WHEN I MEAN TO MARRY.

BY JOHN G. SAXE. When I mean to marry ?- Well-'Tis idle to dispute with fate; But if you choose to hear me tell, Pray listen while I fix the date.

When daughters haste with eager feet, A mother's daily toil to share Can make the puddings which they eat, And men's the stockings which they week

When maidens look upon a man As in himself that they would marry, And not as army soldiers scan A sutler or a commissary ;

When gent'e laides who have got The offer of a lover's hand Consent to share his "earthly lot" And do not mean his lot of land.

To find and wed the farmers girls, Who don't expect to be endowed. With rubies, diamonds and pearls.

Their hearts and hands to aid their spouses And live as they were wont to live. Within their sires' one-story houses.

Then maiden-if I'm net too old-Rejoice to quit this lonely life, Fil brush my beaver cease to scold, And look about me for a wife!
