The' humble be your lot. We were of different mould, Mary, You were the gentler star; My spirit rouned abroad, Mary, And sighed for things alar.

Life is a transient stay, Mary, A suite, and all is o'er; A burning tear, and then, Mary, Our voice is heard no more!

And mine will soon be still, Mary, ibut ah! ere I depart, With all thy former love, Mary, O press me to thino heart!

And when the silent eve, Mary, Spreads silence over the plans, And the stars are twinkling lone, Mary, Come to my grave alane.

Recall there all our loves, Mary, And oler my silent grave, Shell the warm tears of love, Mary; No dearer boon 1 crave.
