DELEGATION ASSEMBLED IN OTTAWA

SENATORS TO END TREATY DEADLOCK

Receives Assurance From Both Sides That Disposition is to Reach Agreement.

LESS HOSTILITY SHOWN

Washington, Jan. 13.—Assurances that Democratic and Republican senators were united in endeavoring to end the senate treaty deadlock and to avoid carrying the treaty issues into the coming political campaign were given by Senators Lodge of Massachusetts and Hitchcock of Nebraska, Republican and acting Democratic leaders, respectively, today, to spokesmen of organizations claiming to represent 20,000,000 people desirous of early ratification of the treaty.

The two leaders were visited separately at the capitol by more than a score of representatives of various organizations, including societies working for ratification of the peace treaty, labor unions and other religious and educational bodies. The senators were followed by a meeting to urge immediate ratification of the treaty, with such reservations as may be necessary to secure the requisite two-thirds vote.

Predicts Bone-Dry Canada Within Next Six Months

Winnipeg, Jan. 13.—(Canadian Press)—A bone-dry Canada within six months is the prediction of a former liquor dealer here today. By that time, he says, stocks of Canadian whiskey will have been used up, and Scotland will be kept busy supplying her own needs. He predicts a rush of business between here and Kenora, Ontario, within a day or two.

TARIFF AND GREAT INDUSTRIES ASSURE BORDER PROSPERITY

Factors Which Make Building of Plants in Canada Very Attractive to Vast Concerns Like the United States Steel Corporation, The Ford Motor Co., and General Motors.

Special to The Toronto World. Windsor, Jan. 13.—What private ownership would pay for a long-term franchise for a Border Cities Railway with assured radial expansions may be roughly gauged from the census figures of what, geographically, can be called the Border Bow. In 1911 Windsor, Walkerville and Sandwich held 24,771 people. In 1920 Windsor, Walkerville, Ford City, Sandwich and Ojibway have nearly 60,000 inhabitants. The 1200 were put up in 1919, and a big program is still proceeding apace, and a big program is still proceeding apace, and a big program is still proceeding apace.

Drury Will Contest North Norfolk—Doherty for East Kent—Both Looking for Acclamation—No Present Hope for Raney.

Despite many statements made to the contrary, it can now be officially said, as foreshadowed in The World, that Premier Drury will run in North Norfolk, where G. D. Sewell, the U.F.O. member-elect, has offered to give up his seat, and that Hon. Manning Doherty, minister of agriculture, has East Kent open to him by the resignation of J. B. Clark, also a U.F.O. member-elect.

Most Montreal Bakers, at Inquiry, Admit Combined Action. Montreal, Jan. 13.—(By Canadian Press).—At the inquiry today into the complaint against city masters here that a combine had been formed in November last with the object of eliminating competition and raising the price of bread, J. B. Billette, representing most of the French-Canadian makers involved, admitted that there had been a coalition of the bakers, who united and decided to raise the price of bread and fix a common price. It had been done, he claimed, to obtain a reasonable profit. Gustave Monet, representing other of the bakers, agreed with and supported Mr. Billette.

LABOR LEADER HAS WARM HALF HOUR

Attitude of Journal Unanimously Condemned by Building Trades Council.

That this Building Trades Council views with disgust the attitude of publishers of the so-called Labor Leader in attacking bona fide nominees of the trades unions and the I.L.F. during the recent municipal elections. Further, this council strongly protests against any individual connected with this publication holding office in the Toronto labor movement.

The unions comprising this league are as follows: Bricklayers, Builders, Laborers, Bridge and Structural Workers, Carpenters, Cement Finishers, Electrical Workers, Glass Cutters, Hoisting Engineers, Lathers, Marble Workers, Painters and Decorators, Plasterers, Laborers, Plumbers, and Sheet Metal Workers, Stonecutters, Stone, Slate and Marble Polishers, Elevator Constructors and one other not among the list.

BONUS W. U. WORKERS Sydney, N.S., Jan. 13.—Forty thousand dollars in cash has been distributed over the week-end by the Western Union Telegraph Company to its employees at North Sydney. The men were recently granted a fifteen per cent increase retroactive to June 1st, 1919.

Twenty-Five Per Cent. Increase For Firemen of Kingston

Kingston, Jan. 13.—(Special).—At a meeting of the civic fire and light committee this afternoon, a 25 per cent. increase all round for members of the fire department was decided on. This will boost the salary of Chief Armstrong up to two thousand dollars, while first men will be paid thirteen hundred.

STATIONARY ENGINEERS TO-NIGHT.

Stationary engineers are holding a big general meeting at the Labor Temple tonight. More than 20 new members will be initiated. The chief item of business will be the question of certifying engineers. It is understood that there are at least 5,000 certificated engineers or engineers qualified for certificates in Ontario. The ladies' auxiliary of the union in Toronto, local 152, will be well represented at the meeting, more than 60 women being expected. Among these will be Mrs. Golds, who has recently returned from England.

MACHINISTS DEMAND INCREASES

Machinists in Toronto are soon to present a new schedule of wages to the employers in Toronto and doubtless to those in the province. These will consider increases based upon the graduated increases in the cost of living and will be presented within the next few days.

PAID THEIR LAST RESPECTS.

Controller Robbins has returned from Detroit, where he attended the funeral of the late Mrs. W. D. Mahon, wife of the president of the Amalgamated Association of Street Railway Employees of America, who died on Thursday. The funeral was largely attended, more than 60 automobiles and two great cars conveying friends of the family to the cemetery. Sixty-five local churches throughout the United States and Canada were represented at the graveside to pay their last respects to a woman who was popular, not only as the wife of one of the best known men in the Labor movement, but also as one of the leaders in the Methodist Church in Detroit.

FLYNN CASE OPENS

Hearing of Slander Action by West Toronto G.W.V.A. Officials Adjourned Until Today.

The complainants, defendant and witnesses in the suit of officials of West Toronto G.W.V.A. against J. Harry J. Flynn, president of the United Veterans' League, for $40,000 damages for slanderous utterances alleged to have been made by defendant in Royce Park on Sept. 19 last, at a public meeting of returned men, presented themselves before Mr. Justice Ross in the civil jury assizes yesterday afternoon, to proceed with the case, but his lordship ordered an adjournment till 9.30 this morning.

The complainants are Harold Meredith, W. F. Challenger, George Gustar, George Jacobs, J. E. Payne, M. G. Dunn, H. G. Turner and A. Shields, all officials of West Toronto Branch, G. W. V.

They allege that J. Harry Flynn told the meeting at Royce Park that he could bring the books of West Toronto G.W.V.A. showing, according to a statement of the books, they have misappropriated the men's money.

Defendant's Construction. The plaintiffs construe the remark to mean that each of them had misappropriated the funds of West Toronto branch, and that they were unworthy of trust and had misappropriated themselves in office; also, that they were unfit to remain in their positions as officers.

Defendant denies the allegations, and says that he did not charge misappropriation of funds by plaintiffs or anyone else. The reference to the books, he claims, referred to the Ladies' Auxiliary of the branch, and such references were so understood by those present.

The case will be opened before Mr. Justice Ross and a jury in court room No. 4, city hall, at 9.30 this morning.

CITY HALL NOTES

There will be a tough fight at the board of control "inaugural" this morning for the post of vice-chairman of the board and which carries with it the privileges of deputy-mayor. Last year Controller Maguire was elected to the office and he is the favorite in the present competition. It is said Controller Cameron is a candidate for the post, and he will undoubtedly receive the support of Controller Ramsden, whilst the mayor will throw his vote with Controller Gibbons, and just how his vote will be cast will not be known until after the meeting today.

Controller Ramsden is after the York Highways Commission, and wants a report on the amount of the city's contribution and the quality of the work carried out on the pavements. The controller is of the opinion that the expenditure is not justified on the class of pavement laid which, he says, is already showing the effects of traffic in many places. The city during the past four years has contributed as follows: 1916, $54,568; 1917, $54,568; 1918, $54,568; 1919, $88,000. Total $249,704.

The board of control will this morning consider the bill drafted by the city solicitor for the taking over of the T.S.R. next year. The bill comprises the legislation necessary for acquiring the railway and operating it by a commission.

The mayor has complained to Ottawa that it is unfair to leave Toronto with only 100 garrisoned troops. It is thought likely that a regiment of P.C.L.L. may be brought back here shortly.

Commissioner Harris is back from his U.S.A. trip and he has learned much. He, however, brings good news for citizens who live on Bloor street.

QUEBEC TO HAVE WINTER CARNIVAL.

The Mayor of Quebec and Citizens' Committee on Winter Sports have arranged a most attractive programme for the winter sports' season in the ancient capital. From January 17, when the season opens, until February 17, when it officially closes, every week-end is literally crammed with sporting events of much interest. Even Sunday brings its amusement, for at least one church parade is scheduled for each Sunday of that month and at the Chateau Frontenac, where all the merry-makers gather, there is never a dull moment.

This magnificent hotel, built by the Canadian Pacific Railway Company, is admirably adapted to the comfort of just such guests. From its windows one gets a view of the town and whatever is on foot there; its excellent rink and toboggan slide provide amusement close at hand and a private curling rink is not the least factor in its popularity. No matter how blase one has become the Grand Canyon, which will close the most brilliant season Quebec society has seen in years, will be certain to arouse a spark of interest, and that spark will be fanned into a flame if one is wise enough to spend the Carnival days at the Canadian Pacific Railway Company's palatial Chateau Frontenac Hotel.

During the past twelve hours building permits were issued at the city hall for buildings to cost over $85,000. They included the following: F. J. Burgess, for 14 attached stores and dwellings at the corner of Danforth and Jones avenues, estimated to cost $70,000.

J. Hunt Stanford, in trust, for two stores and dwellings at the northwest corner of St. Clair and Nairn avenues, costing $11,500. Benjamin Moore and Co., for the erection of a private garage on the east side of Mulock avenue, near Lloyd avenue, costing $1,800.

Mrs. Deiby, for the alteration into a duplex dwelling of No. 520 Dovecourt road, at a cost of $1,500. J. A. La Rush for one-storey brick garage, 1413 Bloor street west, $12,000. Grant and Stevens, one-storey brick garage, west side of Moscoe, near Danforth, at a cost of $2,000.

The permits issued so far this month total about $800,000. There was a jump in smallpox cases during the past 24 hours, no less than forty-one new cases being reported. Some of these cases are, however, "left overs" from the previous twenty-four hours. The official report yesterday was as follows: No cases..... 41 Sent to hospital..... 32 Treated at home..... 32 Persons quarantined..... 164 Postures..... 164 Patients discharged..... 29 Total cases since outbreak..... 2,151 Total discharged..... 1,715 Total deaths..... 4 Total homes quarantined..... $30

Federation for Community Service. Makes its Annual Appeal January 27th, 28th and 29th. THE campaign asks us to give a half-million dollars for causes about which we can all know. The organizations which we, as citizens, are asked to support, have had to answer "who are you" to the Budget Committee, composed of very responsible and representative men. Their answer has had to be in definite facts proved by actual records. Each has had to show it is a carefully organized agency, doing a carefully organized work. When they were finally asked "how much do you need?" they had to produce carefully audited statements showing the relation between the cost of the work and the results it produces. Those who live on the back streets are after all neighbors to those who live on the boulevards. Each and all of us have a common cause in the welfare of the rest. Through them the spirit of Toronto leaps to give youth a fair start, to nurse the stricken, and to raise those who fall out of breath in the race. With your help our beloved city battles to banish plagues, starvation, ignorance and crime from her house. Such in brief is the noble plan of the Community Service Campaign, which now enlists your active sympathy and support. Give Once—but give enough. Federation for Community Service. Offices: Ryrie Building, 229 Yonge Street, Toronto. BUDGET COMMITTEE: J. A. Scythes, Canadian Manufacturers' Association. A. W. Mance, Trades & Labor Council. Mrs. A. M. Huestis, Local Council of Women. W. T. Kernahan, F. N. Stapleford, Rev. Peter Bryce, C. L. Burton, Member-at-Large. Central Federation Council.

WEDNESDAY MORNING, JAN. 14.

A Farmers' Party and a National Policy.

It will be hard for the Farmers' party to get away from the charge of being a class movement. It is naturally interpreted as an effort on the part of the farmers of the country to better their condition by political action.

The tenth consecrates the others. "Share with others. Thrift without benevolence is a doubtful blessing."

Uncle Sam Takes Advantage of Our European Credits.

Sir Edmund Walker in his address at the annual meeting of the Bank of Commerce pointed out the great excess that still exists of our exports over our imports in spite of a decrease of wool on to fifty per cent from the previous year.

The National Policy was so called not because it enriched every individual in the country, but because it enabled Canada to become a nation.

The Farmers' platform, calling for a general lowering of the tariff, to be followed by free trade with the mother country, may be imperial, but in no sense of the word can it be a National Policy.

The Winnipeg Free Press, which is performing a sword dance with some dexterity, patting the Farmers' movement on the back and at the same time supporting Union government, rises to remark:

The National Council of Agriculture, which is the voice of the Farmers' movement, has formally repudiated any intention or desire for class advantage thru the adoption of "the new National Policy"—the irony of the title emphasizes the challenge which it makes to the old order.

The charge is made that the government of this country and its fiscal policy for years have been run in the interests of the manufacturers. That may or may not be true, but at any rate the manufacturers were never foolish enough to organize a political party and call it the "manufacturers' party."

regard to estimated income and estimated expenditure. Without it no adequate check can be kept upon financial matters. Next thing is to keep an intelligent record of expenditures. When this is done the leakages, the unnecessary purchases and waste of money shows up, and it is also easily seen where retrenchment must be effected. Have a bank account is the third injunction. The man who banks his wages every week is less likely to spend the loose change in his pocket. He won't.

Carry life insurance, make a will, and own your own home eventually are the next three commandments. They relate to capital and its growth, and the independence that comes with thrift. The eighth commandment belongs to the group, "Invest in government securities."

The seventh rule deals with current revenue. Pay your bills promptly. There should be no debts. Pay cash, or when bills are unavoidable, on their being rendered. Spend less than you earn, is the ninth. It is a fundamental principle.

The tenth consecrates the others. "Share with others. Thrift without benevolence is a doubtful blessing."

Drury Government Getting in Wrong.

It is not unnatural that the party press and politicians should be active in criticism of the Farmers' government of Ontario. If the farmers get firmly seated in the saddle it may be a very difficult business to get them out of it.

There would be no danger to Mr. Drury and his colleagues from the criticism of opponents were there no foundation for the criticism. It is because there is a grain of truth, or perhaps something more, on which to base their attacks, that attention is being given to these criticisms.

Especially should the Drury government be careful not to violate any of their election pledges, or fail to walk circumspectly in regard to matters on which they themselves attacked the previous administration.

Mr. Drury can urge no worse plea in his present position than that he is only doing what Hearst did. If he cannot do a great deal better his reason for being has disappeared. This is the way it looks to the ordinary man.

At the same time it is fair to the Drury cabinet, it is plain that some papers and politicians are making a great outcry where there is no justification, and yelling, "Wolf! Wolf!" before anything ferocious has appeared. It is obvious enough that the government house is not an issue upon which the government can be defeated unless Mr. Drury is a much greater fool than his friends take him to be.

The question of patronage is a far more vital matter, and if Hon. Mr. Biggs has any explanation about his order for trucks that will hold water, he will do well to have it in excellent working order when the legislature meets. It is one of those things that, as Mark Twain's bluejay thought, looks like a hole and sets the average man wondering. If he wonders too long he will settle into the frame of mind when he'll be hanged if it isn't a hole.

Mr. Biggs talks of appointing a purchasing agent, and there is talk of a civil service commission. But talk won't do. There must be action. And when the subject is up, has Mr. Drury done anything towards preparing a proportional representation bill for the approaching legislature? The people would like to hear that reforms are afoot.

Lord Fisher declares that Bolshevism is "reaction from repressed freedom." When this diagnosis is accepted, it will put an end to the remedy of further repression, which is in favor in most quarters. This does not mean a free hand for all sorts of license and licentiousness, or any other form of social insanity; but it does mean a cessation of the policy of persecuting opinion which Bernard Shaw thinks is natural in primitive communities, and perhaps in others not quite so primitive. There is not the slightest doubt that reaction breeds revolution. Francis T. Cobb declares that the failures of popular government have always been failures of public opinion. There isn't any public opinion among us on most things that really matter, or we would not return the representatives we do create to the spineless governments we have. But there never can be public opinion when free thought, free speech, free opinion cease to exist, and where opinion in itself is the subject of persecution.

As Mr. Cobb says further, "public opinion is never to be safeguarded by trying to prevent it by law coming into contact with political heresy. There is no surer way to give these doctrines a foothold than to proscribe them." The hearts of the people are sound. Their judgment is reliable. It is the egotism of some leaders, and their fear to lose out in the political game that leads them to try to stifle ideas which they are unable to assimilate, or with which they cannot feel any sympathy. When they begin a policy of repression, then, as Lord Fisher suggests, reaction is inevitable.

Quebec, Jan. 13.—Only the doggedness and tenacity of the sexton at St. Roche des Aulnais church here, saved the parish church there from destruction by fire, when flames were discovered in the boiler room of the church today. The sexton, Charles Morel, opened the cellar door to attend the fires and was knocked to the floor by a wave of flames and smoke. He did not lose his head, tho, and creeping on his hands and feet walked thru the seething room, reached a tap and turned the water on the already crumbling flooring. He saved the church.

Montreal, Jan. 13.—Yesterday the members of the Montreal city council adopted a resolution endorsing the building of a 16-story hotel here. The aldermen referred the question to the administrative commission, with which body the necessary amendment to the building regulations must originate.

Ford City holds the Ford factory, where, in about three years, the working force has risen to about 8000, many of whom cross the river daily from Detroit. There is no boundary to the Ford expansion apparently. Four hundred cars a day is the output now, and Ford City is filling up with houses and sub-divisions are extending eastward. One real estate man told me the firm had sold 600 lots on one block without spending a dollar in advertising.

IT'S UP TO BENIAH

ONLY THREE OF NINE PRESIDENTS COMPLETED TERMS

Loubet, Fallieres and Poincare Alone Served France for Seven Years.

ONE WAS ASSASSINATED

Paris, Jan. 13.—Approach of the presidential election in France, January 17, recalls the fact that of the nine presidents who have occupied the Elysee Palace since the advent of the third republic in 1870, only three—Emil Loubet, Armand Fallieres and Raymond Poincare—have completed their terms of office.

President Adolphe Thiers, the first chief executive after the Franco-Prussian war, resigned after a little more than two years of his seven-year term because of hostility on the part of the majority to his conservative policy, which he believed necessary to prevent the dissolution of the young republic.

Marshal MacMahon, the choice of the monarchist majority as successor to M. Thiers, and a hero of the wars of the second empire, served five years and seven months. He then quit his post, forced out by the Republicans who, meanwhile, had been able to wrest the majority from the monarchists.

Jules Grevy followed Marshal MacMahon, acquiring power by his energetic fight against the latter's administration. He served five years and seven months. He then quit his post, forced out by the Republicans who, meanwhile, had been able to wrest the majority from the monarchists.

CHAPTER 87

But Louise had serious ideas about the work she was to do, so she declined Murray's invitation to dine with him that evening. She intended to eat a hasty supper, go to bed early, and next day to do a lot of work. For one thing, she had to find people who would make the nursery furniture for her, and get their prices, and then, having that settled, she must find out the best means of making herself known.

So she ate in the nearest restaurant which happened to be a place with a quiet bathroom, then she carried home enough marketing so she could get her own breakfast next day, and went peacefully to sleep before 9 o'clock.

Next morning her bell rang and when she opened the door, Carol stood on the threshold. "Did you see you were going to escape me?" she asked. "I suppose I never should have found you but I ran into Anne closing up your house, and she told me where you were."

"I'm going to have announcements sent out," Louise said. "but I've been too busy getting settled."

"You have a general making adorable homes," Carol said, looking around the studio.

"Oh, it's only furniture I took from father's house," Louise said. "But you've a way of fixing it that makes it all so attractive," Carol enthused, walking about the little apartment. "Is this the bed room? Dear child, what have you a nursery for?"

"It's not, it's a show room," Louise said, putting away the last of her breakfast dishes. Louise came over to her, and she said, "I'm going to have announcements sent out," Louise said. "but I've been too busy getting settled."

"I hope some woman will," Louise answered. "You see, I'm making everything complete, here's the chest for the clothes, and a wee hanger for coats, and a basket, and the cradle."

"Your cradle doesn't rock," Carol objected. "It only looks as tho it did."

"Bad for babies to rock, then," Louise answered with the wisdom of her brief motherhood. "Then I've chairs too, you see, a quaint rag rug, and I'll arrange to stencil curtains and do the walls to match the pictures and the furniture."

For instance, take the following example: Imported as a Part. Carburetor cost $3.00. Can. duty 30 c. 90. War tax 7 1/2 per cent. 22 1/2. Total $3.925. Difference in favor of the part, $4.425.

The above example applies also to every other description of machine and other part imported into Canada for assembly. The difference indicated is due to the automobile manufacturer's overhead expenses and the profit he has added to the installed carburetor. For this reason alone, manufacturing in Canada involves an average saving of from 25 per cent to 35 per cent.

Ninety-nine per cent of the Canadian customs duty is rebated on all goods shipped into Canada for assembly. The rebate is completed article is, thereafter, exported to any other country.

British Tariff Helps Too. The war has put a tariff in the United Kingdom. It gives the Canadian motor car a preference over the American car of one-third, or 33 1-3 per cent. That is, an American car entering London at $1000, would pay $300 in duty. The same car, assembled and shipped from Canada, and priced at $700, would pay $210 in duty. An advance of $300 per car in the British market is worth going after. On the basis of the carburetor example above you can figure out for yourself the advantages that reside in made-in-Canada as against made-in-U.S.A. automobiles, and everything that goes into automobiles.

General Motors started to build last June. The first of several enormous units—some say four and some eleven cars several hundred feet long, is now in operation. To board the imported labor that can't find housework, the company has put up big three-story buildings, and is expecting to employ about 1000 operatives. It is Chevrolet and McLaughlin plants at Oshawa.

WINNIPEG PAPERS REDUCED IN SIZE

Fort Frances Mill Not Seized Government, Instead, Goes to Court.

Ottawa, Jan. 13.—(Canadian Press.)—The seizure of newspaper at the Fort Frances mill on Monday afternoon was not effected as forecasted in this morning's despatches, the sheriff having been refused admittance when he attempted to serve his seizure warrants. The officials of the company threatened to use force to prevent seizure, and the sheriff withdrew. Even the serving of the warrants would not have resulted in providing newspaper for western Canadian newspapers, as the company, knowing the seizure was to all its stocks of paper to the United States earlier in the day.

COMMERCE BOARD CALLED A FAILURE

Canadian Council of Agriculture Sends Message of Criticism.

Winnipeg, Jan. 13.—The following message has been sent to Sir George Foster, acting prime minister, by the Canadian council of agriculture: "The Canadian council of agriculture, reflecting the opinion and judgment of the organized farmers of Ontario, Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta, as expressed in resolutions already adopted at the annual convention of the United Farmers of Ontario and Manitoba, and also in similar resolutions which have been submitted for consideration before the annual convention to be held in Saskatchewan and Alberta during the next four weeks, find that the board of commerce which was appointed to relieve high costs of living in Canada, has, instead, by reason of its actions, disturbed and injured sources of feed production, especially in the livestock industry and thereby has created a country-wide distrust in its ability to afford relief of any kind to producers or consumers."

VACCINATION TRUTHS Does Vaccination Protect? (1) There are about 1000 employees in the Ontario Civil Service in Toronto. Of these only three have contracted smallpox in the present epidemic, and these three had never been vaccinated. One of these employees belongs to a family of five. The remainder of the family had been vaccinated and none of them took the disease. (2) In November last in the Orillia Hospital (feeble-minded), where there are 1200 inmates and attendants, there were 31 cases when the Board was notified. Vaccination was at once begun, and before the total number remaining were completed 10 more cases broke out. No further cases developed. Vaccination checked the outbreak. (3) The Health Officer of Montreal, Dr. S. Boucher, D.P.H., says, under date of Jan. 7th, 1920: "During last fall there was an outbreak of smallpox in the 'Hopital de la Misericorde,' this city. Thirteen cases existed. We immediately vaccinated those of the 600 inmates who had never undergone that operation, or who did not have satisfying marks of a recent vaccination. Twenty-eight cases occurred altogether, the new ones appearing within the first 5 days of the outbreak, and the epidemic ceased in 15 days. No further cases occurred." Total.....	$4,519,735.40

Before moving the adoption of the Report the President requested the General Manager to address the Meeting. The General Manager then said:

General Manager's Address.
Contrary to the view expressed last year, that it was unlikely that we should again show such large figures for some years to come, the unexpected has happened, and we have made a new record in both profits and total assets. Undoubtedly the continued high level of prices for commodities of all kinds has left its mark upon the balance sheets of financial institutions, and while this condition continues it will be reflected in the figures of our own annual statement.

Increased Earnings.
The net profits have amounted to $3,074,892.72 for all the operations of the bank, and these earnings exceed those of last year by $224,000, a satisfactory increase of 7.5 per cent, but which compares with an increase of 8.5 per cent. in assets. The figures show that the forces which have been steadily reducing the rate of earnings on the services performed by Canadian banks for the public, since I took office last year, are still actively at work, and it is fervently to be hoped that the keen spirit of competition, so strenuously active in many directions, will not blind Canadian bankers to this tendency of the times. When it is considered that the three million employed in the service of the bank represent the combined earnings of over 600 offices, and the result of the efforts of a staff of over 40,000 employees, it will be seen that the profits are in comparison with the vast amount of hard labor and heavy responsibility involved.

The Pension Fund.
We have paid during the year four quarterly dividends of 3 per cent, and we are now in a position to pay a fifth dividend of 3 per cent, which will be paid on the 15th inst. We have also written the sum of $250,000 to the Pension Fund, and we have perhaps more necessary now than ever, owing to the extremely high cost of building operations, which has naturally caused us to limit our program to only the most necessary work. The release of large numbers of our men from military service, and their return into the service of the bank, has rendered a large increase necessary in the Bank's contribution to the Pension Fund. This is caused by many of these men being called during their absence on military service, reached or passed the age of 45, at which the Bank's contribution to the Pension Fund again begins. When all arrangements are completed and the question of their back payments to the Fund is settled, a further large sum will be required to adjust the Bank's contribution for the period of their absence. It is our intention in the very near future to have the Pension Fund actuarially examined with a view to increasing the limit of the pensions awarded. We have also thought it wise, in view of the unsettled condition of the principal foreign exchanges, to set aside the sum of $750,000 as an appropriation for the continuous decrease in the value of our funds and investments abroad. We could, of course, offset this shrinkage by writing up the value of our investments in the United States, but as to realize the increased value we should have to liquidate our business in that country, we have not attempted to adopt such a shortsighted policy. We have also to consider that the exchange situation between Canada and the United States will right itself automatically when the European exchange becomes more normal, and we think that the policy we have followed is one that should commend itself to every conservatively managed institution.

Patriotic Subscriptions.
As usual we ask you to confirm the large subscriptions we have been called on to make during the year, amounting to the sum of $22,000, most all on behalf of objects of a patriotic character connected with the war. There has been a decrease in our note circulation for the first time since the commencement of the war, since it is only $1,336,000, but it is one of the first signs of a check to the their fair share of the burdens of general taxation. Out of the total of 1704 officers of this Bank who volunteered for the defense of the Empire, either in the army or navy, we have reinstated during the course of the year 956, and have still to hear from 253 of them. We have been glad to welcome these officers and to assist them to get back to all in our power to assist them to become re-established in civil life. It is our hope that in the course of a reasonably short time they will find themselves at all disadvantages as a result of the loss in banking experience which naturally resulted from their absence. The opening of new branches and the expansion of our business have made it possible to take on the staff again all those who apply for reinstatement.

Employer and Employee.
An unlooked-for consequence of the war has been the unexampled closeness of relations between employer and employee in every walk of life. One of the primary causes of this has been the extraordinary increase in the cost of living, but anyone who is forced to grapple with the problems before the employer knows that this can be done only at a disadvantage to himself. Practically, almost the sole employer, the erstwhile employer acting as his manager or agent to secure the necessary supplies under the most onerous conditions of the usual balance-weight and counterpoises of business enterprise were lacking. To secure the necessary supplies, the only thing that mattered; the cost of doing so was a secondary consideration, and any demands made by employees were met almost at once. These conditions, thus new conditions, which were showing marked improvement over those existing before the war, but which are now being foredoomed to fall into the hands of the Government, are the conditions of peace. It is perhaps too much to ask of either employers or employees that they should once again receive the mental vision all the far-reaching consequences of these changes. Suffice it to say that the adjustments necessary to meet the conditions have become more normal are many and difficult, and involve to the utmost a spirit of fairness and a willingness to meet opposing points of view on both sides. Speaking of the staff, both permanent and temporary, they have rendered us loyal service in the past days, and we have sought to give general satisfaction to the consideration to the difficulties which have been particularly their lot, as salaried men and women, during an extraordinary time of living.

The 1919 Victory Loans.
In November last the Canadian Government issued its sixth War Loan, the Finance Department from war from the issue of $300,000,000, and the total subscription received was $476,242,790, almost as much as the subscription of the previous loan. The Minister of Finance, Henry Drayton, again asked for the subscription of $300,000,000, and the total subscription received was $476,242,790, almost as much as the subscription of the previous loan. The Minister of Finance, Henry Drayton, again asked for the subscription of $300,000,000, and the total subscription received was $476,242,790, almost as much as the subscription of the previous loan.

Encourage Exploration.
When addressing you last year, I ventured to express the hope that the government could afford to grant a bounty on the production of the gold mines of the Yukon, and to view the increasing available supply of precious metal. This opinion has met with disapproval in some quarters, but I still think that the Government should do something in the way of perhaps not so much by way of offering a bounty on the gold itself, as to encourage the exploration and development of what are supposed to be gold-bearing areas. Were the same course followed in the case of silver, it might have a very beneficial effect on the extension of the price of that metal. The extension of the price of that metal is a very direct effect of the present mines is, of course, encouraged by the material enhancement in price of silver, and the same effect would be felt in the case of gold. The price per ounce rose during last year from an average of $10.12 during the first four months to $17.32 in November.

Depreciated Exchange.
The condition of the foreign exchange is one of the problems with which we have had to contend since the beginning of the war, and it is one in which the people of Canada are deeply concerned. Economic life, Canada is not alone suffering from the effects of a depreciated exchange, in fact it is a condition now familiar to almost every country in the world. The artificial expedients which have been resorted to in order to correct the situation, such as the shipping of gold, the sale of securities, and an attempt at fixing exchange rates, are inadequate and may even prove dangerous. The remedy which is generally accepted is to be accomplished by saving, economy and greater production. It has perhaps become fairly generally known among those who take an interest in the matter that our imports from the United States greatly exceed our exports to that country, and that in the case of Great Britain the reverse is true, our exports greatly exceeding our imports with that country. Therefore in the case of our trade with the United States there is a scarcity of bills receivable, which set off against our bills payable to that country, while in the case of our trade with Great Britain the reverse is true, and the bills receivable are in excess of the bills payable to such an extent that we are forced to obtain credit from our banks for the purchase of foodstuffs produced in that country.

Foreign Credits.
There is much more, however, in the situation than this. We have been selling on credit to Belgium, Greece, Roumania, and to some extent to Great Britain, manufactured goods, the raw materials of which are largely imported from the United States, and we are called upon to pay for these raw materials in cash. In addition to this the interest payments on our debt abroad have increased, as well as the shipping charges which have to be paid for our raw materials. In paying for the raw materials referred to we are forced to use up a large part of those funds ordinarily available to pay the cost of our normal imports from the United States. The scarcity of United States funds has thus been accentuated by the increased demand, while the source from which we have been wont in the past to make up any deficiencies, that is, the balance due to our merchants and others in Great Britain is not now available for this purpose for two reasons; first, that Great Britain is not settling in cash as in the past, second, that such part of this indebtedness as is not available for the purpose is not now acceptable to the United States as a result of the fact that the country has already surplus of British debts which she is anxious to realize. If to these factors in the problem be added the fact of increased purchases of luxuries imported from the United States in the present era of free and easy spending, an idea will be obtained at least some of the main reasons for the present situation.

Insufficient Production.
While we and the rest of the world are failing to produce on a sufficient scale to pay our debt in specie of everything has so increased, that though all clearing-house and trade returns show higher figures in money, these generally represent transactions based on smaller quantities of merchandise, and because we think in terms of dollars and not of merchandise, we are living in a fool's paradise. The imperative demands of war rapidly raised all prices, and pay the currency unfortunately inflated and increased further. In our own country, the minimum of harm would be done, but possessing more currency and fewer commodities than usual, we are acting like a drunken sailor newly come ashore, and buying everything that fancy suggests, whether necessary or not, without regard to whether it is in Canada or abroad. For every pound of goods made abroad, whether in Great Britain, China, or anywhere else, we settle in dollars, or the rise or fall of the rate of exchange, about which we are so much concerned, is the expression of our failure, or the desire to pay in cash or its equivalent. In paying for these annual meetings, presented the peculiarities of our foreign trade, the United States, the sales of our securities abroad to pay for the exports of our raw materials, and the danger of mortgaging the credit of our country, and has given frequent warnings to the character of many of our imports. Our Exports. The excess of our exports over imports for the year ending 31st March was $24,491,000, as compared with $2,215,000 for the corresponding period of 1918. Although so much smaller than for 1918, the excess was larger than in any previous year. The difference of $22,276,000 is more than accounted for by a falling off of $20,374,000 in our exports to Great Britain, and this again is due to a decrease of $297,899,000 in exports of agricultural products and of $20,000,000 in manufactured articles. For the six months ending in September the exports for the two half years are almost equal, the imports were $33,571,000 less. It is gratifying to notice that, apart from the decrease in agricultural production, our figures have not been much altered by the cessation of the manufacture of munitions. Food is in greater demand than ever and our factories are behind in the production of almost every line of manufactured goods, while nearly every form of raw material is difficult to obtain. Our total foreign trade for the fiscal year was $2,176,378,000, as compared with $2,459,591,000 in 1918.

Buy in Canada.
On the other hand in our relations with the United States we should aim to decrease our imports, especially of those articles which are merely luxuries, or which can be produced equally well in this country. The position of exchange at this moment is less than 100 cents to the dollar, and it is more advantageous to produce a home-made article than one manufactured in the United States, and it is to be hoped that a practical lesson will not be lost upon our people. Its influence should be felt by the merchants and importers discontinuing the foreign consumption in Canada such unnecessary articles as we have referred to. There is no royal road to the rectification of the foreign exchanges. Hard work and self-denial, such as will increase our income as a nation, will increase our expenditure, and the only way to increase our income is to increase our production. The President then spoke as follows: President's Address. We have passed through a year in which the daily surprises have been as perplexing as during the war, and in which we have made as much progress, except that something has been done, rather than the mere happiness of the world than human life itself. Many countries, still continues to be a very direct effect of the present mines is, of course, encouraged by the material enhancement in price of silver, and the same effect would be felt in the case of gold. The price per ounce rose during last year from an average of $10.12 during the first four months to $17.32 in November.

about $30,000,000. These assets are taken into account in stating our net debt. In addition to the debt due by Great Britain to the government of Canada, there is a debt of $200,000,000 due by Great Britain to the Canadian banks, on which, however, since the close of the year partial payments have been made. The partial expenditure of our government has fallen from a total of $1,000,000,000 in 1918, but we are still far from normal in this respect. The expenditure for pensions has now reached $3,000,000 monthly.

Canadian Securities.
The sales of Canadian securities for 1919 are much larger than in 1918, and there is an important difference in their distribution.
Security.	Total sold.	In Canada.	In United States.
Government.....	$781,512,000	$629,562,000	$151,950,000

	100 p.c.	72.5 p.c.	22.5 p.c.

There is an increase of about $145,000,000 in the total, but the increase in the amount sold in the United States is over $170,000,000. Had it not been for these sales the difficulty in connection with New York exchange would have been much greater. The difficulties of reconstruction after the great war are even greater than we feared. The whole world is feeling the effect of four years in which the ordinary work and economic life were not merely neglected, but the basis thereof was almost swept away. We are short of almost every commodity, the strongest evidence of this being the fact that millions of people in Europe face actual starvation. We cannot re-establish the normal supply of commodities except by working harder than usual, and we cannot re-establish the normal supply of high prices without doing the extra work which will put an end to the lack of commodities. We cannot adjust prices without interfering with the production of the commodities, and so far as it is possible to enforce the production of commodities, the reduction of prices should not be a word, bankers should not sit idly by, or assist in the production of commodities, but we are not directly leading to the production of commodities, but we are not directly leading to the production of commodities, but we are not directly leading to the production of commodities.

Review of Events.
When the future historian, however, looks back at the events of the past year, he will see an irretrievable world falling to take the necessary steps to recover the road to happiness. He will applaud the efforts of society in London, Boston and elsewhere, to do their utmost to help where, to him, it will wonder at the activity in the shipyards of the world to supply the lack in the supply of commodities has been filled, and the volume of paper money now in existence.

Wages and Prices.
In the case of many of the wage earners there has been an adjustment of pay against this increased cost of living, but there are many instances in which there has been either no adjustment or one quite inadequate. There are, however, some classes of earners who are so highly paid, in comparison with the past, that they have unusual purchasing power, and along with all the others who are profited under by the war, they are troubling their money in such a manner as to increase still further the troubles of the less well-off. Apart from this, after the gigantic struggle of the war, the world has slackened its energies and is filled with arguments and unrest. At the same time, a move along an ascending spiral, clearly ends in ruin if we cannot arrest their course.

Essential.
Canada, as I have said, won its high place in the world's regard by superb co-operation in the work of winning the war. Can we not compromise for the moribund, the differences between capital and labor, between farmer and manufacturer, between the various interests that are their own particular grievances, and co-operate in another ideal equally great, the restoration of peace and the return of prosperity on a better basis than this accomplished. The separate ideals of the labor, the divisions of our society can be dismissed with far more chance of fair adjustment than is possible in these difficult times.

Must Increase Exports.
We know now roughly the cost of the war as represented by our public debt. This debt is held mostly at home, but partly abroad. In the years there were issues of securities made before and during the war by government, municipalities and private companies, and sold abroad. The whole of this debt, so held abroad, the annual interest is about $190,000,000, and is due to holders of securities in the United States, and about $125,000,000 to holders in Great Britain and Europe. This debt we can pay only by the sale of our exports or by new borrowings. The affair, in the case of our own domestic debt, is not merely impeded, but is evidently facing ruin if not adopted. But at a time when foreign and home trade, and almost every other industry, is expected to be in a state of depression, it is hard to get a hearing for any complaint.

Newfoundland Prosperous.
The business review of Newfoundland indicates unusual prosperity. The building of ships with a view to increase the catch of fish, and better preparation of the product in the maritime provinces depends on general prosperity in all that depends on the agriculture, but no increase in the output of a great disappointment at this moment. An even more discouraging fact is the cost of labor in the steel industry has gone up so high that steel where sales can be readily and profitably made, and this must be adjusted before normal conditions are restored.

Taxation.
Many forms of taxation not yet employed, in addition to those now in force, but the whole question should be approached without that class feeling which causes taxes to be so senseless. Injustice is a tax, and a tax is a senseless injustice. Many who do not object to being heavily taxed so long as those who really can afford to pay their share do not.

the maritime world. The income tax should be paid by a much larger number of people than the tax on surplus profits. The interest of the community in the interest of the community is a small aggregate of profits, and a similar sum made up of many large margins of profit, on a similar transaction. The community may be interested in the success of the other class except the taxpayer, who is interested in the success of the other class except the taxpayer, who is interested in the success of the other class except the taxpayer.

GRAVE NATIONAL PROBLEMS ARE DISCUSSED BY BANKERS

Sir Edmund Walker and Sir John Aird, at Annual Meeting of Bank of Commerce, Emphasize Vital Necessity of Curtailing Import Trade and Increasing Home Production.

Those who are interested in the financial, industrial and economic welfare of the Dominion will find much that is of an informative and illuminative character in the address of Sir Edmund Walker and Sir John Aird, president and vice-president respectively of the Canadian Bank of Commerce delivered at the annual meeting of the shareholders in Toronto yesterday.

Not only are Sir Edmund Walker and Sir John Aird, the president and vice-president respectively of the bank, men of long experience, but they are as well close students of economic conditions of the world over, a quality of mind which has been demonstrated extensively, in and abroad, in their addresses. Sir Edmund Walker, who has returned from an extensive tour of Europe with this particular object in view, further emphasizes the fact that the last few weeks the general manager has returned from an extensive tour of Europe with this particular object in view. NEW DIRECTORS

At the annual meeting of shareholders of the Canadian Bank of Commerce yesterday, it was announced that T. A. Russell, Toronto, president of the bank, had been added to the directorate. A year ago the board was empowered to add three members, and recently it was announced that the board had been chosen to fill one of the vacancies.

This had met with disapproval in certain quarters, but I still think, he continued, "but the government should do something in the matter, perhaps not so much by way of offering a bounty on the gold itself, as to encourage the exploration and development of what are supposed to be gold-bearing areas."

Bullish sentiment in the mining market continues unchecked, and as a natural result, operations are broadening out. Yesterday's transactions, which numbered 226,000 shares, were the largest in some time. Kirkland Lake and Beaver, the pioneer stocks of the present upward movement, are not dominating trading as they did last week for the reason that the public's preference to buy mining stocks is extending to various issues in the manner always witnessed when a bull market is getting fairly into its stride. Profit-taking in certain stocks for the purpose of re-investing the proceeds in others is giving breadth and animation to the dealings, but it is evidence of the inherent strength of the market, as a whole that such operations are being absorbed without causing price recessions of note. As will be seen, the mining market is carrying the standard exchange saw a material expansion of business over 1919, and 1920 is starting out as the best year of the boom market since the latter part of 1917.

Kirkland Lake, Beaver, Peterson Lake, Adanac and Atlas were in the lead yesterday. Kirkland Lake sold as high as 77 1/2, but closed at 76 without net change. Beaver, in which transactions were on a much larger scale, advanced to 102 1/2, closing a point below 102. The other two issues, more than any others in the list, invite profit-taking, and it will be observed that no price concessions worth mentioning are being offered by buyers. Peterson Lake, another stock which has had a substantial advance in the past few days, closed at 102 1/2, a net gain of 1/2 point. Adanac, which has had a steady advance since 1919, closed at 102 1/2, a net gain of 1/2 point. Atlas, which has had a steady advance since 1919, closed at 102 1/2, a net gain of 1/2 point.

The obligations of the country are very great there can be no doubt. Sir Edmund Walker, who has returned from an extensive tour of Europe with this particular object in view, further emphasizes the fact that the last few weeks the general manager has returned from an extensive tour of Europe with this particular object in view.

MINING EXCHANGE HAS SPLENDID YEAR

Outlook is for Fresh Expansion—P. W. Cashman is New President.

Enthusiasm over the outlook for 1920 was shown at the annual meeting of members of the Standard Stock and Mining Exchange yesterday, when figures presented by the retiring president, L. J. West, emphasized the gratifying expansion in business in 1919, the first year of peace. Clearings, which were $12,710,886.66 in 1918, totalled $20,456,480.48 last year, an increase of $7,745,593.82. Transactions in 1919 embraced 20,868,541 shares, valued at $6,575,088.54, and in 1918 a total of $9,236,295 shares, valued at $15,511,283, an increase of 18,278,293 shares, and an increase in value of $5,278,074.19.

The exchange is in very satisfactory condition financially, with the greater part of its comfortable surplus invested in Victory bonds. P. W. Cashman of J. P. Bickell & Co., last year's vice-president, was elected president by acclamation. The other officers are as follows: First vice-president, J. P. Cannon; second vice-president, H. B. Willis; secretary, L. J. West; board of directors, J. T. Eastwood, F. A. Hall, P. G. Kley, D. G. Lorsch and J. A. McCaughey.

LIVE STOCK MARKET

With a run of about 1200 cattle on the market yesterday, the all lines held about steady with Monday's prices. There were no outstanding features and with a few exceptions, the market was pretty well cleaned up by noon. Prospects for the balance of the week look good, but the market is unlikely to be steady prices.

Sheep, Lambs and Calves. The market for sheep, lambs and calves was about steady with Monday's prices. There were no outstanding features and with a few exceptions, the market was pretty well cleaned up by noon. Prospects for the balance of the week look good, but the market is unlikely to be steady prices.

Special Market Notes. The Canadian Corn Producers' Association, which has been in existence since 1914, has a record sale on the Toronto exchange of 100,000 bushels of corn at 11 1/2 cents per bushel. This is a record for the association since its formation.

"Young Bears"

That's what Arnold called them in his celebrated classic, Tom Brown's Schooldays. Possibly because they tumble about so much, climb so many trees, are so full of tricks and so fond of sweet things. All these things are shared by boy and bear alike, and the wear and tear on the coats of each is much the same. A boy's clothing nowadays demands a certain bear-like quality if it is to endure for even a short time. The

of this store, has a long-established clientele of boys and mothers because of the bear-like durability supplied in clothing. Simpson's Boys' Clothing has other qualities in common with Bruin's pelt. It wears well and it is warm. But, we go one better. The "young bears" of today are not satisfied with one style of clothing. Hardly. They have very fixed ideas on the subject. Some insist on the better model and some on various other styles, but all

Incline to the sporty effect in design and pattern. They may share in the fun-loving characteristics of Tom Brown, but this kinship does not extend to the matter of clothes. Appreciating this fact, our Clothing Department (Second Floor) is prepared to meet the various tastes and wishes of all the boys who bring their mothers in to approve the suits they choose, or

Who come alone.

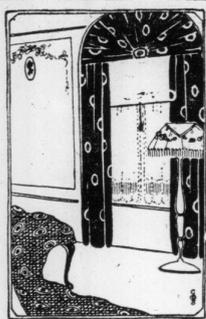

There is an assortment here which contains the suit nearest desire. The stock measures up to standard in quality and in design, and the price, in every case, will be found the lowest possible commensurate with the genuine value in the clothing. The boy who buys one suit here will grow up in Simpson clothing. For it means satisfaction.
