Hon. Mr. Prior, in resuming the debate on the address in reply to the speech from the throne, said it had been suggested to him by a friend that in speaking he should try to rise to the Imperial standard, that is, to speak ten minutes and say something. (Laughter.) He was afraid he would have to take more than ten minutes as there were so many things to say. The member for Guysboro' (Fraser) had last night attempted to answer the able arguments of the member for Halifax (Borden), but he had utterly failed to do so although he had "put more vehemence than ever into his muscular contortions." Turning to the administration of the Yukon, he said that the Minister of the Interior appeared to be excusing himself to his own party rather than making a ference of his administration which would be acceptable to the country. He compared the condition of affairs in British Columbia during the gold fever in the early sixtles with the corruption and irregularities of affairs in the Yukon very much to the disadvantage of the latter. Col. Prior then read a statement from a gentleman who was prepared to testify before a proper tribunal that in August 1898 he went to Wade, Clare and Wilson's office in Dawson, where he was told lists of valuable claims were kept, and asked the stenographer, A. J. Kellum, if he could have a claim on Dominion Creek. Kellum said not, but offered him claim No. 1 below Discovery on Gold Bottom Creek. Montreal, April 6 .- (Special.)-Private ad-Montreal, April 6.—(Special.)—Private advices received here to-day go to show that day at the meeting of the Western members the political situation in Newfoundland of the Grain Standards Board: ter of fact, Hon. A. B. Morine has not yet entered Sir James Winter's Cabinet, and there may be no end of trouble before these two gentlemen come together. It is stated, also, that both Sir James and his able rival, have said so much against each other that a reconciliation at Ottawa, April 6.—(Special.)—It would naturally be supposed that the twelfth day of the debate on the address would find the interest. In it flagging and the speeches getting dull and monotonous and totally lacking in flavor, but this is not the case. The galleries have been well filled and both of to-day's sittings and the House this afternoon was one of the largest of the session. This evening the House was rather thin, when Mr. Maxwell resumed the debate, as there were several dinners on, but about 11 it began to fill up and there was quite a large attendance on both the Government and Opposition benches. This been an interesting day. Besides Dr. Montague, Hon. Mr. Prior and Mr. John Ross Robertson spoke on the Opposition side, and Rev. Mr. Maxwell and Mr. Campbell in support of the Government.

Mr. Leighton McCarthy also made his malden speech and created quite a favorable impression. He practically repeated what he had stated during his election campaign, as to the independent position he proposed assuming, and said quite modestly that while he did not belong to either party, or even to third party, the side of the House on which his uncle had sat was good enough for him.

That, in order to as far as possible prevent the shipping of what is called inne wheat, all inspectors should be instructed that wheat being shipped from what may be termed mixing elevators shall not pass inspection unless such wheat is fully equal to the average of the like grade at Fort William.

Police of Berlin Searching in Vain for Prince De Dampierre, Who Has Disappeared.

Who Has Disappeared.

Vienna, April 6.—The mysterious disappearance of Prince Lyonel de Dampierre, a noted figure in Continental society, is puzzling the police of Vienna.

The Prince made his home in Paris, where he was a favorite in the saions. He was in the habit of visiting this city once a year, and arrived here the last time three months ago.

Toward the middle of January he registered at the Grand Hotel. The day after his arrival the Prince went away, saying that he was to join a hunting party in Hungary. Since then al! trace of him has been lost. His luggage, valuables and also dozens of letters await him at the hotel.

Despite the efforts of the police and the carnest enquiries of his relatives and friends, not a single clue upon which the detectives can work has been found.

The Prince was well known in London and in all the fashionable summer resorts of the Continent.

the Superanquation Fund. Detroit, April 6 .- A test case of interest Railroad Company was partially tried before Justice Degaw this morning. Charles H. Hunter, former city district ticket agent for the Grand Trunk in Detroit, sues the company for receivery of $183. This sum represents deductions of 2½ per cent. of his salary which have been made monthly since about 1800 and paid into the Grand Trunk Railway of Canada Superannuation and Provident Fund Association, with head quarters at Montreal. The purpose of the present action is to test the right of the company to do this. To draw anything from the fund an employe of the company must have been in its service until he is 55 years of age. Then he receives an aunual allowance for the remainder of his life count to one-sixteenth of his then salary. Mr. Hunter was released by the company some months ago and is thereby barred from ever realizing anything on the money paid into the association, he not having reached the age of 55.

There was a very large attendance of women at the regular meeting of the Women's Historical Society, which was held in the society's rooms, Normal School, yesterday afternoon. The president, Mrs. Forsyth Grant, was in the chair, and Mr. J. H. Coyne, president of the Ontario Historical Society, was present to talk about the proposed exhibition of historical relics and objects, to be held in June, by the O.H.S. He said that the first object of the exhibition is to raise funds for an historical museum, to be located in Toronto. He pointed out the educational advantages of such an exhibition, and said that among other things the society hoped to be able to show an exhibition, and said that among other things the society hoped to be able to show many interesting autograph maps, reports, etc., of the early Jesuit missionaries; these are in the hands of Father Jones, the archivist of St. Mary's College, Montreal, and the probability is that Father Jones will come to Toronto in charge of the exhibit, should he find himself in a position to loan it. Miss FitsGibbon read a letter from Mr. Gilbert Parker, in which he sent his new London address to the society. There were also letters from Dr. John Campbell of Montreal and Dr. Brymner of Ottawa, thanking the society for the honor done them in having elected them members of the society. The society Dr. Campbell also sent many valuable pamphlets to the society, containing much of his own historical research. Sir John Bourtnot also wrote, asking that a delegate be sent to the Royal Society meeting in May.

The following ladies were elected to membership: Mrs. Arthurs (Ravenswood), Mrs. Julius Miles, Mrs. Carey, Mrs. Mutch, Mrs. Charles Heiliwell.

torical Ramble up Yonge-street," which excited the greatest enthusiasm among the members.

Yonge-street, sald Miss MacMürchy, at the present day, and Yonge-street 200 years ago, are two very different thoroughfares. The street began as an Indian trail or bush road, winding here and there through the forest. To Governor Simcoe's far-sightedness and genuine interest in the opening up and general development of the country, we owe this most remarkable and historically interesting thoroughfare. Those familiar with the journeys of Governor Simcoe will remember that in 1703 he set out by the way of Lakes Erle and St. Clair to Lake Huron, to locate, if possible, a port by which merchandise might be sent from the St. Lawrence and New York to the trading posts in the far west. After this journey, the Governor conceived the idea of connecting Lakes Ontarlo and Huron by way of Lake Simcoe and the River Severn, and to meet this need Yonge-street was laid out, and thus became the connecting link between the town of York and Lake Simcoe.

In 1794 Mr. Augustus Jones, Government Surveyor, came from Niagara to direct operations; trees were felled and the road hewn out by the York Rangers. The highway thus made was called Yonge-street, after Sir George Yonge, Secretary of War in George Hil's reign, scion of a noted Devonshire family, and a personal friend of Governor Simcoe, with whom he kept up a private correspondence after the latter's appointment to Canada.

Yonge-street of those days began at Queenstreet, and even 60 years ago, the traveler.

alter the stakes so as to swindle the right

The strong case of the control of th

he must say his activity towards the alleged rascality of his enemies was in nierked contrast with his apathy towards the alleged rascality of his iriends in the Yukon. Mr. Sirton was not justified, as the head of a department on trial, in demanding the names of complainants. Men who went out there went to look for gold and they should not be asked to stop looking for gold in order to prefer at their own risk and expense against evildoers in the country's service. [Cheers.]

"The Minister has not heiped them very much," he added, by his policy of holding a sort of civil service examination of every nan who complains, and looking for proof of good character from every complainant when he should have been looking for proof of good conduct from every accused official.

Proof of good conduct from every accused official.

Had Failed to Take the Chance.
Mr. Sifton had a chance of disassociating himself from the acts of his officials, but he failed to take it. If at the first intimation of wrongdoing he had discouraged instead of encouraging it, he would have relieved Parliament of the duty of his sting on a thorough and searching investigation. The way non. gentlemen opposite received the name of hir. Woodworn showed the sort of justice that would be meted out to dovernment through the mistaken policy of Mr. Sifton was identified with a corruption, which has robbed men of their rights and their money, and would have robbed them of their character if they had dared to make any complaint. If unfairness had been done to the officials it was flit was quite as deplorable that the imnocent should be accused, it was quite as deplorable that the guilty should be shielded. He was suited some gentlemen opposite were excusing the guilty.

Cannot Be Stiffed.

"I am much mistaken," he said in conclusion, "if the demand of the country for the truth of all these proceedings in the Yakon. can be suppressed by the tactes of the Minister of the Interior. An Investigation can be suppressed by the tactes of the Minister of the Interior. An Investigation can be suppressed by the tactes of the Minister of the Interior. An Investigation may suit his followers, and it dimit they are not so scarce as al would like to see them, but there is a public opinion which demands more than an inquiry by Mr. William Ogilvie, with limited powers. Such an investigation may be very good as far as it goes, but there is great need for an enquiry sufficient to show the whole truth about the proceedings in the Yukon. This enquiry, when it comes, should not stop short of showing how so many members of Black Horse Cavalry from Main tologot so very rich in a very short time on very small salaries." [Cheers.]

Maxwell Called Down.

Mr. Maxwell politely—characterized the speech of member for East Toronto as "rubbish" unworthy of being replied to and then proceeded to endorse the conduct of Government with respect to the plebiscite and other matters. And then dealing with the Senate said his sympathy was with the Senate said his sympathy was with those who wanted the total abolition of the Senate, instead of amending or patching it up. The Senate had been called the watchdog of the country, but he would not insult the dog by calling it after the Senate. [Cries of order.]

The Speaker called the honorable member to order and said he ought to know it was not parliamentary to speak disrespectfully of the other House. [Opposition cheers.]

Mr. Maxwell withdrew the phrase.

Taking up the claims of the Prime Minister that the present Ministry had established a system of cold storage, he entered into a statement of what had been done by the late Government in the way of establishing, not only cold storage, but in previously developing the cheese and butter industries. He showed that all the present Government had done was merely to carry out the policy adopted years ago by their predecessors.

Henry, who committed suicide by cutting his throat with a razor in August last, in the military prison of Mont Vaierien, after confessing the forgery of certain documents connected with the affair. The examining magistrate said that when Henry found himself cornered he confessed that Lieut.-Col. Bertulus said to Henry: "Esterhazy and Du Paty de Clam are guilty. Let the latteg blow out his brains this evening and justice will take its course against Esterhazy, the forger, who is now making charges against you, which, if they reach the ears of your enemies, may dead them to accuse you of supplying Esterhazy with the documents." Henry, it further appears, upon hearing this, collapsed in his chair, speechless, and then threw his arms around the magistrate, kissed him on the forchead and cheeks, crying imploringly: "Save us, save us. Esterhazy is a scoundrel."

The magistrate then pressed him for further information against Esterhazy, but Henry begged him not to insist, saying: "The honor of the army before everything." M. Bertulus also expressed the belief that the veiled lady who figured in the case was no other than Du Paty de Clam himself.

A number of friends, including Vice-President Schofield and Secretary-Treasurer Macdonald, of the T. L. C., Messrs. Sinclair, Merry, Woods and others, assembled at the Union station to wish the party God-speed and to give them a hearty send-off.

The Grand Trunk freight agents have agreed upon the following rates for carrying craft exceeding a length of 20 feet: From Toronto or Hamilton to Meaford, Penetang, Midland, Bracebridge, Coboconk, Lindsay, Haliburton, Peterboro, Lakefield, Port Dover, Port Rowan, and intermediate points $i each; all stations from Huntsville to Trout Creek $1.50 each. If canvas punts and boats do not exceed 20 feet, they will be carried at first-class rates on all freight trains.

May Not Be Completed. May Not Be Completed.

Berne, April 6.—It is believed in Berne that the death of M. Guyer-Zeller will cause serious complications in the affairs of the Jungfrau Railway, of which the deceased was concessionaire and promoter. M. Guyer-Zeller was the financial backbone of the project to construct a tourist railway rising to an altitude of 13,670 feet and terminating at the summit of the Jungfrau. Other financiers fought shy of the plan, which they regarded as chimerical, but it is not believed that the death of the president of the company will prevent the ultimate completion of the line.

How War Eagle People Came Near Getting the Republic Mine-

It is stated by one who should know that Telford Yukon Mining Co., Limited It is stated by one who should know that the great Republic mine came near failing into the hands of the Gooderham-Blackstock syndicate before it was captured by Montreal people. About a year and a hair ago, before the property was held at anything like its present value, the local capitalists who were behind the War Eagle and talists who were behind the war Eagle and the first proposition yet that this is the threst proposition yet offered for a Yukon undertaking. C. P. R. and Silver-Lead.

In its issue of March 30, The Rossland Miner continues its onslaught upon what it calls the C.P.R.'s selfish policy of killing all opposition in the way of silver-lead smelting enterprises, in order that it may maintain its long-haul privileges to the American smelters. The Miner actually accuses the Canadian Pacific Railway of having come to an agreement with the American smelting companies whereby the latter pay the C.P.R. a regular bonus for practically remaining out of the silver-lead smelting industry. This bonus is of course over and above the big profit the C.P.R. makes on its long haul of silver-lead ore to American smelters.

Towards the close of January last the lead smelting interests in the United States which treat the British Columbia lead ores held a meeting at Spokane, Wash, and there was also in attendance Mr. W. H. Aldrich, manager of the C.P.K. smelter at Trail. In this connection The Miner asks if it is not true that a decision was arrived at at that meeting whereby the United States smelters agreed to pay the Canadian smelter works a subsidy or bonus of $5.50 a ton on all lead ore which they took ed States smelters agreed to pay the Canadian smelter works a subsidy or bonus of $5.50 a ton on all lead ore which they took out of the country, and so away from the C.P.R. smelter at Trail. Is it not true that such an agreement was ratified and that by reason of it the C.P.R. not only got the benefit of the longer haul to the eastern American smelters, but also got this $5.50 a ton bonus for allowing the American smelting companies to treat the ore, which it might otherwise treat itself?

Inasmuch as the C.P.R. is said to get about $12 per ton for its haulage of ores

s were 1100 tons. The Rambler-Cariboo.

The Rambler-Cariboo.

The Rambler-Cariboo Gold and Silver Mining Company, which recently paid its third dividend of one cent a share, is now a regular shipper. Vice-President Humphrey of the company states that the ore is being sacked at the rate of about 75 sacks a day, and is hauled to McGuigan on the C.P.R., from which point it is shipped arer the railway. The daily output is about five tons, and the ore is said to net the company $70 to the ton over and above all smelter and transportation charges. Thirty-one men are employed at the "Rambler" mine and work is being pushed in order to get enough ore blocked out to permit of the increasing of the amount of daily shipments.

On Texada Island.

On Texada Island.

Texada Island, which is chiefly noted as the location of the Van Anda mine, evidently has other good properties. Mr. H. Jell, it is announced, has just bonded the Copper King to W. T. Newman of Vancouver. The option is to run 90 days and the consideration is $10,000. Texada Island, it will be remembered, lies in the Straits of Georgia, to the northwest of Vancouver, B.C.

There continues to be considerable talk in the west about the recent placer strike on the Canoe River, near Tete Jaune Cache, and reports concerning the alleged discovery are mixed up. It seems that the first find of gold was made by a man named Jackson, who had made his way into the head of the Canoe River by way of Edmonton and the Yellowhead Pass. In a letter to his wife, published in The Edmonton Bulletin, Jackson said that he sunk a shaft to bedrock and got pay dirt running 50c to the pan, which would enable a man to make $40 per day. An associate of Jackson's recently wrote to The Anaconda Standard, stating that the surface showing is from a few colors to 50c a pan, and that the pay dirt runs better with depth. The Revelstoke Herald, Edmonton Bulletin and Golden Era all comment freely upon the reported discovery. The scene of the find is in the Cariboo district of B.C., near the sources of the Columbia and Fraser Rivers.

Company have reason to congratulate themselves on the piece of property they have secured in Camp McKinney. Messrs. Bogle and Reddin refused to conclude the deal for the purchase of the Radja mineral claim until the ground was surveyed. This has taken some time, as the survey involved running the lines of the Liverpool, Boston, O'Shea and Waterloo, but the result has been most satisfactory, as the Radja and newly located Radja fraction contain, as well as the original location, all the vacant ground between the Waterloo, Fontenoy, Vernon and O'Shea,of which there was considerably more than the owners of the first three now well-known properties had any idea of Mr. Bogle was seen to-day and is very much pleased at the result. It is another illustration of a good maxim, never to buy without a survey. You may be off the earth but varies. The Canada Western. good maxim, never to buy without a survey. You may be off the earth, but you may get more than you bargained for-Rossland Miner.

Humming Bird and O. K.

Smith Curtis of Rossland has bonded the Humming Bird and O.K. claims, which are located 12 miles north of Grand Forks on the North Fork of the Kettle River.

These claims were located by Maurice O'Connor in July, 1895. The Humming Bird is traversed for 1300 feet by a vein of pyrrhotite ore. This vein has been disclosed by openings on it for a distance of about 700 feet, and has also been uncovered on the property to the north.

It is well defined and shows a width of two and a half to three feet of pay ore, with indications of widening with depth. The ore is massive, fine grained pyrrhotite very free from silica, and will therefore be given a cheap smelting rate. It is essentially a gold ore, the copper and silver being generally a trace only.

The values are very uniform, being mostly from $20 to $40 in gold. An average sample carefully selected gave $24.80.

Mr. Curtis expects to have 15 or 20 men at work on this vein next month. He proposes to drive tunnels 25 feet in ore at intervals of 100 feet on this yein, This Humming Bird and O. K. intervals of 100 feet on this yein. This Clough's Code.

and similar to that of the Humming Bird, but very little work has been done on it, but where done, good ore has been disclosed, giving assays of $19.06 and $25.60. It is intended to open up this vein with-

Reports of MR. T. L. PARKER, Placer Mining Engineer, of the Telford party. Mr. Parker writes from Brewer Creek, 2nd October, 1898, as follows:

"Since writing you last, Brewer Creek has taken a boom in Dawson City, and no doubt ere you receive this the name will be familiar to the outside world as the Bonanza of the will be familiar to the outside world as the Bonanza of the Stewart River. 'Tis safe to say that we have the best prospects of any creek discovered so far this year in the Yukon, and to prove this we have other practical mining men located on this Creek who came to us to winter, saying they see nothing so good as we (the Telford party) have in this country, they having been on Henderson, Black Hills and the McConstent."

Questen."

On claims adjoining the above they have gone down 14 feet, 3 feet pay dirt and gold washed out very coarse, so far ranging from the size of rice to pieces going 35 cents.

In his letter of the 5th December, 1898, Mr. Parker writes that the Brewer Creek and Thistle Creek localities were practically of the same formation and good for a square of twenty-five miles. He is confident that these locations would turn out the richest and most satisfactory in the Yukon. Coarse gold in size from rice to beans was being taken out.

"I went over the work already done on the claims on Brewer Creek, and am very well pleased with the prospects so far. The discoverer, Mr. Brewer, showed me his work and the gold taken out, and from appearances of everything the Creek should prove a very good thing. A party of Australian miners are working claims between our locations. I told you in my last letter about sending Dr. Robertson and Myers to Dawson. About the time of their departure from the mouth of the Stewart, one of the richest strikes so far in the Yukon was made, Thistle Creek, 20 miles above Stewart on the Yukon, so they went up and staked No. 29 and 30 on Blueberry, one of the creeks running into Thistle and reported the best prospect in the Yukon. This Thistle is reported one of the richest strikes ever made on the Yukon. It was dis ered by four Scotchmen. The gold is in pieces as big as beans, and some pieces go $5.00 and more. Telford Creek is coming to the front; the whole Creek is now staked. Only s are being worked."

Coarse gold in size from rice to beans was being taken out.

In his letter of the 26th December, 1898, Mr. Telford reports on the Thistle Creek region that $20 to the pan was the Showing there, and that this region could be called the New Klondike, of which Stewart would be the mining centre, pushing Dawson City hard for importance.

In his letter of February 15th, 1899, he says: I left Telford yesterday, and arrived here last night at Stewart City. We have not reached bed rock on Telford Creek yet, but expects to have two shafts down by first week in March. One cubic yard—1 1-3 tons gravel, I miner's inch of water will wash 3 tons per day. (The working day during July, August, September in the Yukon is practically 24 hours.) 1 miner's pan of gravel weighs from 75 to 110 lbs. Taking the lowest pan weight gives 26 pans to the ton. Block-street Extension Advised.

In his fortnightly report to-day before the Board of Works, will be found an important grist of Street Railway matters. City Engineer Rust recommends that the Toronto Railway Company be required to extend the Bloor-street tracks from Lansdowne-avenue to Dundas-street, as called for in the agreement. The new track allewance he would pave with brick on concrete, to cost $9500. The Railway Committee of the Privy Council would of course have to apportion the cost of protections at level railway crossings.

They Won't Do What They're Told.

He notifies the committee of the refusal of Manager Keating to lay tracks over York-street bridge and of the protest of "owners" of Yonge-street wharf against the laying of tracks on Lake-street.

Exclusive of land damages, he estimates the cost of extending Bloor-street, Danforth-avenue, at $240,000. It would require two bridges, one 1200 feet, and the other 1400 feet, over ravines. This cost is exclusive of land damages and must be a damper to Ald. Frankland and Frame, whose proposition it is.

Stick to Their Hobby. The Street Railway Company are further announced to have declined to operate the proposed new Belt Line, of Church, Bloor. It appears that Mr. Lever will accept no other site than the one already stipulated and that his price is somewhat removed from the figure placed upon it by the Smith estate. The Board of Control talked informally and secretly over it yesterday with Messrs, Fleming and Rust, and are quite acquainted with the difficulties. It is not just clear to them why the company should be so desirous of obtaining this site, especially when the shipping facilities, which the company claims to require, could be so much easier obtained by buying a bay-front site. As it stands, the company propose to locate up the Don and to require the city to diredge it to the mouth. It is understood that this would cost $30,000, although the City Engineer's estimate is kept discreetly quiet. With the bank-raising and road macadimizing, it is calculated the total cost would be $50,000, which is a further difficulty in controllers' minds.

The Board of Control will meet again today and so will the Board of Works. It is probable that each committee will have the matter laid before-them.

A Citizen Getting After Them.

The furious attack on the profound and ponderous dignity of Chairman J. J. Graham of the Reception Committee on Wednesday has aroused grave questions. It recalls the fact to Ald. Crane that section 520 of the Municipal Act, limits the expenditure of this committee to $5000 per annum. It provides that it must be devoted only to reception of distinguished visitors and to payment of traveling expenses of deputations, who go forth outhe city's business. J. J. Graham and the promiscuous spenders had better beware. Ald. Crane warns them that a reputable and responsible gentleman, "on the outside" is watching the various grants, and if a demanded return shows that they have spent in excess of the statutory finalt, he will issue writs holding the aldermen personally liable. Every alderman is liable, it is claimed, who does not divide Council in opposition to grants enough to form the excess.

To-day, The World's correspondent, through the kindness of Superintendent Frederick Keffer, M.E., was able to visit the property and inspect the underground workings, which he did, in company with the superintendent and mine manager, Henry Johns. The early development of the Mother Lode consisted of a 246-foot tunnel, run from near the west side line of the claim. When in a distance of 152 feet from the mouth of this tunnel an incline winze was sunk on the ore to a depth of 100 feet, and from the bottom of the winze an 87-foot cross-cut was run, and it was from near the bottom of this winze and in the 87-foot cross-cut that the best grade of ore, found in these workings, was discovered, thus showing that with depth, good improvement in ore values is gained.

Canadian securities were easier to-day, in sympathy with Wall-street stocks. Montreal Street Railway and Toronto Railway, after an initial show of strength, receded sharply, and there were also recessions in C. P. R., Cabic, Twin City, Payne, War Eagle and Cariboo. Toronto Electrics and Dominion Bank manifested a steady feeling.

A London cable to Messrs. A. E. Ames & Co. quotes Grand Trunk Railway securities as follows: fours, 89; firsts, 84%, and seconds, 58%.
