An odd feeling of contentment, largely induced by the grateful heat of the fire, rendered his actions leisurely. Quite half an hour elapsed before he thought of peeping through the back window to ascertain the progress of external events. The rain was not now pelting down with abnormal fury. It was still falling, but with the quiet persistence that marks—in London parlance—"a genuine wet day." The steam had almost vanished. When he removed his cost from the broken panes he saw with surprise that the flagstones in the yard were dry within a circle of two feet around the hole made by the meteor. It is not long since Sir Thomas Shanghnessy returned from England, and Shanghnessy returned from England, and we know that he was in conference with the government there on the project, and we know what he told them. So far as we can see, Sir Thomas's and Sir Wilfrid's ideas as to speed seem to correspond very well. Now, can it be possible that it is being arranged that the All Red service will be performed by the C. P. R. with 21-knot steamers on the Atlantic and 18-knot steamers on the Atlantic and 18-knot steamers on the Pacific. Is this what we will be asked to vote on in the near future? The re-opening of the negotiations referred to seems to lend a little color to the idea. Now, so far as Halifax is concerned, this will be only fairly satisfactory. Halifax wants the fairly satisfactory. Halifax wants the fastest service possible, and will not be wholly satisfied if it falls short of 25 knots. Of course it would be a very ma-

In many of the points mentioned by her we require education no less than our Irish neighbors. The exhipition illustrating the causes of tuberculosis and the remedies for it lays great stress on the importance of fresh air, and Lady Aberdeen declared that in towns the people began the laudable habit of ful sensation has been caused among the foreign community this week by the exforeign community this week by the exposure of the conditions prevailing in a native 'charitable' institution known as the Sinza Refuge. For some years past it has been the custom to send native women involved in domestic disputes to this refuge for detention, but attention was not attracted to what went on within its walls until a case came to light in which a woman had been illegally imprisoned there for upwards of seven years. The writer then paid a surprise visit to the refuge in company with a member of the municipal police force. I found that no fewer than eighty-one women were locked up there, most of whom had no idea how long they would remain, while some had entirely lost count of time, and were unable to say how long they had been detained. From statements made by the inmates, however, it was clear that some of the women had been imprisoned there for six years. They all described the food as disgrace ful.

They all described the food as disgrace ful.

In the lunatic quarters, which I happened to enter by accident, I saw a sight I shall never forget. Two small dark rooms fronted on a narrow courtyard. In the first room there were two wooden cages, but so dense was the gloom that for some minutes I believed that they were empty. When my eyes got accustomed to the light, however, I saw that a woman was curled up on the floor of each—their narrow limits did not permit the occupants to extend their lumbs to the full. The second chamber contained four cages, but what attracted my attention immediately I entered was an object on the floor. There, chained round the neck like a dog, and absolutely destitute of clothing, was a Chinese woman. Her body was covered with dirt, and the chain, which was fastened to the bars of a cage behind, prevented her from lying or standing, or moving more than a few inches in either direction. Even these were not the most repulsive sights I saw. The Sinza Refuge, in which I witnessed these indescrible horrors, is well within the boundarie of the foreign settlement, and not a hullered yards from tramways, are lamps, and others marks of western civilization. For how many years these horrors have gone on unchecked will probably never be known, but it is quite certain that now the mismanagement of HOW KERR'S QUICK START SAVED HIS LIFE Canadians little know how near they were to losing Bobbie Kerr, the famous little sprinter, who now holds the limelight in England. It was last fall, while the Toronto baseball team were on their way to Columbus. Bobbie met the train at Hamilton, and was busy talking to several of the party in the coach, when the train commenced to pull out. Bobbie jumped off, but there were two tracks between the ball team's train and the platform. Another train was on the first track, and on Kerr alighting he walked behind the coach onto the track nearest the platform, just as a yard engine came thundering down, and here Bobbie's quick start saved his life just by an eyelash.

PAUL FOR A WEEK

But, Oh, My! What a Head the Whole Town Had After They Were Gone.

will hold a mass meeting in Foresters hall Charlotte streete on Sunday afternoon, at 2 o'clock.

St. Paul Minn., July 25.—The Shriners 40,000 of them—have been here and gone, leaving $2,000,000 for their week's expenses. It certainly was a joyous seven days. Poor, giddy, old St. Paul wakes with all the fellings of the morning after, and the early rumble of the ice wagon down the street sounds sweeter than an anathem on Easter Sunday.

Forty thousand Shriners have torn up the city and then put it back again wrong side out. They tied traffic into a double bowknot and threw a half hitch on the street car system. And all the policemen have looked like sweet little angels on their way to Sunday school. Everything has gone off just about as quietly as if some one had touched up 40 tons of dynamite. The famous "lid" was blown into the hole in the bottom of the sea, and every one has been busy filling up at the hole. Cafes have been packed like Tammany coaventions and the nobles have lined the bars until it has been necessary to give them numbers as in a barber shop. The 40,000 were here because they were here.

A meeting of the St. John country.
