

DOES MR. HORTON KNOW THIS?

If Not, the Ontario Premier Ought to Read AND PREVENT THE TROUBLE Which Prospectors in This Province Have to Contend With.

An Interesting Interview With Mr. Albert Horton, Who Has Just Spent a Month in the Lower Seine District—Prospectors Have to Become Land Grabbers and Hogs to Compete With the Same Class Who are Blanketing Mineral Areas.

Just now the imperfections of the Ontario mining laws and the injurious retarding effect these imperfections are having upon the development of the mineral resources of the province constitute a burning question.

Asked concerning the particular direction of his tour, Mr. Horton replied: "I spent a month in the Lower Seine River district, in the country contiguous to the Foy and Ferguson mines."

"Did you see any prospectors while away?" was asked. "I met with very many prospectors," he replied.

"What impression did you gather as to the working of the mining laws?" "I regret to say that at the working of the mining law, or, rather, its want of working, seems just about as unsatisfactory as anything could be."

"People who are not prospectors at all are permitted to apply for and obtain possession of property without limit as to quantity and without expense, beyond the cost of survey."

"The unfortunate effect of this game of land-grabbing upon the country is obvious. All the land that is not protected except by the holders, who, in many cases, simply sit down and wait till some one comes along that is willing to pay them a sum of money, large or small, for their claim."

"I don't suppose that one location in 50 applied for has been paid for."

SUGGEST REMEDIES.

"The mining law," was the reply, "should be framed with a view to favoring the prospector; and the real prospector, who discovers valuable minerals, should be considered before any one else, because it is to his interest, and to the public interest, too, that we should first learn whereabout our valuable minerals, and that after learning this we should have them developed."

"The Act should be so simplified as to leave only one system of tenure, under which a man should either pay $2 an acre with his application or secure possession by development work."

AMERICANS GROW ANGRY

Over Proposed Legislation Against Their Smelters

AND EXPORT DUTY ON ORES

The Jealousy of Canadians Who Have Drifted Into Rossland.

An American Paper Says They Want to Place in the Whole Kootenay Country

Perhaps They're Right—The Battle of the Railways in British Columbia—The Development Routes—More English Money Comes in—A Ton of Pure Gold and How Was Paid for War Eagle.

Americans are angry over the proposal to legislate in favor of Canadian smelters and against the United States customs by placing an export duty on lead ores. Says The Spokane (Wash.) Spokesman: "It is proposed by many prominent Canadians and actively advocated by many provincial patriots that the coming session of the Legislature place an export tax on British Columbia ore. This action would mean practically prohibition of the smelting of ore in Washington or any other American state and would result in an incalculable amount of damage to the prospects of Spokane as a smelter centre. So far has this idea crystallized in Canada that a bill is already drawn up which will be introduced into Parliament by the member from Kootenay, Mr. Keil. Very few of the legislators of British Columbia are mining men in the practical meaning of the word. Unless the matter is placed clearly before them they are likely to pass the bill which would be a detriment to their own country as well as to the state of Washington and would accomplish nothing but the satisfying of the foolish jealousy of a certain class of Canadians who have drifted into Rossland and want to place in the whole Kootenay country."

BATTLE OF RAILWAYS Will the C. P. E. Win the Kootenay Fight?

The battle of the railways which is taking place in the Kootenay is being watched with even greater interest in the west than in the east. Out there every one is closely watching the struggle going on between the C.P.R., the Northern and the Northern Pacific. Editorially the Spokane Spokesman remarks: "The Spokane Falls and Northern Railway with its allied lines has long been a thorn in the side of the Canadian Pacific. But for its assistance the latter road would not have controlled the traffic of all South Kootenay, even from so remote a point as Revelstoke. Should the system become a portion of either the Northern Pacific or Great Northern Railway it is certain that the Canadian Pacific's capacity would be enormously increased and a division of traffic would be a certainty for all time to come. "It is evident, therefore, that at this stage of the game it behooves the C.P.R. to get control of the Corbin road to protect its own interest. But apart from this view of the question, the C.P.R. has good reason for desiring to get possession of the Corbin system. Spokane is one of the most important tonnage centres in the Northwest and with the completion of the Crow's Nest Railway the C.P.R. would have a direct all-rail line from such points as Boston, New York, Buffalo, Duluth, St. Paul and Minneapolis to Spokane and it would also obtain an all-rail line from the centre of Washington's wheat fields to the coast and a short and direct route for transporting flour for transshipment to China on its Empress line of steamers. "The C.P.R. has distinctly more to gain by acquiring the Corbin road and more to lose by seeing it pass into other hands than either of its competitors. According to another authority on the situation the lines that the three continental roads want are the Spokane Falls and Northern, running from Spokane to Newport; the Columbia and Red Mountain, running from Newport to Rossland; and the Nelson and Fort Sheppard, running from Newport to Nelson, B.C. All three of the big transcontinental lines are anxious to secure these lines. It is highly probable that Mr. D. C. Corbin, the virtual owner of the Spokane Falls and Northern, has already been offered before very long. It had long been known that the Canadian Pacific was intended to acquire a line into Spokane, but up to the past year or so business had not been large enough to present buying what the Spokane Falls and Northern was worth, and Mr. Corbin did not care to sell at a loss. Recently, however, the development of British Columbia has been so extensive and the rush to the gold fields has been so tremendous that not only has the Canadian Pacific redoubled its efforts to secure Mr. Corbin's road, but the Great Northern and Northern Pacific have entered the field as active competitors for these lines. Mr. Corbin admits that he has received offers but while he declines to state the amount offered he says that at present the Canadian Pacific is the highest bidder. He is willing to sell if he can get his own figures, and it is only a question of time till one of the companies accepts his terms.

ROSSLAND CABLE CARS To be Put in Operation in a Short Time.

The resident managers of the Montreal land syndicate, owners of the south half of the original town site of Rossland, have almost completed the construction of the immediate installation of a first-class cable car system. All the preliminary details of the organization of the company which will put in this plant have been arranged, and the work of active construction of the system will start in the course of the next thirty days. The road will run from the corner of Spokane-street and Princess-avenue, the extreme south end of the town site, up Spokane-street to Second-avenue of the baseball flat, within one block of the Columbia and Red Mountain Railway depot. For the present at least the system will be operated by steam. The class plant will be put in at the corner of Thompson-avenue and Spokane-street, directly opposite the present plant of the Rossland Water and Light Company.

More English Money.

An English syndicate has bought the Hillside and Gault groups in Jackson Basin for $700,000. More Than That Paid for the War Eagle Mine. The sale of the War Eagle has not only brought a large amount of money to Spokane, says The Spokesman-Review. What it means but few people understand. This mine is estimated to contain 30,216 shares were held in Spokane, and at $1.50 per share will bring in money to the amount of $45,324.

Announcement

Extraordinary

THE KOOTENAY EXPLORATION COMPANY, LIMITED, beg to announce that the price of their Treasury Stock has been advanced to 20 cents per share, and further advances will soon be made, as it is the intention of the Company to offer part of their Treasury Stock on the London, England, market within the next 90 days, at 50 cents per share, and the price here will be made to correspond with the same.

This Company is on the same lines and under the same management as that which has made such a marked success of the COLORADO GOLD MINING & DEVELOPMENT COMPANY, and there is no reason why THE KOOTENAY EXPLORATION COMPANY, LIMITED, should not prove equally successful.

We anticipate such results, and every investor who purchases our Treasury Stock at the present price may have his money back 90 days from date, if then dissatisfied with his investment.

We are able to make this offer for the reason that the COLORADO GOLD MINING & DEVELOPMENT COMPANY has paid and guarantees all expenses of the promotion of the KOOTENAY EXPLORATION COMPANY, LIMITED, leaving the latter Company's capital free to be used in the purchase of approved properties.

Under no circumstances will the KOOTENAY take up undeveloped property, or hazard its investments in "prospects," and the same business methods which have characterized the parent Company and brought it to the enviable position it now occupies will be applied to its auxiliary, the KOOTENAY.

Under our unparalleled offer, you have an opportunity to participate in our success or dispose of your holdings without loss.

Every certificate thus offered will bear an endorsement across the face of it stating it is redeemable at 20 cents per share, ninety days from date, upon demand.

If you wish to "take a chance," we offer the same shares at 15 cents, which will participate equally in all the profits, but without the endorsement as above outlined.

We commend our proposition to those who wish to invest in a mining enterprise, but who cannot afford to take the risks that attach themselves to an ordinary mining venture. Send us your name and we will send you our prospectus; it will interest you, and it is worthy of consideration.

THE KOOTENAY EXPLORATION COMPANY, LIMITED. J. GRANT LYMAN, Managing Director. 22 King Street East, Toronto, Ont., February 1st, 1897.
