SACKVILLE, N. B., Sept. 12.—At both the Ladies' College and the academy, the Mount Allison institutions so far opened, indications are that attendance records will be left far behind.

The marriage of Miss Margaret George to Chalmers Hicks takes place on Wednesday of next week at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. George, Upper Sackville.

On the same day the marriage of Miss Ethel L. Prentiss, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Judson Lingley, to Frank O. Lee, son of Amherst will take place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Tingley, Upper Point DeHute.

On Saturday afternoon a meeting of the executive of the Sackville and Westmorland Agricultural Society was held, when arrangements for the coming fair on October 8 and 7 were under consideration. Possible committees on advertising, buildings, grounds, entertainment, amusement, restaurant and programme were named. An important part of the amusements will be horse races on the second day.

The contract for the erection of a factory for A. E. Wry, Limited, has been given to Mr. J. E. Lusby of Amherst. Work will begin on Tuesday. The factory will be a large brick building, three stories in height. It will stand at the corner of Lorne street and the new road leading to the intercollegiate freight shed.

Incendiary Fire Causes Loss of Long Island
Hotel—Guests Lost Everything But Their Night Clothes.

EDGEMERE, I. I., Sept. 12.—In a fire which destroyed the Edgemer Hotel here before daylight today, seventy-five guests and twenty employees had narrow escapes. The fire, which the proprietor said was undoubtedly from incendiary origin, started in the basement and worked its way up through the structure so rapidly the entire first floor was ablaze before the alarm was given the alarm. While most of the guests were able to leave by the stairs, many had to jump from the second-story balcony but were not seriously hurt.

Most of the guests were men and their women, leaped from a second-story balcony but were not seriously hurt. They were rescued by the fire department. They were cared for in neighboring cottages. The hotel building was valued at $75,000.

ONCE GREATEST LUMBER DEALER IN THE WORLD

CHICAGO, Sept. 12.—Turlington Walker Harvey, one of Chicago's pioneer lumbermen and at one time the greatest lumber dealer in the world, died yesterday in a hospital at Littleton, N. H., of injuries caused by a fall six weeks ago while entering a ferry boat in Jersey City. He was 74 years of age and was born in 1840. Mr. Harvey came to Chicago in 1864 and engaged in the lumber business. In 1869 he built in Michigan the first logging railroad ever constructed to transport logs from the camps to the streams and mills.

In Interview He Says That All That Cook Told Him Was That the Latter Had Passed Peary's Previous Record—Received No Records as Alleged by Cook—Now on a Hunting Trip—Dispute May be Referred to French Commission—Peary Still at Battle Harbor.

NEW YORK, Sept. 12.—The Times says today:—

Interesting evidence bearing upon the question whether Dr. Frederick A. Cook did, as he asserts, or did not, reach the North Pole before Commander Robert E. Peary succeeded in his long quest for the pole, was supplied yesterday in a despatch published in the New York Herald from its correspondent, who met Harry Whitney, the New Haven sportsman aboard the Roosevelt, when she came from the north on Sept. 10.

The correspondent asked on the relier ship Jeannie what put out from Newfoundland early in August to find Peary, Cook and Whitney. The Jeanie and the Roosevelt met in Westholms Sound, north of Svalbard island. Whitney was aboard the Roosevelt, having been picked up at Etah by Commander Peary while the explorer was on his way back from the pole.

Ever since Dr. Cook, coming south on a Danish vessel from Thormokk, the Danish settlement in Greenland, announced that he had reached the North Pole on April 25, 1908, and therefore was its "discoverer," there has been the greatest eagerness to hear some word from Whitney, Peary's declared rival in his earliest interview in Copenhagen, that he reached the pole to Whitney; when returning from the pole, he found Whitney staying at Peary's base at Etah.

Dr. Cook explained that he made two sets of maps and sketches, and made observations. He gave one, he said, to Whitney, so that in the event of a mishap to himself, there would still be proof of his existence to establish his claim to the discovery of the pole.

Whitney, who is now on a two weeks' hunting trip on the Jeannie. Those who accept Peary's statement that Cook "has simply handed the public a gold brick," pointed out that if Whitney had the previous proofs he would probably not be spending his time in a hunting trip with the chance that Commander Peary's might be lost.

PULP COMPANY PAYING SOME OF THEIR EMPLOYEES

But Strike Leaders Will Have to Wait—
Death of Mrs. Roger Flanagan at Boston.

CHATHAM, N. B., Sept. 12.—A considerable number of the employees of the Miramichi Pulp Mill were paid their wages on Saturday, but it is said that the management will not pay the strike leaders or those who have taken legal action to recover their wages until the expiration of ninety days, the time allowed by the law. Already many families are on the verge of want and unless these men get other employment their distress will be acute.

RELATIVES LOST THEIR RAGE AGAINST DEATH

SUIT CASE WAS STOLEN

This morning Wm. Howard, news agent at the depot, left a suit case standing on a track for several minutes, and upon returning someone had made off with it. The value was missed just before the C. P. R. going east had left and Mr. Howard is at a loss to know whether it was accidentally taken by someone rushing for the train or whether the theft was intentionally committed. The grip will be a serious loss to Mr. Howard unless he can locate it, and at present suspicion points to no one in particular.

Bobby Kerr Sets New Record for 220 Yard Dash.

TORONTO, Sept. 12.—A mysterious airship which has been in the course of construction at Lynde Lodge, the Lake Shore road Mimico residence of F. E. Wehner, has just been launched. The airship, which was built in a few months, made a three-quarter mile flight Saturday afternoon and was then plunged into the lake. J. D. ONE THOUSAND FALL RIVER WEAVERS STRIKE

Want Ten Per Cent. Increase in Wages—
Police Present, But Other Employees
Were Not Molested

FALL RIVER, Mass., Sept. 12.—The 1,000 weavers employed at the Fall River Cotton Mills, which are controlled by M. G. D. Borden, of New York, failed to report for work today in accordance with their announced intention of striking for an increase in wages. Although but one-fourth of the employees of the six mills were affected, there was a probability that unless the strikers and the mill operators reached an agreement during the day, all the departments would be closed down, throwing 5,000 operatives out of work. To prevent possible disorder a large squad of police was posted around the mills, but the weavers made no attempt to intercept the carrier who made numerous excellent work.

The striking weavers ask for a ten per cent. increase in wages and the adjustment of several minor grievances.

THE news of the death of Rev. Charles Comben will cause sincere regret wherever he was known. He has spent a long career in the service of his church and has been widely known throughout the province. As a minister he was highly respected and as a man he was deeply loved. COOK AND TAILOR GET RICH IN NAVY

But They Have to Work to Do It. Former Can Make $6,000 a Year, Latter $10,000 During His Term of Enlistment.

Heroes afloat do not have much to keep them occupied in times of peace, save so far as their officers are ingenious at finding tasks to keep their hands busy. Nowadays, with no navigating to speak of except the work done by the engineers and the officers and his dozen other, a sailor of war is an idler compared to what he was in the old days, says the Boston Herald.

There are some exceptions, however. Men who are as busy at sea as any one ordinarily accords to be on land. They are the cooks, the barbers, the tailors and a few others of that sort.

It is a delicate task, choosing a barber for the privilege of making $600 a month, but it is sought for by the barber makes his $600 a month, hot or cold, rain or sun. Twelve times this makes him out making $6,000 a year, all of it outright profit.

When a ship is being put into commission her executive officer (the captain) has to choose a barber to enlist as patiently as a middle maker hunter for a beam of seasoned lumber.

There are a few hundred of these barbers in the navy, but the barber is technically rated as a seaman, like the rest of them. He gets his pay by the month, but his pay is not from the government, and adds that little to the handsome sum that he earns.

When a ship is being put into commission her executive officer (the captain) has to choose a barber to enlist as patiently as a middle maker hunter for a beam of seasoned lumber.

It is surprising how much difference the abilities of the cook make in the comfort of the sailor. Though the cook is simple, and the cooking simpler yet, the far is a finicky judge of what is laid before him. By his style of boiling beef a naval chef may rise or fall.

The cook has much to do with the purchase of provisions, and here his ingenuity, especially in foreign ports, comes into play. An ingenious cook contrives to light upon articles of diet that surprise the sailor's palate and make him feel glad that he is not back home.

The ship's tailor has plenty to keep him busy, and he should retire with handsome savings, after a term of enlistment. He not only attends to the clothes of the men, but does much for the officers, whose expensive uniforms are in need of continual care.

COOK HAS HIGH RATING. The cook does not make so much as the barber, nor anywhere near it, but his merits have as much to do with keeping the men sound and happy as keeping any one aboard ship. It is a sort of saying that the men are at their best under a good captain and a good cook. If the cook is mean the combination is intolerable and they desert. If the captain is popular and the cook is spoiled by the bad cook. The men hump the captain and the ship together and vote them had or good, according as the food rations and rations they cheerful, or the opposite. The cook has a high rating and good pay, but no other legitimate profits.

LITTLE LAD'S LEG WAS TORN OFF

Horrible Injury to Ronald Campbell

Foot Caught in Spokes of Wheel—Accident May Prove Fatal

Ronald Campbell, the seven-year-old son of Percy W. D. Campbell, bookkeeper for the New Brunswick Telephone Company, met with a very serious accident on Saturday afternoon, and as a result of the occurrence the boy is now lying in the General Hospital, having received injuries which may prove fatal. His leg was horribly mangled, being torn from the rest of his body, from the knee down, and he also received a very serious compound fracture of the thigh bone.

Ronald, with a chum, was playing on German street, and about 5:30 o'clock, while near the corner of Duke street, he caught on the back of a carriage, which was being driven by Mrs. Ada Johnson. As he did so his right leg became entangled in the spokes of the wheel, and while the horse continued to travel at a fairly good rate of speed, his leg went round with the wheel.

The little boy's leg was horribly crushed, and the carriage went quite a distance before the boy was noticed. His shrieks attracted the attention of Miss Pritchard, who quickly caught hold of the horse, in an attempt to stop the horse, informing Mrs. Johnson that a little boy was tangled in the wheel.

Pritchard lifted the boy from the carriage and took his leg from the spokes of the wheel.

Young Campbell was taken in John P. Moore's residence, and Dr. P. R. Inches, J. S. Bentley and W. W. White were hastily summoned. They gave what medical assistance they could to alleviate the boy's intense pain. The ambulance was called and he was conveyed to the hospital shortly after the accident.

On examination it was found that his thigh bone was fractured, while his leg, almost from the knee down, had been torn completely off.

On Saturday evening an operation was performed by Dr. White. The thigh bone was amputated, and a large quantity of blood was infused in an effort to save the boy's life by making up on equity at the hospital late last evening it was learned that young Campbell was resting somewhat easier, but is in a very critical condition.

MICHAEL BURKE WAS FOUND DEAD

Had Been Subject to Heart Weakness—Coroner Investigating

Michael Burke, of Rockland Road, was found dead on Long Wharf Sunday morning at 7:30 o'clock. His relative at home last saw him on Saturday evening, when he was leaving the house to attend the wake of Michael Kelly.

Mr. Burke, when found, was lying face upon the ground, his face resting partially upon the lower boards of a lumber pile belonging to F. E. Sayre, and partially upon a large stone. Those who were the first to handle the body judged that death had taken place not long before. When the body was raised, the face was still flushed, but it paled completely in a few minutes. An impression was left upon the face by the corner of one of the boards, but this quickly disappeared.

Jacob Brown, of Long Wharf, was the first to see Mr. Burke's remains, but he gained the impression that the man was dead.

Mr. Burke was a son of the late James Burke. He and his sister, Miss Mary Burke, resided together on Rockland Road. Another sister, Mrs. Mary King, is the only near relative of the deceased. When alive he was in the employ of the I. C. R. in various capacities. Just before his death he had been working at the putting down of granite blocks on the P. R. crossing, Mill street. He was a man of very quiet habits.

A NAUTICAL FAMILY REJOICES ONCE MORE

Capt. Vedder of Barge Edith Reports Another Boy

Making Six Born on Barge Since He Began to Follow the Inland Seas Thirty Five Years Ago.

(New York Sun.)

A hurry call for a doctor was sent to the Ellis Island hospital yesterday afternoon from the coal barge Edith, which has been moored at the island since Thursday. Capt. George W. Vedder, who has been barge and coal boat skipper since he was 17, and is now 52, had been expecting an addition to the ship's company for several days.

The doctor introduced the new comer to the skipper as "another boy," making six boys in all that have come into the world in the cabins of coal barges or canal boats. There are also six girls, and they too were born on boats. More than that, three of the girls and two of the boys are married, the girls to men who were born on boats and the boys to girls that first saw the light on boats. And still more than that, there are four grandchildren, and the oldest, all of whom were born on boats.

As the skipper remarked when he came into the Ship News office on his way to get off for the gas range in the Edith's kitchen, somebody except the immigrants ought to be building up the country, and it looked to him as if the native Americans were going to let the barge men and women and canal boat fraternity to the biggest share of the work. The skipper is 52, small, wiry and amiable, with clean cut features, and dark hair tinged with gray. He does not look 52 and says he does not feel it. His wife is 42, and he expressed a fear that the boy, who was named half an hour after he was born Frederick Ellis Vedder (the middle name for the island), would be the last boat baby in the immediate family.

The Edith piles the waters hereabouts, going no further south than South Amboy, and three other little Vedders, all in or just above the toddler class, will keep the Edith until the skipper quits the job, which he says he has no intention of doing. Captain Vedder is old enough to go himself into the business of raising children on boats, but he prefers to anchor the Edith Island doctor was surprised at the neatness of the two rooms the Vedders have aboard. The father of the last boat baby in the immediate family did not see any growler on the table or any glasses half filled with other stuff than water setting around. You see, my family does not drink, and my drinking mind does believe in keeping a neat household. I have never lived on anything but an anchorage, and I don't believe I could get used to it."

The skipper called up Mrs. Patton & Bows, yesterday morning and told them that he had discharged all his cargo, but he feared he was being drawn out of dock immediately, as there was something going to happen on his ship. Patton & Bows, however, did not draw out of dock immediately, as there was something going to happen on his ship. Patton & Bows, however, did not draw out of dock immediately, as there was something going to happen on his ship.

CROPS TO YIELD $50,000,000 MORE

OTTAWA, Sept. 12—The government crop bulletin, covering crop conditions throughout Canada at the end of August, shows that as compared with last year's crops, the revenue from cereal crops of Canadian farms this year should in the aggregate yield something over fifty millions of dollars more than last year.

In the three staple crops of wheat, barley and oats there has been a remarkable increase. The estimated yield of wheat this year based on the report received by the census and statistical office from reliable correspondents in every section of the country, is 188,880,000 bushels, or 41,690,000 more than last year. The oat crop is estimated at 204,910,000 bushels, an increase of 34,940,000 bushels, and the barley crop at 56,760,000 bushels, an increase of 14,810,000 bushels. On all three crops the aggregate estimated increase is 188,000,000 bushels, or over thirty per cent, as compared with last year.

Other field crops for the most part show small increases over last year. The yield of hay and clover, estimated at 10,180,000 tons, shows a decrease of 882,000 tons.

All the provinces with the exception of Ontario show substantial gains in the yields of wheat, barley and oats.

In the Maritime Provinces the increase in wheat is 1,070,000 bushels. In barley the yield is practically the same as last year.

In Quebec the wheat crop shows a betterment of 55,000 bushels; oats, 1,570,000 bushels, and barley, 620,000 bushels.

The Prairie Provinces give an increase of no less than 45,710,000 bushels in wheat, 79,842,000 bushels in oats, and 1,942,000 bushels in barley.

GOVERNMENT BURNS MILLIONS EACH DAY

Worn Out Paper Money Destroyed by the Treasury

Gives New Notes in Place—Demand for Crisp, Clean Money Caused Destruction of $640,000,000 Last Year.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 11.—The redemption of worn out paper money is now averaging $1,000,000 a day. During the last fiscal year the government redeemed and destroyed which is easily the largest amount redeemed in any single year. These figures show that there is great activity in business circles throughout the country.

The foregoing statement was made recently by United States Treasurer Charles H. Treat. He says that one of the best barometers of the state of national prosperity is to be found in the daily report of the redemption division of the Treasury Department. When there is a break through the county and people are buying and merchants are selling, the medium of circulation passes rapidly from hand to hand. Worn paper money, worn out and ragged by rough usage, finds its way to the treasury for redemption. It is an untalented sign that times are good.

All past records have been broken in the redemption division during the last fiscal year. The value of bills redeemed in to be exchanged for new ones has been running above $2,000,000 a day for a long period of time. About six years ago the daily redemption was less than a million dollars. The great volume of worn out bills are in denominations of $1 and $5. The activity of business is further shown by the frequent requests for redemption of $5 and $10 notes with ones. During the last six years there has been an increase of fifty per cent in the total number of $1 bills in circulation.

FASTIDIOUS AS TO MONEY.

"The people of the United States," said the treasury official, "are growing more fastidious every year in the matter of handling money. They have gradually become accustomed to fresh crisp bank notes or treasury certificates and do not care to handle soiled and dirty looking money, suggestive of mercenary. The government has encouraged this tendency to demand clean money."

"A big money factory is maintained here for the purpose of renewing the supply and it costs very little for banks to get it. The only charge for the exchange is forty cents per $1,000 for transportation. The banks have found that their customers like clean money, and they do not hesitate to return crumpled and worn notes and demand new ones. It is a rare thing for the department to send back these notes with a statement that they are still fit for circulation. The average note is fourteen months old. Formerly a note would stay out for three or four years. Roughly speaking, the body of the circulation is entirely renewed every two and a half years."

The business of redeeming worn money has grown to such proportions that the government recently found it necessary to improve its machinery for destroying notes. For more than half a century paper money for redemption was destroyed by being cut in two by a giant steel blade operated by a strong arm employee. Now the notes are mutilated, first by an electrical a.c. mill, which cuts four holes in each bundle of stacked up bills. Then they are further pushed under a knife which cuts them longitudinally through the middle. Between $60,000 and $120,000 of worn notes are thus destroyed every day.

WHAT IS LEGAL TENDER?

"I venture to say that not a single banker in a hundred and not a single member of the Senate or House can tell you accurately what parts of the United States currency are legal tender and what are not legal tender," was the surprising statement of a treasury official. "Learned Senators who are devising a new currency system would have to resort to the laws in order to find out just exactly what is meant by this term."

"The following are legal tender in all that the term means—Gold coins of the United States, standard silver dollars, subsidiary silver coins, minor coin of copper, bronze or copper-nickel up to twenty-five cents; United States notes or greenbacks, demand Treasury notes, Treasury notes of $20, Columbia half dollar and Columbia quarters, subsidiary silver coin including Columbian half dollars and quarters, are legal tender up to $10.

"We have more cases of burned money sent in for redemption than any other class when destruction is alleged. The total number of cases of this character reaches a surprising number, and I am now keeping track of them to see how many persons are foolish enough to resort to this insecure method of hiding money. In stores is confined largely to the North and West. The people of the South prefer to bury their money. This probably is a habit that was acquired during the days of the Civil War. We get many bundles of moulty rotten paper money sent in from the South where it had been buried and forgotten."

Something happened to the conscience of a man living at Annapolis, Md., about six months ago. Nobody seems to know exactly who struck the man, but every two or three weeks he sends a twenty dollar gold certificate to the Secretary of the Treasury with this note—"Due to U. S. There is not another word about the mistake to indicate the name of the sender. The envelope is always plain and without any legend save the address. The envelope, the writing, and the enclosure are always the same. The remittance comes almost with the regularity of a city tax bill. The money is credited to the conscience fund and is turned into the Treasury.

NEW CONTROL OF ALLAN LINE

MONTREAL, Sept. 12—A Liverpool business of the Allan line from T. & A. Allan, Glasgow, to H. &. Allan, Montreal, a statement which is not at variance with the denial of the original announcement. There seems, it is stated, little doubt that H. &. Allan are acting in conjunction with the G. R. P. R.

With regard to the Liverpool report of the absorption of the Allan line by the Great Trunk, Sir Montague Allan stated today that H. &. Allan had taken over the control of the line, the first business being transferred from G. &. A. Allan, Glasgow, to H. &. A. Allan here.

IF THE LAND IS THERE, CANADA OWNS IT

So the Cabinet Has Intimated to Britain With Regard to Arctic Discovery

OTTAWA, Sept. 12—As a result of the discovery of the North Pole, the question has been raised in the British House of Commons by Sir Gilbert Parker as to the ownership of all the lands intervening between the Pole and the territory now marked as Canada on the map. An agreement was given to the question in the British House tomorrow. It is understood that the matter was under discussion at a meeting of the cabinet council here and that a statement has been sent to the Colonial Office intimating that Canada claims all the land as far north as the Pole, as being Canadian Hinterland, there is not likely to be any basis for the United States claim to the land. The Pole itself, being two miles above water, belongs to all nations.

OUR NATIONAL DISEASE

Caused by Coffee

Physicians know that drugs will not correct the evils caused by coffee and that the only remedy is to stop drinking it.

An Arkansas doctor says: "I have been a coffee drinker for 50 years and have often thought that I could not do without it, but after many years of suffering with our national malady, dyspepsia, I attributed it to the drinking of coffee, and after some thought, determined to use Postum for my morning drink."

"I had the Postum made carefully according to directions on the package and found it just suited my taste."

"At first I used it only for breakfast, but I found myself getting so much better, that I had it at all meals, and I am pleased to say that it has entirely relieved me of indigestion. I gained 15 pounds in 4 months and my general health is greatly improved."

"I must tell you of a young lady in Illinois, she had been in ill health for many years, the vital forces low, with but little pain, wrote her of the good that Postum did me and advised her to try it."

"At the end of the year, she wrote me that Postum had entirely cured her and that she gained 40 pounds in weight and felt like herself again."

Read "The Road to Wellville," it piques.

GERMAN OPINION OF CANADA'S POLICY

Must Abandon High Tariff in Order to Maintain Commercial Peace With U.S.

MONTREAL, Sept. 12—The Canadian Associated Press cable from Berlin says: "The National Zeitung states that in spite of all the machinations of Britain it appears that it will no longer be possible for her to prevent the conclusion of commercial peace between Germany and Canada. This will be due to the fact that Canada in consequence of the reduced duties on English imports is one of those countries to which the new tariff of the United States will be applied. The inevitable result would be a tariff war between Canada and the United States, but Canada will endeavor to prevent this development. For this reason it is probably transpires that Canada can do nothing but meet the wishes of the United States and abandon her high tariff war with Germany because there would be no reason for Canada to deny Germany what she concedes to the United States."

POLLI SENT UP ON MURDER CHARGE

Case Comes Up on Sept. 23th

F. P. Carvell May Defend the Prisoner

OTTAWA, N. B., Sept. 12—Samuel Polli, the Italian, will be tried on the 23rd instant for the murder of James Gorman. The preliminary examination of Polli was concluded Saturday and he was sent up for trial.

Dr. Coffin's evidence was the last taken. He told of attending Gorman and of making a post-mortem examination of his body.

Dr. Coffin said he was called to McDonald's camp on August 25 and found Gorman lying on the ground on his back. On examination he found a small round hole in the lower part of the abdomen, and an inch and a half to the left of the middle line. He declared that operating was the only thing that could save the man's life, and accordingly called on Dr. Taylor or Plaster Rock and Dr. Puddington of Grand Falls. He also sent for Miss Murray, trained nurse, of St. John. As soon as the doctor arrived, which was about midnight, they commenced the operation. They cut through the peritoneum and found it had been pierced. They also found that the small bowel was pierced and the contents of the stomach had entered the peritoneum. They cut through the incision. He attended Gorman from this time until his death.

Gorman made no statement to him. He said that Gorman had no feelings against Polli whatever.

Witness held the post-mortem examination, searching the abdomen but being unable to find the bullet. He then amputated the leg and completely dissected it and after three hours' work was still unable to find the bullet.

Witness had learned that Gorman had served in the Sudan under Kitchener and drew a pension for his services.

It is rumored here that Frank P. Carvell has been retained to defend Polli when he comes to trial.

MARITIME PRESS ASSN. ELECTS FIRST OFFICERS

AMHERST, Sept. 11—The business sessions of the Maritime Press Association were brought to a close yesterday. The officers of the new Association were elected, and the members had the pleasure of listening to a very able address by J. F. Thanks were tendered to the citizens of Amherst for the hospitality to B. J. Lawson for flowers, and to the Past Presidents of the old Association.

Charge of Criminal Libel Follows Article McDougall is Thought to Have Written

GLACE BAY, Sept. 12—A sensation was sprung here tonight when Daniel McDougall, local president of the United Mine Workers, was arrested on a charge of criminal libel. The charge arose it is said from an article which appeared in La Patrie of Montreal, in which it is alleged McDougall warned Quebec men not to come here to work as the Dominion Coal Company were using men like slaves and their yards were filthy. Action was taken, it is believed, at the instance of the Dominion Coal Company. The arrest was made by Detective Carrington of Montreal, who arrived at Sydney on Saturday night. Carrington came to Glace Bay this afternoon and arrested McDougall at 10:30 tonight. He was immediately placed on a special train and will, it is reported, be taken by special train tonight from Sydney to Montreal.

CHRISTIANA, Sept. 11.—The Boston Post will tomorrow morning print the following cablegram from Dr. Cook:

BERLIN, Sept. 11.—The news that Commander Peary also was accompanied by white explorers when he reached the geographical point which he took to be the pole, has started the discussion afresh regarding the claims of Peary and Cook.

DENMARK IS FAITHFUL. COPENHAGEN, Sept. 11.—Denmark apparently remains faithful in supporting Dr. Cook. All the Copenhagen newspapers today reiterate their belief in him.

THE EXPLODED BOMBHELL. With regard to the alleged ill-treatment of the Eskimos, it has not been possible to secure any definite information.

COUNTY PRESIDENTS. The list of presidents of the Red Cross county branches already in existence is as follows:

HAS NOT REPLIED TO PEARY. London newspapers have been received here containing reports of Dr. Cook when he submitted himself soon after he landed at Copenhagen for examination by the coroners.

COOK IS RELIABLE. Then director Ryberg added: "I believe that Dr. Cook is entirely reliable and earnest. His reputation in Greenland is the best possible and it would require the strongest contrary evidence to shake our faith in his word."

MUCH YET TO BE DONE. "Over this route our destiny was worked out, I am, therefore, indebted to Sverdrup, his companions and the people of Norway who sent him, for the origin of the deep sea."

COOK'S TRIBUTE TO NORGAD. On board the steamer Oscar, Sept. 11.—By wireless. In response to the address of welcome at Christiania, Dr. Cook said: "An explorer cannot receive greater honor than that which is accorded to a people who understand him."

AND PEARY TOOK IT. "When Dr. Cook and his two Eskimos, exhausted and half-starved, came within a shot's distance of the house in Anaktotuk, young Whitney came out to his big welcome."

WHITNEY'S PRECIPITATION. "Dr. Cook made a present of the house with all its contents to his Eskimo with the proviso that Whitney was to have the use of the house as long as his health allowed."

AN INTERESTING LETTER. COPENHAGEN, Sept. 12.—A remarkable letter, giving Dr. Frederick A. Cook's version of the trouble with Commander Peary over supplies, appears in the newspaper Holstenen.

COOK BUILT A HOUSE. "Now that Dr. Cook has gone, I am no longer under any obligation to keep silence and will secure my right to publish the story about the house in Anaktotuk, a story which Dr. Cook himself had written."

SUITS OF QUALITY

A genuinely good suit is "becoming" to the man who wears it—in style and in fit as well as in the coloring and design of the fabric. "Fit," in men's clothing does not properly mean the same as the fit of a glove, for a rightly made suit drapes the form rather than clings to it.

All of which we can explain more clearly by showing you the new Twentieth Century Suits—models of elegance and good taste. "Becoming" suits for men of all ages and differences of outline.

Honestly made, skillfully made, made to stand service. $16 to $20. Others made specially for us. . . . $10 to $12. New Fall Overcoats now ready. Have you seen them? . . . $12 to $17.

Also.

The Common Council will meet in special session this afternoon when the transfer of the harbor lots at West St. John and the sixteen hundred foot strip, owned by the C. P. KIDNAPPING CASE AT SUSSEX ADJOURNED

Prisoner Released Under Heavy Bail—Will Bring Lawyer From Outland States.

Before Magistrate Hornbrook at Sussex this morning James McManus faced the charge of kidnapping. The defendant is a resident of Hampton and the charge was preferred by Mrs. Bridget Humphrey. Court opened at ten o'clock and after hearing the direct testimony of Mrs. Humphrey, adjournment was made until Tuesday, 22d inst. Considerable interest was shown in the proceedings and the battle between the accused and Mrs. Humphrey for the possession of little Rita Humphrey promise to wait.

Fred M. Sproul appeared in the interests of the defendant at the hearing this morning. Mrs. Humphrey was represented by E. S. Ritchie of this city. Mrs. Humphrey was called at length first witness and described in detail her side of the present difficulty. She declared that upon the death of her husband Mr. and Mrs. McManus took the care of the child. In March last the witness returned to Hampton and demanded that the child be given to her. The McManus family stoutly refused to hand the child to her mother unless a ransom of $100 was paid. The trouble became acute and the witness finally decided to institute legal proceedings to obtain her daughter.

Mr. Sproul was not in a position this morning to proceed with the cross-examination of Mrs. Humphrey. He asked the court for an adjournment.

It was finally agreed that the case should stand over until Tuesday of next week.

The prosecution and defense, it is understood, will bring witnesses from the United States. J. C. Mahoney, of Lawrence, has been engaged by Mrs. Humphrey for the prosecution.

McManus was admitted to bail this morning, the amount being fixed at $15,000. In addition to the accused, the securities are Fred M. Sproul and J. K. McLean, Mayor of Sussex.

There are many enquiries as to where the little girl is living at present. Mrs. Humphrey is not quite sure, but believes that the little one is in St. John, accompanied by Mr. Mahoney the mother went to Hampton last week to endeavor to locate the child. Her efforts were fruitless.

PLenty of SUGGESTIONS

About noon while Thomas Hayes was driving along Prince Wm. street a wheel of his carriage was broken off. Quite a crowd gathered about and there were exactly 100 suggestions given the horseman how to make repairs. In about half an hour after the spokes had been badly damaged the wheel was repaired sufficiently to enable him to proceed.

SHARP REMARKS ABOUT THE SUNDAY DRUNKS

Magistrate Issues Warning to Saloon Keepers—A Couple of Young Deserders in Court.

The police magistrate was disgusted at an array of drunks in the police court this morning, and after he had fined three of them eight dollars each with hard labor he called them a pretty looking lot, a dirty degraded looking lot, and if they could only see a snapshot of themselves they would be ashamed. His honor remarked that there was no need of so much Saturday night and Sunday drunks now that the bars close on Saturday afternoon at five o'clock. He said he could never serve a lot of drunks and had previously mentioned to the police that they should watch closely the man who came out of a bar drunk, as the proprietor of the bar room who sells to a drunken man is violating the law, and should not allow a drunken man on his premises. There was one name on the sheet for drunkenness, but the man got out on a deposit of eight dollars. The magistrate said he was sorry that the deposit had been accepted. The drunk's little boy was only locked up recently for stealing, and his honor said he would just like to have the father in court this morning to say a few things to him.

Wm. Jensen, a Newfoundland, and Henrik Johnson, a Norwegian, both young sailors, were charged with being drunk and lurking in a box car in the I. C. R. yard early this morning. They said that they ran away from a bar at Chatham, leaving their clothes behind them. The magistrate said that they were liable to two months jail for living and lurking and to six weeks additional for running away from the ship. They were remanded.

DEATH OF REV. CHAS. COMREN

Rev. Charles Comren, for seven years supernumerary of Centenary church, and a prominent citizen of St. John, passed away early last evening at his residence, 20 City Road, in the 77th year of his age. Mr. Comren had been in poor health since spring but it was only on Sunday, Sept. 5th, that his illness became serious.

Rev. Charles Comren was an Englishman by birth, but came to Newfoundland in 1838 and entered the ministry of the Methodist church in that year. After serving the usual term of probation he was ordained in Charleston, Me., in 1842. He has since that time served in various churches in the province, and was stationed at Lillibor, in this province, and between that time and 1860, when he became a supernumerary, he labored on the Dorchester, Upham, Andover, Grand Lake, Petticoat, Jacksonville, St. Andrews and Albert circuits. He was elected to the presidency of the conference in 1885, which was held in Moncton that year. He has twice visited the Motherland the second time about a year and a half ago, and having relatives in good positions in church and state, had a most enjoyable time. His wife died some time previous to his last visit. He leaves a son, Charles, who is practicing law in Woodstock, and six daughters—Mary R., Alexandra, Elizabeth A., Edith A., Lillian E., and Harriet S.

He was a most agreeable companion, was well informed on public questions, a thoroughly good man and an acceptable preacher of old fashioned Methodist doctrine. During his years of retirement he has done a good deal of work in supplying vacancies, both in his own and other denominations. He came to the city in 1862, and has resided here ever since, during which time he has been connected with Centenary church. He was in the seventeenth year of his age.

Rev. Jabez A. Rogers, of Sussex, studied for the ministry under the tutelage of Mr. Comren, and was ministering to the Methodists of Bonavista, Newfoundland, where he was stationed in 1882.

The funeral of the late Rev. Charles Comren will be held from Centenary church tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.
