

TREASURER DECLARES 1923 SURPLUS ASSURED

STREET RAILWAY WILL "STAND PAT" WITH AGREEMENT

Vice-President Ivey Insists the City Had Right to Enter Into Arrangement—Council May Again Bring Paving Agreement To Attention of Legislature—Council Would Have To Secure Judgment Through Courts.

DECLINE TO OFFER SOLUTION ON MATTER

While Sir Adam Beck has called for a "showdown" in the street railway game, the London company is "standing pat". As vice-president of that corporation, Richard G. Ivey reminds that the street railway company has an agreement with the city and, despite the recent action of the Ontario government, the company still expects the city of London to adhere rigidly to the terms of that contract—ten annual installments for the Richmond street track allowance.

The vice-president submits that the railway authorities exerted every effort to meet their obligations under this famous agreement of 1923, reasoning that they were acting in all good faith.

Notwithstanding the ruling from the private bills committee of the Ontario Legislature, that the agreement in question was irregular and cannot be ratified, the vice-president still insists that the city has the right to enter into such an arrangement. From Mr. Ivey's attitude, it seems safe to assume that the street railway company will adopt the policy of watchful waiting. The next move is evidently up to the city, and if the council now demands immediate payment for Richmond, Stanley and other paving projects of 1923, it is not to be unexpected if the company declines to pay, and the council will have but one recourse—secure judgment through the courts.

And there again will be the possibility that the courts may choose to view the situation in a different light than Sir Adam Beck and his colleagues in the private bills committee of the legislature. The courts may say that the agreement, whether irregular or otherwise, should be now adhered to, as the best way out of a bad bargain.

While there has been agitation in a certain quarter for action to place the financial responsibility upon Mayor Wenige and the members of last year's council, who drafted the agreement with the company, city authorities do not anticipate a move of that nature. They question the advisability of such a course.

Conference Expected.

From present indications, it is gathered that a "round table" conference between the city council and the street railway authorities will be the first step before any drastic action is taken, even though threatened.

Mayor Wenige declines to offer any solution for public consumption at this juncture, contenting himself with this advice: Let Beck settle it. He is the master mind. What he says goes. He is running the L. & P. S. as I suppose he should be allowed to run this affair.

Vice-President Ivey did not care to discuss Sir Adam Beck's bill in the legislature yesterday, calling for a return to seven and nine tickets for 25 cents. He desires a copy of the bill before making any comment.

On other occasions, however, when Sir Adam first threatened to make this move, Mr. Ivey branded it as an ill-advised move for the citizens, pointing out that it would undoubtedly lead to reduced service, as the company would be unable to maintain its present equipment and service with less than a 5-cent fare. Reduced wages for the men was even intimated.

Make Another Effort.

The council will make another effort before the Ontario Legislature to secure ratification of their 1923 paving agreement with the street railway company, Mayor Wenige and several members stated this afternoon.

It is their contention that another opportunity will present itself if the City of London bill goes to the house for the third and last reading. There are those, however, who believe that the bill will not be projected into the house, once it has been killed in the committee.

Inquiries will be promptly made at the capital, however, and if there is still a chance, another deputation will go down to fight it out again with Sir Adam Beck.

FAMOUS BANKER DIES IN TORONTO

Sir Edmund Walker Passes Away From Attack of Pneumonia.

Canadian Press Despatch.

Toronto, March 27.—Sir Edmund Walker, D.C.L., LL.D., C.V.O., one of the most outstanding figures in the banking and financial world in Canada, and who was internationally well known, died at his home after an illness of only a few days of pneumonia. Sir Edmund, who was in his 76th year, was predeceased by Lady Walker, who passed away last summer. Four sons and three daughters survive.

The late Sir Edmund had varied interests. Primarily a banker, he has been engaged in that profession for more than 60 years, having been in the service of a private bank for seven years before he joined the Canadian Bank of Commerce in 1868, he was known as one of the foremost authorities on economics in general and his annual address to shareholders of the Canadian Bank of Commerce has been regarded as one of the most reliable indices to economic conditions and was published everywhere.

Sir Edmund took to his bed last Saturday, a heavy cold having developed into pneumonia. No alarm was felt until near the end, but during last night his condition became serious. His end was peaceful.

His four sons and three daughters were at his bedside.

St. Louis, Mo., March 27.—Senator Robert M. La Follette of Wisconsin received the presidential endorsement of the national progressive league of Missouri at a meeting here last night.

Prize Guessing Contest Will Finish This Evening

Subscription Contest Will Conclude in Four More Days.

LAST-MINUTE SPURT

The 2,000,000 Extra Vote Offer Is Objective of Every Candidate.

In 96 hours, not counting Sunday, the greatest contest of its kind ever held in Western Ontario will be over. Despite the few days left before the close, however, the final results are still as doubtful as ever.

While the excitement is at fever pitch, it would be unfair not to mention the opportunity offered to subscribers in the guessing contest. One year's subscription by mail entitles a subscriber to five guesses, and one year's subscription by carrier entitles a subscriber to seven guesses as to the votes secured by the highest candidate in the contest. The one who comes nearest will receive a Ford touring car or $500 in cash.

Where a subscriber has already given a subscription to a candidate, he may clip the coupon from the contest ad on page 13 and mail same to the contest office. All guesses must be mailed not later than tonight.

HOME BANK ISSUE WILL BE THRESHED OUT TODAY

Commons Debate Will Be Precipitated by Resolution of Irvine.

ACTION IS UNLIKELY

Government Expected To Await Report of the Royal Commission.

Canadian Press Despatch.

Ottawa, March 27.—This is "Home Bank" day on parliament hill. A deputation representing the depositors is here, and this afternoon there is to be a debate on the whole issue in the House of Commons.

The house debate is arranged to take place over a motion by William Irvine, Labor member for East Calgary, who will ask for a committee to probe the future. The Irvine resolution is designed to give a committee power to devise means of preventing similar disasters in future and to report "as to the possibility of having the Home Bank depositors from loss."

The attitude of the government is generally expected to be that the problem is now in the hands of a royal commission, and that until the report of that body is received no decision on the subject can be taken. It is also thought that the government will advance the same consideration as an argument against setting up a committee of the house to conduct an inquiry.

There is strong feeling in the house over the Home Bank disaster, and there is a good deal of uncertainty as to how a plea that inquiry by royal commission is sufficient will be received as a bar to parliamentary investigation. It is considered probable that the debate on the Irvine motion may be adjourned without coming to a vote.

THIEVES TAKE SUPPLIES FROM CHOPPING MILL

Musgrave's Store, Ten Miles From Strathroy, Entered Last Night.

Thieves broke into the chopping mill and feed store of T. Norris & Co., known as Musgrave's store, ten miles from Strathroy, between 8:30 last night and 7 o'clock this morning, getting away with a large quantity of shorts, bran and flour.

The manager, W. M. Musgrave, cannot as yet definitely fix the amount of the loss, and is puzzled as to how the robbers gained entrance. Constable Wharton has been notified and is conducting an investigation.

EGG-GRADING ROW MAY BE SUBSIDING

Toronto Grocers' Association Notifies City Man His Case Is Dismissed.

The egg-grading situation which has been up in the air the last few weeks owing to numerous prosecutions under the act, may subside as low as the present price of "hen fruit," according to information received today from Toronto by J. J. Bere, local grocer, whose case was adjourned in police court yesterday.

Mr. Bere states he has received the following telegram from W. C. Miller, secretary of the Grocers' Association of Toronto:

"Have interceded with government as regard to recent egg prosecutions, and have arranged your own and other charges be withdrawn."

Mr. Bere also received a letter from the leading representatives of the Presbyterian group. Many people stood outside the doors of the galleries and of the main floors unable to gain admission. No such crowd has been seen at Queen's Park this year except at the opening of the House.

Rev. T. G. Sykes Warned To Leave Mount Clemens—Wife Seriously Ill.

Associated Press Despatch.

Mount Clemens, Mich., March 27.—Rev. T. G. Sykes, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church here, whose efforts against bootleggers have resulted in the padlocking of several local "blind pigs," is suffering from the effects of poison, said to have been placed in his milk, the family physician announced yesterday.

Recently Dr. Sykes and his wife were warned to leave the city.

UNION NOT DECIDED ON QUESTION OF WAGES

Street Railway Employees Point to Toronto's System of Pay.

Members of the executive committee of the local street railwaymen's union stated that they have yet to consider definitely what increase in wages, if any, they will ask when they formally open their agreement with the company on May 1.

It is definitely known, however, that upon that occasion the union representatives will direct the company's attention to wages paid by the Toronto Transportation Commission as follows: 40 cents per hour with time and half for overtime. The Toronto men work 8-hour shifts, with 5:34 and 7-hour swing shifts.

The executive members point to the local schedule of 48 cents an hour, with a 9-hour day and 12 cents an hour for overtime.

No definite program has been outlined, however, they stated.

Preliminary contests in the senior oratorical competition in the central collegiate will begin in the next few days. The finals will be held toward the end of the month and the title will be announced later by Principal Miller.

IT IS A WRONG MOVE

London wants no weakening in support of the university—city council should pass the $55,000 grant—cutting the grant is short-sighted economy.

London does not desire its city council to cut estimates so that any institution doing a useful or necessary work will be crippled.

London does not want to take away its support from the University of Western Ontario. Rather do we want to establish the fact that London is solidly behind this institution.

The move to slash $30,000 off the city grant to the university is not economy. Granting $55,000 to the Western Ontario University is one of the best votes the council can make.

It is empowered to make it under the provisions of the act passed on May 8, 1923, whereby the council can grant as high as $75,000 to this particular institution.

Western University has 638 students now; it is one of the few schools that has shown a consistent increase in recent years.

Almost 70 per cent of the students are from the city of London and the county of Middlesex, so when London puts its money in it is in the favorable position of being able to get full value for it.

The city council would be well advised by its action to show to the rest of the province that it is heartily and solidly behind the University of Western Ontario.

ANTI-UNIONISTS SUBMIT AN ARRAY OF ARGUMENTS

Rev. S. C. Parker Presents Case of Union Opponents Before Legislature Committee.

LARGE CROWD ATTENDS

Hon. W. F. Nickle Warns People in Galleries That Demonstration Will Not Be Permitted.

Canadian Press Despatch.

Toronto, March 27.—So great was the crowd anxious to hear the arguments on the church union bill before the private bills committee of the Legislature this morning, that the meeting was held in the assembly chamber. All the galleries were packed and over a hundred interested people were seated on the floor of the House. The members of the committee sat on one side and on the other side in the front row were arrayed leading representatives of the Presbyterian, Methodist and Congregational churches in Canada. Of these there were supporters of the bill and opponents of the bill in the Presbyterian group. Many people stood outside the doors of the galleries and of the main floors unable to gain admission. No such crowd has been seen at Queen's Park this year except at the opening of the House.

Nickle Warns Visitors.

Hon. W. F. Nickle, chairman of the committee, told the people in the galleries that there must be no demonstration of any kind, as the committee sat as a parliamentary court. He gave warning that if there was any applause that the galleries would be cleared. Practically every member of the committee was present, which is an unusual thing for any parliamentary committee. Today is the day for the presentation of the case by the opponents of the union bill.

Rev. S. C. Parker of New St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, Toronto, was the first speaker. He pointed out that the union bill had not passed the legislature of the western provinces without criticism and opposition. He claimed that from the comments of some members of western legislatures they would have acted differently if they had had the final decision to make. They had passed responsibility on to other legislatures of Canada and to the House of Commons. He quoted T. C. Norris, Liberal leader in Manitoba, and Attorney-General Craig of the same province as stating that they were not satisfied with certain features of the union bill.

Calls Bill a Subterfuge.

He said he was present to protest against the bill because it was presented by a body that had no power to present it. He declared that it interfered with spiritual liberty, the most sacred thing in the British Empire.

"Men under this bill are compelled to belong either willingly or unwillingly to the Union Church," he said. "This provincial bill is a subterfuge to evade the common law, which is on the side of those wishing to remain Presbyterians." By common law, the property of the church would remain with those who remain Presbyterians. This bill would take that property from them."

Two Actions Scheduled For the Spring Sessions Have Been Settled.

Although twenty-one cases have been set down for trial at the county court sittings, opening on April 1, before Judge Talbot Macbeth, only fifteen will come to a trial. Two cases have already been settled and others will also be terminated before they are called in court.

The action of Mrs. Amelia Henderson of Toronto, against John A. and M. G. Henderson of Delaware Township, over a horse deal, has been settled, as has that of Donald Soper against the London Metal Products Co. Mr. Soper was suing for $350 wages.

ESTIMATED SURPLUS PLACED AT OVER $1,000

City Treasurer Announces Probable Result of 1923 Civic Administration.

SPLENDID RECORD

Final Figures For the Year Are Expected To Be Ready Tomorrow.

While his complete and final figures will not be available until tomorrow, City Treasurer James Bell announces a surplus for 1923. No doubt exists on that score, he stated.

"The surplus is assured," he told The Advertiser. "I cannot state today, however, just what the precise figures will be. I feel safe in stating, however, that we will have at least $1,000 to the good."

"It may be more than this. I am working on two accounts before I can close up the books and announce the definite finding. If one account turns out better than anticipated, our surplus will be much greater than a $1,000."

In any event the record will be remarkable, even if the surplus proves to be only $1,000, as the city council spent many thousands of dollars during 1923 in excess of the tax rate, and for which no provision had been made.

The city treasurer's final announcement will come as a rude shock to the "charter members" of the Blue Ruin Association, who predicted before the last election deficits for 1923, ranking all the way from $5,000 to $50,000.

TWO HAVE NARROW ESCAPE IN CAR CRASH

One-Man Street Car Demolishes Auto at Egerton and Dundas Streets.

Two men had a miraculous escape from serious injury and probable death today at 12:45, when the auto in which they were riding was demolished by a street car at Egerton and Dundas streets.

The street car, of the one-man type, was traveling east in charge of O. Hornby, had almost reached the corner when the auto suddenly swung in front of him and although the brakes were applied it struck the auto with such force that the whole side was smashed in and two of the wheels knocked off.

The men, whose names could not be ascertained, escaped with a slight shaking up, much to the astonishment of the passengers and pedestrians who rushed to the scene expecting to find them seriously hurt.

Unless vandals discontinue blowing the padlock off of the shack maintained by the maintenance of way employees on the C. N. On numerous occasions when the employees visit the shack they found the place wide open and the lock missing. Persons in the neighborhood, holding revolver practice, may be responsible for the affair, officials assert.

TAX RATE AT PRESENT STANDS AT 36.25 MILLS

FURTHER SLASH IS ANTICIPATED IN NEW ESTIMATES

Question Will Be Dealt With At Special Session Tonight.

NEED ANOTHER MILL

After the finance committee's slashing of the present figures, 36.25 mills, stands tentatively at 36.25 mills on the dollar. Mayor Wenke promises further reductions at tonight's special session of the council.

In order to bring the rate below the 1923 mark it will be necessary to chop another mill off the estimates, the treasurer points out. There is every indication at the city hall that this will be done.

City Treasurer Bell points out that consideration must be taken of the fact that the present figures, 36.25 mills, include the $45,000 provided for the change of policy with respect to street cleaning charges.

"It is only fair to take this item into consideration," Mr. Bell stated, "when there is any comparison between last year's rate and our tentative rate."

"City Engineer, Near recommended that the street cleaning charges be transferred from the special rates to the general rate. The council approved, and about $45,000 was placed in the estimates to effect this change.

"Without this additional sum the tax rate would now stand at 35.50 mills, and it would be only necessary to chop off less than a mill to be down below the 1923 record."

CASEY JOHN TO FACE CHARGE OF ROBBERY

Will Be Tried With George Harris Following Acquittal For Murder.

Special to The Advertiser. Detroit, March 27.—John "Casey" Yohn, formerly of London, Ontario, who was recently acquitted on a charge of murdering Floyd Johnson, oil station attendant, on August 28, 1923, was committed for trial today for armed robbery by Judge Steinberg.

Yohn, also known as Downey, will be tried with George Harris, his companion in the alleged assault and robbery of Johnson. It is said the hold-up took place early in the morning of August 23 at East Grand Boulevard and Harper avenue.

The two are accused of holding up an oil station at Cass and Stinson avenue a few nights prior to the shooting and of robbing George Campbell of $504. Yohn was severely wounded at the time of his arrest, having suffered in hospital for months from gunshot in the hip.

It will be recalled that Yohn was the only one of four defendants to be discharged in the trial of the Wyoming bandits, conducted two years ago.

CHOP SUEY NOT PRODUCT OF THE FAR-OFF ORIENT

Londoner Discovers Dish First Prepared by Cook in San Francisco.

SAD IS THE STORY

Scant Larder Said To Have Led To Invention of the Dish.

Another well-known bubble has been burst. It is definitely announced that chop suey is not the national dish of China. What is even more embarrassing is the fact that it is now learned that chop suey does not hail from China at all but is strictly a product of the American cult of Chinese cooks.

A prominent local citizen, who is accustomed to take his little dish of chop suey, sometimes with an appetizing relish of mushrooms, before returning home each evening, gleaned this information from his particular Chinese waiter recently and is sadly informing his friends that if they want to be truly Chinese in their diet they must either go down the scale to rice or up it to birds' nests.

The two are also accused of holding up an oil station at Cass and Stinson avenue a few nights prior to the shooting and of robbing George Campbell of $504. Yohn was severely wounded at the time of his arrest, having suffered in hospital for months from gunshot in the hip.

CITY GOLF "BUGS" HIGHLY ELATED OVER CIVIC PLAN

Wonderful Response to Scheme May Result in Club House This Year.

LURE IS GREAT

Already London's swingers of the graceful masher and pushers of the cautious putter are signing as members of the civic golf links. The subscription forms sent out by the public utilities commission are meeting with a wonderful response, and the value of getting as many games as one wants for a mere ten-spot is proving a lure to golfers that is not to be withstood.

It looks as if the general public will find itself excluded from the course, for of all the intending subscribers are as efficient with a club as they are with a pen, then the road to Springbank this summer is going to be one long line of club swingers, clubs, golf stockings, pipes and cars.

The original scheme was to go ahead with the course and leave the club house to another year, until sufficient money should be subscribed to build it. By present indications, however, there will be enough subscribers in the city to provide the club house, too.

Then ten-spots collected in this way go to the upkeep of the greens, and the general care of the links. Six hundred members will take care of this work for the first spring season, which is the best expensive period, and when the spring comes to Springbank, the golfers' "fore" will be heard across the river as another sign of London's health and recreation.

FARMERS TO PROTEST TOWNSHIP'S METHODS

Objections Raised to $2,000 Being Spent in Graveling Manor Park.

As predicted at the opening session of the Westminster Township Council, township ratepayers who live outside of Manor Park have been keeping a close watch on all movements of the councilors, particularly the work authorized for Manor and Highland Parks.

Farmers on the outskirts of the township are going to interview the council at the next meeting, they state, and ascertain why $2,000 has been spent in graveling Manor Park roads this winter at a cost of $6 a cord, when the ordinary price is but $2.50.

"The gravel will sink out of sight in that mud over there," stated one farmer. "I'm not objecting to the gravel being put on the roads, for they need it, but I am objecting to what I consider an excessive cost. They spent over $60 for dynamite as well."

Obituary

THOMAS EDWARDS. The funeral of Thomas Edwards, who died in Victoria Hospital on Tuesday, age 75, after an illness of a few weeks, was held from the Funeral Home of George E. DRASTIC ACTION THOUGHT LIKELY

State of Emergency May Be Proclaimed At A Special Caucus.

Associated Press Despatch.

London, March 27.—So seriously does the government regard the situation created by continuance of the tram and bus strike and the apparently inevitable entry of the workmen into the fight tomorrow night, according to several of the morning newspapers, that a private council has been called for today to consider proclaiming a "condition of national emergency."

Some of the papers go so far as to say that issuance of the proclamation has already been decided upon, and that the meeting has been summoned in order that the king's formal consent to it may be given. The king has gone to Knowsley as the guest of Lord Derby for the grand national steeplechase on Friday, and it is stated that the privy council will meet there.

This reported development is not announced from any official source and may prove merely a deduction from Premier MacDonald's statement that an emergency committee would meet immediately to arrange measures to combat the situation, but, in the opinion of a large section of the press and public, the situation is quite acute enough to justify the step.

If a state of emergency is proclaimed, it will be under the provision of the emergency powers act of 1920, which, when invoked, confers upon the government virtually the same powers as the wartime defence of the realm act.

AL. JENNINGS DECLARES HAMON PAID MILLION

Famous Evangelist Maintains Oil Man Put Up For Harding's Nomination.

Associated Press Despatch.

Washington, March 27.—Al Jennings, once a famous train robber and now an evangelist and politician, was called upon by the oil committee today to make good his promise of "a whale of a story" about an oil deal at the Republican national convention of 1920.

Jennings was questioned searchingly about what he had heard of the convention story—how one of the will o' the wisps of the oil inquiry. The committee previously had heard many rumors about an effort by oil interests to name the convention's nominee, but no first-hand evidence.

Jennings told the committee Jake Hamon had told him at Chicago, in 1920, that Warren Harding was to be nominated as president, and that it had cost Hamon $1,000,000.

Of this sum $250,000 went to the late Senator Penrose of Pennsylvania. Jennings said he was told by Hamon, whom he then was a Republican national committee member for Oklahoma.

"Hamon said he gave $25,000 to Harry M. Daugherty," Jennings added.

Jennings said he had been intimate with Hamon and attended the Chicago convention with him.

Montreal Police Dug Up Cellar in Search of Ambrose Small's Body.

Canadian Press Despatch.

Montreal, March 27.—Impelled by a sobbing "Release me! Release me!" wafted to her by an ever-haunting force which, she declares, is that of Ambrose Small, vanished millionaire.

Toronto theatrical magnate, Miss C. Benson, a psychic medium of Toronto, came to Montreal yesterday and told detectives they would find Small's body if they dug up the earth cellar of a St. Antoine street rooming-house at a spot directly beneath the sink in the kitchen above.

A trench was dug at that very spot. Bones were revealed, and submitted to Dr. Devore, city anatomist, who announced after examining them that they were not those of a human being.

KITCHENER CORONER DECIDES ON INQUEST

Probe Will Be Made as Result of Death of George Herrick.

Canadian Press Despatch.

Kitchener, March 27.—The coroner has decided to call an inquest into the death of George Herrick, aged 30, who passed away yesterday, at his home following a brief illness. It is suspected that death was caused by alcoholic poisoning.

Herrick had been engaged with the Stobie-Furlong brokerage firm as telegrapher, and had been here a little over a year. He is survived by his wife, who has been critically ill for a number of months. Before coming here he was employed by several brokerage houses in Toronto.

GLASGOW CONGREGATION SUSTAINS DUNCAN CALL

Canadian Press Despatch.

Montreal, March 27.—Rev. George Duncan, pastor of the Church of St. Andrew and St. Paul, received word by cable here yesterday that the call which was given yesterday by the elders' board, then by the congregation of Govan Parish Church of Glasgow, had been sustained by the Presbytery of Glasgow.

Mr. Duncan, who is 50 years of age, is a native of Glasgow, and has been a member of the staff of the Bank of Toronto here. Mr. Ball was well known in London and was a popular member of the main branch staff for several years, occupying the position of accountant.

Mr. Ball died at Pasadena on the evening of March 25 and will be buried in Vancouver.

His wife is a daughter of the late John Elliott of this city, and she visited in London last summer. She has many friends here, who will learn with regret of the death of her husband.

LITTLE HOPE HELD. Dr. R. C. Barkle, well-known city osteopath, who has been seriously ill at his home, Central avenue, for the past week, spent a restful night, and while slight hope for his recovery is held by his attending physicians they feel confident that Dr. Barkle is holding his own.

SUPERINTENDENT REUTER BETTER. Superintendent F. M. Reuter of the C. P. R., who has recovered from his recent illness in Toronto, arrived at his home here last night. He left for Detroit this morning, and will be away for several days.

POSTAL WORKERS HERE PUZZLED

Men Claim Present Salary Bare Living Allowance—Exams Difficult.

Why the postal workers should have their bonuses cut or their salaries slashed by the government at Ottawa is something that local civil servants are at a loss to understand.

While the action on the part of the federal government is said to result from a striving for economy, postal workers here feel that they are making the cuts on the wrong incomes, and point out that their present salaries do not amount to any more than a living allowance at the present time.

Unmarried postmen now start at $760 a year with a bonus of $7 per month, but under the new scheme this bonus would be dropped. Postal clerks get a salary of $840, and the new plan provides for no bonus for a single man and $26 per month more is allowed for a married man.

The maximum salary paid a railway mail clerk is $1,560, plus one cent per mile for travelling expenses, which barely covers the cost of expenses incurred.

Postal workers point out that the work of a railway mailman requires a great deal of efficiency, in addition to which he is called upon to pass two difficult examinations semi-annually, yet he is among the lowest paid, if not the lowest paid, man in the transportation service.

The danger signs are to be located at a distance of 300 feet from the point of danger, excepting in cases where local surroundings will not permit the erection of the same, in which case the selected location shall not be less than 300 feet from the danger point. All danger and other signs are to be located at the right hand side of the road, face approaching traffic at right angles with the highway, the inside edge of the sign to be as close to the travelled portion of the road as possible.

Places where it is necessary to warn vehicles approaching a highway bridge narrower than the roadway and in other cases where such warning is necessary, the words "Narrow Bridge" will take the place of a symbol. The conference also favored the painting of a white line four inches in width in the center of a hard surfaced roadway the full length of the curve to assist traffic to keep to the right of the center of the roadway, especially at night, and thus aid in the prevention of accidents. A further resolution was that only such signs for the direction and safety of the public as may be approved by the provincial government may be used within the boundary of any rural highway or road, and that as regards streets and roads, which although situated in cities and towns, form a continuation of the rural highway or a connection between rural highways, the co-operation of such cities or towns be obtained by the provincial government with a view of uniformity in the signboarding of such streets and roads.

Enthusiastic Meeting Held At Ilderton Last Night To Discuss Project.

If enthusiasm counts for anything, the proposed hydro line from Lucan to Ilderton via the 11th concession of London Township should be an accomplished fact this summer. However, it is contracts that count, and for this reason a meeting was held at Ilderton last night to explain matters to the villagers.

R. E. Hughes, hydro superintendent of Westminster and London Townships, and Miss Mary Grant, clerk of London Township, both addressed the gathering, which was well-attended. A number of contracts were signed at the conclusion of the meeting. A. C. Hodgins of London Township, presided.

FORMER CITY BANKER BURIED IN VANCOUVER

News reached the city today of the death of J. K. Ball of Vancouver, a former member of the staff of the Bank of Toronto here. Mr. Ball was well known in London and was a popular member of the main branch staff for several years, occupying the position of accountant.

Mr. Ball died at Pasadena on the evening of March 25 and will be buried in Vancouver.

His wife is a daughter of the late John Elliott of this city, and she visited in London last summer. She has many friends here, who will learn with regret of the death of her husband.

UNIFORM DANGER SIGNALS URGED FOR DOMINION

Interprovincial Conference of Good Roads Officials Is Bearing Fruit.

SIGNS TO BE STANDARD

The efforts that have been made by the Canadian Good Roads Association to get all the provinces of the Dominion to adopt uniformity in signs placed along the public highways are beginning to bear good fruit, for as a result of the inter-provincial conference of highway officials held at Winnipeg in January word has been received from several provincial governments that they have decided to adopt the symbols unanimously decided on at that time.

While the action on the part of the Dominion government has been commended it, and will put it in operation as soon as practicable. Briefly, the uniform caution symbols adopted are as follows:

The symbols will be painted in black on a white background, the dimensions of the danger signs to be standardized as two feet square. The symbols are to be not less than six inches in width, tapering off with an arrow, and erected on posts so that the lower edge of the sign shall be not less than five feet and not more than six and a half feet from the level of the travelled portion of the highway adjacent to the sign.

The danger signs are to be located at a distance of 300 feet from the point of danger, excepting in cases where local surroundings will not permit the erection of the same, in which case the selected location shall not be less than 300 feet from the danger point. All danger and other signs are to be located at the right hand side of the road, face approaching traffic at right angles with the highway, the inside edge of the sign to be as close to the travelled portion of the road as possible.

Places where it is necessary to warn vehicles approaching a highway bridge narrower than the roadway and in other cases where such warning is necessary, the words "Narrow Bridge" will take the place of a symbol. The conference also favored the painting of a white line four inches in width in the center of a hard surfaced roadway the full length of the curve to assist traffic to keep to the right of the center of the roadway, especially at night, and thus aid in the prevention of accidents. SIR ADAM BECK INTRODUCES STREET RAILWAY BILL

BECK MOVES FOR RETURN OF CHEAPER L.S.R. FARES

Introduces Bill To Kill All Special Privileges of Street Railway.

NEW HOME FOR BOYS

Three Hundred Acres At Bowmanville Will Be Used As Farm.

Canadian Press Despatch.

Toronto, March 26.—A bill was introduced in the Legislature this afternoon by Sir Adam Beck that in matters of street railway any legislation changing any features of the franchise rights shall not hold after the expiration of a franchise period. At the end of each franchise period the original franchise terms come into effect automatically, and amendments made within the period are not further effective.

It is understood that the new bill has a direct bearing on the street railway situation in London, where the company's franchise expires in the near future. During the Drury regime the company obtained by special legislation permission to increase fares from seven tickets for 25 cents to a straight 5 cent charge. If Sir Adam's bill is adopted this privilege will be automatically cancelled with the expiration of the franchise.

The Legislature spent the afternoon in discussing many different subjects on estimates. A. Belanger (Liberal, Russell) speaking on English-French training schools for teachers of French schools, thought that students should be kept in their home schools section for fifth form work, if it was available instead of being sent far away from home to a school where their board was paid. Fifth form work in the local schools, he said, should be encouraged. The prime minister, who is also minister of education, stated that the percentage of qualified teachers in French-English schools was increasing gradually, but greater progress was desired.

Build New Office.
Hon. F. C. Biggs asked if the government had anything in mind about the construction of a large office building. The premier said there was nothing immediate decided upon, but that it was in the mind of the government to erect a large building on a Queen's Park site. It had been figured, he said, that the amount now paid in rents would pay the interest on the cost of such a building. Mr. Biggs said that plans for such a structure on a unit plan were already in the department.

A new item of $100,000 appeared in the estimates for a boys' home at Bowmanville. It was explained by Hon. Lincoln Goldie, provincial secretary, that J. H. Durie of Bowmanville had proposed to the government to purchase a farm for boys. The government would supplement this, and 308 acres had been bought. Work would be started in a day or two. Already one private family had agreed to erect a church, and it was expected that several societies would erect cottages. Later a girls' farm would also be established. The government will not control the farm directly. A board of management will be appointed, upon which the government will have a representative. The home is to be modelled on the Shawbridge school in Quebec.

Hon. F. C. Biggs pointed out that in public works engineering estimates there was a provision made, although the minister had stated some time ago that he would save $100,000 in reducing the highway engineering staff. The premier, replying, said that the estimate was for the cut in half and more would be saved in the department by the eliminating of seventy-five motor cars used by various offices.

Premier To Inquire.
Mr. Biggs did not think that the deputy minister of highways, S. L. Squire, should be a member of the executive of the Canadian Good Roads Association, as well as being deputy minister. The premier could see no reason why he shouldn't be an officer in the association. Mr. Biggs complained about the increase in grant to the Canadian association, claiming they had so much money the last year they voted their officers a bonus. He also claimed that Mr. Squire accepted his bonus at the time he was deputy minister of roads for Ontario. The premier said he would make inquiries.

On health estimates Hon. Dr. Forbes Godfrey said that Dr. Box's discovery was being made known to dentists and that it would work out for the benefit of the people. Mr. Biggs spoke in commendation of the medical inspection in rural schools, claiming that it would do much to improve the general health of the province.

Hon. Jas. Lyons, minister of lands and forests, announced that the department was considering opening up two reforestation stations in Northern Ontario, one to be in Muskoka. Before the House adjourned, several government bills were introduced. One is a new bill to be known as the Ontario hotels act, which defines what an hotel is as distinct from a boarding house. It will also classify hotels, but leaves most of the features to regulation rather than legislation. In addition is made by a new bill to the workmen's compensation act, whereby the board may assist in getting injured workmen back to work and take the cost out of the general fund. Hon. Charles McCrea introduced a bill to elevate the status of the commissioner who settles mining disputes to that of a judge. The bill will establish a mining court, and the federal government is being asked to clothe the new official with the proper power.

Lawyers' Fists Argue In Court

Associated Press Despatch.

Montreal, March 26.—An argument between lawyers which began in the police court here today during the hearing of an assault case, developed into a real bout. E. Westover shot over a neat right cross to J. H. Migneron's jaw, and the latter threw his hat on the floor and pulled off his coat to make the weight and retaliation. One of the high constables men stepped in and called the fight off.

SOVIET RECOGNIZED BY THE DOMINION

Recognition Implied in Letter Soviet Agent Receives From Premier.

Canadian Press Despatch.

Ottawa, March 26.—Complete recognition by the Canadian government of the Russian Soviet Republics is implied in an exchange of correspondence between Prime Minister W. L. Mackenzie King and Alex. Yaskoff, of Montreal, agent in Canada of the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics. Mr. Yaskoff, who sends a trade commission from Moscow, now established in Canada was received by the Canadian government recently. Following his interview with the government, M. Yaskoff wrote to the prime minister as follows:

"Referring to the conference held with you yesterday and wishing for more definite basis for trade negotiations and for the performance of my other functions, I would ask you to be good enough to inform me whether the de jure recognition of the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics proclaimed by His Britannic Majesty's government on the first of February last comprehends recognition by Canada."

Replying under date of March 24, the minister said:

"Following up my conversation with you a few days ago with a special reference to your letter of March 20, I have the honor in the best interests of both countries, to reiterate that Canada is prepared to recognize the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics."

U. S. DECLINES TO ENTER RACE

Round the World Air Flight Will Not Be Competitive.

Associated Press Despatch.

Washington, March 26.—Major-General Patrick, chief of the army air service, has declined a suggestion made by Lieut.-Col. L. E. Broome of the royal air service, that the British and United States air forces should enter into a competitive race.

The proposal was not made as a challenge, but "solely in the interests of its sporting character and value as publicity propaganda."

WEEK-END IMMIGRANTS TOTAL TWO THOUSAND

Being Brought To This Country by the Ontario Government.

Canadian Press Despatch.

Montreal, March 26.—Immigrants expected at Halifax over the week-end number approximately 2,000, according to Canadian National Railway statistics here. The majority this week-end will be from British ports, although there will also be a large party from Danish and Scandinavian ports, another from the continent and a third from Black Sea ports.

It is expected that at least six special trains will be required to carry these passengers to Montreal, Ontario and Western Canadian points.

The Cunarder Lancastria, due at Halifax on Saturday from Southampton, with 704 passengers, has parties being brought out by the National Children's Home, Hamilton, and by the Ontario government.

POINCARÉ MAY RETURN TO POST

French Premier and Cabinet Resigns, Following Defeat On Surprise Vote.

Associated Press Despatch.

Paris, March 26.—Premier Raymond Poincaré, with his entire cabinet, resigned from office today and when he announced his resignation he declared that his decision was final.

But tonight there is every reason to believe that he will acquiesce tomorrow in President Millerand's request that he resume office at the head of the ministry. Mr. Poincaré's acceptance in principle of the president's earnest plea that he continue to direct French public affairs practically brings to a close the ministerial crisis which broke like a thunderclap over comparatively serene conditions. Mr. Poincaré's official acceptance, however, caused the president to regard as a foregone conclusion by the vast majority of those identified with French political affairs.

The advice emphatically tendered Monday by both M. Doumergue and Peret, presidents of the Senate and Chamber of Deputies respectively, that M. Poincaré was indispensable as premier in the continuation of the work undertaken in the past two years, and the conviction of M. Millerand himself, "that the surprise vote in the chamber" did not reflect lack of confidence of the parliament in the premier personally, caused the president to dispense with the usual consultation in such cases with other prominent statesmen, and send for M. Poincaré immediately and ask him to carry on.

HIRAM JOHNSTON LEADS IN S. DAKOTA PRIMARY

Noses Out President Coolidge When Additional Returns Come In.

Associated Press Despatch.

Sioux Falls, S.D., March 26.—Senator Hiram Johnston of California nosed into the lead over President Coolidge as additional returns came in tonight from Tuesday's Republican presidential primary in South Dakota.

Answering a series of questions by T. W. Bird (Progressive, Nelson), Hon. G. P. Graham, minister of railways, gave this figure as the estimated cost of harbor work at Port Nelson. Of this total amount, $4,600,000 is the estimated cost of a 4,000,000-bushel elevator, and $400,000 the cost of the railway yard and terminal buildings.

The lighthouse crib at the entrance to the harbor is given as costing $300,000.

SHOOTING EVIDENCE IS LAID BEFORE JURY

Two Men Held On Charge of Firing At Constable To Appear.

Canadian Press Despatch.

Niagara Falls, N. Y., March 26.—Evidence in connection with the shooting of Gilbert Carter, a Youngstown constable and immigration officer, will be laid before the federal grand jury today in Buffalo, Leland G. Davis, assistant United States attorney, said today.

Clarence Lonsdale and Albert Mangi, two Lewiston men, are being held in jail in default of $25,000 bail in connection with the shooting. Carter is said to have identified Mangi as the man who did the shooting.

THWART PLOT TO HOLD UP PENNSYLVANIA TRAIN

Associated Press Despatch.

Pittsburg, Pa., March 26.—A plot to hold up a Pennsylvania passenger train at the Becks Run bridge this afternoon was thwarted by city and county detectives. Edward J. Brophy, superintendent of the Pittsburgh police and five city detectives were injured, three seriously, when they used their automobile to stop a machine occupied by one of the bandits. Both automobiles were wrecked.

LOVE FOR PUPPY PLAYMATE SENDS LITTLE GIRL TO DEATH

Marion Signock of Wingham, Aged 5, Drowned in Maitland River.

Associated Press Despatch.

Wingham, March 26.—Love for a puppy caused the death today of five-year-old Marion Signock, who was drowned in the Maitland River when she tried to induce her four-footed playmate to keep off the ice.

Tonight the puppy is rushing up and down the bank of the stream and out onto the ice, while searchers are endeavoring, by the light of lanterns, to locate the body with drags and pike poles.

Marion has been making her home with her grandmother, Mrs. Cyrus Gurling, as her father is dead from the results of his war service and her mother is now in Kitchener.

Today with her chum, Marie Reid, she was playing near the bank of the river when the puppy insisted on going out onto the broken ice of the swollen river. Fearing for its safety she went after it. The ice gave way, she sank, and did not reappear. Marie raised an alarm, and searchers at once began dragging for the body. Heavy ice flowing in the strong current is making the work difficult.

An appeal was made by relatives and friends to Miss Margaret Pollock, a Spiritualist, in Blithy, and she advised that the body will be found near an elm tree about 30 feet downstream from where the little tot disappeared.

SIXTEEN RAILWAY SOCIETIES JOINED

Pass Resolution Favoring Amalgamation of All Organizations of Continent.

Canadian Press Despatch.

Montreal, March 26.—Amalgamation of the sixteen standard railway organizations of this continent was favored in principle by the 160 delegates attending the fifth biennial convention of division number 4, Railway Employees' Department, American Federation of Labor, held here today. A resolution to the above effect was passed after the whole of this afternoon had been spent in debate on the subject and officers were instructed to work to that end.

LIBERAL PARTY WHIP AT TORONTO RESIGNS

A. O. McWhinney Succeeds J. A. Pinard To the Position.

Canadian Press Despatch.

Toronto, March 26.—A Liberal caucus held today accepted the resignation of J. A. Pinard, M.L.A. for East Ontario, as whip of the party. Yesterday in the debate on his bill to increase the strength of beer sold under the O.T.A., Mr. Pinard threatened to resign if the bill was considered to be embarrassing to the party.

Mr. Sinclair, the leader, said in the debate that although a whip was sometimes thought to be the man who introduced measures for his party, that in this case Mr. Pinard was acting for himself. Mr. Sinclair voted against the bill. A. O. McWhinney, West Bruce, was appointed whip.

BRYANT INNOCENT.

Canadian Press Despatch.

Montreal, March 26.—Norris P. Bryant of the bankrupt brokerage firm of Bryant & Izard, was declared innocent of the charge of misappropriation of funds of H. Turner and conviction of the court of sessions against him was quashed this afternoon by unanimous judgment of the court of appeal.

COMPANY, SQUIRES EQUALLY GUILTY

Believes Steel Corporation Should Be Dealt With For Tendering Bribe.

Associated Press Despatch.

London, March 26.—A correspondent of the Daily Herald, alluding to the Newfoundland graft revelations, says that while it is up to the people of that Dominion to deal with Squires, it is up to the people of Great Britain to realize that there are two parties to that offence, and that if the former premier of Newfoundland is guilty of taking bribes, the Dominion Steel Corporation is guilty of tendering them.

Easter Holidays For Parliament

House Will Adjourn One Week Commencing April 16.

Canadian Press Despatch.

Ottawa, March 26.—Easter holidays in the House of Commons will extend this year from April 16 to 22.

A motion to this effect, brought down by the prime minister, was adopted in the House after some discussion, in which Robert Foulke, Progressive leader, suggested that a nine-day adjournment would give Farmer members an opportunity to visit their farms in the West. He did not press the point and the motion passed unamended.

BANK CASHIER HELD UP ON DOWNTOWN STREET

Bandits Rob Employee of $7,000 and Escape Towards Buffalo in Auto.

Associated Press Despatch.

Niagara Falls, N. Y., March 26.—G. Edward Sims, cashier of the East Side Bank in East Falls street, was held up by two armed bandits just outside the door of the bank and robbed of $7,000, which he was taking from the East Side Bank to the Bank of Niagara, in the downtown district.

TWO AMERICAN CARDINALS RECEIVE THEIR BIRETTAS

Associated Press Despatch.

PETITION SEEKS QUEBEC MUNICIPAL INVESTIGATION

Associated Press Despatch.

Quebec, Que., March 26.—The petition asking for the appointment of a royal commission to investigate the municipal affairs of the City of Quebec was received by the provincial cabinet this morning. An official announcement will be made on Tuesday next, when another meeting of the cabinet is scheduled.

WATER DIVERSION PLAN DENOUNCED IN COMMONS

Parties Combine To Denounce Theft of Water by Chicago.

Associated Press Despatch.

Lyons, France, March 26.—The British world flight aviators, who left Havre at 11 o'clock this afternoon for this city, landed safely at 3:40 o'clock. The distance from Calcutta, their starting point yesterday, is 453 miles out of the total of 23,254 miles their schedule calls for covering.

It was a most serious thing for navigation and power that 10,000 feet of water should be diverted from the Great Lakes to the Mississippi. He stated that in 1902 permission had been granted to Chicago to divert between 4,000 and 5,000 second cubic feet for sanitary purposes. This permission had been given without the consent of the Canadian government. Gradually the quantity of water diverted was increased until Chicago was now using 10,000 second feet.

Mr. Stewart said that the Chicago diversion had never been referred to the international waterways commission, and when Mr. Meighen asked for the reason for this the minister replied that he presumed it was because it was felt that the agreement regarding boundary waters did not go back before 1909. The first diversion of 4,617 cubic feet per second was allowed in 1902, and Canada had never admitted the propriety of this diversion. Mr. Stewart summarized the protests made by Canada, beginning with 1912 and coming down to 1916, in which Canada had refused to recognize the validity of any diversion.

Sir Henry Drayton asked for a statement of the protests made recently, and Mr. Stewart responded that there had been a protest on December 19 last, again on February 13, and again about ten days ago.

Sir Henry Drayton again queried to know whether the American government had been asked to carry out the treaty, to which Mr. Stewart answered by again pointing out that it was doubtful whether the treaty covering the original diversion, the rightfulness of which Canada did not admit.

General A. E. Ross of Kingston inquired whether Canada proposed to ask for reparations in view of the damage done to Canada by the diversion.

The minister replied that to claim damages meant an acceptance of the diversion, and these Canada had never admitted. The loss of a very few inches in the level of the Great Lakes was a very serious matter to certain of the lake ports, said John Millar (Progressive, Q.A.), who referred to the matter particularly from the point of view of the Western grain growers, and stated that cheap transportation on the lakes was becoming an increasing factor in the competition of Canadian grain with that produced in Europe. If vessels could not load to capacity because of shallow water they could not compete with Europe.

P. Michael (Liberal, Restigouche) cited a case in New Brunswick, where, he said, United States interests controlled the waters of a river in its lower reaches, and the two countries, if the United States was permitted to continue in the course which it was pursuing it would be a serious thing to Canada. He advised the minister of the interior to "get right down to business" and deal with the matter.

Two facts had been brought out by the discussion, said E. G. Gault (Conservative, West Hastings). The first was that there had been a steady diversion at Chicago; secondly, the only thing that had been done to remedy this wrong was that the Canadian government had protested. Surely Canada had not got into a position whereby she uttered protests which either were ignored or replied to and then forgotten. The time had come when the question of the jurisdiction over the waters of the Great Lakes should be decided. The relations between Canada and the United States were most amicable at present. Therefore, this would be a good time to decide a matter which might later develop into a very serious international difficulty.

Sir Henry Drayton said it was not often so many members of the House were present. The debate he advised the minister to take up. Everyone agreed that Canada was suffering as a result of non-observance of the treaty.

He moved until all the papers concerning the negotiations between Canada and the United States could be laid on the table.

The prime minister thought that the suggestion was a proper one. There had been communication with Washington a few days ago regarding the tabling of the correspondence. It was expected that the United States would have no objections to making public the correspondence very shortly.

CANADA SPENDS LEAST IN EMPIRE ON DEFENCE

Hon. E. M. MacDonald Furnishes House With Comparative Per Capita Figures.

Canadian Press Despatch.

Ottawa, March 26.—Hon. E. M. MacDonald, minister of defence, today furnished the House with comparative per capita figures of expenditure on military defence in the different parts of the Empire. The figures were: Canada, $146 per head; New Zealand, $23.33; South Africa, $2.92; Australia, $3.30; Great Britain, $15.82.

BOTTRILL READY TO URGE FIGHT FOR PAVEMENT

Wharfedale Road Construction May Be Held Up Through Resolution.

ATTACKS DECISION

For three years now the residents of the Wharfedale road, West London, have petitioned for a pavement, and Ald. Harry Bottrill stated that he will still fight in the council for that project, irrespective of the recent action of the Ontario Legislature. The street railway company, however, is not allowed to meet its own allowance charges there seems small hope for the contemplated pavement this year.

"We should do something further," Ald. Bottrill stated. "We should not allow that ruling from Toronto to stand. If I had my way we wouldn't leave it as it stands."

"Something must be done. If the government's ruling is allowed to stand our streets throughout the city will be in a fine mess."

Ald. Bottrill pointed out that in any event it will with the help of the city on the track on the Wharfedale road at least two feet.

As a member of the city delegation to the private bill committee, Ald. Bottrill was quite disappointed with the action of Sir Adam Beck, M.L.A., and his supporters who downed the city of London bill.

WOMAN'S PREROGATIVE ENDS CASE IN COURT

Drops the Proposed Charge of Assault Laid Against Her Husband.

Using the accepted prerogative of her sex, Mrs. John Gough, in the witness stand, changed her mind in police court this morning after having summoned her husband to answer a charge of assault.

Last week Mrs. Gough interviewed Chief of Police Robert Birrell, claiming Gough had attacked her. The chief advised the woman to accuse him of assault. That was the only way to prevent a repetition of such occurrences.

The scene was all set to hear the charge after Gough had pleaded not guilty when his wife told the court she had decided "not to press her claim."

"I just want to be protected when I go home to get my things," she said.

"Why did you file the complaint if you do not wish to take action?" questioned the magistrate. "What happened?"

"Nothing happened. I just want to get my things without being interfered with."

The chief contradicted the woman's statement that "nothing happened." He declared she told him her husband had seized her by the arms and actually assaulted her.

The court finally decided to hear the details in private. The case was ultimately dismissed.

"Tired and Worried Nervous and Despondent"

Mrs. M. Chevalier, Belle River, Ont., writes: "For eight years I suffered from despondency and nervousness."

Sometimes I could not sleep at night for worrying and the next day I would be so tired that my work was a burden to me. I began using Dr. Chase's Nerve Food and can say I am now entirely relieved of the nervousness from which I used to suffer, and things do not worry me as they used to.

"Dr. Chase's Ointment also relieved me of eczema on my arms, which had bothered me for three years. My house is never without Dr. Chase's Medicines."

DANGER OF FLOOD IN THAMES RIVER IS PAST FOR YEAR

Ice Breaks Up and Despite the Severe Winter No Trouble Experienced.

PARK NOW CLEAR

With London enveloped in the deepest covering of snow in years, a few weeks ago, apprehension was felt by many that during the melting period severe floods like those of 1917 might develop. The condition of the river at present, however, shows that all danger, if there was any, is gone.

No man-made arrangement could have improved on that with which the snow and ice drained into the river this season and disappeared. Despite the huge quantities of ice, caked high on all three branches, there never was the slightest possibility of a flood. Floods of the past have usually been precipitated by the breaking up of all three branches of the river simultaneously. This season they broke up on separate days and the ice from one had disappeared long before the other got started.

The river at the Springbank pump house is much lower than it was yesterday, and every vestige of ice has travelled miles from London. Employees there say the breaking up process this year was a very gradual affair and at no time did the river rise to heights which were considered serious.

Thus, notwithstanding the severe winter just past, expectations of a spring flood proved to be without foundation. The Thames' playgrounds, which almost every spring are covered with a thin sheet of water, remained untouched this season.

"The water has never reached the top of the dam," J. McCormick of the pump house said this morning. "And now all chance of it doing so is gone."

FINANCE COMMITTEE FAVORS EQUIPMENT

Inspect Electric Switchboard in Central Fire Station at Toronto.

Members of the finance committee have approved of the installation of a modern electric switchboard in the central fire station.

When in Toronto Tuesday last, Chairman Douglas, Ald. Harry Bottrill, Ald. Gordon Drake and Fire Chief John Aitken inspected a similar apparatus at the Toronto central station.

That they were favorably impressed was indicated last night when they placed $16,000 in the estimates for that purpose.

Every year since he assumed the chief's office 15 years ago, Chief Aitken has recommended this change, and it appears at last that the committee has hearkened to his appeal.

SEES 34-MILL RATE.

Chairman Douglas of the finance committee forecasts a 34-mill rate for 1924. And it would not be unexpected if the council is able to strike the tax rate at tonight's special session, he stated.

YOUTH IS DISMISSED ON CRUELTY CHARGE

Tells Court He Drove Horse to Town For Sick Farmer.

Although the horse he drove to town was suffering from an acute disease a local young man was dismissed in police court this morning on a cruelty to animals charge.

The animal, nearly dead and suffering intense pain, attracted a throng of 200 people on Talbot street Saturday afternoon. George Tustin, humane inspector, was summoned and took care of the steed. Since then it has developed pneumonia.

The defendant claimed the unfortunate affair was the result of a mistake. A farmer on the outskirts of the city was taken sick and the young man decided to help him out for a few days doing chores. He had to come to London with a load of grain and selected the stricken horse from a number of others to carry the load.

He claimed he did not know the animal's condition until he had harnessed it. As he was in a hurry he did not have time to substitute it for another.

The court dismissed the defendant on payment of costs.

MRS. M. J. McFADDEN IS BURIED AT SARNIA

Prominent London Resident Is Survived by Husband, Four Sons, Three Daughters.

The funeral of Mrs. Mary Jane McFadden was held from her late residence, 32 Beaconsfield avenue, Wednesday morning. Interment was made at Lakeside Cemetery, Sarnia.

The late Mrs. McFadden was the eldest daughter of Mary Ann and Nathaniel Boswell, and was born in Petrolia in 1868, was educated in Sarnia, and in 1883 was married to Charles McFadden of this city.

To this union were born seven sons and four daughters.

She was an active member of the Southern Congregational Church and is survived by her husband, Charles McFadden, four sons, Garfield of Toronto, Edgar of Detroit, and Harold of this city, and three daughters, Mrs. J. Andrews, Chatham; Mrs. Luther Kekoa, Detroit; and Mrs. Stanley McFalls of this city. A sister, Mrs. Fred Yerkes, Lorain, Ohio, also survives.

CHELSEA GREEN CHOIR GIVES FINE CONCERT

Clever Local Artists Assist in Musicale at Presbyterian Church.

Carrying off their own share excellently and assisted by clever local artists, the choir of Chelsea Green Presbyterian church met with splendid success in the concert they presented last night.

The choir was in full strength and the assisting artists were Mrs. W. Hubert, soprano; Miss Gwendoline Ware, contralto; Fred Callard, tenor; Miss Dorothy Roy, violinist; Miss K. Fowler, pianist; and Miss Jane Metcalf, reader. A quartet, formed of choir members, also gave several very fine numbers, and Miss Verna Brazier and F. Aldridge were heard to advantage in a duet.

The choir is formed of the following members: Miss L. Johnston, Miss D. Bruce, Mrs. W. French, Mrs. A. Parker, Miss P. Smith, Mrs. W. Payne, Miss E. Lyons, Miss V. Brazier, Miss M. Brask, Mrs. J. French, Mrs. E. Reeves, Miss R. Dallimore, Mrs. C. Jackson, Miss L. Lyons, C. Jackson, E. C. Reeves, T. Morgan, H. Vine, E. F. Reeves, J. McAuley, W. McAuley and F. Aldridge. Miss L. Lyons is the president; E. F. Reeves, vice-president; Miss L. Johnston, secretary-treasurer; Miss V. Brazier, assistant secretary-treasurer; Librarian, Miss D. Bruce, and assistant Librarian, J. McAuley.

Neil Miller acted very efficiently as the chairman.

Pear Blossoms Blooming In Several London Houses

Nature Lovers Bring In Branches From Country To Develop Them.

MEET WITH SUCCESS

A new cult has developed this season among nature lovers. Mysterious quantities of budding branches have been making their appearance, weeks before the accepted time. Florists have not been selling undue quantities, nor have the curious been able to discover any particularly warm, sunny spots in the country where the season was likely to be rushed.

It is learned now, however, that peach boughs, pear boughs, and even apple boughs will put forth a blossoming appearance, commonly coincident with the soft, sunny winds of late April and early May, if they are brought indoors and given steady warmth and moisture.

One hostess of a recent tea, receiving congratulations on the unusually pretty appearance of her drawing-room, its rose appointments softly contrasted with gray pussy-willows, revealed the fact that she had known and used this secret for years, but it is now coming into common use for the first time.

One lady came in from the country this morning with an armful of pear boughs, which she intends to have in bloom ere long. They are to be placed in water and kept in a warm, sunny place. Mohammed had an interesting story of the mountain, and apparently city dwellers are applying him—if they can't go to the country, they will bring the country to them.

PASTOR IS DEFENDANT IN $500 DAMAGE SUIT

Plaintiff Charges No Warning Was Given of Approach of Car.

Rev. Wm. L. Hiles, pastor of the Robinson Memorial Church is named defendant in a $500 automobile damage suit to be aired at the county court non-jury sittings before Judge Macbeth on April 1.

The plaintiff is Alfred Richie, a retired farmer, who alleges that he was run down and injured by a motor owned and driven by Mr. Hiles on July 25 last, on Tecumseh avenue.

In his statement of claim the plaintiff further alleges that he had his leg broken and suffered such severe injuries that he was confined to the hospital for several months. He claims no warning was given by Mr. Hiles of his approach.

The defendant claims that there was a warning and that the plaintiff knew the car was approaching.

T. W. Scandrett will appear for the plaintiff, and Gibbons, Harper and Braden for the defence.

DIRTY CHIMNEYS CAUSE MANY FIRES, IS CLAIM

Assistant Fire Chief Scott Tells of Strict Laws in England.

The unusually large number of chimney fires which have occurred recently can be attributed to the burning of soft coal and dirty chimneys, in the opinion of Assistant Fire Chief Scott.

"During the year we answer as many as 50 calls to extinguish chimney fires," he said. "These could be avoided if the chimneys were cleaned out once in a while. In England a person is fined a considerable sum if the fire department are called out to extinguish fires of this kind. While I am not advocating that the same should be done here, great precautions on the part of householders would eliminate many chimney fires."

Canadian Press Despatch. St. Johns, Nfld., March 27.—Fleet that the Newfoundland seal fishery would prove a complete failure was expressed here today, when it became known that the sealing fleet which sailed from St. Johns on March 10, was still held fast in the ice near the straits of Belle Isle.

WESTERN "U" STUDENTS PLAN LIBERAL CLUB

Strong Movement Now Under Way To Organize New Society.

About the college halls at the University of Western Ontario there are whisperings. They concern the formation of a Liberal Club.

The club has not yet been formed, but steps have been taken that will put the club on a solid foundation, inasmuch as in many instances its members will be students who are at present in their junior years and will therefore have more than a temporary association with the club.

There are some strong men in the Liberal ranks at the University of Western Ontario, stated a student this morning, who felt that a very successful organization should result from the present movement.

HYATT AVE. BROTHERHOOD. An impromptu concert was given last night at the home of Bert Dean, 366 Hamilton road, under the auspices of the Hyatt Avenue Brotherhood, assisted by other members of the congregation and by Mr. Lewis Parker. The program included readings by Miss Pearl Bendie, violin solos by Mr. Parker, solos by Mr. Jackson, violin solos by Mr. Neil Dowling, and a duet by Miss Lily Hoffman and Mr. Harry Hahnan, Mr. J. McAlpine, organist of the church, acted as accompanist. Among those present were Messrs. S. Harris, F. Stevens, B. Fountain, H. Childs and E. Smith.

ST. MARK'S BOY SCOUTS. The Boy Scouts of St. Mark's Church gave a concert and play on Tuesday night and again last night by means of which they exhibited the proficiency they have attained in scoutcraft. The play, called "All in a Day's Run," cleverly brought in each branch of scout work of which demonstrations were given by the various patrols. The five leaders were: Arthur Smith, Eilman Kirkland, Fred Cookson, Jim Langford, and Chester Wistow. Between acts there was a program which included fancy dancing by Isabel Wells, songs by Laura and Vivian Crawford, and readings by Dorothy Langford and Irma McLure. As the result of the splendid attendance, the scouts have a fine sum to devote to the purchase of new uniforms.

PIMPLE BUSH ONLY REAL PIMPLE CURE. SAYS OLD VOLUME

Officials of "U" Seeking Contributions To Buy Book For Library.

OWNED IN DISTRICT

An interesting medical antiquity written in 1710 by William Salmon may become the property of the University of Western Ontario if officials can get enough persons to contribute toward its purchase. The antique is a volume seven inches thick containing alleged remedies for every ill to which man is heir.

The book belongs to George Lakeman, district farmer, and was handed over to John Bycraft, Iliderton, for the purpose of selling it. Fred Landon, librarian at the university, is interested in the possibility of getting it for the college, and attempts are being made to secure small subscriptions to cover the $50 required to buy it.

"Cures" prescribed by the redoubtable Dr. Salmon, its author, are certainly original if not practical. For instance, girls suffering from love sickness are urged to "climb a Love-sick tree and eat the roots." This will result in a permanent cure.

Warts can only be eliminated by devouring wart roots.

Here's what Dr. Salmon prescribes for pimples: "Persons with pimples are wise to grow pimple bushes. These can be grown by planting the seed from pimple berries. From the bush take a leaf and eat it before retiring. The pimples will soon disappear."

Apparently dentists were regarded with suspicion in 1710. People with pains about the teeth are urged never to brush them. This only aggravates the trouble. The only cure is to chew two cups of sawdust every day. "Beware of quacks and dentists," the book warns.

If your Adam's apple is large just kill a rattlesnake and sleep in its skin for a couple of months. This effectively reduces the apple. Dr. Salmon contends, basing this theory on the story of creation.

"Frog-eye" is another disease which the doctor stresses. The cure is to capture a number of frogs alive and boil them in water. The frog-eyes will soon disappear. The doctor tactfully refrains from adding that the patient would probably disappear also.

MIKE GIVEN PROMISE OF SIX-MONTH TERM

Discovered in Wobbly Condition by Officers and Donates Another Ten.

Every time Mike Tagney comes to town he gets drunk. The last time he visited the city two months ago he was fined $10 and costs. Yesterday he returned for the first time since his last conviction, and was fined another $10 and costs this morning.

Mike, who is well-known to the police, had a novel explanation of his fall from grace. He just got out of bed after being stricken with measles and was told a few gulps of whiskey would make him feel good. He, therefore, took the gulps and came to town. He got as far as Richmond street, when officers told him to come with them to the cells.

"You got intoxicated every time you come to London," the court said. "Last night a friend telephoned me and offered to pay your fine and give you a job in the country. But the next time you get drunk you shall be sent to the reformatory."

"It shall never occur again," Mike solemnly assured the magistrate.

"If it does you will get six months," returned the court.

TRUSTEES PAY VISIT TO W. LONDON SCHOOL

Inspection of the New Empress Avenue Building Is Made This Morning.

No. 2 committee of the London School Board paid a visit of inspection this morning to the London West School now being built on Empress avenue. They found that the plans did not provide for dressing rooms at the side of the stage, an auditorium and after consultation with the architect decided they could be placed below the stage without any alteration of the plans or a greatly added expense, which they will recommend to the board. The cost of the school is practically the same as the amount of the estimates, but the board has some reservations from the sale of houses on the property which will take care of the changes.

'Y' TO TENDER BANQUET FOR NEW MEMBERS

ATTITUDE PROVES MYSTERY TO DRAKE

Mayor Wenige Charges Sir Adam Beck "Acts Like a Czar."

Mayor George Wenige states that "Sir Adam Beck acts like a czar" in many respects.

"A czar always formulates the policies," the mayor stated, in defense of his argument. "No person else need say anything or make any suggestions. Well, that is just how Sir Adam acts, not only with respect to questions on the London and Port Stanley Railway situation, but with regard to the London street railway situation on Richmond and Stanley street."

The mayor advises that it would be best hereafter for everyone to sit silent, and let "Sir Adam formulate policies and run the whole show" by himself.

Ald. Gordon Drake, one of the city council's representatives to Toronto last Tuesday, is unable to "understand Sir Adam's line of reasoning."

"Sir Adam talked about putting cracked stone on Richmond street," Ald. Drake stated. "Why that would have been the worst thing imaginable. I would certainly not have voted for that. We had experience in that connection on Stanley street, and everyone knows what happened."

Ald. Drake insists that Richmond street would not have been paved at all last year if they had listened to the story of creation between the tracks. "I can't understand his attitude at all," he asserted.

EXPERT SHEEP MEN TO AID RAISERS IN THIS DISTRICT

An announcement to Middlesex County farmers who raise sheep was made by R. A. Finn of the department of agriculture today. Mr. Finn states that two expert sheep men have offered to dock and castrate lambs free of charge, providing that the work may be done by townships. Groups or individual farmers interested should get in touch with Mr. Finn immediately.

BRESCIA HALL TENDERS WERE CLOSED YESTERDAY

For 15 Years Was Troubled With Eczema

There is no other remedy like Burdock Blood Purifier that can possibly give such relief to all sufferers from eczema, salt rheum and all other diseases of the blood for the reason that this old and well tried remedy goes right to the seat of the trouble and completely and permanently drives these diseases out of the system by cleansing the blood and making it pure and rich.

Mr. F. W. H. Schultz, Pembroke, Ont., writes: "Having been troubled with eczema for fifteen years, during which time I tried everything I could think of, including doctors, but without getting anything to do me much good, I finally decided to take Burdock Blood Purifier, and I was certainly surprised to find that two weeks after I had started to take it I was relieved of my trouble. That was nine months ago, and I have not had a sign of it since. I surely wish to thank you for this wonderful medicine and strongly recommend it to anyone suffering from the same trouble as I had."

ACIDS IN STOMACH CAUSE INDIGESTION

Create Gas, Sourness and Pain—How To Treat.

Medical authorities state that nearly nine-tenths of the cases of stomach trouble, indigestion, sourness, burning, gas, bloating, nausea, etc., are due to an excess of hydrochloric acid in the stomach and not as some believe to a lack of digestive juices. The delicate stomach lining is irritated, digestion is delayed and food sours, causing the disagreeable symptoms which every stomach sufferer knows so well.

Artificial digestants are not needed in such cases and may do real harm. Try laying aside all digestive aids and instead get from any druggist a few ounces of Bisurated Magnesia and take a teaspoonful in a quarter glass of water right after eating. This sweetens the stomach, prevents the formation of excess acid and there is no sourness, gas, or pain. Bisurated Magnesia (in powder or tablet form—never liquid or milk) is harmless to the stomach, inexpensive to take and is the most efficient form of magnesia for stomach purposes. It is used by thousands of people who enjoy their meals with no more fear of indigestion.—Advtd.

SELF-POISONING TODAY'S DANGER

Modern Hurry Upsets Run-Down People—Vital Organ Becomes Clogged and Poisons the System.

Hurried eating and lack of abdominal exercise clogs the system and overloads the liver. This important organ is the body's filter, and when it becomes clogged it sends out the poisonous waste of the body is improperly eliminated. No longer can the liver properly secrete juices so essential to digestion and normal movement of your bowels. No longer can it properly filter and purify your blood. The result is self poisoning.

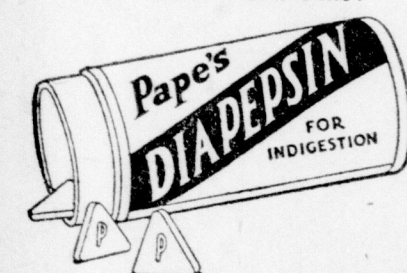

This explains why a sluggish liver is attended by such symptoms as constipation, biliousness, sick-headaches, sourness and gas on a weak stomach, loss of appetite, pains in the back and sides, and an irritable, rundown condition—symptoms that lead to the dangerous and expensive sick-bed unless corrected in time.

Dr. H. S. Thacher, noted medical practitioner, perfected a wholesome vegetable prescription to keep the liver healthy. It is giving quick relief and renewed strength, energy and vigor to numbers here. This prescription, known as Dr. Thacher's Liver and Blood Syrup, is pleasant to take and contains only ingredients that are known to physicians for their corrective and health-building properties.

Try this great prescription yourself. Notice the quick difference in the way you look, eat, sleep and feel. You will be completely satisfied, otherwise he will be no cost. Dr. Thacher's Liver and Blood Syrup is sold and recommended by B. A. Mitchell, 114 Dundas street and Taylor's Drug Store, 336 Richmond street, one half block south of Dundas in London; J. W. Craig in Dresden; E. M. Crosthwaite and W. A. McIntyre in St. Marys; John E. Warner in Alvinston and by leading druggists in every city and town.—Advtd.

REDUCTION OF $188,363 IS NOW RECOMMENDED

Would Eliminate $45,000 Interest Charges On Proposed New School.

CUT UNIVERSITY GRANT

Ald. Anderson Charges Victoria Hospital Pays Too Much For Meat.

Deductions amounting to $188,363 were recommended by the committee, and will be discussed tonight at a special meeting of the council to consider the estimates. Amongst the reductions was the elimination of $45,000, representing the interest charges on the two new schools asked by the board of education. If these reductions are sustained by the council it will leave a tax rate of 26 mills. The mayor, however, hopes to effect a further reduction at the meeting of the council.

Charges that Victoria Hospital could have saved $600 in buying its meat in January and February, during which time it paid over $100,000 for the system he criticized had been in vogue for 15 months, and that two of the tenders for the hospital meat contract had never been opened, were made by Alderman Anderson at last night's meeting of the finance committee of the city council.

The mayor was appointed by the committee to ascertain the hospital's estimate of the charges, which was brought to the notice of the committee during the discussion of the hospital estimates for the year. Supplementary estimates for $13,700 were asked by Victoria, and it was then that Alderman Anderson laid the papers relative to his charges on the table.

Would Cut Estimates. He added that the hospital could have bought better meat for less money, and that if they would change their system of buying they might not need the money asked for in the supplementary estimates. He challenged anyone to get a price-list to compare with the one he showed the committee, and to show that the saving he named above could not have been effected in the purchase of these supplies. The mayor remarked that this was the saving in two months, and that the system had been going on for fifteen months, that the method of buying in other commodities would bear inspection.

The attitude of the Fire Underwriters' Association at the recent meeting in Toronto had an echo in the action of Ald. Smith, who moved that the sum of $16,000 be retained in the fire department's estimates to give the city the electric alarm system asked for by the chief for some time. The mayor proposed to add to the estimates the list and to do without an alarm system on the ground that the association had said that no matter what equipment was added the rates would not come down, and that lower fire losses was what was needed. Ald. Smith's motion, however, finally carried unanimously.

The fire estimates developed a keen discussion. Ald. Anderson remarked that it seemed useless to maintain equipment when the department had no sufficient men to man it efficiently. This was in reference to the money asked to buy a tractor for the east-end truck at $3,000, which was rejected.

Will Prosecute. In the matter of the loss the chief had had a number of the men who had steadfastly refused to comply with his orders to clear up their places, and he asked whether he should go ahead and prosecute the men for the city bylaws. The committee was unanimous in telling the chief to go ahead. "We'll all stand behind you," was the slogan.

The university grant was reduced from $5,000 to $25,000 on the motion of Alderman MacKay, who asked that the procedure bylaw be abided by for once. This bylaw says that no sum of money over $25,000 may be granted by the council without an appeal to the people. It has been observed more in the breach than the observance in the past.

Alderman MacKay asked the chairman, Alderman Douglas, if it was correct that the city solicitor had told the private bills committee in Toronto that the council had been unanimous in giving assent to the issue of the $200,000 debentures for the storm sewer work. On hearing that this was the case he remarked that both he and Alderman Warren had voted against the proposal.

The public library was allowed its request of $29,680, which is less than the half mill the law entitles them to. Treasurer Bell pointed out that the library board has never yet asked for the full half mill.

The grant to the Western Fair of $5,000 to cover losses from gate receipts was allowed.

List Reductions.

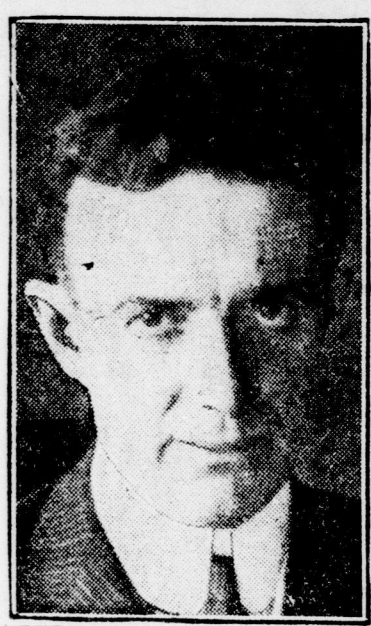

The main reductions recommended by the committee in the estimates are as follows:

Welfare $67,169
Interest charges on new schools 45,000
Hospital supplementary estimates 13,700
Fire department, equipment 10,000
Fire department, depreciation 5,400
Police department, equipment 3,000
Police department, depreciation 1,000
Western University 25,000
Playgrounds 10,000
Parks 5,000
Industrial area commission 1,500
Industrial Schools 500

EAST DELEGATION TO MEET COUNCIL

East Collegiate Parents' Assoc. Will Urge Construction of New School.

A delegation from London East, of probably unprecedented size, will appear before the council tonight when the estimates for new colleges come up. The delegation will be headed by Dr. R. J. Gordon, president of the London East Collegiate Parents' Association, and the spokesman will include other influential citizens from that district.

The personnel of the delegation has been recruited with much deliberation by the collegiate parents' society, care having been taken to include in it representatives from as various interests as possible and to make it thoroughly representative of the ratepayers of London East.

It is expected that a vigorous plea will be made for a new collegiate for the east. The delegation claim to have behind them the weight of the London East ratepayers, as a result of a systematic and protracted propaganda carried on by the East Collegiate Parents' Association and the various mothers' clubs.

The delegation will point out that the continued use of the present building is unthinkable. They will emphasize the discrepancy in educational standards for the children of the east and those attending the Central Collegiate, despite the equal financial burden borne by ratepayers in all parts of the city. They will contend that the hygienic and sanitary conditions of the building are such as to render it a standing menace to the health of the pupils.

"I feel satisfied," said one of the members of the delegation, "that when the situation as it exists is outlined to the members of the council, the reasonableness of our request will not be disputed."

"Economy is highly commendable," was the opinion of another sponsor of the London East cause, "but the health of our children must be the first consideration."

UNIVERSITY APPOINTS MEMBERS TO SENATE

Major T. J. Murphy and J. H. Chapman Receive the Positions.

At a meeting of the board of governors of the University of Western Ontario held yesterday, Major T. J. Murphy and J. H. Chapman were appointed to the senate of the university.

The appointment is in conformity with the recent act passed in the legislature which specifies that members of the university be appointed from their own numbers.

Canadian Press Despatch.
Ottawa, March 26.—The branch lines bills will be debated in the House on Tuesday next. Hon. George P. Graham today gave notice to this effect and resolution preparatory to the introduction of twenty-six bills were read, involving twenty-six separate branch lines to be built at a total cost of $28,311,300.

CANADA'S EXPORT TRADE INCREASES

Although Canada Has Import Excess With U. S., Exports Britain Balance Trade.

Canadian Press Despatch.
Ottawa, March 26.—Canada's unfavorable balance of trade with the United States is more than equalled by her favorable balance of trade with the United Kingdom, according to trade figures just made public by the Dominion bureau of statistics.

For the year ended Feb. 28, 1924, Canada's imports from the United States were $603,000,000 and her exports to that country $496,000,000, an excess of imports of $107,000,000. As against this, Canadian exports to the United Kingdom were $355,000,000 and her imports from Britain $155,000,000, a surplus of $200,000,000 on the side of exports.

NICKLE MAY ACT IN BOND SCANDAL

Government Action Concerning Alleged Profit-Sharing Is Expected At Toronto.

Canadian Press Despatch.
Toronto, March 27.—"Government action" concerning the disclosures involving Charles A. Matthews suspended deputy provincial treasurer, is contemplated by the attorney-general, according to information secured at the Parliament Buildings. Mr. Matthews, according to a witness before the public accounts committee, shared in the profit from a transaction in Province of Ontario bonds. He was suspended from office yesterday.

END COMES SUDDENLY ST. MARYS EX-MAYOR

John Willard Was Ill But a Few Hours—Sixty Years a Resident.

Special to The Advertiser.
St. Marys, March 26.—One of St. Marys' oldest residents passed away suddenly tonight in the person of John Willard, Queen street. Although in failing health he was able to be around town this afternoon. He was in his usual good spirits until he died in his sleep at a patient's home in this vicinity, holding the office of mayor at two different periods. He has resided here for the past sixty years, and conducted a paint and decorating business for the past fifty years.

Survivors are the widow, four sons, Frank, Archie and William of St. Marys and Edward of Brampton; three daughters, Mrs. J. Mitchell of Collingwood, Mrs. R. C. Willis of Toronto and Miss Annie at home. One other, William, and one sister, Mrs. R. Sager, both of Galt, also survive. Arrangements for the funeral have not been completed.

TROLLEY WIRE BREAKS, HALTING CAR SERVICE

Conductor Invents Novel Method of Overcoming Handicap, However.

Street car service was held up on Tuesday, March 26, in Richmond, Ottawa, and in London. In London a trolley wire broke on Richmond street near Horton street at 11:15 last night. The two broken ends were fastened together by means of a pulley and rope.

To cross the break the car would gather speed before coming to it, the conductor would lower the trolley pole and the momentum of the car would take it over to the unbroken stretch, where electricity could again be imparted to the motor.

Bird Notes

The time having arrived when the press begins to publish accounts of the arrival of birds, it will be useful to glance over the conditions of the past winter as a preliminary for a study of bird life.

Among the bird population of the London district, as in all other places, there is a certain number of birds that are permanent residents, and are always represented by a fair number of individuals, even though the species as a whole may show migratory tendencies. These species, prominent among which are the Cardinal, Chickadee, Downy and Hairy Woodpeckers, White-Breasted Nuthatch, and Crow, were here during the past winter in the usual numbers, but the latter northern visitors, upon which the local ornithologists depend for excitement in winter, were conspicuously absent. Rarely does a winter pass in which we do not have either of the Crossbills, Pine Grosbeak, Evening Grosbeak, Pine Siskin or the Redpoll as visitors, but the past winter failed to produce a single one of these, as far as any of our city men could observe.

The most probable reason for this lack is an abundance of food in the northern regions where these birds nest, and where they prefer to winter, provided they get enough to eat. Given too low and a temperature too low for them to live in, and they are satisfied to stay where they are, and none of these were seen by bird lovers of the city.

Let us hope they will have a good breeding season in 1924 and descend in hordes next December.

BUY LIPSTICKS AND ROUGE TO HARMONIZE WITH HOSE

Women Don Spring Costumes as Circus and Fine Weather Arrives in New York—Skirts Are Creeping Up Toward Knees.

BOYISH SILHOUETTE IS EMPHASIZED

By AILEEN LAMONT.
Special to The Advertiser.
(Copyright, 1924.)

New York, March 26.—Spring weather, spring costumes and the circus all arrived in New York this week. Each was full of novelty, but it has become more and more apparent that the well-dressed American woman this spring will no more seek the extremes in her own fashions than she will adopt the costume of the bare-back rider.

Conservatism in dress seems destined to rule even in the progressive and radical political circles, especially among the women. And women will take a more active part in the councils of the wardrobe than in any previous presidential year.

This has been indicated already by the remarkable popularity of women's suits, as contrasted with dresses. It does not mean that feminine fashions will follow mannish trends. The so-called "boyish" silhouette emphasizes rather than conceals the feminine figure. But the frivolities of the wardrobe seem likely to be relegated to the background, although the contrasting charm of women will undoubtedly be utilized as effectively as Lady Nancy Astor has shown it could be done in England.

Yearning for Spangles.

Among the younger and non-political elements, however, the first touch of spring weather has uncovered a yearning for the "spangles." This has found expression in combinations of wearing apparel and make-ups. The tint of red hats, for example, is being faithfully duplicated in red lips. Women are buying their lipsticks and rouge to harmonize with their hose also, and as a result the peach blush shade is becoming almost universal for stockings.

While hose, even with white shoes, seems looked for neglect. The time the debutante has spent in Florida this year is carefully represented by the coloring she demands in stockings to match the tan of her shoulders. A novelty is offered by one manufacturer who has added an individual touch to some shades by providing them with heels and reinforcements of a different shade. The importance of stockings as an adjunct to the perfect costume is being accentuated by the continued trend toward shorter skirts. Twelve inches from the ground now seems the level fixed by even the conservative of the Parisian designers.

Gay Underthings.

However, if outer garments are showing a conservative trend the spring colorings run riot among the underthings. Many of the recent models look as if the color box of an artist had been distributed indiscriminately over them. The spring flowers are extensively used both in embroidery and trimmings. The Paris designers have gone a step beyond those of New York, who adopted the ostrich plume trimming for scarves, and are showing styles of feathers in every delicate spring shade. Hats, however, carry few if any of these trimmings. The smaller and closer fitting the hat, although the smarter it appears, the more belief that the cape line will come into its own again when warmer weather makes its appearance.

DINNER IS ARRANGED IN HONOR OF MRS. LANG

The Citizenship Committee Will Entertain Author of "Laws For Women and Children."

The Citizenship Committee of the Local Council of Women has arranged a dinner for tonight at Smallman & Ingram's tea-room in honor of Mrs. W. R. Lang of Toronto, who addressed the Women's Canadian Club this afternoon. Invitations to attend the banquet have been extended to the members of the executive of the Local Council of Women, to the members of the executive of the Women's Canadian Club and to the members of the Citizenship Committee, representing the four wards of the city.

Dinner is to be held at six o'clock and it is expected that Mrs. Lang, who is the author of "Laws for Women and Children," will speak to the assembled women along these lines. Mrs. John Rose, convener of the Citizenship Committee, has arranged an informal program of toasts, which will be a feature of the dinner.

HOLDS SEWING TEA.

Mrs. Charles Austin, York street, lent her home yesterday afternoon for a sewing tea given by the members of Hale Street Mothers' Club. The mothers were busy during the afternoon making garments for the Child Welfare Association and the Children's Shelter, and many articles were completed during the afternoon. Tea was served by the hostess during the afternoon, with Mrs. Richard Sinclair and Mrs. W. H. Shoebottom presiding over the teas. Mrs. Jas. McNeven and Mrs. Max Brahean acted as assistants. The next sewing meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. E. T. Wright, 38 Beattie avenue, April 9th.

The Quacks and Peter Rabbit Are Startled by Farmer Brown's Boy

By THORNTON W. BURGESS.

Peter Rabbit was so interested in listening to the troubles of Mr. and Mrs. Quack, and Mr. and Mrs. Quack were so occupied in telling Peter about their troubles that all three forgot to watch out for possible danger. So it happened that they didn't suspect that anyone else was near squinting right out in the open at the edge of the water, instantly took to their wings and headed out straight for the middle of the Big River. They didn't even stop to see what had frightened them. Peter Rabbit simply squatted down a little closer to the ground under a shelter of brush. Peter was too wise to attempt to run away. To have run would have been to have shown himself. He knew that very likely he had not been seen and that it was safer to freeze, that is, to keep perfectly still, than to run. To run without knowing what he was running from might be to run right straight into danger instead of away from it.

Peter's heart was going thump-thump-thump as he peeped out to see who had snapped that twig. Then his heart stopped thumping. Peter saw Farmer Brown's Boy, and he did not fear Farmer Brown's Boy. He knew that Farmer Brown's Boy was his friend.

But Peter didn't move. He watched to see what Farmer Brown's Boy was about, and as he watched he wished with all his heart that he could tell Farmer Brown's Boy the dreadful story of the Quacks. He would try to do something for them. He would try to help them. I know he would," thought Peter.

But, of course, he couldn't talk to Farmer Brown's Boy, so he kept still and watched. Farmer Brown's Boy walked down to the edge of the Big River and stood looking off after Mr. and Mrs. Quack.

"That was a pair of Mallard Ducks as sure as I live!" exclaimed Farmer Brown's Boy. "I didn't suppose it was time for them yet. They have arrived earlier than I have ever known them to before. If I had suspected that they were here I would have taken care not to snap that twig. It must be that we are going to have an early spring, or they wouldn't be up here yet. I wish I could keep them around here for a while. Perhaps if I put some corn out for them they will stay a while. I'll go straight back home and get some."

He saw Mr. and Mrs. Quack set their wings and drop down on the water out in the middle of the Big River. Then whistling merrily he turned and tramped back toward home. Peter watched him go. "If I

WILL WAIT ON CITY COUNCIL
TONIGHT TO BACK TRUSTEES

Mothers' Clubs and Parents' Associations To Send Large Delegations.

WANT MORE SCHOOLS

Fathers and Mothers To Insist On Better Accommodation For Children.

A delegation of perhaps thirty or more men and women, representing the mothers clubs of the city and the Collegiate Parents Association, will wait on the city council tonight to back the demands of the board of education regarding increased secondary school accommodation. The delegation will be headed by Dr. Frederick Gordon, president of the East London Collegiate Parents Association, Wendell Holmes, president of the South London Collegiate Parents Association, and Mrs. W. A. Tanner, president of the London Mothers Club.

Both the East London and South London Parents Associations have been waging energetic campaigns in favor of further high school accommodation in the city, and at their last executive meeting the Union Mothers Club passed a resolution of confidence in the board of education and the demands which they were about to make concerning the building of further high schools in the city. This resolution came after an address on the subject delivered before the members by Dr. Grant of the school board. Since that time all of the mothers clubs of the city have been discussing the subject at their meetings, and in the majority of cases the members have been favorable toward the attitude of the board of education, and in many instances very strong.

UNDERGOES OPERATION.

Special to The Advertiser.

Paris, March 26.—A short time ago, while working in his bush getting out firewood, Mr. Martin, of Canning, had his big toe badly crushed by a log. Complications set in, and on Tuesday Dr. Duntun of Paris was forced to perform an operation for amputation.

WOMEN and THE HOME

'TIS LEAP YEAR—
BUT WHERE'S DAN?

Friend Cupid Hasn't Been Very Busy Up To Present This Year.

Yes, this happens to be 1924—a number equally divisible by four. From figures obtainable at the city hall, however, it is to be assumed that coy maidens have not seized the opportunity afforded by Leap Year, to leap into the matrimonial offensive and emerge with spoils in the shape of a husband. For the benefit of those who gave vent to their opinion through the recent letters published in The Advertiser, it is announced that weddings during the first three months of this year have not reached the amount of nuptial knots tied during last year.

It may be that there are so many engagements that the young ladies are unwilling to go through life bearing the stigma of "married in Leap Year." Some of their catty friends might too readily seize upon that as the object of a little chit-chat during the coming years, and if that happened to be an excess of chins or a few silver hairs among the gold, one may readily imagine such a conversation as "What does he see in her? But of course you know they were married in Leap Year."

The fact remains that Dan Cupid is showing a little falling off in business this year. As one correspondent said, "It isn't being done."

GUIDES INVITE PUBLIC
TO HEAR MISS WOLTON

Meeting of Provincial Council Opens With Address by Red Cord Guider.

Miss Joyce Wolton, commissioner of Girl Guides for Greater London, England, and Red Cord Diploma'd Guider, arrives in the city about noon tomorrow, to be present at the meeting of the Ontario Council of Girl Guides, which opens in Croydon Hall at 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon.

Miss Wolton, who has been most successfully conducting leaders training schools in Canada since her arrival here, will address the council at 2:30 o'clock, and Mrs. E. B. Smith, Ontario commissioner, and her executive are extending an invitation to all of those interested in Girl Guiding to be present at Croydon Hall to hear this address. It will be followed by a second address from Mr. H. D. Warran, Canadian commissioner for Girl Guides.

The business meeting which will follow these addresses will be concerned chiefly with reports from the various districts. It is expected that the majority of the out-of-town delegates will arrive in the city before noon and will proceed to Croydon Hall, where cars will be in readiness to convey them to The Kennels. Mrs. E. B. Smith will be the hostess of a luncheon to be given in their honor at The Kennels at 12:30 o'clock.

PRESENT COMEDY.

Special to The Advertiser.

Cartwright, March 26.—A pretty comedy, "Much Ado About Betty," in three acts, was presented in Stewart Hall on Friday evening. The entire cast was made up of local talent. Miss Blanche Klinkman took the leading role. Other members of the cast included Clifford Nixon, George Phenister, Edith Radford, Prudence Kerr, Anne McDonald, Florence Egan, C. Egan, E. Egan, Fred Kent, Stewart James, E. Deacon, Miss Bernice Toner, Miss Adalene James, Miss Ella Egan, Hazel Gaud, Harold Radford, Eddie Bryan, Miss Kay Gaud, Jack Charrman.

Dorothy Dix's Letter Box

How Can a Girl Tell When She is Really in Love? The Happy Wife Who Has Suddenly Found Cause for Jealousy—Shall She Inform Her Distant Fiancee That She Has Become a Heavyweight?

Dear Miss Dix—How can a girl tell when she is really in love with a boy? I have thought that I loved two boys, but soon found out that I didn't. Now I think I am in love with another, but I am afraid to marry him, as I might find out that I had been mistaken in my feelings after it was too late. BLUEBIRD.

Answer:

As long as you are suspicious of your love, my dear, you may be very certain that it is not the real, genuine, blown-in-the-bottle kind. When you have a genuine heart attack, you believe, for the time being at least, that your love is the eternal passion, and that the man is the Only One in the world for you.

But you act wisely in distrusting your emotions, and in trying to ascertain whether you have a passing fancy for a man who appeals to you, or are in love for keeps. Most girls are so in love with love that they are ready to fit the garment their romance has fashioned over their youth that happens along, only too often to find out in a little while that they have tired of him, and he isn't within a million miles of being the hero of their girlish dreams.

There is, of course, no infallible test of love, but you might check yourself up on these points, and if you rate a 100 per cent you can safely conclude that you are in love and name the wedding day.

First, do you prefer him to all other men?

Would you rather dance with him, even if he steps all over your feet, than with a jazz hound who dances like an angel? Would you rather look at his homely face than gaze upon the romantic countenance of a sheik? Is going to the movies and having an ice cream soda with him more of a party to you than the theatre and a restaurant supper with another man?

Do you love him best when he is with you, or far away from you?

It is easy to find charms in the absent, but it takes real love to make the society of one who is always with us interesting and full of pep.

Are you unselfish toward him? Would you rather do the things he wants to do, or the things you want to do? Do you feel that you could be happy with him if you had to wear shabby clothes and live in an humble house, and do your own cooking and sewing and washing and scrubbing?

Do you have an impulse to mother him?

Are you worried about his getting his feet wet, and whether he gets the proper food, and do you call him up after he gets home of an evening to be sure he didn't get lost on the way?

Do you help him save his money, or do you try to make him give you a good time? Finally, would you rather spend an evening at home with him than go out to some place of amusement?

If you can answer all of these questions in the affirmative, you are in love. Otherwise not.

DOROTHY DIX.

Dear Miss Dix—I have been married eleven years, and have two children, a girl ten years old, and a darling baby boy nine months old. I have been very happy in my married life until just now. My husband is good to me in nearly every way. He gives me all of his money, he nearly always gets Sunday dinners to give me a rest as we do not employ servants, and he never forgets anniversaries and holidays. But I have found a woman's picture in his coat pocket. He denied all knowledge of it. Said somebody at the office must have put it there for a joke, but that sounds very fishy to me. Should I forget it, or leave him? I want to be sensible and do the right thing, especially for my children. ANXIOUS WIFE.

Answer:

Forget it, sister, forget it. The very first quality that a wife should cultivate is credulity, and if she is wise she wears blinders so that she does not see a lot of little things over which she can make herself very unhappy if she is so minded.

If your husband is, indeed, the paragon that you describe him to be, you might well forgive him for a far worse offense than having a woman's picture in his pocket.

A husband who is good and kind and generous, who is tender and sympathetic, who understands and sympathizes that he gets the Sunday dinner to save you, why, woman, you don't know what luck you are playing in or what a blessing you have, or you wouldn't talk about leaving him, no matter what he does. Me, I'd stick to a man who would get the Sunday dinner if he were a Brigham Young!

Probably your husband tells you the truth about saying that the boys put the picture in his pocket for a joke. At any rate, you may be very sure that as long as he gives you all of his money, and is a good man, and understanding, the gold diggers have small use for men who turn over their pay envelopes to their wives. There is nothing that makes for virtue like the lack of the price for wrong-doing.

You say you want to be sensible. If you do, you will merely laugh over this incident, and you will never mention it to your husband again. You will can your jealousy and cut out any nagging, and keep your home and your children and your husband. To break up your home and orphan your children because you found a woman's picture in your husband's pocket would not only be wicked—it would be idiotic. DOROTHY DIX.

Dear Miss Dix—I am puzzled as to whether or not I should tell the boy to whom I am engaged that I am stout. We haven't seen each other for quite a while and during his absence I have put on a lot of flesh. I am almost afraid to tell him, for a lot of fellows don't like fat girls and he may be one of them. Please tell me what to do. A WORRIED GIRL.

Answer:

As you cannot marry your man, sight unseen, I do not see how you can conceal from him the fact that you have become a heavy-weight, so you had better break the sad news to him by letter.

It is true that very few men love a fat woman in these days when the ideal lady love has a lean and hungry look. So my advice to you is to go on a diet and reduce. There is no excuse, except laziness and self-indulgence, for a girl being fat. Quit eating so much. Count your calories, omit the sweets and starches and the fats from your dietary, and you won't be afraid to meet your sweetheart. DOROTHY DIX.

NICHOLAS WILSON CHAPTER TO GIVE THREE COMEDIES

Miss Topley Thomas is presenting three clever comedies in the auditorium of the medical school on Thursday, April 3, under the auspices of the Nicholas Wilson Chapter, in aid of the educational fund of the chapter. Among them will be Margaret Clark Russell's comedy, "The Ladies' Literary League," recently presented here. The program will be opened by a Freudian comedy in two scenes, entitled "Suppressed Desires," with Mrs. J. A. Campbell, Dr. Logan Towers and Mrs. E. Westland taking part. The final presentation of the evening will be a Merrill Dennison comedy, "Brothers in Arms," in which the cast will include Dr. Logan Towers, Mrs. Richard Crouch, Dr. J. A. Campbell and Harry Dickinson. The cast of Mrs. Russell's play will include Miss Isabel Davidson, Miss Bessie Shaver, Mrs. Gordon Hutchinson, Miss Edna Iverson, Miss Lenora Kirkwood, Miss Ruth Tanner and Miss Margaret Griffiths.

DEATH WAS SUDDEN.

Special to The Advertiser.

Walkerton, March 26.—The very sudden death yesterday morning of the beloved wife of W. A. Burrows, manager of the Bank of Montreal, here, was a great shock to her many friends. Acute indigestion was the cause of death. The body is being removed to Owen Sound this afternoon, where the funeral will take place tomorrow.

Protecting the Attar of Roses.

Much of the attar of roses comes from Bulgaria, and the sophistication of the perfume since the war has given deep concern to the government, which has offered large prizes for a process to discover adulterants.

That "Kruschen" Feeling!

It Puts the Spring in Spring-cleaning!

Who says Spring-cleaning isn't jolly?

It's one of the biggest "larks" in the whole year to those who know how to make it so. Out come buckets and brooms, sleeves are rolled up, and everyone sets to work cheerily to set the house to rights. No one grumbles, no one gets worried or irritable.

That's how you ought to tackle Spring-cleaning, and you can, if you go about it in the right way.

When you have that feeling of not being quite up to the mark, and housework is a long dreary drudge that never seems to be finished—there is something wrong with your health.

That "something" is almost entirely a matter of your internal system. Your liver and kidneys are not working as they should, with the result that poisonous waste matter is collecting in the blood and lowering the tone of the body. You must take steps to put that right—in the Kruschen way.

Every morning, in your breakfast cup of coffee or tea, take as much Kruschen Salts as will lie on a 10 cent piece. You can't taste the tiny dose, but it effectually cleanses your blood and clears your system of the waste material that is depriving you of vigour. Soon you will begin to feel better, more full of life and vitality, fresh and smiling, strong and well from first thing in the morning till late at night.

You owe it to yourself to start the Kruschen habit at once. The sooner you do so, the sooner you will get back that glorious feeling of radiant health—the much-talked-of "Kruschen feeling."

Tasteless in Coffee or Tea

Put as much in your breakfast cup as will lie on a 10 cent piece. It's the little daily dose that does it.

Good Health for Half a Cent a Day

A 75c bottle of Kruschen Salts contains daily use is "as much as will lie on a 10 cent piece"—nearly enough for six months' use!—which means good health for less than half a cent a day. Every drugstore sells Kruschen. Get a 75c bottle to-morrow.

THURSDAY, MARCH 27, 1924.

Support the University.

The proposal to cut the city of London grant to the University of Western Ontario from $55,000 to $25,000 can not be justified even on the plea of economy.

The university is a monument to the efforts of men who have worked and given of their money for years; it is the biggest asset that the city possesses.

London is committed to a course in this matter. It voted its share for the construction of the buildings, and it cannot draw back now in the matter of support. There will be 100 more students there next year, and on that ground alone it brings money to London. It gives London students a chance for an education that runs from the kindergarten through the primary, secondary schools and to the university, an education which many London students now enjoying could not secure in any other way.

When the university takes a student it is committed to furnish a course of instruction running over four years; it cannot cut its teaching staff this year and increase it next.

If London makes the cut, what is to hinder the provincial parliament and the counties from regarding the move as precedent and cause for them to do the same thing?

It is not desirable from any angle to cut $30,000 from the university. London is for it, proud of it, and looks forward expectantly to the time when it will be well housed, equipped, and in its proper place as the equal of any seat of learning in the whole country.

Help or Hindrance

A firm in Montreal, admitting that it is the greatest specializing agency on foreign exchange, is flooding the country with circulars advising the purchase of French government bonds.

France has been making a heroic effort to save its national coin, the franc. It has put up a good fight for it, and the world hopes that it can put the franc back where it should be, and where it will have to be before we can have good business dealings with that country.

With the franc (19 cents) quoted around 5.5 cents, France cannot buy from us with our substantial currency; nor can we do business with France on an even basis and be fair to men who should have decent living wages in our own country.

The Montreal firm urges Canadians to buy 1,000 franc bonds for $47, in the hope that when the franc comes up to a 10-cent standard they can be sold for $100, or, when a complete recovery is made, at $193.

Now all of that is quite legal and within the law, but there is something about the idea that is not wholesome.

France can come back by just one route, viz., hard work and national thrift. As individual people, and collectively as a nation, France will have to do without many things she wants. She will have to cut here and cut there; simplify her tastes, and live in a way that will pinch at times.

Canadians are urged, by way of helping in this struggle for the recovery by France of her currency, to put up $47 now, and after France has mastered the situation to come forward and collect $193.

Of course that may be counted on as shrewd investing, taking a chance, and all the rest of it, but there is a big something that is unworthy of consideration.

Canadians want to help France in this struggle, and it is doubtful if the best way is by putting up $47 for a chance to sit on her neck until she puts up $193 as the price of getting off.

A Negative Decision.

The decision of the private bills committee to disallow the plan followed by London in putting down paving, and allowing the street railway company ten years to pay for its share, holds up nearly all the 1924 paving program of the engineering department.

Work planned for this season included Oxford street east and west, the west end forming a much-needed connection with the Sarnia gravel road, on the highway system. Work on Wharncliffe road has been held up for three years until the street car tracks and paving could be done at the same time. This road is also a link with the Sarnia gravel, and both it and Oxford street west have been in a deplorable condition in recent years.

Dundas street west is another road planned in this year's work; it leads to Wharncliffe and to the Sarnia gravel. Then there are Horton street and Hamilton road, the latter an important artery for traffic from the east and south. In other parts of the city are Central avenue, Edwin street and Askin, although the bylaw for the latter has not been completed.

In all these cases the paving of the street and the relaying of the car tracks was planned to go on together. One tearing up would serve the dual purpose, and that is good, sensible planning.

As things stand today all that program is off, and the council will have to move at once to find the best way out. The action of the private bills committee is purely negative, in that it states that the work cannot be done in the way planned.

One course open would be for the city to sue the street railway for the amounts due; the chances are that a judgment could be secured, but, once secured, the question of arranging for payment would have to be faced, and in the end the city and company would arrive at the point where they now are, of accepting payment in certain given periods.

The Toronto vote did not solve the problem; it simply blocked the one way in which it seemed possible to get the paving and tracking allowance done quickly, and with no added cost to the citizens.

The Bishop's Action.

Bishop Manning has taken action against Dr. Guthrie, who had a Greek interpretative dance in his church on Sunday.

The plea was that six young women dancing in Greek robes was a form of language older than speech.

And the crowds came so thick and fast to be treated to this new form of speech that the police had to be called to thin them out.

Bishop Manning is right when he seeks to use his high office for putting the seal of official disapproval on this Greek prancing in the name of worship.

The Great Head of every Christian church requires simply a humble and a contrite heart.

Legal Blows.

Two Montreal lawyers got into an argument in court. One of them could not make the impression he wanted by the use of mere words, so he doubled up his fist and smote his learned friend hard upon the jaw.

Then constables stepped in and stopped the affair. One lawyer should know better than to smite another on the jaw. It was a deliberate attempt to injure his machinery of production and his method of making a living.

Amend the Thing.

A bill brought before the Ontario Legislature regarding medical and dental inspection of pupils in schools is having a rough passage outside of the legislature, and there are some very good reasons why it should.

The proposed measure provides that the "local board shall provide medical and dental inspection for the pupils in the schools of the board, and render such other services relating to the health and well-being of the pupils as any such regulation may require, and as may be directed by the minister of health."

In other words, the minister of health for the province of Ontario, if he saw fit to do so, is empowered to have an operation, surgical or dental, performed on a school child, without the consent of the parents or guardian of that child.

Strong protests have been lodged by several organizations, and it is right that the protests should be forceful and frequent. The wording of the bill as it stands seems to take it for granted that the parents of the children in the public or separate schools of the province have no right to be consulted before an operation or dental work is undertaken. If such treatment were unsatisfactory, who would be responsible?

If we were living in an age where children had to be protected from their parents, it might be a different matter. As things are in this province, children and their parents are getting along very well.

The consent of the parents or guardian must be secured before any doctor starts giving treatment to a child at school, or attempts to "render any other such services" as the regulations or the minister of health may consider necessary.

Note and Comment.

An editorial in The Advertiser on the loose methods followed in selling bonds by the Province of Ontario was headed "A Lesson For the Pope." Of course it was a mistake to drag in the name of his holiness, but we imagine he would agree, had he read the proceedings at Toronto, with the proper heading "A Lesson For the People."

Tavish Mactavish

CAP AND BELLS.

IN the midst of the general and wholesale slaughter of the innocents in the civil service now in vogue in Ottawa, I suggest that a halt be called long enough to propose the installation of a much needed official at Dominion headquarters—Jester.

Yes, I really mean it. In the medieval times, the dark ages as they are called by certain enlightened historians, every court had its jester and the latitude he was allowed in many ways did a great deal to make the heavy dignity of the court bearable. The jester once in a while to lessen the bleak misery of these times.

To read Hansard is to wonder how on earth the honorable gentlemen partaking in the debates retain their sanity.

I would propose the appointment of a parliamentary jester with suitable uniform. He would be free to make any comment he saw fit on any speech or address, and would be immune by virtue of his office from attack. His comments would, of course, be published in Hansard and future descendants from a too pedantic, heavy father, melodrama fashion of grappling with out national problems.

THE PSYCHOLOGICAL MOMENT.

DO you know how to swat an alligator? How to catch him bending, so to speak, and bring him home on a shutter? Well, this is the way, according to my jovial buccaner. First, arm yourself with a sawed-off shotgun, just as the police in Philadelphia do. When night comes you wade down to the haunts of the amphibian, having already noted in the daytime where it comes out of the water after its evening meal of dusky picanninies, and tropical lizards, and lie in wait for the slaughter.

You must be very careful to get on the opposite side of the river or you will probably be added as a dainty tit-bit to the alligator's supper. When he comes out of the water on the other side and climbs up the bank you let drive at him with the sawed-off. He will probably be blown to bits, and when he bleeds he dies. Now, though all the machine gun fire in the world will do him little harm from the front where it glances off his scales, he is vulnerable when shot at from the rear, and especially when he is climbing out of the river bank, and the scales are not touching.

GOING UP?

PROBABLY the inhabitants of the fashionable west side apartment house in New York were considerably shocked and surprised when the Nubian slave of the elevator reinforced his demand for a tip from one of his passengers with a brace of shot from a twelve-five. The said colored gentleman, one Frank Capel, seriously wounded his passenger and rapped another so smartly on the head with the butt of his gun that he is now in hospital with concussion of the brain.

The method of backing up the demand for a tip may be according to the popular dictum of fashion in the underworld, and may be entirely according to Hoyle, among the associates of the elevator bandit, but the fact that a tip is demanded was nothing to be surprised at.

Waiters are tipped, and they merely do what they are hired to do. Bell hops are tipped, so are taxi cab drivers, and policemen when possible, and provided the tip is large enough, also office boys, and Pullman conductors, and in fact many a man who does no more than he is engaged to do. The fact that they are paid a ridiculously small wage is another matter. Probably the first passenger now in bed with a temperature of 104 objected to creating a precedent. But there is no reason why, if the others are tipped, an elevator sergeant major shouldn't get something. The only objection in this case is that he had an unfortunate way of asking.

About Eatin'

WE went the other night to eat from off a board of goodly ways, we entered in that high-brow scene impressed by lights of blinking rays.

The tools they had for folks to use they bothered me, they bothered Joe, three knives, three forks, three spoons as well, we didn't know which way to go.

But then we got set down and quiet, a waiter, all fussed up and young, she handed us the battin' list all printed in some foreign tongue.

And then I whispered unto Joe to ask him what he's going to eat. I scanned the items thin and stout, he sat there wonderin' all the time just what the things were all about. And then I whispered unto Joe to ask him what he's going to eat. I scanned the items thin and stout, he sat there wonderin' all the time just what the things were all about.

Well, Joe and me we blundered through, then beat a dignified retreat, unto the bean shop up the lane where we knew just the stuff to eat.

So since that day we've had a care, when feedin' from our hard-earned means, to run our boat into a place where pork is pork and beans is beans.—ARK.

Power of An Endless Life

IF THERE be some watcher in the skies to whom a thousand years are but as yesterday when it is past, and to whom the events upon this earth are a swift-moving cinema, what judgment has he formed of the human drama unfolding upon this planet?

The other day the University of Sydney, Australia, sent to the United States Government the skull of a man who, according to the scientists, lived about twenty thousand years ago. The man, whose brain functioned within this skull two hundred centuries ago, thirsted one day and stooped to drink at a brook bank.

There, in some unknown way, sudden death found him. The sand and mud, the silt of years, covered him. In this sediment was iron and lime enough to crust the skull, petrify it, and bring it through the ages until now in perfect condition.

Upon some neighboring star, the soul of this prehistoric man has watched the upward sweep of social life, from the days when cavemen shivered in their fireless caves and were but little better than the animals that prowled about them, to the twentieth century, with its skyscrapers and levitations, what a ripe and tolerant mind must be his.

If, as humanity has stubbornly persisted in believing, the human ego lives on in spiritual integrity after the period of gestation in the body, and if the mental powers of that spirit continue to improve with growth, what a meaning attaches to that phrase, "The power of an endless life!"

For instance, what a strength of will this man must have, how strong and swift his decisions, matured through centuries of practice!

How vivid and complete would be his imagination after these thousands of years of training!

How capacious his memory, containing facts and pictures more luminous than all the libraries of earth!

How strong his affections, having outgrown and surpassed every conceivable form of folly!

We know that what we call goodness and virtue is nothing but the result of the ripe conclusions of experience, and what we call sin or weakness is no more than the folly that comes through ignorance and the child-minded fatuity of inexperience. So then how richly good, as well as how profoundly wise, this two-hundred-century-old man must be!

To him those temptations that loom like monsters in the brief lives of men appear but as negligible insects of a summer's day.

In fact, we have only to project any human life twenty thousand years and, by the orderly development of its inherent nature, we see it approach Divinity.

How friendly, how powerful, how sublimely beautiful are all those souls that have left this planet through the doors of death to populate the stars.

Why should we shrink from joining that company whose vast experience has reached disgust with the last temptation, whose souls, ripening has brought them to the sweetness of perfect understanding, and the increase of whose knowledge has pushed them up to the comprehension of the Maker of the spheres?

For the path from man to angel is hardly longer than the road from this Australian cave-man to Shakespeare.

Richmond Street Work.

Merchant Shows That Business Used To Go Away From That Street On Account of Pavement.

Editor of The Advertiser.

Sir—I do not think it would be fair to have any step taken to hold members of the 1923 council liable for the paving that was completed on Richmond street. The one thing we were most concerned about was that the paving should be done and well done, and the whole thing cleaned up at one time.

It has been better for the business-men on that street since the work was completed, and we begin to feel it now that the season is here for driving cars again. Previously nearly all the traffic downtown went by way of Fair street or Waterloo, and we never had a chance to get any business from people who were driving. Now we are getting our share of it.

We are quite satisfied that the work was well done, although at the time some of us complained about the way in which traffic was held up. We believe we got a good run for our money, and we now have the best piece of street car track and the best piece of paving there is in the city, and that is exactly what we wanted.

It was one of the best things the 1923 city council did, and it is poor recognition now to go back on the bargain they made with the street railway.

Manor and Highland Park Residents Want Their Position Placed in Right Light.

Sir—I wish to submit a correction concerning an article which appeared in the evening edition of your paper on Monday, March 24, concerning the death of one John Howell in Victoria Hospital on March 22.

Mr. Howell did not die from pneumonia, as stated. No doubt the information derived by your reporter is excusably erroneous, but from the account it would appear that the man was "living in a shack in Manor Park, and neglected."

Mr. Howell's death was due to ptomaine poisoning caused by eating tainted meat. He was not suffering from the cold, as stated, as there was cold in the house and in a shed immediately adjacent to the house where there were three tons of chestpening of two years ago, when a plan fomented by two residents resulted in the robbing of the bank at Mel-bourne, and the killing of a man. Ever since, it appears to us that any incident that crops up is made to appear in the worst light possible.

Three weeks ago the county police raided a house in Manor Park, where a booze party was in progress, and arrested seven participants. Five of those arrested were from the city, but of course that information did not appear in the press. But the resultant notoriety was unpleasant and detrimental to the best interests of the district.

I regret very much that we have one or two families of undesirables in Manor Park. They are continually getting into trouble, and bringing the district into the limelight. We are powerless to put a stop to these unsavory incidents, unless we organize a band of vigilantes and run them out, which has already been proposed and may be carried into effect if these incidents do not cease. The district of Manor and Highland Park is populated by honest, hard-working people with one or two exceptions.

I trust you will give this letter due publicity, and correct a false impression which has gone abroad. Sincerely, HYLAND PARK.

The Third Verse.

Addition to Burns' Famous Poem Was Written By Former Canadian School Teacher.

Editor of The Advertiser.

Sir—The following lines by Robert Burns, familiar to all readers of his works, and an additional verse which I believe was never published will, I think, be welcomed by your readers when they know that the author was Mr. Robert Matheson, a well-known journalist and educator, having taught high schools in Milton, Napanee and in other parts of Ontario, but who for some time previous to his death resided in Chicago, contributing articles to the press of that city as well as to the New Church Messenger.

"John Anderson, my Jo, John,
When we were first acquaint,
Your locks were like the raven,
Your bonny brow was bent,
But now your brow is bald, John,
Your locks are like the snow;
But blessings on your frosty pow,
John Anderson, my Jo."

"John Anderson, my Jo, John,
We clamb the hill together;
And mony a canty day, John,
We've had wi' anither,
Now we mairn totter down, John,
But hand in hand we'll go;
And sleep together at the foot,
John Anderson, my Jo."

John Anderson, my Jo, John,
We'll rise again in bliss,
And in the paradise o' God
I'll greet ye wi' a kiss,
There in the bloom o' youth, John,
Mid love's undying glow,
Forever and a day we'll bide,
John Anderson, my Jo,

SULPHUR CLEARS FIERY, ITCHY SKIN

The First Application Makes Skin
Cool and Comfortable.

If you are suffering from eczema or some other torturing, embarrassing, skin trouble you may quickly be rid of it by using Menthosulphur, declares a noted skin specialist.

This sulphur preparation, because of its germ-destroying properties, seldom fails to quickly subdue itching, even of very eczema. The first application makes the skin cool and comfortable. Rash and blotches are healed right up. Rowles Menthosulphur is applied like any pleasant cold cream, and is perfectly harmless. You can obtain a small jar from any good druggist.—Advt.

Owen Sound Juniors Romp Away From Calgary In Opening Final

GREY SIX VICTORIOUS 5 TO 3 AT WINNIPEG

Owen Sound Kids Favored To Bring Memorial Cup
Back East.

MAKE CHANCES COUNT

Count Three Times On Rebounds Off Calgary
Goalie's Pads.

Canadian Press Despatch.
Winnipeg, March 26.—The Owen Sound Greys, eastern junior hockey champions, took a two-goal lead here tonight in the first of the two-game series for the Canadian championship against the Calgary Canadians. The score was 5 to 3. The second game will be played here Friday, and Owen Sound are strong favorites to take the O. H. A. Memorial trophy back to the east.

The winners got every break to get the edge, but they played a wonderful defensive contest and seldom passed up an opportunity to tally, three of their five scores coming from rebounds off the Calgary goal tender's pads. The first period ended one to nothing for Owen Sound and they had a 3 to 2 lead at the end of the second period. Calgary tied the score early in the final period, but the Greys fought back and rewarded by two goals.

Though the teams fought hard all the way and uncovered a lot of neat hockey, the play was not nearly as fast or as sensational as in the semifinals. The Owen Sound team won through their better finishing powers, as they were on the defensive for the greater part of the battle, and Smith, in goal—a 16-year-old lad—distinguished himself, particularly in the second period, when, nearly single-handed, he turned back the warm Calgary attack. Just when the westerners seemed to be the most dangerous was the time that the Greys broke away for their scores, generally starting the attack from their own goal and working in on the Calgary net.

The summary:
First period—1, Owen Sound, Keeling, 16:05.

Second period—2, Calgary, Lewis, 1:22; 3, Calgary, Lewis, 5:38; Owen Sound, Elliott, 1:22; 5, Owen Sound, Keeling, 1:43.

Third period—6, Calgary, Ripley, 8:35; 7, Owen Sound, Welland, 2:30; 8, Owen Sound, Welland, 5:37.

Final score: Owen Sound 5, Calgary 3.

The line-ups:
Owen Sound: Goal—Gleason; Defense—Graham, Elliott, Keeling, Ripley; Wing—Elliott, Keeling; Sub—Watson.

Plan Another Holiday.

Owen Sound, March 26.—A crowd of 4,000 people cheered themselves hoarse here tonight when the final score was flashed through from Winnipeg and showed the Greys victorious. The late hour saw most of the fans go home, but some remained to celebrate further. Throughout the entire game the crowd stood on the sloping footings to see how their favorites were faring.

TENNIS IS ORGANIZED BY TILLSONBURG CLUB

Special To The Advertiser.
Tillsonburg, March 26.—The annual meeting of the Tillsonburg Tennis Club was held in the council chamber last night, drawing good attendance. Much enthusiasm was displayed and it was decided to go in for this sport on a stronger scale than ever for this season. The new officers are as follows: President, W. S. McDonald; secretary, Walter Gibson; treasurer, C. E. Parlon; committee, R. Weeks (chairman), Harold Livingstone and Scott.

TITLE SERIES DRAW MADE

First Hussars Meet Latter Day
Saints Friday.

Friday Night.

First Hussars vs. Latter Day Saints.

Saturday Afternoon.

Winner vs. Perrins.

Monday Night.

McClary vs. winner.

The above draw made last night lines up the city championships series for the A. A. C. C. The series promises some real hockey and isn't by any means a sure thing for Perrins, who have the call.

First Hussars will be a mixture of Civil service and C. R. G. It is a cavalryman, and so are Watts, Stephens, Cooney, Lightfoot, Evans, Craig and Black. Latter Day Saints will be a mixture of C. R. G. and C. R. G. It is a cavalryman, and so are Watts, Stephens, Cooney, Lightfoot, Evans, Craig and Black.

The Bankers were let out of the series when Perrins won last night in the Manufacturers, as they lost Robson, and Reuter is already on the McClary team.

DANNY'S PLAYMATES ARE ALL SUNFLOWERS

McPhee Unabashed by Having
To Look Up To Other
Brooklyn Hurlers.

Clearwater, Fla., March 26.—The Brooklyn Dodger pitching staff was recruited, as every big league crew is, from the local amateur ranks. Uncle Robbie, rotund leader of the outfit, seems to have found them where they grow unusually tall. Most of his fingers look down on six-footers as little fellows.

Harry Shriver, for instance, stands a modest six foot four inches. Paul Schuler, on the other hand, due to a slight stoop he acquired looking for additions to his pitching repertoire, is a Dazzy Vance in six feet one, but doesn't crouch about it when he's near Shriver. Young Nelson Green goes a fraction over six feet.

Alongside these skyscrapers little Danny McPhee, from St. Thomas, Ont., looks quite tiny, although he boasts of about five feet eight inches altitude. But that doesn't worry Danny.

"Up where I came from I pitched against a lot of big fellows. When they were big I whittled 'em down to my size," he confided.

Having got out of that remark he ducked half a dozen gloves and a few bats and then came back to tell a bit more about himself.

McPhee hails from the town that John Gladstone Craney, the greatest water baseball ever knew, made famous. Daniel pitched for the St. Thomas team in the Ontario Baseball Association circuit, composed of the strongest amateur teams in the Dominion. McPhee's team finished second in the league scramble last season. Danny looked the title in a 14-inning battle with Galt.

"And the play that won the game for Galt was one for the books," says Dan.

"The last man up in the 14th smacked one for a double and tried to stretch it to three bases. The fielder hit him on the head with the ball and he dropped to the ground and acted as though he were unconscious. Then when he heard the crowd yelling that the ball had bounded into the stands, he got up and ran like blazes for home. And he got away with it. Look that one over."

McPhee has a lot of smoke for a little fellow, and of that remark he ducked half a dozen gloves and a few bats and then came back to tell a bit more about himself.

ARTICLES SIGNED FOR JULY 4 BOUT

Carpentier To Receive $70,000
For Clash With Tommy Gibbons.

Associated Press Despatch.
Chicago, March 26.—Tommy Gibbons, St. Paul, challenger for the world's heavyweight championship, and Georges Carpentier, French light heavyweight, will meet July 4, either at Michigan City, Ind., or Benton Harbor, Mich., according to articles signed here yesterday.

Floyd Fitzsimmons, representing promoters of the bout, posted $10,000 as assurance that it will be staged. Jack Curley, Carpentier's United States representative, posted $5,000, and Eddie Kane, manager of Gibbons, put up a like amount. The conditions stipulate that Carpentier shall receive $70,000, with a privilege of 25 per cent of the receipts. He has been advanced $5,000 for training expenses. Gibbons will receive 30 per cent of the gross receipts and $5,000 for training.

ST. MARY'S CHAMPIONS RECEIVE LEAGUE TROPHY

Verdun Team Presented With
Inter-Church Hockey
Loop Cup.

Special To The Advertiser.
St. Mary's, March 26.—On Tuesday evening in the Methodist Sunday School hall the inter-church hockey season officially closed with the tendering to the hockey teams of the various churches a banquet by the Civil service and C. R. G. About seventy-five young men, besides the young ladies of the ladies' hockey clubs were present.

Chairman E. J. Harrison commented on the necessity of encouraging good clean sport, and in connection with this, expressed the hope that the older members of the various churches would back up the boys better than in the past.

The ministerial association was represented by Rev. Charles Waddell, in his address, particularly hoped that baseball would be given a more prominent place in inter-church sports.

H. Bartlett and Walter May presented the cup, emblematic of the inter-church championship, to the Verdun I team, Milton Dunnell, captain of the team, replying suitably on their behalf.

In the name of the executive, Walter May then paid a tribute to the boys for the manner in which they played all their games this winter.

The election of officers was then held, the present executive under President George Thompson being re-elected. D. R. Oliver was elected secretary, as former Secretary Cecil Wyde has gone to Detroit. On April 3 a meeting of the executives of the various churches will meet the inter-church executive to discuss lacrosse, basketball, softball and football.

Votes of thanks and appreciation for their splendid co-operation work during the hockey season were tendered to President George Thompson, Referee Ray Tuer and to the McConnell Club girls.

Canadians' Star Forward Badly
Battered in Last Clash With Calgary.

Montreal, March 26.—With Hovis Mowatt, forward of the world's champion Canadian hockey team in the hospital as a result of being battered in the final at Ottawa last night, the Canadiens' chances of winning the highest honors in the game were somewhat subdued today.

Manager Leo Dandurand said: "Canadians showed their courage under fire. Of course, I am delighted to win the world's title, but this is tempered by misregret that Mowatt should be so severely injured that he may be out of hockey for all time."

RUNNERS-UP FOR TROPHY.

New Senior O. H. A. Group Now Appears Possibility

As an offset to the rumor of semi-pro hockey for Western Ontario cities comes another of a brand new senior group which would include one Toronto team and Hamilton Tigers of the old senior ranks. Stratford and Galt of the former "Big Four," and Preston a possibility, and, as brand new centers for senior hockey, Niagara Falls and London.

Last year's shake-up in senior ranks produced as much interest as expected in the Big Four but in Toronto and Hamilton the senior game did not fare any too well. Both these places would welcome the introduction of new teams to create interest in the amateurs. The Big Four teams pretty well measured up to senior calibre, as they proved.

The possibilities of a league like this can readily be realized. Tigers won their group and the senior O. H. A. honors in the season just finished; Niagara Falls won the intermediate championship of Canada. Preston were runners-up in group 2.

The two local senior baseball camps are still doing their training beside the stove. Very little has leaked out from either as to probable rosters or material on hand. The situation gives any baseball talent newly arrived in the city a real chance to get uncovered.

SHAG IS MELLOWING.
Frank Shaughnessy's Syracuse squad is getting some attention this year in International League predictions. The O'Shaughnessy disposition is becoming less fiery, and, according to reports, the Irishman is achieving something like popularity from a squad which is willing to work from dawn to dusk. A little of this in the Shaughnessy system wouldn't do any harm.

Shag's well-remembered stance, legs apart and arms akimbo, was both expressive and impressive. But it must have been devastating to some of the varied temperaments that go to make a baseball team.

OUR BOARDING HOUSE

GENERAL SUPPORT GIVEN MINT CLUB

Young Lady Fan Voluntarily
Sends in Substantial
Sum.

By FORD RUTHER.
One of the interesting facts brought to light in connection with the stock subscription campaign now being carried out by the London Tecumseh Baseball Association, with the co-operation of the various clubs of the city, was the discovery made by General Chairman Neil Stryker that he had received an application for a substantial block of stock from a young lady employed in the office of one of the city's well-known manufacturing concerns. In the list of prospective backers prepared before the campaign started, there was none of the gentler sex included and this subscription has evidently come forward voluntarily.

So far as can be ascertained the young lady referred to is the only one who has so far interested herself financially in London's baseball team, and she is going to be honored at the meeting of the shareholders unless she has a few more of her sex present to keep her company. Better think it over, girls, a share of stock at $25 with the office spreads over a period of five months is not a very heavy financial burden, and the men behind baseball in this city will be only too glad to have your views and suggestions regarding the management of the organization.

The canvassers are plugging along this week doing their work in a quiet but effective manner, and they all report meeting with the same courteous reception as was evident last week, where sufficient enthusiasm was displayed to warrant the continuance of baseball here. In the list of applications for stock received and recorded at club headquarters up to Friday the following are included:

John S. Moore, W. F. D. Jarvis, Sir Adam Beck, N. Gorman, C. S. Hyman, C. Spittal, E. Nichols, James Gray, Ray Lawson, Smallman & Ingram, A. Talbot, Col. Garthshore, J. W. Young, T. H. Yull, E. R. ESSEX THIRD FORM TEAM WINS FIRST OF FINAL SERIES

Essex, March 26.—Tonight the pupils of the third form were given the surprise of their lives when they were nearly defeated in the first of the final series. The score was 36-29. The third form team proceeded to have the bulk of basketball material, and went into the game favorites against the lowly first form team, and up until the last period were playing their feet by the youngsters. Going into the last period on the short end of the score, the third form began to show signs of life, and started the clever comeback, having placed them so far up in the race. While their opponents were just beginners, they played a fast game until the final session, when the pace began to tell, and the experience of the older players was put to its best use.

Double Crosses
Manager To Wed

Associated Press Despatch.
Chicago, March 26.—Ed. (Strangler) Lewis, world's heavyweight wrestling champion, was married here last night to Miss Jessie McNear of Kansas City, Mo. Billy Sandow, Lewis' manager, to whom the champion is under contract not to marry while champion, was kept locked in a hotel room by Lewis' friends until after the ceremony.

After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Lewis returned to their home, leaving a trail of shoes and grinning broadly. Sandow, who had been threatening to break down the door of his room, was not released as they freed.

"It's the first time Ed. ever double-crossed me," he shouted angrily, as he emerged from his room where his friends had held him.

In one of the most exciting fixtures ever witnessed at the "Y," Asklin Elks last night nosed First Methodist out of the tie for first place in the Church League by the score of 32-14. On the same bill St. Andrews' Mic Maes romped away from Latter Day Saints, 42-6, and Cronyn Memorial handed their All Saints' brothers, 23-21 defeat.

In the first set-to Cronyn started off with a bang, and before the Saints could get a hand on the ball, had run a comfortable lead. The Hamilton road boys, however, soon started to show their usual fast play and looked well on the way to have the Cronynites in the lurch. But Harold Pierce saved the game about a minute before the final whistle, giving Cronyn their first victory of the season.

A real honest-to-goodness game of burlesque basketball was produced in the second set, when St. Andrews met the L.D.S. crew on a one-sided affair which kept the fans in an uproar. Lawrence was the scoring ace for the Mic-Macs, while March secured the Saints' counters on three long shots.

The last mix proved to be the main event of the evening, when the Elks met First Methodist. The south-enders, with their snappy teamwork, held their rivals spell-bound during the whole affair, and when they did get away they were playing basketball and not doing slow motion stunts for the movies, the timekeeper's whistle at the end of the mangle brought them to the floor with a start, but alas, it was too late. Frank Shaw and Fairless were the stars for the Elks, while Young and McTavish tried hard for the losers.

The teams:
Cronyn—Clift, Johnston, Pierce, Talbot and Ardell.
All Saints—Genereaux, Hogg, Simms, Boyle, Blay and Scott.
L. D. S.—March, Yorke, Raymer, Holston and Alford.

St. Andrews—Lawrence, Wilson, Newell, Westman, Toll, Casselman and McConvery.
Elks—Balkwell, Shaw, Fairless, Milligan, Loveless and Warner.
First Methodist—McTavish, Young, Aikenhead, Fliske, Stevens, Kennedy and McTavish.
Referee—Balkwell.

MACHINE-LIKE PRECISION BEAT CALGARY TIGERS

Clever Inside Hockey Wins
World's Title For Montreal Canadiens.

Canadian Press Despatch.
Ottawa, March 26.—"Canadians are kings of the hockey universe," declares the Journal of Hockey, commenting on the last night's Stanley Cup final, when Calgary Tigers were defeated by 3 to 0.

Canadians earned their victory by as clever a display of inside hockey as Ottawa has seen in many months. As a contest, it was one of the finest seen in hockey, with the best of speed, skating, well-conceived rushes and wonderful defense play on both sides.

From start to finish the pace was cyclonic, and the Calgary team carried Canucks along at a furious clip, storming their nets with combined and rushing the Calgary net, the Canadian sharpshooters seldom went in on the Calgary defense singly until the game was safely sailed away.

"It was a case of a great team taking advantage of every situation against a good team showing clever combination in center ice only."

Western fans, who have been so loyal to the prize champions, need not be ashamed of their hockey team," comments the Citizen sport writer.

"The yellow and black went under, but they fought every inch of the way, and were beaten by a team that worked with machine-like precision and showed no weak spots. Veziin displaying his characteristic coolness in the nets, felled many well-intended attacks of the Calgary sharpshooters. Only on rare occasions did the yellow and black puck-chasers get in close, but even then he handled their offerings as easily as he did the long shots.

"Calgary had just as much of the play up to the third period, but they were weak when it came to the decisive net-relying most on one man, the puck carrier, and one man had little chance of beating the superb defense. The Calgary defense, the Canadian sharpshooters seldom went in on the Calgary defense singly until the game was safely sailed away."

Perrins Win Manufacturers' Championship, Ousting C.N.R. Sextet

ONE COUNTER GIVES PERRIN TEAM TITLE

C. N. R. Loses Deciding Manufacturers' League Engagement 4 to 3.

Work of Losers' Net-Minder Keeps Winners' Count Low.

D. S. Perrins won the Manufacturers' League title last night by defeating C. N. R. 4-3. A record crowd of 1,000 fans, packed the rink with the loudest section the arena has yet heard as the two teams battled through three periods of breath-catching hockey. It was 2-2 at the end of the second, and everything came down to a four-minute overtime, when McGeoch, trying to scrape out a four-foot rebound from Hynd's pads, sent the puck flying into his own net instead.

The Dough-Mixers rose to the situation, while C. N. R.'s failed entirely to realize it. Before the better checking, C. N. R.'s realized that a defensive game was their proper caper, and while they still more foolishly elected to lay the wood and the poundage on harder, two neat combination plays of Perrins at seven and ten minutes gave C. N. R. players in the penalty box a chance to see their one-goal lead and chances of the title go glimmering.

Plenty of Thrills.

It wasn't as good as the second game of the play-offs as a contest, but it was full of thrills from going to going. Perrins had the edge in speed and combination and would have counted a larger score, had not Smith pulled off some neat saves in the C.N.R. nets. Time after time the Perrin combination was good enough to make the C.N.R. defence look glued, but Smith got in the way of the short range stuff.

In the last part of the second and the third, Perrins walked right in on him, but couldn't lift the puck before he blocked with fists. Hynd gave a great exhibition as well, but he had better protection, and though he picked off plenty of hard drives, it was on the sneaky shots which C. N. R.'s close checking forwards passed. Perrins' defence was shaky, and he had some shivery moments, and C. N. R.'s first two counters.

The C. N. R. team gave a good account of themselves, checking Perrins' speed down mostly to their own gain. Doolittle and Hindmarsh on the defence both rushed well and Burgess, Gilles, Moore and Pring individually kept right on with Perrins, but the Perrin attempts at getaways.

Both teams missed plenty of scoring chances, but Perrins were robbed of more when they were robbed of goals. Somers and Robson spent down through everything on clever rushes, but C.N.R. defence looked again these individual sorties. It was again the three-man breakaways that Monahan, Barrett, McGeoch and Wilcox worked in with that C.N.R.'s looked bad and were baffled.

Penalties Many.

From the first period on the penalty box was tenanted with seldom less than a pair at a time, and the procession both ways was so steady that the timekeepers did not trouble. The first period was a race from end to end. McGeoch scored the first goal at seven minutes in a scramble during which Smith was drawn to one side. Monahan added variety at 14 minutes by trying to cross in front of his own goal. Moore poked-checked the puck away from him and in all the same motion against the blade of Burgess' stick, and Johnny counted.

Doolittle had a good-looking chance, but was called back off-side, and then Robson flashed a shot, but making two tries down and on the third, after shooting, circling and waiting, got a pass out to the corner, beat Smith with a trick shot. The second was full of going and gong, and getting bumpy. Referee Sandcock drew the disapproval of the crowd on several called offences, but he missed few of the bumps. Both Doolittle and Somers were off, the former returning just in time at nine minutes to race down with a C. N. R. attack and as the long rebound came off Burgess, evened up the score with a flip shot. Smith made two sensational stops on shots from Barrett, and close in duty off Perrins' rally, topped off just as the bell rang, when Barrett again on a pass from Somers, drove hard for goal, the puck rolling across the top of the net and behind.

Checking Heavy. The third started like the rest, ding-dong and a more profuse display of hooks, eyebrow swishes and heavy body checks. Three minutes after McGeoch had put Perrins behind with his unfortunate attempt to clear, Somers scored on a pass from Robson. Hindmarsh drew five minutes for becoming conversational with Sandcock, and was in no mood for it by this time, and Gilles also drew a penalty for renewing his feud with McGeoch.

McGeoch followed also, and later, Barrett and Monahan bore down on the scattered C. N. R.'s, the former beating Smith neatly with the winning tally. Pring drew a penalty for throwing his stick just before Hindmarsh returned. Burgess almost pushed the puck in as shot and Hynd lost the clearance. Pring went out of the game for good for hitting Barrett who convinced the referee he was badly hurt and then made a remarkably rapid recovery. The end of the game, Doolittle and Moore gave the fans a last thrill as they narrowly missed scoring.

With the Horses

Mr. George Walsh, veteran driver, now of Hamilton, well known to Londoners, recently disposed of his good young pacer, Tarzan Grattan, by Grattan Royal, for a reported consideration of $4,500. Mr. Walsh gave several good exhibitions with this wonderful youngster last season, and he will be heard from with interest on the good circles this summer.

GENTRY H. GOING GOOD.

Gentry H., owned by Mr. B. Moulton of Tillsonburg, is reported as going sound again, and looking as if he has been well wintered. Ben has him entered in the big Kalamazoo stake at Kalamazoo, Mich. Look out for Gentry.

NEW TRACK RECORD.

W. Daniels' 2-year-old, Master Charlie, lowered the record for 4 1/2 furlongs by 1-5 of a second in the Tijuana Futurity on Sunday, covering the distance in 53-1-5 seconds, when he disposed of Mr. A. P. Pigeon, Nutenough and Bearshot. The purse brought Master Charlie $9,370 as his share of the winnings.

SIR GALLAHAD III. WINS LINCOLNSHIRE CLASSIC

Jockey O'Neil Rides Favorite to Victory in First Big Race.

Associated Press Despatch. Lincoln, England, March 26.—Sir Gallahad III, by Teddy out of Plucky Liege, owned by Capt. Cohn, won the Lincolnshire handicap of £1,000 with axis, the first big race of the flat racing season, run here today. Jockey O'Neil rode Sir Gallahad. S. Joff's Evander, was second and S. McAnley's Grave Fairy third. Twenty-seven horses ran.

Sir Gallahad III, the favorite, was trained in France. He won by three lengths. The two lengths between Evander and Grave Fairy. The betting was Sir Gallahad 9-2; Evander 100-7, and Grave Fairy 40-1 against.

BET MONTHS AGO.

Associated Press Despatch. Lincoln, England, March 26.—The victory of Sir Gallahad III, in the Lincolnshire Handicap, was received with great elation in Parisian racing circles. This elation will be increased tonight, when the Channel large sums of sterling won by the French public, which he heavily on Jefferson Davis.

Some of the Parisians bet on the French entrant months ago in the future books, getting various prices, such as 40, 50, and 20 to 1.

Fans Are Evenly Divided On Allan Cup Outcome

Greyhounds Strong Favorites Until Senior Champions of West Cut Loose in Toronto Arena Yesterday.

Canadian Press Despatch. Toronto, March 26.—Will it be the Soo Greyhounds or Selkirk? Scidmore have the fans been so evenly divided on the eve of the Allan Cup finals as they are here tonight. The "Hounds" were strong favorites until the westerners cut loose in a practice at the arena today. Now it's even money and it looks as if Selkirk would win out, they have it tomorrow night. Yesterday it was 50 to 20 for the Greyhounds.

Sault Ste. Marie players and hundreds of local fans got the surprise of their lives when the Selkirk team worked out. These boys showed speed, stick-handling ability and team play. The defence men checked well, even in a light practice and the forwards raced all over the large ice surface playing brilliantly. Some of the Greyhounds were heard to remark that they would not be surprised if the Selkirk team were to win the Allan Cup.

"Scotty" Comfort, the Selkirk goalkeeper, kept the money tight, but he was the same player who gave such a sterling exhibition against Stratford when the Winnipeg Falcons lifted the Memorial Cup in 1921. The records show that few goals have been scored against Selkirk this season.

The Soo players also practiced today and they were traveling better than they did at Ottawa. The Greyhounds admit they were puzzled by the attacking tactics used by the "Hounds" and attribute their falldown to the fact that they had never played before on a rink with round corners. They are under the impression that had the games been played here they would have given the Quebec champions two sound drubbings.

The most pleasing part about the Soo workout was the good showing made by "Stan" Brown. The speed merchant states that he is ready to go the route and the Soo officials are hoping his confidence is justified. Brown has always starred in previous games against the best teams the West produced, and Winnipeg fans or Fishermen are more formidable than Hamilton Tigers. They expect to compete against the strongest team they have met since they left the canal town in quest of the Allan Cup.

The probable lineup: Soo—Walsh, goal; Donnelly and Brown, defence; Phillips, center; McArthur and Lessard, wings; Cain and Cook, subs. Selkirk—Comfort, goal; Spiers and Borland, defence; Bernard, center; O'Meara and Hughes, wings; Brown, sub. Referee—Mike Rodden. Judge of play—Fred "Steamer" Maxwell.

NEW YORK GIANTS WIN ONE AT LAST

Chief Heydler Sees the Braves Tounce Brooklyn to the Tune of 11 to 2.

Associated Press Despatch. New York, March 26.—The New York Giants emerged from their losing streak of four straight games to win from Toledo, the American Association, at the latter's camp at Gainesville, Fla., yesterday. President John Heydler of the National League saw Brooklyn at Clearwater, Fla., lose its second, lustrous game in two days, this time to the Braves, 11-3. The Yankee regulars beat the Rockies 6-3 in a full game.

The Giants hit solidly for sixteen safeties, of which O'Connell, Young, Meusel, Wilson, Terry and Snyder made two each.

Henry pitched well for the Robins, who made a ball game. Schreiber entered the box in the seventh, after which Boston scored nine runs in two innings on seven hits and five errors.

Clash With Washington. Today's games find the Giants clashing with Washington at Tampa, Fla., and Brooklyn meeting the Cardinals at Clearwater, Fla.

Manager Fohl of the Boston Americans sent his team through a routine drill at the San Antonio, Texas, camp, despatches say. He has cancelled Thursday's game with the local Texas League team, as he is satisfied, according to reports, that the team has progressed so far that attention can be given to details rather than to competition. A game with the Bears is on the schedule tomorrow.

The Detroit Americans meet the Toronto Internationals at Greensboro, N. C., today in the fourth exhibition game with the Leafs. Detroit has won the previous contests, taking yesterday's game 6-0. George Sisler, manager of the St. Louis Americans, not content with being a "comeback" alone, topped all Brownie players at bat in a practice game at Mobile yesterday, when three safeties, out of four attempts, McManus, Robertson, Williams and Mizeur brought in a home run each.

Coveleskie Shows 'Em. That Stanley Coveleskie, veteran Cleveland pitcher, has regained his form yesterday, when he held the Philadelphia Nationals to two hits, one a scratch, in five innings. Left Fielder Jamieson and Pitcher James Sullivan are suffering from sore arms.

The Chicago Americans and the St. Louis Nationals played a 7-9 inning tie at Winterhaven, Fla., yesterday, darkness preventing a decision. Mike Cveleskie, making his season's debut in the box for the White Sox, was hit five times in three innings, and Weiser in three innings allowed six safeties. Haines and Dyer, Cardinal hurlers, were good for four hits apiece. Chicago tied the score in the sixth frame.

Reds Rookieless. Bad weather and the death of Pat Moran have set the Cincinnati Reds car back in their training grind. Hank Hendricks, though less than two weeks at the helm, is rallying his forces rapidly for the 1924 campaign.

As Hendricks himself sums up his situation and prospects, the Reds have a rookieless camp, the only one in existence. The owners and Moran gambled on added pitching strength, hence they stood pat on the 1923 regulars and simply bought three pitching stars to add to the quartet they already possessed.

Of the three hurling newcomers, Hendricks banks heavily upon Tom Sheehan, St. Paul acquisition. Jake May, Southpaw obtained from the All over the Cardinals, has shown a lot of stuff, while Carl Mays, veteran underhand pitcher bought from the Yankees, has displayed old time form in exhibition games. The veterans, Pete Donohue, Ephra Rixey, Adolfo Luque and Rube Benton, appear fit for a driving campaign.

CENTRAL C.I., THISTLES TAKE CAGE TROPHIES

Two Girls' Fives Receive Cameron Wilson and E. S. Little Cups.

SECOND GAME FAST

London Life Quintet Finds Going Difficult Against Tricky Opposition.

Thistles and Central C. I. girls last night won the E. S. Little and Cameron Wilson trophies, respectively, when they emerged victorious in games in the local ladies' basketball league at the Central C. I. gym. In the opening game First Methodist girls lost to C. I. 8 to 2, and in the final encounter Thistles defeated London Life, 22 to 7.

Both cups were presented by James Gray. The Cameron Wilson Trophy was received by E. A. Miller, principal of the college, and then handed over to Marion Hayden, captain of the team. The E. S. Little Cup was received by Rena Curnoe, captain of the Thistles.

In the first period of the initial tilt the First Methodist girls felt behind the last-going C. I. five, 8 to 0, but in the final frame tightened up and allowed only one basket to be scored against them, and added 10 points in the last five minutes of play. The last minute of play found First Methodist broke away at the end of one of these combining plays for the Methodist only score, getting the nearest counter of the game on a shot from the side with one of those hesitating tries that made the crowd hold its breath.

Line-ups: First Methodist—Guards, M. Riley, E. Petherborough; center, I. Mortimer; forwards, M. Mortimer, P. Bock, D. Langford, M. Winters. L. C. I.—Guards, M. Johnson, L. McCormick.

Central C. I.—Guards, H. Trick, J. Rose; center, B. Dickinson; forwards, M. Hayden, D. Thorne; subs: P. Bock, D. Langford, M. Winters. New York Nationals 6-10-3.

AT GREENSBORO, N. C. Detroit Americans 19-21-3. Toronto 2-8-1.

AT SAN FRANCISCO. Pittsburgh 3-10-1. San Francisco 2-7-1.

AT OAKLAND. Chicago 3-4-1. Oakland 1-5-2. (Five innings, rain.)

Havana, March 26.—Jose Lombardo, of Panama, knocked out Carlos Prada, Cuban featherweight champion, in the second round of what was to have been a 12-round bout last night. The Cuban went down for the count under a rain of rights and lefts.

They already possessed.

Of the three hurling newcomers, Hendricks banks heavily upon Tom Sheehan, St. Paul acquisition. Jake May, Southpaw obtained from the All over the Cardinals, has shown a lot of stuff, while Carl Mays, veteran underhand pitcher bought from the Yankees, has displayed old time form in exhibition games. News From City Churches

WELLINGTON STREET W. M. S.

The W. M. S. of Wellington Street Methodist Church conducted their Easter thanksgiving meeting very successfully last evening. It took the place of the mid-week prayer service and was held with a large attendance of both men and women of the congregation. With Mrs. J. Holaday, the president, in charge, the meeting opened with prayer service, led by Mrs. Fred Morris. The address was given by Mrs. J. H. Brooks, who took as her subject "Because He Lives, We Shall Live Also, and As His Disciples We Must Keep in Mind God's Command, Go Ye Into All the World and Preach the Gospel to Every Creature." Mrs. Brooks concluded her address with an appropriate sacred reading, "Life in His Name." This was followed by responsive reading, led by Mrs. G. E. McBurney. Miss Way gave a solo as a part of the musical service.

EVER-READY BAND.

Games were enjoyed for an hour or so after the regular meeting of the Ever-Ready Mission Band of First Methodist Church yesterday afternoon. The leader, Mrs. Stevens, was assisted by Miss Moffatt and Miss Finley.

CHANCELLER GUILD.

Following an afternoon spent in quilting, the Chancel Guild of St. Mark's Church held their regular meeting last night. The chief business was that which had to do with choir vestments. The guild have decided to purchase new surplices and cassocks, and a committee was appointed to look after this matter.

TEMPERANCE RESOLUTION.

The following resolution adopted unanimously by the Women's Missionary Society of Knox Presbyterian Church at a recent meeting is being sent to Hon. W. F. Nickle, the attorney-general, and Sir Adam Beck, member for London, of the provincial house: "Believing that it would be decidedly against the wishes and best interests of the people of the province of Ontario to have a referendum on the question of temperance legislation at the present time, and believing that the need of the present is a further trial of the Ontario temperance act with more fair and rigid enforcement, we, the members of the W. M. S. of Knox Church, London, respectfully urge our government to take action along these lines, and gratify the confidence of our loyal citizens." W. M. S. of Knox Church. (Signed)

"MRS. F. W. TEMPLEIN."

"MRS. GEO. ADAMS."

"Secretary."

Members of the W. A. of St. George's Church received much information on the work of the Anglican Church in foreign mission fields at their regular meeting recently, when they were addressed by Miss Irene Isaacs, returned missionary from Japan. Miss Isaacs, accompanied her exceptionally interesting talk with a display of Japanese curios, and in addition to these showed several of the pictures of Japanese costumes. The address formed the chief feature of the afternoon's program, at the conclusion of which tea was served. The hostesses were Mrs. F. E. Turville and Mrs. Sage.

EGERTON ST. LADIES' AID.

The schoolroom of the Egerton Street Baptist Church was the scene of a pleasant event recently when the Ladies' Aid Society held a tea there. In addition to the large congregation of members, there were a great many visitors, all of whom enjoyed the musical program provided. The hostesses for the evening were Mrs. M. Roberts and Mrs. H. Pierce, and these were assisted at the tea-hour by Mrs. Newman and Mrs. Watson.

GIRL GUIDES.

Lillian Hayward, Della Howard, Kate Howard and Edith Clarkson were presented with the badges which signify progress in sick nursing proficiency, at the regular meeting of the Girl Guides of Cronyn Memorial Church recently. The group leader, Miss McBride, made the presentation.

ADELAIDE ST. L. A. TEA.

Mrs. W. T. Livermore and Mrs. Hunter convened a delightful tea held recently at the home of the former, under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid of Adelaide Street Baptist Church. Spring flowers were prettily arranged throughout Mrs. Livermore's home, and made a pretty setting for the very artistic program presented during the afternoon. This included a piano solo by Miss Lillian Livermore, a reading by Miss J. Metcalfe, piano solo by Mrs. Winnifred Boam, and a solo by Miss J. Walker. Assisting in the tea room were Mrs. W. Cline and Mrs. J. McNeill. Mr. Chatterton and Mrs. Tuttle poured tea.

MARY MCRAE AUXILIARY.

The Mary McCrae Auxiliary of Chalmers Church invited the Trail Ranger group of the congregation to their regular meeting last night, and in their honor provided a social and a musical program. Among those who took part were Mary Widdows, John Duncan, Agnes Foster, John Duncan and Mr. Donaldson. A treat of candy and oranges formed a pleasant little wind-up for the evening.

NEW ST. JAMES Y. P. S.

A coast-to-coast trip taken via the C. P. R. by means of illustrated slides formed the interesting program given at a recent meeting of the Young People's Society of New St. James' Presbyterian Church. The evening included also several enjoyable musical numbers.

MAITLAND ST. C. G. I. T.

The C. G. I. T. group of Maitland Street Baptist Church netted a splendid sum for their share of relieving the church indebtedness, as the result of a highly successful concert they gave recently. They presented as its chief feature the sequel to a play given some weeks ago, "The Minister's Wife Comes Back." Their program included also a violin number by J. Brighton; readings by Miss Nelson; piano numbers by G. Smale, and vocal solos by Mrs. Hunter, Mrs. N. Fischer acted as accompanist, and Dr. Sowerby was the chairman. Among the girls who took part were the following: Misses Pearl Motz, Ruth Schuzler, Margaret Roe, Thelma Mantle, Mary Sawyer, Florence Boyd, Lillian Franklin, Thelma Hea, Ruby Dodds, Thelma Shalinne, Lillian Johnston, Alma Brown, Elise Brown, Edna Barnes, Eleanor Willis, Dorothy Willis, Clifford Van Buskirk, Chester

HAYLOCK, JACK FRUEN, AND LLOYD NEWMAN.

ST. MARK'S CHOIR.

Members of St. Mark's Church choir paid a jolly surprise visit to Mr. Edmund Webb, Dundas street, recently on the occasion of his birthday. Mr. Webb is a warden of St. Mark's Church, superintendent of the Sunday School, and is exceptionally popular with choir members, having recently assisted them with their successful operetta, "The Merry Milkmaids." They arrived at his home singing "The Song of Love" and from this merged into "For He's a Jolly Good Fellow," as Mr. Webb put in a surprised appearance. The evening was spent very happily in progressive euchre, at the conclusion of which Rev. A. L. Beverley voiced the sentiments of the choir in a little address of appreciation and presented Mr. Webb with a handsome pipe in their behalf. The crowning event of the evening was the appearance of a huge old-fashioned birthday cake, candle-lit, and bearing the historic penny, ring and thimble. Mrs. Bell and Mr. Reg. Parker won first prizes during the euchre tournament.

ASKIN ST. LADIES' AID.

The Ladies' Aid of Askin Street Methodist Church held their regular meeting yesterday afternoon, conducting a program of both a social and business nature. Preparations were made for the annual meeting, which takes place next month, and a nominating committee were appointed. Mrs. S. Salton gave a brief talk in the nature of a revival message, and this was followed by readings by Mrs. Charles Thompson, and a solo by Miss Phinn, with accompaniment by Mrs. Charles Anderson. Later in the afternoon the members retired to the church dining-room, where the social committee, headed by Mrs. Alfred Jackson, served afternoon tea. Mrs. Ross Smith and Mrs. Morris poured tea from a central table prettily arranged with daffodils and tulips. Games and a guessing contest formed a pleasant program until about 5 o'clock.

LENTEN SERVICE.

Rev. A. S. H. Cree, rector of the Church of the Redeemer and St. Luke's Church, Broadhale, conducted Lenten services last evening at St. James' Church, South London.

MEN'S CLUB ELECTIONS

WILL BE HELD APRIL 2

Nominations for the executive of the Men's Club of the local university, to take office next year, are to be handed in to the secretary of the club, Mr. Kennedy, by tonight, according to an announcement yesterday. A preliminary meeting was held from the junior year, a vice-president from the sophs, and secretary from the freshmen. Elections will take place on April 2, when members of the students' council will also be elected.

INVESTIGATES CHARGES.

Inspector George Tustin of the Humane Society was called outside the city this morning to investigate eight charges of cruelty to animals. The charges were all laid against farmers. One was that a number of cattle were being starved to death.

JUDGE MODIFIES ROBINS' ORDER

Former Walkerville Man Is Not Called Up To Specify the Charges of Influence.

Canadian Press Despatch.
Toronto, March 26.—In the suit by William Robins, formerly secretary and general manager of Hiram Walker & Sons, Limited, against the executors of the late Edward Chandler Walker, who died in March, 1915, to secure annulment of the probate of an alleged will said to have been made in February, 1914, and a declaration that a document signed by Walker in December, 1901, was his last will, Mr. Justice Middleton has modified the order made by the master of the supreme court, directing Robins to give particulars of how, when and where the alleged undue influence was exercised to secure the signing of the 1914 will.
