RITUAL FOUNDED ON THE WORD OF GOD.

"While Freemasonry was not a religious organization, still + the whole ritual of the order + was founded on the word of God + and the Sacred Law was to be found on the pedestal of every oldge room. God was acknowedged at every turn and every thing in the lodge room remind. ed one of the Great Architect of the universe and His laws and principles. No lodge could be principles. No lodge could be opened without prayer."—Rev. S. F. Newton, Sunday morning.

MASONIC SERVICE.

Although the weather was very humid, the brethren of "Rising Sun" Lodge, A.F. and A.M., turned out with an average representation on Sunday morning to attend the Methodist Church and hear Rev. Bro. S. F. Newton. The service was of an impressive nature and was much enjoyed by the brethren. After expressing his pleasure in having "Rising Sun" Lodge present for the first time in his pastorate of three years, the Rev. gentle-man in a characteristic discourse dealt with the principles and aims of the order, taking his text from the Book of Exodus:—"What Mean Ye by this Service." The speaker in cloquent language declared that Masonry was a secret organization in the same way that every family was a secret soci-ety, but its aims and objects were open to all. When compared with some other societies it could not be termed a secret society as it undertook to conceal nothing but what was proper and right. There were many beautiful things about Masonry. Its signs, symbols and tokens were all for a purpose to save its members from being imposed upon and the grip of a Mason should always be the grip of a friend. If the members failed in this duty it degenerated to a very commonplace level. The principles and ritual were founded on the word of God and if a man is a true Mason he will find a place in his heart for the Church of God. pose to save its members from being a place in his heart for the Church of God. While it is not a religion—it teaches the highest philosophy and morals and has thus been of great benefit to those who have identified themselves with Masonry. Its origin is shrouded in mystery, but it was of very ancient lienage and its members were to be found in every reach were to be found in every race and clime. While Masons were obligated to keep the ten commandments, and its ritual inculcated faith and a belief in life beyond the grave, still there was not a word about conversion—not a saving element in it. Its work in this respect differed from the church. In conclusion the speaker contended that if we were not on the square, we were nothing. It took great strength of character to conform our life to our most noble aspirations and thoughts, but if we looked to God, His power and grace was sufficient.

The singing and music was specially selected for the occasion and was much enjoyed. The emblem of the order, square and compass, beautifully worked in flowers, designed by Mrs. Wm. Eaton, was quite the admiration of the brethren, who thoroughly appreciated her good work.

the policy of the League will not bear scrutiny.

The principle of the League is Government control. Dr. W. A. Smith, a prominent educationalist, when being interviewed regarding government control as it had worked out in British Columbia, warned Ontario to beware of government control as it usually works out nine-tenths liquor and one-tenth control.

The League has said a great deal about personal liberty in so far as it touches liquor, the question is raised why do they neglect the question of liberty in the use of drugs and other articles prohibited by parliament? Comparing the expenditure on the part of the people with the revenue derived from government control, we find the ratio 10.1. Thus the nor

+++++++++ THE DRURY GOVERNMENT DE-FEATED.

The annual convention of the county organization of the W.C.T.U. of Leeds and Frontenac was opened in Athens on Friday, June 15th. The executive meeting was held at four o'clock. Fourteen members of the executive were present. This was followed by a sumptuous supper served by the local W.C.T.U.

The evening meeting was opened with devotional exercises presided over by Miss Giles, Brockville Y's, who able expounded part of the 5th chapter of Matthew's Gospel. The Hon. Howard Ferguson will succeed Mr. Drury, and with a majority of nearly 50 members will be in a position to form an exceptionally strong government. As a former member of the Whitney and Hearst administrations he has inevitably and logically come into his own. Bitterly opposed and maligned, he won a brilliant victory and was the only leader elected in his own constituency, his two rivals-Drury and Hay-went down to defeat. His brilliant achievements as an administrator, his unrivalled power as a debater, his direct way of getting at the truth, his fighting qualities all combined to make his selection a foregone conclusion. In these times of confusion and unrest, a strong leader is required and one thing stands out bold and clear-Ontario has a great captain at the helm, and we believe that in spite of all criticism that he will use his power wisely. Both Liberals and Conservatives were anxious for a return of stable government.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Smith spen:

NO ATHEIST RECEIVED INTO THE MASONIC ORDER.

During his address to the brethren of "Rising Sun" Lodge on Sunday morning, Rev. S. F. Newton said that no Mason could be an atheist—all had to believe in a Supreme Power. For this reason, French Masonry had been ostracised. Ever since the days of Voltaire, the French lodges were atheist and were therefore under the ban, so far as British and American Masonry was concerned. sonry was concerned.

REFORMATION VS. REVENGE.

Having ever believed that reformation and not revenge was the end sought by the imprisonment of evildoers within the bounds of the British Empire, therefore why should unfavorable criticism be meted out to either myself or the Hard Island Bible School for our most unselfish activities along this line. May we not well ask, "What are Bible Schools for?" Surely not to sit idly in our seats and devoutly sing

Throw out the life-line to danger fraught men Who're sinking in anguish where you've never been."

Is it not right to do something in Is it not right to do something in tangible form by visiting our jails and prisons, and where one is found therein who promises to refrain from the evil of his doings and to join in strict attendance at our Bible School, should we not then as Christian workers seek executive clemency. Knowing that he has feelings similar to our own for wife and little ones at home, who he well knows is sorely in need of him and his earnings. All who know the writer of this article need of him and his earnings. All who know the writer of this article and the Hard Island Bible School must know that we have ever been firm advocates and supporters of all temperance measures, though with reformation and not revenge as the goal in view, for it is well to remem-ber that our most carefully framed ber that our most carefully framed laws, may by injudicious operation become quite unchristian in character. Perhaps it would be well for those who speak lightly of us to again consider the lesson taught by Jesus in the Parable, "How think ye if a man have a hundred sheep and one of them be gone astray, doeth he not leave the ninety and nine and goeth into the mountains and seeketh that which is gone astray, and if so be that he find it, veril I say unto you, he rejoiceth it, veril I say unto you, he rejoiceth more of that sheep than of the ninety and nine which went not astray. Even so is it not the will of your Father which is in heaven that one of these little ones should perish.'

Dear reader, be assured that if thou hast long been a wanderer away from the fold of the Good Shepherd He will greatly rejoice at thy return, and Hard Island Bible School will welcome

Faithfully yours in Christaan temperance work,

WILL HELP CANADA FIGHT CORN BORERS

U.S. Bug Experts Offer Aid of Parasitic Wasps in Protecting Dominion Crops.

A despatch from Winnipeg says:— Dominion bug experts will import from the United States this summer a horde of parasitic wasps which they will turn loose in the Canadian corn belt to destroy and fatten upon their hereditary enemy, the corn boring

The campaign will be waged along lines drawn by W. R. Walton, super-intendent of the insect division of the United States Bureau of Entomology, who offered his aid at a recent meet ing of grain growers.

Wherever corn is grown in America, there lives the corn borer, taking his toll of millions of dollars from the value of the crops each year. makes his home within the green husk of the tender plant, and eats his way over the milky ear, completing his work of destruction long before the crop matures.

Until the United States entomolo gists discovered in France the tiny wasp, there was no known means of destroying the borer without also destroying the corn. This insect does the trick, according to Mr. Walton.

Brought to America to a new hunt ing ground, it was discovered he liked the climate, reared large families, and had a predilection for corn borers, making his home in the husk of the ear within easy striking distance of his game.

With the aid of this parasite com siderable progress has been made toward exterminating the borer from the corn fields of the United States, Mr. Walton reported. It is now planned to bring several armies of the insect from the Government nurseries across the border and liberate them, in midsummer, in Ontario and other provinces of the corn belt where the borer has been most destructive.

The most common question and one which is difficult to answer is, "How old and how large should a cockerel be for caponizing?" It is not a matter of age or size so much as it is a matter of stage of development. The age varies from six to ten weeks and the size from one and one-halt to three pounds. Cockerels should be caponized just as they begin to show sexual development by the comb commencing Usually in the heavy breeds it is safe to say that cockerels weighing one and one-half to two pounds, and from six to eight weeks of age, will be about right. Leghorns will

It should be so made to allow no part of the organ to slip back that best results can be obtained by or remain attached. It is largely a matter of preference as to the best type to select. There are several reliable sets now advertised in our leading poultry papers and magzines. In selecting a set, determine from some one who had had some experience, the merits of the various instruments. The selection of a good remover will pay many times over in preventing losses and slips from occurring in working Fletcher's Castoria is strictly a remedy for Infants and Children. Foods are specially prepared for babies. A baby's medicine is even more essential for Baby. Remedies primarily prepared for grown-ups are not interchangeable. It was the need of a remedy for the common ailments of Infants and Children that brought Castoria before the public after years of research, and no claim has been made for it that its use for over 30 years has not proven.

What is CASTORIA?

Castoria is a harmless substitute for Castor Oil, Paregoric, Drops and Southing Syrups. It is pleasant. It contains neither Opium, Morphine nor other narcotic substance. Its age is its guarantee. For more than thirty years it has been in constant use for the relief of Constipation, Flatulency, Wind Colic and Diarrhoea; allaying Feverichness arising therefrom, and by regulating the Ctomach and Bowels, aids, the assimilation of Food; giving healthy and natural sleep. I saw him first—the poet man. He wasn't much to look at, just a messy, long-haired little fellow who got took quick in the wind and with eyes that hated anybody who felt sorry for him. Funny I noticed him at all. We see them every day out here, dragging them every day out here, dragging car billing them back home. They come and go. Just lungers—that's all, Guess his nerve was what stopped my pay car. He walked down the platform, straight and still till the cough kit him, racking his body terrible, but his eyes blazing warned at me not to notice it.

"Mountain ar kind of bite your gizzard?" I asks careless like.

She looks at the book, Petc, and she has tear-mists in her eyes, and she does not know it nor would she care if she did, for she has read the book. It is the woman I have never seen save in the moon, Pete; and the book is the poem that shall be born of my hour, and it shall bring us together. That's what I see out there—New York, Pete. The city of power, they call it; the city of riches, they say it is. And as I look on the power of Red Mesa I feel I can put it in my poem, and it shall be so much more powerful than the man-made city; I see the Woman out there and the rich possession of her love will be so much richer than all the dross of the town. Oh, it's a wonderful country, Pete!"

"Gold, Pete?" he asked softly. "You have found it?"

"Gold, Podner," I answered, knocking out my pipe on the heel of my boot, ashamed to meet his eyes for some reason. "Pretty surface cropping as ever I saw—it's another Gophir."

"And this," he whispered softly to himself, not knowing I could hear, "is gold—gold." He stroked the specimens lightly, that shiny glad look in his eyes as they met mine across the fire. He rose, came over and sat down beside me, leaning his bent elbow on my shoulder. "Pete," he began, "this morning you said the grub was low, that we would have to be on our way. But think of me beneath the stars, All pillowed in the hay, With song of birds to waken me And send me on my way. -Abigail Cresson

A Modern Queen Elizabeth

There are several instances of adventurous white men who by their courage or force of character have imposed themselves as rulers on the less advanced dark peoples of the Pacific islands. Perhaps the Brookes, who have for three generations been rajahs of Sarawak, are the most famous. Another royalty, a woman who has received little if any advertisement, is referred to in a news dispatch in an English newspaper. Elizabeth Ma-Rich, Red Blood Needed to Keep cific," says the Manchester Guardian, has just returned to Sydney after a reign of thirty-three years in one of the South Sea islands, the "Southeast Isle," which lies on the extreme southeast of Papua.

Mrs. Mahoney and her husband first settled on the island more than thirty years ago. Both were much respected, and when her husband died eighteen years ago Mrs. Mahoney took upon herself his varied activities of trading, engineering, carpentering, farming, gold digging and navigating. She gained enormous influence over the natives and was the'r unconditional sovereign. She extended her trading and employed native labor to dig for She has become extremely wealthy and owns a little fleet of ships, the largest of which is of twenty tons; she has often acted as pilot and en-

The population of the island numbers five more whites—Mrs. Mahoney's son, his wife and three employees There are seventeen thousand natives, and virtually all are subject to her.

Cock-Crowing Contests.

The Belgian artisan spends his lei sure in a novel manner. He breeds a special cock for crowing, and the bird that can outcrow its fellows has reached the highest pinnac.e of perfection.

The plan adopted is to place the cages containing the roosters in a long row, as proximity creates the spirit of emulation without which the proceed ings would fall flat.

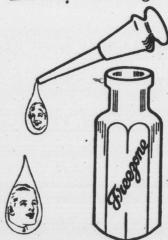

A marker appointed by the organ izers of the show is told off for each bird, his duty being to note carefully the number of crows for which it is responsible. The customary duration of the match is one hour, the winner being the cock which scores the high-est number of points in the allotted

The Liege district is a famous centr for such competitions.

It is the opinion, the interests, the ideals, and the goodness of the average man and the average woman which makes the character of the nation.—Colonel E. Kitson Clark.

IS SURPRISED TO FIND SHE IS ALIVE

Mrs. Gorman Says She Didn't Expect to Survive Her Troubles Praises Tanlac.

"Three years ago, before I got Tan-lac, if anyone had told me I would be alive now I couldn't have believed it," said Mrs. Hannah Gorman, 414 Arthur St., . Windsor, Ont.

"I had suffered from stomach troufor seventeen years.. Many a time I was in such agony I didn't thi I could live through the day. I had awful smothering spells, terrible headaches, and was so nervous I was almost frantic and sleep was practically out of the question. Why, I was so weak I could hardly dress the children, to say nothing of taking care of the household duties

"However, Tanlac gave me back my strength, and I've enjoyed perfect health ever since. I gained nearly ten pounds in weight, have a wonderful appetite and sleep eight or ten hours every night and feel so well life is a pleasure. Tanlac was a godsend to me. No medicine in the world can equal it."

Tanlac is for sale by all good druggists. Accept no substitute. Over 87 million bottles sold.
