REPORT
OF THE
Managing-Committee of the St. George's Society of Toronto,
FOR THE YEAR 1873.

The Committee beg leave to present their Thirty-ninth Annual Report of the Proceedings of the Society for the year 1873, to which are appended the Treasurer's Statement which may be referred to for full particulars of the financial matters hereinafter briefly mentioned; also, the Auditors' Report in which is shown the state of the Society's investments.

The total amount of Receipts from all sources, including the balance of $281.81 in the hands of the Treasurer at the date of last report, is $1,926.29.

The total Disbursements amount to $1638.51, leaving a balance in the Treasurer's hands of $287.78.

APPLICATIONS FOR RELIEF.

The number of applications for relief recorded during the past year was 581, of which 536 families, representing 2,400 persons, at the rate of about $4\frac{1}{2}$ persons to a family, were relieved with provisions, or money, or both, as follows, viz.: 312 families with bread and meat, at a cost of \$178.77; 214 families with money, to the amount of \$313.34; and 10 families with money, bread, and meat to the extent of \$12; 28 passes over the various railways were granted, at the cost of \$38.21.

The Society was called upon during the past year to bury 3 English people in the Society's plot in St. James's Cemetery, at a cost of $3, being the amount of the usual burial fee of $1, payable to the Cemetery authorities for each interment.

And 14 recorded applications for relief were refused.

MEMBERSHIP.

The total number of Members on the books of the Society is 429, classified as follows: 16 honorary, 97 life, and 316 ordinary members, shewing an increase of 57 members in 1873.

The Committee deeply regret to have to record the loss by death of two old and respected past officers of the Society in the persons of William Wakefield, Esquire, who most worthily filled the office of President during the years 1842, 1843, and 1844, and George Percival Ridout, Esquire, who also very ably filled the office of President of the Society during the years 1845, 1846, and 1847, and who always manifested a warm interest in its prosperity. In obedience to resolutions passed at the Society's meetings, letters of condolence were sent to the deceased gentlemen's friends, expressive of the members' sincere sympathy with their families in their bereavement, and of the great respect in which they were held. The Committee also have to regret the loss by death of another esteemed member of the Society, John Worthington, Esquire.

ANNUAL CATHEDRAL SERVICE.

On the Sunday previous to St. George's Day, the usual annual service was held in St. James's Cathedral. On that occasion the Officers and past Officers, and members of the Society walked in procession from St. James's School to the Cathedral. The sermon was preached by the Rev. Septimus Jones, M.A., and the musical part of the service was conducted by John Carter, Esq., Organist, The collection realized to the Society $152.78.

CELEBRATION OF ST. GEORGE'S DAY.

The social observance of St. George's Day took the form of a supper at the American Hotel, at which about eighty sat down, on the evening of Wednesday, the 23rd day of April last, and which, enlivened as it was with festive song and stirring speeches, passed off pleasantly enough, though slightly deficient in pecuniary results.

OFFICE BEARERS.

A change in the personel of the Committee has taken place during the past year, Messrs. Joseph Gearing, J. R. Dunn, Charles Ruse, and Samuel Trees, having resigned their positions as Committeemen; and Messrs. Alexander Stretton, T. H. Marsh, J. T. Culverwell, and Samuel Scarlett, were elected at the monthly meeting of the Society, on the 4th day of July last, to supply their places.

SOCIETY'S OFFICES.

In the early part of the past year the state of the Society's office caused a desire for better office accommodation, more central in location and of sufficient capacity to furnish a general meeting room for the Society, a Secretary's office, and a waiting room for applicants for relief, &c., if the same could be obtained at a moderate rental.

The efforts made to obtain such a suite of central offices proving unsuccessful, and the Secretary having removed to offices in the Toronto Exchange Buildings, as being more convenient and suitable for his professional requirements than the office accommodation afforded him by the Society, it was decided to improve the Society's office, which was done by its being painted, papered, and lighted with gas, and entirely new furnished. The cost for the improvement of offices and furniture amount to $175.16, as shewn by the Treasurer's statement.

MOONLIGHT EXCURSION.

In the month of June last, the Committee, with the view to carry out the usual annual pic-nic or excursion heretofore indulged in, took the matter into their serious consideration, but the numerous attractions of a similar nature presented and put forward by the various religious bodies and other associations, rendered it in their opinion unadvisable to do so at that time. Later in the season, however, the time being favorable for a Moonlight Excursion, the Committee were enabled, by the happy weather forecasting of Mr. Past President Brown, who originated and lent himself heartily to the project, to hit upon the finest night of the season for the purpose; and having secured the Steamer City of Toronto and a good band of music, the excursion came off on the evening of the 6th day of August last, and was a very successful affair and gratifying to all concerned. About 300 excursionists being on board, and $45.95 were added to the Relief Fund as the financial result.

THE SOCIETY'S TENT.

The Committee regret to state that the tent has not, during the past year, been a source of revenue to the Society as in former years, having produced only $55.00. The reasons for which falling off are simply that, whereas, until recently, the Society's Tent was almost the only one in the city available for the wants of excursionists, &c., but now, there are several kept especially for hire; and, moreover, several of the religious associations of the city, have one or more tents of greater capacity of their own; and when it is considered that the annual charge against it for interest, wear and tear, insurance, storage and repairs may be fairly set down at $74.00, the Committee would therefore recommend its earliest disposal.

COMMITTEE'S REPORT.

CHRISTMAS CHEER.

The Annual Distribution of Christmas Cheer to deserving English poor of the City, took place in Messrs. R. A. Hoskins & Co's. premises on Scott Street, kindly lent by those gentlemen for the occasion. The provisions distributed were 6,000 pounds of beef, and 3,500 pounds of bread.

Included in these amounts are several donations in kind mentioned in the list of contributions following the Auditors' Report.

The number of the recipients of this bounty, granted for the most part on the usual recommendations, were 500 families, representing 2,500 persons.

The Committee would suggest to their successors that the present plan of giving out the Christmas Distribution, might be altered, and some plan devised by which more time for the due investigation of the circumstances of the various applicants might be afforded.
