THOUSAND MURDERED IN STREETS OF CITIES

Fearful Scenes of Carnage in Peking and Tien Tsin Reported

Headless Bodies Litter the Streets and Populace Gather for the Growsome Sights—Canton Terrorized by a Band of Outlaws

(Canadian Press) London, March 12.—That 1,000 decapitations have taken place in Peking and Tien Tsin, in the last week, is officially admitted, says a Peking dispatch to the Daily Telegraph. Only the head of Gustave Dore could do justice to the hideous picture the streets present. Bodies lie in groups in the streets, the heads literally hacked off, lying where they rolled. The very noise and points refuse to approach the terrible objects were, which the rabble stands and gloats.

Hong Kong, March 12.—The situation in Canton, where revolution under Luk, a brigand chief, are endeavoring to oust the local and provincial governments, is regarded by the consular authorities here as most alarming. European missionaries have been ordered to quit the city at once, and all available river vessels are being pressed into service to bring refugees to this city. The Hunan yesterday brought 1700 passengers and the Patsan carried 1800 more.

Several British boats are waiting at their piers in Canton today. On account of the danger of sudden trouble, they are keeping steam up, ready to depart on the instant, if necessary. The gunboats stationed off Canton are cleared for action, and even the soldiers are armed to the teeth.

The fighting at Canton began with an attack by brigands several days ago and continued constantly since, in various parts of the suburbs. The attack began to assume serious proportions when the soldiers in the lone forte suddenly re-

ANOTHER EXPEDITION

He is Talking About One, But Will Likely go to Arctic Himself—Fond of Satanic Names Apparently in Designating Places Discovered

(Canadian Press)

New York, March 12.—A cable to the Tribune from London this morning says: "Further details of the great dash for the South Pole are given by Captain Roald Amundsen. Evidently the statement attributed to him that he attained a height of more than 16,000 feet was a cable error for he mentions now that the greatest elevation was 10,700 feet. Amundsen says Sir Ernest Shackleton is wrong in thinking that he had given the name 'King Haakon VII land' to the place where the English explorer had named after King Edward VII. It was a different plateau altogether, and in any case, he had a right to give what name he liked to the land at the pole.

"Amundsen talks of another expedition to explore King Edward land, and the Antarctic continent generally, but he himself has no intention of going. He is a member of the expedition to the continent of Antarctica discovered by him whose fond of satanic names. He called one place Devil's Glacier and another Devil's Dancing Hall.

"Marsden's expedition to which he is pressing twenty-one dogs, he speaks of a new political system chiefly made up of farmers, and he is also a member of the expedition to the continent of Antarctica discovered by him whose fond of satanic names. He called one place Devil's Glacier and another Devil's Dancing Hall.

New York, March 12.—A cable from Rome says: "The Italian geographical society, of which Amundsen is a member, will award to the Norwegian explorer its grand medal. The Duke of the Abruzzi and Admiral Capponi are among those who have congratulated Captain Amundsen."

JURY NOT IN FAVOR OF LONG COURTSHIPS

Some Advice in Verdict After Inquest into Death of Teacher

(Canadian Press)

Sanfield, Ont., March 12.—After seven days of deliberation the jury investigating the cause of the death of Miss Evelyn Baker, a young school teacher who died on January 16, brought in a verdict this morning to the effect that she probably died of typhoid poisoning. They added the following rider: "We do not approve of so much freedom being given people as to the case and condemn the conduct of Dr. Edward Bailey in leaving Miss Baker in his care for so long a time without any intention of marriage."

JUDGE OBJECTS TO BACKYARD QUARRELS IN HIS COURT

Montreal, March 12.—"I cannot express too emphatically my opinion that the superior court is no place in which to have little backyard quarrels or petty squabbles settled," said Judge Proulx yesterday. Two women were the plaintiff and defendant in a suit in which $200 was demanded as damages to character, following a verbal altercation over her fence. Judge Proulx awarded $85.

RAYMOND HITCHCOCK ROBBED

Hartford, Ct., March 11.—When he returned after playing in "The Red Widow" Raymond Hitchcock sat around the lobby of his hotel for a time, when he was robbed of $200 by two Japanese spies, who came running down to the office crying loudly that Hitchcock and his wife, Flora Zabell, had been robbed of $200 in jewelry.

After a short investigation, Mr. Hitchcock figured that his loss was about $200.

IS A LITTLE MORE HOPEFUL TODAY

Conference in Strike Situation Resumed—More Out in Westphalian Mines and There is Serious Disorder There

(Canadian Press)

London, March 12.—The dispute in the coal industry has involved the throwing out of employment of more than two million men in England, Scotland and Wales, and has caused the greatest distress among the population, not only in a round table conference.

The meeting was a momentous one, as it established the fact that the long standing deadlock had been broken. It took place at the foreign office, at three o'clock this afternoon, under the presidency of Premier Asquith.

The coal owners of the federated district, which comprises the purely English collieries, whose owners had already signified the intention of principle of a fixed minimum wage for miners, found no difficulty in accepting the premier's invitation.

They had, however, to resist strenuously with the Welsh and Scottish coal owners the idea to modify their opposition to a conference with the men, from which the miners had expressly barred the discussion of the principle of a minimum wage.

There are still many difficulties in the way of an immediate settlement of the dispute, but the fact that the two parties have come together and that negotiations are progressing, has served to brighten the outlook.

London, March 12.—Sir Arthur Markham, a large coal owner, addressing a meeting in Nottingham last night, advocated the adoption of a minimum wage. He declared that no undue burden would be placed on the coal industry of a consumer if a minimum of eight shillings (82) daily, were paid every collier. He added that the coal owners had raised ridiculous arguments against the minimum wage.

A despatch from Cardiff to the Daily Telegraph says that the South Wales coal owners yesterday decided to accept Premier Asquith's invitation to a conference with the miners, but they did not wish to do anything to hinder a possible settlement. A movement is afoot to petition the premier to forthwith appoint a royal commission to enquire into the question of industrial co-partnership as a likely solution of the present industrial unrest.

Two hundred and forty M. P.'s support the petition—157 Unionists, seventy-seven Liberals, ten Nationalists and two Laborites—though the labor party oppose the proposition.

The strike is making considerable progress in all districts. Many of the mines are now working with only one of the three shifts that are ordinarily employed. A small union of the hostlers joined the strike last night.

The owners have invited a committee representing the miners from the individual mines to meet in conference tomorrow, but there is no prospect of their reaching a successful issue owing to the present attitude of the owners. Figures issued today show that the increase of wages demanded by the miners cannot be granted owing to the financial position of the mining companies.

Eddie O'Connell, the right wing of the Quebec team, was so badly hurt last night, in the game with Moncton, that he will not be able to play tomorrow or to take the trip to Boston and New York with the team.

MONCTON HOCKEY TEAM STARTED IN WITH ROUGH PLAY

Upper Canadian Comment on Their Play—Not up to the N. H. A. Form

(Canadian Press)

Quebec, Que., March 12.—That the Stanley cup is not destined to travel any farther eastward than Quebec was probably quite thoroughly realized this morning, by the battered aggregation which, representing Moncton, N. B., last night notably failed to demonstrate that hockey as played on the Atlantic seaboard has come to be as fast and finished as the brand provided by the N. H. A.

The general opinion expressed today is that Moncton's team, composed largely of players just outside the pale of the national association's performers, lack the class and finish necessary to compete against the scoring and defensive machine of the older organizations. Individually, the challengers showed class in spots and individual speed, but team work was lacking, and so was accurate shooting ability.

That the challengers emerged from the play, considerably the worse for wear, is attributed to their own tactics early in the contest. It has long been admitted that the east has erred for other deficiencies by energetic checking, and weight has been a predominating factor. In the N. H. A. the checking is more finished, the puck and not the man being the object of attention.

The eastern champions had evidently been through a very hard season, judging by the number of scratches, and they were sore and they showed that if they could take punishment they also could deliver it, and they started the game with an exhibition of slapping, tripping, and abusive hockey that made the crowd look for a very ugly kind of match.

But Joe Hall soon established his superiority as a bad man, and after ten minutes of play, he had both Povey and Murphy bleeding from their old cuts and bruises. Fortunately, the game did not continue as the first period progressed, and there were no more of the kind of play that has been seen of late. Povey and Murphy were using the hip and knee check as often as they could work it, and every Quebec man was tumbled over as he came down.

It was this that started Hall. He might have had to retire to the fence with a major foul to his credit had he been less "smooth." He was so wary, however, that the referee did not see him, and while nearly every other player was given a warning, the "bad man" escaped with impunity.

What the challengers need to get into the N. H. A. class is team work and shooting lessons. Tommy Smith, in center job, played a clever game, and showed Malone some tricks of his own to start the puck his way. He goes right in the nets, and his snub-nosed attack gave two goals to his club. On the whole he was not as effective as Joe Malone, though, and his form was not that of a champion. Hago, the challengers' goal keeper, was very reliable, and did some fine blocking, especially in the first period, when his performance saved his team from a decisive set-back.

Norman, the right wing, proved the speedy man of the Moncton team, and a vicious tripper. Berlinguette played a clean game all through, and made a good impression. As to the defense men, Murphy and Povey, they were rough and tough to meet even with Rodgers and Joe Hall, but they lost in effectiveness what they had on the locals in roughness.

Eddie O'Connell, the right wing of the Quebec team, was so badly hurt last night, in the game with Moncton, that he will not be able to play tomorrow or to take the trip to Boston and New York with the team.

MONUMENT TO "NED" HANLAN'S MEMORY

Toronto Has Project to Perpetuate Fame of Champion Oarsman

(Canadian Press)

Toronto, March 12.—A memorial monument to the late Edward Hanlan, for many years champion oarsman of the world, is proposed. It would be at Hanlan's Point, where an unmet tall chimney of the Toronto Ferry Company stands. This chimney could be covered with concrete and finished in marble dust, so as to make it an imposing monument and cost would be about $10,000. A figure of the late famous oarsman would be placed on the top.

Miss Edna Niles, of Douglas avenue, had returned home after spending a week with her sister, Mrs. Walter Fairweather, of Sussex.

LEAPS TO DEATH WITH BABE IN ARMS

Mother Grief Stricken Because Ordered Not to Nurse Child

(Canadian Press)

New York, March 12.—Grief because she had been forced to stop nursing her baby, a physician having ordered artificial food, so worried Mrs. Row Strauss that she took the 3-month-old child in her arms, and, it is believed, flung herself with him from the roof of a tenement house on 115 East Ninety-fifth street.

The sound of their bodies striking the stone flagged yard in the rear, after a six story fall, attracted the attention of the neighbors. Running out they found the mother, still breathing faintly, lying some distance from the baby, dead. About three feet away lay the baby, dead. The woman's skull, as well as many other bones, was fractured, and she was badly injured internally. She died a few minutes later.

Mrs. Strauss' death leaves four small children motherless, nine, seven, four and three years old. The baby's name was Helen. When Mrs. Strauss fell or leaped to her death from the roof, the four other children were at play in the street. Her husband, Simon, was asleep and knew nothing of his double bereavement until neighbors broke into the little tenement on the third floor to tell him of it.

TO ENCOURAGE SCHOOL CHILDREN TO SAVE

How The Penny Bank System Will Be Operated in St. John Schools

(Canadian Press)

The system of penny savings banks which the board of school trustees decided last night to adopt for some of the local schools has worked with such satisfactory results in other places that such a system is being introduced here. In order to give it a fair trial the system will be introduced in four schools—the Dufferin, St. Malch's and Winter street schools, where there are a total of forty-four classes.

The object of the savings banks is to encourage thrift among the children by making it easy for them to save their odd pennies in any amount and make it less of a temptation for them to spend their money carelessly. The money is paid in to the teacher, the teacher turns it over to the principal and a bank collector. Usually one day in the week is appointed for receiving deposits. Each child is given a bank book in which the deposits and withdrawals are entered, and which acts as a receipt for the money. Withdrawals are made by the check countersigned by the teacher. Interest at three per cent is allowed on the deposits.

VATICAN REFUSES APPEAL

New York, March 12.—The New York Herald prints special dispatches from Rome saying that the Tribunal of the Rota had rejected the appeal of Princess Marie Rospigliosi, nee Rasi, asking for a new trial of the Parkhurst-Reid marriage case, and has declined to grant Count Boni di Castellani's appeal for an annulment of his marriage with Miss Anna Gould, who is now the wife of Prince Helm de Sagan.

GOOD WORDS FOR HIM

Friends in St. John will be interested in the news that a former resident of this city, John McHugh, has opened his large department store in Tacoma, Washington, to which previous reference has been made in the Times. The "Daily Tribune" of Tacoma has the following to say of Mr. McHugh: "Mr. McHugh is one of the type of merchants who have risen from the bottom. He started in the business as a boy and has worked himself to the top. He has been connected with a local department store since it opened its doors as the merchandise manager in charge of all the buying. Eastern manufacturers say Mr. McHugh is one of the best informed buyers with whom they deal in the northwest."

Manitoba Boundaries Bill and Amendment are on Programme

(Canadian Press)

Ottawa, March 12.—(Special)—Much interest is being taken today in the debate on the third reading of the Manitoba boundaries bill and the amendment in regard to the rights of the minorities to be moved by Mr. Monahan. French Canadian Liberal members of the House are in regard to the matter and it is possible that a few of them and Doctor Hally, the Irish member, will vote for the amendment. Then there are Monahan and the five Nationalists who have already indicated their intention to vote for the amendment.

New York, March 12.—Miss Trizia Fitzgerald, a musical comedy actress, was married to the Catholic actor, in Bensonhurst, L. I., to Charles A. Gostler, manager of the "Prettiest Girl in Paris" Company, in which Miss Fitzgerald is now the star. The wedding followed the celebration of high mass.

THE LATE MRS. NEHEMIAH LEE

On March 6, Reed's Point, Kings county, N. B., Edna, wife of Nehemiah Lee, passed away suddenly of paralysis of the brain. She was a great friend and much beloved by all who knew her. From girlhood she was a devoted member of the Episcopal church. Beside her surviving husband, she is survived by four step-children—Lorne F. Beves, of the late school agreement had been made between Premier Roblin and Premier Roblin regarding the Catholic minority in the new district to be added to the province, and which was the first he had heard of anything of the kind.

THE COAL STRIKE

Having pursued a conciliatory course for what some observers doubtless regard as too long a period, the British government has summoned the representatives of the miners and coal owners to a conference, at which a final effort will be made to obtain an agreement that will end the strike.

STRIKE MEANS MANY COMING TO DOMINION

Coal Troubles in Britain Will Send Capital and Men To Canada

AGENTS ARE AT WORK

Emigration Men Find Profitable Field in the Places Where Coal Strike Centres — Money Men for Stable Investments

(Times' Special Correspondence) London, Feb. 27—Canadian emigration men and shipping agents and others interested in the movement of workers to Canada are watching, with close interest, the development of the coal strike.

As a consequence of Great Britain's trouble they expect to secure hundreds, perhaps thousands of settlers for the dominion. Industrial strike has always been the source of a large emigration and the various organizations whose business it is to encourage this, have not been slow to seize the present opportunity.

Whichever way the strike goes, said an agent who is looking for men for trans-continental construction, "Canada will benefit; whether the masters surrender, fearful of precipitating so vital a struggle, or whether the men yield, afraid to strike a blow which will be mortal to the industrial life of the nation, or whether the government, urged by the appeals of a nation insists that the quarrel be settled peacefully, Canada will extract good from the old country's predicament."

"If the masters capitulate you will see a large exportation of capital to Canada; if the men give in a large exodus of workers will occur. A compromise will not appreciably lessen the stream in either direction. Capitalists are weary of the frequent industrial strike and seek investment in a country where labor problems are less acute. Artisans are beginning to find that their interests are interlocked with those of the whole industrial machine and that a strike in one trade may paralyze the activities of their own."

Confirmation of these opinions was given by a Canadian agent who is concentrating his efforts on the west coast. "Yes," he said, "we realize that the strike areas offer the most productive field for emigration work and we are taking the necessary steps to profit by the present situation. It is true, too, that capitalists, when acquiring as to investments in Canada, ask if they may look for freedom from what they term the insecurity of capital in this country, and there is at present a bigger stream of investment toward Canada than ever before. As far as the men are concerned, it is undoubtedly correct that many men in other trades than mining are going to Canada for the reason that their employment is jeopardized by factors over which they have no control."

It is estimated that the head-of-household emigration and the dominion government pays a bonus of $3 on each man, woman and child who emigrates. Great Britain are using their influence to exploit the present situation and placing before the strikers the attractions of Canada. There will doubtless be a large movement of this class during the next few months. They would be very useful men in Canada.

A special cable to the Times on last Saturday announced that what was fore-shadowed in this letter has actually taken place, and that striking miners in connection with the strike in Nova Scotia and Alberta.

MODES IN BRIEF

An extremely effective fella is of black net, edged with a band of black velvet ribbon. Straw flowers are among the novelties in hat trimmings for early spring. They are in many colors and sizes. The Yan Dyle point so popular a quarter of a century ago, is returning to favor. It is appearing on hats as well as trimming for gowns. Lace handings for varying widths are seen on some of the smart parasols. Sometimes the effect is heightened by having the lace mounted over a color contrasting with that of the parasol.

Netted head bags mounted over colored silks, are among the novelties. The apron effect which is popular in the gowns of the grown-ups is asserting itself in the small daughter's frocks. Pongee will be worn for cutting hats the coming summer.—Newark News.

QUEER FREAKS OF EMOTION

Woman Lion Tamer Faints in Cage at Sight of Beetle—Courage is a Tricky Thing

London, March 12—From Bukarest comes news of a queer freak of emotion. Miss Annesco, a lion tamer, suddenly fainted amid her animals. With difficulty she was removed before the lions had grown so restless as to become unmanageable. Everybody wondered what it was that had suddenly terrified her. When she recovered she explained that the sight of a black beetle in the cage had caused her to faint with fright, and she refused to go back to the lions again until the black beetle had been removed.

Here is one more proof of the old-proven fact that courage is the most tricky thing in the world. We have members of the Alpine Club whom the sight of a slug-termer, and hisodonta who afraid to step but do not like to look out of a third-story window. Lord Roberts is said to be afraid of cats, and there are some men who would set out gaily to cross Africa, but who would fall into a cold sweat at the idea of invading an impassable business house and demanding to see the manager. They would go about to shoot tigers in the jungle, but would be afraid to object in a fashionable restaurant at dinner-time if the waiter gave them the wrong change.

Horror of open spaces and a dread of narrow places are two quite clearly defined nervous conditions. There exists a perfectly appalling monomania of these queer fears in a man's phobias. There are claustrophobia (fear of confined places), monophobia (fear of being alone), agoraphobia (fear of open spaces), anthropophobia (fear of society), batophobia (continual fear that walls and ceilings are going to fall upon one), pedionomophobia (fear of dwelling in plains), and siderodromophobia (fear of railway travelling).

But courage is a thing even more complex than these considerations suggest. "I had a quaint illustration in a moderate way last autumn, when I was initiating a friend into climbing," said an enthusiastic rock climber in discussing the matter. "We were going up the Glyder Fawr from Llyn Idwal, in North Wales. I had chosen a perfectly easy scramble because I did not wish to bother my friend. We were going up a wide, open slope over some loose stones, and were as safe as we should have been on a level pavement. But I was astonished to find that my friend was thoroughly frightened. It was the wide space on every side, and the smooth, straight slope away from his feet into the lake that temporarily put him off his mental balance."

"I was rather stupidly annoyed. With great difficulty I got him to come on, and ultimately we got to the amphitheatre of precipices which is the last lap of the ascent. I chose a narrow gully which came handy, and about half way up I wished I had not. It was perfectly easy climbing, and quite safe so long as nothing happened, but there was potential danger. We had to swing up over some stones jammed between two vertical walls, and the stones were slippery and wet, and some times one had to put one's entire weight on a stone without being perfectly sure that it would stand. I was thoroughly uneasy, and, in the uncomfortable part, quite convinced that I should never get my friend behind to do it, but he took it like a bird, without hesitation; it did not seem to occur to him that there was anything to be afraid of, and he was astonished when I told him at the top that I had not at all liked the position.

"With the rock walls shutting out space he had felt nice and cozy, and had done it like going up a ladder. "Again, when I am about half-way through a climb I usually feel frightened and finish with a sense of gasping relief. But I am ready for another climb just the same—and I do it, not with a moral effort, but because I want to. Plenty of other climbers, I believe, are like that. Are we cowards, or are we not? And since climbing frightens us, why do we climb?"

THOUGHT IT BETTER.

"I thought it better to get you something useful," said Mr. Dobbs to his wife. "so I have bought you a couple of good brooms for your Christmas present."

"That was very thoughtful of you my dear," replied Mrs. Dobbs. "I share your ideas, and have bought a good, strong coal-scuttle for you to carry up coals from the cellar in."

Notes. The Michigan Breeders' Association has endorsed the best of the hoppers. Cleveland's Zevens Stables has been increased in guaranteed value this year from $8000 to $10000. It proved to be worth last season close to $2000 as all moneys are added to the event.

Frank B. Walker is to do the starting at Detroit's Blue Ribbon meeting. Nominations for the Horseman's Futurity turned the 800 mark last week. It is expected that Judge Parker will give to Paronella her fourth 2 1/2 trotter this season.

Sid Alworthy (2:12 at the trot) is to be raced at the pace the coming season by Florey Davis of Hoboken, N. J. Trotters eligible to the 2 1/2 class are going to have several good stakes to race for in the Grand Circuit this season.

The Gentleman's Driving Club of Brooklyn is planning to dedicate its new speedway with a big matinee programme on the afternoon of April 19. The trotting stallion Walter Sharp, that made the mile in 2:18 goes under the auctioneer's hammer at Keith's mart in Brighton tomorrow.

The entries for Augusta's stake would indicate that there are plenty of horses anxious to race if they are afforded the opportunity. A full brother or sister to the mighty Chan (2:34) is daily expected at Armar Farm, Racine, N. J., where William Bradley owns both the sire and dam of the world's champion.

Proctor's Upton of Rochester, N. Y., will succeed A. H. Merrill of Danvers as starting judge for the Grand Circuit meeting this year. Upton will also be the referee at the Syracuse meeting. The Trenton, N. J., fair management has decided to open several $1000 early closing stake events, this being the first year that Trenton has had such a program.

Border Scout, the three-year-old yearling son of Border Knight, bred by Jack Phillips' string, Border Scout was one of the colts that Peter Bradley had at Roadville for a time last summer, when he was working in 3:28.

Hockey. Fines Totalled $520. Montreal, March 11.—An interesting report has just been issued by President Quinn, of the N. H. A., dealing with the method of fining players for infractions of the playing rules adopted by the association during the season just finished.

The Wanderers were by far the worst offenders, paying in all $180 for minor offences and $140 for major offences. The Canadiens came next with $115. Ottawa players contributed $80, while Quebec, the champions, escaped only $80 out of pocket.

The Wanderers and Ottawa played on more than their fair share of the other teams. While the Wanderers are apparently the worst offenders, their superior position is very largely due to Ernie Russell, the reliable little centre. He was the only player in the league to reach the limit of five major fouls, and, as each new

SAFE FROM TYPHOID

"Fruit-a-tives" The Best Preventative

There is practically no danger of Typhoid Fever as long as you keep the bowels regular with "Fruit-a-tives." Typhoid is an inflammation of the bowels, due to a germ. This germ enters the body in milk, water or food. If the bowels are constipated the germ remains in the body long enough to attack the delicate lining and thus Typhoid begins.

"Fruit-a-tives" acts directly on the liver, kidneys and skin, and cleans the system of all impurities. "Fruit-a-tives" will not cure Typhoid—but it will cure Constipation, assist Digestion and tone up the system—thus preventing Typhoid.

four calls for a penalty $5 heavier than the last he paid in for a major offence, the substantial sum of $75 was paid by him. His minor foul cost him $35 more.

Rose and St. George's each committed three major fouls, the other Wanderers players escaping without being banished from the list all season.

Ottawa had men with three majors, while LeSueur, Roman and Shore also have majors to their discredit.

Johnson, of the Canadiens, was caught four times committing major offences, while Glass, Larivette, Pitre, Payan and Jette entered games which the referee would not permit them to finish.

Outman, Moran, Hall and Rodgers are the names on the list of those who have been banished from the ice during the season.

Quebec, 3; Montreal, 3.

Quebec, March 11.—The Stanley Cup aspirations of the Montreal hockey team, the champions of the maritime provinces, received a decided setback here tonight when they were vanquished by Quebec, the champions of the National Hockey Association and the holders of the famous trophy, by a score of 6-3.

Taking the match from start to finish it was a very poor exhibition of hockey but in flashes it was relieved by brilliant work on the part of Winnipeg.

Ratsoy for Winnipeg.

Winnipeg, March 11.—The Winnipeg Victorians retained the Allan cup, emblematic of the amateur hockey championship of Canada, tonight at the Coliseum of Toronto, Canada. In the first game the score was 8-4 for the locals.

Football. Died at Table. Philadelphia, March 11.—Robert Thompson, formerly of Wisconsin, and who for four years was a star player on the University College football team, struggled to death while eating his lunch in the dining hall of the institution at Collegiate Park.

His brother, Kevin Thompson, captain of last year's team at Ursinus, was seen at the same table. It is believed that the accident was caused by a contraction of the muscles of Thompson's throat, which was a weakened condition as the result of a recent illness of diphtheria. After being stricken Thompson writhed in agony for a few minutes and then died, despite the effort of his brother, officers in the dining hall and Dr. William Cooney, who was hurriedly summoned.

STREET NAMES FROM DICKENS. (London Chronicle). Although Dickens is commemorated in street names abroad, there is no street named after him in London. But there is a near approach to it in Coppinger road, Stepney, not far from the People's Palace, and to prove that this was inspired by David Copperfield and not Dickens' Dorset street and an Agnes street in close proximity.

Messages posted by carrier pigeon from the Bay of Biscay by two naval officers of the British cruiser Malpene have just been delivered to their wives in England. The messages were written on tissue paper and enclosed in aluminum cylindrical cases. The cases were attached to the legs of a carrier pigeon which was in the admiralty service until wireless telegraph displaced pigeon post. Liberated in the Bay of Biscay the pigeon met a terrific storm and twenty-four hours after fell helpless on one of the lifeboats of the Spanish steamship Carthago without having made much headway. On the arrival of the Carthago at Middleburgh the messages were conveyed to their destinations.

AMUSEMENTS IN ST. JOHN; WHAT THE PLAYHOUSES OFFER

THE OPERA HOUSE

The presentation of the well-known story of Rex Beach's "The Barrier" as a comedy drama of Alaska in the days of the gold strike, given last night at the Opera House by the Myrtle-Harder Co. pleased a well-filled house and caused much favorable comment. It abounds in thrilling action, excitement and sentiment, with a vein of comedy running throughout, and also presents a social problem of life in the great north-west concerning the color line, the question arising over the proposed marriage of a pretty miss of the wilderness, who is supposed to be a half-breed. Largely on this question as well as on a previous love episode of the girl's foster-father is the play based, coupled with the fact that gold has been struck in unlimited "pay streaks" on claims owned by herself and friends.

This part, which is the only feminine role of any consequence in the piece, is assigned to Miss Myrtle, and she enacts the role very capably, being particularly good in scenes where the action is of heart interest. Her scenes with John Gale, her supposed father, were particularly touching and well acted, while in the lighter scenes with Captain Burrell of the U. S. Army, she was delightfully pleasing.

The role of Captain Burrell was ably taken by John Berlin, and he brought out the fine manly character of the soldier to the satisfaction of all. John Gale is one of the most important characters in the piece, a role calling for much strength of action, and in the Mr. Borne was cast to decided advantage. R. K. Brown thoroughly filled and looked the part of Dan Smith, adventurer, miser and genuine "bad man," while Mr. Dempsey as the one-eyed miner who had struck a good thing where the rest of digging, played with great merit, and his playing of the part was most refreshing.

Mr. Depp presented the character of the villainous character of the backwoods in his role of "Polon" and made a good impression, while the balance of the cast was of special assistance in the successful production of the play.

THE LYRIC. "Mignon" a photograph of the well known opera of the same name, is the feature picture at the Lyric. The Solax company evidently spared little expense in making this production a good one so far from first to last the picture is well acted, well mounted and magnificently costumed.

The five scenes and the reason of Mignon are particularly well done. That the good and pure can be used as a shield for a picture is easily proven in the Thanhouser picture "The Passing," which deals with a strong psychological study of a woman's life and the story of a woman's life and the story of a woman's life.

THE LYRIC. A song and dance act with character changes in the attraction at the Lyric. The people, Karle and Hutton, make several changes of costume, Miss Hutton appearing in a hobble, a baby costume in which she sings, "Maybe it was the cat that brought it in"; and a Dutch costume. The five scenes and the reason of Mignon are particularly well done.

EVOLUTION. I ate me a Welsh rabbit In the night last past; I ate a Welsh rabbit Whereby to stay my last; Simply a Welsh rabbit, A harmless harmless thing With not a leg to stand on, Nor a voice to speak or sing.

I ate me a Welsh rabbit, Then hid myself away; To bed and dreams and wishes 'Twere longer 'til I lay; Simply a Welsh rabbit, A harmless harmless thing That hath no other mission Than serving for a feast.

I ate me a Welsh rabbit, Gadzooks! I thought I was; But after I had done to sleep, How quickly did it grow.

Into the strangest creature— Into the marcs of night; Into the gibberish monkeys, Into the shapes that fright; Into the ring-tailed roosters, Into the jabberjocks, Into the scolding, scolding, Into the six-horned ox, Into the horse with figgers, Into the laughing, laughing, Into the cat with feathers, Into the cow that sings— Into all manner of creatures: Of the earth and the air and the sea, And all of them promissading Or sitting around on me.

I ate me a Welsh rabbit In the night last past; I ate a Welsh rabbit Whereby to stay my last; Simply a Welsh rabbit, How could there possibly be In a little thing like that A whole menagerie?

Daniel Burpee of Jacksonville, Me., sold recently what is said to be the record barrel of potatoes among the winter's sales in the state. The barrel contained 180 potatoes of a total weight of 185 pounds. The selling price was $2.85.

MOOSEPATH CARD FOR TOMORROW

A well attended meeting of the St. John Matinee Driving Club was held on Monday evening.

Much routine business was transacted. The winning horses on Wednesday and Saturday last were awarded their prizes. Bert Flemming, John Ross, and Thomas Hayes were elected honorary members of the club.

It was deemed advisable that a committee be appointed to officiate on the track on race days to keep the path clear for the horses and henceforth no one but officials or attendants to horses will be allowed inside the gates.

For the good of the sport the public are asked to take notice of this and so avoid any unpleasantness which would keep out of the track fence in future. This rule will be vigorously enforced.

It was decided unanimously that the article in Saturday's Times, from a prominent horseman, misrepresented the attitude of the club regarding outside entries. The club placed itself on record as inviting entries from all outside points.

Following is the classifying committee's card for Wednesday— Class A. pace. Forrest—W. J. Coleman. Leashy—G. W. J. Hamm. Ruby Rip—F. X. Morris. Clayton Jr.—J. Naon. Prince—C. Wm. Brinkley. Buster II—George Stephenson. Bilanda H.—Frederick, N. B.

TRIFLES TELL. If the sleeve is full length take care that it fits snugly at the wrist. Otherwise it never has a finished appearance.

See that the ruffles on the under-shirt are quite as trim as though they were not beneath the dress, says an exchange.

Never let there be a bias between the skirt and waist. If hooks and eyes are used, see they correspond exactly. If a safety pin, place it so there is no danger of its showing above the belt.

Never put on a garment or shoe with one of the fastenings undone.

The flat sailor collar now in vogue must be exactly pinned to look well; if it wrinkles, it is unsightly.

Most of the passengers were sent forward by special train to the west this morning.

The Virginia will take on about 2,700 tons of coal here, and will not return to this port. This has been found necessary on account of the coal miners' strike on the other side.

The S. S. Manchester Trader, which will sail from here on Thursday or Friday will also coal up here.

Chief Skellington said he was looking into the case at the title of his (Skellington's) dismissal from the I. C. R. in 1904. He never met Giraud personally. He had received information from a man who served a term for theft from the I. C. R. Gaskin that he was represented by counsel and the taking of evidence was suspended for a while to allow him opportunity to secure a lawyer.

MANCHESTER TRADER HAD ROUGH VOYAGE

Steamer Has Large Quantity of Irish Potatoes Aboard

The steamer Manchester Trader arrived in port last evening from Manchester, England, direct, after having experienced a very rough passage of fifteen days, a trip which ordinarily would not last more than twelve. Captain Cabot said that they had encountered severe snowstorms and heavy fog. When about halfway out the coal strike on the other side had effected the steamer's voyage in any way, the captain said that they had left there before the strike occurred, but that even then, they were in emergency in the coal supply, and it had been necessary to leave without taking the amount generally placed on board. The same had been the case with other steamers.

The Trader brought out a large sized cargo amongst which was a shipment of more than 2,000 bags of Irish potatoes, nearly all of which were consigned to firms in Montreal or Toronto. Almost every steamer coming to port from the old country now has a large shipment of potatoes of Irish stock. The steamer is at the government pier.

The C. P. R. is going to check the antics of drunken men who try to take charge of the trains. Last night Albin B. Foster, who is now a special officer in the railway's employ, came to town on the Boston express. Arthur Dupluis, who had been drinking, became profane and disorderly after the train left Fredericton. He was arrested by Mr. Foster and taken to the relief of all the passengers within reach of the man's voice.

The prisoner was arraigned before Magistrate Ritchie this morning, and was fined $5 or two months. Disorderly passengers now know what to expect.

Spring Has Banished Winter From Our Men's Clothing Store, after the long drawn-out Winter, it is refreshing to feast your eyes on the new Colorings in Grays, Browns, Oxfords, Blues and a host of intermingled effects that put you in rapport with the opening of Spring 1912.

The old conservative type of clothing is fast giving way to the adapted English styles, with their narrow lines all through, shoulders with little or no padding, lapels rolling soft instead of stiff, some fronts as soft as the rolls.

Vests are higher cut, showing one button above the opening of the coat; trousers are almost cut straight. You will never go back to the old "boiler plate" clothing, over you make the exit to the newer kind.

Young men—the first to buy—will find a large assortment of styles ready.

Prices start at $6 and run all the way up to $30
