A Sad Drowning.

A sad drowning accident occurred in the mill-race just below the dam about 2.30 p. m. on Saturday afternoon in which Mr. Adam Graf's twelve year old son, Lawrence, lost his life. Lawrence was along with a crowd of boys about his own age who were fishing at the dam. He had brought along a bathing suit and went in swimming alone in the race. He told his companions that he could swim but the water was so chilly that he no doubt took a cold and quickly sank in the deep water. One of the small boys reached out a fishing pole but he was apparently too overcome to grasp it. The body was recovered by letting the water out of the race and by this time life had long been extinct. Deep sympathy is felt for the parents in their very sad loss. The fact that the young lad's sister's wedding had been announced for Tuesday morning served to intensify the tragic nature of the sad affair. Funeral service was held at Walkerton R. C. Church on Monday morning.—Telescope.

Car Drivers Under 18.

There is going to be a lot of trouble for those under 18 years of age who drive cars. This is an Ontario statute and although an effort was made to have the age limit reduced to 16 years the legislation was not passed and the age limit remains the same as last year, and the police have served notice that this provision must be lived up to or prosecutions will follow. A high powered car, more or less under the control of a mere boy or girl, is a danger to the safety of the public, and as such, an ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure.

Expecting Indemnities.

Everyone in Germany knows that if at the close of the war Germany does not gain great indemnities the German Empire is bankrupt, and the German recovery will be long, slow and difficult. Every German will have to share in this burden, and every German is mightily interested in escaping this burden if it is possible. To-day the great majority of the German people believe that the Russian collapse has saved the German Empire, as a change of Czars saved the Prussian Kingdom. While they believe that there is no good in blinking the fact that the war must go on.

Newspapers are used as an emergency dressing for wounds in France. Subscribers who are regularly asked to loan their papers have noticed before this that there is something sponge-like about it.

Officers Were Popular.

A young Walkerton soldier of the 160th wrote his parents, under date of May 19th: "Col. Weir has been transferred to our Reserve Battalion, and all they had against him was his age, and we are very sorry to see him go. He kept his word that he would look after us, and he did as far as he could go. We expect Major Moffat will be made Colonel and we hope he gets it. He sure deserves it. Did you know that he turned down a high command in the American Army in order to stay with us, and the boys will do anything at all for him. Our battalion holds the record of the British Army for fast work with trench mortars also we hold the record for shipping and putting together machine guns in 30 seconds."

Since he above was written Lt. Col. Sutherland has been appointed to the command of the crack Blue Battalion. Major Moffat was put temporarily in command after Weir was relieved. There is a good deal of mystery about the changes made in the officers staff of the 160th.

Charged With Insanity.

Miss Mary Groerer of Formosa was arrested by Chief Ferguson on Saturday afternoon on the charge of being insane and dangerous to be at large. She was brought to the Walkerton jail, and word was despatched to her brother, a doctor in Chicago, describing her condition, and the authorities are awaiting a reply from him before proceeding with her examination for insanity. She is upwards of 40 years of age, and according to the statement furnished the authorities, acted in a very violent manner, shortly prior to her arrest.—Herald & Times.

A Close Call

While sitting on the shafts of a buggy in the driving shed at Mr. J. A. Hogg's in Carrick, during a storm on Wednesday afternoon of last week, Leslie McCannell, a young Walkerton High School student, who is doing "his bit" in the great production campaign by assisting on the farm, was stunned and knocked to the ground by a bolt of lightning, which flashed at his side. On arising his left arm was found to be powerless, and on consulting a doctor he learned that a heavy shot of electricity had passed through it. Although over a week has elapsed since the mishap, Leslie is still unable to use the injured limb, which he continues to carry in a sling. As a close approach to a real tragedy, Leslie's was somewhat too near for comfort.

A New Development.

Since the T. Eaton Co. of Toronto has opened up an agency in Brampton and will deliver goods twice daily in that town it is being asked on all sides, how close will they come to our village, and how will it affect trade? We have been informed that it is the intention of the gigantic company to plant an agency in every important town in the country.

That thousands of dollars have been going out of this district for years to the departmental stores is a well-known fact but with increased facilities that an agency would afford makes one come to the conclusion that many more thousands would naturally follow suit.

How is the local merchant going to meet this accentuated competition? Is he going to lie down, dry up and blow away, or is he going to put up an intelligent battle for the trade that logically is his?

It is a well-known fact that the departmental stores attribute their wonderful success to an organized system of advertising. It requires brains and ceaseless effort, but it is up to the merchant to meet this new peril to home trade with the enemies' weapon.

A poor apple crop is anticipated as far as Brant County is concerned. An expert has reported that he was unable to find a single sign of bloom on Spy, Baldwins, or Greenings, and on five acres of excellent orchard at one place he does not expect to have a single barrel of apples. All over Brant County the bloom is reported very light.

June brides who harness up with team mates this side of 40 will doubtless have to spend their honeymoon in Canada, because the latest decree of the Immigration Department says in part that no males of military age will be permitted to cross the border into the United States unless they have good business reasons for doing so. A honeymoon trip, seemingly, is looked upon as a bit of frivolity, for the order states that "business is the only reason which will secure a pass-port to go to the United States."

The Listowel town council has been petitioned to have all dogs prohibited from running at large for nine months in the year. The need for greater production necessitated this step as it was a case of either confining the dogs or building fences to keep them from over-running the gardens.

The Peak of Motor Car Fashions

This new Overland Country Club Light Four is a distinctive and smart car in the low-priced car class. The rich, gray body, with black fenders and trimmings is set off to pleasing advantage by red wire wheels that give just the right flash of brilliant color. The two comfortable front seats move forward or back independently, and a spacious aisle between gives free passage to a roomy seat for two passengers in the rear. For riding comfort, the Overland Country Club is a revelation. Long, cantilever rear springs give it the riding ease of a much heavier, bigger car. It has ample power—and it is economical of gasoline. An easy car to handle, and completely equipped. An unusual demand for this model makes it necessary to place orders at once to secure spring delivery.

Didn't Stay for Fireworks.

A small boy idling before the store of W. J. Mustard, at Oxford and Waterloo Sts., London, on Tuesday afternoon, playfully focused the hot rays of the afternoon sun by means of a magnifying glass on the fuse of a firecracker displayed in the window. The firecracker was one of a considerable quantity of fireworks unused on the 24th of May celebrations. The small boy's mind was thoroughly compensated for the tedious minutes devoted to securing the right focus. One of the merriest little fireworks displays ever staged was pulled off in Mr. Mustard's window. Exit the small boy. It is stated on good authority that he was seven blocks away when the fire department arrived. The explosion wrecked the window. The heavy smoke and water did much damage to stock, which will total over $125.

The Proper Spirit.

The cynic who finds fault with certain officers for not reverting in rank in order to get to the front, finds a relieving instance in the example of Lieut. Claude Kormann of Hanover, cousin of Mr. John Kormann of the Hartley House, Walkerton. Lieut.-Col. Rorke, when ordered overseas with the 24th Battalion, found he had nine Lieutenants when he only needed three. It placed him in an unenviable position for him to discriminate. Lining the nine young officers up, he placed the position before them stating that he could only take three lieutenants and asked if any of them would go as privates. The first to step forward was Lieut. Kormann. After saluting his colonel, the young Hanover officer said that he had recruited the boys from Hanover to go to the war, and that for his part he was ready to go either as a Lieut. or as a private. That was the proper spirit, and Col. Rorke, "Not to be outdone in gallantry, replied: "You go overseas as one of my officers, Lieut. Kormann." Hats off to Claude.

Algonquin Park The Highway to Health and Happiness.

No better place could be devised for a real holiday for red-blooded men and women than Algonquin Park, situated about two hundred miles north of the city of Toronto. It is an unspoiled territory of nearly two million acres, starred with beautiful lakes and intersected by winding streams. No reserve in Canada can approach it in the wealth of attractions it offers to the lover of out-of-doors.

Away up in the Highlands of Ontario, two thousand feet above the level of the sea, the Park is a wonderful spot in which to renew the energies of a tired body or refresh a wearied spirit. Its tonic air filters through hundreds of square miles of pine, balsam and spruce; the days are unusually long with bright sunshine, while the cool evenings are a time of enchantment. The Park is a paradise for the fisherman and canoeist; the excellence of its sport draws anglers from every part of the Dominion and from every state in the Union, while the canoeist can travel for hundreds of miles in his light craft and be in a veritable kingdom of his own.

The accommodation in the park is such that the most varied tastes can be pleased. There are hotels for those who want to be in the wilderness—yet enjoy all the comforts that good service and social companionship can bring; there are groups of log cabin camps comfortably furnished and ideal for family parties, with central lodges containing recreation and dining rooms where you may dine and find everything ready for you on your return from the tramp; or if you have planned to camp under your own canvas you may step into a canoe at one of the little railway stations, and after a short paddle find a site unmarred by the hand of man yet within easy reach of the Park outfitting stores.

Many families now go into the Park expressly for the camping, making their headquarters at the hotels long enough to get supplies and camping outfit ready for the trip. Then in canoes, and with guides or without them, they launch out into the deep woods, camping where fancy prompts.

A handsome illustrated publication, telling you all about this famous park is issued by the Grand Trunk Railway and a copy can be had free on application to C. E. Horning, Union Station, Toronto, Ont.

Daylight Saving.

Sir George Foster gave notice last week of a Government bill in connection with daylight saving. The bill provides that during the summer months the clocks may be moved on one hour throughout the Dominion, but the condition is stipulated that the bill shall not become operative until it is proclaimed by order in Council. In other words the bill simply gives the Government power to enact a general daylight saving scheme for the whole Dominion if it is thought wise.

Spoiled His Pleasure.

The young Scot never liked his mother-in-law, and this weighed heavily on the mind of his wife who was ill. Calling her husband to her bed side, she said to him: "Sandy, lad, I'm verra ill, and I think I'm about to dee, and before I dee I want you to gie me a promise." "I'll promise," replied Sandy, "What is it?"

"Weel I ken that when I dee, I'll hae a fine funeral, and I want you to ride up in front in a carriage wi' ma mither." "Weel," sadly responded Sandy, "I've gie'd ye my word an it's nae me that'll gang back on that, but I'll tel ye one thing, ye've spoilt the day for me."

The Tractor Attractive.

The value of the light tractor as a very useful farm implement is increasing greatly this year and in many sections is playing an important part in the agricultural work this year. The Ontario Department of Agriculture has a dozen or so tractors at work in all parts of the province, while a number of farmers who have had the tractors in use since a year ago pronounce their machines as past the experimental stage and an approved success. Tractor owners have not figured on cost very closely yet, but in one case where fourteen work horses were required on the farm it is only necessary for half this number with the use of the tractor and it cost $1,000 to feed the work horses last year. Calculations are to date favoring the tractor by a considerable margin. It may also be used for various power purposes. In the large areas in Western Canada the tractor has of course, been of immense value and by fall many Ontario farmers will be able to speak authoritatively both as to the value of the tractor for the farms of Eastern Canada and the cost of its operation.—Perth Courier.

LIVE STOCK MARKETS TORONTO.

Trading on the Union Stock Yards yesterday was undoubtedly a trifle stronger than that of last week, but it could scarcely be designated as sharp and active, especially in the later stages of the trade. The market was steady for all classes of good butcher cattle with last week's figures, but there was a decline of from 25c to 50c for cows from last week's figures. There was a fairly heavy run of cattle, nearly 2200 in all with a big percentage of cows; but, while there were a number of good lots, the general run of cattle offered yesterday was fair to good.

For good butchers the market was steady to strong; for cows, bulls and medium butchers' cattle trade was decidedly lower, fully 25c per cwt.

Milk cows and springers were weaker and showed a sharp decline in price of from $28 to $35 per head. The figures quoted appeared startling, but the facts are correct. The abundance of pasture and milk has led to the rapid fall in price. The highest prices quoted for milkers yesterday was $120, and this for extra choice animals.

Sheep and lambs—The sheep and lamb trade is steady with last weeks prices. Light, handy sheep are selling at from 8 1/2c to 9 1/2c; heavy fat sheep and bucks at 7c to 8 1/2c, and choice yearlings at from 11c to 12 1/2c, while spring lambs brought from 15c to 17 1/2c.

Calves—The trade in calves was about steady with last week; choice calves sold at from 14c to 14 1/2c; medium calves at from 11 1/2c to 13c, and heavy, fat calves at from 7 1/2c to 10c per lb. There was a fair run of sheep, lambs and calves.

Hogs—The price of hogs on the Union Stock Yards yesterday was 15 1/2c, fed and watered with a drop of 50c for the rest of the week.

New Barn Raised.

Mr. Jos. Filsinger of the 4th concession raised the frame work of his new barn on Tuesday afternoon. There was a good crowd of willing workers and the building was raised in quick order. The thunderstorm which came up delayed the work considerably, but the men went each to the job after the rain was over and finished the raising. While the men were waiting for the rain to pass over, lightning struck a fence post a few rods away, and splintered it badly.

Costly Carelessness.

A young farmer walked into a local shoe store one day recently and bought a pair of shoes for which he gave his cheque on a local Bank. The merchant was not acquainted with his customer, and when the Bank officials stated that they had no such account on their books the merchant came to the conclusion that he had been fleeced and issued a warrant for his arrest. Chief Ferguson found the young man lived in North Brant and went but to arrest him when it was discovered that the whole trouble was due to a bit of carelessness on the part of the farmer, who had a bank ac-

What has become of the tent caterpillar pest which has been conspicuous among the foliage of our orchards and clumps of small wild trees during the past two or three years? Did last winter's cold dip crack the little eggs, or did the blackbirds completely annihilate the crawling insects last summer? There were thousands of the little tents last year but we've only seen one this spring, and the colony of grubs didn't seem to be a very thrifty one at that.
