The Court of Directors submits the accompanying Balance Sheet to the 80th June last.

The Profits for the half-year, including £7,252 8s 10d brought forward from last account, amount to £69,013 10s 9d, out of which the Directors have now to report the declaration of an Interim Dividend of 30s per Share, payable, free of Income Tax, on the 5th of October next, being at the rate of 6 per cent per annum, leaving a balance of £37,861 1s 6d to be car-

This unusually large sum has been carried forward to the new account owing to the uncertainty which still exists respecting the consequences of the disaster which overwhelmed the City of San Francisco by earthquake and fire in April last. The Bank has incurred no direct loss from this cause beyond the small sum, not yet ascertained, which will be payable to the members of the staff as compensation for the destruction and damage of their personal effects, for the premises occupied by the Bank were leasehold and the Bank is free from any responsibility for their restoration. Moreover, owing to the prompt and courageous action of the Agents and their staff, all money and securities were at considerable personal risk removed from the vaults before the fire reached them, and conveyed to a place of safety. It is, however, impossible until a final settlement has been arrived at between the Insurance Offices and the Insured to ascertain exactly the financial position of the sufferers, and it has, therefore, been considered prudent to carry this sum forward to meet possible indirect

SHIP TO DESTROY SEA DERELICTS

$250,000, for Revenue Cutter Service.

Washington, Sept. 17 .- An innovation among the types of sea-going craft will be the new derelict destroyer of the United States revenue service, the plans for which have just been made public. The ship is to be constructed at a cost of about $250,000, and is the result of an agreement made about fifteen years ago between nations having large maritime interests that each would construct a vessel for the purpose of destroying menaces to naviga-

Manager Declares Questions and Answers Were Wired from Under Stage.

New York, Sept. 17 .- John T. Fay called." and Eva Fay, known sometime as "The Marvelous Fays," brought suit a while known on the stage as Chauncey Herbert, and his stage partner, Louis Granat, to recover property which the Fays declared had been taken from them by Lambourne while he was their them by Lambourne while he was their property man. Lambourne has just now, through Moses H. Grossman, his awyer, filed an answer to the complaint of the Fays, which, after a short general denial, proceeded to say that the defendant knew all about the Fays, and that nothing could stop him from telling what he knew.

The Fays have been the center of much controversy. They have a sort of mind-reading act on the vaudeville stage that has puzzled not a few. They are declared by themselves to be genuine seers and able to read the future and the like. If that is so, they must have seen Lambourne's affidavit com-

ROYAL EXILES HAPPY

Reconciled to Lot.

Paris, Sept. 15.—The four royal exiles who are under the control of the Fresh colonial office are to be reduced to three, for the Sultan of the Comoro Islands is to be sent from Reunion back to his own realm, and will be allowed to take part in the government of the republic.

The other three are likely to remain where they are. Queen Ranavalo of Madagascar is very comfortable at Algiers, and the King of Dahomey is quite contented at Blidah. Indeed, he would think twice before wishing to go back to Dahomey, for his life would hardly be safe in the hands of his sub-

Chicago, Sept. 17.-Witnesses were summoned before the city civil service commission to give evidence relative to the charges that have been preferred by Chief of Police Collins against Inspector Patrick J. Lavin, who his district while a police captain.

The chief evidence against Lavin was given by Patrick P. Mahoney, a former patrolman under Lavin. Mahoney testhe best, and if he were not an Amer- tifled that he was intimately acquainted with a brother of Lavin, who was a police sergeant, and that Patrick J. Lavin, then a police captain, called him into a private room in the police station and declared that he was about to take the examination for promotion to police inspector, and that it would aid him in procuring the promotion if he could do a good job of police work six thousand delegates are in the city before the examination was held. Lavin then said, according to the witness: "There is a Dutchman over here on Wentworth avenue, near Fifieth street. $10,000 worth of stuff in the safe. Now you know some handy fellows who can it had been retaken.'

Mahoney said that he agreed to the proposition of Lavin, and made arrangements with James Clark and Thomas Barry to rob the place. Several boxes of jewels, according to the witness, were carried from the place and some money was taken, which was divided between the men and himself. The jewels were concealed in the basement of his own house, Mahoney declared.

The next morning he went to the station and the captain whispered to him asking if he had "secured the stuff." He whispered that he had, and the captain then asked him in a loud voice if he had seen any suspicious characters around the jewelry store the night

And he looked into her face with smile at once troubled and yet grateful. He then moved toward Florence, and a farewell of the most chilling indifference took place between them.

Margherita was seated in her bedroom, a little later, when her sister-inlaw knocked and entered, her face pale, her expression forbidding.

> Margherita was greatly troubled by this misunderstanding, but she was at once too proud and too unselfish to make her husband partner in an annoyance so essentially feminine. Even beneath so great provocation she scorned to betray Florence's secret; added to which, she instinctively guessed that this was a matter too delicate and involved for the comprehension of a masculine mind. But her spirits were not at their usual level that day after the departure of her visitor-a condition of mind not alleviated by a small incident which occurred later on.

An Immense Showing of Fashionable Black Dress Fabrics: Reasonably Priced

If you intend to include a new black dress in your autumn outfit it will pay you to visit our Dress Goods Section.

All the fashionable weaves are here. And our prices are so much in your favor that it's next to impossible to do better elsewhere—easy to do not so well.

All these Black Dress Fabrics have been carefully chosen. You can rely on every yard being of reliable, high-grade quality. We think too much of your future trade to supply you with poor, shoddy goods that flood some sections of the country.

A large share of the fabrics are dyed with Kharanta dye. They are richer, handsomer blacks than ordinary dyed goods. It's because the dye is made of the finest, purest and most expensive ingredients that the black tone is so deep, clear and absolutely black-not rusty, dull, or with a grayish cast produced by cheap, inferior dyes. We have the sole right to sell Kharanta-dyed fabrics in this city. Remember that when on a purchasing tour.

Among the various weaves, you'll find some handsome BLACK PANAMAS. Popular for twopiece suits and skirts. All pure wood, good wearing qualities 50c, 75c and $1 00 BLACK VENETIANS make dressy suits. Pure wool, beautiful, smooth finish 75c and $1 00 Two pieces of ALL-WOOL BARATHEA. Regu-

t very strong in Canada to-day. In no article of diet is purity so important as in flour, for flour is the basis of more than half your food. It is your duty, therefore, to see to it that the flour you use is pure.

"FIVE ROSES" FLOUR is made by a process which insures absolute purity, in so far as it can be secured by the most scientific milling methods. From the time the wheat enters the mill until the flour reaches the cook it is untouched by human hands. The grain itself is thoroughly cleansed before grinding, whilst the flour is sifted, time after time, through the finest silk cloth, in order to remove the smallest impurities.

These processes render "FIVE ROSES" an easy and satisfactory flour to use, and insure better results on baking day than can be obtained with any ordinary brands. Ask your grocer for it.

Caps Take Lead

By winning from the Shamrocks on Saturday, the Capitals took the lead in the National Lacrosse Union. The Caps have now won seven and lost four games, with one yet to play, while the Tecumsehs have won six and lost four, with two to play. The Torontos have completed their series, winning seven of the twelve games. Montreal and Cornwall have each won six and lost five games. Thus there is a possibility of the five teams tleing for first place. The standing to date is as follows:

The same thing might be said of the fisheries. At present there is divided jurisdiction and considerable ambiguity as to the respective powers of the Dominion and the provinces. The result is confusion, uncertainty and often friction. All this might be prevented by an understanding under which control should be vested in the central Government. It is not to be expected, of course, that the provinces would surrender any rights which they now possess without adequate compensation, nor is there any desire that they should do so. These and other matters are proper subjects for consideration, and should they be favorably regarded might form the basis of a rearrangement of subsidies to the provinces, under which

DAIRY MARKETS. LIVERPOOL DAIRY REPORT, WEEK ENDING SEPT. 7.

[Hodgson Bros.' Report.]

Cheese—The demand has been moderate, and to make progress here and there some dealers have been willing to accept a slight reduction from recent values, but the market closes fairly steady. There has been some inquiry for medium grades, and where showing quality this class sells as landed. We quote today: Frest Canadian, colored, 61s to 62s per cwt; do, white, 60s to 61s; finest States, colored, 59s to 60s 6d; do, white, 59s to 60s; medium grades, chiefly States, according to quality, 46s to 58s.

Butter—The market is about unchanged. The supply of choicest qualities from the continent is limited, and all arrivals have suffered from the hot weather. The supply of choicest Irish is smaller, and values are dearer. The trade in Canadian still [Hodgson Bros.' Report.]

In responsible circles, however, the right of the United States under the treaty with Cuba to restore order is recognized, but there is no disposition to impute to the Washington Government a desire to seize the occasion to annex the island. Still it is thought that even if the wise counsel of President Roosevelt is followed and the rival factions temporarily bury the hatchet that there will be an early recurrence of the insurrection which will compel ultimate annexation.

WHEN WOMEN LOVE AT GRAND TONIGHT

Hold the Boards at the Popular Theater.

The attraction at the Grand tonight and Tuesday night will be the successful melodrama. "When Women Love." The play tells a story full of pathos, comed yand excitement, with a good hero and heroine, and two villains, whose acting brings forth storms of indignation. The introduction of the phonograph as the silent witness is a lecided novelty, new to the stage. There are trials and tribulations without number, but they are all relegated to the shades at the finish; the poor are made wealthy, the sorrowful, happy: the villains get their just deserts, and all ends well.
