A UNIONIST GAIN OF 14 ONLY BERESFORD AND JOE MARTIN WIN

Liberals Won 3 Seats From Unionists and One From a Labor Candidate—Labor Party Fared Badly—John Burns on Top Again.

LONDON, Jan. 17.—At the conclusion of to-day's polling in the general elections, the parties stood as follows: Unionists, 92; Liberals, 77; Laborites, 18; Nationalists, 13. Net gains for the Unionists, 29. The government fared much better to-day than its most ardent supporters expected. The Unionists gained 19 seats, the Liberals 4, and the Laborites 1, making a net gain for the Unionists for the day 14, one less than they gained at the election Saturday. The Unionists' greatest gains were in Portsmouth and Preston, where two seats in each were won. Lord Charles Beresford captured Portsmouth with a great margin, carrying his running mate with him. He made the condition of the navy his campaign cry, and his election was received with remarkable enthusiasm in London.

HON. JOS. MARTIN
Elected in St. Pancras, E.

Indications of Feeling.—From returns so far received, the results by well-defined "districts" show: Midlands—Unionists 8, Liberals 6; Unionist gains, 4. South of England—Unionists 11, Liberals 4; Unionist gains, 7. London—Unionists 18, Liberals 9; Unionist gains, 5; Liberal gains, 1. Lancashire, Yorkshire and North of England—Unionists 7; Liberals 24; Liberal gains, 3. Scotland—Liberals 2. A significant feature of the polling was the losses sustained by the Labor party, half-a-dozen seats going to the Unionists and one to a Liberal candidate. Will Crooks, the prominent, was among the fallen. Hamar Greenwood Defeated.—In fact this happened all thru the country, the huge majorities secured in 1906 showing big reductions in almost all cases. Indeed, many of the Liberals who became members of the house of commons by the landslide this year have been sent back to private life. Among them is Hamar Greenwood.

Exeter from the Liberals by the narrow majority of 25, while in the Peckham division of Camberwell, Henry Cubitt Gooch, who secured a majority of more than 2000 in the recent by-election, retains his seat by a bare 100. One Liberal retains his seat by a majority of only ten. The general view of to-day's battle bears out the forecast. The north is solid for the government, the midlands section, especially in the vicinity of Birmingham, favors tariff reform. The victory of the Unionists at Walsall points to an extension of Joseph Chamberlain's influence. Burns Goes Back Again.—John Burns of Battersea comes back to parliament with flying colors. Altho in the great landslide of 1906, he won by 1900 votes, his normal majority is about 200, and in to-day's hard fought battle, he beat A. Shirley Benn, the Unionist, by 555. Defeat has been predicted for Honest John perennially during the past decade, and Mr. Burns and his friends were considerably frightened this year. Seeking most accurate figures in Westminster was sent to the house of commons by the enthusiastic support of the workmen and socialists of his home district as their spokesman, he has gradually outgrown his old radical ideas. He has become one of the most conservative of Liberals, and is even said to be a good Tory. Part of His Education.—He has so far outlived his famous dictum that no man could honestly earn more than $2500 yearly, that he holds a $10,000 position and is likely to be promoted to a $25,000 position, and "his style of living remains as modest as ever. The "Car of Battersea" as some of the working men call him, has not hesitated to stand against some of the demands of his old time friends upon the government when he considered them unreasonable. He has spoken plainly about the working men's tendency toward improvidence and drink. While he has gained the respect of all parties in parliament, and is considered one of the ablest of the legislators, "Honest John" is one of the mildest terms applied to him in the labor camp. Threats to overthrow him have been under this year than ever and his defeat was generally expected, but his engaging personality and his thorough canvass of the district pulled him thru. Unionists Fought Hard.—Hundreds of motors, bedecked with the Unionist colors, filled the Battersea streets to-day, taking voters to the polls. Long lines of them were drawn up outside the factories waiting for the workers to come out. Benn's placards in the windows outnumbered Burns' to one. The Socialist posters reminded the working men that John Burns had said that each of them spent six shillings a week on drink. One of them accused him of taking soup which some outcasts should have had when he visited the "gilded palaces" of the rich. Another exhorted the voters to "turn the canting hypocrite out." Still another represented him in court, labelled "the gilded popinjay." The excitement in Battersea to-night is greater than elsewhere in London.

MAJORITY ASSURED SAY GOVT. LEADERS

Lloyd-George, Churchill and McKenna Comment on the Returns of Yesterday.

(Canadian Associated Press Cable). LONDON, Jan. 17.—Lloyd-George, referring to the election results, said that protection was already beaten. The Liberal prediction had so far been fulfilled to the figure. Churchill, at Dundee, said a substantial progressive majority was assured. The only question is whether its strength will be sufficient for the supreme and unusual labors. For the supreme trial, which he immediately before it, McKenna, at Newport, said they had to expose a very extended front to the enemy, but had offered only a very small face to attack. The election had gone far enough to assure a majority for the government.

Snared His Watch.—The home circle set up by Rosie Prue and Fred Butt at 195 University avenue was rudely disturbed yesterday when the police gathered in Rosie and Freddie upon charges of theft and receiving. It was this way, respectively. It was this way, according to the story of Joe Walton, Saturday night and Rosie treated him real nice. But when he left he was minus his watch. It was found in possession of Freddie. They were taken in by Detective Montgomery.

LAWYERS HAD NO "PULL" IN SAVING OF BLYTHE

Minister of Justice and Sir Wilfrid Laurier Enter Daniels When Matter is Broached.

OTTAWA, Jan. 17.—(Special).—In the house to-night Capt. Thomas Wallace (Centre York) moved for a copy of all papers, telegrams, documents, etc., concerning the postponement of the execution of Walter Blythe, and also in respect to his second trial. There had been a good deal of dissatisfaction in his constituency over the matter, and he thought the reasons for the postponement should be made public. Hon. A. B. Aylesworth said he was glad of an opportunity to explain away some of the misapprehensions which appeared to exist, but was sorry to see a motion of this kind brought forward, as it was not desirable that such papers should not find their way to the public. After explaining the prerogative of mercy as exercised by the King thru the governor-general, Mr. Aylesworth said that the government was responsible for the reprieve, which had been granted because the constitution provided that in capital cases his excellency acted only upon the advice of his advisers. Only One Reprieve.—One misapprehension which seemed to exist was that there had been a number of reprieves. There had been one only, given about the middle of last May, solely for reason that parliament was sitting and the ministers could not find the time to properly consider the case. Then the courts stepped in and granted a new trial, and Blythe was declared to be guilty of manslaughter. Before this many applications were made to the government for the exercise of clemency, but they were refused. There had not been unanimity of opinion among the ministers as to whether or not a commutation should be granted on the evidence submitted at the first trial, but this was one of the things which emphasized the desirability of not making these matters public. Dr. Sproule believed that it would be better to let the people know the grounds on which action was reached. He said there was a growing impression that certain lawyers had such a pull with the government that they could get anything they wanted. E. N. Lewis said there was a strong feeling in the country that Blythe deserved to suffer the extreme penalty of the law. Sir Wilfrid said the blame for what had occurred could not be laid at the door of the government. All the government had to do was to give one reprieve. Replying to Dr. Sproule, there was no foundation whatever for the remarks he had made. Hon. A. B. Aylesworth, speaking again, said that in the great majority of cases, prisoners did not have a legal representative, and his own advice to them had always been that they should not pay money to lawyers, that they were better off without them. Mr. Wallace said that in view of the explanations made, he would withdraw the motion.

ENGLISH FIRM OFFER TO DEEPEN WELLAND CANAL

Will Complete Work in Five Years and Accept Thirty-Year Bonds.

A prominent English engineering firm with which Sir Robert Perkes, M.P., is believed to be associated, has sent a letter to Mayor Geary, offering to take on a contract for the widening and deepening of the Welland Canal so as to accommodate ocean-going vessels if desired. The firm undertakes to complete the work in five years, and to accept Dominion Government guarantee bonds payable in thirty years, prices to be submitted when specifications have been decided upon. The proposition is made to Toronto as being the largest city in the St. Lawrence and Great Lakes Improvement Association.

HOUSE VOTES AGAINST ABOLITION OF SENATE

Mr. Lancaster's Motion Lost, 111-22—Two Liberals Supported His Proposal.

OTTAWA, Jan. 17.—(Special).—In the house to-day, E. A. Lancaster moved a resolution similar to that moved by him last year, declaring that "this house is of the opinion that the senate is no longer required, or advisable, for the properly carrying on of responsible government in Canada" and that the abolition of the senate would greatly conduce to the welfare of the Dominion of Canada and promote the interests of the British Empire. Mr. Lancaster urged that senate reform had been a plank in the Liberal platform in days gone by and both parties were agreed that matters were not right. In Toronto, Sir Richard Cartwright had once said the senate was a millstone around the necks of the Canadian people, which he prayed that Providence would soon remove. When he became a senator himself, his cries ceased. Sir Oliver Mowat in 1893 had said: "We are agreed as the necessity of a fundamental reform of the house of lords will in some way or should be retained." Mr. Lancaster, however, regarded the senate as an entirely useless body, which should be abolished. H. H. Miller, South Grey, said he would vote for the abolition of the senate. Sir Wilfrid Laurier said he regarded the character of the legislation of the house of lords as a body necessary for the protection of minorities. No case where senate intervention had to be resorted to in this regard had occurred in Canada, but it might occur. "Of course," he said, "the wish is expressed that there should be a reform of the house of lords, and indeed it is probable that whichever party succeeds in the present election as a consequence of the election, the house of lords will in some way be reformed. But I am sure that there is no suggestion that the house of lords should be abolished. I think it would be unadvisable if the second chamber were abolished. The same principle applies here." Mr. Lancaster had said that the character of the legislation of the house had so much improved since forty years ago that there was no apprehension now of dangerous legislation passing. The premier did not think legislation had so much improved that people would care to see the senate removed. He was shocked and scandalized that he was compelled to defend Conservative principles against Conservative members. Hon. John Haggart said for years he had waited in vain for the premier to implement his promise made to the people that he would reform the senate. He said the feeling was nearly universal that there should be no abolition, but reform. Dr. Sproule opposed abolition, but favored reform. On a vote being taken the motion was defeated, the following voting for Mr. Lancaster's motion: Conservatives—Lancaster, Magrath, Lewis, Chisholm of Huron; Taylor of New Westminster; Crothers, Kidd, McCull, Currie of Simcoe; Sexsmith, Thornton, Sharpe of Lisgar; Haggart of Winnipeg; Campbell Fraser, Wallace, Russell, Best, Meighen, McCarty. Liberals—Emmerson and Miller.

THE WEST AND THE SENATE

Sir Wilfrid Laurier Promises to Give it Consideration.

OTTAWA, Jan. 17.—(Special).—After recess in the house to-night there was a renewal of the discussion on senate matters, when J. D. Taylor (New Westminster) proposed a resolution calling for treatment of the west in the senate on the same basis as Eastern Canada. Sir Wilfrid Laurier said that when the question was dealt with it should be done in the spirit of the act. A new unit for the west should be created, rather than leaving the matter to the discretion of the senate. He did not think that in respect to the upper house representation should be based on population as in the lower chamber. He promised that if Mr. Taylor would receive early and serious consideration of the government. Mr. Taylor agreed. Miller Defies Aylesworth.—H. H. Miller, Liberal member for South Grey, kicked over the traces this evening. When his bill to amend the Interest Act came up for second reading, the minister of justice opposed it. Mr. Miller's object is to make it possible for a mortgage to pay off a mortgage on one month's notice, or by paying one month's interest. He refused to accept the minister's dictum, and was supported by F. B. Cartwright, A. S. Meighen and E. W. Nesbitt. The speaker calling for "aye" and "nay," declared the motion carried, and Mr. Miller's bill was read a second time.

NEW YORKERS WOULD GET IN

Capitalists in Montreal to Size up Terminal Project.

MONTREAL, Jan. 17.—(Special).—Several New York capitalists were here to-day, one of them representing the Morgan interests, and will confer with the street railway and power directors with a view to form a part of the hundred-million central station project. J. E. Aldred, president of the Shawinigan Lumber Co., was appointed director of the power company to-day, and J. S. Morris was made general manager, vice the late W. McLean Waibank.

REV. JAS. BARCLAY RETURNS

MONTREAL, Jan. 17.—(Special).—Rev. James Barclay, pastor of St. Paul's Presbyterian Church, has resigned, and will probably retire altogether from active work, or will remain with an assistant. Rev. Mr. Barclay probably received the largest stipend of any minister in Canada, his income amounting to about $7000. A year or two ago Lord Mountstephen gave him $15,000 on the occasion of his twenty-fifth anniversary at St. Paul's.

TO ENFORCE THE REPORT.

MONTREAL, Jan. 17.—(Special).—It is stated that Deleigh McGregor of McGill University will take action against the aldermen and others mentioned in Justice Cannon's report.

EXPROPRIATION IS EFFECTIVE SOLUTION

In No Other Way Will Toronto Overcome Disadvantages of Present Service—Controller Spence for Immediate Action.

"The only effective, comprehensive method of solving the street railway problems that Toronto today is the resumption by the city of the franchise and privileges which it surrendered to the company nineteen years ago. If this is not done, the citizens must submit to overcharging, insufficient service, and all the other disadvantages which they now suffer under a system which makes them pay, for the service given, far more than that service is worth."

Controller Spence in the foregoing statement made yesterday, indicated that he is opposed to the city's stopping short at securing the power to expropriate. He believes in putting expropriation into effect as soon as possible for reasons which might thus be summed up: (1) If the company can lay aside a handsome surplus after paying seven per cent. dividends, the city's share, which is about one-third of the net earnings, and all other expenses, why should not the city, which would retain the entire earnings and be under no necessity to pay dividends, be able to operate at a profit? (2) While it is advisable to set power to build the tubes, as they will eventually have to be built, expropriation is the only sure and complete remedy for overcharging, and the means of giving a proper service in the suburbs. Mayor Geary stated to The World yesterday that he would have no objection to the city's applying to the legislature for power to expropriate, altho he did not think that the power so obtained should be used at present. Profits of a Year.—"There are no figures available of the results of this year's railway operations," remarked Controller Spence, "but jumping from the financial statement for 1908, the profit over operating expenses was no less than $1,800,000, of which about one-third was received by the city, the other two-thirds being available for the company for payment of capital charges, the accumulation of a surplus. If the whole of these profits, or even a less profit because of a better service, were required under city operation, there ought certainly to be available sufficient money to meet all annual capital charges without the contribution of any way of taxation towards the maintenance of the enterprise." People Plundered.—"The surplus profit thus made out of the plundered people is divided between the company and the city. The term 'plundered' is not used in any derisive sense. The people are plundered under an agreement made by their representatives, sanctioned by law, and which can only be sanctioned by law and with reasonable grounds. The rights which it conferred upon the company, and the rights of which it deprived the people. It is right to apply for legislative power to construct tubes and surface railways, but that application ought to be much more comprehensive than was the limited question submitted to the people. Application ought to be made for a power which is frequently given in Great Britain to municipalities which are badly served by private corporations operating public utilities, that is the power to expropriate, on an equitable basis, the rights which were inconsiderately or ignorantly granted. The city ought to be empowered to expropriate all the Toronto Railway Company's plant, equipment, franchise and rights." Continued on Page 7.

DEATH OF CHARLES LONG

Was a Well-Known Journalist—Came From Collingwood.

Mr. Thomas Long and family (Jarvis-street) received a cable yesterday from Miss Long in Calcutta announcing the sad news of the death of her brother, Mr. Charles Long, in that city on Sunday. The deceased was about forty-six years of age and the eldest of Mr. Long's two sons. Accompanied by his wife Mr. Long left Toronto nearly five years ago to travel in Europe and wrote a number of interesting accounts of his journey for periodicals in the United States and Canada. For some months he has suffered from a recurrence of an old stomach trouble, for which he underwent an operation on this side and intended returning for a second. But death intervened. Mr. Long and his wife reached Calcutta on Nov. 4 last and a letter from him announcing his arrival there came to the father in the same hour with the cable of his death. The deceased was connected with several newspapers in Canada and the United States and had a very wide acquaintance and experience. The remains will be brought home for interment in the cemetery arranged. The many friends of the family in Toronto, Collingwood and Montreal will receive the news with deepest sympathy.

The weather and the rule postponed the second round of the ring-rink curling competition, that was down for decision last night.

The archery club critics started a useless crusade against the spikes, when every practical player, who is an independent, well-posted fowler, expected anything else from a wise old owl like Dan Johnson.

CANADIANS DOING WELL IN BRITISH POLITICS

Canadians are doing well in British politics, and the success of "Fighting Joe" Martin in East St. Paul was well merited.

He was born in Milton, Ont., in 1852, and educated at Michigan State Normal School and Ontario Provincial Normal School, Toronto, he subsequently passing his second year's examination in arts at Toronto University.

After teaching school in Ontario, he removed to Manitoba, and was called to the bar of that province in 1882. A Liberal in politics, he was elected to the Manitoba legislature in 1883, holding the seat for nine years.

In 1883 he was returned to the Dominion parliament as member for Winnipeg. His last attempt in politics was in 1896 when he was defeated by Hon. H. J. Macdonald. He then moved to British Columbia and opened a law practice, but soon mixed in politics and became prominent. While representing Victoria he was called on to form a government, but was thrown over by his former friends. The redoubtable "Joe," however, went thru with the game and decided to fill the ministerial benches.

Richard Jobb, in whose behalf 200 old Canadians cabled the electors of East Marylebone, finished a very poor third with 700 votes.

The victory of Admiral Lord Chas. Beresford in Portsmouth, in the naval election, is complete, and all Torontonians will rejoice with him. He also carried his fellow Unionist with him. Two gains.

THE ROBERT SIMPSON COMPANY LIMITED

soon attracted notice. In 1906 he was elected in York. He is now a practicing London barrister, an officer of the King's Colonials, and is recognized as one of the government's best campaigners. He had an exceptionally hard opposition this time, and it was not long ago stated that should he be defeated the government, if returned, would find a safe seat for him.

A. Bonar Law (Lib.), a native of New Brunswick, is 51 years old. Before taking up politics in 1900 he was a Glasgow merchant. From 1902-5 he was parliamentary secretary to the board of trade. In 1906 he was defeated, but a seat was found for him in Dulwich. He is a powerful advocate of tariff reform.

J. Allen Baker (Lib.) was born in Eastern Ontario, and educated in Trenton High School. In 1876 he entered his father's engineering business and in 1885 he was defeated in West Flamborough in 1900, but was returned in 1905. He is a frequent visitor to Canada.

Dr. T. J. MacNamara was born in Montreal, 43 years ago. He has been in parliament since 1900, and has been secretary to the admiralty in the Asquith government. In 1907-8 he was under secretary of the local government Provincial Normal School, Toronto, he started out in life himself as a teacher in an elementary school, then turned to journalism and the organization of teachers.

Sir Gilbert Parker (Unionist) is 47 years of age. He was born near London, and his novels have made him world-famous. He has represented Gravesend since 1900.

E. Crawshaw Williams (Liberal), who was elected at the head of the poll for Leicester, is a young man well-known here. He visited Canada with Hamar Greenwood three years ago, and again in 1908. On both trips he discussed in the Canadian press the merits of free trade and imperial preferences, siding with free trade. His father was for many years a member of the House of Commons, and his family is a leading one in Wales. A university man, he took up the cause of labor and social reform and ran against Lord Balfour in Chorley in the previous election. He also acted for a while as secretary to his friend, Winston Churchill.

Rt. Hon. John Burns is 51 years of age. He has represented Battersea since 1892, and in 1905 was appointed president of the local government board, being the first working man to hold cabinet rank in England.

Will Crooks, the Laborite, who visited Toronto last fall, and who just arrived from the Antipodes, was defeated in Woolwich.

Richard Jobb, in whose behalf 200 old Canadians cabled the electors of East Marylebone, finished a very poor third with 700 votes.

The victory of Admiral Lord Chas. Beresford in Portsmouth, in the naval election, is complete, and all Torontonians will rejoice with him. He also carried his fellow Unionist with him. Two gains.

The 33-called tube scheme is a proposal to establish and operate in competition with the present service, an underground railway extending from the heart of the city into the lately annexed districts, and a system of surface railways in those districts connecting with the underground tracks, as to give residents in the new districts a sufficient and rapid service into the heart of the city. It is claimed that the traffic on this system would also relieve the overcrowding by lessening the traffic on the present system, and thus allowing existing tracks and cars to accommodate the traffic. Another feature of the scheme is to give the city power to construct and operate the new system, the power asked for ought to be possessed by the city. Application for it ought to be made. It is only right, however, to point out that the exercise of it would not be a satisfactory remedy for the present conditions.

Doubt it Will Pay. "There is some doubt as to the practicability of making such a system, pay its way. If this were not done, the result would be a heavy financial burden on the taxpayers, and a consequent injury to the cause of public utility. Nothing is being done to provide more of these requirements, and the evil grows worse every day."

tracks can accommodate. The city council is willing to consent to more central tracks if the company will agree to make extensions to the new territory, which the company has already done. The question of extensions, until additional tracks are secured in the heart of the city. The situation is further complicated by the fact that the company claims the right to lay tracks without the city's consent, which claim the city disputes, and as to give residents in the new territory the right to lay tracks which was not included in the city at the time the agreement was made.

The company's rights within the former city limits are exclusive for surface railways, except in case of the company's refusing to lay tracks, in which case the city might give to another company the franchise for the proposed line, but the city has no power to lay down or operate any line as a civic enterprise, and the limited value of a single competing line makes it very unlikely that any private party would handle it.

Tube System. "The 33-called tube scheme is a proposal to establish and operate in competition with the present service, an underground railway extending from the heart of the city into the lately annexed districts, and a system of surface railways in those districts connecting with the underground tracks, as to give residents in the new districts a sufficient and rapid service into the heart of the city. It is claimed that the traffic on this system would also relieve the overcrowding by lessening the traffic on the present system, and thus allowing existing tracks and cars to accommodate the traffic. Another feature of the scheme is to give the city power to construct and operate the new system, the power asked for ought to be possessed by the city. Application for it ought to be made. It is only right, however, to point out that the exercise of it would not be a satisfactory remedy for the present conditions.

Doubt it Will Pay. "There is some doubt as to the practicability of making such a system, pay its way. If this were not done, the result would be a heavy financial burden on the taxpayers, and a consequent injury to the cause of public utility. Nothing is being done to provide more of these requirements, and the evil grows worse every day."

"The simple and natural method of relieving the situation is manifestly to increase in the present car stock accommodation and the extension of existing lines into the new territory, and the putting on of sufficient cars to carry the traffic. The difficulties in the way of relief are the following:—

Extensions.—The company claims to have in operation in the centre of the city, at rush hours, all the cars which the new territory to any point in the old territory, except on Yonge-street, would have to use both lines and pay double fares for this double service. The new territory, which is employed or do business in the old territory, would be burdened with this double system, instead of establishing such an inconvenient and expensive condition, the city ought rather to strive to secure the abolition of the limited double fare system that already exists. There must be a single fare for any point within the city limits.

"It is doubtful if the tube system would relieve the over-crowding in the present street railway system. That over-crowding, with the present tracks and equipment may be unavoidable at the rush hours, but it exists to a great extent all day long. When there are cars and tracks available the company limits its car operation to the smallest service in which it now operates. The people in old territory would have a poorer service and many citizens would have to pay double fares.

Remedy Only in Civic Ownership. "In fact, even if legislation were enacted authorizing or compelling the extension of the company's system into the new territory, even if more tracks were provided in the downtown district, even if more cars were available, still the company's desire and effort to make the greatest possible profit out of the smallest possible service would always operate to the disadvantage of the public and for the benefit of the private corporation. The people of Toronto never can have a satisfactory local transportation system of any kind until that system is owned and operated by the people themselves and for their own benefit."

"In some way or other the legal and other present evils in which it now operates some slight relief, but that relief will not be adequate, and any changed conditions will be more difficult than it would be to-day. The facts stated will compel some method of relief in the near future, and the city could secure the relief more easily, more economically, and more effectively now than it ever can again."

Mining Markets Are Broader And Some Advances Are Made

Cobalt Issues in Somewhat Better Demand, But Public Interest is Not Maintained Thruout.

World Office, Monday Evening, Jan. 17. Trading in Cobalts took on a broader aspect to-day and the exchanges assumed a much more active appearance. Several of the listed issues registered higher prices under the increased speculative interest, but the public showed but little concern in the market from start to finish.

Cobalt Lake was in better demand and under large sales made an advance to 17 cents. The movement, however, is wholly speculative and it is apparent that many short lines are being put out on the upward movement. Prices closed to-day at 16 1/2, while the highest figure reached by the shares was 17 1/2.

Little Nipissing was the centre of a speculative movement and made a fractional gain from last week's close. Beaver, Peterson Lake and Timiskaming were all firmer and more active than during the last few days, and maintained their advances to the close. The higher priced Cobalts displayed little life. La Rose maintained around $4.75, Crown Reserve lost ten points at $4.40, and closed at $4.45 offered, with no bids made. Nipissing sold lower, retreating under forced sales to $9.90 and closing there.

The market was a traders' affair most of the day, and the increased speculative following which was in evidence early was not generally maintained at the close. Brokers in the main, however, look for a slight rally from present quotations, as the easiness with which the shares recovered to-day is taken as a favorable sign of a better tendency later on.

Silver Market Steady.

Mocatta & Goldsmid, dealers in gold and silver bullion, London, Eng., write under date Jan. 7th: Since the opening of the year silver has remained very steady, partly due to the continuance of purchases for shipment to India. The purchases of the large were satisfied by China sales and by rather larger supplies from America.

VEIN ON GIFFORD.

In the west drift a large calcite vein has been cross-cut on the Gifford, Cobalt property, says The Cobalt Nugget.

The work on the Gifford is still under contract to Duncan McPhail, and it is probable that drifting on this vein will commence very soon. The vein was cut at the 200-foot level.

More Ore Still Coming.

The World notes with satisfaction the confirmation of the statements which were published in a series of letters in this paper some weeks ago, that the new ore from the high level has come out of the district. This is but the beginning, for much more will follow before the break-up of the roads in the spring.

It is probable that the new ore will be able to reach the mill, and the encouragement of the provincial administration. Gowganda has accomplished more already without a railroad in its first year of existence than did Cobalt, with all its mineral wealth, with a railroad at its very doors.
