HOTTER STILL. Among the large number of guests invited to a dinner party were a young widow and a newly married lady, the wife of a British officer who had lately been recalled to his post in India. An old squire was asked to take the young widow to dinner, but by mistake he thought his partner was the newly married lady. Walking along the corridor the young widow, fanning herself, said: "It is very warm here." "Yes," said the squire, "but not nearly so warm as the place your husband has gone to!"

DIDN'T GET THAT ONE. "Ugh!" exclaimed Wicks, as he tossed away the half-eaten apple, "the birds who frequented the orchard where that came from must have continually gnawed themselves." "What are you talking about?" said Hilda. "Well, they may be early bird catches the worm." - Philadelphia Press.

MISS STONE'S FATE.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Oct. 2.-Public interest in the fate of Miss Helen H. Stone, the kidnapped American missionary, intensifies here. There is a widespread condemnation of the government for allowing such freedom to the Macedonian committee, as to enable it to engineer the outrage. Miss Stone resided here before she went to Salonica, and she is well known throughout the country. The patriotic Bulgarians are incensed, as they recognize that Miss Stone and her colleagues of the American missions in Bulgaria and Macedonia have been their best friends throughout their troubles. There is no lack of indications that Prince Ferdinand is imperiling his own person by permitting such license to the committee as to enable it to blackmail prominent people in support of the Macedonian cause. Council General Dickenson, when here on his way to Sofia from Constantinople, thought it probable that if the brigands understood from headquarters that the ransom would not be paid, they would release Miss Stone, as the Macedonian cause would not be helped by the murder of the woman.

CLARKE WALLACE

Expected to Live but a Few Hours Longer. Specialists Summoned and Hold Out No Hope of His Recovery.

WOODBRIDGE, Oct. 2.-N. Clarke Wallace is very low this morning and cannot live many hours longer. Two specialists were summoned from Toronto at midnight and arrived at four o'clock this morning. They hold out no hope. Hon. Nathaniel Clarke Wallace is the third son of the late Captain Nathaniel Wallace, a native of Sligo, Ireland, who came to Canada in 1834. He was born at Woodbridge, Ont., May 21, 1844, and was educated at the local schools and at the Western grammar school. After completing his course of studies, he gave some years to school teaching. Entering commercial life in 1867, he and his brother, Thomas F. Wallace, established the firm of Wallace Brothers, Woodbridge, in which he is still partner. His public career dates from 1874, in which year he was elected to the York county council as deputy reeve of Vaughan. He became wardens of the county in 1878. In the same year he was returned to the house of commons for West York, in the conservative interest and was one of those who helped to give life and shape to the N. E. He has continued to represent this riding in the popular chamber at Ottawa up to the present time. He was elected by a majority of 4,983 votes at the general election in 1896, this being the largest majority by any candidate an Orangeman from his youth, he became supreme grandmaster of the order in British America in 1887, and was elected to that office for the thirteenth time on June 19, 1898. He held the office of grand sovereign of the provincial council of Orangemen of the world for three years previous to last July, when he retired. For many years he has been regarded as one of the special champions in the contest between Orange and Protestant interests. He was one of the "Noble 13" who voted for the disallowance of Mercer's Jesuit bill of 1898, and more recently he has taken an active part in opposition to remedial legislation in relation to the Manitoba school question. He was appointed controller of customs under Sir John Thompson, December 5, 1895, and continued in that office up to December 14, 1898, when he retired from the ministry in consequence of his declared policy on the Manitoba school question. In 1888 he was appointed a member of a select committee of the house of commons on the subject of combinations in trade, and in the same year, introduced a bill for the prevention and suppression of combinations formed in restraint of trade. He is president of the British and Canadian Gold and Silver Mining company. In 1897 a sketch of his life and public labors was published in book form by Rev. C. E. Perry. Mr. Wallace is a member of the Anglican church.

MILITARY FOR ROYAL VISIT.

No person here seems to know anything about what arrangements have been made or are making for transportation and sustenance of the military who are supposed to mobilize at St. John on Wednesday of next week in honor of the Duke and Duchess of Cornwall. It is stated that the proposed mobilization of the provincial militia, cavalry and artillery at the winter port on the occasion of the Royal visit will cost somebody between $5,000 and $6,000. No. 4 Co., E. C. R. I., which is to furnish the guard to Their Royal Highnesses on the occasion of their visit to St. John next week, are daily practicing mounting guard and other evolutions. The company will go to St. John on Wednesday.

BOSTON IS JEALOUS.

(Boston Herald.) The Duke and Duchess of York should not be permitted to depart from our hospitable shores with the thought that the baked beans they ate in the Canadian lumbermen's shanty were in any sense a suggestion of what that same dish tastes like when prepared in the vicinity of Beacon Hill, Boston.

RETURNS HOME AT LAST.

NEW YORK, Oct. 2.-Says the Mid-dletown, New York, correspondent of the World: "Twenty-one years ago last June, C. S. Wetmore left his farm near Avastang, saying he was going to walk over the mountains to Eldorado. He disappeared. His wife was left with three young children and had a hard struggle to keep her home. Thursday Wetmore returned to his family. He assumed a fortune, and according to his story had been in every state in the union and in Mexico and South America."

RAILWAY DISASTER.

Four Men Killed and One Injured in a Collision. UTMICA, N. Y., Oct. 2.-One of the worst wrecks in the history of the Mohawk and Hudson River railroad occurred at Oriskany, seven miles west of this city. Four railroad men were killed in the wreck and one was injured.

The killed - Spencer Shannen, of Schenectady; engineer, George Palmer, of Rensselaer; fireman; William Wier of Albany, brakeman, and Artye Smith, of Rensselaer, fireman. The injured - James Hager, of Albany, engineer, bruised, not seriously. An eastbound freight engine, No. 1881, collided with a light, No. 1569, which was crossing from track three to track four, thus causing the wreck. The crash was a terrific one, and in an instant all four of the New York Central tracks were completely blocked. The freight consisted of sixty-five cars and was running at a high rate of speed when the accident occurred. The bodies of the four dead men were brought to this city this morning. Two of them are badly mangled. Seven hours' work on the part of the wrecking crews were required to clear off passenger track. A second passenger track was cleared about noon, and this afternoon trains are running on time. The freight tracks will not be cleared before night.

ONE PASSENGER TOO MANY.

(New York Times.) A good story is going the rounds of the offices of the Metropolitan Street Railway company up in the big building at Broadway and Houston street concerning the wonderful presence of mind displayed recently by a new conductor on one of the company's trolley cars. The particular car was bowling along up Broadway recently when it was halted and boarded by a company of inspectors. The officials hurriedly counted the passengers in the car and found that there were nine. Then he cast his eye up to the register and found that there had been only eight fares rung up. He disclosed his identity to the new conductor and called attention to the discrepancy. Slowly and painfully the new hand counted over his passengers and then scanned his register. "Begorra, an' you're right, sir," he said, and promptly stopped the car. "Say," he demanded, addressing the passengers in an authoritative manner, "wan of yousse fellows'll hev' to git off the car."

DECORATIONS.

The statements which have been made concerning the decoration of public buildings in the city on the occasion of the royal visit show that nothing will be lacking in that respect. The arches will doubtless be very beautiful and appropriate. When all this has been done it will remain for merchants and private citizens to do their share toward giving the city a gay and festive appearance. It will not be expected that elaborate display will be made by private citizens, but there are none who cannot afford to throw out some tiny flags from their windows to show that they have a part in the welcome of the royal party. The city, on those days, should present a gay appearance than on any former occasion within the memory of the present generation.

TARTE AND JAMIESON.

St. John people who know something about what Mr. J. A. Jamieson can do in the line of building corn elevators, will be disposed to smile at the charges made by the Hon. Mr. Tarte against that gentleman as a builder. In addition to his work in St. John Mr. Jamieson has built elevators in the west and is now building an immense structure at Fort William. Mr. Jamieson has been interviewed relative to Mr. Tarte's observations. He contents himself with saying that no elevator in the world would stand the test to which Mr. Tarte refers, and adds that he thinks the minister of public works is very badly advised in this matter. The general public will be disposed to think that Mr. Jamieson is right.

A FRENCH-IRISH QUARREL.

The French-Canadians in the New England states are making a vigorous canvass for the preservation of their language and religion. Their leaders recently held a congress at Springfield, Mass., and the president, Dr. Larue, denounced the action of certain members of the American hierarchy, and called for an appeal to Rome. He said the attempt to "Americanise" the French-Canadians was not being made by real Americans, but by foreigners or the sons of foreigners. He said: "There are among those who have accepted the invitation of the American people who have learned to tyrannize others by the oppression which they have themselves suffered. Those people do not reason nor discuss; they command and they would like to see us submit to them, as during centuries their fathers crouched down under the feet of their masters."

This is clearly understood to be an attack upon the Irish, for Dr. Larue went on as follows: "Do you know what means are adopted in a certain diocese to bring about the disappearance of our language and of our race? In two colleges under the immediate jurisdiction of the bishop, the young Canadian-Americans are forbidden to speak French among themselves, and any infraction of that rule is considered a serious fault; the Canadian Sisters well versed in the French language are sent to convents where English only is spoken and taught. The young priests of our own race, who were born and brought up here, are sent as vicars to Irish parishes. There is in this a double aim. In the first place, it is to show Rome that the Irish made no objection to accepting our people as pastors (without mentioning, however, that those priests speak English as well as any Irish priest, and that it is impossible to detect their origin from their language), and further, if, in the course of time, they can lose all national feeling, they will then be ripe to serve in our French-Canadian parishes."

Dr. Larue declared that their "enemies" (the Irish Catholics) had representatives and advocates in Rome, who deceived the authorities as to the real number of French and Irish Catholics. He asked that a permanent committee be appointed, and assured the congress that if such action were taken the matter would be appealed to Rome. The congress decided in favor of such committee.

CORN AND WHEAT.

In a comparative statement relative to corn and wheat and the exports thereof, Saturday's New York Herald says: "The high price of corn resulting from injury to the growing crop has reduced the exports to 14 million bushels for the last three months, as against 40 million for the corresponding period of last year and 61 million in the corresponding period of 1899. Exports of wheat, on the other hand, have been 25 million bushels for the three months, compared with 46 million a year ago, and 55 million in 1899. The official trade returns for the month of August show that agricultural products continue to make up more than sixty per cent. of all exports."

Now that the yacht races are over, betting men are understood to be laying wagers on the number of revised programmes of the royal visit will be issued during the next ten days.

The London Times Tribune Journal of Sept. 25th notes the fact that the Swedish and Finnish lumber operators have decided to reduce their log cut this winter about 25 per cent. in an effort to get the market in better condition. If the Journal remarks, this restraining influence could be extended to Russian and trans-Atlantic centers of production as well, stocks would gradually become manageable and prices recover. It wisely adds, however, that these schemes for the restriction of trade can seldom be carried out successfully.

There were at that date on the London Dock company's books orders for only 15 steamers, against 71 that were expected at the same date last year; and 20 sailing ships, compared with 50 a year ago.

Of the spruce market the Journal says: "As indicating the continued strength of the spruce market, we may say that a large steamer from St. John has been sold at 25 1/2 c. c. f. to a Bristol Channel port; we believe sharpness."

At Dublin, Ireland, on Sept. 19th, Miramichi spruce deals sold at $11.19 per 1000 ft. b. m.

Among the goods which in point of value and quantity occupy a prominent position, relatively, in the import list, says the Journal, birch deals shipped from the ports of New Brunswick and Nova Scotia command a fair share of the trade. The ready manner in which the wood takes stains and can be polished, renders it a favorite material with the manufacturers of cheap furniture, the quantities used in this way being remarkable. The advanced prices, which we must confess we are glad to see ruling for native hardwoods, has again brought imported birch deals into use for linings and boxes. It is one of the most difficult woods to become dried, supplies come forward very irregularly; prices being generally a few shillings per standard over spruce. In manufacturing, shipbuilders would do better if a larger proportion was cut to 3-in. and 2 1/2-in. thick. However, it should be remembered that birch is not birch, although in appearance not dissimilar, buyers object.

BOSS CROCKER'S NOMINEE.

Will Have to Bat Crow For Accepting Tammany Nomination.

It looks as if E. M. Shepard, who has accepted the Tammany nomination for mayor of New York, in opposition to Seth Low, would have to spend a large part of his time during the campaign explaining what he has said about Tammany in the past. Here are a few of his assertions made but four years ago, which he will have to grapple with:

If you put Tammany into power, Tammany will give you the same kind of government that Tammany Hall gave you in 1854 and the same kind of government that Tammany Hall gave you in 1864 and the same kind of government that Tammany Hall gave you in 1874 and the same kind of government that Tammany Hall gave you in 1884 and the same kind of government that Tammany Hall gave you in 1894 and the same kind of government that Tammany Hall gave you in 1904 and the same kind of government that Tammany Hall gave you in 1910 and the same kind of government that Tammany Hall gave you in 1916 and the same kind of government that Tammany Hall gave you in 1922 and the same kind of government that Tammany Hall gave you in 1928 and the same kind of government that Tammany Hall gave you in 1934 and the same kind of government that Tammany Hall gave you in 1940 and the same kind of government that Tammany Hall gave you in 1946 and the same kind of government that Tammany Hall gave you in 1952 and the same kind of government that Tammany Hall gave you in 1958 and the same kind of government that Tammany Hall gave you in 1964 and the same kind of government that Tammany Hall gave you in 1970 and the same kind of government that Tammany Hall gave you in 1976 and the same kind of government that Tammany Hall gave you in 1982 and the same kind of government that Tammany Hall gave you in 1988 and the same kind HE SLEPT THREE DAYS.

Michael McFadden, of Pleasant Point has recently had a sleep of much longer duration than usually falls to the lot of man. Mr. McFadden is an employe in Cain's stone quarries at Pleasant Point, but last week was feeling miserable on account of a severe cold, which made him unable to attend to his work. As a cure for the cold he took a dose of morphine pills, but the dose was either too large or the pills were wrongly prepared, for instead of having the desired effect of breaking up the cold they made Mr. McFadden very sleepy. So sleepy in fact that he could not keep awake and soon dropped off into a peaceful slumber, which lasted from Friday until yesterday forenoon. His friends becoming alarmed at the prolonged sleep called in Dr. McFarlane, who succeeded in arousing him. At present, with the exception of some slight trouble with his sight, the effect of the drug, Mr. McFadden is feeling all right.

LAST NIGHT'S CONCERT

A Great Success—Opera House Crowded—Tonight's Programme.

What Bonafide is to the lovers of drama, MacLachlan is to the musical people of this city, and with the two Jessies appearing in one week St. John audiences ought to be satisfied. That the great crowd at the Opera house last evening were not only pleased but perfectly charmed by the sweet voice of the singer is beyond a doubt. Jessie MacLachlan has gained in favor since her last appearance here, and that surely no singer who has appeared in this city could stir and sway the feelings of an audience, making them enter into the spirit of each song, as did Jessie MacLachlan last night. Out of the many selections rendered both from programme and encores, perhaps the most popular in the greatest degree to the listeners were Loch Lomond, the Hundred Pipers, and Rule Britannia. The sympathetic hush which spread through the hall during the former of these was only equalled by the rapt excitement and display of patriotism in the other. And in each case the audience gave vent to their feelings by tremendous applause which could not be satisfied by a mere bow from the singer, but which called for the most repeated responses. The other numbers on the programme were rendered with that voice and manner which have made Jessie MacLachlan so great a favorite in this city, and which have to be heard and seen to be appreciated.

Miss Marten Van Duyn, of whom little had been said in the advance notices, became a favorite before she had finished her first song. Her full, clear, and splendidly cultivated contralto voice did justice to her selections, and she too was heartily encored.

When Leo Altmann appeared he received the kind of welcome that is accorded to an old and valued friend, and his violin selections sustained the high reputation on his former appearance in this city.

The programme for tonight's concert is as follows:

- Piano—Selected. Robert Buchanan.
- Aria—More Regal in His Low Estate. Gounod. Marian Van Duyn.
- Viola—Soubrette de Hayden. Leonard Leo Altmann.
- Song—Flowers of the Forest. Cockburn Jessie N. MacLachlan.
- Viola—Airs Hongrois. Ernest Leo Altmann.
- Song—(a) Anais's Tryst. Aytan (b) Blue Bonnets Over the Border. Scott.
- Song—(a) See Lullaby. Ed. German (b) Thus Art I Like a Lovely Girl. Scott.
- Song—(a) I Walk for Thee. (b) For Love of Thee. Marian Van Duyn.
- Song—Loch Lomond. Jessie N. MacLachlan.
- Viola—(a) Nocturne. Hubey (b) Leo Altmann.
- Song—(a) I Wait for Thee. (b) For Love of Thee. Marian Van Duyn.
- Song—Scots Wha' Hae. Burns Jessie N. MacLachlan.

In response to urgent requests, Miss MacLachlan has consented to sing "Rule Britannia" this evening also. The desired effect of breaking up the cold they made Mr. McFadden very sleepy. So sleepy in fact that he could not keep awake and soon dropped off into a peaceful slumber, which lasted from Friday until yesterday forenoon. His friends becoming alarmed at the prolonged sleep called in Dr. McFarlane, who succeeded in arousing him. At present, with the exception of some slight trouble with his sight, the effect of the drug, Mr. McFadden is feeling all right.

ST. PETER'S Y. M. A.

The Young Men's Association of St. Peter's congregation met last night in the basement of the church and elected officers for the ensuing term, as follows: John Burke, president; Thos. Phillips, vice-president; Lewis Coll, recording secretary; Al Dever, librarian; Joe McNulty, sergeant at arms.

The association will have their regular meeting the first Monday of each month. The purpose of the association is the advancement of the young men of the parish. Entertainment of a literary and social nature will be held under the direction of the Redemptorist Fathers once a month during the winter.

CROSS COUNTRY RUN.

The members of the senior gymnasium class of the Y. M. C. A., under Director Alken, had a run last night. About twenty young men took part, and the route was down Union street to Wellington row, across Carling to Coburn, and to "Walter" by way of Paddock street, and then out to the Marsh bridge. The return was made by way of City road and Garden street. The class will hold a cross country run on Thanksgiving day, and these evening outings are taken to get the men into condition. On the evening of the 24th the social opening of the gymnasium will take place.

A THIRSTY THIEF.

Sometime last night the saloon of John Hayes, on Duke street, was broken into and a quantity of ale stolen. An entrance was effected by breaking out the small window in the rear of the building, opening into the ale room. The pipe from a cask was disconnected and a quantity of ale drawn off into a bucket, while more was spilled about the floor. Nothing else has been reported missing and the thieves were unable to gain an entrance to the bar where a better assortment of drinks was awaiting them.

CAUGHT THE BOOTS.

Between three and four o'clock this morning while Sergt. Campbell was going his rounds he saw a man standing on the corner of Germain and St. James streets. On the approach of the sergeant the fellow ran and used his legs to such good advantage that the sergeant was unable to catch him. But while running the man dropped a pair of boots, which were taken to the central station.

BAD FOR THE MILLS.

The Failure of the Logs to Come Down is a Very Serious Matter.

The public in general do not seem to fully comprehend to what an extent the lumber industry is affected by the hitherto unobscured condition of the water in the river this season. Never in the memory of any of the mill owners now doing business in this district has the industry proved such an almost complete failure. Not only have many of the mills failed to earn the annual profits, but in a number of cases the season's work has been done at a loss. Last spring the mills were all put in repair as usual, in expectation of a good season, but in a majority of cases the expense incurred by these repairs has been practically of no use, as the mills are unable to do enough work to make it up. At present the mills in operation are two belonging to Stetson, Cutler & Co., Millers two, Cushing's two, Dunn, Bruce and Warner's Murray and Gregory's is also running today, but will close for the season tomorrow. Of these mills Warner will probably finish all his logs this morning, and the others will shortly. Stetson's and Millers will run till the close of the season, and Cushing's have enough to keep one mill going all winter.

But the closing of the mills is not the worst feature of the affair. There are still hung up between thirty and forty million feet of logs upon the attempts to drive which large amounts have already been expended. Unless these logs can be brought to the booms for the winter season, and then will be enormous, for they are practically certain to come down with the ice, and if at the same time the water rises, they cannot be prevented from going out to sea, while if it does not, the cost of picking them up will be at least fifty per cent of their value, or $4.50 per thousand feet.

It is understood that one mill owner up river, in order to fill his contracts, paid $11.50 a cord for logs and could scarcely get enough at that price. It will thus be seen that the outlook for the millmen is a rather disagreeable one, and for the log owners, who have already spent time and money unsuccessfully, it is considerably worse.

As to next winter's cut, both wages and supplies are higher than last year, and the Frederick Gleason has estimated that the cut on the upper St. John will not exceed $5,000,000 ft.

Fortunately the mill-owners are men in good financial standing, and able to bear the burden of this season's troubles. Then, too, they have had very good prices for the lumber shipped, especially in the American market.

POLICE COURT.

A Fine Quartette Before the Cadi This Morning. The four drunks who appeared before the magistrate this morning were as interesting a quartette as has been up for some time.

With a rich brogue, William Collins pleaded guilty to the charge of drunkenness and wept copiously, to such an extent that he had been an overbook. He was entered on the arrest book as William Collins, aged 46, native of Ireland. His country William stated that his name was not Collins, but MacLachlan, and that he was nearly forty years old. When the magistrate remarked that not only had his name been changed by the effects of one night's drinking, but that he had lost five years of his life, the truth was too much for William and he again indulged in a paroxysm of tears. With many sobs and a continuation of the brogue, he stated that he belonged not to Ireland, but to Liverpool. The magistrate considered that the amount was not that of an Englishman, who had been away from his country only two years, and while immediately repelled in as good imitation of cockney dialect as would dispel any doubts. He was advised to assuage his grief, as the fine was only two dollars or five days.

John Curran improved the fleeting minutes by combing his golden moustache and arranging his displaced necktie. In a most confidential manner he approached the magistrate and endeavored to explain how he came to be lying drunk on Walker's wharf yesterday evening. The remainder of his story will be told during the next two months while he is the guest of the city at the stone hotel.

John Mooney, hailing from either Ireland or Carleton, failed to take the good advice tendered him yesterday and compelled the officers to arrest him. He made the alarming statement this morning that he would never take another drink for a whole year—as an incentive to this praiseworthy end John was requested to spend the first twenty days of this year beyond the reach of temptation.

Yesterday afternoon, imitating the example set by Roadiceon, Lavina Bentry harangued a crowd on the Westmorland road. She occupied a prominent position in a carriage and when found by Officers Merrick and Scott, lying on the ground surrounded by many other women, she was pouring forth a stream of adjectives, many of which were complimentary to the man who had put her out of the wagon and left her without any hat or boots, to sleep on the roadside among strangers.

Lavina was so ill bred that she laughed right out in court this morning, but her glee was short lived, for the sentence of two months brought a different expression to her face. A claim of twenty-five cents for cartage has been entered against her.

The three boys, Lacy, Carlin and Sharp were put on the stand and gave evidence that they thought the valise belonged to Sharp's aunt, who was coming to town in that train, but they did not explain why they ran away. Lacy and Carlin were let out on bail of $200. Sharp was detained. The case will come on this day week.

A despatch to the Star says that in Simpson's pockets were found letters from persons in New Brunswick, among them being one from Alice McGeehan of St. John. A search through the city shows that there is only one family by the name of McGeehan living here, and it contains no names like Alice.
