BRITISH BEAT BACK GERMAN COUNTER ATTACK; FRENCH TAKE WIDE OF TRENCHES

Fighting at Ginchy Continues; British Bombard Germans Near Lens; French Success is Gained Northeast of Verdun

London, Sept. 7.—A German attempt to regain possession of Leuze Wood, on the Somme front, last night, led to hand to hand fighting with the British. The War Office announced today that the Germans were beaten back. The announcement follows: "Under cover of darkness the enemy made a counter-attack against our position in Leuze Wood. After hand to hand fighting the enemy was driven back, leaving two officers and seventeen men prisoners in our hands. "The fighting at Ginchy continues. There has been considerable artillery activity on both sides during the night and this morning, the enemy using gas and lacrymatory shells. East of Neuville-Sevaast the enemy exploded a mine. Last evening we carried out a very effective bombardment of the enemy's trenches west of Lens.

BIG GAIN AT VERDUN

Paris, Sept. 7.—The French have captured the German first line trenches over a front of one mile on the Verdun front, the War Office announced today.

The breach in the German line was effected on the front northeast of Verdun, between the Vaux Chapitre region and the town of Chenois. They took 250 prisoners.

The statement adds that a powerful effort made by German troops to dislodge the French from Hospital Farm on the Somme front was without success, and that the Germans were dispersed with heavy losses.

BRITISH NOW NEED BUT GINCHY

With the British Army in France, Sept. 5.—(via London, Sept. 7).—The British feel that their uphill work in this latest offensive is over with the execution of the taking of Ginchy. For more than two months now their fight has been one to gain high ground over the broad commanding front. Ginchy is the most places them in possession of the last of the old second line trenches and from the Somme to Thiepval the Germans have now been blasted out of their old positions.

GERMAN DEFEAT AS ESSENTIAL TO UNITED STATES AS TO EUROPE

New York Tribune's Decided Stand on Matter of American Reprisal Against Allies

New York, Sept. 7.—Commenting editorially on proposed measures of reprisal to be directed by this country against the Entente Powers, today's Tribune says: "We sincerely regret the course of Congress in adopting measures of reprisal directed at the Entente Powers. The Tribune regrets the action because it believes that the American interests, American principles and American ideals are being served by the nations who are fighting Germany and it believes that German defeat is as essential to the United States as to Europe. "But, having said this, the Tribune cannot express any surprise at the action in Washington. It has been inevitable from the start, unless British and French statements were sufficiently wise to avoid unnecessary dispute and forego unnecessary activities."

MRS. JOHN CARRIGAN Many will learn with regret of the death of Mrs. John Carrigan of 72 Central street, which occurred last night. Beside her husband she is survived by one sister, Mrs. R. S. Patterson of Toronto and one brother, John Miller of San Francisco. The funeral will take place at 2:30 o'clock on Saturday afternoon.

"Must Make Truce With England"

Peace Cry More Insistent Than Ever In Germany; Note of Defeat In Newspaper Articles

London, Sept. 7.—(New York Times cable).—The Daily Express prints extracts from the Berlin Socialist organ "Vorwarts." "If the Central authorities still have any doubts as to the real sentiments of the people in regard to the continuance of this frightful struggle, they should personally attend some of the crowded meetings now being held in various parts of the empire. At all of these gatherings the demand for speedy peace without any annexation is received with thunderous cheers. "At one of these gatherings, Deputy Kappeler declared that the only real guarantee against the repetition of such a catastrophe lay in the disarmament of all states and the establishment of an international arbitration court. In the meantime, however, he added, a truce with Great Britain must be arranged, even if at the sacrifice of some of Germany's chief ambitions. "The Schwabische Tagblatt of Stuttgart is quoted as saying: "Even if the Russians, Italians and all of the continental allies were beaten, England's naval supremacy would not be destroyed, and we may go so far as to say that unless a miracle happens this object will never be realized, not even though the war lasts thirty years. Prolongation of the war can only plunge us into deeper misery and expose us to the gravest perils. "The Berlin Post says: "The recall of Von Falkenhayn is equivalent to an admission by Germany of the defeat suffered before Verdun, an admission which comes more than six months after the beginning of this gigantic adventure. "It was said that Falkenhayn would be fully justified in the sacrifice of half a million men if he could capture Verdun. He has lost the elite of the imperial army and now Verdun represents a mild defeat, the consequences of which are now seen in northern France, in Russia, in the Trentino and on the Italian front. It further constitutes a moral defeat of which the reaction is at this moment felt so seriously in the Balkans."

HARBOR SURVEYS DISCUSSED

Commissioners Want Government to Undertake Work—Talk of Further Harbor Improvements and Harbor Commission

After hearing a delegation which presented the claims of the Tourist Association, the common council at their noon committee meeting today voted a renewal of last year's grant of $562 to enable them to carry on their work. Commissioner Russell's resolution for a harbor survey and revision of harbor laws and rates at a cost of $2,500, was laid over until the commissioner could find what dominion surveys are available and also if the dominion government would undertake the additional surveys which may be needed. In the course of the discussion announcements were made that additional harbor improvements are to be undertaken by the government next year, and that placed the St. John harbor in commission is likely to be completed by the government after the war is over.

The meeting was held at twelve o'clock Mayor Hayes presiding, with Commissioners Wignome, Russell and Fisher and the common clerk present. Mr. Armstrong, who pointed out that their funds are exhausted and a new issue of booklets was needed. After some discussion Commissioner Russell's motion that a grant of $562, the same as last year, be made, was carried.

Thomas Parker, B.A., rector of Norton. Rev. W. P. Dunham, of Leamster, officiated at the ceremony, which took place in the presence of relatives and friends. Miss Edna Ritchie, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid, and the groom was supported by Rev. R. F. Higley, rector of Wicklow. The church of Greenwood was tastefully decorated for the occasion. A dainty wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's parents. Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Parker will spend a short honeymoon in Italy and upon their return will take up their residence in Norton.

THE DUMA AND THE JEWS

London, Sept. 7.—(Toronto Mail and Empire cable).—London Jews, says the Daily News, are interested in a statement made by a Russian statesman, Miliukov, that a bill will be introduced upon the Jews and removing the existing educational restrictions. If passed, the bill means that the Russian Jews will be able to live anywhere and follow any profession. It is realized, however, that the bill, though supported by the Russian Progressives, will meet with considerable opposition in the Russian parliament.

Task of Russians To Eliminate Turkey and Bulgaria From War

New York, Sept. 7.—According to a News Agency despatch from London, published here today, Russia is to settle the eastern question by eliminating Turkey and Bulgaria entirely from the war, obtaining for the use of Russia the Black Sea port of Varna or Constantinople itself and using it as a base for the crushing of Germany and Austria. A new strong Russian army is taking the field with special mission, says the correspondent of the Morning Post at Petrograd. When the army has gained one of these ports, as a base of supply, he says, Russia will be able to strike the Teutons with fifty per cent more power.

SURFACE LINES FIRST SUFFER IN NEW YORK STRIKE

Ride or Walk Was Question For Million This Morning

SITUATION WAS SERIOUS

New York, Sept. 6.—A million or more residents of New York left their homes this morning not knowing whether they would ride to work or walk. The first sign of a strike declared last night by the union employees of the elevated and subway railroads came with the morning rush hours on these main arteries of travel between the two ends of Manhattan Island. If the car-men can carry out their threats to halt surface as well as subway and elevated traffic, New York faces the biggest and most vital strike in its history. The geographical formation of the city, the concentration of population in the greater city and the concentration of the business make New York peculiarly susceptible to any interruption of street car traffic.

Retake Warsaw This Year, Says Brusiloff

Russian General Confident; He is Wearing the Enemy Out; Three Lines of Enemy Trenches Along 20 Mile Front Captured in Few Hours

London, Sept. 7.—(Toronto Mail and Empire cable).—Writing from a "down in Southern Russia," George Mewes says, in a despatch to the Daily Mirror: "In company with Stanley Washburn I recently motored to the headquarters of General Brusiloff. He talked to us for nearly an hour. The fighting at Verdun, he said, filled him with admiration for the soldiers of France. For his recent successes he gave all the credit to the Russian soldier. Brusiloff asked the general if Warsaw would be retaken this year. He replied: "Why not?" Brusiloff has implicit faith in the Russian soldier. Last year he retreated owing to the lack of munitions. He is as confident of the ultimate result as he is now of Warsaw being retaken this year.

FROM RANKS TO HIS OLD POST AS LIEUT. COLONEL

British Officer, Cashiered in 1914, Wins His Way Back

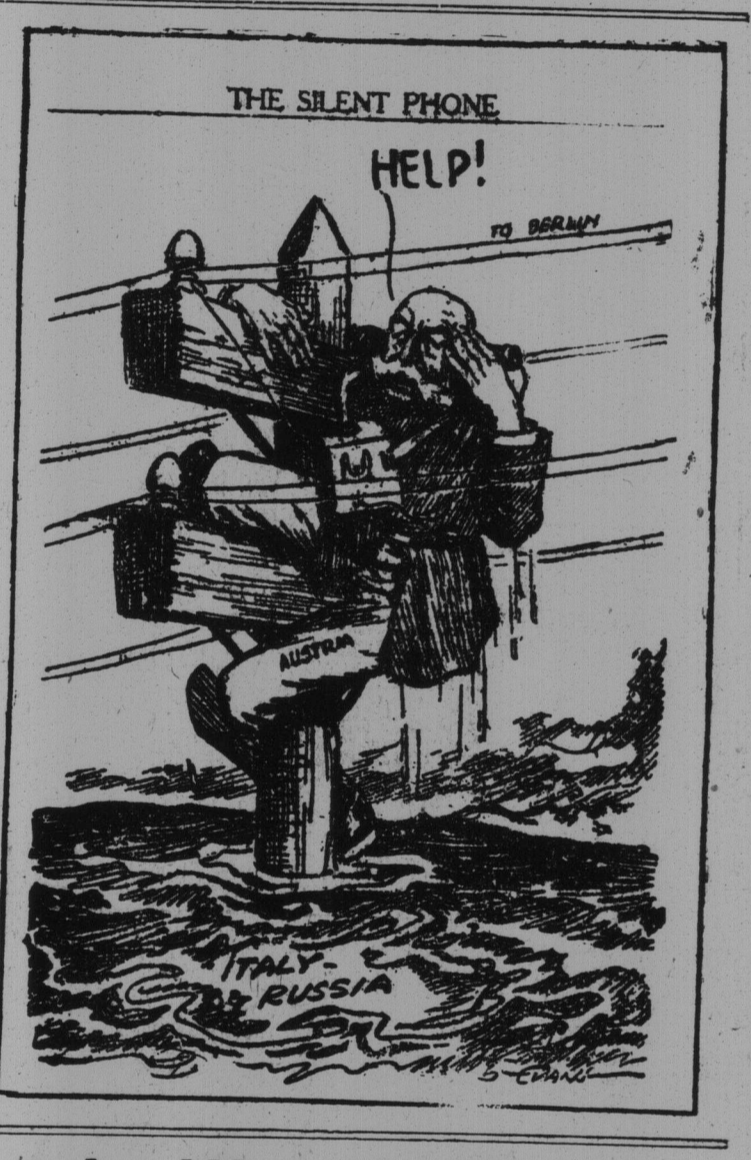

London, Sept. 6.—(Toronto Globe cable).—An interesting story of a reversion of lost character is contained in tonight's announcement of the reinstatement of Lieut. Col. Elkington to the command of the Warwickshires. This officer had a South African war record and was court-martialed and cashiered in September, 1914. His offence was not stated. He then joined the ranks of the French Foreign Legion and now has been reinstated for gallant conduct.

London, Sept. 7.—A raid by British aeroplanes on Turkish positions at El Arish, Sinai Peninsula, ninety miles east of the Suez canal, is reported in the following official statement given out here today: "On Tuesday two of our aeroplanes raided the Turkish aerodrome and aeroplane repair section at El Arish. Twelve bombs were dropped apparently with good results. "Enemy aeroplanes attacked our machines, but did not close in, only opening fire at long range. They ultimately gave up the fight. Our machines returned undamaged."

The National Geographical Society, in a bulletin just issued under the caption "Resources of Roumania," points out that Roumania will be a valuable ally to the Entente. BIG RESULTS IN THE WHITE PLAGUE FIGHT

Reduction From 117 to 70 Deaths Per Thousand in Few Years—Dr. Townsend Talks of the Work: "A reduction in the deaths due to tuberculosis from 114, as it was when I first came to New Brunswick, to 70 per thousand, as it is now, shows very distinctly the result of the campaign which has been waged in this province," said Dr. David Townsend, superintendent of the Riverview Glade sanitarium, who is in the city today.

While the sanitarium plays an important part in this work, much of the credit must be given to the work of the association for the prevention of tuberculosis, in their efforts to improve conditions and to educate the people. If everybody lived under the proper conditions and observed the rules of health, no one need ever contract the disease. But as long as people are taking the disease the sanitarium is needed. In our institution we are taking every early stage of the disease and restoring them to health and earning capacity, effecting an economic saving far greater than the cost of the work. Your St. John county institution is doing equally valuable work in a different way, by taking the most advanced cases away from surroundings where the contagion might be spread, and thus saving the community from the sure result of having other cases develop from the first.

There should be many more institutions of this kind in the province, and the community should be made aware of the arrangements on somewhat the same basis as the care of the insane, the institutions managed by the province with each community paying the expense of the patients it sends.

British and French Reports Of Signal Victory Over The Enemy

Paris Reports Greatest Victory Since Offensive On The Somme Began

Paris, Sept. 6.—Not a success merely, but a victory—the greatest victory since the offensive began—was the way a dispatch from the Somme front described yesterday's operations.

According to the Echo of Paris, the French have administered a smashing defeat to crack German corps, under the eyes of Field Marshal von Hindenburg himself, in a regular pitched battle of five hours' duration.

The weather had greatly interfered with General Foch's plans. Twice a driving rain, which prevented aerial observation, twice the artillery ceased firing from the sheer impossibility of knowing whether its objectives had been attained, only to begin again as soon as a gleam of sunshine pierced the low-lying clouds.

It was not until yesterday that the French commander could be certain that his preparations were adequate and gave the order for the attack, which, lacking that knowledge, he would not risk.

The delay had given the Germans time to mass their forces in the threatened area. From before Guillemont to the Somme no less than two army corps of the finest troops the German Empire can boast were waiting to bar the advance of the Classours Alpines and regiments of Normandy and Brittany and their allies.

The Kaiser's heroic Brandenburgers were not again to cross swords with the French regiments which had torn the Douaumont crest from their grasp on Saturday in February. To the Brandenburgers fell the task of holding Guillemont against the British, and they failed, as they failed at Verdun.

Next to them, at the point of the Allies' junction before Guillemont and Naurois, the Third Division of the Imperial Guard, under command of the Prince of Prussia, linked up with a half division of Saxons. They, too, tried vainly to check the rush of the chasseur and "the hardheads" from the north-western fighting villages.

Between Maurepas and Clercy, where the bloodiest fighting occurred, was the Second Army Corps of Bavarians, ever in the forefront of battle, so that the Allied assault was met by little short of 50,000 men.

Although last night's official bulletin spoke of counter-attacks, it is doubtful whether "simultaneous attacks" were a more correct phrase, for, as the French left their trenches in waves, cheering and singing after their action, the German masses moved to meet them, as if actuated by a common impulse.

In the fierce melee which followed, giant howitzers and field fortifications were forgotten and the battle was won like Jean, by French bayonets and light artillery, backed by the genius of French commanders. The French, too, have learned to excel the Germans in the use of the quick-firers, and were firing a deadly weapon in their attack that the German defense.

At 4:40 o'clock in the afternoon the German lines began to waver. By five o'clock they were in full retreat, streaming helter-skelter back across the open country under the fire of the victors. To many of the latter it seemed as if the victory might be followed up immediately, but General Foch's orders were absolute—there must be no advance beyond the objective defined.

The net result was of the highest importance. The French reached the outskirts of Comblès and were firmly established on the plateau overlooking the Sapeaune-Peronne State road. Further south they gained a footing on Hill St. Quentin, dominating Peronne itself. The whole line north of the river had been brought level to that at the south, which no longer forms the salient. Most important of all is the moral effect of the victory, which shows that not even Germany's best troops in equal or superior numbers, fully expecting and prepared for an attack, can check the French offensive. For further progress nothing can be more significant.

Flower of German Army Had To Give Way Before Kitchener's Fighting Men

With the British Armies in France, Sept. 4.—(Via London.)—As fuller reports come in there is general elation at the Army Headquarters over the results of the British and French attacks yesterday against the German positions in the Somme region.

It was "by the right flank" in the concerted assault with the great battle which never has ceased for two months flung up into a general conflict.

The army heads are gratified because south of Guillemont to the Somme, despite the immense German preparation, the drive has been the greatest success of any since the offensive began, unless it was that of July 14, when the British broke the German second line.

Kitchener's new army charged the flower of the German army—the Prussian Guards—four divisions of which were concentrated before the British to stay the offensive. In places the German emperor's favorite troops were driven back, counter-attacked, and had to yield their crimsoned, shell-wreathed trenches to stubborn English and Scotch, most of whom two years ago did not know how to form ranks, and who known prestige of their foe.

It hardly seemed possible that more artillery could be concentrated against given areas than had been already, but more was concentrated today, and it was it along the whole line. Different sections were timed with clock-work regularity, each suiting the purpose of the commanders, while the French and English acted together as if one army.

The attack was not simultaneous, nor was it along the whole line. Different sections were timed with clock-work regularity, each suiting the purpose of the commanders, while the French and English acted together as if one army.

Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry has been on the market for over twenty years, and has had such great success in curing all bowel complaints that many firms have undertaken to provide a substitute for it, even going so far as to use a similar name. Do not be led into taking a substitute for "Dr. Fowler's" but insist on getting what you ask for.

"Dr. Fowler's" is safe and sure, but by taking some of the cheap substitutes you may endanger your life. "Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry" is manufactured only by The T. J. Lavo, Limited, Toronto, Ont. Price 35c.

Is Baby Gaining Weight?

If he isn't there's some good reason. Quite likely the trouble is in the feeding, if he's being weaned, for, keep in mind, the artificial food (as it is called) should agree with the mother's milk, that the baby may thrive.

PRIMECREST FARMS SPECIAL BABY MILK will go with mother's milk; you can feed it to him during the day and let him nurse at night with splendid results, because our Baby Milk Cows are scientifically fed; their milk—clean, fresh and safe—is furnished in the strength to suit YOUR Baby.

THE GREAT ISSUE.

One hears sometimes an expression of belief that because some people hate Mr. F. B. Carvell, and because some other people can be bought, and the government party has the money with which to buy them; that therefore the opposition can hardly hope to wipe out Smith's majority in Carleton county and elect the opposition candidates.

To accept this belief would be to assert that the men who remain in Carleton county are utterly unworthy of their sons who have crossed the ocean to offer their lives in Canada's defence.

For the enemies of Canada are not merely those against whom these lads are fighting in Europe. They include also the grafters at home, who seek to fatten themselves at the expense of the nation's agony.

And this class of enemy is represented by the men who are in power in New Brunswick today. They whitewashed the man who took money from a contractor and held money taken from the lumbermen; they did all in their power to cover up the shameful patriotic pota to deal; they visited no punishment on men caught with the goods by their own royal commissioners; they refused to investigate the notorious hold up of the liquor dealers. At a time when appeals were being made to young men to enlist and fight for the honor of Canada they were dragging the honor of Canada in the dust.

It is not easy to believe that the people of Carleton county are ignorant of these facts; or that they propose to set up one standard of honor and patriotism for the soldier who fights and another for those who remain at home. Rather would the people of the rest of the province and of Canada believe that Carleton county electors have their swords sharpened for the enemy at home as well as for the enemy abroad, and that they will teach the trifiers with public honor and public funds such a lesson as will have an effect upon the people of all Canada, from coast to coast.

Only yesterday the St. John Standard preached a sermon on thrift, and censured those who are extravagant. And yet it asks the people to vote for a government whose conduct has been marked, not only by gross extravagance, but by acts which have burdened the province with an enormous debt, for which there can never be an adequate return; and by such revelations of graft as never before blackened the record of New Brunswick.

It is this government and this record the people of Carleton county are asked to endorse. To do so would be to dishonor themselves. They are asked to make a choice between a government which accepts the graft as a necessary part of governmental machinery, and the opposition party which is pledged to cut out graft and give the province honest government. If they choose the former, how can they look their own sons in the face when the latter come home from the accomplishment of their great task? The record is there. It cannot be hidden. It is for the people to choose.

ALLIED EFFICIENCY. We have heard a great deal about German efficiency. We are now hearing something about British and French efficiency, and it stirs our blood. The finest troops of the German Empire have been driven back by Foch and Haig, where it was not merely an artillery duel, but desperate fighting by the men on both sides. We are especially stirred by the news that the redoubtable Brandenburgers have been thrown back in defeat by Kitchener's army, of men who had no military training two years ago.

The aspect of affairs has changed materially on the Somme front. The advance made by the British and French in the last three days is important. We are told that more ground could have been covered by the French, but Gen. Foch, having gained what he set out to gain—positions of great strategic importance, stayed his hand. There is perfect co-operation between the French and the British. Their movements are part of a matured plan, and their strategy appears to be producing the desired results. The story of how the French reached the outskirts of Comblis, gained a plateau overlooking the Bapaume—Peronne road, and a hill dominating Peronne itself; how the irresistible advance of the British swept the Prussian Guards aside and captured Guillemont and Ginchy and Fefemont Farm, is a story of efficiency of the sort needed at the present time, and it gives rise to new hopes.

Another cheering story comes from Petrograd. Under date of Sept. 8 a cable says:—"Brestoff is once more at work. His first day's work brought him no fewer than 15,000 prisoners." Then follows news of important Russian gains at several points on the extended eastern front. If now the expected drive on the Salonika front is successful, and Bulgaria and Turkey can be eliminated within a reasonable period, the collapse of Austria would follow and Germany would stand alone. The most important developments of the early future may be expected in that quarter.

HUGHES IS OUTSPOKEN.

Republican Candidate Hughes is not lacking in courage. Addressing a none too sympathetic audience on Labor Day on Nashville, Tenn., where the union men of that section of the state were celebrating the eight-hour-day victory, he boldly denounced President Wilson and Congress for yielding to the demands of the railroad brotherhood. He declared himself in favor of arbitration and against dictation by any power, whether of labor or capital. We quote:

"I believe there is no grievance with respect to labor that cannot be settled by a fair, candid examination of the facts. In the past we have had to deal frequently with the opposition of employers to the principle of arbitration. Sometimes they have refused to arbitrate disputes. I would not surrender to anybody in the country. I believe that anything in this country can be settled right. We have come down the long course of history with the people fighting slowly, now with defeat and now with victory, for recognition of the reign of reason instead of the reign of tyranny and force. We have emerged into a great country, peopled with intelligent men and women. I stand for two things: First, for the principle of fair, impartial, thorough, candid arbitration; and second, for legislation on facts according to the necessities of the case. And I am opposed to being dictated to, either in the executive department or congress, by any power on earth before the facts are known, and in the absence of the facts. We have a great country and a great future, but it can be preserved only in one way, the way of honest, fair investigation, and candid treatment. Show me the way that is right and I will take it, but I won't take any way that I do not know anything about."

Mr. Hughes has the satisfaction of knowing that in regard to this affair his views are shared by many Democratic newspapers. Even those persons who for political reasons may not publicly endorse his stand, will agree that if the country is to have industrial peace a way must be found to prevent any interest whatever from holding up Congress and enforcing legislation of a radical nature without any mandate from the people.

The Standard still makes Mr. Carvell the chief issue in Carleton county. The provincial government cannot be defended, unless the people must be induced to think about something else.

Roumania has done well. She has already captured a thousand square miles of Hungarian territory. When will Greece have an army in the field? It is only a question of time.

Mr. Fleming's sympathy play to the gallery may fool some people, but let us hope their number is small. He is still the man who took the money "by compulsion" from a contractor and knew all about the hold-up of the lumbermen, being at the same time premier of New Brunswick.

Hon. Dr. Landry is in Carleton county vigorously assailing "Fugley and Tweedle." What have they to do with the case? They are not members of the legislature. They are not candidates. If, as the Standard says, they have "perpetrated gigantic steals," why are they not prosecuted? The opposition is certainly not trying to shield them. The truth is that Dr. Landry and his friends are seeking to divert public attention from their own exploits, by attacking a government which was defeated eight years ago. Why does not Dr. Landry explain his remarks at Memramcook, when he admitted that Mr. Fleming had been guilty of wrong-doing and the government forced him to resign? He is now lauding Mr. Fleming to the skies. What is the explanation?

Miss Helen B. Carson was united in marriage yesterday at Rexton to Herbert Irving. Rev. G. S. Gardner performed the ceremony at the bride's home. He was assisted by Rev. A. Hele. Mr. and Mrs. Irving left for a honeymoon trip to California.

Are the Four Fruits Used in Making "Fruit-a-tives"?

"FRUIT-A-TIVES" is the only medicine in the world that is made from the juices of fresh ripe fruits. Thus, it is manifestly unfair to say, "I won't take Fruit-a-tives because I have tried other remedies and they did me no good." On the other hand, the fact that "Fruit-a-tives" is entirely different from any other preparation in the world, is just why you should give it a fair trial, in any trouble of the Stomach, Liver, Bowels, Kidneys or Skin. "Fruit-a-tives" is composed of the active principle of fruit and the greatest nerve tonic ever discovered. 50c. a box, 6 for $2.50, trial size, 25c. LIGHTER VEIN

A tramp entered a baker's shop, shivering and trembling piteously.

"A loaf, please mum," he said, placing the money on the counter. The woman handed him one. As he took it, he said, with shaking voice: "Where's the nearest hospital, mum, please?"

"The nearest hospital?" she ejaculated. "Yes, mum. I'm feelin' very bad. I believe I'm sickenin' for something—the scarlet fever, I think."

"What?" she shrieked. "Get out of my shop!" He turned submissively to obey. "Here, take your money!" she cried. He did so, and proffering the bread, said humbly: "You'll take yer loaf, won't yer, mum?"

"Get out of my shop!" He crawled out, and with bowed head went round the corner. Presently a twin monument of wretchedness came toward him.

"Well, Bill!" he said. "Right-o, 'Enery!" came the answer. "It worked A1, mate. Now, you do it for a bit o' bacon and then we can have lunch."

"Tommy's Aunt—" "Won't you have another piece o' cake, Tommy?" Tommy (on a visit): "No, I thank you." Tommy's aunt—"You seem to be suffering from loss of appetite." Tommy—"That ain't loss of appetite. What I'm sufferin' from is politeness."

Scotland Yard Roll of Honor. One of the most striking testimonies possible as to how quite a number of men hitherto regarded as hardened offenders have found their souls in this terrible war can be seen today, says the Sunday at Home, in the private room of the chief of the criminal investigation department at Scotland Yard. There hanging in a frame of oak—and very proud, indeed, of it is the chief—you can see his "roll of honor." It contains the names of seventy men with bad antecedents and records, who are known to have joined the forces, done splendid work, and turned over a new leaf altogether since the war began! The chief for a noble action; how that won the first devotion to duty.

Germans Lost 8,000 Men
In Hand-to-Hand Fight
Five Assaults, Which Were Made in Delville Wood, Cost the Attacking Force Dear

With the British Army in France, Sept. 3—(Via London)—Some details are now available concerning the German counter-attack on Thursday night against the British positions beyond Delville, or Devil's Wood, which was the most desperate attempt, participated in by the largest force and supported by the heaviest artillery fire, that the Germans have made since the British offensive began. The time chosen was in the midst of a heavy rainstorm, when the British were drenched and their trenches were running with water.

Against a mile and a half front the German sent forward the 160th division of about 10,000 men. Of these it is estimated about 2,000 survived. For six weeks now Delville-Wood and the German positions opposite have been under an increasingly murderous shell fire. On Aug. 24 the British gained high ground looking down on Fleurs. Close to Ginchy, by clever initiative, they captured three battalions. The Germans began their artillery preparations for the assault with an unprecedented volume of gas shells.

These the British in their gas helmets easily withstood. Then came curtains of high explosives and shrapnel. This attack the British answered in kind. The British stuck to the remains of their crumbling trenches until the wave of German appeared through the fog of shell smoke.

Four waves came on before the Germans reached the trenches, each contingent in turn being mowed down by rifles, machine guns, and artillery. Between the British trenches became formless stretches of mud flayed by German guns, much in the same fashion as the German trenches were flayed by the British artillery. It was a question of numbers in this ghastly contest, and the side having the more men would have the superior force of survivors and overcome the other.

THE BIG GAME SHOOTER'S CHOICE

SPORTSMEN have been quick to recognize the Remington UMC autoloading and repeating big game rifles as the leaders in their field. These rifles embody accuracy, safety, and convenience in so great a degree that critics pronounce them an achievement in modern arms making. That's the reason we carry them.

In the autoloading rifle, the recoil is used to operate the repeating mechanism, giving five shots without reloading. The slide action model, as well as the autoloading, permits the shooter to hold the gun on the game with the slightest possible deviation.

The solid breech, take-down and hammerless features—all are factors which influence the big game shooter's choice.

We are in a position to render assistance when you select your next sporting rifle. Let us show you our line of Remington UMC arms and ammunition.

WRITES HOME OF GREAT BATTLE

An interesting letter has been received by Mrs. John Sullivan of Redbank, N.B., from her brother, Byron Keating, who is fighting in France. He is a member of James Finlayson of Moncton.

Under date of July 7, he writes of the hard fighting of June 23 and 24. He says, "I have been in the front line, and sometimes 100 men every time we went to the front line through bombing, sniping and machine gun fire. I was as many, if not more as some of the prisoners told us that they used to consider it as good as death to be sent up to the Ypres salient where the Canadians were. But with experience, caution and common sense, we older hands usually pulled through. But I can tell you that when the fighting opened up on June 23 it was take 'pot luck.' Our brigade had the very worst spot of the line, being in the loop, where they were cut off from all sides. So imagine what a chance the poor fellows had for their lives when hell broke loose as it certainly did.

By the time Fritz came over they were nearly all dead by wounded in the battalions holding the front line, and as the reserves had not yet opened up, we were left to our own devices. Our artillery, by some fluke, had not yet opened up, and we were left to our own devices. Our position on this ridge enabled us to see, in its entirety, the awful magnitude of a modern artillery bombardment (as well as feel it). The rattle of rifles and machine gun, mingled with the roar of the heavy guns and the rending of metal and the crashing of old giant trees, as they fell to the earth, like giant trees, as they fell to the earth, and the smoke cleared, all that would be left was a smoking crater, and the cries and groans of the wounded and dying, and over all the flashing of millions of star shells, made the night as bright as day.

When things were at the worst Fritz threw over two giant flare shells, which burst in the sky and blazed forth into millions of varicolored lights, which looked as if hell indeed had at last broke loose and taken a hand in the awful carnage. A man would stand beside you and a big shell would burst, and as the smoke cleared, all that would be left was a gaping hole in the earth. Some men went stark crazy, others, as things got worse, seemed to be at their very coolest, strange as it may seem. The latter was my own experience. When it started first was nervous, but when it got to the stage where I

HOW APPENDICITIS CAN BE PREVENTED

St. John people should know that a few doses of simple buckthorn bark, glycerine, etc., as mixed in Adler-ka, often relieve or prevent appendicitis. This simple mixture removes such irritating foul matter that ONE SPOONFUL relieves almost ANY CASE constipation, sour stomach or gas! A short treatment helps chronic stomach trouble. Adler-ka has easiest and most thorough action of any we ever sold. J. B. Mahoney, druggist, corner Dock and Union streets.

Don't Spoil Your Hair By Washing It

When you wash your hair, be careful what you use. Don't use prepared shampoos or anything else, that contains too much alkali, for this is very injurious as it dries the scalp and makes the hair brittle.

The best thing to use is just plain nulsified coconut oil, for this is pure and entirely greaseless. It's very cheap, and beats anything else all to pieces. You can get this at any drug store, and a few ounces will last the whole family for months.

Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in, about a teaspoonful is all that is required. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, cleanses thoroughly, and rinses out easily. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and is soft, fresh looking, bright, fluffy, wavy and easy to handle. Besides, it loosens and takes out every particle of dust, dirt and dandruff.

New Home Treatment for Banishing Hairs

(Beauty Topics)

With the aid of a delatone paste, it is an easy matter for any woman to remove every trace of hair or furs from face and neck and arms. Enough of the powdered delatone and water is mixed into a thick paste and spread on the hairy surface for about 2 minutes; then rubbed off and the skin washed. This completely removes the hair, but to avoid disappointment, get the delatone in an original package.

You apply a little Blue-jay instantly, and it never will return. You can prove that in one minute. A million women prove it every month. A corn will never pain again after Blue-jay once goes on it.

No Corn Pain

On Monday you won't know you have a corn. It is gently disappearing. You know that corn is done for. You know it won't come back. You may also know that soreness will not follow. For Blue-jay is as gentle as efficient.

The Corn is Gone

In 48 hours Blue-jay ends 91 corns in 100. The other 9 per cent are tough corns which need another application. Such has been the history of 70 million corns, since Blue-jay was invented. And any user will assure you that such results are certain. Prove that fact tonight.

REPORTS THOUSANDS ARE DYING IN SYRIA

Returned Traveler Says That Only Aid From America Prevented Wiping Out of the Population. London, Sept. 6.—The Daily Chronicle says that revolting instances of Turkish tyranny and oppression in Syria and Palestine are given in a story from an authentic source. The writer, who records what he has seen during several months of travel over all the districts from Aleppo to Jerusalem, says: "Everywhere I was confronted with the most revolting sights of famine, disease and misery. Death is sweeping away in thousands men, women and children while the government officials look on in cruel stolidity. It is no exaggeration to say that two thirds of the inhabitants of the villages in the neighborhood of Jerusalem, Hamallah, El-Bah, El-Bir, Beit Safafa Selwyn, Beit Hanin and Bir Zeit died of hunger and typhoid fever."

Says Acid Stomachs Need Magnesia

Calls Bisurated Magnesia Safest, Quickest and Most Effective Food and Acid Stomach Corrective Yet Found. The almost universal use of magnesia by physicians and specialists in the treatment of stomach troubles is due to the fact that it quickly neutralizes the excessive acid in the stomach and thus stops food fermentation—the direct cause of nearly all stomach trouble. Of the many forms of magnesia such as liquids, acids, citrates, carbonates, etc., the most suitable and efficient for stomach purposes is bisurated magnesia, a teaspoonful of which taken in a little water after eating or whenever indigestion is felt will instantly neutralize or dissolve the excessive acid, stop fermentation and make painless and normal digestion easy. Be sure to insist therefore that your druggist supply you with magnesia in the bisurated form—either powder or tablets. Stomach sufferers who follow this plan and avoid the use of pepsin, charcoal, soda salts, drugs, and medicines are astonished to find the stomach once relieved of its irritating acid and gas, soon regains its normal tone, and can do its work alone without the doubtful aid of artificial digestives.

An Easy Way to Get Fat and be Strong

The trouble with most thin folks who wish to gain weight is that they insist on drugging their stomach or stuffing it with greasy foods; rubbing on useless "flesh creams" or following some foolish physical culture stunt, while the real cause of thinness goes untouched. You cannot get fat until your digestive tract assimilates the food you eat. Thanks to a remarkable new scientific discovery, it is now possible to combine into simple form, the very elements needed by the digestive organs to help them convert food into rich, fat-laden blood. This master-stroke of modern chemistry is called Sargol and has been termed the greatest of flesh builders. Sargol aims through its re-creative, reconstructive powers to coax the stomach and intestines to literally soak up the fattening elements of your food and pass them into the blood, where they are carried to every starved, brook-down cell and tissue of your body. You can readily picture the result when this amazing transformation has taken place and you notice how your cheeks fill out, hollows about your neck, shoulders and bust disappear and you take on from 10 to 20 pounds of solid, healthy flesh. Sargol is absolutely harmless, inexpensive, efficient. Leading druggists of St. John and vicinity have it and will refund your money if you are not satisfied, as per the guarantee found in every package. If you find a druggist who is unable to supply you, send $1.00 money order or registered letter to the National Laboratories, 74 St. Antoine street, Montreal, and a complete ten day's treatment will be sent you postpaid in plain wrapper. NOTICE—Sargol is recommended only as a flesh builder and while excellent results in cases of nervous indigestion, etc., have been reported, care should be taken about using it unless a gain of weight is desired.

Recruiting For Month of August

Of 421 Signed on in New Brunswick 161 Enlisted in St. John, News of the Soldiers

The total number of recruits secured in the province of New Brunswick during the month of August was 421.

Two recruits were secured at the recruiting office yesterday afternoon: Bernard F. Haley, St. John, and Harry T. Jones, Springfield, making the total for the day six.

Arrangements have been definitely made by Lt. Colonel Guthrie with Hon. F. B. McCarty, the under-secretary of militia and defence at Ottawa, for the recall of men from the front to take the positions of officers and N. C. O.'s with the 28th Battalion.

A report from Ottawa says that the old order that threatened the existence of the 182nd, the 145th and the 165th N. B. battalions has been countermanded. The units will now proceed to England as units, whether at full strength or not. These battalions will all proceed to England some time soon.

Although the Times announced some time ago that J. K. Scamell was to be command of a draft of machine gunners, it was not until yesterday that it was officially confirmed. The complement of the unit consists of one lieutenant and fifty men. The headquarters of the unit will be in St. John, N. B.

Lieutenant J. L. Lawlor of Newcastle is to command an overseas draft of field artillery. He has the honor of leading Canada's first field draft recruited particularly for service at the front, the other units of this kind, authorized being field artillery depots.

GOLF. Canadian Falls to Qualify. Philadelphia, Sept. 7.—Most of the favorites qualified on Monday for match play for the amateur golf championship of the United States Golf Association in the thirty-six hole qualifying round held over the east and west courses of the Merion Cricket Club.

W. C. Fowles, Jr., of Oakmont, a former holder of the amateur title, led the field of 128 starters with the low medal score of 133, which is one stroke lower than the best at Detroit last year, when Dudley Mudge was medalist.

Mudge was one of the favorites who failed to qualify today, as he took 172 to complete the round.

Other favorites who failed to qualify were G. S. Lyon of Toronto, Canadian champion; Phillip Carter, of Nassau; Fred Herreshoff, of National Golf Links; Sherill Sherman, of West; Albert Seely, of Riverside, and Hamilton Kerr, of Ek-wapak.

More Links for Golfers. To the Editor of The New York Times: The public links at Van Courtlandt (two courses), and at Pelham Bay (one course) are now so crowded that one is obliged to wait sometimes three and four hours before getting a chance to play.

Saturdays and Sundays one has to wait even a longer time. I wish after one has paid a dollar for the (free) privilege! If the city will not be willing to furnish an additional eighteen-hole course at Van Courtlandt Park, just north of Mosholu avenue, on the excellent unused land here along Broadway there is sufficient unused land for two full courses, a great many taxpayers will have to give up golf.

The rate increase of golfers each season is about 30 per cent. Chicago has more at each end of the trench and put an end to the north end of Van Courtlandt to the gentle pasture? There is plenty of waste land.

'SURRENDER OF BAVARIANS' Wet Through in Thunderstorm, Send Officer to British Lines

(By Philip Gibbs) British headquarters, Aug. 31.—Some of the extracts I have given in the past few days reveal the sufferings of the Germans. More eloquent than these letters is the dribbling in of men who surrender willingly.

One significant little episode was that told briefly in today's communique. In that ditch called the intermediate trench northwest of High Wood was an advanced body of German soldiers.

British got their machine guns to work at each end of the trench and put an artillery barrage behind it. A thunderstorm completed the painfulness of the situation. It flooded the ground and made a bog knee deep. Through the dark mist a white flag fluttered, and presently with this emblem a tall figure came over to the British lines.

It was a Bavarian officer, who informed the British officer he had a party of about 124 men who were willing to surrender. They were sick and weary of their situation. The offer was accepted as politely as it was made, and out of the intermediate trench came a large number of extremely wet and muddy and miserable Bavarians.

We'll stretch all the pieces that need it, dry all the clothes, iron and fold your bed and table linen, towels, etc.

THE MAIL HORSES. Editor of the Times: Sir—Will you allow me the use of your columns to enter a protest in regard to a matter about which many persons as well as myself, are feeling indignant. As I was coming up King street last Friday afternoon my attention was drawn to the mail wagon going down on the other side. The horse was excruciatingly overworked, it was dead lame in front, and seemed to need continued touching with the whip to keep it moving. I turned back and met the team at the box on the corner of German street. I told the driver that the horse was not fit to be driven and also remarked upon the way the whip must have been used, as its side was a mass of long ridges and welts. On my way back I met a friend, not a British subject, who also spoke about the mail horses, saying why does it go on. You send your horses away to the war; they are suffering and dying for your country, and yet allowed the like of that on His Majesty's service here? I could not say a word, for though many have protested time and again, still it goes on. What was my surprise on taking up the evening paper to find that that very morning the mail horse case had been before the police court. One cannot help wondering that a horse in the condition of the one I saw would be put on the service the very same day. There is another horse, one evidently with spirit enough to kick, about which I have heard many indignant protests chiefly by ignominious hind quarters strapped down, head checked to the sky, its sides and back marked all over with the whip. It is not a pretty sight in the Royal Mail. It was said in the police court that the mail drivers should wear uniforms. It has been suggested to me that it would be better if the drivers do not wear uniforms and that the words "Royal Mail G. F." be obliterated from the wagons. That those of us who care need not be humiliated for our country, as well as worried by the sufferings of a succession of victims. GEORGE H. PATERSON.

LAST NIGHT'S WAR CABLES

While their compatriots were busy Wednesday north of the Somme, mainly in warding off German counter attacks, or engaged in artillery duels, the French south of the river drove their men further into the German lines and made additional noteworthy gains.

In stubborn fighting over a front of four miles, between Vermandovillers and Chilly, the Germans have been forced to give up the northern portion of Vermandovillers; while the French have occupied the outskirts of the railway junction town of Chaulnes and thrown their forces along the railway running from Chaulnes to Roze, between Chaulnes and Chilly.

To the north the operations by the French, which have Barleux, and ultimately Peronne, as their objective, also met with success. Southeast of Belloy-en-Santerre further German trenches were captured, and the greater portion of the village of Berry-en-Santerre fell into the hands of the French. During the day's fighting, according to Paris, the number of prisoners taken apparently was large.

New York, Sept. 6.—A Zurich despatch to the Journal says: "According to Austrian admissions the Romanians, in one week of war, captured more than 1,000 square miles of territory in Hungary."

"The region occupied includes some of the most desirable sections of Transylvania. In it are many towns and several cities, one of which is a famous watering place."

is the cheerful news from the Department of Agriculture. Meat prices will not worry the man or woman who knows that a Shredded Wheat Biscuit will supply more real body-building nutriment than beefsteak or eggs and at much less cost. Shredded Wheat remains the same price, the same high quality, supplying all the nutriment a man needs for a half-day's work. Two shredded wheat biscuits with peaches and cream or other fruits make a complete, nourishing meal at a cost of not over five cents.

ROMANIA FORBIDS TRADE IN ALCOHOL

Penalties Attached to Either Sale or Consumption of Liquors; Follows Russia's Lead

Bucharest, Sept. 7.—The police commissioners have forbidden the sale and consumption of alcoholic liquors in all establishments throughout Roumania under penalty of severe punishment. Roumania's action in prohibiting the sale and consumption of alcoholic liquors follows the lead of many of the European countries now at war, including Russia, France and Great Britain. Russia, the first belligerent country to place a ban on alcohol, abolished the liquor traffic by imperial decree at the outbreak of the war. As a result of this prohibition the sale of intoxicants in Russia fell within a year and a half from nearly a billion roubles to approximately 4 per cent of that sum. The 4 per cent consisted largely of the sale of liquors for medical purposes. In Great Britain restrictions were placed on the sale of liquor in the municipalities. The sale of intoxicants in licensed houses is permitted for only four hours a day, and six months' imprisonment and a fine of $800 is the penalty for contravening the regulations. In France wine shops are forbidden to sell any form of alcohol before noon. Sales to women and children are barred at any hour.

Temperance Alliance Will Ask All Candidates to Pledge Themselves to Aid in Introducing Prohibition

That all candidates offering for election in any of the constituencies of the province be asked to declare their attitude in regard to the prohibition law and their readiness to use every endeavor to secure its enforcement, so as to give the law a fair chance of success, was one of the resolutions passed yesterday at the meeting of the New Brunswick branch of the Dominion Temperance Alliance, held in the Y. M. C. A. parlors.

prohibitory law, and that the appointment be made only with the approval of the officers of the executive. The resolutions passed at yesterday's session were as follows: That this alliance, having received from the government fulfillment of all the promises made to the alliance when they asked the government for prohibition, and the government having placed upon the statute book a good and efficient and satisfactory prohibition law. We therefore recommend all voters to give their influence and support to those candidates who are favorable to and will support the law as passed and who can be relied upon to support and aid in ensuring the proper enforcement of the law. That the law as now passed will come into force in counties now under the Scott act, immediately on the repeal of that act, and in counties now under the license law on May 1, 1917. This alliance is fully satisfied with the law as now given to us and deprecates any course or policy that would delay the coming into operation of the law. The alliance feels that temperance voters ought not to allow political affiliations to prevent their giving support to those candidates who are opposed by the liquor interests because of their support of the prohibitory law. It is desirable to remove the question of prohibition from party politics, therefore we resolve that this alliance request the provincial opposition to declare themselves in favor of accepting the present law and pledge themselves to give it a fair and full support and insure as far as possible its enforcement. That all the candidates offering for election in any of the constituencies of the province be asked their attitude in regard to the present law and their readiness to use every endeavor to secure its enforcement so as to give the law a fair chance of success. The sub-executive of this alliance is instructed to see that the necessary steps be taken to secure the nomination of suitable candidates in the different constituencies of the province when the candidates selected are not acceptable to the alliance. That the sub-executive be a committee to see to the carrying out of the foregoing as far as may be possible. Again resolved: That this executive recommend to the government that an aggressive temperance worker and an able and efficient administrator be appointed to the position of chief inspector under the prohibitory law and that no appointment be made without consultation with the approval of the officers of this executive. That the executive proceed to ballot secretly for chief inspector, the ballots to be placed in the hands of the secretary for the information of the officers, in conferring with the government in respect to the appointment of such officer. This alliance reaffirms its conviction that the temperance people of this province should take the necessary steps, as speedily as possible, to secure the repeal of the Scott act in all the counties where it is now in force, so that the prohibitory law may be in force all over the province at the same time. New Executive Members. During the course of the session, Rev. R. J. Colpitts was elected to the executive to replace Rev. F. S. Porter, of this city, who is now on active service. Rev. J. H. Jenner, of St. John, was elected in place of Rev. G. A. Lawson, of Moncton, also with a C. E. F. unit. The minister-elect of St. Paul's church at Fredericton was another new member appointed, elected in the place of Dr. Smith, who has removed to western Canada. E. A. McCardy, of Newcastle, was also given a seat on the executive. The field secretary made a report on the present situation in Westmorland county and the matter was thoroughly discussed and a course of action decided upon in this instance. It was resolved to ask the ministers of the different churches throughout the province to observe the next world's temperance Sunday, which falls on a date in the month of November, and on that particular occasion present the work of the alliance before the people of their congregations and make appeals for funds for the further support of the work. The next annual meeting of the alliance will be held in Sussex some time about the end of the year. Those Present. Those present at yesterday's session were as follows: Donald Fraser, president, Plaster Rock (N. B.); Rev. C. Flemington, Andover (N. B.), secretary; Rev. W. D. Wilson, field secretary; W. G. Clark, treasurer; Rev. E. Wilson and Rev. Mr. Keirstead, Fredericton; J. G. A. Belyea, Fredericton; J. M. Lemont, Fredericton; C. W. Weymouth, Sussex; E. N. Stockford, St. John; S. C. Alward, Moncton; Rev. W. G. Lane and Michael Kelly, St. John; Rev. F. E. Boothroyd, Oranochto; W. B. Evans, Minto; E. S. Hennigan, St. John; J. Willard Smith, Rev. W. R. Robinson and T. H. Somerville, St. John; Mrs. J. W. Seymour, representing the W. C. T. U., St. John, and Rev. E. A. Chapin, Welsford (N. B.).

CELEBRATING ANNIVERSARY OF THE CHURCH

Interesting Exercises in Fairville Baptist Church Begun Last Evening — Thirty-five Years Since Organization

Last evening in the auditorium of the Fairville Baptist church, services were held in celebration of the thirty-fifth anniversary of the organization of the church. The church was organized on Sept. 6, 1881, in the vestry of the new building, which had recently been erected. Of the twenty-six charter members present at that time only five are known to be now living and four of these—Mr. and Mrs. Charles P. Baker and George Fowler of Fairville and David Phillips of Randolph, were present last evening. The other one of the five, A. W. Ferris, of St. John, was unable to be present owing to illness. These four charter members occupied the front seats and behind them the other members of the church were seated according to groups of ten-year periods depending upon the date of their uniting with the church. Members of the congregation were also present in a block by themselves.

The pastor, Rev. P. R. Hayward, presided. The programme contained most interesting items. A newspaper account of the exercises connected with the laying of the corner stone, taken from the St. John Sun of May 23, 1881, was read. Miss Mildred Black read a complete history of the church, which she had prepared. The choir and the congregation sang various older hymns, which were much appreciated. Letters of greeting were read from Rev. Dr. H. T. DeWolfe, president of the Maritime Baptist convention; Rev. B. H. Thomas,

She is survived by two sons, Kenneth McKenzie and Robert D. McKenzie, both of this city, and one daughter, Mrs. Alfred Wright of Milford. She was a daughter of the late James Briggs, formerly a well-known ship-builder of the North End. From the information that has been received by the young soldier's parents, he will be unfit for further service at the front. He is twenty-three years old and prior to enlistment was a keeper in the annex of the Provincial Hospital.

He has two brothers and one brother-in-law at present in France. Thomas is expected to arrive home in the near future. He was wounded in the back on July 27.

MISSING BOY IS FOUND IN THEATRE

Leslie Dempster Had Decided to Come to City to Live

Through the publicity given in the Times concerning the disappearance of Leslie Dempster, of Garnetown, the father of the missing boy was able to locate his son last evening in one of the picture theatres. The boy left his home on last Tuesday and nothing was heard of him until last evening, when the father received notice that the missing boy was in one of the theatres. He went to the picture house and there he found his lost son.

It appears that the youth, who is only fifteen years of age, took it upon himself to leave his home and came to the city and started in to make his own way. He sold papers and slept at night in box cars. The police department were making every effort to locate him. The father was greatly relieved to find his boy again last evening, and was grateful for the publicity given in the case.

CONSOLIDATED SCHOOL LIKELY AT GLEN FALLS

Would Retain Brookville School For Lower Grades

PROJECT IS DISCUSSED

A meeting of much importance to the school district, which extends from Coldbrook to Torryburn, was held last evening in the hall at Brookville. As a result of the meeting it is probable that the district will adopt a policy leading to the beginning of the establishment of a consolidated school at Coldbrook. The sentiment of the ratepayers of the upper end of the district was strongly in favour of retaining the primary grades for the school in Brookville and the continuance of this school for all time is practically assured.

The meeting was called to consider the report of a committee, appointed at a previous meeting, which had been instructed to recommend a future policy for the district. George N. Breen, Brookville, was elected chairman of the meeting and W. M. McLean, school inspector, acted as secretary.

The report of the committee, which was presented to the meeting, recommended the establishment of a consolidated school for the district, to be located at Glen Falls to replace the present schools at Coldbrook and Brookville, the building to be erected at a cost of $8,000, on a large lot fronting on Robbsey avenue next to the Ford plant which was offered free of charge by J. A. Pugsley, who also offered free water for twenty years, but provision would have been made for use of only two of them at present. Pupils from other parts of the district would be conveyed between their homes and the school by horse or motor conveyance.

A verbal discussion followed the presentation of the report and it was shown that the sentiment of the ratepayers of Brookville and Torryburn was unalterably opposed to the closing of the Brookville school, as it was felt that it would be undesirable to have to send the smaller children by conveyance to the school farther away.

A compromise was finally reached and an alternative scheme outlined. The plan suggested calls for the retention of the Brookville school for instruction in the elementary grades, one to four, and for the beginning of a new school at Glen Falls to provide for a similar class there and also for another class to include grade five to eight which would include the children in those grades for the entire district. It was recommended that a building be erected at Glen Falls, frame construction, with concrete basement, but with provision in the plans for adding more rooms as required by the growth of the district. These suggestions were referred back to the committee with instructions to embody them in a new report to meet the wishes of the meeting.

As a result of the movement now under way, it is expected that Mr. Pugsley's offer will be accepted and a new building will be erected at Glen Falls for the intermediate grades for the entire district. For the near future it would be necessary for high school pupils to come to the city until the development of the district makes it possible to undertake the higher branches of school work in the county. The plan also involves the continuance of the Brookville school for the lower grades, thus doing away with the chief objection to a consolidated school.

The solution arrived at last evening was accepted as generally satisfactory and it is believed that it will work out successfully. The decision is of interest to a large number of persons, in addition to those who are already attending school in that district. There are many residents of the city who have purchased building lots in the district but who have delayed building their new homes until the school situation was improved and it is expected that the new plan will remove the last obstacle to rapid development in this part of the suburbs.
