CHARLES G. D. ROBERTS BALKED SUICIDE PLAN

New Brunswick Author Would Not Permit Geo. F. Bronson Howard to Drown Himself

Matrimonial Troubles the Cause of Young Howard's Desire to End it All—He Called His Young Wife a Lemon and She Responded in Kind.

NEW YORK, June 18.—That the matrimonial troubles of the George F. Bronson Howard, which have embroiled London and New York, the last few days, nearly resulted in a grim tragedy through the suicide of the author-bridge-groom was the startling declaration made by Charles G. D. Roberts, the Canadian nature novelist, who is believed to have prevented the rash act. Mr. Roberts met young Howard in the office of a London publisher the day after Mrs. Howard, the beautiful Norfolk belle with whom he eloped, had fled from him. The author was in the depths of despair, and the Canadian writer spent the best part of a week persuading him it was not wise to jump into the Thames, and life still held something even though one had made a mess of matrimony at the age of twenty-four, and after a three months' trial. If Mr. Howard had desisted on his life in London he has forgotten all about it now, and is engaged principally in replying to the spirited attacks of his angry wife who returned from England Sunday and gives this morning for her Virginia home to see about getting the quickest and surest of divorces. Mrs. Howard, who says her talented husband's honeymoon name for her was "Thing" and that by way of lady-like retort she dubbed him "Animal," and meant every word of it, sent out hourly broadsides from her temporary apartment at the Hotel Gallatin, on West Forty-sixth street. Her heavy artillery was "intercepted" with a rapid-fire gun "effect" of small charges and fired thus:—"O A. M.—'Animal' began dressing in the morning by putting on his hat."—"I A. M.—'The Animal' drank highballs 'viciously.'"—"E A. M.—'The Animal' enveloped his grey face."—"I P. M.—'The Animal' scratched me."—"2 P. M.—'I wish I had called him 'lemon' instead of 'Animal.'"—"3 P. M.—'The Animal' tried three kinds of hair dye."—"4 P. M.—'The Beast' said I was nothing but a lemon."—"5 P. M.—'The Animal' sponged on all my friends."

CROCKET ENTERS PLEA OF JUSTIFICATION AND LIBEL CASE ADJOURNS

In Emerson-Crocket Libel Case This Morning J. D. Hazen Files Plea Declaring Alleged Libel To Be True and Published in the Best Interests of Canada—Case Adjourned to Allow Dr. Pugsley to File Demurrer.

FREDERICTON, N. B., June 19.—(Special)—At the request of the counsel for the crown the Emerson-Crocket libel suit was postponed by Judge Landry this morning until 10 o'clock tomorrow. The defendant's counsel taking advantage of a new section of the criminal code filed a plea of justification and the postponement was granted to allow the crown counsel time to file a demurrer. It was the first time in the history of the province that the practice has been followed in a criminal case, and the outcome is being awaited with interest, especially by the legal fraternity. Apart from those summoned to serve as jurors, there were only a few spectators in attendance when the court opened at ten o'clock. The defendant, Mr. Crocket, occupied a seat at the table alongside of his counsel and Hon. Mr. Emerson sat at the head of the bench. Hon. Dr. Pugsley informed the court he appeared as counsel for the crown in the libel case and had associated with him Mr. White and Mr. Barry. He moved that the defendant be arraigned for his plea and Hon. Mr. Emerson assented to his plea from him. Hon. SEVENTY MEN WERE KILLED OR WOUNDED IN MUTINY AT KIEV

ST. PETERSBURG, June 19.—Details of the mutiny of sappers at Kiev shows that it was only suppressed after a bloody engagement at midnight, June 17, between the mutineers and loyal troops. About 70 men were killed or wounded. The mutiny was planned to coincide with a political strike as a reply to the dissolution of parliament. In several of the southern provinces arrangements for the strike had been making for months. The fighting continued for several minutes. Half a dozen soldiers were killed, and about sixty wounded. Finally the mutineers, who had no officers, no leaders, and no plans, wavered, and fled. Two hundred sappers, but only fifty were captured, but one hundred and ninety-three eluded pursuit and hid in the city.

BEAT HIS WIFE BECAUSE SHE WOULD NOT GO TO THE CIRCUS

And This Morning Edward Hatfield Was Fined $20 or Two Months for His Fun.

The police court session this morning was a short one. Three common drunks arrested on Water street, last night, were fined $4 each or 10 days in jail. An interesting case was that against Edward Hatfield of the North end, who was arrested yesterday afternoon on a warrant charging him with assaulting his wife on the 5th of June. It appears that on that day when the Hargreaves circus was here Hatfield wanted his wife to go to the circus and she did not care to do so and he thereupon beat her. When placed on the stand this morning he pleaded guilty to the charge, giving as his only excuse that his better half would not go to the circus. He was fined $20 or two months. Loretta Jineau, a French woman, was arrested last night for wandering about Water street and not giving a satisfactory account of herself. She was brought before the magistrate and remanded. She was rather a hard looking ticket with her hair cut close to her head. She is a stranger here. Charles Gordon who was given in charge by Stephen Goding, liverman, for ill-treating one of his horses he had hired, was remanded.

CHAMBERLAIN IS VERY ILL

Report Was Current Yesterday That Joseph Chamberlain is Dying.

NEW YORK, June 19.—A cable to the World from London says:—A report was current in the House of Commons that Joseph Chamberlain is dying. Mr. Chamberlain was brought to his London house yesterday from Highbury, his place near Birmingham. Since his return from abroad he has shown increasing loss of nervous and mental power, and is desired to have him within reach of the best medical advice that London affords. Austen Chamberlain, his son, was with him all day, but inquires at Mr. Chamberlain's residence get only the stereotyped reply that he bore the journey well. Mr. Chamberlain is 74 years old.

FIRE IN A PULP MILL

Acid Plant of Dominion Pulp Company's Mill at Chatham Destroyed --- Damage is $11,000.

Word was received here this morning of a fire in the Dominion Pulp Company's mill at Chatham. The acid plant was destroyed but the other buildings are said to be unharmed. The Dominion Pulp Company's property is situated across the river from Chatham, on a side hill. The buildings are of wood, one rising above the other on the hill, so that they would be in considerable danger in the event of a fire. The total insurance on the property is $70,000, according to schedule. The acid plant which was destroyed was insured for $11,000. The majority of the local insurance offices carry risks on the property. MONTREAL, Q., June 19.—(Special)—Short money still keeps dealings on the stock market small and there is some disposition to a sagging price as has been a feature for some time. Transactions were recorded in Dem. Iron at 19; Dem. Coal, 58; Montreal St. Ry., 205 1/2; Lake of Woods Milling, 74 1/2; Rio, 45 and Illinois Mid., 84.

PETERSON IS ON TRIAL FOR RECEIVING STOLEN GOODS

Hanford Geldert on the Stand in Circuit Court Hearing Today.

In the circuit court, this morning, the case of the King vs. Oscar Peterson, for receiving stolen goods from Hanford Geldert, an employee of the McClary Manufacturing Co., was taken up. Most of the time was occupied in securing a jury. The panel of the petit jurors was exhausted and several of the grand jurors were present to serve. The indictment was read over to Peterson and he pleaded not guilty. The jury is composed of the following: James Wilks, John P. Williams, Wm. Newcomb, Daniel Michaud, J. F. Morris, D. McIntosh, James A. Barnes, Wm. Mullin, Chas. S. Everett, Charles A. Gursey, Joseph Noble and Sterling B. Lord. Hon. H. A. McKeown outlined the evidence, the substance of which has already been given at the preliminary hearing. He would attempt to prove, had been received by Peterson as stolen goods were: A stove, ice cream freezer, refrigerator and another stove, called a heater. Hanford Geldert was then called and said that he had sold Peterson a stove for $18 to be paid for in monthly installments. He (Geldert) hired a teamster, John Vanvicker, to take the stove to Peterson's house. He was not a regular teamster employed by the company but was engaged by Geldert. The stove was an 8-16 ramous Active range. He accompanied the teamster to Peterson's house. He was alone at the warehouse when the stove was taken out. After supper, he, Peterson and Wm. Mahoney carried the stove up into Peterson's house, where they set it up. He saw Peterson's wife and mother-in-law there. Mrs. Peterson asked him if the stove was got all right and if he had seen the manager about it. He replied that he had. The court here adjourned until 2:30 o'clock.

INJURED IN THE ROLLING MILLS

Roy Ingraham May Lose a Leg as the Result of An Accident This Morning.

Roy Ingraham, an employe of the Portland Rolling Mills was very badly injured this morning and as a result may lose one of his legs. He was working around some machinery when his leg was caught in the machine and terribly mangled about the knee cap. He was taken to the hospital where it was necessary to perform an operation and it was feared he would lose the leg. Ingraham is a young man residing in the north end. Fred Duncanson's new flyer Coney 22, was given a workout on the Moospath track yesterday. Four miles were covered and the time taken on the third mile was 2:29 1/2. The fourth mile was about the same. This is pretty good for a workout so early in the season. Coney is entered for the free-for-all race at Springhill on July 2. THE TIMES NEW REPORTER

A TIMELY PUBLICATION. Our esteemed fellow citizen Mr. James Jones, in preparing a handy little book entitled "Every Man His Own Fireman; or What I Don't Know about the Needs of the St. John Fire Department." James has naturally been interested in the enquiry now going on, and has been tabulating the various recommendations made by witnesses. He finds that by the time six more witnesses have been heard it will be shown that St. John has a perfectly satisfactory fire department, and also a wholly inadequate fire department; that another engine is needed, and is not needed; that the like is true concerning hydrants, men, horses, life nets, and the water service. It is a most illuminating enquiry," said Jamesy this morning. "It shines. It is refuted. It also develops some heat. It does just what a fire investigation might be expected to do. I am sure that it will do good. If any man had an opinion before, he will be more than ever confirmed in it, and I therefore anticipate an enormous sale for my little treatise on Every Man His Own Fireman. For my purposes the enquiry is most opportune and valuable. Jamesy's booklet will be issued as soon as the enquiry is finished. MR. BINKS WARMS UP. Mr. Peter Binks set out this morning with his customary overcoat and other clothing suitable to the recent climate of St. John. He did not know that a heat wave was rushing up the coast as it determined to make up lost time in his latitude. It met him on King Square and he shed his overcoat. Half way down King street he was in his shirt sleeves. On Prince William street he got an iced soda. An hour later he went home in a coach, and after a cold bath sought a hammock under the trees in his garden, taking with him a book on Arctic exploration.

THE BLUE DIAMOND

BY ALICE AND CLAUDE ASKEW. Authors of 'The Sphynx,' 'Eve and the Law,' 'Gilded London,' 'The Premier's Daughter,' 'The House Next Door,' Etc.

Her cheeks flushed with color, and for the second time her whole expression grew excited and serene. She looked as some martyr girl might who was ready to make her bold confession of faith and then to throw down the gauntlet.

Baron Gelderstein had given the contractors a free hand. Handing books around the walls, though their contents were of no interest to the Baron. He had merely insisted that every book should have a fine binding.

Jack shook his head. 'Don't deceive me—don't deceive me again,' he muttered. He had witnessed from jacking her hands. His young face had aged and hardened, his trust in her was dead.

Baron Gelderstein glanced at his companion admiringly. 'What a demon you are Stern!' he said. 'Well!' he said. 'I've had them now for three days, and you can hardly have thought that I shouldn't have had a look at them. I'd have brought them before, but I didn't realize you were in my way.'

It was a full hour before Stern rose to go, and this was only after another appointment to meet later in the evening had been made between the two men.

Baron Gelderstein shook his visitor gently by the hand, rising from the great desk at which he had been writing. The diamond merchant had but recently moved into his new house, and he was intensely proud of it. It seemed to him to be a preliminary to obtaining a footing in the city.

NERVOUS and WEAK

COULD NOT SLEEP AT NIGHT

To the thousands of people all over this land who are tossing on sleepless pillows night after night, or who pace the bedroom floor with nerves unbinged, and to whose eyes sleep will not come, MILBURN'S HEART AND NERVE PILLS offer the blessing of sound, refreshing slumber.

Baron Gelderstein had one more bound to go. 'You seem to have worked the job very prettily, Baron,' he continued. 'I can collar everything,' retorted the other man, 'and it's good solid property. There can't be any mistake about this. Now that these letters have come into my possession, Young Brathwaite won't go to law, for the sake of his father's reputation. Besides even if he did, he could prove nothing since these letters, which I put in an appearance about a month ago and reminded him of the documents to which he had put his hand when we were out in South Africa together. It was a pretty severe blow, and knocked him silly for the time being. I gave him copies of all the papers. These are they. Then he remembered the letters which I had written him at the time, and said that at all risks he would fight the case, that those letters of mine were sufficient to annul anything he had been foolish enough to sign. He was right, and I knew it, so it became a question how I could get hold of the letters. I kept a pretty close watch on him, and bullied him for all that I was worth. At last he said that he would take advice, would ask his friend, Roger Selborne, who understood these matters; was fool enough to tell me so. Luck favored me, Stern. It always has. I followed him to Selborne's office. I knew he would take the letters with him. I saw Selborne come out and hail a cab, thrusting a packet into the pocket of his coat. I laughed to myself. I knew that that day I knew that you were. I followed to the station in another cab, and was able to give you the tip. All luck wasn't it? Sheer luck. I felt certain that in capable hands like yours the trick would be easily worked. I have great confidence in you, you see Stern?'

more vulgar pickpocket, nor did I get a chance of being one. 'How did you work it?' Baron Gelderstein emitted great volleys of smoke from his mouth, lounging back in his chair, fat and ugly.

Baron Gelderstein glanced at his companion admiringly. 'What a demon you are Stern!' he said. 'Well!' he said. 'I've had them now for three days, and you can hardly have thought that I shouldn't have had a look at them. I'd have brought them before, but I didn't realize you were in my way.'

GETTING AFTER LANDOWNERS

What is termed taxing the unearned increment is a part of the policy of the British government in dealing with the land question. Germany has adopted this system, and the Manchester Guardian gives some interesting facts about the German method, which are thus summarized by an exchange:—

THE BETTER CHICAGO

The popular conception of Chicago is, perhaps, that it is a great and wicked city. Of evil it has enough, beyond doubt, whether due to the greed of corporations, the pursuit of graft by officials, or the social evils that beset a large community of mixed nationality and of great extremes in wealth and poverty.

A RUSSIAN EXPERIMENT

The dissolution of the second parliament within so short a period shows that the experiment in the direction of popular government in Russia does not make much headway. An exchange gives an interesting review of the history of the two parliaments as follows:—

pressed, and so was a premature rising at Kronstadt on Aug. 1. A social democratic committee in St. Petersburg proclaimed a general strike, but it soon collapsed. The condition of the country became worse, and an attempt was made to murder the premier with a bomb, at his home. Aug. 25, while he was holding a reception. Terrorism increased and the government met violence with violence. Drumhead courts martial were established and terrorists were summarily executed. The Stolypin government, however, gradually strengthened its position and the state of the country improved until the elections were held for the second lower house last January and February.

COLD STORAGE

The statements of Hon. Dr. Pugsley on the subject of cold storage, published in yesterday's Telegraph, are important as well as interesting. He looks forward to the establishment of "a complete chain of cold storage facilities at various central points in New Brunswick, with a large warehouse in St. John, refrigerator compartments on the transatlantic steamers and cold storage warehouses in the larger centres in England to which New Brunswick products could be sent forward in perfect condition."

WHEN LAWYERS TELL THE TRUTH

Once a number of legal lights were gathered in the smoking room of a lawyers' club, when the talk turned to a discussion of the veracity of lawyers.

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT

Editor Times: Sir, in the issue of the Evening Times of June the first, is found an article entitled "Roosevelt's First Speech on the Railroad Question," which to my mind is a masterpiece. Allow me to quote a sentence:—

"On his course he tacks with bewildering frequency and appears to be going in all directions—but on the whole it is clear that he is trimming his sails to the prevailing wind, and does not mean to battle with the strong tide now running."

To the American or those who have followed this man's career, and admire him, not because he is the president of a great nation, but for his many sterling qualities, we see in this pen picture of the artist something more than what the strokes seem to convey. We see the strenuous Rough Rider reeling and staggering from the blows he has received from organized capital and organized labor. We see him groggy, blind and going in all directions, from the blows he has received from the Harrimans and the Haywoods and the Moyers.

We watch the picture as it is drawn by the artist, with deep interest, and just as we expect to see him fall on the sea of life we are reminded by the artist that he is trimming his sails to the prevailing wind. This we think is because of his weakened condition, and that soon again he will be found on his true course. But our hope is short lived, for almost immediately we are reminded that he is too weak to stem the strong tide; and here the artist leaves him drifting on the boundless ocean of organized wealth; but he will drift only to the presidential boom.

Whatever the sea-marks may be, no man living can tell what he will do; not even Roosevelt himself, can tell-time and circumstances alone will decide. Then, if he thinks it is his bounden duty to accept another four years' martyrdom, he will do it; for a man of his stamp was never known to shirk duty. A. LEARY. Grand Manan, June 16, 1907.

GRAIN COMMISSION

IN GREAT BRITAIN MONTREAL, June 19 (Special)—A special cable from London says:—The Canadian grain commission will proceed to Bristol tomorrow, thence to other ports to investigate the shipping methods and devise the best means of safeguarding the northwest grain from admixture and consequent deterioration in price. They find the London Corn Trade Association most anxious that no attempt should be made to lower the high standards of Winnipeg grain. The inspection is highly appreciated here. Mr. Miller on behalf of the commission was given assurances that the standards will be maintained. The commission promises to yield results most advantageous to the western farmers in the grain market here.

RAILROAD CREDIT NOT SERIOUSLY IMPAIRED

James J. Hill's Pessimistic Utterance Calls Down a Severe Castigation—A Roast for the Railway Corporations.

(N. Y. Journal of Commerce.)
James J. Hill of the Great Northern Railway does not seem to be a cheerful or hopeful mood and is inclined to "plead the baby act" for the railroads of the country. He is quoted as saying that the country is overgrowing them. They are "away behind" and "cannot finance a recovery" because "their credit has been seriously impaired." He thinks that the public in its exasperation will demand that the railroads lay more rails and add more cars, and the government "may ultimately be forced to lend its credit" to finance their needs. That "might lead to government ownership of railroads, and that would be the end of republican government," but Mr. Hill appears to see no other way out for the railroads. He said months ago that the railroads had to spend $1,000,000,000 in the next five years to put themselves in shape to meet the traffic of the country, and most of that they have been able to raise in the "pay off old bills." Crop prospects are good enough and there is plenty to do, but business is slowing up and will continue to slow up, and the whole trouble is that "the business of the United States has outgrown the capacity of the railroads to carry it in no position to catch up." If freight cannot be moved it must cease to be produced.

The role of Cassandra does not seem to fit James J. Hill and it is sad to see him so depressed in spirits. He ought to cheer up, even though the worst is to come, and lend a hand towards getting things into better shape. In the first place, he ought to consider certain serious questions thoughtfully. If the railroads are away behind whose fault is it? If their credit is seriously impaired, who is to blame? It is a good deal better to get behind than to catch up, and their getting so far behind is not a sudden thing while the dreadful blow to their credit must have been recent. We have only been hearing of it in the last year or so. What were they doing before that that should lead to the business of the country getting behind to such an extent? They were consolidating and combining and financing at a great rate, with the result of large profits and advances in dividends; but while all this was going on no certain individual fortunes were piling up they did not seem to be laying more tracks and adding more cars in proportion to the large profits. They were securing traffic by providing for it and handling it with efficiency they would not have fallen behind it so much. If, instead of building up particular communities, particular industries and powerful combinations of shippers by discriminating in their favor, they were advancing business interests and industries impartially by fair and just treatment of all owners and goers, they would have taken a certain position to take care of their own affairs.

METHODIST CONFERENCE

First Ministerial Session Opened at 8 o'clock Last Night.

St. Stephen, N. B., June 18—The ministerial session of the Methodist conference opened here tonight at 8 o'clock. In the absence of the president Rev. W. D. Dobson, through illness, the expression of the opening exercises the roll was called and it was reported that W. J. Dean and E. A. Westmorland had been transferred from Newfoundland to this conference to the Alberta conference. There were no objections or changes preferred against any ministers or probationers.

The following were recommended to be continued as supernumeraries: E. W. C. Comben, E. Evans, J. A. Duke, Robert Wilson, F. H. W. Pickles, H. J. Clarke, D. B. Bayley, G. B. Payson, J. J. Tassdale, J. J. Collier, A. E. Leung, George Harrison, J. S. Allen, Ellis Slackford. Revs. W. W. Brewer and Joseph Parsons were recommended as supernumeraries and their cases were referred to the committee on conference relations.

The following preachers were presented: George Morris, with a standing of two years; P. S. Crisp, H. F. Ball, J. F. Romley, Charles F. Stebbings, one year. The conference adjourned to meet tomorrow morning at 8 o'clock.

THE FIRE INQUIRY
The fire inquiry was resumed yesterday afternoon before Judge Ritchie. Joseph W. Green, engineer from No. 3, Peter Clinch, secretary of the fire underwriters; John Bond, foreman of No. 4, and Chas. Conway, driver of the aerial truck, were examined, and adjournment made till Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock. In the course of his evidence Mr. Clinch said he thought there is no necessity for a new fire engine, and he suggested that instead of that more hydrants be placed in the streets. All were agreed that the electric light and telephone wires overhead constituted a serious menace and hindrance to the firemen. It was also suggested that the department should have cellar pipes and that the corporation provide the men with helmets, rubber coats and respirators.

Rev. Dr. Fraser, of Toronto (formerly pastor of St. Stephen's church here), arrived in the city yesterday.

Rev. Canon J. DeWolfe Cowie is in the city.

ment of shippers who could not take them by the throat or field a club over their heads, naturally the "exasperation of the public" demanded that a stop be put to these things, and the anti-trust and rate regulation provisions of the Interstate Commerce law were adopted. It has been quite generally admitted even by railroad men that it is a good thing for the public as well as for the public. Is that what has impaired their credit? A few states have been rather unwise in fixing arbitrary limits to charges, but that has not gone far or done much harm and is not likely to. It is on that account that new men of stock and bonds cannot be floated on favorable terms? A man of Mr. Hill's intelligence must know better. The Northern Securities scheme, the swelling of capitalization in getting control to suppress competition, and the sudden advancing of dividends to affect speculation, must have had a damaging effect upon confidence in railroads. This has doubtless done something to impair the credit of railroads in their time of need, but whose fault is that?

But, after all, the difficulty in raising the large amounts of capital needed to enable the railroads to "catch up" is not explained by this. Men of brains like Mr. Hill must know it and men of integrity and sincerity would acknowledge it. The difficulty is not a railroad difficulty but a financial difficulty. It is felt by industrial concerns except those which have already or are able to earn in their own right the capital they need. It is felt by states and municipalities. It is felt abroad as well as in this country. It is the very process of slowing up and saving and getting something ahead so as to have more bottom for credit. There will have to be retrenching and waste, a painful but necessary process when expansion has gone too fast and too far. Strong men have to be found to abandon the evil ways of the past, and devote themselves to legitimate methods of building up, with regard to the rights and claims of the public and for the sense of justice which the community demands, instead of croaking over the responsibility of others for the calamities they have brought upon themselves. Recovery lies in mending their ways and not in bringing a worse thing to pass in the shape of a worse man's ownership, and predicting the end of republican government.

BURNED TO DEATH IN FOREST FIRES

Very Serious Conditions in Sault Ste. Marie and Georgian Bay Districts.

Sault Ste. Marie, June 18—More serious reports come from the woods today regarding forest fires. Although rain fell last night, the fires were not checked. It is reported from Webwood that three men were burned to death near there. Many timber fires along the Algoma Central have been burned, and the flames seem to be increasing in spite of the light rains.

Thousands of dollars worth of timber has been destroyed in Georgian Bay district also, and many operations have lost all their supplies. Destructive fires are burning on the Michigan side too. Unless heavy rain falls at once the fires may burn for several days.

Clark, lives in Philadelphia, and an absent sister is a trained nurse in California.

Frank K. Gregory
Fredericton, June 18—The death occurred this morning of Frank K. Gregory, son of R. W. Gregory and Elizabeth Gregory, of this city, aged 26 years. The deceased only recently returned from Saskatchewan, and is survived by his widow and one child.

Miss Jane Carruthers
Miss Jane Carruthers, a native of Scotland, who had lived in this country a great many years, died last night in the home of Miss Skinner, King street east, aged eighty-six years. Deceased had lived in Nova Scotia and Caverhill, Carleton county, but for the past ten years she made her home with Miss Skinner, who was a distant relative. Besides Miss Skinner she had nephews and nieces in Nova Scotia and P. E. Island. W. J. Caverhill, of Fredericton, is a nephew. Miss Carruthers had been in bed since last February. She was never thought to be seriously sick and death was due more to her advanced age than anything else. The funeral arrangements were not completed last night.

PROBATION DEPARTMENT

How it Works Out in Connection With Delinquent Children in Massachusetts.

The care of the delinquent child after he leaves the institution was the subject dealt with at the National Conference of Charities and Corrections at Minneapolis last week by Mrs. Elizabeth G. Evans, agent of the Lyman and Industrial schools of Boston. All the boys and girls who are committed to the two state reform schools in Massachusetts, the Lyman School for Boys at Westboro, and the State Industrial School for Girls at Lancaster, are committed to guardianship during minority, the period of training in the school being always supplemented by a longer period of after care in the world.

Roughly speaking, said Mrs. Evans, the boys are committed for stealing. Many of them come from fairly respectable homes; and unless their people are distinctly bad they go back to them directly when they leave the school. On the other hand, girls as a rule are sent to the school because of the greatest danger. A year or two domestic service in the right family, where she can exercise the training in home-making which she has received in the school protects her from temptation.

DANIEL RYAN AS VIRGINIUS TONIGHT

Daniel Ryan will appear in the Opera House tonight in James Sheridan Knowell's classic play, Virginia, which is beyond question one of the strongest tragedies of Roman life that was ever written. The actor most associated with the role by the present generation of theatre-goers is the late lamented McCullough. It is interesting to note that after he had lost his reason and was taken to an asylum, he was often the demitised centurion and Roman father, Virginia.

The story of the play fascinates with its very sadness and deals with the attempt of Appius Claudius to force the dowry of a Roman girl, the beautiful daughter of Virginia, the Roman general, who was at that time at the head of his troops, fighting Rome. On the call of his friends he hastens back to protect Virginia and then follows the great Forum scene, where he pleads with Appius for his daughter, and, finding his pleading vain, kills her to preserve her honor.

The last act, the mad scene, shows the fate of the tyrant Appius and the return of Virginia to reason. The play will be elaborately staged in five acts, with absolutely correct costumes and splendid sets, and with fifty people in the great Forum scene.

Mr. Ryan will also present Sir Henry's masterpiece, The Belle, or the Murder of the Polish Jew, on Friday and Saturday evenings, and Saturday matinee.

THE PICTURE SHOW AT THE NICKEL

This afternoon and tonight the last performances of the half week will be given at the Nickel. So far a very large number of excellent pictures have been shown since the popular resort opened under its new name, and many people have not missed any of them, therefore to allow Married For Millions, The Tramp Dog, and Two Brave Children to pass without seeing them will be losing a treat indeed.

Each half week the Nickel management strives to outdo itself in supplying the best pictures available, and neither funds nor trouble is spared in carrying out this policy.

ANOTHER KIND OF BRICK.
The referee in a junior cup match failed altogether to win golden opinions of other players. Some crowd of spectators of the players. His decisions were so wildly eccentric that a meeting was hurriedly held to discuss the match to consider the advisability of lodging a protest with the football association, and appealing for a replay. A knot of spectators gathered outside the headquarters to hear the result of the deliberations.

"What did you do, Bill?" came the question when a cottontail appeared in the doorway, for reporting him, and five words he said, "I was the referee."
"What?" rose the incredulous chorus.
"And now," continued the cottontail, "we want some one to volunteer to run up to the station and throw it at him!"

HE WAS PUZZLED
He was an old-fashioned business man from the interior of Pennsylvania, and was in Philadelphia to buy goods. When he had given his order he said to the salesman:

"I've heard it as got to be all the fashion for business men to have typewriters nowadays."
"Yes, that's the style now."
"And to marry 'em if they suit?"
"Yes, a good many do that."
"Haven't got one around the store, have you?"
"Oh, certainly."
The man from the interior was thereupon taken down to the office where a typewriting machine sat on the table, while the girl was at her lunch.
"Well, what do you think of it?" was asked as he looked at it in a puzzled way and scratched his head.
"The machine seems to be all right, but how in thunder does a widower get married to it?"
"Oh, I see. He doesn't marry the machine, but the girl who operates it. You've got the two things mixed up."
"That's it, eh? Then I'll sit here till the gal comes in and mix 'em. If I'm going to get married again I want something that'll do."

PYTHIAN DIGNITARY COMING
Major-General Arthur J. Stobart, of the Uniform Rank, Knights of Pythias, who is to visit the local companies in this city on Thursday, July 4, will also visit the other companies in the maritime provinces during his trip. He will arrive at St. Stephen on July 2, and there will meet the companies of St. Stephen and Milltown. On July 3 he will visit the Fredericton knights, coming to St. John on the 4th. The following day he will go to Moncton, and thence to Charlottetown, where a new company with the new regulation uniform, was organized last winter. He will then go via Pictou to New Glasgow, which will complete the list in this domain.

Arrangements for his entertainment while in St. John will be made at a mass meeting of the two companies tomorrow night.

SOCIETY LEADER TO MARRY AN EARL

CHICAGO, June 18 - The Tribune last night received advice from London telling of the engagement of Mrs. Potter Palmer to Aubrey Fitzclarence, Earl of Munster and Baron Tewksbury. The engagement has not been announced officially, but the Tribune correspondent disclosed there was no doubt an understanding had been reached. The wedding will take place in London in the fall. This report confirms rumors that have been current for some time. The peer who has won the heart and fortune of Chicago's social leader, is a bachelor, 45 years old, and not blessed with a superabundance of this world's goods. He, however, is said to be handsome, and in charming manners. He has had no public career other than that of gentleman usher to King Edward, the union between him and the daughter of Eaton Square, and he has a house at Brighton. For the rehabilitation of the earl's establishment, Mrs. Palmer will bring an income of more than $300,000 a year, derived entirely from the Chicago real estate and other properties left by Mr. Palmer at his death in 1902. Mrs. Palmer has proved a prudent administrator of the estate, which at that time was estimated to be worth $8,000,000, and which has steadily increased in value.

IN THE WORLD OF SPORT

BASE BALL

ST. JOSEPH'S, 12: ST. ROSES, 6

The largest crowd of the season was present to witness the St. Joseph's and St. Rose's play a game of the society series.

The St. Joseph's did some fine batting, Harris making the first three batters of the season, and their fielding was good throughout the game.

St. Joseph's won in the first three innings by making eleven runs, while the boys from Fairville were credited to three ducks.

Although the pitcher and catcher from across the bridge put up some ball their sides did not give them the support that they should.

The league standing to date is as follows: St. Joseph's, 12; St. Peter's, 11; St. Rose's, 6; St. John's, 5; St. Paul's, 4; St. Michael's, 3; St. Anthony's, 2; St. James's, 1; St. George's, 0.

St. Joseph's and St. Peter's will meet on Thursday night and an exciting game may be expected. It is thought that St. Joseph's will be the first place.

St. Joseph's made his debut in society league circles last night and showed a good game. He was well supported, excepting in the 20th inning when the St. Rose's did some good stick work and fattened their score.

Freque Isle Wins Small. Maurice White, of Freque Isle, official umpire in the league in which the Freque Isle team is playing is to be congratulated for making an effort to get "Ducky" Small to join the Freque Isle team, in which already are three St. John men—McEachern, Miller and Hodgins—but Small did not hold out much hope that he would accept the offer as he is in a good position here.

St. White was in a good position here. He made his first game for Freque Isle on Monday. He had the game won but poor support gave him a loss. He was well supported in the 20th inning when the St. Rose's did some good stick work and fattened their score.

White here Mr. White had a talk with J. A. Barry relative to the Freque Isle boys coming here to play. Mr. Barry and J. A. Barry are arranged for July 12 and 13.

National League. At St. Louis—Brooklyn, 1; St. Louis, 0. At Chicago—Cleveland, 1; Chicago, 0. At Cincinnati—New York, 4; Cincinnati, 1. At Pittsburgh—Philadelphia, 4; Pittsburgh, 2.

Eastern League. At Rochester—Providence, 1; Rochester, 4. At Toronto—Toronto, 1; Jersey City, 3. At New York—New York, 1; Jersey City, 3. At New York—New York, 1; Jersey City, 3.

A very interesting game was played on the Victoria grounds last evening in the Amateur League series, between the Portland Y. M. C. A. and the Victoria Y. M. C. A. The Portland team won by a score of 4 to 1. Seven innings were played. The batteries were: P. Y. M. A.—Barnard and Lee. Clippers—Farris and Cooper.

The standing of the clubs is as follows: P. Y. M. A. . . . . 5 1 833 Marathons . . . . . 3 3 500 Clippers . . . . . 2 4 333 Algonquin . . . . . 2 4 333

AMERICAN AVERAGES

The American League batting averages to date contain many surprises, showing, as they do, that some of the sluggers of the 1906 season are away down in their batting. Take George Stone, for instance. Last year he was the top-notch batter of the league, being tied with Clarke, of Cleveland, for first place, with an average of .338. To date, Stone is batting only .200. Keeler, of the Yankees, the best hitter of the league, batted .304 last year. His figure at present is .219. Congalton, of Boston, is now batting at a .216 clip, whereas last season he was fifth on the list with .320. Grimshaw, of Boston, has been acting as though he could not hit a ball, his percentage being .127. Others in the slump are Bennis, Stovall, Chase, H. Davis and Hemphill, Charles Jones, the ex-Canadian League, is one of the players in their stick work. His average in 1906 was .241, while his average is now .204. Niles, of St. Louis, is showing the greatest improvement, however. He heads the league at present with an average of .384, whereas last season the best he could do was .220 in 90 times at bat. Niles has made 38 hits, four being two-baggers, three triples and one a home run.

THE UMPIRE

The following has been handed down as the definition of an umpire: Umpire—A bandit and a pirate—a buccanyer and an octopus. Few umpires have any strength and those who have see but dimly. One of the few animals that has no friends—to this extent being classed as one of the lucky specimens of the race. While having the automatic power of a car, like him is often assailed by nihilists of the type of Elberfeld, Griffith, McGraw, etc.

QUOITS

The Newman Brook Quoit Club and the Algerians of Carleton played an interesting match on the grounds of the North End on Monday evening. The former won by the following scores: 21-15 and 21-14, after the game a pleasant programme of

THE TURF

In the Presbyterian Assembly, Judge Sir Thomas Taylor is reported as comparing the English and Canadian law regarding the English race track betting, and laments the comparative inequality of the Dominion law. He may not know that anybody can bet any amount he pleases at any English race course. Had not these estimable gentlemen who inveigh against these things first informed themselves of the realities of the case? There has always been, and always will be, betting at a horse race, and from the king downwards to the bootblack, according to his means. An Englishman will back his fancy with a wager. It is like any other expensive indulgence. A bootblack may buy a bottle of champagne if he can afford to do so, and no doubt after a rush of good trade a bootblack has bought himself and his mate a bottle of Lons Rosiers. He doubts it would be more proper and pious to put the money into "the plate," but it is a poor habit that never rejects.

ENGINEER PETERS DIRECTOR PRO TEM.

Special Meeting of the Board of Works Yesterday Made the Appointment.

At a special meeting of the board of works last night, Consulting Engineer Peters was appointed director provisionally. The work on the west side was put in the hands of the chairman, the acting director and a sub-committee which the chairman will name this morning.

Mr. Peters, who has been acting as director and engineer in charge of the work, and prepare his own plan, but his motion was finally lost by a tie—the chairman voting nay.

The chairman announced that the meeting had been called to consider and deliberate upon a resolution proposed by the acting director and Engineer Peters for the restoration of Union street.

The chairman stated that the plan submitted by ex-Director Cushing contained no details about how the work is to be carried out, and is incomplete. There was considerable discussion on the matter. Several aldermen argued that a director should be appointed and others were in favor of leaving the matter in the hands of Engineer Peters.

Ald. Pickett argued with Ald. Bakin that some one ought to be appointed as the restoration of Union street. Besides the Clark & Adams wharf were not finished. In addition there were the dredging and the restoration of Union street. Besides that there were many other important engineering works to be done. "Are we to say that Mr. Peters, who was retained a year ago because he was unable to do the work by reason of age, is now able to jump into the harness? Let us appoint a man at least temporarily."

The chairman said he and Mr. Peters had been in Carleton almost every day, and his motion was going on satisfactorily. Mr. Peters had told him he was willing to take up the work if he had some assistance. The only applicant who had received a vote from P. W. Holt, George Waring, and his brother, J. A. W. Waring, C. P. R. draughtsman.

The chairman said that the plans he had in the hands of Engineer Peters, the chairman and a special committee with power to act, was carried.

Engineer Peters was on motion of Ald. Christie appointed director provisionally. The director was instructed to interview the telephone company in the matter of guy wires and cables.

In connection with the widening of Paradise Row, Ald. Pickett thought it would be well to delay the using of the granite curbing elsewhere so that there might be more for that work if needed.

A communication was read from the street railways company asking that the surveys for their new lines on the north side of King Square and Paradise Row be made. On motion the director was authorized to survey the streets.

Ald. Bullock brought up the matter of the Mayes coal shed. He said that the shed was being torn down by the dredging and he simply wanted to move it to the other side towards the northeast corner. He made a motion that he be allowed to move it at his own risk. This carried.

The chairman read another communication from the street railway to the effect that the water pipes at Rodney wharf would be moved so that the traffic could be finished. The chairman of the water and sewerage will be asked to protect the water supply in Rodney street. The Bay Shore Lumber Company wrote asking about the possibility of hiring the city dredge. This was ordered filed.

W. Donohue, who tendered for the supply of hay to the public works department, asked for an increased price as he claimed he paid more for it. This was allowed to lie on the table.

A letter was read from the Carrington Manufacturing Company in which they requested to tender for 400 barrels of tar. This was filed and on motion of Ald. Bullock it was decided that new tenders be called for.

J. E. Fisher, president of the local teamsters' union, wrote asking that the wages of single teams be increased from $2.00 to $3.00 and double teams from $4.00 to $5.00 a day. The communication added that the increase was made necessary by the higher price of living and hay and oats.

A letter was received from James A. Gregory offering to sell four points of spruce piling at four cents a lineal foot and a quantity of hemlock timber at six cents. The director was instructed to accept the offer.

WEDDINGS

Corkery-Ashe. A wedding that will no doubt be remembered with interest took place yesterday afternoon at 5 o'clock in St. Joachim's church, Silver Falls, when Mrs. Isabella E. The bride, who wore a traveling suit of brown cloth, was attended by Mrs. George E. Crigg, while Michael T. Lohman supported the groom.

AN EVENING OF COMEDY

Empire Dramatic Club to Play Benefit for Every Day Club Playground Fund.

Mistaken identity is the cause of all the trouble in "A Visit From Maria," one of the very funny farcical comedettes to be presented by the Empire Dramatic Club at the dime entertainment in the Every Day Club rooms tomorrow evening.

When this comedette was first produced by the club a few days ago, it convulsed the audience with laughter and was voted one of the brightest, snappiest little plays seen here for some time.

There is nothing amateurish about the entertainment, as the performance goes with a really professional vim and vigor.

The Empire players will also produce two other comedettes—one an astounding farce entitled "The Misfortunes of Moses," and the other a dainty creation, "The Christmas Chime." The three will make up a triple bill of much merit.

There will also be musical selections between the acts. The proceeds of the entertainment will be devoted to the Every Day Club's playground fund.
