PREFACE

The twenty-second volume of CHE-RIER'S QUEBEC DIRECTORY for 1880-1881, herewith submitted to the Public, but more particularly to its subscribers, gives the results of a most careful canvass, with a fulness of detail and a nicety in classification scarcely attained in any previous volume.

In order to give to our patrons more facilities to understand the general distribution of matters in this Directory, we think proper to offer the following explanations.

The book is sub-divided into four principal parts, viz :

The whole is accompanied with different Indices, from page 9 to page 13, indicating the part of the book sought for.

Duplication of names has been avoided as far as possible, and, allowance being made for this, it is gratifying to see that the canvass indicates, as will be seen below, but a very slight decrease of population during the year. Quebec has therefore, on the whole, held her own and is to be congratulated upon it, notwithstanding the very slight improvement in any branch of business.

The following Statistics, for Quebec City only, have been compiled from the present issue and may not prove uninteresting :

Number of names in the 1879-80 edition.....	9,621
“ “ “ “ 1880-81 “ “	9,527
“ “ “ “ erased in compiling Direct'y for 1880-81.....	1,349
“ “ “ “ added in compiling Direct'y for 1880-81.....	1,255
“ “ “ “ contained in this volume, including St Sauveur.....	12,002
Number of removals attended to.....	1,741
Number of houses unoccupied in Quebec, May 17th, 1880.....	542

This shows 4,325 changes from last year's Directory, leaving only 5,276 names in this year's Directory as they were in last year's Directory ; and about as many more changes have been made in the corporations, societies, etc. ; so that a last year's Directory is now of little value—changes having been made in more than two thirds of the names.

The custom of borrowing Directories has become so general that, though seldom proffering advice, we cannot refrain from suggesting that a chain attaching the Directory to the counter or office desk will most effectually abate this nuisance, and compel those to purchase who, if not so ready, are just as able as their more liberal neighbours.

It seems a common thing with many to exaggerate the number of copies of this work sold each year and the net income derived therefrom. Our annual subscription list does not exceed 600. Thus any person who knows the expense attending the publication of a Directory, is aware that the above is not a fair remuneration ; the more so if he considers that our advertising patronage, a means of support so liberally extended to other Canadian Directories, does not sustain us in our laborious task. And as a proof that the above assertion is not an exaggerated one, we give the following figures of our outlays, leaving it with whomsoever it may interest to draw the inference and tell us if the result of his research is any thing like ample compensation for the amount of work we annually undertake and perform, not to say anything of the responsibility we incur and are subject to.

Cost of Compiling.....	$ 150.00
“ “ Printing.....	750.00
“ “ Binding.....	150.00
“ “ Paper.....	150.00
“ “ Delivery.....	50.00
Bad debts.....	50.00
	$1,300.00

It seems hard to give such expression, but the public fail to fully appreciate the merits of a Directory, not only for locating individuals, buildings and all points of interest, but as an ADVERTISING MEDIUM. An advertisement in the Directory brings your name and business before the public for one year at a mere nominal price, possessing an advantage over ordinary advertising in its being carefully preserved with the book ; not read and thrown aside.

We would therefore solicit all who have not done so, to hereafter consult our terms, which cannot fail to be found advantageous.

On that account it has become a matter of serious concern whether we can or not continue issuing this publication at $2.50 per copy ; the advertising, which should be the chief means of support, being nil or the next thing to it. We have heard quite a number of business men say they could not dispense with the work, even if they have to pay double the amount charged for it ; if the latter would only advertise to the extent of $2 each year, it would be a happy relief, and would enable us to continue its publication at the present price, and cover a number of rebuffs we receive from those who refuse even to purchase the work. We do not consider it a charity for any one to purchase a Directory any more than to purchase a newspaper. If we look to Canadian directories published in the leading cities of the Dominion, we will find in this latter respect, quite a different state of things; one indeed altogether worthy our serious consideration and evidently profitable likewise to the business community and the publishers of said works. We have ample reasons to complain of that want of patronage and must avail ourselves of the only opportunity afforded us of so doing. There is no doubt—and our statement will be sustained by whomsoever will take a rapid glance at Canadian directories besides our own—that such publications, are in multifarious ways, as good and efficient advertising mediums as newspapers. Yet it is really surprising to see how few of our Quebec merchants will avail themselves of the opportunity yearly afforded them of extending their business by having recourse to such an efficient medium. This manifest and unaccountable unwillingness to advertise, we regret to say, is only to be found in Quebec; for, as already stated, other Canadian directories have always been liberally patronised by advertisers. We give below the value of advertisements inserted in the various city directories published by our confrères. What cause must we assign for this mark of unappreciation of our directory as an advertising medium? Well the fact is we dare not openly speak our mind! We will refrain broaching the subject, leaving it with each and all of our patrons to answer our query and assume their share of responsibility. As a warning, we however will add this much: that unless this advertising patronage, which we are, as Directory publishers, entitled to, be before long extended to us, we will have to raise the price to $3.00.

These pages contain the usual small number of advertisements, but some of the very best firms of our City are to be found therein.

The sums represented by advertisements inserted in other city directories are as follows: Montreal, $1,500; Toronto, $1,000; Quebec, third city of the Dominion, $214; Ottawa, $600; Hamilton, $500; London, $300; Halifax, $700.

The Publishers feel a pardonable pride in the conscientious manner in which the work of the Directory has been done, in the quality of its typography and in the completeness and excellence which the practised eye will recognize in every page of the volume.

For any want of accuracy that may be discovered in the compilation, the publishers or their canvassers cannot well be held responsible, inasmuch as every effort possible was made to overcome the difficulties which lay in their path; and the few who may possibly miss their names from the work have only themselves to blame.

In last year's issue we regretted that a certain important portion of Montcalm ward remained unnumbered. It is now our pleasant duty to inform our patrons that, that much needed desideratum has been furnished; the directory and the public likewise thereby immensely benefiting by the improvement. The numbering in St Sauveur has also been done.

The following table exhibits the number of names published in each Directory since 1790, and the increase and decrease in population whenever any:—

Date.	No. of Names in Directory	Increase of Names.	Decrease of Names.	Popul'n averag'g 5 teach' name in Dir'y	Increase of Population.	Decrease of Population.

It is customary with Directory publishers, in estimating the population, to use as a multiple of the names contained in the Directory, the number 3 $\frac{1}{2}$ and often 5; if we estimate as we have done and should do, our population at 5 to each name, we shall arrive at 60,010 souls as being the Census of Quebec, for 1880-81, including St Sauveur but not the Banlieue.

In conclusion, we desire to express our heartfelt thanks to the business men and the public generally, for the moral and material support, such as it is, accorded us. Our relations with the mercantile, manufacturing and professional classes are of the most cordial character, as evinced in the continued and unflinching, though limited, patronage with which they have ever favoured us; all owing, no doubt, to our determined efforts, in the past TWENTY-TWO years, to produce for them a trustworthy Directory.

Respectfully,

CARRIER & Co.,
Publishers.

HISTORICAL SKETCH OF THE
QUEBEC DIRECTORY

SINCE ITS FIRST KNOWN ISSUE IN 1790

ILLUSTRATING ITS PAST VALUE COMPARED WITH THE IMPORTANCE AND EXTENT OF THE PRESENT PUBLICATION

DEDICATED TO ITS PRESENT SUPPORTERS *

A City Directory, as its name indicates, is a work intended to assist the public in threading their way through the intricacies of a City life. The business man in his office has only to turn over the leaves of a Directory to bring before his immediate notice the varied information needed in his customary pursuits. The housekeeper, by consulting it, can also find her way to the information relative to the wants of domestic life. The stranger, at landing on our shores, can grasp at a glance the landmarks of the country he honours with a visit, and is enabled to embrace, thanks to a well edited Directory, a knowledge of the institutions of the land. To the clergyman it is the vade mecum of his ministry. The physician,

* TO THE PATRONS OF CHERRIER'S DIRECTORY.

A pamphlet of thirty two pages, bearing nearly the above title and intended for gratuitous distribution amongst the patrons of the Directory, was published in the autumn of 1879 by the writer of these lines at an outlay of about sixty dollars. Owing, however, to certain unavoidable misconceptions stated therein and of which he was only made cognisant after the work was in press, it was deemed advisable to lay it aside; the compiler being desirous, as far as in him lay, to avoid circulating any statements calculated to mislead concerning the first issues and subsequent development of a publication so closely connected with the welfare of Quebec.

Having revised and extended his former work, he has decided upon publishing the following "Historical Sketch" with this year's issue of the QUEBEC DIRECTORY, dedicating it to its present supporters, as a very slight token of his gratitude for their patronage—now extending over a period of twenty-two years—and begging for it at the same time a lenient criticism for any error which may come under their notice, as this sketch does not pretend to be a faultless one as to what the Directory may have been, but merely to be a statement of what the writer actually knows of its antecedents.

also, can speak to the truth of the importance we attach to a Directory, and must readily admit our claim to his gratitude for the indisputable assistance lent him in his daily calling, by a timely reference to our guide.

Such being, in a very imperfect measure, the benefits to be derived from a Directory, is it to be wondered at that we pronounce the calling of a directory compiler one of the gravest importance, aiding and perfecting, as it does, all other stations in life? Nay, when we consider the mathematical accuracy which is expected from the compiler in getting up such a book, and the immense responsibility which devolves upon him, must it not quite naturally recur to the mind of the general public, that one devoting his every hour to such a task, has a legitimate claim on the community at large, to their unqualified support and encouragement for the carrying out and subsequent disposing of a book so useful to all classes of society?

This being said, the following pages will no doubt be found interesting reading to every resident of the City, and valuable for reference hereafter.

So far as we have been able to ascertain, it is now ninety years, (nearly a century ago,) since the first number of a Directory for Quebec was issued. "The Directory for the City and Suburbs of Quebec," was its title. This first attempt at directory publishing was a book of 52 pages, set up in nonpareil type, containing 93,496 ems printer's measurement, and 1408 names alphabetically arranged, representing a population of about 7,040 souls, and giving the trade or profession of each resident in both languages, and above all remarkable for very improper spelling of both French and English names. It was compiled by Hugh Mackay, A. O. S., and printed in Quebec, by William Moore at the Herald printing office, in 1790.

According to the preface of this work pompously styled "dedication to the worshipful His Majesty's Justices of the Peace, etc.," we are lead to believe that this must have been the first publication of its kind, as we therein read the following: "to whom can I dedicate this novel work with such propriety as your worships." As to the precise month of its publication we know not, its pages giving no clew to such information.

It was in the above issue that we noted for the first time and with an equal amount of surprise and pleasure the name of Jean-Marie Cherrier, residing at N° 8, Fabrique street, the great-grandfather of the present compiler, and the first resident, but one, of that name in Canada.

The second issue of a similar publication known to us seems to have been in the year 1826, and is called "The Quebec Directory, or Strangers' Guide in the city for 1826," compiled by John Smith, and printed by T. Cary & Co., Free Masons' Hall. It contained 92 pages, pamphlet form, in brevier type, equivalent to 134,400 ems, with 1,068 names, which latter were not classified in alphabetical order, and were compiled exclusively in English, showing a population of about 5,340 souls. In the preface of said work, published on the 1st June 1826, it is said that a Mr. Gleason had attempted, four years previously, to issue a Directory, "which, from private circumstances, was unavoidably discontinued."

Such are, to the best of our knowledge, the first steps taken towards supplying this Ancient City with a work now altogether indispensable, but which, in these times, was in all likelihood neither needed nor much referred to.

From 1826 to 1844, there seems to have been no such work of public reference, as we have not been able, notwithstanding numerous enquiries, to lay our hands on any other similar undertaking. We are therefore induced to think that "Hawkins' Quebec Directory and Strangers' Guide to the City and Environs for 1844-45," was the next and only Directory compiled for Quebec, and from the above work we can trace an almost uninterrupted series of Directories up to this day. Until 1849-50 exclusively, Quebec was supplied with a Directory compiled under the care and supervision of the above gentleman. In 1849-50 Hawkins' publication, for reasons unknown to us, was superseded by that of one Robert W. S. Mackay, who published a Directory for a few years—how many, we know not exactly—and was again succeeded in 1854-55, or thereabouts, by one S. McLaughlin, who issued till 1858-59 exclusively, a "Quebec Directory in Three Parts," the last edition of which was printed by Bureau & Marcotte, 29 Buade street, and sold to subscribers at $1.50 per copy.

Such are, to the best of our knowledge, the first attempts made at publishing a Directory and relieving Quebec—as is stated in the preface of Hawkins' first issue—"of the stigma of not possessing a Directory of its own." This idea met with such universal favor that Hawkins goes on to say: "1,000 copies were subscribed for, a patronage by the bye far larger than is to-day accorded to our work. In 1858-59 the Quebec Directory, for a fourth time, changed hands; and it is now our pleasing duty to record the different phases it has gone through from the moment G. H. Cherrier, Esq., father of the author of these lines, undertook its publication up to the present time. In the above year the first edition of "CHERRIER'S QUEBEC DIRECTORY," published by Cherrier & Hamelin, printed in Quebec by P. Lamoureux, in Shaw's Building, Mountain Hill, was issued in the month of July. The arrangement of the work was, as stated in the preface strictly alphabetical; a feature, strange to say, not to be found in Hawkins' Directories. It met with a favorable reception. Two years having elapsed, in 1860-61 a second edition, this time solely compiled and published by G. H. Cherrier, was again welcomed and found a ready circulation. This success induced the proprietor to issue it annually. We may here state, with a feeling of satisfaction, that the latter gentleman having been, so to say, the first instigator of a yearly Quebec Directory, for 13 consecutive years, he ably combined with an ALPHABETICAL LIST OF CITIZENS AND CLASSIFICATION OF SUBSCRIBERS other useful and necessary information concerning Government and Municipal Offices, Banks, Educational and Religious Institutions, etc., etc.,—in a word, many of the essential features of the present publication; the whole neatly printed and bound by John Lovell, of Montreal, in 1 vol. 12mo. of 400 and odd pages, single column. It is only just to assert that Quebec is greatly indebted to Mr. Cherrier for such a boon, and we crave pardon, as his son, if we venture to say that his activity has become legendary, and his name a household one with Quebecers.

As such, it was issued till 1871-72, inclusively, when the present publishers taking hold of the work, deemed fit to alter its size to the present one, it being their intent to include, besides the ordinary matter, a COMPLETE STREET DIRECTORY, which appeared for the first time in 1873-74: thus dividing the work into four parts, namely: ALPHABETICAL, STREET, MISCELLANEOUS AND BUSINESS.

With these few words by way of introduction we will now review the past and present situation of the Quebec Directory. Since Hawkins' issue in 1844-45, a generation has come and gone, and many things we shall make mention of will be new to the present one. The first issue of Hawkins was a small book single column, of 252 pages, 3 x 5½ inches, containing 1,417 names representing a population of only 7,085 inhabitants, with 100 pages of miscellaneous information. It has steadily grown until it is now a large octavo volume, in double and triple columns, solid matter, of over 250 pages, 5 x 8 inches in size,—a page nearly twice as large as the latter, containing 12,002 names, representing a population of 60,010 with 60 pages of Street Directory, 22 pages of Miscellaneous, and 12 pages of Classified Business Directory. The comparative business growth of Quebec in ninety years—slow but sure—is further evidenced by the 93,496 ems of type in the first number, and 900,500 ems in the present edition.

The price of the Directory 35 years ago was $1.50, which was subsequently increased, but not in proportion to the increase of size and importance, for, as our 22nd edition is more than 150 per cent larger than Hawkins', the price this year to be in proportion, should be $3.50 instead of $2.50.

This Directory, in its earlier days, was issued in September, and subsequently on or about the 10th of July. Since 1874, the work has been published in Quebec,—though not without incurring extra expense—thus advancing the date of issue, which occurs on or about the 10th of June, six weeks after the 1st May, when many householders change their residences; and consequently about one month earlier than formerly.

In 1871-72 we included the Town of Levis, and, later on, the villages of Bienville, Lauzon and St. Joseph, with the intention of increasing its utility to our city patrons and its circulation. In this venture we were disappointed; the increase of circulation did not pay the cost of printing and compiling the additional matter. We have, therefore, determined upon issuing next year a separate Directory of the South Shore, at the very moderate sum of $1.25, and hope to secure from our Quebec friends and the public of Levis, sufficient encouragement to warrant the annual appearance of a reliable Directory to that side of the River: a task which will become easier as soon as the Municipality of Levis decides upon numbering the houses and naming the streets without nomenclature, as has lately been done in Quebec, (by order of special meetings of the City Council held in March and April, 1876,) a result which we strove to attain by personally arousing our Citizens to a true sense of their own interests, and which, upon an invitation so to do, it has been our agreeable duty to assist in carrying out.

The history of this enterprise sufficiently shows that only one such work can be correctly prepared, if not profitably published. Our inhabitants, who willingly submit to the necessary inquisition of our canvassers, naturally chafe at an unnecessary repetition. Their interest is clearly centred in one correct work, and the different attempts made by rival Directories in the years 1871-72, 1875-76 and 1877-78, will bear testimony in this respect. Of the last two, the first one (Irwin's) was short of over 700 names in the alphabetical part, whilst the latter (Bennett's) was more than 600 short, besides being otherwise inaccurate and consequently unreliable.

Here it may not be amiss to say a few words about the more or less vexatious oppositions with which, within the last ten years, this standard work has had to contend, and the various causes, which, to the best of our knowledge, have brought about the publication of the above Directories. It is perhaps for our and the public interest and benefit, if we have had,—as is the case in other large cities, where the want of a Directory is felt,—to put up with opposition in the shape of rival Directories; and we must avow that we have not always succeeded, notwithstanding our untiring efforts, in preventing such publications. Of the three rivals we have had to overcome, we willingly acknowledge that the first in 1871-72 had some reason to justify its appearance, and yet neither it, nor its subsequent followers were sufficiently meritorious to carry the field and supersede Cherrier's Quebec Directory.

We have good ground for believing that the reasons alleged by our first adversaries in favour of their undertakings are yet ignored by some of our friends, and are not generally known by those who take or have little or no interest in the welfare of a City Directory. We must submit these facts to the public, so as to show how we appreciated the motives that actuated our first opponents, how we dealt with them, and how later on, the motives of our fresh rivals proved groundless. The first of these appeared in 1871-72. It was printed under the auspices of the Evdnement newspaper, and compiled under the supervision and care of Marcotte & Levy. The following apparently plausible motives incited the above gentlemen to undertake what proved to be an unsuccessful attempt, viz.—that Cherrier's Quebec Directory was not printed in Quebec; that, furthermore, the pecuniary income naturally derived from its annual publication, was expended abroad; and, finally, that no direct benefit in its publication was received by the printers of this city. Other reasons were given, of which we will make no mention, not being desirous of entering into personalities. The above alone can interest the public. Such were the statements made, the merits of which we could not contest, and we quite willingly yielded to what seemed fair and just, as soon as it lay in our power to give satisfaction both to the public and the printers. Accordingly, two years later on, having made proper arrangements with A. Coté & Co., from whose printing establishment it has ever since been issued, we had the pleasure, in 1874-75, to see the Directory printed in Quebec—and, at the same time we became resident in this city. Thus was the public wish complied with and the desired results obtained. The understanding with our patrons that the work was to be printed in this city, did not, however, do away immediately with the opposition, and in the spring of 1872-73, Marcotte & Levy, were still to be found attempting to issue their so-called Quebec enterprise. This second attempt had again to be met by the present publishers, and having come to an understanding with the would-be Directory men, and a pecuniary inducement having been granted, our opponents retired, and once more we found ourselves sole masters of the situation. Two years went by, and in the winter of 1875-76, we met with another opponent. This time, one Irwin was trying his luck,—though on what ground he expected success, we hardly knew nor he either. A personal animosity actuated him in this venture. We had been, two years previously, the indirect cause of the failure of a Directory published in Toronto by the above gentleman, and as just stated, ill-feeling towards ourselves prompted him in his enterprise. However, as is well known, Irwin's Directory, which appeared three weeks after ours had been issued and distributed proved, unfortunately for him, a total failure, both financially and otherwise. The alphabetical part of the work having been compared with ours, was found, as already stated, deficient by 700 names, showing the work in all its demerits, and once more attesting the superiority of the OLD FAVORITE. The year 1876-77 was allowed to go by without opposition being offered, and yet for a third time in 1877-78—and we have very good reason to believe for the last time—rivalry was at work in the person of one Bennett. We were altogether at a loss to explain the position taken by one whom we must call our friend. For a friend, indeed, he unwittingly proved to be, he having encountered the most signal failure. It remains for us to assert what is today a well-known and recognized fact: that, the failure of an adversary in such publications, only serves to consolidate and render more popular a work which has had to battle against unsuccessful enterprises. We have now all faith in the future, knowing, as we do, the truthfulness of the axiom,—labor improbus et probus omnia vincit.

We will now conclude this historical sketch by returning our heartfelt thanks to our present patrons who have encouraged us so far; and by appealing to those whom the above lines may have impressed with the usefulness of our Work, to extend to us that fair share of good will which our untiring efforts to please the Public entitle us to. We trust that the rapid, but correct statement of the facts connected with the publication of CHERRIER'S QUEBEC DIRECTORY, as well as the recital of the many struggles which it has been our bad fortune to meet with, will enhance the value of our Work in the eyes of an enlightened public, and bring home to us that tangible and pecuniary reward which should be the lot of the hard-working man and well-doer.

Your obedient servants,
CHERRIER & Co.,

Laval University

In 1663 was founded the Quebec Seminary which afterwards became a regular College, and it had, by successive additions, acquired a high degree of importance, when it was erected, by Her Majesty's Royal Charter, into a University, under the style and name of the Laval University. By this charter, which bears date December 8th, 1852, no change was effected in the constitution of the Seminary itself, but a council composed of the directors of the institution, and the three senior professors of the several faculties was empowered to possess and enjoy all the privileges granted to the Universities of the United Kingdom, and especially that of conferring degrees in the Faculties of Divinity, Law, Medicine and Arts. On the 15th May, 1876, His Holiness Pope Pius IX. gave to the Laval University, the Canonical erection. His Grace the Roman Catholic Archbishop of Quebec is, by virtue of his office, Visitor and Apostolic Chancellor of the University. The Superior of the Seminary, for the time being, holds the office of Rector.

ALPHABETICAL DIRECTORY.

EXPLANATIONS :

ABBREVIATIONS USED IN ALPHABETICAL DIRECTORY : bdg. hse. boarding house ; bds. boards ; h. house ; r. rear ; sq. square.

The Names in CAPITALS are those of Subscribers and Advertisers.

When hill, lane, place, road, square, or any other such word, does not follow the residence, the word street, is to be understood ; for example : Abgrall Victor, laborer, Champlain 809, means Champlain street 809.

When two numbers are given in connection with one name, and only one street mentioned, the number first given is the place of business, and the second the residence, and both in the same street.

It will be noticed that the names of all members of a firm are added directly after the name of the firm. This, it must be understood, does not interfere with the regular insertion of the same names in their Alphabetical order.

For full indices to the CONTENTS, see page 9.

Our advertising patrons may be found by referring to the Index, page 11. We feel justified after many years acquaintance, in saying we believe them to be among the very best in their vocations, in the City of Quebec.

Names of residents in houses of ill-fame are not inscribed in the Directory.

In preparing this year's issue we have noted 1741 removals, have erased 1349 and have added 1255 names ; the number of names in this year's Directory being only 9327 shows a loss during the past year of 94 names, there being 9621 in the last edition. At the time of going to press, 17th of May, there were still 342 houses unoccupied ; a fact which will more than account for not a few of the omissions that may be found during the year.

To find a name, first know how to spell it.

Quebec Mercury (the), daily, evening, annual subscription $4.00 : G. T. Cary, editor, and publisher, Buade 11-13. "The Mercury" FILES—We have had the satisfaction of receiving, by this day's English mail, intimation that the file of the Quebec Mercury, bound in yearly volumes from its foundation by T. Cary, senior, barrister, first editor and proprietor, in January 1805, (and grandfather of the present editor and proprietor,) has been received complete and in good order at the library of the British Museum in London, where it will be preserved with all the other historical works open to the British public in that valued and venerable institution. Canadians can thus at any time refer their friends or correspondants in England to the Mercury, for reliable records of local events during recent or remote years; and it shall be our endeavor always to make it as full and authentic a diary in the future as it is admitted to have been during the past. Complete files of this paper are also among the archives of the Parliament of the Dominion of Canada, at Ottawa, and that of the Provincial Legislature in this City. Quebec June 1880.
