ELECTION CARDS
ELECTION CARD/ELECTION CARD
I beg respectfully to inform the Electors of St. John (not overlooking the lady voters) that, in response to requests from citizens in the north, south and west sections of the City, I have decided to enter the field as a candidate for the office of Commissioner at the ensuing Civic election.
The new council will have to deal with some very important subjects, including the routing of the Valley Railway, to the terminals at East St. John, the completion of the paving of Main street, the paving of some other streets on which the traffic is heavy, the care and maintenance of all of the streets, the providing of a more equitable system of taxation and the improving of the ferry service in Carleton by utilizing a slip extending to Union street, if the change should be found to be a practicable one.
In these and in several other important matters, as well as in departmental work, I should hope, if elected, to be of service to the City, and I would advocate the "open door" at City Hall and the taking of a plebiscite at an early date by a number of public questions not requiring expert knowledge for their decision.
I will be pleased to receive such support as may be accorded to me.
G. FRED FISHER.

ELECTION CARD
To the Electors of the City of St. John: Ladies and Gentlemen—
I take the opportunity of announcing my candidature at the coming election for Commissioners. To call upon each elector will be impossible, but I will endeavor to interview as many as possible. I fully appreciate the responsibility and duty which should rest upon anyone honored with your confidence. If elected I expect to discuss and act upon civic matters in such a manner as will meet with an intelligent and vigilant public opinion.
I am in favor of the open door, and of reasons for arriving at conclusions.
I respectfully solicit your support.
CLARENCE W. DEFOREST.

A LOVE STORY
"I am sorry," she whispered, "but I am afraid I shall not be able to see you again." The young man looked pained as he strove to hide his emotion. "Why?" he managed at last to utter, "is there anybody else?" I thought you, you liked me a little," he stammered; "you know I love you and I shall always continue doing so."
"But haven't you noticed how people turn around and stare at me in those shabby clothes; whatever must they think?"
A smile of relief broke out on his face as he said, "They think, dear, that you ought to do the same as they and I do, go to Berger's ladies' and gentlemen's clothing, 186 to 187 Union street, and he will clothe you with the best for $1 a week."

Berlin, April 3—Germans are delighted over the latest achievement of Count Zeppelin in perfecting an invention which makes his airships practically noiseless in the sky. Berliners had an opportunity of observing the effect of the invention when the new army Zeppelin No. 28 cruised over Berlin with hardly audible evidence of its proximity.
The passenger ship Zeppelin Hansa, which also sailed over Berlin gave the usual sound of its approach when miles away through the rumble of its engines and propellers. All this is done away with in the latest army and navy Zeppelins, which will henceforth be able to sail through misty or foggy skies without giving warning to an enemy that "dreamboats of the air" are coming.

SIR WILFRID LAURIER

In its Ottawa correspondence, dealing with the close of the debate on the Guelph-Stamton report on the Transcontinental, the St. John Standard says: "The end of the debate was in a sense pathetic. It saw the drawing to a close of the old ability of Sir Wilfrid Laurier. His speech was probably the poorest of his career. There was nothing in it worthy of especial note. It was the wall of a man stricken. He could not rise to eloquence."

The correspondent goes on to describe Sir Wilfrid later as "huddled up in his chair," and unable to answer Mr. Borden. The best way to answer the Standard's correspondent is to quote a portion of Sir Wilfrid's speech. After pointing out clearly the partisan character of the commission, and dealing with the essential features of the report, proving that it was both partisan and dishonest Sir Wilfrid said:—

"But what do we find? From the first to the last, Sir, it is an unwholesome partisan libel. From every syllable partisanship oozes out in distortion and misrepresentation. But amid all this insinuation and flimsiness one fact rings true; there has been no graft, not one dollar has been diverted from the object for which it was voted by the parliament. If the railway has cost $180,000,000 every dollar has gone into the road."

"The charge is that we have built too well, too substantially, too much to the future, too much regard for Canada. Our faith was great, but not greater than it has reason to be. Our expectations were high, but not higher than they should have been. "Sir, this road will fulfill the object with which it was constructed—provided it is not degraded by those at present in power."

Again taking up the report, and dealing with the Transcona shops matter, and those of over-classification, the Davis contract and the Quebec-New Brunswick section, showing how contrary the Guelph report was to the facts of the case, Sir Wilfrid concluded his great speech in the following words, which are commended to the thoughtful attention of every reader of the Times:

"In the lengthy course of the debate I have had the privilege of having been taken to task more than once, and held responsible for the construction of this railway. The statements, charges, reproaches, stigmas—call them what you will—I accept, yes, accept as an honor. "I hold myself largely responsible for conceiving and carrying on this great undertaking, an undertaking conceived to secure for this dominion a transcontinental railway, all on Canadian soil, the best and shortest on the American continent."

"I had high aspirations. I sought to bring the western farmer closer to the markets of the world; I sought to do my share to open up the great fertile plains of northern Ontario and Quebec; I planned to link the producing lands with the great Atlantic and Pacific ports; I aimed to be in the van of those who counted the new and great possibilities of the dawning Oriental trade. Yes, all these considerations impelled us to construct the best railway that science could devise or money could build."

"We fell before our task was accomplished. To other hands was committed the completion of the work. We have our responsibility on this side; yonder they have the responsibility on the other side. We have the responsibility of building; we accept it gladly. They have the responsibility of destroying; they cannot escape it."

THE HOUSING QUESTION

At a recent conference in Darlington, England, in connection with the National Housing and Town Planning Council, one of the speakers observed that they had sinned seriously in the past in their housing and must now report and pay the penalty. The local authorities, however, must, he said, receive financial help from the government, as the burden upon them was too great. The chief difficulty, it was pointed out, was to provide homes for the very poor, and it was here the government must come to their aid. The chairman of the meeting made the significant statement that owing to trusts the cost of material for building purposes had increased during the year twenty per cent, and so had increased the cost of houses. He said that in his district the cost of the land on which the houses stood. The general expression of feeling at the conference was that if the Housing and Town Planning Acts were carried out many social problems and difficulties, and particularly that of labor unrest, would be helped towards a solution. It was necessary, however, to secure aid from the government.

It is gratifying to observe that the government is moving in that direction and that Mr. Lloyd George is strongly in favor of government action to help the various communities to solve their housing problems.

In sporting phrase Mr. Pinder put one over on Mr. Guthrie at Frederickton yesterday, when he got the house in committee to strike out a clause inserted in the municipalities bill at the instance of Mr. Guthrie.

People along the line of the St. John Valley Railway who held time checks, and contractors who have accounts to be settled, are watching with some anxiety the proceedings at Frederickton. Why are these bills unpaid?

An American exchange says—"Minnesota has started reforestation work on a large scale, following a series of experiments that have proven so successful as to justify operations of a larger magnitude. Thus the state has commenced the planting of 1,000,000 pine trees."

The education committee of an English town recently took a vote of parents and guardians of children attending the elementary schools on the question of teaching swimming in the schools. There was a very large majority in favor of teaching both boys and girls, and the committee has decided to institute swimming classes this year, the board of education agreeing to pay for the use of the corporation baths.

If provincial government assurances had been worth anything, the new bridge to connect East and West St. John would have been completed before this time. We are now told that the government finds it necessary to take steps to expedite the work on the foundation. The fact remains us of certain wharves at West St. John which another Tory government assured the people would have been completed long before the present time. Then there is the Valley Railway. But why prolong the let?

In view of persistent rumors that some members of the provincial legislature could give a fairly clear account of what became of some of the Valley Railway money, it is the more impressive that every member should insist upon a clear and complete statement, showing exactly what was done with the enormous amount of money already paid out in connection with this railway. Rumor does not even overlook some men in high places. Public suspicion of the whole transaction is deepened by the significant silence of the St. John Standard.

The need of polio women was strongly urged in Liverpool, recently by Miss Higson, the diocesan secretary for rescue work. She declared that there was a strong feeling that certain kinds of work needed women, and in some countries the appointment of polio women had gone a long way toward producing better conditions, especially in relation to dance halls and parks, and the protection of young girl life. The mayor of Blackburn promised to bring the question before the authorities of that city, but suggested that because the plan had originated in the United States it might not be regarded with favor. If that is the only objection, the appointment of polio women in Blackburn should not long be delayed.

The people of Esterville do not want the hospital for advanced cases of tuberculosis in their neighborhood, neither do the people of East St. John, or of the Douglas Avenue district. It was remarked the other day that if the hospital were established on an ice floe twenty miles off shore, with an outgoing tide, there would still be somebody to enter a protest against the location. And yet, there are many people in the city of St. John who would prefer to have next door to them a thoroughly equipped and properly conducted hospital of this kind than some of the tenements they have. At present there are nearly one hundred sources of infection from tuberculosis scattered about the city, and the sooner the hospital is built the sooner the number of these danger spots will be reduced. At the present moment the indications appear to point to the construction of the hospital on the municipal farm.

Spokane, Wash., April 3.—Miss Kate Grant, a teacher in the fifth grade of the Bryant school, has just rounded out the twenty-second year of her continuous service as a teacher in the public schools of Spokane. She looks back over a record that she believes not one teacher in 1,000 can duplicate, for in a score and two years she has never been absent or tardy. When she entered the service of the Spokane schools there were 2,988 pupils in the ten schools of the city. Today there are thirty-six schools enrolling 17,868 pupils.

Everything But the Baby. Spokane, Wash., April 3.—George V. Bunde, of Spokane, has invented a novel baby's high chair which combines a couch, nursery chair, reclining wheel chair or runabout, walker, jumper and high chair. The inventor and his brother have gone to Chicago to organize a company to manufacture and market the article.

BIRTHDAYS OF NOTABILITIES

FRIDAY, APRIL 3 Miss Margaret Anglin, famous actress, whose thirty-eighth birthday occurs today, has the peculiar distinction of having been born in the Parliament Buildings at Ottawa, her father, the late Hon. T. W. Anglin, being speaker of the House of Commons at the time. Miss Anglin, who is in private life Mrs. Howard Hall, attained her greatest distinction as an actress when starring with Henry Miller in "The Great Divide." Of her connection with this play a good story is told. Its author, William Vaughan Moody, contracted with her to produce it in Chicago. She put it on in due course for a single trial performance but in the middle of the presentation of the piece discovered a flaw in the contract. She refused point blank to go on with the play until the playwright had altered the arrangements so that she would have exclusive rights in the production. The next year she and Henry Miller created a great sensation in the place.

LIGHTER WEIN. During the Rush Hour. The man arose and gave his seat to a girl. "Oh, thank you most kindly, sir," she replied. "Don't mind her being polite," explained a sad-faced woman, "I'm taking her a seat."

No Regrets. "Yes," said the retired insurance agent, "I once induced a man to take out a fifty-thousand dollar life insurance policy, and the very day after the policy he dropped dead." "I expect you wished your persuasive powers had not been so successful!" "Well, hardly. You see, I married the widow."

Explaining the Noise. The distracted mother hastened to the nursery and said to her little daughter, "Minnie, what do you mean by shouting and screaming? Play quietly, like Tommy. See, he doesn't make a sound." "Of course he doesn't," said the little girl. "That is our game. He's papa coming home late and I am you."

Unexpected Results. The small man was feeling uncomfortably crushed in the crowded street car when a brilliant inspiration flashed into his head. He turned to the big man near him. "I hope you don't object to riding beside a smaller-sized person, do you?" he inquired as the car slowed down at the next stopping place. "No, but some of the other passengers might," replied the big man, and, taking him by the shoulders, he threw the schemer out into the road.

His Excuse. Mother—"Bobbie, what's this I hear about your not rising to offer your seat to a lady in the street car?" Bobbie—"Aw, what was the use, ma; she couldn't sit down where the three of me got up."

Wallace Broad, in Lecture on China, Argues For a Canadian Navy—Before Canadian Club

Before the members of the Canadian Club in Bond's restaurant last evening, with Dr. H. S. Bridges in the chair, Wallace Broad, a former resident of this city, gave an address on "Observations on China and the Chinese." The observations were based on eleven years' experience in that country.

The lecturer dwelt at some length upon Chinese customs and the people. He credited them with being shrewd and keen in business and practicing many methods in hunting and fishing which were unknown in other lands. They were becoming more highly educated, he said, and many children were now in English, American and Canadian colleges completing their education.

REV. DR. MANNING TO VISIT HALIFAX

Rector of Historic Trinity Church, New York, to Deliver Addresses

(Halifax Echo.) An important move looking to the promotion of Christian duty has been undertaken by the Clericus Club of which His Lordship the Bishop of Nova-Scotia is president, and Canon Venon is secretary. Throughout the winter a marked departure has been made in the character of the meetings held by the club, the membership of which consists of clergy of the Church of England in Canada. At the invitation of the bishop representative ministers of other churches have been invited to read papers upon the problem of Christian unity as seen from the standpoint of their own denomination. Excellent papers have been contributed in this way by Rev. A. B. Colpe, Rev. Dr. Bond and Rev. Principal Kinnon. Feeling that the discussion should not be dropped at this stage, the Clericus Club at its last meeting decided to invite all the other ministers of the city to attend a conference to be held at the Church of England institute on Monday, April 20, p. m. With a view to giving as much interest as possible to this meeting, the bishop invited Rev. Dr. Manning, the well known and distinguished rector of historic Trinity Church in New York, and one of the best known clergymen of the Episcopal-Lake. Alta, writes: "I had cramps in

THE SPARKLESS CHILD.

Some Old-Fashioned Views Vigorously Expressed. (Cleveland Plain Dealer.) One day last week the six-year-old son of a wealthy family stabbed his nurse in the abdomen. The parents and the family doctor expressed regret. It was, they say, merely an act of petteulance. The girl has a private room in the hospital, and plenty of flowers. She may recover. Offhand and without any intimate knowledge of the case, it may be assumed that the precocious stabber is one of the ultramodern brand of babes. He is, probably, one of those who are allowed "to develop their own individuality." He has developed, it may be assumed, with considerable rapidity. His nurse had put him to bed, and when he pattered into the kitchen she ordered him out. The stab from a handy butcher-knife was the result of her temper. She was, doubtless, culpable in having issued any order at all. Orders tend to check the development of individuality then and there by attempting to inflict capital punishment on the one who stood in his light.

Oh, for a thousand good spankings! The six-year-old marvel of New Jersey should receive one of them—perhaps in vigorous instalments. And many other perils and unwholesome products of the anthropological-psychological school of child rearing should have a few for their souls' sake.

Elbows and Fingers Were Cramped and Numb

Lived in Dread of Paralysis—Nerves Upset—Could Not Sleep—Well Now—Thanks to Dr. Chase's Nerve Food. Paralysis is frightfully common, these days. We are living at high tension, and too often the nerve give way under the enormous strain. The only way to be safe is to be warned by symptoms, for the nervous system does not go to pieces without giving you many danger signals. If you only know how to interpret them. When you have frequent headaches, find yourself easily irritated and annoyed, feel discouraged and down-hearted, cannot rest and sleep well, and find appetite fickle and digestion bad, you may know that the nerves are in bad condition. Don't wait for these symptoms to become chronic, but start in early with Dr. Chase's Nerve Food and best known clergymen of the Episcopal-Lake. Alta, writes: "I had cramps in my legs, pains in my knees and elbows, and my fingers would get cramped and numb. I could not sleep nights, and would have to get out of bed to rub the cramps out of my legs. For two years I suffered this way, and could not get relief. Then I began using Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, and did so with splendid results. I sleep well now, enjoy my meals and feel well generally. I only had cramps once last winter, and feel that my system has been greatly benefited by this food cure." Cures like this are reported almost daily in the public press, and you are invited to investigate these cases for yourself. ## "AN UNBLUSHING PARTIZAN LABEL"

Laurier's Description of N.T.R. Report

A MASTERLY SPEECH

Answers Every Charge and Every Argument—Accepts Full Responsibility For a Great Work

Ottawa, April 2—In a remarkable speech of nearly two hours' duration, marked by all his old time fire, eloquence and vigor of argument and delivery, Sir Wilfrid Laurier tonight summed up the Liberal indictment against the "unblushing partizan label" against the Liberal party, against the National Transcontinental Railway, and against Canada itself, contained in the report of Messrs. Goutelin and Lynch-Staunton.

He dealt with all the essential points of that report, answered all the chief arguments which have been given during the past week from the government side of the house, and pointed the inevitable conclusion.

His concluding declaration that the Liberals gladly accepted the responsibility for the construction of the road, and were proud of its inception, had faith in its future, provided it were carried through as parliament and the people of Canada intended it should be built, and his warning to the government that they could not escape the great responsibility of destroying the road to suit partizan or private interests, was greeted with enthusiastic and continued cheering from every Liberal in the house.

Sir Wilfrid was never in better form, and his speech was a fitting conclusion to the sustained and effective attack of the past week upon the government and its partizan investigators.

Report Did No One Justice. Sir Wilfrid pointed out that the report did justice neither to the government, to its opponents, nor to the country. The men selected to prepare it were open to suspicion from the first, one because of his connection with the C. P. R. and with a $20,000 job under the government, the other because of his previous prejudices and his active participation in Conservative politics, even while the report was being prepared.

He dealt with the essential details of the report itself, noting that in point of law and in point of fact the commissioners were wrong in almost every particular "from every syllable of the report," he said, "except out an endless flow of distortion and misrepresentation."

In regard to the Transcona shops, on which the commission had set $4,200,000 had been illegally expended, Sir Wilfrid noted that Mr. Staunton had deliberately and dishonestly ignored the opinions of a host of witnesses, the highest legal authorities and the findings of the official arbitrator, Sir William Whyte.

In regard to the Davis contract, which the government speakers have made almost their one charge of possible scandal, Sir Wilfrid noted that the late government had no legal justification for cancelling the contract and that the commissioners had not taken the honest course of examining Mr. Davis before condemning him.

In regard to the question of over-classification, he gave the conclusive answer that the government itself had settled with the contractors, not according to the findings of their commissioners, but on a much more liberal basis than the late government had been prepared to settle.

A Scuttling Policy. He dealt in a conclusive manner with the whole question of policy as to the standard of construction of the road and the building of the New Brunswick section, and declared that the obvious intention of the government seemed to be to degrade the whole line from Cocagne east and make it a local road to please the C. P. R. without regard to national consequences or the effect in diverting traffic to American ports.

He wound up with a remarkable and splendid peroration declaring his pride in the whole undertaking, his faith in the successful achievement of the objects for which the road was designed, his glory in the fact that a two-years' investigation had failed to show that a single dollar of the whole $100,000,000 had been dishonestly spent.

Premier Borden, in replying, frankly stated that he did not intend to discuss the report in detail. He spent considerable time in giving Messrs. Goutelin and Lynch-Staunton a certificate of character and he harked back to the reciprocity campaign, as an answer to Sir Wilfrid's charge that the government was nullifying the whole object of the road. He read the greater part of his speech which followed pretty much the line of specious argument adopted by Hon. Arthur Meighen, earlier in the debate. He did not touch to any extent the broad issues of policy referred to by Sir Wilfrid.

The vote was taken at 12.30 on Mr. Graham's amendment censuring the government for the appointment of partizan commissioners, and for the misleading and unfounded findings in their report. It was a straight party division, the government defeating the amendment by a vote of 109 to 87, a majority of 22.

YOU NEED MEDICINE AT THIS TIME

Everybody is more or less troubled at this season with loss of vitality, failure of appetite, that tired feeling, or with bilious turns, dull headaches, indigestion and other stomach troubles, or with pimples and other eruptions on the face and body. The reason is that the blood is impure and impoverished.

Hood's Sarsaparilla relieves all these ailments. Ask your druggist for this medicine and get it today. Nothing else acts like it. Get Hood's.

WHY DRUGGISTS RECOMMEND Vinol For Run-Down People

Vinol for Run-Down People. If any one person should know the value of medicines it is the druggist who dispenses them and from my experience I want to say if the people in this vicinity only knew the value of Vinol my delicious cod liver and iron tonic (without oil) at this season of the year, I would not be able to supply the demand.

This is because Vinol is a combination of the two most world-famed tonics, the medicinal curative elements of cod's liver without the oil, and iron for the blood.

Vinol tones up the digestive organs, purifies and enriches the blood, promotes healthful sleep and a normal appetite.

Old people, delicate children, run-down, overworked and tired women should try a bottle of Vinol with the understanding that your money will be returned if it does not help you. Watson's Drug Store.

DR. FRIEDMAN REPLIES. Charges Made by Prof. Vulpius, of Heidelberg.

Berlin, April 1—Replying in the Deutsche Medizinische Wochenschrift to a charge recently made by Professor Vulpius of Heidelberg, in regard to the nature of Friedman's tuberculin, Doctor Friedman says that Doctor Ehrlich, who has been examining his cultures officially on behalf of the Prussian Government, has established their entire harmlessness.

Doctor Friedman asserts that German physicians have injected more than 35,000 patients without a single case of death being reported. He thinks it strange that Professor Vulpius should have waited three months to report such a case in his own practice, and declares he is in entire accord with the proposal that the remedy should be placed under state control.

FAIRVILLE NEWS Lancaster Board of Trade's Protest Against Using Barnhill Property For Tuberculosis Hospital — Methodist Church Event

There's a charm about fine neckwear useless to try to describe—we all recognize it. It may be in the weave and texture, combinations of color or the general richness of the effect, but it's in evidence in all of our Spring lines.

Our large neckwear cabinet enables us to open a large assortment of 50c. values. We've done SOME business in it, we're GOING to do more. Come in just to give your eyes a treat, or your neck an ornament. Prices 50c., 75c., $1—and up.

W. A. Nelson referred to the proposition offering the Barnhill property to the municipality for a tuberculosis hospital. He said that Lancaster's position was quite plain. If the residents near the Municipal Home were objecting to its location there and Douglas Avenue protests had been heard along the same line, surely Fairville would not stand for an instant. The house was in the heart of a residential section that had shown more growth in the last two years than any other street in the village as far as the better class of dwellings was concerned.

From the front of the Barnhill house to the street could not be over 100 feet and there were dwellings on both sides at a comparatively short distance. The roadway in front was the principal highway entrance to the city on the west side and the presence of such an institution would cause the locality to be generally shunned. The active business section was only a short distance away and in the opinion of the speaker steps should be taken at once to nip the proposition in the bud.

W. J. Linton in a vigorous speech denounced the project as iniquitous and said if it became necessary he would canvass for signatures of tax payers in protest.

Amador W. Anderson believed the board could not act too quickly. True the idea had only been exploited but its effects on the place, must be considered and the whole business condemned at the outset. Lancaster was on the verge of a progressive advance that should not be handicapped by such a step.

Other members spoke in the same strain. Mr. Anderson then moved, seconded by S. S. Linton, that a committee be appointed to interview the proper authorities and register the board of trade's protest. W. A. Nelson, Joseph L. O'Brien and Frank V. Hamm were appointed. Several new members were received last evening and there was a very good attendance. Other matters affecting the good of Lancaster are being considered and are likely to be presented at the next session. They include further details regarding incorporation.

Yankees' New Field To Be New York City's Largest

FRANK CHANCE

Plans for the new baseball park of the New York American League baseball team, at Kingsbridge, N. Y., call for a concrete and steel double decked grand stand seating 30,000 persons. The open stands, extending beyond the right and left field foul posts, will have room for 14,000 more, while it will be possible for 4,000 standees to see the games from the surface of the field. The work has been begun. The stadium must be completed in September.

Frank J. Farrell, president of the club, says that, as the American League schedule winds up the field's local season on Labor Day, excepting a few scattered games later, the dedication and formal opening of the field will not take place until next year.

HOCKEY

Hockey's Season Not Over Yet
Boston, April 2.—The local hockey season will not come to a close this week as was expected, but instead two games will be played next Tuesday and Wednesday evenings. An all-star seven has been selected from the several Boston teams, and it will clash with a picked septette from the City League of Montreal.

News of the Boxers
Boston Globe.—Jack Johnson is getting to the point where he practically uses the old remark to the effect that the public be not misled. Such remarks have been one of the causes for Johnson "getting in bad." How can he expect to get the prices he has asked for his services when he insults the people who make it possible for a promoter to give him his price? The fact that he is the world's champion does not give him any such right.

Alec McLean and his boxer, Gilbert Gallant, are still in California. Alec is making strenuous efforts to get Gallant matched again with Red Watson. Jim Jeffers has built himself a log cabin in the pine woods of Bear County, Calif. Jeffers is showing his age in no mistakable way. The beard on his great is as white as snow.

FOOTBALL

Athenians Beat Caledonians.
In a fast game on the Barrack Green on Wednesday afternoon, the soccer team from the steamer Athenians defeated the Caledonians, of this city, three goals to two. Although the ground was soft some fast playing was seen. The winners' team consisted of John Mitchell, James McKay, John McDougall, James Buchanan, J. Cummings, John Bennett, John Ferguson, George Black, Alex Fleming and Wm. Ray. The Times has received an excellent photo of the Athenians team, including the vice-president, John Cameron, and the manager, Alex Miller.

ATHLETIC

First of the Season.
Amherst will open its athletic season on April 6 with an indoor ten mile run, which promises to be a feature. Entries are coming in from all over the maritime provinces. The men already in line are Victor McAulay, of Windsor, A. J. Rodgers, of Halifax, Yates, of the Nippei, J. B. Eastin, Amherst; Norman Turnbull, Springhill, and W. H. Chambers, St. John. Entries close on April 4.

AQUATIC

Motor Boat Goes 45 Miles an Hour.
St. Augustine, Fla., April 2.—The Hydro-Bullet, owned by Earl H. Deakin, of Chicago and the Oregon Kid, owned by S. P. Brock, of Portland, Oregon, won the three events scheduled in the southern championship speed boat races here.

The Hydro-Bullet won the first heat of the event for boats of the 26-foot class covering fifteen knots in 25.04 1-2. The same boat also finished first in the six lap handicap race over a 2 1-2 knot course. Over a limited course the Oregon Kid won a special trial event, making an average of 45 miles an hour. The Oregon Kid hereafter will be known as the Wisconsin Kid.

A Meeting of Old-Timers

New York, April 2.—James H. Riley, old-time sculling champion, is planning a race for old-timers on Saratoga Lake next August. No oarsman under sixty will be allowed to compete. The distance probably will be one mile.

The men whom he has already invited are Pat Luther, Fred Plaisant, the old Yale rigger; Jim Ten Eyck, Syracuse coach; George Falkner, of Boston; Charles E. Courtney, coach of the Cornell crew; John Kennedy, a retired Yale coach; Mike Davis, of Boston; Eli Ward, retired coach of the University of Pennsylvania crew; and John F. Scholes, of Toronto, father of a winner of the Diamond Scull.

THINK THEY HAVE COME ACROSS NEW METHOD OF DODGING CUSTOMS DUTIES

Boston, April 2.—An attempt to land a trunk, believed to contain dutiable goods, from the Italian liner Palermo was frustrated, and what may prove to be a regular method of smuggling goods into this country was discovered, when the big steamship arrived from Naples and Genoa.

False inspection chalk marks, which failed to pass the customs guards on the Boston & Albany pier, East Boston, led to the discovery.

Mrs. Theresa Catalina, arrived from Naples on the Palermo to meet her husband, who had preceded her. The man, with a companion met her at the dock. When the woman's baggage was about to be carried ashore, a customs guard at the entrance to the wharf was on the point of stamping the trunk label O. K. when he noticed that, although the usu-

YOUNG WOMAN WHO GRADUATED AS PILOT OF WRIGHT AEROPLANE

Mrs. RICHARD HORNSBY

Mrs. Richard Hornsby, graduate of the Wright Aeroplane School, at Dayton, Ohio, is the daughter of John C. Richberg, a well known Chicago attorney.

She became the wife of Herbert Hornsby, son of Dr. John A. Hornsby, two years ago, when the two went to Kenosha, Wis., and married. Some time later Mr. and Mrs. Hornsby separated and Mrs. Hornsby became a pupil in the Wright school.

A MATRIMONIAL MIX-UP

St. Catharines Police Court Magistrate Hears Amazing Story

St. Catharines, Ont., April 2.—A matrimonial mix-up came to light in the police court here when William Fennell of Thorold, charged with non-support of his wife and drinking while on the "Indian list," asserted she had another husband living. Ed Bradley, Mrs. Fennell admitted this, but said Fennell knew it when he married her. They were married four years ago, and have one child. She said that Bradley had been married three times, and had another wife living at the present time. The magistrate was surprised at the statements and adjourned the case to get more evidence.

PINS FAITH TO DREAM; GOES DEEP FOR GOLD

Miner Near Nelson Says Place Where He Digs is Just Such as He Saw in Dream

Spokane, Wash., April 2.—Pinning his faith to a dream, C. Olsen, a Spokane contractor, is devoting money and time to the development of a gold mining claim near Nelson, B. C.

John J. Malone, mayor of Nelson, brought the news here. Several years ago he says, Olsen dreamed that he was operating a mine, rich in gold. Of course he awoke disappointed, but with details of the physical surroundings of his dream mine stamped in his memory.

A year later Olsen went to British Columbia to inspect some timber. Near Nelson he was surprised to find a spot which coincided as to hills, trees and other physical features with the surroundings of his dream mine. Olsen forgot about the timber business and located a mining claim, calling it the Dream mine.

He sank a shaft ninety feet. In his

Wants To Meet British Middleweights

(FROM T. S. ANDREWS)

Milwaukee, April 1—Joe Borrell, a Philadelphia middleweight, who recently went to England under contract to the clubs there for several matches, has decided that he is good enough to tackle any of the heavyweights on the other side of the Atlantic. After winning his first battle from Bernard, a Frenchman, he issued a challenge to Bombardier Wells and other heavyweights and deposited $1,000 to bind a match. Joe made quite a record in Philadelphia until he bumped into George Chip, who is one of the claimants of the middleweight title. However, Borrell has proven himself a first-class middleweight.

OLD FRIENDS

"Obie" Writes of Plans of Some of Last Year's Greeks

Shanley, Jacobson and Diedrich To Report To Lynn Next Week — Brien and "Kid" Hoffman to Worcester

Well! With the organization of the New Brunswick and Nova Scotia Baseball League for 1914, here comes news of some good friends of 1913. In a letter received yesterday from Charley O'Brien, the speedy third baseman of last year's Marathons, he tells of the plans of several of last summer's team. "Obie" writes that "Vic" Shanley, the Greeks' big pitcher and first baseman, will report to the Lynn club next week. So, too, will Diedrich, who was not very effective against the Marathons' opponents when he was in the St. John team, but who was one of the strongest pitchers against them after he joined Frederickton. Another who is going to Lynn next week is Jacobson, the big left fielder and mighty swatter of the St. Croix team, afterwards with the St. Johns at the end of the season.

Local Sport Briefs

Paul Poehler, who is to bowl here this month, has a world's record of 1215 for ten strings, and not 1015, as announced a few days ago. He certainly is entitled to the extra 200.

Chambers, a local long distance man, is entered in the indoor ten-mile run in Amherst and should make a good showing.

The Thistles reported a good season at their annual meeting last night. During the winter they won eight out of twelve matches.

George Carvill is to be congratulated on the showing his colt made at the Amherst horse show yesterday. It is understood that the East End League will be out for baseball honors again this season, although they have made no definite plans yet. They are now on the look-out for a new diamond.

Joe Page reports progress from New Glasgow, and we should hear any minute of their entrance into the M. F. League.

Local horsemen are waiting only for the front to get out of the ground until they can get out and get their stings into shape for the summer season. With Frederickton's new string, the sport should boom in New Brunswick this year.

Turf Notes. Massachusetts will have more than thirty race meetings this year. Ed Direct is to try to duplicate the Grand Circuit success of those other graduates of the Canadian ice races, Agnes Pointner, The Eel and Joe Patchen II.

Trotting races under saddle are to be one of the features at Goshen, N. Y., this summer.

The citizens of Kalamazoo are to present to Ed Geers a loving cup when the Grand Circuit is in the Celery Belt in next August.

The death of Lady Nottingham 2,054, is reported.

Canadian League Refused Class B. Toronto, April 2—Secretary Farrell has again refused the Canadian League's application for class B rating. President Fitzgerald received word that the association could not entertain the application. It is now President Fitzgerald's intention to carry the matter to the National Commission.

BOXING BOUTS TO SWELL THE FUND FOR TRIP TO ST. JOHN

The hopes of having a well-filled treasury when they leave for St. John's at summer with other companies of 8th regiment, M. V. M., to return the debt made two years ago by the 82nd sappers, Boston, the members of Company E have organized an auxiliary athletic association, under the auspices which a series of professional boxing bouts will be staged in the City Hall every two weeks. The first of these is held last night, when Jack (Twin) Wilvan, himself a Cambridge boy, met with Porky Flings. Two interesting preliminaries preceded the main bout. Manager Woodman said last night that Ford and Smith were matched to fight in London the last of June, and the idea of the two boxing in Cambridge was absurd. "I wish the young men personally every success in their undertaking, and they know that I stand ready to assist them in any possible way. I have tried already to help them, but Langford will not appear before his engagements."

MR. KNEFF SHOULD NOT BOTHER ABOUT PRIZE

The Sporting Editor of the Times, in replying to Mr. Knuff's answer to your issue of March 31 to my challenge to a match for the championship, should be willing to defend his title, irrespective of any prize being offered.

CAR COLLIDES WITH ENGINE

A Fairville street car ran into a C. P. engine at the Fairville crossing about 8:30 last evening. Misses Christopher, a motorman, was struck in the abdomen by the rapidly revolving reverse gear and was badly injured. George Ineson, a passenger, was hurt in the neck and James McElwain, also a passenger, had his leg slightly cut and his arm scratched. William T. Nelson, conductor of the car, was badly shaken.

Conductor Bernard Quilly was in charge of the train with Edward Kane engineering, and Harold Gale as fireman. The engine was not damaged, but a street car was badly smashed and Fairville service was not resumed during the evening. The gates were out commission at the time of the accident. The motorman said that he was aware of this fact and saw no sign, although he stopped the car as usual. The gates and looked about to see if the track was clear. It is said at the flagman displayed a green flag to the motorman to stop, but at this might not have been seen on account of the storm.

The Gallery's Verdict. (From the London Express.) In the old days the proprietor of a music hall always used to walk up and down the centre gangway during the performance and restrain the exuberance of his patrons. One night, says the Express, a lady singer began a doleful ballad in a still more doleful voice, and she received "the bird" from the gallery. "That'll do, boys," said the gallery. "Order, please! Give the artist a chance." But when the performance was finished he took off his hat, waved to the gallery and remarked, "I pardon, you were quite right."

Parental Unreasonableness. You didn't marry Miss Jiggers after all. "No; her old man wanted me to propose to support him in the same style as she did."

WILL AWAIT ACTION

The committee of the Fairville Board of Trade, appointed last evening to deal with the proposal to locate the tuberculosis hospital in Fairville, will take no further action in the matter until the proposal takes more definite form. DIED IN CHELSEA

Mrs. McNevin, Mother of Mrs. James McCarthy of St. John

Sad news for the many friends of Mrs. James McCarthy, German and Queen streets, came in a letter from her yesterday afternoon announcing the death of her mother, Mrs. Neil McNevin, in Chelsea, Mass. She passed away on Tuesday night while Mrs. McCarthy still was on the Boston train hurrying to her mother's side in response to a telegram telling of her serious illness. Pneumonia was the cause of death and her illness was of but a few days duration, for she had reached her 87th year.

Mrs. McNevin belonged to Sussex, but moved some years ago to Boston and was living with her daughter, Mrs. Thomas Walls, in Chelsea. Her husband died there some four years ago. Besides Mrs. McCarthy and Mrs. Walls, three sons survive—George, in New York; Neil, in Malden, and William in Everett, Mass. Numerous friends in Sussex and a host of sympathizers in St. John will read with deep regret of the bereavement of Mrs. McCarthy and the other members of the family. The funeral took place in Chelsea.

GAVE REPORTERS SOME WORK

An instance of how quickly news spreads when put in the mouths of gossips was given in the Union Depot this morning when a sensational report was current that two detectives from western Canada had arrested a man on arrival of the Maritime Express on a charge of murder. The story was entirely unfounded but it was not so discovered until after newspapermen had "chased it" to the limits.

On the arrival of the Maritime Express two constables from the North Shore stepped off, having in custody a big able-bodied man whom they were "detected from the west who were arresting a man on the charge of murder." After much inquiry it was learned that the man was a poor unfortunate who was being taken to the Provincial Hospital.

COMRADES IN THE RANKS

Young Ladies Join With Every Day Club Boys in Fancy Marching Exercises — A Red-Letter Night

For the first time during the two winters the Every Day Boys' Club has been in existence its members last night were made to feel the spirit of comradeship between themselves and another organization. It is worthy of note that the other organization was a group of fourteen young ladies connected with the Leinster street church. They went down to the club and after they had given an exhibition of fancy marching and wand and rifle drill, under the direction of Sergeant Sullivan, and a group of ten of the boys had given a similar marching drill, the young ladies went on the floor with the boys, and taking alternate positions in the ranks performed the marching drill again. The boys were somewhat abashed at the outset, but the spirit of comradeship quickly communicated itself to them, and it was fine sight to see the fourteen girls and sixteen boys in the fancy marches, keeping time to the music played by Miss Price on the piano, with Sergeant Sullivan directing their movements. Later a large group of the smaller boys were put through physical drill, and were heartily applauded by the young ladies and a few friends who were present with them. The visitors had also brought abundant refreshments, and a huge coffee boiler was in charge of Mrs. James Sullivan, Mrs. Harry Scott and Mrs. A. M. Reiding. The young ladies served refreshments, while Miss Bourne and Miss Shillington played duets on the piano. There was also a solo by Miss Nobles and a reading by Miss Shillington. A Mr. Bellin, on behalf of the boys' club, of whose members about fifty were present, thanked the visitors for their great kindness, and the inspiration that they had given to the club. The proceedings closed with the National Anthem. It was a red-letter night for the boys, and the most encouraging in the history of the organization to those whose labors have kept it in existence.

Quebec Man Made Trouble In Restaurant and Also For Police

John Dougherty, twenty-three years of age, a native of Quebec, was arrested last night, being handed over to the police by Mr. Wanasaker, who charged him with using profane and obscene language while in his restaurant. Policeman McLean also charged him with retaining and selling to the court that he had to carry the prisoner to the police station. The magistrate told the prisoner he was liable to a fine of $88. He was allowed to go, however, on payment of $5, as it was his first offence. The magistrate told him he had better take the pledge, and send it to the court, but Dougherty said this would not be necessary, as he intended to leave the city. The balance of $130 taken from the prisoner when he was arrested was returned to him.

INVESTIGATING THE FAIRVILLE COLLISION

C. P. R. and St. John Railway Co. Both Inquiring — Statement By Mr. Groat

Investigations into the collision between a street car and a locomotive at the Fairville crossing were commenced this morning by the St. John Railway Company and the local C. P. R. officials. H. M. Hopper said today that their investigation had not gone far enough to warrant him in making any statement.

H. C. Groat, general superintendent of the Atlantic division of the C. P. R., said that at the time of the accident the crossing gates were out of order, the trouble having been caused by the storm. A man was stationed at the crossing to signal the approach of trains, and it is believed that the motorman did not see the signal in time to stop the car before the collision occurred. At the time of the accident the train was traveling at the rate of only four miles an hour, and this accounts for the fact that the damage done was not more serious.

It was suggested by Mr. Hopper that a joint investigation might be held, and Mr. Groat expressed his willingness if this were thought desirable.
