Boy Dies on Train Stalled Near Yarmouth—P. E. I. Bank Manager, Caught in Blizzard, is Down With Pneumonia—A Man and Two Girls Missing.

Halifax, N. S., Jan. 15.—A higher temperature and dying wind yesterday brought welcome relief from the blizzard. Today conditions are practically back to normal.

Near Berwick, John Carmichael, eighty years of age, farmer, was frozen to death a few feet from his doorway. Living alone, he was not missed until his body had lain buried in snow for two days and two nights.

Henry D'Entremont, ten years of age, of East Pubnico, Yarmouth county, was on the Canadian National train for Yarmouth, Friday evening, on his way to hospital for an appendicitis operation.

P. E. Island In P. E. Island Mr. Phillips, manager of the Royal Bank at Bedouque, and another man, set out for home after a hockey match at Summerside, Friday night, a distance of six miles. Overcome by the blizzard they were helpless at daybreak Saturday morning and Phillips is at the house of the farmer who took them in, stricken with pneumonia as a result of exposure.

Another young man, accompanied by two girls, attempted to walk from Summerside to St. Eleanors, a distance of three miles, Friday night. Up to last night they had not reached their destination, but hopes were entertained that they had taken shelter at some house along the way and were unable to communicate with their people.

Trains are running today on schedule along the C. N. R. lines out of Halifax, but the D. A. R. from Halifax to Yarmouth is still in a bad condition, the storm being heaviest through out the length of the Annapolis Valley and in Yarmouth county. The line to Kentville was reported closed this morning, but the Yarmouth train scheduled to leave here at seven a. m. did not get away until nine-thirty and the express from Kentville for Halifax this morning left Kentville an hour late.

Halifax, at 8 a. m., was wrapped in a dense fog, which prevailed for nearly an hour and was said by many to be a record-breaker, rivaling the fogs of London.

GOOD THINGS COMING TO THE THEATRES OF ST. JOHN

OFF READ ABOUT BUT SELDOM SEEN

There is not a citizen of St. John, male female who is not more or less familiar with the early history of Bible people which includes the troublesome Egyptians. The Pharaohs were an important factor as affecting the fortunes and misfortunes of the children of God, so when the intense drama of the private life of one of these monarchs is translated to the screen by the most talented players of Europe who were supported by a cast approximating 50,000 people, it makes a story and a spectacle somewhat familiar to everybody.

MURDER CHARGE IS EXPECTED

Drinking Bout in Cleveland—American League Umpire Named in It.

Cleveland, Jan. 15.—A murder charge against one of the two suspects in the slaying of Edward J. McGregor, 26, found shot to death last Saturday night in an apartment house, was expected today by police, although detectives admitted they had learned little from their questioning of three men who were found intoxicated in which McGregor was killed.

The three men questioned were Ollie Chill, American League baseball umpire, Robt. J. Burke, a local contractor, and Geo. Roedl who roomed in the apartment. The three were found unconscious from intoxication when they were called to the apartment by neighbors who had heard the shots. Each was in a separate room.

McGregor's body lying in the hall before four bullet wounds, although the weapon which was found nearby had been discharged six times.

Chill, Burke and Roedl told the officers they remembered hearing two shots, but were too drunk to investigate. A taxi driver told the police he picked up the party downtown early in the evening. All were intoxicated, he said. He drove them to the apartment and was invited upstairs by McGregor. The four men engaged in a general brawl over the serving of drinks, he said, Chill being knocked unconscious. The driver left the apartment before the shooting.

IF KIDNEYS ACT BAD TAKE SALTS

Says Backache often means you have been eating too much meat.

When you wake up with backache and dull misery in the kidney region it may mean you have been eating too much meat, says a well-known authority. An excess of meat may form uric acid, which overworks the kidneys in their effort to filter it from the blood and they become sort of paralyzed and clog.

Your kidneys get sluggish and clog you must relieve them. Like you relieve your bowels, removing all the body's uric waste, else you have backache, sick headache, dizzy spells; your stomach aches, tongue is coated, and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine is cloudy, full of sediment, channels often get sore, water seals and you feel obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night.

Either consult a good, reliable physician at once or get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys may then act fine.

This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean and stimulate sluggish kidneys, also to neutralize acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus often ending bladder weakness.

Jad salts is inexpensive, cannot injure and makes a delightful, effervescent lithia water drink. Drink lots of soft water.

"There Were Many Things Which I Could Not Eat"

Mrs. H. Robert Wells, English Harbour, Trinity Bay, Nfld., writes:

"I was troubled with nervous dyspepsia—so much so that there were a great many things I could not eat at all on account of the distressed feeling afterwards. I used many different remedies, but they did me little good. Finally I tried Dr. Chase's Nerve Food and Kidney-Liver Pills, and was surprised at the relief this combined treatment gave me in such a short time."

OAK HALL TO CELEBRATE 34TH BIRTHDAY

On January 15, 1889, Oak Hall was brought into being as a small clothing store. From that time until today is only a short time in the history of the country, but during that period Oak Hall has grown from its little infant store to the eminent position of Eastern Canada's largest clothing establishment, and through the years of climbing, many departments besides men's clothing have been added to this progressive business, so that today it embraces complete wearing-apparel shop for women, a fine boys' shop, an extensive luggage shop, a men's hat shop, men's shoe shop, a bargain basement, and men's clothing and furnishings.

LIVER TROUBLE

Pains in Stomach

Most of the misery and ill-health that humanity is burdened with arise from disorders of the liver, stomach or bowels.

If you are feeling out of sorts, have pains in the stomach, especially after eating, sour stomach, bilious spells, sick or bilious headaches, heartburn, water brash, etc., you should take a few doses of Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills. They will give you relief, regulate the bowels, and tone up the stomach.

Mr. T. C. Hallman, Highgate, Ont., writes: "I have had liver trouble and pains in the stomach for a long time. I started to use your Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills, and in a short time I noticed they were helping me. Now I would not be without them and cannot recommend them too highly."

WAKE OLD RULING FOR BRUNEN SLAYER

Plea of Non Vult to be Offered at the Trial.

Philadelphia, Jan. 15.—A ruling made forty-five years ago by the New Jersey Supreme Court is invoked in the case of James Mercer Davis, attorney for Charles M. Powell, confessed slayer of "Honest John" Brunen, to save Powell at his trial on Wednesday before Justice Kallish in Mount Holly. Powell was the chief witness against Harry C. Mohr at the trial of the latter and Mrs. Doris Brunen, wife of the slain man, last month. Mohr has been sentenced to life imprisonment.

The plea, which is called "non vult" and expresses unwillingness to contend against a murder charge, will be offered to save Powell from getting the death penalty, because the law does not permit a "not guilty" plea in murder cases.

The prosecutor and the court accept the plea. Justice Kallish will then have to fix the degree of guilt and pass sentence. The ruling, upon which the plea will be made, is based on a decision made by Chief Justice Beasley in 1879 in the Hunter murder case. In that case Thomas Graham admitted slaying John M. Armstrong, but said that the murder was planned and instigated by Benjamin Hunter. A jury found Hunter guilty and he was hanged. An appeal saved Graham from capital punishment and he was sent to prison.

The ruling declares that the court must order acquittal if the state's evidence at the trial, or receive from him a plea admitting guilty to a certain degree.

BOOTLEG TRUCK WRECKS TRAIN

Halatrop, Md., Jan. 15.—More than 800 passengers, including many bound from New York to Washington aboard a Pennsylvania Railroad through train leaving the Pennsylvania Terminal one day this week, escaped injury when the locomotive tender and two forward cars were derailed at the Washington Road Bridge near this place, after hitting a motor truck supposedly engaged in the bootleg trade.

That no one was injured seriously, including even the engineer and fireman, who jumped for their lives, was due to the fact that the train was brought to a sudden stop within a short distance of a seventy-five-foot embankment, where casualties would have been appalling had the derailment occurred a few seconds later. Passengers estimated that the train was making forty miles an hour when they felt the first shock—a slight one—apparently from the collision with the truck.

The emergency brakes were applied the train was halted with a great jolt that threw many of the passengers from their seats. The quick stop of the train was due also to the derailment of the locomotive and the two forward cars.

When Engineer Eugene Sandbury felt his locomotive leaving the tracks he

The contents of a loaf of Butternut Bread are more valuable than any other. So is the spick and span machinery that gives you the only automatically wrapped loaf in the Maritimes. The ingredients are worth more because they not only are the best, but because the recipe is so rich—there's milk and much of it. Has yours milk in it? There's more sugar and shortening and more pains have been taken in the baking. All this has been proven over and over again. Yet because we buy so much materials we save and our larger mechanical output saves us again so you pay no more for Youth Who Threw Cup at Detectives in Hospital With Fractured Skull—Mother Made Complaint.

New York, Jan. 15.—District Attorney Banton has ordered an investigation into an alleged attack by four detectives of the East 104th Street Station last Saturday morning on William Morrow, sixteen years old, which resulted in the youth later being removed to the Harlem Hospital after he had received a suspended sentence on a disorderly conduct charge made by one of the detectives.

The prosecutor's office followed the complaint of Mrs. Mary Morrow, mother of the youth. He assigned Assistant District Attorney William E. Ryan to investigate the matter, and Mr. Ryan later said that physicians at the hospital said that Morrow had a fractured skull, a broken nose and other bodily injuries.

Mr. Ryan said that he learned that at 2:30 o'clock last Saturday morning, when Morrow was taken to the hospital, a restaurant at 2064 Lexington avenue, Detective Sergeants William J. Quine, John McLaughlin and two other detectives, whose identities have not been revealed, entered and demanded that Morrow come from the restaurant. The assistant prosecutor said that witnesses at the restaurant noticed him that Morrow represented the manner in which the question was asked, and in a quarrel which started threw a cup at the detectives.

He said that Morrow, according to the witnesses, was beaten into submission by the detectives, and then, hardly able to walk, was taken to the East 104th Street Station. There he collapsed, but after he had been attended by a surgeon from Harlem Hospital was locked in a cell.

Several hours later he was placed in a patrol wagon and taken to court. Morrow, dazed from his injuries, pleaded guilty to the charge. There he collapsed, but after he had been attended by a surgeon from Harlem Hospital was locked in a cell.

Detective Sergeant Quine admitted that he struck Morrow to subdue him. "I think he has suffered enough," commented the Magistrate. "I'll suspend sentence."

As Morrow started to leave the court room he collapsed. An ambulance surgeon hurried him to the hospital, where it was discovered that his condition was serious. He had been in an unconscious condition most of the time since being in the hospital and unable to make a statement.

schools, public interest is intense here over the arrest of H. A. Terrell, a traveling salesman and well-known resident of the town, upon a charge of manslaughter, following the death last Sunday of his nine-year-old son, Arthur Hill Terrell.

The authorities, charge and the parents, who are Christian Scientists, admit that the child had no medical attention before he died. A coroner's jury, composed of some of the leading men of the town, most of them friends and acquaintances of the Terrells, at an inquest held over the boy's body at the Town Hall, brought in this verdict:

"We find that Arthur Hill Terrell came to his death by lobar pneumonia, contributed to by neglect upon the part of his parents to furnish medical aid and attention."

Upon complaint made through the office of Acting Prosecutor Joseph Lamigan, the father was summoned before Magistrate Goffray at Woodbury earlier in the day, and was held under $1,500 bail on a charge of manslaughter. Our portrait is of Mr. MICHAEL T. ROONEY, of 85, Granville Avenue, Long Eaton, England, who writes: "Some years ago whilst touring Ireland with 'Sanger's Royal Cure', I contracted some kind of a frightful skin complaint, which seemed to baffle different treatments in the way of ointments and lotions, all of which utterly failed to give me the slightest relief. Recently at Long Eaton, where I am engaged as Advertising Manager of The Picturehouse, the conductor there begged me to try Clark's Blood Mixture, but I refused. However, he, knowing its curative powers from experience, made me a present of a bottle, which I began to take. Recognizing a slight improvement in my limbs, I got another bottle, and continued the treatment until I had used four bottles, and now my skin is perfectly healthy again."

Sufferer from Bad Legs, Abscesses, Ulcers, Sufferer from Glandular Swellings, Piles, Eczema, Itch, Pimples, Eruptions, Rheumatism, etc. Clark's Blood Mixture is the true cause of such troubles. Clark's Blood Mixture quickly attacks, overcomes, and expels the impurities, that is why so many remarkable recoveries stand to its credit. Pleasant to take, and free from injurious ingredients.

Alkali in Shampoos Bad for Washing Hair

Do not use prepared shampoos or anything else that contains too much free alkali, for this is very injurious, as it dries the scalp and makes the hair brittle.

The best thing to use is Mulsified coconut oil shampoo, for this is pure and entirely greaseless. It is very cheap and beats anything else at all pieces. You can get Mulsified at any drug store, and a few ounces will last the whole family for months.

Simply put two or three teaspoonfuls of Mulsified in a cup or glass with a little warm water, then moisten the hair with water and rub the Mulsified in. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, cleanses thoroughly, and rinses out easily. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and is soft, fresh looking, bright, fluffy, wavy, and easy to manage. Besides, it loosens and takes out every particle of dirt, dirt and dandruff. Be sure you get Mulsified. Beware of imitations. Look for the name Watkins on the package.

17 GIPSIES ARRESTED FOR FORTUNE TELLING

Wholesale Raids Follow Complaints From Men and Women Robbed.

Philadelphia, Pa., Jan. 15.—Seventeen gypsy fortune tellers were arrested by police of the vice squad in a roundup in the neighborhood of Ninth and Vine streets and along South street. Two young girls were sent to the House of Detention. The other prisoners will be given a hearing at central station today.

They were arrested on warrants charging fortune telling. Detectives say they have received a number of complaints recently from men and women victimized when they tried to have their fortunes told by the gypsies.

Ruby John, a gypsy, of Eighth street, below South, was arrested charging with picking the pocket of J. F. Greed, of 4607 Lothrop street, at the South Eighth street address. Frank Devine, of 1023 Tasker street, was robbed of $30 in cash while having his fortune told by a gypsy at Front and South streets.

FIFTEEN MINUTES OF RADIO EACH DAY

By Edward N. Davis
Formerly Technical Electrical Expert For U. S. Government

Lesson No. 206.

POINTS TO BE REMEMBERED.

Remember That:

To eliminate as far as possible the tendency of amplifiers to "howl" the amplifying transformers should be separated at least four inches and placed at right angles to each other. The connecting wires should be kept as short as possible and all cross-overs made at right angles. The leads from the interstage transformers to the grids of the tubes should be approximately four to five inches in length. It is also decidedly advantageous to ground the tube sockets, the positive terminal of the filament battery and the cores of the transformers.

If too long a wire is used for the antenna, the natural period will exceed 300 meters, thus making it difficult to receive the signals which are broadcasted at this wave length. For the reception of wave lengths which are shorter than the fundamental wave length of the antenna it is necessary to insert a series condenser in the antenna or ground lead. The smaller the capacity of this condenser the lower will be the received wave length.

Owing to the varying characteristics of vacuum tubes a fixed grid condenser of small value which operates satisfactorily with one tube may have a capacity entirely too low for use with another tube. If a variable grid condenser is employed which has a maximum capacity of 0.0006 microfarads, the proper value of capacity for a particular tube may be quickly and easily secured.

An important feature of the Armstrong Super-Regenerative system is that the amplification of continuous or modulated continuous waves is much greater than the amplification of damped wave signals with the result that interference from spark stations is greatly reduced.

In "autodyne" reception the same tube is used as a detector and also as a generator of local oscillations. The antenna circuit is tuned to the frequency of the incoming signals and the local oscillation circuit is so adjusted as to produce "beats" which are of audible frequency. The frequency of these "beats" is equal to the difference between the frequency of the local oscillations and the frequency of the incoming signal. This method has a higher degree of sensitiveness than a simple detector tube or crystal detector.

It is difficult to construct a radio-frequency amplifying transformer which will operate satisfactorily over a broad range of radio frequencies. In order to receive the various forms of communication which are transmitted at widely varying wave lengths it is necessary to use transformers which are adapted to the frequencies of the wave lengths it is desired to receive.

A certain amount of energy is necessary to properly operate a detector and unless the strength of the incoming signal is sufficient to produce detection, it is useless to employ several stages of audio-frequency amplification. The addition of one or more stages of radio-frequency amplification permits the feeble impulses of the radio waves to be built up to a strength which will cause the detector to function and then the audibility of the signal may be increased by audio-frequency amplification.

Instead of the ground switch of large current capacity and heavy ground wire formerly required by the National Board of Fire Underwriters, it is now sufficient for a receiving station to install an approved lightning protective device. Receiving sets may be used for a ground wire a copper wire not smaller than No. 14 B. & S. gauge and this wire may be connected to a permanently grounded metal system inside or outside the building. The permanently grounded system should be the water supply of the hot water or steam heating system, but under no consideration should gas pipes be used for grounding.

YESTERDAY IN CITY CHURCHES

An inter-denominational pulpit exchange yesterday marked the close of the special services of the week of prayer. For the second group, composed of churches in the southern section of the city, the exchanges were as follows: In the morning Rev. James Dunlop, of the Central Baptist church, exchanged pulpits with Rev. Dr. S. S. Poole, of the German street church, and in the evening Rev. H. G. Fulton, Centenary Methodist church, with Rev. St. Andrew's Presbyterian church; Rev. F. S. Dowling, of St. Andrew's church, was in Centenary church; Rev. E. Styles, of Carmarthen street Methodist, was in St. David's Presbyterian church; Rev. Hugh Miller, of St. David's, was the preacher in the Queen-square Methodist church, and Rev. Neil MacLaughlan, of the Queen square church, occupied the pulpit of the Carmarthen street church.

The exchanges made by the churches in the North End, which formed group three, were made in the morning and were as follows: Rev. H. B. Clarke, of the Portland Methodist church, was in the Victoria street Baptist church; Rev. W. H. Spencer, of St. Matthew's Presbyterian church, was in the Queen-square Methodist church, and Rev. William Phillips, of the Douglas avenue church, was in the Portland Methodist church.

The exchanges made in the West St. John group were also in the morning and were as follows: Rev. C. R. Freeman, of the Charlotte street Baptist church, was in the Carleton Methodist church; Rev. W. A. Robbins, of the Ludlow street Baptist church, was in the Charlotte street church, and Rev. F. T. Bertrand, of the Carleton Methodist church, was in the Ludlow street church.

Two groups were to have held services on Saturday night but these services were cancelled on account of the storm.

Rev. A. Lawrence Tedford, of the Tabernacle Baptist church, spoke last evening on "Some Problems to Prohibition in N. B." The preacher's text was from Proverbs 16-11: "A just weight and balance are the Lord's." His Lordship Bishop Richardson was the preacher in St. John's (Stone) church yesterday morning and in St. James' church last night. Large congregations were present to hear his addresses and his messages were much appreciated.

A series of special mission services will be conducted in the Main street Baptist church this week, when Rev. Arthur K. Herman, M. A., the soldier preacher, who assisted Rev. Dr. David Hutchinson with the special services conducted last year, again will assist the pastor.

The after service of song in St. David's schoolroom last night was much enjoyed. There was a large attendance and Alexander Thompson was the leader. Mrs. Robert Reid was at the piano.

In the Waterloo street Baptist church Sunday school yesterday the Bible class had a special session and the members listened with great interest to an address by Mrs. F. H. Bone, who spoke helpfully and inspiringly. At the evening service in the church an illustrated sermon-address was given by the pastor, entitled "Life's Experiences From the Sheepfold to the Throne." Another illustrated sermon is to be given next Sunday evening.

The death of John W. Murray of Chipman, occurred on January 9 at his home. Mr. Murray leaves his wife and four brothers. The funeral was held in the Presbyterian church in Chipman.

Harvey Horseman, a former resident of the advanced age of eighty-five years.

Mrs. Jeremiah O'Regan, a former resident of the south end and a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Quinn, who resided at one time in the north end. The death occurred suddenly in Boston. She leaves her husband, two sisters and two brothers.

Phillip Dooley, a respected resident of St. Stephen, died while attending the Catholic hospital. He became ill in his bed during mass and soon passed away. He leaves five sons.

A 500-foot temporary suspension bridge was thrown across the Willamette river at Oregon City, Oregon, recently in thirteen hours.

Arthur N. Shaw, the death of Arthur Neville Shaw, at the age of ninety years, occurred yesterday at his residence in Main street. He was born in Sackville and came to this city at an early age. He was successfully engaged in the carriage building business for many years. He was a member of the old town council of Portland for several years, and was prominent in civic politics in his time. He was a faithful member of the Portland Methodist Church. He is survived by one son and four daughters. The son is W. H. Shaw and the daughters are the Misses Mary and Matilda at home, Mrs. W. E. Anderson of this city and Miss Loretta Shaw in Japan.

Charles Knight, a former member of No. 1 Depot Battalion, died last week in the Lancaster Hospital from the effects of gas which he received overseas. He was twenty-four years of age and a native of England. He had been brought up by Mr. and Mrs. James Cassidy of Welsford, and the funeral was held from their home. Fourteen of his comrades from the battalion ac-

Spendix laxative properties of Dr. Caldwell's Laxative Syrup proven by test

SCIENTIFIC test has now proven what Dr. Caldwell of Monticello asserted many years ago, that constipation will slow you up fully 25 per cent. The test was made by Dr. Donaldson of Loma Linda up on four men in the prime of life who deliberately went without a bowel movement for four days. Within 48 hours the men had costed tongue and foul breath, cankers in the mouth, no appetite, restless sleep, indigestion, headache, depression, nervousness, cramps. The blood pressure was up 28 per cent. It is just this that Dr. Caldwell has probed to his patients in private and to the public through the printed word ever since he began the practice of his specialty, diseases of the stomach and bowels, back in 1875.

After observing for years the satisfactory effect of his prescription for constipation, he placed it in drug stores in 1892, a simple vegetable compound of Egyptian senna and pepsin with pleasant-tasting aromatics, now known as Dr. Caldwell's Laxative Syrup Pepsin. That was 30 years ago, and today over 10 million bottles are bought annually, the largest selling family laxative in the world. You will find it in any drug store you enter, a generous-size bottle costing you less than a cent a dose.

Every member of the family from the infants to the grandparents can use it with safety. It is gentle and mild. The formula is just what her mother needed. Try a spoonful of Dr. Caldwell's Laxative Syrup Pepsin for constipation or any of its symptoms. The results will delight you. And the cost is only one cent a dose.

ANY FAMILY MAY TRY IT FREE

Thousands of parents are asking themselves, "Where can I find a trustworthy laxative that anyone in the family can use when constipated?" I urge you to try my Laxative Syrup Pepsin. It will quickly provide a liberal free sample bottle, sufficient for an adequate test. Write me here to send it. Address Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 153 Caldwell Building, Toronto, Ont. Do it now!

WHAT'S DOING IN THE MONEY AND STOCK MARKETS TODAY

MOLASSES MAKERS STRONGLY PROTEST

Objection from Barbadoes to Regulation Against Use of Puncheons—Will Affect Consumer.

(Montreal Gazette)

A vigorous protest was received yesterday by the Chambre de Commerce from the Barbadoes Chamber of Commerce against the ruling of the Canadian Freight Association that after December 31st, the Canadian Railways would refuse to carry molasses in the present puncheons of about 90 gallons, but demand that the molasses be shipped in containers of barrels or half-barrels, as less cumbersome to ship, and less liable to expensive damages. The Barbadoes Chamber of Commerce stated that they had forwarded a memorandum of protest to the Canadian Freight Association, and sent a copy of this to the Chambre de Commerce, hoping to enlist their support in an effort to have the new regulation rescinded.

Will Mean Price Increase.

The memorandum, as unanimously adopted at a joint meeting of the Barbadoes Chamber of Commerce and Chamber of Agriculture, set forth that although they appreciated the difficulties and inconveniences of carrying molasses in puncheons, it was evident that the abandonment of the puncheons, which had always been used in the molasses trade, would inevitably increase the cost of molasses to the consumer. The same argument applied to all articles of food—the smaller the container the greater the cost.

The memorandum set forth that the cost of using two barrels or three half-barrels would be much greater than one puncheon; that present arrangements on the plantations and for transport were all devised for at considerable expense; that the cost of gauging and the incident of present arrangements would be much greater in the smaller packages than with the puncheons; that the smaller packages would necessitate greater storage facilities, both at the docks and on shipboard.

These would all tend to increase the cost of molasses, while if its cost rose beyond the basic figures, cane growers would turn to sugar instead of molasses, thus reducing the latter trade, and increasing the cost of molasses to the Canadian consumer.

It was further set forth that the manufacturers of puncheons at Barbadoes imported annually from Canada 600,000 feet of staves, and that the supplies of Canadian staves, which trade would disappear with the disuse of puncheons.

After a brief discussion of this memorandum it was referred to the Transportation Committee for further study.

STRONG ARGUMENT FOR OUR PORTS

(Amherst News)

Figures made public at Ottawa furnish one of the strongest arguments in behalf of St. John and Halifax, the Canadian winter ports.

Of the total Canadian wheat export during December, 1922, 84,483,467 bushels, valued at $28,745,919 were shipped to Great Britain of which 6,130,079 bushels valued at $7,808,128 were shipped via Canadian seaports, the difference going through American ports.

In other words for every dollar's worth of Canadian wheat shipped to Great Britain through Canadian ports there were nearly five dollars worth shipped to Great Britain through United States ports during the month of December. Five to one in favor of the United States!

Governments as well as individuals should seek to develop their own ports. The bulk of Canadian shipping should go through Canadian ports. Shipping is an industry just as much as is wheat growing, or manufacturing. The Maritime provinces are worthy of protection in the interests of development just as are the makers of automobiles, or any other commodity.

CANADIAN CATTLE AND U. S. PORT

Montreal, Jan. 15.—A reduction in the freight charges on live Canadian cattle across the Atlantic from $20 a head to $18 is announced by White Star Line officials here and is expected to prove one of the most significant events in the 1923 shipping season.

In conjunction with the lifting of the embargo against Canadian store cattle, shipping officials anticipate that the movement of Canadian cattle, which has been very light in recent weeks, will now be limited only by the capacity of the ships.

A White Star Line official said that the $18 rate is strictly a non-remunerative one and cannot possibly be continued if there is not a very heavy movement of cattle to Portland and later to Montreal. This movement is fully expected, however, and the White Star Line has arranged a service of huge cattle carriers in sufficient number to keep up a weekly shipment.

The White Star freighter Irishman, which has a displacement tonnage of 22,000, took out 314 head of Canadian cattle while her capacity is 1,160.

London, Jan. 15.—Bar silver 31 1/2 pence.

PRICES FIRM AT OPENING IN WALL STREET TODAY

Special Shares Again in Most Demand—Some New High Figures.

New York, Jan. 15.—(Opening)—Prices were firm at the opening of today's stock exchange. Special shares were again in the most demand, Postoffice bonds being pushed up two points to a new high. Good buying power also was noted in the oil, Houston, California, Petal and Sinclair rising to higher points in reflection of higher prices for Mid-continent crude oil. American Can duplicated its year's high and Texas Gulf Sulphur and Hartmann Corporation were pushed up to new peak prices.

Postum Cereal extended its gain to 3 points, Houston Oil to 1 1/2 and American Can to 1 1/4. Gain of a point or more, also were recorded by Crucible Steel and Steel and Tube Pfd, Southern Railway Pfd, Central Leather Pfd, Marland and Hide and Leather Pfd. There were a few weak spots, notably Associated Drygoods, off 2 points, General Electric of I and Pan-American "A" off 1/4, Foreign exchange opened easier.

Noon Report.

New York, Jan. 15.—(noon)—The entire market sagged soon after the opening under the pressure of heavy selling orders in the oils, equipments, shipbuilding and rubber. Trading became more active as prices went down with several of the low priced rails and specialties reflecting forced liquidation. Occupation of territory by the French troops and lower foreign exchange rates, combined with the belief that the technical condition of the market warranted a reaction, undoubtedly influenced speculators to the decline to offer stocks freely. Famous Players was depressed 3 1/2 points, and Associated Oil & White losses of 1 1/4 to 2 1/2 points were registered by Baldwin, Standard Oil of California, California Petroleum, and the United Retail Stores and New Haven. Efforts were made to rally the list by bidding up the shares of U. S. Steel common, Sloss Sheffeld, Republic and Crucible being pushed up a point above Saturday's closing quotations and Gulf States Steel advanced 1 1/2 points, however, had little effect on the balance of the list, although Corn Products was pushed up 3 points for special reasons. Call money fell to four per cent.

MONTREAL EXCHANGE.

Montreal, Jan. 15.—(10.30)—Nothing of interest transpired on the local stock market this morning, with the exception that Montreal Power, rose half a point to 105 1/2, and Brassil to 44 1/2, and a quarter point in the latter to 89 1/4. Other leaders were quiet.

THE DOLLAR.

New York, Jan. 15.—Sterling exchange heavy. Demand rates Great Britain, 4.66 3/4. France, 6.81. Italy, 4.92. Germany, 107 1/2. Canadian dollars 15-16 of one per cent discount.

INTERESTING REPORT ON SHAWINIGAN

(McDougall and Cowan Private Wire)

Montreal, Jan. 15.—The Company formed to develop the Gros Falls and Gabelle Rapids on the St. Maurice River is to be a subsidiary of the Shawinigan Water & Power Company and called "The Shawinigan Water & Power Co. Ltd." The leasehold of the Gabelle Rapids has been acquired from the St. Maurice Lumber Company, which is a subsidiary of the International Paper Co. The title to the Gros Falls is held in fee simple by St. Maurice Power Co. The plan of development provides for the erection of a concrete dam, 1,547 feet long, extending completely across the river. This dam will be of the "stony" gate type having six slotted gates by 15 feet in length. There will be a spillway of about 680 feet in length.

The location of this dam is about ten miles below Shawinigan Falls. The power house will rest upon one section of the dam, and will be 440 feet in length by 15 feet in width. The head developed initially will be about 80 feet. There will be installed four vertical turbines and generators capable of developing 30,000 horse power, providing a total installed capacity of 120,000 horsepower. There will be room provided in the Power House for the installation of two additional units. The ownership of these water power permits the company to utilize the entire flow of the St. Maurice River at this point. The location of this water power on the St. Maurice River brings to it the benefit of the storage reservoir provided by the Gros Falls dam. This dam at Laoutre Rapids, 235 miles above the power house site, creates a lake of 400 square miles in area providing a storage sufficient to greatly augment the supply of water at Gros Falls, in which benefit the company will share ratably with the development of the Gros Falls and Grand Mere. The company estimates that this work will be completed in 18 months, but the plan may be changed in order to complete even earlier.

MARKS AT NEW LOW ON THE LONDON MARKET

London, Jan. 15.—German marks took a fresh slump today to the lowest figure on record in London, 85,000 to the pound sterling, under the influence of the reparations crisis and the continuous inflation of German note circulation.

French francs were steady at 67.80 to the pound, which was attributed to the French finance minister's proposal to increase taxation. Belgian francs were quoted at 74 to the pound.

ANNUAL FURNITURE SHOW ATTRACTS MANY BUYERS

Stratford, Jan. 13.—The annual show of the Stratford Furniture factories opened this week. The show is exhibiting, and the class of goods is high, with plenty of variety, ranging from upholstered furniture and all kinds of woods to rattan and old hickory rustic pieces. Buyers are here from as far west as Saskatchewan and as far east as New Brunswick.

HOW FORBES READS OUTLOOK FOR YEAR 1923

What about the United States outlook for 1923?

Frankly, I hesitate to set down here just how I would feel over what may develop in the second half of 1923. We have most of the elements and materials for the making of prosperity. But I am not at all sure that these elements and materials may not be misdirected—mishandled internationally by European and American statesmen; mishandled by labor leaders blindly rather than prudently intent upon forcing up wages.

If I were to confine my forecast to the opening months of 1923, I would predict, with a fair degree of confidence, a continuation of the improving which has been under way for months.

I would predict a continuance of increasing purchasing by our 35,000,000 agricultural population.

I would predict not only full-time employment, but a growing scarcity of workers, both industrial and agricultural.

I would predict very heavy railway traffic.

I would predict very active operations by our tremendously important iron and steel industry.

I would predict a continuance of laudable efforts on the part of our leading automobile manufacturers and notable activity in the rubber and tire industries.

I would predict expanding imports, and little or no reduction in our exports, to say the least.

I would predict little let-up in the building program, rather than greater rather than less general business activity.

Furthermore, I would predict at least a moderate further rise in the average price level.

I would predict better rather than poorer prices for goods bonds and also for quite a number of attractive stocks.

As I read it, I say, as I have tried most earnestly and persistently, to read the outlook for the second half of the year, I confess that so many questions and uncertainties are in my mind that I hesitate to make any definite prediction one way or the other. I am sorry to have to say that the scales tremble to indicate that the year will be less favorable than the favorable side.

Not that I don't believe prosperity cannot be brought about, and maintained throughout the year, at least, were political statesmanship to be exercised in Europe and here, and business men and industrial leaders at home.

It should be humbly possible to take the best of the European debacle, head things there in the direction of order, rehabilitation and stability. This will be done some day. But whether it will be done within a reasonable time cannot now be foretold.

Then, who can bank upon moderation, or a common sense predominating at Washington?

In view of the rise already witnessed in the cost of living during the last year, and the fact that we can feel at all certain that the movement will not be kept within reasonable bounds and not allowed to run to disaster-breeding lengths towards the unfavorable side.

Who can even half-way sure that the rise in the cost of living, combined with our meagre volume of immigration, will not plunge the country into another sea of labor disputes, strikes and dislocations?

Who can foretell whether the great mass of consumers will tolerate or resist against the marking up of prices here, there and everywhere?

Also, no human being can foresee whether our vast agricultural population will reap satisfactory enough crops and satisfactory enough prices to insure normal or better-than-normal purchasing of merchandise.

I feel very strongly that the greatest service I or any other financial or business writer can render at the opening of this year is not to paint pictures of the outlook and thus encourage unreasoned expansion and extravagance and radicalism, but to impress upon everyone occupying a position of influence—statesmen, politicians, manufacturers, labor leaders, regulatory commissions, publishers, merchants, financiers, corporation directors and executives—the vital need for doing everything possible to keep the business ship on an even keel and for refraining from doing anything calculated to rock the boat.

As I read the outlook, we shall have smooth sailing if we strive with the utmost conscientiousness to deserve "smooth sailing."

On the other hand, if we don't, the likelihood is that we won't.

NEWS NOTES OF STOCK INTEREST

(McDougall and Cowan Private Wire)

New York, Jan. 15.—Western Union preliminary statement for year ended Dec. 31, shows estimated net income of $11,284,126 after charges and taxes of $1,125.25 a share against $3.95 in 1921.

All major purchases of Crude Oil in Mid-Continent have net advances of 10 cents a barrel by Prairie Oil and Gas. Increasing shortage of high gravity crude oils in face of unusual demand at this time of year is given as the reason for the price rise.

Orders received by General Electric for three months ending Dec. 31, totalled $66,568,333, increasing fifty per cent over same period in 1921.

Stutz Motor Car sells $1,000,000 15 year 7 1/2 per cent bonds at 100 and interest, convertible into stock in ratio of 38 shares for each $1,000 bond, being first move in new financing under control of Schwab.

117 Women in All Walks of Life Face Bar; Many the First Time—Most Admit Guilt.

New York, Jan. 15.—Father Knickerbocker thumbed the pages of a few weeks back. Women, young and old, bejeweled and threadbare, who had eddied around the Christmas counters in busy department stores were "up" on "shoplifters' day" in the court of special sessions.

One hundred and seventeen women and six men stood in line. The line that passed Justice Freschi is like no other.

Woman after woman said she did not know what had caused her to err, until finally the judge exclaimed: "This is terrible. If women used the principles of Coue, or did something else to master themselves, they would not bring disgrace upon themselves and their families."

The first case called was that of a little Greek woman, mother of a year-old child, and wife of a sailor. Yes, she had taken the dress, but she was unable to say why. Her lawyer told of her waiting baby and she was dismissed with a fine.

An elderly woman, dressed in black silk, tears streaming, was led to the bar by a lawyer.

"Your honor," said the lawyer, "the defendant is my mother. She is accused of having stolen two pairs of cotton stockings. She did not know

MAN AND WIFE HAVE WISH; DEATH FALLS TO PART THEM

London, Jan. 15.—The wish of a husband and wife who had been married for sixty-five years, that they should not be parted in death, has been realized, according to an item in "The London Daily News."

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Kelly, formerly of Roborough, near Torrington, North Devon, died at Bideford, within forty-eight hours of each other. The husband was eighty-nine years old and the wife eighty-five.

They were married on August 11, 1857, at Roborough Church, and lived in that parish for more than sixty years.

A LADY'S IGNORANCE.

Toronto Star.—Eight women were sworn in as members of the General Assembly of Pennsylvania the other day. One of them found out for the first time that the office carries a $2,500 salary with it. Judging by this, and by Miss MacPhail's attitude at Ottawa, women as politicians are at any rate not mercenary.

SCALING AFRICA'S HIGHEST PEAK

Contrast Between Tropical Desert Below and Alpine Desert Above Revealed.

London, Dec. 10.—(By mail).—Killimanjaro, the highest mountain in Africa, was described at a recent meeting of the Geographical Society by a member of a group that had succeeded in making the first ascent, according to The London Times.

The party which he led were the first to ascend after the mountain had become British territory. From wherever across the surrounding steppes one approached the isolated mountain mass two outstanding features impressed themselves at once—the tremendous size, coupled with great height, and the almost incredible contrast between the tropical half desert below and the alpine desert above.

Structurally, Killimanjaro consisted of three single strato-volcanoes, each of which had its own origin and history. Through mutual interbedding of the lava flows, however, all three had grown into one solid complex strato-volcano. The climatic features of Killimanjaro were determined by three main factors: (1) The mountain's position in the equatorial region to continuous trade winds; (2) The isolation of a huge mass of rock rising from a level plain, and (3) The great height above this plain, which brought the upper regions of the mountain well within the zone of the anti-trades.

DIDN'T LIST BIRTHS, CHARGE AGAINST 11

Warrants Out for 10 Physicians and One Woman for Failure to Report.

Philadelphia, Jan. 15.—Warrants have been issued for the arrest of ten physicians and a midwife, of this city, for failure to report births to the bureau of vital statistics. The warrants were served at the instigation of the state department of health, which has been conducting an investigation.

The eleven accused of violating the rules governing birth registration will be given a hearing before Magistrate Grellis, in his office at Sixth and South streets tomorrow afternoon. They are Dr. Charles H. Sanderson, Dr. Louis M. Golden, Dr. Samuel Eglick, Doctor Richman, Dr. Bernard Mencke, Dr. Thomas B. Morgan, Dr. Dallas B. Wiggins, Dr. Charles A. Moriarty, Dr. F. C. Antoine, Dr. Herbert Reid Hawthorne and Anna Skupons.

The warrants were sworn out by Dr. William R. Batt, registrar of the state bureau of vital statistics. The investigation was instituted following a reported heavy decrease in the birth rate for 1922. Director Furbush, of the department of public health, sent nurses to check up, and in one section they found that 500 births had not been reported.

New York, Jan. 15.—Passage of compulsory humane education laws in states where none exist, establishment of the National Training School for Humane Workers, and general unity and co-operation in the humane movement, are the chief features in the 1923 programme of the American Humane Association, according to the Chicago chapter of the organization. An international humane conference and convention will be held in New York October 22 to 27, at which the results of the year will be reported.

The year just closed was the most successful in humane work in the last hundred years, when the first laws for the protection of animals was passed, said a statement.

PENDER TAXATION MATTER UP AGAIN

Representatives of Firm and Employes Appear Before City Commissioners—No Decision Arrived at—More Talk of Moving from the City.

Further consideration of the fixed valuation of James Pender & Co., Ltd., was given at a committee meeting of the matter was referred back to council. An agreement with the militia department regarding the sewer crossing on the rifle range was submitted and passed.

The matter of fixed valuation of $100,000 of the property of James Pender Co., referred by council to the committee, was first taken up. W. F. Knoll, manager; J. M. Reid and C. W. East represented the company, and J. Purchase and Thos. Wilcox represented the employes.

Mr. Knoll said that the profits of the company were not between $50,000 and $70,000, as suggested by Commissioner Wigmore last week. He also said that in the report of the chairman of the assessors the fact that there was a deficit in 1921 was not stated.

E. M. Olive, chairman of the board of assessors, said his report included statements covering 1917, 1918, 1919 and 1920, showing profits as follows:—

Mr. Olive said the company was requested on Jan. 2 or 3, 1921, to make a return of personal property and net profits, but that they refused. No return was made and the company was penalized to the extent of more than $75,000 valuation and later a sworn statement was made showing net profits three or four times the amount penalized. He said he saw no reason why the company should receive an extension of fixed valuation as long as they within the last ten years they had made a profit of a quarter of a million dollars.

Commissioner Wigmore remarked that in 1921 the company figured a loss of $3,700, and that last year it amounted to some $20,000.

Mr. Knoll said that the big profit in 1920 was due to the exchange rate with the U. S., nearly three months production being entirely in the U. S.

To Commissioner Wigmore, Mr. Knoll said that fixed valuation in his opinion would affect the question of whether the company would remain in business here.

To Dr. Frink he said that the company paid no taxes in Sydney. He said that if there was a fixed valuation in New Glasgow or Halifax, he said the company was considering moving to Sydney where no taxes were paid. He said the freight rate on finished product from Halifax and St. John was about the same and the company was now bearing the added cost of freight on raw materials from Sydney to St. John.

Mr. Olive said if the valuation was fixed at $100,000 that amount would be about $100,000 less than the true valuation of the company's property here.

Mr. Wilcox, one of the employes, said the removal of the plant would put eighty men out of work. He said there were large quantities of nails on hand, manufactured chiefly by the men employed.

Mr. Knoll said that the company could reduce the quantity of raw material and finished product to bring the true valuation within $100,000, but to do this the men would have to be laid off. Last year he said there was a deficit of about $20,000, and the year before $3,700.

Mr. Olive said the 1922 statement showed valuation of $206,000 in personal property and $50,800 on real estate; assessment was made on half the value of the personal property and all the real estate.

Commissioner Bullock said that the difference between the company and the city was $50,000, which at three per cent meant taxes of $1,500; he felt that keeping the factory in the city and running the chance of taking taxes on all profits would be to the advantage of the city.

Commissioner Thornton said there was a competitive firm in the city which would likely ask for similar consideration next year.

But there were no exemption the tax would be about $6,000, Commissioner Frink said, but under a fixed valuation of $100,000 the tax would be about $5,000. He said he did not like to see the institution closed, but at the same time he wished to have them pay a fair proportion of the city taxes.

Mr. Knoll said that some compromise between the valuations of $100,000 and $150,000.

Commissioner Wigmore said he had no sympathy for the British Empire Steel Corporation, but he did feel that the industry, which was started here by other hands, should be kept here if possible. It was expected that when it was taken over by the British Empire Steel Corporation it would be moved from St. John and he felt this was a matter of the Corporation to get an excuse for removing from here and placing the responsibility on the Common Council. He did not propose to be a party to giving them this opportunity and if it would keep the industry in the city he would support extending the $100,000 valuation.

On motion it was decided to re-submit the report to the Council for decision.

Mayor Fisher was of the opinion that the city should get away from fixed valuation if possible. His suggestion to reduce the value of merchandise during years when the firm showed a loss, had been declared unworkable by the assessors.

A proposed agreement between the city and the militia department, by which the city was given a right of way for sewer extension across the rifle range on payment of $1 a year, was submitted by Councillor Wigmore and approved.

BELIEVED LOST

The Boston Advertiser of Sunday, January 14, says that the recent storm has probably sent to the bottom of the Atlantic the little Canadian steamer Phoenix with eleven hands aboard. The steamer sailed from St. Pierre, Miquelon, for the Bay State coast on December 6, and has not been heard from since.

BODY OF MAN FOUND ON LOCH LOMOND ROAD

Unidentified Up to Early This Afternoon—Coroner Trying to Get to Scene.

The body of an unidentified man was found at Douglas Hill on the Loch Lomond road about 9.20 this morning by J. Johnson, coroner. H. A. Porter was notified and left immediately for the scene.

From what information could be gleaned it appears that Mr. Johnson came upon the body lying in the snow near the hill. It was the body of an elderly man unknown to him or to any who were seen by Mr. Johnson. He informed Benjamin Dean, who reported the matter to Coroner Porter. The coroner left the city about 9.30 to drive out and it was said by residents of Loch Lomond this morning that he would have to break road practically all the way out. He had not arrived there at noon. In the meantime the body was left where it was found until his arrival.

The unfortunate man had been wearing a black overcoat with slouch hat. The matter was reported to police headquarters but up to noon no further word had been received there. Coroner Porter was accompanied to the scene by Constable Shortcliffe.

AFTER THE STORM

With the train service both on the C. P. R. and the C. N. R. getting back to normal, the street car service in the city proper already running up to schedule and the main streets of Loch cleared by gangs of men, removing snow, St. John is recovering fairly well from the recent blizzard.

Both C. P. R. and C. N. R. officials reported this morning that the passenger train service was about back to normal although some of the trains were still being run on a special schedule and a good service following in the wake of the storm had been retained.

The East St. John line is open and is reported clear all the way. The Glen Falls line, however, was opened as far as Fernhill yesterday and this morning men were working to have the full service all the way out resumed by this evening. It is reported also being rushed in Fairville, although a service is being run to Fairville from St. John. The local street cars were reported open with the exception of the "loop."

The Boston train was reported two hours late today. The recent storm is not given as a reason, as the train is said to be running two hours behind schedule on the Maine Central. The Valley train was fifteen minutes late at noon today, while the Montreal was on time.

Local C. N. R. officials said at noon that the service was now back to normal. Freight operations had been resumed and extra freight trains were ordered out to handle the surplus freight which piled up during the suspension hours owing to the storm.

The fact that the milk car, which arrives here on Saturday night at nine o'clock, attached to the regular No. 17 train, did not arrive in the city until 8.30 o'clock Sunday morning.

An extra passenger chair car was attached to the train leaving here this afternoon at 1.40 o'clock to look after the extra passengers.

VETERAN PRINTER DIED TODAY

Cornelius Hennessey, one of the oldest printers in point of service in the province, passed away this morning at his home at 204 St. George street, West St. John, after a brief illness. He was seventy-eight years of age and started into the printing trade when but thirteen. He retired from active work about ten years ago. He worked in various shops in the United States and Canada including those of the Freeman in St. John and the Frederickton and even during recent years his knowledge of local history of many years ago was remarkable. He is survived by George P. Hennessey, of the west side, a veteran of the European war, four daughters, Mrs. A. D. Scottin, of Hartford, Conn.; the Misses Helen and Alice, of Boston, and Miss Margaret, one of the teachers in the new St. John Baptist school. Two brothers, George, of Kingston, and Jeremiah, of this city, also survive. The funeral arrangements will be announced later.

HALIFAX DETECTIVES LEAVE FOR SYDNEY TO GET ALLISTER MUNROE

Halifax, N. S., Jan. 15.—Chief Detective Horace Kennedy and Detective Allister left this morning for Sydney to bring back Allister Munroe, arrested there from description broadcasted by the Halifax police when a search of his premises here uncovered evidence which is taken as possibly connecting him with several store robberies. It is reported by the police that evidence was also discovered that may connect Munroe with the Halloween tragedy last October when Leslie A. Corum was shot and killed in his grocery store on Spring Garden road, and his assailant made good his escape.

Liverpool, N. S. Fife.
