Monumental Monstrosity

To the Editor of THE ACADIAN.
Dear Mr. Editor:—Some weeks ago, on the Post Office Green, with impressive military and civil ceremonial and in the presence of a vast assembly of our citizens, there was unveiled a monument. A massive column of stone and cement, solid, substantial, enduring, it stands there, our War Memorial Monument, emblematic of the gallant, unyielding, endurance of those whose lives and deeds it commemorates and emblematic also of the everlasting admiration and love and gratitude which we bear them.

We beg our readers to believe that we speak of these matters touching the Memorial, not out of any mood of carping criticism, not out of no desire to belittle either the Monument or the sentiment which prompted its erection, for we feel that Wolfville would have disgraced herself had not some Memorial been erected. But, Mr. Editor, we do feel that while the sentiment was natural, and the desire laudable yet the methods adopted for the raising of the necessary funds might easily have been improved upon.

In two cases, at least, we feel that voluntary contribution would have been far preferable to arbitrary taxation. First, we feel that those whose loved ones shall never return had given quite all that could be expected. Doubtless they would have gladly contributed but we feel that the action of the Council in not only requesting, but demanding, a contribution was most thoughtless and unkind.

Second, those who served and have returned, were, we think, entitled to a little bit of consideration. No one knows, except the ex-service men, no one can possibly imagine, the Hell through which they passed, no one can feel the sense of lost opportunity, blighted hopes, post bellum difficulties, nor can anyone realize the feeling that, after all, they are the unwanted burden of an ungrateful and unjust country. Nor can anyone comprehend what sacrifices a soldier will make for his pal, and above all, what sacred ties of feeling binds him to those comrades who fell.

Had the returned soldiers in Wolfville been asked to contribute to this Memorial how gladly they would have given to the utmost of their means. But no one would have asked them; yet our Town Council has demanded that they should pay exactly the same rate as those who preached pacifism during the war, and unite in scandalously slandering even the dead, now that it is over. Some of them even feel that their assessment was much higher in proportion to their property than that of certain prominent, wealthy men whose was activities are too odious for mention.

We feel that it would be a grateful act on the part of the Town if provision were made for the return of all funds raised for this purpose, by taxation, from those who have returned and from the dependents of those who have not returned. And now, Mr. Editor, if space can be spared, we should like to speak of the Monument itself. Not one word shall we say of the strange methods by which models were not submitted, plans were not approved, the contract was given, not of the outrageously wasteful expenditure of the peoples' money in the actual erection of the monument.

We shall speak only of the result, and "the result" is almost unspeakable. We are not a colony of sculptors nor of artists; we are not even stone masons, but all our finer sensibilities are shocked, our very physical vision rebels at sight of "the result"—that great pile of masonry, without beginning or end, which stands there like the remnants of a factory chimney, and which we are called upon to believe is the Town of Wolfville's Memorial to her fallen heroes.

There is a tablet upon its side, a really nice tablet, which like the end of the rainbow, is out of reach of all and like the other end of the same rainbow has never yielded up its secrets to the eye of mortal man.

To most of us what is written thereon, is and must remain, a mere matter of conjecture. To the visitor in Wolfville the whole monument is in precisely the same class, for no one would ever guess that this monstrosity was placed there by a grateful people in honor of their fallen sons.

Now we venture to suggest that there is one place and one place only in which the tablet could have been placed to less advantage, and that is exactly on top of the whole structure.

We cannot suggest any means by which the monument itself could have been rendered more inartistic and unlovely.

This we suppose is "destructive criticism"—now for what we fondly hope, is "constructive criticism".

We shall merely suggest the following alterations confident that a majority of citizens will agree with us that their introduction would produce a far different "result".

Wolfville Tennis Players

Win from Bridgetown in Closely Contested Tournament

The visit of the Bridgetown tennis players to the local club last Saturday proved most pleasant. Excellent tennis was played and all events were closely contested. Of the eight matches played each club won four. The Wolfville players however won 89 games to the visitors' 85. The results were as follows:

Gentlemen's Doubles
R. Tufts and C. E. A. deWitt, (Wolfville) defeated L. Ruggles and Hicks, 6-2, 1-6, 6-3.

L. Eaton and E. Eaton, (Wolfville), defeated J. Ruggles and Young, 6-3, 5-7, 6-1.

Ladies' Doubles
Mrs. Fay and Miss Daniels, (Bridgetown), defeated the Misses deWitt and H. DeWolfe, 6-3, 6-3.

Mrs. Hicks and Miss Griffin, (Bridgetown), defeated the Misses F. deWolfe and Smallman 6-0, 4-6, 6-1.

Mixed Doubles
L. Ruggles and Mrs. Fay, (Bridgetown), defeated R. Tufts and Miss Keirstead, 8-6, 2-6, 6-4.

J. Ruggles and Miss Daniels, (Bridgetown), defeated Dr. deWitt and Miss deWitt, 6-3, 6-3.

Raleigh Bishop and Miss deWolfe, (Wolfville), defeated Mr. Hicks and Miss Griffin, 6-1, 6-2.

Mr. Saunders and Miss Smallman, (Wolfville), defeated Mr. Simpson and Miss Abbott, 6-3, 6-1.

At the close of the tournament a most enjoyable tea was served at the Parish Hall. There were about seventy-five present and a pleasant social time was had by all. The hostesses were Mrs. Geo. Anderson, Mrs. C. H. Wright, Miss Rosamond Archibald, Mrs. A. B. Balcom, Mrs. P. W. Davidson, Mrs. C. E. A. deWitt and Mrs. Roy Porbes. Music was furnished while the tea was being served, after which a short dance was held. The visiting players returned home at about eight o'clock much pleased with their entertainment while in Wolfville.

PRETTY CHURCH WEDDING

One of the prettiest weddings that has been witnessed in Wolfville for some time, and an event of more than usual interest, took place at the Methodist church at 2 o'clock on Tuesday evening, when Miss Arlene Bishop, only daughter of Rev. and Mrs. George Bishop, Summer street, and Mr. Roy Ross, professor of German at Acadia University were united in marriage. The ceremony was performed by Dr. J. H. MacDonald.

The church was tastefully decorated with ropes of daisies and a bank and arch of green ferns and white hydrangeas. As the bride approached the church the Girl Guides in full uniform formed a body guard and stood at attention as their former lieutenant passed into the building. The bride who was given away by her father was charmingly gowned in white crepe de chene with the conventional veil and orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of white carnations and snap dragons. The bride was attended by Miss Miriam Chisholm and Miss Pauline Parry, while Dr. D. A. Hill and Mr. Raleigh Bishop, brother of the bride, supported the groom.

The bridesmaids wore captivating costumes of pale yellow trimmed with mauve with hats to correspond and carried attractive bouquets.

Little Miss Helen Perry made as dainty a flower-girl as could be desired.

The ushers, Misses Helen Schurman, Maurine Elderkin, Marjorie Wickwire and Marion Grant, were appropriately gowned in white dresses, and black picture hats with yellow trimmings. The wedding march and musical accompaniment to the service were rendered on the organ by Miss Jean Foote.

After the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride after which the happy couple left by automobile en route for the White Mountains and thence to the Southern States.

The bride is one of Wolfville's most popular daughters which was attested to by the numerous and beautiful gifts received.

THE ACADIAN joins a host of friends in wishing Prof. and Mrs. Ross much happiness and prosperity.

ADJOURNED SCHOOL MEETING

The adjourned meeting of the Lower Wolfville School Section on Monday evening was very well attended and an unusual interest was manifest. Considerable discussion took place relative to the proposal to divide the section and it was finally decided to continue the school for another year. A generous amount was voted and it is hoped that an efficient teacher may be secured. The unusual attendance of ratepayers and the evident desire to make the school the very best possible was most encouraging and commendable.

From Correspondents

GREENWICH NOTES

The music of the mowing machine is heard on all sides and the farmers are all busy gathering in the hay, which all report as a very light crop. So much dry weather is also telling on all vegetable gardens and potato crops.

No service in the Methodist church here last Sunday afternoon, which is an unusual occurrence. We hope for one next Sunday and the following Sunday it is expected the new pastor will be with us, Rev. Mr. Hemmon. We have been told that another former pastor, Rev. Mr. Rackham, received an urgent call to remain the fourth year with the Riverport Methodist church, in Lunenburg Co., and has accepted the invitation. This of course, speaks well for Mr. and Mrs. Rackham.

Miss Leah Forsythe is visiting her parents Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Forsythe and relatives in Wolfville, etc. She is having a two weeks vacation from her position in St. John, N. B.

Miss Georgiana Bell who was on professional duties in Wolfville for a time is again with her sister, Mrs. Ada Forsythe.

Miss Lillian E. Bishop has as her guest for a time, her friend Miss French, of Massachusetts.

Mr. H. H. Marshall, who was recently taken to Halifax, accompanied by Mrs. Marshall underwent a serious operation there one day the latter part of last week and at last report he was doing as well as could be expected, but a severe trial in such warm weather. Many friends are interested.

Miss Charlena Pearson arrived home on Monday afternoon from Cambridge, Mass., where she went last December to commence training for a nurse, at a hospital there. Before coming home she visited for a few days her chum, Miss Hattie Kaye, Cambridge, who was a former Wolfville girl.

The wedding of Miss Arlene Bishop, Wolfville, on Tuesday evening was attended by a number of her near relatives in this place, namely: Miss Lillian Bishop, Mr. and Mrs. Burpee Bishop and three sons, and Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Borden and all the members of her home.

Miss Lillian E. Bishop has been making a successful canvass this week for members of the Red Cross. We wish her all further success.

Miss Ade Forsythe has had her house painted. She also has had other improvements made about her home. A very marked improvement to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Byron Cox, is the splendid new piazza, across the front, extending around its west side and the addition of the new piece to that side, with large windows and a door opening out on to the piazza, all making it a very pleasant improvement.

GRAND PRE AND HORTONVILLE

Miss Inez Skaling, a graduate nurse of Taunton Hospital, U. S. A., made a short visit here last week before returning to her work of which she has made such a success.

Mrs. J. W. McLelland and son Ray, of Halifax, were in Grand Pre at their summer home, returning last week.

The work on the Grand Pre Fruit Company's warehouse is still progressing well, quite a number of men being employed.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles V. Briggs and Miss Clair Dennison, of Boston, left on Sunday morning for a motor trip to Cape Breton. Mrs. L. P. Dennison accompanied them as far as Stellarton where she will visit her son Ross, and Mrs. S. A. Bowser who also accompanied the party will visit friends in Halifax for a few days.

The Woman's Institute of Sheffield Mills is providing for the erection of a Memorial Tablet in honor of the boys from that community who participated in the Great War. The tablet has arrived and will be placed in the Community Hall. It is of bronze mounted on oak, is of beautiful workmanship and contains the names of twelve returned heroes and of one who made the supreme sacrifice.

Berwick Defeats Wolfville

In League Baseball Game on Wednesday

The baseball game on Wednesday between the Wolfville and Berwick players resulted in a win for the visitors, the score being 10 to 5. Numerous errors on the part of the local team caused their defeat, and they expect to win any games this year. They have got to study the game more. Berwick went to bat first and scored three runs. There was no more score until the fourth inning when Wolfville scored one run and things looked bright for the home team. In the next inning however Wolfville went up in the air and before they came down again Berwick had scored 7 runs making the total 10 to 1. The locals then steadied down and kept Berwick from scoring any more while they themselves added four to the tally. The score by innings was as follows:

Berwick	3	0	0	7	0	0	0	10
Wolfville	0	0	0	1	0	2	1	5

The teams lined up as follows:

Berwick	Wolfville
O'Halloran, pitcher	Elderkin
Hart, catcher	Schurman
Thomas, 1st base	Eagles
Morgan, 2nd base	Kenpie
A. Cox, 3rd base	West
Goodwin, short stop	Barteaux
Parker, right field	Annis
F. Gray, centre field	Mason

The umpires were Harry Saunders and J. Howe Cox.

The Kentville baseball team defeated the Windsor team at Kentville on Wednesday by the score of 10 to 1. The league standing is now as follows:

Team	Won	Lost
Kentville	4	1
Windsor	3	1
Berwick	2	2
Wolfville	0	5

At two o'clock this morning an alarm was given in consequence of a fire discovered in a small building north of the railway track near the evaporator building, used by the section men for storing tools, etc. The building was completely consumed. It is thought that the fire must have been caused by sparks from the late train which passed an hour or so before.

County Cricket Match

Annapolis and Kings County Teams Played Draw Game

An interesting game of cricket was played at Kentville on Saturday last between teams representing Kings and Annapolis Counties, and resulted in a draw, each team scoring 95. The game will be replayed at Bridgetown to determine which county will meet Hants to decide the county championship.

Harry Saunders proved a great asset to his side, bowling six maiden overs out of eleven, and taking two wickets for only nine runs. His batting, too, was equally satisfactory, scoring 31 runs, his innings including one spanking drive for six and three twos, while the veteran Miller, of Canning, the next highest, helped himself to 13, including a four and a three, and Beauchamp, his first partner, made 12 including one 4 and two twos. C. H. Ollerhead, the first man in for Annapolis, scored 29, including one 6 and two fours, Whitway's 11 were two fours, a two and a single, while W. Donat's 9 included a couple of fours.

THE TENNIS CLUB

The Wolfville Tennis Club, which was reorganized for the season several weeks ago, is rapidly taking the position in the town that it held prior to the war. The membership now numbers nearly 100 and is steadily growing. There are about fifty playing members and all are most enthusiastic over the game, with the result that the courts are seldom idle. The officers for this season are:

President—George Waterbury

Vice-President—Miss Marguerite deWitt

Sec. Treas.—Prof. A. B. Balcom

The Wolfville tennis players were most successful in their two tournaments with the Bridgetown players, and arrangements are now being made to have the Windsor players visit Wolfville in a week or two. Some of the more experienced players are getting in shape for the Provincial Championships when it is hoped they will do as well or better than they did last year.

GIRL GUIDES AND BOY SCOUTS

All Girl Guides and Boy Scouts who desire to attend camp this year must notify Mrs. and Mr. E. Percy Brown as soon as possible. The Girl Guides will go to camp Monday, August 8th and the Boy Scouts Monday, August 15th. The charge this year will be $4.00 per week.

The new camp headquarters is almost completed and reflects great credit upon the architects and builders. The thanks of the young people of Wolfville are certainly due to these men.

The Girl Guides will meet on Monday evening at 7 on the School Grounds. This will be their last meeting before camp.

Miss Eunice D. Curry has been engaged to teach voice in Agnes Scott Ladies' College, at Decatur, Georgia, for the school year 1921-22, commencing September 1st.

Kings Co. Boys' Work Association

The annual meeting of the Kings Co. Boys' Work Association was held at the Town Hall, Wolfville, Wednesday afternoon. Although notices had been sent out by mail and through the press, the meeting was poorly attended.

As the amount pledged was not forthcoming, Mr. Brown did not feel justified in continuing his work as secretary.

The following resolutions were moved and passed:

RESOLVED that this association place itself on record as recognizing the efficient service rendered by the county secretary Mr. Brown, and regret that the several sections of the county have not financially supported his efforts to the extent necessary to secure the continuance of the same.

RESOLVED that a report of this meeting be sent to members in arrears, stating that $750.00 is due Mr. Brown and that although he is willing to waive his claim, subscribers should consider it a simple matter of honor to reimburse him.

RESOLVED that this association expresses itself as being willing that any local associations should use any subscriptions pledged to the County work from their section.

W. A. A. AT HOME

To the Editor of THE ACADIAN.

Dear Sir,—I was asked by Dr. C. Avery deWitt, our President to take charge of his avoidable absence of the gathering in the Parish Hall last night in aid of the W. A. A. W. I wish to take this opportunity on behalf of the Association of cordially thanking all those who helped to make it a success, to wit, Miss Doris Chambers and the Misses Duncanson and Mr. Mason for the most acceptable musical programme; Miss Miriam Coit and Mr. Burton Robinson for playing for the dancers; the Girl Guides under the direction of Miss Helen Schurman for selling tickets and taking charge of the refreshments; the kind friends who sent cakes and the merchants of the town who contributed; Miss Gertrude Rogers who sold tickets at the door and Mrs. Mason and Mrs. T. Sanford who acted as chaperones at the dance.

Altogether we had a most enjoyable time. It was delightful to see the commingling of our young people on these happy terms, irrespective of all artificial barriers.

Our Athletic Association, which went off with a rush last year, is experiencing at present somewhat of a reaction. Our ticket selling drive has not so far been a success, but we are carrying on this year with undiminished vigor.

The engagement of Mr. Harry Saunders as Baseball and Cricket Coach has had most excellent results. He is thoroughly versed in both of these games and has personally gained the good will of all our town sports and his appointment was undoubtedly a wise move. But it of course increased our liabilities. May I supplement the appeal I made last evening for new members. Ladies can become members for $1.00, men for $2.00. Family tickets including the whole household, are $5. Mr. Morgan Tamplin, our most efficient and painstaking secretary, without whose help the Association would have made little progress, will be glad to receive subscriptions, as also the President Dr. Avery deWitt and indeed any active member of the Society including Messrs. Roberts, Mason, Elliott Smith, etc., and myself.

We would welcome larger subscriptions from some of our substantial citizens for the object of the Association, which is the promotion of clean sport, free from trickery, foul or profane language and perhaps I may add the encouragement of social intercourse among the young people of the town. What better and nobler secular object could there be than this—the promotion of clean sport which inculcates self control, fair play, truthfulness and all the many virtues counteracts a score of evil and debasing influences, and promotes bodily health.

Isn't this a golden opportunity for some of our better off citizens to do an act that will be remembered with gratitude in Wolfville for generations to come by putting the Association on a solid foundation.

R. F. DIXON.

The Rectory, July 14, 1921.

The W. A. A. "At Home" at the Parish Hall on Wednesday evening was well attended and thoroughly enjoyed. The program included an address by Rev. R. F. Dixon, who presided, vocal solos by Mr. A. J. Mason, Miss Evelyn Duncanson and Miss Doris Chambers, refreshments and dancing.

Mr. C. A. Patriquin brought to THE ACADIAN last Friday morning a branch from a pear tree which contained a well formed and partially grown pear and also a number of well-developed blossoms—one of nature's freaks.

HARVESTING THE HAY CROP.

(Experimental Farms Note.)
There is no operation on the farm so dependent upon weather conditions as that of hay making, and the farmer who can always gather in a crop of juicy fodder, neither too young or too ripe which will come out of the mow fragrant and palatable, needs to exercise his best weather wisdom with good judgement, and lots of snap when the work is rushing.
All grasses and clovers make the best fodder if cut while the stalks, having obtained their largest growth, are yet full of sap. If a large area is to be cut it will be necessary to cut some part before it is ready, to avoid having a large quantity grow too old and woody before it can be reached.
In the Maritime Provinces, where many mornings are apt to be overcast and there may be some doubt up till eleven o'clock what the afternoon will bring forth, weather wisdom is especially required and frequently use can be made of the meteorological service to advantage. It must be borne in mind, however, that even the official forecasts on the sea-coast cannot be accurate as at inland points because no reports are available as to weather prevailing far out from shore; therefore the meteorological Bureau only knows what is happening on one side of the district instead of all around it.
In the early part of haying and especially during the first part of a week it is generally good policy to cut down well in advance of the housing strength of the hay so that the largest possible quantity of hay may be housed before Saturday night.
The preferable times to cut grass are after the dew is off until, say, eleven o'clock and again after four P. M. When cut late in the evening the grass will be green and the night's dew will not blacken it. The best fodder cannot be made without coiling the hay for one night before it is housed. Very many men are content to leave their hay in windrow, or even lying flat, over night and save all the labour of coiling up and opening out the coils next morning, but such methods may blacken 50% or more of the hay and damage both its palatability and nutritive qualities as well as lower its sale value.
In heavy grass with a smooth bottom the side delivery rake and the tedder are two worth while implements. The binder is not likely to be found of use except when the crop is to be cut into the silo for sheaves of grass cut as young as it should be, will never in our Maritime climate dry through without molding badly. Cotton caps for coils can be used in bad seasons with great advantage, but it is doubtful if they will ever come into general use on account of the expense involved. A hay loader in a small crew may be of great advantage; in a large operation its use is problematical, but unloading in the barn by horse power greatly increases the man power of the crew. The wise hay maker will put his hay in the mow (green, sappy, but well cured after a night's standing in the coil, and he will make every effort to prevent its becoming wet with rain). In bad season it will often pay to spread salt in the mow while the hay is unloading at from 25 to 50 lbs. per ton.

BUSINESS INTERESTS HEAVY FIRE LOSERS

Charged With Greater Portion of Fire Waste—Need for Enforcement of Drastic Legislation.

Canada closed the year 1920 with a fire loss of approximately $27,400,000, equal to $3.42 per capita on an eight million population, or $17.10 per family—a new record, and one worthy of much thought.
An analysis of this fire loss discloses certain facts which are not creditable to the business life of the country, and which account, in part, for our high cost of protection in Canada, as compared with Europe. One-half of the fire waste was due to 72 fires, practically all in commercial property. Fires causing damage of $10,000 and over numbered 301, and these again were largely in business property.
A question which every business man should study is, "Why these fires?"
Are we more interested in what we earn than in the means by which we earn it?
Are we so intently watching sales that we cannot devote sufficient attention to the plants which make the sales possible?
True the average business man carries insurance, but this is charged up to cost of production, and the people pay the insurance. Is it fair to the public, however, to charge more insurance cost than necessary owing to failure to protect the plant from fire?
With modern methods of fire protection available, no business man should be permitted to increase unnecessarily the cost of living through neglect or carelessness in eliminating fire dangers. Section five of the Criminal Code as amended says: "Every one is guilty of an indictable offence and liable to two years imprisonment who by negligence causes any fire which occasions loss of life or loss of property." The rigid enforcement of this section would probably do more to reduce the fire waste than any other influence which might be brought to bear.

Mr. Gabb had been out at an all night poker game and was trying to square himself when he got home at noon the next day. He had a package under his arm "Wouldn't you like to know what is in this package?" asked Mr. Gabb. "I'm not a bit interested," replied Mrs. Gabb.
"Well, I bought something for the one I love best in the world," announced Mr. Gabb with a grin.
"What did you buy yourself—collars or neckties?" snapped Mrs. Gabb.

VALLEY COOPERS BUSY

All the Coopers in the Cornwallis and Gaspereau Valleys are now operating to capacity. Judging from the orders which daily are being booked the 1921 yield of apples is being estimated the largest yet. The founder and head of a large coooperage at Port Williams hazarded the opinion the other day to the effect that next fall may witness a repetition of the difficulties which were experienced some dozen years ago in meeting the demand for barrels. Hence the strenuous efforts which are now being made to increase the output, which, daily is being delivered from each establishment to those of the growers who are not disposed to take any chances. The ruling price is 70 cents per barrel for cash (or 75 cents on credit) with the 1 1/2 per cent sales tax added of course. There is quite a demand for experienced coopers and, notwithstanding an attempt recently made by the manufacturers to organize for a mutual understanding, the practise of outbidding one another for possession of the best men was not entirely eliminated, with the result that henceforth the rate per barrel for making is to be 12 cents instead of the ten cents which hitherto had been the agreed piece-work price.
The Melanson Manufacturing Co. which at the beginning of this year, increased its capital from $10,000 to $50,000 had just had completed by C. H. Wright of Wolfville a fine two-story residence at a cost exceeding $6000 for the accommodation of its mill and coooperage staff. The Company has been very happy in its choice of a matron, who is a Mrs. Gent, the widow of an English soldier who was killed in the war. She came from Buxton, Derbyshire. Eight rooms besides those occupied by the family, have already been taken by the staff, who are loud in their praise, both of the accommodation and of the cuisine.

THE EVOLUTION OF NEW FRUIT.

(From the Los Angeles Times.)
Some of the easterners are impressed with the tangelo, which has been in process of development for many years but is only now trickling into the markets in numbers. This is a combination of the tangerine with the grapefruit or pomelo. It has some of the good qualities of both fruits, but naturally shrinks some from the massiveness of the finer specimens of the pomelo. It is a mild mannered grapefruit that can be eaten out of hand without spraying the scenery or musing up the face of the devotee. It has been raised in Arizona and Southern California and is also a Florida possibility. We strive to please. If deemed desirable we will turn out a lemon-orange—one side of which can be used to make a lemon pie and the other an orangeade.

FIRST AID POINTERS FOR DRIVERS

Time and Money-Saving Suggestions for Autoists

"The parts of a motor vehicle which suffer most frequently in accidents are in the front of the car, the front wheels, steering gear and the axles," says Wallace B. Blood in Motor Age. "It is a simple matter to equip the tool box with a few first aid devices which, providing the accident is a conventional one, will permit the owner to get his car home on its own power and after he gets it home repair other damage in his own garage.

"The leverage available in a motor car jack can be put to a number of uses in case parts are sprung out of line by an accident. Suppose the car goes into a ditch or rams a wall so that the front wheels are sprung out. In most every design there is a provision for adjusting the front wheels by a take-up in the steering gear cross rod. If the wheels are thrown out three or four inches however bringing them back into position with the use of this adjustment will throw the steering adjustment out and the car will not turn far enough to the right, this, providing that the car is a left hand control.

"The difference can be righted by blocking the right wheel from the front centre of the run to the frame, applying a jack between the spring and the steering arm, and bending the arm with the jack sufficiently to afford the proper adjustment. The steering arm is a forging, and will stand what slight bending is needed without danger of breakage. This is merely an example of what can be done with a jack. Bent brake rods can be very easily brought back into place with a jack.

"A damaged radiator is an unsightly looking object and the general impression is that it is such a delicate affair that repairs should be performed only by the factory. With a vehicle tube radiator where radiation is gained through a series of metal plates one above the other, the car owner can easily iron out the damage done, providing that the tubes themselves have not been broken out or punctured. The radiating plates are easy to bend and may be lined up with a screw driver between them.

"We know of an ingenious owner who had a car which was only too frequently afflicted with spring breakage. It seemed impossible for him to procure springs which would stand up under his car and still be light enough to afford some measure of comfort. He made the best of it by carrying in his tool box two pieces of broken leaves from springs that had previously let go and two pairs of spring clips. When another spring would break, and in his car it had the peculiar faculty of going through every leaf in a single place, he would place the two broken on either side of the fracture, put one spring clip, or sometimes two, over the broken leaves, and on each side of the break, clamp the clips up tightly and proceed home—to buy another spring. Motorists who chase around farm yards after blocks of wood and fence wire with which to lash together broken springs, would do well to find a place in their tool boxes for the simple equipment.

"In most motoring communities, particularly in large cities, where street traffic is heavy, there are always to be found scarred-up cars, old and new, which have been rammed in the rear or have run into obstructions which have defaced the metal back with unsightly dents.

"If the owner prides himself on the appearance of his car, and still does not think he can afford to take it to the body maker or garage to have the dents pounded out, he can do the job himself and it is a simple thing to do.

"First of all, the upholstery and springs must be torn down to give access to the metal of the body. If the binding strip is carefully removed and the upholstery tacks pulled out with an upholsterer's claw, or even a screw-driver, there is no need of damaging anything to require replacement. With the upholstery and springs dropped down out of the way, the dent may be ironed out with a block of wood and a hammer. If the dent is in a rounded part of the metal, the wool block should be filed to accord with the curve of the body, so that the smallest dents may be hammered out evenly.

SPlicing FUEL PIPE.

Cut the ends of the pipe to be joined on a bevel, being sure to bevel them alike so that they will make a tight juncture. This can be accomplished with a hack saw and a file. Clean the ends of the pipes with sandpaper and then place them together. Next wind No. 18 copper wire, or door bell wire, with insulation removed, over the splice, being sure to wind tight, and close together. Solder with flame or iron and sweat solder in between the wires and on end of winding. This makes a strong splice and one that will last.

RUBBER HOSE.

This is the time of year to renew the rubber hose connections of the cooling system. These connections deteriorate after a season's use and sometimes the inside layer of the fabric separates from the rest and impedes circulation, without the defect being apparent from the outside. No kinks should be allowed in such connections and the clamp fasteners should be properly secured. Where rubber hose has bends in it a good plan is to reinforce it by a brass coil spring, which is a good fit inside. This prevents any flattening at the bend and cracking, resulting eventually in a leak.

INSPECTION WINDOW.

An ingenious car owner who had trouble because of stoppage in the oil tube which runs from the transmission case of the Ford to the engine, inserted in the transmission cases a small mica window about two inches in diameter. The window is secured by a steel ring one thirty-second of an inch in thickness and this ring is held by round head screws. A felt gasket is placed between the mica and the transmission cover and the upper side of the mica is varnished with shellac.

REMOVING PINION NUT.

The car owner who does his own work is sometimes puzzled in regard to removing the drive shaft pinion nut. The operation begins by taking out the cotter or locking wire. Next a special wrench is used, and this may be made from a quarter inch steel plate, the length and nut size being made to fit the particular make of car. To remove the nut the gear is placed in reverse, the priming cups are opened and the engine turned over by hand. To put the nut on the gear is put in low and the engine is cranked.

LUBRICATING SHACKLE BOLTS.

Shackle or spring bolts may be made self-lubricating by drilling six or eight 3-16 inch holes in a new bushing and packing them with graphite. The holes must be repacked about once in six months.

Minard's Liniment for Dandruff.

RUST REMOVER.

Make a solution of one part sulphuric acid to ten parts water and dip in it the parts from which it is desired to remove rust. Next dip them in a bath of hot lime water and keep them in it until they have become so hot that they dry immediately on being taken out. Then rub the parts with dry bran or sawdust and they will be found to be perfectly clean and may be painted with fireproof paint, blued or nickleled.

PIPECLAY FOR MATS.

Pipeclay acts as a preservative of rubber and makes one of the best mediums for treating the rubber mats used in automobiles. Oil and grease are rubber solvents and ruin the floor mats if they are allowed to remain on them. The mats should be wiped quite dry and then be pipeclayed. The pipeclay dries and sucks the oil out of the rubber.

TESTING VENT PIPES.

In filling the radiator of the car allow enough water to pass in to bring the level over the end of the vent-pipe. If this pipe is clear as it always should be, the fact will be indicated by the overflowing water through it. If it is not clear the water will overflow through the filter cap and not through the vent pipe which should be attended to at once.

Minard's Liniment Relieves Neuralgia

KRUPP FACTORY DOING USEFUL WORK

Here is a good bit of news. The great Krupp factories at Essen, Germany, report that they made money last year without manufacturing any war materials.

For the first time in two generations at least, Krupps put out no material of war. Instead it has been making spinning machines, cogged wheel apparatus, paper mill rollers dredging machinery and every variety of farm machinery and tools.

That truly sounds like beating swords into plowshares.

For decade after decade the name of Krupps stood for war and the making of war materials. There is fairly credible evidence that Krupps was caught one time spending money in France to work up a war spirit there, so as to improve business in the making of war materials in Germany.

And now for the first time in many years, Krupps is making no war materials whatever.

Now if it can be arranged that all other factories of war materials shall be put at work making plowshares instead of swords, it will be about as great a stroke for world peace as anybody could imagine.—Ex.

Editorial Notes

France is evidently far from pleased with the brand of justice handed out by the Supreme court trying those who violated the rules of civilized warfare in the World War. Its judgements are characterized as "scandalous" and the Germans are informed that France will continue to occupy the Rhine region until Germany has complied with the conditions of the treaty of Versailles.

The apple show which is to be held in London this coming fall will be a most favorable opportunity for the fruit-growers of the Valley to demonstrate their ability to produce first-class fruit. Time was when the Fruit Growers' Association entered all these big competitions and won many honors for Nova Scotia fruit. No such opportunity as is offered by this proposed national apple show has for a long time been offered and it is hoped that due advantage may be taken of it. The indications are that from the standpoint of advertising Canadian apples in the United Kingdom, the London Fruit Exhibition will be of much more importance than any other exhibition so far held, because of the strong emphasis that will be laid, in all arrangements, upon the commercial side, the requirement that all exhibits should be in commercial packages to the exclusion of plate exhibits. A feature of the exhibition will be the special propaganda facilities offered by the co-operation of the Daily Mail, and the arrangements to be made by the Fruit and Potato Trades Federation for advertising the value of the apple as an article of diet.

THE METHODIST CHURCH, WOLFVILLE, N. S.

Special Notice

The Rev. Dr. H. T. DeWolfe, Principal of Acadia Ladies' Seminary, will be the special preacher at this church next Sunday evening at 7 o'clock.

The Sunday School will be held as usual at 10, but there will be no preaching service in the morning at this church, nor in the afternoon at that in Greenwich.

On the following Sunday, the 24th inst., the Rev. Douglas Hemmeon will enter on his new pastorate, and the services both at Greenwich and Wolfville, will be rendered unique by the fact that the Circuit is not only welcoming a pastor, but, also, the coming home of a son.

A very sad death occurred on Wednesday afternoon on the road between Wolfville and Grand Pre. A motor party consisting of Capt. Crossley, and family of Windsor, was returning from a trip to Hueston's Beach and when passing the home of Mr. Robt. Harvey, it was noticed that Capt. Crossley, who had apparently been in usual health and had enjoyed the day, was in distress. The car was stopped in front of the residence of Mr. Chas. S. Pickford, and Dr. Elliott was summoned, but before his arrival the stricken man had passed away. Heart trouble is supposed to have been the cause of death.

Mr. W. H. Chase, who was in Toronto last week, states that the heat there was almost unbearable. It was the hottest weather that he ever experienced in any section that he has visited including the West Indies and the South.

NOTICE

On account of the very dry weather I am requested to ask all citizens to use water carefully.

H. Y. BISHOP,
Town Clerk.

MONUMENTAL MONSTROSITY

Our suggestion is this that the tablet be removed from its present position and placed upon the base of the monument at a height of about five feet.

That the present hideous to be removed completely and that the monument be surmounted by an appropriate piece of statuary, the bronze figure of a soldier (in full dress uniform, in action or in the impressive position of military mourning) or failing that, some allegorical figure, as for example of "Victory", or even a simple column bearing aloft an "acorn" the emblem of Immortality.

Had this been done we should now have a Memorial of which the Town might well be proud, a monument of art and meaning and not a shapeless, inartistic pile of stone. The cost probably would have been but little greater and had it been greater none of us would have objected to the added taxation for the purpose.

As a matter of fact we feel that it is not yet too late, and if some suitable alteration or addition is decided upon, we know that the citizens of Wolfville will be ready and willing, to meet the extra necessitated expense.

Thanking you, Mr. Editor, for your kind indulgence.

Yours faithfully,
ELAINE LEFAYRE.

While a motor attached to a reel was proceeding in the direction of the fire on Wednesday afternoon the swinging of the latter caused one of the iron tires to break with the result that one of the occupants of the car, Fred Herbin, was struck a glancing blow on the head by the end of the tire and severely injured. He was taken to Dr. C. E. A. deWitt who found it necessary to take a number of stitches in treating the wound. Mr. Herbin had a decidedly narrow escape from being killed, and we are glad to report that he is rapidly recovering from his injury.

Mr. E. S. Langille has the contract for building a fine new residence at Gasperau for Mr. Adelbert Coldwell, of that place. The new residence will replace the old homestead which has been removed. The work is going on rapidly and will be completed as speedily as possible.

An alarm of fire was sounded on Wednesday afternoon in consequence of burning grass near the residence of Mr. Gordon Cowie, Victoria avenue. Owing to bad directions the firemen were delayed in locating the fire, which was extinguished without doing any serious injury.

A sensational story was current on Thursday to the effect that Miss Ruth Pollard, a former student of Acadia Seminary, had been drowned while bathing at Chester yesterday morning. It has since developed that the young lady had absented herself without informing her friends. She has since returned.

The Bridgetown and Windsor cricket teams played a league match at Bridgetown yesterday which resulted in a win for Bridgetown, the score being 53 to 42. This makes these two teams tied for first place. An unfortunate accident occurred during the game. Mr. Caudle, of Windsor, breaking his knee cap by falling over his bat.

The matter of the appearance of the railway property was brought up at the meeting of the Council last week and it was suggested by Coun. Wheaton that it would be to the interest of the town to have improvements made even if the expense had to be borne by the town. It was decided to ask the railway company to send a few carloads of ashes and let the work of grading be done by town employees. THE ACADIAN would also suggest that similar improvements be made at the approach to the government pier. Things are in a very disreputable condition there and travellers get a bad impression of the town in consequence.

Mr. Louis Bennett, of Boston, Mass., and New York City, who is holding a Master Class in Voice Culture at the Acadia Conservatory of Music, gave a most enjoyable recital last evening in the Baptist church. Mr. Bennett has a voice of ample range and power, a genuine baritone. The voice is round, rich and warm, the phrasing skilful, diction polished. Moreover, Mr. Bennett is a singer of temperament and magnetism as well as brains. He did some exceedingly fine singing in his French Group and the audience was quick to realize it with spontaneous applause. No small part of the success of the recital was due to Mrs. Bennett who proved herself a most efficient accompanist.

The death of a former Wolfville lady, Mrs. John W. Selridge, took place at the home of her daughter, Mrs. N. S. Sanford, of Amherst, on Sunday morning. JOHNNY THE PRECISIAN

"Johnny said a mother, as she looked at her son distrustfully, 'some one has taken a large piece of cake out of the cake box!'"

Johnny reddened guiltily.

"Shame on you!" said the mother.

"I didn't think it was in you!"

"Well, mother," was the feeble reply.

"it isn't all in me. Part of it is in Elsie."

"Why didn't you send your man to mend my electric door bell, as you promised?"

"He did go madam, but as he rang three times and got no answer, he concluded there was nobody at home."

A SHATTERED ROMANCE.

The motorist mopped up another mile of dusty road, turned a corner, and came upon a delightful little inn. He promptly dismounted and called for a drink.

"Wait a minute and I'll get you another mug. That's Geraldine's," the boy told him.

"I don't mind," said the customer, and drained it off. "I'm proud to drink from Geraldine's mug. She's your sister isn't she?"

"No," said the boy. "She's our dog."

Light as the Down on a Fluffy Chick

These full-blown morsels are so delicately wholesome that most people can make a full meal off them without discomfort.

It is the most witching form in which you can serve the sturdy vitality of Canada's best wheat—so serve these biscuits oftener. Only remember that no common flour can give you at every baking that same satiny, yielding finish; that same teasing aroma that starts digestion. FIVE ROSES flour is famous for the even layers of dainty texture it brings to biscuit making.

FIVE ROSES biscuits are an easy, pleasing way to lose one's appetite—thereby saving on expensive meats and other foods.

CROP REPORTS FOR CANADA.

Dry Weather and Heavy "Drop" In June Have Reduced Outlook In Nova Scotia.

OTTAWA, July 8.—Reports from Canada's six apple-growing Provinces point to a crop of this staple fruit generally in excess of last year's. There was a very heavy "drop" in June, however, which, if it continues much longer, will materially reduce the prospects.

According to the July fruit and vegetable crop report of the Department of Agriculture, British Columbia orchards, as well as those in New Brunswick and Quebec, offer promise of a ten per cent. increase over 1920.

Ontario prospects are for a twenty per cent. reduction. Spies, Baldwins, Macintosh and Russets, heavy but Ben Davis light.

Prince Edward Island expects a big crop of all varieties.

In Nova Scotia dry weather and a heavy drop have reduced the outlook. Baldwins and Kings are set heavy, and a total crop is expected of some ten per cent. in excess of last year.

British Columbia expects a fair to good crop of peaches, but Ontario only looks for 34 per cent. of average. Yellow St. John best, Alberta's and Crawford's, light.

Plums promise well in Quebec, but Ontario and Nova Scotia will probably produce only a fifty per cent. crop. In British Columbia a fair to good crop is anticipated.

Pears in Ontario and Nova Scotia also promise a fifty per cent. crop, while the prospects in British Columbia are generally good.

CAN YOU ANSWER?

(From the Outlook.)

Years ago the compiler of "Beckwith's Almanac" lived in New Haven. The white tall hat which he wore made him a conspicuous figure, and his portrait in his white hat adorned the "Almanac's" front cover. It is from this publication that a reader has selected the following rhyme under the question "Can you answer?"

- Where can a man buy a cap for his knee?
- Or a key to the lock of his hair?
- Can his eyes be called an academy
- Because there are pupils there?
- In the crown of this head
- What jems are found?
- Who travels the bridge of his nose?
- Can he use when shingling the roof of his house
- The nails on the end of his toes?
- Can the crook of his elbow be sent to jail?
- If so what did he do?
- How does he sharpen his shoulder blades?
- I'll be hanged if I know do you?
- Can he sit in the shade of the palm of his hand?
- Or beat on the drum of his ear?
- Does the calf of his leg eat the corn on his toes?
- If so why not grow corn on the ear?

WATCH THE ADVERTISING COLUMNS

By watching the advertising columns of a newspaper you are enabled to know the exact condition of affairs, of the general prosperity or depression where the paper is published. You can sit at your desk and pick out the live business towns and the dead towns. There is no better index to a town than its paper. It is a better criterion to go by and is considered more so by sagacious men than a photograph. It is the enterprize of the inhabitants that make up the town. You may pick up the paper and read at a glance, "We mean business," or "We're deader than a stuffed bird," as though it were printed in a ten-line pica and red ink across the page.

WITH APOLOGIES TO LONG-FELLOW.

Tell me not in mournful numbers advertising is a dream, for the business man who slumbers has no chance to skim the cream. Life is real! Life is earnest! competition's something fierce! If for dividends thou yearnest, learn the parry, thrust and pierce. In the business field of battle, molycoddles have no place; be not like dumb driven cattle, be a live one in the race. Lives of great men all remind us we must bring the bacon home, and departing leave behind us, footprints on another's dome. Let us then be up and doing, otherwise we may be done; still achieving, still pursuing, advertise and get the "mon"!

Peanut Butter Sandwiches Glorified!

Mix Mayonnaise lavishly with well salted peanut butter and spread between buttered slices of Dan-Dee bread.

The Methodist church at Greenwich was the scene of a very pretty wedding on June 30th, when Miss Mabel Edith Lantz was united in marriage to John Bannerman Fenwick. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. W. H. Watts, of Wolfville. The bride, who was given in marriage by her cousin, Mr. Rufus Mason, of Boston, looked very charming in gown of white satin, veil and pearls, and carried a bouquet of white carnations and sweet peas. Both bride and groom were unattended. The wedding march was played by Miss Jessie Bishop. Miss Marion Bishop and Miss Rena Cox acting as ushers, looked very pretty in dresses of pink and white and carried bouquets of pink and white roses. The church was beautifully decorated in white and green, the bridal arch being decorated in the same with white floral bell.

After the ceremony about fifty invited guests were served with luncheon at the home of the bride's aunt, Mrs. Emma E. Harvey, after which the happy couple left for a short trip to the bride's former home at Newport, followed by best wishes of their many friends.—Cont.

The pulpit of the Methodist church was occupied on Sunday morning last by Rev. Mr. Whitman, of Lower Horton, and in the evening by Rev. Dr. DeWolfe. It is expected that the new pastor, Rev. D. B. Hemmeon will begin his pastorate on the 24th.
