative speed record, if he has not already done so, in getting through parliament his measure for rehabilitating the finances of France. The Senate has passed the financial measures which were adopted by the Chamber of Deputies last Saturday. The vote was 230 to 13. It is the purpose of the Premier now to introduce his third bill, the object of which is to facilitate early monetary stabilization, based on the recommendations of the experts committee.

benefit of every portion of the country or as an institution to get rid of "red ink" on the pages of the ledger. While it was a good thing to get rid of deficits some consideration should be given to the "two streaks of rust" in this province and running all the way to Winnipeg, built at the expense of the people of Canada, while the rails to Portland, Me., were kept bright carrying Canadian goods to a foreign port.

Bathurst Co. Statement

The following memorandum prepared by the Bathurst Company Limited, Bathurst, was presented to the commission by Angus McLean, president: That the forests of New Brunswick are one of our greatest assets is recognized fact, but it is doubtful if even those most closely identified with our business life have a full appreciation of the important part that forest products have in the past and should have in the future in the development of this province.

PROVINCIAL REVENUE
The report of the comptroller general on the public accounts of the Province of New Brunswick for the fiscal year ending October 31, 1925, shows the total revenue of the province from all sources to have been $3,747,544.79. Of this amount $1,292,174.93 was derived from the Department of Lands and Mines, and $790,226.83 of this latter amount represented stumpage collected during the year on timber cut from crown lands, while timber licenses and bonuses from same produced $194,116.96.

PRODUCTION IN N. B.

As further evidence of the importance of our forests in our economic life we would quote the Dominion Bureau of Statistics on Dominion Production:

issued in 1925, which shows the value of the annual production of New Brunswick to be $128,569,024, distributed as follows:

Table with 2 columns: Industry, Value. Includes Agriculture (31.8%), Forestry (35.4%), Fisheries (6.5%), Trapping (1.0%), Mining (8.0%), Electrical power (1.6%), Construction (2.8%), Repair work (1.5%), Manufactures N. E. S. (18.3%).

CONDITIONS SET FORTH

At the time of Confederation, and since that time, when wooden ships were being built in the Maritime Provinces and was a flourishing trade, we dispatched our lumber in cargo lots to the United Kingdom and other overseas markets, but of recent years this business has fallen off, and European competition has practically forced us to the market of the United Kingdom. The Canadian market is not capable of absorbing our output, even if higher than we consider the industry in Canada at greatly reduced freight rates. Most of the other provinces of Canada are producers and exporters of forest products and do not want our stock. Our largest and most natural market today is in the Eastern United States, but here again competition is driving us out.

FORCED TO GIVE UP

Storage and sorting yards have been proved somewhat illuminating to our selves, so that you may pardon our dwelling for a short time on them.

DISCUSSES FIGURES

The four towns under comparison are all located on what is called the North Shore of New Brunswick, and are of approximately the same size. In the case of forwarded or outgoing freight it will be seen that the tonnage from Campbellton, Chatham and Newcastle has declined considerably during the past four years, whilst Bathurst has shown a steady increase. The big falling off has been in lumber shipments, and in this respect Bathurst shows a decrease in lumber shipments in about the same ratio as the other three towns.

OPEN COAL MARKETS.

The figures given indicate receipt of freight at the four towns in descending order of tonnage. The large quantities of material required in the manufacture of wood-pulp and paper, which are not used in the manufacture of lumber, sixty-one thousand and 77 tons of coal were raised to Bathurst during 1925, as against $218 tons for Campbellton, and as against 22,602 tons for the three towns of Campbellton, Chatham and Newcastle. This will give an idea of the additional markets that the establishment of pulp and paper mills in New Brunswick would open up for our own coal and Nova Scotia coal.

GIVE MORE LABOR

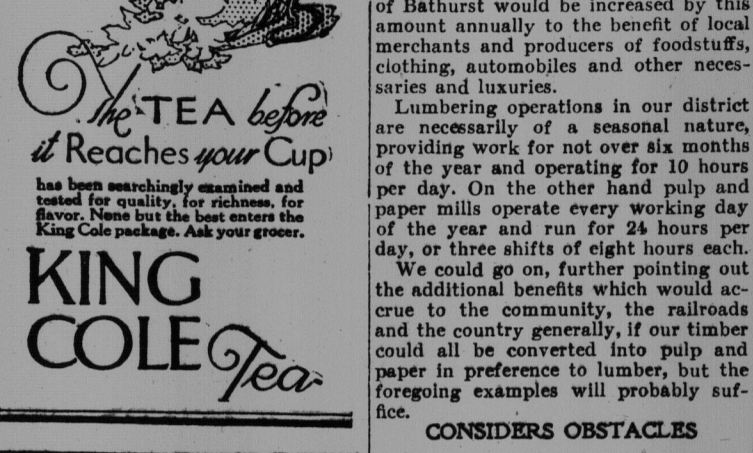

Besides the additional materials used in manufacturing pulp and paper, we would state that it costs in labor $10.63 more to convert 1,000 feet of logs into newspaper paper than to convert the same 1,000 feet of logs into sawn lumber.

HOPE IN PAPER MILLS.

In an effort to hold our own in the United States market we have reduced our operating costs to a minimum, and we would here record our appreciation of the efforts made by the New Brunswick Government to assist the industry by reducing the stumpage rates. Whilst the rates applicable in New Brunswick are still higher than those assessed in other provinces of the Dominion, and are higher than we consider the industry can stand, we believe that our Government has gone as far as they can to meet the situation.

LARGE EXPORT TO U. S.

Statistics show that 85% of the newspaper manufactured in Canada today is exported to the United States, and with the exception of a very limited quantity consumed in the Maritime Provinces, practically all of our output is date has been fully developed and United States market. In order to do this, however, we have to absorb freight on such large centres as the Canadian base point, Quebec.

Table with 4 columns: Year, F'ded, Rec'd, F'ded, Rec'd. Rows for Bathurst, Campbellton, Chatham, Newcastle from 1922 to 1925.

BASIS OF RATES

It is generally understood that the original basis for freight rates on paper to United States points was the rates established by the Board of Railway Commissioners for the Canadian National Railways. As far as the Canadian National Railways are concerned we are constantly negotiating with them regarding rates on our manufactured products to United States points, and they have, on numerous occasions, advised us that the principal obstacle in the way of their giving us lower rates is the rate of the Montreal and Quebec mill.

BATHURST'S POSITION.

In the case of rates from Iroquois Falls, Ontario, a distance of 288 miles north of North Bay, Ont., the Canadian National Railways and Canadian Pacific Railway join in rates of only one cent per 100 lbs. higher than from other points in the group referred to.

WASSONS 2 STORES

Bathurst is 386 miles east of Quebec and we submit that if the United States railways consider it necessary, and good business, to protect a shipment at Millinocket, who has ready access to such large centres of population as Boston and New York, by applying the same rate from this point as they do from the base point (Berlin), or an extra haul of 303 miles, we are not unreasonable when we suggest that the Canadian base rate, of the rate applicable from Quebec, should be extended to apply from Bathurst, which is located in a sparsely settled district far from any large consuming centres, but only 386 miles further distant from such large centres than the Canadian base point, Quebec.

THE INTERCOLONIAL.

Whether or not the failure of the railways to so protect us can be blamed entirely on the necessity of hauling the traffic over the somewhat circuitous route of the Intercolonial Railway, we consider, a debatable point. We submit that it is reasonable to suppose that if the Intercolonial had not been built as it was in an east and west direction, through this territory, a shorter rail route would have been constructed more on a direct line from the North Shore of New Brunswick to New England, to enable the rich natural resources of this district and their products, to reach the Eastern United States market. The activity displayed by traveling freight representatives of the Maine Central, Bangor & Aroostook and other United States railways in soliciting us for the routing of such of our freight as they can participate in at present is an indication of the desire on their part to secure the tonnage, and if the railroads had been built north and south it would only be good business on their part to establish rates, which would enable the traffic to reach the consuming markets on a parity with traffic from other competing mills, just as the United States lines have placed Millinocket in a position to compete with Berlin, N. H., in western United States markets, and as the Canadian railways have done in establishing the Berlin rate from Quebec mills.

FEDERAL INTEREST.

In the development of our argument or submissions up to this point it might properly be suggested that we have not indicated in what way the Federal Government is directly interested or should be asked to assist in overcoming our disabilities, or it might

NEW MARKETS NEEDED FOR MARITIME FISH, COMMISSION TOLD

Further Evidence Is Given In Regard To Lack of Advertising

AT YESTERDAY afternoon's session of the Royal Commission investigating Maritime claims, Walter Leonard and B. M. Hill urged that assistance be given to the fishing industry of the Maritime Provinces through the agency of the trade commissioners of the Federal Department of Trade and Commerce, who would find new markets for the products of the sea.

Dr. Murray MacLaren, a member for Saint John-Albert in the late parliament, furnished the commission with an analysis of statistics dealing with the import and export trade of the Dominion in its relation to Canadian exports, and Richard O'Leary, general merchant of Richibucto, urged the taking over of the Kent Northern Railway by the Canadian National system.

A. D. CORELLI TESTIFIES. A. D. Corelli was the first witness to be examined. He laid before the commission a number of booklets, the majority of them for tourist use, published by the C. N. R., and alleged discrimination against the Maritime Provinces. Mr. Corelli charged that more had been spent on extolling Jasper Park, the railway's western tourist resort, than on all three of the Maritime Provinces.

FISHING INDUSTRY. Walter Leonard, of the firm of Leonard Bros., local fish dealers, then appeared before the commission. Mr. Leonard dealt first with the fishing industry of Saint John harbor and the Bay of Fundy and then pleaded for assistance in export trade.

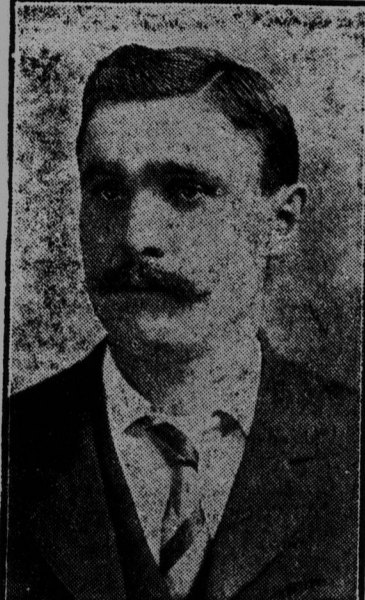

SOME MARKETING FRESH. Some of the Bay of Fundy fish, Mr. Leonard continued, are marketed fresh in Canada and the United States. He pointed out that these fresh condition, huge quantities of herring are caught. These are shipped to South America, British West Indies, Jamaica and other markets, Mr. Leonard said.

DR. MACLAREN TAKES STAND. Dr. Murray MacLaren, ex-M.P., then took the stand. Dr. MacLaren dealt first with federal enactments in routing of Canadian trade shipments. The speaker drew the attention of the commission to the C. N. R. act of 1903. It was the intention of the government to force trade in Canadian channels and through Canadian ports, Dr. MacLaren stated.

EXPORTS AND IMPORTS. Dr. MacLaren said he also wished to make some mention of the exports and imports of Canada. Speaking of the imports first, he stated that at the present time over 99 per cent of British goods coming into the Dominion were routed through Canadian ports. Goods imported into Canada indirectly, through United States ports, amounted to 47 per cent of her over-seas exports, Dr. MacLaren said.

CULLIGAN NAMED BY CONSERVATIVES

Former Member Again Chosen For Nomination in Restigouche-Madawaska

CAMPBELLTON, Aug. 3.—Arthur D. Culligan, of Jacques River, late representative for this constituency in the Federal House, was the unanimous choice of the Conservative convention, held here tonight, as their candidate for Restigouche-Madawaska in the coming election.

Mr. Cormier spoke briefly of the collapse of the King government and said there was need for a return to sound and honest administration of the country's affairs. He declared that the Conservatives of Madawaska would stand solidly behind Mr. Culligan and that he would have a much larger following in that county than he had last fall.

SECOND NOMINATION. W. S. Montgomery, of Dalhousie, seconded Mr. Culligan's nomination and predicted a large majority for the Conservative candidate in Restigouche-Madawaska. He also referred to the alleged maladministration from which the county had suffered under Macdougall's government when Mr. Culligan was in the coming contest.

UPHOLDS GOV.-GENERAL. Mr. Culligan dealt briefly with the events of the last two weeks at Ottawa and defended the action of the Government in the suspension of Mr. King from the duties of Prime Minister and the dissolution of Parliament when a motion of confidence was hanging over his head.

ANNOUNCES MANION. In closing he referred to the coming campaign and announced that R. J. Manion, postmaster-general of Canada, would speak in Campbellton on August 16.

ONTARIO TEACHERS ARE AWAY TO P. E. I.

Party of 89 Spent Night Here on Tour of Eastern Canada

The party of 89 teachers from Ontario and Upper Canadian points arrived in the city yesterday on an eastern tour en route for the convention of the Canadian Teachers' Federation which is now in session in Charlottetown.

A number of C. N. R. officials were with the party superintending the arrangements. Of the teachers only six were men and the majority of the members of the party were seeing the Maritime provinces for the first time.

They made the trip from Fredericton to Saint John on the motorship D. J. Purdy and for the first two or three hours of riverboat travel the weather was kind and the Saint John River was seen at its best.

Unfortunately for the remainder of the boat trip, rain and mist somewhat obscured the view.

The teachers are traveling in a special train, four sleepers, observation car and dining car and slept on board last night in a siding at the Union Depot. They visited the points of interest about the city and had dinner at the Admiral Beatty hotel.

Frank Moore is the traveling passenger agent of the C. N. R. who is accompanying the party.

Mrs. Ralph Robertson entertained at a greatly enjoyed informal bridge at her residence, Mecklenburg street yesterday for the pleasure of out of town visitors who are now in Saint John. Over a hundred spectators watching a water carnival crowded the small suspension bridge over the Coal River at Whitesville, West Va. A concerted shift of the crowd from one side of the bridge to the other overstrained one of the two supporting cables, which broke. The photo was made just after a special train had removed the victims from the scene of the tragedy.

The Saint John Society for the Prevention of Tuberculosis at its meeting yesterday afternoon in the clinic room decided to have a special day when the members of its executive would co-operate with the city police to have arrested those who were guilty of expectoration on the sidewalks, such expectoration being contrary to the civic by-laws and a grave menace to public health. A letter was received from the Saint John Red Cross Society offering to co-operate with the Society for the Prevention of Tuberculosis in a campaign against expectoration on the city sidewalks and it was decided to ask the Red Cross Society to have the members of its executive also co-operate with the city police on the special day set aside for a vigorous campaign against the all too common practice. Such co-operation had first been asked of the tuberculosis society by Commissioner W. L. Harding. The day for carrying out the campaign of arresting the citizens who disregard the city by-law will be arranged for as early as possible. 50 SHEEPSKINS HELD BY MOST "DEGREED" MAN

Minister Began Life on Farm—Ambition to Be Best Educated

If he chooses, he may sign his name James William Lowber, B. A., M. A., Ph. D., Sc. D., Litt. D., LL. D., D. D., F. A. S., B. G. S., F. R. S. A., and still leave off just forty degrees and titles received from the highest institutions of learning and from the greatest art and science societies of the world, says Dan W. Hallis in "The Dallas News."

Asked about the bestowal to him of the fifty diplomas in his library in Austin, he said:

"I, like most youths on the farm, had to work pretty hard. I don't suppose, however, that the tasks and chores on my father's farm were different, materially, from those of the average small farm. Still, I worked with an ideal, and my father always said that I could, as a plowboy, plow the straight furrow of any man or boy he ever saw. I had an ideal even in plowing or whatever labor I happened to be engaged in. I had an idea that there was a best way, a perfect way, to do everything, and I always strove for perfection in whatever I undertook to do.

"That then, in general," he smiled as he swept his right hand in a gesture of satisfaction around the four walls of his library, "is the story of how I came by all those diplomas; fifty in all, I believe."

"I want to say, however," he continued, "in the first place, that I did not set out to become the most degreed man in the world, nor do I really know that I am, and that is not all, I do not care. I set out at the age of sixteen with a fixed purpose in my mind to become one of the best educated men in the country—in the world, if possible. I wanted to know just as much about anything and everything as any man who might sit alongside me. That was my purpose, then, at sixteen. It is my purpose now at seventy-nine."

"My life has brought me even more than I dreamed of in forming my youthful ideals. I have gotten more out of every subject that I have gone into than I imagined there was in it until I had made a thorough study of the question, and now I can say truthfully that there is not one thing in my past that I would change had I the power to do so.

"And my life's work, I might say, is finished, for I have written my last book, and I quit the active ministry 12 years ago. I have completed the work I set out to do, except my studies, which will not end until my journey here is completed, and which I carry on diligently every day, never stopping, for one day lost and, I could never catch up again.

ATTENDED LOG SCHOOL.

"The first school I attended," said Dr. Lowber, in going back to his youth, "was in a little log schoolhouse about two miles from home. A doctor from Illinois began the school and taught a few weeks, but he quit, and a woman took his place and finished the school. The next school I attended was in Washington county, in a log school-house similar to the first one. The benches were without backs and our feet could not reach the floor."

He was so efficient in Latin that one of his early academy teachers, Professor Gardner, insisted that he study law. This he did, graduating in law, but never practicing the profession.

Letters to the Editor

REPLY TO COUNCILLOR SIMPSON.

To the Editor of The Times-Star: Sir—In your issue of July 29, I notice a letter signed by Councillor Simpson, which libellous letter is a personal attack on me and the Purity Ice Cream Co., as well as the Pacific Diaries, who now hold the controlling interest in the Purity Ice Cream Co., Ltd.

As far as the libellous statements made regarding myself are concerned the matter will be handled by my attorney, while the reference made to the Purity Ice Cream Co. and the Pacific Diaries will be handled by our directors, who will deal with Councillor Simpson's criticisms and show him how far he is astray regarding the attitude of these companies to the stockholders. In consequence, I shall only deal with his letter as it affects the general public.

It is surprising the narrowness of Councillor Simpson. You would almost think that one occupying such an important position as he occupies would ridicule the idea of outside capital coming to a city for development purposes. If it not outside capital that has given to Saint John practically all the important industries she has? Has it not been outside capital that has given faith in Saint John, who have invested their money and kept our few industries in operation, thereby giving employment to our people? Was it not outside capital that saved the Purity Ice Cream Company from ruin, and in consequence saved the local investors in that company from a complete loss? None of the present controlling owners of the Purity Ice Cream Co. were in any way responsible for one nickel being invested by our local investors, but they did save the industry and thus gave employment to a large number of people, and, in addition, spend thousands of dollars annually in this city for supplies, but apparently Councillor Simpson does not approve of this method of expansion. He, evidently, is to travel along in his own narrow channel, holding a good position, but to Hades with the other fellow. But let us get down to business.

Flatiron On An Ice Chest Starts Blaze

BOSTON, Aug. 4.—A hot flat iron left on top of an ice chest caused a $2,500 fire in the two and a half story wooden dwelling in West Somerville. The fire was in the apartment occupied by Edward Long on the first floor. The house is owned by Lillian O'Connor. The fire gave the department more than an hour's battle before the firemen got the best of it.

Small Table Contains 14,000 Pieces of Wood

NEW LONDON, Aug. 4.—A masterpiece in woodwork in the form of a table about the size of the ordinary card table, which contains 14,000 pieces of wood of 14 different kinds, some of which was gathered in foreign countries, has been placed on exhibition here. The table, made by J. N. LaPointe, a retired manufacturer of this city, consumed 1,800 hours of labor, he says, and contains many emblems and symbols. The top, which had eight panels, shows the colors of the United States, Ireland, England, France, Italy, Turkey, Canada and Germany. Tiny wooden pegs were used instead of nails. LaPointe says he spent from three to five hours a day assembling and manufacturing the various parts.

3 months' service ~no carbon trouble

NATIONAL TAXI, LIMITED 23 ADELAIDE ST. WEST Toronto, Can., June 29th, 1926.

IMPERIAL OIL LIMITED, Church Street, Toronto, Ont.

Gentlemen: For the past three months we have been using Marvelube Oil exclusively in our fleet of sixteen cars.

In justice to you we are only too pleased to inform you that, in the past we had trouble with oily spark plugs in several of our cars, but since using "Marvelube" this trouble has been eliminated entirely.

Every one of our cars average 1,000 miles per week, and to keep them free from carbon it used to be necessary to have them in the repair shop at least once a month.

It has not been necessary for us to send a car to the repair shop on account of carbon since we started to use this new oil.

We wish to offer you our congratulations. Yours very truly, NATIONAL TAXI, LIMITED.

SAM/GS. Vice-President and General Manager.

Marvelube MOTOR OIL advertisement: Successfully combats Carbon. Includes Imperial Oil logo and text: Always Use the Right Grade. Marvelube Motor Oil is made in six grades—Light Medium, Medium, Heavy, Special Heavy, Extra Heavy and "F" for Ford.

Marvelube Sets Remarkable Record

Fourteen weeks of hard service—with an average of 1,000 miles of driving each week—is enough to test the lubricating qualities of any motor oil.

If such a test were carried out in a single pleasure car with such a remarkable record of satisfaction, it would be convincing proof of the quality of the oil used.

In the case of the National Taxi Limited, Marvelube Motor Oil produced the amazing lubricating results described—not in one car but in sixteen hard-driven taxi cabs!

In these sixteen cars—12 Overlands and 4 Nash models—the mechanical and operating conditions must necessarily have varied considerably, yet the results were the same in all cases.

Marvelube lived up to every claim made for it, eliminating carbon troubles and promoting the superior operating results which are possible only with this wonderful oil.

Always Use the Right Grade

Marvelube Motor Oil is made in six grades—Light Medium, Medium, Heavy, Special Heavy, Extra Heavy and "F" for Ford.

To secure maximum lubricating results from your car it is essential that you use the grade recommended for your make and model of car.

See the Marvelube Chart of Recommendations for the correct grade for your car and always insist upon that grade whenever and wherever you fill.

Recluse And Hoarded Money Vanish

For many years Peter Rosenberger (inset above), lived as a recluse farmer on his place near Assumption, N. B. The last of June he disappeared and has not been seen since. It is rumored he had hoarded more than $50,000 in milk cans which hung on the kitchen wall of his ramshackle home, pictured above. An unidentified body found in the Mississippi, near Cairo, Ill., may prove to be that of the missing farmer, but authorities have not abandoned the search.

MARITIMES "FED UP" WITH PROMISES, SAYS M'KENNA IN CLOSING

United States points, this being our principal market today, but it is well for any industry to have as many markets as possible in which to dispose of their product.

GROUND FOR APPEAL The best of our knowledge the Canadian Board of Railway Commissioners has no jurisdiction over through rates from Canada to the United States, certainly in our opinion.

INLAND EXPORT RATE In order to compete in these markets it is necessary to make prices in competition with Europe and other sources of supply and enter into contracts in order to secure a period of 12 months, for delivery by liners in large or lesser quantities, at stated prices.

GENERAL ADVANTAGE The adjustment we will propose will not work a hardship on any other part of the Maritime Provinces.

PREFERENCE HERE Our suggestion is that either Saint John or Halifax get the preference in ocean rates as compared with Montreal.

RELATIONS WITH C. N. R. We do not wish to appear in this presentation as criticising or complaining in any way of the present officials of the Canadian National Railways or its management in Montreal, Montreal or elsewhere.

SPECIAL TRAIN LEAVES TUESDAY MORNING, 6.30

Elaborate preparations are being made by the International Paper Company for the official inauguration of the work of development at Grand Falls on August 10.

LUMBER FOR OVERSEAS As with the newsprint paper and woodpulp, we are also at a disadvantage when we try to export our lumber to overseas markets by liners.

RELIEF FROM HIGH RATES As in the case of newsprint and woodpulp, we would strongly urge the necessity of relief from the high freight rates on lumber in United States markets.

SOME COMPARISONS Earlier in our statement we referred to the fact that our spruce timber is particularly suitable for the manufacture of high grade papers, such as book, bond, writing, Kraft wrapping paper, and all other papers made from spruce.

MARKETS LACKING There is, however, a very substantial reason why we cannot realize our ambitions in this respect at the present time, and that is the lack of markets.

OTHER FOREST PRODUCTS Whilst on the subject of freight rates, we must not overlook the fact, although it may be, and is desirable to convert our saw mills into paper mills, this must of necessity be a gradual conversion, and even if ultimately accomplished, there will still be other classes of forest products, such as pine and hardwoods, which are not suitable for paper making, but which must be converted into lumber.

OTHER MARKETS We have dealt now with rates to United States points, but it is well for any industry to have as many markets as possible in which to dispose of their product.

CONSIDER 100 ROOM WING FOR BEATTY HOTEL

Saint John's New Hostelry May Enlarge Sooner Than Expected

Tourist Traffic Grows In Volume

More Conventions Coming to This City Is the Expectation

If the patronage which the Admiral Beatty Hotel has received since it was opened, thirteen months ago, continues it may mean the erection of an additional wing of 100 rooms in the near future, it was said last evening by an official of the company. Plans were made for this addition at the time of construction, but it was not then expected it would be built for some years.

Last night the Admiral Beatty was crowded. Nearly 400 guests were registered. All available space was taken up, extra bedding and supplies were in service in sample rooms, corridors and out-of-the-way places. Scores of visitors were cared for in private homes.

At this particular hour still another train was to bring its quota. The management stated it was an extraordinary situation but there were unmistakable signs that the tide of tourist traffic was setting in very strongly towards the Maritimes, due in no small measure to publicity given through the United Hotel Company's inter-house literature and co-operative bookings.

CONVENTION QUARTERS

Since early in the summer, conventions, more numerous than ever before in the history of Saint John, have made the Admiral Beatty Hotel their headquarters, notably the Rotarians and national gathering of the Daughters of the Empire. Maritime conventions were also held in this city and today the Royal Arcanum is holding its tri-province annual here. The coming of the Ancient and Honorable Artillery Company of Massachusetts in October and the Canadian Bar Association will be conventions that will tax and perhaps overtax the capacity of the new hotel.

TO MAKE WING NECESSARY

"It is these conventions," the hotel company official stated, "that will make the building of a wing a definite necessity before long. We have had some pretty large gatherings already but there are indications that Saint John and this part of Canada hold so much merit as an alluring novelty to Americans and Upper Canadians—judging from the gossip of those who have already been here—that before long a flood of conventions will be coming this way, bigger gatherings than any presently contemplated. Officers of business, fraternal and social bodies all over the continent are continually casting hold their get-togethers and Saint John and the Maritimes are at present commanding a lot of attention."

The hotel company official stated that the same spirit of conviction that impelled the Admiral Beatty Hotel Company to proceed with the erection of the hostelry is impressing the members with the approaching need of another hundred rooms at least. It was a matter of gratification to local investors and proceeded with its erection to know that in a year's time there were prospects of making additions and hitching up the extra boilers and piping services already installed for such an eventuality.

JEALOUS HUSBAND TORTURES FRIEND

Used Whip and Fire as Punishment for Suspected Intimacies

ST. PAUL, Minn., Aug. 4.—Walter H. Fletcher has confessed to the police that he tortured his lifelong friend, Edward Horrigan, a city fireman, with five and a blacksnake whip for more than five hours while the victim was handcuffed to a chair and Roy Kleinsmith, an 18-year-old boy, stood over him with a rifle pointed at his breast.

"I did it," said Fletcher, "to teach men not to play with other men's wives."

Horrigan, recovering from the ordeal, which he was asked again and again to admit intimacies with Mrs. Fletcher, denied that he had ever been overly attentive to his friend's wife. He repudiated the accusation as a fireman he was forced to sign by Fletcher. He said that after every word he wrote Fletcher applied a lighted match to his body until it burned out.

Summoned by a mysterious telephone call to a house on West Seventh street, policemen found Horrigan handcuffed and bound to a chair and nearly unconscious from torture. Standing guard over him was Kleinsmith, armed with a rifle and also in the room, preparing the policemen said, to resume his torment, was Fletcher, apparently insane with rage. Horrigan had been beaten, burned with matches and lashed with a whip.

The police arrested the torturers and released the victim. Later Fletcher was taken to a mental hospital.

SAFE WITH $20,000 WITHSTANDS THUGS

Yeggs Work Six Hours But Fail to Open Vault of N. Y. Firm

NEW YORK, Aug. 4.—Several inches of steel safe wall stood between a band of safe crackers and $20,000, frustrated their violent attacks, and frustrated their plans to rob the offices of the Yawman & Erbe Company, manufacturers of office furniture, at 808 Broadway.

The wreckage caused by the activities of the band was found early in the morning by employees of the company reporting for work.

The men evidently gained entrance to the offices from fire escapes. They roamed through the five-story building, disturbing papers and files on all floors, and from the shipping room took an assortment of sledges and crow bars to the offices in which there are two safes.

The combination was knocked from the first safe and the outside badly damaged, but the door remained fast. The attack on the second safe was more violent. It too suffered the loss of the combination knob, several of the bolts were removed, and one of the door bolts cut through. Both safes withstood the attack, however, and were not opened.

Realizing that their efforts were futile the yeggs "rubbed down" both safes with a pair of gloves to destroy fingerprints, and left without having attracted attention. Police estimate that the work required at least six hours.

A serious attack was heard. Police's policy regarding debt payments was praised.

MONEY BILL PASSED BY FRENCH SENATE

Action Assures Triumph of Poincare's Financial Measures

British United Press.

PARIS, Aug. 3.—Final triumph for the financial projects of Premier Poincare has been assured by the Senate's vote of 290 to 13 in favor of the measure.

The financial bill, which carries with it a huge burden of taxation for France, now goes to the President for his approval, which is practically assured, and it will then become law.

Passage of the projects did not come without some criticism in the Upper House of the French parliament. Former Premier Francois Marsal made the chief objection but nothing like a serious attack was heard. Poincare's policy regarding debt payments was praised.

With MATT MOORE, MARIE PREVOST

A rollicking, fast-moving comedy drama of a made-over cool-beaver who tries to step in high society. He proves conclusively that cave-man tactics are the surest way to a woman's heart, provided one doesn't use the method on half a dozen girls at the same time.

Marie Prevost was never more chic or charming, or Matt Moore, as fascinating.
