RELIEF IS FELT IN PARIS

Retreat of Germans is Now Fully Predicted.

Government is to be Moved Back From Bordeaux.

[By Special Wire to The Courier.] PARIS, Oct. 31.—Unofficial announcement was made to-day that the government will return to Paris from Bordeaux on November 20, and that parliament will meet on December 15 to pass emergency laws.

Little by little Paris appears to be returning to more normal conditions. The shops in the Avenue de l'Opera, which had their doors locked and the windows whitewashed, have now been reopened.

Much interest is taken in the hot fighting in the vicinity of Ypres, where the allies have been gaining, because of the great importance of the position of the Germans. Ypres, according to German military men, is the center of the German position between Lille and the sea.

General Pierre Cherfillis, the military critic, declares that a wounded French officer with whom he talked yesterday gave all praise to the German method of combat.

[By Special Wire to the Courier.] ROME, Oct. 31.—The Idea Nazionale, the new organ of the Nationalist party, which has always urged the participation of Italy in the European conflict, says that the Italian inaction, after the attitude of Turkey would be simply absurd blindness.

[By Special Wire to the Courier.] LONDON, Oct. 31.—The Amsterdam correspondent of Reuters' Telegram Company, has forwarded the following Austrian official statement given out in Vienna Friday noon:

"There was no fighting yesterday in Russian Poland. On the Lower San strong hostile forces, which crossed the river south of Nisko were repulsed after severe fighting. Near Stary and Sambor our artillery has blown up a Russian ammunition depot. All hostile attacks on the heights west of Stary and Cambor have been repulsed. In the district, northeast of Turka, our attacking troops occupied several important positions, on heights which the enemy was forced to evacuate precipitately. Our landsturm captured numerous prisoners in these engagements."

Richard Taylor, an Englishman residing in Toronto, died in the hospital some time after he was seized with illness.

HOW A BELGIUM ARMORED CAR SURPRISED AND DESTROYED A GERMAN SCOUTING PATROL

A BELGIUM ARMORED MOTOR CAR GOING INTO ACTION AGAINST A GERMAN SCOUTING PATROL. DRAWN BY U. MATANIA.

This picture is from a drawing by U. Matania, a special artist for this newspaper, the New York Herald and the London Sphere, and describes an incident of the fighting in Belgium.

The armored cars attached to the Belgian army almost from the beginning of the war have been doing endless damage to stray bodies of German soldiers and scouting patrols.

[By Special Wire to the Courier.] LONDON, Oct. 31.—No declaration of war has yet been made by either Turkey or Russia, and the suggestion is made from various sources that the German commanders of the cruisers Goeben and Breslau may have forced the situation without the authority of the Turkish government, owing to Germany's chagrin at the defeat on the Vistula.

Germany Has Found Some Means to Drive Turkey Into Conflict

CROWN PRINCE WAS RESPONSIBLE FOR DISASTER

Russians Drove His Forces From Pillar to Post in Retreat.

[By Special Wire to the Courier.] LONDON, Oct. 31.—The Petrograd correspondent of The Daily Mail asserts that the German crown prince, at his own request, had charge of the recent German operations to force a passage of the Vistula, break the Russian centre, reduce the fortress of Ivanogorod, while the wings should envelop and crush the Russians.

Situation West of Flanders Too Serious for German

[By Special Wire to the Courier.] LONDON, Oct. 31.—10:15 a.m. Although the official communications do not spread much light on the situation, the reports and other reports coming from the front indicate that a German retreat is imminent and indeed is being reported by the press. Rumors, however, which were confirmed from Berlin, which claims some advances along the Ypres line.

ONE HUNDRED LOST ON HOSPITAL SHIP

British Steamer Rohilla Wrecked on Rocks Off Whitty—Broke in Two.

LONDON, Oct. 31.—It is believed that at least one hundred persons have perished through the running rocks early yesterday morning near Whitty of the steamer Rohilla, which was being used as a hospital ship. Including the hospital unit and her crew there were about 200 persons on board the vessel.

A despatch to the Evening News from Whitty late yesterday said the ship had broken in two and her stern lay down. The life-savers got a line across the floating part of the Rohilla, but communication between it and the shore could not be established.

Early yesterday morning four seamen were found among some wreckage thrown up on the coast, they having evidently tried to swim ashore. Among the wreckage was the name, "Rohilla, Glasgow." One of the seamen still is living. Tremendous seas are breaking over the vessel, and the members of the crew can be seen in the rigging.

The Rohilla was bound from Queen's Ferry to Belgium to bring back wounded from France. She ran aground 17 miles northwest of Scarborough, at 4 o'clock in the morning during a violent southeast gale and rainstorm. The vessel carried four nurses and several doctors, and hospital equipment. All the women on board have been saved. Every one of her boats, except the last one launched, was smashed by the sea and washed ashore. The remaining boats were abandoned near shore, and the lifeboats with extreme difficulty brought ashore two loads of the vessel's passengers, after which further attempts at rescue were abandoned. Fifty-eight persons were still clinging to the vessel.

IF HAIR IS TURNING GRAY, USE SAGE TEA

Here's Grandmother's Recipe to Darken and Beautify Faded Hair.

That beautiful, even shade of dark-glossy hair can only be had by brewing a mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur. Your hair is your charm. It makes or mars the face. When it dries, wavy and scraggly just an application or two of Sage and Sulphur enhances its appearance a hundredfold.

Don't bother to prepare the tonic; you can get from any drug store a 50 cent bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound" ready to use. This phur Compound is ready to use. This phur Compound is ready to use. This phur Compound is ready to use.

Everybody uses "Wyeth's" Sage and Sulphur because it darkens so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied. You simply dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through the hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair has disappeared and after another application it becomes beautifully dark and appears glossy, lustrous and abundant.

STEVENS—STEEDMAN.
Hamilton Herald.
The home of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Steedman, 44 East avenue north, was the scene of a very pretty wedding this afternoon, when in the presence of a large gathering of friends, their only daughter, Miss Elva Atridge, was united in marriage to Mr. Thomas Stevenson, formerly of Toronto. The ceremony took place at 3 o'clock, Rev. J. J. Ross, pastor of the Street Baptist Church, officiating.

The rooms throughout were charmingly decorated with pink Killarney roses and smilax. The bride entered in a white gown of embroidered chiffon, a veil in cap effect, with coronet of orange blossoms, and carried a shower bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley. Her bridesmaid, Miss Hope Doeringer, of Brantford, looked charming in mauve silk crepe de chine and carried Killarney roses, while the pretty little flower girl, Miss Elva Atridge, carried a basket of pale green silk and carried a basket of roses. The groom was attended by his brother, Mr. Charles Stevenson, of Toronto. The groom's gift to the bride was a very pretty cameo ring; to the bridesmaid he gave a cameo tie pin, and to Mr. Stanley Addison, who played the wedding march, and after the ceremony sang with good effect, "Until" he gave a pair of monogram cuff links.

The bride's mother wore a handsome gown of amethyst charmeuse, with gold lace and Persian trimming. Mrs. Robert Stevenson, mother of the groom, wore a black silk gown. A charming luncheon was served, after which Mr. and Mrs. Stevenson left on their honeymoon to New York, Atlantic City and Philadelphia. The bride wore a handsome suit of violet broadcloth and a hat of violet velvet, with shaded ostrich mount. She also wore a beautiful set of ermine furs. After their return they will reside at their new home, 310 York street, this city. Mr. and Mrs. Stevenson were the recipients of a large number of very handsome gifts.

German Spies in the District Near Lynden? Vienna City Faces Famine and Pestilence

A story of alleged German spies comes from the Governor's road near Lynden, some six miles from the city of Brantford. The farmers of that peaceful district have recently been much alarmed at the action of two men in the district. They have been taking photographs and surveying the land and as they will not explain, the inhabitants of that part are scared and have come to the conclusion that the men are German spies.

Some days ago Mrs. Chatterton who resides upon the Governor's Road, first noticed one of the men standing upon a small hillock, jotting notes down with regard to the surrounding country. She looked at him and passed on thinking he was a surveyor. Several times she saw him in various parts of the country, always making notes, often he had with him an instrument which she took to be a surveyor's. As the two men did not typically speak English or English she one day asked one of the two what they were doing and he made no sign and answered no word. He merely shrugged his shoulders and her suspicions were now thoroughly aroused and she questioned the other. He spoke fairly good English and although he was curt, he was much more affable than the first. He was a man of about 40 years of age, fair haired and both are big and broadly built, the one being taller than the other. Together they visited the Green bridge and took photographs of it from various points. Every farm house which they were allowed to photograph was snapped. They endeavored to obtain a picture of Mr. Armstrong's farm and they merely said nothing when he refused to allow them to take it. They have inspected the railroads at that part, they have photographed them and have made notes upon these also.

The above article gives a pretty fair idea of the condition stirred up in the minds of the residents of the farming districts over the way they have been treated about German spies and the like, that they have become distinctly suspicious of all strangers doing business in the country. The Courier has been successful in ferreting out the story of the "alleged German spies." There were two gentlemen photographing farmhouses in the Lynden district, and they are both well-known in Brantford. Mr. W. Carter, who resides at the corner of St. Paul's Avenue and St. George street, has been an outdoor photographer for twenty years. He made it his business to go from one farm to another and take

SCHEME OF PENSIONS IS BEING DRAWN UP

Sixty Cents a Day Likely to be the Sum in Case of a Private.

OTTAWA, Oct. 31.—The scheme of pensions to be paid to the widows, families and dependents of Canadian soldiers who may be killed in the war now being waged will be drawn up shortly by the Militia Department, and will be submitted to the cabinet. It will be made effective, in all probability, by a Pension Bill next session. As yet there is no statement as to what amount will constitute the pension to be paid in the case of the ordinary private, but it is understood that it will be considerably in excess of that received by the British soldier, a shilling a day, and will be about on the same scale as the United States pension, about six-tenths of the regular day's pay. This would amount to 60 cents per cent in the case of a Canadian soldier, who receives a dollar per day while on active service.

Of course it may be decided to grant an even larger pension than that, but at all events there is little prospect of the sum being any lower. As it is, the Canadian soldier is much better treated in the matter of service pay than his English comrade, who receives less than half that he does.

OFFICERS ENLISTING MUST RETAIN RANK

None Will be Allowed to Go With Next Contingent as Private.

OTTAWA, Oct. 31.—Canadian officers who enlist for service in the second contingent will not, it is learned, be allowed to waive their rank and serve in the ranks as privates in the case of their first contingent, so eager were they to see service at the front. Besides this, many more officers were taken over with their rank, and it is probable that a number of officers did this in the case of their first contingent, so eager were they to see service at the front. SCOTLAND'S SONS HOLD A CONCERT

Enjoyable Event Was Held Last Evening in the Camp Room.

A most successful concert, being the first of a series of social evenings, was held by the Sons of Scotland in their camp room on Thursday evening. A large number of members and friends were present and enjoyed a splendid evening. Chief J. B. Wilson arrayed in Shepherd regalia, proved a most efficient chairman. The programme which waited the audience back to auld Scotland for the evening, consisted of piano duets by Mrs. McArthur and Miss Storey, who also proved excellent accompanists. Mrs. A. Simpson, recently from the Old Land made her first appearance before a Brantford audience, and scored a signal success in two violin solos, having to respond to enthusiastic encores. Bro. A. Duncan and A. Simpson also made their first vocal appearance, and made a splendid showing in Scottish songs. Bro. Dr. Russell gave an excellent rendering of "Mary" and with Bro J. Anderson responded to an encore in a duet, "Scots Wha Hae." Miss Minnie Ross, and Bro. J. Anderson, prime favorites with a Scotch audience gave "Hunting Tower," with spirit and realistic effect, and "Will ye no come back again," as an encore. Miss Ross added to her laurels in "Mary" style, in her recitation "O'er a Working Girl." In a short but prompt address Bro. Rev. J. W. Gordon touched on the war, emphasizing the fact of the "British" instead of the oft quoted "English" army, pointing out the doggedness of the English, passion of the Irish and daring bravery of the Scotch, as dominant factors in holding in check the greatest military machine ever built up. Bro. Past Chief Hodde in an interesting and instructive address touched on Scotsmen in various aspects, their high moral standing as a nation, ability and achievement, success and influence in all walks of life and in all lands, dealing with the S. O. S. as a fraternal and insurance society he pointed out the necessity of an absolutely safe insurance and referred to the Dominion government report showing that the S. O. S. ranks second among Canadian societies as a safe investment with a cash reserve of $7,271,000 insurance, a high standing in the "World's Best" list, and a low death rate, and concluded by showing that for Scotsmen, on fraternal, patriotic and sound business grounds, no better investment could be found than the S. O. S. No Scotch gathering would be complete without the bagpipes which were handled in splendid style by Bro James Galbraith. Votes of thanks were proposed by Bros G. Broatch and A. McAulay received a hearty response after which a happy and successful evening was brought to a close by "Auld Lang Syne."

TOKIO, Oct. 31.—The navy department announces that the Japanese squadron, assisted by English warships, and masked by a mist, approached and vigorously and effectively bombarded the forts at Tsing-Tau on October 29. Several of the defence works were destroyed, and on the next day the bombardment was repeated. Only the saiser northeast fort replied to the bombardment.

FEARS FOR BUILDINGS

PARIS, Oct. 31.—Maurice Maeterlinck, the Belgian author, in a signed article in The Figaro, reviewing the phases of the war in Belgium, still expresses fear for the fate of the Grand Place, (market place) the Hotel De Ville (the town hall) and the cathedral of Brussels. He says he is certain and knows from a sure personal source that they have been mined and that only a spark is needed to reduce them to debris.

OBSTRUCTION ON TRACK.

LONDON, Ont., Oct. 31.—An obstruction discovered on one of the railway crossings of the city last night was removed by railway employees just a few moments before the passing of one of the last expresses. It is thought to have been the work of small boys having an early celebration of Halloween.

LONDON, Ont., Oct. 31.—The local authorities have figured out that the cost of the training of 1,000 men here for sixty days of the 18th battalion of the second contingent will be $7,466 per day. For sixty days training the cost will be $447,960.

THE SITUATION.

To all intents and purposes the situation at the time of writing still continues to be a deadlock between the Germans and the Allies. The latter at a few points have gained slight ground, but nothing decisive can be said to have taken place either way.

The German fleet still remains in the Kiel canal. There is a persistent rumor that the Krupp works are turning out a new style of gun for them. Their siege guns came as a complete surprise to the foe and made the most modern defences the human mind could devise look like so much card paper.

The Russian troops would seem to be making a fair amount of advance, but the fighting is manifestly very stubborn.

Turkey, of course, has jumped into the fray in the hope that if the Kaiser succeeds she will get back her former territory. He won't do that, however.

GOOD TIMES AND WARM SMOKESTACKS.

Good times are bound to come back to the world and to this country. But good times don't come by any means of fat kind after lean ones. They are not controlled by blind eyes nor forecasted by people like Madame Tiresias.

Crops come naturally. The crops of 1914 are on the whole more profitable in this country than in 1913, or any of the fat years of the last decade. We have in this country a larger army of efficient, industrious people than ever we had.

These facts are quite enough to show that fleet engagements are not to be expected at the beginning of a war. They give no countenance to the view that the battleship is doomed by the advent of the submarine, though its character, use and tactics may ultimately be changed.

DO NOT UNDER-RATE THE FOE.

The Courier in one or two instances has been criticized for accrediting to Germany too much importance as an aggressive and a fighting power. There need be no mistake about this thing. The troops of the Kaiser are armed and equipped right to the minute.

It is true, and it is now unquestioned, that the German military machine is, in discipline, organization, numbers and armament, one of the most powerful field forces yet assembled in history.

prudent and strong; that he has counted the cost; and is prepared to make an immense and staggering sacrifice of his material prosperity in the effort to save himself from the consequences of defeat.

THE NAVY AND ITS WORK. John Leyland in the London Chronicle writes as follows: "When we think of the fighting of our troops in France let it be remembered that but for the navy not a soldier would have set foot in that country."

British Airmen Superior. London Daily Mail.—The British airmen, in the course of this war, have established an individual ascendancy over the German air service.

Compensation for the Maimed. London Express.—The Workmen's Compensation Act forces the private employer to provide for his workmen who are injured during their hours of labor.

The King and Queen of the Belgians are both on the firing line encouraging their troops. They are two of the big figures in this war.

Press Comment

Monitors Still to be Reckoned With. Springfield Republican.—That three British monitors should have distinguished themselves fighting along the Belgian coast might almost be classed among the anomalies of the war.

British Empire Review.—German aims and ideals now stand revealed in the light of the world's eyes. The world rejects them. There is no concealment. Germany would impose upon the world a civilization—a "culture"—which civilization she would deem it a negation of that culture to which mankind aspires.

Corsica Preferred to Calvary. London Times.—The German theologians (who addressed a manifesto to "the Evangelical Christians abroad") ignored the fact that the German Government has, in practice, entirely abandoned the teachings of Christianity to follow the devil's gospel preached by Nietzsche and popularized by Treitschke and Bernhardi.

Belgium Must be Restored. London Chronicle.—Belgian statesmen can rest assured that Britain will not abandon the struggle till all the wrongs of their country are righted as liberally as they can be, and her territory and independence are fully restored to her, with solid guarantees against future aggression.

THE ANSWER TO WHY MORE CANADIANS READ THE LITERARY DIGEST THAN ANY OTHER NEWS WEEKLY PUBLISHED IN THE UNITED STATES. The Literary Digest is being read by thousands of Canadians from Halifax to Vancouver. This immediate popularity is accounted for by the fact that this great illustrated weekly presents the WAR NEWS from all sides without favor or bias.

SOME BIG-EGG.
Mrs. Garland, who lives at the starch works, recently found an egg in her chicken coop which measured 7 inches by 9 inches.

FISCAL YEAR ENDED.
The Children's Aid Society's fiscal year comes to a close to-day, and the annual meeting of the Shelter will be held during next month.

BORDEN CLUB RALLY.
Next Friday night the Borden Club is holding the opening rally of the season and the Borden Club from Paris are coming down to put on the program. A big time is expected.

TAXES COMING IN.
Taxes rolled into the coffers of the Township in a very pleasing manner this morning, when the Township Tax-collectors made the Clerk's office their headquarters. The result was very gratifying to the officials.

LEAVING THE CITY.
Frank A. Richards, Charles Williams and Arthur Harris, who have sojourned at the County Court jail for a few days at the request of the police magistrate will leave that institution for a more commodious one in Toronto to-day.

CHARGED WITH ASSAULT.
The case of William Meates, charged with assault, and malicious damage to property by his wife, was inadvertently stated to have been a squabble. Such was not the case, as the wife preferred a straight charge of assault against her husband.

PRISONERS PASS THROUGH.
Last night there passed through the city on the 8.19 train, a batch of prisoners from London and other points en route for the Central Prison, Toronto. Three were to have left Brantford but owing to lack of accommodation on the train their departure was delayed.

BROKE PLATE GLASS.
A $65 plate glass window in McGregor's grocery store, Richmond street, was broken last night by some unknown. A policeman on Brant Ave. heard the crash, but had no evidence against a man he ran across whom he suspected of having fallen through the window.

THE PARIS SEPARATION.
The County Council will meet this afternoon in the county court building to consider the question of the separation of Paris as a municipality from the county. The council is not in favor of the losing of Paris and will endeavor to retain the town as part of the county.

HALLOWEEN PARTY.
A Halloween party was given at the home of Mr. Vern Lutes, Terrace Hill St. last evening. A feature of the occasion was the great variety of costumes, many of the make-ups being quite original and created much amusement. Games of all kinds were played and a dainty lunch served. The affair was a most enjoyable one.

WITH THE POLICE.
Charles Ford was dismissed upon a charge of being drunk this morning only to be arrested for breaking a 75 pane of sheet glass upon Dalhousie street last night. This charge was not pressed and again he was dismissed. William Taylor will have to travel in the mixed to the Ambitious City. He was charged with being a vagrant and promised to quit the city if he was discharged. He was let off. Edward Barnes charged his brother Paul Barnes with conversion and the latter waived examination and elected to be tried by a jury. He was committed for trial.

MARKET PRICES.
Prices showed an upward tendency on the Saturday market this morning. Several household commodities rose a few cents, but the most noticeable slump was evident in potatoes, which sank to 70 cents a bag. This is about the lowest they have been this season. Butter was stationary at 30 to 32 cents a pound, eggs rose from 33 to 36 cents, an increase of four cents. Chickens went at $1.00 and $1.25 a pair; celery was bought at 5 cents and most vegetables were to be obtained at 3 for 10 cents. Apples were reasonable at $1.25 a barrel. Onions rose slightly. Hay exchanged hands between $13 and $15.00 a ton, and meat remained as it was, pork was fifteen cents a pound.

Chinaman Sticks To First Story

Lee Yon was yesterday informed of Lee Duck's death and he was greatly affected by the news. At first he would scarcely believe it and later burst into tears and was not quieted for some time. He appeared to be deeply grieved to learn of his cousin's death. He is progressing well, but the continued effort to talk considerably weakens him. He considers that he is quite well enough to leave the hospital and go back to his business, but the doctor's assure him that he is as yet far from being capable of such exertion. Several times he has spoken of the crime and each occasion his remarks have corroborated his first statements. He remembers that when he went to bed he left the key in the door. He knows also of Lee Duck's arrival home. All these things he reiterates, but they have shed little light upon the murder mystery.

CAPTURE OF ELUSIVE EMBDEN NEAR AT HAND

PARIS, Oct. 31.—Advices received here to-day show that it was the French torpedo-boat destroyer, Mousquet, which, with the Russian cruiser Zentchug, was sent to the bottom yesterday at Penang, Straits Settlements, by the German cruiser Emden, which is given in the Matin. This says that the Emden entered Penang disguised as a Russian warship, flying the Russian colors and skillfully concealing her identity until she got well into port. Then, according to the Matin's correspondent, the Emden suddenly hoisted the German flag and opened fire on the Zentchug, which, taken by surprise and unable to defend herself, was sunk in a few minutes. The Emden then dashed out to sea, with the Mousquet courageously following her. The torpedo-boat destroyer tried to torpedo the cruiser, but the light was too unequal and the Mousquet was sent to the bottom. The correspondent adds that all the cruisers of the allied fleet in the vicinity of Penang, notably those of Japan are now pursuing the Emden. The Minister of Marine, in an official announcement of the affair, says that the Mousquet was picked up by the Emden before the German cruiser departed from the scene. The number of men rescued was not given. c

A Remarkable Tribute to Gin Pills FOR THE KIDNEYS

In February last, Mrs. J. P. J. Wedge of East Street, Summerside, P.E.I., wrote to a friend in Toronto and among other things said, "Gin Pills are the greatest of all kidney remedies and a medicine which is at present doing me a world of good. They are worth their weight in gold to any sufferer". We asked permission, through a mutual friend, to publish the above extract and received the following testimonial to the great efficacy of Gin Pills.

Summerside, April 24th, 1914. "Your letter of the 21st, to hand this evening, asking my permission to hand my letter to the National Drug & Chemical Co. You have my full permission to do so, and to them I give the liberty to publish and use my name if they wish, because Gin Pills have done for my husband and myself what no other remedy could do. I have advised two other parties to use them: one being my Mother, who has been a great sufferer for upwards of 20 years and one box of Gin Pills cured her so as to enable her to sleep on her left side, something she could not do for many years. The doctors told her they could not cure her but could relieve her by an operation for a floating kidney, but on account of her age they did not think it was advisable for her to undergo. Upon my advice, she tried Gin Pills which cured her and for which she is ever ready to speak in terms of praise."

MRS. J. P. J. WEDGE, Remember, you can TRY Gin Pills BEFORE you buy them. If the urine shows brick dust deposits or mucus—or is hot and scalding—if you have to urinate too frequently—if there is a burning in the bladder or pain in the back—Gin Pills at once and cure yourself. Gin Pills are sold by all dealers at 50c. a box, 6 for $2.50 and every box carries with it our spot cash guarantee of satisfaction or money back. Sold in U.S. under the name "GINO" PILLS. SIR NIGEL

BY A. CONAN DOYLE

Copyright, 1905, by W. A. Conan Doyle

"This was one of the most wonderful moments now Edward had to face. He was as boy upon a holiday for the dawning dawn as the vernal those busybodies at Westminster. He was out with his hawk, and his thoughts and his talk should be of nothing else. The varlets beat the heather and bushes as they passed, and whooped loudly as the birds flew on.

"A magpie! A magpie!" cried the falconer.

"May, may, it is not worthy of your name, my brown-eyed queen," said the King, looking up at the great bird which flapped from side to side above his head, waiting for the whistle which should give her the signal.

"The doctors, falconer—a cast of tercel! Quick, man, quick! He! the rascal makes for wood. He goes in! Well, now, bravo peregrine! He makes his point. Drive him out to the corner. Serve him, varlet! Beat the bushes! He breaks! He breaks! Nay, come away then! You will see Master Magpie no more."

The bird had indeed, with the cunning of its race, flapped its way through brushwood and bushes to the thicker woods beyond, so that neither the hawk amid the cover nor its partner above nor the clamorous besters could harm it. The King laughed at the mischief and rode on. Continually birds of various notes were flung up to the monarch's elbow.

"How say you, sire? I was watching the gohawk on the partridge and heard you not."

"I am glad that I would add two more to the list of Chichester, I warrant that you would have heard me, my Lord Bishop."

"Nay, fair lord, test the matter by saying so," cried the joyful Bishop.

The King laughed aloud. "A fair counter, your reverence. By the rood! You broke your lance that passage. But the question I debated was this: How is it that since the Crusades have manifested being fought in God's quarrel, we Christians have had so little comfort or support in fighting them? After all our efforts and the loss of more men than could be counted, we are at last driven from the country, and even the military orders which were formed only for that one purpose can scarce hold a footing in the islands of the Greek sea. There is not one seaport nor one fortress in Palestine over which the flag of the Cross still waves. Where then was our ally?"

"Nay, sire, you open a great debate which extends far beyond this question of the Holy Land, though that may indeed be shown as a fair example. It is the question of all sinners of all suffering, of all injustice—why it should pass without the rain of fire and the lightning of God's wisdom of God is beyond our understanding."

The King shrugged his shoulders. "This is an easy answer, my Lord Bishop. You are a prince of the Church. It would fare ill with an earthly prince who could give no better answer to the affairs which concerned his realm."

"There are other considerations which might be urged; most gracious sire. It is true that the Crusades were a holy enterprise which might have earned the blessing of God; but the Crusaders—is it certain that they deserved such a blessing? Have I not heard that their camp was the most dissolute ever seen?"

Camps are camps all the world over, and you cannot in a moment change a Bowman into a saint. But the holy Louis was a crusader after your own heart. Yet his men perished at Mansourah and he himself at Tunis."

"Bethink you also that this world is but the antechamber of the next," said the prelate. "By suffering and tribulation the soul is cleansed, and the true victor may be he who by the patient endurance of misfortune merits the happiness to come."

"It that be the true meaning of the Church's blessing, then, I hope that it will be long before it rests upon our banners in France," said the King. "But methinks that when one is out with a brave bow and a good arrow, one may find some other subject than theology. Back to the birds, Bishop, or Raul the falconer will come to interrupt thee in thy cathedral."

Straightway the conversation came back to the mystery of the woods and the mystery of the rivers, to the dark-eyed hawk and the yellow-eyed falcon, to the lure and hawk of the fish. The Bishop was as steeped in the lore of falconry as the King, and the others smiled as the two wrangled hard over disputed and technical questions: if an eagle trained in the mews can ever emulate the passage hawk taken wild, or how long the young hawk should be placed at back, and how long washed before they are fully reclaimed.

Monarch and prelate were still deep in this learned discussion, the Bishop speaking with a freedom and assurance which he would never have dared to use in affairs of Church and State, for in all ages there is no such leveler as sport. Suddenly, however, the Prince, whose keen eyes had swept heaven, uttered a peculiar call and raised up his palfrey, pointing at the same time into the air.

"A heron!" he cried. "A heron on passage!"

To gain the full sport of hawking a heron must not be put up from its feeding-ground, where it is heavy with food, but it is necessary to get its pace on before it is pounced upon by the more active hawk, but it must be aloft, traveling from point to point, hovering. Thus to catch the bird on passage was the pretense of all good sport. The object to which the Prince had pointed was but a black dot in the southern sky, but his strained eyes had not deceived him, and both Bishop and King agreed that it was indeed a heron, which grew larger, very instant as it flew in their direction.

"I trust, dear father, that the day may come when we shall lay our hands on all three," said the Prince, looking with shining eyes upon the King. "Is the Holy Land to lie forever in the grasp of these unbelieving savages, or the Holy Temple to be defiled by their foul presence? Ah! by my soul and most sweet lord, give to me a thousand lances with ten thousand bowmen like those I led at Creoy, and I swear to you by God's soul that within a year I will have done homage to you for the Kingdom of Jerusalem!"

The King laughed as he turned to Walter Henry. "Boys will still be boys," said he.

"The French do not count me such!" cried the young Prince, flushing with anger.

"Nay, fair son, there is no one else you can rely on but your father. But you have the nimble mind and quick fancy of youth, turning over from the thing that is half done to another, sea beyond sea. How would we fare in Brittany and Normandy while my young paladin with his lances and his bowmen was besieging Ascalon or battering at Jerusalem?"

"Heaven would help in Heaven's way," said the King.

"From what I have heard of the party," cried the King, "I can not see that Heaven has counted for much as an ally in these wars of the East. I speak with reverence, and yet it is but sooth to say that Richard of the Lion heart, or Louis of France might have found the smallest earthly principality of greater service to him than all the celestial hosts."

"Nay, you to that, my Lord Bishop."

A stout churchman who had ridden behind the King on a solid bay cob, well-saddled to his weight and dignity, jogged up to the monarch's elbow.

"How say you, sire? I was watching the gohawk on the partridge and heard you not."

"I am glad that I would add two more to the list of Chichester, I warrant that you would have heard me, my Lord Bishop."

In The World Of Labor

A Budget of News For Those Interested in Labor

By G. A. M.

Gleaned From the Exchanges and Other Sources

IF IN TORONTO, WHY NOT HERE?

The labor organ of Ontario, the "Industrial Banner," has the following item in reference to the employment of those out of work in making toys for the Canadian market this winter—

"It has been generally well known in the city during the last couple of weeks that representative carpenters, sheet metal workers, machinists, painters, and other crafts whose members can work to advantage in the manufacture of toys, have held several meetings to discuss the matter, with the result that the initial board has been started, and arrangements to secure modern machinery to be installed without loss of time, have been completed, a committee has also been formed, and arrangements to be made for the coming Christmas trade, and then place new models on the market and take orders immediately after for next year's goods."

It is intended to place the goods ready for the coming Christmas trade, and then place new models on the market and take orders immediately after for next year's goods. It is fully expected that this matter will also be taken up in this city also, and if suitable arrangements can be made there is no reason why a branch of this work should not be gone on with here. A committee in connection with the scheme has already been appointed by the Brantford Trades and Labor Council, and they are working in conjunction with their Toronto co-workers. Nothing definite has as yet been accomplished, as the committee are awaiting a visit from Mr. Marks, of Toronto, who will come here, if expected, and explain fully all details.

The initial meeting of the committee was called by the Secretary of the Labor Educational Association of Ontario, and communications have been opened with other centres regarding the proposition. It may be stated that several years ago a small toy shop was opened in London to give work to the unemployed, but it was run upon an entirely different basis. The work then was almost entirely done by hand, and no matter what avocation a man followed he was given employment. Some 26 men were partly employed at the time, and the output of the shop was all disposed of.

In the present venture it is intended to make the factory a permanent institution. Labor-saving machinery will be installed and only capable men will be employed in work for which they are adapted.

CIGARMAKERS ARE VERY DULL

Toronto cigarmakers report that trade conditions show no improvement during the past couple of weeks. The slackness in the trade has been of continuance, but the union is in good shape and the demand for the Blue Label is being maintained.

Love One Another

(By John E. Nordquist.)
"Love one another," saith the Master. Do we heed this great command? Are we sisters, are we brothers. We, of this great, mighty land? Look about you! See the misery! See the yawning gulf of want! Does not cold and starving children. All your dreams and visions haunt?
"Love one another," saith the Master. Repeat it once again. Then go forth and gently practice. Those loving works upon all men. Do your best to end the struggle; Root our poverty's dark reign; Help your brother into sunshine, Cast away their galling chain.
"Love one another," saith the Master. Do your share to dawn the day. That shall usher in the sunshine. That shall spread an equal ray. When rich and poor have vanished, And brotherhood reigns in peace. This is the watchword of the race.

World of Labor

The Cambria Steel Company of Pittsburgh, Pa., has reduced working hours from 10 to 9 per day, with corresponding reduction in wages.
The Ohio Federation of Labor will endeavor to secure an amendment of the State Compensation Act, to increase the amount of the awards granted to injured workers.
The strike of the New York Ladies Tailors Union is rapidly spreading. Twenty large firms are now affected, and many non-union workers are coming out in sympathy and enrolling themselves in the organization. It looks as though the entire industry would be completely tied up, were it not for a single defector, there was a ten weeks' battle the neck-wear makers' union has won a signal victory in Greater New York. During the whole period of the strike there was not a single defector from the ranks, and strike benefits were paid promptly each week. The sub-letting of work to sub-contractors, which was the cause of the trouble, will be abolished.

An investigation into the home conditions of 205,000 people on Manhattan Island, N.Y., has shown that 83 per cent are without hot water, except that treated on stoves; forty-five per cent are without washbaths, and ninety-two per cent are without baths. It has also been shown that out of 860,000 school children in New York City 524,000 are afflicted with some physical defect.
It is most significant that while the Pittsburg Coal Company has reduced the wages of its unorganized operatives to the tune of 10 per cent, and the Westinghouse Company has put in force an 8 per cent decrease, the latter firm has interfered with the schedules of their organized workers. In other words, the non-unionists get a drop because they failed to recognize the necessity of organization. The union employees, however, will realize as never before what membership in a labor union really means.
According to State Inspector Ross, of Topeka, Kansas, two-thirds of the Kansas wheat crop is still in bins, or in stack, and he claims that the third was sold for ready cash of which the farmer is being held up for a hoort in prices.
Frank P. Walsh, chairman of the U.S. Federal Commission on Industrial Relations, whose body is now making a searching inquiry into economic and political conditions throughout the country, says: "Although we hope to make recommendations, labor's welfare must depend in the last resort on labor itself. That puts the case pretty concisely that labor must get busy and organize and make its demands if it expects to receive any consideration. The powers that be will hand the workers nothing on a silver platter."
Mary Ford, a deserted wife, was up last week in a New York court on the charge of forging checks. She indignantly placed the blame upon the school officials, "when they knew," she said, "that my husband had deserted me and that I was soon to be the support of two persons—myself and the baby—soon to come, they forced me to resign my position, thus leaving me stranded without means of support."
The defendant, who pleaded guilty, is being held under $300 bail for trial.
The British Board of Trade, a governmental institution corresponding somewhat to the Federal department of Labor at Ottawa, has just issued statistics showing that at the close of last year the trade union membership in that country was exactly 4,993,750. This was an increase of 2 1/2 per cent over 1912 and 100 per cent over the first year in the decade. Substantially all trades are represented in the total gain, except the store clerks, who report a slight loss. The general laborers, dock workers and seamen, railroad employes and miners, show the largest relative increase.
British co-operators are struggling hard to save the great organization they have built up by years of hard work. Few people—even the members of the Labor movement themselves—can have a definite idea of the vast business carried on by the co-operative stores of the United Kingdom. One-fifth of the population is in the habit of making its purchases at these stores, and the trade turnover is considerably more than $5,000,000 a year. These co-operative institutions have been of considerable assistance to the workers in their contests for improved conditions.

The committee on unemployment appointed by the New York Central Labor Union has made a strong protest against the many old employes who have recently been discharged by various civic departments. Some of these men had been employed upon one job continuously for periods of 18 and 20 years. It is pointed out that retiring officials, who have drawn big salaries for years, are granted large honorariums, but the poorer paid workers, who live from hand to mouth, are simply fired out to shift as best they may, after having grown old in the city's service. The central body proposes to learn the reason why.

That is the value of Canada's manufactures for one year—in money. But what of their value measured in the comfort, the happiness and the well-being of the whole country?

To produce them gives employment to over six hundred thousand workpeople, whose total wages amount to $288,000,000 each year.

These workers, with their families and those who benefit by their purchasing power, number nearly one-third the population of Canada—supported by Canadian manufactures.

How readily it is apparent that the prosperity and happiness of every Canadian—of yourself—depend on the continuous employment of these people—on the consumption of goods "Made in Canada."

Canadian factories support one-third of our population. Are you helping to support Canadian factories?

J. L. SUTHERLAND

A SUNDAY SERMON BY PASTOR RUSSELL

WHY GOD IS ANGRY WITH THE WORLD

Exposition of Justice of the Day of Vengeance.

"THE CONTROVERSY OF ZION"

Explains How Jehovah Balances the Books—Wrong Thoughts of God's Wrath—Preparations For the New Dispensation of World-Wide Blessings to Both the Church and the World—Terrible Fruitage Now of False Doctrines Taught For Centuries.

Oct. 25.—A splendid congregation listened spellbound to Pastor Russell as his address inquired into the reason why in God's providence the world is being ushered into the "Time of Trouble, such as was not since there was a nation."

What special sin in the world merited this extraordinary penalty? The Pastor's text was, "And the nations were angry, and Thy wrath is come."—Revelation 11:18.

After some introductory comments upon his text, the speaker read a number of corroborative Scriptures—Isaiah 34:1-6; Jeremiah 25:15, 16, 27-38; Isaiah 66:15, 16; Luke 21:24, 26; Revelation 6:8-11; 2 Thessalonians 1:3-10. Commenting on these Scriptures, the Pastor claimed that their united testimony referred to the present, ministrations of the end of the world, properly interpreted, the end of this Age, lapsing upon and inaugurating the New Age—"the world to come."

The Pastor declared that the whole world are Gentiles, according to the Scriptural presentation, except the true followers of Christ and the loyal-hearted Jews, who are still God's people under the Law covenant. In closing the great mass of Jews and of professed Christians as part of the world the Pastor meant no unkindness; but declared that to understand God's dealings in the end of time, neither Christians, or mere professors, must not be confounded with the "little flock" who have responded to the Gospel Call, "Gather Me saints together unto Me; which have made a Covenant with Me by sacrifice" (Psalm 50:5; Romans 12:1). If we shall recognize these saints, Christians of every name and denomination as being the one true Church, "whose names are written in Heaven," and if we shall recognize all others as Gentiles, we shall be getting the great message of the end of this Age, as expressed in the Bible.

Thus seen, God is not merely calling nations to war, as though the world were in more particular sense the call is to this Gentile class irrespective of national boundaries. And it is worthy of note that throughout the Scriptures the great masses of Jews and Christians, etc., are comparatively ignored. Because they have not come into particular contact with God's Messages they are not so particularly included in the expre- cations, troubles, foretold to be coming upon the earth at the close of this Age. In other words, unintentional ignorance of God is not a crime to be punished, but a defect in the mind in due time by the blessings of Messiah's Kingdom.

When thinking of the wrath of God coming upon the world, we are not to think of the Almighty as having exercised great patience, or centuries and finally losing His temper and wreaking vengeance upon His creatures. Such a thought might be gathered from some of the expressions of the Scriptures, because of adaptation of language to human comprehension, and more or less loss of the true sentiment in translating and through the mental gloss of the translators.

In any event let us remember that this wrath of God and the judgments coming upon the world are wholly different from the legends, namely, eternal torture at the hands of demons, taught us by our creeds. In- stinctively, a part of the dread we have of death in every form—by war, by eternal torture, by the fear of famine and sickness—is the fear of being wrongdoers, inculcated by all the creeds of Christendom, but without Bible foundation when the latter is properly translated and rightly understood.

Furthermore, we should remember that while God has foretold the troubles of the Day of Wrath for centuries and indicates that He will have to do with their precipitation upon the world, nevertheless elsewhere He also shows us that these troubles really come from ourselves, that they are the outgrowth of the man wrongdoing, and that these dire penalties of sin would have wrecked our social and religious fabric long ago, had not Divine Providence intervened, holding back the storm of human passion and avarice, and permitting it to come only now, in the end of the Age, at the time when Divine Providence has Mes- siah's Kingdom a few readings of but a storm of human passion shall have taught humanity its needed lesson and shall have liquidated the long standing accounts, Messianic King- dom with a clean slate, will be in- augurated.

In Jesus and in His saintly follow-

Christianity with the world. The so-called "Christendom" of our day corresponds exactly to the Jewry of Jesus' day. Then Scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites, were banded together with the Sadducees and the Herodians, the worldly and infidel politicians. Their object was one, namely, the perpetration of their own institution, regardless of God's management. So here, the civilized world, misnaming itself "Christ's Kingdom," is intent upon the preservation of the great Babylon which it has constructed, and willing to do anything to avoid its foretold destruction.

Taking into account the persecutions endured by God's saints throughout this Gospel Age, there must be a heavy account on the book of Justice to be settled. Saintly Catholics, saintly Presbyterians, saintly Baptists, saintly Methodists, saintly people in and out of all denominations are sustained; and Je- sus' words still stand true—namely, that whosoever would give to the least of His followers even a cup of cold water would not call for reward, and that injury to even the least of these would be punished.

Are we asked what are the special sins of our day? We reply that here, in Jesus' day, hypocrisy is the greatest of all sins. There were thefts, murders, adulteries, and in- justices of various kinds in Jesus' day; yet while denouncing all these in spirit, He practically ignored them in His denunciations of the hypoc- risy of the religious rulers of His time. We believe that His judgment of so-called "Christendom" to-day is the same.

There was a time when the world ignorantly thought that the kings of earth were ruling as part of Christ's Kingdom. There was a time when men really believed that their ever- lasting destiny was in the hands of the clergy, Protestant and Catholic, and that unless they had the good laws and the baptism, marriage, etc., they would be eternal- ly tormented; but that day has passed—a more enlightened day has come.

Our Bible is better understood; the clergy are no longer deceived. They know that the word Sheol of the Old Testament and the word Hades of the New Testament represent the state or condition of death, into which the whole world goes, good and bad. They know that these good could not represent torture or fire in any sense of the word. They see that the "dark ages" of the Middle Ages were merely political institu- tions permitted for a time, waiting for the glorious epoch of Messiah's Kingdom to bring in the New Order of things.

But notwithstanding this knowl- edge, the Divine character is still blasphemed. The kings of the earth, told during the "dark ages" that they were the sword of the Lord and servants of the Church, have not been undeceived. Hence the Czar of Russia, the Head of the Greek Church, believes he is working out Divine destiny; the British under King George are equally convinced that they are working out a great destiny as God's Kingdom.

Millions are hearing of the "dark ages" and are hearing a terrible fruitage in the present war. Similarly the teachings of eternal torment, mis- representing and blaspheming God's character, are bearing an evil fruitage. Millions of people are being turned away from faith in a God of Love and from faith in the Bible as His Message by the most monstrous blasphemies of the "dark ages" ever charge the responsibility of all this against the sects and creeds of Christ- endom.

A great fraud, a great hypocrisy, you say? I answer, Yes; the most astounding of the "dark ages" ever known. Two hundred thousand pro- fessed ministers of God and Christ are standing before the world to-day telling the legends of the Dark Ages and seeking to bring back the world from coming to a knowledge of the Truth, meanwhile receiving the peo- ple's money and reverence. Does not this hypocrisy, such blasphemy, charge the responsibility of the "dark ages" upon the people, such keeping of them in darkness, deserve a great punish- ment?

What shall we do, do you ask? I answer: Be honest. Be true! Com- out of Babylon. Stand free from all such slandering of the Almighty God and His gracious provisions. Stand for the Bible, the Truth, the God of Love and Wisdom, Justice and Power. "Come out from among them, and be ye separate, and touch not the unclean thing; and I will receive you."

The forecast of the present distress of nations is graphically set forth in the volume "The Battle of Armaged- don," cloth, 660 pages, written in 1897 by Pastor Russell. This coupon with 25c. will secure to you this valuable book post free. Its chapter exposing the 24th Chapter of St. Matthew's Gospel is worth many times the price of the volume. Ad- dress, International Bible Students Association, 117 Hicks Street, Brook- lyn, N.Y., and principal bookstores.

Whistles For Wounded Soldiers.

Dr. Moanier, a Paris surgeon, is urging the authorities to provide every soldier with a whistle for use when wounded to call stretcher-bear- ers. The surgeon cites the case of one artilleryman who lay for sixty hours on the battlefield with insufficient strength to call ambulance men pass- ing near.

Sunk Their Own Ship.

When the French gunboat Zelee was sunk off Tahiti by German cruis- ers a vessel with her was also sent to the bottom. Then the Germans learned they had sunk one of their own ships, the German merchantman Walkurie, which had been taken as a prize by the gunboat.

SUNDAY SCHOOL

Lesson V.—Fourth Quarter, For Nov. 1, 1914.

THE INTERNATIONAL SERIES.

Text of the Lesson, Matt. xxv, 57-68. Memory Verses, 53, 64—Golden Text, Isa. liii, 7—Commentary Prepared by Rev. D. M. Stearns.

Not only was there power in His two words, "I am," to send them all to the ground, but more than twelve legions of angels were ready to respond to His call. He had asked for them (verse 53; John xviii, 5, 6). But He came to fulfill all Scripture, and the time had come for Him to let them take Him. It was their hour, and the power of darkness. At least twelve times in Matthew's gospel it is written "that it might be fulfilled" or "then was fulfilled" (Matt. 1, 22; 2, 15, 17, 23; 8, 17; 11, 17; xiii, 35; xxi, 4; xxv, 54, 56; xxvii, 9, 35). After His resurrex- tion He said that all things must be fulfilled, which were written in the Law of Moses and in the prophets. He said that He had asked for them (verse 53; John xviii, 5, 6). But He came to fulfill all Scripture, and the time had come for Him to let them take Him. It was their hour, and the power of darkness. At least twelve times in Matthew's gospel it is written "that it might be fulfilled" or "then was fulfilled" (Matt. 1, 22; 2, 15, 17, 23; 8, 17; 11, 17; xiii, 35; xxi, 4; xxv, 54, 56; xxvii, 9, 35). TREMENDOUS TERRITORY CONTROLLED BY NATIONS NOW IN A DEATH STRUGGLE ON WAR-WORN BATTLEFIELDS

King George V of England (From the British)

Emperor William II of Germany (From the British)

POSSESSIONS OF ALLIES IN WESTERN HEMISPHERE.

By Richard G. Conover.

THE LITTLE deeds of the colony contingent of Africa budge from the big gun muzzles of two hundred English, German, French, Russian and Austrian warships. These nations stand ever ready to crumble or seize any point of the 15,000 miles of coast line fringing the dark and coveted land. No matter how or when the present war may end the victor will claim his pound of colony flesh.

That the spoils of war will be of colony-culture in the main one of the contestants, Germany, has indicated plainly. England forced an answer from the Kaiser just before the east here lot with France, as to what his territorial demands would be in the event of triumph. Africa was unmistakably revealed as the field of German expansion.

"If we keep out of this what do you the British government," "Do you seek to work havoc with your navy along the French coast? Do you purpose to annex another strip to the west of Alsace and Lorraine and make everything German east of the Meuse and the Rhone rivers?"

"France on the Continent we would not beset by a single foot of land," was the grim reply of the Kaiser's spokesman. "Her colonies and possessions? That's quite another matter."

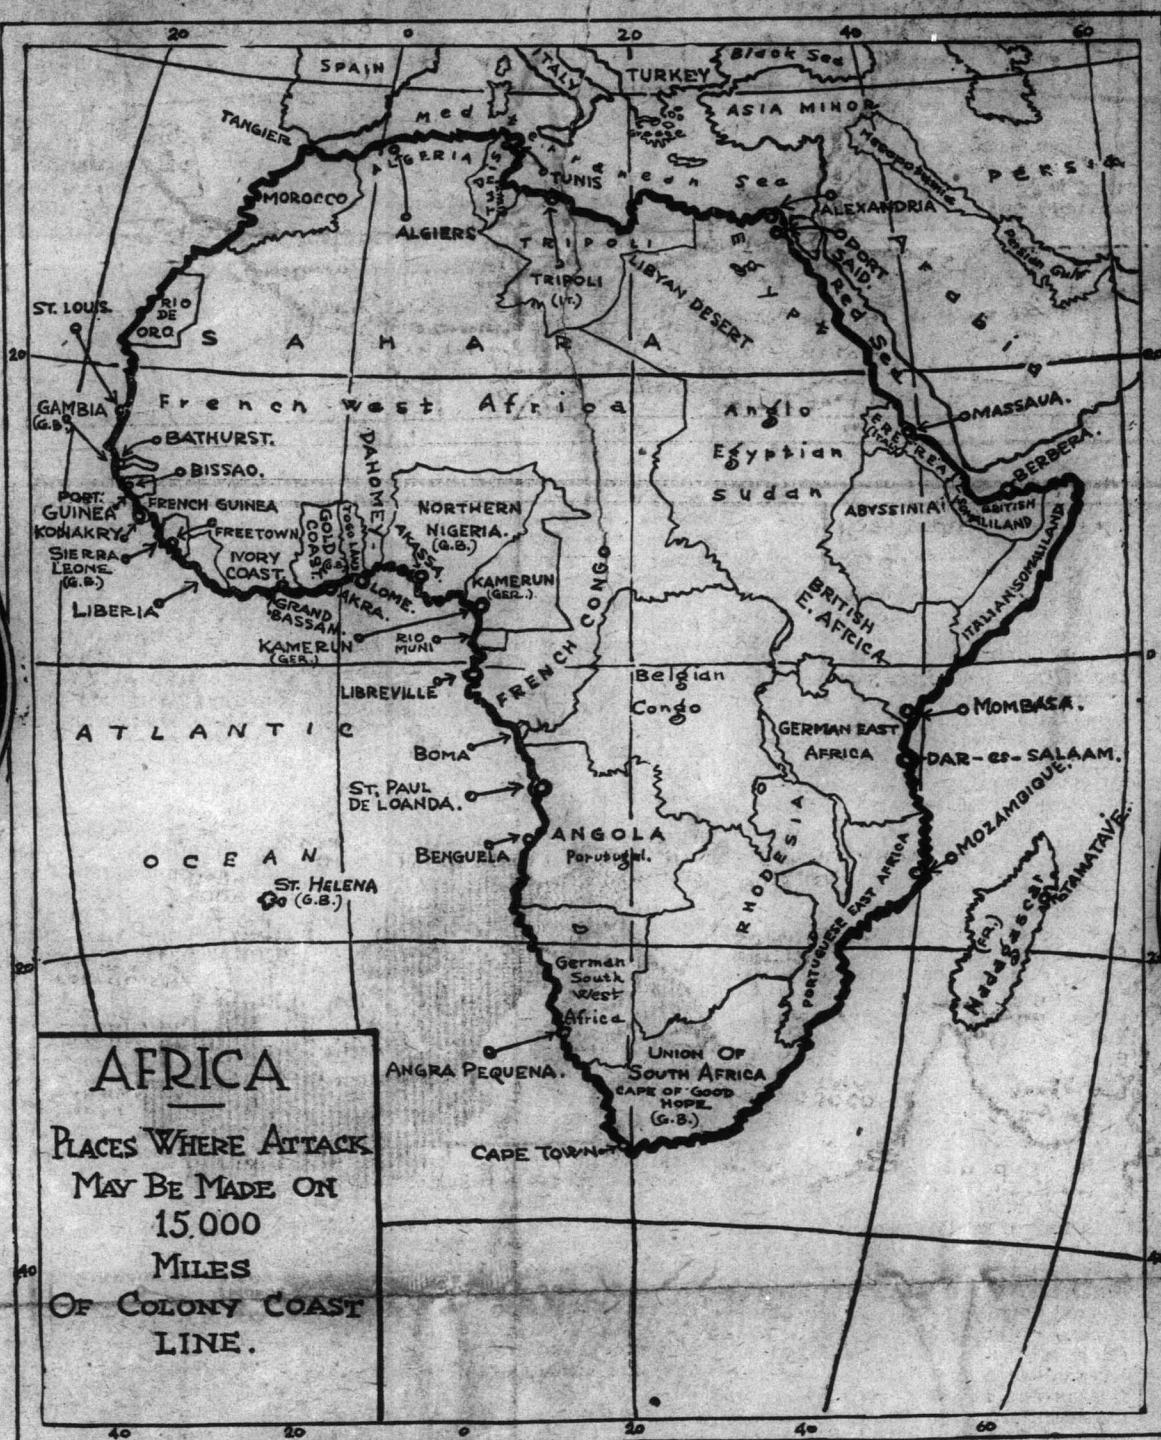

Thereafter, England gave the German Ambassador his passports and he joined her associates of the Triple Entente, for, like the young man of Scripture who came seeking salvation, she has great possessions herself and is concerned accordingly. Colonial expansion thus smoked out as a prime factor in the present war, as close following bulletin from the Far East made it clear that none of the detached possessions of the nations in conflict were in danger of transfer except those in Africa. The bulletin came from Japan and its purpose in tabloid was that whenever an English garrison at an Eastern British possession was shifted to fight on the Continent such possession would be fully protected by the navy of the Mikado. Supplementary to this came the announcement that Japan, in becoming the policeman of the Pacific, would extend its powers and duties so as to embrace government electricity.

pled the situation by informally declaring that it was prepared to use a fleet and ten thousand men to attack or defend at any point necessary to preserve Pacific possessions as it stands. This Kaiser's patrol would naturally extend into the Indian Ocean on a busy call and thus include British India in its protective zone. So, by the process of elimination, Africa stands out as the logical and worth while sphere of attack. The coast line proper of the warring nations may be ravaged, of course, aside from the operations directed against colonial territory. If Germany be defeated, almost certainly, France will demand that her frontier map be redrawn so as to restore to her the beloved provinces of Alsace and Lorraine. There may be some minor transfers of soil not strictly colonial, but the toll for the outpour of blood and treasure in this biggest of all wars will probably be paid in African land.

The immense extent of seacoast to be watched makes it practically impossible to prevent the landing of troops anywhere on the dark continent. Under the cover of the great guns pointing shoreward the bands of men conveyed by battle ships may be disembarked and soon placed in effective battle array. True, if only the ports of trade could be used for landing, then they might be guarded by the vessels of the nations concerned, and an entry gained only after a naval battle.

It is likely, too, that operations will be confined to the regular ports because the jungle nature of the country right up to the boundaries of the coast towns would make a march along an unbroken strip practically impossible. Still, troops might be landed a few miles outside the limits of a port, and with extraordinary effort, led successfully against the city or town to be taken.

Just how valuable an acquisition would such of these colonies be to a nation is a question that the one which now possesses it? In many instances possession carries with it a sentiment dating back to the time and the circumstances of the acquisition. But in the main it is the trade and commercial value of these colonies and dependencies that enhance the possession. This is deemed by many especially true in the case of Germany, whose advance in foreign trade during the last three decades has been especially noteworthy. With Austria it is political, and with Germany trade expansion. While analysts of the present war

TRADE and treasure to the value of billions of dollars annually come to the mother countries now fighting from their distant colonial children. For decades the statesmen and diplomats of these countries have fixed covetous eyes on the far away possessions of one another. The area of land embraced within these colonial prizes holds a strong appeal, but the commercial value is of such superior importance and temptation to national brigandage that armies, it is said, are often maintained not to preserve peace or wage war, but to pounce down on the colonial prey at the psychological moment. The following figures show the "dollars and cents" importance of the possessions of the countries now or likely to be at war, as apart from their mere territorial desirability:

great extent. There are now who declare that the open condition of the dependencies so naturally invites invasion that the opportunity will hardly be passed by. On the other hand, it is pointed out that, while minor conflicts or threatened bombardments may be possible, none of the nations now in a death grapple will plan a campaign of large magnitude against any African point except along the adjacent northern coast, where a short steam across the Mediterranean will not take war vessels away from a zone where they can do the most good, and likewise the most harm.

It is a voyage of 11,245 miles from London to Cape Town, South Africa, and twenty-five days are consumed in the transit under ordinary favorable conditions for fast commercial vessels. If war ships are not in the vicinity of the most distant African coast to bombard African ports and are sent there during the present war the fighting strength at the nearer and more intense battling points will be appreciably weakened, and weakened to a grave uncertainty. The best part of a month may be needed to get to an effective point, and the same amount of time needed for a return voyage. Two months are thus consumed in transit, with the amount of time necessary, successfully to operate against a colony port a matter of great uncertainty. In the meantime how badly will the war ships sent to Africa be needed elsewhere?

There is a large African zone that would likely prove a death trap for invaders, without a shot being fired. The equatorial region is the best place in the world to land a body of troops and expect them to survive the sun and the fever laden air. The "regic" Europeans at these spots keep going, only through liberal doses of quinine and other drugs that would demoralize a large body of soldiers, sailors or marines. It is natural to conclude that such points, while they will be surely traversed for in the partitioning after the peace, will not be deemed worth while bar-stating or occupying during the war. And supposing such places taken by a nation at war, what percentage of value will it be to occupy and hold until the end of the storm of the time the treaty is made, the sleight will settle future ownership and the nation drawing the territory will move in. This is the view of those who believe all of the nations engaged at war will elect to confine their battling to the Continent of Europe and leave the division of the African part until it is seen who is to eat it.

On the other hand, those who believe the fight will be carried into Africa point out to support their contention that it would be folly for Great Britain not to employ the 80,000 soldiers she has in South Africa and the 250,000 troops in India in making war upon her adversaries. German Southwest Africa's frontier joins that of the English Union of South Africa.

And then the money cost to the loser? There will be a sum bagged over, without a doubt, that will stagger mankind because of its immensity. But in the way of land compensation the defeated nations will be tapped in Africa. The colonies will pay for the fatherland's quarrel.

What the war will bring forth in Africa before it closes may never be known. An eleven-hour battle or expedition may change the fate of the nations involved as often as it has in the past. Napoleon abdicated, went to Elba, returned, deposed the Bourbons, rallied his army about him, fought Waterloo and defeated again, all in one hundred days.
