PEASANTS IN BELGIUM ARE HEROIC

CITY TEACHERS SAW BRITAIN'S MOBILIZATION

Londoners Taken Through the Dockyards Where Ships "Cleared For Action."

ENGLISH CROWDS WILD

News of Mobilization Sent Them Crazy, Writes Miss Whittaker.

ANXIETY IS RELIEVED

Landing of Mrs. Strongman and Daughter in England First Word of Safety.

Cable dispatches from London, England, yesterday announcing the safe arrival from the continent of Dr. James L. Hughes's party of Canadian school teachers relieved the anxiety of Mrs. Jane Cox, 417 Bathurst street, whose daughter, Mrs. Strongman, 265 Colborne street, and granddaughter, Miss Anita Strongman, teacher at Princess avenue school, this city, were members of the party. Since the declaration of war and the consequent cessation of authentic news from Europe, Mrs. Cox has been anxious for her daughter's and granddaughter's safety. Until this morning when an Advertiser reporter informed her of the safe arrival of the Hughes party, she was ignorant of their whereabouts.

Other Teachers Abroad. So far as is known Mrs. and Miss Strongman were the only London members of Dr. Hughes's party. A number of London teachers, however, are members of the Nye "Hands Across the Sea" party now in London, England. Among them are Miss Stuart and Miss McNaughton, 650 King street, of the Grand avenue public school staff, and Miss Edith Whitaker, 46 Wharncliffe road, and Miss Justin, 46 Akin street, of the Wortley road staff. Miss Rose Brown, 132 Kent street; Miss Agnes Rippey, 105 Sherwood avenue, and Miss W. Nelles, of 24 Grosvenor street, are also in the party.

Letters Dispel Anxiety. Cheering letters from Miss Justin and Miss Whitaker arrived in London today and in a great measure dispelled the anxiety that has been felt for the safe of the Hands Across the Sea party, although it was known that it was still in England.

Miss Justin, in her letter to her mother, explained that while the war had cut short the tour of the continent that had been planned, a trip through the British Isles would be made. No fear was expressed as to the safety of the "right little Isle," but Miss Justin explained that there might be some change made in their scheduled trip to Canada. She decided that she did not know when the party would be able to return.

Saw War Preparations. Miss Whitaker's letter is dated August 2, London. She says that on July 30 the teachers went to Portsmouth, where they were shown through the navy yards by a policeman, who told them that they could consider themselves fortunate, as no civilians were being allowed to go through the yards in the unsettled condition of the country.

Miss Whitaker states that she saw the sailors of the dreadnought H. M. S. Irresistible preparing the ship for action, and also saw the preparations being made on board several torpedo boats. All preparations were swift and orderly.

Crowds Enthusiastic. On August 1 Miss Whitaker, in company with several friends, went down town to hear the latest war news. She says that when it was announced that England would immediately mobilize her army the crowds went crazy with delight and flocked to Buckingham Palace, where they sang patriotic songs. Interspersed with cheers for the King and Queen, who, when they appeared on the balcony to acknowledge the salutes were cheered to the echo.

Miss Whitaker also said that the teachers were assured by the authorities that they would be able to return to Canada on August 22 as scheduled.

FRENCH VICTORY IN ALSACE REPORTED BY BRITISH OFFICE

[Canadian Press.] London, Aug. 14.—4:00 p.m.—The official press bureau of the British war office and admiralty today issued news of a French success in the Vosges Mountains, Alsace, in the following words:

"After a successful resistance lasting five days at the passes of Sainte Marie-Aux-Mines and Le Bonhomme, the French troops have occupied the region of the Saale Pass, which commands the valley of the Bruche, an affluent of the Rhine.

"At Saale numerous desertions of German troops are noticed.

HIDEOUS CRUELTY METED TO BELGIAN PEASANTS WHO HARASS GERMANS

MUST REPATRIATE CREWS OF GERMAN CRUISERS AT ONCE

Turkey Is Object of Sharp Demand From Allies—No Official Confirmation of Purchase of Vessels.

[Canadian Press.]

London, Aug. 14.—2:53 p.m.—Great Britain, France and Russia have sent a sharp demand to Turkey for the immediate repatriation of the crews and crews of the German cruisers Goeben and Breslau.

It is reported that the two cruisers were met by Turkish vessels outside and escorted into the Dardanelles.

There is no official confirmation of the actual purchase of the cruisers by Turkey, but the report to that effect is generally credited.

Messages From Sayville in Code Have Been Picked Up at Ottawa—Appeal Made to Washington.

[Canadian Press.]

Ottawa, Aug. 14.—Messages sent out from Sayville, Long Island, to Carthage, Central America, and thence to the Caroline Islands in the South Pacific, from which point it is believed they are being cabled to Berlin, have been picked up by the military wireless station here. They are in the German code.

The Canadian Government has taken the matter up with Washington, which placed an officer at the Sayville station, but notwithstanding this more code messages have been heard going out. The United States Government will again be appealed to.

BAVARIA INFANTRY ROUTED BY FRENCH

Two Companies, Surprised, Leave Many Dead and Wounded On Field of Battle.

[Canadian Press.]

Paris, Aug. 14.—10:32 a.m.—An official report issued here today says: "No fact of striking importance took place in the theatre of operations yesterday. There were, however, several skirmishes between German and French patrols and encounters between outposts, notably at Chambrey in German Lorraine, where two companies of the Eighteenth Bavarian Infantry Regiment were surprised by the French troops and driven off vigorously, leaving numerous dead and wounded on the field."

All Civilians Suspected of Resistance Being Put To Death By Enraged Attackers.

BY F. A. MACKENZIE ("CHESTER.")

(Special Cable to The Advertiser, Registered by Copyright.) London, Aug. 14.—Yesterday saw the advance guard of skirmishes between the armies all along the front. Reports of amazing victories, which continue to arrive from both sides, refer to minor engagements and are not vital. The main issue is the revealing of stout resistance, showing considerable dash and initiative, making the Germans pay dearly for their progress at a hundred points. Each check is followed by a renewed assault, and an attempt at greater force to meet any sporadic fighting.

CRUELTY IS HIDEOUS.

The peasantry is treated with hideous severity. Confronted by serious resistance the Germans are disconcerted, and the universal resistance of the Belgian people and peasants and shopkeepers, who organized a war from behind innumerable ambushes, surprised them.

The Germans reply by shooting after capture any civilian suspected of resistance, burning houses and whole villages from which shots come.

A GUERRILLA WARFARE.

All the tales of battles of the peasantry in the wooded country above Liege will probably never be known. The district is mountainous and wooded, and lends itself admirably to guerrilla work. The Germans declare that Belgian women, besides men, treacherously attacked everyone, even doctors, and they were obliged to destroy all settlements.

Brussels is now claimed to be adequately guarded. It becomes hourly more evident, however, that the German right wing flanking movement is being pushed with the remainder of the force, energy and strength of the German. Cavalry is being aided considerably by soldiers carried in automobiles.

RAINBOW WENT SOUTH TO BRING SMALL CRAFT TO SAFETY

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Ottawa, Aug. 14.—The Algerine is safe at Vancouver. The little British gunboat arrived this morning, having slipped up the Pacific coast without having been seen by either of the German cruisers.

The Rainbow brought the Shearwater in yesterday. So everything British on the American Pacific is safe up to date. The Rainbow went south to bring the two little Admiralty boats up.

VICTORIOUS BELGIANS WERE UNDER FIRE FOR FIRST TIME

Brussels, via Paris, Aug. 14.—12:25 a.m.—The German casualties in the engagement at Haenel Wednesday were 3,000 dead and wounded. The Germans apparently suffered their men without any supplies. During the fight the Germans were obliged to pass two bridges over the Gethe and Velpo Rivers, where they were exposed to a heavy fire. The retreating Germans left piles of dead and wounded.

Other Victories.

The victory described above was followed by new and successful engagements near Noville-Taviers and Engzee, about nine miles north of Namur, on Wednesday and Thursday.

These operations proved that the Germans are retreating further and that the allies, being steadily reinforced, are pushing ahead.

Brussels is no longer in danger, but the situation a few days ago was such that the eventuality of its occupation by the Germans was considered.

RUSSIA HAS ARMY OF 5,000,000 READY

[Canadian Press.]

London, Aug. 14.—A dispatch to the Central News from Rome says that according to reliable information from St. Petersburg, Russia has mobilized 2,000,000 men on the German and Austrian frontiers, half a million on the Turkish and Roumanian frontiers, while 3,000,000 men are held in reserve.

BATTLE OF THE MEUSE MAY SETTLE QUESTION OF MILITARY AUTOCRACY

London Daily Telegraph Expert Says That This Is a War Against Constitutional Government.

[By Bartlett, Expert for the London Daily Telegraph.]

LONDON, Friday, Aug. 14.—The battle which is commencing along the line of the River Meuse will probably settle definitely the future position of the German Empire in Europe, and also the question as to whether military autocracy or constitutional government is in the future to dominate the lives of millions of men and women. In reality, the last three years of Napoleon's reign did not witness a struggle of nations against France, but of nations against a single autocrat. A War of Autocracy. In the present case this is not a war of the German nation against the world, but of the Kaiser and military autocracy against constitutional government, not only in Germany, but throughout Europe. A serious check to the German army will mean a corresponding decline in the prestige of the Kaiser and his military clique, and a defeat, followed by the invasion of German territory, will irrevocably loosen the tide of suppressed liberty, which for so long has been kept under by the mailed fist.

German Army in Ignorance. Every single conversation with wounded soldiers or prisoners showed that the rank and file of the German army have not the smallest idea why they are fighting. In the war of 1870 the situation was reversed. Germany had 25 army corps, against France's 21. Her reserves are probably more numerous and better organized, but the Germans confidently expected to overrun the whole of Belgium and gain the French frontier before a single French corps could be mobilized.

In this they were completely mistaken. Nothing to be seen as remarkable as the smooth working of the French railway service, and the consequent rapid concentration of the French armies.

Belgians Upset Them. The second factor upon which the Germans relied was the readiness of the Belgians to see their country overrun by the invaders. The Belgians upset all calculations.

For the last two days the fighting of the German cavalry has been used as a screen to cover the concentration of the immense mass of infantry which will soon be making their presence felt.

All Either Killed, Wounded or Were Taken

[Canadian Press.]

LONDON, Aug. 14.—3:10 a.m.—The Daily Mail's Brussels correspondent describes the engagement at Haelen as showing that the Belgians have passed another good test. He says that intermittent booming of heavy guns was heard all the morning. This was punctuated about 11 o'clock by sharp detonations, as the Belgians blew up the bridges over the river Gette just in the nick of time. They were under shrapnel fire, and the German cavalry was just debouching to cross.

With the bridges destroyed, the fight resolved itself into an artillery duel. The shrapnel bursting, leaving a long trail of white smoke.

Futile Cavalry Effort. In the meantime, a squadron of Mecklenburg dragoons, with rather reduced effective, endeavored to penetrate the town of Diest at a gallop. About a mile from the town they dashed into a barricade of wagons, lined by Belgian infantry. The Germans had their revolvers drawn, and charged directly at the barricade.

The Belgians behind the barricade opened a murderous fire, and all the Dragoons were either killed or captured. Germans Beat Retreat. The Germans then tried a cross fire from a battery, but after an interval ceased firing, and owing to similar repulses on other positions of their front, withdrew in disorder, according to some accounts, to the other side of the Gette.

Like a Hedge of Flesh. Only two Belgians were wounded. In front of the barricade the Germans lay like a hedge of flesh. The frontal attacks of the Germans are apparently contributing to the loss of morale among their troops. This is believed to be the reason why individual Belgians have been able to receive the surrender of so many of their adversaries. At Diest, on Wednesday, a non-commissioned Belgian officer took ten.

MANY OFFERS MADE TO ASSIST RED CROSS

Women's Organizations Ready To Start Manufacture of Bandages and Comfort Bags.

Awaiting the return to the city of Lady Beck, the newly-elected president of the local branch Red Cross Society, that organization has not as yet commenced the making of bandages, comfort bags, or other supplies for the use of Canadian soldiers and sailors. But scores of London women are in readiness for this labor of love is evidenced by the many offers received by Mrs. Gordon Wright, the first vice-president. Besides the numerous members of the principal women's organizations in the city who will unite promptly in this work at the earliest opportunity, assistance is offered by a circle of young Catholic girls, and from Port Stanley comes a message that the cottagers there will get together as soon as possible and help in the providing of necessities. Many of the women's institutes throughout the country are also desirous of assisting, so that once under way there will be no delay in preparing a goodly number of supplies for the use of those going to the front. Lady Beck is expected to return on Monday, and will doubtless be commencing activities at once.

Application for information as to the reorganization of its branch at the Red Cross Society has come to Mrs. Broomer from Tilsonburg. She could not accept its invitation to be present at its opening meeting today, but has asked Dr. Dickson, the general secretary, to forward to it all that is necessary for its immediate guidance. The Tilsonburg women expect to reorganize at a meeting today, and will doubtless commence activities at once.

FULL PAY LIKELY FOR SOLDIER-OFFICIALS

City Employees' Salaries May Be Continued While at Front.

City employees who go to the front will probably be given full pay while away. Those from the city hall who may go, are Major W. G. Coles, of the Army Service Corps, and Capt. E. V. Buchanan, of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police. The city will continue to pay them while they are away. Major Coles expressed the opinion that a fund for the men would be a most desirable one for providing for the families of men at the front. Privates, while on active service receive $1.10 a day. According to Major Coles, the average man spends about ten cents a day of his weekly pay.

"Even with this small expenditure, his pay does not amount to much with a family at home," he said.

and was chatting with the watchman at the C. P. R. crossing at Adelaide street when the shots were fired. The first indication he had of any trouble at the stores-house was a loud cry coming from that direction. A shot rang out, another shot followed, and then the slightest trace of the men could be found.

No Tracks on One Side.

Secret Monaghan investigated the ground's story. He found that the men had jumped over. He found no tracks on the other side of the fence to show that anybody had jumped down. The ground was wet from a recent rain.

Sergeant Monaghan says that Allen's story was that the man was eight feet away from him when he fired, yet the police sergeant declared that Allen's hand was blackened with powder.

DENY RUMORS OF AN ATTEMPT ON BRIDGE

G. T. R. Officials Brand as Lie Sensational Story.

Grand Trunk officials here give the lie to rumors to the effect that an attempt was made to blow up the Caye Bridge early this morning. The stories are said to be without the slightest foundation according to representatives of the railway in this city. Persistent rumors that the G. T. R. has issued an order that each division appoint special detectives to guard its premises and right-of-way through different cities is also said to be untrue.

Persons with the dangerous idea of stirring up unnecessary trouble, and moreover laying the stepping stones for unreasoning among citizens, this morning circulated the report that it was possible that an attempt might be made to tamper with the city's water supply. The story was discussed by little groups of people on the downtown streets. Needless to say it is regarded as false and wild sensation by city authorities in a position to know.

North of Namur.

NO IMPORTANT BATTLES NOTED.

London, Aug. 14.—12:45 p.m.—A dispatch from Brussels to Reuter's agency says that a battle near Egeheze, north of Namur, which occurred yesterday at Noville-Taviers on the Namur-Tiremonet railroad line, was very keenly contested.

The Germans, according to the dispatch, were mostly cavalrymen. They were surprised by the Belgians and sustained very severe casualties. Eventually they fell back hurriedly on Huy, between Namur and Liege.

The dispatch adds that three German aeroplanes flying over Diest were brought down by the Belgian artillery. Two of the aviators were killed by being dashed to earth and the third was terribly injured.

BELGIAN FORCES IN GOOD POSITION.

Brussels, via London, Aug. 14.—1:25 p.m.—No movements of importance have taken place since Wednesday's serious engagement between the German and Belgian troops according to an official announcement here today. The communication adds:

"The situation of the Belgian forces remains favorable."

CAPTAIN BROUGHT STOKERS TO PORT, PRISONERS OF WAR

Britisher Ignored Claim of German Consul For Them at Colon.

THREE SWAM TO SHORE

But Police Sent Them Back—
No Wireless Allowed in Kingston.

[Canadian Press.]

New York, Aug. 14.—Thirty-five German stokers of the crew of the United Fruit steamer Zaeppa, which reached Colon today from Colombia, Colon and Kingston, are prisoners of war at Kingston, instead of being on their way to Germany as reservists, because of Captain Towell's refusal to obey the command of the German consul at Colon and send the stokers ashore. When Captain Towell refused to land the stokers, three of them jumped overboard and swam ashore. The police got them and sent them back to the ship. They and their companions were taken to Kingston. There a British launch drew alongside, officers went on board and took the stokers to shore as prisoners of war. Captain Towell said he had considerable difficulty in recruiting men to take their places.

Take Down Wireless.

Even though the Zaeppa is a British ship, as she entered Kingston Harbor a shore fort signalled the captain to disarm his wireless. The wireless was taken down and the fort signalled the ship to leave. Captain Towell said he had considerable difficulty in recruiting men to take their places.

Passengers Were Nervous.

The Zaeppa steamed with her lights out to avoid German warships. One day from Kingston she was hailed by a warship, thought to have been an Italian. It withdrew after learning the liner's identity. The passengers were nervous, and many of them demanded their money and valuables, deposited with the purser. They said that in case the vessel was captured they would have their valuables in their pockets.

EXPECT SPEEDY TRANSFER OF SEVENTH REGIMENT

Telegram From Headquarters
Indicates Possibility of Orders
To Go To Quebec.

[Canadian Press.]

An indication that the Seventh Fusiliers are likely to receive orders to proceed to Val Cartier very early in the morning is indicated by a telegram from military headquarters at Ottawa received by Lieut.-Col. Becher today, in which he was instructed to advise the department of the military as to the number of men who have volunteered and been medically examined. Col. Hodgins at once replied that 129 men exclusive of officers, are available.

A member of the Seventh is being notified to attend at the armory tonight for the parade, and it is hoped that the regiment will be at full strength for the march out which has been arranged.

BELIEVE 6TH BATTERY WILL BE CONSOLIDATED

Opinion Prevails That Six-Gun Units Will Be Formed
—No Orders Yet.

[Canadian Press.]

Although a dispatch from Ottawa states that the Sixth London Field Battery is to be brigaded with four other batteries at Toronto, no instructions to this effect have been received up to the present by Major Wood Leonard, the commanding officer of the Sixth, or at divisional headquarters.

The brigading of five four-gun batteries, members of the local unit think, is the formation of a brigade of three six-gun batteries. This would mean that the ratings of officers would have to be rearranged.

The object of rearranging batteries to form six-gun units, a former imperial service man pointed out, would be to bring them into line with the imperial artillery, which is composed entirely of six-gun batteries. This man stated that it would be impossible to manoeuvre an artillery corps composed of both six-gun and four-gun units, because the drill is entirely different in the one case from the other.

Whether all the officers of the London battery will be sent to Toronto still is in doubt. They are all Royal Military College men, and a number of them are graduates. Some of them remark hopefully that, if everything else fails, they may be appointed to staff positions since a brigade staff of about thirty men will be needed.

In view of the fact that the brigade is to be armed with 18-pound guns, those not to be sent to Toronto will be of the Sixth, which are 12-pounders. The formation of a brigade of three six-gun batteries, which are assigned to the two batteries of the Royal Canadian Horse Artillery, which at present are 4-gun units, using guns of exactly similar type to those of the Sixth.

MAKE GOOD PROGRESS

A. S. C. Recruits Rapidly Rounding Into Shape.

Two squads of Army Service Corps recruits were paraded for drill instruction at the armory again this morning. The recruits, who are being trained by the most experienced officers of the corps, are making good progress. The training is remarkable. Capt. E. E. Williams, who was one of the corps, was enthusiastic of the men and expressed himself as highly gratified at the progress they were making.

He declared the newspapers were to blame for giving prominence to war scare stories, and that the price the Government paid for wheat indicated that the current rise in the market was being accepted. He resented the insinuation that there was any conspiracy to boost the price of flour.

May Regret It.

The farmers were holding their wheat expecting the price to reach $2.50 a bushel, as they did during the Franco-Prussian war, was the declaration made by the British farmers' union today. The union's statement was that the price of wheat was being held down by the Government, and that the farmers were being forced to sell at a loss.

Wheat Buyer's Prices.

J. B. Cox, grain buyer on the market, quoted prices today as follows: Today: Wheat, per bu., 90 cents $1.00; Oats, per bu., 80 cents $1.00; Hay, per ton, $12 to $15. No advance in the market.

Hookway & Son, flour dealers on the market, stated that the demand for flour from small consumers was unparallelled since the war. They said that the demand was being met by the export of flour from the United States.

Before the war, today: Wheat, per bushel, $2.50 to $3.00; Flour, per cwt., $2.75 to $3.00; Oats, per bushel, $1.25 to $1.50.

Hamilton's Challenge.

A. M. Hamilton & Son, who also conduct a flour store on the market, issued a challenge today to take all the flour they could buy at $1 a bushel, and deliver it anywhere for cash. The farmer is afraid he won't get all the money he can for his wheat, and that is why he is holding back, this firm stated. Their policy was to buy the wheat, and then to sell it at a profit.

The millers and the dealers are agreed that everything is going to be very tight when the war is declared. Their bins were empty and their stocks low, as they were cleaning out to lay in the grain just harvested. Being caught empty-handed they must pay the market prices, and the market prices, because of the enormous demand by scared consumers and the high price of farmers is gradually increasing.

Why Sugar Soars.

A belief that sugar will be scarce has sent the price soaring. The Red Cross has been buying sugar in Montreal, which supplies a large trade in this vicinity, issued a statement some time ago that the price would not be increased. Later the concern has refused to take any more orders. If this were true, the price would not be increased. The price of sugar is being held up by the demand for it by the Red Cross.

T. B. Scott, of the T. B. Scott Company, discussing this phase of the high price, said today: "There is plenty of sugar in the world, but the people want too much of it now. If they would buy as they bought last year the supply would go around. We haven't much sugar on hand now. The price has increased from $4.65 to $5.15, and will doubtless go higher, as the unusual demand of the people is cleaning out all the dealers."

Other Articles Advance.

"There is a general advance in the price of all sorts of goods, and it is simply because there is a scarcity of them in Canada, and the British Government has requisitioned all tea on route."

Canada in Good Position.

Canadian resources as an agricultural country, enjoying the advantage of this time. In the end, the bulk of the imports which are held up at present are comparative luxuries, and in the event of a continuing war Canada would go a long way towards maintaining herself especially with the market of the United States open to the south.

BATTLE ON BELGIUM PLAINS WAGES ALL DAY--PRELUDE TO GREAT COMING STRUGGLE

Germans Open Conflict At 5 O'clock In Morning, and After Causing Belgians to Fall Back, Are Forced to Beat a Retreat Themselves.

[Canadian Press.]
BRUSSELS (via Paris), Aug. 14.—12:25 a.m.—The German casualties in the engagement at Haenel Wednesday were 3,000 dead and wounded. The Germans apparently sacrificed their men without any scruple.

[Special Cable to The Advertiser.]
LONDON, August 13.—An exchange dispatch from Brussels tonight states that German right wing is still retreating, harassed by Belgian outposts. A number of skirmishes accentuated the German retreat.

[Special Cable to The Advertiser.]
LONDON, August 13.—An exchange dispatch from Brussels states that all the heavy German artillery placed before the forts has been successfully destroyed by the extraordinarily accurate fire from the defenders, and that the forts still remain intact.

[Special Cable to The Advertiser.]
BRUSSELS, August 13.—Behind an almost impenetrable veil, one of the greatest battles known in history is in progress on the plains of Belgium.

All day today, as all day yesterday, the Germans and Belgians have been locked in a death struggle on the field of Haenel. The Germans resumed the offensive at 5 o'clock this morning. Since then the fighting has been continuous. Beyond the fact that the vanguard of 2,000,000 fighting men is engaged in a desperate struggle to an even more desperate struggle to come, the censors will permit no news to be sent out.

GERMANS RENEWED BATTLE.
This much it is permitted to send: Unofficially it is stated that the German troops reformed after being repulsed last night at Haenel, and at 5 o'clock this morning the battle was renewed. Fresh Belgian troops were at once sent to the front in support of their comrades, who had fought throughout yesterday. It is also officially announced that the Belgian cavalry division this morning took up the offensive against the Germans, who were defeated in yesterday's battle of Haenel, with the object, it is believed, of picking up the dead and wounded and collecting the abandoned material of war.

ROADS TO CAPITAL GUARDED.
No German surprise was expected, and there are no reasons to fear any cavalry movements on Brussels from the south, all roads leading to the capital being guarded by the Belgian army and the civic guard. No details are permitted of the progress of the fighting.

Brief dispatches also tell of renewed fighting in the neighborhood of Tongres, north of Liege, where an artillery duel was commenced this morning.

An official Belgian communication also says that a German force proceeding in the direction of Egezeze to the north of Namur was attacked and repulsed this morning by the Belgian troops.

GERMANS SUFFERED SEVERELY.
The Germans are said to have suffered severe casualties. The Belgian army also captured a number of machine guns mounted on motor cars.

Details of the first day's fighting at Haenel yesterday show that while the battle was the most brilliant and stubbornly contested of the war so far, it was but a skirmish to the engagement, which impends when the complete armies on both sides have finally manoeuvred into position.

WAGED DAY AND NIGHT.
The engagement will be known as the battle of Haenel. It waged all day and far into the night. At 7 o'clock in the evening shells were still falling.

According to the Belgian reports the main fighting centered around Haenel, which is in the Belgian province of Limburg, while the battle line extended to Diest, in the north of the province of Brabant, after passing around Zeelhem.

The battle of Diest was merely a part of the general fight all along the line.

HOT FIRE GREETS ADVANCE.
When a patrol of carabineers first signalled the approach of German troops at the opening of the engagement, the Belgians manned their machine guns, and a hot fire greeted the German advance. Halting their advance, the Germans brought into play their artillery. A slaughter of Belgians followed. Bringing their guns to bear upon the trenches, the Germans swept them with such a deadly hail of bullets that the Belgians were driven out and forced to retire into the town of Haenel.

FOUGHT HAND TO HAND.
Hand to hand fighting ensued as the Belgians broke from cover for their retreat. The brilliant uniforms of the Belgians, in contrast to the dull grey suits of the Germans, made them splendid targets for the Germans, and they were swept down by scores and scores. The Belgians, reinforced, were quickly brought up however, and the Belgians rallied, driving the Germans back and recapturing the defence, from which they had been driven by the German artillery fire.

Pursuing their advantage the Belgians charged the Germans, and forced them back in a series of desperate charges towards Hasselt and St. Trond.

Men and horses fell like flies in seven hours fierce duel.

[Special Cable to The Advertiser.]
LONDON, Aug. 13.—An exchange dispatch from Brussels tonight contains a remarkably graphic description of the fighting at the battle of Diest, where the first severe engagement between the troops of the Germans and the allies took place.

In this clash the Belgian left wing gained a decisive advantage over the Germans, whose forces numbered more than 10,000, composed of cavalry, artillery and a small supporting force of infantry. The Belgian forces consisted of one cavalry division and a mixed brigade having several rapid fire guns. Their total fighting strength was about 9,000.

The apparent aim of the Germans was to hurl themselves through the north Strond road at Tirlemont, in order to turn the Belgian army.

Proceed Toward Diest.
Early Wednesday the Germans drew up their forces between Hasselt and Strond and thence proceeded in the direction of Diest, by way of Stevoort and Herckville. The German wings, however, came up from different directions. Across the front from Strond to Herckville their left wing guarded the road from Strond to Tirlemont on the one hand, and the heights of Erssael and Gussenhoven on the other. The right protected the road from Hasselt to Diest.

The Belgians' commander, fully aware of this movement from aerial plane and cavalry reconnaissance, allowed the enemy to advance while he manoeuvred the Belgian troops to the most favorable positions.

Belgians Erect Barriades.
This country is divided into three parts by tributaries of the River Demer, namely the Herck, Gethse and Veleze, flowing south to north.

Men and horses fell like flies, and not until six p.m. when the Germans were almost shattered, in seven hours of strenuous fighting, was the order for retreat given.

The German defeat was complete, and the German remnants retreated along the banks of the rivers Gethse and Veleze, in the greatest disorder. At nightfall they were hastening their way toward Tongres.

The German losses were more than 1,000.

QUICKLY RESCUED.
KINCARDINE, Aug. 13.—A young man from Wingham got a fright and a ducking today, when, after he stepped into a small boat in the harbor, it was pulled and then upset. Mr. Rorick, the owner of the boat, was at hand and succeeded in rescuing him.

BERLIN IN VIRTUAL REVOLUTION STATE

Socialist Leader Reported Shot For Refusing Military Service When Called Upon as Officer.

[Canadian Press.]
LONDON, Aug. 14.—2:30 a.m.—The Daily Citizen, organ of the Labor party, says it was learned from a reliable authority that Dr. Karl Liebknecht, the German Socialist leader, has been shot for refusing to do military service.

The Daily Citizen says that the story was brought to London by a German refugee, who reported that Liebknecht, owing to shortage of food was in a virtual state of revolution.

Dr. Liebknecht was an officer of the reserves, and was called up for service. He refused to accept the conscientious grounds, whereupon, according to the story, a detachment of soldiers was sent to his residence.

He was taken to the military barracks, and court-martialed. After a short trial he was convicted, and shot by a platoon of infantrymen.

It is also reported that Rosa Luxemburg, the noted socialist writer, who declared that soldiers were mislabeled in the army, has been shot.

The announcement adds that a French aviator, while reconnoitering through Louvain, was pursued by two German aeroplanes, each of which contained three men armed with repeating rifles. The French aviator, however, escaped to his lines without injury.

Thin Folks Who Would Be Fat

Increase in Weight Ten Pounds or More. A Physician's Advice.

I'd certainly give most anything to be able to eat a few pounds and stay that way," declares every excessively thin man or woman. Such result is not impossible, despite past failures. Thin people are victims of mal-nutrition, a condition which arises from the fatty elements of food from being taken up by the blood as they are when the powers of nutrition are normal. Instead of getting into the blood, all the fat and flesh-producing elements stay in the intestines until they pass from the body as waste.

To correct this condition and to produce a healthy, normal amount of fat the nutritive process must be applied. Sargol is supplied with the power that nature has denied them. This can best be accomplished by using a Sargol tablet with every meal. Sargol is a scientific combination of six of the best strengthening, fat-producing elements known to the medical profession. Taken with meals, it mixes with the food and turns the sugars and starches into rich, ripe nourishment for the tissues and blood, and its rapid effect is remarkable. Sargol is sold in a single ten-cent package, and is entirely harmless. Sargol is sold by druggists everywhere and every package contains a guarantee of weight increase or money back.

Caution—While Sargol has produced remarkable results in the treatment of nervous indigestion and general stomach disorders, it should not, owing to its gentle action, be used by those who are not willing to increase their weight ten pounds or more.—adv.

GERMANS AT LIEGE WALKED INTO TRAP

Underestimating the Fighting Spirit of Belgians, Neglected All Precautions.

CAUGHT BETWEEN FIRES

Were Allowed To Pass Forts, Then Mowed Down From Front and Rear.

[Canadian Press.]
London, Aug. 14.—The German army investing Liege underestimated the fighting qualities of the Belgians, and paid a terrible penalty for their daring, in the opinion of Victor H. Dumas, American vice-consul at Liege, as quoted by the Brussels correspondent of the Times.

The correspondent says that Mr. Dumas was an eyewitness of the first two days of the siege, which he describes. The Belgians permitted the French Gen. Von Emmich to actually pass the forts in their march on the town, and then attacked them in the rear from the forts and on the front with infantry. He estimated the German casualties as from five to ten times as great as those of the defenders.

Fight at Night.
"Speaking as a neutral," says Mr. Dumas, according to the Times correspondent, "it seems to be part of the new military tactics of the Germans to fight as much as possible in the night time. Comparatively little fighting occurred at Liege during the day."

"The scheme of the Belgian defence seemed to be not to make any serious resistance to the attack until the German troops were actually past the forts. Then, when they were close up to the town and their several bodies trying to effect a junction, fire was opened upon them from the forts behind, and from rifles and machine guns in front, so they were caught in a trap and retreat was cut off. There was nothing for them to do but be shot down or surrender."

Sufferings Great.
"The amount of suffering on both sides, owing to an inability to deal promptly with the wounded, was very great, especially to the Germans, whose casualties were from five to ten times as numerous as those among the Belgians."

BOY SCOUTS MAY. AID IN PREPARING

Dominion Council Says They Are Ready To Do Whatever Is In Their Power To Help.

[Canadian Press.]
OTTAWA, August 13.—The following announcement is made on behalf of the Dominion Council of the Canadian Boy Scouts:
"All over Canada, within the past two weeks, boy scouts have been proffering their services in aid of both the civil and military authorities in the present emergency. At this stage, it does not seem wise for the Dominion Council to advise as to the exact form or forms in which the organization as a whole can best take its part in the existing struggle. There is, however, so much to be done quickly in every locality that all boy scouts who are desirous of helping will find plenty of opportunities of doing so. In the British Isles their brother scouts are assisting in the maintenance of the police, coast guard and postoffice services, in guarding the telegraph lines, as messengers of the Red Cross Society and in various other ways. The Dominion Council is assured that Canadian scouts will be found willing and prepared to lend a hand in the war preparations now under way by doing whatever it may lawfully be in their power to do."

BIG GERMAN WARSHIP RUNS AWAY FROM BRITISH CRUISER

In Thrilling Encounter On Atlantic, H. M. S. Bristol Had a Stand-Up Fight With Karlsruhe and Chased Her
From the District.

[Canadian Press.]
HALIFAX, N. S., Aug. 13.—For half an hour Thursday night, H. M. S. Bristol, the smallest British warship in the North Atlantic, fought a long range duel with the Karlsruhe, the largest and fastest of the German cruisers, which have been trying to intercept British shipping on the North Atlantic. Fleeing from H. M. S. Suffolk, which interrupted the Karlsruhe coaling at sea from the North German Lloyd steamer, Kronprinz Wilhelm, the German cruiser was intercepted by the Bristol southwest of Bermuda, and for a half hour a long range running fight took place in the blackness of semi-tropical night.

Racing through the heavy swell at a terrific clip, the ships exchanged broadsides without inflicting much damage, the conditions being very unfavorable for accurate gunnery.

GERMANS WOULD NOT PAUSE.
Although the Bristol's consort was at least 100 miles astern, the German commander would not stand and fight. Altering his course, he gradually drew away from the Bristol, owing to superior speed, and after half an hour was out of range of the British ship's six-inch bow chaser. All through the night the chase lasted, but somewhere in the darkness the German doubled, and made off south to San Juan, where he put in for coal some days ago.

The Suffolk Bears News.
Details of this action, the first single ship fight in which a British man-of-war has engaged in these waters in 100 years, were brought to Halifax today by H. M. S. Norfolk, the flagship of Rear Admiral Cradock, commanding the fourth cruiser squadron. The information given out here on the arrival of the cruiser Suffolk showed that in the past few days the fourth cruiser squadron had made the North Atlantic absolutely safe for British shipping.

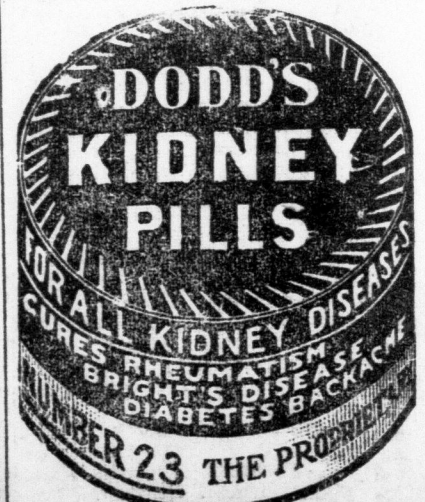

Not a hostile ship is north of the West Indies now, and they are encountering tremendous difficulties in keeping the sea and procuring supplies, owing to the entire absence of coaling stations. It can be only a comparatively short time until the Karlsruhe and the Dresden are either sunk, captured or interned.

Fleet Did Great Work.
The fine work of the Mediterranean fleet in putting the German battle cruiser Goeben out of commission has materially helped in clearing the Atlantic. Had the Goeben escaped from the Mediterranean she would have proved a most formidable enemy. Single-handed she could have destroyed all the cruisers of the fourth squadron, for against her ten 11-inch guns, her 28 knots speed, and her 16-inch armor-belt, none of the ships of the class of which the fourth squadron is principally made up could have done anything with their 6-inch batteries.

However, there is lots of work yet ahead of British warships in destroying hostile commerce, and the first prize taken in these waters has already fallen to the Suffolk, the German tanker Leda, which was captured off Bermuda on Saturday.

Account of the Chase.
"We were steaming north on Thursday morning last. The crew had just been ordered to general stations, when from the foremast-head came the hail 'enemy on the port bow,'" said the flag captain of the Suffolk, in giving out an official statement of the chase of the Karlsruhe to the Eastern Press today. "As soon as we knew that war was declared, the ship had been prepared for battle. Everything else that might be at all inflammable, we pitched overboard, and the sea for miles around was strewn with debris. Under these circumstances there was very little left to do when the order 'clear ship for action' was given. The gun crews went to battle stations, and the stokers were double banded.

The Enemy Sighted.
Off on the port bow, about eleven, appreciate a short rest, after sleeping practically all stations for the last ten days, and a detail of 200 men of the 63rd Rifles cooled the ship all afternoon to the music of the ship's band, while the tars stood by and watched in huge delight.

Seven Canadian midshipmen, who have been doing duty on various craft connected with the naval service, were ordered to the Suffolk here, and joined the cruiser tonight. All have seen service in the fourth cruiser squadron in the West Indies and in the Mediterranean.

Inference Is That a Form of Mobilization Is Taking Place in South.
[Canadian Press.]
MOOSEJAW, Sask., August 13.—The news was received in this city this morning that the United States militia is being mobilized. E. O. Goldworthy, who is a lieutenant in the Seventeenth California National Guards, received his notice today to report at once.

GERMAN PRISONERS IN FRANCE DISPIRITED

Say It Is Not a People's War, But an Officers' War.
[Canadian Press.]
PARIS, August 13.—5:40 p.m.—An official communication, issued tonight, says:
"German prisoners who have been questioned give the impression that they are broken in spirit and physically weak from hunger. They seem not to have been informed concerning the reason for the mobilization, and one man asked why war had been declared. 'According to German opinion,' 'Das ist nicht ein Volkskrieg, aber daes ist ein Offizierskrieg' (This is not a people's war, but an officers' war.)"

ROTTERDAM, August 13 (via London), 6:30 p.m.—Sixty thousand Dutch troops are on the line of the frontier.
Large areas of land have been flooded to a depth of three feet as a precautionary measure.

Broadside to Broadside.
"The Karlsruhe had the heels of the British, too. They were in action for just about half an hour. For a few minutes the German stood up and the British using her two six-inchers and the five four-inchers on her broadside against the Karlsruhe's five four-point ones. After a few minutes, however, the Karlsruhe turned and ran. The Bristol chased her, firing her forward six-inchers. It was difficult to make anything like good practice. It was pitch dark and the sea was heavy."

British Shots Told.
"Not one of the German shells landed anywhere near the Bristol. The British think they got some shots aboard the Karlsruhe. However, in long range fighting under those conditions it is pretty difficult to do much.
"The Suffolk, Berwick and Bristol cruised together for several days, but could get no trace of the Karlsruhe or her consort and finally we heard that she had put into Porto Rico for coal."
The Leda a Fine Prize.
"We got a prize Saturday morning. The Leda is a fine oil tanker, and was coming up from Boston Rouge for New York. She did not know that war had been declared and was very much surprised when we ordered her how. How a blank shot across her bows with very over, they took their capture with good grace. We put a prize crew aboard and conveyed her to Bermuda, where we turned her over to the examination service, and continued our voyage north."

Soldiers Rest? Marines.
The Suffolk reached port about noon today. Soon after her arrival it became known that the men would greatly

LONDON, FRIDAY, AUGUST 14.

HISTORIC GROUND.

THE region of the great battle between Germans and Belgians is historic ground. To the student of old wars such names as Landen, Tirlemont and Maastricht are old acquaintances.

It was in 1693 that the French marshal Luxembourg won his brilliant victory over the English and Dutch troops under William III. between Landen and Neerwinden. Exactly 100 years later the French revolutionary army was defeated by the Austrians.

Ten miles or so south of Neerwinden and Tirlemont is the village of Ramillies, known to every British schoolboy as the scene of Marlborough's most effective victory. Here, on May 23, 1706, a date from the modern Imperial calendar, the great English captain attacked and beat Villeroi, whose army was strongly posted. It was a hot fight, Marlborough himself engaging like a trooper and being wounded in one encounter. Cavalry were hurled on one another. Cavalry were hurled on one another. It is easy to understand this. Their fathers knew what it meant to be kept down by want of opportunity, and by actual oppression. When the chance came to their children they encouraged them and perhaps the children knew by instinct what was expected of them. If the German people had in Germany the same liberty and power they have in the United States and Canada, life would be quite different. If the conditions were the same as in England, the people rule. If the result of the war is to place the government of the country in the hands of the people it will be a good result, but the price paid will be far too great. It is to be hoped that the war will terminate speedily, and that many Germans will find here the happy homes and splendid opportunities awaiting them in Canada.

FOOD PRICES.

LET the Federal Government and the municipal authorities keep constant watch upon the food supplies of the land at this juncture. Several food manufacturers have announced that they WILL NOT advance the prices of their staples. If the price is kept down of the source of supply the middleman who advances prices is taking a most dishonorable advantage of the buying public. We do not believe there are many, if any, who will be guilty of such a transgression.

And the individual with money enough to buy in stores of food has the power to take bread from the mouth of the poor man, under present conditions. A "run" on food may send prices up in spite of every precaution. There is no occasion for anxiety. There is likely to be plenty of food for all at reasonable prices as long as the war may last.

PEACE IN CANADA.

THERE are certain sentimental benefits of the war that have already become apparent to the observer in Canada. In a twinkling of an eye, carved-out national attitudes have been struck away, and, for a time, at least, we appear, for the first time in Canadian history, a national brotherhood. The petty agitations and controversies that constantly beset our political life have disappeared. Instead of entering into contentions as to the right or wrong of this or that policy, we unite at the sound of a great call. Our religious differences, and they have been deeply rooted and bitterly paraded in this fair land, have found themselves to be excellent elements for fusing. A young Ulsterman carries the green flag of Ireland in a parade in this city. He shutters a great tradition, and those who march beneath that banner, if only for a day, were magnified as men in the eyes of men. Gone are all our excesses of speech and writing. The political battle until after this marvelous unifying period has been a war of the editorial columns are as a passed.

The war has struck us as a nation to the inmost core. Our French brothers have cheered for once with us, and the tri-color and the Union Jack have been crossed as a Canadian emblem. As there is one flag, there is one God for us all, the God of all Christians.

Truly, while it is the time of flaming war, while the world seems to have run mad, while civilization is in the grip of a terrific passion, while the cauldrons of the darker spirits seethe, yet there is a peace in Canada, an end to factional strife, that steals us for what ever may come. At last, a united Canadianism!

THE GERMAN WAR MACHINE.

WRITING in Collier's of this week, Dr. Armauer Karl Graves, for many years attached to Emperor William's personal secret service staff, gives the public a collection of most interesting details about the "German war machine" and some elaborate predictions as to what may be expected to happen in the present war.

According to the former agent of the Kaiser, the German war machine is the most thoroughly organized in the world. It is organized not only from the standpoint of putting an enormous number of men in the field, well equipped, but from the standpoints of transportation, visualization and intelligence. In every department, this writer sets it down, there is a constant state of preparedness. The army has been repeatedly flung all over the country at a moment's notice, and the railway facilities are of such a character as to bring the entire standing army and militia into the enemy's country "within 48 hours after war had been declared." "A lightning change from citizen to soldier" all over Germany may be accomplished by the pressing of a button in the offices of the general staff at Berlin. The whereabouts of any transport train is constantly indicated in the general offices. The general war chest is always amply supplied (its net cost was the French indemnity of 200,000,000 marks in 1871). There is always an enormous emergency stock of food.

All this wonderful organization may be as Dr. Graves has related, but evidently the war machine has not been working as smoothly, or as rapidly, as was anticipated. Some cogs may have slipped. Liege has held an enormous invading force in check for many days. Where is the perfect system of transportation and intelligence that should have overwhelmed this mere outpost with some of the Kaiser's hundreds of thousands? And there have been stories, confirmed by German soldiers, that they had to give up fighting because they were starving. Napoleon's remark that "an army travels on its stomach" is as true today as it was in the Little Corporal's time, and if the Germans have a marvelous commissariat, where is it at this time, when there was only an individual comrade, as conducted, as compared to the far-flung battle-line that this writer boasts of? The number of liners reported with the Tautons were prepared to provision and man in 48 hours?

Anyone on the British side of the war is likely to have read with some uneasiness Dr. Graves' article on the war machine. Especially is this true of the portion he devotes to the aerial weapons of the Germans. The German dirigible has been a commercial success to a certain extent. It is admitted. Regular trips of more than one hundred miles have been made many times, and there has been an opinion among experts that under favorable conditions they would prove a menace to all of Europe and to Britain. Dr. Graves believes them to be the most formidable fighting equipment of the present conflict. He infers, with a good deal of confidence, that this aerial navy of Germany's will be able to swoop down upon London and quickly make terms, and that the fleets and armies of other nations will prove futile once the improved Zeppelins are in action. There is a good deal of mystery as to his knowledge of the present ships. They are supposed to have become practically enemy-proof. But of the "secret" Zeppelins there is deeper conjecture. These craft are possessed of the ability to carry many tons of explosives. They are equipped with a new explosive, which will leave in its trail devastation beyond words. They are also to be filled with a sort of gas that is non-inflammable. They are invulnerable to attack by aeroplanes, also, Dr. Graves has said.

The one test that confronts the doctor's article up to the present is this: It is admitted that the taking of Liege and an entry into France would have been decisive strokes for the German Emperor. If his army and his Zeppelins possess the might and skill which has been stated, why have they not been used to greater advantage in reducing the fortifications at Liege? A successful attack by dirigibles upon Liege would have sent a tremor through every enemy. Its effect upon the armies and navies of the Kaiser's opponents would have been staggering. They may be held in reserve for the present, but surely the strategists of the German army would have seen an opportunity for a terrible demonstration of superiority that they could ill afford to overlook if they possessed the means with which to deal the blow.

THE sinking of a German submarine by a British cruiser while the German craft was attacking should not be too hastily taken as evidence that the warship on the surface is more effective than the warship beneath the surface. In this particular case many things such as stormy weather, poor light, etc., may have handicapped the smaller craft. It will require a number of encounters under a variety of natural conditions in actual warfare to settle the question as to which is the more effective. It is worth noting, however, that in the last British naval manoeuvres the submarines succeeded in putting out of action a large number of battleships and cruisers. The details of these encounters have been kept secret, but experts declare that the tests were of the severest. The present war may demonstrate that the German navy has been wasting their money building dreadnoughts; on the other hand it may show that the submarine is not sufficiently ready to send the battleships to the scrap heap. While the calibre of officers and men composing the crew of any war craft is a big factor in the fighting, it is generally conceded the human element plays a larger part in a submarine, destroyer or torpedo boat than in a cruiser or battleship. Dash, daring, even desperation, are qualities necessary to the successful operation of the little fellows. Fortunately Great Britain has never wanted for men who were ready to take a chance. Bold, alert and resourceful fellows, British jacks thrive on forlorn hopes and desperate ventures.

Canada may soon be glad to remove the duty from American foodstuffs.

The day for exploding fireworks is passed. Good gunpowder cannot be wasted.

How could the Kaiser lose to win? All the House Wagners came to America long ago.

We must thank the Kaiser for having erased from Canada's slate much intestine strife.

Many reservists are unable to get back to Europe to join the colors. Some people are born lucky?

After the Kaiser has dismantled the earth, it will require another atlas to set it straight again.

That "War of Seven Nations" was a fine-sounding phrase. But the latest returns quickly disposed of it.

Germans invading French territory destroyed a church and a brewery. All institutions look alike to the war god.

In the United States is the unusual situation of foodstuff prices soaring, although no foodstuffs are being exported.

PRESS COMMENT ON THE WAR

THE BUSY B'S.
[Toronto Telegram.]
Belgians, so far, are the busy B's of the campaign.

WHAT NOT TO EXPECT.
[Stratford Herald.]
Don't expect a big battle every time you open your paper.

WAR NOT THE WORST.
[Hamilton Times.]
We have no love for war ourselves, but there are sometimes worse things.

WHEN THEY RETURN.
[Kingston Whig.]
Single men will get the first chance to volunteer for military service. Perhaps some of them will be glad to marry when they come back.

ANY PORT LOOKS GOOD.
[Buffalo News.]
It was only a coincidence that the German liner took refuge in Frenchman's Bay. Any port in America looked good to the Cælle in that storm.

DEEDS, NOT WORDS.
[Toronto Star.]
The reticence of the British navy in giving out news as to what it is doing merely means that it is dealing in deeds, not words.

JUST BRITISH NOW.
[Guelph Mercury.]
No Home-Rulers, or no Anti-Home Rulers in Ireland, no Reformers or Conservatives in Canada, just all British now, when the trouble's on. When the old jacks get cooled off after the fray we can take up the lesser things again.

GERMANY RILING U. S.
[New York Sun.]
Apparently the German authorities have an idea that because of the war there is no check on them and no redress for whatever they may do. The American state department should disprove this idea in short order. It should thoroughly impress on Germany that ample amends to the victims and punishment of gold turn over in his grave.

Jellicoe's Record.
Sir John Rushworth Jellicoe, K.C.B., 1811; K.C.V.O., 1907; C.B., 1909; C.V.O., 1906, commanding second squadron home fleet since 1911, was born December 5, 1859. He entered the navy in 1872 and served in the Egyptian war of 1882, receiving the medal, Khedive's bronze star. He secured three first-class certificates in passing for lieutenant and the special £30 prize at the Royal Naval College, 1883. The admiral served in China, 1898-1901, and commanded the naval brigade and acted as Chief of Staff to Vice-Admiral Sir E. Seymour during the attempted relief of Peking, 1900; severely wounded at Peking, C.B. He was director of naval ordnance, 1905-07; board of trade silver medal, 1886. The (with sword) was conferred on him by the German Emperor for services in 1907, served as rear-admiral of the Atlantic fleet in 1907-08. Sir John acted as lord commissioner of the admiralty and controller of the navy, 1908-10; commanded Atlantic fleet in 1910-11. Admiral Jellicoe was commander of the armored H.M.S. Victoria, flagship of Admiral Sir George Tryon, K.C.B., which was sunk off Tripoli on the Syrian coast in collision with H.M.S. Camperdown during manoeuvres, when the admiral, 21 officers and 350 men were drowned June 27, 1893. Sir John is in supreme command of the British home forces.

CAMPING OUT.
[New York Globe.]
Dropping down the current in a leaky boat. Dressed in faded flannels and an ancient coat. Luncheon in a basket, pipe between your teeth and shadow, slipping underneath. Wretched, manure, bullheads, redskins, too, in school. Yanking speeded beauties from the sod. Later in the twilight, frying pans of trout. That's the fun camping—camping out! Looking through the tent-flap at the marching stars. Getting well acquainted with Jupiter and Mars. Listening to the crickets piping from the sod. Feeling somewhat nearer all the time to God. Seeing how the woodland's ever growing limb. Through the storm and sunshine reaching up to Him. Taking time for thinking what it's all about. That's the best of camping—camping out!

WHERE IGNORANCE IS BLISS.
[Detroit Free Press.]
What I knew had she known. Then she'd never have smiled. All her peace would have flown. 'Twould have driven her wild.

All unkindful of me. In that crowded cafe. She sat sipping her tea. And was care-free and gay.

Had she known what I knew. She'd have thought it was shocking. For right in plain view. Was a hole in her stocking.

A PROVOKING PERSON.
[Indianapolis Star.]
The most aggravating person in the world is the man whom we call a liar and who then proves his truthfulness by admitting the correctness of our accusation.

DOWN ON OUR SEX.
[Boston Transcript.]
Miss Gusher (at the summer resort)—Isn't it just like heaven? Miss Grout—Yes; the proportion of men here is in heaven. I imagine, will be just about the same.

THE SMART STAMP CLERK.
[London Standard.]
Pompous Lady—Must I put this stamp on myself? Postoffice Clerk—Well, you can if you like, but it's no use to put it on the letter.

RECRUITING OFFICER

FOR GAULT REGIMENT

Major Hennessy Appointed to Select Men For Princess Patricia Infantry.

Major Talbot Hennessy, commanding officer of No. 1 Section of the Canadian Signalling Corps, has been appointed recruiting officer for the Princess Patricia Light Infantry, the crack regiment which Hamilton Gault, the Montreal millionaire, has offered to organize and equip for overseas service, and is prepared to receive recruits at the armories at any time.

The regiment is to consist of old service men entirely. In Toronto, according to dispatches received here, nearly 400 men have offered, and it is hoped that at least 100 may be recruited here.
Major Talbot, who in addition to commanding the signalling corps, is a permanent staff officer attached to divisional headquarters here, also has been appointed to recruit a further 100 men.
R. C. R. Fifty are called for, but so far only a dozen have enlisted, the possibility of seeing active service with the over-seas contingent apparently proving a stronger attraction than the probability of being left alone as a home guard.

BANKS HOLDING BACK GOVT. GREENBACKS

Are Paying Out Ones and Twos Only When Necessary To Give Change.

As a protective measure in case of a panic condition developing (which from present indications is considered a very unlikely eventuality), the banks, according to a local member of the staff of one of them, are not issuing one-dollar and two-dollar government bills, except where it is absolutely necessary to give change.
It is just barely possible, The Advertiser's informant pointed out, that a run on a particular bank's promise might occur, in which case it would be of great advantage, especially in view of the embargo on the gold issue, to have at hand Government bills with which to redeem the bank bills.
A bank would be running no risk of loss in doing this since the Government has undertaken to guarantee all bank bills.

RECRUITING CONTINUES IN LOCAL MILITIA CORPS

Seventh Regiment Now Has Nearly 200—Paraded in Full Uniform.

Recruiting is still going on apace in the headquarters of all the local militia corps, and last night again saw the addition of quite a large number of names to the various regimental lists of volunteers for service with the overseas contingent. The Seventh now has a roll of nearly 200 men who have been passed by the doctor, the sixth battery is over its war establishment and the Army Service Corps needs but two men to bring its strength up to the war establishment.

Last night the Seventh paraded in full uniform and service web equipment, consisting of water bottles, haversacks and ammunition bags. The men turned out to the number of 150, and a large crowd thronged the armories to watch them drill. Tonight the regiment will march out if the weather permits.
The A.S.C. also paraded morning and evening, and members of the signalling corps were out on the floor at night practising flag-wagging.

WILL HOLD FLOWER SHOW
London Horticultural Society Arranges for Exhibition.

The directors of the London Horticultural Society held their regular monthly meeting last night in the Western Fair offices, when it was decided to hold a flower show in Hymen Hall on Wednesday and Thursday of next week.

This will be similar to the last show held in June. It will be free to the public, and citizens having flowers will be quite welcome to place them on exhibition. The main object of the shows held by this society is to arouse greater interest among citizens in the raising of flowers and in verifying their grounds and reservations.

Flowers for exhibition must be entered not later than noon on Wednesday next.

WAR RECRUITING THINS BUSINESS FIRMS' STAFFS

Circulars Are Being Issued, Cancelling All Leave Until Further Notice.

One result of the call for volunteers for service with a Canadian expeditionary force and the ready response by men of all classes, is a shortage of help in a number of business institutions, and, in the case of several of the banks, circulars have been issued cancelling all leave until further notice.
While no official intimation has been given as to what provision will be made by the banks for those of their men who are sent out of the country with the Canadian contingent, it is generally understood that they will draw full pay for the time they are away. Several clerks have been given unofficial assurance that this will be done.

OVERSEAS CONTINGENT MAY USE ROSS RIFLES

Orders From Ottawa Recall
All Issued From Ordnance Stores.

Lieut.-Col. H. C. Beecher, commanding officer of the Seventh Regiment, received telegraphed instruction from military headquarters in Ottawa last night to ship to Val Cartier as soon as possible the new pattern Ross rifles issued recently from the Ordnance stores to the regiment.

In all 533 of the new rifles were issued and some 300 of them were served out to the men. These will be recalled today and shipped immediately.

Presumably the intention is to use the new rifles, which are of the very latest type, to two members of the overseas contingent, and the urgency of the message received by Lieut.-Col. Beecher would seem to indicate that mobilization in Val Cartier is likely to be ordered very soon.

Some men of the Seventh have received a hint from their company commanders that the corps is to entrain for Val Cartier on Tuesday night. This could not be confirmed either at divisional headquarters or from Lieut.-Col.
Beecher.

But for the prompt response and quick action of the fire department, a blaze which broke out about 8 o'clock last night in the coke runway at the City Gas plant, Horton street, west of Tahot street, might have proved very serious. As it was, the damage was noted at about $100. The fire spread either was along the runway, burning off the roof and fell through into the coke bins underneath. The runway is used to carry red hot coke from the gas plant to the bins.

PEACE PACT SIGNED AT LAST IN MEXICO CITY

Constitutionalists To Take Possession of Town—Carbajal Leaves.

MEXICO CITY, Aug. 13.—Late this afternoon a formal peace pact between the Constitutional army and the Federal Government was signed by Gen. Obregon, representing the Federal Government, and Eduardo Garcia, representing the Constitutional army. The document forms the basis under which the Constitutional army will enter the capital of Mexico. It sets forth in general terms guarantees of the life and property of citizens of the capital, and promises an absolutely peaceful occupation.

The Federal forces are still occupying Cuernavaca, Toluca, Texcoco, Veracruz, the town of Mexico, and who is at their head, issued a proclamation to the nation, saying the army would be dissolved.
Patriotic duty, he said, made this necessary, as further fighting undoubtedly would bring on American intervention.

Special Detective Investigated Story Regarding Chinese.

[Special to The Advertiser.]
PORT STANLEY, Aug. 13.—The presence here of James McCabe, an American detective and immigration officer, gave rise to many rumors that he was in Port to investigate a story that Chinese men were being smuggled from here. It was stated to The Advertiser today that nothing was discovered which would substantiate this suspicion.

Mr. McCabe, of London, a guest of the Luncheon House, was tendered a banquet last night by his friends. About twenty-five were present.

Mrs. J. Pratt and daughters Jessie and Maud, the latter the private secretary of Governor Hurd, of West Virginia, arrived at Port Stanley today on the steamer State of Ohio, on their way to London, where they will be the guests of Mrs. J. Pratt.

Mr. and Mrs. W. O'Meara, of London, are staying at Port Long.

Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Little, of St.
Thomas, are summering at Port Long for a few weeks.

Twelve coaches bore the excursionists from Norwich and district to Port Stanley today. Although it threatened rain at noon the picnicers enjoyed themselves immensely.

The Epworth League of the Byron Methodist Church held a very successful picnic at Port Stanley today.

ITALY HAS MOBILIZED TROOPS ON FRONTIERS

GENEVA, Switzerland, Aug. 13 (via 200,000 and 250,000 troops on the Swiss and Austrian frontiers as a precautionary measure. All the high passes above the Alps, such as the Theodoule, above Zermatt, are strongly held, and Swiss and Italian patrols meet there and exchange their impressions of the war.

the way to Halifax to assist in guarding the trade routes.

secondary six-inch battery.

GERMAN SPY WITH CARRIER PIGEONS CAUGHT BY WOMAN

She Clung Until Belgian Authorities Came to Rescue—Man Was Shot.

[Canadian Press.]
BRUSSELS (via Paris), August 13.— 7:50 p.m.—A woman caught a German spy on train from Antwerp to Liege, the act of releasing carrier pigeons, which he had concealed in a bag.
She seized and held him until other passengers came to her assistance.
The man was handed over to the military authorities.

He was tried by court martial and shot.

GERMANS ON DEFENSIVE Seem Puzzled by the Gallant Stand of Belgium in All Battles.

[Canadian Press.]
London, August 14.—3 a.m.—The Post correspondent sends the following:
The success of the Belgian army has been astonishing. Everywhere along the line of outposts the Germans meet with baffling checks. Like an angry dog faced by a porcupine, the vaunted Prussian army stands puzzled.

"I do not wish to exaggerate the facts or to pretend that the Belgians are winning a series of important battles. Their successes so far are intrinsically small, but they are making a habit of success.
All dread of the Prussians is gone and that is a most valuable gain."

"Yesterday I walked some distance with a soldier, who was on his way from Brussels to one of the Liege forts.
Clearly therefore the Liege forts are not so closely invested, when individual soldiers can come and go."

"The Belgians jokingly wonder when the German military skill will begin to show itself. The audacity of the Uhlans and the tenacity of the Belgians who are pressed from behind, in contact with the Belgian cavalry, the Uhlans and the German infantry, neither the artillery nor infantry has shown brilliance."

"As an actual fact the attitude of the Germans today is almost defensive; certainly it is not offensive in any spirited sense."

GERMAN SOLDIERS STARVE TO DEATH

Dead Officers Have Raw Potatoes
in Pockets—Horses
Also Tell Tale of Privation in Belgium.

[Canadian Press.]
BRUSSELS, Aug. 13.—The German troops in Belgium Luxembourg are said to be starving, and many of them are reported to have dropped unconscious owing to their privations. In some of the dead officers' pockets raw potatoes were found, while the soldiers are said to have dug up unripe turnips and beets to eat.

A party of French dragoons, while reconnoitering, came upon a strong detachment of Uhlans whom they attacked and cut to pieces, killing 50 of them.
A party of 600 German dragoons arrived today at Ath, in the province of Hainaut.

Many horses belonging to the German Uhlans found dead in Belgium Linburg, were declared, after a postmortem examination, to have starved to death.

ALLEGED MURDERER REPORTED IN NEW YORK

Dr. Robinson, of Tamworth,
Said To Be Shadowed

Tamworth, Aug. 13.—Today a report comes that Dr. C. K. Robinson, charged with causing the death of Miss Blanche York, is traced to New York City, where he is being shadowed by detectives. It is reported on good authority that he was traced to Brownsville, N. Y., where he stayed a week. From there he was followed to Watertown, N. Y., and

The brothers of the late Miss Blanche wireless today that she will arrive here soon to coal. Being neutral, she has the freedom of the port and may come a pole near the uptown electric station.

Above him hanging down the pole take it down. Instantly about 2,200 volts of electricity shot through him and knocked him to the ground unconscious.

He died from the shock.

NEWSPAPER ACTION VIOLATED NEUTRALITY PRESCRIBED IN U. S.

San Francisco Paper With Tug Conveyed German
Consul to Cruiser.

[Canadian Press.]
SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 13.—The following notification was served today on newspapers and press associations of this city by Rear-Admiral Charles F.
Fond, U.S.N., supervisor of the 12th
naval district:

"The act of the San Francisco Examiner in sending a tug, furnishing papers containing information on the whereabouts of belligerent men of war, and conveying the German consul to the German cruiser Leipzig on the high seas off this port, is considered a violation of the President's proclamation of neutrality."

The American cruiser Raleigh, now at Mazatlan, has been ordered to report here to Admiral Fond to prevent further violations of neutrality.
