- Insufficiently prepaid letters posted in and addressed to Canada are charged with double the amount of postage due thereon.
- When posted wholly unpaid they will be sent to the Dead Letter Office
- Insufficiently paid letters for or from the United States are charged with the deficient postage on delivery. Letters for the United States must be prepaid at least one farthing rate, 3c
- Wholly unpaid letters for or from the United Kingdom or other countries are charged double postage on delivery and insufficiently prepaid letters double the deficient postage.
- Letters addressed to mere initials, to fictitious names, will not be delivered unless a street address, the number of box or some other definite direction is added.
- Letters bearing mutilated stamps or stamps so soiled and defaced as to make it impossible for the sorting clerks to decide whether they have been used before or not will be sent to the Dead Letter Office.
- Postal Cards—Nothing whatever may be attached to a postal card, nor may it be cut or altered in any way. A previously used post card, bearing a one cent stamp will not be accepted as a post card.

Useful Hints about Mailing Letters.

- Register all valuable letters, and use, except on those for foreign countries, sealing wax for letters containing money.
- Transmit money by Money Orders.
- Make complaints and enquiries in writing.
- Preserve and request correspondents to preserve envelopes of mis sent or delayed letters.
- Send to the Postmaster envelopes of letters about which you seek information or make complaint.
- Business men should be careful to authorize but a limited number of persons to receive their letters and only those in whom they have full confidence.
- Report promptly to the Postmaster or at the Enquiry Office of undelivered letters or other mail matter.
- Letters and papers should be addressed to the street address number at which they are to be delivered.
- Notice of change of residence should be promptly given to the Postmaster in writing, and renewed at the end of three months or it will then lapse.
- In addressing letters, add the name of the county in which the Postoffice addressed is situated; if to a city, add street and number.
- Letters to the United States should be addressed to the State as well as to the Postoffice.
- A letter addressed to a particular street will be taken out by the letter carrier and not delivered at the wicket unless returned by the letter carrier.
- A letter or packet once posted becomes the property of the person to whom addressed, and must be forwarded to the destination. On no application, however urgent, can it be delivered back to the sender.

INFORMATION REGARDING TICKETS.

RATES at which tickets may be sold are fixed by the management of transportation companies, and cannot be changed by the ticket agent.

UNLIMITED FIRST-CLASS TICKET entitles the holder to ride in first-class coaches. They are good for use for an indefinite period, and allow stop-overs at any point, subject to the regulations of the line or lines over which they read.

LIMITED FIRST-CLASS TICKET entitles the holder to every privilege accorded to an unlimited ticket, but must be used within a certain specified time from its date of sale. It is usually limited to two or three days longer than the actual time required to reach destination. Stop-overs may be had within such limit.

SECOND-CLASS TICKET entitles the holder to ride in a second-class coach. It does not allow stop-overs at any point.

CHILDREN 5 years of age, and under 12, are charged half-fare; those under 5, free.

CONTRACT TICKETS—If you attempt to travel on a ticket bought for another person and usually marked, "Not Transferable," it is the duty of the conductor to take it up and collect full fare, of which the passenger cannot expect a refund nor the return of the lifted ticket.

UNUSED TICKETS are generally redeemed by the company as an act of courtesy. Unused tickets, or parts of tickets, should be forwarded to the General Passenger Agent of the issuing line, with an explanation of why they were not used. The return portion of a round-trip ticket is generally redeemable at the difference between the amount paid for and the regular trip rates between the points for which sold.

STOP-OVERS—If you wish to stop off at any point and your ticket allows it, you must ask the conductor for a stop-over check, without which you will be obliged to pay fare on resuming your journey.

LOST TICKETS—If you lose your ticket you are out of pocket the value thereof. Give notice of your loss to the conductor, pay your fare to him, taking a receipt for the amount paid. Then write the General Passenger Agent of the road, enclose receipt, and explain the circumstances. The railway company will adjust the matter.

THE B. C. HANDBOOK AND GENERAL GUIDE TO BRITISH COLUMBIA.

THE FIRST NUMBER of the above will be issued during the present month. It will contain a large amount of General Information about the Province, carefully arranged so as to make it easy of reference on almost every subject connected with British Columbia, which Tourists, General Travellers or prospective Settlers may wish to be informed upon.

Such a book is greatly needed, especially at the present time, in anticipation of a large influx of people during the World's Fair, so as to direct attention to this Province, in the hope that many may thereby be induced to visit it.

With this end in view the Hand Book will be placed in Chicago with the proper parties who will see to its being brought prominently before the notice of the public generally.

The Hand Book has been compiled, not only for the purpose of attracting the attention of Tourists and Pleasure-seekers, but also those who may be looking for New Homes or Profitable Investments. Arrangements are therefore being made to place copies on sale at the Railway Stations and with Booksellers throughout Great Britain. The Hand Book will also be on sale at all the principal points on the line of travel throughout Eastern Canada and the United States, a large number being placed in the principal hotels for the use of Guests.

It is the purpose of the publishers to issue the Hand Book monthly in order that it may contain the latest particulars about the Province, and in this way make it a standard and reliable medium of information regarding British Columbia.
