TO UTILIZE THE WATERS OF THE GRAND RIVER

A Convention Takes Place in Galt at Which Brantford is Represented-- Important Objects Which Could be Attained

A plan for the development of what is known as the Metropolitan district, embracing all the territory between Kitchener and Hamilton, was outlined in Galt yesterday afternoon to a convention of Board of Trade representatives from Brantford, Kitchener, Fergus and Galt by Naulon Cauchon, an engineer of the Irrigation Section of the Department of Interior. He explained that his plan for utilizing the waters of the Grand River would attain three very important objects: the prevention of floods by the conservation of the water in storage dams, the irrigation of a hundred square miles, and the production of thousands of horse-power of electric energy by the use of the water.

Two vital necessities of the present time, he said, are greater production of foodstuffs and power. Irrigation would increase the agricultural yield, conservation of the flood flow would provide the means of developing power, and incidentally the flood menace would disappear.

He presented the scheme as one economically and practically sound, and it met with such favor that on the motion of Joseph Ham, M.P.P. of Brantford, seconded by D. B. Detweiler of Kitchener, the Galt Board of Trade was authorized to prepare a resolution setting forth the desirability of the scheme, to be sent to the Hydro Electric Power Commission and the Minister of Interior.

Convention on Wood Supply Called-- D. B. Detweiler spoke of the necessity of augmenting the fuel supply next year with wood, as being provided for in New York State, and it was decided to call a convention in Galt of representatives of neighboring towns and cities on Monday to further discuss the question.

The Austrian Premier and Cabinet Resign

By Courier Leased Wire.
Amsterdam, Feb. 8.—Dr. von Zeydler, the Austrian Premier, has tendered the resignation of his entire cabinet to Emperor Charles, according to a despatch from Vienna.

The resignation of the von Zeydler cabinet, it is understood in parliamentary circles in Vienna, is due to the opposition of Polish deputies against special debates and the provisional budget. The opposition of the deputies makes a majority for the budget doubtful.

President Gross of the lower house, announcing the resignation, said that according to the constitution it was necessary to postpone temporarily the sittings of the house.

The cabinet of Dr. von Zeydler, which was formed last June, was reported to have resigned during the recent labor crisis in Austria-Hungary. This report, however, was not confirmed.

Dr. von Zeydler was able to bring about the cessation of the strike by informing labor delegations on January 20 that it was the wish of the Austrian emperor to end the war at the earliest possible moment by an honorable peace. Other members of his government promised labor and military reforms after which the labor leaders ordered their followers to return to work. This practically ended the strike in Vienna.

A LARGE MASS OF SWIRLING WRECKAGE

Marks the Grave of the Tuscania-- One Report Says That the Attacking Submarine Was Afterwards Sunk

By Courier Leased Wire.
An Irish Port, Feb. 8.—A mass of swirling wreckage on the calm neck of the sea along the Irish coast marks the grave of the Tuscania, the first American troop transport sunk by a German submarine. A few bodies of the one hundred men who perished, have been washed ashore and some of the injured now in hospital are expected to succumb. The survivors, numbering 2,296, are quartered in hotels, homes and hospitals along the north Irish coast.

The Captain
London, Feb. 8.—The captain of the Tuscania was Peter McLean, not J. L. Henderson, "The Times" says. Captain McLean last month was awarded the order of the British Empire on the recommendation of the Board of Trade. He has been in the service of the Anchor Line for 20 years and during the war has carried many cargoes of munitions and food stuffs safely through the danger zone.

Destroyed?
Londonderry, Ireland, Feb. 7.—(Tuscania)—The submarine which torpedoed the Tuscania was attacked by a destroyer. An American gave an intimation that the submarine was destroyed.

A Stimulant
London, Feb. 8.—That the sinking of the liner Tuscania will stimulate the United States to even greater resolve and sterner efforts on behalf of the fight for democracy, is the opinion generally expressed in editorial comment in the morning newspapers. Satisfaction is expressed that this, the first disaster to many American transports showed the emptiness of the German boast that the submarines would render the transportation of the American armies impossible and would intimidate the Americans. Nevertheless, it is declared, it is too much to hope that the Tuscania will be the last victim of the imperative necessity of keeping the Atlantic route open. The Daily Telegraph says:

"The Americans have defied the pirates all these months and we are convinced that the sorrow and anger which the loss of life on the Tuscania will occasion will only steel the hearts of the people to persevere and deepen their resolve. There is nothing in the incident to occasion alarm, but it constitutes a warning to us and the Americans to concentrate on the defense of the Atlantic."

"A thousand men will step forward to fill the gap left vacant by each of the dead," says The Daily Mail. "Americans are looking the task straight in the face and dangers and difficulties, even disaster will only serve to stimulate and steady them."

The Daily Express declares that the U-boat that sank the Tuscania did a bad day's work for Germany. It adds:

"America will shed proud tears, then her heart will harden. 'Remember the Tuscania' will be irresistible call to the colors. It will also be the battle cry of victory."

The Times after expressing, like the other newspapers sympathy for the American army and those personally bereaved says:

"They have died as millions of their countrymen are ready to die as tens of thousands must die in the struggle before victory is won and the war aims of America accomplished. The spirit of the American people was already high and will be higher yet as they mourn their heroes who sleep forever beneath the waves of the Atlantic, and this tribute of precious lives will stimulate them to heightened effort, as nothing else could do."

The Daily Chronicle's editorial is devoted wholly to a serious view of the submarine campaign. It advises the statesmen who are inclined to make optimistic statements regarding the submarine, to keep their lips closed, and says that the declaration among the heaviest ever known,

TURKEY IS IN COMPLETE ACCORD

With the Attitude of Germany and Austria

By Courier Leased Wire.
Amsterdam, Feb. 8.—Turkey is in complete accord with the attitude of Germany and Austria as expressed in the recent speeches of the German chancellor, Count von Hertling, and the Austrian foreign minister, Count Czernin. The Turkish foreign minister, Nessimy Bey, told the Chamber of Deputies yesterday. He also declared:

"The Dardanelles will remain open in the future to international traffic as in the past and on the same conditions."

In his address as forwarded from Constantinople by way of Vienna, the foreign minister said great difficulties had arisen in connection with the peace negotiations at Brest-Litovsk, but that he had not lost hope. While he was aware of the great desirability of reaching peace, he said, "we never will conclude a peace at any price."

Referring to the war aims speech of President Wilson and Premier Lloyd George, Nessimy Bey said:

"We adhere to the attitude which was not independent before the war cannot be regulated except by means of institutions created in accordance with the constitutions of each individual country."

The foreign minister said he rejected all proposals which meant interference in the internal affairs of the country and concluded his address with the declaration that he was in complete accord with the German and Austrian policies.

In his address to Congress in reply to which the speech of the Turkish Foreign Minister was made, President Wilson said the Turkish Empire should be assured a secure sovereignty, but the other nationalities now under Turkish rule should have unimpaired opportunity of autonomous development. He also said the Dardanelles should be opened permanently as a free passage to the ships and commerce of all nations, under international guarantees.

FRENCH NEWSPAPER

Calls For the Boycott of Ontario

By Courier Leased Wire.
Montreal, Feb. 8.—Le Franc Patriote, a French weekly of this city, in the most noisy, the people are in need of waking up, and to be able to do anything we must use the best means at our disposal, which is the boycott."

"Indeed this is the most formidable cry which we could throw into the face of fanatical Ontario, for they already feel the contractions of their pockets and commercial and industrial Ontario is becoming uneasy. The fanatics are not in the majority, but they are the most noisy. The people are in need of waking up, and to be able to do anything we must use the best means at our disposal, which is the boycott."

Fresh Outbreaks of Rioting in Petrograd

By Courier Leased Wire.
London, Feb. 8.—Fresh outbreaks of rioting and looting in Petrograd are chronicled in special despatches from the Russian capital. Wine cellars, jewelry shops and drug stores are being plundered.

Troops employed to suppress the disturbances did much shooting, in which it is estimated that 120 persons were killed. By firing on the mobs the soldiers have been able to quell the rioters at intervals during the last three days and nights, but the orgy begins again elsewhere.

Fighting between the Bolsheviki and the Cossacks is said to be increasing in the south and southeast of Russia, where the Cossacks are joining the Bolsheviki in increasing numbers. Generals Kaledines and Alexieff are reported to have quarrelled and General Kaledines has disappeared from Cossack headquarters at Novo Tcherkask. General Alexieff is acting independently and is said to be in command of 30,000 men who are marching northward.

An Exchange Telegraph despatch from Amsterdam says that the German newspapers report the death of former Grand Duke Nicholas. He died very suddenly and under mysterious circumstances. This is not confirmed from Russian sources, which last reported Nicholas Nicholisvitch as residing at Yalta, in the Crimea.

WEATHER BULLETIN

Toronto, Feb. 8.—Cold weather prevails from Ontario to the Maritime provinces in the west the temperatures have been moderate with light snow in Manitoba and Saskatchewan. An important storm over Kansas is likely to move toward the Great Lakes.

Forecasts
Fresh southerly winds, with snow turning to sleet or rain in some localities to-night and Saturday rising temperature.

ALLIED MISSION EXPULLED FROM RUSS CAPITAL?

By Courier Leased Wire.
Washington, Dec. 8.—An unconfirmed report that the allied mission at Petrograd had been driven out by the Bolsheviki Government and are on their way to the Swedish border, was received to-day at the state department through American Minister Morris at Stockholm.

The Department has not heard from Minister Francis at Petrograd since February 2. State department officials were unprepared to believe that the American ambassador was leaving Petrograd because his last despatch contained nothing to indicate that the anticipated going. It is considered possible, however, that expulsion might also include a refusal to permit the diplomats communication with their governments.

Minister Morris at Stockholm also reported that two trains from Petrograd had arrived there, one bringing the expelled Roumanian legation.

He also reported the capture of Torna by the White Guard. It was assumed that the minister's information regarding the reported expulsion of diplomats from Petrograd was received from passengers on these trains. Recently Ambassador Francis received threats from a group of anarchists to hold him responsible for the fate of Alexander

SILENCE CONTINUES

By Courier Leased Wire.
London, Feb. 8.—Silence concerning the negotiations at Brest-Litovsk continues, except for unconfirmed rumors in the German newspapers. It is reported without explanation, that a deputation of Russian troops from the Bukovina front is on its way to Brest-Litovsk.

A Copenhagen despatch to the Exchange Telegraph Company quoted a message from Sofia, Bulgaria, as saying that a newspaper there has announced that Roumanian revolutionists have seized ships in the harbor of Kilia and proclaimed a new republic in the estuary of the Danube. The Roumanian information bureau at Stockholm has received a report from the Ukrainian delegation at Brest-Litovsk that the Ukrainians have won a great victory over the Bolsheviki, taking 250 machine guns and 200,000 rifles. It adds that a Bolsheviki attempt to capture Kiev failed, the Bolsheviki losing 3,000 men.

Berkman and Emma Goldman, sentenced to prison for conspiring against the draft law. There appeared to be no reason for believing that the Petrograd Government was a party to the threat. Recently also the foreign office refused to permit diplomats to draw upon funds in Petrograd banks.

THREE-DAY FACTORY CLOSING ORDER

Does Not Apply Except for This Saturday to Monday
Despite the fact that much has been written and published regarding the three-day closing order of the Fuel Controller, many people regard the order as a continuous one, and persist in asserting that the factories and stores will be closed every Saturday and Monday for weeks to come. This is absolutely incorrect. The order-in-council is explicit and states that the days of closing shall be February 9, 10 and 11. No further announcement has been made regarding days of closing nor is it at all likely that another such order will be made.

BARBER SHOPS

Will Have to Close Saturday and Monday
Druggists Can Sell Drugs Only
By Courier Leased Wire.
Ottawa, Feb. 8.—Barber shops will have to close Saturday and Monday according to a ruling obtained from the food controller's office yesterday. Ottawa, Feb. 8.—Some misconception appears to have arisen in respect to the position of drug stores during the headless days. Drug stores it was stated at the fuel controller's office to-day may remain open on headless days for the sale of drugs only. They may not sell such goods as tobacco, etc. Were drug stores permitted to sell other than such essentials as drugs, it is claimed, they would be given undue preference as compared with other stores.

CALLS FOR HELPS

By Courier Leased Wire.
An Atlantic Port, Feb. 7.—Calls for help from a steamer in distress off the Newfoundland coast were picked up by another ship to-day and relayed to Government stations. The nature of the vessel's trouble was not revealed by the authorities.

United States Troops Keeping up a Harrassing Fire on Enemy Lines

With the American Army in France, Feb. 7.—(By the Associated Press)—The American artillery is keeping up a harrassing fire on the German lines, bombarding batteries, trenches, cross-roads, dugouts, light railways and houses in which enemy troops are billeted. Evidently the American tactics angered the German shelling of our batteries with 77's, the firing stopping only when the American heavy guns silenced the German artillery.

Early to-day observers saw a body of enemy infantry, estimated at two battalions, near forest in heavy fire was directed on the spot, scattering the Germans. It is felt certain that the enemy sustained numerous casualties. Later American shells started a fire in a German town, which burned for an hour.

Patrols have been active. An American patrol last night quietly entered a German trench. They found a loaded rifle on the parapet and fresh footprints, but no soldiers.

THE MERCHANTS CORNER

Richard J. Reynolds, of Winston-Salem, N.C., now president and active director of one of the world's largest tobacco industries, tells that in his boyhood days he was a tobacco factory laborer—when, with a little money he managed to save, he started a small plant of his own. He devoted part of his revenue from his sales to advertising. His first big investment in publicity was made in 1884 when he devoted $4,000 to advertising—that year his output grew by 200,000 pounds, and his business doubled. From that period to the present the R. J. Reynolds Co. has surged forward until it is to-day one of the biggest of its kind in the world, and its advertising account among the heaviest ever known.

In almost every neighborhood in America are women who have tried this standard remedy for female ills and know its worth.

Athol, Mass.—"Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done me a world of good. I suffered from a weakness and a great deal of pain every month and nothing brought me any relief until I tried this famous medicine. I am a different woman since I took it and want others who suffer to know about it."

San Francisco, Cal.—"I was in a very weak nervous condition, having suffered terribly from a female trouble for over five years. I had taken all kinds of medicine and had many different doctors and they all said I would have to be operated on, but Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound cured me entirely and now I am a strong well woman."

For special advice in regard to such ailments write Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass. The result of my many years experience is at your service.

AIRMEN AND INFANTRY

(By Lieut. F. J. Sleath)

The air is trembling with the windblasts of shell bursts and the discharge of heavy pieces. The pungent fumes of burnt explosive pricks the eyes and noses of men well beyond the zone of conflict.

The Germans are trying to recover a portion of the Hindenburg defences lost by them after their retreat from the Somme, pushing with a weight of guns and men which is bound to result in some local gain of ground.

The German masses have already moved across the No Man's Land into the battered earthworks that once formed the British firing line. Other masses are moving up in support, and already the nearest shell-holes are heaving and boiling over with the restless heads and shoulders of men about to renew the advance.

The fire from the Germans increases, until the air is alive with their bullets. It is the concentrated effort which always precedes the rush to close quarters. The blue-grey figures are already beginning to appear above the shell-holes, their loose flapping uniforms and hideous masks giving them the appearance of demons being vomited up from Avernus.

Fifty feet from the ground it flattens out and speeds along the air, dropping its bombs among the bewildered Germans. Whizzing swiftly at the flank of attack, it comes skimming back like a swallow charging a gnat swarm. Its machine guns enfilading the advancing foe and driving them back to their burrows.

OPERATIONS OF FORESTRY CORPS

Ottawa, Feb. 8.—A militia department report on the operations of the Canadian forestry corps in France for the month of December says: "The companies are all considerably under strength owing to the difficulty in getting reinforcements."

The corps was engaged in the production of sawn lumber to be used in the construction of huts for the British, French and American armies. The work of producing fuel wood for the men in the forward areas was also undertaken by the forestry corps, and their co-operation added not a little to the comfort of the troops.

During the month the good work of the officers and men of the Canadian forestry corps operating in the French army area was recognized by the bestowal upon five officers, one sergeant and two privates of the Croix et Guerre for devotion to duty and bravery under fire. Two officers were awarded the D. S. O., by Sir Douglas Haig, while seven other officers, one N. C. O., one man were mentioned in despatches.

GAS SUPPLY OFF FOR FACTORIES

Toronto, Feb. 8.—Important action was taken by the Ontario Railway and Municipal Board yesterday afternoon to relieve the serious situation caused by the gas famine in Chatham, Wallaceburg and district. Following a private conference with the Mayor and other prominent citizens of Chatham and Wallaceburg, representatives of the Union Natural Gas Company, the Railway Board decided to base an order on a tentative arrangement for ten days whereby manufacturers and other large commercial users of gas will be cut off from the supply of natural gas for a period of ten days, starting forthwith, pending investigation by the board and the securing of data with respect to the amount of gas used by householders and manufacturers.

It is also understood that the important question of securing a reserve supply of gas for the homes of the people will be gone into, the method proposed being that of giving the gas wells a comparative "rest." Among those present at the conference were: Mayor C. E. Clements, ex-Mayor Anderson, President of the Board of Trade, City Collector Lewis, Alderman Ross, Huff, Mr. Houson, manager of the Dominion Sugar Company; T. B. Dundas, Dominion Glass Works, both of Wallaceburg; Matthew Wilson, K. C., J. Fraser, K. C.; Eugene Coste, head of the Union Gas Company; J. R. L. Starr, K. C., counsel for the gas company.

THE COURIER
Published by The Brantford Courier Limited, every afternoon, at Dalhousie Street, Brantford, Ontario.

THE SITUATION
It is reported from the Western front that the Germans are massing at three points, south east of Antwerp, in the Metz district and in Upper Alsace.

The list of victims owing to the torpedoing of the Transpor: Tunisia, has now been reduced to a little over a hundred, a fact which demonstrates that the help of British ships must have been very promptly given.

The resignation of the Austrian Ministry affords still one more indication of the troublous times which now exist in the dual monarchy.

The announcement comes from Australia that a ship building program has been decided upon. It is certainly an unfortunate condition of affairs that a large surplus grain yield is not available for the allies, because of the lack of bottoms.

NO ONTARIO ELECTION.
The fact that this Province is to be free from an election contest during the remainder of the war will be welcome news to all save those who are always spoiling for such fights.

The Dominion contest proved a good thing because it enabled matters to be placed on a union basis, but there is no such need with regard to Provincial affairs.

MEANWHILE it is to be sincerely hoped that radical steps will be inaugurated in the matter of fuel supply, production and in other directions which the war has made so abundantly necessary.

THE ORIGIN OF BLIZZARD.
Canadians this winter have had a lively exemplification of what a blizzard means in its physical aspects and what it can do.

THE LONDON (England) Daily News has been speculating on the origin of the term and reaches this conclusion:
"Blizzard is undoubtedly a word of American origin, but it is much older than suggested."

THE above is certainly far fetched. As to the unpleasantness of the person of the alleged Mr. Blizzard that yarn sounds very much like a story told by the elder D'Israeli, in his "Curiosities of Literature."

Under the circumstances all that a proposed visitor to the head of the order had to do was to get a mile or so to windward of his abode and the fact could be readily ascertained as to whether or no he was at home.

Whatever the percentage the undoubted fact remains that when a husky blizzard starts a blizzing the rest of us have to stand around and take due notice.

QUBEC TO GO DRY.
The unexpected has happened with regard to the fact that following the example of the other Provinces, Quebec will also ban the liquor traffic.

The movement in all directions is nominally for the period of the war, but that the change has come to stay no one can doubt who is at all conversant with the trend of the times.

It is safe to affirm that the open bar has at last become a thing of the past and that drinking in households is also doomed.

MRS. EDWARD WADDINGTON
The funeral of Mrs. Edward Waddington took place Thursday afternoon from her late residence, 26 Grand street at 2 o'clock. The services were conducted by her pastor, Rev. J. W. Gordon of St. Andrews church.

Some three weeks ago a fur overcoat was stolen from the New Royal Hotel and was found last week at Aylmer. It seems that the man who stole the coat was named Roberts, who gave it to a man named Rusling.

Shareholders of Penman's Limited are looking forward with considerable interest to the forthcoming financial statement for 1917, as it is expected that the showing will equal, if not exceed, the record showing of the preceding year.

INCIDENTALLY, the question of an increased dividend rate is giving the shareholders cause for considerable thought. In view of the large earnings in 1917 the profits amounted to 31 per cent., and it might be added that since 1910 only twice have they gone under 10 per cent., and very slightly at that, while in 1915 they ran as high as 27 per cent.

On the motion of the Rev. C. E. Jeakins, the board went into committee of the whole on the estimates for the year. A financial statement submitted by A. K. Bunnell, secretary-treasurer, fixed a minimum of $138,400, an increase of $10,330 over the 1917 estimates.

The teachers of the public schools made application for a war bonus. After some little discussion, the maximum salary for assistant teachers was increased from $850 to $900. Principals will receive a bonus of $50. This will involve an increase of probably $500 on the treasurer's financial statement.

THE enrollment at the Collegiate during January was 501, with an attendance of 93 per cent. Inspector Kilmer's report showed attendance at the public schools of the city during December and January to be as follows:

BOARD OF EDUCATION MUST INCREASE APPROPRIATION
Tentative Estimates Submitted by Treasurer at Meeting Last Night-- Teachers' Maximum Salaries Increased; Bonus For Principals

Tentative estimates submitted to the board of education by A. K. Bunnell, secretary-treasurer, last night, showed necessity for a minimum appropriation of $118,400 from the city for the year 1918. This is an increase of $10,330 over the appropriation for 1917. The estimates will be gone over by the management committee, before final submission to the city council.

The maximum salary for assistant teachers was increased from $850 to $900, and school principals were granted a bonus of $50. The board promised co-operation with the teacher's union officials in connection with next week's campaign. Goal which arrived in the city yesterday saved Alexandra school from closing down to-day, and will alleviate the shortage for a few days. The schools will not close on the governmental holiday days (except Saturday and Sunday). Schools are exempted from closing, but the Rev. C. E. Jeakins made the suggestion that the board obey the spirit of the law by closing, which he considered would have a moral effect upon others affected. The proposal was not adopted.

In the absence of J. W. Shepperd, chairman of the board, who is out of the city, the chair was occupied by W. Lahey, vice chairman. Geo. Steenbaugh and Simon Hill, janitors, wrote requesting increases in salary. L. Hartford wrote tendering his resignation from the post of drill teacher at the Collegiate Institute. He gave a month's notice, but was informed that he could not leave before April 1.

W. H. Lane was appointed to the technical advisory committee in place of I. S. Armstrong, the board expressing regret at the refusal of the latter to accept the post offered him. Patriotic Fund. H. T. Watt addressed the board in connection with the Patriotic Fund campaign next week, asking co-operation in educating the school children of the city to the needs of the fund. It was proposed to give to every pupil, contributing any sum from a cent upward, a small Valentine as a souvenir.

Mr. M. D. Williams of Toronto substantiated the remarks of Mr. Watt, explaining that it was the moral support of the children rather than financial aid that was sought. The board gave its approval to the scheme, which will be carried out in the public and separate schools of the city.

Upon the recommendation of the Management Committee, Misses B. W. Elmer, L. Richardson and H. Staples were attached to the public school teaching staff at salaries of $600, $500 and $550, respectively. The Buildings and Grounds Committee submitted no report, while the Finance Committee recommended payment of a number of accounts.

Domestic Science Groceries. The Rev. C. E. Jeakins inquired why groceries for domestic science classes were purchased from a number of different stores throughout the city. A. Coulbeck, chairman of finance, explained that the articles purchased were of a small nature, and were bought whenever needed, from the nearest grocery.

A. K. Bunnell, secretary-treasurer, reported the arrival of a car of coal, which would enable the schools of the city to continue their classes for the present at least. The fuel arrived in the nick of time, as the supply at Alexandra School would have been exhausted to-day.

"We'll keep going just as long as we can," he promised, "but no one knows how long that will be." Schools Do Not Close. Closing of the schools in accordance with the "heatless day" regulation was discussed. The Rev. C. E. Jeakins considered that the schools should close in obedience with the spirit of the law, although not obliged by the law to do so. Dr. Marquis and M. W. McEwen differed from the last speaker, expressing the opinion that the schools should be kept open as long as possible.

R.R. ENGINEERS OUT WITH STATEMENT

Men in Cabs All Over the Country, Tell How Tanlac Restored them to Health

When a railroad engineer's health is impaired the lives of thousands may be endangered daily, for his work requires a clear brain, a steady nerve and a strong constitution. The following statements from some of the best known railroad engineers in the country tell how Tanlac relieved them of suffering and restored their health.

W. L. Nabers, Atlanta, Ga., said: "I had lost appetite—haven't had a pain since taking Tanlac—gained 14 pounds." L. C. Bowers, 910 First Ave., Nashville, Tenn., said: "Tanlac overcame my stomach trouble and nervousness—gained 8 pounds." D. A. Middleton, 1717 Chenover St., Houston, Tex., said: "Was in ill shape—couldn't walk. Tanlac built me up like a new man—gained 11 pounds."

S. T. Watkins, Birmingham, Ala., said: "Suffered 27 years with stomach disorders—Tanlac ended my troubles." Jeff D. Riggs, 2020 Pearl Street, Vicksburg, Miss., says: "Was nervous and physical wreck—gained 25 pounds."

Other well known railroad engineers who have endorsed Tanlac are: J. B. Watson, Mobile, Ala.; B. F. House, R. D. No. 5, Atlanta, Ga.; T. C. Ayers, 107 Rainey Avenue, Nashville, Tenn.; Jackson, Fla.; Lynn Sills, 440 Bellevue Avenue, Memphis, Tenn.; and others too numerous to mention.

Tanlac is sold in Brantford by Milton H. Robertson & Co. Ltd.; in Paris by Apps Ltd.; in Mt. Vernon by A. Young and in Middleport by William Peddie.

BIBLE STUDY GROUPS. The Neighborhood Bible Study groups will commence their studies next week under the direction of the Young Women's Christian Association. Misses have been handed to the group leaders on which instructions are given as to the ways in which the meetings will meet with success.

ENJOYABLE TIME. The Ever Ready Club of girls last evening entertained about fifteen of their friends at a sleighing party. After several hours spent in driving about the city, lunch was served at the home of one of the members at 140 Eagle Avenue. A most enjoyable time was then spent in playing games and the party broke up early this morning.

POLICE COURT. In the police court this morning John Minard appeared on a charge of aggravated assault, the complainant being M. A. Butler. The case against him was dismissed. A charge of being drunk was dropped against the James case which concerns breach of the Factory and Office Building Act, was again adjourned. Further evidence will be produced when the case is again brought up on the 22nd of the month.

THE BRANT. Smiling Doug Fairbanks is the leading attraction at the Brant the last of his latest Art-craft production "A Modern Masterpiece," where in the human dynamo plays the role of a young man who is the reincarnation of D'Artagnan, the French cavalier. The scene of the story is laid largely in the American west, in and about the Grand Canyon of Colorado, and it is reported on good authority that Doug's only regret after completing the picture was that he had not been able to jump the canyon. He does practically everything else, his hands three inches from the brink, and is in fact the same mirthful, irresistible, rapid fire Doug whom we all know.

MUST PREVENT FREEZING. The Canadian Fire Underwriters' Association states that as permission has been given by the government to heat premises sufficiently to prevent freezing, this means that buildings must be heated sufficiently to keep the sprinkler systems, tanks, pumps, etc., in continuous commission. They further state that regular watchman's services must be maintained day and night except where a supervisory system or other alarm connection has been accepted in lieu thereof. This statement is being sent out to all the big manufacturing plants on account of the fact that during the New York "shut down" order, many sprinkler systems were allowed to freeze, and had there been any outbreak of fire, the loss would have been a heavy one.

COAL DEALERS

Send a Letter to the Premier Complaing of Accusation by the Mayor

The following letter has been sent the Premier by the coal dealers of this city: Brantford, Feb. 7, 1918. Right Hon. Sir Robert L. Borden, Prime Minister of Canada, Ottawa, Ont. Sir,—We, the undersigned coal merchants of Brantford wish to protest against the accusation of Mayor MacBride as contained in telegram reported in public press, as having been sent to the Prime Minister.

We attach hereto the above mentioned report and also the press report as to reasons given for the dissolution of the Advisory Fuel Committee of this city. From the time of the appointment of the committee until it dissolved we co-operated in every way possible with the Fuel Committee and are still doing all in our power to relieve the serious fuel situation. Before any power is given to the Mayor of Brantford to take any action whatever we ask that some member of the Fuel Controller's staff be sent to Brantford and secured information as to the needs and what the merchants are doing to meet that need.

We welcome a full investigation. Yours truly, The Gibson Coal Co., J. H. Gibson, Mgr. Wilson Coal Co., John Mann and Son, Miller and Millan, D. McDonald, The Standard Coal Co., The Wood Coal Co.

REPRESENTATIVE GATHERING

At The Industrial Work Conference Object is to Reach Men in Factories

It was a representative gathering of men who attended the Industrial Work Conference in the Y. M. C. Club last evening, when John Sumner, national secretary, gave the address which was followed by an interesting and profitable discussion. The object of this work is to direct men of a factory or a group of factories, through an industrial secretariat, to the concerns interested. Mr. Sumner showed the highly beneficial results of this work, both for the employer and the employee, in the many cities of the United States and a number in Canada where it had been in operation. Mr. Sumner presented a brief study of the industries of Brantford and the number of men and boys employed. A helpful discussion of the work with reference to soldiers was led by Mr. John Dowling, chairman of the Soldiers' Aid Commission. The part the association is taking in this was heartily commended, and further plans fully discussed. It was decided to have Mr. Sumner return to Brantford later in the month, when a full meeting of the directors and manufacturers with all others interested would be held. The following committee was appointed to further promote this: Messrs. E. A. Hughes, chairman; W. T. Dowling, C. Carter, J. G. Hurlier; Jao. Dowling, E. J. Skit, more, Thorpe, R. Elliott, G. Breton, E. Gostz, R. Vansickle and Rev. E. Brown, as chairman, expressed the thanks of those present to Mr. Sumner for his excellent presentation of this work.

Vacation Death Roll

During every holiday season the newspapers record a startling number of accidental deaths among pleasure seekers.

Supposing you should lose your life while on your vacation this year, what will happen to your family? Do you realize that you've a duty towards them that doesn't end with your death? Perhaps your wife hasn't been trained to be a breadwinner. But your failure to protect her until she dies—all the children are situated and self-supporting—may force your widow into the business grind in spite of her incapacity. Boxing Follows are Unduly Swayed by Their Hero-Worship. Failing

It Blinds the Majority of Fans Who Can See Nothing But a Champion—The Johnson-Jeffries Bout an Example

When Billy Madden was one of the leading managers of boxers he played a system that was a great success. In making matches for the boxer in whom he happened to be interested Madden always looked about for a man with a big reputation who had grown slightly past the old-timers and leave the young fellows who are coming alone," was Madden's advice to his battlers. "The public never understands that a champion has gone back until he has been licked. There is a lot of hard work in beating a young strong fellow, and much safer and far more profitable to grab the old-timer who is on the slide."

Fred Fulton made the mistake of his life when he tackled young Billy Miske recently. If Madden had been handling the tall plasterer he would have passed up Miske and waited for Frank Moran. For holding Miske even Fulton got nothing but a lot of roasts, although Miske really is the liveliest heavyweight in the ring just now. Next month Fulton will face Frank Moran for 20 rounds at New Orleans, and if he beats the old timer he will receive a great deal of credit.

As a matter of fact, Fulton deserved more credit for his showing with Miske than he will receive if he stops Moran. The Pittsburgher has won only one bout in over two years and then his victim was a third-rater. But Moran has twice fought for the championship, and although he was ignominiously defeated on each occasion, the mere fact that his name has been associated with a championship match is remembered while his numerous defeats are forgotten.

Revere Title Holders

There is no doubt that hero worship of this sort is a good thing for boxing, as it keeps interest in the sport alive, but it results in some strange conclusions being drawn regarding the prowess and ability of the fighters. Practically every one in the least interested in boxing is influenced by it, and ring history shows that the "experts" have been so dazzled by the glare of the title that they have made the most astonishing mistakes in their predictions.

One of the most curious mistakes boxing experts ever made was in thinking that Jim Jeffries, after being in retirement for two years, could come back and defeat such a perfect-fighting machine as Jack Johnson was at the time of the Reno battle. Jeffries himself knew that the task was too much for him, and it was not until he had been coaxed for a whole year by the press of the country that he consented to the match. While Jeffries was training for the mill he was studied closely by hundreds of experts, yet for so much now that he is champion when it failed to save him before that interesting event is a mystery. There is no doubt that Willard improved somewhat in his boxing while training for the battle with Johnson. Provided that he has not gone back in the meantime, he is just that much better now than he was when he lost to McMahon. The question now is how great was the amount of that improvement and how much of it has he lost during his long retirement from ring activity.

INVALIDS LANDED SAFELY.

By Courier Leased Wire
London, Feb. 7.—(Via Reuters) Proof of the order which prevailed on the Tuscania, is given by the landing of two typhoid and two pneumonia cases without bad effect. Forty of the survivors went to hospitals. In the majority of cases they are suffering from injuries as a result of accidents in the lowering of lifeboats or in consequence of sliding down ropes. The survivors are proud of the behaviour of the only two women on the Tuscania. They went down a rope in fine style, laughing.

NO CONSCRIPTION YET IN S. AFRICA

Voluntary Recruiting Will be Renewed—To Increase Soldiers' Pay

Cape Town, Feb. 7.—(Via Reuters) Arthur Saure, secretary of the recruiting conference, reports of which were cabled yesterday, a resolution urging the government to enforce the principle of conscription generally or to apply it to British-born, found some support, but it was negated in favor of an amendment recognizing the impossibility of enforcing conscription under the prevailing conditions in South Africa. The amendment, however, pledged the conference to redouble its efforts to obtain recruits voluntarily.

Halifax Lady Mistook Mont Blanc Explosion For Artillery Fire

By Courier Leased Wire
Halifax, N. S., Feb. 7.—Addressing the Ottawa Club, Lieut.-Col. McKelvey Bell, A.D.M.S., at Halifax, formerly of Ottawa, who saw two years service at the front, said that there were very few incidents which could provoke laughter in the grim disaster which had visited Halifax but he had heard of one. It was at the expense of an artilleryman of this garrison who stood with his mother, an aged lady. The officer was leaving the house on the morning of the explosion and as he parted from her at the door, he said:

"We are going to have artillery practice this morning and if you hear explosions don't be afraid, it's all right."

Half an hour afterwards the Mont Blanc blew up. The old lady was thrown across the room and out of a window. When she recovered sufficiently to speak, she said:

"If Willie carries on like this he will lose his job."

PASSENGER SHIP SUNK IN CHANNEL

Fourteen Military Passengers and Eighteen Naval Lost

By Courier Leased Wire
London, Feb. 7.—(Via Reuters) Ottawa agency.—In the House of Commons, replying to Mr. Houston, Hon. H. J. MacNamara, under secretary of the Admiralty, stated that out of a party of twenty and twenty-five military and naval passengers, 34 and 38 were respectively lost owing to the enemy recently sinking a channel passenger ship bound for a French port. He also stated the captain was the only survivor out of 25 aboard a steamer from Ireland to Liverpool Bay. The steamer carried 496 head of cattle and 200 sheep. Mr. Houston asked whether a steamer had been sunk in Liverpool Bay on January 26 with a loss of 12 lives, 156 cattle, 361 sheep and 143 pigs. Mr. MacNamara admitted that the details of the cargo were as stated. He added that the percentage of losses of vessels making the voyage from Ireland to Britain was extremely small compared with the number of voyages.

EDINBURGH CASTLE WILL COMMEMORATE SCOTLAND'S PART IN THE WAR

In the House of Commons the Chief Secretary for Scotland announced that the famous historical landmark sitting on a rock overlooking the Scotch capital, would be converted into a National Museum. It is one of the oldest buildings in the British Isles, its first mention being of its capture in 625 by Edwin, the Saxon King of Northumbria. It is from him that Edinburgh is said to have got its name. The castle subsequently sustained many sieges, narrowly escaping complete destruction in Cromwell's time.

NERVOUS DYSPEPSIA, GAS OR INDIGESTION

Each "Pape's Diapepsin" digests 3000 grains food, ending all stomach misery in five minutes.

Time it! Pape's Diapepsin will digest anything you eat and overcome a sour, gassy or out-of-order stomach surely within five minutes. If your meals don't fit comfortably, or what you eat lies like a lump of lead in your stomach, or if you have heartburn, that is a sign of indigestion.

Get from your pharmacist a fifty-cent case of Pape's Diapepsin and take a dose just as soon as you can. There will be no sour risings, no belching of undigested food mixed with acid, no stomach gas or heartburn, no flatness or heavy feeling in the stomach, no nausea, no debilitating headaches, dizziness or intestinal griping. This will all go, and, besides, there will be no sour food left over in the stomach to poison your breath with nauseous odors.

Pape's Diapepsin is a certain cure for out-of-order stomachs, because it takes hold of your food and digests it just the same as if your stomach wasn't there.

Relief in five minutes from all stomach misery is waiting for you at any drug store.

These large fifty-cent cases contain enough "Pape's Diapepsin" to keep the entire family free from stomach disorders and indigestion for many months. It belongs in your home.

SCHUBERT CHOIR

Can you imagine the boom of cannon and crackle of rifle fire and the whirr of aeroplanes being reproduced in music?

The program of the Schubert Choir for their concert on Feb. 13th in the Grand Opera House includes "The Spirit of England" and is being given simultaneously on that night by the Mendelssohn Choir of Toronto and the Schubert Choir of Brantford. It is divided into three parts. The first part, "The Fourth of August," depicts the opening phases of the war and the spirit with which England took up arms on that fateful day.

The second part, "To Women," is a glowing tribute to the spirit of willing sacrifice which has characterized the women, no less than the men. Elgar's musical setting of this part intensifies and forces upon the senses of the hearer the wonderful and sometimes pathetic meaning of the words.

The third part "For the Fallen" is a replete with honest pride in the achievement of England's fallen heroes.

The three parts together constitute a musical work which is probably the finest ever written by an Englishman.

The plan opens to subscribers at Boles Drug Store on Monday, Feb. 11th, and to the general public on Feb. 13th.

WOMEN WITNESS AGAINST BOLO

Testified to Business Ability of Accused—History of Case

Paris, Feb. 7.—The first woman witness to be called by the government to testify against Bolo Pasha, now being tried for treason, took the witness stand late yesterday. She was Madame Marie Lafargue, at one time an intimate friend of Abbas Hilmi, the former Khedive of Egypt. Her appearance created a mild stir in the crowded court room.

Madame Lafargue's testimony was principally to the effect that Bolo notwithstanding his claim that he never knew Bolo, had been in contact with her 20,000 francs, but only on condition that she give him a mortgage on her property as well as a note signed by her mother, her two brothers and herself. The accused, she said, played the part of a shrewd and exacting business man throughout the transaction.

Bolo Pasha denied that he had met with Madame Lafargue, claiming that at the time mentioned, according to the testimony of M. Doyen, a financial expert, he had an income of only 47,000 francs. Yesterday's session was devoted almost solely to hearing corroborative testimony and M. Casella, a newspaper writer and M. Mouthon, editor-in-chief of Le Journal, is reported to have held out any further testimony.

In bringing to trial Paul Bolo, or Bolo Pasha, the French government is endeavoring to disrupt the whole system of German intrigue and propaganda in France, which in the spring of 1917 became so bold and effective as to threaten to defeat France's efforts to carry on the war.

Bolo's case has been defined as but one of a series of inter-related incidents in the German effort to organize a propaganda of depression and discouragement among the civilian leaders and soldiers of France. These involved not only Bolo, the so-called "Levantine financier" but also Joseph Callaux, a former publisher of France, one of more members of the French Chamber of Deputies, and several French newspapers. These newspapers are alleged to have been subsidized by Germany to spread abroad in France a spirit of "defeatism," a belief that there was no hope of beating Germany and that France should make peace to accept the best terms possible.

SIDE TALKS

WHEN HOUSE WIVES SHOULD KNOW. Did YOU Know This? One paragraph, for instance, mentioned the housewife that she should understand her units and tables of measurement. It mentioned in illustration, a fact I at least had never known—that the drug store ounce is not the same as the grocery store ounce.

Another piece of interesting information was that the woman who does her duty to the community by reporting repeated weight shortages to the Commissioner of Weights and Measures need not be forced to appear in court as the Commissioner will probably be informed upon his own account before the acts. Another warning was against buying potatoes, apples, onions and other commodities by bulk—a practice which is common in the West but has been common in the East.

CHILDREN HATE PILLS, CALOMEL AND CASTOR OIL. If cross, feverish, constipated, give "California Syrup of Figs." Look back at your childhood days. Remember the "dose" mother insisted on—castor oil, calomel, cathartics. How you hated them, how you fought against taking them.

SALEM (From Our Own Correspondent.) Mr. John Chant and family, Mr. J. Francis and family, spent Tuesday evening at Mr. R. Thompson's. Mrs. R. Thompson of Cooley Road, spent a few days with her sister, Mrs. F. Chant. Mr. and Mrs. W. Howe of Brantford spent the day at Mr. S. Howe's. Wedding bells will soon be ringing. Mr. Roy Carter of Cooley Road, spent Sunday at the parental home. Quite a number witnessed the phenomenal appearance of the sky Monday morning. It certainly meant cold weather as the thermometer dropped in twenty-four hours to the lowest of the winter.

CARE FOR SECURITIES. By Courier Lensed Wire. The conference will attempt to get their standpoint regarding the establishment of a German Bohemian province.

Music and Drama

AT THE GRAND "The Katzenjammer Kids." All the speed laws of singing, dancing, music and comedy are violated in the newest cartoon musical comedy success, "Katzenjammer Kids," which comes to the Grand Opera House Saturday, Feb. 8th, matinee and night, under the direction of Gazzolo, Gatts and Clifford. Here is a show that for real hilarity, catchy music, pretty girls, novel electrical effects and beautiful scenic mounting has any cartoon play heretofore presented—completely backed up on the boards.

"A DAUGHTER OF THE SUN." "A Daughter of the Sun," the story of an Hawaiian butterfly written by Lorin J. Howard and Ralph T. Kettering and presented by Rowland Howard, is the latest play dealing with our island possessions, "The Paradise of the Pacific," which comes to the Grand Opera House, Tuesday, Feb. 12th.

RAILROAD BILL. By Courier Lensed Wire. Washington, Feb. 7.—Chairman Smith of the Senate Interstate Commerce Committee, in reporting favorably to the Senate to-day the Administration railroad bill, estimated that under the measure's provisions the Government will guarantee annually to the railroads of the country $345,000,000, which will represent a return of 5.33 per cent. This, he says, "reflects neither poverty nor riches," but the committee believes a majority of the railroads will "accept these terms as a just and fair measure of these constitutional rights."

CONDEMNNS O'CONNOR. By Courier Lensed Wire. London, Feb. 7.—At last night's meeting of the Canadian Produce Association the attitude of the High Cost of Living Commissioner, W. F. O'Connor, with respect to his assertions that there were excess holdings of cold storage produce in the country, was condemned by the convention. A resolution was carried which recommended that the findings of the appointed commission to inquire into the cost of living should pass through the food controller's office.

BURTON (From Our Own Correspondent.) We are sorry to report Mr. David Campbell on the sick list. Put a Tax on and It Seldom Comes Off!

A Government raises Money by Taxation --- Start a New Tax and it Always Sticks

WHAT IT WOULD MEAN

If the Government were to take over the Patriotic Fund could it be as economically administered as it is to-day. Would it not be subject to the great possibility of grafting, of political favoritism and all those evils which add to the cost of administering most government departments. At present only those families in need of the benefits of the Patriotic Fund become its beneficiaries while under government control rich and poor alike would have to receive allowance from the Patriotic Fund. In Brantford nearly 4,000 men have gone overseas but there are only 800 families receiving money from the Patriotic Fund. Under Government control that number would be greatly increased and the cost of administration at least doubled. It now costs absolutely nothing to administer the Canadian Patriotic Fund because the bank interest on the money more than pays all the cost of carrying on the work. Would this be so under government control? And further, would government officials give the social service which the members of the Patriotic Association are giving, caring of the dependents when they are sick, assisting them in their domestic problems, helping them with their accounts, etc.? Not likely.

Others, who realize that direct government control of the Patriotic Fund is inadvisable because of the tremendous increase in cost it would necessitate, suggest that the money should be raised by the government and turned over to the present organization to administer. Such a scheme is not practicable. In the first place the government would not likely be willing to give such a large amount of money to an independent organization to expend without having a string tied to it, and, furthermore, the officials of the fund would not care to continue in office because they would be continually hampered by political bosses seeking special consideration for party friends. But even if these obstacles were overcome how would the government raise the money? By taxation, of course. An income tax has already been imposed by which the government expects to raise $16,000,000. If it took over the Patriotic Fund it would need double this amount, so that the income tax rate would have to be doubled and the tax extended to reach every man with a revenue of $500 and upwards. This would be a special war tax but future governments would need this revenue for some extra purpose and the people having become accustomed to it, the tax would stick. In this respect history repeats itself.

The Patriotic Fund gives opportunity for voluntary service, and what decent citizen does not want to help even a little. Would any one of us have the war end without having done something of our own free will and choice to make the victory possible. The war may be long but no Britisher falters.
