German Attacks Are Reported Less Violent

Allies Have Maintained Positions Everywhere—Heavy Loss Inflicted on The Enemy By The Russians

Paris, Oct. 28.—The French official announcement issued this afternoon says:—

"During the day of yesterday the German attacks in all the regions between Neuport and Arras were less violent. Our positions are everywhere maintained, and we also continued to advance to the north and to the east of Ypres. We also made some progress between Cambrien to the southwest of Labesse and Arras.

"Further information continues to confirm previous reports that the German losses in dead, wounded and prisoners have been considerable in the northern region.

"On the right bank of the Aisne the Germans attempted to fight a very violent offensive movement in the region of Craonne, in the heights of the Highway des Dames they have been repulsed. In the Woerpe districts our troops have continued their advance in the forests between Aprimont and St. Mihiel, as well in the forests of Le Pirre.

Russia—To the south of Warsaw the fighting extends from the junction of the river Iza with the Vistula on a front of 150 miles long. In the region to the north-east of Rawa the Russians have inflicted heavy losses on the Germans.

"There has been furious fighting in the forests between Kozienia and Radom.

"In Galicia the Russians are making progress. To the south of Sambor, in the narrow valley of the Podub, they surrounded the 38th division of the Hungarian Honved, together with detachments from the Landsturm and destroyed them completely, capturing twenty pieces of artillery and a quantity of war material.

"In East Prussia partial attempts at a counter offensive movement on the part of the Germans resulted in failure."

FAR IS DEADLOCK
Paris, Oct. 28.—When the allies resumed the battle in Belgium today the war apparently was still far from determination. For days the opposing sides continued the struggle fiercely, now one side and then the other gaining ground, so that the battle thus far has been in the nature of a deadlock.

"That the Germans have made up their minds to reach a decision in this theatre of war is indicated by the report that their general staff issued a further call for troops from Belgium, and Germany for concentration in the vicinity of Dixmude, where some of the most severe fighting in battle of Flanders has occurred.

The gain of the allies in the region south of Dixmude, as officially announced, showed that they are able, despite the heavy and continuous cannonading and the attacks of the German infantry, to take the offensive against German contingents which previously had succeeded in crossing the Yser. This news was received with much satisfaction by the public here, as was an announcement regarding the offensive movement by the French around Yser.

CHANGE OF GERMAN PLAN
London, Oct. 28.—The correspondence of the Daily Mail in Northern France under date of Tuesday, says:—"The Germans, despairing of crossing the line from Neuport to Dixmude, are trying to make a detour to cross the line from Dixmude to Ypres. Military opinion is that this line will offer the Germans no better scope than that along the Yser Canal, rather worse in fact."

RE GERMAN IN ALSACE
London, Oct. 28.—A despatch to the Times from Bern, Switzerland, says that the Germans are receiving large reinforcements in Alsace, and that the French are making great preparations for an attack on Belfort, which is a really entrenched.

Wash Ashore
London, Oct. 28.—A despatch to the Times from Flushing, Holland, says:—"Several mines have been washed up along the coast below Ostend. They were in excellent working order, they exploded promptly but did no damage.

As Germans have fallen back almost everywhere, they are putting the line from Ostend to Knokke, in a state of defence. At Ostend preparations are being made to place mines at the entrance.

The German losses on the Neuport front are estimated at 16,000 men and 80,000 wounded. During Sunday 400 vehicles loaded with wounded soldiers, passed through Ostend.

The Germans have commandeered a quantity of lumber at Bruges for building a giant airship shed at donk.

Artillery is being placed in the dunes between Huyss and Dumburg. Five hundred pieces of artillery have been taken to Zebrugghe."

Help Belgians
London, Oct. 28.—A Central News despatch from The Hague says that the Belgian government has asked parliament for 3,000,000 guilders (about $1,000,000) for the maintenance of Belgian troops.

Indians in Egypt?
London, Oct. 28.—A despatch to Reuters from Amsterdam says that the following message has been received at the Hague:

"The British government has received a communication from the Egyptian government, in which the Egyptian government has requested that the British government should send a detachment of British troops to Egypt to assist in the maintenance of order in the country."

No Change
London, Oct. 28.—An Amsterdam despatch to Reuters says:—"The 'Handelsblad' learns from St. Louis, Netherlands, that there is no change on the battle front between Neuport and Dixmude. Heavy fighting continues. Trams communication with Ostend is still stopped."

A despatch from Vienna denies that Emperor Francis Joseph is ill. On the contrary it says he is in the best of health and dispatching all state affairs.

British Fire Effective
London, Oct. 28.—The Times correspondent in Belgium writes the following:—"Observation from a captive British balloon, has revealed how effective has been the fire of the British warships on Ostend, Middlekerke, Lombardylde and other coastal villages. Not a single wall remains standing in the villages of Westkerke, Slype and Novle. Several other villages are also in ruins. All this damage was caused by the artillery of the British ships."

GERMANS DEFEAT THE BELGIANS IN AFRICA
Paris, Oct. 28.—A Havre despatch to the Matin, reports that Tombout, vice-governor general of Katagan in the Belgian Congo, announces that Belgian troops, commanded by Resident Commissioner J. J. J. J., completely defeated the Germans at Kiseni, Tanganyika. (Continued on page 2, first column.)

KITCHENER CALLS FOR MORE MEN

London, Oct. 28.—Earl Kitchener, secretary of state for war, has issued an appeal for another 100,000 men. Even if these men are raised within the next three months, it will be well into the summer of 1915, before they can be put upon the battlefield.

The spy mania has all of Great Britain in its grip. Every London Stock Exchange member is now searched for bombs before going into the strong rooms. It is feared, evidently, that some person hostile to England will blow up the institution.

RUSSIAN WINTER SETS IN EARLY

Means Great Hardships For the Kaiser's Troops; News of the Fighting

London, Oct. 28.—The Chronicle's Warsaw correspondent sends a despatch which was delayed in transmission, in which he says:—"The Russian winter, which brought ruin to Napoleon and must mean the greatest hardship for the German troops, has set in early this year. When our train crossed the Beresina River near Minsk, a few days ago, a blizzard was raging and the fields and forests thereabouts were covered with snow. All the way from Moscow to Warsaw, the weather was bitter cold."

London, Oct. 28.—The Times correspondent at Warsaw, telegraphing under date of Tuesday, says of the campaign in Russian Poland:—"Radom, fifty-seven miles south of Warsaw, was taken after a hard struggle, and large bodies of Russian cavalry occupied Lodz, seventy-five miles southwest of Warsaw today, after considerable fighting. The opinion is held here that Germany has definitely lost her opportunity in Poland, largely because of the attitude of the population, which is increasingly anti-German."

Important Success
The Times Petrograd correspondent, under Tuesday's date, says:—"The news of the occupation of Lodz is regarded in military circles as extremely important because of the practice of a large cavalry column there, which threatens the whole line of German communications. The Germans were unable to withstand the terrible thrust to their left flank, and this cavalry movement may participate developments compelling the Germans to fall back upon Oesernowka, in Russian Poland, close to the Silesian frontier, and to weaken extremely the Austrian defensive in Galicia."

London, Oct. 28.—The Petrograd correspondent of the Morning Post telegraphing Tuesday reports the fighting in Galicia, says:—"It is unofficially reported today that in the fighting in Galicia the Russian left and the Russian centre, have not succeeded in pushing the advantages they gained as far as was hoped for."

There is no confirmation of these reports, but it is quite possible that the smashing of the German left, where the Germans' best forces were advanced, may have been attained at the cost of weakened plans of the Russian line. The other part of Russia, is, however, strategically strong and if the news is true, it can only be a momentary check.

Girl Spy Shot
A German girl spy was caught a few miles outside of Petrograd. She had been court-martialed and shot, her clothes were lined with admirably executed plans of knowledge, and other military stations.

MURRAY HUESTIS OF SUSSEX DEAD
Prominent in Business Life and in Masonic Fraternity

Sussex, N. B., Oct. 28.—Sussex this morning was called to mourn the loss of one of its most estimable and highly respected citizens, Murray Huestis, who died at seven o'clock at his residence in Main street. He was fifty-seven years of age, and had been in poor health for the last seven months, and about four weeks ago was given up by his physicians. He married and was able to be about the house for a few days, but again was confined to his bed, until the end.

Mr. Huestis was a very prominent man and widely known, both in business and social circles. When the Sussex Mercantile Company was formed he was largely instrumental in its organization, and he was a director of the company.

Mr. Huestis was also well known in Masonic circles, being a member of the St. John and Quebec Railway Company, and also a member of the Mystic Shrine. He was survived by his wife, who was Taylor Hazen; three daughters, Annie, Nellie and Gertrude; and two sons, Carl and Murray. The funeral will be held at Kirkhill, Rev. Canon Neales will officiate.

HIBBARD COMPANY AND RAILWAY PEOPLE HAVE REACHED SETTLEMENT
Frederick, N. B., Oct. 28.—After a conference which lasted until three o'clock this morning, the dispute between the Hibbard Construction Co., and the St. John and Quebec Railway Company was settled satisfactorily to both parties.

The arbitration board has been notified that its services will not be required. Counsel engaged in case were George W. Fowler and Fred R. Taylor for the Hibbard Company, and Mr. Pascoe, of the New York bar, H. A. Powell and R. B. Hanson for the St. John and Quebec Railway Company. It is understood that the claims of the subcontractors against the Hibbard Company will be promptly settled.

WHEAT PRICES UP
Chicago, Oct. 28.—Crop damage reports from Argentina with predictions of a smaller yield there per acre, tended today to bring about an advance in the price of wheat. Besides, cables were at hand confirming a most unfavorable outlook for Australia. There were signs that foreigners were active, taking cash what in the market there. After opening 1-1/2 off, prices made a substantial gain all day.

ASSOCIATED CHARITIES
The annual meeting of Associated Charities will be held tomorrow evening at eight o'clock in the Board of Trade rooms. The public are invited. Important discussion on child-welfare.

ALMOST UPON BRITISH TRENCHES; GERMANS GALLANTLY BEATEN BACK

Night Surprise at Ypres Ends in Bayonet Fight and Rout of Enemy—Guns and Thousands of Prisoners Captured

London, Oct. 28.—The Times correspondent in northern France, sends the following regarding the fighting in Belgium, under Tuesday's date:—"The British line at Ypres, after a glorious stand for five days against overwhelming odds, drove the enemy back fifteen miles. The German forces were commanded by the Bavarian Crown Prince who, it is reported, has been wounded."

"The British forces captured Langemarck, five miles northeast of Ypres, on Friday after inflicting enormous losses on the enemy, and established entrenched positions beyond the village.

"At night, after the roar of the cannon had ceased, there was suddenly a shrill whistle and bushes soaked in petroleum broke into flames, which threw a glare over the scene. Masses of men prang up from the best crops within a few hundred yards of our trenches and with bugle sound, yell, and song, they came dashing forward to our position.

"Though taken by surprise, our brave men were not unprepared. They took their places in the trenches, and held them, pouring a terrific fire into the advancing hosts.

"Answering with rifle and machine gun, the enemy advanced, still with the bugle playing and amid shouts of 'Hoch, Hoch.' They were in dense masses, and they fell by the hundreds. They got within thirty yards of the trenches, when they recoiled.

"Then came three blasts of a whistle, sounding the retreat. Our men sprang out of the trenches and went in among them with the bayonet. The slaughter was terrible, and there were many hand-to-hand encounters.

"The dim glare of the burning bushes some of the enemy threw down their arms and pleaded for mercy. No quarter, however, was granted on either side. The work was too desperate for that. Bayonet and bullet did their work and the enemy was driven back on Roulers.

"A battery and several machine guns were captured and thousands of prisoners, were taken, including a general and several other officers."

MANY THOUSANDS OF GERMANS KILLED IN COAST FIGHTING
Has Become Massacre, Say German Reports to Switzerland

Geneva, Switzerland, Oct. 28.—Telegrams received in Basle, Switzerland, Tuesday night from Cologne and Coblenz, declare that the war on the German right flank from Lille to the North Sea, has become a massacre. During the last six days, it is declared, many thousands of Germans have been killed or wounded.

London, Oct. 28.—The German cruiser Emden sank the small Japanese steamer Kanegasaki Maru while the latter was proceeding to Singapore, according to a Central News despatch from Berlin by way of Amsterdam.

Kanegasaki Maru is given as being only 138 tons. She is owned in Nagasaki.

FIRE LOSS OF $400,000
Hagerstown Loses Hotel and a Garage With 75 Automobiles

Hagerstown, Md., Oct. 28.—This city was visited early today by the worst fire in its history, causing an estimated loss of more than $400,000.

The heaviest losses were the Hotel Baldwin, valued at $200,000 and the Antietam garage in the Shirley building, a four story brick structure, which was destroyed together with seventy-five automobiles. The loss on building and motor cars, was placed at $175,000.

The hotel housed about 100 people. The majority were awake and easily escaped, most of them saving their effects.

TRAIN WRECK
Huntington, W. Va., Oct. 28.—Chesapeake and Ohio train number 1, Richmond and Washington to Chicago, was wrecked ten miles east of Huntington this morning. Three Pullmans and a day coach left the tracks. Every automobile in Huntington has been summoned.

Eighteen persons were injured, five seriously. The cause of the wreck is unknown.

GERMANS FAIL IN ATTACK ON JAPANESE CRUISER
Tokio, Oct. 28.—The Japanese cruiser Chitose repulsed two attacks by German warships on the nights of October 18 and 19, following the destruction of the Japanese cruiser Takachihyo by a German torpedo boat destroyer in Kiao Chow harbor on October 17. The German ships fled into Kiao Chow harbor.

Storms have delayed the general assault on Tsing Tan by Japanese, as the rough seas have revealed mines, which are endangering navigation. The preliminary bombardment of the forts from land and sea continues and is causing much destruction.

THE HIGH COST OF LIVING

No wonder the cost of living is high, when there are so many unnecessary factors, such as the middlemen who come between producer and consumer. Goods leave the factory for the jobber, the jobber for the wholesaler, the wholesaler to the retailer, from the retailer to the consumer. All these unnecessary factors add to the cost of the goods.

IMPROVEMENTS IN GLASSES

Modern glasses are superior in every way to glasses made only a few years ago. They are more efficient, look better, and are much more comfortable. The Optix Bifocal - a two-range lens, with the division mark practically invisible, and the Toric-Nature's curve - giving a wider field of vision and letting the lens come nearer to the eye - are marked advances in efficiency and comfort in keeping with the modern method of grinding flat lenses. And the improvement in frames is as great as in lenses. It is no longer necessary to pinch the nose or pull the ears to hold glasses before the eyes. Modern lenses are as comfortable as a pair of old shoes, and as good looking as a pair of new ones.

Thousand Held Back German While Main Army Escaped

London, Oct. 28.—All the allies met their hats off to the Belgian army for several days held in check the entire German army corps near Antwerp, frustrating the German plans on the strip of territory between Antwerp and Calais, says a despatch from the Times from one of its correspondents in Northern France. The message continues:

It is now permitted to explain how the Belgian army was able to take up position on the Yser Canal, in other words, how it was able to make a successful retreat from Antwerp in face of the elaborate plans of the Germans. The Belgian army escaped what might be called annihilation by a magnificent feat of arms. It sent a force of a few thousand men to the neighborhood of Melle (in East Flanders, twelve miles south-west of Ghent) with orders to hold back the pursuing enemy at all costs for a sufficient period to cover the retreat of the main army, which hugged the Dutch frontier on its seaward march. The Battle of Melle eventually resulted in the virtual annihilation of the gallant little body of Belgian fighters, but it meant the salvation of the Belgian army and their allies.

Moncton, Oct. 28.—Miss Grace R. Donald, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Donald, of Sunny Brae, was married to W. Douglas Atkinson in the Central Methodist church yesterday by the pastor, Rev. H. A. Goodwin, assisted by Rev. W. A. Ross of Sunny Brae, a brother-in-law of the bride. Professor Hinton played the wedding march, and "The Voice that Breathed O'er Eden" was sung by the choir. BRITISH CAVALRYMEN RODE MINUS CLOTHES

Paris, Oct. 28.—According to the newspaper Cri de Paris, a naked detachment of British cavalry rode a Uhlran patrol near Troyes.

The Britishers were playing water polo in the Oise when the approach of the Uhlans was signalled. There was not enough time to dress, so, quitting the water, they leaped into their saddles as they were, and, dripping wet, chased the Germans five miles across country.

When The Hogue Went Down

There were eighteen policemen reserves on H. M. S. Hogue when she went down in the North Sea, and one of them, Able-Bodied Seaman George Edwards, of the Metropolitan Police, who has just returned to his home at Long Ditton, Surrey, told an interviewer a remarkable story of the disaster to the three cruisers, which discloses many particulars not before published.

Mr. Edwards said that, except for those on duty, the whole of the ship's company were asleep in their bunks and hammocks about 6.15 on the morning of the disaster when the master-at-arms came rushing amongst them with the news that the torpedo had been torpedoed, and they all tumbled out to render assistance. A big boat was put off to go to the Aboukir, and whilst the crew were looking at it rowing away they realised that they had been torpedoed themselves.

"I was standing on the port side looking at the boat," said Mr. Edwards, "and there was a sudden roar of an explosion almost under my feet and a splash as the water leapt into the air. At the same moment the vessel fell away from my feet three or four feet with a jerk as the water rushed into the hole made by the torpedo and heeled her over. It was scarcely ten seconds afterwards that I heard the same roar and knew that another torpedo had got in to us. The shock of the explosions was terrible and shook us in every limb, and the damage done to the hull must have been the reason for the vessel being so much to leeward of the sea in about five minutes from the time we were first struck. An Unforgettable Scene.

"I shall never forget the scene on the deck the Hogue during those five minutes. It would take me hours to state all that I saw and heard. The outstanding feature of it all was the coolness and the discipline of the men, who felt the vessel sinking under their feet. Above all I shall never, as long as I live, forget the heroism of our captain as he stood on the bridge and told the men what to do. There were some six or seven hundred of us looking at him, and he shouted to us something like this: 'I can't remember the exact words; but we are sinking fast. I ask all of you to keep cool and behave like British sailors. You will soon have to take to the water, so throw off everything you can.'

"As the vessel rolled to a level with the sea I heard him say something like 'It's now every man for himself.' He said all that to me, and I got on to a ledge on the ship's side, and I remember stopping for a moment to look off my trousers and boots before I jumped. As I had been a policeman for some years my feet were too tender to run about barefooted, so I had boots on.

SKIN TROUBLE ON THE SCALP

Skin Dried and Cracked and Hair Fell Out—Cured by Dr. Chase's Ointment.

Eczema is annoying and distressing at any time, but doubly so when it gets into the scalp and causes the hair to fall out. Here is a grateful letter from a lady who was cured by using Dr. Chase's Ointment.

Mrs. Hector Currie, Tobermory, Ont., writes: "I was cured of disagreeable skin disease of the scalp by using Dr. Chase's Ointment. The trouble started with itching and pain in the scalp, the skin would get dry and crack, and at times would bleed, and the hair would fall out. I tried three doctors without benefit, and suffered for three years. Reading in the almanac about Dr. Chase's Ointment, I began its use, and now completely cured. The hair has grown again, and I am as well as I ever was. You are at liberty to use this letter, for I am glad to recommend so excellent a treatment."

Dr. Chase's Ointment has no rival as a cure for itching skin disease.

Even at that awful moment I saw men throw tables, stools, chairs, planks and other things into the sea, thinking they would be useful to hang on to, and as I stood there I could see these things ed about, and seeing a wooden fork, floating near me I managed to get hold of it, and supported myself by it until I had, with great difficulty, got free of my pants.

"When I came to the crest of a wave I could see the heads of hundreds of men struggling for their lives. Some I saw give up the struggle and sink with their hands in the air. I saw about 12 men clinging to the sides of a table, and as I looked I saw one after another sink into the water until only two were left. I remember seeing the Casey we were all making for suddenly put on

THE WAR NEWS

Last night's cables said that while the German attempt to capture the British channel ports seemed to have been checked for the time being, yet they were still pushing on with all the forces at their command.

The announcement that the British steamer Manchester Commerce, so well known in St. John, has been sunk by a German mine in the waters north of Ireland, while on her way from Manchester to Montreal, comes as a decided surprise, since it shows that the Germans have been able to get out of the North Sea and around the north of Scotland to sow mines close to the regular steamship route by the northern channel between English and Scottish ports and Quebec.

This paper expressed the view yesterday that after the defeat of Maritz there would be no more talk of serious trouble in South Africa. News came last night, however, that Gen. DeWet, the formidable Boer cavalry leader in the South African war, and Gen. Beyers have started a rebellion in the Orange Free State and Western Transvaal.

Surveying the whole situation from day to day, the magnitude of the task which confronts the allies becomes more and more manifest, and the fact is more strongly pressed home that the great need is now and for many months to come will be more men, to reinforce the armies now fighting in Belgium and France.

SCHOOL GARDENS

Mr. R. P. Steves, M. A., superintendent of elementary agricultural education in New Brunswick, contributes a short article to the October number of the Agricultural Gazette of Canada on the subject of school gardens.

Wherever two or three Conservatives are gathered together, as in the case of the "largely attended and enthusiastic meetings" of fourteen in Beaconsfield last night, they pass a series of resolutions concerning Mr. Hazen.

TORONTO HOME GUARD

There should be an inspiration to St. John and other cities in the account of a church parade and inspection which took place in Toronto last Sunday. It was the parade of the home guard of Toronto. More than 1200 men and boys were in line. The number included 1048 non-commissioned officers and men, 41 officers, 95 instrumentalists and 72 boy scouts.

The London Chronicle says that we are probably on the eve of important events at sea.

The Ottawa Dairy Company which has decided to sell milk without profit during the winter months has demonstrated the fact that the milk of human kindness may be found even in Ottawa.

The St. John Standard has described the Montreal Evening News as not a Conservative but an independent paper. The moving spirit and one of the joint owners of the Evening News, is Mr. B. A. Macnab.

The people of New Brunswick are beginning to ask what happened to the Beaconsfield meeting last evening as indicated by the following extract from a letter written by General Sir John Hahbury Williams, who is British military attaché at the general headquarters of the Russian army.

Commissioner Wigmore was introduced to the fourteen Conservatives at the Beaconsfield meeting last evening as one who would be an able representative from St. John with Hon. J. D. Hazen. The commissioner in the course of his remarks is reported to have expressed the view that Conservatives should talk elections all the time.

The death of Mr. A. Bowler, agent general for New Brunswick in London, comes as a sad surprise to all his friends in this province. Mr. Bowler has done good service since he was appointed to represent the province in the Mother Country. An Englishman himself, and a practical farmer, he had gained a practical knowledge of farming conditions in this country, and was therefore well qualified to set before intending emigrants the advantages of New Brunswick.

Wherever two or three Conservatives are gathered together, as in the case of the "largely attended and enthusiastic meetings" of fourteen in Beaconsfield last night, they pass a series of resolutions concerning Mr. Hazen.

OLD TIME APPLES (By Peter McArthur) Every once in a while I meet some old codger who cannot bite an apple without leaving a tooth in it, who makes me listen to a long droll about the apples they used to have when he was a boy. They have no apples like hain nowadays. To listen to them talk you would think that the natural fruits of pioneer days were better than the choicest that our present well cared for orchards can produce. For a long time I was inclined to believe this kind of talk, for I could remember certain apples that were the joy of my childhood. There was one yellow apple especially that grew on a tree where the stable now stands. It used to be ripe about threshing time and I remember how I used to eat them and toss them skilfully to the wonderful man who drove the horse power. He would catch them while

"WAR WITH JAPAN PURE MOONSHINE." SAYS COLLEGE PROFESSOR Chicago, Ill., Oct. 28.—"Pure moonshine!" This was the exclamation of Prof. Harry Pratt Judson, president of the University of Chicago, when he was asked about the likelihood of Japan and the United States going to war over the Philippines. President Judson has just returned after seven months spent investigating conditions in the Orient for the Rockefeller Foundation. He declared: "Japan has none but the most friendly intentions toward this nation and does not want the Philippines. I talked with all classes of people in Japan, from the prime minister down to the common citizens, and their sentiments were varying to the effect that Japan would not take the Philippines as a gift. "Japan seems to take little notice in the war," continued the university president. "Save for the newspapers, scarcely would have known the war was engaged in the struggle. "They have no ulterior designs against this country or against China. If there is a genuine question as to whether Chinese neutrality has or has not been violated, but it is equally a question whether the original German occupation of Chinese territory was not also a violation of neutrality."

THE GOVERNMENT

At a meeting of the local government held here last evening A. G. Turvey, provincial horticulturist, was appointed acting secretary of the Department of Agriculture during the absence of J. B. Daggett, who will go to England with the steamer carrying New Brunswick's gift of potatoes to the Empire. The government received a delegation from the Stationary Engineers' Association, who requested that some change be made in the act providing for the examination of engineers and advocated the grading of certificates.

Arrangements were made by cable for keeping open the New Brunswick office in London, left vacant by the death of A. Bowdler. When Mr. Daggett arrives he will report to the government on the steps necessary to be taken.

Twilight Recital. A delightful twilight song and organ recital was given yesterday afternoon in the Centenary Church by the Doorkeeper's Circle of the King's Daughters' Guild. Miss Hea presided at the organ and her several numbers were particularly pleasing. Gounod's Ave Maria was sung with good effect by Mrs. Hea. Miss Victoria Neuman, of New York, with violin obligato by Mrs. T. J. Gunn. A duet by Mrs. Crockett and A. C. Skelton was well rendered, as was a violin duet by Mrs. Gunn and Mrs. Macmillan. Miss Blenda Thompson was heard in the most pleasing programme. A silver collection was taken for the benefit of the poor of the city.

"A great many of the people out of my way think that you ought to come out and say something," said the adviser. "Yes," replied Senator Sorghum, "and if I do say something that as many people will say that I ought to have kept still."

PRIEST WHO LIVED AGONIZING HOUR IN BURNING CATHEDRAL OF RHEIMS TELLS THE STORY OF FRIGHTFUL SUFFERING ENDURED

Abbe Camu, Who Battled Courageously to Save Human Lives, Describes Awful Scenes in Rheims During Bombardment — Kaiser's Artillery Tears Off Roof, Blasts Walls and Destroys Church Built in Middle Ages — German Wounded Perish Under Fire From Own Comrades' Guns

(By H. J. Phillips.) Rheims, France, Oct. 28.—One of the most beautiful palaces of Christianity, a marvelous piece of architecture, centuries old, the receptacle for art treasures and one of the show places of Europe—this was the Cathedral of Rheims a few days ago. A mass of wreckage, broken masonry and blasted stonework, the funeral pyre of wounded soldiers—that is the Cathedral of Rheims today.

I have just inspected the ruins—the havoc wrought by German shells and fire. Americans cannot grasp the full meaning to Europe of the destruction of the Cathedral of Rheims. In it the Gaul glimpsed the handwork of his ancestors and to him it moved centuries forward to only yesterday. He would not so much as see its exterior with a scowling frown. To destroy it—how could he imagine such a sacrilege. But it is destroyed. The outer roof is gone—burned. The inner roof alone hides the blackened interior from the sky. The walls are masses of crumbling ruins. The high altar alone remains.

But the cathedral of Rheims is still beautiful. And it will remain beautiful until every stone and slate has been obliterated. Wreck and ruin that it stands out in solemn, silent protest that the god of war should triumph over the god of humanity.

German Wounded Burned to Death. But there are even worse horrors than material ruin—however historic and sacred—to be seen among the black mass of cinders that covers the floor of the nave several inches deep. The remains of three human forms lie there, black and charred shapes, with the arms drawn up above the head, the clothing burned off the heads scorched to a horrible featurelessness—the form is a man's; the substance is ash. The fate of some of the German wounded in the cathedral is even worse than heretofore described.

From a priest I heard the full story. There were 180 German wounded. Of these thirteen were consumed in the flames started by the artillery of their own countrymen. Some, and the priest is not quite clear about it himself, were dead before the fire began, having been killed by one of the earlier shells that struck the cathedral.

One was too badly wounded to move and met a frightful death, helpless, forced to lie with his eyes fixed in horror on the flames leaping towards him over the fiercely blazing straw that his German comrades had carried there to put himself at the head, and we set off for the Hotel de Ville, which is only a few hundred yards away.

"Well, then the crowd, which was mad with grief and rage, set on us. I can't describe it. You have never seen anything so dreadful as that scene. It was only natural of course. You would have seen it if you had been there. It was a terrible moment. They beat some of the Germans; some of them they got down.

"Can't you help me?" I cried to a French officer I caught sight of. "You will never get to the Hotel de Ville, this," he replied. "So I forced my wounded through the gateway of a private house, and we managed to get away. They had been roughly engaged by our own soldiers.

Some of them, to judge from the condition in which their bodies were found, were crushed by falling masonry; one of the roof was apparently suffocated by smoke.

There they lie, the unfortunate wretches, part of the sacrifice to Moloch, burned alive by their own comrades. Every shell that fell on Rheims Cathedral was a shell thrown away from the dead as well as from the living.

I picked up the belt that had belonged to one of the distorted statues. It was scorched by the flames. "Gott mit uns" (God with us) it bore upon the buckle. That is the motto of the German army, but it reads oddly there amid the charred ruins of one of God's fairest temples.

The Abbe Camu gave a full account of the burning of the cathedral to several officers who had come in to see the wreckage and to myself.

"It was all over in an hour," he said, "an hour from the time the first sparks caught alight to the time when the cathedral was the ruin you see it now. There were two fires. The first started in the scaffolding about four o'clock. I did not note the time exactly. I was so busy. I hurried up the winding stairs to the roof with one or two others. We had only four buckets of water, but we managed to put it out. Then we came down again, but we had hardly reached the floor of the nave when there was another alarm. This time the roof struck by another shell, was slight, the west end, and the wind, blowing from that quarter, drove the flames along the rafters inside the ceiling of the nave.

We rushed up again, but it was flaming all along; we could do nothing to hinder the progress of the fire. We tried to catch the sparks in our hands as they fell, such of the German wounded as were able to help. We tried to get that first fell on the pile set it blazing. There was time to think of nothing but to burn with the cathedral or we will about them here.

"You are mad!" I exclaimed in reply. "Think of what this means. The world will hear of the crime the Germans have committed here, and if you shoot these men you will be the same as I am. Anyhow, I said, 'you shall shoot me first, for I will not move! Unwillingly, the soldiers lowered their rifles, and I turned to the six German officers who were among the wounded.

"I made them a little speech. 'I can understand your taking refuge when the bombardment began and you were the other cello below the one I went into, and more people down there. They were not with me, but I made them all go over to one side.

"The conditions down there this morning were something frightful," said my English acquaintance. "There was another cello below the one I went into, and more people down there. They were not with me, but I made them all go over to one side.

handed, and they stayed there a day and a night before we could move them again.

For the first time for five days the people of Rheims had come out of the cellars where they had lived night and day during the bombardment. How they looked to see the strong sunlight that broke out between the showers of fire and the shells falling all about them. They set out for an inspection of the damage that the shells had done. It was a long time before they could get out. Smoke was still pouring up from smouldering heaps of ruins all over the town. The English resident on either side

The English resident on either side had a subterranean cell on Sunday afternoon told me how, that morning, he had seen down to the great cellar of the famous champagne firm of which he is a partner and had insisted there at the beginning of the bombardment should have been that the danger of shells was

LAUGH AT DYSPEPSIA

By Simply Using a Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablet After Any Meal You Want to Eat.

It sounds almost ridiculous to think of eating a big meal without pain and discomfort, doesn't it? Well, try this simple remedy and demonstrate its truth. You know that 12 men (a jury) decide the laws of our land. Not only have 12 men O. K.'d Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, but hundreds of thousands of well

What do I care about this? A little Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablet will digest it easily for me.

Just think! One ingredient contained in Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets will digest 8,000 times its weight in food. Doesn't this tell you that such aid to your body means relieving your distress from dyspepsia?

What the thousands are daily doing you can surely do. Every condition of stomach and digestive troubles has been relieved by Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets. They have been tested and tried for years. They are this nation's greatest dyspepsia remedy. They are sold wherever drugs are sold. Surely this manner of proof is all you need to know what course to pursue.

If you can prepare a better remedy than Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, you can make millions of dollars. Is there a better one?

Why not use this hint to awaken your common sense and make you go to your drug store and buy a box. To any one desiring free trial of these tablets, please address F. A. Stuart Co., 100 Stuart Bldg., Marshall, Mich., and a small sample package will be mailed free.

causing extensive laceration of tissue. A very large proportion of the bullet wounds are found in the legs and feet, where the Germans who shot from the hip, are firing low. The Belgian soldiers from the shoulder. Ductile bullet from an Avyver has a diameter of .308 inches and is extracted from a wounded Belgian. Many died from the morning and three days' incessant fighting, but they were not able to return to the color.

The three characteristics of the Belgian people are their patriotism, their bravery and their courage. In the military, civil and Red Cross hospitals of Bruges, Ostend, Ghent, and Antwerp, more than 100,000 have been treated. The wounded German soldier has always received as careful surgical, medical and nursing care as the Belgian who came to murder, for this most unjust war was deliberately planned for conquest and extermination.

Whatever may be the outcome of this monstrous holocaust and the justice and honor and the humanitarian allies to Belgium. When the victorious allies make their triumphant entry into Berlin (and I believe they will) the Belgian should have the line, and royal restitution should be made for his suffering. All honor to Ghent, Malines and Louvain. All honor to Belgium.

PATRIOTS AT HOME. (Montreal Mail.) A Montreal man was heard to remark to a friend on the street car that a mutual friend had given up work because during the progress of the war, "he's very patriotic, you know," continued this gentleman in explanation, and almost, it seemed, in apology.

Ten thousand German-born citizens of New York, rich and poor, are wearing the "Iron Ring." This simple device of physical pain and discomfort, produces something of value for the captives. All over this country there are thousands of men and women who are making some sacrifice for the good of their country. It is not the British habit, in these matters, to expect or to receive even so trifling a return as an "Iron Ring." The names of these individuals are not published in the press and "Fame shall never know their story." Yet they receive their reward. Because of what they are doing they are better patriots, better citizens, better men and women.

FRENCH FERRYMAN DROWNS CAVALRY An old French peasant insists that, single handed, he destroyed a patrol of 200 men of the German Cavalry on the River Oise where the retreating French had destroyed a bridge and compelled the old man to ferry across. When the boat was loaded with men and horses the ferryman steered it across the river, and with his pole helped to capsize it. Unlucky and German instantly were struggling in the stream. Not one of the heavily accoutred cavalrymen, he says, escaped.

Fathers No Longer Family Figureheads; They've a Club of Their Own in Iowa

Council Bluffs, Ia., Oct. 28.—"What kind of a father are you?" It was Skymest Stevenson, a Council Bluffs business man who put this question squarely up to the heads of families in Council Bluffs a year ago last May when he invited them to help him organize the Fathers' Club, the first organization of its kind in the world.

Fewer than thirty fathers accepted Stevenson's invitation to meet him at the Madison Avenue school and talk over the importance of being fathers. Everyone of the fathers admitted that they had been leaving the business of bringing up the children to the mothers and the teachers; they sort of thought that it was on mother's shoulders and it was up to the men folk to be real heads of the families, and not merely providers of clothes and food.

It was then the Father's Club was founded. Now there are four hundred fathers in Council Bluffs with an average membership of fifty. Last July the club united as the Federated Fathers' Club.

The federation's motto is "Make the indifferent different." Some of the topics discussed at their monthly meetings are "How can Home and School be more closely united?" "Choosing a Vocation." "The Young and the Old." "The Dollar and the Child." "Should We Have More Men Teachers?" Mothers are occasionally invited to the fathers' meetings, but they take no part in the programs.

GRACE VANDERBILT'S ILLNESS WAS SERIOUS Newport, R. I., Oct. 28.—The physicians attending Grace Vanderbilt, the little daughter of Cornelius Vanderbilt, say her condition is somewhat improved though her temperature remains high. She has been seriously ill with pneumonia at "Boulogne," and her brother, Cornelius Vanderbilt, Jr., has been constantly near her. He himself was seriously ill during the family's recent return from Europe, and it is thought Miss Vanderbilt's case is connected with his.

RENEWED VIGOR IN OLD AGE This Letter Brings a Message of Cheer to the Aged—Benefits of Using Dr. Chase's Nerve Food. New, rich blood is what is most needed in the declining years to keep up energy and vitality. Dr. Chase's Nerve Food is a wonderful help in maintaining good health and prolonging life.

Mr. Stephen J. Leard, North Tarrytown, N. Y., writes: "At seventy-five years of age my heart gave out and became very irregular and weak in action and would palpitate. My nerves also became weak, and I could do nothing but lie in bed in a languishing condition, losing strength and weight. I have tried all the best medicines, but I began using Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, and an cure. Had I not obtained this treatment I would now be in the box with the roof over my nose. At eighty-one I have an energy which means good health and strength by using this great medicine." $2c. a box, 6 for $2.50. For sale by all dealers.

A MESSAGE TO THIN, WEAK, SCRAWNY FOLKS An Easy Way to Gain 10 to 30 Lbs. Of Solid, Healthy, Permanent Flesh. Thin, nervous, undeveloped men and women everywhere are heard to say, "I can't understand why I do not get fat. I eat plenty of good, nourishing food. The reason is just this: You cannot get fat, no matter how much you eat, unless your digestive organs assimilate the fat-making elements of your food instead of passing them out through the body as waste.

What is needed is a means of gently urging the assimilative functions of the stomach and intestines to absorb the oils and fats and hand them over to the blood, where they may reach the starved, shrunken, run-down tissues and build them up. The thin person's body is like a dry sponge—eager and hungry for the fatty materials of which it is being deprived by the failure of the alimentary canal to take them from the food. The best way to overcome this sinful waste of flesh building elements and to stop the leakage of fats is to use Sargol, the recently discovered regenerative force that is recommended so highly by physicians here and abroad. Take a little Sargol tablet with every meal and notice how quickly your cheeks fill out and rolls of firm, healthy flesh are deposited over your body, covering each bony angle and reflecting poles. Your druggist has Sargol, or can get it from his wholesaler, and will refund your money if you are not satisfied with the gain in weight it produces as stated on the guarantee in each package. It is inexpensive, easy to take and highly efficient.

Caution—While Sargol has produced remarkable results in overcoming nervous dyspepsia and general stomach troubles, it should not be taken unless you are willing to gain ten pounds or more, for it is a wonderful flesh-builder.

USE THE WANT WAY

LADIES! LOOK YOUNG, DARKEN GRAY HAIR

Use the Old-time Sage Tea and Sulphur and Nobody Will Know

Gray hair, however handsome, denotes advancing age. We all know the advantages of a youthful appearance. Your hair is your charm. It makes or mars the face. When it fades, turns gray and looks dry, wispy, and scraggly, just a few applications of Sage Tea and Sulphur enhances its appearance a hundred-fold.

Don't stay gray! Look young! Either prepare the tonic at home or get from any drug store a 50 cent bottle of "Sage's Sage and Sulphur Compound." Thousands of folks recommend this ready-to-use preparation, because it darkens the hair beautifully and removes dandruff, stops scalp itching and falling hair; besides, no one can possibly tell, as it darkens so naturally and evenly.

You moisten a sponge or soft brush with the tonic and rub it through the hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; after another application or two, its natural color is restored and it becomes thick, glossy and lustrous, and you appear years younger.

Where Hundreds of Thousands Are Suffering

Major Louis Livingston Seaman is not only a military man, and a medical man, but a traveler and newspaperman of international repute. His work in the Balkans and elsewhere in connection with the Red Cross movement has made his name familiar. He went to the front some weeks ago as special correspondent of the "Independent," New York. One of the liveliest weekly journals in that great city. In view of the statements written by him concerning German atrocities in Belgium, the publication of which the pro-Germans in the United States consider as a breach of neutrality, Major Seaman was requested by the authorities to explain his action, as it is contrary to regulations for an officer of a neutral country to express himself definitely as a partisan in favor of either combatant.

"On the day of the Zeppelin massacre at Antwerp, Major Seaman sent the following letter to President Wilson:— 'My Dear Mr. President:— 'Referring liberty of speech to military or other service where it is denied, especially when silence would be a crime against humanity, I herewith tender my resignation as a member of the Medical Reserve Corps of the United States Army.'

The following correspondence, within the limits imposed by the censorship, hints at the pitiful sufferings of the Major Seaman has been a witness, and which impelled him to take this action. 'I am writing from the Hotel de Ville in Ghent, the city whose people for 2,000 years have done so much to bring fame to their rulers, the concession upon which constitutional government is founded. In feudal days it was one of the first of the free cities of Europe, and its historic monuments bear witness to the part it played during the Reformation. I believe no city on earth has contributed more to the development of civilization than Ghent. Here on December 24 next, it was the purpose of representatives of Great Britain and the United States to celebrate in the old Convent des Chartreux the one hundredth anniversary of the signing of the treaty of peace between England and America. Two months ago in the Royal Casino and Palais de Fete the international exhibition of flowers was held. The exhibition grounds, and in the Palais de Danse, the French Opera Company made gay music.

But what a change, the Palais de Fete is now a palace of misery, transfigured almost in a night. Fourteen thousand desolate peasant women and little children, refugees from the country near Louvain, Malines and Tournai, whose husbands or fathers or brothers had been butchered or driven to parts unknown, their homes pillaged and burnt, their crops destroyed, their only possessions the clothing on their backs, have been, or are now, being sheltered here. Could the reader but hear for himself the tales of suffering and horror that come from every mouth, or see the ghastly wounds of many, even among the little children, that testimony to the agonies they have undergone, his indignation would know no bounds.

I have participated as an officer or observer in eight campaigns in almost every country in the world, but in none have I ever witnessed such exhibitions of atrocious barbarism as this war is furnishing. Thank heaven there is another side to this dark picture. In that Palais de Fete, now the palace of misery, the Red Cross has broken down the doors of mercy. Refugees are carefully treated, clothed and housed. Many had not tasted food for two days preceding their arrival here.

The work of the Red Cross in Ghent cannot be too highly praised, although many hospitals (ambulances as they are called here) under its direction and working most efficiently and in perfect harmony with the military authorities. The most severely wounded are sent to the military hospital, while others are distributed to the hotels, schools, convents, private houses and private clinics which have been thrown open for them. At present comparatively few of the severely wounded remain, the majority having been transferred to other hospitals in anticipation of the coming of the new year. The military hospital is crowded with the most aristocratic and highly cultured families in Belgium, and the nursing is done by the most gentle and skillful German and Belgian nurses. In many instances, such as the majority of them never dreamed of.

Many of the shrapnel wounds are terrible, shattering body structure and causing extensive laceration of tissue. A very large proportion of the bullet wounds are found in the legs and feet, where the Germans who shot from the hip, are firing low. The Belgian soldiers from the shoulder. Ductile bullet from an Avyver has a diameter of .308 inches and is extracted from a wounded Belgian. Many died from the morning and three days' incessant fighting, but they were not able to return to the color.

ITCHING BURNING OF ECZEMA INTENSE

Began on Child's Face. Spread all Over Head. Pimples Would Fester and Break Like Boils. Cuticura Soap and Ointment Healed.

Elroy, Sask.—"My little boy had eczema when he was about a week old. It began on his face and spread all over his head. It was in simple and they would fester and break like little boils all over his head, but we had no rash on his face. The eczema was very itching and the burning was intense. It made him so restless he could scarcely sleep.

"I tried several ointments and salves and they seemed to do very little good so I tried Cuticura Soap and Ointment and he had been sick about a month. When I used Cuticura Soap and a few applications of the Cuticura Ointment I noticed such a difference. He was able to sleep and his face began to get a new skin on it. I kept on using them for three months, and two boxes of Cuticura Soap and three boxes of Cuticura Ointment cured him." (Signed) Mrs. A. F. Thayer, July 13, 1914.

Samples Free by Mail Cuticura Soap and Ointment do so much for pimples, blackheads, red, rough and oily skin, itching, scalp, dry, thin and falling hair, chapped hands, itchy, scaly sores, that it is almost criminal not to use them. They do even more for skin-tormented infants and children. Although sold by dealers throughout the world, a liberal sample of each will be mailed free, with 22p. 8-10 Book. Address post-card "Cuticura, Dept. D, Boston, U.S.A."

RUSSIAN COLONEL'S GRIT

Killed Dead Son Then Continued Giving Orders

Petrograd, Oct. 28—The Russian journal Svet tells the following story of the spartan conduct of Colonel Lopoukhine...

"We have lost 200 killed and wounded," he was told.

"How many soldiers killed?" demanded Col. Lopoukhine.

"Only one."

"What is the name of this officer?" "Lieut. Lopoukhine."

"Not a muscle of Colonel Lopoukhine's face moved."

"Where was the officer killed?" he asked.

"The place was indicated. He went to the body of his dead son, dismounted from his horse, kissed the forehead and lips of the child, made the sign of the cross, remounted, and continued giving orders."

In Lewiston, Me., the good weather the early part of this month was practically a duplicate of that of last year.

The records show that there was but a difference of one quarter degree in the temperature for the first four days of October for both years.

FOOTBALL

Preparing for Tomorrow

The U. N. B. football squad are working hard for their clash with the Mount Allison team at Sackville tomorrow and if confidence will carry the Fredrickton men any distance, they should be winners.

The last few days have been spent in signal and other "inside" work and it will be a well-tanned team that will represent the capital tomorrow.

The game with Dalhousie this week has shown Coach Campbell's weak spots in the U. N. B. formation, so that it will be with these players strengthened that the red and black will engage the Mt. A. aggregation.

Hearing Is Restored To Deaf

Without Mechanical or Artificial Hearing Devices. Deaf Hear With Their Own Ears. A Wonderful English Discovery.

Thousands of people suffer from catarrhal deafness or poor hearing, who having tried specialists, advertised treatments, artificial ear drums, ear phones, electric vibrators and various mechanical appliances without success have at last resigned themselves to a "world of silence" thinking that nothing can ever restore to them their normal hearing.

Yet their case is not hopeless. A remarkable scientific treatment discovered a little more than a year ago in England is making people hear after years of deafness and is also unequalled for quickly stopping the distressing head noises that are so often the companions of defective hearing.

This discovery is called Parmit and has attracted widespread notice throughout Europe where reports of the remarkable results it has given to deaf people have come in by the hundred.

The effect of Parmit it seems is by some action to produce a stimulus necessary to reduce all inflammation, swelling, enlargement or thickening of the organs of hearing and to stimulate the entire auditory tract.

Parmit is now being sold by many leading druggists in St. John and vicinity and a speedy trial is urged upon all who suffer from catarrhal deafness or head-noises in any degree. Ask the druggist for 1 oz. of Parmit (Double Strength) and take it home and mix with a pint of hot water and 4 oz. of granulated sugar until dissolved. Take one tablespoonful four times a day and you should soon find a remarkable improvement in your hearing.

IN ST. JOHN WITH A COMMISSION FROM QUEEN MARY
Further The Work of Queen's Needle Work Guild
VISIT FRO: MISS MERRITT

Clothing Supplies For Troops Fighting Empire Battles—Has Conference With Lady Tilley

Bearing an official commission from Her Majesty, Queen Mary, of England, there came a distinguished visitor to St. John today, Miss C. William Merritt, who arrived in Halifax yesterday from the Motherland, and came to the city this morning. She has an interesting and patriotic message to the women of Canada from Queen Mary and to those who she was able to see in only a few hours stay she communicated it in a charming and entertaining manner. Miss Merritt comes to Canada to form a division branch of Queen Mary's Needle Work Guild, and on the invitation of Lady Tilley she included St. John in her itinerary.
Miss Merritt is a Canadian. Her home is in St. Catharines, Ontario, but special interest attaches to her visit to St. John in that she has relatives here, and some of her ancestors were loyalists who made their home here for a time. Some lie buried in the old graveyard. To a Times reporter this morning Miss Merritt told her message from the queen. She realized the importance of an abundance of clothing supplies for the gallant sons of the empire fighting the battles of the motherland, and volunteered to Queen Mary to form a branch of Her Majesty's needleworkers. She is making the trip at her own expense, doing so as one means of contributing to the country's cause.
That she had no desire to interfere with the work now being done by the women of Canada in the Red Cross, St. John of Jerusalem, and other societies for the soldiers was the statement of Miss Merritt today. She wished chiefly to place before Canadian daughters of the motherland the need of their contributing in their noble efforts of supplying clothing to the fighting troops. There are no fees attached to the projected guild branch. Its existence here will probably be for only the duration of the war. From St. John Miss Merritt will go to upper Canada and then to the west, where, because of a lack of organization in some centres, she hopes to do more effective work than in the east, where the Red Cross and other bodies have been rendering such excellent assistance. She was given an appreciative hearing by many St. John ladies today.

YOUNG LADY OF ST. JOHN MARRIED IN MONTREAL
Miss Vera P. Wilson is Bride of B. P. Rivadeniera

Friends in St. John will be interested to learn of the marriage of Vera P. Wilson, of this city, and B. P. Rivadeniera of Wellsville, New York State. The ceremony was performed at the residence of the bride's father, H. G. Wilson, in Westmount, Montreal, at four o'clock yesterday afternoon. Rev. Miles E. McClellan of the First Baptist church of Montreal, formerly of Brussels street church of this city, officiated.
The bride wore her travelling suit of navy blue Bedford cord, with small tailored hat of navy blue and Roman stripe velvet, and carried white chrysanthemums.
After a dainty supper Mr. and Mrs. Rivadeniera left on the New York Central for Toronto, Niagara and Buffalo, and will make their home in Wellsville, N. Y.
Mr. Rivadeniera is a graduate of the Carnegie Technical School in Pittsburgh, and is now employed as electrical engineer with the "Kerr Turbine Company" in Wellsville. He made many friends while in St. John last winter in connection with the installation of the electrical machinery in the new grain elevator.
Mrs. Rivadeniera is a daughter of A. J. Wilson now of Moncton, she is followed by the good wishes of many friends in this city.

In the dining-room Hallow'en decorations were prominent, a special feature being a pumpkin lantern in the centre of the table. Chrysanthemums and crimson sables were the floral decorations. About ninety attended, so that the tea was a decided success financially, as otherwise. Mrs. James Dever, Mrs. D. P. Chisholm and Mrs. James H. Doody received, Miss Amelia Haley was in charge of the tickets, Mrs. Joseph Ritchie and Mrs. Phillip Grattan ushered, Mrs. Frank Foster and Mrs. Richard Sullivan poured, Mrs. W. P. Broderick served ices, and the waitresses were Mrs. J. D. Maher, Mrs. H. McCullough, Mrs. Guy McKinnon, Mrs. Charles Morris, Mrs. D. Dearden, Mrs. Edward O'Toole, Miss Freida Coll and Miss Lynch. SANK IN SEVEN MINUTES AFTER STRIKING MINE
Second Officer Gee Tells Of Loss of Manchester Commerce
WAS IN DIRECT TRADE ROUTE

Blown Up Off Tory Island on Monday Night—Captain Payne and 13 Men Drowned; Rest Reach Fleetwood

Fleetwood, Eng., via London, Oct. 28.—The trawler City of London arrived here early today with the survivors of the British freight steamer Manchester Commerce, which struck a mine late on Monday night off the north coast of Ireland, while on a voyage to Montreal, and sank. Captain William Payne and thirteen of his crew were drowned, while thirty others were saved by the trawler.
Ambulances, physicians and a large crowd of the townspeople, were at the dock when the trawler came in. Second Officer Gee told the story of the disaster.
"The explosion," he said, "occurred twenty miles north of Tory Island on the main trade route from Manchester to Canada. The explosion shook the vessel as if it were merely a chip of wood. There was no doubt in anybody's mind as to what had happened. The ship began to sink at once, and was beneath the waves seven minutes after striking the mine."
"The officers and crew exhibited the greatest coolness under the circumstances. We were able to launch only one lifeboat, when the ship gave a sudden lurch and went down. The captain and officers, who were at the moment preparing to launch the other boats, and try to save themselves by swimming to the single boat already launched. Several of them were carried down with the ship.
"I was swimming for twenty minutes before I was picked up. The last I saw of the captain he was giving orders for launching a second boat. I took command in the solitary lifeboat, and we picked up all the survivors and then cruised about for a long time. When satisfied that there were no more to be saved, we hoisted an improvised sail. We had gone forty-two miles when we were picked up by the trawler.
"Several of our men suffered greatly from exposure, as most of them had on no clothing except shirts and trousers."

Captain Payne was well known in St. John, and was very popular here. He had been in command of the Manchester Commerce for about nine months succeeding Captain Kouch who obtained leave of absence. The liner had been coming to St. John for more than fifteen years during the winter season and she was due on her first St. John voyage of the season in a few weeks.
Captain Payne was a native of England, about forty-eight years of age and single. The Manchester Commerce was of 4,444 tons and a sister ship to the Manchester Corporation.

COLDEST OCTOBER NIGHT HERE SINCE 1900
Twenty-four Above Last Night and a Little Snow Came

St. John weather again demonstrated its versatility yesterday and last night by sending the mercury down from fifty degrees above the cipher at nine o'clock in the morning to twenty-four degrees sometime during the night, and incidentally the thermometer established a record for October that has not been touched since 1900.
A heavy rainfall during the morning melted in inches. Early in the afternoon the weather cleared and the wind rose, and between five and six o'clock had reached the velocity of a gale, blowing at that time thirty-two miles an hour. While the rain was dropping, so was the mercury. Then to mix things a little, about 7.30 the first snow flurry of the year descended.
From that time the mercury enjoyed a glorious toboggan slide, becoming as abashed only when the twenty-four degree mark was reached. Records in the local observatory show that this is the coldest October night since Oct. 20, 1900. The yearly records are:
1900—Oct. 20 23.5
1901—Oct. 26 21.0
1902—Oct. 26 25.5
1903—Oct. 29 27.5
1904—Oct. 31 27.0
1905—Oct. 26 25.0
1906—Oct. 18 24.4
1907—Oct. 22 25.9
1908—Oct. 31 26.0
1909—Oct. 31 28.7
1910—Oct. 22 20.7
1911—Oct. 28 27.5
1912—Oct. 27 29.5
1913—Oct. 31 20.2
1914—Oct. 27 24.0
Even at nine o'clock this morning the thermometer was still below the freezing point, registering thirty-one degrees above. The roads in and about the city, thoroughly wet by yesterday morning's rain, were frozen solidly and were still hard this morning. There was many an open fireplace and hall stove appreciated last night.
FOUR MADE PERFECT MARKS
Fall and winter services for boys and young men at the Y. M. C. A. were resumed on last Sunday morning. Forty-seven boys were present. W. C. Cross, chairman of the boys' work committee, presided and certificates were presented by him to forty boys who made more than seventy-five per cent in their Bible study examinations last spring. Fifteen of the boys made more than ninety per cent, and full marks were given to Arthur Willet, Bernard Haley, Herbert Morton and Fred Myles. Mr. Cross gave a talk to the boys on Bible study work. These services were always over by 10.45 sharp, in order to give the boys an opportunity to go to their own churches.
