DOCTORS SAID Operation

When Chatham Lady Suffered From Extreme Nervous Exhaustion—Now Feeling Fine and Working Large Garden.

Chatham, Ont., Oct. 23.—This letter from a lady who writes: "For four years I suffered from nervous exhaustion and could not sleep well. I had headaches, neuralgic pains through the body and backache. There was a buzzing in my ears and twitching of nerves and muscles. I also had palpitation of the heart, which caused shortness of breath. I was easily tired and always drowsy after eating. When walking or on my feet very much my feet would seem to go dead in my shoes. I consulted two doctors and both told me that I would have to have an examination and probably an operation, but I would not have either. Shortly after this I commenced using Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, and after a treatment of this medicine I can say I am now feeling fine. I am able to do my household duties without difficulty, and besides this, attend to a half-acre of garden. I can go about without that dead feeling in my feet, and am grateful to Dr. Chase's Nerve Food for my cure. I think very highly of this medicine, and recommend it to other sufferers whenever I have an opportunity."

Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, 50 cents a box, a full treatment of 6 boxes for $2.75, at all dealers, or Edmondson, Bates & Co., Limited, Toronto. Do not be talked into accepting a substitute. Impatience only disappointed.

WAS AN EVERY DAY AFFAIR

Germany Made Much of Brush Off The Flanders Coast

London, Nov. 15.—The British admiralty comments as follows on a German report of an engagement of Flanders: "On Monday some German torpedo boat destroyers came out from under the protection of their shore batteries and fired a few rounds at our patrol vessel, none of which were hit. The fire was promptly returned and the Germans immediately retired under the protection of their shore batteries, and our patrol was retained."

"Incidents of this nature occur daily and no way interfere with the maintenance and efficiency of our patrol and they are therefore not reported."

When keeping the yolks of eggs for a day or two drop them in a little cold water. It will prevent hardening.

HIS WEEKLY TALK ON WAR SITUATION

General Maurice Speaks Of Italy and The East Hopeful As To Italy

Danger is on Northern Front—Defeat of Von Falkenhayn's Preparations For Capture of Bagdad

London, Nov. 15.—In his weekly talk to the Associated Press yesterday, General F. B. Maurice did not attach vital importance to the fact that the Germans have already succeeded in crossing the Piave river at one point, as he said a small force had crossed and the Ital-ians should be able to deal with these adequately. "The Italian line on the right," said General Maurice, "is the shortest one for the Germans and was the original-ly fixed by Cadorna when he began his withdrawal. Every day that the Ital-ians hold this line makes the situation more encouraging. The next line of de-fence is the Brenta, and the next after that the Adige, but both are much longer than the Piave line. "One danger to the Italians is their northern, or mountain front. If the en-emy holds this line makes the situation more difficult. Bridges must be re-paired and the German raiding are a long way back, so it takes much time to get up guns, ammunition and sup-plies. Regarding operations in the eastern theatre, General Maurice says: "The Germans have not yet succeeded in capturing the town of Von Falkenhayn's preparations of the capture of the Turkish stores of ammunition piled up for this enterprise. Having accomplished this, Maude has now fallen back to his old position, and there is no point in prolonging communications to no pur-pose. "Meanwhile, General Aliehy has been striking a powerful blow on the Palestine front. The forces opposing Allen-ey have been very roughly handled. They have lost half of their effective and must be reinforced from the army preparing at Aleppo for the Bagdad at-tack."

PRESSURE AGAIN ON MARKET LEADERS

New York, Nov. 15.—(Wall street)—Leaders were under renewed pressure at the opening of today's stock market, overnight developments provoking fur-ther moderate liquidation. Union Pac-ific, Utah Copper and Republic Iron yielded an average of a point, offset, however, by gains of one and one and a half points for Reading, Canadian Pac-ific, Southern Railway preferred, Mar-ine preferred and Baldwin Locomotive. An early fractional loss in U. S. Steel was soon retrieved.

Chicago, Nov. 15.—Prospects of an in-creased crop movement resulting from a more liberal supply of cars tended today to ease down the corn market. At-ten-tion was also given to fresh efforts of the food administration to bring about a low range of food prices as a means of enlarging the meat supply. Embargoes on two prominent eastern railways counted likewise as a weight on the market. Opening prices, which ranged from the same as yesterday's, but the one-half cent lower with De-cember at 1.15 1/2, and May at 1.15, were followed by a slight reaction and then by a moderate general decline.

APPEALING STORY IN CIRCUS PICTURE, THE VAUDEVILLE IS FINE Gem's New Programme Excellent in All Particulars and Very Much Enjoyed The Gem's new programme was keenly enjoyed last night. It opened with "A Circus Romance," a five reel picture featuring dainty Muriel Ostriche. The scenes in the city of the circus were very entertaining; it was like being at the tented grounds. The story of the picture is interesting and well told. Babette, the butterfly dancer of a big Southern carnival show, is loved by Pety, another performer. She is the daughter of Ezra Butterworth, a church where she is playing, but neither knows of the relationship, as Butterworth's wife, who is Zaida, the fortune teller of the show, had been deserted by Butterworth many years before. Babette carries the secret of her birth through a box of papers to which her mother carries the key always with her. The church people are shocked when Babette goes to Butterworth's house.

Hartley Manners, author of "Peg o' My Heart," which will be presented in this city the 28th and 29th by Elsa Ryan, with the original New York scenery, costumes and properties. The play, while a comedy, is filled with patriotism and is an example of modern playwrighting at its best. Scenery does an attraction of such merit come here. Miss Ryan is fitted temperamentally and phys-ically to follow Miss Taylor, the creator of the leading role in "Out There," as she did in "Peg o' My Heart." Seat sale opens Thursday, 22nd.

We Should Supervise Activities of Children

Thoughtful Address by Mrs. W. C. Good to The Playgrounds Association and the Citizens; Some of the Needs Outlined; Greater Care of Young Girls Urged

The address of Mrs. W. C. Good, retiring president of the Playgrounds Association, read by her at the annual meeting on Tuesday evening was as follows: "It is with pleasure that I report at the close of the fifth year of our society as the organized Playgrounds Association. It has been stated by those who have been long in the work that the past summer has seen most progress in our children, and much to encourage us in the carrying on of the playgrounds. That our closing was not a financial success, as we had planned, was due to the conditions. However, the work done by the children, guided by their teachers, the handcraft work was beautifully done and new ideas were introduced that should be further developed for another season. The painstaking efforts of the teachers are worthy of commendation throughout the season by the merchants and friends were inspiring from year to year. The attendance for the summer was a fair average, being less than some years because many of the children were unable to go to the country for part of the holiday. The fact that bright, warm days found many resorting to the beaches and that some facilities for this healthful recreation should be provided, and some steps are being taken by a strong committee to see how such provisions can be made another year at least at the Allison playgrounds at Lower Cove. The prospects for some beginning at our new playgrounds will be outlined at what follows. That how we play and what things else, makes it important that we should spend time, thought and money now on our future citizens, providing legitimate recreations rather than under-taking later to overcome evils that have resulted from lack of supervision in play time.

"Under great difficulties the Boys' Baseball League carried on their games and won well-merited prizes which were awarded at the opening of the Boys' Club in October. This is a most encouraging feature of our work, and if the committee are able to carry out the policy of last winter this should be a banner year, with the membership already numbering 117. The working men and boys of Lower Cove asked permission to use the Allison playgrounds in the evenings with results most satisfactory to all. The property was protected and the young people were provided with healthful recreation. The need for special centres the year around is made apparent and I trust the day is not far distant when such will be available.

"The Girls' Club has suffered from lack of sympathy, principally because it lacked attractiveness. The going out of the Travelers' Aid left more noticeable the difficulties under which the club was laboring. Just here we may congratulate ourselves that we were, as a society, strong promoters of the new flourishing work of the Travelers' Aid under the Y. W. C. A. A committee of the Girls' Club are actively engaging themselves to make use of the rooms at 92 Princess street, until the lease expires in May, 1918. In the meantime we are giving lodging with home privileges to women and girls at a nominal sum and letting the large room, as in former years, we hope to cover expenses. Some groups of girls have asked permission to use the room in a social way and are granting their request. The present need for a cosy place for our working girls is more apparent every day, and we shall gladly see this work also pass into the hands of the Y. W. C. A., its legitimate home.

"I should like to outline the most pressing needs as they have appeared to me in the year's close study of every detail of the war, even if I repeat myself. There should be a paid supervisor for the whole work, one capable of criticizing justly and bringing the summer work into proper focus, at the same time able to deal with the smallest detail, and there are many. Prior to selection, this person should make a thorough inspection of school buildings where our playgrounds are associated with them. Intelligent information would then be forthcoming when bills are sent in purporting to have arisen from careless reporting on the part of our workers. This would obviate unnecessary friction and make settlements easy where we have need to pay for any repairs. I have commented I have intimated one of the serious difficulties of the past year, and the co-operation and sympathy of the public, especially of the school authorities.

"The need of providing equipment for the raffia, basketry and other work of this nature will be greater this coming year as nearly all of the available material has been used. Let me urge that this be encouraged for it was one of the most important factors in controlling even the most untidy boys, who would sit by the hour weaving baskets or even fiddling with wood. That the prizes offered for this work had something to do with their earnestness I will not deny. And this leads to another suggestion, that prizes be offered for physical exercises. Though we may deplore the idea that children will only develop that for which rewards are to be given, yet the fact remains that something to work for is a strong motive in all our lives, and it may be used in our playgrounds as an incentive to more regular attendance upon classes in physical culture and drills, the real design of the work introduced by Froebel, viz., the development of the children in outdoor life. Here again, a supervisor would be of great service in unifying the work of all the grounds, while developing individual exercises as the case might require.

"Then a club for girls of the same age as our boys would bring into control an element that would otherwise be in the days to come a menace to our home life and almost hopeless to combat. We continually compare the girls that we deal with the latter from the ages of five to fourteen while their sisters run wild. Habits are formed that cause some of us to exclaim with horrified expressions 'girl are impossible.' Let us use common sense and we may easily overcome what must surely be an appalling situation if those others who have left this work for us to carry on. "This leads me to assure those who were co-workers with Miss Mabel Peters that her spirit of enthusiasm and the thought of what she had established so ably was very present with me throughout the year. I take pleasure in here recording this tribute to her memory. "I must not, however, deal only with the past, but take this opportunity of expressing my personal gratitude to A. M. Belding, our secretary. He has been of incalculable value to me and an inspiring force in all our activities. With his living example before us, we should be ever ready to make our lives measure up to the fullest and best."

CANADIAN GIRL MAY BE QUEEN OF BRITAIN

London, Nov. 15.—Speaking at the Canada Club luncheon to Sir George Perley, yesterday, Sir Hannar Greenwood said: "We have a chance of having a Canadian girl as Queen of England, and I for one expect His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales not to neglect Canada in making a selection which is vital to the interests of the mother country and the empire. "I won't suggest that one branch has done better than another but I think we may be justifiably proud of what our Canadian girl has done." (Cheers.) Sir George Perley spoke of the important work accomplished by the railway and forestry battalions, and paid generous testimony to the manner in which he had been supported by Generals Turner and Currie.

H.P.
England's most popular SAUCE
There's economy in using H.P.—the odds and ends are made simply delicious with just a few drops of H.P. Sauce.

Speaking of Canada's internal affairs Mr. Perley remarked "Instead of being a borrowing country we become a lending country." Some said we had borrowed too much but I frankly tell you we could not do so in a country like Canada. I believe we may anticipate the time when we shall have a population as large as the United States has today.

PURITY FLOUR

It contains an extraordinary amount of nourishment which makes its use a real economy.

Canadian Headquarters in France, via London, Nov. 14.—(By W. A. Willison, special correspondent to the Canadian Press)—Hindenburg has failed. The boasted attack which was to have swept our troops off Passchendaele Ridge was launched late yesterday afternoon. From Vindictive Cross Roads to Vocation Farm, the enemy advanced in force, only to be met by the terrific fire of our artillery, causing him heavy losses every step of the advance. Those of the enemy who survived our barrage were caught by rifle and machine gun fire and repulsed all along the line by our infantry. As he has failed to blast our men out of the position, so the enemy has failed to drive them out. Canada is secure on the ridge. Our troops have been daily strengthening the forward line, while our guns have been advancing to new positions. Prepared for yesterday's attack, our artillery and infantry co-operated in the decisive defeat of picked fighting troops of the Central empire. Passchendaele has been a triumph of mind, as much as of men and guns—a triumph of mind and of co-operation between the different services working together with precision towards a common end. Bellevue Spur and the first footing on the ridge of Crest Farm and Meetschele, Passchendaele—three battles and three victories, as planned. The achievement has been great. The cost has been heavy. Many noble men of yours have died for Canada. "If ye break faith with us who die, we shall not sleep, though poppies blow in Flanders fields."

REFERENDUM WOULD BRING JOY TO KAISER

Sir Robert Borden Speaks At Halifax

A Call To Canadians

Premier Urges Support of Military Service Act as Only Method of Securing Needed Reinforcements—French Liberals Declined Office

Halifax, N. S., Nov. 15.—In a speech which he contended that the coming election was a test of what Canada thought of the war and the necessity for the troops of the dominion remaining in it, and which was being watched by Germany, Sir Robert Borden, prime minister of Canada, inaugurated his tour of the maritime provinces at a great meeting in Market hall last evening.

The premier, after reviewing the events which led to the passage of the Military Service Act, said:— Sir Robert announced that he considered the immediate enforcement of the Military Service Act the only method by which the imperatively necessary reinforcements for the Canadian troops in France would be supplied and contended that the referendum proposal of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, if carried out, would delay the arrival of support for a year, something that would be hailed by the German high command with great joy and not a little mirth.

Discussing union government, Sir Robert mentioned that in his effort to give representation to all elements of the population that strove to maintain the national endeavor in the war, he had offered a cabinet position within the last three weeks to three Liberal French-Canadians, who had declined it. The premier was given a warm reception. Between 4,000 and 5,000 people attended the meeting, including many women. The chair was taken by John W. Regan, A. K. Maclean, who followed the prime minister, defended his decision to alter the union cabinet as a minister without portfolio.

What is the situation? The need for reinforcements is insistent, compelling, imperative. Do we fully appreciate the meaning and effect of what is taking place in Russia and in Italy? There never was greater necessity to summon our sternest resolve and to gird on our mightiest strength. In the British islands and especially in France they are much in advance of us in the organization and utilization of the nation's human energy. The terrible need for reinforcements can be met. But, even with the best speed that can be made we shall rarely be in time. Yet, it is seriously proposed that with Canadian divisions depleted at the front—and remember that a division when thus depleted ceases to be an effective fighting unit until reinforced—it is proposed that with divisions depleted at the front we are to wait until parliament is summoned, until a bill for a referendum is passed and until the referendum shall have been held and the verdict of the people pronounced.

Referendum Means Delay. How many men could be brought into military service by means of a referendum within one year from today? Parliament stands adjourned to Feb. 29 because the election returns will not be available until Feb. 27. Probably the session could not begin before the middle of March. The passage of the necessary legislation for a referendum might take, it doubtless would take, at least two months. To hold the referendum election and obtain the verdict of the people would require two or three additional months. In the meantime the Military Service would be suspended. The spirit of men would be broken as their ranks became more and more depleted. They asked for reinforcements and you give them a referendum. All military activity would be at an end and perhaps war itself would have come to a conclusion with results disastrous to our country. This is a war in which the last 100,000 men may mean victory, the lack of them defeat. Make no mistake about it. The proposal for a referendum has but one meaning. It means that the Canadian forces at the front shall be left to their fate, without support and without reinforcements. Whether that be the purpose is immaterial; that beyond question will be the result. It would be hailed with great joy and not a little mirth by the German higher command. Can we doubt that if any effort on their part can bring about such a consummation it will not be spared.

Birth of Union Government.

Out of the momentous events of the year now drawing to a close has arisen the union government, which appeals to the electorate to uphold its hands in this terrible struggle. Upon all the incidents which lead to the formation of that government I need not dwell. Its members have come together from both political parties in a very earnest spirit and with an intense desire to perform their duty to the country in the hour of its most urgent need. The enforcement of military service ought not to be carried on by a party government if that course can possibly be avoided. When the war reached so critical a period it became most important that a government should be formed thoroughly representative of every element in the population prepared to support Canada's utmost effort. I have never deviated from that purpose since I formed it in May last. In this or in any other country an alliance of parties in a union or national government is hardly possible, until it becomes practically inevitable. Even in this great emergency the task has been a most difficult one, involving wearisome and protracted negotiations, resulting at times in serious discouragement and requiring an almost infinite patience. It was my desire and it still is my firm intention that both political parties shall have equal representation in the government, outside of the office of prime minister.

My object was that no purpose has not been spared and during the past three weeks I have approached successively no less than three Canadians of French origin and of Liberal affiliation with the request that one of them should enter the government. I do not reproach them because my effort was unsuccessful, but I do most sincerely regret their decision. For its consequences they are responsible, not I. So earnestly did I desire the formation of an administration with the broadest possible basis of representation, that I should willingly and even gladly have stood aside if it had proved necessary to the accomplishment of that purpose.

There may be those in the party with which I have been associated who would regard this as a sacrifice of its best traditions if I had been animated by any other ideal or any other thought. In the awful conditions which confront the world today why should the political fortunes of any individual or the political fortunes of any party stand for one moment across the path of a great national purpose?

Those of my colleagues who have recently joined the government have played a worthy part. I know that they have yielded only to a sense of supreme duty. Doubtless they feel keenly the breaking of old ties and the dissolution of long standing and valued associations. All this means much to any man with a long public service behind him; but they have the consciousness of a great duty nobly fulfilled and the knowledge that a higher and more notable service to the country lies before them. That they could not withhold themselves when Canada called them is their highest and complete justification. And remember that there are able men in the Liberal-Conservative party with long public service behind them and with very legitimate aspirations for promotion, who without hesitation have stood aside in order that union might be consummated.

I appeal to you all of whatever party, and especially to those of the party with which I have been associated to ponder well upon these events and to put aside every old antagonism and controversy; to unite in earnest, vigorous efforts to stand for the country and not for party. Party antagonism when not based on principle is a sorry spectacle at any time. In these awful days it is little less than a crime. We have a great task before us. The eyes of the world are upon Canada in this crisis. Let us remember the words of the Apostle:—

RECIPE TO DARKEN GREY HAIR

Home Made Mixture Darkens Grey Hair and Removes Dandruff

o a half pint of water add: Rum ..... 1 oz. Compound ..... a small box serine ..... 1/4 oz. These are all simple ingredients that can buy from any druggist at very low cost, and mix them yourself. Apply to the scalp once a day for two or three times every other week until the mixture is used. A half pint should be enough to rid the head of dandruff, remove the hair from falling out, and cure itching and scalp diseases. It retards the growth of the hair and makes harsh hair soft and glossy.

Canada Must Change that Record

FEWER CANADIANS in proportion to the population have lent their money to the nation than have either the British or American people.

This in spite of the fact that the individual wealth of the Canadian people to-day is greater than it has ever been and is one of the largest of any country in the world.

Canada wants you to help change that record now. You owe it to Canada, to yourself, to your children, to see that it is changed.

If you never bought a war bond before do it now. Be ready when the canvasser calls. Remember this—That to win this war every man and woman in Canada must do his or her share, and to-day the most important, vitally necessary thing is to buy Victory Bonds.

Help to Change Canada's Record to 1 in 20 Buyers of Victory Bonds

Issued by Canada's Victory Loan Committee in co-operation with the Minister of Finance of the Dominion of Canada.

Apostle dwells? The primary meaning of the word is the quality of suffering or enduring. And so we may read from the Apostle's words the lesson that until there shall come to us victory crowned with abiding peace we shall suffer but we must endure. The policies of the government have been set forth in two messages already addressed to the Canadian people. Tonight it is not in my heart to dwell upon them, for the message which I must give you is the overmastering necessity of sustaining the men who hold Canada's first line of defence on the western front. They have gone forth voluntarily in the flower of their youth, to undertake this duty which daily calls them to bivouac with death. The soil of France and Belgium is hallowed by the graves of their dead. If the task to which these consecrated their lives in the last sacrifice remains unaccomplished, shall we not stand silent, ashamed and humiliated before those who return? Not from the living alone but from the fallen also come to Canada, their beloved and benign mother, the call for aid. Their appeal, whether from the quick or the dead, tells you more eloquently than any words of mine that there is presently but one issue, one supreme issue, before the Canadian people. Shall Canada's effort in this war be maintained or withdrawn? Shall the Canadian army corps at the front be supported or deserted? Such is the issue. I speak with all the earnestness of the most intense conviction; I speak as one upon whom very heavy and trying responsibilities have been imposed during the past three years, responsibilities that would gladly have been laid aside except for the silent appeal from the trenches. The responsibility is now yours. It rests upon each of you, men and women. I pray that it may be so fulfilled as to justify the sacrifice bravely and voluntarily endured on many a battlefield in France and Belgium by those whom Canada has sent forth in this awful struggle against the most relentless, brutal and powerful militarism that ever threatened to bring the world within the orbit of its accursed tyranny.

WRESTLING.
Match Postponed.
Des Moines, Ia., Nov. 12—Earl Cadlock, of Anita, Iowa, claimant to the world's wrestling championship, is in stable company, though allotted ten pounds less, was next in order and was conceding weight to all the aged horses in the race. The triumph of the three-year-old division was completed by A. K. Macomber's Sunbonnet finishing third.
Wests Hogan's efforts have been mainly confined to sprint races, and it was the general belief that his mission in the big race was to make the pace for the more distinguished Omar Khayyam. He proved such an able pacemaker, that he killed off all the others, but went further than that by striking to the end of the long route and leading Omar to the judges. That both the Viasu colts were at the top of their form is shown by the time of 2:21.4, which clipped two and a fifth seconds from the track record.

REDS ONLY TEAM TO WORRY MCGRAW
Matty May Develop Club Of Enough Strength to Beat Giants Next Year
Of all the clubs in the National League, the Giants can best afford to stand pat on its present makeup next season. All the other clubs will have to strengthen to give McGraw's team a battle for the pennant, and judging from last year's performances on the Tanager circuit, it is still doubtful if any club will be able to stop the New York club which seems to have the best chance to be Christy Mathewson's Cincinnati Reds.
When Miller Huggins, now manager of the Yankees, was in St. Louis, the Cards gave the Reds an unlimited amount of trouble. While there was much joy here in New York over the engagement of Huggins as the Yankee manager, there was even more joy in Cincinnati over his leaving St. Louis. Cincinnati figures that without the foxy and aggressive Huggins the Cardinals will be easy picking for Matty's club next season.
When Cincinnati gave the Giants more trouble than any one club in last year's pennant race, and if Matty can strengthen his club a few spots it is likely to give McGraw even more trouble next year. In the outfield Matty can stand pat, and his infield is all right except at second. He needs a stronger second baseman, and will evidently have one before the season begins.
Mathewson also hopes to strengthen his pitching staff. His right-handers delivered the goods satisfactorily, and what the Cincinnati leader is now gunning for is a good left-hander, or he could use a couple if he could get them. With the gap the infield filled, and with two strong left-handers to help out, Mathewson would not be afraid of the Giants or any other club. New York fans are likely to regard next season's race as something of a certainty, but it would be well for them to wait a while and see how Matty begins the season before becoming too confident.
When Cincinnati wound up the baseball season by winning the Ohio series from Cleveland, which at the end of the season was generally regarded as being stronger even than the Chicago White Sox, the hopes of Cincinnati fans soared to great heights over next year's prospects. Cincinnati fans have a bad habit of winning pennants during the winter months, but this year they have more reason to bank their hopes on great accomplishments than ever before.
There has been some talk of trouble between McGraw and Herzog, and that the fiery second baseman would make a move next season. Cincinnati would give almost anything to have Herzog back at second base in Redland, but gossip of the McGraw-Herzog feud is being seriously here, and as he has a long-term contract with the New York club, it is not likely that McGraw will break up his winning combination.
Mathewson believes that in Bressler he has a left-hander who is going to do something next year. Bressler was at one time with the Athletics, but last season showed great improvement in the Southern Association.
The Phillies do not appear to be strong enough to give the Giants as much opposition as last season. The combination in Philadelphia is growing old and is naturally slowing up. Pat Moran will have to strengthen his club in spots, but it is unlikely that he will be able to improve enough to make much trouble.
Although President Wegman has been given $200,000 to get players to strengthen his club next season, Manager Mitchell will find that good ball players do not grow on every bush and baseball stars are something which even money cannot buy. No club has been so successful in buying star players as the Giants, but the practice becomes so general here that the National League has put a barrier on selling or exchanging star players as McGraw has been able to do in the past.
Although unsuccessful in the world's series, McGraw still has confidence in his team. Next year he will have Ross Young to strengthen the outfield, and it will be hardly necessary to make further changes unless to add a utility player or two to strengthen the secondary defense. McGraw, during the last season, was weak on second-string play-

Declines to Meet Giants.
New York, Nov. 12—President Comiskey of the world's champion White Sox has declined an invitation from Manager McGraw of the Giants to play a series of exhibition games in the south next spring.
The Detroit Tigers also have refused to play the Giants in March. It will be recalled that during the battles last spring between McGraw and Jennings there was a rumour, in which Cobb spiked Herzog and then refused to take part in the remaining games. A fistful was the outcome, the men meeting in private after an exchange of challenges. Cobb was declared the victor.
Contention Over Saier.
Victor Saier, a clever first baseman, who broke his leg last spring and was out for the rest of the season, is a bone of contention between the Pirates and Cubs. The Cubs released him outright, but secretly kept him on the payroll. Dreyfus of the Pirates claimed Saier in accordance with baseball law, and he intends to make a finish fight for the first baseman's services. Saier meanwhile insists that under the working agreement between the Fraternity and the National Commission he is a free agent, but Saier evidently forgets that Organized Baseball severed all relations with the Fraternity last winter.

GAELIC AMERICAN IS BEING INVESTIGATED
Has Been Attacking U. S. Secret Service — Says it Uses Fakes Supplied by England
New York, Nov. 14—The Gaelic American, a Sinn Fein weekly published in New York, of which John Devoy is editor, is under investigation by the federal authorities. The last issue of the paper devoted most of its space to attacks on the United States secret service, which, it charges, is working in the interest of England, while William J. Flynn, the chief of the service, is referred to, not once, but several times, as the author of "impudent fakes" and as a common liar. Since the passage of the Espionage Act the paper has ceased printing attacks upon President Wilson, which featured its editorial columns prior to this country's entrance into the war.
The attacks on the secret service are made as a result of the arrest by the secret service of Sinn Fein leaders, "General" Liam Mellows and Dr. Patrick McCartan, who escaped to this country after the Dublin Sinn Fein riots of Easter, 1916, and who recently sought to get back to Ireland. Mellows is now out on bail.
The purpose of the local Sinn Feiners, in the opinion of federal officials, is primarily to discredit, if possible, the secret service in the eyes of the American people and to cast doubt, in advance, on the truthfulness of any disclosures which the government may see fit to make regarding the activities in this country of Sinn Feiners and their German sympathizers.
The case of Mellows is said to be before the federal grand jury now, and rumor has it that the activities of Irish spies, besides Mellows, the number including some who are American citizens of Irish extraction, will soon be brought to the attention of the grand jury of this district.
The main article in the Gaelic American is under the caption: "Secret Service Lies Based on English Fakes," the introductory paragraph reading:
"The impudent fake about the new-

SOLDIERS HOME FROM WAR

Quite a Few St. John Men and Some From Other Parts of Province Reach St. John—One Who Has Lost Many of Family

It is considered by returned soldiers that a man that has been "over the top" has seen some actual fighting in France and one who can say "over the top" is considered to be one of the very lucky soldiers. St. John welcomes home today one of her sons who has been over the top on several occasions and has the distinction of being the first man "over the top" at Vimy Ridge, Private J. J. Allen of 188 Brussels street, who spent nearly two years in France. During that time he was wounded four times, once on the Somme and three times at Vimy Ridge. When asked as to how the men felt when they knew that they are to be ordered to charge, he said: "Well, I'll tell you something; when you can judge for yourself. When we heard that we were to have the distinction of being the first over, many of the boys in our battalion got busy to find something that they could take with them in the line of sporting goods, others took flags and tied them on their bayonets. All this was done to prove to the Huns just how we took a charge. Every man went for a flag which I carried, he said, was an American boy, which I found. I tied it to my bayonet and was successful in getting it through to the German trenches. The flag is a little torn."

With this he dug down deep in his pocket and handed out the torn flag. "That flag," he said, "I had the distinction of being over the top and having made a visit to the German trenches." In answer to a question "Did the Canadians have it their own way?" he said: "Not at all; we fought for what we gained." Some of the boys, he said, carried over footballs and various other kinds of rings.

Pte. W. H. Ring of 948 Duke street, West St. John, was in the party. He went overseas as a member of the 104th battalion, and after a short stay in England crossed to France in a draft from that unit. He was taken three months in France, when he was taken ill and as a result of his sickness he has been returned home.

G. H. Waldron of 18 Castle street arrived home. He went overseas as a member of the 9th battalion from Moncton. He was taken ill while in England and has been invalided home.

F. W. Waters of 125 Main street is in the party. He went overseas as a member of the 58th and after his arrival in England was transferred. He was wounded three times.

S. T. Seely of the 26th battalion arrived home. He went overseas as a member of the 104th battalion and was drafted into the 26th after his arrival in England with the unit. He was wounded in the leg and various other parts of his body.

K. Pederson of Wright street was among the party. He went overseas as a member of the 26th and battalion and after his arrival in England was transferred. He was wounded in the left shoulder at Vimy Ridge.

P. McCourt of Sheriff street arrived. He went overseas as a member of the 32nd and crossed to France in a draft. He was taken ill while in France and as a result has been invalided home.

F. E. Robinson, 71 Lansdowne avenue, is home. He went overseas as a member of the 58th from Toronto and was drafted. He was wounded three times, twice at St. Eloi and once at Vimy Ridge.

H. Gibson of 18 Kimble street was in the party. He was a member of the 115th battalion. He was taken ill in England and as a result has been returned home.

D. Pelgrom of 319 Princess street arrived home. He went overseas as a member of the 69th and was in the 104th battalion. He was wounded in the right leg on the Somme.

Sergt. J. W. Rawlings of Short street, Moncton, was in the party. He was in France for several months, when he was taken ill with trench fever and as a result has been invalided home. He said that during his time in France he saw many changes and all were for the better for the Allies.

Sad War for Him.

Sergt. E. W. Hills, a member of the original 26th, was in the party. He was wounded. He was not overjoyed to be home as was some of the others, but seemed rather sad. It was not for a few minutes before it was learned why he was so down-hearted. He said: "This is a terrible war. I have had five brothers killed and my only two sons recently died of wounds. Sergeant Hills is a native of England, but for the last few years has been living in St. John.

Corporal A. E. Franco, 22 Sydney street, arrived home. He went overseas as a member of the 26th. He was eleven months in France and at the heavy engagement at St. Eloi was wounded in the back.

W. Williamson, a St. John man, was also in the party. He went overseas as a member of the first draft in the first engagement at Courcette while taking part in charge on the German trenches.

H. A. Poirer of this city, who enlisted with the 16th while that regiment was in the city, was returned from France as under age. "I am only seventeen now," he told a representative of The Times this morning, "and I was only sixteen when I was sent back." His brother, Corporal Charles, is at present with the 26th in France.

Other New Brunswickers.

I. J. Hamilton and W. E. Warren of Harcourt arrived in the city this morning. Pte. Hamilton enlisted in the 148th of service in France. He was sent home sick. Pte. Warren, who enlisted also in the 148th, was sent back sick after a month and a half in the trenches. His brother, Charles E., is at present with the 5th C. M. R.'s in France.

he was buried by a shell and returned to the front without completely recovering. The injuries went from bad to worse and finally he was returned home. Pte. Bernatchez enlisted with the 5th Royal Rifles in Quebec and was later transferred to the 27th in New Brunswick. After seven months in the trenches he was wounded in the left leg in April, 1917, on the Ypres front. His brother, Philip, was killed at Vimy Ridge.

Pte. J. Bernard of Dalhousie enlisted with the 5th after fourteen months in the trenches was wounded at the battle of Ypres, 1916, being hit in the back with shrapnel. He returned to the front a few days after Vimy Ridge was invaded home.

James H. Lynch of Edmundston enlisted with the 136th battalion but was transferred to the Machine Gun Corps on reaching England. After ten months of service with this dangerous unit, Private Lynch was gassed in August of this year. Asked concerning the present status of the British machine gun corps compared with the Germans he said: "It was pretty fierce the first period of the war, but now have a vastly superior machine gun corps to that of the Germans. Not only have we better men, but we have more guns. We can put them in position and get them out of there while they silence one of ours."

C. O. Fraser of Bryan's Corner enlisted with the 148th and spent thirteen months in the trenches. At the end of this time his health gave way and he was invalided home. His two brothers, E. and H. Fraser, are still doing their bit in the trenches.

C. E. Nicholson of Hillsboro, who arrived in the city this morning, enlisted with the 148th and is one of three brothers in khaki. The other two, Charles and Allan Nicholson, are still overseas. The former went with the first contingent and the latter went with Private Nicholson in the 148th.

After twenty-four months in the trenches, V. Hachey of the original 26th, returned to the city this morning and will proceed this week to his home in Newcastle. He was wounded in the left leg with shrapnel while with a work party could get off the field, he was buried by a shell and after being dug out was sent to hospital. He was invalided home.

In this morning's batch of heroes fresh from the fields of France were:

G. E. McKinnon, G. E. McKinnon and J. Vourtour. Private McKinnon went overseas as a sergeant in the 148th. On arrival in England he was transferred to the 8th battalion. In order to get to France, Sergeant McKinnon reverted to the ranks, but was turned down as physically unfit. After fourteen months in England he was invalided home. His brother, A. Turner McKinnon, is at present with the C. A. S. C. in France. J. Vourtour enlisted with the 140th battalion in Moncton and after twelve months in the trenches was wounded in the left leg on May 8 with shrapnel. He was returned home to receive his discharge.

His brother, Dallas A., was killed in France from a bullet in the neck. A. M. Cromwell of Narrows, Queens county, returned to St. John this morning, he enlisted with the C. A. M. C. in January of 1917 and got only to England before his health overtook him and he was returned to Canada. He is only twenty years of age.

B. W. Howard of Aroostook Junction enlisted with the original 26th and spent twenty months doing his bit in the trenches. At the end of that time, he was returned home as being under age. He was only seventeen. This young soldier hopes to return again and do his bit towards finishing off the Kaiser.

Carroll of Escuminac has spent thirteen months in the trenches and has been wounded twice. He enlisted with the 26th and went to France with that regiment. The first wound was only slight and after eight days in the hospital he was sent back to the line. But the second wounding was quite serious and as a result of shrapnel wounds in the left thigh and arm, he was sent home to recover. Private Carroll is twenty-one years of age.

Private J. J. Ryan of St. Joseph's, Newfoundland, enlisted in New Brunswick with the 55th and was nine months in the trenches before being wounded in the leg and receiving slight shock which rendered him incapable of further service.

D. Green of Woodstock enlisted with the 104th battalion, and spent eight months in the trenches. At the battle of Vimy Ridge he received a serious wound in the right hip. "I was on night outpost duty," he told a representative of The Times this morning, "it was a pitch dark on the night of June 8 and the shells were whizzing continually overhead. All of a sudden one of the shells burst right behind me and my right hip went numb. I did not see the shell coming or bursting and I felt no pain at first, although of course the wound became painful in hospital." Private Green was returned home after several months in hospital.

Adelard Doucette of Pettit Rocheur enlisted with the 5th battalion. After six months in the trenches he was returned home with trench fever.

His brother, Otto, is in France with the fighting 26th.

The boys were met at the depot this morning by members of the returned soldiers' reception committee and every man received a package of cigarettes from H. P. Robinson.

91 Charlotte Street

Dear Mary:—
I don't see why so many women pay so much attention to the pictures on their walls and so little to the rugs on their floors.
The beauty of a home begins with its rugs—and ends there if they are not pretty—I'm as proud of my rugs as I am of my pictures. Why, my rugs have become my friends; they give me such a warm welcome whenever I come into the house.
Your affectionate—
