Guelph Fall Races.

SECOND DAY.

The second day's programme came off yesterday afternoon and although the day was a fine bracing Autumn one, aided by the presumed strong attractions of a Steeple Chase, the attendance was not any larger than the preceding one. The racing on the whole was decidedly more exciting and interesting, some well contested heats having come off. It is a matter of congratulation that no accident of any kind occurred. Mr. W. A. Bookless discharged the duties of Starter on both days with great satisfaction to all concerned.

The first race on this day's programme was the Grand Steeple Chase, open to all handi-cap weight, over about two miles good ground, eight jumps. 1st premium, $225, 2nd do, 575.

The contestants were A. McLachlan, Jack Barber, (A. McLachlan, Toronto, rider); E. Grange's Rathowen (H. Brown, Toronto, rider); J. Bond's Lottery (R. Fuller, Toronto, rider); A. Simpson's Barbones (R. Young, Montreal, rider); C. Brown's War Whoop was drawn.

The hurdles were erected at intervals round the course, and were constructed of good substantial bush timber and brush. Jack Barber was first favorite at the pools previous to the race.

Considerable difficulty was experienced by the Starter in getting the horses off in consequence of the stubborn rebelliousness of Barbones, who seemed at one time as if he would baffle rider, owner and everybody else. After a good deal of coaxing he suddenly took it into his head to go, which he did at such a rate, that taking the first hurdle beautifully, he soon made a long gap between himself and the other horses. Jack Barber and Rathowen took the first leap in excellent style. Lottery made a clumsy breaking down the hurdle; the remainder of the leaps the first time round were all admirably taken by all the horses.

Barbones passed the stand like a streak, and when reaching the first hurdle for the second time, made a clumsy swerve to take the hurdle at its lowest point after being broken down by Lottery in the first round. Loud cries were made to his rider to return on the ground that rider heard but chose to disregard, whether because he believed it was unnecessary, or whether he knew, as some declared, that Barbones was an impossible to make return, it is difficult to say.

Keeping the lead and taking the jump in fine style, he came in ahead by several lengths of the others. At the quarter-mile post the second time round, Lottery began to let out, and a splendid race ensued between him, the Barber and Rathowen, which resulted in the Barber being second, Rathowen third and Lottery fourth, the three being well together when the Judges' stand was passed.

On the termination of the race a tumult of the wildest excitement arose, the backers and friends of the other horses, together with some disinterested parties (who hurdle judge) declaring that Barbones never jumped any portion of the disputed hurdle. The Judges were not long in announcing their decision, which was Jack Barber first, and Rathowen second, and consequently must have believed that Barbones ran inside the hurdle stake and so disqualified him from winning the race, which in every other respect he had most gallantly won.

The next race was a running race open to all horses entered and in the County of Wellington at the date of race, mile heats. 1st premium $70, 2nd $30.

For this race there were five entries, D. Hefferman's Valparaiso; P. Crawley's Creeping Jane; J. Murphy's Sir Allan; M. Malloy's Annie Laurie and W. West's Fanny.

1st heat.—Valparaiso led to the half mile post, when he was collared by Sir Allan, and a splendid race ensued between the two, Sir Allan winning by about a length. The other horses were distanced, their appearance at the close of the heat being greeted with much admiration by a crowd truly sympathetic with the defeated.

2nd heat.—An exact repetition of the first, a capital heat throughout, and won by Sir Allan by about a length and a half.

The next race was a scratch match of $45 to the first horse and $15 to the second, 1 1/2 mile dash, handicap weights. There were three entries, E. Grange's Rathowen, Simpson's Alzora L and J. Murphy's Sir Allan.

A good start being effected Sir Allan dashed away on the lead, Alzora 2nd and Rathowen 3rd. These positions were maintained, with a gradually increasing distance between Sir Allan and the others till the straight running was obtained, when Alzora responded to the exertions of his rider, who managed to land him only half a length behind Sir Allan, with Rathowen at a tolerable distance behind.

This slow of emigration from Metz since the occupation of that city by the troops, has been so heavy that the population is now but one-third of what it was before the late war.

THE MANITOBA ELECTIONS

GREAT EXCITEMENT ATTENDING THE ELECTION IN SELKIRK.

THE MILITARY CALLED OUT

(From the Liberal Extra of Sept. 20th.)

The Selkirk election was one of the most exciting contests which has taken place in Manitoba, or perhaps in the Dominion. Throughout the day, at the several polling places, nothing but peace and quietness reigned. Owing to Sheriff Armstrong not having placed Mr. Gorton's name on the list of candidates, the French people were very much displeased.

Mr. Smith knew well that had Mr. Gorton been allowed to run, that his (Smith's) success was inevitable. So frauds were perpetrated by a willing official, and the French people were deprived of the opportunity of voting for the man of their choice. Everything went on peaceably at St. Boniface until about 2 o'clock p.m., when a quarrel arose between some French voters. Blows were given, and we understand knock downs took place. There were upwards of 200 half-breeds, and some 30 or 40 English. When the fight occurred, the English party fell back some fifty yards, pursued by the others, with sticks, stones and bludgeons. Suddenly the retreating party turned round and formed into line, and made a stand, fighting desperately for some fifteen minutes, when the French ran off in all directions, leaving their pursuers masters of the situation. At this time the poll-books by some means disappeared, and it cannot be well ascertained what became of them. The Deputy Returning Officer declares that they were taken from him.

It is said that several shots were fired during the fight by both parties. The English party received some very severe blows from sticks and stones, which had been held in preparation for them. Two or three of the French had been severely wounded, and it was reported that one was dead, but we are loath to say that the statement has been contradicted. During all the time of the disturbance at St. Boniface all was perfectly quiet at the poll at Winnipeg.

About half-an-hour previous to the close of the poll, the military under the command of Major Irvine, were marched down to town, and formed in line across the principal street, about a hundred yards from the polling booth. The appearance of the military to those acquainted with military regulations on election days caused the greatest dissatisfaction. Everybody seemed to denounce the calling out of the troops as the most extraordinary outrage ever perpetrated on a free people. There were several people who came in to vote for Mr. Wilson, but owing to the excitement caused by the appearance of the military, they were unable to do so, and left without polling their votes. We regret, for the sake of the name of our Province that the military was called on to interfere in such a manner.

Mr. Cornish and Mr. Mulvey addressed the large crowd, strongly denouncing the conduct, and impugning the competency of those who called on the troops to intimidate men in the exercise of their most undoubted rights—the elective franchise. During the whole day, up to the time the troops made their appearance, there was not one angry word to mar the proceedings.

The crowd seemed considerably aggravated by this unnecessary and unequal interference by military powers, and several publicly stated that they hoped they would never have to gaze upon such a scene again. After the military had remained some twenty minutes, standing in line, Major Irvine marched the men back to camp, but it appears from what followed not to remain long. At five o'clock the crowd dispersed, but no sooner did such take place, a body of upwards of fifty men. Hudson Bay Company officials, armed with clubs and revolvers, paraded the streets. While passing the store of Mercer & Villiers, of the Golden Lion, some unprincipled scoundrel threw a stone at the head of one of the men, striking a box of goods at the other end of the store. There was a man in the store at the time, but he fortunately escaped injury.

Large crowds of people were assembling in the streets in front of the Ways Home and McKeever & McIntyre's Saloon, and the greatest excitement appeared to prevail on the course which affairs had taken through the day. All at once the three large crowd numbering at least some hundred persons, started diving into the water, and the rest of the night a force was placed to guard both it and the Manitoban office. About eleven o'clock the town was all quiet save and except a company of Hudson's Bay Company men, who kept marching through the town, and who more than once came near provoking a renewal of hostilities. We visited the town about twelve o'clock and all was quiet.

PROPELLER BURNED.—The propeller Dalmouse of the Welland railway line, bound from Kingston to Hamilton, loaded with merchandise, took fire on Thursday about noon, ten hours after leaving Kingston, and burned to the water's edge. The crew were all saved; they were picked up by the propeller City of Concord. The boat was insured for $80,000.

The Gov.-General in Toronto.

Splendid Reception in the Capital.

Addresses, Decorations, Illuminations, &c.

The train containing His Excellency and suite left Hamilton about two o'clock and reached Toronto about three. On nearing the city a short stoppage was made with the fleet battery on the heights on the north side of the city, to fire a royal salute over the bay. All along the line from Queen's wharf to Yonge-street, the track, cars and abutting streets were occupied by people anxious to catch a glimpse of the new Governor-General. The nearer the train approached Yonge-st. the denser was the crowd and the louder the cheers, which all through the city were remarkable for their heartiness and spontaneity. Yonge-street itself was densely packed with an enthusiastic throng, over whose heads a perfect canopy of scarlet, white and blue cloth hung from side to side of the street, while the prancing of the horses in the procession which was in waiting, the uniforms of the York cavalry, who were accompanied in line at the foot of the street, and the glimpse of the magnificent corporation arch in the distance, made up a picture of rare occurrence and singular beauty. The train entered the station amid deafening cheers, and His Excellency, leaving the train, was escorted by Lady Dufferin, Sir Hastings Doyle, Mr. Howland, Col. Fletcher, and the staff, then inspected the Volunteers. He complimented the guard of honor, and especially the members of the Grand Trunk Brigade, and the members of the City Council, Board of Trade, St. George's St. Andrews Caledonian and Irish Protestant Benevolent Societies, and other prominent citizens, in order.

The procession was closed by the carriage containing the Earl and Countess of Dufferin, the Mayor and Col. Fletcher; a portion of the cavalry riding before, and a portion after it, in the capacity of a body guard.

Along Yonge-street, King-street, Church-street and Front-street, the cortege slowly wended its way to the City Hall, the thoroughfares being crowded, and the windows along the line of route filled with gay dressed ladies, who waved their handkerchiefs with fully as much enthusiasm, as the stern sex who led their hats about and shouted themselves hoarse. The flags were innumerable, the drapery unending, and the whole scene one of the gayest that Toronto has witnessed for many years.

On the procession arriving at the City Hall, His Excellency alighted, and was conducted into the Hall, where a large number of distinguished guests had assembled in the Council Chamber. On their entrance the chamber rung with the hearty cheers of the assembly, who soon after, the Hon. E. E. Pease, Mayor, and the Council acknowledged the compliment by repeated bows. His Excellency wore a closely-fitting frock-coat, with the ribbon of the Bath and other decorations. Lady Dufferin was attired in blue silk, with white lace.

The address by the Corporation was then presented. The Mayor then presented the Aldermen present, and the City Clerk, Chamberlain, and Engineer, to the Governor-General. The address from the Board of Trade was next read, when the members were presented to His Excellency, immediately after which, he and Lady Dufferin were re-conducted to their carriage.

In the evening, a small dinner party was given by Lord Dufferin, at which a number of leading citizens were present. The street illuminations at night were splendid, and almost as general as when the Prince of Wales visited Toronto. An immense crowd of people thronged the streets until a late hour.

About 10 o'clock His Excellency, accompanied by Countess Dufferin and Col. Cumberland, drove through the principal streets in an open carriage to see the illuminations. When they reached the corner of King and Yonge streets, they were recognized by some of the assembled people, and a tremendous cheer was set on foot. The carriage proceeded at a walk, with a guard of police on each side, followed by several other carriages, along King, Warden Church-street, round by Front-street, up Yonge-street to Richmond-street, and at the continued cheering of the people who followed or rather accompanied the party had become tiresome, the horses went off at a brisk trot, which was continued down Bay-street and on to the Queen's Hotel. This and the effect of considerably dispersing the crowd, and by eleven o'clock the streets were considerably cleared. No disturbance of any kind took place to mar the harmony of the whole day's proceedings.

The Association next proceeded to elect the following members as officers for the ensuing year.—President, Rev. W. F. Clarke; Guelph; Vice-President, J. H. Thomas, Brooklyn; Secretary and Treasurer, A. C. Atwood, Sarnack; Executive Committee, Messrs. Louis, Coburn; Hugh Lipsitt, Campbell's Cross; Wm. Nicolle, Lindsay; D. Reekie, Wilfred; Geo. The Boston Traveler has the following:—"The reign of the sprout gals has commenced. A gentleman of the city sent on Saturday to an intelligence office to obtain a 'young lady' to look on while his wife did the work. The fair creature who was offered for the place, after asking some fifty questions about whether they had 'tubs seats,' whether the kitchen was down stairs, &c., asked how many evenings she could have out." Well, said the gentleman, "I don't see how we can let you have more than seven." "How many little children have you?" said the hand-maiden. "Only one, but eight years old, but will draw him if you think he'd be in the way."

SATURDAY EVENING, SEPT. 28, 1872

The Governor General Coming to Guelph.

We have received a telegraph from the Provincial Secretary, stating that the deputation have succeeded in inducing the Governor-General to visit Guelph on Thursday.—Lieut-Governor Howland will also accompany him.

That "Very Suspicious Affair."

The Mail and Leader have been greatly exercised over what they are pleased to call a "very suspicious affair." It is this. A company was lately formed in Toronto, called the "Canada Car Company," the works to be located in that city. The Tory organs stated, on Thursday, that this company had succeeded in entering into a contract with the Ontario Government for the use, for seven years and a half, with the privilege of renewal for seven years and a half more, of the labour of the Central Prison, now in course of construction, in the western part of that city. It is further announced that the new company are to have workshops in the Central Prison, and that from the building it will have rails laid down to connect with the principal railway entering Toronto. One of this rumour the organs sent a fat job for some of the leading Reformers. They charge that the Company is none other than George Brown, Blaikie and Alexander, a few other Reformers, and a handful of Conservatives thrown in to ward off suspicion. They announce the whole affair as a job, and that Geo Brown has brought a pressure to bear on the Government, and compelled them to enter into an agreement for the use of the prison labour as above stated, which they maintain will be a source of great profit to the Company.

Now for the facts, as we find them in the Globe of Friday. The President and Vice-President of this company are Tories, three out of the four Directors are Tories, and the Secretary, Solicitor, Consulting Counsel and Broker belong to the same school of politics. Only three of the Officers are Reformers. As regards Mr. Brown's connection with the Company, the Globe states that he does not even own a share in it; that he never heard of the prison contract until it was completed, and believing that however advantageous that contract might be to the Government, it would not be advantageous to the Company, he declined to take shares, especially on that ground.

Such is the unravelment of this awfully suspicious affair. Like the Proton and other so-called outrages, it has turned out to be a myth, and the Tory organs are getting laughed at for being frightened at such silly canards.

Cartier's Election.

The Manitoba Liberal, speaking of Sir Geo. Cartier's election for Provencher, says:—"Sir Geo. E. Cartier has been elected by acclamation for Provencher. Riel and Clarke have both given vote to the former, on condition that he receives free and unconditional pardon—and the latter that he receives a judgeship, no doubt. It is said that the nomination of B. C. Davy would not be received by the Returning Officer, least Sir Geo. would be driven to the necessity of a poll. This was rather an extraordinary proceeding, and will no doubt give rise to a protest being entered. It has come to a pretty pass when the gallant knights and baronets are driven from their homes and friends, to seek refuge in holes and corners away in the desolate regions of the North West, with French Half-breeds and Chinese as their constituents. It will be fun to be in the House at Ottawa when Sir George and Sir Frank are introduced."

PARTISAN RUN MAD.—The Huron Signal contains the following: "None but very silly people allow a difference of political opinion to interfere with the friendship and good feeling which should exist between neighbours. To such an extent, however, has Tory malevolence at the loss of the South Riding election been carried, that in a certain locality in Goderich Township they refuse to help their "Girt" neighbors when they have the threshing machine at work. It is extremely foolish to allow political differences to alienate personal friendship."

The Manitoba Liberal speaking of Mr. Cunningham's election, says:—"Cunningham, having the majority, is we believe, elected. Owing to the influence of Bishop Tache and Riel, he succeeded in polling the French vote to a man. We are sorry for the people of Marquette, as we would rather see a Frenchman elected than Cunningham."

SOUTH GRENVILLE.—We learn that Mr. James Cairns is to be the Tory Candidate for South Grenville. Mr. Ellis, who formerly ran against Mr. Fraser, was nominated, but he declined the honour. He had run once in their interest and knew so well what it was like that he did not wish to repeat the experiment. South Grenville is safe for the Reform cause.

DEPUTATION TO THE GOVERNOR GENERAL.—His Worship the Mayor and Mr. Jas. Laidlaw, President of the S. W. Agricultural Society, went to Toronto this morning as a deputation to wait on the Governor General, to try and induce him to visit Guelph some day during the Exhibition.

Sir George Cartier left Montreal on Friday evening for Quebec by express. A few of his friends were present to witness his departure. For Vichy, France, where he proceeds, by medical advice, with the hope of establishing his health.

The Winnipeg Liberal says that the survey of Manitoba is progressing rapidly. There have been upwards of eighty townships surveyed this season; and, including last year's survey, there must be at least nearly 100 townships subdivided into lots of 160 acres each, and ready for actual settlement.

The Provincial Exhibition.

The Fair at Hamilton on Friday although not visited by so many people as the previous day, was largely patronized, and the ground presented quite an animated and interesting view. The receipts during the week have been as follows:

Monday and Tuesday	$ 801 87
Wednesday	2,089 37
Thursday	2,925 00
Friday	777 52
Total	$12,563 96

For purpose of comparison we give also the receipts of last year at Kingston, which were as follows:

Monday and Tuesday	$ 378 42
Wednesday	2,938 44
Thursday	2,895 05
Friday	278 42
Total	$6,235 33

The above figures afford a strong argument for the holding of the exhibition as far eastward as Kingston as seldom as possible. When it was last held in Hamilton, four years ago, the total number of paying visitors who attended it was 14,000 less than the receipts for this year represent, and yet even then they were about 10,000 more numerous than last year.

About 9 o'clock the Governor-General visited the Crystal Palace grounds and took a careful view of all goods on exhibition. We understand that while there he purchased two horses for his own personal use. While going through the horticultural department he and the Countess of Dufferin spoke in highly eulogistic terms of the fruit and flowers. Just as His Excellency the Governor-General was leaving the horticultural department, Mr. James Fleming presented Lady Dufferin with a splendid hand bouquet, and basket of fruit, the fruit consisting of Prince Imperial grapes, Jefferson plums and a few fine peaches, brought by Mr. E. C. Fearnside, of Hamilton, from his garden. Mr. Geo. Leslie, jr., of Toronto added to the collection two very fine bunches of hot-house grapes, black and white varieties, which altogether made a very handsome present, showing to Her Excellency to what perfection choice fruit can be cultivated in Canada. At 10.30 their Excellencies held a levee at the City Hall, at which a large number of the citizens were presented.

After spending over an hour at the Hall, Lord and Lady Dufferin returned to their temporary abode and partook of a lunch before leaving for the station, which was reached shortly after half-past one o'clock. After bidding farewell to those whose hospitality they had enjoyed, and to a number of leading citizens who accompanied them to the station, Lord Dufferin and Countess Dufferin went on board the special train which was placed at their disposal by the Managing Director of the Great Western Railway. At twenty minutes to two o'clock the train moved out from the station amid loud cheering for Lord and Lady Dufferin.

Another Murder in Chicago.

CHICAGO, Sept. 27.—The body of a man named McMahon was found last night frightfully bruised. Murder is suspected. An attempt to institute lynch law is feared by the authorities, and a large posse of police is stationed in the goal to prevent lawless attempts to swing the murderers confined there.

CHAPTER XIX. LOVE REVEALS ITSELF—A DISAGREEABLE INTERRUPTION—THE OUTCAST.

Up to this moment George's attitude and bearing had been calm and respectful, but this remark produced an instantaneous change. He turned a flashing glance on Garrett, and his lip curled with scornful indignation.

"I expect at least," he said, "that in a matter of this kind no third party will presume to interfere, and least of all will I permit such as you to offer an observation."

"Ha! how loudly the young cock crows," cried Garrett, with a mocking laugh. "You won't allow me to interfere, won't you? As if I would think of waiting for your permission. Perhaps it will give you a better idea of my share in the business when I tell you that I was the means of the discovery taking place. If I had not chanced to be passing this way and overheard your billing again to your pretty game might not have come so promptly to Captain Gibson's knowledge. What have you to say now, your highness?"

"Only this," returned George, "that such conduct was quite what I would have expected from you. But the noble position of eavesdropper gives you no right to take part in this conversation, and the respect for himself and his daughter should suggest to Captain Gibson the propriety of ordering you to be gone."

"Ah, you would like that, you would. I rather suspect, though, my dear fellow, that this is the order about to be addressed to you. Eh, Captain, is it not so?"

"Unquestionably it is," said Stephen. "You cannot but understand," he added, addressing George, "that, after this discovery, you will not be allowed to remain in the mansion, or be permitted again to enter the mansion. To-morrow you will find your luggage at the lodge, with the amount of salary I am due you. Lillias, come with me."

Stupid with grief and despair, the poor girl had during the progress of the scene been leaning in a half-fainting state on the side of the arbour. She started wildly at this command, and looking first at George then at her father, exclaimed—

"And what is to become of George?" "Of George?" shouted her father. "Well, George, as you call him, is at liberty to shift for himself. As to what becomes of him, that is neither your business nor mine. Come, I say."

She made an impulsive gesture to reach her lover's side, but her father caught her roughly by the arm and drew her towards himself. "For shame, Captain Gibson," said George sternly. "She is a lady though she is your daughter. Fear not for me, Lillias," he added in a softer tone; "we know and understand our own hearts, though others, alas, cannot do so. We must part now, and perhaps never meet again; but though parted our affection will remain true and constant—Hear me in this, at least, Captain Gibson," he added. "The idea may be altogether preposterous that you should give your daughter's hand to one so poor and obscure as I am, but refrain, I beseech you from forcing her into a union which she abhors. You have no right to do such a monstrous thing as that; no right, I say, to sacrifice her on the altar of your own selfishness."

To this remonstrance Stephen Gibson waited not to listen, for with his rough grasp still on the arm of Lillias, he dragged her away in the direction of the house. On last look she turned on George as she was being hurried off—one concentrated look of love, sorrow, and despair—and next moment she and her father were lost to sight among the trees. At that moment a cloud passed over the moon, obscuring her light, a gust of wind came moaning chillily across the park, and a few whirling snow flakes fell upon the grass.

George stood motionless, gazing at the spot where in drooping wretchedness the form of Lillias had become lost to his view. The fading of the light at that moment seemed to him as if Nature sympathized with the sadness which just then came upon his soul; and the cold chill of the air was a fit emblem of the dreary desolation which had fallen on his life.

How long he might have stood thus, silent and motionless, had his thoughts not been broken in upon, we may not say; but he was suddenly roused from his abstraction by the sneering voice of Nathan Garrett, who had not yet quitted the spot.

SHOCKING CASUALTY IN ALNWICK.—On Tuesday night, a dreadful casualty, by shooting, took place in Alnwick, about two miles east of Rotham, resulting in the immediate death of a young man named John Mann, and the serious wounding of another named David Hogg. It appears that, about dark, two men named Hill, but were, went also a cornfield to hunt hares or conies. After they had been there some time the two other men, Mann and Hogg, the former of whom owned the corn, also entered the field for the purpose of looking about. The two Hills at once took it for granted that the new comers were hares; and one of them, William Hill, jr., fired—instantly killing John Mann, and breaking one arm and badly shattering the other, of David Hogg. The shooting was, evidently, purely accidental; though the results are none the less fatal and sad.—Cobourg World.

BRACKET—EPPE'S COCOA—GRATEFUL and COMFORTING.—By a thorough knowledge of the natural laws which govern the operations of digestion and nutrition and by a careful application of the fine properties of well-selected cocoa, Mr. Eppe has produced a breakfast table with a delicately flavored beverage which may save us many heavy doctors' bills.—Civil Service Gazette. Made simply with boiling water or milk. Each packet is labelled "James Eppe & Co., Homoeopathic Chemists, London." Also, "Milk Cocoa (Cocoa and Condensed Milk).

H. C. Caswell, Oshkosh, Wisconsin, February, 1872, in a letter says: "Fellow's Hypophosphites is doing good work here, and we have already disposed of a large quantity. It stands the test, and every day people express their praise of its virtues. Our physicians are prescribing it, and we have good accounts from Michigan and Illinois."

A Chemical Food and Nutritive Tonic.
Without Phosphorus no thought, say the Germans, and they might add, no action, since Phosphorus and the Compounds are known to be the motive power of the nervous and muscular system. They constitute more than half the material of the human body, being found in every tissue, and their presence is absolutely essential to nutrition, as they promote the conversion of albumen in the food into fibre, which is the vitalizing agent of pure, healthy blood. They are now coming into universal use in Europe and America in the treatment of Scrofulous, Nervous and Venereal diseases, which are caused by impoverished or diseased blood, and in diseases of women suffering from irregularities of menstruation, excessive discharges, in pale, puny children, and that condition of nervous and physical prostration resulting from bad habits, excessive use of stimulants and tobacco, and all that train of evils known as fast life. The great reliability and promptness in its effects is immediately and permanently restoring the derelict constitution has made Dr. WHEELER'S COMPOUND ELIXIR OF PHOSPHATES and CALISAYA a great favorite with the Physicians and Public. Sold at $1.00.

The Largest of any Company in the World.
This Society has led the van in the Insurance world for many years; it has introduced more improvements and given greater Annual Income to the business than any Life Company in the United States, and is deserving in this respect of the praise and gratitude of the community.
There are many reasons for selecting the Equitable Life Assurance Society.
1st—No company has such large annual transactions, thereby infusing into its business a constant accession of fresh and selected lives which is one of the greatest elements of strength.
2nd—Being in dealing with all claims observing at the same time, a due regard to the interests of its present large body of policy-holders by a firm resistance to any attempt at imposition.
3rd—Perfect organization in every department, which renders official information easily attainable and secures a complete administration of its affairs.
4th—Being one of the most progressive in situations of its kind in the world, it is ever prepared to seize at once upon all improvements in the business that science can suggest.
The Equitable Life Assurance Society issues every recognized form of policy, and especially the TRIPPLE SAVINGS FUND INSURANCE which the Company introduced. This new plan has become very popular, as equalizing amount to who are insured under it the advantages which arise from the profits of the business, without in any respect infringing upon the normal results for which Life Insurance was first instituted.
The Equitable feels that it has the strongest claims upon public confidence. Under the management that distinguishes it and the principles by which it is guided, perfect security is given for the future, than which no greater inducement can be held out to all who wish to insure their lives.
Further information regarding the different kinds of Policies issued by the Society can readily be obtained at
