CAUGHT AND CONFESSED.

Solution of a Michigan Murder Mystery—The Assassin and His Victim Both Identified.

CHARLOTTE, Mich., Feb. 3.—City Marshal Ed. Bates, of Lansing, and Deputy Sheriff James Skinner landed in Charlotte, Eaton county, at midnight, with the supposed murderer of the young girl found in Grand River, near Dimondale. The ferreting out of the crime and the arrest are due to the clever detective work of Bates. The girl was Nellie Griffin and she left Coldwater last Wednesday with a man calling himself Hendershot. She was 12 years of age, with dark blue eyes and very fair complexion. She was sent to the State public school three years ago. Last Tuesday an old man, who gave his name as Hendershot, a farmer of Parma, Jackson county, called at the school and asked for a girl to work in his family. He answered every question so satisfactorily and seemed so amiable and pleasant that on Wednesday Supt. Newkirk let him have the Griffin girl, after wiring the county agent at Jackson to keep an eye on her welfare.

The body found in Grand River corresponded to the description of Nellie Griffin. The officers having learned of Nellie's leaving the school as stated above, wired to Jackson, and finding that no such man as Hendershot lived in Parma they at once drove to Dimondale and arrested Edward Canfield, an old farm hand employed by C. Harrison, near Dimondale, who answered to the description of the man who was seen on the train with the girl, and who got off with her at Dimondale.

After being locked up the prisoner confessed his real name was Russell C. Canfield. He went to Jonesville Tuesday, and then to Coldwater, and said he told Supt. Newkirk he was from Parma, and asked for a girl. He did not see the girl until she was brought to him by the school employes at the depot. When he left the train at Dimondale he started for Harrison's house, but struck off through the wood and finally the two sat down on the log by the water, where the body was found.

"The girl began to cry," he said, "and I threw her on the ground and choked her to death with one hand. She did not struggle or scream. After her death I took off her clothes and threw her into the hole where she was found. I did not outrage the girl and I have no idea why I killed her. I must have been insane." The murderer also added that no one was implicated in the crime. He took the clothes to Harrison's and buried them under the cowshed floor and then calmly went to bed.

"I wish I had been shot dead," he moaned at the end; "I don't know what made me do it."

A CHECKERED LIFE.

Five Times Married and Hangs Herself at Last.

CHICAGO, Feb. 3.—Further search of the papers left by Mrs. Catherine McKnight, the old lady who committed suicide by hanging yesterday, shows her life was made up of thrilling and romantic events. She had five husbands, and from three of them she secured divorces. During the civil war she was a persistent and troublesome spy, and many of her wild escapades are known. She was born in New Hampshire in 1830. Her maiden name was Catherine Williams. When but 18 year old she met Harry Wilson, a dashing young fellow, and fell in love with him. Her parents objected to the match and the pair eloped. When war was declared her young husband hurried to the front and not many months elapsed before Mrs. Wilson went after him. She was installed in the quarters of the New Hampshire regiment and became the daughter of the regiment. During April, 1863, her husband was captured by the Confederates while on a secret mission and sent off to the Louisville prison. "The soldiers' lassie," as everybody called her, waited in vain for the return of her husband. It was many months before she learned his fate. She then decided to become a Union spy and go to Louisville, and if possible, obtain her husband's release. She spent many months about the prison in futile efforts to have the young prisoner of war liberated.

One day she succeeded in securing a pass to the prison, and wearing a suit of men's clothing beneath her garments she was conducted to her husband's cell. He hastily donned her garments and succeeded in passing the walls, but before he had a chance to make good his escape he was shot and killed. Mrs. Wilson was tried and sentenced to death, but she succeeded in eluding her guards and escaping a few days before the time set for her execution.

When the war was over she drifted about the country and in 1870 she married Patrick Dailey, a noted convict, but before she had lived with him a year he was caught while entering a house in Canada and sent to an English prison for a long term.

She secured a divorce from him, and in 1875 married another convict named Daniel Matthews. He also was caught for some of his deeds and sent to prison.

During 1879 she married William McDougal, a forger, and lived with him until 1881, when he died from the effects of a New Orleans policeman's bullet which he received while trying to escape arrest.

One year afterwards she married Joseph McKnight, her fifth and last husband. In less than two years she secured a divorce from him.

BEHRING SEA.

The U. S. Supreme Court Grants Leave to File an Application in the Sayward Case.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 3.—The Supreme Court of the United States, contrary to the predictions of the most eminent lawyers who practice before it, has granted to the counsel representing the British Government and the Attorney-General of Canada leave to file an application for a writ of prohibition to prevent the District Court of Alaska from proceeding to carry out its decree of forfeiture in the case of the schooner Sayward, libeled for unlawfully taking seals within the waters of Behring Sea. The rule is made returnable the second Monday in April. The preliminary question has thus been settled in favor of the owners of the schooner Sayward and the representatives of the British Government, and the case must now be discussed upon its merits.

The Supreme Court did not decide the point that the Court of Alaska was not a United States Court, but it indirectly rebuked counsel for having raised that point. The criticism is a little severe on the lawyers for the United States that too much argument has been spent on that point, for the language of this statute is clearly in the line of authority being given to the Supreme Court of the United States to issue writs of prohibition in admiralty and district courts in the United States or to any court appointed under the authority of the United States. Whether the so-called District Court in Alaska is a district court or not it is clearly a court created under the authority of the United States.

This brief suggestion of the chief justice therefore sweeps away a very elaborate cardboard structure, which had been built up on the argument that the court in Alaska was not a district court in that territory. There was no intimation, however, in the statement of the chief justice from which any conclusion can be reached as to the probable decision on the case upon its merits. It is significant, negatively, that the Supreme Court has decided that it has jurisdiction, yet it does not follow that because the court takes jurisdiction it will not decide after hearing arguments upon the merits that the matter being under consideration by the executive branch of the Government, through the ordinary channels of diplomacy, it is not expedient to exercise such power. The court has simply decided that it has technical jurisdiction over the case to review the action of the court in Alaska in condemning the schooner Sayward to forfeiture.

PARIS, Feb. 4.—In an interview to-day in regard to the decision of the United States Supreme Court in the case of the schooner Sayward, libeled for unlawful taking of seal in Behring Sea, ex-Chief Justice Caseot said he would have decided exactly as Justice Fuller had. Nothing similar had ever occurred in France, but he could not conceive how the Supreme Court could otherwise pronounce. Associate Judge Herrison said that such a decision in France, although probably right, would have caused a great debate in the Chambers.

Bogus Gold Fields.

THACKERVILLE, I. T., Feb. 3.—Several months ago there was considerable excitement in and about Ardmore regarding the rich gold discovery in the Arbuckle Mountains, during which the great Anvil Rock Mining Company was incorporated and capitalized to the amount of $100,000,000. A large amount of stock was sold. It is now alleged that parties went to California and brought back specimens of gold exhibited there as found on the claim of the Anvil Rock Company. The company is willing to sell out for $100,000.

A Canadian Killed at Buffalo.

Y., Feb. 4.—Wallace Harrington, aged 25 years, a native of Canada, and employed as a fireman on train 51 of the Lake Shore railroad, was fatally injured in a collision near Ripley, Chautauqua county, yesterday morning. He was taken to Brocton, where he died. The collision was between two freight trains. One was backing into a siding when the other came rushing along and ran into it. The engine of train 51 was overturned, burying Harrington in the wreck.

Charged with Murder.

A Manitoba Government detective was in St. Marys on Saturday and arrested Mrs. Carruthers (nee Ellen Slack, of Blanshard,) on a charge of murdering her husband, T. B. Carruthers, whose tragic death near Rat Portage under suspicious circumstances was related in a recent issue. The woman has a large circle of friends in St. Marys and the neighboring township who feel keenly for her in the unenviable position in which recent events have placed her and who trust she will be able to clear herself of the suspicion which has been aroused.—[St. Marys Herald.

Bradlaugh's Silent Burial.

LONDON, Feb. 4.—The remains of the late Charles Bradlaugh were yesterday placed to rest in the cemetery at Woking. Special trains from London conveyed 1,500 admirers of the great freethinker to the Surrey town. In accordance with arrangement's previously agreed upon, the ceremonies were of the simplest kind. Many of those who followed the body to the cemetery wore various colored ribbons in their hats. About 2,000 people gathered around the grave. Among those present were John Morley, Henry Labouchere, Mrs. Besant and a number of members of the House of Commons. The coffin was covered with floral wreaths, but no mourning garments were worn, nor was there any display of crape or black cloth. Complete silence was maintained by all who gathered around the grave.

Coughs and Colds are often overlooked. A continuance for any length of time causes irritation of the Lungs or some chronic Throat Disease. BROWN'S BRONCHIAL TROCHES are offered, with the fullest confidence in their efficacy, giving almost invariably sure and immediate relief. 25 cents a box.

THE OPORTO UPRISING.

Attempt to Involve the Portuguese—Fifty Persons Killed and Two Hundred Wounded.

LISBON, Feb. 4.—One result of the inquiry made by the military and civil authorities into the cause of the revolt of troops at Oporto on Saturday is the discovery that an effort was made to involve the Portuguese navy in the uprising. Two sergeants of marines belonging to the Sagres, a Government corvette, lying in the roads outside of Oporto, endeavored to incite the crew of that vessel to mutiny and seize the ship. The sergeants were arrested while trying to arrange for the proposed plot. One of the sergeants, named Cardoso, when questioned, declared he was a supporter of the project to establish a federal republic, having its seat of government at Oporto and independent of Lisbon. He added that it was expected the movement in Oporto would have the support of the Spanish revolutionary party. A decree just issued announces that all crimes connected with the rising at Oporto come under the jurisdiction of the military tribunals. This is interpreted to mean that all the civilians as well as the soldiers connected with the revolt will be tried by martial law, and that the ringleaders will probably be shot. It is now stated 50 persons were killed and 200 injured in the fight following the revolt of the garrison at Oporto.

An insurgent leader declares it was the intention of the insurgents to sack Oporto and shoot all officials.

In the struggle the cane changed hands, and the mayor received several blows. Heavy bruises were inflicted and both bled profusely. Jones soon left town on the train. Word was arrested and placed under bonds for aggravated assault and for carrying a pistol. He declares he had no intention of doing anything further than caning Jones.

Fatal Wrestling Match.

HOPKINTON, Mass., Feb. 4.—McGlown, of Natick, and Burns, of Marlboro, fought seventeen stubborn rounds here yesterday morning. Burns was laid out. Michael Mahoney, of Marlboro, and Charles Hilferty, of Hopkinton, entertained the spectators before the fight with a mock wrestling match. Mahoney fell, striking the floor with such force as to render him insensible. He was soon revived, and his condition was not considered dangerous, but later his skull was found to be fractured, and congestion of the brain set in, from which he died at 2:15 p.m. He was 35 years old, and leaves a wife and three children.

The Population of London is about 40,000, and we should say at least one-half are troubled with some affection of the Throat and Lungs, as those complaints are, according to statistics, more numerous than others. Sold by all druggists. zxv

A Pointer.

The Manufacturers' Life Insurance Company and the Manufacturers' Accident Insurance Company, Traders' Bank Building, Toronto, have two separate and distinct charters, stock capital, Government deposits, etc., but are under the same management. Thus the two companies can issue a combination of life and accident insurance never before presenting to the insuring public. To professional men and all others who are likely to incur serious pecuniary inconvenience when laid aside by any casualty, such policies are fitted to prove a great boon. They afford a more complete protection than life policies alone, and do so at a comparatively small additional cost and may be applied to all plans of life insurance.

Hundreds of thousands of life policies have lapsed and been surrendered in consequence of financial difficulties occasioned by personal accident; while in a similar circumstance combined life and accident policies would have proved a source of revenue instead of embarrassment in time of need. This improved system of compensation for injury renders its policies much more valuable than any other policy issued. 53f

THE GUILLOTINE.

Murderer Eyraud Meets His Fate with Firmness.

PARIS, Feb. 3.—Michel Eyraud, the murderer of the notary Gouffe, was guillotined at 7:20 o'clock this morning.

Eyraud met his fate with fortitude or sullen resignation. There were few witnesses of the execution, owing to the fact that it was not generally known that the famous criminal would meet his fate to-day. When the governor of the prison, La Roquet, and the prison chaplain, Abbe Faure, were ushered into Eyraud's cell a short time previous to the hour fixed for the condemned man's execution, they found he was already up and dressed, evidently forewarned, contrary to the rules, by some kind-hearted prison official. Eyraud declined a glass of cognac which was tendered him by one of the wardens, and in spite of the earnest solicitations of Abbe Faure, the murderer positively — even angrilly—refused to listen to the priest's prayers, to pray himself, or to have any religious rites performed in his behalf.

The abbe's pleading with the criminal in that dark cell this morning, while within and without the prison all preparations were made to usher the sullen prisoner into another world, was probably the most solemn and dramatic incident in the execution.

But Eyraud's iron will was not to be shaken even in the presence of death, and he continued impatiently to refuse religious consolation while on the death march to the guillotine. When pinioned and on the point of being overturned on the bascull of the guillotine, upon the plank which was to glide beneath the fatal suspended knife, Eyraud, with a movement as if of angry contempt or resentment refused to return the last kiss bestowed upon him by Abbe Faure, as is customary in the case of criminals on the point of being executed.

The action of the guillotine, once Eyraud's neck was well beneath the uprights, was instantaneous. There was a flash, and all was over. Eyraud's head had fallen into the sawdust-filled receptacle which awaited it. Then followed the usual mock funeral, and the body of Gouffe's murderer was handed over to Eyraud's friends.

PARIS, Feb. 4.—Before Eyraud was strapped to the guillotine he gazed at the faces around him and then angrily exclaimed: "Constans, the Minister of the Interior, was right. He has won his case, won his prize. He will be to-night with Gabrielle. What grand personage is going to decorate Gabrielle Bompard?" When within a few feet of the fatal block Eyraud eluded the executioners for a moment and loudly and angrily shouted to the assembled crowd, "Constans is a murderer. He is more a murderer than I am. Constans is ——" Before he could complete the sentence the executioners seized the murderer, threw him upon the inclined plank of the guillotine, Deibler pressed the knob, and the flashing blade suspended over Eyraud's neck fell with a sharp, sliding sound, and the head of Gouffe's assassin rolled into the basket below.

ABOUT HAIR

Editor of the ADVERTISER:

Sir,—I have, as you know, for some time advertised in Canada and the States a prescription for the hair called "Dr. Dorenwend's Hair Magic." I have received some thousands of flattering testimonials from those who have used it as to its merits as a restorative of gray or faded hair; also as a promoter of the growth and a certain cure for dandruff.

A great many of my correspondents ask the questions: "Why is my hair turning gray so early? Why is my hair falling out?" As it is impossible for me to answer every one, I take the liberty of encroaching on your valuable space to make a general reply. A great many persons do not seem to be aware that excessive washing and rubbing is injurious to the growth of the hair; such is the case, however. Constant washing and rubbing the scalp and hair causes over irritation and removes the oily substance which gives strength to the hair; undue heat caused by the wearing of heavy headgear is also injurious. Anything that will tend to dry up the sap or life of the hair will cause dandruff, falling out of the hair, gray or faded hair and finally baldness. Of course there are other causes as diseases, hereditary tendencies, etc., but the first mentioned are the main and most common.

Dr. Dorenwend, an eminent German physician, has given to the world after years of toil and experiment his now famous "Hair Magic.' The object of this preparation is to assist nature in the production of this oily substance absolutely necessary to the growth of the hair. It is now sold by all reliable druggists at $1 per bottle, or six bottles for $5, or will be sent on receipt of price to any address. See that each wrapper bears the seal and signature of the manufacturer.

A. DORENWEND,
103 and 105 Yonge street
Toronto, Canada.

Trial of the Pyx.

Man's inhumanity to man, and man's inhumanity to himself, makes countless thousands mourn. Life is hardly worth the trouble it takes to live it, for the majority of men before they get through with it are heartily sick of it. The trials of the Pyx to men and metals are many and severe, and the trial by accident one of the severest, for in most cases the tests are damaged in the process. Man's ingenuity in devising a protection for things numismatic in the trial of the Pyx has also devised a scheme for the protection of man when tried by as severe a test, foremost of which are the liberal and comprehensive systems of Accident Insurance operated by the Manufacturers' Accident Insurance Company, Traders' Bank Building, Toronto. 53i

Home News.

How pleasant the long looked-for home letter is and how eagerly expected, and yet how seldom it is all that it should be—interesting, truthful and full of comfort. A London letter which might well serve as a model and carry comfort to thousands was received a few days since by Messrs. T. Milburn & Co., of Toronto, and has been inserted at the foot of this paragraph by request. It will pay you to read it:

Gentlemen,—Four years ago my little boy, then only 4 years old, took a boil on his right leg just above the ankle, which was so bad that erysipelas set in, and in spite of care spread up to his body, and I became frightened that it would kill him before it was checked. Having a bottle of Burdock Blood Bitters in the house I gave him some, and quickly noticed a change, and at the end of a week or so he was cured. Fifteen months afterward he was taken in the same way, and I again gave him B. B. B., half a bottle of which effected a complete cure, and he has not been ill a day since. I feel satisfied your medicine saved his life. Yours sincerely, W. H. ALLISON, London, Ont. bd&w

REFORMERS MEET.

Delegates Appointed to the Coming Liberal Convention.

Short, Spicy Speeches and Unlimited Enthusiasm—Better Trade Relations with the States—The Coming Battle.

A most enthusiastic gathering was that which filled the commodious rooms of the Young Liberal Club in the Oddfellows' Hall last evening, when the adjourned meeting of the Reform Association was held. Every one seemed to enter into the spirit of the affair, and a great deal of vim and energy were manifested, particularly among the younger members.

In the absence of the president, Mr. Geo. C. Gibbons, the chair was taken by Mr. F. Leonard, and Mr. Thos. A. Browne acted as secretary pro tem. The committee appointed to nominate the officers for the ensuing year reported the selection of Mr. V. Cronyn as president and Mr. J. Macpherson as secretary. The recommendations of the committee were unanimously ratified.

Mr. Cronyn on taking the chair expressed his thanks for the honor conferred, and spoke a few words in an encouraging and hopeful strain.

The following ward committees were appointed to arrange matters in connection with the Toronto convention, and to appoint the vice-presidents:

No. 1 ward—Mr. John Campbell and Ald. Connors.
No. 2 ward—Messrs. J. W. Little and A. O. Jeffery.
No. 3 ward—Mr. Frank Leonard and Dr. Gardiner.
No. 4 ward—Messrs. J. B. McKillop and W. T. Edge.

Wards 5 and 6 are not a part of the city for Dominion elections.

Mr. George M. Reid was appointed convener of the above committee.

Ex-Mayor Cowan was then called on for a few remarks. He expressed his pleasure at the interest manifested by the large attendance and hoped the Reform party would stand shoulder to shoulder in the forthcoming fight. The colors of the Conservative party had already been nailed to the mast and they would stick to their National Policy and high "protective" tariff. The speaker had seen this tried and had witnessed its failure. Nine out of ten of those who had been ardent in support of the N. P. were now heartily sick of it. There had been a vast change of sentiment both in the rural districts and in the cities. He was very sorry that the Government's intention was evidently by using the old lists to refuse the franchise to many who were justly entitled to it. The list of voters should be revised. The Government stated distinctly last session that there would be no necessity of paying attention to the voters' lists as the census would be taken and another revision occur before the election and that the House would meet before that election. If they broke faith with the people of Canada and with every citizen they were all the more worthy of contempt. "I will do my utmost," concluded Mr. Cowan, "and I hope that the spirit shown here is but an earnest of the work that will carry the election. I have no idea who will be the standard-bearer for either party in this city, but it is my intention to do my best for the nominee of the Reform party, whoever he may be."

Dr. Gardiner was the next to say a few words. He spoke forcibly of the injustice of depriving many men of their votes—robbing them of their rights for the sake of the whim of a party. Yet nothing else could be expected; they would sell their country to get to power. They shouted "Loyalty, loyalty," yet do without a blush the very things which ruin their country's chances of progress. "Now we know that we have to take our stand for freer trade relations and we have made up our minds to fight for all we are worth."

Mr. J. W. Little made a short, encouraging speech.

Mr. John Cameron addressed the meeting. Referring to the demands of their opponents for minute details of the Opposition policy, Mr. Cameron said it was time enough to go into minute details when it became necessary to assume the responsibilities of office, and he would advise fighting the campaign, not on details, but on broad, general lines.

Mr. Frank Leonard felt that the point brought forward by Mr. Cameron as to the Liberal party's policy was indeed a good one. When the Conservatives had cried for votes and talked of their great prospects for the people they promised they would fix things all right if they only got the votes. And they have "fixed" them sure enough—but there was no knowing where their promises had been kept. There had been two distinctive policies before the country, but the fight should be on broad lines and not on variable details.

The meeting adjourned in order to give the special committee an opportunity of preparing their list of delegates to Toronto.

CRAWFORD CONDEMNED.

The Council Decides that He Is Not a Suitable Servant.

A Motion to Secure a Full Investigation Is Voted Down.

Messrs. John Elliott & Sons Secure the Exemption of 1890 Taxes—The License Reduction Bylaw Receives Its Third Reading.

Electrician Crawford's percentages and his methods of obtaining them was by far too interesting a subject for any of the aldermen to miss, and consequently every member was in his chair when Mayor Taylor opened last evening's session of the City Council. While all the members expressed their hearty disapproval of the actions of Mr. Crawford, there was also a feeling current at the board that he was not the only city official deserving of censure in that connection. An effort was made to secure a special committee to investigate the whole matter, but it was voted down. The discussion on the charges was introduced by the reading of the special report of No. 3 Committee. Following this the letters written by Crawford and Chief Roe, as previously published, were read and re-read until Chairman Fitzgerald panting for want of breath grasped, "Well, gentlemen, I am getting tired of this." After a desultory discussion of about an hour and a half's duration the report of the committee was adopted, and the electrician was thereby pronounced an undesirable public servant.

THE COMMITTEE'S FINDING.

The report of the committee was as follows:

Negotiations were entered into between the city of London and the town of London East for amalgamation early in the year 1885. The terms of amalgamation were agreed upon by a report of a joint committee appointed by the two councils, and the electors of London East voted in favor of amalgamation on March 2, 1885. A bill was passed by the Local Legislature and received the sanction of the Lieutenant-Governor on March 30, 1885. The only thing remaining then to be done to render amalgamation complete was some minor details respecting assets and a statement of the proportion of the county debt which the city should assume. These details were afterwards settled by arbitration.

As soon as the vote for amalgamation was carried in Londen East the city, feeling that amalgamation was certain, agreed at once with London East to give the use of the fire department and to extend the fire alarm system in that part of the city, and it is in connection with this part of the arrangement that the difficulty occurred out of which these charges now arise. The letters of Mr. Crawford are dated respectively May 28, June 2, 9, 10 and 22 and July 13, all subsequent to the amalgamation proceedings.

It seems the matter was made known to ex-Ald. Stringer, who at that time was chairman of the Fire, Water and Gas Committee, but for some reason or other he took no steps to investigate the charges. The money paid to Crawford by London East was paid in the first instance out of the London East treasury, but was charged to the city as an asset on the completion of amalgamation.

Your committee are of the opinion that Mr. Crawford was not justified in receiving pay from London East at the time, and we regard his letters to Mr. Anderson as wholly unjustifiable and his whole conduct as reprehensible, and considering that the interests in the department superintended by him are wholly at his mercy we do not regard him as a suitable person to further fill the position.

A communication from Electrician Crawford, asking that the charges against him be formulated and put in writing, and that he be furnished with a copy of the same previous to his being cited for his defense, was read in connection with the report.

Ald. Scarrow asked if Electrician Crawford had had a chance to defend himself.

"Yes, he was present at the meeting of the committee," replied Chairman Fitzgerald. "He said that he would be ready at any time with his defense."

Ald. Ivey thought the charges looked too much like raking up old sores. The chief of the fire department and the aldermen had had the matter brought to their notice several years before, and if there were any other dirty hands among the city's servants he suggested that the prayer of the electrician be granted so that all the dirty hands might be washed at once. He moved accordingly.

Ald. Connors moved that the report be adopted. "It is not our duty to do any whitewashing," said the new representative from No. 1. "Of course I do not think that Mr. Anderson has done a proper thing in holding this matter over Mr. Crawford's head for this length of time, but we cannot control the actions of Mr. Anderson and we can and must control the actions of our servant, Mr. Crawford."

Chairman Fitzgerald was somewhat disappointed in that Ald. Connor had forstalled him in the motion for the adoption of the report. "As chairman of No. 3 Committee," he said, "I should have been much pleased to have moved the adoption of the report. As Ald. Connor has said, we have nothing to do with the actions of Mr. Anderson, but we must say whether our servants shall be bought and sold. We have a right to expect our servants to answer all questions honestly, but I must say I think that as a servant of this Council Mr. Crawford's usefulness is gone.

Aldermen Judd, Skinner and O'Meara expressed sorrow at having to cast a vote in favor of dismissing an old servant of the city, but they could not do otherwise than support the report in view of the evidence adduced.

Mr. Essery asked on behalf of his client that an extension of time be granted. "There is no reason" he said, "why both sides of this story should not be told. My client has been a servant of this Board for many years, and these documents are several years old. The charges should have been investigated years ago. If they were true and had been passed over years ago, then a fraud has been committed. The whole matter could be best sifted with a special committee," explained the pleader.

Ald. Ivey moved in amendment that Aldermen Taylor, W. W. Fitzgerald, Winnett, F. J. Fitzgerald, Scarrow and Judd constitute a committee of investigation respecting all charges made in the correspondence.

Ald. Gartshore seconded the motion.

Ald. Ivey asked for leave to amend his motion, empowering the committee to take all evidence under oath.

Ald. W. W. Fitzgerald rose to a point of order. "The committee cannot be empowered to take evidence under oath," said he.

"The matter can be referred to the county judge if it is desirable to take evidence under oath," added the mayor.

Ald. Gartshore—If the evidence cannot be taken under oath there can be no use for the committee.

The amendment was lost, the mover, seconder and Ald. Spencer alone voting for it.

On the motion for the adoption of the report the Council voted unanimously.

Electrician Crawford and Mr. Essery then withdrew.

NUMBER THREE COMMITTE.

By Ald. F. J. Fitzgerald chairman:

1. That the following petitions for electric lights be filed for reference: John Coote, W. A. Westland, Thomas Green, M. J. Durdin, A. O. Jeffery and H. Coughtrey.

2. That the clauses of the mayor's inaugural address referred to this committee be filed for reference.

3. That all gas lamps in the vicinity of electric lights be capped.

4. That a Studebaker sprinkler be purchased for the water, carts to test the same.

The first two clauses of the report were adopted without division. Clause No. 3 was referred back to the committee.

Ald. O'Meara, speaking on clause No. 4, asked the chairman if he knew what the sprinkler was. "How will it economize? Can you tell me?" he asked.

Chairman Fitzgerald explained that the new sprinkler would throw water about 35 feet, which would enable one cart to water the street by making one return trip.

Ald. O'Meara grew very warm in his objection. "There is no better reason why that sprinkler should not be purchased," he said. "What would that mean? A sprinkler that would throw about 35 feet of water would sprinkle every one on the streets."

Ald. Fitzgerald—That would not matter if it was good water.

Ald. O'Meara (laughingly)—No; not if it was holy water.

This sally by the humorist of the Council convulsed the members with laughter. When the merriment had subsided Ald. O'Meara moved that the clause be struck out. The clause was finally referred back to the Council, and the report, as amended, was adopted.

THE ELLIOTT EXEMPTION.

A deputation consisting of Messrs. M. D. Fraser, John McClary, F. A. Fitzgerald, C. McCallum and John Campbell, which was waiting on the Council respecting the exemption of taxes on the estate of John Elliott & Sons, was then granted a hearing. Mr. M. D. Fraser said what was asked for was a refund of the taxes of 1890 on the foundry property, which amounted in all to about $1,008.

Mr. John McClary explained that several of Mr. John Elliott's personal friends were advancing fifteen times the amount asked from the Council. He pointed out the evils that would result if the works were closed up. It was to the interests of the citizens that such an enterprise should be kept alive.

Mr. John Campbell although confessedly opposed to exemptions made an exception in the case of Mr. Elliott. The firm had been a great benefit to the city and its revenue had been drawn from all parts of the Dominion to London. In addition to this fact the petitioner had for several years allowed himself to be assessed for property which he did not possess, so that the granting of the petition was simply the refunding of a sum of money which the Council was in honor bound to pay as it had been collected without cause.

Messrs. Fitzgerald and McCallum also spoke in favor of the grant.

The motion, on being put, was carried, Aldermen Wyatt, Connor, Taylor, W. W. Fitzgerald, Winnett, Gartshore, Spencer, James Fitzgerald, Thomas, Judd and Shaw voting yea, while Aldermen O'Meara, F. J. Fitzgerald, Bartlett, Ivey, Wilkey and Scarrow recorded themselves nay.

NUMBER TWO COMMITTEE.

By Ald. Connor, chairman:

1. That the complaint made by H. Brinsmead, et al., has received attention, and the Ball Company notified that they have been violating the city bylaw and must cease doing so. 2. We report progress on T. H. Luscombe's communication, and on the matter of frontage tax we submit the city solicitor's written opinion thereon.

The report was adopted without amendment.

NUMBER ONE COMMITTEE.

By Ald. Spencer, chairman:

1. Your committee recommend the accounts of D. J. McKinnon ($26), Geo. T. Trebilcock ($5) and John Ferguson ($6) for payment.

2. That Geo. Plaxton's petition re dog tax be granted.

3. That the petitions of Miss Bremner, Thos. R. Rhoder, Jane Lloyd, Helen Hanafin, Sarah Johnston, Sarah Tweedie, Anna Roe and Mrs. E. Saunders be filed.

4. That the petition of P. M. Lawrason re fixed assessment be filed.

5. That the petitions of Mrs. Yeo and Mrs. Long be granted by allowing a rebate of $11 80 and $4 80 respectively.

6. That the petitions of C. Wettlaufer, Wm. Lamb, B. C. McCann and L. Lewis be filed. No power.

7. As regards the petition of the McCormick Manufacturing Company and others we recommend that the Council entertain no application for fixed assessment until an equitable plan has been submitted and received the sanction of the Council.

8. The petition of H. Arnott et al. re Mrs. Fleming's taxes has been granted by the Council.

9. We have reconsidered Mrs. Holborn's petition and recommend a rebate of $3 on 1890 taxes.

10. That an interim appropriation of $1,000 be placed to the credit of the Hospital Board.

11. That Sophrona Nixon's petition, on reconsideration, be filed.

12. That the salaries of the newly appointed assessors be $400 each, said sum to cover expenses for assistant.

13. That the Council request the chairman of your several committees, the Board of Education, Water Commission, Police Commission and Hospital Trust to furnish estimates of probable receipts and expenditures of their several departments.

14. That the mayor, chairman of No. 1 Committee, the treasurer and Geo. F. Jewell, auditor, be a committee to consider the terms of agreement on the county and township accounts re London and amalgamation and report: also be empowered to obtain information re consolidation of city debt.

15. We report progress on the petitions of C. R. Sayer, of the Y. M. C. A.; Linda Slater, Ellen Clancey, C. Chapman's account and the letter of Gibbons, McNab & Mulkern.

Clause No. 6 was amended by referring the question of Mr. R. N. Curry's taxes to the assistant city clerk, as set out in B. C. McCann's petition.

Ald. Taylor moved that a clause be added to the report, authorizing the assistant city clerk to correspond with the G. T. R. Company respecting the re-lease of the London and Port Stanley Railroad.

Mayor Taylor suggested that an advertisement be put in the local papers calling for the re-lease or sale of the road.

On motion of Ald. Gartshore the motion of Ald. Taylor was referred back to the committee, and the report as amended was adopted.

BOARD OF HEALTH

By Ald. Ivey, chairman:

1. We request that the sum of $1,000 be placed to the credit of the Board as a temporary grant.

2. That the Council procure a site and direct that plans and specifications be prepared for a smallpox hospital and submitted to the Board.

The first clause was adopted, but the second was referred to the Finance Committee to report upon.

COMMUNICATIONS.

The petitions of D. H. Grand, Oswald Baynes, Robert Smith and W. M. Seaborn re taxes, were referred to No. 1.

The same committee will deal with the petition of M. M. Patullo, asking for a grant to the W. C. A.

The leasing of the City Hall barber shop to Hugh Sharkey was left with No. 1.

No. 2 Committee will deal with the petition of R. Tremain for a walk on Maitland street.

The desirability of placing an electric light at the corner of Mary and Eva streets, and another at the corner of Grey and Colborne will be determined by No. 3.

Mr. A. Green was authorized to remove the remains of the smallpox hospital. The stuff will be buried.

The East End Hall was granted to Court Stella for their anniversary concert on the evening of March 19.

Queen's Park was granted to the Sons of England Society for a demonstration on May 25.

Articles of incorporation of the Niagara Shore Terminal have been filed with the Secretary of State. The company has a capital stock of $40,000 and will build a road to open up Cayuga Island. The Terminal Company will feed into the Erie. The lease of life is 50 years.

Notwithstanding the actions of the Western Passenger Association and Central Traffic lines in agreeing to abolish the custom of paying commissions on passenger business, the Wabash has decided to continue the practice so far as it relates to territory controlled by the Western Passenger Association.

The Duluth and Winnipeg Railway promoters have, for some time past, been quietly acquiring property in St. Boniface, with the evident intention of running their line into Winnipeg at an early date. The property referred to is about opposite the foot of James street, at the narrowest part of the river, and consequently the most favorable location for a bridge. The Duluth and Winnipeg are likely to make things quite lively this year.

A rumor has been current in Montreal ever since the first of the year, when Sir Joseph Hickson retired from the general management of the Grand Trunk Railway, that closer relations would exist between that road and the Canadian Pacific Railway. As a matter of fact the two roads have come into close relationship through the general freight and passenger agents issuing joint rate circulars. Mr. Sergeant, the new general manager of the Grand Trunk, is said to favor consolidation. With the exception of the line running from Detroit to Niagara, belonging to the Michigan Central, and the Intercolonial Railway connecting Halifax with Quebec, those two lines control every mile of railway in Canada, and a consolidation of the two companies would result in a most powerful organization.

PARLIAMENT DISSOLVED.

One month from Thursday next the Dominion general elections will be held.

This is in accordance with the prognostications of the ADVERTISER for months past. We happened to know that this coup was contemplated, and hesitated not to make it public, though the information was received with incredulity by many. We are now possessed of another bit of significant information. The dissolution of Parliament one year before its full term was not resolved on by the Ministers until after the severest crisis in the Cabinet that has prevailed in Ottawa for many years against the dissolution of the House at the present time. Conservative newspapers like the Kingston News earnestly pleaded for a chance to regain lost ground in all parts of the Dominion by waiting for another gerrymander. Here in London, the Tory organizer went around the streets for days, using language not at all parliamentary regarding the supineness of the managers, who had allowed the Liberals last year to get ahead of them in the placing of names on the voters' lists. And so it has gone on throughout the whole Dominion.

But those behind the scenes knew what was coming.

The high tax Government at Ottawa were face to face with grave difficulties. They were between his Satanic Majesty and the deep sea. They had always contemplated the possibility of breaking faith with Parliament and holding an election on lists by means of which probably 200,000 persons entitled to vote are disfranchised. But they hoped to be able to pull their boat past the rapids. In that they have failed.

They dared not wait till after next summer, with its hard times and low prices for farm produce, the direct cause of their high tax policy.

They dared not postpone action, for some of the combines have decreed that they want higher taxes imposed upon what the people consume, and they refuse to wait for another year. To openly propose more taxation on the eve of a general election would be doubly disastrous to the Government of the combines, and so a general election is held to head off the demand.

Then there is the McGreevy scandal. A Conservative member of Parliament—the past custodian of election funds for the Dominion Government in the Province of Quebec—stands charged with illegally profiting at the expense of the country, through receiving hundreds of thousands of dollars of public money more than his contract calls for. Sir Hector Langevin is mixed up in the transaction, which has been exposed by Mr. Tarte, a Conservative journalist. The most damning proofs of Ministerial corruption and connivance are now alleged to be in the hands of a leading member of Parliament, and Mr. Tarte has pledged his word to make those charges good before a Parliamentary commission. Notice has been given that this commission will be asked for at next session of Parliament. The party now in power hope to burke the inquiry by bringing on the elections now. They dared not face the House to find themselves exposed by a man who has hitherto been a leader in their party, and who can no longer reconcile his conscience with the robbery of the taxpayers to benefit hungry hangers-on.

Then there is the bill for the abolition of separate schools in Manitoba. The Dominion Government has till April next to allow or disallow this measure. It knows that its provisions would form a subject of discussion in the next session of Parliament. It wishes to escape giving a decision one way or the other, and thus avoid displeasing two large and influential sections in the community. It hopes to avoid this by holding the elections before the day of decision arrives. The policy is cowardly, but on a par with much of the shuffling that characterizes the inauguration of the present campaign.

A decision regarding the question of prohibition is also prevented by the rushing on of the elections. The Presbyterian and Methodist Churches of Canada have resolved to ask Parliament to decree prohibition in Canada. In conjunction with thousands of the members of other denominations in the Dominion, these two Churches have signatures to present a petition to that effect, bearing at least 1,000,000 names. It will be ready for the next session of Parliament. The party in power desired to be on the fence on this question, and so it avoids giving a decision either way on the eve of an election.

These are a few of the reasons that have influenced the Conservative leaders. They are not reasons that should commend the men that are influenced by them to the support of consistent, country loving Canadians. They should discredit the high tax Government in the estimation of every independent elector, who wishes his country well. The pretense that it is anxiety to advance the cause of reciprocity that is the mainspring of the action of the men at Ottawa cannot be accepted in view of their record.

THE CONVENTION.

There are but 26 working days between now and the date of the general election. The campaign must, therefore, be conducted with vigor, for the time is short.

We would suggest that, under the circumstances, the Provincial Liberal Convention would be a mistake. The time to be devoted to it, and the incidental expense, could, with the utmost propriety and benefit, be given to the constituencies.

United, concentrated action is the one thing needful now. The cause is all right, and such as we are sure the electors of the country will indorse.

The convention should be declared off.

CAMPAIGN WATCH-WORDS.

The issue: High vs. low taxation. The combines vs. the people's interests. Hard times vs. renewed prosperity.

The ADVERTISER is on the side of low taxation, the interests of the people and renewed prosperity. So by the way, are the majority of the people. Let them hold to those principles and not be diverted by any side issues brought up by the beneficiaries of the high tax system. The restrictionist press are on the other side of the fence.

A TRICK THAT FAILED.

Mr. Carling has expressed himself with much bitterness because his scheme to defeat Mayor Taylor and seize control of the municipal affairs, by the agency of his nominee, failed. It was believed at the time that he did not come from Ottawa to canvass, to importune and plead for days with those who were at one time his friends without having an object in view. The aim is now apparent. It was a despicable attempt to turn civic patronage into an agency to aid in the election of an unpopular man. The trick had often succeeded before, but it failed this time. How ominous!

.OUNG MEN DISFRANCHISED.

No young man can reasonably support the Dominion Government in the ensuing election. For the purpose of avoiding the discussion of scandals seriously affecting members of the Ministry and of facing the settlement of grave public questions that would come up in the ensuing session of Parliament, the Government has dissolved the House of Commons more than a year before the natural expiry of the Parliamentary term.

The honor of the Ministry and of Parliament was pledged that if the House consented to the postponement of the revision of the Dominion voters' lists no election would take place till after the census of April next and the redistribution of seats, which the Secretary of State promised would take place early next year.

Faith has not been kept.

The voters' lists are not revised.

Fifty thousand young men of Ontario, entitled to vote, find that their names are not on the voters' lists. Nearly 100,000 young men in the Dominion are without votes.

These young men are not criminals, they are not paupers; they are simply the victims of the panic which has seized possession of the restrictionist leaders at Ottawa, who dare not wait till a revision of lists take place, knowing that the longer they delay the elections, the more hopeless would become the case with which they have to go to the country.

THE "ADVERTISER" AND THE CAMPAIGN.

The ADVERTISER will endeavor to give all the news of the campaign in bright and breezy fashion, yet as fairly to one side as the other. This journal is first of all a newspaper. The ancient style of ridiculing your opponent's meetings and of dealing in mere personalities finds no place in the ADVERTISER's spirit or methods.

—The restrictionists now look to Washington!

—Secretary Blaine, the moving spirit in the United States Government, says that under no circumstances will that Administration agree to the Canadian Tory policy of reciprocity in natural products. But to tide over a general election, Sir John Macdonald declares that he will send delegates to Washington to try and convince Secretary Blaine that he takes a wrong position! And on this alleged policy and the pretense that he wants the people to back them in the "look to Washington" expedient, the high tax advocates ask that the Government be returned to power for another five years. Could there be a thinner excuse for rushing on an election on voters' lists two years old!

OTHER NEWSPAPERS.

THE TWO SIDES.

Toronto Globe.

The Government side is now pinned down to the N.P. while the Liberal party stands upon enlarged trade relations with our neighbors, involving free access to the American market for buying as well as selling to the natural industries of Canada, and cheaper raw material with a continental market for the Canadian manufacturer.

REDUCED TAXATION THE NEED OF THE HOUR.

Montreal Herald.

It is arrant humbug and nonsense to pretend that prosperity can be created or promoted by the continued imposition of the heavy taxation now resting upon the country. The panacea of high taxation has proved worse than a failure, and the people must get back to a system of government and legislation based on common-sense principles.

LONDON TEMPERANCE UNION.

A New Temperance [illegible]ganization Formed.

A Union Designed to Lend a Hand in All Temperance and Kindred Efforts.

Some 50 ladies and gentlemen interested in the cause of temperance met in one of the parlors of the Y. M. C. A. Hall yesterday afternoon. After devotional exercises, conducted by the Rev. Stephen Bond, the chairman briefly stated the object of the meeting, which was to receive the report of a sub-committee appointed some weeks ago to outline plans of work for the year. The committee presented the following report through the secretary:

The committee who were appointed to arrange for a thanksgiving service and mass meeting in the interest of prohibition, and also to suggest plans of work for the year, beg leave to report as follows: The thanksgiving service and prohibition mass meeting was held on the afternoon of Sunday, the 25th January, and was as you are all aware a decided success both as regards attendance and interest. [illegible] plans of work during the year your committee, after holding several meetings and consulting with clergymen and others, have decided on the following:

1. That an organization be formed under the name of the London Temperance Union.

2. That its object shall be the promotion of temperance effort in various ways, to that end co-operating [illegible] offers with other organizations and individuals having the same end in view, such as:

(a) National prohibition, co-operating with the churches and [illegible] in obtaining signatures to the [illegible].

(b) The consideration of [illegible] reduction of licenses.

(c) The enforcement of [illegible] laws.

(d) Work among children, scientific temperance in day schools [illegible] be taught in Sunday schools; a [illegible] picnic or mass meeting for children at stated intervals.

(e) Occasional Sunday afternoon mass meetings, say in South London, East London and Victoria Hall [illegible] Hall.

(f) The complete [illegible] of the School Board—to see that all its trustees are temperance men.

(g) A non-treating campaign and the securing of pledges against treating.

(h) The sale and use of cigarettes by children.

3. That while its principal aims shall be as above outlined, it [illegible] not exclude from its consideration, as circumstances may suggest, any kindred question which concerns the moral and social welfare of the community.

4. That the officers shall consist of a president, secretary, treasurer, and five others, all of whom shall form an executive committee.

5. That the membership fee shall be 25 cents per annum, payable in advance.

6. That the regular meetings of the union be held on the first Monday in February, May, August and November, with special meetings at the call of the executive if deemed necessary.

The report was taken up clause by clause, and the first clause adopted on motion of J. H. Bowman, seconded by Mrs. J. W. Jones; second clause adopted on motion of Rev. W. J. C[illegible], seconded by Mrs. Williams; third clause [illegible] A. C. Courtice and James Mills; [illegible] H. Bowman and Rev. S. Bond; fifth [illegible] McDermid and Rev. E. B. Lance[illegible], Dr. Arnott and Rev. G. T. Carr.

On motion the clause placing the membership fee [illegible] was reconsidered and fin[illegible] was postponed until the next meeting.

The following [illegible] were then elected: Dr. H. Arnott, [illegible]; D. A. McDermid, secretary; [illegible]; executive, J. H. Bowman, C. [illegible], John Cameron, J. B. Hicks, with two officers first named.

One of the first acts of the union was the passing of the following resolution: Moved by Rev. A. C. Courtice and seconded by James Mills: "That we express our sincere appreciation of the willing and efficient service [illegible] in the cause of temperance through many years by our departed friend, [illegible] Geo. Webster. A worker so experienced and so long tried and true could [illegible] out of our ranks without being [illegible]. Ours is the deep sense of loss, but [illegible] gives us great confidence and courage in our work when we know that the temperance cause was thought worthy [illegible] good a man to the last days of his [illegible]. We express to the widow and bereaved friends our warmest sympathy and breathe a prayer that divine consolation may [illegible] in their hearts."

A Lady School Teacher Fatally Assaulted.

WINNEBAGO C[illegible], Minn., Feb. 3.—Miss Lent, a young [illegible] teacher who was brutally assaulted by the Crusen family a few days ago, has died from her injuries. Miss Lent, who [illegible] teaching in a country school near this [illegible], punished a girl named Crusen. The girl's sister ran home and told her parents. The latter went to the school and assaulted the teacher. Mr. Crusen struck Miss Lent and knocked her down. The mother then grabbed her by the hair and [illegible] her around the room until the [illegible] of her skull was partly torn from its place. With the aid of her husband the wife picked up the teacher and threw her out of an open window, her head striking on a stone. A panic ensued and the pupils scattered to their homes, where they reported the assault. The Crusens have been jailed.

The Great Blood Purifier.

A Word to the People. | "Truth is Mighty, and will prevail."

THE remarkable effects and most satisfactory results, in every variety of disease arising from IMPURITIES OF THE BLOOD, which are experienced and made manifest from day to day, by those who have taken NORTHROP & LYMAN'S VEGETABLE DISCOVERY, for complaints which were pronounced incurable, are surprising to all. In many of these cases, the persons say their pain and sufferings cannot be expressed, as in cases of Scrofula, where apparently the whole body was one mass of corruption.

This celebrated medicine will relieve pain, cleanse and purify the blood, and cure such diseases, restoring the patient to perfect health after trying many remedies, and having suffered for years. Is it not conclusive proof that if you are a sufferer you can be cured? Why is this medicine performing such great cures? It works in the BLOOD, the Circulating Fluid. It can truly be called the

GREAT BLOOD PURIFIER.

The great source of disease originates in the BLOOD, and no medicine that does not act directly upon it, to purify and renovate, has any just claim upon public attention. When the blood becomes lifeless and stagnant, either from change of weather or of climate, want of exercise, irregular diet, or from any other cause, NORTHROP & LYMAN'S VEGETABLE DISCOVERY will renew the Blood, carry off the putrid humors, cleanse the stomach, regulate the bowels, and impart a tone of vigor to the whole body.

The conviction is, in the public mind as well as the medical profession, that the remedies supplied by the VEGETABLE KINGDOM are more safe and more effectual in the cure of disease than mineral medicines. The Vegetable Discovery is composed of the juice of most remarkable roots, barks and herbs. It is pleasant to take, and is perfectly safe to give an infant. Allow us to ask you a candid question:—Do you need it? Do not hesitate to try it. You will never regret it. All druggists have it for sale.

MR. JOHN C. FOX, Olinda, writes:—"Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery is giving good satisfaction. Those who have used it say it has done them more good than anything they have ever taken."

IN ITS WORST FORM.—MISS JULIA A. PILSWORTH, Toronto, writes:—"I had Dyspepsia in its worst form for over a year, but after taking three bottles of Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery, a perfect cure followed. I take great pleasure in recommending it to anyone suffering from Dyspepsia."

MR. W. THAYER, Wright, P.Q., had DYSPEPSIA FOR TWENTY YEARS. Tried many remedies and doctors, but got no relief. His appetite was very poor, had a distressing pain in his side and stomach, and gradual wasting away of flesh, when he heard of and immediately commenced taking Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery. The pains have left, and he rejoices in the enjoyment of excellent health; in fact he is quite a new man.

Sold by all Medicine Dealers at $1.00 per Bottle.

WIVES AND DAUGHTERS

A Journal Written for Women by Women.

CONDUCTED BY MRS. JOHN CAMERON, ASSISTED BY MISS ETHELWYN WETHERALD.

Friendly Words from Miss Frances E. Willard.

"Wives and Daughters," edited by Mrs. John Cameron and Miss Ethelwyn Wetherald, is a publication that shows how our Canadian cousins are marching on in their day and generation to the great empire and beautiful land of men and women. We live at present in the men's world; we hope never to live in the women's world, though we think it would perhaps be fully as good as the men's; but one bisected globe is sufficient. What we want to see is the men and women's world, and its luminous orb rises even now above the horizon. This new monthly will help to hasten that luminary toward its proper place in the zenith, for the new magazine conserves the home idea, and tells how to make home what it should be in small and great affairs alike. It has a winsome kindliness of visage, and we believe will become the attached friend of all Canadian women who may listen to its utterances, and to Yankee women also if they will but have the wit and wisdom to subscribe. Yours for a treaty of reciprocity,

FRANCES E. WILLARD.

A Greeting from the Countess of Aberdeen.

Dec. 1, 1890.

Lady Aberdeen begs to congratulate Mrs. Cameron most sincerely on the high promise of the new venture, and will be much obliged if she will direct that two copies should be sent to her at the above address every month. Lady Aberdeen hopes that Mrs Cameron will not mind her making some extracts from "Wives and Daughters" for a little magazine which she herself is editing in connection with a Young Women's Christian Association in Scotland.

Dyspepsia

Makes many lives miserable, and often leads to self destruction. Distress after eating, sick headache, heartburn, sour stomach, mental depression, etc., are caused by this very common and increasing disease. Hood's Sarsaparilla tones the stomach, creates an appetite, promotes healthy digestion, relieves sick headache, clears the mind, and cures the most obstinate cases of dyspepsia. Read the following:

"I have been troubled with dyspepsia. I had but little appetite, and what I did eat distressed me, or did me little good. In an hour after eating I would experience a faintness or tired, all-gone feeling, as though I had not eaten anything. Hood's Sarsaparilla did me an immense amount of good. It gave me an appetite, and my food relished and satisfied the craving I had previously experienced. It relieved me of that faint, tired, all-gone feeling. I have felt so much better since I took Hood's Sarsaparilla, that I am happy to recommend it." G. A. PAGE, Watertown, Mass.

SNOWSHOEING.

The open steeplechase of the Argyle Snowshoe Club took place on Saturday evening over a flagged course from Montreal to Lachine, a distance of nine miles. Six clubs were represented and nine men started. The time for the distance was the best on record. W. D. Mason, of the Argyles, was leading by over 500 yards, when within a mile of the destination, one of his shoes broke, and though he came in first the race of course was given to the second man, R. J. Kell, also of the Argyles. The time was one hour and three minutes.

The St. George snowshoe steeplechases took place on Saturday at Montreal, resulting as follows: F. Fairbanks, 50 secs.; C. E. Howard, 58 secs.; B. T. Kirkhouse, 60 secs.; J. Moore, 1 min. 4 secs.

CHESS.

"Mr. Blackburne," says the Hereford Times, "visited the Leamington Chess Club last week, and on Monday evening played 22 players simultaneously and won every game—a remarkable record. On Tuesday afternoon he contested six games simultaneously and blindfolded and won four and drew two with Messrs. Aspa and Mason." Anent this performance a Leamington paper writes: "To fairly appreciate the brainwork involved in this great feat it must be born in mind that, as the games averaged 30 moves each, 360 positions had to be recalled mentally during the sitting, in which, while realizing the possibilities of each one, some thousands of moves had to be conceived, analyzed and determined upon. Chess players only can estimate the labor justly. Though somewhat tired after the performance, Mr. Blackburne soon recovered, and in the course of the evening amused some friends by playing over the whole of the games from memory, his running commentary on the play being a rare treat. An amusing chance happened to the lady who so bravely took part in this tourney. Intent on the queen's side of her game, she forgot that a rook on the king's side was left en prise of a bishop. On this being pointed out, she whishered, 'hush! perhaps he'll not see it.' But the blindfold champion saw it only too clearly 'in his mind's eye,' and the unfortunate rook was laid low."

TORONTO, Feb. 4.—The receipts at the cattle market last week were 55 loads of cattle, 815 sheep and lambs and 157 hogs. To-day 23 loads were received, 200 sheep and lambs, 30 hogs and 25 calves. The prices were fair, not any worse than last week, but a shade better. Most of the stuff was cleared out. Butchers' cattle sold from 3½c to 4c per lb, the latter price only being paid in a few cases where the cattle were extra choice. Nineteen head, weighing 925 lbs, was sold for $31; 23 head, 1,150 lbs, at $41; 19 head, 925 lbs, at $32; 1 milker, $37; 3 calves at $5 per head. Calves are in demand, but of a better quality than was offered to-day; the prices ranged from $3 to $8. Sheep and lambs sold from $4 to $5 50; the quality offered was good and the demand was fair. Thirteen lambs sold at $5 per head; 80 sheep, weighing 91 lbs, sold for $5 25 per head. The hogs were not wanted to-day, and, save a half dozen that were sold, the rest will be shipped to Montreal.

BRITISH TRADE.

EDINBURGH, Jan. 24.—John Swan & Son's weekly report says: The number of fat cattle on offer this week has been rather under an average. For the best class a good demand was experienced at higher prices, but no advance can be quoted in the price of secondary cattle and cows. The restrictions in force in various districts and counties still continue to interfere with the trade, but Government will shortly be approached with a view to mitigate the stringency of some of the clauses in the new bill. Foreign supplies consist exclusively of States cattle which meet a fair trade. Sheep have been more numerous, and in Edinburgh the demand has been the quietest of the season, with a fall of 1s in the price of shopsheep, and 2s on sheep for the London market and ewes. In Glasgow, owing to the shorter supplies, trade was quite as good as last week. Calves have been remarkably scarce, and for the best exceedingly high prices were obtained. Pigs more numerous and made quite as much money. Few store sheep on offer, and there was little inquiry. Milch cows have been a larger show, and for the best there was a fair demand, though the extreme prices of last week were not realized. Secondary sorts met a worse trade at quite 20s less money. Best beef, 8s to 8s 3d; secondary, 7s 6d; inferior, [illegible] 6d per stone; best mutton, 7¾d to 8d; secondary, 7½d to 7¾d; inferior, 5¾d to 6¼d per lb.

A PROSPEROUS YEAR.

Annual Meeting of the Manufacturers' Accident Insurance Company.

Encouraging Report and Financial Statement—Election of Directors.

The fourth annual meeting of the Manufacturers' Accident Insurance Company was held at the office of the Manufacturers' Life Insurance Company, Toronto, Wednesday, the 28th inst., at [illegible] o'clock p.m., a large number of the shareholders of the company being present.

On the motion of Mr. Wm. Bell, seconded by Mr. S. F. McKinnon, the Right Hon. Sir John A. Macdonald took the chair and J. F. Ellis acted as secretary.

The chairman called [illegible] the secretary to read the fourth annual report of the Accident Company. This showed that their income from all sources [illegible] the year was $48,159 73, this amount being exceeded by only one accident company doing business in Canada, and was considered a matter of congratulation as the company has not yet been four years in existence. The claims for accidents during the year show a considerable falling off, [illegible] expenses of management very largely reduced, so that the result of the year's operations shows a handsome profit.

The chairman, in moving that the annual report be adopted and printed for distribution among shareholders, said that he had much pleasure in moving this resolution. The statement showed how prosperous the Accident Company had been, and, favorable as the report of the Life Insurance Company had been, the report of the Accident Company is still more favorable. The motion was seconded by Dr. J. F. W. Ross and carried unanimously.

On motion Dr. [illegible]yle and Mr. John Young were appointed auditors for the coming year.

On motion of [illegible] Lowndes the following gentlemen were elected directors for 1891: Sir John A. Macdonald, George Gooderham, Wm. Bell, S. F. McKinnon, C. D. Warren, Alex. [illegible]ing, J. F. W. Ross, Robt. Crean, R. Patterson, T. G. Blackstock, R. R. M[illegible]an, Harton Walker, Henry Lowndes, J. F. Ellis.

Mr. Barber—[illegible] the resolution.

Carried.

The meeting [illegible] adjourned.

At a subsequent meeting of the directors the Right Hon. [illegible] John A. Macdonald was elected president and Messrs. George Gooderham, Wm. [illegible] and S. F. McKinnon vice-presidents.

The meeting [illegible] adjourned.

Report.

The fourth annual report of the directors of the Manufacturers' Accident Insurance Company, presented at the annual meeting of the company, held in the office [illegible] Traders' Bank chambers, Toronto, on Wednesday, 28th of January, 1891, at the hour of 3 o'clock p.m.

The directors have pleasure in announcing at this the fourth annual meeting that the business [illegible] the past year shows a steady increase, the income from all sources amounting [illegible] the sum of $48,159 73; this amount being exceeded by only one accident insurance company doing business in Canada.

The claims [illegible] accident show also a considerable falling off from the previous year, and the expenses of management have been largely reduced so that the results of the year's operations show a handsome profit.

All the directors retire, but are eligible for re-election.

THE VOTERS' LIST.

A copy of the list of voters in London for the Dominion elections has been secured by the Young Liberal Club and has been placed in their rooms, Oddfellows' block. All Liberals, old and young, are welcome to these rooms at all times, and now that an election is near at hand they should visit the place occassionally. Call in this evening and see if your name is on the list. If you cannot call to-night—go any time, day or evening and the list will be there for your inspection.

THE DRINK RECORD.

PARIS, Ont., Feb. 3.—On Saturday evening a young man named Watson was killed near here. He worked for Mr. H. Moyle, about two miles from Paris on the Brantford road. He was in the habit of coming up on the train from Brantford and jumping off at the crossing near Moyle's. On Saturday night he evidently was the worse of liquor, and when he attempted the usual feat he stumbled and fell under the train and was instantly killed.

MONTREAL, Feb. 3.—In the Recorder's Court during the past year there were 7,739 cases, against 7,098 for 1889. The fines collected amounted to $28,797. These included 3,432 cases of drunkenness.

BARRY, Ill., Feb. 3.—William Bradley went to see his sweetheart Sunday while drunk, but she wouldn't see him unless he was sober, so he went to a blacksmith's shop, heated an iron rod till it was red and then ran it through his body.

Lymph Wouldn't Save Him.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Feb. 3.--George Bradley, who was the first patient in this country to receive the lymph inoculation, died yesterday, and the son of Prof. Blake, another lymph patient, who has been under treatment for nearly two months, is at the point of death. Bradley was a man but little over 30 years of age, and was not in an advanced stage of consumption when he began receiving treatment. Previously he was not confined to the house, but during his treatment he has been. During the past few weeks he suffered intensely, as the treatment had a distressing effect upon his throat, making it difficult and extremely painful for him to take any nourishment. His physicians state that his death was undoubtedly hastened by the condition of his throat. He has been receiving injections since very early in December.

The Handsomest Woman in London remarked to a friend the other day that she knew Kemp's Balsam for the Throat and Lungs was a superior remedy, as it stopped her cough instantly, when other cough remedies had no effect whatever. So to prove this and convince you of its merit any druggist will give you a sample bottle free. Large size 50 cents and $1. zxv

Lord Tennyson entertained the young Duchess of Albany at luncheon on his 81st birthday, and confided to her that, despite his old age, he hoped soon to give the world one more poem.

Bankers' Banquet.

A very pleasant bankers' banquet may produce very unpleasant symptoms of dyspepsia, which disease is often caused by overloading the stomach with rich food, etc. For years Burdock Blood Bitters has held first place at home and abroad as a permanent and reliable cure for dyspepsia or indigestion in any form. The proprietors guarantee to cure dyspepsia or return purchase money.

Carter's Little Liver Pills must not be confounded with common Cathartic or Purgative Pills, as they are entirely unlike them in every respect. One trial will prove their superiority.

The royal Saxon collection of china, the finest lot of Dresden china in the world, has just been greatly increased by the addition to it of the 14,000 pieces of Dr. Gustav Spitzer. The museum now contains about 34,000 pieces from the Meissen factory.

A man's wife should always be the same especially to her husband; but if she is weak and nervous and uses Carter's Iron Pills, she cannot be, for they will make her "feel like a different person," at least so they all say, and their husbands say so, too.

LOOKING BACKWARD.

The Ontario Mutual Life Assurance Company was incorporated in 1869, and issued its first policy in 1870. It was then and still is the only purely mutual life assurance company of Canada. It was organized "without a dollar of capital or list of wealthy guarantors to commend it to public favor, but solely dependent upon its premiums, the soundness of its plans and the energy and integrity of its management to enable it to build up a profitable business in the face of keen competion." To-day it has fourteen millions of insurance on its books, funds exceeding $1,600,000 and an untarnished reputation. The results of its policies are unsurpassed.

LOOKING FORWARD.

The motto of the Ontario Life is "The greatest amount of insurance for the least outlay." To procure that, the expenses are kept low, the best rates of interest are obtained and the class of risks is so guarded that the death rate is exceedingly low. This means large profits in the future. The Ontario gives that profit to policy-holders only. There is money for you if you join the Ontario.

Desperate Remedies

By Thomas Hardy,

AUTHOR OF "A PAIR OF BLUE EYES," "THE TRUMPET-MAJOR," ETC.

"But you don't know yet—you don't know yet," the invalid murmured. "It is forgiveness for that misrepresentation to Edward Springrove that I implore, and for putting such a force upon him—that which caused all the train of your innumberable ills!"

"I know all—all. And I do forgive you Not in a hasty impulse that is revoked when coolness comes, but deliberately and sincerely; I myself hope to be forgiven, I accord you my forgiveness now."

Tears streamed from Miss Aldclyffe's eyes, and mingled with those of her young companion, who could not restrain hers for sympathy. Expressions of strong attachment, interrupted by emotion, burst again and again from the broken-spirited woman.

"But you don't know my motive. Oh, if you only knew it, how would you pity me then!"

Cytherea did not break the pause which ensued, and the woman appeared now to nerve herself by a superhuman effort. She spoke on in a voice weak as the summer breeze, and full of intermission, and yet there pervaded it a steadiness of intention that seemed to demand firm tones to bear it out worthily.

"Cytherea," she said, "listen to me before I die."

"A long time ago—more then 30 years ago—a young girl of 17 was cruelly betrayed by her cousin, a wild officer of 26. He went India and died.

"One night when that miserable girl had just arrived home from Germany with her parents, she took all the money she possessed, pinned it on her infant's bosom, together with a letter, stating among other things what she wished the child's Christian name to be; wrapped up the little thing and walked with it to Clapham. Here, in a retired street, she selected a house. She placed the child on the doorstep and knocked at the door, then ran away and watched. They took it up and carried it indoors.

Now that her poor baby was gone the girl blamed herself bitterly for cruelty towards it, and wished she had adopted her parents' counsel to secretly hire a nurse. She longed to see it. She didn't know what to do. She wrote in an assumed name to the woman who had taken it in, and asked her to meet the writer with the infant at certain places she named. These were hotels or coffee-houses in Chelsea, Pimlico, or Hammersmith. The woman, being well paid, always came and asked no questions. At one meeting—at an inn in Hammersmith—she made her appearance without the child, and told the girl it was so ill that it would not live through the night. The news and fatigue brought on a fainting-fit——"

Miss Aldclyffe's sobs choked her utterance, and she became painfully agitated. Cytherea pale and amazed at what she heard, wept for her, bent over her, and begged her not to go on speaking.

"Yes—I must," she cried between her sobs. "I will—I must go on. And I must tell you more plainly. You must hear it before I am gone, Cytherea." The sympathizing and astonished girl sat down again.

"The name of the woman who had taken the child was Manston. She was the widow of a schoolmaster. She said she had adopted the child of a relation.

"Only one man ever found out who the mother was. He was the keeper of the inn in which she fainted, and his silence was purchased ever since.

"A twelvemonth passed—fifteen months—and the saddened girl met a man at her father's house named Graye—your father, Cytherea, then unmarried. Ah, such a man! Inexperience now perceived what it was to be loved in spirit and in truth. But it was too late. Had he known her secret he would have cast her out. She withdrew from him by an effort and pined.

"Years and years afterwards, when she became mistress of a fortune and estates by her father's death, she formed the weak scheme of having near the son whom, in her father's lifetime, she had been forbidden to recognize. Cytherea, you know who that weak woman is!

* * * * *

"By such toilsome labor as this I got him here as my steward. And I wanted to see him your husband, Cytherea—the husband of my true lover's child. It was a sweet dream to me. Pity me—oh, pity me! To die unloved is more than I can bear! I loved your father, and I love him now."

That was the burden of Cytherea Aldclyffe.

"I suppose you must leave me again—you always leave me," she said, after holding the young woman's hand a long while in silence.

"No—indeed I'll stay always. Do you like me to stay?"

Miss Aldclyffe in the jaws of death was Miss Aldclyffe still, though the old fire had degenerated to mere phosphorescence now. "But you are your brother's housekeeper."

"Yes."

"Well, of course, you cannot stay with me on a sudden like this. Go home, or he will be at a loss for things. And to-morrow morning come again, won't you dearest come again—we'll fetch you. But you mustn't stay now, and put Owen out. Oh no—it would be absurd." The absorbing concern about trifles of daily routine, which is to often seen in very sick people, was present here.

Cytherea promised to go home, and come the next morning to stay continuously.

"Stay till I die then, will you not? Yes, till I die—I shan't die till to-morrow."

"We hope for your recovery—all of us."

"I know best. Come at 6 o'clock, darling."

"As soon as ever I can," returned Cytherea tenderly.

"But 6 is too early—you'll have to think of your brother's breakfast. Leave Palchurch at 8, will you?"

Cytherea consented to this. Miss Aldclyffe would never have known had her companion stayed in the house all night; but the honesty of Cytherea's nature rebelled against even the friendly deceit which this proceeding would have involved.

An arrangement was come to whereby she was to be taken home in the pony-carriage instead of the brougham that fetched her; the carriage to be put up at Palchurch farm for the night, and on that account to be in readiness to bring her back earlier.

4. March the thirtieth. Daybreak.

The third and last instance of subjection to those periodic terrors of the night which had emphasized her connection with the Aldclyffe name and blood occurred at the present date.

It was about 4 o'clock in the morning when Cytherea, though most probably dreaming, seemed to awake—and instantly was transfixed by a sort of spell, that had in it more awe than afright. At the foot of her bed, looking her in the face with an expression of entreaty beyond the power of words to portray, was the form of Miss Aldclyffe—wan and distinct. No motion was perceptible in her; but longing—earnest longing—was written in every feature.

Cytherea believed she exercised her waking judgment as usual, in thinking, without a shadow of doubt that Miss Aldclyffe stood before her in flesh and blood. Reason was not sufficiently alert to lead Cytherea to ask herself how such a thing could have occurred.

"I would have remained with you—why would you not allow me to stay!" Cytherea exclaimed. The spell was broken; she became broadly awake, and the figure vanished.

BABY'S FACE WAS RAW.

Distressing Itching Skin Disease Cured in One Month by the Cuticura Remedies.

When our boy was six weeks old he had a rash on his cheek. It spread on both cheeks and chin. His face was raw. I doctored with various remedies, but it got no better. My mother advised me to try the CUTICURA REMEDIES. I used them faithfully, and in one week the boy looked better. In one month he was cured, and now he is three years old and no signs of it returning. The child was so bad I had to tie him in a pillow case, and pin his hands down so that he could not scratch his face. I cannot speak too highly of the CUTICURA REMEDIES. I recommend CUTICURA whenever I can. I would be pleased to see any one and talk to them of the good it has done my boy.
