IRISH TROOPS FOUGHT WELL IN ATTACK UPON GINCHY

British Fire Has Proven Irresistible and Huns Driven Back—400 Bavarians Taken Captives

By Courier Leased Wire.

With the British Army in France, Sept. 10, via London, Sep. 11.—The battle for the ridge between Thiepval and Ginchy redoubled in fury yesterday afternoon when the British successfully stormed the right bastion. The artillery fire for the two preceding days was continuous and of terrific intensity. In reply the Germans hurled thousands of gas and tear-producing shells as well as high explosives on the British line. The result of the tremendous bombardment was that German trenches were destroyed over a four mile stretch, and their garrisons took refuge in shell holes and the fortified cellars of the village of Ginchy. The British troops left their trenches about 4:30 p. m. The main attack (against the village of Ginchy) was entrusted chiefly to the Irish. The German fortifications consisted of cellars fitted with ingenious loopholes for rifles and machine guns, and a mud fort in the centre of a farm which bristled with machine guns. The fighting was desperate, but the Irish carried through their first attack in eight minutes. After half an hour's pause, they again dashed to the assault and in ten minutes had established themselves in positions north of the village. The right wing advanced more slowly east of Ginchy, and the fighting continued all night. The German machine gun defenses were finally smashed by British shells. On the rest of the battle front the Germans made good their defense in High Wood, but lost ground and prisoners both east and west of it. The total number of German prisoners taken so far in this fighting is about 400, most of whom are Bavarians. The Germans fought very hard to hold their last position on the ridge, but the weight of the British howitzer fire and the impetus of the attack were irresistible.

BRANTFORD WILL HAVE AT LEAST ONE BATTALION HERE FOR WINTER

Following Visit of General Logie to City on Saturday, Definite Announcement is Made—Accommodation Offered For the Men

It has been definitely established that at least one battalion of soldiers will spend the coming winter in Brantford. Such was the announcement made this morning by Ald. J. S. Dowling. Major-General Logie was a visitor in the city for military purposes on Saturday afternoon last, inspecting the quarters which could be provided here for the wintering of troops during the winter. The visit was purely informal, General Logie not even expressing an opinion as to the suitability of the accommodation offered.

In company with Lt.-Col. H. F. Leonard, Major F. Harry Jones, Lt.-Col. Harry Cockshutt, His Worship Mayor Bowby, Ald. J. S. Dowling and Ald. S. P. Pitcher, General Logie inspected the quarters occupied last winter by the 84th Battalion, the armories, and the old J. S. Hamilton property on Dalhousie St., also the old post office, the former quarters of the 125th Battalion, and the old Y. M. C. A., the 215th quarters, as well as the old skating rink upon Alfred street.

VICTORIA CROSS AWARDED TO TWENTY OFFICERS AND MEN

Examples of Splendid Courage and Fearlessness by Men of the Imperial Army

By Courier Leased Wire.

London, Sept. 11.—(New York Times)—The London Gazette announces the awarding of the Victoria Cross to twenty officers, non-commissioned officers, and men. The extraordinary courage and self-sacrifice displayed by Private W. McFadden, late of the Royal Irish Rifles, is recognized. He was in a concentration trench and was opening a box of bombs when the box fell and two of the safety pins slipped out. The trench was crowded with men and McFadden, realizing the danger to his comrades, heroically threw himself upon the bombs. They exploded and blew him to pieces, but only one other man was injured. "He well knew his danger, being himself a bomber," says the official account, "but without a moment's hesitation he gave his life for his comrades." Of Private James Miller, late of the Royal Lancaster Regiment, it is recorded that being ordered to carry a message and bring back a reply at all costs, he was shot in the back immediately after he had left the trench, and the bullet came out at the abdomen. Nevertheless, he delivered the message, and fell back with the answer, and fell dead at the feet of the officer to whom he gave it.

CENTRAL POWERS NOW MINUS SUPPLY OF PETROLEUM FROM ROUMANIA

Roumanian People Are Calm and Confident, and Fight Well Against German and Turkish Forces.

By Courier Leased Wire.

New York, Sept. 11.—A despatch from Bucharest to The London Times says: The impression produced by the capture of Orsova, obliterates the news of the fall of Turtukai, where the fighting has been of the most obstinate character and the losses very heavy on both sides. Turkish confidence as well as German contingents took part in the Bulgarian assault. Large numbers of wounded have arrived. Perfect calm prevails here and there is a complete absence of panic or confusion. Much satisfaction and confidence are derived from the brave resistance made by the Roumanian troops, which had not hitherto been under fire against the seasoned forces of Bulgarians and Germans, whose attacks continued for five days. The enemy's artillery fire is stated to have been overwhelming, but the Roumanian troops nevertheless made repeated counterattacks. Among the various consequences of the intervention of Roumania is the deprivation of the Central powers of their principal supply of petroleum. The Russians before retiring from Galicia, destroyed the local wells, rendering Germany and Austria all the more dependent on the Roumanian supply. Till the closure of the frontier immense numbers of cistern wagons passed over. Henceforth mineral oils required for various manufacturers, benzines for motor cars, petroleum for lighting purposes and crude oil for submarines, will all be lacking.

PHOTOGRAPHS TAKEN OF THE VARIOUS PORTIONS OF NEW BRIDGE

Upper pictures show the shore spans at present in position, on the left of the Quebec side, and the right of the Levis side. Lower picture gives interior view of the span indicating the massiveness of the structure. Lower right picture shows the bridge as it stood when the collapse happened, weighed 5,200 tons and was towed into position on scows at high tide. The operation was one of the most delicate attempted during the construction of the bridge. The total length of the bridge is 3,239 feet and costs eighteen million dollars. It has been under construction since 1911.

CENTRAL SPAN OF THE QUEBEC BRIDGE COLLAPSED THIS MORNING

Perhaps Cannot be Raised Again, as it Weighs 5000 Tons—Loss of Life Feared to be Heavy—Span Was 15 Feet in Air When it Fell—Engineers at Work Immediately After Accident

Courier Leased Wire.

Quebec, Sept. 11, 10:50 a. m.—The central portion of the Quebec bridge, which was being hoisted 150 feet from the St. Lawrence into position this morning collapsed at 10:30.

There will be loss of life, but a number of the workmen are seen struggling in the water. The central span of the Quebec bridge which was being raised 150 feet from the River St. Lawrence this morning collapsed when it was about 15 feet in the air and dashed into the water. The span weighs 5,000 tons. The loss of life will be heavy.

The span was towed out from Sillery Cove where it had been constructed, to the bridge site this morning. It was safely lifted from the pontoons amidst great excitement, and much whistling by the hundreds of river craft gathered to see the raising, the greatest effort in bridge building history.

The pontoons were removed from under the span, which was proceeding upwards on its journey. Everything pointed to a most successful enterprise when suddenly with a ripping noise from one of the girders holding the span at its northern corner, the span dropped into the stream at one end. The remaining jacks held the mass for a few seconds, while frantic efforts were made to get a chain around the tottering beam. With reports like shells exploding the remaining supports snapped and the span disappeared with a mighty splash in the river in the two hundred feet of the channel.

Men working on the span itself were seen to jump into the stream. Boats were rushed at once to the spot and several were picked up. It was estimated there were 90 men on the span.

The two arms of the bridge, which were to be connected by the span were not disturbed by the collapse.

Arrangements were at once made to send down divers to see if the ships' channel had been blocked and to see if it will be possible to raise the span. Engineers who saw the collapse expressed doubts as to whether it would be practical to get the span up again. (Continued on Page Four)

A DISTURBANCE IN FRENCH LEGATION

By Courier Leased Wire.

Paris, Sept. 11.—Additional details of a disturbance at the French Legation in Greece on Saturday are forwarded by the Havas correspondent at Athens. He telegraphs that while the Entente ministers were meeting at the legation, a number of reservists forced an entrance, shouting, "Long live the King; down with the Entente."

Four shots were fired. No one was injured. The reservists fled.

BRITISH TROOPS CROSS STRUMA.

By Courier Leased Wire.

Paris, Sept. 11, 12:05 p. m.—British troops on the front in Greek Macedonia took the offensive last night. They crossed the Struma River. The War Office announced to-day, and attacked the Bulgarians who are resisting desperately.

The British troops crossed the Struma under fire. Having gained a footing on the eastern bank at a point about 40 miles northeast of Saloniki, they attacked the villages of Nevolven and Karabjabs.

KAISER CONFERS WITH FERDY

Entry of Roumania Causes Visit of Bulgarian Monarch.

Other Balkan Questions also Necessitate Discussion at This Time.

By Courier Leased Wire.

Amsterdam, via London, Sep. 11.—According to the Berlin Tageblatt, the King of Bulgaria's visit to the German Emperor, was the sequel to the entry of Roumania into the war and proof, if any were needed, of the firmness of the alliance between Bulgaria and the Central powers.

The situation in the Balkans created by Roumania's entry and other Balkan questions, says the Tageblatt, will form the subject of discussions between the two monarchs as well as questions concerning future developments in the situation.

BUFFALO SHORE MEN FOR UNION

Also Protest Against Payment Through Stevedores.

Strike Is Threatened If Demands Are Not Complied With.

By Courier Leased Wire.

Buffalo, Sept. 11.—The Longshoremen's Association, of Buffalo, yesterday voted to handle no more grain from boats trimmed by non-union labor at Duluth and Superior. Action will be suspended until a meeting on Tuesday of representatives of the longshoremen and employers. Leaders of the Longshoremen say that the order will not be operative if the employers promise to remedy conditions at the upper ports.

The principal complaint of the Buffalo men is that the old system of payment through a stevedore, instead of direct to men, obtains at Duluth and Superior. The men here fear that this may break down the direct pay system which they won after a hard fight several years ago. If the longshoremen's demands are not met there will be a violent strike on the Buffalo docks just as the down lake grain movement is beginning.

LIFE ON ELEPHANT ISLAND DESCRIBED BY MEN OF SHACKLETON'S PARTY

Marooned in Antarctic Ocean, Men Were Able to Survive on What Food They Found on the Island.

By Courier Leased Wire.

London, Sept. 11.—Life on Elephant Island in the Antarctic, as was experienced by the marooned men of Lieut. Sir Ernest Shackleton's South Polar Expedition, who were recently rescued and taken to Chile, is described in a message received from Punta Arenas and published in the Daily Chronicle to-day. "The day began," says the description, "with breakfast, which consisted merely of Penguin, fried in blubber, with a drink of water. The morning's duties consisted in clearing away snow drifts and catching penguin. Lunch was served at one o'clock consisting of a biscuit with raw blubber. The afternoon was occupied with regular exercise over a track one hundred yards in length. "At five o'clock, when darkness fell, we had dinner consisting of penguin breast and beef tea. Lacking tobacco, the men smoked grass from the padding in their boots, while pipes were carved from birds' bones and wood. The members of the party took turns in reading aloud from the only available books, namely, the bible, an encyclopedia, Browning, Bacon's essays and Carlyle's French revolution. Saturday evening was always marked by a concert, the feature of which was banjo playing. A banjo was the only musical instrument in camp. "On one occasion there was a welcome addition to the diet when several undigested fish were found in the stomach of a seal and greatly enjoyed. These were the only fish caught during our stay. In August there was a change in the diet when limpets were gathered and sea weed was available as a vegetable. "We were in the midst of one of these limpet and sea weed lunches when the rescue boat was sighted. "When was the war over?" was the first question we asked.

By Courier Leased Wire.

The same reports say that Germany will open a new submarine campaign on October 1.

BORDEN BANDS

Every battalion at Camp Borden has a regimental band of its own. The tunes cover a wide extent of patriotic martial music. This great assemblage of bandsmen has been a great drain on the musical talent of and town in central and northern Ontario. This means that scores of new military bands have had to be organized all over the province, with a large proportion of the best bandsmen joining overseas units.

THE OBJECT

To Be Served by the Quebec Railway Bridge.

Quebec, Sept. 11.—The idea of a railway bridge across the St. Lawrence at Quebec, which will be carried out when the final span is placed in position to-day, originated as far back as 1853, when a New York engineer named Serrell made surveys, plans and estimates at the request of the city council of Quebec, for a suspension bridge, at or near the present site, estimated to cost about $3,000,000. Courage and capital were lacking to carry out the plan and the railway system of Canada was built on the south, instead of the north shore of the St. Lawrence, which eventually was bridged at Montreal, instead of Quebec. The project lay dormant until, in 1882, the late Mr. W. B. Egan, of Quebec, obtained a charter at Ottawa to build the Quebec bridge, on the new canal.

ITALIANS MAKE FURTHER GAINS

Captured Strong Austrian Position in Leno Valley, Trentino Front.

GAINS IN UPPER PERSIA.

Artillery Actions Occurred; Austrian Military Depots Destroyed.

By Courier Leased Wire.
Rome, Sept. 11.—via London.—Italian troops have captured a strong Austrian position in the Leno valley, on the Trentino front, the war office announced to-day. Ground was gained also in the Upper Posina Valley. The announcement follows:
"In the zone between Vallarza and the head of the Posina valley yesterday after artillery preparation which was hampered by thick mists, our infantry captured a strong detachment at the bottom of the Leno valley. Between Monte Spil and Monte Corio they completed capture of the trenches still left in the enemy's possession after the fighting of September 7. Progress also was made on the ground north of Monte Pasubio and on the northern slopes of Gorno Del Coston, in the Upper Posina Valley. On the remainder of the front there were only artillery actions.

IMPROVING
The condition of Very Rev. Dean Brady was reported from Hamilton to-day as being very much improved. "IT PAYS TO ADVERTISE."
When one of Cohen and Harris' successes is announced, the patrons of the theatre realize they can expect something worth while. The fact is perhaps the reason for the enthusiasm hereabout towards the coming of "It Pays to Advertise." Cohen and Harris' latest farce, hit which ran for one entire year at the George M. Cohan Theatre in New York. This farce is to-day like last year, country-wide famous for the laughter contained therein, and with the local presentation at the Grand Opera House next Wednesday evening, Sept. 20th, the management expects the bonafide capacity of this city.

SAVE THE CHILDREN.

Mothers who keep a box of Baby's Own Tablets in the house may feel that the lives of their little ones are reasonably safe during the hot weather. Stomach troubles, cholera infantum and diarrhoea carry off thousands of little ones every summer. In most cases because the mother does not have a safe medicine at hand to give promptly. Baby's Own Tablets cure these troubles, or if given occasionally to the well child will prevent their coming on. The Tablets are guaranteed by a government analyst to be absolutely harmless even to the newborn babe. They are especially good in summer because they regulate the bowels and keep the stomach sweet and pure. They are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

THE SITUATION

The war news on all fronts is satisfactory from the standpoint of the Allies—nothing yet of finality, of course, but all tending in that direction.

On the Somme front, the Huns in order to gain lost ground, have launched many counter-attacks of extreme ferocity. In addition, the British have entirely occupied the village of Ghinchi. This was the last fortified place remaining between the British front and the important railway centre of Comblies, which is now menaced from three sides and must soon fall. All the indications show that the enemy defence is commencing to crack in this region.

The Russians have forced the Austrians to evacuate Halicz, a Gallician city, and the gate to Lemberg, surrounded with forts, many of which the foe blew up before retreating. The troops of the Czar have also successfully come to the aid of the hard pressed Rumanians, and the combined forces have retaken Dobric and occupied five other towns.

On the Verdun front, the French on Saturday wrested from the foe a whole net work of trenches east of the village of Fleury.

It is estimated that since the commencement of the war, the German losses have been, killed 832,000; prisoners 165,000; missing 234,000; wounded 2,144,000. Total, 3,375,000. Many of the wounded return to the fighting, and it is estimated that 600,000 young men become available for fighting each year by reason of the natural increase of the population.

SECOND WAR LOAN

Upon the occasion of Canada's first war loan Sir Thomas White, Finance Minister requested $50,000,000. The terms were so attractive and the patriotic cause to be served to evidence that the call was answered by more than two dollars for each dollar asked.

The second appeal is for $100,000,000 and the loan is just as attractive in all its features as on the first occasion. Canada, right now, is in one of the most prosperous periods of her career, with work plentiful, wages on an improved basis and the banks reporting more deposits than ever.

The Dominion of Canada, itself, is the security back of this loan, and the rate of interest, about five and one-third per cent., is as attractive as it is absolutely safe.

Big financial concerns, managed by men who are keen to take every gilt edge class of investment, subscribed largely on the last occasion and will do so again on the second. Their lead can be safely followed by the small investor whose offerings are particularly desired.

No man or woman having money on hand need make any mistake about the fact that the chance offered is one of a lifetime, combining a paramount duty with handsome returns.

PLAYING WITH FIRE

It is refreshing to note that one prominent United States paper—the Buffalo Express—has made vigorous protest against the adoption by the U. S. Senate of proposed retaliatory measures, aimed against the Allies, but especially Great Britain. The reason is that the latter has put certain German-American firms on the black list, and has been searching mails. As a matter of fact, she has a perfect right to do both.

These are the things the President is authorized to do.

To withhold clearance from all vessels which discriminate against American shippers.

To withhold privileges from ships of such nations as withhold privileges accorded to other nations from American ships.

To use the army and navy, if necessary to prevent departure of offending vessels from United States ports.

To deny the use of the mails, express, telegraph, wireless, or cable facilities to citizens of nations which do not accord to Americans all facilities ties of commerce, including the unhampered traffic of mails.

The Express says that this is "playing with fire," and during the course of its criticisms says with fine scorn:

"It appears quite preposterous that a Senate which never raised its voice in any of the numerous cases when Americans were killed on the high seas and which has been equally silent and complacent over the killing of Americans and destruction of American property in Mexico should suddenly bristle into a warlike attitude over the blacklisting of certain firms, the refusal of certain shipments and the interference with mails and telegraphs as a consequence of the war policies of Great Britain and France. The situation is the more remarkable when it is remembered that the Americans who suffer from this interference with trade and with mails are mostly of the hyphenated variety whom President Wilson castigated in words so recently as last Saturday. Yet these retaliatory measures were evidently inspired by the administration."

The whole contemptible game, of course, is to truckle to the German vote. The nauseating spectacle thus presented is, that Uncle Sam has not only avoided his plain duty by keeping out of the war, but that both parties in connection with the approaching Presidential contest, are grovelling before the hyphenates.

Meanwhile, if our neighbors think they can get away with any such retaliation as that proposed, they are in for a rude and to them expensive awakening.

NOTES AND COMMENTS

Constantine has commenced to knuckle down to the Allies. Although King of Greece, he has been unable to prevent the fat from getting into the fire for himself and associates.

The work which the Irish soldiers have been doing on the Somme front is one more evidence of the fact that the men of the Emerald Isle always show the goods when it comes to fighting.

One of the sad features of the war has been some of the alleged poetry which it has inspired. Now it is announced that the Sultan has penned such an infusion over the withdrawal of the British from the Dardanelles. It will probably be of the harem scare variety.

CENTRAL SPAN OF THE QUEBEC BRIDGE COLLAPSED TO-DAY

Sept. 11.—The engineers in charge of the elevation thought that once the span was lifted from the pontoons the jacks would have held it until it reached the roof of the bridge above. An onlooking engineer said that apparently one corner gave way and the strain on span itself was too great because it appeared to break in the centre as well.

Quebec, Sept. 11.—A special train with a score of injured men from the bridge arrived here at twelve thirty, and are being taken to the various hospitals of the city.

Dead Set at 25.

A first estimate given by the St. Lawrence bridge company at noon to-day places the number of dead at twenty-five.

Exciting Scene

The collapse happened just at a moment when steamers were hooting loudly, acclaiming the progress being made. Several men, on the extreme height of the bridge, pigmies compared with the giant structure, were seen to be bowing and kneeling in prayer.

Some onlookers claimed two of these men overbalanced when the break occurred and fell into the river.

Dozens of women on ships and on shore shrieked and a number fainted when the break came. Since the adventure began this morning the onlookers were kept up to the highest pitch of excitement by the obvious danger of the enterprise.

Number Killed.

First reports of survivors gave the number of dead at 16 to 20.

The St. Lawrence Bridge Company, which was constructing the bridge, through its officials, promised a statement of the number killed as soon as it could obtain one by a roll call of the men on the span.

Witnesses of Disaster

L. S. O'Dell, Montreal, who was in a launch near the bridge, said the span buckled near the center. He thought the wreckage dropped on a launch passing underneath at the time.

H. P. Borden, a member of the Quebec bridge commission, gave it as his opinion that the loss of life would not be many.

Among those who were in the immediate vicinity of the bridge when the span collapsed, were Mr. M. L. Ernest Ouimet, Montreal, who was taking moving pictures of the work when the accident happened. He says:

"We were in a tug close to the central span, taking a motion picture of the work when I heard something like the snapping of a huge cord. I looked above and saw the south end of the span bend, then totter toward the south shore. Men were falling off the works like coal out of a van, and I also saw a group of men who were on the anchor span who were knocked off by the collapse.

Mr. McMillan, chief engineer, who was on the centre span when it fell, was brought to Quebec at noon today, badly injured. He was on the span and fell into the river, being rescued by a nearby tug.

So far, 27 men are reported lost. Five bodies have been recovered up to the present. The following are among the missing:

Cheopas Cadoret, Sylvain Demerr, Mike Regan, Paul Laroche, James White.

The above are said to be Indians of Caughnawaga, near Montreal. The following are known to have escaped:

Mr. Porter, engineer in charge; Mr. McMillan, chief engineer; Jas. Anderson, blacksmith; Alf. Cadoret, badly hurt; Arthur Cadoret, Edward Jordanals, 22, of Providence, is among the known dead. Last night before he left his boarding house, he said, with a grin:

"Say, boys, let's all join in a song. It may be the last one we will sing together in this burg."

Quebec, Sep. 11.—The stupendous, delicate and hazardous operation of hoisting into place the central span of the Quebec cantilever bridge, the largest in the world, which has been constructed over the St. Lawrence at a cost of $18,000,000 in order to shorten the railway journey from Halifax to Winnipeg and the Canadian West by 400 miles, was begun this morning. The bridge now approaching completion, stands at the site of the structure which collapsed on August 29, 1907, with a loss of seventy lives.

The central span, which weighs over 5,000 tons and is 640 feet long—these dimensions being equal to those of a good sized cargo steamer—has been constructed on pontoons at Sillery Cove, three miles east of the bridge site, and was towed into a position immediately under the gap left in the anchor arms of the structure by nine tugs. Chains with links thirty inches in diameter and girders were then attached to the span and work on pulling it into its place in the bridge by eight thousand ton hydraulic jacks was commenced. The elevation of the span will consume some time, as the jacks can raise the mass of steel at a few feet per hour, and the distance from the floor of the bridge upon which the hoisting apparatus rests and the water level is 150 feet. Once the span is in position, the jacks will be bolted to the girders that will sustain it and the engineers can then complete the bridge for use, work, it is estimated which will occupy them until next spring.

The placing of the span in its position, which virtually completes the basic construction work of the bridge marking as it will do, if carried out successfully, an important milestone in the engineering and railway history of Canada, and also the thrilling nature of the operation, which entails juggling with 5,000 tons of steel, under circumstances that are unprecedented, attracted to the scene several thousand spectators. The Dominion Government, through the railway department, which is responsible for the structure, had invited several hundred senators, members of parliament and journalists to witness the elevation, and provided ships for them. These ships were anchored in the river near the bridge site. The Earl Grey, attached to the marine department's fleet, was reserved for members of the Dominion cabinet and friends. The members of parliament were accommodated on the Rapids King of the Canada Steamship Line, which conveyed them down the River St. Lawrence from Montreal to Quebec by the regular Montreal to Quebec boat of the Canada Steamship Line was packed with Montrealers and tourists from Toronto and American points, and was anchored at a spot near the operations during the morning. In addition to the larger ships were many motor boats, yachts and row boats, while the banks on the river for a mile or so each way were crowded with spectators.

Among the most interested onlookers were two hundred members of the Society of Canadian Engineers

He was with the Watrous Engine Works Company in this city for thirty years and has for the last thirty five years been associated with their branch in St. Paul, or sixty five years in all. GREAT GOLF

Mr. Hastings Webbing has returned from Philadelphia where he was an interested spectator of the golf tournament for the United States amateur championship. He states that the win of Chick Evans, in the final was viewed by a tremendous gallery, and was most popular. For the last half of the match he played the royal and ancient game in masterly style. The boy Jones, who stayed in the fighting until the third round, Mr. Webbing describes as a marvel. He will not be fifteen until March next, but was as cool as a cucumber throughout, and experts who witnessed his marvellous powers predict that he bids fair to become the world's greatest golfer.

GEO. COCKSHUTT RETURNS HOME

Lieutenant of 19th Battalion to Go on Service in Canada.

Quietly and unnoticed by the majority of the city, Lt. George Cockshutt of the 19th Battalion, returned to Brantford on Friday of last week, after an absence of 23 months, of which time some eight months were spent at the front. Lt. Cockshutt left Brantford in October of 1914, with the active service quota of the Dufferin Rifles which became attached to the 19th Battalion of the second contingent. He is a son of W. F. Cockshutt, honorary colonel of the 125th Battalion. He has two brothers also on active service, Major or Ashton Cockshutt having returned once from the front, and being now in the 125th, while Lt. Eric Cockshutt is attached to the Divisional Ammunition Column at Peta-sawa artillery camp. Two cousins, Lt. Harvey Cockshutt and Capt. Gordon Cockshutt are also on active service, as is an uncle, Lt.-Col. Harry Cockshutt, of the 215th.

After serving some eight months in the trenches, Lt. Cockshutt, through ear trouble, was discharged from further service in France, and invalided home to Canada for medical treatment. He arrived some little time ago, but spent a few weeks in Muskoka before returning to his home here. He expects to be at Camp Borden for a commission in a very shortly.

Concerning matters at the front, Lt. Cockshutt prefers to remain reticent. "I have nothing to say," is his reply to all queries.

Music and Drama

"Her Own Way" the five part drama, playing at the Colonial on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday was written by Clyde Fitch and produced by Metro in their usual elaborate manner.

Miss Florence Reed, the versatile dramatic star, whose work in "The Yellow Ticket" and "A Celebrated Case," caused quite a stir along Broadway, and received much comment and praise from the press, is featured in this production.

"Her Own Way" throughout its five thousand feet, is bound to hold the most critical lover of pictures, by reason of its many strong situations and delightful interpretation.

POLICE COURT

Herbert Bingley, believed to be of London, appeared in the police court this morning to answer a charge of conversion preferred against him by the Darwin Music Company of this city. Bingley, who is a salesman, is said to have sold to the company an electric battery for $10, and after borrowing it again for demonstration purposes, failed to return it. He had, however, made restitution when he appeared before the bench this morning, and was ordered to pay $7.85 costs for the case, or spend one month in jail. It is believed that he will choose the latter alternative. It is stated by the police locally that Bingley is wanted by the authorities in London for a similar trick done there last spring. Wesley Turner, for carrying concealed weapons, this morning paid $10 and $2.85 costs. A half dozen drunks were also in evidence, each being mulcted to the extent of $3.

Evens Wins Golf Title of America

Was Winner in Both Open and Amateur Events This Year.

Philadelphia, Sept. 11.—The greatest honors in United States golf fell to Charles Evens, jun., of the Edgewater Club, of Chicago, when he defeated his fellow townsman, Robert A. Gardner, of the Hinsdale Club, 4 up and 3 to play in the final round of the national amateur championship tournament here yesterday.

Already the holder of the open championship, which he won at Minneapolis in June, he is the first player in either the United States or England to capture both national titles in the same year. Harold Hilton and John Ball, English amateurs, won both titles, but both in different seasons, while in this country Francis Ouimet and Jerome Travers won double honors, but at different times. As is usually the case in a contest where two experts meet for a stake of great honor, the match was a mixture of championship and mediocre golf, particularly in the forenoon round. After luncheon, the pair played a game which was little short of perfection, until Gardner cracked under the strain after the twenty-ninth hole, and from then on he had no chance.

Cardinals Lost Last Home Game

St. Louis .. 00000200—2 5 3

Football Teams are Expensive

The average football spectator has little idea of the equipment necessary for a big varsity football squad of forty men. Manager Lovett of the Penn eleven figured out that it cost approximately $255 per player before the kickoff occurs in the first game of the season.

Seven hundred pairs of shoes and stockings of the most expensive sort, sweaters, jerseys, molasses, to say nothing of several hundred footballs are required in equipping a big team. Add to that the expense of keeping several men busy all summer rolling the gridiron, raking it for small stones, rebedding it with fresh sod, and getting the field in general in first class condition for the opening. This upkeep continues throughout the entire football season, and if football players drew the salaries that the diamond stars in the big leagues receive there would be no college football.

Merlin Kopp to Join Red Sox?

(St. Thomas Times)
Merlin Kopp, outfielder of the Buffalo International League club, and formerly of the St. Thomas Canadian League team, spent Sunday with friends here. Merlin is pleased with the prospects of the Bisons winning the pennant this season, and expects to join the Boston Red Sox at the finish of the International League season. The speedy outfielder and base-runner says he has learned a heap of baseball under Manager Donovan, and believes he will be able to make the grade with the Carigran champions. Kopp is leading the league in stolen bases, and is clouting the pill around the .300 mark.

Two Stars Threw the Game Away

Chicago, Sept. 11.—Errors by Eddie Collins and Jack Ness cost Chicago second place yesterday, and enabled St. Louis to win the first game of the series five to two after ten innings. Ness' error paved the way for the first run in the second inning, but the tying run came in the seventh. Marsans singled, Hartley hit to Weaver, who threw to E. Collins, but Eddie fumbled the ball, and Marsans went to third and scored on Austin's sacrifice fly. The game went into extra innings, and Russell weakened in the tenth. Shotton walked and Miller singled. Sisle sent both home on his single, and went to second on the throw home. He counted from second on an infield out. Score:

St. Louis .. 0100001003—5 7 0
Chicago .. 0000110000—2 12 3

Plank and Ruttler, Hartley; Russell and Schalk.
Only two games scheduled.

Yanks Release Two Veterans

New York, Sept. 11.—To-day's game marked the last appearance with the Yankees of "Rube" Oldring and Germany Schaefer, the Yankee coach and comedian. Both were released to-night to make room for drafted players, as the drafting period begins to-morrow. They had to be let out so the club could keep within the player limit. This is Oldring's second retirement for the season, and he says he is now through with baseball. He was lured out of his first retirement by the Yankees when Baker and Gihooly were hurt. The club paid him in full for the season. Had the Yanks remained in the pennant race, it was said both men would have been retained to the close of the season.

Toronto Took Three Out of Four

Montreal, Sep. 11.—The Royals secured an even break with Toronto in Sunday's double-header at the National grounds, winning the first game by the score of 2 to 1, while the second went to the Leafs by 10 to 1. In the first game the locals were just as good as they were bad in the second.

Tight pitching by Fullenweider, backed up by good fielding, though erratic at times, gave Montreal a well-deserved victory in the opener. With Maiseil out of the game with an injured finger and Wagner away with a sore hand, the team is a sad looking one. Manager Dan Howley being obliged to play Pitcher Fullerton at short. The latter did his best and made several pretty stops and throws during the afternoon, but he also made several errors, which all helped in the loss of the second battle. Paul Smith with a homer in the ninth inning, decided what looked like being an extra inning pitchers' battle. Again the Leafs failed to get runs for Fred Herbert. The clout was the only swat made by the right fielder during the entire game, but it was greatly appreciated by local fans. The only Montrealer to cross the pan in the second game was also Paul Smith. He beat out a bunt to the pitcher, and went the rest of the distance on Slattery's double to centre. This was the only score the locals could do off Thompson, who pitched in good style. Colwell was

Manager Gets Team as a Gift

Lowell, Mass., Sept. 11.—The Lowell team of the Eastern League was presented to its manager, Jesse Burkett, the former major league star, by Owner Andrew F. Roach, after Roach had given formal notice that he had withdrawn the team from the league at the conclusion of the game at Worcester.

Burkett announced that he would try to finish out the regular season, which closes Sept. 16. It is understood he assumed the team free of indebtedness. Lowell is in ninth place in the ten-club circuit.

The "Rabbit" is Out of Game

Boston, Sept. 11.—"Rabbit" Maranville, star shortstop of the Boston Braves, has been forced to take a complete rest, and in all probability will be out of the game for the greater part of next week. For four days he has played every game, despite the fact that he had a broken nose, two eyes that were badly puffed and discolored so as to make clear sight impossible, and bearing great pain but he has now been forced to take things easy. It was reported that Tom Hughes, the "no hit" twirler of the Braves, will be out of the game for the balance of the season.

AGAIN IN ACTION

Canadians Believed to Have Been in Fighting Near Somme.

Gave Good Account of Themselves; Casualties Not Very Heavy Yet.

Ottawa, Sept. 11.—It is reported here that the Canadians have again been in action. This time on the Somme front, to which a large number of the troops from the Dominion were moved some time ago. No details of the engagement are available but the fighting appears to have taken place on Friday, when the British continued their advance, capturing a German trench and repelling a number of counter-attacks. The action does not seem to have been a heavy or serious one so far as the Canadian divisions were concerned.

Cables received in Toronto last night from France revealed the fact that Canadians have been taking part in the recent heavy fighting on the Somme, and had given a good account of themselves. The information given was very meagre, but it indicated there had been a few slight casualties. Capt. Maxton, son of Prof. Mayor, of Toronto University, was slightly wounded for the second time.

BRITISH LOSSES ARE 250,000

During Past Three Months Quarter of Million Men Were Killed.

London, Sept. 11.—From June 1 this year to date the British army and navy have lost more than 250,000 men. For June the casualties numbered approximately 30,000, during August 36,150 officers and men were reported killed or missing and 36,838 more wounded.

Representative Rodenberg, Republican, of Illinois, renewed his charge that Cleveland H. Dodge, of New York, a large contributor to the Wilson campaign fund in 1912, was interested in the sales of munitions to Mexico.

GINCHY IS TAKEN

And the Way is Now Clear to the Strategic Point of Comblès.

Notable British Success in the Somme is Reported To-day.

London, Sept. 11.—The village of Ginchy, the last remaining fortified place separating the British from the important German railway centre of Comblès, fell to the troops of Sir Douglas Haig.

Comblès is now under fire from three sides, by the British from the north-west and west, and by the French from the south-west. Its fall is now believed to be a matter of a few days. Winding up a week of incessant hammering of the German lines in the initial phases of which, last Sunday, part of Ginchy and the whole of Guillemont were taken by storm, the British Saturday attacked on a front of 6,000 yards, between High Wood and Leuze Wood. As a result, they completed the capture of Ginchy and took all of the ground between the village and Leuze Wood. Further, they pushed their lines forward 300 yards on a front of 500 yards east of High Wood.

Simultaneously, successfully crushing in the northern tip of the salient formed by the Somme drive, the British gained an additional 600 yards to the north-east of Pozieres. The headquarters statement issued last night tells of heavy casualties suffered by the Germans, particularly while massing for a counter-attack during the British action near Pozieres, the Tontons being caught by the British artillery fire.

THE "ELEPHANT" OF THE CLOUDS—CURIOUS FREAK OF FRENCH BALLOON. A French balloon making its descent took this shape in the air as the gas was escaping. It has all the appearance of an elephant. Picture was taken on the somme front.

DANGERS OF THE USE OF CHEVRONS

Officers' Badges Render Them Conspicuous to the Enemy.

One of the earliest lessons of the war was that of the danger to officers in allowing them to wear badges of their rank, gold cord around their coat sleeves, gold decorations on their headgear, which marked them out to the enemy's picked shots and resulted in unnecessary and avoidable losses among them. This lesson was learned, and now it has become so difficult at the front to identify an officer that a failure to salute is overlooked on this ground. There seems, however, a chance that this danger is being revived by the regulations making the wearing of chevrons obligatory. These chevrons are in the form of an inverted V and are worn on the right arm between the elbow and shoulder to denote that the wearer has been wounded, and on the left to show the length of time he has been at the front, one showing one year of active service, two for 18 months. They are worn in all sorts of material and colors, officers wearing them in gold and silver. When worn on leave or during convalescence their visibility is a good point, but at the front they draw upon their wearers the same danger that badges of rank formerly did.

"Meat Prices Will Not Come Down" is the cheerful news from the Department of Agriculture.

Meat prices will not worry the man or woman who knows that a Shredded Wheat Biscuit will supply more real body-building nutriment than beefsteak or eggs and at much less cost. Shredded Wheat remains the same price, the same high quality, supplying all the nutriment a man needs for a half-day's work. Two shredded wheat biscuits with peaches and cream or other fruits make a complete, nourishing meal at a cost of not over five cents.

NEWS FROM SIMCOE GREEK KING AND PREMIER CONFER

Inquest into the Death of a Chinaman—Decoration of Oakwood Cemetery. Demands of Allies Have Been Probably All Accepted.

Simcoe, Sept. 9.—(From our own correspondent)—The inquest into the death of Chu Lin Dick, who was found dead in an hotel here last week, was concluded here last evening under Dr. S. A. Richardson, coroner. The finding was that the Chinaman came to his death probably late Tuesday night after he was last seen entering the hotel by his own action in taking a quantity of dark colored liquid, obtained elsewhere and brought into the premises by himself, which liquid caused his death. The only new facts brought out developed from the evidence of Sam Yuan of Simcoe. He sold the Dover business to Dick in January for $490, of which $300 was paid in cash, an subsequently all but about $70 had been cleared up. Dick had a wife and daughter in China.

In the letter received from Dick by Yuan the day before, the former was last seen alive, detail of the whereabouts of Dick's money was given, and all was found as described. Some in a coat, more in a cap, coppers in the laundry and a little silver in his purse. Yuan was given custody of the bank books previously and did not understand why they were given him. On the Monday mentioned above, Dick offered him a drink of Chinese wine purchased at Brantford in July, for 60c. The bottle was still sealed and Yuan declined the treat. Two teaspoonsful, he stated would be enough for a man at once. A similar bottle empty, and with the labels all scraped off, was found outside the window of the dead man's room on a roof, by the proprietor of the hotel, after he had heard from Yuan, of the disappearance of this bottle. The morning after the sensation, we referred to a Chinese having been seen at the L. E. and N. depot with a bottle and being jollied by boys. There was no evidence of any foul play. Dick evidently was in business matters, most honorable, and confidential towards Yuan. In the letter he mentions also a man in Toronto, on Dundas street, who owes him $33. He mentioned mental trouble but did not disclose its nature.

Yuan took the oath on the Bible and ridiculed the plate breaking custom attributed to his country. He is a Christian and a member of St. Paul's church, and is locally considered an honorable citizen.

Russel A. Bauslaugh, one of a draft of fifty men from the 34th Fort Garry Horse, takes final leave of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. Bauslaugh here, this morning. Accompanied by his sister he will visit Brantford to-day and will presently leave for overseas. He arrived from Camp Hughes on Wednesday.

The official decorations at Oakwood cemetery were held yesterday afternoon, and although flowers are scarce, there was a profusion of decorations. The cemetery board held a meeting at the cemetery at four o'clock to arrange for the fencing and leveling off of promontories in the five acre addition acquired as a southern extension.

The first funeral in the cemetery was that of Nelson Dean, whose death took place on May 3rd, 1877, and though comparatively a new cemetery, Oakwood is beginning to wear the aspect of antiquity.

Prominent among the memorials erected stands that over from the Trinity extension in the cemetery.

John Irving of London was in Simcoe yesterday attending the funeral of the late Roland S. Boyd, his one-time running mate on the Woodstock line.

GREEK KING AND PREMIER CONFER

Demands of Allies Have Been Probably All Accepted.

London, Sept. 11.—A Reuter's Athens despatch says that Premier Zehou had another lengthy conference with King Constantine on Sunday afternoon, after which the cabinet met.

In regard to the shots fired in the neighborhood of the French legation, the despatch says that the allies' demands have apparently been fully accepted although nothing has been officially announced. The closing of the clubs of the Reservists' League, a step demanded by the Entente, was begun Sunday evening.

At the top of the grade stand the memorials of men whose names and memories are still green. Robert T. Livingstone, judge of the county court of Norfolk; Augustine James Donly, sometime registrar of Norfolk; Col. Tisdale, and along the way as their praises were still proclaimed, for in life we knew them not, we heard of William Wallace, Jackson, Gould, Ansley, Beaupre and others.

At the rear is the completed Colver-Mabee tomb, which was under construction last year on a decoration day. It is the most elaborate resting place in the cemetery, and with its light grey granite exterior, its marble niches, grate door, stained windows and mosaic floor, effectively almost vanishes the thought of death.

Abigail Becker To the west of it, right on the edge of the ravine, on the Rehers family modest stone is the name of Norfolk's heroine. The letters are not at all conspicuous, but we read the inscription: Abigail Becker, wife of Henry Rohrer, born in Frontenac Co., Ont., March 14, 1831, died March 21st, 1905. The heroine of Long Point. Since she is proud of her noble death. We might add Jas. J. Wadsworth, inspector of schools, 1871-1905, born 1841, died 1905, who lies near the Becker grave, and Duncan Campbell, 1802-1892, and Major Jno. W. Ryerson, born 1844, drowned near Long Point, 1891, and many others now passing into history. Rain the previous evening gave the grounds a fresh appearance. The weather was ideal and many were out. The date for the Oddfellows decoration has not yet been announced. Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Haskett, of Columbus, Ohio, who motored over some two weeks ago to visit the former's parents, will cross the line next week.

Music and Drama

THE BOHEMIAN GIRL Celebrated singers, ballads that will live forever and gorgeous scenery are among the promises made in connection with the coming engagement of "The Bohemian Girl" which will shortly be presented by the famous Aborn Opera Company, Commencing at the Grand Opera House in September.

AT THE BRANT As the central figure in a most absorbing domestic drama, Blanche Sweet in "The Dupe," is seen in a role in which her extraordinary histrionic abilities are presented to the best advantage. "The Dupe" is a story of a young country girl who comes to New York seeking a position and is engaged as secretary to Mrs. Strong, a wealthy society woman. Mrs. Strong is involved in a love affair with a young millionaire, Jimmy Regan, who has flirted with her merely as a pastime. She, however, believing he is in love with her, is anxious to secure a divorce from her husband but can find no cause. Jimmy meets the young secretary and attracted by her sweet simple manner falls in love with her. He feels that he must have an understanding with Mrs. Strong before he asks Ethel to marry him. Mrs. Strong gives an entertainment and Ethel who is anxious to look her prettiest before Jimmy and whose simple clothes are old-fashioned, takes money belonging to Mrs. Strong to buy a new dress. The theft is discovered. The girl begs Mrs. Strong not to disgrace her and promises to work until she pays back the money. The thought flashes through Mrs. Strong's mind that this girl can be used to help her get a divorce and promises not to publicly disgrace her if she will help her by permitting herself to be found dining alone with Mr. Strong. The events following form an exciting climax to this interesting story. At the Brant, Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday this week.

POSED AS A MAN TILL CALLED FOR WAR SERVICE.

The English woman carrying the bag is the wife of a deserter from the army, who posed as a man and worked in a factory until a call was made of all the men for war service, when her identity became known. She lived with her sister, also shown in the picture as her husband, her sister being a widow.

REV. DR FITCH OF BUFFALO, HERE

Preached Two Inspiring Sermons at Congregational Church Sunday.

The pulpit of the Congregational Church, to the pastorate of which the Rev. Mr. J. W. Thompson of Niagara Falls was inducted on Friday evening last, was occupied at both morning and evening services yesterday by Rev. Dr. Frank S. Fitch, pastor emeritus of the Congregational Church in Buffalo, N.Y., who delivered two eloquent addresses helpful to all. Large congregations were in attendance at both services.

Taking his text from the epistle of Paul to the Philippians, II., 12-13, Rev. Dr. Fitch in the morning delivered an inspiring address upon the subject of "Preparedness," a topic so much in the view of everyone at the present time. After paying high tribute to the merits and ability of Rev. Mr. Thompson, the new pastor of the church, and extending best wishes for the success of the latter in his new sphere, the speaker went on to tell of the period of reconstruction and development which will follow the present war, when the earth would be, as it were, born anew. Dr. Fitch held of seeing in Europe today the armor used by warriors in the mediaeval ages, and now treasured as relics of a by-gone age, voicing the hope that it might not be long ere the implements of modern warfare might be so regarded. Dr. Fitch also expressed a hope for a federation of the English speaking people of the world, to follow the war, a federation which should be so strong that none should oppress it, so just that none should oppress others, and so mindful of others that the gospel of Christ might be spread to all corners of the world.

QUITTING VARNA

Bulgars Evacuate Principal Port on Black Sea.

Russians Fight With Renewed Vigor in Transylvania.

London, Sept. 11.—The Bulgarians are evacuating Varna, the principal port on the Black Sea, according to a semi-official news agency despatch from Odessa.

London, Sept. 11.—The Russian drive in the Dobruja is in full swing. Swinging forward with the Roumanians yesterday, the Czar's troops won back Dobric, ten miles from the Bulgarian border, and Dobasei. In the fierce battle that is still in progress they are fighting to clear Czar Ferdinand's troops from the holds they have won on the Roumanian Black Sea coast.

With the Danube line protected by the Russian thrust, the Roumanians have put new vigor into the campaign in Transylvania. Olah Toplitz, twenty-five miles inside the border, and five other towns in Transylvania were wrested from the Austrians. The territory lying between the Roumanian line and the mountains skirting the Hungarian border is being conquered rapidly.

Take Carpathian Heights
The Russians are ready to join in this campaign. They have taken another series of Carpathian heights, winning a hold on the ridges guarding the Rodna pass leading into Hungary proper. Berlin admits this retreat. This move aims to flank the second Austrian line behind the mountains on the Hungarian border.

A furious battle is developing along the whole seventy mile front in the Dobruja, from the Danube where the Bulgars have won Turtukal, to the Black Sea, where Czar Ferdinand's troops held three ports. The Russians have wrested the offensive from the Bulgars and are striking heavy blows along the wide line.

Urban Shocker shut out the Athletics Saturday, 4 to 0, allowing five hits. He was pitched against Bush and Nabors, two of Connie Mack's best pitchers.

Senators Weeks and Oliver urged Republican campaign managers to make an issue of the eight-hour law, declaring that the public is violently opposed to the measure.

LONG EXPECTED SALONIKI IS NOW

Position of Cent Much Weakened by Advance of Kavala

By Courier Leased Wire.
London, Sept. 12.—(New York Times)—The news from southern Europe was generally accepted in London last night, indicating that the long expected offensive from Saloniki really had begun.

Bulgarian Front Extended.
British students of the war, without pretending to be in the rets of the allied strategy, had obtained sources of information open to them, rubbed their hands as Joffre reported to have done when Falkenhayn, for the sake of the German Crown Prince, began the attack Verdun. The Bulgarian advance Kavala was regarded as an extension of the front which weakened the Central powers on the Dobruja front, without sensibly improving their political situation, and the prospect, similarly, of the German-Bulgarian advance on Dobruja, welcomed as another error on the part of the German general staff which was looking to the immediate Westing European front rather than to the decisive future.

CELEBRATE THE BATTLE OF MARNE

Second Anniversary of Great Fight Which Saved Paris from the Foe.

VON KLUCK TURNED BACK Later Developments Show that He Acted Wisely.

By Courier Leased Wire.
Paris, Sept. 12.—(New York Times)—Newspapermen, who, under the direction of an officer of the headquarters, visited the Marne battlefield yesterday, in connection with the celebration of the anniversary, viewed the scene with the tide of victory really turned.

Scene of Much Fighting
Part of the ground visited that occupied by the troops of the Ninth army, under General Foch, extending through Fere Chamoise to Chateau Mondement, which, after it had been taken retaken four times, Foch carried brilliant strategy, which not only flanked Von Bulow's army, but the German guard into the hands of St. Gond, but also drove a wedge between the forces of Von Bulow and Von Klausem, which compelled a German retreat along their line.

Only Alternative
The idea has always prevailed near to Paris, under General Foch, blunder in turning southeast marching across the British lines leaving his flank exposed. Manoury. Later understanding what had happened, makes it clear that Von Kluck did the only thing he could do, and that had he kept towards Paris he would have been met by Desperes's fifth French to enter and thus break the German line.

The number of Germans opposed the various French armies was as follows:

The Forces
Von Kluck had only five Manoury, Desperes and the reinforced later by a third of the French, aged five picked corps of Germany, into the Guard.

The headquarters officers indicated that while every general in the line contributed largely to the battle of the Marne, Foch, who, with interior force, brilliant strategy and refusal to know a suspension of the German advance, was the man who had won the battle of the Marne.
