

CUT TWELVE PER CENT OFF RAIL WAGES

First of July to See Drop in Schedule of All Canadian Railroads.

OVER 150,000 MEN ARE IN REDUCTION

No Indication Yet as to Way the Transportation Men Will Act.

Montreal, June 17.—The Canadian Railway Companies today formally advised their employees through their representatives in conference here that on July 1 they would be invited to accept a 12 per cent wage reduction.

The number of men to whom the wage decrease applies is 160,000. The decrease is to become effective July 1.

The reasons given for the decrease are: inability of the railways to continue present wages, despite short time in shops and elsewhere and the adoption of every economy possible.

1. A deficit of eleven million dollars being carried by the Grand Trunk this year.

2. The action of the United States Railway Labor Board, whose decisions have always been copied in Canada, in declaring a wage reduction of 12 per cent.

Who is Concerned Maintenance of way and shop crafts deal directly with all railways through the Canadian Railway Association. They were all called into conference, but as the United States Labor Board has not yet given a decision respecting their reduction, their case will have to be taken up again later.

The union representatives here state that they will report the proposals of the railroads to their respective points.

The point most strongly labored by the union representatives was the fact that the time between now and July 1 is insufficient in which to give thought to the various crafts interested in the Grand Trunk operation.

This is countered with the statement from railway officials that the unions were aware that any change made by the Chicago Board would be applicable simultaneously here if the spirit of the precedents established was to be continued and the good relations which exist between railroads and employees in Canada maintained.

The men were not told what would happen if they refused the decrease in wages, and when railway officials were asked they replied that they did not anticipate any refusal.

Those who met the railway officials here were the following general chairmen of the various crafts interested in the Grand Trunk operation: W. Maloney, Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen.

Thomas Todd, Order of Railway Conductors.

W. G. Dewar, Brotherhood of Engineers.

W. J. Dowell, Brotherhood of Electricians and Firemen.

A large delegation representing the clerical forces met Mr. Robb after the running trades.

POLICE KILLED BY LAND MINE

Four Concealed in Road Over Which Irish Auxiliaries Had to Pass in County Cork.

Cork, June 17.—Two auxiliary constables were killed and four wounded last evening in an attack on their lorry by Republicans at Rathcoole, near Banteer, County Cork. It is officially stated that four land mines were laid on the road near Rathcoole, and that three of them were exploded, wrecking three lorries. After this three hundred civilians attacked the auxiliaries, who numbered twenty-five. The fighting continued for hours, but eventually the Republicans withdrew. The official statement says the constabulary scoured the countryside until early this morning. One Republican was found dead, but other dead or wounded are believed to have been carried off.

ENGLISH MINERS TO CONTINUE THE STRIKE

Over 20,000 Majority in Excess of Two-thirds Required if "Demolition" Was to Continue.

London, June 17.—The two-thirds majority required for continuance of the coal stoppage was exceeded by more than 20,000 votes. This came as a complete surprise to all those concerned.

No decision relative to the next move of the miners could be reached at a lengthy conference of the executive of the miners' federation tonight, and adjournment was taken until tomorrow.

The chief difficulty facing the miners' officials is the fact that the government time limit within which the state grant of £10,000,000 must be accepted expires tomorrow. They have shown resistance to loss of this grant, and to re-open the negotiations.

GERMANS AGREE TO GIVE GRAIN TO ALLIES SOON

From Season's Crop 2,500,000 Tons Must be Delivered to the Entente.

BERLIN CLAIMS IT WILL RAISE PRICES

Germans Fear That Loss of Grain Will Mean Rule of the Profiteers.

Berlin, June 17.—The compulsory delivery of 2,500,000 tons of grain by German producers out of this year's harvest is provided for in a bill adopted by the Reichstag today after a stormy debate. The bourgeois parties, advocating the measure, were hotly opposed by the three socialist factions. The latter demanded a national reserve stock of 4,500,000 tons, which would amount to a continuance of the present system of government control.

The present action is the first step in abolishing official control and rationing of grain, which it is believed here will be discontinued permanently in 1922.

Must Turn in Stock

The German producers, by virtue of the bill, will be permitted to dispose of their surplus stocks in the open market after having turned in the required total of 2,500,000 tons.

The socialist organ this afternoon severely rebuked the Reichstag for adopting the measure, charging it with automatically result in an increase in the price of bread flour, as the powerful interests in that commodity, now no longer under rigid governmental scrutiny, will be permitted to German prices of their own fixing.

The council's famous suffrage resolution was also passed at another convention held later in the historic Nova Scotia city. Mrs. W. Montreal, June 17.—A justification of the House of Lords formed the chief feature of the address delivered today by the Rt. Hon. James W. The review declares that bombing outrages in crowded streets continue a regular feature of the rebel operations, resulting in casualties to innocent civilians in greater number than to the police or the military.

Winnipeg, June 17.—The Rev. BLACKJACKED WOMAN; HAIR SAVED LIFE

Man of 25 Fells Mrs. May Meyers in Her 42d. St. Apartment.

SCARED BY SCREAMS FLEES, CRYING FIRE

Robber Deals Four Heavy Blows — His Victim is Found Unconscious.

New York, June 17.—Mrs. May Meyers, 34 years old, fought for her life yesterday afternoon in her home, in West Forty-second street near Eighth avenue, when a young man pushed his way in with a question as to whether a "Miss O'Byrne" ever lived there, and then struck her on the top of the head with a blackjack. Mrs. Meyers has blonde hair, and lots of it. To that circumstance, Patrolman Joseph McKelvey believes, she owes her life. "The chap sure meant to murder her," he said. "He wanted her jewelry, and a killing if she fought."

Hair Killed Force.

The other blows landed on her head, and the mass of hair checked the terrible force.

The house overlooks one of the busiest traffic corners in the city. Mrs. Meyers went out for groceries for dinner. It is believed the man followed her. She wore some jewelry. The attack took place about an hour before her husband returned. Mrs. Meyers hardly had entered her apartment when there came a knock, and she saw a man about 25 years old, who held a straw hat behind him. He was polite, but insistent, and when Mrs. Meyers said she never had heard of a "Miss O'Byrne," he stepped forward suddenly and struck her.

Scared by Screams.

Mrs. Meyers fell backward into the room, but got up again and fled. Her assailant struck four heavy blows in all, but it was one on the arm that caused her to drop to the floor. Her screams had proved effective, however, and the man fled. Tenants rushed out and asked him what was the matter. "Only a little fire," he replied. "It's all right now." Then he ran out and disappeared.

Special to The Standard. Gagetown, N. B., June 17.—G. Currier, of Upper Gagetown, who already had considerable experience in road work, has been appointed local road commissioner, and has road machine and five teams horses at work on some of the back of the town during the week. Many of the ratepayers hoping that the sidewalks, whose condition "beggars description," will receive a little more attention usual this year.

Rains Helped Crops.

The recent rains have proved salvation of many of the crops, which looked last week as if they would not survive the more severe drought. In some cases, grain cut up, and then shivered to ground; in Summerhill, there was little to be cut this year, and has been literally burned out. Of the garden seeds planted have come up. A very heavy downpour in Upper Gagetown, which has been generally burned out, has been literally burned out.

Road Work Now Under Way in That Section of the Country.

Special to The Standard. Gagetown, N. B., June 17.—George Currier, of Upper Gagetown, who has already had considerable experience in road work, has been appointed local road commissioner, and has had a road machine and five teams of horses at work on some of the roads back of the town during the past week. Many of the ratepayers are hoping that the sidewalks, whose condition "begets" description, will receive a little more attention than usual this year.

Appreciate Ferry. The new Government-run ferry between Gagetown and Lower Jemseg which has begun operation and is in charge of Fred C. Nevers and son Paul B. Nevers. The ferry service consists of a covered motor boat for passengers and a large scow for cars and carriages. It is scheduled to meet the morning and evening express trains, while passengers and cars ferried at other time pay a special rate.

Rains Helped Crops. The recent rains have proved the salvation of many of the crops, which looked last week as if they would not survive many more days of drought. In some cases, grain came up, and then shrivelled to the ground; in Bummerhill, there will be little of the hay cut this year, as it has been literally burned out. Many of the garden seeds planted have not come up. A very heavy downpour of rain at Upper Gagetown proved a great help to crops here, which are usually of very good quality.

Poor Fishing Season. Although the fishing season for shad had been extended, local fishermen are not making much effort to secure them this week, owing to the drop in price. Several thousand pounds of shad were shipped from here this spring to the Boston market. Wm. C. Belyea and Wallace Crawford being the most successful fishermen. Fred K. Pierce has also net with good luck during salmon, but salmon do not seem to be as plentiful as formerly.

House And Barns Destroyed By Fire

Property of Howard Dinmore, St. Stephen, a Heap of Ruins.

Special to The Standard. St. Stephen, N. B., June 17.—The residence of Howard Dinmore at Old Ridge, the old Douglas Dinmore farm house, was completely consumed recently and the barn and out-buildings were also destroyed. The live stock and most of the contents of the barn were saved, as were all the contents of the house, many ready hands being present to help. Mrs. Dinmore had just completed extensive improvements to his property and there was but little insurance. The origin of the fire is unknown, but by some is attributed to a heap of compost near the barn that had become overheated.

PUTTING A HEART INTO A FASHION

The International Sunday School Lesson for June 19, is, Making the Social Order Christian. — Luke 4:16-21. Matt. 23:34-40.

A certain cantankerous church known to me is going through the periodical process of getting rid of its minister, which is a rare opportunity for the preacher to show both gumption and grace. Alas, though, the young man seems to be falling down under the test, as completely as the congregation. He appears to be only a "theoretical" one of his pastoral tasks was to visit, every week or so, a lonely old blind woman and read the Bible to her. But since the church now started he has neglected this simple bit of practical Christianity. To outward appearance, he was doing this service because it was part of his job; when things went wrong with the position, he simply stopped his work.

"Help Lighten the Load."

The social order will be Christianized only as Christians are socialized. Except the sense of brother-obligation inspire the general fellowship of mankind, it will be in vain for a few specialists to be engaged in social tasks. The tendency to depoliticize social responsibility to professional welfare workers is a sign of weakness in our common conscience. Humanity's wrongs will never be righted and humanity's burdens will never be lifted by any group of men and women, however large whose livelihood is in the task. Nothing short of an awakened general social consciousness can accomplish the great ends which are indicated in the Bible programme.

"Help Lighten the Load!"
Humanity stumbles ahead on its road.
Urged on over the deserts, beset by the goad;
Men bend under burdens of hunger and care,
And women must suffer and toil and despair;
Yea, even the children, astray in the strife,
Are bowed by the weight till they weary of life.
Hark! unto each soul that is here, not slave,
How clear sounds the call to arise and be brave!

"Help Lighten the Load!"
With all of the strength that the heart can command,
With all of the power of brain and of hand,
With wills set to sacrifice, struggle and dare,
With love that seeks ever each burden to share,
With untiring endeavor that stops not to ask
The length of the journey, the cost of the task,
Come, sons of the kingdom; Come, children of God!
And along the dark path by the world's anguish trod,
"Help lighten the load!"

"Help Lighten the Load!"
The girl graduate's "career,"
By humdrum, patient doing of the old-fashioned tasks of brotherliness, in the unprofessional spirit of Jesus, this world's social order is going to be Christianized. Girl graduates who think of social service as a "career" need to go back to their devoted grandmothers to get hold of the essential truth that things are being changed for the better by the humble individual practice of the Bible virtues. Let us get firm hold of the conviction that things are not going to be changed overnight by a great law. Still less in the kingdom of brotherhood to be brought in by a few persons' railing at the existing order of things, or by becoming common so-called. Professional welfare workers sometimes become a heavy burden for ordinary folk to carry.

"Help Lighten the Load!"
It is easy to lose one's head, in this day of unsettlement, with its new vocabulary and new standards. So we should hold steady in our thinking, and remember such simple considerations as the relative importance of professional reform with its sensations and such unseasonal, matter-of-fact Christian service as the teaching of boy and girls in the Sunday School. There are nearly two million Sunday school teachers in North America, teaching something like eighteen million other persons, and the net result of their unreported devotion far exceeds that of all "social service experts" in the world, so far as affecting the life of our time. I do not mean to disparage social service, even though its devotees are inclined to take themselves entirely too seriously; but I do urge that we keep first things first, and not overlook the normal processes of the essential Christian programme for bringing in the kingdom of heaven by way of the conscientious efforts of the friends and fellow laborers of Christ.

"Help Lighten the Load!"
Wherever an individual Christian is walking the way, there the social order is being Christianized.

When the greatest Reformer of history set out upon his public mission—and Jesus, undoubtedly, was a Reformer, as well as a Saviour—He set forth his platform of principles from the Book that has withstood the centuries. He linked the vision of the Old Testament with the reality of the New. "It is written" takes on the character of a solemn formula when uttered by Christ. He buttressed His positions by the Bible.

The most sagacious counselor I have is a rather old-fashioned woman whose habit of mind is to resolve every question, so far as possible, into its simplicities. We were talking a few days ago about the anarchistic trend of the social life of the day, especially among young people; their departure from accepted laws and codes and standards into a rampant, reckless individualism. Slowly this wise and toeragen woman remarked, "After all, there surely must be some standards that are to be kept sacred, if we have no fixed principles or codes, and everyone is free to do as he or she chooses, only chaos and suffering can follow. It seems to me that the clear Bible standards of right cannot be set aside by any popular fashion. They have stood the test of time. When I tried, they work out for the happiest and most profitable life for a community. Therefore, I think we should not mind this little chatter about 'old times,' but insist resolutely upon the great integrities of human character and conduct as laid down in Scripture."

"That is sound sense. There is nothing brilliant or 'smart' about it; but it is true as the poet says—

"In vain we call old notions fables,
And bend our conscience to our deaming.
The Ten Commandments will not bud,
And stealing still continues stealing."

Because the pupil and the Sunday School proclain the eternal verities of God, they are the sure hope of an eventual social order that will not only just and humane, but also lead to social justice for most Christians is by way of the Sunday School. For it is the Bible programme, in the hope of the world. We look and of reaction. They are needed for both, and an unshakable refuge for mankind, stands the impregnable rock of Holy Scriptures. Every man who shies in the world, equally with every one who wears that special privilege is entrenching itself in high places, should lend his support to the Bible movement.

A Cure For "That Tired Feeling."
And the Bible is the best cure for that tired feeling which so often overtakes reformers and social workers. Much zeal for welfare work shrivels up when it is first struck by the cold blast of ingratitude and indifference. The young person who takes up this alluring career, please on the part of those served, is destined to experience tragic disillusionment. What bitter discouragement has overtaken many great souls betterment of their kind!

Only the Bible offers an adequate motive and incentive and reward for social service. "Inasmuch" is the philosopher's stone that transmutes the base metal of man's ingratitude into the golden guerdon of the King. We are to serve and love, and to serve, in all lowly and diligent ways, because our Saviour identified Himself with every object of His disciples' ministry. "Inasmuch as ye have done it unto Me," if only for man's sake we labor, then we soon find and fear and fall by the way; but for the Master's sake, to show our love for "Him who has loved and seen we love" the Christian will dare and endure anything.

This is the real reason and hope for making the social order Christian; it is for the service of Jesus, the Christ, as well as for the good of humanity.

South Africans Have Liquor With A Kick

Bushmen Ferment Fruit of Cashew Tree in Sun. Distill Juice and There You Are.

Chicago, June 17.—Home brew makes bushmen of the South African jungles walk backward and perform other ludicrous antics, according to the Rev. William G. Torrell, Methodist missionary, who arrived at his home in Chicago today from Johannesburg.

"The abundant juice of the fruit of the cashew tree is easily obtained," he said. "It ferments in the sun in a few hours and the longer it remains exposed to the sun the stronger it becomes. By distilling this juice the natives obtain a liquor of very high alcoholic content, and the wildest drunken orgies are held continuously throughout the season when the cashew fruit ripens."

"These jungle-men also make liquor from oranges, lemons, sweet potatoes, pineapples, corn and cassava root. Still, prohibition is making steady progress in the mining centres of South Africa, where the economic loss caused by drunkenness is checked by the most stringent laws and heavy penalties. In sixty-three compounds in which 8,000 natives aborigines are quartered I saw only two intoxicated men in eighteen months. Total abstinence is not enforced. The mining companies issue a beer ration of low alcoholic percentage to their laborers once a week."

Boy Shoots Himself After Mother Rebukes

School Report Was Not Satisfactory and She Warns Him to Do Better.

New York, June 17.—Walter Karl, 15 years old and a student in the senior class of Public School 114 in Brooklyn, took his monthly report card to his home in 838 Flatlands avenue, Brooklyn, and showed it to his mother, Mrs. Joseph Karl. The card was not satisfactory. Although the boy had been good in deportment, he had been deficient in some of his classes, and on the card was written in red ink the word "DANGER."

Mrs. Karl took this to mean that there was danger that her son might not graduate with his class, and she reprimanded him.

"You'll have to do better at school than that," she said. "Your father'll have something to say to you when he comes home."

Shoots Himself.
She then sent the boy out into the yard to do his chores, and he went without replying to her. Mrs. Karl and another of her children went into the kitchen, and in a moment Walter came back into the house. She heard him walking up the stairs and entered the room in which hung the uniform of his father, Patrolman Joseph Karl, of the Miller avenue station, who is on vacation. In the pocket of the uniform was the policeman's pistol.

Only a few minutes later Mrs. Karl heard a shot. She ran upstairs, and found Walter lying on the floor, with the revolver beside him and a bullet wound in his right temple. He was unconscious. His mother summoned an ambulance from the Kings County Hospital, but the surgeons who answered refused to take the boy to the hospital because his condition was too serious. They told his mother that he had no chance whatever of recovery.

CREW OVERCOME BY GASES USED IN FUMIGATING

Seaman Killed on Ordnance and Four Others Have Narrow Escape from Death.

GALLANT RESCUE BY TWO OF CREW
Steamship Being Fumigated While Men Were Asleep in Their Cabins.

New York, June 17.—Fifty members of the crew of the steamship Orduna of the Royal Mail Steam Packet Company, which is docked at Barrow street and the Hudson River, were asleep in two cabins amidships below the water line yesterday afternoon, when the remainder of the crew went on deck and workmen began to fumigate the vessel. This work began at 3 o'clock, and it was almost an hour before the fumes of the chemicals began to penetrate into the hold of the vessel.

Asleep in Cabin.
Frederick Lee, a night watchman; Albert White, a baker; Edward Smart, a steward; and Sidney Cooke, a baker, were asleep together in one cabin, while in another just opposite lay John Jeffrey, a cook, all of them Englishmen whose homes are in Southampton. About 4 o'clock Lee was awakened by the fumes, which he began to cut his throat and lungs. He was barely able to breathe, but he managed to awaken Smart, and together they hurried up the companion-way to the deck of the ship.

Other members of the crew rushed forward to aid them as they staggered through the hatch, but Lee and Smart, after the work of sending the fumes into the hold had been stopped, went back to rescue their comrades, protected by wet cloths tied over their faces. They made their way to the cabins in which the other three men lay sleeping. They found Cooke and White unconscious, but awakened Jeffrey after an effort. Jeffrey made his own way to the deck, but White and Cooke were carried out by Smart and Lee.

One Found Dead.
Physicians were summoned from St. Vincent's Hospital and worked for more than an hour over the men. Lee and Smart having fallen unconscious as soon as they reached the deck with Cooke and White. Lee, Smart and Jeffrey revived almost immediately, but White was dead. The surgeons said that he had probably died before Lee and Smart went back into the hold of the ship for the second time. Cooke was so badly hurt that he was taken to the hospital, where it was said last night that his condition was serious. The others were able to remain aboard the ship.

The claims of the association is that the carriers, who have, during the past four years, been unable to pay expenses on the contract price for their services. Actual expenses, in both cases, average fifty per cent in excess of payment received.

Cops Ruin His Cafe Trade, So He Sues

Browne Seeks $25,000 from Enright as Result of Police Guard.

New York, June 17.—Michael T. Browne, owner of a cafe at 784 Columbus avenue, brought suit in the Supreme Court yesterday for $25,000 damages against Police Commissioner Richard B. Enright, Captain Thomas Donahue and Patrolmen Thomas O'Connell and John Hughes.

The complaint says that on May 26 the police entered the place and found no intoxicating liquors except two and a half bottles of whiskey stowed away in a safe for private use before national prohibition went into effect. Since the raid, Mr. Browne says, police have been stationed constantly inside the cafe, and do nothing but sit around, read and converse with customers, which has caused falling off in his business of close to 50 per cent. The police, concludes the complaint, have declared they will remain on the job until Browne goes out of business.

New York, June 17.—As the piece de resistance after the supreme of asparagus and just before the roed birds were brought in—a man was cut in halves last night at the annual dinner of the Society of American Magicians.

The dinner, in the Hotel McAlpin, was attended to 500 illusionists, sleight of hand performers, card wizards, professors and handout kings from all over the United States, and was conspicuous for the presence personally of Houdini, Thurston, Vintelli, Chang the Chinese and others.

So a fight between Salvatore and Sammy was a sporting proposition, even if it wasn't a novelty, and yesterday when school was dismissed quite a gallery of small boys formed a "ring" in the gutter in East Seventy-seventh street.

him sat quietly on one chair while the north half drank a glass of water, after which the two ends of him were set together again and he rose to his feet and walked away. Whether all this is achieved by mirrors, hypnosis, two men where one appears to be, or by sheer luck is the trick.

LYOYD GEORGE'S TROUBLES.

The British Premier's lot at this time is not a happy one. Troubles surround him and seem to increase. At home and abroad are grave difficulties confront him. The labor situation, while it has some sign of improving, is still bad. With many men who will not work because there is nothing for them to do, and more who will not work because their trade unions have ordered a strike, there is a vast army of unemployed, involving much distress as well as economic loss to the nation. Ireland is still a hand still, with all that that implies. The by-elections in England are going against the Government, even strong Conservative divisions which are not prepared to elect Liberals, are returning men who are not friendly to the coalition. An "anti-waste" campaign in which large military and naval expenditures are severely criticized seems to be gaining force. In foreign affairs too there are grave difficulties. The Balkan situation is disturbing. The relations between Britain and France are not as cordial as they were. Disorders in Egypt and in India give cause for some anxiety. Political prophets are predicting that Mr. Lloyd George will see in all these difficulties a reason for seeking a fresh mandate from the electors and that an early general election may be looked for. Such, however, does not necessarily follow. Mr. Lloyd George has pulled through situations quite as bad as that of today, and he will probably still keep his luck. His ability and political skill are undoubted, and he is strengthened by the fact that there is no unity in the ranks of those who oppose him. Unless Liberals and Laborites can find a common ground of action, the Lloyd George coalition will carry on for a while. Britain will "muddle through," all right.

WAGES AND THE COST OF LIVING.

The announcement of a twelve per cent. average wage cut for railroad employees under the United States Railway Labor Board in a decision applying to 104 roads is a definite move for the reduction of the higher wage levels and a lowering of costs by the producer and consumer. The decision will undoubtedly be a strong influence in the establishment of labor values in other fields of industrial activity. The wages of the railroad workers have been regarded as representing the key-stone of the new labor arch, as they were established while the roads were under government control, and, therefore, represented a political rather than an economic adjustment on the basis of supply and demand.

The move to reduce wages of union members will, as the Financial Post says, of course, be fought by the professional labor leaders, but there is a growing appreciation on the part of the workers generally that the cost of production must be brought down in the adjustment of the cost of living, to secure advantage of the low prices for natural products and raw materials. At the same time, economists see the necessity for establishment of a new balance of relationship between employer and employee, producer and consumer, and argue that this labor leaders must be willing to meet new conditions, or trade unionism will stand to lose many of the advantages gained in the last twenty-five years, during which period constant development and prosperity have given capital and management an opportunity to meet the demands of the unions.

The railroad wage reduction is estimated to lift $400,000,000 of the annual pay rolls of the systems affected in the United States. But the benefits to the eventual consumer will be much greater, because of other reductions in wages and lower costs of transportation which will be brought about.

When visiting the White House recently, Charles M. Schwab told President Harding that "the crying need of the nation at present is to get some relief from the almost intolerable transportation conditions." Continuing, Mr. Schwab declared that the country's return to normal business conditions hinges on the transportation problem, both rail and water. He illustrated his point by stating that he used to sell pig iron for $14 per ton, while it now costs that much in transportation charges alone for every ton that is turned out of the mills. A similar point was made in Toronto a few days ago by Arthur Hewitt, general manager of the Consumers' Gas Company, who pointed out that it now costs more to transport a ton of coal, including duty, laid down in Toronto two years ago. And, to repeat, rail and water are but one factor in the Six Million Capitalists.

Regulate the Wife Market.
 Great Britain will not allow the Irish between Liberia and Sierra Leone to charge more than $25 for a wife. At least the high cost of living is coming down somewhere.—Haiti-American.

Bolshevist Efficiency.
 The British trade agreement with Russia has belied both the hopes and fears aroused by it. The truth seems to be that Russia is so miserably unimportant that she will be unimportant as a buyer or seller for years to come.—Toronto Globe.

Another Win for P. R.
 Proportional representation has won another victory. The committee of the House of Commons appointed by Premier Lloyd George to investigate the "P. R." is better than the present system whenever more than two candidates are contesting a riding. An proportional representation works in the same manner as the prevailing system where there are only two candidates, the report is a strong endorsement of the new plan of registering the vote.—Toronto Star.

The Blessings of Work.
 All work, whether high or low, drudgery or creative, the potboilers of the architect, the palaces of the painter, the building, weaving, farming, sweeping, selling, buying, investing, work is valuable. It is a blessing to have it, a disgrace to dodge it, a sin to avoid it. Great men work, noble men work, honest men work, all men worthy the name work. Without it we die and with it life assumes value, becomes important, is worth its days. Work, when undertaken, is a blessing. And yours!—New York Commercial.

An Urgent Need.
 The Canadian Manufacturers' Association concluded its convention in Quebec by reiterating its plea to the Federal Government to set up a research institute which would give the country a measure of true economy. The senators must surely realize by this time, after the loud chorus of disapproval which has followed their undertaking, that the comparatively small amount in tended for national research purposes, that they have made a very serious mistake. It is a mistake, however, which can be rectified, and now that such a decisive expression of opinion has been given by those most competent to judge of the value of such an undertaking, it is to be hoped that the Government will take the necessary steps to reintroduce the subject and give the senators a chance to rescind themselves.—Hamilton Spectator.

A BIT OF VERSE

THE OLD QUADRILLES.

Far, far away in the Ozark Hills,
 The young folk dance the old quadrilles.
 Overalls and shirts of blue,
 Cowboy boots and humpers, too,
 Their swaying bodies all keeping time,
 To the fiddlers' tune, and caller's rime.

"First couple out, and lead to the Follow the girl with the eyes so bright,
 You all jump up, and never come down."
 The holler of your foot
 Makes a hole in the ground,
 "A! man all!"
 Around the hall!"

Laughing Janie, her eyes full of joy,
 Shyly watches the fiddle boy,
 For her to dance on the punchoon floor.

"Do so do,
 And your beau
 Roosters in the centre, four hands round."
 Swing your partner off on the ground,
 Whirl the girl from Arkansas,
 Chew more tobacco than yer Paw kin chaw."
 Saw more wood than yer Maw kin saw,
 Dance with the girl from Arkansas,
 Balance her."

"Turkey in the Straw," "No More to Room,"
 "Arkansas Traveller," "Home Sweet Home."
 "Git your partners, last set of all,"
 Gally they follow the old-time call.
 "Chase that 'possum, chase that
 squirrel,
 Follow that pretty girl 'round the gray."
 Chase that rabbit, chase that coon,
 Follow your honey 'round the moon."
 The lanterns flicker, and morning
 gray
 Brings another long working day;
 There are bows to milk, and plows to Glide,
 Down the old trail-ways, side by side
 The dancers fit, their laughing calls,
 Echoing through the forest halls,
 Over the hills to the mountain home
 Pretty Janie follows alone,
 Through the glade and down the swale,
 Past the church, and in the vale,
 By the cool swift brook, where willows
 nod,
 Pausing to lave her weary feet,
 Over her shoulder her best shoes
 swing,
 Softly, the mocking bird hears her sing.

"Chase that rabbit, chase that coon,
 Follow your honey 'round the moon."
 The birds are singing of love and joy,
 As down the trail the fiddler boy,
 Leaps the brook and over the rocks,
 He follows on, and never stops,
 Until he comes to the pasture gate,
 Where his partner and Janie wait;
 As he gallops along,
 He hums the caller's careless song:

"Chase that 'possum, chase that
 squirrel,
 Follow that pretty girl 'round the world."

PRINCE TO VISIT INDIA.

London, June 17.—The Daily Express intimates that the Prince of Wales will visit India during the coming cold season. Lord Reading, the Viceroy of India, this paper says, has strongly recommended a visit to India to have an excellent effect.

IN THE EDITOR'S MAIL

June 17, 1921.
To the Editor St. John Standard.

39.—A city's milk supply is dependent upon the country surroundings, and it has been found that the further a city has to bring its supply (up to limits of say 500 miles), the better it is from a bacteriological standpoint, the reason being that those shipping from a long distance give a better care and attention to the point of production, thus ensuring a better quality on delivery to the city dealer, who, when he accepts it and subjects it to clarification and pasteurization and makes his delivery to the home, is subject to the city laws regarding bacteria count and quality. St. John has a milk supply which is very nice, and if proper care and attention was given it at the farm it should be of the best quality. Such, however, is not the case. The rigid laws made in large and small cities today are strictly enforced and in larger plants, city milk inspectors are ever on the watch so that they may take samples from the different producers shipments, as well as to carefully watch the process through which the milk passes previous to bottling and delivery to the family trade.

Practically all cities and towns with ten thousand or over through the Middle States, no milk can be sold that has not been pasteurized, and since these laws have gone into effect the death rate has been materially reduced. Experience has taught us that milk is a most common carrier of disease such as typhoid, diphtheria, scarlet fever, tuberculosis, septic sore throat, and many others, and experience has also taught us that clarification will eliminate many bacteria that produce these diseases and pasteurized will destroy any that remain, and at the same time both of these treatments, if properly done, will not change in the slightest degree the chemical composition or flavor of the milk so treated.

Why should St. John be so indifferent with her milk supply, if it is so necessary to be so clean and pure as other Canadian and American cities? Is not the health of the children here of as much importance as in any other city? Is there any one who for the residents of St. John to drink milk which has been kept in filthy cans for hours at temperatures conducive to the rapid development of germ life which may be the cause of producing almost any contagious disease? Are the consumers not paying the dealers enough to get a quality of milk delivered to them that cannot be questioned?

Is it not within the rights of the people to demand that a proper system of inspection be enforced that would insure a safe milk supply for the children? Do consumers realize the necessity for cleaner milk? If not, this paper intends to produce the evidence that will convince the most skeptical, and we shall also produce authorities whose statements regarding what constitute a safe milk supply, and the cause and effect of an unsafe one cannot be questioned. It is not our intention to hurt any dealer or producer unless he wants to be hurt. Clean milk can be produced as well as dirty milk. Cleaners for milk can be cleaned by the proper application of soap and water. We have seen cans come into this city with yellow slime in the seams, which carries with it millions of living organisms. Milk when drawn from the cow is practically without germ life, and its introduction to a milk pail or shalping can such as before described soon contaminates it.

The producer is as careless in many cases as the city dealer, and in some instances it seems to be the desire of both to let the other fellow have what he has to sell and thus get rid of the worry.

Weekly Newspapermen Entertained At Calgary

C. P. R. Handed Over Ballroom of Paliser Hotel to Them for Day.

Special to The Standard. Calgary, June 17.—When the C. P. R. inspector tried to get up at the platform in Calgary bearing the delegates of the Canadian Weekly Newspaper Association, conversation which was held in Vancouver, a very large and enthusiastic group of friendly newspaper men and citizens greeted them. Acting Mayor John W. Huggitt was on hand to extend the welcome and to depose the representatives of the city and the women's press club. Entertainment on the part last evening included a ride on a scenic car, others enjoying the theatre as a diversion since leaving Vancouver. Through the generosity of the C. P. R. and the general manager of the Paliser Hotel, the beautiful ballroom of the hotel was placed at the disposal of the delegates. The orchestra played for dancing until midnight, and needless to say it was thoroughly enjoyed. Too much praise cannot be bestowed upon the railway officials accompanying the train and attention to the wants of the slightest detail of any one member of the party. Through Mr. A. B. Calder, the representative of the C. P. R., W. Beatty, president of the C. P. R., the delegates extended their sincerest appreciation for the wonderful courtesy extended to them. Yesterday the delegates were hospitably entertained by the Board of Trade, enjoying a delightful drive through the city and a luncheon at the Plaza, which was presided over by Mayor Adams. Mr. A. B. Galsman, of Pictou Gazette, paid a great tribute to Mr. Roy Sales, the manager of the association, and asked Mr. Cowie to make a little presentation to Mr. Sales, showing their appreciation of his work since appointment.

Mr. J. L. Cowie, Carberry, Man., then asked Mr. Sales to receive a very handsome bag, to which which Mr. Sales suitably responded. Subsequently the delegates returned to the Mayor of Calgary, the Board of Trade, and the citizens of Calgary for their kindnesses on behalf of the delegates by Mr. A. H. More, St. John's News, Quebec, and Mr. A. K. Brennan, vice president and proprietor of the Summerside Journal, N. B.

The Women's Press Club provided afternoon tea at the Hudson's Bay store at 5 o'clock.

NUTRITIOUS FOOD.

Whether used in feeding of man or animal, the high value of the oat, when properly prepared, is everywhere recognized, says the Department of Health. Oatmeal is richer than flour or meals in iron. It has rather more protein and its total food value is somewhat higher than any of the wheaten flours. You can get more food from half a pound of oatmeal than from a twelve ounce loaf of bread and the cost will not be half so much.

WHISKY STILL CASES.

Bathurst, June 17.—Ben Glazier of Lugar, near St. Theresa, appeared before Magistrate O'Brien charged with having in his possession a whisky still capable of brewing twenty gallons at a crack. As the still was found by Inspector Daves of St. John, behind Glazier's barn the question of ownership was cleared up to Ben. Glazier pleaded guilty and was fined $50. Magistrate Daves of St. John, behind Glazier's barn the question of ownership was cleared up to Ben. Glazier pleaded guilty and was fined $50 for having in her possession a quantity of "mash."

Saint John Woman Gives Testimony

Mrs. Sherwood Had to Live on Bread and Tea Only Because of Stomach Trouble, But She Can Eat Anything Now.

"I don't know whether my daughter or myself is the most enthusiastic about Tania, for we both owe it so much gratitude we never get tired praising it," said Mrs. Robert Sherwood, 128 Grand St., St. John, N. B. "For three years I was in a dreadful run down condition and there seemed to be no hope of relief for me. My stomach was in awful condition and I had to live almost entirely on bread and butter and tea. My nerves were worn almost to the breaking point, and I was little more than a shadow of what I used to be. "Finally I broke down completely, and went to a hospital for several weeks. While the stay helped me I gradually went back to my old condition. I was so weak I had to hire help to get my housework done. "Since taking Tania my appetite is just splendid and I eat things I hadn't touched before in years and I have regained nearly all my lost weight. My nerves are steady and I sleep like a child at night. My daughter, who has always been delicate, seeing how Tania helped me started taking it, too, and the results have been just as remarkable in her case as they were in mine. Tania is simply grand." "Tania is sold in St. John, by The Ross Drug Company and leading druggists."

Weddings

Robinson-Lisson. Apohaig, N. B. June 17.—A wedding which has been anticipated with much interest took place in the Church of the Ascension on Wednesday afternoon, the 17th, at 3 o'clock, when Rev. Canon Showan united in holy matrimony Miss Mary Ruth Lisson, daughter of Mrs. Mary Lisson, and Frederick James Robinson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Robinson of Lower Millstream. Shortly after 3 o'clock the first strains of music announced the arrival of the bride, who wore a vision of youthful beauty in her bridal gown of white satin and georgette, embroidered in pearls. The graceful folds of the covering veil were held in place by a coronet of orange blossoms, and carrying a shower bouquet of white carnations, she proceeded to the altar on the arm of her uncle, Alderman A. E. Pearson of Sussex, who gave her in marriage. The bride was attended by her cousin, Miss Madeline Manchester. The groom was supported by his brother, Mr. Burton Robinson, and Harry Lisson of Sussex, and a Guy Adair, cousins of the bride, acted as ushers, and Miss Nellie Vessey presided at the ceremony. "Oh, Perfect Love" was softly rendered. On their return from their wedding journey, Mr. and Mrs. Robinson will take up their residence in their pretty home at Lower Millstream, where the groom is one of the prominent farmers.

She was 64 years of age, the oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Connors, of Dufferin parish, and excepting for some years residence in St. John, her life had been spent here.

Richard H. Callaghan.

Richard H. Callaghan, a well known seaman, passed away at an early hour yesterday morning in the St. John Infirmary. He had been in poor health since Christmas, but during the last two weeks his condition took a turn for the worse, with death resulting. He was a well known figure around the water front, where he was employed for more than twenty-five years as a stevedore. During that period he was employed by Schofield Company, The Robert Redford Company, J. T. Knight & Company, George McLean and other shipping interests.

He was a native of this city and a son of the late William Callaghan. In his younger days he was one of the best swimmers along the water front and was awarded two medals for life saving. On August 18, 1897, he leaped into the harbor at Reed's Point and saved George Gillespie, an eight year old boy, who had fallen overboard, and in recognition for this brave act Mayor Robinson presented to him a beautiful silver medal suitably engraved. On December 13, 1899, he jumped into the harbor at the ferry slip and saved Bessie E. Murphy, George McLean and was later given a bronze medal awarded by the Royal Canadian Humane Society, by Mayor Sears.

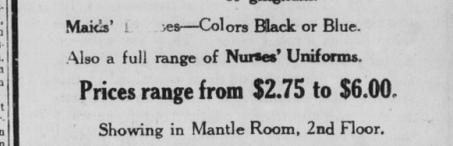

Mr. Callaghan was fifty-six years of age, and besides his wife he is survived by three sons, George, who is manager of Robert Cox Lumber Company Ltd., in Montreal; John, who recently went to Boston, and Edward at home; also three sisters, Mrs. G. Duddy of Boston, Mrs. John Arbour of Buffalo, and Mrs. Frank Paragon of this city.

Chatterbox Says:

Have you decided yet, what to take with you, when you journey into the country or to some camp, to spend the week-end? What will you need most? Sport clothes of course, but—have you the kind of sweaters you want? Yes, sweaters, for one isn't nearly enough. How about a cross over sweater, hand made of that lovely new "Silver Gleam" yarn, in a glorious shade called "Honeydew" or would a soft all-very blue be more becoming?

Nowadays, a pretty sweater, a hand-made blouse, a smart sport skirt and you are ready for almost any occasion. There are the darker and heavier sports suits of Jersey or tweed, that are great for "real" camping. While quite smart, and up-to-the-minute are the so-called knitted "Beach Caps."

WHO SAID

So great was the fame and greatness of the city of Athens during the reign of the man who uttered these words, that the period during which he was in authority is often referred to as the "Golden Age" of Greece. During that time it is said more great men lived in Athens than have lived at any other one time in any country during the history of the world. The man referred to was Pericles. And under his wise direction Athens made such strides as she had never made before nor has ever made since. Pericles was born at Athens about 494 B. C. Family relations connected with the aristocracy, but as Cleon was already at its head he sought to gain favor with the popular party. In this he was fully successful by reason of his eloquence, and ability as a politician and when the death of Cleon occurred in 429 B. C. Pericles was made virtual ruler of Athens. Pericles greatly endeared himself to the beauty-loving Athenians by his magnificent public works which made Athens the greatest center in the world for art, sculpture and architecture. His public improvements necessitated the employment of many laborers and artisans, and thus, by furnishing employment to the masses, he made himself further beloved. When the Peloponnesian war was begun in B. C. 431, in which Athens had to contend against Sparta and other states, Pericles was made commander-in-chief. The Spartans invaded Attica but Pericles thought the time not ripe to give battle so he compelled the rural inhabitants to seek refuge in Athens and contented himself with remaining on the defensive. A plague broke out in Athens in 429 B. C., and Pericles temporarily lost his popularity. The people soon saw their mistake, however, and he was shortly recalled to take charge of affairs. Soon after he became ill of a lingering sickness and died in B. C. 429.

Marguerite Goes Shopping

So much has been said in these columns about clothes that you may imagine the writer thinks of nothing else; but I assure you that is where you would be wrong. Just now I am planning on renovating not my wardrobe, but my rooms, and so a window of Messrs. W. H. Thorne & Co. on Prince William street was of great interest to me. There I found abundance for my walls, varnish and stains for woodwork and floors, japane lac for some furniture which needed touching up, stove-pipe enamel and paints in every variety with which to brighten everything in the house from the automobile to my last year's hat.

In the window around the corner were offered bargains in glass water pitchers with six glasses for only $7, and silver-plated casseroles at $6.50. An errand took me to the head of King street, and there I gazed with longing eyes at the fancy work in the window of Messrs. F. W. Daniel & Co. A specialty is made of table runners, some particularly handsome ones being shown in brown linen embroidered in rich silks. The worked sample helps one to follow the correct shading. Stamped linen pillow slips with a pointed crochet insertion and a floral design were lovely and made one long for time to make a set. Several sofa pillows and pin cushions were charming. Remembering I must visit the stores of Messrs. Manchester, Robertson, Allison, Ltd., I joined the crowd of women looking at the tempting things there. One window contains exclusive articles, ostrich plume feather fans, collars of rose point lace and fascinating little novelties such as girlish wooden beads and powder puffs cunningly concealed in a fancy hankerschief.

WOMEN FOR THE SENATE FAVORED BY THE COUNCIL

National Body Goes on Record as Favoring Them for Red Chamber.

WANT HEARST PAPERS KEPT OUT OF CANADA

Commend Playground Work as Carried on in City of St. John.

Calgary, June 17.—Members of the National Council of Women yesterday afternoon went on record as favoring the appointment of women to the Senate in Canada. The resolution was adopted with but one dissenting vote. Among those who spoke in favor of the resolution were Mrs. J. McIver, of St. John, N. B., and Dr. Stowe Gulien, of Toronto. Dr. Gulien said that the Senate had been mainly occupied with voting the requests presented by the National Council of Women she favored the appointment of women to the Senate with a view of making the criminal code "a little more applicable."

Want Hearst Kept Out.

The report from the committee on the suppression of objectionable printed matter stated that fifty American magazines, many of which were objectionable, were allowed to come into Canada un-taxed. The report pointed out that magazines published primarily to advertise goods of another country were very large and their attractive advertising increase the amount of goods which Canadians are buying in the United States. This it was said, was no small matter when Canada approximately lost $102,781,216 in one year owing to the average rate of exchange. Exclusion of Hearst publications was urged.

Blame Films For Crime.

"Objectionable films are the cause of the wave of youthful crime which has swept over the country," says the report. A resolution that all matters pertaining to moving pictures be referred to the standing committee on objectionable printed matter was carried. The report of the committee on suppressed playgrounds was encouraged and showed that St. John, N. B., takes the lead in advanced recreation, the work of the playground being included in an amalgamation of the Rotarians, Board of Trade, Y. M. C. A., and similar organizations.

HATS ARE OF LACE AND RIBBON BOUND

Large and Drooping is the Style—Must be Transparent and Flower Trimmed. The hats that are worn with the summer street clothes become a serious matter for consideration, because unless the hat is exactly right the dress might as well not exist at all for all the effect it will have upon the general public. The summer hats are larger and drooping. They need to be this shape on account of the heat and the glare of the sun, and then they are so becoming that they are placed in the picture lines and possibilities that they carry with them. The idea is, this season, to have the hat as transparent as can be and then to trim it with many examples of frills and flowers. The hats are extraordinarily large and many of them extraordinarily transparent. Flower Rosettes. The wreaths of flowers, and sometimes cherries, that are arranged around these summer hats are placed in a sparing manner, not massed as they were last year. Some of them have the flowers gathered into a sort of large rosette at the front where it adds height to the hat and gives a feathery effect of many little flowers gathered carefully together. The flowers used for trimming are tied together with fascinating little pieces of ribbon in bright colors, woven with metal threads to make them sparkle and glisten. Many of the hats are bound with narrow pieces of this ribbon and many of them have groupings of streamers hanging from their brims made of the same sort of metallic ribbons. Lace is very appropriate for the summer hat, and when it is not made of lace then it apt to have a large lace veil draped about it to give that soft part of the summer hat. These hats and becoming effect, which must be a part of the Summer hat. Those hats with a two inch band of lace falling from their brims are extremely popular, and they are so made that they are not too fancy to be worn with the sort of dress we have been talking

GO TO THE ANT AND SOLVE PROBLEMS

Insects Teach Pure Democracy—Flowers Had to Learn to Defend Themselves.

How insects have solved many problems that still vex the human race is explained by Edward Steep, F. L. S., English naturalist. "In the ant-hill," writes this authority, "we find an example of pure democracy. It may consist of many thousands of individuals without a monarch or leader of any sort; without a government. Each ant does exactly what it pleases, without either instructions or permission to do it. But what it does is just what is best for the entire community. There is no self-seeking, no selfishness. Each one does what needs to be done when it needs doing, the welfare of all being the impelling motive. "A score or a hundred, or a thousand workers are engaged on some big piece of work. A worker ant comes in from a foraging expedition. "Here Polly," she says to one of the miners or masons, "let me take a turn at that while you rest awhile." The resting one asks for food, and the newcomer at once shares what she has gathered on her journey. Some others come along and notice that the resting worker has become soiled with labor. They immediately set to work to clean and refresh her, by washing and brushing. Nobody tells or asks them to do it; they merely see that it requires doing, and at once set about their self-imposed task. "During some extensive mining operations a stone is dislodged from the roof and falls upon a worker, injuring her so that she can scarcely crawl. Several rush to her aid, and bear her away to a quieter gallery, where her burials may be properly tended.

Would Not Be Without Baby's Own Tablets

Mrs. W. Beesley, Millie Roche, Ont., writes: "I have used Baby's Own Tablets for the past eight months and would not be without them. I used them for indigestion and teething and my baby is cutting his teeth without any trouble whatever. I can highly recommend the Tablets to other mothers." What Mrs. Beesley says thousands of other mothers say. The Tablets are a mild but thorough laxative which regulate the bowels and sweeten the stomach, thus driving out constipation and indigestion and making teething easy. They are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Riverside Sends First Golf Entries

Maritime Championships Will Be Held at Amherst from July 26 to 29

Amherst, N. S., June 17.—The Riverside Golf Club, St. John, has made the initial break in sending entries to the Maritime Golf Championships to be held here July 26 to 29. M. Canfield, secretary-treasurer of the Maritime Golf Association, was the recipient of the entries yesterday before he had actually sent out the programmes and letters requesting entries. Fifteen golf clubs were given due notification and include Ligan, Fredericton, Miramichi Golf Club, Charlottetown, St. John's, Digby, New Glasgow, Woodstock, Brightwood, Halifax, Yarmouth, Truro, Moncton, Westfield, Amherst. It is the intention of the association, Mr. Canfield, as well as Messrs. P. C. Black and G. W. O'Brien, president and vice-president of the M. G. A. respectively, that every club mentioned will be represented in the lineup on Tuesday morning, July 26. From now until that time entries will be forthcoming. While a secretary of the club, generally handles the entries, individuals frequently send their personal entry. The most for 1921 promises to be an unmet success. In any event it will be played over a splendid course—the nine holes on the Amherst links being the equal, if not superior to any short course in the Dominion of Canada—Various improvements, as previously stated, have been made and the good work is being continued for the straight player, but to the man with a tendency to slice or pull, these will be certain sand pits, and real rough, it will need form for good recovery as well as steady nerves. Just who will carry off the honors is difficult to say at the moment, but there is no doubt that Mielko of the Brightwood Club, Dartmouth, will repeat. D. S. Biggs on his home course should chase the little fellow closely, particularly so in Cape Breton, where he is actually expected of defeating Mielko, a few dark horses may have invaded the ranks of maritime golf, but if the former champion, James Russell, now of Halifax, but who formerly belonged to the Amherst Club, is in form, he will be in among the leaders on the first day at least. While none of the golfers of last year are actually expected of defeating Mielko, a few dark horses may have invaded the ranks of maritime golf, but if the former champion, James Russell, now of Halifax, but who formerly belonged to the Amherst Club, is in form, he will be in among the leaders on the first day at least. Battling Ghee Wanted Chance and Got It—Champion Beat Him Up Badly.

Atlantic City, N. J., June 17.—No body will be able to convince Battling Ghee, a 165 pound negro from Memphis, Tenn., that any man has a chance to whip Jack Dempsey. Ghee waited for eight days for the opportunity to match his boxing skill against the champion's. Today that chance came and he was on the floor of Dempsey's outdoor arena three times in two rounds, and probably would have been down half a dozen times more if Dempsey had not been lenient.

Great Deal of Training in Secret—Members of Party Will All Keep Same Hours

Manhasset, N. Y., June 17.—Still more rigid rules were laid down today in the camp of Georges Carpentier. Trainer Gus Wilson announced that certain hours for work and play had been set aside and that no member of the camp would be permitted to leave his place without special permission. These restrictions, he said, were considered necessary in view of the fact that the challenger would do a great deal of training in secret during the rest of the training period. All members of the party will keep the same hours, from Georges to the cook.

Body Discovered by Repair Men

New York, June 17.—Almost nightly for two months a dog has been howling and whining for his master, who lay dead in his room at 42 Henry street and no one went near to find out what was the trouble. The janitor tried the door now and then, but could not get in, and either believed the roomer was dead or asleep and did not try to enforce demands for rent.

THIN HEAVY FRUIT SETS

Thinning in case of a heavy set of fruit is an operation which will amply repay the orchardist if judiciously applied.

One of the most effective methods of causing small fruit to decay in transit is to pack them in solid crates that afford little or no ventilation. A few years ago this was the manner in which early strawberries were packed for market. The result was that large quantities of strawberries arrived at market in bad condition, and the monetary returns to the grower were small, rather than they should have been.

THE U. S. TARIFF BILL

The Emergency Tariff Bill in the United States has been buttressed by two important legislative measures calculated to protect the industries of the United States and their workers against unfair competition from imported products. The first of these is the anti-dumping bill, which is a carefully prepared plan to prevent importation into the United States of goods offered at less than the value or sales price in the country of origin, or at values below the cost of production in the exporting country.

The man who had died there and been forgotten was John J. Moore, pardoned convict, who had been released from Sing Sing on July 1st, 1920. He jumped through the window, through which apparently he had returned from his long trip to maintain his vigil.

The Impromptu Fire Brigade

One of the jobs that Ted and Helen did every fall was to clean up the garden and make the yard tidy for the winter rest.

Then one bright morning in the middle of the winter, the sun came warm and the wind from the south, laden with every trace of snow.

"Spring's come!" called Helen, as she dashed into the house at lunch time. "Spring!" heered Ted, "don't ever look at your calendar! It won't be spring for ages yet!"

"All the same," insisted Helen, "I feel like spring. Let's go out in the yard and do something." She ran straight through the house and out into the back yard.

"Ted! Ted!" she exclaimed, "we never burned that grass!" "Well I never," added Ted, stupidly, "why didn't we?"

"Oh, I know now," said Helen. "Member that early snow storm, and how it came the very day we were burnt the grass?"

"That's correct," said Miss Frossie, "and, oh, Flossie, there is Professor Frog and his whole family right down there by the big stone. Let us step real quiet and hear what he has to say."

KNOW BABY CHICKENS BY COLOR MARKS

Both Breed and Sex Can be Distinguished at Early Age.

For the person who sets a hen with the object of securing "just a few chickens" for the fun of it, there may be some fun in guessing what kind of birds they are before the birds are hatched. It is, of course, impossible to establish the guess on the color and markings shown by the newly-hatched chicks. The poultry-raising enthusiast, however, or any person who keeps poultry with a view to securing satisfaction in the form of meat or egg supply, wants to know immediately if the chicks are hatched whether they are of the breed and variety looked for in setting specially-selected eggs under the hen or in the incubator.

The greater number of successful poultry breeders specialize on one or a few breeds, and can tell pretty exactly not only if the baby chicks are of the right breed, but also whether they are pullets or cockerels. This is done by observing the markings on the chicks, and by comparing the markings with those of the parent birds.

White Plymouth Rock chicks are nearly pure white, creamy-white or a bluish-gray when first hatched. The white and cream-colored ones are pullets, and the gray ones cockerels, in nearly every case.

White Rhode Island Red chicks are nearly pure white, creamy-white or a bluish-gray when first hatched. The white and cream-colored ones are pullets, and the gray ones cockerels, in nearly every case.

Black Rhoads produce chicks with white spots, especially on top of the head. Rhode Island Red chicks are of many gradations of color, from pure white to black.

Skim Milk Profitable For Pigs

The tendency of the farmer to ship all his supply of milk direct to market is one that always gives room for criticism, but yet excusable in many cases.

The tendency of the farmer to ship all his supply of milk direct to market is one that always gives room for criticism, but yet excusable in many cases. If the profit can be made with a minimum of labor the Dairyman does not readily persuade himself into the belief that to separate the milk and feed the skim-milk on the farm is worth while. But surely the milk is shipped to the creamery and the skim milk resold at a low price as 20 cents per 100 pounds, as is the case in the "Chilliwack Valley, B. C., at the present time, it would be well for farmers to make good use of that milk. It is questionable if the creamery more profitable returns any other way than by feeding up a number of pigs on a ration composed of skim milk in combination with grain.

With this object in view, therefore, a series of experiments in swine feeding was set on foot at the Experimental Farm, Agassiz, in the winter of 1917-18 and similar experiments have been carried on ever since. As a result of these experiments it is very interesting to note that in every case the larger the amount of milk fed the greater are the gains.

NOT TIME TO GIVE UP THE DAIRY HERD

Feed and Pasture Cheaper, and Labor Will Follow Before Long.

Prices for dairy products, which at present are so disappointing to farmers who have developed high producing herds at considerable expense during the past few years of high cost of everything that went into upkeep and improvement, are nothing other than an indication of how Canadian products of this character must meet world competition in normal times. This feature was emphasized by Dairy Commissioner Riddick in his address to the Dairyman's Association, held in winter, though it can hardly be conceived that he foresaw at that time so big a falling off in values as has occurred since.

Recommend Stock Raising.
An actual producer himself, and having had a wide experience of dairymaking from a national standpoint, E. H. Stonehouse of Weston, president of the Ontario Milk Producers' Association, is one who admits the impossibility of overcoming world competition in the marketing of our milk and dairy products, except by the production of most rigid economy.

Under normal field conditions, the plant produces seed carrying the virus which in turn produces diseased plants, and that the disease spreads in the field under normal conditions.

Control of Disease.
In view of the fact that diseased plants produce seed carrying the virus which in turn produces diseased plants, and that the disease spreads in the field under normal conditions, there are certain precautions which should be taken until more satisfactory methods have been discovered.

Treatment for Plant Lice.
If the roses or other plants become infested with plant lice, dust the attacked portions with pyrethrum powder, coating the insects in the operation. Tobacco dust is good also.

Yes, it wouldn't.
Wouldn't it be lovely if we could understand all the papers that are being read at the medical convention? Or would it be Boston Globe.

Pennsylvania Tests On Orchard Fertilization

The test is reported in Pennsylvania Orchard Bulletin, No. 153, which gives the results of a ten-year experiment on six orchards.

Discussing the results of the various constituents of fertilizers, the Bulletin points out the fact that an orchardist must closely study the condition of growth of his trees so as not to overdo the nitrogen addition to his soil, because if such a mistake is made it retards the ripening of the crop and tends to give the apples a poorer color. The more quickly acting nitrogen carriers show an advantage over slower acting forms.

With the development of the silo, many dairy cow owners have overlooked the value of roots as a succulent feed for cattle, mangels, carrots, and turnips are the principal roots grown for this purpose.

Home Consumption Growing.
As a result of persistent efforts by producers' associations in all parts of the country, home consumption of milk is beginning to show increase and the same can be said with regard to consumption of butter, though to a lesser extent.

Soil Should Be Rich.
The soil should be well enriched, and should be one that warms up quickly in the spring. Most growers regard sandy loam as best adapted to the culture of root crops, this being a large size and heavy yield.

Not all who keep chickens either in town or country know how to secure the best results from their flocks. For lack of knowledge the chicks often develop into spindly, legged, small-bodied, poor-layer creatures.

Just to Vary It.
If you are stuck just what to say on a postcard when you're on your vacation why not write something original like this:
Having the time of my life. Wish you were here.

BARE FALLOW TO KILL THE SOW THISTLE

Plow Late in June and Then Cultivate Until the Frost Comes in Fall.

The perennial sow thistle is found in many parts of Canada, and is a serious pest in certain sections. On account of the wind-distributed seed it is practically impossible to exterminate it unless an entire community co-operates. There is no single method of control applicable to all conditions.

Where the sow thistle occurs in small patches it may be eradicated by covering for an entire season with paper or other material that will completely exclude light.

Keep the surface of the beds continually loose; this retains the moisture and makes watering unnecessary except in the driest part of the summer.

Where All the Bugs There?
A chinch bug meeting will be held Thursday, May 19, at 2 o'clock in the afternoon, on the farm of Henry Ibsen, one-half mile northwest of Osprey—Clinton, Ill., Daily Public.

New York, June 17.—New low records for one to six years were established today in every important division of the list, as liquidation and short selling continued to force down prices in the stock exchange.

Some steadiness was manifested at the outset on short covering in Louisville and Nashville, induced by the proposed stock dividend. This was neutralized, however, by weakness of Crucible Steel, which forfeited almost three points on an overnight dividend cut.

FAILURES DURING WEEK

Toronto, June 17.—There were thirty four business failures reported in Canada during the week ending today, as compared with 18 during the corresponding week of last year, according to R. G. Dun & Company's report. Twelve of the past week's failures were in Quebec; 9 in Ontario; 9 in Saskatchewan; 3 in British Columbia, and one in Nova Scotia, while the other provinces had a clear sheet in this regard. Newfoundland had three failures last week.

In the left hand room occupied by the firm, there had been set to piles of gasoline soaked waste and the plant was full of gasoline vapor, according to the Fire Marshal, which made the work of the firemen extremely dangerous. Hose lines were run into the building and by quick work the firemen managed to put out the three fires alleged to have been set and then discovered the other "plants." The damage was not heavy.

Firm Deeply in Debt

Horowitz, who appeared at the plant in answer to a summons from the fire officials, was subjected to close questioning by Fire Marshal Brophy, and it was said admitted that the firm was $50,000 in debt and carried heavy insurance. A statement was submitted by No. Albert Joseph, a broker, according to the Marshal, in which it was stated that Horowitz had taken out $25,000 additional fire insurance through Joseph last month. The complaint against Horowitz was sworn to by Detectives P. J. Shawlin and G. Heidt, who aided Marshal Brophy in making the investigation.

Firemen Found Fuses Set to Gasoline Soaked Piles of Waste.

New York, June 9.—Investigation of a fire that partly destroyed the fur manufacturing establishment of Hersh and Son & Horowitz, 112 West Twenty-fourth street, Fire Marshal Thos. P. Brophy said yesterday, revealed the most thorough "planting" of any incendiary fire of recent years.

Harry Horowitz, 36, of 1201 Boston road, The Bronx, a partner in the firm, was arrested and on arraignment yesterday in Jefferson Market Court was held in $5,000 bail on a charge of arson. Horowitz pleaded not guilty and was held for examination next Thursday.

Firemen reached the burning building at 11.15 o'clock Saturday night. Marshal Brophy said, and discovered three separate fires and three other places where waste and oil had been scattered.

Funnels and Confidence. According to a statement by an official of the C. P. R., the number of funnels possessed by a liner is of some importance when the vessel is employed on the Pacific. Advice received here yesterday from Vancouver state that many enquiries have been made by Hindoo in that city as to whether the C. P. R. liner Empress of China, formerly the Prinz Friedrich Wilhelm, has one stack of three. Hindoos, it is said, firmly believe that the more funnels the vessel has the more safety, comfort and speed, and it is almost impossible to get them to book passages on a ship possessing only one. More than once dummy funnels have been rigged up on Pacific liners solely to please Hindoo passengers.

AROUND THE CITY

TAX BILLS OUT SOON. The Mayor said yesterday that he expected that the assessment would be filed and the city tax bills distributed about the first of the week.

ON THE SATURDAY. Mrs. Alexander Malcolm, of this city, and son, Charles, are passengers on the Saturday sailing from Montreal today for Glasgow. They left here Thursday for Montreal to embark on the steamer for Glasgow, where they will remain through the summer, returning home about the middle of September.

MAY BE OIL DEPOSIT. John Jenkins of Grand Bay is thinking he may have a deposit of oil on his property. Recently when a workman was digging he came across some earth which gave forth a strong smell of oil and when some of the clay was thrown into a brook particles of oil floated on the top of the water. Samples are to be sent to Ottawa for analysis.

MUST GET THEM AWAY. It was announced at City Hall yesterday morning that unless drivers of motor trucks and cars requiring licenses took out their permits before Monday, they would be reported and prosecuted. It is understood that many of the owners delayed securing licenses to wait the result of an appeal to the Mayor to reduce the license fee. The Mayor has informed them that it will be impossible to reduce the fee this year and the matter will have to be taken up next year.

WILL CLOSE STATION. A memorandum has been issued by the Department of Marine and Fisheries advising that the radio telegraph coast station on Partridge Island will be closed on July 1. Commercial traffic previously handled through this station will be dealt with after that date by the direction finding station at Red Head. The commercial messages will be received at a radius of 400 metres. The direction finding business to remain at 400 metres after communication has been established first at 600 metres.

Solution of The Police Dog Mystery

"Carlo," Faithful Chum of Policemen, Gathered in by Catcher.

Carlo, the little black spaniel who has taken it upon himself to patrol the northern division of the city with Police Sergeant McEneaney, and who also takes a friendly interest in all the other cops at central station, sprang into prominence yesterday. He had been missing for the past few days and all interested in him were in a quandary as to his whereabouts when it was found he had fallen prey to the dog catcher.

William Merritt was arrested on Thursday night, but managed to evade the police until last night. One drunk was also arrested and two prostitutes passed the night in the cells.

Enforcement Crew In Deep Puzzle

Coming of Circus Causes Them Anxiety—Nearly Stop Performances.

There is always something happening to take the joy out of life. If it isn't one thing, it is something else. Sandy Crawford and his band of Sleuths, looking after the enforcement of the prohibitory law, are always hunting the circus when it enters the city. They have the disagreeable habit of rooting into places where they are not welcomed to see if liquor is being dispensed. They sometimes drop into a man's place of business when the glasses have the speckled barbed wire juice; a very inopportune time for the proprietor, and make work for the courts. This is a bothersome crowd that "Sandy" marshals.

Circus Starts Trouble. The coming of the circus has sent "Sandy's" troupe on a new quest. They have also become angry at rebuffs received. "Sandy" was bound to search the circus when it entered the province. The circus, for the most part, had no objection to being searched, but some made an objection. Because of this objection "Sandy" became angry, and was going to spoil the fun for all by not allowing the circus to show here on Monday.

Elephant Objects. It develops that the elephants absolutely refused to open up their trunks to "Sandy" and his men. All had "long necks." "Sandy" was puzzled and didn't know how to proceed. He knew he must do his duty, and with the defiance of the prohibitory laws approaching he had to get busy.

He consulted the statute books for information. In a late edition of the "Journal" he found a "Receipt" by Hon. Chief Justice Leon, Chapter 137, section IV, beginning with the fifth line, said: "An elephant, when travelling, has the right to protect his trunk at any place, and at all times. He can not be forced to open it up except when persons are plentiful, and this is left to the wishes of the kids."

Section VIII of the same chapter sets forth that the Giraffe is a creature in the enjoyment of special privileges and is exempt from the "long neck" and is immune from mandates of all prohibitory laws.

This "Receipt" relieved "Sandy" from a tremendous responsibility and he will not attempt to block the circus on Monday.

Instructors For City Playgrounds

Young Men Have Been Appointed to Position and Will Also Act as Caretakers.

An innovation has been introduced into the city playgrounds this year which is the appointment of young men instructors who will also act as care takers on the grounds. It has been felt that in the past, the boys have not received quite the attention they should and thus this idea has been adopted which it is hoped will systematize the work and prove satisfactory.

Three young men from the Y. M. C. A. and one from the Y. M. C. I. have been selected, all of whom have had experience in teaching or dealing with their sports. Mr. Crowley, who has recently graduated from Collège, is the fifth instructor appointed by the Playgrounds Association committee.

New material is to be used in the basketball this year at the grounds and pupils will, as usual, prepare for an exhibition in the autumn. Twelve teachers have completed the training course held recently and the young men instructors also attended the excellent lectures given.

H. J. Rodgers Gets New Appointment

Now Maritime Representative of Firestone Tire and Rubber Co.

H. J. Rodgers, who recently severed his connection with the Dunlop Rubber Co., has been appointed Maritime representative of the Firestone Tire and Rubber Co. of Hamilton, Ont. Mr. Rodgers will make his headquarters in St. John, with complete charge of sales, organization, etc., and all matters pertaining to this company's interests in the Maritime Provinces. The Firestone Tire and Rubber Co. are an exceptionally large organization, their products are known all over the continent, and they enjoy the reputation of being the largest exclusive manufacturer of Pneumatic Automobile and Solid Truck Tires in the world, their Akron plant maximum capacity being thirty-six thousand tires per day.

Netherwood's Fine Program Enjoyed

Closing at Rotheasy Yesterday Attended by Many—Excellent Showing Made.

Netherwood closing is an occasion which is always looked forward to by the many friends of this splendid school. Yesterday's programme seemed to surpass even the many excellent ones of previous years, and Miss Gausson, the principal, Miss Stoddard, and the staff, were highly congratulated upon the fine showing made by the pupils.

The graduating class of eight received certificates. Not only these young ladies with their pretty gowns and bouquets of flowers, but the entire school assembled upon the platform or moving about the lawn, made a delightful picture.

Particularly praised for its poetic conception, artistic costumes and graceful execution were the dances of the stars and moon, in which Miss Ethel Powell gave the moon dance. The little girls' numbers were greatly admired, as were the many Welsh dance and the precision of the wand drill.

Netherwood colors, yellow and white, were evidence in the daisy chain decorations of the rooms, and on the wands and balls used in drills and games.

The programme consisted of: Piano solos by Miss P. Richardson and Miss Lunnam; a violin solo by Miss M. Lunnam; a song by Miss Lella Bouillon; two selections by the Glee Club of the school under the direction of Mr. Ford; and two songs by the school.

Assault Charge Was Dismissed

Police Magistrate Censured Officer and Defendant—Evidence in Theft Charge.

A charge of resisting and assaulting a police officer, Policeman Lindsay, preferred against Frederick Hayes for an incident that occurred on the East End grounds some few days ago, was dismissed by Magistrate Ritchie in the police court yesterday morning.

The magistrate said a charge of resistance could not be preferred against the accused, as he was not under lawful arrest. While reprehending Officer Lindsay for unnecessary violence, he at the same time censured Hayes' conduct, which, he said, was not above reproach. E. J. Henneberry appeared for Hayes and J. A. Barry for Lindsay.

It is said that an action may be brought against the officer by the defendant. The chief of police stated yesterday that Lindsay would be retained on the force, and no notice taken of the matter.

Several witnesses gave evidence in the case of Harry Brittain, charged with the theft of a pair of rubber boots from D. Bassen's store, Charlotte street.

According to the evidence, the accused disposed of the boots at Isaac's second-hand store under the assumed name of Frank Carney. The case was further postponed for another day.

Frank Lewis, George McArthur, Frank Carson and F. E. Williams, reported by the police for not fencing the second lots in various parts of the city, agreed to have the matter attended to immediately.

Jeremiah McIntyre, the Market Slip fish merchant, was reported for selling fish without a license. As the city council is awaiting a report as to whether or not he is within his rights, the magistrate decided to allow the matter to stand over until next Thursday.

Ernest Mann Was Struck by Ford Motor Truck on Charlotte Street Yesterday.

Ernest Mann, of Campbell street, received painful injuries at about 3.30 o'clock yesterday afternoon when he was run into and knocked off his feet by a Ford motor truck bearing the license tag X 987. The accident occurred at the junction of Charlotte and South Market streets. The driver of the truck turned into Charlotte street without perceiving Mann, and crashed right into his wheel. The rider was thrown some distance and received a blow over the temple, a severe laceration of the forehead, and a cracked nose and a skinned face.
