TUBERCULOSIS The excellent work that is being done by the local Society for the Prevention of Tuberculosis could be greatly extended if sufficient funds were available. At yesterday's meeting of the Society it was stated that during May seventy-five persons visited the dispensary. Since more than one hundred persons die each year from the disease, it is fair to assume that many hundreds are afflicted, and only a small proportion of these take advantage of or are benefited by the dispensary. The work could be greatly extended, as already stated, if the funds were available, and it is much to be regretted that the emergency fund for special cases at the disposal of the dispensary amounts to only a little over $125. While the society is not able to do nearly all that it would like, yet when we compare present conditions with those of only a few years ago there is the greatest cause for congratulation. Then there was no working organization, and very little public interest shown in regard to the ravages of the white plague. Now there is a working society and a dispensary, and the people are steadily being educated as to the value of the work and the great necessity of making efforts to stamp out the disease.

SERMONS AND RELIGIONS At the opening of the Presbyterian General Assembly in Ottawa on Wednesday evening the retiring moderator, Rev. Principal Forrest of Dalhousie, severely criticized some modern methods of preaching. You hear, he said, of men preaching every kind of theme, sanitary, hygienic, political or economic. In effect he charged that yellow journalism is taken into the pulpit, and that too many preachers are getting away from the standard set by the great apostle. Without having a full report of Dr. Forrest's sermon it would be unfair to indulge in criticism, and it is quite true that sensational methods are not unknown to the pulpit. Nevertheless, it is difficult to see what objection there can be to references to a preacher to sanitation, hygiene, economic questions, and others that very seriously affect the welfare of the people. The student Conference of Canada last year passed a statement which included the following: "We believe the Master intended that industrial, commercial and political affairs, in laws and social regulations, and in the spirit of all our dealings with each other, the principles of the Golden Rule and the Sermon on the Mount should govern; only through these can we be led out of our semi-barbaric commercialism, and only by means of these can we lay firm and strong the foundations of the Kingdom of God upon earth." The problem which the church has to face is an apparent indifference on the part of very many people to pulpits ministrations. An English journal a few years ago took a religious census, and arrived at the conclusion that four persons out of every five in London never darkened a church door, while in other parts of England, though the proportion of non-churchgoers was not so high, there was a lamentable lack of interest in church services. Professor Stalker of the United Free Church College, Aberdeen, commenting on the conditions lately made these observations: "The attachment of members to a church is in proportion not to what they get from it, but to what they would give to it. This is the kind of congregation which working people should join—one where their services will be claimed and their gifts exercised. They can begin to exercise these at once; because one of the most obvious and profitable services they can render is to fill the place of worship by taking their friends and companions. There is no mistake by which the progress of the gospel has been retarded in the past than the hallucination that the Christianization of the world was to be the work of an ordained and salaried class." The Rev. J. Ernest Rattenbury, speaking of popular indifference to the church, said: "It is not so much that the people find religion hateful as that they find the churches useless. They have no hunger for what the church provides. It is a matter of the spirit and ideals. We need to rid ourselves of many of the ideas of quite secondary importance, de-

INTERNATIONAL HYMN (Tune: God Save the King). Two empires by the sea, Two nations great and free, One anthem raise. One voice of ancient fame, One tongue, one faith, we claim, One God, whose glorious name We love and praise.

What deeds our fathers wrought, What battles we have fought, Let fame record. Now, vengeful passion cease, Come victories of peace; Nor hate nor pride's caprice Unsheath the sword.

Though deep the sea and wide Twixt realm and realm, its tide Blinds strand to strand, So be the gulf between Grey coasts and islands green: With bonds of peace serene And friendship spanned.

Now, may the God above Guard the dear lands we love, Both East and West, Let love more fervent glow, As peaceful ages go, And strength yet stronger grow, Blessing and blessing.

HOW IT HAPPENED.

A certain family had attended a reunion, which terminated in a free-for-all fight. The offenders were taken before the local justices of the peace, who questioned an old woman as to the particulars of the fight. Her description was typical of the mountaineer's attitude toward strife and bloodshed. "Well, Judge," she said, "Jen Lewis got into an argument with Hank Budd. Budd smashed him over the head with a stick of cordwood, bustin' his head open. Then Jen's brother slashed Hank up with a butcher knife, and Len Barry shot him through the leg. Larry Stover went at Lou with an ax and then, Judge, we just naturally got to fighting."

Miss Mary Elizabeth Bell
Miss Mary Elizabeth, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. James Bell, died yesterday at her home, 232 Britain street. Her general regret will be felt among her wide circle of friends for although she had been confined to her bed for the last three years with paralysis, she was so cheerful in her disposition that it was not realized that the end was near. She had been for many years a consistent member of Queen's square Methodist church and during her more active days was prominent in all movements looking towards the advancement of the happiness of those around her. She is survived by two brothers, W. T. Bell, 197 Union street, and James B., at home. The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

PRESBYTERIAN MAJORITY FOR CHURCH UNION

General Assembly Receives Report from 70 Presbyteries—More Young Men Needed for Ministry—Many Vacant Pulpits

Ottawa, June 8.—Several important matters were broached at the second adjournment of the Presbyterian General Assembly today. These included a resolution by Principal Forrest of Halifax approving of the treaty of arbitration proposed between the United States and Great Britain. Church union also came up on the report from the seventy Presbyteries, which showed a total vote of 700 members of Presbyteries for and 478 against the church union proposed with the Methodist and Congregationalists.

The clerk reported that sixty-seven out of seventy Presbyteries had sent in answers to the report on church union. Of these forty-nine were for approval on the basis suggested, twelve disapproved, two a tie vote and four abstained. The majority but qualified their report as to the basis.

In future the traveling expenses of the commissioners to the general assembly will be provided for. The question was referred to Presbyteries by the last assembly and returns show a large majority in favor of it.

There was some discussion over minister evangelists being on the roll of Presbytery. The assembly decided that to be on the roll of Presbytery a minister must have a two-year appointment. A resolution from the Saskatchewan synod that it be on the roll for one year appointments was voted down by the assembly.

Rev. Dr. Somerville in his report on statistics emphasized the importance of returns and the following recommendations were made:

- (1) That Presbyteries be enjoined to give special attention to securing complete and accurate returns from every congregation and mission station.
- (2) That the committee on statistics of each Presbytery be composed of the clerk, the conveners of augmentation, home missions, French evangelists, Sabbath schools, and such other members as may be deemed necessary, and that this committee see that there are no discrepancies in the different statistical reports, presented to the general assembly.
- (3) That special attention be given to the formation of the roll of Presbytery, that it contain only the names duly authorized by the presbytery, and that it contain a full list of the congregations and mission stations as at March 31.
- (4) That when changes are made in the names of the congregations, or mission stations or in the groups forming the pastoral charge, or mission field, the Presbytery clerk shall immediately notify the treasurers of the church and thus enable them to correctly report contributions to the scheme.
- (5) That Presbyteries be enjoined to fully consider and discuss the matter of statistics and finance as set forth in report to the assembly at the first ordinary meeting after the minutes of the meeting have been printed, and distributed, or as soon thereafter as possible, with a view to ascertaining the increase or decrease in the number of members, what congregations, if any, failed to report or have not contributed to all the schemes of the church. There was considerable discussion over the immigration report and Rev. Dr. Love of Quebec instanced two ships he met last week on one there were 1,300 immigrants, of which about 1,075 were Presbyterians, the other were 2,400 were Presbyterians, and 1,200 were Presbyterians. He argued that there was something wrong with the system as statistics showed that more than them had not come into the church. Rev. Dr. Somerville was of the opinion that too much emphasis was being laid on the financial side in proportion to the amount of energy used on the spiritual side.

The death of young men starting for the Presbyterian ministry and the needs and opportunities of the west were the burden of the discussion arising out of the reports from the various colleges. In presenting the report of the Halifax college, Rev. Dr. John McMillan said the college were the backbone of the church, as without them, it would be impossible to get home and foreign missionaries or ministers for the regular churches. In the Maritime Provinces alone, there are now 35 vacancies, showing how inadequate is the number of men who have entered the ministry.

CORONATION DAY CELEBRATION HERE

At a brief session of the coronation celebration committee last night, it was decided to have the military parade in the forenoon, with the firing of the salute at noon and the parade of the Polymorphians and other societies in the afternoon.

The Polymorphians Club met in the Victoria bowling alleys last night. There was a large attendance and the meeting was conducted by the report that eight persons are now under way for the parade on Coronation day.

The general committee appointed to superintend the work includes the following: R. J. Wilkins, J. E. March, Henry Rogers, A. E. Agas, John McAndrews, W. J. Crawford, John Bond, Thomas Mullett, H. J. Anderson, R. M. McEachern, J. W. Stackhouse. The supervising committee will meet Monday evening at the Victoria alleys to consider the features already proposed.

WHITE PLAGUE FIGHT

The monthly meeting of the Society for the Prevention of Tuberculosis was held in the society's rooms, Sydney street, yesterday afternoon, and was well attended. Miss Rogers, the nurse, reported that the number attending the dispensary for the month of May was 46, twenty-nine of whom were adults. Twenty-four new calls were made during the month, eight of which were for children, and seventy-five patients in all visited the dispensary, of which number fifty-one were adults and twenty-four were children. The dispensary was open to adult patients and to children five days. Seventeen cases were discharged during the month for the following reasons: Nine others not found tubercular, five moved away, two had private physicians, and one died. Eight of this number were children. Ninety-eight visits were made by nurses.

The emergency fund was augmented by $85.00 proceeds from the newspaper men's baseball match with the Kirk Brown Company, and a donation by the company, and the fund is now over $25. Much interest has been manifested in it of late.

Dr. G. G. Melvin was present at the meeting and spoke on my liberal guarantee. He also went on my liberal member in this community only at my store.—The Rexall Store, Ch. R. Watson, 100 King street.

Daily Hints For the Cook

PIDDING FROM STALE CAKE.
If one has any stale cake or broken pieces, mix a cup of it with a pint of milk and two eggs one will do, in winter, and cook all together with a cup of currants or berries or apples or any fruit. Put in a cake tin and bake in a pan of hot water until firm. Serve with any sauce you prefer.

PEANUT AND NUT CROQUETTES.
Mix together three cups of mashed potatoes, one scant cup of chopped nuts, one tablespoonful of finely chopped onion, one teaspoonful of sage, one beaten egg and pepper and salt to taste. Shape into croquettes, roll in crumbs, dip in beaten egg, roll again in crumbs, let stand one or more hours and fry in deep hot fat. Serve with white sauce.

THE GARBAUGE MATTER.
After the visit to East St. John by the committee appointed to inspect incinerator sites, and inspection of the plant of the Provincial Chemical Fertilizer Co., yesterday, Thos. Gorman, chairman of the board of health, said that the members were pleased with what they had seen, and it was possible that the plant there might satisfy the city's wants as regards an incinerator. It could be easily enlarged, and could be operated without difficulty and at a fairly low cost.

The summer outings for the senior section of the Natural History Society have been arranged, as follows: June 24, to Wolford, in charge of J. A. Estey; July 5, to Ashburn Lake, in charge of William McIntosh; July 15, to Goulet Point, in charge of Dr. U. J. Hay; July 26, to Clifton, in charge of Dr. Matthew; the outing to be held in August is to be arranged later. The one following will be to Coton's Island, with the historical society, the date of which is to be announced later. The last outing for the season will be to MacLaren's beach, and will be in charge of A. G. Leavitt.

Beulah Camp will be open from July 5 to 25. Business sessions will commence on June 29th. The Reformed Baptist Association will bring Rev. E. F. Walker of California as evangelist.

PHENOMENON IN EASTERN SKY; STARS OUTSHONE

Arrow Weather Vane in Shape And Brilliant as if Aflame—Third of Way Between Horizon and Zenith

Last night about 12 o'clock a mysterious phenomenon appeared in the eastern sky about one-third of the way between the horizon and zenith. It suggested to observers the mysterious meteorological appearance recorded by Josephus, which occurred during the siege of Jerusalem, and those recorded by other writers on meteorology since that time. The object, if observed in any other part of the sky, would have been called a comet, or a meteor, or a shooting star. It was very bright, brighter than any star, in fact suggested a flame. It seemed to be stationary, and was watched by the four persons for half an hour or so, and by two of the company for an hour later. No change was apparent. The Times informant thought at first that it must be a reflection, but there was no cloud visible which would reflect it. It is presumed the strange phenomenon was also observed by others.

BABE DIES IN ARMS OF MOTHER ON TRAIN NEARING THE CITY

Mrs. Cahill Was Traveling From St. John's, Nfld., to Join Her Husband in Cambridge, Mass.

Just as No. 9 train from Halifax was pulling into the city this morning, a three-months old baby of Mrs. Peter Cahill, a passenger from St. John's, Nfld., died in its mother's arms. The little tot had been in poor health for some time, but was apparently getting better. The baby was one of twins. The other died soon after birth.

Mrs. Cahill and her children were on their way to Cambridge, Mass., to join her husband who is located there and had intended going through on the 7 o'clock train this morning. The authorities would not allow her to proceed however, and she had to remain over in the city all day. The body of the child was lying in the ladies' waiting room all morning, but will very likely be buried this afternoon. The mother and children will proceed to Boston tonight.

FIRST TROOPS TO CAMP AT END OF NEXT WEEK

Plans for Special Coronation Day Service With Soldiers and Sussex Societies Attending—Camp Post Office

Arrangements are already well under way for the establishment of a field post office at Camp Sussex this year, and it is the expectation of those interested in the matter that the service this year will be even better than last year, when the delivery system was inaugurated with Joseph Crowley in charge, assisted by Carrier Magee. It worked very successfully.

At last year's camp, however, the post-office clerks were considerably hampered through lack of outfit necessary for conducting the work satisfactorily, but through a requisition already filed, this condition will not occur this year. W. Jangley, of the local post office will have charge of the military office, while John McDonald will attend to the delivery of the mails. The office will probably be situated in the armory as was the case last year.

Saturday of next week will see the arrival of the first body of troops in camp, this will be a detachment of the R. C. R.'s of Fredericton, who will attend to the preparing of the big encampment for the opening on June 20. The company of the regulars will remain under canvas for one month, covering the entire period of both camps. With the exception of the three days intervening between July 1, the closing of the first camp, and July 4, the opening of the second, the local postal men, appointed by Postmaster Sears, will be in camp for a month as well.

There will probably be three church services this year on the spacious camp grounds, as undoubtedly there will be the regular services on both of the Sundays in the camping month, and there will also be service on June 22, Coronation Day. Not only will the militia take part in this, but the societies in Sussex with a representative body of citizens and the Sussex bands will also participate, and with the large number of soldiers in their uniforms and headbands, the military bands will be the garb of the Imperial orders, the sight is expected to be an imposing one.

About 75 or 100 voices will be heard in the choir in the open air at the service which will be conducted by Canon Neale, chaplain of the 74th regiment, and there will be present members of the local and provincial parliament, as well as the mayor of Sussex and the common council.

In addition to this service, there will be regular Sunday services for the Protestant troops on the ground in front of the staff lines, and the services for the Catholic troops in the Catholic church in Sussex.

G. P. R. BUYS THE PENDLETON PROPERTY

Now Own From Ald. McGoldrick's Nearly to Main Street—Difference Over Main Street Site

The Pendleton property in Mill street which has been taken over by the G. P. R. and the house will be immediately torn down. The owner of the property could not come to terms with the G. P. R. as to the purchase price until this week, but the business was completed yesterday and the site was transferred to the railway.

This gives the railway possession of the land from Ald. McGoldrick's almost over to the foot of Main street. It is said that some trouble has arisen in connection with a project to build a main street adjoining the Pendleton property. The place is owned by a Hebrew and it is said the railway people claim that several sheds at the end of the place are on their land and have given the owner till tomorrow to remove them.

ACADIA STUDENTS AND TEACHERS HERE ON WAY TO HOMES

Following the closing of the Acadia institutions on Wednesday, the New Brunswick Western students arrived in the city on the S. S. Prince Rupert last evening. Among the seminary students to arrive were John Page of Carleton county, who has been taking the pianoforte course; Helen Core of Kamloops, B.C., who will proceed to her home after spending a few days in the county near St. John; Miss Thura Tracy, who went through to her home last evening; and Miss Vera Palmer of Vancouver. The teachers to arrive included Miss Julia A. McIntyre, teacher of household science, who is visiting her uncle, Dr. J. A. McIntyre, Douglas avenue, before returning to her home; Miss Isabel A. Davis, teacher of voice; Paul Corey, of Kamloops; Lloyd Hayward and Walter Keith were among the graduates of the university, who arrived last evening.

Allen A. McIntyre, who was present at the Anniversary exercises as an official of the class of 1905 to present the donation of $1,000 from the class for the purposes of the university, was a member of the party. Rev. J. H. McDonald, D.D., of Fredericton, also arrived in the city last evening.

The party report the fire in Chipman Hall, as a spectacular closing scene of the university year. The fire started in the dust bin and the flames were first seen from the roof. The rapid spread of the fire causing considerable consternation among the university male students, who were preparing for their departure on the morning. Banerly sustained painful burns about the face and Roy had his hair singed. The interior of the building was almost entirely gutted, and a loss of several thousands dollars involved. This loss is covered by insurance.

COASTWISE FREIGHTS NOT UP TO MARK YET

Though there is considerable tonnage moving, coastwise lumber-freights are anything but good. They show an improvement over last winter's rates, but, little better, if equal to what was paid at this time last summer.

The lumber market does not indicate signs of any magnitude but what has been disposed of well. One vessel owner here expressed the opinion today that the market was in the control of a few individuals. The up the lay freights are much better than last year, being reported at $3.75 to $4 as against $3 for St. John. This is accounted for by the fact that it is more difficult to get vessels up that way while heretofore they are more plentiful. It is not anticipated that there will be better conditions in the immediate future.
