PAGES

MISSING

WESfucR HOME MONTHLY

Reproduction of a Sanitas design Before you select a wall covering-for any room SANITAS Sanitas exactly repro-ducices the finishes. designs and effects of the finest wall papers and fabrics, wall papers and fabrics, but in a far mo.e servicebut in a ar mo.e serviceable material of moderate cost. Sanitas is fade-proof, stain-proof, dust-and -dirt-proof, never cracks, never tears, is in instantly cleaned with a damp cloth.
All the handsomest glazed tile effects are also made in Sanitas, for bath-are also made in Sanitas, f rooms, kitchens and pantries.
Sanitas is sold by all reliable dry coosd and wall paper jobbers in Canada.
Write us your needs fully, and we will send you samples and sketches and tell you how to be sketches and tell you how to be quickly, satisfactorily supplied.

STANDARD OIL CLOTH CO. 320 Broadway, New York City

 ATITA THE WASHAREE wall coverina

THE WESTERN HOME MONTHLY

Vol. XIII.
Published Monthly Dermot and Arthur Sts., Winnipeg, Canada

A Chat With our Readers..

The old adage "Time Flies" is brought vividly to mind as we realize that The Western Home Monthly has entered its fourteenth year of publication. Many of our friends often tell us that they of our friends often tell us that they have been subscribers from 1899 when the first issue of The Western Home Monthly-a very mooest publication in those days-came off the press. We ofthose days-came off the press. We often wonder whether those pioneer subten wonder whether those pioneer subscribers have kept their copies intact scribers have kept their copies intact and on file and, if such is the case, when and on file and, if such is the case, when comparing the present June issue with that of thirteen years ago they will that of thirteen years ago they will surely feel pardonable pride in seeing surely feel pardonable pride in seeing the tremendous headway made by their favorite magazine and in realizing that they themselves, as the original subscribers, made a bigger and better scribers, made a bigger and better Western Home Monthly possible. If Western Home Monthly possible. T
The Western Home Monthly has made strides in the past, we hope that it will forge ahead even more rapidly in the future. Ever'y month now our subscribfuture. Every month now our subscribers are getting 96 pages of carefully ers are getting 96 pages of carefully written and edited articles, stories and illustrations - pretty good measure, we think - but our ambition is not yet achieved and we are going to continue pushing forward. Remember that the pushing forward. Remember that the future of The Western Home Monthly rests with the present subscribers, and we feel sure that they will respond nobly to our appeal for new subscribers. This is essentially a publication you can recommend to your friends, for it is inreresting in contents, independent in politics and Canadian and British in ideals. Surely worthy of your commendation. mendation.

DOES PIN MONEY INTEREST YOU? Spring and the early summer are up our loose change and see how much we can afford to expend on a few little luxuries for the home or perchance our summer holiday may loom into view. summer holiday may loom into view.
If you want to spend a little money, If you want to spend a little money, without encroaching in any way on your capital, we can help you. Yes,", we can put you in the way of gatherwe can put you in the way of gathering a few-possibly many-shekels by ing a offering you an agency and appointing you representative of The Western you representative of vicinity. We al-Home Monthly in your vic ready have a large list of agents and we are receiving applications daily and during the past few weeks have established agencies at the following places:-Edagencies at the following places:-Edmonton, Calgary, Morden, Deloraine, Boissevain, Killarney, Manitou, Morris, Boissevain, Killarney, Manitou, Morris, Carman, Stonewall, Treherne, Holland, Melita, Carnduff, Yelow Grass, Glenboro, Weyburn, Cypress River, Lang, boro, Weyburn, Cypress River, Lang, Herbert, Morse, Drinkwater, Oxbow, Rouleau, Mortlach, Creek, Swift Current,
Macoun,
Waldeck, Creek, Swift Current, Waldeck, Gult Lake, Taber, Gainsboro, Lethbridge, Lake, Taber, Gainsboro, Lethbridge, Crystal City and Dauphin. Why not communicate with us about an agency in your town? It will only cost you a in your town? It will only cost you a stamp to hear what our proposition is, anyway, West you will find that the magazine is already well and favorably known and your work will be pleasant and easy. We offer no excuse for printing appended letters:-
"Dear Sir,-I am a secretary of a Women's Institute near Toronto. The members of our branch are delighted to :ittend our meetings so that they may clltain a copy of your valuable paper, home with them. Thev enjoy the good reading so much that when any of them are prevented from attending the meetare prevented from attending the meetings, they will call at my home ings, they will call at my home for a copy. One lady who never gets the opportunity of attending our meetings sends her little boy each month to my home with a special request for The Western Home Monthly. J Johnson."
"Dear Sir,-I Foam Lake, Sask. Dear Sir,-I am enclosing herewith $$ 1.00$ for which please send me The Western Home Monthly for one year. I consider this a rare bargain. The Western Home Monthly affords one excellent reading and since the price is so attractive it does not pay to miss getatres ting it. It is improving all the time and anyone desiring good, healthy readlikg should subscribe for it. I do not every one. Yours truly, - Peter Dunlop."
"Dear Sir - Edmonton, Alta. $$ 2.00$ for my - Enclosed you will find subscriber for one year. I might say that The Western Home Monthly is an excellent magazine and am always watehing for it. Yours truly,-Mrs. F.

Pasqua, Sask.

"Dear Sir,-I notice my subscription pired, and as I wish Mou to continue pired, and as I wish you to continue sending it, I enclose you herewith $$ 1.00$, In renewing my subscription to The Western Home Monthly for 1912, I would just like to tell you that we think a good deal of your magazine in our home. I think it is the very best magazine published in Canada. The short stories therein are always very bright and readable and invariably opin Canada from time to time always prove very interesting. Another feature about The Western Home Monthly stories, is that they are always finished n the one issue. The continued story feature is something I don't like. It may have been all right at one time in Canada when publications were few in number, but now-a-days there are so many different papers the average many different papers the average read-ed wants to finish a story once started, as in many cases it is not started. Yours truly,-T. E. Allcock."

Quill Lake, Sask.
"Dear Sir,-I have been a reader o your paper for some time and think it an excellent magazine, in fact it canalso, and he is of the same opinion as myself. Yours truly,-W. Y. Chileote." $\overline{\text { Little }}$ Woody, Sask. "Dear Sir, - Enclosed you will find ern Home Monthly for one year. I have only seen a few of your magazines and think them excellent reading. I have only been in Canada a short time and only been in Canada a short time and wouldn't be without your paper. Yours truly,-R. S. Clark."

Red Deer, Alta.
"Dear Sir,--I have been a reader of our valuable magazine and must say could not too highly recommend same for any person wishing interesting and instructive reading. Yours truly, J. 0 .

Just WHY  Old  Dutch  Cleanser

Is the best thing that Keeps
Bath-tubs Clean

Because the Cleanser quickly removes the discolorations which appear on porcelain bathtubs, and which it is impossible to remove by any other means.
Sprinkle the Cleanser over the tub, and rub the surface with a dampened brush or coarse cloth. Then wash off with clean water, and you will find that all dirt and stains have vanished leaving the tub clean and spotless.

Many Other Uses and all Directions on

Ten Dishes Free

To Every Reader of This Magazine

Pay Nothing at All

The coupon we print here will buy from your grocer one 10-cent package of Puffed Wheat. We pay the grocer for it.

This offer is made-for this time One package means ten big dishes only-so every home may know this Serve them in several ways. $\begin{gathered}\text { Then none at your table will eve }\end{gathered}$ food delight. forget these crisp, enticing grains.

These Curious Creations

Puffed Wheat and Puffed Rice are cells, caused by the steam explosion. curious foods. One never saw any- Each cell is surrounded by toasted thing like them. , walls, crisped by terrific heat.
size. nut-like, melt like snowflakes in the size.
Each grain is filled with a myriad nut-like, melt like snowflakes in the mouth.

Breakfast Dishes

Which Taste Like Toasted Nuts
These crisp, brown grains taste Boys eat them like peanuts, when much like toasted nuts. at play. chish to them to give a nut-lik ries, to give a nut-like blend. Girls use them in candy making, in place of nuts. gives a keen delight.
"The Good-Night Dish"
For uncheons or suppers--between never before were cereals made so di meals, or bedtime-serve like crack- gestible. The grains are crisper than crack- A te doesn't tax the ever-ready ers. They are four times as porous A hundred times this summer you as bread.
are four times as porous wanded times this summer you will want to serve Puffed Wheat or They are whole-grain foods. And Puffed Rice in milk.

Puffed Wheat, 10c.
Puffed Rice, 15c. Wmoer

Professor Anderson's Invention Foods shot from Guns Puffed Wheat and Puffed Rice are Then the guns cre unsealed and scientific foods.
Their inventor is Prof. A. P. And- the steam explodes. All the food erson. He spent seven years in work- gestion can instantly act. ing out this process. The grains are sealed up in great times normal size, yet the coats of bronze-steel guns. Then the guns the grain are unbroken are revolved for sixty minutes in a heat of 550 degrees. grains, loneycombed with countless That heat turns the moisture in the cells. grains to steam, and creates tremendous pressure.

Good for 10 Cents

 At Your Grocer'sTake this coupon to your grocer The Puffed Wheat, to a coupon and he will give you, at our expense, holder, is entirely free. a full-size package of Puffed Wheat. Accept this offer in fairness to If you prefer the Puffed Rice, which You will never forget the delight of costs 15 cents, this coupon is good them. for 10 cents toward it. Pay the Cut out this coupon now. Lay it grocer 5 cents in addition.

Canada in Modern History.

Written for Western Home Monthly by Merodach Green.

Nations and empires, like ephermeral lights, shine for a period then fade and perish in the deep loom of be, but their achievements and standard of development perish not with them but live on as events in some great consummate whole.
History is not the story of kings and potentates ut the strange story of the rise and fall of nations and democracies, and the gradual but certain ascent loom, tragedy, progress, development and social melioration. Its gruesome catastrophies, its periods of national revolutions, its dark ages are but the teps that mark the path along which democracies are marching into the realms of light and peace.
Monarchs - some like spectres and chimeras, some like rays of divinest light-pass from the everchanging scene, but the inner soul of the races, ever receptive to impressions from an ever-changing and ever-improving environment passes on from strength to strength, from the dark, dusty, blood-stained past nto the radiant future.
The present is indeed a most critical period in he world's history; nations are spontaneously precipitating themselves or are being violently hurled into the heated crucibles of $:$ Fate, yet out of al his apparent chaos, order, law and justice will ultimately evolve." What appears to be almost national annihilation is not utter ruin but an evidence of the truggling for its right and inheritance in the sphere of its toils.
Young Turkey has broken the fetters of despotism; India is recognizing and seeking the culture of the west; China is emerging from her travail and is the west; China is emerging from her travail and is caressing the child of liberty; Russia is still awaiting the great dawn; Germany and Britain, though perhaps, exasperated by the spirit of war, are giving irth to new forces that seek to produce international harmony and not dissension and hatred. Self-mocracies are being exposed and cast out; reforming forces are at work aiming at the betterment and happiness of all. Truly, "The old order changeth, giving way to new."
Amidst all this confusion and intermittent less prairies and dreaming of future wealth her endd in lofty splendor on the snowy thrones of the Rockies and domed with a world of unstained azure, he "Lady of the Snows" dwells in peace; for the the rocks of her foundation, and her name as yet has not stained history's pages in letters of blood. Yet through all this apparent silence and slumber Canada is making history such as shall yet weave its golden threads into the web of the civilized world, not with the coercion of the blade and dreadnought but with wisdom, fraternity and equality.
Canada is a future power in cosmos, its people drawn from all nations, its posterity to be devoid of none of the virtues of une nations. Here we hav and wrested abundance from a hard and rocky land Americans full of vitality and determination; Britons with loyal hearts and British grit; industrious and thrifty Germans fresh from the Rhine land; Frenc people possessed of and several other peoples mingling their bloo to produce a new people, a new race-the mosaic of nations colored with the freedom and invigorating environment of the prairies and the lofty Rockies.

Led here from different countries of the world muscle to wrestle with Nature and adverse circum stances to get an existence; have drunk deep of Marah's waters; have not vacillated in the face of terrible odds or great perils; have known what it is to labor and wait with great fortitude of body and to labor and wait with great fortitude of body and soul; have accomplished great enterprise; have bafsoul; have accomplished great enterprise; have baf fled opposition and emerged triumphant, and have converted a wilderness into the finest granary in the world.

But do they live in harmony? Has histery known a cosmopolitan people to live at peace and be without slaves? Unlike the Roman, this new without slaves? Unlike the Roman, this new nation is being built, not with the results of war and the curse of slavery, but on the great principle of liberty, equality, fraternity.

Unike the Saxon churl in his first home in Angeln, these denizens of the prairies look not on their fellow inhabitants as lurking spies and treacherous foes, but as nation-builders and units in a great army. a passion prairie environment has infused into them a passion for expansion and broader and loftier concepse, Canadian, Briton Gerples. Here, as nowhere garian, Russian, Indian and Asiatic live at peace. Races are giving way to a new and nobler race ference, color and language. The child of the future is being born on these vast plains and is emerging from the gloom of Time inspired by the vision of the brotherhood of man and the unstained democracy of the nations. The path to the future is meither dimmed nor uncertain, for nations are trending towards the light; the eastern Magi have seen its star; the toiling multitudes of hill and valley thinkers, urged on by the peace-makers, have seen the vision and the star rests mute and motienless, not above one nation or country, but in the Heaven of Hope, above the son of man. Truly:
"The One remains. The many change and pass, Heaven's light for ever shines, All shadows hee.
The future inhabitants of Canada will not be as their parents, of European, Asiatic or America blood, but a people possessing a strong lingering af finity towards all lands and peoples-evidently a new race.
Decadent civilizations are to be taught a great esson. With the advancement of scientific researce separation will become an impossibility; railways, telephones, telegraphy, oceans, education; thought culture, travel are slowly but surely shattering the patriotic selfishness and differences of peeple and tending to unite and weld not to separate and Despotism autocracy, bureaucracy are doomed and must be relegated to the past, for the new rac is full of a democratic spirit, full of the spirit of practical christianity and progress, destined to com omies, education, religion and life.
Northern regions are returning to their pre-historic conditions when life of all forms found exls tence here, and for whom is the great Northland to be a home? To the sons and daughters of the great flag-loyalty to soul-loyalty; too cultured and intel lectually refined to wantonly squander their strength on militarism; too vital, energetic and broad-minder to be serfs of an idle few; too noble to hate and The prophesied people of the Northland shal bring all to dwell, not under flags putrescent with the blood of martyrsand heroes of whom the world was not worthy, but under the flag of universa fraternity and peace. that shall further the kinies is emerging the race love, and relegate to the blood-stained past the sins of monarchs, the blood-thirsty vengeance and extor. tions of rapacious and malicious rulers, the wild tional parasites. The new people will hasten the day when man shall decree from a universal parliament and the world shall be one great federation and shall witness: "The far off divine event To which the whole creation moves"

By FIDELIS.

With feu-de-joie and merry bells, and cannon's thundering peal, With feu-de-joie and merry bells, and cannonss thundering peal, We greet, again, the birthday morn of our young giant's land, From the Atlantic stretching wide to far Pacific strand; With flashing rivers, ocean lakes, and prairies wide and free
And waterfalls, and forests dim, and mountains by the sea ; And waterfalls, and forests dim, and mountains by the sea;
A country on whose birth-hour smiled the genius of romance, A country on whose birth-hour smiled the genius of romance, Whose infancy was grimly nursed in peril, pain, and woe; Whose gallant hearts found early graves beneath Canadian Whose gallant hearts found early graves beneath Canadian snow; Combined their strength, in vain, to crush the dauntless French When heblesse; dim, trackless forest lured, again and yet again, When her dim, trackless forest lured, again and yet again, From silken courts of sunny France, her flower, the brave From silken courts of sunny France, her $\quad$ Champlain.
And now, her proud traditions boast four blazoned rolls of frecy's and Flodden's deadly foes our ancestors we claim; Crecy's and Flodden's deadly foes our ancestors we claim; Past feud and battle buried far behind the peaceful years, While Gaul and Celt and Briton turn to pruning-hooks their spears; Four nations, welded into one,-with long historic past, Have found, in these our western wilds, one common life, Have found, in these our western wilds, one common life, at last; Through the young There runs a throb of conscious life-of waking energy.
From Nova Scotia's misty coast to far Columbia's shore,

She wakes,-a band of scattered homes and colonies no more But a young nation, with her life full beating in her breast, A noble future in her eyes-the Britain of the West. Hers be the noble task to fill the yet untrodden plains With fruitful, many-sided life that courses through her veins;
The English honour, nerve, and pluck,--the Scotsman's love of right,- The grace and courtesy of France,--the Irish fancy bright,The Saxon's faithful love of home, and home's affections blest and, chief or all, our holy faith,-of all our treasures A people poor in pomp and state, but rich in noble deeds, Holding that righteousness exalts the people that it leads; As yet the waxen mould is soft, the opening page is fair; As yet the waxen mould is soft, the opening page is fair;
It rests with those who rule us now, to leave their impress there,- -
The stamp of true nobility, high honour, stainless truth
The earnest quest of noble ends; the generous heart of youth; The love of learning, art, and song-the crowning grace of life; The love of science, soaring far through Nature's hidden ways The love and fear of Nature's God-a nation's highest praise. So, in the long hereafter, this Canada shall be The worthy heir of British power and British liberty; Spreading the blessings of her sway to her remotest bounds, While, with the fame of her fair name, a continent resounds True to her high traditions, to Britain's ancient glory Of patient saint and martyr, alive in deathless story; Strong, in their liberty and truth, to shed from shore to shore Strong, in their liberty and truth, to shed from shore $\Delta$ light among the nations, till nations are no more.

"IDEAL" Steel Davenport

See this strong, sensible, serviceableallsteel davenport and you'll want to get one for your porch or summer home.
Dooen't it look invining. And comfortable, too. Nothing burdensome, intricate or breakable about it-and it doesn't warp or get out of order like wooden kind.
 22 inches; width wide open, 47 inchees Useful All Day And At Night, Too Gives double value, because it ia handome couch by day, and Comporable bed at aiph. Probobly int the every thing ou vo been Dooking for. Be sure you get the "IDEAL" W.ill tell you where you can get ope SHz IDEAL BEDDING GO: 22 Jofferson Ave., Toronto 36

For the Sake of Dorothy.

Written for The Western Home Monthly. By A. Mason.

THERE were two families the Blaines, of Blaine. Both claim ed that they were descended from the original Blaine -a Saxon yeoman who Saxon yeoman who the conqueror in time to save his lands from some im pecunious Norman Knight.
But, naturally enough, it never occurred to Sir Richard Blaine, of Blaine curred to Sir Richard Blaine, or baid to Hall, that he was in any way related Hall, that he was smith. Possibly Dick Dick Blaine, the Richard had never heard of Diek, for Richard had never heard of Diek, for he was intimate in the councils of the he was intimate in the councils of the King, and it was but little thought he King, and it was but hittle and villagers.
ever gave to his tenants

As for the Blaines, the smiths, their high heritage of blood had never in the knowledge of the villagers brought knowledge of the villagers brought forth fruit worthy of the name. In fact, when one morning young Dick Blaine told his father that he had had enough of the smithy, and was going away to seek his fortune, the smith leaned on his hammer and looked at leaned on his hammer and looked at the young man in dis?ust. "Smithing the young man in dis rust. "Smithing generation on generation, Dick,", said henerand if you leave your trade to seek he, andortune you may find the old your fort your fortune you may find the old Nick,". he went without further arguing. The Blaine Arms was a fine old inn on the London road. It was the fourth on the London road. It was the fourthrelaying station for the northern coachrelaying station for the northern coach es, and mine host, a portly, easy-going es, and mine host, a porly, eas rather man, with a cheery voice and obsequious manners, was remembered by travellers as a fine specimen of the old English innkeeper. The inn was the only part of the village, except the church steeple, which could be seen from the road. The rest was thorough-Iy hidden behind huge elms that had ly hidden behind huge elms that had stood for centuries in the park and stood for centuries in the park and grounds of Blaine Hall. Mine host and the inn were the links that bound the the inn were the links that bound the village to the rest of the world, and village to the rest of the world, and the villagers looked up to the innkeeper as the man who knew all the latest news of the French War. In those days of heavy paper duties, only the squire and parson could afford to purchase a journal regularly, and yet it must be owned that rumor, filtered through the brain of mine host of the Blaine Arms, brain of mine host of the Blaine Arms, was not more wild than much of the distillation of the modern penny daily newspaper.

One evening, the innkeeper sat in a broad armchair at the hostelry gate, waiting for the evening mail to come lumbering over the hill, when from the opposite direction rode a horseman opposite direction rode a horseman.
Mine host thought he would have ridden by, but he pulled up suddenly and leaped from his saddle. Then he walked up to the innkeeper and offered him his hand Oh, lord!" exclaimed the portly "pub-lician in great astonishment, "if it ain't Dick Blaine come home - a real gentleman!" gentleman!'

Dick Blaine's return was a nine-days' wonder in the village. At first the wonder in the village. At first the voices were approving, the natural pride a mong the peasants that "one of us is a us is a gentleman" drowned for a while any owlish note, but later, when it was discovered that the ex-blacksmith had acquired a certain air of aristocratic reserve, calumny and malice began to wag their tongues. These went questioning to mine host of the Arms, but he had far too great a reverence for Dick's promptly paid bills to hint at any shortcoming in such a good customer shortcoming in such a good customer.
"Where does he get his mones and his clothes? Bob, Ostler gets a shilling every time he cleans his boots," said calumny.
But mine host pointed to the mare. Feeling her legs for splints which never were there, or stroking her sleek skin, he would say, "Look at this. No scoundrel could own a mare like this here." Bob Ostler shook his head, approving mine host's remarks. In the evening, at the alehouse in the village, Bob had an admiring circle of vokels round him drinking the last shilling he had received from Gentleman Dick. He recounted the latest news of the road; how three times during the preceding month the coach had been held up by month the coach had been a black horse and robbed; and, how. he often found Gentleman Dick's Black Bess covered with mud and sweat in the mornings, suggested one of the yokels.
"Oh, no"," said Bob, "she was rid by a witch. Leastways, that's, what Dick Blaine says. And you should see the Blaine says. And you should see the fine pair of silver mounted barkers I fine pair of silver mounted barkers in the night. And I asked Dick if, witches shot pistols. He said nothin', laughed and gave me a crown."

Dorothy was the heiress to Blaine in the Hollow. The beldams of the village talked of her as caressingly as the yokels gossiped of Dick Blaine maliciously, and the latter had not returned to the village long before, his name was so coupled with that of my lady that the gossipers could not, mention one without the other creeping in. tion one without the other creeping in.
"It's a wicked shame," said an old lady who, had nursed the girl in her childhood and who was on visiting childhood and who was on visiting terms with the servants at the Hall. his -nag, ain't no better than a smith's son, and some say that he's nothing but a robber." "What's that to do with youp" asked a girl more charitable than her "Why, he's setting his cap ot my lady," said the gossip. "Miss Elaine, her governess, told me that when they were out riding the other day, this Dick came along on his horse, dressed like his betters, and when he passed he took "off his hat." "What dia my lady say?"
"What did my lady say"" "She bowed to him and asked Elaine who that gentleman was. 'He ain't no gentleman,' says Elaine; 'he's a blacksmith's son turned highwayman.' A highwayman?' says my lady. 'I am highwayman? says my lady. 'I am very sorry. A highwayman? says she, very sorry. A highwayman? says she, and then she didn't say another word for the whole day. sips.
"Whe right," said one of the gos"When this Dick Blaine was a little fellow and she was a wee mite of a girl, the two were often together. And he would go through fire and water to save her from a scratch. I remember when she learned to ride the little white pony the Duchess of Portland gave her, pony the Duchess of Portland gave her, the fiery little thing ran away with her. It was this Dick Blaine, himself no more than a child, ran out and stopped the
.
"I wonder Sir Richard didn't do something for the boy," said the girl who "He gave him for him before. the ungrateful young varmint went and threw them in the pond."
"A handful of nuts him," said the girl. "Well, you would think he'd know better than set his cap at a real lady," chorused the women, and the one charitable voice was drowned completely. Poor Diok! Setting his cap? Yes, indeed, if humble and respectful admira lonely heart were setting his cap. Hour after hour he trudged the country lanes, wandered around in Blaine park to catch a look at her. Sometimes he was atch a look at her. Sometimes he was rewarded with a glimpse of her; oftenrewarded with a glimpse of her; oftener the way and the lanes were lonely, and then Dick's. solace was the beautiful bace into the night he galloped her on mile, and many a belated horseman was put Dick Blane. These rides were absolutely necessary to the ex-blacksmith. The element of danger inely and was the only lotion to his onely and aching heart scrub of the heath. He answered the shot recklessly, and rode on. The puff of fire and smoke was as nothing to him. He was wounded too sorely of a glance laughing gray eyes.

Dick Blane leaned against the door post of the inn. His bridle was on his anm, and Bess, ready saddled-as she often was - munched contentedly the sweet roadside grass. When she strayed too far, a low whistle from Dick brought her back with a trot. The landlord of the inn sat in his broad armchair eyeing the mare and her master with an amused smile on his face.
"You make a fine pair, Dick," "You make a fine pair, Dick," he said.
Dick made no reply. His gaze was Dick made no reply. His gaze was fixed on a cloud of dust that was rising up over the hill. ing up over is a lady's horse, Dick. She'd make a splendid saddle mare for Miss Dorothy"
Dorok shrugged his shoulders uneasily "There's a four-in-hand coming over the hill," he said. "And it isn't coach time by an hour. You'd better get ready to $\square$
View at Kootenay Falls, B.
$\left.\begin{aligned} & \text { entertain some pretty rich guests, or tell } \\ & \text { Bob Ostler to get a relay ready at once." }\end{aligned} \right\rvert\, \begin{aligned} & \text { must gallop all the way and back." } \\ & \text { The sun dropped over the wester }\end{aligned}$

Bob Ostler to get a relay ready at once." "Maybee they won't stop," said min host. they did stop. The coach pulled But they did stop. The coach pulled at the door pretty nimbly. For he, and Dick, too, had caught sight of the Arms of Blaine on the panel of the coach.

An old man and a youth of some twenty years stepped from the carriage " old man was in a rage. y"" he said to the youth.
"I will not," said the young man. "You will return at once," replied the old gentleman. "Of what are you "Do you think," said the young man, "do you think I" am ass enough to ride fifty miles in the darkness, and risk my bones on rough road, and my back to a highwayman's bullet, to fetch paper to forget?" "Ah, I see," returned Sir Richard sneering; you are a coward! But the papers must be out of that house befou merning, or-See here, mine host; an old friend of mine. I promised him my daughter, and the coward dare not return to London at night. If there is a man within hearing of my voice who a man within hearing of my voice who he shall take the coward's place."

The sun dropped over the western which curtained off the light. The trees stood out against the flushed sky, dancing a mad step to the gallop, and a ight wind rustled the furze of the heath. leaned down over the mare's neck and stroked her sleek side. "Bess," he said, "you mustn't fail big. Carry me safely to the end and the best paddook in all the farms of Blainer shall be thine, and no knee shall ever press thy flank again." The mare threw back her head as if she understood, then before her. again to the work before her.
The road was strangely free traffic. The evening coach was passed long ago. Dick laughed, as the guard, seeing in the moonlight a wild horse man riding, grabbed for his pistols. It reminded him of the nights he galloped reminded him of the nights he galloped for mere madness and loneliness. Now he was riding for another purpose. At a wayside inn he pulled up and gave the mare an hour's rest and a feed of oats. He looked carefully to her of oats. He looked carefully to her feet, and gave the stable man a shilling to rub her down while he supped. Then he started again. At Royston Heath he made a detour. The furze was afire, and he dare not ride through, it though the way was clear enough. This made it midnight before he came to the turnpike at Hatfield, and there
"Sir," said Dick Blane, stepp, ward," "F will do your érand." The Squire was taken aback. He eyed his man up and down. "What is your price, sir?" he questioned coldly, said "To take the coward's place," said Dick. take the coward's place, said The old man smiled sneeringly. But the papers were incriminating. By morning they would have fallen into wrong hands, and that meant his overthrow. hands, and that meant his overthrow.
"See here, sir," said he to Dick. "The house is Wilton House, in St. George's. The papers are in a casket in my library. You may get there by morning easily enough. First prove yourself a easily enough. centleman, and we'll talk man, then a grow about the rest. But the casket must be in my hands by seven in the morning. Get your horse and I will prepare you further directions in writing." you further directions in writing." Ten minutes later Dick Blane ready and in the saddle riding to Lonready don.
"Gently, Bess," whispered Dick as they cantered over the hill. "Gently, old girl. Thou hast a long journey before thee. 'Tis the gallop' of thy life." For reply the mare lay dow long distance-devouring stride. Not too fast, Bess," continued Dick. Bess, I fast. The way is long, And Bess, I have only a few shillings; I cannot give thee rest to-night. Thou

THATS WHAT MOTHER USES

Children speak in the "Mother Tongue" when they say "Sunlight Soap."
They have heard Mother say itseen her use it-worn the clothes washed with it-know it to be purest and best.
It is only left for us to say how careful we are in manufacture to ensure that Sunlight Soap shall be worthy of The confidence placed in it.
5c. a bar at your Grocers.
LEVER BROTHERS LIMITED, TORONTO. 25

Blackwood's

Black Cherry Wine, Ginger Wine, Peppermint Wine, and Hot Todd, Price 40 cents per quart bottle Ask your dealer for them

The Blackwood's Limited, Winnipeg

6

The Western Home Monthly.
Winnipeg, June, 1912.
the pike-keeper refused to open the lady, the lifelong worship of a man's with it," and she quietly laid her hand gate. Dick would not, because of his low funds, offer him more than a shilling, and the fellow was too boorish to give way to persuasion.

Abstract

the gate," can you take it

At the sound of her mester the mare whinnied.
"You must try, Bess," he said, "or I "You must. try, Bess," he said, "or I am stranded." He led her back, away from the gate, and scrambled into the saddle, for he was already stiff with riding.
"Now, Bess," he said, as she cantered sidling to the barrier, "over!" The beautiful mare took The beautiful mare took the jump Iike un unleashed hound and was away over the remaining miles to London Town. Town.

All night before the inn sat the innkeeper, his servants and a company of villagers. Many wagers had been made, and the possibilties of the journey disand the possibilties of the journey discussed pro and con. "If he ain't no fool-and he ain't-" he'll change horses every post house," said one.
"There never was a horse foaled could do it in a night," said another. "But Dick Blaine on his black mare keeper. When the light began to tinge the his large hunting-piece. "It's half-past four," he said. 'In an hour and a half you'l see Dick Blane coming over the hill. Here, Bob Ostler, hold my watch, and wake me or five-and-twenty watch, The ostler did as he was told, but Dick was not there at the innkeeper's time. Some of the men thereupon gave it up and went home, but just as the church clock began to strike six, a maic at the window above cried, 'He's coming!". sure enough, there was Dick
And
Blaine riding with bowed head, his hands lutched to the mane of his once beautiful mare. Her knees were cut, and dust nd sweat had caked over her sleek skin. The men at the inn crowded round him ick did not speak. His eyes were closrickled. They took his feet from the tirrups and he rolled from the horse "Brandy, Mary quick "Brandy, Mary, quick!" said the inn the cognac down Dick's throat.
"Where's the horse?" he said as he opened his eyes.
ing her head through the crowd, breathd upon his face. He seized her bridl and kissed her. As he did so she fell on her knees, and then rolled over on her side with a groan.
"o God! Bess," said his feet with new life, give in now; the viotory is won. Fetch some water, give her brandy; where is the ostler ? Oh, my God, they'll let my He knelt on the ground beside her and took her head in his arms.
"It's half-past six, Master Dick," said the innkeeper as he ofrered him the and get up to the Hall. We'll look af ter the mare."
The man rose to his feet, half-blindly, clutching at his pocket. He walked a few feet and then turned. The mare raised her head looking after him, and whinnied a farewell. Then her head dropped, and Dick Blaine strode to the great House of Blaine with a sob. in the library half an hour later in the presence of the Squire and his daughter, "for this service your father, in a moment of excitement, promised me me your hand. You know my people. My your hand. You know my people. My father is Dick Blaine, the smith, but the blood in his veins is as blue as yours.
"T have been a soldier of fortune. For what he has been pleased to call my bravery in the field, my Lord of Dorset obtained for me a commission in His obtained for me a commission in His Majesty's Guards. I now serve the King as a special equerry, under my vouche for me. I do not hold your father to his hasty promise, but if, my

Abstract

Dorothy Blaine had been standing

 With eyes on the ground, but now shelifted them to his and held out her lifted them to his and held out her hand was pride and humility mingled in her tones, "my father but promised what I

In the greenest and sweetest paddock

$$
\begin{aligned} & \text { in } \\ & \text { Ir } \\ & \text { of } \\ & \text { mour } \\ & \text { mar } \\ & \text { rail }
\end{aligned} $$ Blaine, in the hollow, there is a marauding cattle, and riveted to the rail is a bronze plate with this inscriprail is

tion:

Sacred to the Memory of had not lost what was you faile, yours, even though this could not have gone

She laid down her lifelife for a friend.She laid down her life for a friend.

The Frenchman's Story.

By Charles Edwardes.

MET Napoleon Bouget suspicion that we're not running smooth in an obscure Eastin harness,' I we're not running smooth mind what I do.' You see, it awes her, words like that." shrug his shoulders unotrusivenchma he drank from his glas The men continued their remarks, which were really very absurd. The into a sort of sympathetic relationship unconsciously. We nodded to each other over the various stupidities of these silly Eastenders. At length, feeling interested in my neighbor's face, which terested in my neighbor's face, which was pathetic for all its little affectations of tufted beard and waxed mous-1 ever you please) than that by their domestic apartment The policatic apartments. ${ }^{\text {provided }}$ ion of men; but their intelligence is often much at fault. I had already learned this in other directions. There core, when a celestial-nosed young officer to whom I chanced to speak in the neighborhood of the club ventured to warn me about the danger I ran by frequenting the place, it was pretty much as if $h e$ dared me to visit it again. I went there three times that very week, and it was on the last week, and it was on the last of these occasions that I became personally known to Napoleon Bouget. ${ }^{\text {He }}$ and I were sitting smoking at a side table, while three or four others were discussing a certain subject. This subject matrimony. One of the greatest difficulties seemed, in the opinion of the disputants (for they were really angry with each other on other points), the due control of their wives so as to predue contro for jealousy.
"It is for this reason," said one of them, most amusingly, though he was serious, "that I don't mind having my mother-in-law in the house."
"What rot!" said another. is this: I make it plain to my missus that it's her own interest to keep straight. 'Let me have any grounds for gain I begged him to fill his glass "With my expense. plied, with a neat if you wish," he reWe commented mutually on the general talk, the bulk of the tions coming from me.
Then those sillies with wives, and ridiculous nostrums for control of their wives, separated; it was getting het and toward eleven o'clock I also made move.
"I am not married," I said jocosely. "I'm not a bit anxious about my home The Frenchman looked at me narrowly, with somewhat contracted brows. In the street he took my arm ver gently. We hadn't gone far when he "My friend, you are voung, and think I shall tell youre of myself. You shall marry, yourself shall marry, yourself, one day, and perhaps-it is possible-come to perhaps-it is possible-come to think like those imbeciles that there." "Not I " I protested. "If I thour "Not I," I protested. "If I thought so I'd never marry"" so I'd never marry." English, and you cannot tell. You are English, and possess the English mind, is it not so? But I shall fatigue you, and so-"" I begged hardon and said I shoul be delighted to hear anything about his personal history that he cared tell me. For my own part, I added, I time would remedy that defect. "Perfectly," replied the Frenc "I do not know why I tell you, if it is not only because you have the sympain the night, feel a desire to speak of her. It was a lesson she taught me. Mon Dieu, what a lesson! And it did me no good; that is the bad part. It only fill me with regrets that serve purpose but to pain me. Perhaps it do you good, my friend, to hear; and so I speak."
M.

Napoleon Bouget, there and then, while we walked up the long Mile End story, which I try and give in his own words. He had been resident in London ever since 1872. Naturally, therefore, he spoke very good English, though "I was only nineteen when I becam in love with my poor Susanne. She wa of the Rue des Martyrs that $I$ used to visit to dress the hair of a madame who was very proud of her appearance. yo to that house three times every week to dress madame's hair, and four times to madame's hair, and four mor "I loved her and she loved me. Her father and mother did not disapprove. I make my sixty francs the week at only nineteen, and I do not spend my sous, like some others, in roulette cafes or in drinking more than is good for the health. That was the situation. There was nothing to stand between us. And so we marry, and I take Susanne to a charming little apartment au troisieme, and we have one little blonde-haired baby, and I know not how more happiness. and I know not how more happiness, could have come to us two simple; loving and contented young Parisians that we were. my friend. Then a thing happen. There my friend. Then a thing happen. There comes a young diable of an artist to the house, and he occupy the etage over our apartment, and he become infatuated with my poor Susanne, and his passion it is the conversation of the has passion it entire house.
"He meet her on the stairs when she go with her little basket to buy greens in the Halles for our dinner, and he meet her again when she return, and he make her compliments of the kind that all Paris girls like and see no harm in, and being a handsome diable and with a good manner, it is only nature to think that he make an impression on to think that he make an impression on my poor Susanne's tender little heart. "Of poor Susanne's tender little heart.
"Oll this I , being the husband, am

If You Like a Little Quiet Fun

Ask some pompous person if Grape-Nuts Food helps build the brain.

Chances are you get a withering sneer and a hiss of denunciation.
Then sweetly play with the learned toad.
Ask him to tell you the analysis of brain material and the analysis of Grape-Nuts.
"Don't know? Why, I supposed you based your ,"pinions on exact knowledge instead of pushing out a conclusion like you would a sneeze.'
"Well, now your tire is punctured, let's sit down like good friends and repair it."
The bulky materials of brain are water and albumin, but these things cannot blend without a little worker known as Phosphate of Potash, detined as a "mineral salt."

One authority, Geohegan, shows in his analysis of brain, 5.33 per cent total of mineral salts, over one-half being Phosphoric Acid and Potash combined, (Phosphate of Potash) 2.91 per cent.

Beaunis, another authority, shows Phosphoric Acid and Potash (Phosphate of Potash) more than one-half the total mineral salts, being 73.44 per cent in a total of 101.07.

Analysis of Grape-Nuts shows Potassium and Phosphorus (which join and make Phosphate of "Potash) is considerable more than one-half of all the mineral salts in the food.

Dr. Geo. W. Carey, an authority on the constituent elements of the body, says: "The gray matter of the brain is controlled entirely by the inorganic cell-salt, Potassium Phosphate (Phosphate of Potash). This salt unites with albumin and by the addition of oxygen creates nerve fluid or the gray matter of the brain. Of course, there is a trace of other salts and other organic matter in nerve fluid, but Potassium Phosphate is the chief factor, and has the power within itself to attract, by its own law of affinity, all things needed to manufacture the elixir of life."

Further on he says: "The beginning and end of the matter is to supply the lacking principle, and in molecular form, exactly as nature furnishes it in vegetables, fruits and grain. To supply deficiencies-this is the only law of cure."

Brain is made of Phosphate of Potash as the principal Mineral Salt, added to albumin and water.

Grape-Nuts contains that element as more than one-half of all its mineral salts.

Every day's use of brain wears away a little.
Suppose your kind of food does not contain Phosphate of Potash.
How are you going to rebuild today the worn-out parts of yesterday?
And if you don't, why shouldn't nervous prostration and brain-fag result?
Remember, Mind does not work well on a brain that is even partly broken down from lack of nourishment.

It is true that other food besides Grape-Nuts contains varying quantities of Brain food.

Plain wheat and barley do. But in Grape-Nuts there is a certainty.
And if the elements demanded by Nature, are eaten, the life forces have the needed material to build from.

A healthy brain is important, if one would "do things" in this world.
A man who sneers at "Mind" sneers at the best and least understood part of himself. That part which some folks believe links us to the Infinite.

Mind asks for a healthy brain upon which to act, and Nature has defined a way to make a healthy brain and renew it day by day as it is used up from work of the previous day.

Nature's way to rebuild is by the use of food which supplies the things required.

"There's a Reason" for Grape-Nuts

Made by Canadian Postum Cereal Co., Ltd., Pure Food Factories, Windsor, Ontario, Canada.

Awarded the Certifleate of the Ineorporated Institute of Hygiene

HORROCKSES'

LONGCLOTHS, SHEETINGS and FLANNELETTES are THE VERY BEST the "Old Country" produces

See the Stamp
"Horrockses"
on the Selvedge REFUSE
SUBSTITUTES

Obtainable

from the Leading Stores in the Dominion
HORROC KSES Ltd. ${ }^{\text {Manchenetier LLondon, }}$ ENELNDO england

When writing advertisers please mention The Western Home Monthly the last to hear. It is usual. But one afternoon afternoon 1 return home an hour before my ordinary time and do not find fore my ordinary time and do not find Susamne. That was nothing Susanne. very fine was nothing, I thet ing, was a was a a very hine something, I then, and when I hold my breath, and listen, and am sure I hear Susanne's voice of finest musie in the room that was over ours. music in the room that was over ours.
"My friend, in that moment I am and jealos ror fine first time. It is hor rible, that first jealousy. It is like the grave made for one's body and that a person points to and says: That is for person points to and says: "That is for you, It is quite ready. You have no you, It is quite ready. You have no more life to live. Lie down and de${ }^{\text {mart.' }}$ " choke and pasp and hold my heart, and still I listen. Then I resolve and on tiptoe I creep up the stairs to the etage of the painter's room, and there I see my Susanne with her little hand on the door, which she hold open and I hear her say oui and non, and anl so kind that I am sure I do right to suspect. And, choking still, I rush at at her and cry 'Traitressel', and take her by the arm and pay no notice to her words of 'My dear Napoleon!' and 'What is the matter, cherip and drag her down stairs, and lock the door and ask down stairs, and lock the door and ask her how she dare be unfaithful, with her goold-haired baby playing on the carpet in the sunshine.
"That, my friend, is jealousy.
"It was the beginning.
"For this time I forgive my poor Susanne. She go on her nnes to me Susanne. She go on her knees to me nid cry and swear she love me more and cry and swear she love me more than ail the world, and that she go to than all the world, and that she go see the painter's pictures only because see the painter's pictures ony because he plead so earnest, and that, if 1 say the word she will die to show her truth the word, she will die to show her truth to me, though it mean to her the o me, though it mean to her the leaving me and la petite alone in the Ceaving me and la petite alone in the world. I make a pretence to be satis.
tiny little grain of true bravery in the sout. I say it from what I have known or though a senseless beast where it oncern my poor Susanne, I was not a poltroon; ma foi, no! ooltroon; ma foi, no Paris, and I never look onces again in the houses of the Rue des Martyrs car be seen. One day I am told that a woman inquire for me with tears on the cheek. 'Your wife,' they said ' 'he the chen. $o u r$ wife, they said, 'she pre tended to be.' But I laugh and tel them to refuse her, and that it is only pleasantry when she call herself my ife. Besides, it no matter much, for he bad news have now come from Lorraine, and France asks for the blood of her sons and do not mind much if woman weep for her husband.
"It soon arrive-the order to march, which I desire. We go in spirits, for it shich I desire. We go in spirits, for it seem to us that we are the ones who shall do the great and noble work and save France. Our fine colonel, Mazare, that was afterwards cut in twos by ${ }^{\text {a }}$ cannon ball, he keep us in that mind, cannon ball, he keep us in that mind, and so we sing Vive la gloire, make dust on the road, pick the grapes where we can, and come one gay evening to Where we see a forest of white tents on the hill slopes and hear the "to the hill slopes and hear the "boom! boom!' that the soldier never after wards forgets, and all the time, though whe net 1 smoke cigarettes and sing and make mysclf bon amrade with the rest, and cry 'Traitresse! traitresse!' to my wounded heart-all the while, I say, I wounded heart-all the while, I say, I see poor Susanne on her tears, beseeching as she exclaim, 'Na. see poor susanne tears, beseeching as poleon! N Nopolen !!

$$
\begin{aligned} & \text { poleon! Napoleon! } \\ & \text { It it is well } t o \mathrm{ta} \end{aligned}
$$

"It is well to have the impressionable heart if fortune give you felicity to go with it; but it is a true misery to have the impressionable heart, and be torn away from the beloved one who has nursed it and taught it to nursed it and taught it to love. I hope,

ADVERTISING

We may live without conscience and live without heart; We may live without poetry, music, and art We may live without friends, we may live without fads, But business to-day cannot live without ads. fied. We embrace, and I forgive, and then we pass a happy evening together looking into each otherss eyes and looking into each other's eyes and playing with baby. We wonder how we ing with baby. We wonder how we can ever have quarreled, and all is joy. That is life, my friend.
"The next day my Susanne hang long on my shoulder before I go, and she caress my cheek and hair with tears in caress my the eye.
"'You the eye. 'You will n bete?' she ask. we part with many times not, and so "But I am a jealous man, not the less. You shall see.
"It is only four days and I strike Susanne. I strike her on her mouth, her rosy mouth with the white pearls in it. And I do more, besides. It is the war time, and the Prussians are at Saarbruck, where we think we settle them. We do not believe the war last. It is only a parade across the Rhineland to Berlin; then a fine peace France gives the law to Europe. That was the dream, my friend.
"I strike my Susanne because the con-cierge tell me she and the cierge tell me she and the diable over us leave the house together that ing, and afterwards 1 wait for no morn'I have done with you, perfide!' I shout and strike her once more. 'I, go to the "And then, with wicked unmasterable anger boiling in me, I rush from the house of our first happiness, and present myself, all red-faced, hot, and with myself, all red-faced, hot, and with broken words on my tongue, at the "Will monsieur be good enough to enroll me as a soldier for the seat of war?' I say to the sergeant. Ma foi! it is soon done. I am no longer a coiffeur, but a soldier. but a soldier.
"My friend, the desperate man makes a terrible soldier if he only have one my friend, you will never understand the truth $I$ speak. I, Napoleon Bouget, say that from the soul.
"Let us save Metz, my children, cry Colonel Mazare to us; " that is Colonel Mazare to us; "that is the duty France has given you.' Perhaps the duty France has given you.' Perhaps the good colonel speak the fact, but if so, our dear land give us a work that is too strong for us. It was different if there had been another incide with the eight score thousands of soldiers; another and not Bazaine. But we have to fight France as well as the sacree Prussia, for that reason, and it is too much. They shoot straight, those infernal needleguns of the sausage-eaters, and we lose It was so the good Mazare die. 'Steady!' he cry as he sit on his horse and keep up on our fronts level on the cut corn of the field. We hear one long bombard and the shots hiss over our look up with caution, and there he lie in two parts, with his eyes not yet settled whether to stay open or shut. we then rise and throw ourselves forward. They cut us down; ciel! how they do it while we run into the smoke and the Prussian voices behind. We stab at them with they are so many as moths on a summer night, and the sauve qui peut sound. When we start there was five hundred and seventy of us, but afterwards only one hundred wards only one hundred and fifty remain fit to fight. I get not one scratch. That is the way. Mother Fortune protects the reckless ones and takes the blood of the ones who plead so hard not to be hurt.
we eat now the bad time begins, and noep how we can and do nothing much except fight. The spaces in the ranks we fill with peasants and others; some from Paris and most others; some from Paris and most from God knows where. I think not from God knows where. I think not much of Susanne now, but all of Winmipeg, June, 1912.

France. Yet when she do come to me, iset the teeth and clench the hands, France. Yet when she do come hande me I set the teeth and clench the hands for I pity her all alone in that Paris for 1 pity her all alone in that Paris and no emperor to keep the canaille, in onder, and I tell of my fears to the one ititle comrade that 1 make my friend all because he sean se though he have a. little fierce black mustache and two tooths out in front.
"Alphonse, I say to him, 'when I am shot, there will be one fool lost to the worla, for I believe in my heart she was true and that I was a beast. But I am a jealous man, and if $I$ was. to go to her again it would all be the same to her again it would all be the same ss before, and I should suspect if she as before, and I should suspect if she only turn her face to another man. only turn her face to another man. cause he let me talk on and say not much himself, only look at me as if he much himself, only look at me as if he understood and was sorry; and his eyes understood and was sorry; and his eyes were the part of him that most of all were the part of Susanne. made me think of Shen one horrible mo iThen on made me one horribe morning, by Epinay, I come to the end of my soldier life. It is only a little affair, but it is enough. They set us in line, and the Prussians they fire and cut us

My Friend the Doctor.

Written specially for Western Home Monthly by Thomas Nelson Page.
 Ledge, visit to Rock big elms by the gray Atlantic, and my acquaintance with Mrs quaintance with Mrs.
Dow's "Jane" were Dow's Jane" were due to John Graeme: "The Doctor," as we used to call him at college. I had received a telegram one day saying, "Come" with me for a loaf on the Maine Coast," and I had "shut up shop" and joined him.
The Doctor was in some respects the queerest man of our time at college. He was, perhaps, not exactly the first man there, but he was easily the first man of oure, set. Other "Meds" were called Doctor; but whenever "The Doctor" was mentioned it was always understood that it was John Graeme. He was not especially brilliant, but he had a divine especially brilliant, but he had a divine enthusiasm, absolute courage, and eyes never to be forgotten. An old doctor who knew him said of hi once, "That young man will either be a quack or a the same," said John Graeme.
So, it was no surprise to us to find him now, ten years later, one of the big him now, ten years later, one of the big doctors, and still with a fiery scorn for the fashionable element. He had the marks of independence: a broad brow, a wide, well-formed mouth, a big nose and a firm jaw. Added to these was a voice always clear, and, when tender, as sweet as a harp, and a manner which was simple, frank, and, without simple, frank, and, without the least formality, with something of distinction in it. But more than these, I think the chief ground of John Graeme's position at college was that he thought for himself, which few of us did then, or, perhaps, do now, and so thinking, he presented everything just as he saw it. Moreover, he felt with every living crea-Whilst the rest of us studied as a learned like parrots, "The Doctor" studied as he liked, read for his own interest the text-books which his fcllow students tried to cram, and before 1 e left college, whether he was discussirg a dog-fight, we sat and listened to him because he threw light on it. In his last year he moved out of, college and lived in tions of the town, in the worst secof that section, in a room over a dogfancier's. It was set down merely to his idinsyncracy, and his $p$-ner on "The Digestion of Young Puppies" was held by wrote of the $t$ because he had heen raising puppies all his life and knew more about them than about babie. One of the faculty said he'd better become a "Y), way, but the Doctor replied that he was gning to practice on chisdren, not on was

Dr. John has said since that this year among the puppies and babies of "Dingy Bottom" was, with one other experience, worth all the rest of his college course. The other experience was this: "The Doctor" disappeared from public view Doctor disappeared from public view for several days; he was not to be found at his room, and when he re-appeared his head was shaved as close as a prize-fighter's. Some said he hau been on a spree; some said he had shaved his head as Demosthenes shaved his. "The Doctor" flushed a little, grinned and showed his big, white teeth. It turned out afterwards that diphtheria of a malignant type had broken out in his suburb, and he had be nursing a family of poor children. When the Profamily of poor children. When the Professor declared in class a few days later that a member of the class had been discovered to have been exposing himself to a virulent disease in a very reckless and foolhardy manner, there was a rustle all down the benches, and all eyes were turned on "The Doctor." John Graeme rose all his long length. Graeme rose all his long length. "Am I the person referred to?" he asked, his face at first white, then red, asked, his face at first white, then red his voice trembling a ittle. we edged away.
"You are," declared the stout Professor coldly. "You had no right to go into the other stedents. You might have broken up the college.:

> broken up the college. "You have been misinformed." The Professor frowned. "What

The Professor frowned. "What dô you "You have been misinformed; I have not exposed myself recklessly. I have attended a few diphtheria cases, but I have taken every precaution against ex posing anyone else. I refer you to Dr posing anyone else. I refer you to Dr the name of the biggest doctor in the city, and sat down.
It, was known that night that John had not only attended the cases, but had performed an operation in the middle of performed an operation in the middle of the night, which, the Doctor stated, alone saved the child's life.
From that time Dr. John leading man in the Med. Clo leading man in the Med. Class When we left college settled in small places, or in the city in which we lived. Such of us as were ambitious began to crawl up with fear and trembling; those who were not, dropped out of the race dropped out of the race. Dr. John went straight to the biggest city to which his money would take him, and settled in one of the purlieus, where he lived on bread and cheese, when-as he said-he could get cheese. could get cheese. In a little while he got a place in a Children's Hospital, and the next thing we heard, it was rumored that he was performing difficult operations, and was writing papers for the medical journals which were attracting attention. It was which were attracting attention. It was in one of these papers the one on "Bland Doctors," I velieve, that he down in bunches. There is much swear ing all round., all 'why do do you', I say whth impatience, fool? You will be shot instead of me "I you do not take care.'
up his little hands, whisper 'I threw, and fall. He fall into my arms and I am glad, very, very glad. For it is only now, when I have carried him behind, that I learn how large is the heart of a good woman. You will guess, is it not so "My little Susanne herself, and she die on my knee with a bullet in the lung. With I am so happy, Napoleon! and there is no more. And then like a mad one I 1 rush back, and in a few minutes I, too, rush back, and in a few minutes I , too, am shot, and there is an end of my am shot, and soldier life."
The Frenchman uttered a sigh, turn "And held out his hand.
aid. "I have taught you good night," he thing, I thope."

THE CANADIAN BANK OF COMMERCE

hEAD OFFICE : TORONTO.
Capital, $\mathbf{$ 1 1 , 0 0 0 , 0 0 0 ~ R e s t , ~} \mathbf{$ 9 , 0 0 0 , 0 0 0}$
SIR EDMUND WALKER, C.V.O., L.L.D., D.C.L., President ALEXANDER LAIRD, General Manager A. H. IRELAND, Supt. of Branches

BRANCHES IN EVERY PROVINCE OF CANADA AND IN THE UNITED STATES, MEXICO AND GREAT BRITAIN

| BRANDON | GILBERT PLAINS | SWAN RIVER |
| :---: | :---: | :---: |
| CARMAN | GRANDVIEW | TRANSCONA | | DAUPHIN | NEEPAWA | TREHERNE |
| ELGIN | PORTAGE LA PRAIRIE | VIRDEN |
| ELKHORN | RIVERS | WINNIPEG ( 7 branches) |

SAVINGS BANK DEPARTMENT

A Savings Bank Department is open at every branch of the Bank in Canada, except in the Yukon Territory. Deposits of $1 and upwards are received and interest is allowed at current rates. The depositor is subject to nodelay in the withdrawal of the whole or any portion of the deposit. Accounts may be openedin the names of two or more persons, and withdrawals made by any one of the number or by the survivot. and withdrawals made by any one of the number or by the survivor. Every account receives careful attention.

GRAIN

Two thirds of the crop year of 1911-1912 are now over. Since the first of September, 1911 to date, we have been entrusted with the largest business we have ever had in handling and disposing of grain shipped by farmers to Fort William, Port Arthur and Duluth. We have, to the best of our ability, squarely, conscientiously, and, so far as it was possible on account of delays in railway transportation, promptly executed the business entrusted to our care, and we now desire to tender our hearty thanks to all those who have employed us, for the large increase in our business.

We have received a great many letters expressing approval of and satisfaction with the way we have served our clients, and these favors have been most pleasing and encouraging to us, and stimulate us to renewed efforts in the future to serve to the best advantage for their interest, all who entrust the disposal of their grain to us.

Write to us for shipping instructions and market information, and Our Way of Doing Business. Also read and study our bi-monthly review of the grain situation in the Nor'-West Farmer.

Thompson, Sons & Co. Grain Commission Merchants 703D.Grain Exchange, Winnipeg, Canada

A GOOD RELIABLE FIRM TO SHIP YOUR GRAIN TO-IDNALI NRBISON & PO, Grain GrainExahaion,

FOR MAKING SOAP, SOFTENING WATER, REMOVING PAINT. DISINFECTING SINKS CLOSETS,DRAINS,ETC SOLD EVERYWHERE

Fi's

One of the most valuable foods known to the Medical Profession. -"The Lancet" describes it as "Mr. Benger's admirable preparation.' Benger's Food is distinguished from the others by the ease with which it can be digested and absorbed. Benger's Food is for Infants and Invalids, and all whose digestive powers have become weakened through illness or advancing age.

Moters and interested persons are requested townie for Booketet "Rengers Food Benger's Food th sold in tins by Druggists, elco, vererywhere.

Get Your Spring Suit

FROM US BY MAIL and get more style, better cloth and better fit than you can get from yourriocal tailor at any price This is not mere talk we garantee absestiteny to do what we claim or refund your money without quest
The 2 Macs is the largest establishment in Canada, coifining cloth Samples and Measurement Blanks free on request Ask your local Miember of Parliament about MACS

WALL PLASTER

The best will not cost you any more than the inferior article or so-called substitutes. Ask your dealer for the "Empire" Brands of Wood Fiber, Cement Wall and Finish Plasters-the highest grade wall plasters manufactured.
Shall we tell you something about "Empire" Plaster Board-the fire retardent.

Manitoba Gypsum Co. Limited

WINNIPEG, MAN. charged that while the investigation of medical science had advanced it patho-logically, it had scarcely advanced logically, it had scarcely advanced it therapeutically at all, and that many of the practitioners were worthy dis ciples of Dr. Sangrado; that they were were. This paper naturally attracte attention-indeed, so much attention that he lost his place in the Children' But, wh

"We will not have Home Rule" say Mr. Bonar typhus fever broke out in one of the most crowded tenement-house districts of the East Side, he volunteered first man to do the hospital work, a newspaper took up his cause, and he got back his position. And soon afterwards he wrote his work on "The Treatment of Children," and laid the foundation of his fame and fortune. Practice begun to pour in on him. Fashion ;ortune he was as scornful as of Fashion; for just as he was achieving both he suddenly turned over his office and his practice to a friend and left for Europe, where he spent several years he was mad; others that he had followed across seas a young widow whose for tune was as well known as her beauty; ne of the belles in the ultrafashir yable set of the city. When he returned he was already famous. For he had written another work that had become a standard. All this by way of prejudice and $t$. show what sort of man it was that how what sort of man it was that dragged me away from my accustomed sum mer haunts to the hittle sun-steeped fish ing village on the Maine coast, and plumped me down in Mrs. Dow's little gray cottage, under the apple-trees, where
"Jane" lived with "Miss Hazle." I hare "Jane" lived with "Miss Hazle." I hot seen the Doctor since we left college until I drifted into his office one morning in the sping, and not then antil I had waited for at least a dozen thers to see him. Most of these had children with them, and I observed that all appeared somewhat cheered up when they left his office.
The last patient was a fashionably dressed and very handsome woman who had driven up to the door just before me had driven up to the door just before me in a brougham with a fine pair of horses and with two men in showy livery on the I had seen her as she swept across ox. I had seen her as she swept across the sidewalk, and in the waiting rooms I the sidewalk, and in the waiting rooms I had a good chance to observe her. She had undeniable beauty, and her appointments were flawless; almost too much so, if possible. A tall, statuesque creature, well fed, richly dressed and maniture, well fed, richly dressed and manifestly fully conscious of her attractions About her breathed "the unconscious insolence of conscious wealth." At this moment she wore a dark cloth morning suit with sables, which always give an suit with sables, which always give an air of sumptuousness to a handsome woair of man.
Her
Her presence caused some excitement who were present. She was evidently known to them, and indeed she must have been known to thousands, for she was one in a thousand. As she waited her self-consciousness increased.
After a time her turn catme and she After a time her turn catre and she was ushered into the office. Theard her was ushered into the office. Theard her greeting, half rallying: Me.ll, as you would not come to me hare had to the big vachits that slipped by outside pocket my pride and come which gave its name to the If the Doctor made any reply I did not $l_{\text {simpler key then at the very fashion- }}^{\text {plate }}$ hear it, and I think he made none, for his face, which I saw plainly, was serious, almost to sadness, and I was struck by his gravity.
Ten minutes later the door opened office as gravely as he had admitted he Her air of self-complacency had vanish ed; her confident tone had changed. I caught the last words of his reply to he parting speech, as she lingered at the poor which he held for her
"I have told you the only thing that will help her-and the alternative. You will help her-and the alternative. Yo must take her where I directed and you must go with her." He spoke as if h knew that his command carried weight. She paused a moment, evidently con sidering, while he waited impassive Then she said with an accent, part dis appointment, part resignation, "WWell appointment, part resignation, "Well, suppose if I must, I must; but it is most sinconvenient. You will come and see her before we go?" He bowed and closed the door, and clad to see you," and led the way int his office. As he closed the door he broke out "These fashionable women! They are when her child's whole life is at stake!" "Who was she?" I asked. She is on "Her name is Mrs. Durer. Sher of those women who have not time to ok after their children." prise, for she was one of the reigning belles of the day, and her beauty was part of the property of the whole country. Moreover, I had heard he gone abroad some years before.
"She is one of the handsomest women I ever saw," I observed, tentatively.
"Yes, she has looks enough," said the Doctor, dryly, and changed the said the not long after this visit to the Doctor that I received one morning me to join him in a holiday on the Maine

Johi: Redmond claiming Home Rule for oast, an invitation which I promptly accepted; for the old ties that bound us The place which he had selected was a little village of white or gray cottages, clustered under great elms, on a rocky slope facing south, above a pretty little land-locked harbor, just big enough to hold the white-sailed sloops which after bobbing up and down outside, came in oo sleep like white-winged water-fowl able resorts further along the coast. "The natives," as they called themselves, were self-contained ai.d content with their superior knowledge, and the sum their supers were as yet simple in their mer vis, as they had need to be in that primal community, where the ocean was regarded by hote The place where we landed from the dusty and somewhat rickety stage, in the shank of a placid summer afternoon, was not the fort-like one hotel, frown ing on the Point, cluster of big appletrees, where for his own reasons, Doctor John had chosen to ensconce himself. He said it was because he liked the por trait of Captain Dow, a wonderfu crait of chich hung in the little parlor Here Mrs. Dow, a determized woman middle age, aquiline nose and temper ample figure and firm voice, dispensed well-ordered and measured hospitality, For Mrs. Dow measured everything through her gold spectacles set firmly on her high nose, a pair of keen eyes meas ured the world with infallible accuracy Though my friend declared that he se lected this place and finish his book, I quickly found out why he had really chosen this quiet corner of Rock Ledge, and avoided the hotel with its commanding position and long piazzas where, through the hot mornings, the summer boarders travelled back and forth in their yellow rockers and "cultivated their minds" or "roasted" their acquaintances; and where, hung placards on their chairs, reading The only other beak to me. cottage was a little high-shouldered girl with a pinched face, glorified by a pair of. wide and startingly blue eyes that gazed at everything with singular in or's and had come there by his orders No one was with her except her goverhess, a spare and angular woman of middle age, with kind eyes and a minor to a degree and appeared to have the "fear of Madame" always before her eyes. She had not been with her little charge long, having, as appeared, been was sent to the country berore the child by the direction of "a big doctor in lown." This I learned from Mrs. Dow well-informed conversation I had with that Tell-informed person. The governess was almost as lonely as the little girl. This I learned from herself in the first conversation I had with her. We had come on her, the Doctor and I, the morning after our arrival, as we strolled, at his suggestion, down by the curving bit of beach, where the tide was licking the yellow sand with a placid motion of a tigress licking her them were working like beavers in the and, digging trenches; building forts, as much at their amusements as if the had been grown people, while their nur ses and governesses gossiped or scream ed after them like so many gulls.
But apart from the ruddy But apart from the ruddy children sat oply of stiff white muslin and lace, with her nurse by her side. As we came on her we saw her nurse turn and shake he up as a child shakes a $\operatorname{limp}$ doll to mak her sit up straight. And for a few seconds the doll sat up. But the little weak back would bend, and the child sank down again with a a look of utter weariness and despair which struck even me. Doctor John gave'a deep growl like me. Doctor John gave a deep growl lik thing about "the fools who were allowed to live." And the next moment he was in front of the nurse, bending over the child and talking to her soothingly, ask the puppy he had given her, and many other things besides. The governess appeared to be a trifle suspicious at firs of this new old friend, but the Docto quickly disposed of her. He announce quickly disposed of her. He announce that he was the child's doctor and ha come down to see her. This was the fact. Having learned that Mrs. Durer had taken the child down to the seasid as he had ordered, but had not remained as he had ordered, but had not remained himself. In a few minutes he had the little girl up in his arms showing her ship coming in, and when he put he down it was to ta a hunt for shells. l leantime he had felt the little twist绪 "Why don't you let her play in the and?" he demanded of the nurse when " "hought her back

"She don't care to play these days and she gets her dress so soiled."
"I thought so."
When he came home it was to hold conference with Mrs. Dow, and tha ing guardian of her own rights singin his praises to one of her serious-faced neighbors in terms of eulogy which would have surprised the departed Cap tain, whose name in the household wa "Lishy Dow", and who, by report of Cap Lishy Dow," and who, by report of Cap ain Spile, had not always received unstinted praise for his spouse during hi lifetime, though, as the Captain remark d, he "guessed he got all he deserved for Lishy was one of 'em."
"He's dead, is he?" I inquired. drawled the Captain; "but I know he" buried all right, for I helped to bury im." But whatever he had been during his need the Captain always received the due need of respect from Mrs. Dow, now that he was dead. Morning after morning she would tear the brown paper from the chops or leg of mutton which Josiah er's, the meat-man, brou ht, and shove say, "Well, just wait a minute-I guess ame phrase, "You take that back to obliged to have something for my folks Gill Carver, and tell him I say he rieedn't to eat, but you tell Gill Carver hc ought think he can sell such meat as that to to be ashamed of himself to try to sell Lishy Dow's widow just because Lishy $\begin{aligned} & \text { such meat as that to Lishy Dow's widow } \\ & \text { Dow's dead and gone." And morning } \\ & \text { just because Lishy Dow's dead and }\end{aligned}$ Dow's dead and gone." And morning just because Lishy Dow's dead and the meat, she would call him back and A circumstance which I did not know

A Remarkable Boot

AS LIGHT AS A FEATHER BUT STRONG AND AS PERFECTLY EASY IN THE WEAR AS AN INDIAN MOCASSIN

Elk Hide Soles

THE NEW LEATHER
 hane-sewn well holesdid boot
 No. 2502 BROWN willow boot, No. 2502 BROWN WILLOW BOOT 4.25 (Postage and Customs paid 85.50 , Arich Nut Brown, stout Ek Hide Soles

SEND FOR A rich Nut Brown, stout Elk Hide Soles.
No. 2503 WHITE BUC. No. 2503 WHITE BUCK SKIN BOOT, 44.50 (Postage nd Customs paid $$ 5.75$ )
 No. 2504 BLACK GLACE ind Customs paid $$ 6.50$.

COUPON.-Please send me one pair of the new Light Elk Hide Soled Boots on approval, for which anderstanding that cash is returned to me in full if am not satisfied and return the boots undamaged

GENT'S Sizes 5 to 11. Wridth No. 3 slender, No. 4 medium, No. 5 wide, No. 6 extra wid Or send outine of foot standinß without boot, and state whether Ladies' or Gent' our registered self.measure form post free
R. E. TRICKER & CO. (Canada depti hand sewn boot factory NORTHAMPTON

England

The Central Canada Insurance Co. The Saskatchewan Insurance Co. The Alberta-Canadian Insurance Co.

INSURANCE AGENCIES LIMITED Geniral, Agents.
Winnipeg, Man. Regina, Sask.
Edmonton, Alt Srandon, Man. and more than 1000 Saskatoon, Sask.
Local Agents in the three Provinces.

Fire Insurance

Live Stock Insurance Hail Insurance

Written under Policies free from harassing conditions.
We give the best possible Insurance Service at the lowest possible cost Our organization is the best in Western Canada for giving Ou That the public recognizes and appreciates the service we give is shown by the remarkable increase in our business from year to year.

If placed with us your insurance will be carefully attended to. We devote all our attention to the needs of our home fieldWestern Canada.
Any information desired will be furnished on request.
JOS. CORNELL, Gemeral Manager. of till later had contributed to the Dootor's popularity. As the Doctor was in the back yard talking to Mrs. Dow the back yard talking to Mrs. Dow about his patient, he saw a little half. crippled girl in a ch ir under an appletree playing with som: scraps of stuff an old doll. Mrs. Dow caught the ex pression on his face and answered his in artieculate question "That's Jane,
"Is she yours?"
"Yes my Milly's. She stays here mostly. Like's to stay with mostly. Like's to stay with me, , because Milly says. But shes so hapless, I don't see as no harm?ll come of a little spoilin' She can't play like other children, an' ali she wants is to set still and sew. You ought to see how she can sew. Speak was now at Jane's side on his knees examining her handiwork and incidentally the little bent figure among the oid pushions.
"She can copy anything," pursued the since she seen the fine things that little thing in the front room has, nothin' will appease, h, When Mrs. Dow told me about it hav ing allowed me a measure of reflected friendship, she deseribed how, all of a suadden, hhe had seen that the Doctor had lost all interest in her; and from the time he caught sight of Jane had not heard a word she said to him. "But I was really ashamed to let him see her so untidy. However, as I say, you can' anise children and chickens without dirt, and you know he said 'that's so'. And now, would you believe it, in five minutes there was Jane up in his lap, talkin to him the same as if she had known him all her life, and she never one to say a word to nobody-not to my knowin, a word to nobody-not to my knowin' I was that ashamed of his seein' that old broken doll, b'cause she's got a better one, but Milly won't let her play with it, and 't appears she likes that broken one best anyway. She calls her 'Miss Hazel.' An' when I explained it to him, he said he liked it best, too, that he and Jane together'd mend it. Oh! I say! that man beats me! And he says he wants me to give him Jane for a little wants me to give him Jane for a little while, and he says he can make her like other children, most. But I mustn't say a word about it to a soul. So I won't not even to Milly. But wen't that be grand? Do you think he can do it? Jane? Why, she ain't got anythin' to build on. But I'll say this, if anybody can, he can. I wish Lishy Dow had seen him-just handlin' her like a mother does her first baby, as if he was afraid she'd break in t, believe he can."
I agreed to this.
After this there was quite a change in the establishment. The Doctor appeared to be so much taken up with the two children that he left me to while he went off with them to play at keeping-house with "Miss Hazel," in a sunny nook between the rocks, where h had with his own hands helped them to fashion and fit up a little house out of first piece of surgery was the repair of the broken doll which he first put in stays and afterwards, to the great delight of the two children, in a little plaster jacket. I soon learned of this; Jane showed her to me, while little Carolyn looked on, and no trained nurses ever got more pleasure out of exhibiting an improving patient. But I did not know until afterwards that the Doctor was treating Jane in the same way, and that whenever he paid a professional visit to the doll he also paid one to the little mistress, having secured her consent The treatment of the little had found more difficulty in, as the governess stood in terror of Madame; and Madame had left strict injunctions that she was to play with no child whom that she was to play with no child whom she herself did not know. "Madame was very particular."
"Well, I have a playmate for her," said the Doctor, and he mentioned Jane. "Oh! Sir, I couldn't let her play with her," protested the nurse. "It would be as much as my position is worth if I as much as my position is worth if should let her play with vulgar children. Madame gave me positive orders
"Vulg
"Vulgar children, indeed!" snapped

Seam-in-front stockings

 would seem absurd! Then why any seam

You have kept on wearing stockings with a seam up the back-shapeless, uncomfortable things! because you probably didn't realize the perfection reached by Pen-Angle Seamless Full-Fashioned Hosiery. These are hose without the sign of a seam-look for the sign of the trademark. As they are being knit they are shaped lastingly to the curves of the foot and leg. They fit-they wear better-and the utter absence of any seam at all makes them ever so much more comfortable. No difference in cost-but much in quality, in economy and in comfort when you buy

Pen-Angle

 rate HosieryNext time you go shopping ask 65 for the hosiery with the trade-

Makers of Underwear Sweaters and Hosiery the Doctor. "There are no vulgar chil dren. Vulgarity is a mark of a mors advanced age. Madame is a fool, I know, but she is not such a fool as know, but she is not such a fool as co object to what I prescribe. Between you, you are killing that child, Between you, you are kill your place a week ifter you have killed her." Whatever the means were, the woman's scruples appeared to have overcome; for in a few days the two little girls were, as I have related, inseparable companions, and even 1 could see the improvement in the little visitor's appearance After this I of the Doctor's to attend one or two of the "parties", given down in "Miss Hazel's house," as the little place which the Doctor had fitted up for them the Doctor had fitted up for them between the rocks was call ; and I an idea of the Doctor's skill in the handling of children. There was a great deal of formality where "Miss Hazel" was concerned, and that ancient and battered lady had to answer a good many ques. lady had to answer a good many questions about her health and that of her friends-as to whether the plaster jacket hurt her, and how long she could remain straped on her board with remain strapped on her board without "Miss Hazel" promoted through the medium of a busband lost at sea and known among the trio as "The Late Lamented," and was, under the Doctor's skilful necromane under the Doctor's skilful necromancy, a devoted invalid aunt, whose only joy in life were her two nieces, two young ladies who had unhappily inherited the Hazel back. This was the Doctor's invention, as it was his care to attend the entire Hazel family. And it was amus entire Hazel family. And it was amusing to see this long-limbed, broad-shouldered man, sitting day after day, carrying on conversations with the span-long doll about her two nieces and their future, while the wan-faced little creafuture, while the wan-faced little creatures listened with their eager eyes glancing at the pictures he conjured up of their future gaieties and triumphs. And when they came home in the afternoon, grimy and happy, with faint traces of color in their wan cheeks, Mrs. Dow unbent and gave us her best preserves in sheer happiness. Even the nurse admitted that her charge ate more, slept more soundly and was better than she had ever seen her. They not only played in the present, but planned for great entertainments when Mrs. Durer should come down-a aate to which her little girl was always looking forward And sometimes they played that "the beautiful lauy," as they called her, had come, and Carolyn would pretend that she was her Mamma and act her part Doctor in such spirits. He entered the the game with as much zest as the children and grew ruddy in the sea air.
"Pies are the real things!" he used to "Pies are the real things!" he used to say. "These Yankees know their busisay. "These Yankees know their business. And of all pies-mud-pies are the best. Mrs. Dow is right; chickens and children must have dirt-clean dirt-to play in to be healthy. If that woman play in to be healthy. If that woman will keep away long enough I'll give that child a chance for her life." in quite the esteem the world gives you credit for?" I hazarded.
He gave a grunt and a grim expression settled about his mou'h. After a moment of reflection, he added: "Oh! she's well enough in a way-as rood as most of those about her, I fancy. But it's the ystem-the life. It's all wrong-all wrong. `hiy, the womanliness-th I don't suppose she ever put that child to sleep in her arms in her life. I have seen women weep and wall and almost die of heart hunger because they have like, trifling away their life in what they call their d id society, while their babies perish or grow up to be like them. Why, I would not give that angular, hard-fatured , wh Mrs. Dow, with her hard-feat ured whd Mrs. Dow, with her sharp tongue, for the whole crowd of

She is rather crustr," I hazarded.
"Yes, lout doep down under the crust a heart is a mintw.."
"She mul-t have a heart. She could not look as mot look as she does." I protested. I was still thinking of Mrs. Durer
"She has no more heart than one of my instruments. "She is so beautiful. I cannot quite "Scept your diagnosis. And the child appears to adore her."
"Yes, she does," he said grimly. "And "Yes, she does," he said grimly. "And that is the worst thing I know about that is the worst thing I know about her; that she Chinese way of destroying vow! the Chinth is preferable. It is at least swifter and more painl."
casting them out as women do."
casting them out as women do."
"I think where children are concerned "I think where children are concerned you may be prejudiced? I reved. from speech sent him of he came with a long-drawn breath. "I had a little sister once," he said slowly, "who one day when I was playing with her fell and hurt herself. My mother gave her life trying to save her.
If we had had a doctor who knew more If we had had a would have got well. Even if she had been let alone she might have done so. She went through tortures inflicted on her by a pedantic ig. noramus, and died. Boy as I was, I thought it then and told him so. I know it now. I made up my mind then, that no other child who came within my reach should ever suffer as she had done; and that I would fight an unending battle against pedantry and pretence. And when I see a mother sacrificing her child to her pleasures I know just where to place her." This ended the conversation. His face forbade further discussion. And when I saw him next time with his little pasaw him next time with his little patients, carefully examining first Miss Hazel and hen Jane and Carolyn with a touch as deft as a mother's, I knew the secret of his success, and I slipped away. secret of his success, and I slipped away. My summer holiday ended before the Doctor felt inclined to leave his patient, and I left him there "keeping house" with Miss Hazel and the two young ladies, and waiting, as both Carolyn and Jane informed me, "to see how Miss Hazel's spine was Hazel's spine was coming on."
I learned afterwards from one of my friends, who was summering at Bock Ledge, that Mrs. Durer towards Septem Ledge, that Mrs. Durer, towarss September, about the end of the season at --,

When the

Appetite Lags
A bowl of

Post

 Toastieswith cream hits the right spot.
"Toasties" are thin bits of corn; fully cooked, then toasted to a crisp, golden-brown.

This food makes a fine change for spring appetites.
Sold by Grocers, and ready to serve from package instantly with cream and sugar.
"The Memory Lingers' where she had her villa, had run down to see her child and beenl wonderfully sursee her child and been wonderfully surprised and delighted at her improvement.
"It's my opinion," said the lady who told me this, "that she was much more interested in that very good-looking and serious-mindea doctor-frien ious-minded doctor-frienu of yours than she was in her little girl. She was al ways after him and he didn't care a button about her. In fact, he left as soon as she came down." I learned also that an unfortunate misunderstanding had arisen with Mrs. Dow, back to. Durer had ta It seems that Mrs. Durer, however, much pleased with the improvement in her childs appearance, had very fixed views as to her social position and as to the children she should be permitted to then play with. When she discovered that her child had been playing with Mrs. Dow's Jane, she threatened the governess with again. The result was natural. Both children wept bitterly and Elishy Dow's widow entered the lists. Mrs. Dow was calm to out ward appearance; but the fire within burned deep. The grief of the childre went to that member which she carefully guarded from public scrutiny; but which could be easily touched if one but knew the way to penetrate beneath the crust.
And she nursed her smouldering wrath And she nursed her smouldering wrath till Mrs. Durer crossed her path. afternoon before she had arranged to the turn to her home, to explain that she would take her child away next day, and to raise some question about Mrs. Dow's account. She was dressed impressively, but it did not impress Mrs. Dow. Mrs. Durer always declared afterwards that the woman insulted her because she would not permit her to rob her. She would not permit her to rob her. She as little knew how exact that careful and scrupulous house-wife, was, as she knew the real cause of her' sudden onslaught on her. A lioness whose den had been invaded and young injured would have been less ferocious.
Mrs. Durer began that had been sent heri; but the score Mrs. Dow had to settle was unwritten. She was simply distant and coldly hostile until Mrs. Durer fr her carriage tile until Mrs. Durer fr her carriage referred to her as "My good woman." A referred to her as "My bood woman." A flash from behind Mrs. Dow's glasses might have warned her; but when she failed to heed it and asked after her "daughter-the unfortunate one-"daughter-the unfortunate one-Joan, inn't that her name?" Mrs. Dow opened isn't that her name?" Mrs. Dow opened the engagement.
"I have "I have no daughter of that name," she said with a lift of her head, "and if I had, I don't know as it would matter to you whether she was unfortunate or not, seein' as you have one that appears a mite unfortunate herself, as you don't look after any too carefully." Mrs. Durer was indiscr net enough to show temper and to reply in kind, and before the engagement was ended, Elishy before the engagement was ended, Dow's widow and Jane's grandmother had told her some home truths about herself which the lady had never dreamed anyone would have been bold enough to hint at. -e knew from that au-horita-tive source that she was a cold-blooded, unnatural woman who left her sickly babe to a foreign woman to care for, and that a strange doctor had had to come and look after the child, and that when she herself had she herself had come, itor. And all this was told with a directness that had the piercing quality of cold steel.
How Mrs. Dow had com How Mrs. Dow had come by this knowledge Mrs. Durer had nomenty and denied every part of it vehementlon denied every part of it vehemently and furiously; but she knew, nevertheless, that it was true and that her enemy had the advantage of knowing it was the truth, and further, of knowing how to truth, and further, of knowing how to use that deadly weapon. So what could use that deadly weapon.
she do but take it out on the governess and eve.a on little Carolyn.
Mrs. Do 7 's comment on the matter was. Dat "Folks as ride in carriages any too often, but if they come around any too often, but if they come around Elishy Dow's widow puttin' on their airs, they'll get it." When next day the little girl with tearful eyes turied up dressel for the the iourney, with "Miss Hazel" clasped to journey, with Miss haze Janes undyher breast as the pledge of Jone ing affection, Mrs. Durer, notwithstand-

THE WELLDRESSED MAN

inspires confidence. To be well-dressed is not to be overdressed, but to be attired in suitable clothing

The Curzon tailoring is something more than ordinary workmanship, just as the Curzon cut is something outside workmanship, just as the Curzon cut is something outside the realm of mere draftsmanship. It means Distinction the realm of mere draftsmanship. It means Distinction only in Canada, but all over the World, wear Curzon clothes

$20 SUIT TO MEASURE  (CARRIAGE AND DUTY PAID) FOR $$ 8.60$  (Talued by thousands of clients at $90).

Most Wonderful Tailoring Oreation of the Contury. Perfect Style, Perfect Cut, Perfect rinish, Perfectly Trimmed.

THERE'S COMFORT AND STYLE IN THE CURZON CUT.
It will pay you to write for our explanatory booklet and free patterns of cloth, fashion-plates and unique list of testimonials. Whese will be found our registered system of self-measurement and tape measure, so that you may with perfect accuracy and a degree of certiude equal to that of a local taller, take privacy of your own home. Complete satisfaction refund money. Will your own tailor guarantee this?
One Sllver and Two Gold Medal Awards.
Read our unique list of unsolicited testimonials. $\mathbf{$ 2 5 , 0 0 0}$ forfeited if not absolutely genuine.

WRITE FOR FREE'PATTERNS.
Addross for Patterns:- CURZON BROS., CLOUGHER SYNDICATE (Depts 103 448 Spadina Avenues Tomonto, Ontario.

(Dept. 103 60/62 CITY ROAD, LONDON, ENGLAND.
133/5 OXFORD
West End Depot STREETS LONDON, 楽 ENGLAND.
lease mention this paper.

Royal Victoria College  MeGill University Montreal.

For R
Students prepared for degrees in Arts. Pure Science and Music. Scholarships are awarded annually. For all information apply to the Warden.

Music Taught Free   Home Instruction

   Home Instruction}
SPECIAL OFFER TO OUR READERS

In order to advertise and introduce their home study music lessons in tute of Music of New York will give free to our readers a complete course of instruction for either Piano, Organ, Vioin, Mandolin, Guitar, Cornet, Banjo, Cello or Sight Singing. In return they simply ask that you recommend their Institute to your friends after you learn to play.
You may not know one note from another; yet, by their wonderfully simple and thorough method, you can soon learn to play. If you are an advanced player you will receive special vanced play instruction.
The lessons are sent weekly. They are so simple and easy that they are recommended to any person or little child who can read English. Photographs and drawings make everything plain. Under the Institute's free tuition offer you will be asked to pay only a very small amnunt, averaging 14 cents a week) to cover postage and 14 cents a week) to cover the necessary sheet music.
No one should overlook this won-it-show this article to them.
The International Institute has successfully taught others and can successfully teach you, even if you know absolutely nothing whatever about music. The lessons make everything

Write to-day for the free booklet which explains everything. It will dress your letter or postal card to International Institute of Music, 98 Fifth Ave., Dept. 349B, New York, N.Y.

Wm. Hawkins, $\begin{gathered}\text { Principal. }\end{gathered}$ send for cataloue

SILK FOR FANCY WORK!
 Satisfactlon guarsited. Add Box M., Orauge, New Jersey

So the governess was sent back into the house to return Miss Hazel, while

 "Send for her at once," he said , and immediately turned all his attention again to the fitle girl who was muttering in her delirium.An hour later there was a rush up the stairs, a murmur without, and Mrs.
Durer hastily entered the room. She lazed with jewels.
"Oh! my angel! My poor little darng. What is it? Are you ill!" She paused as she approached the bed nd then stood still, while a look of horand then stood still, while a look of horstamped there, as though she had turned to stone.

Doctor! What is it? Is she dying?" is very sick," said the Doctor without taking his eyes from the child's face. The woman threw herself on her knees beside the bed, "My darling-don't you know me? Don't you know Mamma?" she asked.
The deep sunken eyes rested on her second, but there was no recognition. They turned away, and the child went on muttering: "Where is Jane! Tell Jane when my beautiful Mamma comes she will play with us."
The Doctor's face hardened at the words. He had heard them often during words. He had heard them often during the past summer, and he knew the sad the past summer, and he knew the sa ending of that dream. The woman a ending of that dream. The the bedside crouched lower

In the Kootenay Valley, b.c was going on to a ball somewheres. And "Don't you know Mamma, darling?" she got in so late she just had time to "No. Where is Miss Hazel? When o the nursent have time to come up so disappointed she didn't go to sleep to sleep rretending that she had "Miss Hazel" in her arms-that's the old doll you mended for 'en last summer-the Madame took her away and her when Moved it best of all, and played that she still had her. Then after she had been asleep a little while she waked and been asleep a little while she waked and asked for her mamma, and when I went asked for her mamma, and when I went $\left.\begin{array}{l}\text { out or she had a burning fever, and was } \\ \text { out head. Ald I }\end{array}\right)$ ught of you at once, because you know har so well, But William-he's the butler, he said as it wasn't etiquette to send for you and -Madame would be home before long", Madame would be home before long."
"Etiquette be d-Doctor, and opening his carriage hed the ed the nurse in and sprang in after her "I was sure you'd come," panted the you anyway, so 1 just put on and see you any way, so 1 just put on my bonnet and came right away," A few minutes later the Doctor was at A few minutes later the Doctor was at the child's bedside bending over her, ex the child's bedside bending over her, examining her with a grave face, while a half dozen sympathetic servants, awestruck at the sudden illness, stood just within or just without the doors.
"Where's Mrs. Durer?" he asked, as he raised her up.
"She must be at the ball by this time," from the opera."

DOMINION EXPRESS

 Money Orders andForeignCheques are payable all over the World. They may be sent in paymentof produce, tax, gas and electric light bills, interest on electric light bills, interest on notes and morttages, insurance notes and mortgages, insurance premiums, subscriptions to premiums, subscriptions to newspapers and magazines, newspapers and magazines, and in fact in payment of all kinds of accounts, whether in or out of town.
We give you a receipt and if the remittance goes astray in the mails we refund your money or issue a new order free charge.
teneuens. cheaues issueo.
navell
money sent er teleanaph Ant cable.
When purohasting Goode by mail, DOMINION EXPRESS MONEY ORDERS RATES FOR MONEY ORDERS:

Don't Break Globes
By using inferior lanterns. Your lantern globe bills will be matlantern globe bills will be matBANEERMuILLANTERS Correctly Bullt. Storm Proof Costs No More Than Ontario Lantern & Lamp Co. Limited Tamilton Hamilton, Ont. all first class dealers

ASTHMA

Learn how you can treble your fun, Marbole Arm 622 Delta Ave., Gladstones, Mich.
the little hands and smoothed the soft hair on the little face which had suddenly grown the white, calm brow. And when he raised up, his eyes, as he glanced at Mrs. Durer, had softened. I. tearned of the death of the little gir through a letter from the doctor which showed real grief and some bitterness. I knew therefore that the story which came to me of his attention to Mrs. Durer was as unfounded as ever. And when, some years later, 1 again visited Rock Ledge, now grown to a water ing flace of the degree which the press ing place of inportance," I was interest-calls some in ed to learn something of her later hised to learn something of her later his tory. 1.
It see It seems that for years the lady returned no more abroad annually, returning just in time each season to exhibit at one of the most fashionable summer resorts on the Coast the creations of the first dressmakers of more and more by the efforts of other artists. All of which was duly chronicled by those sheets which cater to the millinery tastes of the public which are particularly interested a period in which younger rivals appeared to supplant her in the eye of that public, she reappeared at Rock Ledge. She was still handsome Some said, handsomer than ever; but my friend who spoke to me of her, said she was the most discontented woman she ever saw; "she wanted nothing that she had and wanted everything else. The fact is," she said, "she always wanted the moon-she wanted oo marry that big, child; and who performed such a won derful cure in the case of old Mrs. Dow's crippled grand-daughter - you know I replied that I had heard of it; but quite as if I had not known them. "You know she did not have any spine at all." jected. least bit, and your friend took her and just made one for her, and now-"

"I don't know-you go and see old Irs. Dow, in the old cottage down under he big apple-trees, with the lilac bushes hollyhocks-and she'll the peonies and actually made her one-strapped her to board for years-and put her in a plaster jacket for I don't know how long, and now-what do you think!" She paused for breath and in the interval I "-She is a trained nurse-a strapping strong woman-a trained nurse." This was news, indeed, and my mem ory of old times and of my first visit to Rock Ledge having been revived by the conversation, I strolled down that the conversation, I strolled down that afternoon to see Elishy Dow's widow and the old cottage under the big appleI found her, like her apple-trees, a good early boarders that summer; but with her keen eyes still glinting shrewdly through her spectacles, on which the old silver rims had now been replaced by rims of gold- "given her by Jane," as she She still cherished the memory Elishy Dow, and apparently cherishe some other memories as well. She referred again and again to that summer that I had spent beneath her roof, and showed me a photograph of the Doctor as conspicu front room in a place quite as conspicuous as the memorable portrait of Elishy Dow. It also was the gift of Jane, as she explained. Jane thinks of that man-she how much low there's anybody in the whole world just exactly like him. Why, she thinks as much of him as if she was his widder "Ah! I am sorry to hear that" "Oh! bless you! not that away-wh as anybody. I say, you just ought to see her. Why! the Doctor!-Well, you just'd oughty to see her! You'd hardy believe it." And then the details came out quite as my friend had said they would.
Also there came another part of the One summer, not long before "just about dusk--well, good dask," as Mrs. Dow explained, with the particularity atural to her, a knock had come on the oor-the side door that the neighbors sed-and when she had put down the basket she had in her hand with the hood in it which she was "knitting for ane," she went to the door-and there I started to hazard "Jane?" but it was I started to hazard "Jane?" but it was Dow, for according to Captain Spile he was well buried. So I gave it up as someone I could not imagine. Mrs. Dow someone I could no looked triumphant. / Her face became reflective. "Well, I-!" she began, and then her expression softened. "I don't know 'as I ever felt : s sorry for any woman in my life. I never expected to feel sorry for her; but I did. And do you know I took and showed her this hull house and everything that poor little thing had used. And she cried like her heart wauld break. And she asked me to take her down to where the Doctor nade the play-house for 'em that sumbuy that place.
"I never expected to be sorry for that woman; but I was. She was so lonesome. She said she didn't have a soul n the worl' as cared for her-just cared or the money she had.
"And as I was showin' her the room that little thing had had, and the bureau, and pulled open a drawer, there was the dat dirst summer he came here, when he wanted Jane to let him mend her. Jane had given it to that little girl the day hat wom-the day she went away and er mother wouldn't let her keep it hough she cried so-and there it lay ust where Jane put it, with the little plaster jacket on it the Doctor made and all, and when that wom-when she saw it she grabbed it up and first thing knew she fell down fat on tike 'twas her own child.
"Well, I will say my floor is clean. ne thing Elishy Dow al'ays would hav was a clean floor. And when she got up, told her 'No,' I couldn t sell her-'t she was Jane's. Then she asked if I thought ane would sell her; 't she'd give, any hing for her, anything in red to ask what her reply was.
"I told her, 'No-I didn't think Jane would; but I thought Jane would wan me to give it to her.' She was so lone some."

Hidden Fragrance.

Once, in crossing a meadow, I came to Yet I could see no flowers, and I wondered whence the fragrance came. At last I found, low down, close to the ground, hidden by the tall grass, innumerable little flowers. It was from these that the fragrance came.
$I$ enter some homes. There is a rich perfume of love that pervades all the place. It may be a home of wealth and luxury, or it may be plain and bare. N furniture nor the adornment that makes this air of sweetness. I look closely. It is a gentle woman, mother or daughter, quiet, hiding self away, from whose life the fragrance flows There is a wondrous charm in a gentle spirit.
$\mathrm{J}_{\mathrm{R}}$ Miller.
At school David had great difficulty with his arithmetic problems, and his teacher tried in vain to make him under stand. hinally, 'If I should go into your father's shop and say I wanted two pounds of meat, and he only had a pound and a half, what would he do?" for The boy thought profoundould make moment, and then said, "He woul up the weight with his thumb!"

Soft corns are difficult to eradicate, but Holl way's Corn Cure will draw them out painlessly.

Bonnie Prince Charlie Talcum Powder

is of the very finest grade, cooling, soothing and refreshing, making an ideal toilet and nursery powder.

Delightfully fragrant, with the exquisite odor of White Heather By its daily use babies are protected from chafing; their skin is kept smooth, velvety and healthy.
Bonnie Prince Charlie Talcum is recommended to all who suffer from soreness, irritations and from prickly heat.
Gentlemen will find it a grateful aid to comfort after shaving In white or flesh color Price 25 Cents
Decorated with Rooyail Stowart Tartan
design in correct

On sale at all druggists.
Vinolia Company Limited, London, Paris, Toronto $B_{y}$ Royal Appointment soapmatera to $\mathrm{H} . \mathrm{m}$. king Goorse V .

 retund your deposit a may we sollolt a tral order? absolute eatisfaction guaranteed or TERus of susimess :-Any Artiole sent on Approval, Carriage Froe, on - rooolpt of remittanoe. Caer refunded in fuil for goo

 $$ 9.75$
 $$ 3.75$ -

 $$ 3.25$ Goirro sis. Diont fation

DAVIS
PAWNBROKERS (Dept. 144), 26, Demmark Efill, CAMBERYNELL, LONDON, ENGLAND.

Be it ever so humble.

How Guy Watson Secured the Necessary Ingredients of an Earthly Paradise By Lynn Roby Meekins.

$\mathrm{J}^{\text {OHiN Pinare, who whe was mak. }}$ $J^{\text {Hionaires who was mak- }} \mathrm{a}$ to his spring. There he took of his he poured upon her faece cuppulus of the he poured cool water. Presently the eves opened. There was dien breath a s sigh, ald look a deep breath, aigh , a look of wond

- and consciousness was restored -and consciousness was restoread. "But how did set here?"
"You-ah- caene," the young man replied, mentally congratulating himself plied, mentally congratulating han ree uipon tne evasion. upon the evasion.
${ }^{\text {But }}$, you led me
"oh, yes," he said.
"Then I frinted here at the spring" "You, were unconseious here nt the spring, said Watson, who would not hie, but who did not much hind playing with the truth. I feel , "uite myself now, and I must be Eoing, ", haton helped her to rise Hp ealized her fine qualities-a 1orm that was not too large or too small, a faee strong, tender, and open mouth, eyes, and noso all good, and hair that was lovely, thoum pitifuly wet-altogether not ne though pitifully wet-altogether not a great beant, but $a$ very satisfactory grort of young woman. I shall be glad "You are weak, and I shall be glad to escort you home. hall neessary," sho replied. "I am all right, and I know the Way. am the owner of this property, declared Whatson with a smile which had. not a little pride, "and I have a right to see that my muest shall have a safo to see that my guest shall have a safo escort, even though it the myself.
Be-
 "Oh, there is Peggy!" exclaimed the Young woman, taking no time to answer Watson's observations. after the experience you have just had," he "rotested. "Not ride her?" she exclaimed in-that I fell. I was laughing at you and the broken rail, and the reins slipped the oroken rant, and the reins sippeat from me. It wasnt Pegy's fault at atraid of her, that will be the last of my control over her." They had reahed control over her." They had reached the road. "What do vou mean by throw-Pegy's eves looked as if she wanted to say:
Gecause the young gentleman's to say: "Beaase the young ge, queer aections scared me, miss." Pegy obeyed. The young woman extended her hand to Waton, saying, "t thank you for

 She had seated herself calmly in the sadde, and was still 'aughing at watson's remark, when she gave Pegyy the command to rise. With more thanks, and with the final sight of a young man standing in the middle of the road with standing in the mididle of the rad with praise time for that section of supper whose georraphy lies just within the Arctie Circle. Circle you hear the news ${ }^{\prime \prime}$, asked the village gossip. "The pieres have moved into their $b i$ his howe" John Piere's's heart was as big as an bull movement in Wall Street, whero he was a popular and active figure; so when he had emsed hiss mansion, sent out a general invitation to the vill lagers to inspect it, not only desiring the approval of his neighbors, ,ut feel. ing that their good vill would mean ing that their good will would mean nasier times for him in the tuture casier times for him in the future.
Watson was not among the many who Watson was. not among the many wwo he weated haf wat woun his hill, with held trees around it and a view that had begun to study house plans, and to calculate what could be done with his surplus and his savings from his salary The result was a compromise between ouse ast a great deal less than one o John Pierce's small stables.
And so he began. The spring gave him his water supply, the drainage problem was easy, and lumber was cheap. Labor could be hired; he inspected ever. bit of work. There gradually rose his own way. There gradually rose his own future find surcease from the world and from boarding houses.
Now the engineer at the head of John Pierce's elaborate scheme of landscape workmen had come to a nint in the designs which they could not understand Mr. Pierce had heard of Watson, and at once called upon him to straighte out the necessary drawings in Mr. Pierce's library when the young woman f the adventure came in.
"I have met Mr. Watson before," aughed miss make the introductions, and Watson bowed and smiled.
"I hope you reached home safely," he said, but conversation between them was cut short by a question from lionaire.
"You ride?" he asked Watson
"Oh, yes, I spent five years engineer-"Then I'll order horses, and well ride over to that part of the farm and see what is the matter. Here, James, have y horse and the chestnut ready as soon "possible." Thus it began-or, rather, thus it con tinued. The three galloped to the point of the difficulty, and Watson straighten it out in short order. "Well," declared Pier hunder how much a little knowledge will do. But you came for the day, Mr. Watson, and we'll keep you anyhow." "No," replied the young man. "My work's done, and I'll get back to the mills."
"Well, at least we'll take a canter

KNOWS NOW

Doctor Was Fooled By His Own Case For a Time.

It's easy to understand how ordinary people get fooled by coffee when doctors themselves sometimes forget the facts.
"I had used coffee for years and real-did not exactly believe it was injurly did not exactly believe it was injur--the same drug found in coffee-and is just as harmful as coffee.)
"Finally one day a severe and almost "Finally one day a severe and almost fatal attack of heart trouble frightened me and I gave up both tea and coffee, using Postum instead, and since that time I have had absolutely no heart palpitation except on one or two ocfoffee which caused sese irritation "When we began using Postum it seemed weak-that was because we did seemed weak-that was because we did not make it according to directions but now we put a little bit of butter in the pot when boiling and allow the in the pot when boiling and allow the Postum to boil full 15 minutes which gives it the proper rich flavor and the deep brown color. deep brown color. friends and patients to leave off coffee and drink Postum, in fact I daily give this advice." Name given by Canadian Postum Co., Windsor, Ont.
Many thousands of Postum in place of tea physicians use Postum in place of tea and coffee in their own homes and prescribe it to "There's a reason,", and it is explain ville," in pkrg. little book, "The Road to WellEver read the above letter? A new one appears from time to time. The are genuine, true, and full of human in-round the place and have a bite before But ju rapidly then came a servant riding wanted on the Mr. Pierce that he was - for John Pierce never got away from Wall Street so long as he could carry "K wire with him.
"Kate, I'll leave Mr. Watson to you," he shouted as he rode away So her name was So her name was Kate, and she was It was aughter of John frerce!
Pierce's spirits were high and fine. The swept away Watson's reserve like a breeze lifts a mornigg breeze lifts a morning mist. Both were riding noble animals which seemed imbued with the general liveliness. bued with the general liveliness. Mile after mile was covered, and roads that seemed to lose themscives in beautifu woods led to new delights. They had worked around the larger hill, and there as a road Lomewards rising and dipping on newly made grades. The horses ping on newly made grades. The horses had been going faster and faster, and when they struck a straight course they engthened out for a spurt. At the bottom was a turn, and the chestnut Watson was riding lost her feet and rolled. He jumped as quickly a possible, but one foot caught in the stirup, and the horse's body fell upon it Then, with a splendid effort, as if to make amends for the accident, the chest nut rose and began to run; but mor swiftly than it takes to tell it, Kate Pierce had urged her horse to its side and had caught hold of the bridle. Other wise poor Watson might have been dragyed either to in a hospital.
As he untangled himself he exclaimed; That, was beautifully done-beauti "Ally!" you hurt?"
"I never saw it done better, and I've ridden wild horses on the plains," he added, and remounted without answering her question.
But when they reached the house Watson had to admit the truth. His imp told the story, and while he was not seriously injured, there was a very disagreeable twist in the foot. But he aughed at aid, and ate luncheon without betraying any of the emotions that the sharp twinges were giving him. The spell of the morning was still upon him and his conversation won John Pierce, who recognized in him a man of mat ters as well as of manners. So Wat ters as well as of manners. So Wat son was pressed to call, and he did call, bringing his limp with him. Then, after a while, he declined invi tations, and his calss ceased, for Watson had reached the fork of the road. He argued it out with himself. He was perfectly safe in spending his affections upon his house. He was wasting time falling in love with Kate Pierce. So when he started forth he did not turn o the right, that led to the Pierce manwhere lay Hillerest.
The Pierces were loath to let him off because society around Hale was scarce and Watson was a good person to have at the table. Kate Pierce found in him the interest that appeals most to all healthy women-manliness, and with it feeling of comfort that makes converation and its occasional silences natura and good. She had never thought of analyzing her heart and finding Watson's name written upon it, any more than she had of discovering that of all crea ures, next to her father, the best be oved of her soul was her horse Peggy So life went along, and Watson's house kept on going up.
Kate was riding one day when, with out intent or expectation, she took the left of the fork. Presently she saw Watson limping along, and she reined Watson limping along, and she reined in her animal and spoke. They proceeded this way for the mile that in her animal and spoke. They proceeded this way for the mile that stretched to Hillerest. stretched to Hillerest.
She twitted him on his devotion to his ittle house, and said she was preparing to believe the village gossips who could not see why a young man should build a house just for himself. She asked about the supposititious bride.
"She is fair," said Watson with a She is fair," said Watson with a smile. "She has glorious hair, a form smile. "She has glorious hair, a form molded by the gods, a face as tender as molded by the gods, a race as ave as it is it is beautiul, heart as brave good, a soul as pure as it is holy, and she good, a soul as pure as it is holy, and she

Dye Those Summer Things

Scores of Summer Things such as fancy parasols, bathing suits, colored stockings, ribbons, feathers and artificial flowers, hammocks and cushion covers, get faded and dingy long before they are worn out. But with MAYPOLE SOAP
The Clean, Easy Home Dye you can give them a new lease of life, usefulness aud beauty and save many a dollar. No stained hands and kettles, no muss, no work to speak of. 24 colors-will give any shade.
Colors 10c-Black 15c-at your dealers or postpaid with Free Booklet $\because$ How to Dye" from Frank L. Benedict \& Co., - Montreal

BRIGGRR'S Pure Jàms and Orange Marmalade
Put up in 16 oz . glass jars
Put up in 16 oz . glass jars and in 5 lb . sanitary and in 5 lb. sanitary double-top gold lined tin pails.
Brigger's Pure Jams are made from clean, sound Niagar: grown Fruit and Granulate Absolutely Pure.

A WISE MOVE

Before you build that new barn, or-before you rip off that apology for roofing and buy new, YOU should send for our big free book on

Brantford Roofing

It goes into the roofing question thoroughly-gives you plain facts without evasion or qualification. The book is yours for the asking. Even suppose you have no immediate intention of buying roofing it will save you good money to know the facts the book contains.

Brantford Roofing Means Quality

There are so many 'pan-cake' roofings on the market-roofings with a mere paper 'Base,' or body, that it would be a wise move to find out all there is to know about BRANTFORD ROOFING-the roofing that is practically imperishable. Fire cannot destroy BRANTFORD ROOFING because its Base-long-fibred wool-is soaked through and through with pure Asphalt (and other materials)-the mineral fluid that has withstood the ravages of the elements for centuries. But just write for our big new catalogue now. We'll send it promptly-also answer any roofing questions without placing you under any obligation whatever.

Brantford Rooting Company, Limited BRANTFORD  CANADA

"From what heaven will you bring this paragon?"
"Oh, I don't She is as impossible for me as any other angel. And yet I have held her in my arms and soothed her ovely brow with my own unworthy hand"
"And you're going to live in your little house with your books and your ideal-for you know there isn't any such person as you describe?" Oh, yes, there is, but to me she will be an without her knowing anything from it., And," he added with a little laugh, "it's so much safer. If she should come cook nothing but angel cake." cook nothing but angel cake.
They had reached Hillcrest by this time, and Kate touched the whip to Peggy and was gone.
Watson went into his Watson went into his home, now part Iy furnished. Meager did it look, but it was his and he was happy. He had been there fully two hours when he heard the approach of wheels The driver was urging his horses at full speed. As soon as he came withir calling distance of Watson, the man asked him to get into the carriage at once. He was wanted. Miss Pierce had sent for him. He found Kate in the parlor, her face though life had gone out of $t . e \mathrm{em}$. "I sent for' you," she said, "because papa and I were all our family in the world, and I thought possibly you would help me. He came.home and f: id: 'My daughter'"-here she paused. "They will tell you the rest." John Pierce had arrived on the last afternoon train, had walked up the steps of his mansion, and after uttering the two words had fallen-stricken by apoplexy. Watson took hold of things as best he could. He went to the telephone to call the village undertaker. Just as to call the village undertaker. Just as sary to give the details, for it was the story told many times before-a crash in Wall Street, and the supposed fortune of John Pierce reduced to worse than nothingness. Watson ordered that

In Pleasant Shades, no ohe but himself should use the telephone. In that way he could keep the news from every one, at least until the news from every one, at least unt1 the morning, and he was determined that mate should not hear it as long as he could help it. They were trying hours for the young man, but he did the right things in the right way.
Instinctively Kate Pierce clung to him as she had done to no one except her as she had done to no one except her father. Her only relatives lived in California, and they were almost as far a way in kin as in distance. The hardest part for Watson came when he had to tell her of the loss of her fortune. finally, "but Hillerest is almost ready for you."
The tragedy passed, and out of its darkness came a new light. They waitdarkness came a new light. They waited a few weeks, and then, one bright afternoon, after a quiet wedding, they made their way-their bridal tour-to the little house. On the mantelpiece Watson has carved "Be It Ever. So Humble," and in the little kitchen more substantial things than angel cake are deliciously cooked.

Terrence, a lusty, good-natured Irishman, was one of a number of workme The owner of the building, who knew him, said to him one day:
"'Terry, didn't you tell me once that a brother of yours is a bishop?"
"Yes, sor." "are a hod-carrier! "And you are a hod-carrier! The good things of this life are not equally good things of this life are not equally divided, are they, Terry?"
"No, sor," rejoined Terrence, shouldering his hod and starting up the ladder with it "Poor felly! He couldn't do this to save his loife!"

$$
\rightarrow \rightarrow
$$

An Easy Pill to Take.- Some persons have re-pugnancee to pills because of their nauseating taste.

 This is one reason for the popularity of these celebrated pills, but the main reason is their high tonical quality as a medicine for the stomach.

A Trip through the Islands south of Straits of San Juan de Fuca American side.

Written for Western Home Monthly by Bonnycastle Dale $N^{\text {E stood watching a man }}$ a little wharf in a lonely island cove Aided by a team of Aided by a team of horses they drew up long fir poles, standlong fir poles, standing them on end in the water, then drivthe water, then driving them deeply in passing Siawash and his dusky, Japanese-looring lad paddled along, using their paddles most ungracefully, in fact a paddle is just as likely to be an old broken oar as not, as these tivity.

We had only come one mile from th nose into and wallowed, we slid out of wave open cat splashed up, she the first big on her side so long we guessed we were goners. and crept down the slanting cabin stair and carried them up, by this time they had got the old wreck around and we were scudding for the shelter of the island. They were fools it again and over she flopped and in went her nose. It was so dark we could only see the cre: 1 of the waves as they jumped over the fore deck; this time we were sure she was gone, everyone had life preservers and the pumps were the only servers and the pumps were the only things that were keeping us afloat. Well we got the dogs, filled our pockets with the Pumping fresh water from spring below high tide line shores of the great straits of San Juan boxes of negatives and crept up on the De Fuca, where the huge billows crash- outside ladder to the hurricane deck, our ed on the beach with dull thunderous ers-great oriental liners, long grimy tramps, laden with explosives, bound for waters of Alaska ports, and here the waters of this protected Puget Sound were as harmless as a summer We took a nice old throbbing "fluttertail," as they call the stern wheelers out here. These boats, so shallow that the winds readily veer them around and make them very hard to make them very hard to steer, have to cross all the wide passages and heavy waters as well as to creep over the Fritzows of tne mud flats. I overheard Fritz telling a casual chum about one of on her, we started out from wehind an island to crose Admiralty Inlet late one night, the wind was howling in from the Strait- and it was black as your hat, and that bally that bally captain had her bow heavy with a load of oats. Say! Just as soon as we a load of oats. Say! Just as soon as we struck that cross sea she stuck her old outside ladder to the hurricane deck, our canoes were lashed up there and we might have to launch them. It's lucky Don had a strong chain and collar, as he climbed out of my arms once and swung out into the darkness, I pulled him up and we just got halfw y up when the captain spied us, you ought to have heard captain spied us, you ougho $h i m$ heare heard him sweating at me-told that captain some things, told him he was likely to drown us the way he might have to launch those canoes on the in our fifteen-foot canoes, splashed by the spray, for about half an hour, then they got her before it again and away we plunged for the island. Just as we got in shelter that fool ca-tain turnthe way. down the Inlet, but he ran her ashore, and as the tide was going down it left her high and dry on a sandbar and led into the wet beds, dogs and all.

unRRaLLANMAMS Flopida Water

 cthe Untrast Porfumbe

Well, Well

THIS is a HOME DYE

 (1)IV, that ANYONE

OLEAN and SIMPLE to Use.

The Sauce HE Likes
The best housewives know when a man has once tasted H.P. he desires no other.

We jumped off at a little tide pier. I was very anxious to get a sea spider, a $\begin{aligned} & \text { were wound up, lashings were made, she } \\ & \text { wassed baywards at the end of a }\end{aligned}$ was very anxious to get a sea spicer, a a most curious member of the crab family. $\begin{aligned} & \text { was passe } \\ & \text { fourinch and now awaits her fate. If }\end{aligned}$ By walking across the ridge, on to the the wind changes another point she will might be able to find one diven ach aro by the last storm. The tide was out and mare terrifying strugg'e than when the gasoline shot out to turn in for the pier by the last storm. The tide was out and we searched all the low caverns under gasoline shot out to turn in for the pier.
Up, upe would struggle like a long, we the great rocks, where the octopus hides, ind
 all kinds. Several of these rocks had hat botom, she would plunge down the great piles of empty shells near them and piles of empty shells near them and once we saw the long muscular arm of a devilfish creep back from our prodding stick. It was late in the afternoon when we finally found a hunched up mass of arms and shell, the rare sea spider. Its crab-like arms were eight in number, about like arms were eight in number, about seven inches long, two of them had great toothed claws, under the head a number of fine feelers shot out, between the two greater claws were valve holes, into these this strange creature sucks his prey. this strange ereature sucks his prey.
Looking like a reddish spiney rock, lying perfeetly still, it waits the approach of any larger prey, these it grasps in the cruel claws. Its shell was as big as the half of a football, it weighed almost three pounds, a rarely cast up deep sea specimen. I sititing these lines in a little I sit writing these lines in a little trailside house on the banks of the foam-crested roner, disa high flung mass of spray.
All the steam craft are waiting; the captains, a silent group, are huddled in the lea of a pile of logs, watching the the lea, of a pile of log, watching the sky, for a wind out of a clear sky, veersky, for a wind out of a clear sky, veer-ing half the compass as this one did, is ing half the compass as this one did, is liable to change any minute. As the sun goes down, and the darkness seems to add fury to the storm, the sullen crash, add fury to the storm, the sullen crash, and deep reverberating boom of a rottenhearted "first growth" in the forest abore wind and sea. All we can see now are the bobing lights of the little fleet when the bobbing lights of the little fleet, when one disappears we ask one another in whispers "Is she gone?" No! There whispers "Is she gone" No! There shines her light again and Fritz appropriately hums the old tune so dear to the English church: "Eternal Father

A typical Vancouver Island scene Sound. Outside a son'-wester is howling in all its equinoxal fury. Borne on the $\begin{aligned} & \text { restless wave." When morning broke we } \\ & \text { rushed to the window, the sea }\end{aligned}$ in ast its equinoxal fury. Borne on the blasts is a dull, rumbling and pounding of a big shore-driven raft, many sections of giant firs, bound into small rafts by ninety foot boom sticks. These huge logs, many of them seven feet through and forty long, make a deep raspore booming note I have never heard before At the small pile driven wharf a motle At the small pile driven wharf a motley crowd of steam craft are partially shei tered, straining and creaking before the force of the blast. The catching, the work ene came here to photograph, are lashed to the piles, pounding and rollirg, bot to the piles, pounding and rolling, both with steady streams of smoke downpourwith steady streams of smoke downpour ing from their funnels, ready to slip ing from their funnes, ready on the first sign of a change of wind, run right into the heet of the gale, as there is no other harbo for miles around. A big piledriver in tow of a little gasoline tug vainly tried tow of a little gasoline tug vainly tried to make the shelter of the little pier, but backwards, as she dragged the tug out into the mad waves. Hook after hook on great four inch lines was thrown over before the big flathottomed craft was halted, then on another clange of wind halted, then on another change of wind she bore down on the harbor, the anchors

A CUP OF  BOVRIL

COSTS LITTTLE
but the comfort and health the increased enjoyment and power it will give you cannot be measured by money.

WANTED
Live wild animals Bear cubs, foxes and rox cubs, mink, bearer, lynx, martin, bad ger mountain lion, mountain goait, wild geese ge

JUST RIGHT AND TIGHT Was safe.
Water, water everywhere, and not a drop to drink. provided with These islands are poorly drinking provided with drinking water, what springs there are usually lie near the shoreline springs there are usualy lie near the shoreline, some below high tide. These are piped to by families dwelling a half mile inland the shinieg mile inland, the shining lead pipe climbing cliffs like some long grey snake wis ing clifs like some long grey snake. We had wandered far, Fritz was constanty had wandered far, Pritz was eonstantly complaining of the empty water flask. complaining of the empty water flask.
At last we saw a man lookking at us over the top of one of the great clay clifs The top of one of the great clay cliffs; Fritz scrimbled up full tifty feet, then hie was a short half he was a short half way and found out where we could sleep and eat. Back across the slope we where we could sleep and eat. Back across the slope we toiled. In a little cove we saw the hardy Dane or Swede, luilt on piles below high water mark, reyular squatters Passing the sto may come right in," the sid in her hroken, English, then the wift, a Danish woman, took us uphairs ald shew woman, took ustars and showed us int a nice clean romom. Coming down after we had washed up we met her

A typical pile driver.-Pacific coast wharf. again. "I hop you vill 'scuse us, tings not all right yet. I loss my little baby." $\begin{aligned} & \text { chopper. "Oh! dat is allrite, dis is a } \\ & \text { public house, do not go away-it iss all- }\end{aligned}$ | not all right yet. I loss my little baby." | public house, do not go away-it iss all- |

| :--- | :--- |
| I told her how sorry we were, thinking | rite," he answered. We went out in the | the trouble was at least a week past. $\begin{aligned} & \text { warkness and smoked our pipes. That }\end{aligned}$ Waiting for supper in the little sitling $\begin{aligned} & \text { poor } \\ & \text { room, Fritz detected a subtle odor of } \\ & \text { us for the respect we felt ought to be }\end{aligned}$ carbolic acid and remarked of it to me, paid to the dead, so early next morning carbo we were called to supper. At the then

head of the table sat a little fat Dane, $\begin{aligned} & \text { pe reeled off ten miles, hunting the place } \\ & \text { where the giant starfish are. }\end{aligned}$ an old man, clothed all in black, across from us were two women and two children, likewise dressed all in black. Half noting this we began our supper, then I heard the little girl behind me say: "Oh!
We nefer will carry little Ollie in "our We nefer will carry little Ollie in "our arms again." Then it all flashed upon me. A funeral supper, the mourning relatives (although they showed no sign of grief), the little minister at the head of the table. The moment supper was over I left the table, whispering to Fritz the facts of the case, then I sought the father in the store to tell him how sorry ${ }^{\text {sinderness. Along she cams }}$ for that we were for intruding. Ahead of us entered the little fat minister, behind the tall pile driven wharf, neatly bumping counter the Danish father of the dead $\quad$ piles and she was away again before you child was counting out candy eggs into could say "Jack Robinson." a paper bag for a waiting boy. The old I think the oft expressed opinion of the to the church and get all tings retty. . ballasted, tender craft is having some ef"Oh! I tank you," from the busy Dane fect, as already two of them have been (the candies were five for a cent or thirty "swansoned," as the shipwrights call add for five. "Yes, I'll see 'bout rin'ing of de bell" continued the minister. "Oh! I ing a false side to make a tender boat wider and more staunch, but we note bell" continued the minister. "Oh! I tank you so much. One, two, three, four, five-good-bye, tank you, tank you," and as the door closed on the kind old pastor Oh! I haf lost my co nt" and out poured the miserable little candy eggs from the paper bag. Once he had the count correct and had amassed the five cents I told him how sorry we were that ee had intruded how sorry we were that exempt from these observations, the ones we had intruded upon his trouble-by be called steamships and not racers, this time the wife was selling shoes to a $\quad$ Bump! We had st:" ck our home dock Barrie's Reef Rocks, the home oi the Devil Fish at high water.

The Pacific Spider Crab.

| (and Fritz and I stepped thankfully off), | question of when we would strike shore | | :--- | :--- | utterly refuting the statement of the captain to an inquisitive passenger's captain to an inquisitive passenger's

Canadian-Phoenix Insurance Company

Head Office : Brandon, Manitoba

 AUTHORIZED CAPITAL, $$ 500,000.00$ Full Government DepositMessrs. McMeans, Miller E Co.,

general, agents

Bank of Nova Scotia Building, Winnipeg AGENTS WANTED IN UNREPRESENTED DISTRICTS

$$
\begin{array}{ccc} \text { A. E. McKenziè, Esq., } \\ \text { President } & \text { Major A. L. Young, } & \text { Vice-President } \\ \text { Managing-Director } \end{array}
$$

When writing advertisers please mention The Western Home Monthly.

EVERY WOMAN IN CANADA KNOWS BENSONSPREPAREDCORN

The purest and finest corn starch obtainable.
They know what delieious and satisfying desserts it makes.
They know what snap and piquancy it gives to sauces and gravies.
They know how indispensable it is in baking and pastry making.

THEREFORE LET YOUR WOMEN CUSTOMERS KNOW THAT YOU HAVE IT

Display it on your counter and shelves -quick sales will follow.

The Edwardsburg Starch Co. movireat caravan TORONTO

 BRANTFORD VANCOUVER

[^0]
Good Taste in Home Decoration

Individuality in Dining Room Furnishing Makes it one of the Pleasantest Spots in the Home. By Edith Charlton Salisbury, Professor of Domestic Science, Manitoba Agricultural College.

Certain people find much pleasure in $\left\lvert\, \begin{aligned} & \text { lars and cents. But in individuality, in }\end{aligned}\right.$ going over new houses and apartments that are orertain unobtrusive beauty and in simthat are open for inspection, "just to see the decorations and how the rooms are the decorations and how the rooms are arranged," they will tell you by way of $\begin{aligned} & \text { ishness could ever be, they were a per- } \\ & \text { fect delight. Let me tell you of a }\end{aligned}$ arranged, they wit it interesting to notice expheneon that stands out in memory as which rooms in such houses prove most a feast of the gods. No, I cannot tell attractive to these people; one can get a little insight into some phases of the various dishes that comprised the luncheon menu, for I don't recharacter by listenin, to the reports of member one of them. I know there were character by lhese visits. The woman who lnves to $\begin{aligned} & \text { member one ourses and those exceedingly } \\ & \text { only }\end{aligned}$ \begin{tabular}{c|l} entertain, who is fond of making a good  appearance before her neighbors, talks \& simple, but I know I was refreshed and  stimulated and satisfied as I could $\begin{array}{ll}\text { appearance before her neighbors, talks } & \begin{array}{l}\text { stimulated and satisfied as I could not } \\ \text { most about the size of the drawing room }\end{array} \\ \text { have been } t \text { the most formal table } d\end{array}$ and the splendid hall; the woman who hote dinner. It was the surroundings, holds the reins of her household in her the charm of the color scheme that satisown hands and is its chief worker grows fied my hunger and gratified that some eloquent as she tells you about the con-  venient kitchen and its various devices \end{tabular} \(\begin{aligned} \& thing within me which always responds

& to color well applied. It was a north\end{aligned}\) | for making work easier; the same excel- |
| :--- | :--- |
| lent housekeeper will not fail to remark | \(\begin{aligned} & room where the sun peeped in only on

\& the brightest days and then for only a\end{aligned}\) lent housekeeper will not fail to remark on the commodious and convenient closets and the big sumlit bedrooms. But after all no place receives a larger share of comment than the dining room, because the majority of people realize that much of the enjoyment of any ing with darker and lighter shades. The house, as a home, depends very much $\begin{aligned} & \text { room was low-ceiled and irregular in } \\ & \text { shape. The woodwork was weathered }\end{aligned}$

Simple and conventional but individuality attained in flowers and silver. on it. There is a class of men and oak-a mistake in that dark room, but women who see wing houses, the dining rooms in which are always dark and gloomy unless illumin- ed in panels end there was a plate rail ated with artificial light; the windows open into wells or stare hopelessly at the blank wall of the adjoining building. Such people are unaware of the influence of bright, congenial surroundings in successful living. If cessful living. If this class of people did not exist there would be no one to did not exist there would be no one to rent or buy houses with dark rooms, and in a short time such would cease to be built.
There is not a room in the house that brings a larger return in genuine satisfaction and pleasure than the dining room when attention has been given to its decoration and furnishing. I have been in homes where each meal was anticipated with veritable joy, not because we expected a sumptuous repast, but be cause we were eager for that feeling of supreme satisfaction, imparted by the perfect harmony that pervaded the dining room. I have been in other homes much more elaborate pertaps in and furnishings that for some unexplained reason took the edge off appetite and robbed the entire petite and robbed the entire menu of its flavor. Why? Because lacking in every particular. Mind you the amount of money spent on furnishings, the lavishness and righnes of your china and silver are by nopmeans a surety that your ty that your dining room is a success from an artistic viewpoint. Some of the most interesting and charming rooms I I have khown have cost but little in dol. tainest of yellow silk and the side curtains were of brown rep. The furniture matched the woodwork. line matched the woodwork, simple ine unobtrusive to the eye. lou were conscious of it, chiefly from and casement windows over the low buffet. One could ver-- easily forgive the mistake of putting dark woodwork in a sunless room when it was condoned by casement windows which certainly are men, are more beautiful than useful. But when there were two other windows for that utilitarian purpose we trinsic value beauty for its own inrail the wall alone. Below the plate a peculiarly mellow tint of the same fascinating yellow, the color which has the chastene old red gold and hides within its gestion of balmy autumn days. Little Things Which Insure Comfort. The floor, dark wood, like doors and windows, was bare, except for a single rug in the centre, the colors of which were a mixture of rich brown and yellow, a faithful copy of leaves as they cover the ground after a killing frost in early fall. The casement windows had leaded panes of dull glass as should had leaded panes of dull glass, as should walls. The curtains next the windows were of white net, over-hung with the

THIS LADY GIVES A SPLENDID REASON

Why she would not be without Dodd's Kidney Pills in the House.

They helped her husband and cured her own Rheumatism, Dropsy and Gravel of thirteen years' standing. of thirteen years' standing.
Cando, Sask. (Special) -"I would not be without Dodd's Kidney Pills in the house," exclaims Mrs. Jno. C. MacKenzie, Mrs. MacKenzie's story do not wonder that she is so emphatic.
"I was a victim for about twelve or thirteen years of Bladder and Kidney trouble," Mrs. MacKenzie says. "It grew into Rheumatism, Dropsy and Grew into Rhel. Doctors attended me but they did not do me any good.
"My husband had used Dodd's Kidney Pills with good results so I decided to give them a trial. Before I had finished the first box I was greatly benefitted." Dodd's Kidncy Pills berefit and cure permanently all who suffer from any form of Kidney Disease. They cure the form of Kidney Disease. They cure the kidneys and cured Kidneys strain the kidneys and cured kidneys strain the poison that causes the disease out of the poiood. That's why Dodd's Kidney Pills never fail to cure Rheumatism, Dropsy and Gravel.

Panelled wainscot and beamed ceiling make this room beautiful. its comfort. The chairs had broad seats $\begin{aligned} & \text { bination is frequently seen and is ruin- }\end{aligned}$ dining room chairs. The sideboard was ous to any suceess in artistic decoration. inexpensive and still lacked the unde be better exolud from wining sirable points of cheap furniture. It rooms. There is a dark rich shade which was neither ugly in design nor made looks well in certain rooms where there made no pretensions of being anything $\begin{aligned} & \text { is a good deal of woodwork in white } \\ & \text { enamel. But it is a mistake to think }\end{aligned}$ pieces the plate rail were two or three peces of good pottery, chosen, I fancy, because their design and coloring gave the last touch necessary to a perfect with misgivings, fearing that some one may think I approve of it in its popular style, when I do not. I would rather style, when I do not. I would rather have walls quite unadorned than have a have walls quite unadorned than have a plate rail of the ordinary kind the shelf cluttered with ohina of all sorts shapes and colors, vases of many styles, not to mention candlesticks, a photograph here and there and an accumulation of six months' dust plate rail such as that dust-free would require more time than the ordinary housekeeper can honestly afford to spend on the daily or weekly dusting. permits of variety in wall decoration, makes a high-ceiled room appear lower, and with a few carefully selected ornaments on it, takes the place of, and is more suitable for dining rooms, than pictures. great addition to its comfort if the room is sufficiently large to allow space be large enough that the table may not be too near the fireplace, else the person who sits next to it may be uncomfortably warm when a fire is burning on the hearth. Then, too, the mantel best suited for a dinins room is devoid of ornament, a severely simple affair of brick or stone with a plain shelf on top.
Over this shelf should hang a good picOver this shelf should hang a good picture-perhaps the only one in the room -in preference to a mirror which is never desirable

A Black-List of Things to Avoid.
In furnishing a dining room there corations and colors. I would head this list with golden-oak wood trim and furniture, either dull or polished, and red that red makes a cosy, attractive room, the color absorbs the light and makes it still gloomier, except in artificial light. light.
are so fore of any red in the room, if you are so fortunate as to own a mahogany dining set, else you obtain what is termed "hot color." Furniture of that beautiful wood looks better with beautiful wood looks better with white enamel woodwork than anything else enamel woodwork than anything else and blends harmoniously with some shades of dark blue, green and brown in decorations.
The black
The black-list should include, too, the top, framed by tiers with a mirror on this, framed by tiecial brand of sidebroard usually costs a lot of money and makes a big showing, but of a kind that can never but in a way that makes the person, sensitive to line and curve, wish to apologize for it. Don't permit anyone to persuade you that such a piece of to persuade you that such a piece of furniture is necessary to the good appearniture is necessary to the good appearance of your home. If it must be that or none, choose none and substitute instead a cupboard which can be painted or stained to match the woodwork.
On the black-list put all trimmings, in the way of ribbons tied on ohairs, a bow of ribbon fastened to the sideboard scarf, and all trifles that rightfully belong to the boudoir and living room. keynote of the dining room.
Walls Made Attractive With Burlap. While the furniture of a dining room to table, sideboard or buffet, chairs and serving table, a great deal of latitude for individuality is allowed in selection and arrangement of colors, materials Two rooms exactly alike in size and general style may present two totally furnished according to individual tand It is the individuality put into a room

White enamelled chairs and woodwork are frequently seen in present day dining rooms.

Write for Sample Card.

Xtra Speedy Plates give you results like this-fine, gradations and detail.

Booklots Free
A Complete Course of Photographic Instruction ; a set ot five Wellington Booklets-dll about plates, papers and films, and how mention this paper.
Save money, time and disap
Save money, time and disappointment by getting these bookpointment lets NOW.
WELLINGTON & WARD
MONTREAL

TO BE UP-TO-DATE
You Want a Now Costume sidert.
Let ns make one in the latest style and cut.

APair of Ladies' shoes suate IIVEN ABSOLUTELY FREE as now worm

When writing advertisers please mention The Western Home Monthly. which gives it its Pgreatest charm. have seen two rooms similar in size, ex etc., but when decorated and furnished according to the different tastes of the occupants were as much unlike as two rooms could be. Perhaps no part of the decoration is more important in determining the character of the room than $39, $58, $80, Etc.

The 1912 Model Eornless Latest and best. Wonderfully loud and perfect tone Why Pay $$ 100$. We want you to Look for the famous Watch Case Look for the Reproducer and ther Columbia Patents.
$29, $58, $75, Etc. For Those Who Still Like the Horn Style OF TALKING MACHINE. Special Bargains in Cylinder Mach old Machines tal

TERMS: From $$ 5$ Down and $$ 3$ Monthly The Disc style is the best. Out of every thousand machines we sold last yeari,when we were selling all makes, 934 were disc, and of these 887 were Columbia Disc. Norcllca, Constintino, Boncl, Gardon, Allce Nollson, Cavalleri, Blspe so,000 Records in stock, Inclualing all Donble disc rrcords, two different selections, 85c. Imported English. Irish and scot

HNTHTEFE DNDND 295

 PORTAGE AVE. WINNPEG. WINNPed with. paper lacks something of the cosiness, the air of hospitaliy, which burlap imparts. No safer direction can be given for decorating the walls of a dining room than to have it panelled be low the plate rail and the panels cover ed with a good quality of burlap of the ed with a good quality odo of harmonizdesired shade with a dado ing paper above, a lighter tone than the burlap. Do not use two colors either contrasting or opposing on the walls, as, or instance, green burlap with cream dado, as is sometimes seen; the effect of changing the dimensions of the room, but always gives a patchy appearance. Remember too, that the burlap should always carry the strongest color in the wall decoration. If you select good quality which nowadays is especially prepared fo durability and cleanliness and have it put on properly you will have a wall covering that will be satisfactory for a long time. One can get any color that is suitable for down-stairs rooms and in ones that blend delightfully with draperies and floor coverings.

A Hint on Floor Coverings.
For a dining room one rug, large enough to extend several inches beyond the chairs when they surround the rugs. The varieties generally preferred are Wiltons, Axminster, Brussels, or Oriental, if the purse is full enough. But have see: some very inviting dining ooms in country homes where the hard wood floor had no covering, others in which Japanese matting and hand woven rugs were used. he cost that results in satisfactory furnishing as it is the color arrangement.
There is a fashion at present to use dining rooms. The table may be white enamel, too, or it may be mahagony or dark oak. Generally the buffet is dis. arded and a china closet in the wall is and deep red this style of furnishing is effective, the chief objection to it is that one soon tires of it and wants a change after a season or two. If this the white enamelled dining room.

Unless worms be expelled from the system, no Child can be healthy. Mother Graves' Worm Extermin worms.

-And DON'T Forget theMapleBuds.Grandpa! "

The Hungry North.

Written for Western Home Moothly by G. W. Bart lett Arden

 ( $2, y$ gry capacity fir food," on n northern traveller. 4chare 3 This statement is no of meat, the Eskimo will continue his perations until he has eaten himself to drowsiness. This amaz ng consump-people alone, but is shaded to an almost and even by the old time fur traders. In the palmy days of the early fur trade, the voyageur on the Winnipeg to stay the gnawings of his hunger until he could obtain a square meal; but by no means was it to be accepted as a In the Churchill district, Wm. Auld, who was chief of the IVorthern Department of the Hudson's Bay Company concerning his Orkney employees that their stomachs were "so distended with oatmeal diet that they made no great matter of swallowing ten pounds of venison at a meal," Equally extravagant as the merest common incidents, in reports from the various northern posts of the great fur company, illustrating the unsatiable appetites of the men of the north. One of the most extraordinary accounts which has yet come to hand is taken from the journal of one of the earliest traders among the Saulteaux of the west. It is an account of a feast then spirit of a slain bear by devouring his body in his own hnnor. The ceremony was both social and religious. One most rigid condition was that the entire carcass must be divoured at one sithal five white men, two Indian men, and three Indian women, sat down to the feast-a party of ten to eat a huge black bear. Out of regard for his deficiencies as a rale face, the narrator, Alexander Henry, was let off with a ten pound cut, his men receiving slightly larger portions on their dishes. The Indians, with serene confidence in their own powers, took the lion's share.
"One of them," writes Henry, "had the head, the breast, the heart, the surrounding fat, together with the four feet; all of which he successfully swallowed in less than two hours. He as well as the other Indians, had finished long before I other Indians, had finished long before I had got through half my toil. My men were equally behind he id.
"In this situation, one of them resorted to an experiment which came to a ludicrous issue. Observing that a part of the cheer would be acceptable next day, when his appetite should be returned, he took a large portion of the contents of his dish and made it fast to a girdle inside his shirt Meanwhile, finding myself unable to perform my part, I begged the Indians perform my part, to assist me, which they willingly did, eating the rest of my portion with as much ease as if their stomachs had been empty. empty. feast being now brought to an end, we arose to depart, but when my man, who had concealed his meat, arose, man, who had concealed his meat, arose, two dogs, guided by the scent, seized the two dogs, guided by the scent, seized The treasure and tore it to the ground. The Indians were greatly astonished. They declared that the dogs had been guided by the great spirit to frustrate the proby the great spirit to frustrate the part fane attempt to steal away this part of the offering. As matters stood, their ony course was to put, the fire and consume it."

Doctor: "I don"t think it is anything ery serious, Patient: "But, doctor, do you know Doctor: "Yes; I am a friend of the proprietor."

With the Preacher in the Rockies.

On the Trail. By Chas. L. Cowan. Written for The Western Home Monthly.

St. Paul's Church, Galena, B.C Thanking his informant, the mission ary proceeded onds fall; the trail was usty, and the day brigg aivilized life had not taken from the landscape its natural pieturesqueness, and the wild rugged beauty captivated the traveller Straight and tall tamarac, great white ine, spruce and fir treed grew in pro usion all around. Nature was showing the handiwork of its Creator, trees were "clapping their hands."
An hour ot two later the lonely shack of a gaunt prospector was passed. Of him it has been written:
"He is rough, he is crude - but the Is but rough and but crude in the life With the wind swooping down with a And the night with its lonely array of Yet he does not make moan over what But looks out on his conquest - 'The found traces of gold, has staker He has found traces of gold, has staked his claim, and now is awaiting the advent of the rich investor.
Climbing painfully up a steep ridge a wonderful scenic panorama burst upon fore him was a gently sloping, thickly timbered, foothill. Behind that again, owering high and lofty were the Selthe valley. In the distance, shelv a be tween two peaks, with another majestic peak towering behind as a backtic peak towering behind as a background, the sun beat down upon a ground, the sun beat down upon a glacier of immense proportions. The combination ed by the soft glow of the afternoon sun, the huge mountains impressed-no, that word is too weak-filled the beholder with awe and bewilderment and lamation of delight and wonder. The Yaples, the worrento across the Bay of surely, that wonderful Umbrian plain, that day from the camp trail! It rom the forest, from the glowing tints, fiel: "Behold and worshin!", and Wonder that E. B. Browning's lin rushed to the missionary's tongue:

Tobey Creek, Columbia Valley of little children makes no welcome disturbance. The lumberjack is without the uplifting grace of the true home life; and there are no facilities for the cultivation of intellect and character. all nations gathered in Alexandria and Athens, or in modern days in Paris and Athens, or in modernps men of all na-Rome, so in the camps mate. Social dis-tions and creeds congregate. tinction is unheard of; $\begin{aligned} & \text { burdensome } \\ & \text { chains of etiquette and irksome bonds }\end{aligned}$ chains of etiquette and irksome bonds of so-ealled "good form" are rudely snaped asunder The Italian, Britisher, ore snapped asunder. The Italian, Britisher, German and Russian sit ise by German and Russian sit side by side at the same table. In no place is the Broththe same table. In no place is the Brotherhood of Man nearer realization than in erne lumber camp. Six-thirty a.m. finds the woodsman at breakfast; that finish-

REMEMBER that a Cream Separator that does not work PERFECTLY RIGHT isn't worth what you pay for it, no matter how MUCH or how LITTLE it costs.
Therefore, when you come to buy a Cream Separator, look for the name

"PREMIER"

a SMALI thing to look for, but a BIG thing to find, for it is a Cream Separator that will meet with your highest expecta tions. The extraordinary value of this extraordinary Cream Separator has built up a great demand simply of itself.

Simple construction ; no repairs; more cream: less work; small power cost-it's pretty hard to think of anything you would want in a Cream Separator that you do not find in the "Premier.'
Write for Catalogue No. 18. It will be found very helpful indeed.
THE PREMIER CREAM SEPARATOR CO.
197 Princess Street, Toronto WINNIPEG St. John, N.B.

When writing advertisers please mention The Western Home Monthly

Care for Your Furs this Summer

We store furs and protect them against fire, theft, moths or injury for a small charge on your service is in charge of expert furriers.
Furs Remodelled and Repaired Have your furs remodelled now at special Summer prices.
Send your furs by express and write us stating whether you wish any alterations or repairs.

Fairweather & Co. Ltd.

297-299 Portage Ave. WINNIPEG

WANTED

to the Grampians, from the Pyrenees |chuckled as if enjoying a huge joke. to the Grampians, from the Pyrenees to the Carpathians. The Preacher's Reception. Finding the foreman, a stronglybuilt, blue-eyed Scot, the preacher inquired if he might hold a service in the camp that evening. The reply of the man revealed his nationality "I dinna ken what theyll think $o$, a preacher here. Ye see we had yin that cam' a wee while sin' and he didna cam a wee while sin' and he didna camp tae hae, a team waitin' on him at the station!" Here a grin Here a grin overspread his rugged features reminiscent of the past and he up, preached a sermon, and we sent him back tae the station wi' the team." The foreman laughed outright as if something had delighted him. "But what do you think of my chances?" asked the preacher, feeling some misgivings. some misgivings.
" 0 I dinna ken $\begin{aligned} & \text { "O I dinna } \text { ken, but since yer a Scot } \\ & \text { ye kin try. We're no very releegous }\end{aligned}$ ye kin try. We're no very releegous here and a guid sermon 'll dae us nae hare and a guid sermon il dae us nae Kirk at aften I went tae the Free Kime" Kirk at hame." $\underset{\text { memories alted, a ruspeared to of forgotten }}{\mathrm{He}}$ memories appeared to have suddenly come upon him and he turned away his head a moment. When he spoke arain it was not concerning the homeland, but a word of encouragement.
"I'll dae all I kin tae help ye. Ye kin go roond the boys when they come back frae their wark, and I'll speak tae some ma'sel." He was as good as his word as later results revealed. Supper over, and following the advice of the "boss," the mis lowing the advice of the boss, the missionary visited the men and extended hearty invitation to the service. Some gave a cold stony glare and refused to speak, others joked and attempted puns. With a smile and a cheery word, heedless of unkind remarks the of peace pursued his round. It was difficult to get some to shake hands and many after extending the palm did not return the pressure. A few were suspicious, and one, after a "good-evening" pictous, a the one, arter a "good-evening" returned the remark. "Wall, ye hev yer share of it." This was not inviting, but the preacher did not grumble as he was there on the King's business. Complaints there on the King's business. Complaints would have been useless and would only have brought scorn and contempt upon his own head. These men do not bow to the wearer of the clerical collar, but ask the question: "Is he a man?" ask the question: "Is he a man ?" If perchance the answer is not in the affirmative the parson need not force himself upon the camps. They may tolerate him, while in their hearts they tespise him. As far as usefulness goes Robert Service says of the call of the Yukon for men, the mission work in lonely mountain camps proclaims in more emphatic voice: more emphatic voice:
"Send not your foolish and feeble; send your strong and your Send men grit for the combat; men who are grit to the core,"

The Camp Service.
Eight o'clock arrived and the missionary entered the larger bunk house to commence the service. As yet, he hardly knew how the effort would culminate,

Ruby Portable Steel Buildings

RUBY Construction is PORTABLE, WEATHERPROOF, WATERPROOF and FIREPROOF.
RUBY building last a lifetime never need repairs do not depreciate in value and can be Easily HEATED in COLDEST CLIMATE RUBY Sectional Steel is made in ANY SIZE for any PURPOSE.

Garages

 Stock Shelters Poultry Houses Farm Buildings Bunk Houses

Work Shops Granaries Warehouses Storage Houses Summer Cottages

No wood in Ruby buildings, entirely built of steel, ERECT them in a few hours, and the building is complete in every detail when it leaves our factory.
RUBY Construction cannot twist under heavy windstorm pressure or sag under heavy snow load on the roof. And the RUBY buildings have a "Grip" on public favor that is all its own. Write us for prices. and standing within the door he said: "Any objections to the service? Now is the time to make them." A chorus of voices answered "No." Following that a voice was heard saying, "I'd like to see the blamed mongrel who'd be so perlite as ter try. Go on, who'd be so perlite as ter try. Go on, parson. I guess none'll take offence. parson. I guess none'll The preacher peered through the smoky atmosphere and observed a man, six feet in height, with head thrown defiantly back, and fists clenched defiantly back, and fists clenched. Unused to such behavior, the missionary used to such behavior, the missionary thought a fistic display was ahead; but apparently no one cared to avail himself of the veiled challenge.
Frost was in the air and the evening was cool. An enormous stove in the centre temperature to a melting degree. From the $\log$ beams above wet underwear hung, from which was coming an obnoxious odor. In that building, thirty obnoxious odor. In that building, thirty by eighteen, forty men slept; and the only place of ventilation was a small fanlight window, scarcely ever opened on account of the men nearest it objecting to the cold and draught. Some were lazily smoking in reclining attitude,

Lake Louise on line of C.P. R.

others were chewing "black plug," and under a spell. Many minds, no doubt, all expectorated on the floor. On the whole, the atmospheric conditions were not compatible with clean thinking, or conducive to highest moral issues.
The missionary took his stand at The missionary took his stand at a rickety table. His grip was opened and vitation was given to suggest a hymn and one present mentioned the familiar "Stand up! stand up for Jesus!"
But the men could hardly be persuaded to sing. Thisy hung their heads and looked sheepishly at each other. For stalwarts of the forest the stalwarts of the forest they were surprisingly shy. A litile Frenchman crie، out: "Bon M'sieu, I lak' dat song." Thus inspired the preat Thus inspired, the preacher glanced at the foreman, who, interpreting the look maister.", Once more an attempt was made and this time it was successful. The reserved feeling gradually gave way and served feeling gradually gave way and beiore the end of the hymn one vied under a spell. Many minds, no doubt, went back to churches in far-off lands went back to churches in far-on lans-where the same story was often repeated. Others, in that ed. Others, in that cosmopolitan gathering, thought of the days when they left the old homestead, pure and unstained, with their mother's prayers and father's benediction.
"He took his journey into a far counry, and there "wasted his substance with riotous living." There was no need of ransacking libraries for illustrations, as living examples of the same truth were around him. And they knew it. The cesspool of iniquity had left its disfiguring stamp upon many of the men now looking and listening in strained attention "And he began to be in want, and no man gave unto him." The words came slowly from the preacher's lips. Now there was deathlike stillness, and the cracks of the wood fire sounded painfully loud. Pipes had gone out; some were moodily gazing at the floor; while in a corner a man with the other in making the loudest noise. If occasionally there was lack of harmony, the praise did not lack in be seen furtively drawing his sleeve across his eyes. In a low tone the reader proceeded: noise. If occasionally there was lack of harmony, the praise did not lack in heartiness.
Breathing hard and perspiring profusely, they sat down, well pleased with themselves. Prayer was then offered to the Father of all, commending the wayward men to His grace and ward men to His grace and beseeching that strength be given them in the hour of great temptation, when the nails are dug into the palms, when cold sweat damps the forehead, when the teeth grit, and when their very blood cries aloud Followrbiden sin.
$\underset{\text { dren's hymn was sung }}{\text { Following }}$ "Jesus loves me this I , know, For the Bible tells me so."
The refrain swept the hardened men back to boyhood's rollicking days when n the Sabbath school they learned the immortal strain. It was touching to listen to the boisterous singing of the children's classic by the woodsmen. Nert, the heart-reaching story of the Prodigal was read. During the reating Prodigal was read. During the reading there was not a-whisper; they seemed "I will arise and go to my father. and he arose and came to his father." Eager hearers hung upon the precious words, and hearts beat faster with a new hope. One could almost have said that some, like the Prodigal, were rising From sins and going home to their Father, and truly some were. The tale was cheering abandoned men. But it "When he was a great way off, his father saw him and ran, and fell on his neok and kissed him."

"The First Artistic Player Piano at a Moderate Price." $25.00 Cash with Order $550.01 $15.00 Monthly Or Fall Payments Arranged

- UPPOSE one of your neighbors or friends phoned you enthusastically that he had just bought a new player-piano-the it, just to see what you thought of it. you to drop over and try and insert a music-roll-a piece you always like to hear played brilliantly.
Suppose you run the roll through just once to get the purpose of the simple buttons under your left hand that govern the volume of sound and bring out the melody above the accompaniment, and governs the time of the piece-fast or slow.
Suppose you then start the roll through again, and you find yourself bringing out the music with all the inspiration and feelin you would throw into it if you could play masterfully by hand for getting all about the way you do it

What happens? You suddenly discover that the piano means he buttons is instinctive-that piarist-that your finger touch on to you, Now, so far, we've just been supposing, but the above is just what is happening in the homes of your friends. what is happening in the homes of your friends; and for a very small, good faith guarantee we will ship this splendid player-piano to your home and everything that is best in music is at your command. Finished in handsome mah)gany, and looks like the highest priced instruments.
Then, to leave "supposing" alone for a while, you may want to secure a piano of the highest possible quality and one that krown as such from the Atlantic to the Pacific-the one you see in

THE NEW SCALE WILLIAMS

of course, you know this instrument is CANADA'S GREATEST piano, and the price is a little higher, but it isn't beyond your reach You can secure a New Scale Williams Player Piano from $$ 750.00$ up Educational Plan of Payment. Send for our booklet today. can-gran line of

Victor Gramophones
Ask for our Player Booklet Piano Booklet, Victor Bookle CROSS, GOULDING E SKINNER, LIMITED 322 PORTAGE AVENUE, WINNIPEG

If YOU WANT AN EXQUSITE HOUSE COWN

or something unusually dainty for evening wear, ask to see

AMBROSE
It is a beautifully soft silk-and-wool cloth-andcomes in all the most wanted shades for afternoon and evening wear.
"Priestley'sLimited" stamped every 5 yards on the selvedge of genuine "Priestley's" cloth. Look for the name.

Which, Woollen or Cotion Underwear For Spring and Summer?

Non-wool underwear has serious objections. It absorbs and retains the moisture, induces sanitary than wool.
Jaeger Pure Wool Underwear-very light weight for summer-is free from light weight for summer-is free from every objection and is the only every objection and is the only really safe underwear. Jaeger really safe underwear. Jaeger Pure Wool should be worn in warm as well as cold weather.

Dr.JAEGER wiume

364 Portage Ave., Winnipeg, Man. 316 St. Catherine St. West, Montreal. 231 Yonge St., Toronto, Ont.

And from JAEGER Agents througou the Dominion.

TRICK 10c. only Boys get one, fool your friends.
Tryit on your best girl. Magic Co.
Street, New York,

Beaching Canoes.

tell them of their failings, but as the preacher looked upon his hearers, in- $\begin{aligned} & \text { a sin-stained } \\ & \text { pointed to the } \\ & \text { regrettable past, was } \\ & \text { Saviour, who once said }\end{aligned}$ preacher looked upon his hearers, intuition warned him that the physcho- to the Saviour, who once said to a sinner such as he, "Go, sin no cuition warned him that the physchological moment was not then. His logical moment was not then. His duty was to harangue, not to violently condemn, but lovingly and gently lea the straying feet into the paths of rectitude. So, very quietly he continued titude. So, very quietly he continued the beautiful parable: the beaut
"Bring forth the best robe, and put it on him. . a five again; he was lost dead and is dead and is al" and is found."

They were strangely moved; they had seen the forgiving love of God in the tale that w'as read and commented upon, tale that was read and commented upon, and the spark of hope in their hearts was burning brighter; they need not ## despair.

Very softly the preacher asked them o bow their heads, and once more the prayer, "Our Father," ascended to be prayer, "Our Father" ascended heard and answered. They sang, "Abide with me, Fast falls the eventide."
in subdued tones, and the camp meeting to a a si more."
$\underset{\text { Next }{ }^{} \text { morning the }{ }^{} \text { preacher bade the }}{\text { * }}$ foreman good-by, and as a parting word that worthy said: "Dinna be 'feart tae come back again.
"Dinthy We'll aye mak' ye welcome. Could ye no come often, sort o' reegular like? Drap me ward when ye kin git awa' an' ''ll hae the team waitin' at the station for ye." One day a friend famous artist during the latter.s strugling days, and was astonished to see painted rabbit in the foreground "What on earth are you doing that for?" he asked. ." for," he asked.
"Well, you see," he explained, "Mrs.
Meelvans is cominer to seec thie picture Meelyans is coming to see this picture, and she likes things, realist ic. hint she has

Sherlock Manning 20th Century Piano Examine the Sher-lock-Manning 20th Century Piano. Listen to its exquisite singing tone. Ask about its many quality features-Otto-Higel Double Repeating Action Poehlmann Wire (the best imported piano wire); Weickert Felt Hammers; the famous Billings Brass Flange (the flange that endures); and other important features.

Then, when you've found out all there is to know about the Sherlock Manning 20th Century Piano-when you've been convinced that this instrument represents the best piano value in the Dominion-then ask us the price. You'll find it much less than you expected.

But there are sound reasons to account for the lower price as for the greater excellence of these splendid instruments.

Write us to-day for full particulars, and handsome art catalogue-and we'll tell you how you can save $$ 100$ on the purchase of as fine a piano as can be made at any price.
Sherlock Manning Piano & Organ Co.
London Limited (No

Use KEROSENE Engine Free.

Dolroit Engine Works, 347 Bellevue Ave., Detroit, Mich.
When writing advertisers please mention The Western

A Perilous Passage.

How Father O'Neil Earned a Donation for his Charities.
By Grace MacGowan Cooke.

T had been a military $\left\lvert\, \begin{aligned} & \text { hollows of an immaturity which might }\end{aligned}\right.$ | driving in the livery | $\begin{array}{l}\text { ripen into beauty or deteriorate into } \\ \text { vulgarity-flashed him a quick look, and }\end{array}$ |
| :--- | :--- | coach, called in that dhen smiled, revealing a row of pearly Western town a hack,

were in full uniform.
were in full uniform.
Champagne had flowed at the breakfast
ed at the breakfast
which followed it, and champagne at midday gets into one's ideas. Markham, the youngest man in the party, was at the sentimental stage. "I ter," he re you, Spiked again and again with portentous shakings of his close-cropped pollow head. worthy of it-of woman. For my part, going out as we all are to eod knows what fate, if $I$ thought I left a woman behind me 'ho could send up her pure prayers for my safety, I'd be a better prayers and a better soldier." Delevan looked impressed; but Major Henry, whose mustache was beginning to grizzle, snorted a laugh.
"Champa_ne!" he commented. "Champagne in the morning-that's what it is."
Of course the boy resented it.
"Oh, you cynical old brute!" he retorted. "You remind me again that no man's worthy of a woman. I tell you if there was a peasant girl, a daughter of the soil, bearing my name, waiting for me to come back, I'd feel blessed." "Marry one," grinned the major briefly, "and see how you'd enjoy it when this, moonshine and molasses evaporated." The coach was pulling up a long slope now, getting out toward the barracks.
To the west, on an arid little flat, was To the west, on an arid little flat, was a huddle of huts belonging to the Irish laborers who were bringing the new railway in, the railway which was to revotoiled a woman's figure with a small red shawl over her head, and a tin pail swinging in her hand. "Hark!" commanded Delevan. "Listen! Isn't that girl singing 'Lilibullero'?
I've always wanted to learn to whistle the thing. Listen." Back to them floated a clear, high treble, in that most bewitching melody, which surely has Irish magic in it. "It is!"" shouted Delevan excitedly poking his head out of the window. "Oh, driver, I say! Whip up a little and stop when we get to that girl. I and stop when we get to that girl. I want to speak to her." The driver shook his head represendingly, but he whipped up. Abreast the walker, Delevan jumped out and paused, cap in hand, for the girl had turned a slender, pretty face, and was regarding black-lashed, as though they had been "rubbed in with a smutty finger." "I beg your pardon, miss. The tune you were just singing-I want to learn it, and I'm such a duffer I can't get it from a book., If you would hum it over asain-",",
".Get in,", "Get in," Major Henry's authoritative, strident vicice cut across Delevan's vol uble "pmologies. "Get right in here, my girl. There are only three of us, and we rack you a lift; the road to the bar The bill bye was house," more than a chime Howing the flattened curves and she smiled. "Thank you kindly, sir," she said, with just the faintest touch of the brogue Avoiding the hand with which Delevan would have assisted her, she stepped lightly in, and looked about for a place to put her pail. "'Tis buttermilk," she explained, "and if it gets to sloshing around here 'twill spoil your uniforms. Ah"-as Delevan sprang in and would have seated himself-"I can't endure riding backwards!" ing backwards!" There was a muffied langh, and Markham, blushing like a peony, arose and offered his seat. The newcomer slipped into it without a into it without a word of thanks. Major Henry picked up the buttermilk pail, wrists-a duchess might envy her!" and Amundsen Discovered The South Pole But Scott Remains To Polish It Up.

The best by test. Absolutely free from Acid, Turpentine or other injurious ingredients. It's good for your shoes.
and emptied its contents out of the window "We'll fill it with champagne for you," he explained.
The girl laughed.
The girl laughed.
"And how I'll be making bread with champagne I don't know," she retorted archly, flashing those big eyes, which were growing brighter every moment, upon the tiriee men about her.
"The tune!" broke in Delevan. "The tune!" broke in Delevan. "Part of it, anyhow, before •we get to your house."
"Mebby vou could lern it better if I was to whistle it," the girl suggested, tilting her head on one side and looking at him through her thick lashes. The little red shawl had slipped back, revealing a great crop of blue-black Irish hair, which curled and above the whitest of foreheads. If there were a few golden freckles on the tip-tilted nose, one forgot them in the milky pureness of her throat.
"These Irish peasants are a wonder," muttered Major Henry to Markham, muder cover of the sound, as the girl pursed her red lips and began. "Look at her hands and feet, her ankles and wrists-a duchess might envy her!"

WHEN DELAY MEANS RUIN
T HARVEST TIME, when a few loss of the may mean the horses sink beneath the gruelling work under the broiling sun, and the men grumble and shirk, THE BIO FOUR "30," with the Hansmann Binder Hitch (for which we are ex clusive sales agents, walks steadinr and tirelessly through the fields, turniing loss into profit and saving the re sults of the entire year's work. Four or five binders can be pulled without any side draft with the maximum any side draft with the maximum o efficiency and the minimum of time labor and expense. Write NOW fo valuable book on horseless harvesting

SHOE POLISH

Will not rub off or soil the daintiest garment. Isquick, brilliant and lasting. No other even half as good. ioc. at all Dealérs.

Just an easy handtul or KODAK FILM Will tell the story of your vacation. There's film for a dozen pictures in each cartridge, the weight is trifling.

The Kodak itself slips into the pocket and the picture making is simple from start to finish. Press the button-do the rest-or leave it to another-just as you please.

The Kodak system does more than simply remove the inconveniences of the glass plate and dark-room methods of picture eaking it gives better results. There's no question about the advantages of daylight loading and dayyight development by the Tank method. Thousands of the best professional photographers now use the Tank no question about the advantages of day ight loading and daylight development by the Tank method. Thousands of the best professional photographers now use the Tank system for their work even though they have the experience and the facilities for dark system for their work even though they have the experiences and the facilities for dark room work. They have adopted the tank because it gives them better results. If its room work. They have adopted the tank because it it ives them better results. If it's better for the professional there's no question about

You can take good pictures with a Kodak. You can finish them well by the Kodas aystem without a dark room-or if you prefer, can mail them at slight cost and no danger of breakage if you wish to have a professional finisher do the work for you.

Ask your dealer or write us for Kodak catalogue.
$$ 1.00$ to $$ 12.00$. from $$ 5.00$ up. Brownie Cameras (they work like Kodaks), from CANADIAN KODAK CO. LIMITED TORONTO, CAN.

The Opening of the Fishing Season Gives New Opportunities for a KODAK

Easy to carry, easy to use, the Kodak should be a part of your outfit, for then, in addition to the pleasure of the sport, you have the added pleasure of possessing the pictures pertaining to it.

We will be glad to give you a Free Copy of our New Kodak Catalogue

Steele, Mitchell Limited,

Dept. 5, Winnipeg, Man.

the barracks. You're a fortunate girl

- I can tell you that!" -I can tell you that!", This was the turning-point. If the girl had shown a coarse satisfaction, if she had been hardy, ready with her consent, even the champagne and the excitement of the situation would never have carried Markham through it. But she covered her pretty face with her slender little hands and burst into tears, the red blushes running over her white skin in a way beautiful to see. white skin in a way beautiful to see. tested. "'Tis you are making game of me, because I'm poor and common. And I didn't think he would leve done it!" but the girl was very pretty, her distress was extreme, her sudden dependence upon Markham as one who would not have "made game" of her was touching "Indeed," he said, leaning forward and taking her hand seriously in both his taking her hand seriously in both his It's true. I'm in earnest;" and even as he protested, he heard Major Henr betting with Delevan on the result.

The gladsome summer time.

Anybody but such a boy as Bruce Things were rather mixed for Mark Markham would have suspected the in- ham after that, till he found himself in | terested motive belind the elder man's | ham arter that, till he found |
| :--- | :--- | :--- |
| action. Anybody but such a modest fel- | Father O'Neil's parsonage. | with Major Henry's open and once infatuation for the bridesmaid at this recent wedding, who had fallen to to this man meant the Roman Catholic Bruce's share, and who had shown him church, and he answered with a grave the interest and liking that women al- "What is your pastor's name?" came ways gave to the handsome, cleanheart- the next mquiry. "This is most uned boy Henry turned to the girl beside him. $\begin{aligned} & \text { seemly! Besides, you haven't even got } \\ & \text { a license. What? }\end{aligned}$ "Hold up on the music lesson a min- to the court-house for one?" as Major ute", he ordered. "No"-as the driver pulled up at one of the huts on the flat-"don't stop just now, George Move on. Drive around this metropolis While we settle a little matter." The man drove on. The girl turned to her seat-mate composedly; she had shown a poise of mind in the sithation shown a poise of mind in the situation which was like her pois, of looly as she leaped into the swaying coach. "This gentlemain here. Lieutenant Markham," Henry went on, "lhas fallen Markham," Henry went on, "has fallen desperately in love with you. He would like to be married before we so on to Henry whispered to him energetically. The girl shuddered and trembled, and clung to Markham's lung to Markham's arm. Delevan priest were still talking aside. ide of it over, and come to me inturning to the" Father O'Neil counseled, "We are ordered to Montana tomor ow," Markham answered, and his roice The strange in his own ears.

"How long have you la child?" he asked more gently.
Before either of them could answer, Major Henry broke in: Here comes George with the license, There I can't see that it Father O'Neil. I can't see that it cuts any cance. He's a decent chap, and the girl's a member of your parish-you whether she's a worthy person."
"Oh, as to that," replied the priest stiffly, "the child is a good child;" and stiffly, "the child is a good chind; he patted her shoulder reassuringly. he patted her so, Markham glanced at her As with a sudden remorse in his face. How little any of them, save the priest, were considering the look; it seemed to settle something in his mind.
"Sit down, gentlemen," he said. "Major Henry was mistaken. That was not your driver with the be here for ten minutes, I should say." He drew out and consulted a ponderous gold watch. "Do you all sit down, while I take this child to my housekeeper, and let her attire little more seemly for the occasion." The fifteen minutes of their waiting in the pastor's study was a very bad quarter of an hour for Markham. The exhilaration of the wedding breakfast and its accompanimen:s had died out. Something in Father O'Neil's patient, quiet goodness made it impossible for the men to continue their talk of betting, or for Major Henry 20 hold firmly to his jeering pose, in this square, ascetic little re oom.
proachfully in Markham's memory. He was gropingly aware that it was the gush of sentiment he had felt toward hood, which had made it possible for Major Henry to push him into this posi-tion-one of the grimmest of fate's little jokes, surely!
At the end of the quarter of an hour "Major Henry," he said, "and Mr.""Delevan," the bearer of that name sup-plied-"Mr. Delevan, I wish you good day. I have something to say to Lieutenant Ma Ma to him alone."
Henry rose in anger
"We're all grown men here," he said gruffly. "There's no little boy who eeds looking after."
"Sather O'Neil put up a warning hand. know," better. Yaid, "your gray hairs"-the enough to major winced-"ill fit you for leading this boy into folly. What your object is, this boy into folly. What your object is, I leave between you and your conscience -between you and your God. This -between you and your God. This sinners. It has no room for the impeniWhat the rood man found to say to What the wood man found to say to Markham when they were alone together was not much. He had drawn ghe true story from ine irl, had reproved her and sent hcr home. He quoted a few texts concerning the evil quoted a few texts concerning the evil of imbibing too freely, and let the lieutenant out at the front door, where they parted with a hearty handclasp, and a warm "God bless you, sir," from the young man, in return for the elder's benediction.

Markham saw service after that, the active service which ripens a man faster than years. After an Indian campaign, than years. After an Indian campaign, his regiment was one of the first sent to his regiment was one of the first sent to pines. Nearly ten years. had passed way he found him trudging afoo: the had taken the long hill which the coach The surroundings were so changed them. The town had grown with that marvellous suddenness known only to the West. He looked humorously over toward the flat where the cabins had been; it was a suburb now, and there were prim Queen Anne cottages in decorous rows, with a trolly line running between. Ahead of him trudged a very smal! girl, with a school-bag in her hand instead of a tin pail, and Markham buyest out laughing as the girl began to whist out laughing as the girl began to whit H., quickened his pace and overtook gan, accommodating his long stride to She looked at him sidewise from under her tam-o'-shanter, with blue eyes, black lashed, "rubbed with a smutty finger," "My name's Nora McKame-"," she re plied demurely.
His first thought had been that she might be a younger sister of the girl that damsel's name, and McKamey was not-then. He made a hasty guess at might be, if she had consoled herself promptly enough for his defection.
"Can you sing the song you were whistling?" he asked. whistling?" he asked.
"No, I can't but whistle it," the child prpied. "Ma, she can sing it, awful pretty. Say, youre a soldier, ain't you ? ${ }^{\text {ghancing at his uniform. "My }}$ a beau once the ma had a beau once that was a soldier, and he was awful fine-but of and he was awful fine-but, of course, she loved pa best," she concluded, in quick, jealous explanation. Markham laughed out, joyously. He looked down at the child beside him. The transformation was like that of the city. She was well, even daintily dressed, and her pretty might have belonged to a millionaire's daughter. dren?" he asked are there of you chil"There's me, and Emmet, and Jurruldyne, and the baby-the baby, he's named his poor little Irish sweetheart had thought enough of their glimpsed romance to name the baby after him!
"Where do you live?" Markham asked.
Nora put her hand comfortably into

There is not a man, woman or child living who does not have use at times for one or more of these hand tools. To attempt to describe 47 different tools would tools. To attempt to describe th Kit includes practically any and every tool likely to ever be of service to you. This Kit is the most useful article to have around the house, the farm or anywhere else. There isn't a day when you could not use some of the tools. Then look at the price and consider whether you could possibly at the price and consilar bill to better advantage.
Write today for a full descriptive and illustrated circular.
The Up-to-Date Advertising Company of Canada 538 Chambers of Commerce, Winni peg
his; like the Nora of old, she took up "If you readily strangers. "If you want to go there you," she asserted protectingly.

And so it was that Bruce found himAnd so it was that Bruce found himself that summer evening, when he had set out for a very different destination, standing in Nora's stuffy little parlor,

Mason & Risch Pianos are made with remarkable accuracy in evei y part

You can appreciate the care that is used in the building of Mason & R/sch Pianos, if you will closely examine one of them. It does not require experience to recognize at once, the superior handicraft that is shown in every feature.

Not only are the individual parts made with precision, but all are assembled so that each one is in exactly the position for which it is intended. The strings are of exactly the proper lengths, weights and tension;" the hammers are made with the greatest care from the best quality of felt, and strike the strings at exactly the proper points; the action is instantly responsive to the touch, and every element is adjusted to act in harmony with all the others.

It is this workmanship, this conscientious regard for precision, that make Mason & Risch Planos uniform in quality. And there is another feature that exists by reason of these principles of construction; Strength and Durability. The joints of the cases are as firm as the solid wood, the many parts of the action move upon each other with the least degree of friction, the wood is thoroughly seasoned and all material is of the finest quality. Built in this way, the Mason & Risch is naturally a Piano that gives the buyer assurance of lasting service.

Ask about our economic "Factory to Home" selling plan. All instruments sold on easy monthly, quarterly or yearly payments.

Mason & Risch Limited

Factory Branch:

while she "ran up the shades," a chair for him, all in a flutter
"Mr. McKamey, he'll be in in a min ute, sir; soon as he draws on a coat. It' so awful warm, and he do love to se and smoke in his shirt-sleeves." hear "Does love, ma,". Markham her Nora number two whisper in correction. Just then a tall, black-browed, good looking Irishman entered and put out a welcoming hand.
"Glad to see you, captain," he de clared heartily, and then there was elared heart brief pause.
"I called to see-I called to see," be gan Bruce, between laughter and em-barrassment-"well, I came because Nora here picked me up on "the hill, and I-I called to see the baby," McKamey looked at the officer in a mystified way, and shook his head as one who gives up a conundrum. But Nora McKamey had drawn back into shadow, and was looking at Markham's hair, peculiarly golden for a grown man "What was you saying the name was?" she faltered, going back to the was?" she faltered, going back to the brogue of her girlhood." "Bruce Markham," he replied simply "Yes, that's it," the father agreed, taking the baby from the arms of Nora the Second. "Bruce Markham McKamey, and a fine boy he is, if I do say Nora and her one-time lover burst out laughing, and clasped hands across the baby's downy head.
"I knowed you in a minute, sir, as soon as 1 let the light in," she assert soon as I let the light in," she assert ed. "I just couldn't believe it. Emmet, this is Captain Markham, that the baby's named for."
McKamey's face lengthened, his big hilarious voice dropped to a tone o hilarious voice dropped to a tone deep sympathy. One could guess what deep sympathy. had of Markham's wooing. "Well-well-well!". he said, and put out his hand again. "I'm proud $t$ make your sacquaintance. broke off. No doubt he had been on the point of adding condolences, but had pecided that they would come ill from a victorious lover to one who had failed When Bruce resumed his way, half an hour later, he had taken the address and asked tae privilege of presentin the traditional silver cup to his name sake. He resumed his walk with a ques tion in his mind.
He was on his way at last to the house of the bridesmaid-now soon to be his bride. Their courtship had been conducted through troubled times. Their love had been tested by absence, disappointment, ana time. Of this pointment, ana time. Of this episode in his life, she did not know; dared he tell his life, Once in her presence, and in that fulness of content which only two perfectly mated souls can feel, he decided that he dared. And he was justified, that he dared. And he was justified; she was a woman with breadth of mind enough to know that a ran is not his past, yet fully to understand that the past has made the present man. "And he was sorry for you!" she whispered with a little burst of laughter at the end. "Well, why shouldn't he be ? According to his light, you have missed all that makes life worth , hile."
"Up to now," supplied Markham jealously.
His bride-to-be blushed deliciously. "I think I shall have to hunt up Father O'Neill," she murmured, laughof his and give

Western Verse.

 THE CALL OF THE WEST. By W. Shaw, Winnifred, Alta Have you heard the call that come From the land of the settin; sun? From the boundless leagues of the wes tern plainsWhere mighty riv s run?
'Tis the Call of the West, insistent and strong.
"Send me your bravest and best."
On the feathered wings of the evening On the feathered wings of the evening bree re

Send me, oh send me your bravest and Send me, on best,
Send me the young and the strong; The clearest of eye and the strongest of Pick them from out of ine throng. This you must know is the young man's land Hardy to stand the test,
These are the men who must answer my The call of the Golden West.
From the East and the South they ar teeming in And from lands far across the sea, Are all bound fole, Italian and Swiss, Coming to answer the far-reaching cal Sent out for the bravest and best, The call sent out from the young
The land of the last great West.

A "MINER" SONG.

Written for Western Home Monthly By Frances.
I sing a song of collier lads, With "striking" ways so free Monarchs of toil! Their kingdoms Monarchs of stretch
From rolling sea to sea
They are magicians; at thair touch Old Earth reveals her stores, And coal, rich gold and precious stones In largeness forth she pours.

Bards chant in silver-sounding strains Of deeds that brave $r^{r} n^{n}$ do, Me thinks the collier's grimy coat Me thinks the collier's grimy coat Hides men as brave and true Hides men as brave and true.
They work where sunshine never fall In level, golden rays, Where bracinr wind can never swee The close, dark, winding ways.
The farmer and the fishermen Have wind and sun galore;
The beauty of the fields and woods, The charm of sea and shore; Producers they, of sterling worth, For millions must b fed, For millions must beed, Without our daily bread.
Our soldiers are the nations pride;
In trappings grand to see In trappings grand to see,
But still a gallant "roving blade" Does not appeal to me; Nor would I wed a sailor bold, Who skims the curling foam While "horrid wrecks" and "hurricanes" o, here's a toast to all good men! To those who pass the year Within a dingy office cooped, A pen behind clerir ears; Gay "fluffs" and dinky toys, But all are pigmies in the race With brawny collier boys!
No other class of men on earth Meet with so much abuse, Simply because no other class Is worth "the mortal use." Brains plan but'muscle drives the ball And so we starve and freeze When sturdy miners pla- the game Of "gentleman at the ease."

COMRADES.

Written for Western Home Monthly. It's the loving word and cheery smile, That helps to make our lives worth that helps to make our lives worth while, And those who spend for their fellowGet all their treasure back again. So take your neighbor by the hand, Let him know just where you stand Make him feel your nearty grip,

Ready-made Medicine.-You need no physician unquestionable heeser. It needs no testimonia othe than the sale and that will satisy anyone

The River Boss.

By Stewart Edward White,

0 BEY orders if you break ${ }^{\text {splash into this almost primal calm, }}$, owners," is a good motto, but a really effi- $\begin{aligned} & \text { and was lost to view forever. Perhaps } \\ & \text { after a time he might do something }\end{aligned}$ to, but a realy efli-cient river boss knows a better. It runs, atout it, but always without explanation, calmly, with the lofty inevitabili "Get the logs out. Get them out peaceably, if you can, but get them out." He get them out." He ions from headquarters needs no instruw to live up to this rule. That might involve headquarters. Jimmy was such a river boss. Therefore when Mr. Daly, of the firm fore when Mr. Daly, of ene firm of Morrison \& Daly unexpectedly found Morrison \& Daly, unexpected $5,000,000$ feet of logs at a certain date, and the logs an impossible number of miles upstream, he called in Jimmy. Jimmy was a small man, changeless as the Egyptian a French comic journal pubyears ago a lished a series of sketches supposed to represent the Shah of Persia influenced represent the Shah of Persia influenced by various emotions. Under each was by various emotions. Under each was an appropriate or Astonishment. The portraits were identically alike, and uniformly impassive. Jimmy. He looked Well, that was Jin always the same. His hair, thick and black, grew low on his, forehead; his beard, thick and black, mounted over the ridge of his cheek bones; and his eyebrows, thick and black, extended in an uninterrupted straight line from one temple to the other. Whatever his small, compact, muscular body might be doing, the mask of his black and white changed. Generally he sat clasping one knee, staring directly in front of him, and puffing regularly on a "meerschaum", pipe he had earned by saving the tags of Spearhead tobacco. Whatever you said to him sank without (-2

Are You a Weak Man?
What would you not sacrifice to feel as you did a few years ago: to possess the same you did a few years ago: to possess the same snap and energy the same gladsome, joyous lighthenearted spirit man, and you know you iight-hearted spirit man, and you know you would like to be You might as well be. It' easy. $\begin{aligned} & \text { Your body is a machine. } \\ & \text { The nervous system is the }\end{aligned}$ Your body is a machine.
The nervous astem ine motor.
Electricity is the power that runs it When you are weak, it shows you lack the neeessary power to drive the machinery of the body-just like electricity. The nerves control the organs and muscles and electricity supplies to the nerves the the power to. control. Electricity is nerve food, nerve ife. When the suply is is exhaused the nerves become weak and the organs refuse to nerve life. When the supply is exanausef use to nerves become weak and the organs ref perform their functions in a regurar manner. How can you get a new supply of the nerve force electricite St Simply draw upo a nother So supply furnished by nature. Isit drugs? No Dpuss arispoison. Electricity is the nature food the the nerves. When the mothers breast ot aits the ehild is fed by milk from the cow The parent does not to to a drug gtore and buy poisons with which to nourish the child. Sol poisons with which to nourish the edild.
Soison, you are weak you must feed, not porricity, to your nerves. My belt is the electric invigorating device that pumps straenm of vim into your vity

Read What the Cured Say Mand

 you want to know. r'll send the Beale and prepaid, free, if you will this coupon.
Free test of my Belt if you Free test of my Belt if you call.
Ofuce hours 9 a.m. to 6 p.m.; Tuesday and Saturday until 8 p.m.: Sunday, 10 to 1 .

| Dr. E. M. MeLAUGHLIN, 237 Yonge St., Toronto.  Please send me your book free.  NAME. $\qquad$  ADDRESS.  Office hours-9 a.m. to 6 p.m. Wedand Sat., until 8.30 p.m. |
| :---: |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |

nor a very safe one. As the "jam" strung out over more and more of the river out over more and more of the river the jam crew was constantly recruited from the men on the rollways. Thus from the men on the rollways. Thus luckiest, drifted into the dam pond at Grand Rapids within a few days; the Grand Rapids within a few days; the bulk jammed and broke, and jammed ougain at a point a few miles below the rollways, while a large proportion stranded stranded, plugged, cas themselves. at the very rollways the inmmy had permitted himself two days in which to break out the rollways. It in which to break out the rollways. It was done in two. Then the "rear" was was done in two. Then the "rear" was started. Men in the rear crew had to see that every last log got into the current, and stayed there. When a jam broke, the middle of it shot downstream in a most spectacular fashion, but along the banks "winged out" distressingly. Sometimes the heavy sticks of timber had been forced right out on the dry land. The rear crew lifted them back. When an obstinate log grounded they jumped cheerfully into the water -with the rotten ice swirling around them-and pried the thing off bottom. Bet ween times they stood upright on single unstable logs and pushed mightily with poles while the ice water sucked As for the compensations. Naturally there was a good deal of rivalry as to which wing should advance fastest; and in venturing under thirty feet of jammed logs for the sole purpose of teasing the whole mass to cascade down teasing the whole mass to cascade down on one; or of shooting a rapid while standing upright on a single timber. I believe, too, it is considered a mighty honor to belong to the rear crew. Still, the water is cold, and the hours long, and you have to sleep in tents.
It can readily be seen that the progress of the rear measures the progress

EasILOUDEN Wa is the result of 45 years' concentrated thought and effort, and the way to less thought and effort, and the way to less labor, less waste and more profits. Why not adopt it for handling this year's crop?
The LOUDEN Line of Hay Tools

LOUDENS
Junior Carrier
Juat poitur naviritive

The LOUDEN Line of Barn Equipments

Louden Hardware Spec/alty Co.

611 Martln Avenue WIMIIPEG

Loviens Balanee Grapple Pork Mander ioneratifita and Doublo Harpoons Pork piston-like smoke from his pipe.

MeGann shrugged in Celtic despair. McGann shrugged in Celtic despair.
But the little man had been figuring But the little man had been figuring elaborate and more nearly complete than McGann suspected. That very morning he sauntered leisurely out ove the rear logs, his hands in his pookets. Every once in a while he stopped to utter a few low-voiced comments to one or another of the men. The person ad dressed first looked extremely astonish ed, then shouldered his peevie and start ed, then shouldered his peevie and start ed for camp, leaving the diminished rear crew a prey to curiosity. Soon the word went about, "Day and night work," they whispered, though it was a littlo difficult to see the difference in ultimate effectiveness between a half crew work ing all the time and a whole crew work ing half, the time.
About this stage Daly began to worry anxiety written deep in his brows. When he saw the little inadequate cre pecking in a futile fashion at the logs winged out over the shallows, he swore winged out over the shallow fervidy and sought Jimmy.
Jimmy appeared calm.
"We'll get 'em out all right, Mr. "Get sam out!" growled Daly "Sure but when? We ain't got all summer this season. These logs have got to hit our booms in fourteen days or they're "good to us!"
"You'll have 'em," assured Jimmy. aid so.
"Why, it'll take you a week to get her over those infernal shallows," he concluded. "You got to get more men, Jimmy." ain't no more men to be had."

"IDEAL" Fence will hold a Buffalo.

Any attempt to get the better of "IDEAL" Fence will only make him look foolish. "IDEAL" Fence was chosen by the Government out of fourteen makes, to fence in their herd of wild buffaloes at Wainwright. Naturally, buffaloes don't take kindly to fence of any kind and "IDEAL" Fence was tested pretty roughly the first few weeks at Wainwright. NOW the buffaloes know better.

IDEAL' Fence and its never-give lock are made of all large guage No. 9 hard steel wire, heavily galvanized. Rust proof, won't sag, won't weaken, won't get unsightly.

GET A HANDSOME PICTURE FREE!
Send us the names of five men who would be interested in GOOD fencing and we will mail you a beautiful picture in colors of the herd of buffialoes in duction and worthy of a place in the finest home.
Send in five names and get your picture by return mail IDEAL FENCE CO., Ltd., Winnipeg.
"Suffering Moses!" wner. "It means the loss of a fitio thousand-dollar contract to me. You needn't tell me. I've been on the river all my life. I know pou can't get then of inside of a week
"I'll have 'em off to-marrow morning but it'll cost a little something," assert d Jimmy calmly. Daly stared to see if the man was not crayy. Then he re ired in disgust to the city, where he began to adjust his ideas to a loss on began to adj his contract.
At sundown the rear crew quit work and swarmed to the white encampment of tents on the river bank. There the hung wet clothes over a big skeleton framework built around a monster fire and ate a dozen eggs apiece as a side dish to supper and smoked pipes o strong "Peerless" tobacco end swapped yarns and sang songs and asked ques yarns and sang songs and asked ques tions. To the latter they received no satisfactory replies. The crew that had been laid off knew nothing. It supposed it was to go to work after supper. After supper, however, Jimmy told it to er supper, however, Jimmy told it to turn in and get a little more sleep. It did turn in, and speedily forgot to puzzle. midnight Jimmy entered the big tent quietly with a lantern, touching They. arose without comment, and fol lowed him outside. There they were given tools. Then the little band degiven tools. Then the little band defiled silently down river under the stars. Jimmy led them, his hands deep in his ockets, puffing white steam-clouds a egular intervals from his "meerschaum" pipe. After twenty minutes they struck the Water Works, then the board walk of Canal Street. The word passed back for silence. Near the Oriole Factory their leader suddenly dodged in behind the piles of sawed lumber, motioning them to haste. A moment later, a fat and dignified officer passed, swinging his club. After the policeman had - gone, Jimmy again took up his march at the head of a crew of men now thoroughly aroused to the fact that something unaroused to the fact that something und usual was a Soon a faint roar lifted the night silence. They crossed Fairbanks Street, ard a moment after stood at one end of ard a moment. a the power dam.
The long smooth water shot over, like fluid steel, silent and inevitable, mirroring distorted flashes that were the stars. Below, i.t broke in white turmoil, shouting defiance at the calm velvet rush above. Then seconds later the current was broken. A man, his heels caught again3ı the combing, midleg in water, was brai ed back at the exact angle to withstand the rush. Two other men passed down to him a short heavy timber. A third, plunging his arms and shoulders into the liquid, nailed it home with heavy inaudible strokes. As though by magic a second timber braced the first, bolted solidly through sockets already cut for it. The workers moved on eight feet, then another eight, then another. More then another eight, then another. More men entered the water to pass the timgrew out from of heavy shoulder of the dam, dividing the waters into long, arrowshaped furrows of light. At half-past twelve Tom Clute was swept, over the dam into the eddy. He swam ashore. dam into the eddy.
Purdy took his place.
When the supports had reached out over half of the river's span, and the water as dotte water as dotted with the shoulders of men gracefully slanted against the current, Jimmy gave orders to begin placing the flash-boards. Heavy planks were at once slid across the supports, where the weighit of the racing water at once clamped them fast. The smooth, quiet river, interrupted at last, murmured and snarled and eddied back, only to rush with increased vehemence around the end of the rapidly growing obstruction. The policeman passing back and forth on Canal Street heard no sound of the on Canal Street heard no sound of the labor going on. If he had been an observant policeman he would have noted sound roaring up from the volume of the dam. After a time even he remarked on a certain obvious phenomenon. '" He listened a moment, then passed on. The vagaries of the river were, after The vagaries of the river were, after all, nothing to him. He belonged on Canal treet Canal Street, East Side; and Can Street, East Side, seemed peaceful. rear crew had to wade in. They heaved and pried and pushed industriously, tion of seeing a single $\log \begin{aligned} & \text { slide re- } \\ & \text { luctantly into the current. } \\ & \text { Sometimes }\end{aligned}$ dozen of them would peevies on either side, and by sheer brute force carry the stick to deep water. When you reflect that there were over 40,000 pieces in the drive, and that good fifty per cent. of them balk below the rapids, you can see that the rear crew had its work cut out for it. most gone, and his job had not advanced beyond the third of completion. McGann the sluice boss, did a little figuring. the shuice boss, did a little figuring. he confided to Jimmy. "Shure." Jimmy replied not a word, but puffed The river had fallen abruptly silent. in place. Back in the sleeping town the clock in Pierce's Tower struck two. Jimmy and his men, having thus rais: ed the level of the dam a good three ed the level emerged dripping from the west feet, emerged dripping from the west side canal, and cheerfully took their way northwards to where, in the chilly dawn, their comrades were sleeping. As they passed the riffles they paused. A they passed the riffles they paused. A jammed there, a grumbling brutish and sullen, as though the reluctant animals were beginning to stir. The water had already banked up from the raised dam. already banked up from the raised dam. of course the affair, from a river driver's standpoint, at once became exceedingly simple. The slumbering twenty were aroused to astounded drowsiness. By three, just as the dawn was beginning to streak the east, the regular clank, clank, click of the peevies proclaimed that due advantage of the high water was being seized. From then until six was a mater of three complished in three hours with flood water. The last little jam "pulled" just about the time the first citizen of the West Side discovered that his celstartled freeman opened the front door to see what was up, he uttered a tre mendous ejaculation; and so, shortly came to the construction of a raft.
Well, the with scare heads about "Outrages" and "High-handed Lawlessness;" and factory owners by the canals raised up their voices in bitterness over flooded their voices in bitterness over flooded fire-rooms; and property owners of

SUPERFLUOUS HAR

DESTROYED III 3 MINUTES
Will Send Free To Any Lady the Secret That Cured me. My friend Also Delighted

It was Just $^{\text {It as sucessfuol with my friend. }}$ Ho piture is printed above. I will send you my perishable cellar goods howled of damage suits; and the ordinary citizen age suits; and the ordinary citizen took to bailing out the hollow places of his domain. Toward nine o'clock - after flash boards had been indignantly the ed from their illegal places-a squad of tor. The latter they discovered on a boom pole directing the sluicing. $\begin{aligned} & \text { From a } \\ & \text { this position he declined to stir. } \\ & \text { One }\end{aligned}$ and this position he declined to stir. One fat policeman ventured a toppling yard or so on the floating timber, threw his effort regained the shore, where he sat down panting. To the appeals of the squad to come and be arrested, Jimm paid not the slightest attention. $\mathbf{H}$ puffed periodically on his "meerschaum," and directed the sluicing. Through the twenty-four-foot gate about a million an hour passed. Thus it came about that a little after noon Jimmy steppe peaceably ashore and delivered himsel peacea up. "You

jow," "Yw," he observed to McGann trouble be as it shot through the gate. "Just tion right into her and the gate. "Just tie Then he refilled his pipe, lit it, and ap proached the expectant squad.
At the station house he was inter viewed by reporters. That is, they asked questions. To only one of them did they elict a reply.
"Didn't you know you were breaking the law?" inquired the "Eagle" man, "Didn't you know you'd be arrested? "Didn't you know you'd be arrested?"
"Sure!" replied Jimmy with obvious "Sure!" replied Jimmy with obvious contempt.
The next morning the court-room wa crowde.. Jimmy pleaded guilty, and was sentenced to a fine of $$ 500$ or 90 was sentenced to a fine of $$ 500$ or 90 days in jail. To the surprise of every oody he fished out a tremendous rol and paid the ine. should carry such an amount. They had not been present at the interview on the not been present at the interyiew on the boom poles between Jimmy and his principal the day before. The latter stood near the door as the little man , came out.
"Jimmy," said Mr. Daly distinctly so that everybody could hear, "I am extremely sorry to see you in this trouble but perhaps it may prove a lesson to you. Next time you must understand that you are not supposed to exceed your instructions.
Thus did the astute Daly publicly dis claim liability. Yes, sir," said Jimmy meekly. "Do you think you will get the logs in time They looked at each other steadily Then for the first and only time the black and white mask of Jimmy's in scrutability melted away. In his left eye appeared a faint glimmer.
left eyelid slowly descended.

Military Course for Teachers.

Arrangements have been definitely made for conducting a course of training Cadet Instructors at the Winnipeg Rifle Range grounds. The course will open on July 6 and will extend over a period on July 6 and will extendust 17 .
of six weeks ending Augo There will be accommodation for fifty teachers (male) from the Province of Saskatchewan. It is the intention, Saskatchewan. It is the intention, weather permitting, to hold the cours under canvas. under canvas.
All camp equipment such as tents blankets, water proof sheets, etc., will b The rate of pay will be $$ 1.50$ per diem without ratiocs, or under canvas. Trans portation to and from the course (Winnipeg) will also be supplied free. Any male teachers obtaining the cer ificate at the end of the course win Active Militia, the Certificate granted be ing that of Cadet Instructor. As this course is arranged for the pur pose of giving teachers an opportunity to get some training and expgrience in carrying on the work it the condition of the Strathcona Trust and also of the proper teaching of the Physical Train ing now being included in the Public Schools of the Province under the Strathcona Trust also, it is thought that a large number would be glad of the opportunity of taking advantage of such a Course. ments may be made, persons desiring to ake advantage of this course should communicate at once with the Deputy Minister of Education, Regina, giving heir name in full, post office address and the point from which they desire ransportation.

SPRING IN THE WEST.

Written for Western Home Monthly by Bernard V. Lee, Lloydminster.
All Hail, Enchanter Spring! All Hail! We bow before thee, kissing thy green of gown $f$ fragrant-scented herbs and leaflets pale,
That cover
That cover up the rut of Winter's trail air god-rke Spring O'er where the beaten down scourge of frost hath The fruits of Earth, and bring them to our hand.
Thy zephyrs o'er our frozen West hav And thawed her icy heart with kisse Till melting now, she offers all she has, form. Timid, she oft rebuff'd thee, like a lass, Till thy sweet voice of birds and grow ing flow'rs Made thee a partner sweet to spend the hours.

型"es 42

FARMS WANTED.-we hove direal

THE YOUNG MAN AND HIS PROBLEM.

PHYSICAL CAPITAL.

The body is the base. The brain rests on the body as a building rests on it's foundation. The poorest sort of economy is economy in food and sleep.
What is a million dollars worth if a man can't enjoy it? What is fame worth if a man can't sleep at night? Dr. T. De Witt Talmage in speaking of the final physical breakdown of Horace Greeley said:final physical breakdown of Horace Greeley said:"My friends, there comes from this providence a warning for all brain-workers. Mr. Greeley, at my own table, ten days before his nomination at Cincinnati, told me that he had not had a sound sleep cinnati, told me that he had not had a sound sleep in fifteen years! I said to him, "Why do you sit in your room writing, with your hand up at that elevayour room writing, with your hand up at that elevation, on a board raised to that point $\uparrow$ "Well", he said, "I have so much work to do that I must not have my chest cramped at all. I must keep all my faculties of body and mind in full piay, or I cannot faculties get on."

PURPOSE.

Such is the strength and power of the human will that when a strong man makes up his mind to do a thing, the thing is already half done. Purpose is the best guarantee of progress. All the is a sure prophecy of achievement. The vital thing is the ability to decide just what ought to be done. Caesar saw Brutus for the first time and heard him pleading in the Forum, he said, "Yon youth is destined to make his mark, because he intends strongly."

FAILURE.

Failure is a sure index of one thing, namely, it points out the spot where you ought to succeed you can go back and look the thing over. The place where you have gone down is exactly the place where you ought to rise. If you can get up "before where you ought to rise. If you can get up bourore the bell rings" there is another chance for you. It is not going down that breaks a man; it is staying down:- Said the president of one of our great uni-down:- Said the president of one of our great universities, in addressing his students, "Show me the versities, in addressing his students "Show me the young man who has had failure and has now won his way to success, and I will back him." way to success, and I will back him."

EASE AND EFFORT.

The village of Ease lies just beyond the city of Effort. When a thing is well done it becomes a well-spring of possibility. The speech well prepared, well-spring of possibility. The speech well prepared, delivered and published is handed on from reader to delivered and published is handed on from reader reader and finally becomes a specimen of literature reader and finally becomes a specimen of literature, permanent and classic. The best wall ever built, is a wall of noble achievement-just behind you.- In you moments of extreme weariness you can lean against that wall and, by and by, in your old age, rest in its that wall and, by and by, in your old age, rest in its shadow. "ram," the fever a long time burning in my own brain," said Mr. Longfellow, "before I let my hero take it. 'Evangeline' is so easy for you to my hero take it. Evangeline is so easy for y

TEMPER AND GENIUS.

Temper and genius go together. Wherever you find force you will find fire, and fire burns. The ating the building. An uncontrolled temper is a weakness, even if found linked with the strongest character and the most brilliant type of intellect The man who cannot manage and regulate the hid den fires of his own soul is in perpetual danger of a no possible insurance protection. "Great Thoughts" remarks concerning Thomas Carlyle:-:In private life it would be difficult to find Carlyle's match for life it would be difficult to find Carlyle's match for violent language about the paltriest trifles. When a poor tradesman neglected to send home an umbrella, Carlyle writes of him: "The scoundrel umbrellavendor. Has that accursed chimera of a cockney not sent the umbrella yet? I could see him thrice trailed seems to have taken this vigour in speech in part from his father, of whom it used to be said that he rom his father, of whom it used to be said that he genius for saying fierce things. Health, however, had a great deal to do with Carlyle's unreasonable displays of temper, dyspepsia and kindred affections having been his scourge since his college days.

CULTURE.

Culture is ingrain. It is something which is inwrought into the very fibre and fabric of the soul.
It is the essence of character and when founci in a is the essence of character and when found in a amily circle, the badge of certain traits and characteristics, it is the advanced bloom of a third yeneration. Charles Kingsley possessed it-it may have ation. Charles Kingsley possessed it-it may have been unconsciously-but listen to this letter written been unconsciously-but listen to this letter written to his son:-"My darling boy," he writes to his eldest son at school-"Poor Grandpapa is dead, and eldest son at school-"Poor Grandpapa is dead, and gone to beaven. You must always think of him lovingly; and remember this about him, Maurice, and copy it-that he was a gentleman, and ne hife, or even thougat, a mean or false thing and therefore has left behind him many friends, and not an enemy on earth. Yes, dear boy, if it should please God that you should help to build up the old modesty, the two marks of a gentleman, are the only way to do it. . Your own Daddy, C. K." thousand loves. .

THE PRACTICAL MAN.
The practical man goes directly to the main While others are circling around, and around, and around, this man finds the cross road which, leads from Nowhere to the metropolis known as Practical Utility. He "lands" while others are looking. He fires while others are aiming. He strikes while others are considering. In a word he is the practical man.
In 1897 Dr. Grenfell was in Boston. Mr. Moody In 1897 Dr. Grenfell, was in Boston. Mr. Moody was holding meetings in Tremont Temple at the time. Dr. Grenfell sought him at his hotel-the first time hey had ever met-and told Mr. Moody he owed his conversion to him 14 years before. "What have you been doing since?", was Mr. Moody's immediate question.

THE EMERGENCY MAN.

The emergency man is the man in charge of an army-an argy of circumstances or an army of of men. He does not preside over a debating society. He is the president, cabinet, senate and house of reprethe president, cabinet, senate and house of representatives, all in one. He is appointed because of sentatives, all in one. He is appointed because of his skill and success and relies on his own judgment in every time of emergency. Every crisis calls for a man of this stamp. The Historian remarks:-"Living in an age of revolution in which the ultimate ing in an age of revolution in which the ultimate appeal was to force, Cromwell relied too much upon the strong arm as the best instrument of government. When he became Protector he was told that it was against the will of the nation. "There will be nine in ten against you." "Very well," said he, be nine in ten against you." "Very well," said he, but what if I disarm the nine and put a sword in ness?" He cared little for the niceties of constitutional theory, and was as ready to destroy an arbirary Parliament as an arbitrary king. In his heart e was always a believer in the monarchical prin-

TAKING HOLD.

A good deal depends on how you "take hold." The secret of success is in gripping circumstance rather than permitting circumstances to grip you. hings-don't let the world drive you. Move thingson't let a thousand and one burdens, duties and esponsibilities, like hoating ice, batter the pillar ing about the science of handshaking, which is the cience of "taking hold," remarks:-"General Grant' hand was shaken till it swelled. "He did not know ow to shake hands," a Senator explained to $m$ A President must learn to rush up, seize and grasp man get the first grip and squeeze him." What an man get the first grip and squeeze him.
art for a President to have to learn!"

KEEPING COOL

Speaking about General Grant-he had one sav ing characteristic. He knew how to keep cool. All of his emotions were under control and all of his "nerves" were kept in cold storage. He was never known to be surprised. It was against his principles, absolutely, to be surprised, and when strange things absolutely, to be surprised, and when strange things happened he was simply amused. The following illustration will illustrate what we mean:-A New York lady had just taken her seat in a car on train bound for Philadelphia, when a somewha stout man sitting just ahead of her lighted a cigar stout man sitting just ahead of her lighted a cigar She coughed and moved uneasily; but the hints had no effect, so she said tartly: "You probably are foreigner, and do not know that there is a smoking-car attached to the train. Smoking is not permitted car attached to the train. Smoking is not permitted from the window. What was her astonishment when the conductor told her, a moment later, that she had entered the private car of General Grant. She withdrew in confusion, but the same fine courtesy whicl led him to give up his cigar was shown her again a he spared her the mortification of even a questioning glance, still less a look of amusement, although she watched his dumb, immovable figure with appreshe watched his dumb, mmovable hension until she reached the door.

DIGNITY.

We have small use for "style," "agony," affecta ion and manufactured bits of mannerisms and oi ities of the personal sort, but we have great admina tion for genuine dignity. We are looking for al tion for genuine dignity. We are looking for a tain type of dignity which denotes strength character. A dignity, which, when insulted and resists. A dignity which can frown on impurity decision in the presence of unscrupulous acts wit decision To be practical this is what we mean:- leaders. To
"It is recorded of Sir Robert Peel, when Prime Min"It is recorded of Sir Robert Peel, when Prime Min ister of England, that he was at a dinner party, and had to listen to a story of an objectionable char acter. He rose immediately and said: "May I ring for my carriage?" His host rose also and said: "It is early yet, surely you do not wish to leave?" Si Robert Peel replied, "Gentlemen, I am still a Chris

A POINTER.

For goodness sake get to the point! Can't you speak of the defect in a man's character withou entering upon a detailed statement of his family his tory? Can't you tell me the price fixed upon a hors without indicating the precise number of hairs in his mane or the exact number of hairs in his coat Can't you divulge the bottom figure demanded for a piece of property without supplying me with piece of property without supplying me with history of the country where it is located. To the point! To the point! Thomas Chalmers used to say:-"Give me the one main point of the case, and III work it out; I cannot scatter myself over a multitude of points. He always seemed, as preach er, theologian, clear-drawn figures, with real tangible elements,"

ADVANCEMENT.

Salary is not the most important thing when young man begins life. Be sure you get on the right track. There are ten thousand salaried positions, which mean a good salary and nothing more. Once get into that groove and you are as helpless as a man who has been buried alive. If you are satisfied with a pay-envelope, at the end of every week, for the rest of your life, well and good, but if you are possessed of higher aspirations you can afford to wait. "The author of "Getting One's Bearings" writes:-"A merchant told me that friend wished to place a boy in his counting-room. him sell corn-balls on the corner of the street for a cent apiece, than be in my counting room.". "Why ?"
"Because in the counting-room he would remain "Because in the counting-room he would remain where he began; while on the corner, in business for himself, however small it was, he could grow, and himself, however small it was, he could grow, and

REST A LITTLE.
Fine work demands a fresh mind, and you can keep your mind fresh by change of occupation. So then seek a change. A chat with a friend will relieve your tired nerves and give you a new glimpse of life. An hour in a quiet social circle will bring repose to the electrical wires of your system. A organ in your body. You sare not as tired as you feel. You simply need a change. An Exchange remarks:Luther in the exciting days of the Reformation found time to play with his children and Edmund Calvin surprised a friend who called one day and ound him pitching quoits, and Thomas Chalmers took recreation with a kite. Beecher used to say that the best thing for the inside of a man was the ems of the English state with two hours a day of sharp axe and oak-tree, and Professor Blaikie at the ge of eighty years would run across the hills shout ng and swinging his arms. The Father has so arrest; after the day of work, the night of rest; after rest; arter the day of work, the night," the earth of work. the heaven of rest."

BLOOD

How much we owe to our parents. Life, health amily reputation. The moral inborn convictions, and ome ought to be enough to keep a man straight. iemories of the fireside, memories of pleasant even ins, greetings and partings Let memory of meet ings, greetings and partings. Let memory bring its message. From an old volume of pulpit illustrations cull the following:-"JJames Harper left his fathe house in boyhood, to learn the trade of printer in th ity of New York. His parents were Methodists of the earnest sort. Family prayer, led by his mother was the last service at parting. When seated in the was the last service at parting. When seated in the wagon, his mother took him by the hand and said, James, remember you have got good blood in you; life, and related alike to business and religion mustry, honesty and piesty carried him safely. in was the founder of the famous publishing house Harper Brothers, and once mayor of New York .: old appeal to honor needs to be revived in these

The Month's Bright Sayings.
$C_{1}^{0}$ where you will for a day's outing, a week end, or a vacation, the sun will be high and hot, the air humid and the dust plentiful at times. Talc Powder, just ordinary Talc Powder, is but a partial answer. It is only in the luxuriously refreshing and satisfying effects of smooth, fluffy and fragrant---the supertalc, so to speak-that the complete answer is found.
--wniquely soft, pends as largely upon the happiness of others as oar physical health others as our physical heal upon that of the community hould remember that Canada was onc theirs, and that they have not had a square deal; and we should not lay the oundations of Canada on the bodies and ouls of the Indians.

Rev. H. G. Rog A woman has a Rev. H. G. Rog man to use profanity At any rate, God has made no distinction between men and women it the use of profanity. The commandment, "Thou shalt not take the name of the Lord, thy God, in vain,' applies to all. A man who God, in vain,' applies to all. A man who habitually swears in the presence of his habitually swears in the presence of his children would be terribly shocked to hear his wife use such language at all, and if she did so in the presence of the children he would be thunderstruck, And yet she would be no more in the wrong than he.
 Williams

Your choice of four odors: Violet
Carnation, Rose---flesh tint Karsi---a rich Oriental perfume.

THE PHILLOSOPHIER.

A CRIME AGAINST CANADIAN UNITY. Some Eastern papers, arrogating to themselves a monopoly of genuine Canadianism-though the plain, actual truth is that their ideas are the only plain, actual truth is that their ideas are the only sort of disintegrating force which conceivably could burst the Dominion asunder-have of late been delivering their periodical course of instruction to the livering their periodical course of instruction to th people of the West. Several of these Eastern jour people of the West. Several of these Eastern jourals are proposing that the celebration of Dominio als are proposing that the celebration of Dominio Day be made the ocasion for inculcating true Can adianism, "especially in the West." A Toronto pape says that "there are many newcomers in the West says that "there are many newcomers in the Wes many ioreigners, many people who do not understan our history and institutions." There are many such people in Toronto, too-a great many. By all mean let everything be done to build true Canadianism East and West. The worst crime against Canadia unity is the Eastern preaching of the doctrine that unity is the Eastern preaching of the doctrine that the West owes everything to the East, and shoul be properly submissive. All this talk of what th West owes the East is not only rank sectionalism but it is rank falsehood and injustice. The money but it is rank falsehood. and injustice. The mone subsidies paid for the opening up of the West by subsidies paid for the opening up of the Thest by railways were not provided by the East. They wer provided by borrowing money on the credit of the Dominion as a whole, and every Westerner is bearing his full share of the burden of carrying the ing his full share of the burden of carrying the national debt. The land grants to the railways have been provided by the West itself. There is not any burden of Canadian citizenship which the Wester Canadian does not share to the full with the Easter Canadian. As a matter of fact, the East stands very much more in need of being lecturcd on, the duty it owes the West, than the West does of being lectured on the duty it owes the East. Ther should be no antagonism between them; and the cure for any antagonism there is, as well as the sure spafeguar and preventive of the growth of such antagonism is the square deal.

AS TO "UNPRECEDENTED" WEATHER.
"Unprecedented," as applied to weather, is a relative term not an absolute term, in as much as mecords can give any trustworthy standard; and the records, on this continent, at any rate, do not go so very far back. In Europe the records go back very much farther, of course. And not merely the genera years of abnormal weather are noted; in the matte of regular, exact records it is possible to go bac a great deal farther on the other side of the Atlantie than on this. For example, the British Rainfal the eighteenth century, and, moreover, that within two eighteenth century, and, moreover, that weent, in all only four months, at any season of the year, with so little rain as in April of this year. The rhyme about April showers and May flowers must surely have been recalled many times this spring in England

HEREDITY.

Heredity is a matter which has an urgent inter an so great a diver interest. Here is what one great thinker has sai on this subject "It often appears in a family as if all the qualities of the progenitors were potted in several jars-some ruling quality in each son and daughter of the house-and sometimes the unmixe temperament, the rank, unmitigated elixir, the family vice, is drawn off in a separate individual, and thi others are proportionately relieved." Whatever w may think of such conclusions as this one of Emer son's, the broad fact of heredity has to be reckoned with, and sometimes it seems to cut across one of our most cherished ideas, namely, that every person has a right to a fair opportunity, untrammelled by what others have done. But we must remember that there are influences always at work upon us as powerful as heredity. It is our own attitude to wards the good or the evil that must be the deter wards the good or the evil that must be the deter mining factor. It is not the estate we come into at birth, so much as the use we make of it, that counts.

THE "CODE OF HONOR."
The movement for the abolition of duelling in while very far advanced in municipal government town-planning, education and other matters, has re tained some aristocratic ideas that date back to feudalism This movement for the alolition of the Ceudalism This movement for the alolition of the and mechanics--in a word, the "common people"- are making themselves felt as a power in the land. it is only a couple of generations since duels wer ought in this Canadr of ours. The Philosopher wa eading only the other day in Judge Longleys Joseph Howe, the great Nova Scotian, the account of cal duel he was provoked into fighlining with a politi cal opponent Howe kept Mrs. Howe in ignorance cal opponent Howe kept Mrs. Howe in ignorance of it until the duel was over. His opponent fired first and missed Howe, who then fired up into the air. The letters he had written, to be delivered in case he fell, are printed in the book referred to, and re moving in their earnestness. In the affecting letter to his wife he wrote that whatever happened, he would not aim to hit his opponent; and in a plained why he had accepted the challenge. He had to give proof of his courage, otherwise he could not have accomplished anything in public life. He was challenged again, but only two or three times. His reply to his first of these subsequent challenges, Sir any personal quarrel with Sir Rupert George, I should certainly not fire at him, if I went out, and I have no great fancy for being shot at, whenever public with their emoluments, think fit to consider political arguments and general illustrations 'insolent and

A heavy cost in men and money.

A leading financier recently expressed the opinion that "the investor who is governed by his enseasoned, judgment, is not only following a dangerseasoned, judgment, is not oulso is a real menace to market stabiltyy." This utterance might serve, from one point of view, as a summing up of a notable article in the ondon Statist, than which there is no financial estment of blood and millions in Tripoli Beyon the seizure of that ic mer Turkish province, and the possible destruction of the Turkish troops that have been practically marooned there, Italy will not, in all probability, be able to inflict any materfal heavy economic punishment on Italy. In the year preceding the outbreak of this, the world's latest war, the trade between Italy and Turkey amounted o a little more than $$ 55,00,000$, by far the greater portion of that total being Turkish imports of talian articles. This market is now wholly closed. Moreover, this traffic required the presence at varus ports of large numbers of thiki, Smyrna Alp eited terusalem, and, of course, Constantinople. These have been driven from the land at heav inanicial loss to themselves both in actual property and costing Italy heavily while it is costing Turkey practically nothing, as there is nothing Turkey can do in Tripoli. Italy is pouring out $$ 12,000,000$ on the campaign. No wonder that the war is reported to be no longer as popular in Italy as it was during be no longer as popular in It the first weeks of excitement.

"CAGED DAUGHTERS"

The problem of "the superfluous woman," to use ears ago, does not grow any lighter in old worid ands. "Caged daughters" is the latest phrase current in the London journals just now in this connection. Of increasing frequency in the old country papers are arguments as to the desirability of having women emigrate to the overseas portions of the Empire, where wives are in greater demand than in the mother country. An increasing disinclination to marry seems to have much to do with the growth of the army of unmarried, who, not having domestic responsibilities and duties, have to find some outlet for their energies. The state of affairs is one which in a London weekly remarks that no one has yet. in a London weekly remarks that no one has yet, scribed by Herodotus of auctioning off the marriageable young women. The most attractive came first, able young women. The most attractive came first, and so on down to the average comeliness. Then the auctioneer brought forward the least attractive the asked who would take her with the smallest dowry. The marrigge portions were provided out of the sums bid for the more attractive, and in this way sums bid for the more attractive, and in this way "the caged daughters" of Babylon were provided for with the utmost equity. Modern civilization, need-ess to say, cannot emulate such a method. Its probcms have to be solved on different lines.

AUSTRALIA'S TRANSCONTINENTAL UNDERThe Commonwealth of Australia, seeing Canada's abundance of railway development has decided to construct a railway that is to span the Island To construct a railway that is to span the lsland Continent from Port Augusta, in South Austhat a panadians, who think it strange Cuadian geography, could at once point to Po Augusta and Kalgoorlie on the map of Australi,., fell oft-hand how far Mellourne is from S. To return, however, to the Australian transent, ental. It will be 1,070 miles long, and will traver a desert as barren and desolate as the Sahara, and, in consequence, peculiar conditions will have to be dealt with in the work of construction. There is no possible base of supply, except at the two ends, and the railway will have to be constructed from th end meeting in the micaction camps, and the to b ance of communication, from any cause, would be a serious matter, and might be a matter of life o death. Camels will have to be employed between the ends of the finished track. Which is a that it was once proposed to use camels in the arid regions of this continent

THE KAISER AND THE PANIER SKIRT
The German Emperor is reported to have said "Bah!" when he was asked to give his opinion on the panier skirt, which the ultra-fashionable women of Europe are wearing, and which, it is announced, has made its appearance in Ottar:a. The Kaise might have expressed himself in more violent terms and still be justified. Judging by the fashion plates to hand, the panier skirt is a freak "creation" of the cannot be said to be a graceful garment. But what has appearance to do with the matter? It is style and style alone, that counts with the ladies who go in for wearing the very latest thing.

A HOLY WAR

Often most important news comes to general knowledge in a very obscure way, and so it is with knowledge in a very obscure way, and so it is with the Holy War proclaimed shortly after the invasion of Tripoli by Italy is spreading throughout the lands where Mohammedanism is the prevailing faith. If this is true, and the stubborn course which Turkey is pursuing gives color to the report the movement may prove of tremendous moment. Never haverent been so aggressive as to-day, since the time when the policy of spreading its doctrines by the sword was discontinued. During the past four or five years news has been made public of great missionary ef forts by Mohammedan priests in interior Africa; and in those countries where Islam is already established there has been an extraordinary revival of religious fervor. There has not been a time in many religious fervor. There has not been a time in many centuries when the proclamation of a Holy War would be more formidable than now. The Mohammedans are far from being a poor people. Among them are many very rich men. And they are decidedly not unwarlike, especially when fighting is made a religious duty. If they are to be combined against Italy in a Holy War, a situation of the most serious

THE RICH HAVE THEIR TROUBLES, TO An article in the New York Evening Post says that many women residing in the fashionable quarter of that city whose dress accounts run as high as $$ 5,000$ to $$ 10,000$ a vear are attending classes in millinery and making their own hats. "The explanation is," says the Post, "that the hats they buy cost from $$ 60$ up, so they save greatly when they make one themselves." Is it not saddening to remake one themselves." Is it not saddening to reflect that the increased cost of living, that we hear so much about, is making itself felt even in such ircles? Truly, as some wise observer of humankind has said, the rich have troubles of their own, which the poor cannot hope to enjoy

THE REAL ENEMIES

Could anything be more stupid and senseless than a bar-room fyght Two men, or half a dozen which they would not remember the next day, and fall to blows. They are not natural enemies. They conflicts. How often have there been wars between nations of much the same character? Rarely, inof the warring nations claims to be fighting for the same eternal principle, and confidently appeals to the god of battles to help it against an unscrupulous foe Heroism, courage, self-cacrifice, comradeship are displayed on each side - but to wlat end? And what might not be done with these qualities if men could only discover their real enemies, and fight them? As Norman Angell has said in his great book on the delusions involved in most wars, there is nothing wrong in fighting. What has been wrong in too many wrong is fighting. What has been wrong in too many wars is that the wrong things and the wrong people were heing fought against. Each nation is composed of all sorts and conditions of men, women and children. To have the people on one side of an imaginary line at war with the people on the other side of ior the exciting of the up antagonism fomented or the exciting of the many for the advantage nomics are disease acrainst humanity. The real grod, tyranny and the other sources of evil. War arainst these enemies should be fought relentlessly.

THE HUDSON'S BAY COMPANY  Winnipeg

We Fully Guarantee our Gasoline Engines

Winnipeg.

AHESE engines are built for heavy duty where long continued service as well as absolute reliability is required. We do not advertise them as cheap engines nor do we expect them to be sold in comparison with the many low grade engines now being advertised. "THE BAY" ENGINES ARE MADE TO GO IN COMPETITION WITH THE BEST AND HIGHEST PRICED ENGINES ON THE MARKET. CONSTRUCTION BASE. The fuel tank is placed in the base of the engine (except the $2 \frac{1}{2}$ H.P.) and is large enough to contain a supply of the fuel equal to a day's run. $21 / 2$ H.P. has galvanized iron gasoline tank mounted over battery box.

GOVERNOR. The governor is of the hit-and-miss type of simple construction operated by machine cut gears with bronze trip arm, equipped with double balance weights, tool-steel trip and is extremely sensitive. While the governor is in action the compression valve is held open to relieve compression thereby saving wear and increasing power.

EQUIPMENT. With each engine we furnish batteries, wire switch coil sparter muffler wrench, battery box and definite instructions. The engines are furnished COMPLETE, ready to run.

SPECTAL COOLTNG DEVICE. Our engines have an xclusive feature found on no other ongine on the market. They are combined open jacket and tank cooled engines. This is a new idea and is a great improvement over othe makes. A large angine creates a mreat deal of heat and for long steady run the water evaporates and requires refiling t short intervals. For this reason we hape arranged so tank in on the ordinary tantr coled cylinders. When short runs are needed the hopper ontains enough but on the long run the tank can be util oned if desired.

We also Special Cream Separator Engines, and a line of Air Cooled Portable and Stationary Gasoline Engines for general purposes around the farm.
H.P. Shipping Weight Fly Wheel Pulley Speed

| H.P. | Shipping Weight | Fly Wheel Pulley | Speed |  |  |
| :---: | :---: | :---: | :---: | :---: | :---: |
| $2 \frac{1}{2}$ | 500 lbs. | $20^{\prime \prime}$ | $4^{\prime \prime} \times 6^{\prime \prime}$ | 450 | $\$ 75.00$ |
| 5 | 1170 lbs. | $30^{\prime \prime}$ | $6^{\prime \prime} \times 10^{\prime \prime}$ | 400 | 145.00 |
| 8 | 1400 lbs. | $36^{\prime \prime}$ | $6^{\prime \prime} \times 12^{\prime \prime}$ | 350 | 250.00 |
| 12 | 2700 lbs. | $42^{\prime \prime}$ | $8^{\prime \prime} \times 16^{\prime \prime}$ | 300 | 375.00 |

Industrial Home

Erected at Kildonan, Winnipeg, by The Salvation Army.

Reception Room

ed, yet man's nature is just the same, over again, and the most marvellous Man is keeping abreast of the age in agency is the Salvation Army. A providing organizations and institutions $\begin{gathered}\text { peculiarity of the Army is that it } \\ \text { to act as aids, support and assistance to }\end{gathered}$ | to act as aids, support and assistance to | $\begin{array}{l}\text { sphere of operation is world-wide and } \\ \text { give care and sympathy to all unfor- } \\ \text { of the fact that their efforts do no }\end{array}$ | | :--- | :--- | :--- | give care and sympathy to all unfortunate brothers and sisters that are $\begin{aligned} & \text { of the fact that their efforts do not } \\ & \text { over affect other Christian or- }\end{aligned}$ amongst us. It is the result of large ganizations. The Army movement seemed centres of population which we have created by inspiration to do work that built up, that has given occasion to other Christian organizations had either create in the hearts of individuals and organziations, the thought that there organziations, the thought that there should be these agencies where reclamation and sympathy could be provided, mendation for the splendid work they to bring back the fallen, to have a spirit have done, are doing and promise to do of independ themselves and of be a benefit to community in which they live One the the most remarkable things in the favorite hymn of his was moral and social reform cause is an organization which assists men and From Greenland's icy mountair men in their effort to live their lives $\mid$ and he thought then that the greatest Value, $\$ 50.00$ to $\$ 4,000.00-$ Given Free to Winners in the Naming Contest of this Sub division.

Open to all lot buyers. Read the conditions.

1HE finest-most artistocratic and desirable-residence division in all greater Winnipeg, is being marketed under a startling new plan, that permits all of the lot purchasers to participate in the distribution of the valuable prizes shown here, aggregating over $$ 7000$ in value.
Buy a lot in this division,--it is sure to make you money-lots here cannot but increase in value, like all central Winnipeg real estate has doubled in value over and over again in the past. This division is located on the south bank of the Assiniboine, just west of the Agricultural College and the new City Park. It is less than a quarter of a mile deep, only running back to Roblin Boulevard, which has a carline. It is the last section of original sale Assiniboine River Frontage to be placed on the market within the whole Artistocratic Fort Rouge district. When it is sold there will be no more.

Lots $18 to $50

Read and Follow the Conditions

1st Prize-New, modern bungalow valued at $$ 2,500$, completely furnished at a cost of $$ 1,500$; total $$ 4,000$. "Hupmobire" supplied by Joseph Maw ear, Co., value $$ 1,175$.
3rd Prize-Solid silver lady's chain purse and $$ 500$ in purse and $$ 500$ in gold.
4th Prize-Elaborate wallet and $$ 500$ 5th Prize-Newest model piano,supplied by Nordheimer Piano Co., value $$ 400.00$. 6th Prize-Indian motor cycle, cash price $$ 280$. Supplied by the Consolidated 7 th Prize Motor Co. 7th Prize-Lady's solitaire diamond 8th Prize-Gen mond ring, value $$ 100$. 9th Prize-Lady's travelling case, fully equipped, value $$ 50$.
10th Prize - Gentleman's travelling case, fully equipped, value $$ 50$.
11th Prize-Lady's value $$ 50$. 12th Prize-.Thin model gentleman's watch, value $$ 50$.
(Jewelry prizes from Dingwall's. suburban estates Co, Trust and Loan Building, Winnipeg.
Please send me plan and folder and full information regarding your $$ 7,000$ naming offer.

The permanent name for this subdivision will not be selected until at least three-fourths of the 197 lots in it have been sold. Every purchaser of a lot as soon as his first payment is tendered and accepted, will receive a coupon for each one hundred dollars in value of the ot or lots purchased. That is, if you buy a thousand dollar lot, you will reeive ten coupons, and if a two thousand dollar lot you will receive twenty coupons. Upon each coupon the owner of the lot will be entitled to place one name in the competition and suggest the name which will permanently mark this district.
These names will be deposited in sealed casket, kept publicly on view in this office, and the key of which will be held in trust by the chairman of the naming committee. Each coupon as it is received will be numbered by an automatic numbering machine and these numbers will establish priority in deterIf two result of the competition. name fina or more coupons carry the prizes will go to the first distribution of ng this name as their numbers indicat priority; the committee will also select priority; the committee will also select ames for this division and so on, and these will be entitled to prizes exactly the same as the first choice name hould one or more people select the ame name, they will receive consider tion exactly the same as in the case of the first one selected.
The coupons upon which these names will be registered will not carry the name of the person who submitted them but will merely be identified by the given, so that the judges will have no given, so that the judges will have no way of knowing who submitted the choice names.

per Foot

$18, $20, $22, 825, $$ 28$ and $$ 30$ por foot for Inside and Boulevard Front Lots.
$$ 50$ par foot for River Frontage. Only $1 / 4$ cash, balance 1 , 2 and 3 years; 6 per cent.
TITLES GUARANTEED

MAIL THE COUPON TODAY People out of town have just the same chance of winning as those right in Winnipeg.

Suburban Estates Company

402 Trust and Loan Bldg.

Winnipeg

AUTHORIZED AGENTS:

HARPER & McCRAE, LTD., 419 Somerset Bldg., Winnipeg.
F. SPAVEN is Co.

602 Main Street, Winnipeg.

| suburban estates Co., Trust and Loan Building, Winnipeg. |  |
| :---: | :---: |
|  | Enclosed find ................ dollars |
| being first payment on of ............................ . value in of |  |
|  |  |
| your new residence division. It is understood that I am entitled to submit my proportionate number of names in your |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
| Name |  |
|  |  |
|  | Address |

FORREST \& WILLIAMS, FORREST \& WILLIAMS, 404 Donalda ${ }^{\text {Bl }} \mathrm{y}$, Winnizeg work to be done in missions was in citizens were of it. The Army does not China and other foreign lands, But getting away from getting away from home, his view had changed, The greatest need was at home where we live. There is as much necessity, or more, for missionary work In the city of Winnipeg as in Pekin, for any man or woman who is at all in terested. His sympathy and aid was with the Army.
He made an earnest plea on their behalf in view of the splendid work being done along this line of reform, and he was most anxious to necessity for the instititione regretted the tions could not be prevention, but condideal with it, and co-operate: one with Army, and let us be practica, as is the heart, and soul with them in the splendid work they were doing.
Mayor Waph ayor Waugh spoke of the pleasure work of the Army in Wrinnipeg he wes well acquainted. He well rememberen

UFE IS TOO SHORT FOR WASH DAY TO BE ALL DRUDGERY WHEN A

WHITE LILY POWER WASHER  Will make it the Eastest Day of the Week

-THE-

WHITE
LIIY
is made of best material and workmanship and isguarship and isguar-anteed by one of thel argest manufacturers of washing washing machines, for five years:

The WHITE LILY is the cheapest power washer on the market posessing ail the features that make a periect power washer.
The WHITE LILT is the sold on the terme of half cash with the order, balance after thirty days use. No reduc tion made for cash with the order, we want the machune to sell itsell.

HEIA GAM MOTOR COe9  HOUSEHOLD SPECLALTIES  419 Portage Avenue, WINNIPEG, MAN.

We can give you ABSOLUTEPROOF
that the Lots we offer inside the each on easy terms are a Money-Making Investment offered below their real value Edson is a Divisional Point on the main line of the Grand Trunk Pacific, with a monthly pay roll o $$ 40,000$. Edson is the actual dis tributing point for the Peace River country, the Brazeauc coalfields and for two hundred miles west on the Canadian Northern Edson ile has more than, welve hundred permanent residents. It costs you one cent to obtain Illustrated Booklet and the above-mentioned proof. Mail us a postcard today.
The Edson Point Company 608 McIntyre Block, Winnipeg.

Tohaceo Mabit Banished

country which is so characteristic o to the south, but Canadians have proved their loyalty to Home and Motherland. When the call for volunteers came, we never hesitated-we sent our best, and we would do so again. We are, however, very reticent in displaying exploit our sacred Leaf or wave our Flag as we might. We do not celebrate the birthday of our Dominion with that patriotic enthusiasm which would convince all newcomers that we are proud to be a Domini in all the part of the greatest Domini in all the Canada should make a science of teaching patriotism, our young people teaching be taught to have a genuine love should and reverence for the flag and country. "It's only an old bit of buating, It's only an old colored rag, But thousands have died ol for our flag, Every heroic event in our nation's hisEvery heroic event in our nation's history should be emphasizea and lovingly tory shoult upon and the names of the noble men and women who have sacrificed their lives fo their country, either on the frontier or upon the battle field, be indelibly stamped upon the li. es of the boys and gitlantic to the Pacific.
Patriotic entertainmente should be given in the schools on Empire Day and Dominion Day. The decorations for such occasions are very easily arranged. Our own flag should always be given a prominent place; banners and bunting zdd to the patriotic effect. Programmes might re based upon the following suggestions.
Suggestions for patriotic programmes: Musical selections, Medley introducing patriotic airs.
Open chorus-The Recessional, Kipling. Essays:- (a) The discovery of John Essays:- (a) The (b) The landing of Champlain; (c) The capture of Quebec. Readings:-(a) Selections from "Daulac," Wilfred Campbell; (a) The St. Lawrence and the Sagueny, Sangster; (c) The Seats of the Mighty, Sir Gilbert Parker.
Chorus:-(a) O, Canada, Lavallee; (b) Rule Britannla, Theodore Martens Rule Britannia, Theodore Martens. Essays:- (a) The Cause of the War of 1812; (b) Events that took place upon the Queenston Heights; (c) Laura Secord and the story of Beaver Dam.
Recitations:-(a) The Battle of Lundy's Lane, D. Campbell Scott; (b) Canada to England, Valency Crawford; (c) Canada to England, Chas. G. Roberts. ada to England, Chas. G. Roberts.
Songs:-(a) Upon the Heights of Songs:-(a) Upon the Heights of Queenston, Theo. Martens; (b) The Queenston, Theo. Martens; (b) Maple Leaf, Alexander Muir. Tableaux:-From the Life $0^{f}$ Queen Victoria; Coron of dra; Empire Flag Drill with patriotic accompaniment. Characters representedThe Navy, The Army, England, Ireland, Scotland, France, Newfoundland, Canada, the Indians, and many other countries from which our immigrants have come. Essay:-The Fathers of Confederation. Recitations:-(a) Canadian Born, Pauline Johnson; (b) Dominion Day, Fidelis; (c) Last chapter of "The Handicap," (c) Last chapter of "The Handicap, Knowless; (d) The Jubilee Ode, Henry Drummond.
Closing Chorus:-The Land of the Maple, H. H. Godfrey.
With loved Dominion bless With peace and happiness, And let our Empire be True to herself and thee For evermore". ${ }^{\text {Tr }}$
"GOD SAVE
"GOD SAVE OUR KING."

Try to Say This.
A twister twisting will twist a twist, twist, but if one three twists he will twis, untwist one of, the twists of the unt wist the twist.-A Reece, 31, Stapleton Street, Irlam-o'-th'-Height, ton Street, Irlam-o'-th'-Height, Man chester.

DIRECT TO YOU ON 30 DAYS FREE TRIAL

 Here is the place and now is the time to buy your labor saving equipments and farm supplites

 HERE IS OUR OFFER It Fully Protects You.

la bor problems, these engines are built especially for years of hard work, very simple in construc tion, best design, and easy to operate with a sur-
.

 can save you from $$ 50.00$ to 82.000 you requre engine for we. wiil be nish you full informai ion free.
SECURITY GALVANIZED STEEL GRAIN TANKS, \$62 This pump is strong and durable, can be used for hand durable, can be used for hand or power purposes, adapted for use with pump jacks, tis is fitted for $1 \mathrm{~K}, 1 / 1 /$ or 2 in. pipe fitted for $1 \mathrm{~K}, 11 /$ or 2 in. pipe If you wish to make your If you wish to make your hand pump intoa power pump hand pump into a power pump for use with an engine this is for use with an engine this is what you require. Prie of this Pump Head, complete with 31 in in. brass 1 in ed cylinder and 8 ft . of 11 in .

CORRUGATED STEEL ROOFIIG, 28c per Sheet.

 we will quote you freight prepaid prices an guarantee to save you money. Estimates give guarantee to save you money. Estimates given free on siding steel shingles, eaves, trofs and fittings.

pipe and rod, 39,00 , We furnish estimates free for compete pump outits on request. Give depth of nell say if open well or drilled; state distanice from platform to surface of water; distance from platform to surface of water; whether uift or orce pump is wanted.

Endless and cut in anina

General Purpose Farm Harness $$ 23.50$

Complete including collars and lines. Every strap warranted. We can supply you any style of harness you require.
LOW DOWN STEEL WHIEL WAGON $$ 27.50$
(

C. S. JUDSON Co. Ltd., Winnipeg, Man.

ACIIE LOWV DOWII TIIIIX PUMIP, 5625 .

test a victor 30 days.

 AGME TWO SPEED SEIF FEED POST DRII

GUT OUT THIS COUPON C. S. JUDSON Co. Lidd., Winnipeg, Man 1 am interested in Pree of cost fut information regaiaing these subjects.
Also send me free of cost the followiug gatalogs. PPace an $X$ mark in square opposite catalogs you desire.) $M_{y}$ Mame is...
$M_{Y}$ Address is

A LOVELY BABY BOY

This Mothor is quite Enthusiastic ,ver a woll Known Food.
Mrs. J. W. Pateman, 34 Harriet St., Toronto, in writing about Neave's Food says "When I first knew one of my friends, her baby Jack was eight months old and dying by inches. She had tried three foods because her Jack could no digest milk. At last, I fetched her a tin of Neave's Food. At the end of a month, Jack was rapialy gain is lovely boynow and she declares Neave's Food saved his life. And it did. Then 1 recommended it to a friend on aria Avenue. She had a baby ${ }^{6}$ She put the baby on Neave's Food and I have the size.
I have never seen two bigger, stronger boys than mine for their ages and we tmost faith in Neave's Food." Mothers and prospective mothers may obtain a free tin of Neave's Foran" by writing Edwin Utley, 14 Front Street Erast, Toronto, who is the Canadian gent. (Mention this paper.) For sale by all druggists.

BINDER TWINE

There is every prospect of a heavy demand for Binder Twine this year. The thoughtful farmer will order his supply now and have will order his supply now and have the twine on hand for use when he needs it. Don't wait, delay in ordering may mean a loss of hundreds of dollars. You run no risk ordering now. Should your crop fail for any reason we will take the twine of your hands, refund the money, and pay all charges.
DIAMOND E GOLDEN MANILLA BINDER TWINE Every foot of this twine ii guaranteed to come fully up to standard; 550 feet to the $\qquad$

Yo. reduction on oarrload orders Grain Growers A Asociations should take avivantago of this reduution- we only ask ask 100.00 deposit on carload orders-balance $100.00 deposit. payablo coarload orders-balance For shipment to points with no agent, eash should be sent with order.
T. EATON CO WINNIPEG CANADA

Cleaning Up?

Besides your general house cleaning you probably have some dainty garments to be cleaned in readine for Our dry-cleaning methods have proven most satisfactory

Henry Bros.

Dye House

WInn/peg, Man.
Phones : Main 1930-1931-7372 Offices: 279 Smith Street and 569 Ellice Avenue.
Factory : 217 Provencher

When writing advertisers please mention The Western Home Monthly

The Young Woman and Her Problem.

By Pearl Richmond Hamilton. notice.
Often girls from rural communities and girls from the Old Country do not know where to go when they reach the city. where to go when they reach the city.
If any girl contemplating coming to If any girl contemplating coming to Winnipeg will write to me in care of be pleased to see that she is met at the station and taken to a safe environment. We have made arrangements with repreany young woman who makes this request through the Western Home Monthly. The women of the Travellers Aid each wear a badge of silver metal, the eentre of which is a Maltese cross. the centre of which is a Maltese cross. the outside circle. If any young woman who desires help in this way will write to me, describing herself and the time she expects to arrive, also the road, I she expects to arrive, also the road, I will give her description to one of these women,' and she will give special attention to the stranger at the station. I find that young women need this attention, and we are pleased to readers in every possible way.

Pearl Richmond Hamilton.
SOUL-EMBROIDERY.
Ruskin said woman must embroider man's life. Now, the meaning of the word embroider is to make beautiful. man's life.
There are always two sides to every question. Why do newspapers and other publications always pubisho the unhappy side o of happy homes? sands This world is full of little Edens, but they are not flashed before the eyes of the public as are the sensational stories of the divorce court. To be absolutely loved by a good man is worth while. The exchange of the influence of two souls is expressed in sympathy and gratitude. Young girl, weave into the embroidery of your soul weave into the embroadery ond gratitude, the threads of sympathy and and your future home is sure to be ideal. Wives destroy their homes by placing dynamic bombs of ingratit fishness before the fireplace The golden keys to the Browning home were love, sympathy and gratitude. When Browning first wrote to Mrs. Browning expressing his sympathy with her work, she thanked him for his sympathy saying: "Of all the commerce from Tyre to Carthage, the exchange of sympathy for gratitude is the most princely." So precious did Browning regard the memory of his wife that he never picked up her prayer book without kissing it. A man was once sentenced to Newgate Gaol for defending the French Revolu tion and for offending a Bishop. Miss Eliza Gould visited him, and later be came his wife. Their daughter, brought up in the influence of a home of love and sympathy, composed that hymn which is as dear to the pauper as it is to the millionaire-Nearer, my God, to Thee This was the product of a sympatheti home.
Every unhappy woman could trace her condition to ingratitude. Francis Hodgson Burnett says that sex, and all the virtues to the other." As long as this old world exists women will strive to please men, for they really do think them nice And after all, mosi do think them nice And after all. most of us agree with Josiah Allen's wife, who says: "A good, noble, true man is the best job old Nature ever turned off her hands, or ever will."

MOTHER'S DAY.
Decoration Day and Mother's Day, celelrated on the 12 th of May, made a celebrated on the 12th of May, made a most fitting combination; and the impression of the two selvices pression of the two services will long re Flowers, flowers, everywhere! Beauti Flowers, flowers, everywhere! Beaut died for their country and to the mothers of men and women who are living for of men and their country.

As I looked
As I looked over the crowds assembled to do honor to soldiers, a feeling of respect swelled up in my heart for every man and woman who wore the carnation God gives us but one mother, and a tender loving tribute on one day of the year loving tribute on one day of the year will make better the life every day during that year.
Kate Douglas Wiggins says: "Most of all the other beautiful things in life come by twos and threes, by dozens and hunby twos and threes, by dozens and sunsets, dreds! Plenty of roses, stars, s. rainbows, brothers and sisters, aunts and cousins, but only one mother in all the wide world," Mothers' Day in Winnipeg was a sad day for many young women, for their mother's live in other lands and some in the Great Beyond.
I did not realize this until I stood before my class of young women. When began the lesson to be given in honor of the day, sobs from aching hearts described the intense feeling so pathetically that I could not go on to the end. Th atmosphere was too sacred for words.
Let me give this word of comfort to the mother who thinks of her daughter in a distant land. "The memory of you in a distant land. "The memory of you and your $\begin{aligned} & \text { your girl." }\end{aligned}$

COMMERCIALIZED CHARMS.

Some girls measure their own charms by the amount of money their young men friends spend on them. A girl long as he gives her a "good time." Many young women demand so much rom young men that they influence them into habits of extravagance and recklessness. This same commercialism often changes the career of a young man rom success to failure.
Two young women students in a unif two ambitious young men attentions expected her friend to take her to the heatre and dances every week; nearly every Saturday he called for her to go out riding. The other young man out riding. The other young man hought his lady friend expected as nuch, but she knew he could not afford o spend much on her; so when he sugested going to the theatre she charmngly replied: "Let us take a walk near the lake and study our mathematics." She always counted the cost of her riend's invitations, and seldom allowed riend's invitations, and seldom allowed him to spend money on her. He finished is course successfuly, and they are now The girl who allowed her friend to spend money recklesly on her is still placing a commercial value on her charms. The young man left the school ecause so muated on her that he fell behind in his classes and his finances as well, and, therefore, he could not take well, and, therefore, he could not take up the work the next year. This girl p the work the next year. This girl tole the time of her young man friend. stole the time of her young man friend.
She required him to spend too many evenings with her. It is a crime for a girl to steal those precious moments which are the golden opportunities of a young man.
Young women will have happier prospects by far if they count the cost.
Those who commercialize their charms sually become wives who buy their urniture on the instalment plan, and hen rail bitterly against hard times and $\begin{array}{cccc}* & * & * & * \\ \text { VERY AGE HAS ITS OWN BEAUTY }\end{array}$ She sat opposite me in the street car her short skirt refused to cover six nehes of silk stockinge drawn so tighty hat one conld almust wee the weins

"There is Beauty in Every Jar"

MILKWEED CREAM

 time. freprele ness
and $$ 1.00$.

Preserves Good Complexions-Improves Bad Complexions A PERSONAL TEST: Let us prove to you the value of Ingram's ddress of your druggist, and we wile send you, FREE, through him a box of assorted saanples of our toile essentials. Or enclos 10 cents, and we will mail the samples direc to cout Address to you. Address
re

WAS A SIGHT FROM SUPERFLOOUS HAR

But I Banished it Forever, never to Return, By English Chemist's Method. the seche free to all.
Tho peoliar yuarplianobio repugnanos whio

"Get More for your Money" Would you like to learn How? You can do so without obliga

WESTERN BUYERS' UNION, Brandon, Man befrizzled and coiled in a dozen rolls, covered the head that covered a ber best every year; then when the covered the head that covered a brain which in vain tried to call back youth lines of years creep into the face and the hair whitens, she will be the woman and beauty, for the white and pink of beautiful. an artificial complexion failed to conceal the line-upon-line that years of selfish ambitions had written deep into the tissues of the face. A large white hat trimmed in pale blue trimmings completed the artless attempt to act the beauty of another age, for she had celebrated her twenty-first birthday several years ago. Beside her a gray haired man, groomed in the style of his age, ap prattle.
The other woman I met one day when she was on an errand of service for others. I remember ther eyes; they shone with that depth of soul expression shone with that depth of soul expression that only the Master Artist can prothat only the Master Artist can produce. In every look, word and thought duce. In every look, word and thought she was sweet and womanly. I can still hear the music of her gentle voice. The soul of her personality proved that beauty is more than skin deep, because love lines, muscles of strength, tissues | $\begin{array}{ll}\text { beau lines, muscles of strength, tissues } \\ \text { love } \\ \text { of sympathy and the expresion of peace }\end{array}$ | $\begin{array}{l}\text { get the great heart this woman has given } \\ \text { to her people from the days of her girl- }\end{array}$ |

| :--- | :--- |

The abundance of an Ontario Orchard.
all combined to make a face of rare hood; it will not forget the thousand beauty. I cannot tell what she wore. perils she has faced to seek out the sick, I remember only the face. In the conversation that afternoon, we all drew the ague-stricken and the starving; in old age there will still be those who will close to her, for she was an inspiration.
There was no idle commonplace talk with $\begin{aligned} & \text { old age there will still be those who win } \\ & \text { remember the first prayers to the real } \\ & \text { God that }\end{aligned}$ There was no idle commonplace talk with God that she taught them in childhood; her. She could appreciate the best of minds and hearts.
Last month Clara Barton, founder of other world. She was the personification or of sympathy. Of the thirteen hundred graves of soldiers who died at Andersonville prison, she could identify all except four hundred. four hundred. After the Franco-Prussian war, all peror of Germany presented her with the Cross of Merit, and she had decorations innumprable. Miss Barton was nearly eighty years of age when the Spanish war broke out, yet she went to Cuba and directed the work of nursing on the field Charles Sumner wrote of her: "She has of a annt of a statesman, the command a wiman." "She was a citizen of the Torlh." "She was a citizen of the If woman would be charming she mus

CANADA'S HEROINES
If the woods and prairies and rivers of the land of magnificent distances there would in vowals and consonants, author to write a huge biographical volume, entitled, "Canada's Unknown Heroines," James Oliver Curwood, who writes stories of British North America, Nightingale of several thousand square iles of northern wilderness." Mr. Curwood says of Melisee Cum mins: She is the heroine of a hundred scarcely a cabin or an Indian hut in that en thousand square miles of wilderness in which she has not at one time or Mother, been spoken' of as 'L'ange ad children still to come in cabin, tepee, and hut will live to bless the memory of L'ange Meleese, who made possible for them a new birthright and who in the wild places lived to the full measure and glory of the Golden Rule.
Melisse Cummins lives in a little cabin two hundred miles north of civilization. She has nursed Indian women and the wives of French trappers through small pox; for twenty miles she has carried in bury it in Indian baby, that she might where her own child lies; with of God, band she makes canoe journeys, bearing her teachings of cleanliness, of health and One time, a half breed woman came to her in the dead of winter, from twenty miles' across the lake. Her husband hal frozen one of his feet. "Melisse left a note for her husband, and on snowshoes the two heroic women set off across the the two heroic women set off across the wind-swept and unsheltered lake, with

0  An  Edison Phonograph is as new as the latest musical comedy hit or as old as the beautiful ballads of long ago; as cheering as a lively band or as inspiring as a grand opera aria. Whatever your mood or your preference in music, there are Edison Records to satisfy it---Records made by artists who are a mong the best that the field of opera concert and musical comedy has produced --- new Records every month embracing all of the new things that are good and many of the old ones that have lived.

> Shomara Cedions
> Ioo Lakeside Avenue,

The New Edison Records for June On Salo May 25th The only way to get all the enjoyment poesibie out of your Edison Phonograph is to ove it Keep it supplied with now Reocorad Lis took over this list: check the ones that appeal to you and ask your dealer to let yout heal 28017 Ben Bolt Co....Eleonorad di Cisneros 28018 Molto Lento Quartet. Op. 17, 28019 No. 2 Dreams..........Thmann Quartet 1015 Buffalo Bill's Farewell March. 1016 The Chambermaid York Military Band.
1017 Texas Tommy Swing . . Trene Eranklin 1018 Do You Remember the Last 1019 Seated A............. Trving Gilletto 1020 The Darkies' Ragtime Ball Murray K. Bill 1021 "So So" Polka-X Collins and Harlan 1022 Say "Au Cevoir" Cat Mat and William Dorn 1023 They Gotta Quit Kickin' My Dawf 1024 Jimmy Trigger-Soldieg Golden and Hughes 1025 Pucker Up Your Lips, Mise Lindy Linges 1026 Boston Commandery Matreh Mand Bert Band

1029 I Long to See the Girl $1 \begin{aligned} & \text { Maurice Burkhart } \\ & \text { Left Behind } \\ & \text { Manuel Romain }\end{aligned}$ 1030 Everybody's Doing It Now Manuel Romain 1031 A Woodland Serenade. (Reed only) 1032 Gypay Love Song-"The Fortune TTeller."

 1035 (a) Recompense (b) Roses in June Miller 1036 Dreams of Galilee Edison Mired Quartet 1037 The Ameer-Selection and His Orchestra 1038 A Song of oforer. Chart and His Orchestra 1039 Carmena-Vocal Warter 10556 Our Band March RECORDB 1057 Absent...........Elizabeth Spencer 10559 They Gotta Quit Campbell and Gillette Fdison Phonographs sic. Promier to $$ 240.00$.
Standard Records, 40 .

the thermometer-fifty degrees below zero.
When Melisse saw the frozen man, she When Melisse saw the frozen man, she knew there was but one thing to do, and with all the courage of her splendid with all the courage of her splendid heart she amputated his foot." The experience of that hour was a test of her courage. Mr. Curwood, in a closing paragraph, referred to the Indians' reverence of her in these words: "Far up on Reindeer Lake, close to the shore, there is a towering 'lob-stick tree'-which is a tall spruce or cedar lopped of all its branches to the very crest, which is trimmed in the form of a plume. A tree thus shriven and trimmed in the form of a plume is the Creecenotaph to one held in almost spiritual reverence, and the tree far upon Reindeer Lake is one of the half dozen or more lob-sticks dedicated to Melesse. more lob-sticks dedicated to Melesse. in an Indian camp at this point, and when at last the two bade their primitive friends good bye and left for home, the little Indian children and the women follittle Indian children and the women followed their canoe along the edge of a stream and flung handfuls of flowers stream and, after them."

There are other brave women whose names are not known to the great outnames are not known to the great outside world, but they are makers of Canada's history. Farmers' wives and farmers' daughters who courageously face the storms and stillness and strife of mountain and prairie and forest are weaving the golden threads that embroider the mantle of our nation.
Ah, their lives breath to us this message in lines a little different from the poet-Lives of brave, courageous and Christly women all remind us, we may make our lives sublime. Thus when we depart, we may leave behind us, footprints on the sands of time.

MILITANT MEEKNESS
Meekness should not be a weak characteristic, but a mark of strength, self control and determination dedicated to the service of others. One of the strongest forces in the world is militant meekness. The gentlest of mothers and wives are often the firmest and most influential. fluential.

One woman whirls in a cyclone of words and emotions and no one pays a bit of attention to her; while anothe says very little as she moves about in quiet, calm atmosphere, but she is the force behind a power that revolutionize woman who was passing through a crushing sorrow. I wanted to comfort her, but when I saw her I felt that I was in heart so courageous and a purpose so powerful that any expression of sym pathy I might utter would be meaning less. Her force of will was perfectly clasped each others hands and the expression of her eyes as I looked into them revealed a soul so deep and full of womanly strength that I could say no thing. It was not necessary for me to express my sympathy in words. Sh understood. Physically, she was tiny but mentally and spiritually she was strong and powerful. She possessed woman's strongest weapon-femininity, Her husband is a giant in the busines

The Gophers Are Feasting on YOUR GRAIN Right NOW

Go to your druggist right away-spend 75c for a box of  other method you coula posss dep pursue. I tell you frankly ill them, and it will cost you less that way than by any will ruin for you. Why not take the steps now that wi/ Mickelson'sKill-Em-Quick GopherPoison will kill all the gophers in an 80-acre

Costs Less Than 1c Per Acre

Anton Mic
Anton Mickelson, President, MICKELSON KILLEM-OUICK COMPANY ${ }^{\prime}$ Dept. $\mathrm{O}^{+}$Winnipeg่, Manitoba, Canada

Write us to-day on the coupon for the D D to ECORATIVEadvice of the right kind ishard employ special advice and color scheme each individual home needs without a cent of cost. The color effects will be as good as an expert's work. This is your chance to have one of the most beautiful color schemes for your home, free. Send the coupon below to-day. It will bring you news, too, about M-L Flat Wall Colors, and where to get them.
Send to us to-day. Colors, and where to get them.
Imperial Varnish $&$ DECORATVE AID DElor Cor Co. Limite 6-24 MORSE STREET, TORONTO, CANADA Hygienic." It helps youtodecorateyour houme in rich, mellow color that just give you experthelp give you experthelp FREE in selecting these charming coors to show you

08 Princess S.., Winnipe

M-L Flat Wall Colors are something new dainty, rict effects. They don't shine or giltere.but are erstilly dull.
You can wash them with soap and water, and they don't spot Quite unike kalsomine or othe washes and finishes. They resembe ex pensive dull-finish eqamels; but can be tell yout free. how to decorate your home in the right hades on M- Flat Wall olor but your only expense is for the color alone- very moderate cost. Write us so day on the coupen. Send this coupon now IMPERIAL VARNISH & COLOR CO.. Limited Decorative Aid Dept., TORONTO.Canda Gentlemen: Send me free vour book on ."The wall world. I have often wondered was possible for a man to undertake ut with such spiendid results as he has coomplished-but now, since I have met is wife, I understand.

LIFE PRESERVERS.

In a letter that George Eliot once wrote to a friend, she made this state sent: be glàd-to see me sometimes is on f those pleasant things-those life preservers which relenting destiny sends me now and then to buoy me up.
George Eliot's letters reveal a life that epended on her friends for inspiration her most intimate friends remained true If a friend is one who summons u o our best, what a splendid position w A girl came to me saying: "All the other girls have friends, but I canno seem to have any; no one seems to lik very week or two she repeated the sam emark. Some one has said if you would have a friend you must be a friend. This ship is a test of character, and the qualihies of a friend who is a fine feelings of appreciation in th fine feelings of appreciation in the riendship of two women throughout he

A PROTECTIVE ASSOCIATION.
An engagement of a week or of eve month is very likely to end in tragedy. eople who know say that many couples who meet for the first time on the boat are married shortly after their arrival in this country. Girls are often grossly deceived by these brief courtships, and they are not safe. It is wise to knov omething of his past. One shudders when a girl says she is soon to marry a young man after an acquaintance of, perhaps, a month or two. This is the perlaps, a month or two. This is the most important step of a girl's life, and the hasty engagement is often the forerunner of wife-desertion. Married men, and those in evil service, use this metho to trap girls for immoral purposes. A protective association would be an ex cellent scheme for helping a girl to in vestigate the character of a young man.
An association of this kind has been An association of town. The women of this organization plan to establish branches in the surrounding towns fo the purpose of getting information about the young men who come to see their daughters. When a young man appears, the mothers will have only to go to the ard catalogue of "eligibles" at the as is moral, ambitious and honest, or other wise. His habits and business prospects may be logue.

Record Breaking Indeed
John was sent to study mathematics, was true science," "For instance," she began, if ise then 12 men can build it in one day
"Two hendred and eighty-eight men will build it in an hour, seventeen thousand two hundred and eighty in minute and one million thirty-six thousand eight hundred men will put it up in could build even a single brick in that time. Again. if one ship can cross the Atlantic in 12 days, 12 ships should be able to cross it in one day. I don't helieve that, either. Therefore, mathematics are absurd!"

The Bowels Must Act Healthily - In most alMents the first carc of the medical man is to see that the bowls

FIVE PONIES and OUTFITS FREE

Winnipeg Telegram's Big Pony Contest for Boys and Girls of Western Provinces

Telegram's Ninth Pony Contest

Great Juvenile Contest

The Contest Closes 10 p.m., Wednesday, July 31, 1912

The Telegram Pony Button
The Telegram Pony Button is another feature of The Telegram's Ninth Pony Contest that adds of The Telegram's Ninth Pony Contest that adds lustre to the contestants of this unparalleled Jusenile competition. The button is one and three-quarters inches deep, with a pin attached so that it can be worn on the lap of a coat or used as a brooch. On the face of the button is a picture of the celebrated spotted Shetland we presented to Miss Mabel Kelly, of Little Souris, in our $f$ fth Miss Mabel Kelly, of Little Souris, in our fifth pony contest, and shows "Captain Jinks" in all his splendor under his elaborate set of harness and hitched to his pony carriage. Every boy and girl who sends in the nomination blank properly filled out will be mailed one of these beautiful button out will be mailed one of these beautiful button absolutely free, and this attractive and unique little ornament will stamp the wearer the recognized pony contestant of the district. Be sure you are the first to get the button in your section and get your candidac: established before another contestant is nominated.
Prize Guaranteed Every Candidate The Winnipeg Telegram does not ask the boys and girl sof Western Canada to canvass for sub-ger seriptions and then take chances on getting a reward for their efforts In the Telegram's Ninth Pony Contest, The Winnipeg Telegram agrees to

Conditions That Equalize

"daisy harum"

First Prize, Pony and Outfit

"chestnut belle"
Rules and Regulations Every question Answered Herel accurately written during the contest.

3 .- N 3. Nominations or subscriptions of Winnipeg will not be accepted.
4. - Nomination

 | $\begin{array}{c}\text { 8. - Subscriptions will not be accepted outside }\end{array}$ |
| :---: | :--- |
| of Canada or Great Britain. |
| 9-A candidate is nominated and registered | \(\begin{aligned} & receipt of all moneys and award votes as lists are

\& received  \& 22.-Votes will not be awarded on clubbing\end{aligned}\) 9.-A candidate is nominated and registered when the nomination blank, properly filled out, has been received by the Pony Contest Editor. has been received by the Pony Contest Editor. $\begin{gathered}\text { 23.-The vote schedule announced will not be no } \\ \text { 10. }\end{gathered}$ Five thousand votes free awarded with altered during the Contest. There will be no

| Nomination  (Monthly)  Pony Contest Editor, Winnipeg Telegram.  Please register my name as a contestant in The Telegram Pony Contest, and credit me with $\mathbf{5 , 0 0 0}$ votes. I have read the rules of the contest and agree to same. |
| :---: |
| Name Address  Signature of Parent or Guardian  This blank, properly filled out, will bring you further information and supplies by return mail. |

SUBSCRIPTION RATES
 12.00
84.00
86.00 Votes will not be awarded on clubbing offer. Votes will not be awarded on payments lees than 81.00 .

Guaranteed Vote Schedule

It is customary in most newspaper subseription contests to double the schedule lor a period of the competition in order to urge conlur firts: The vote schedule announced above wil provail without change throughout the oempotPrevail tion.

Fifth Prize, Pony and Outfit

"frolic

Address all Correspondence to Pony Contest Editor, care Winnipeg Telegram

High-Grade

Cream $=$

Separators

These Separators are giving good satisfaction whèever used.

TERMS:

$$ 20.00$ down

balance in six months
Do not let this opporunity pass you ROBARTS, OATESS
& JUSTICE CO
288 Princess St. Winnipeg

The Women's Quiet Hour

By E. Cora Hind.

This is a new, or rather a new adapta-frames of wood have tacked to them tion of an old method of teaching chilren,. of which no doubt some of my readers have seen accounts in the various newspapers and magan address on this method by Dr. James W. Robertson, Chairman of the Commission on Technical Education- in Canada. The address was given before the Woman's Canadian Club, and Dr.
Robertson had with him a collection of what he termed the didactic material for the course. The system takes its for the course. The system takes its name from Dr. Maria Montessori, who, for fifteen years, was assistant in a hospital in Rome. It was part of her hospital in Rome. It was part of her duties to select the children from various asylums for the weak-minded, idiotic and insane, for demonstrations in the clinics in this hospital. In this way she became very much interested way the study of defective children. She left the hospital and established a school on methods which she had partially worked out and for two years she supervised and also for therself taught she supervised and also oerself in the morning until 7 orclock at night, the pupils being all what are termed de-

A Farm Home in a beautiful setting.
fective children. At the end of that |very soon began to develop a faculty time her pupils came to a contest with for putting them in again. This normal children who had been instructed according to the ordinary $\begin{array}{lll}\text { structed } & \text { according to the ordinary } \\ \text { methods. It was found then that in }\end{array} \begin{aligned} & \text { color; and he had seen a child of five } \\ & \text { years of age, who could take one of }\end{aligned}$ methods. It was found then that in children, owing to the method and care with which they had been taught, were actually ahead of the normal children who had been taught nccord children who had been taught accordng to the prevailing system. This ing to the prevailing system. This decided Dr. Montessori that the ordinary methods of instruction for children in schools are wrong, and she children in schools are wrong, and she has gone o.. from this basis antil ser has gone o.. from this basis until she has worked out a complete, or fairly has worked out a complete, or fairly complete, system for the instruction of children. She has been asked to take charge of the children's houses take charge of the children's houses in connection with a number of tene in connection with a number of tene ments in Rome. These tenements are constructed from old and insanitary ones into modern, healthful homes for poor people of the working classes, and to each one is attached wilht is as a children's house. In this house attat children, almost infants, are cared for while their parents, who are tenants in the tenements, are a way at work.
Dr. Robertson spoke for over half an Dr. Robertson spoke for over half an hour, and it would be quite impossible to give anything like a symopsis even of his address, but a few thoughts from it, it seemed to me, mighlt prove very useful to women in country homes, where help is hard to obtain, and where the children are very often unconsciously neglected. The whole idea of the system is to teach a child to observe and think for it. years of age, who could take one o these blocks, carry it across a room, ay it down, go back and match it perfectly as to shade from the same ox, showing that it carried the color absolutetly in its brain and eye. He absolutetly in its brain and eye. He suggested that if grown-up people had uggested that if grown-up people ha any doubt of the value of this training, for them to attempt a similar eat themselves.
A Method of training children A Method of training children to walk carefully was to give a child a brimming glass of water on a plate and ask it to carry it to another child. Grace of Movement. $\begin{aligned} & \text { He said it astonishing }\end{aligned} \begin{aligned} & \text { was } \\ & \text { how }\end{aligned}$ race of Movement. astonishing how young children could in this way be aught to walk firmly and gracefuliy, aving perfect control of their bodies, He stated that he had seen a child of four entrusted with a tureen of soup ing it carried round the table, holding it while a number of children, one oup with the ladle. Dr. Roberston poke at considerable length on how eeling in the feveloped the sense of ould be given a piece of very smooth wood, perhaps a piece of very smooth nches wide, and on one side of this nches wide, and on one side of this t intervals would be placed narrow trips of sand paper. Twice a child would have its fingers passed along,

Feeding the Family. thoughts from his address there may be to the Government. The section reads something for the busy woman on the farm which may help in the early edumorly whay help in the early edu

Before beginning his address proper Society, which The Aberdeen Society. ed as an or $\begin{gathered}\text { or } \\ \text { for }\end{gathered}$ sweetening and strengthening the hames n the frontier its beginnings in Winnipeg, and for many years there was an active body of orkers here. Through the departure from the city of those most closely ver, the work has been allowed to lapse It is quite likely that the Woman's anadian Club will take this work up and push it once more. To those not branch organization collects all the good books, magaziness, and weekly papers that it finds possible in its district, that it finds possible in its district, searches out families on the frontie tho are not supplied with reading matfamilies a parcel made up so far as possible of literature suited to their needs. he society is a national affair, and has through the mails free. ing packages ther branch of the work is for each member of the familes organization to write to the
as follows:-
The 'vanguard of the pioneers has never been adequately served or sung. An immigration service must regard it from the severely utilitarian point of yiew, but good sense and good sentiment are the $t w i n$ bases of good immigration. One special recognition has been given the dwellers in the more solitary places-their representation in Legislature and Parliament is on a smaller numerical basis than that of urban numerical basis than that of urban communities. It is good for those who are nearer the multitudinous case of civilization to do something to redress the balance of deprivation that is cheerfully undertaken by those who go to of the public regard belongs to the men, women and children who hit the long trail. Draw the sharpest teeth of hard ship and of vacant spaces with thriving contented communities. One such aid to immigretion provides all the elaboratim that is necessary to enforce the the most commercial exploitation of natural resources "Get people to build up the provinces" plenished cradle is the choicest answer to the demand, for it is the sign, symbol and surety of the greatest natural resource of all. Human life is the most valuable where it is the rarest. A birth at the end of the long trail is the sub-year. A few years ago the society sen out altogether, in Canada, to two thous and families, a parce. of literature monthly and two letters ining the year. Personally I am very glad to find that this work is to be revived in Winnipeg. It ought never to have been allowed to drop, and there certainly people in our remote frontier districts needing good literature than there are to-day. A point on which Dr. Robertson dwelt was that in this work the city and the fringe of Empire were bound together, to the great advantage of both, as the woman on the farm, re sponding to the letters sent to her from the society, often gave to her city sister thoughts and aspirations which were which she herself received.

Last month I said someching of the work done by Mr. Arthur Hawkes in connection with a report to the DoWomen and minion Government on Immigration. gration in this country, women. This month I am glad to be able to publish exerpts from this report which is now in print. So far as we have been able to ascertain, it is the very first time that anything of the kind has appeared 1 an official report

We guarantee every ingredient of the "O.K. Sauce to be absolutely pure and of the finest quality only, and the above sum will be paid October 1911 secured highest Award Gold Medal Festival of Empire AGEITS FOR CANADA: The Turnbull, Co., 179 Bannatyne Ave., Winnipeg, Man

Such a good Soup.

Such a little price.
Such a thick, nourishing, strengthening soup is Edwards'; so small is the cost that everyone can well afford it.
Edwards' Soup is prepared from specially selected beef and the finest vegetables that Irish soil can produce. It comes to you all ready for the saucepan. The cook will find Edwards' Soup a great help in the kitchen. It goes with lots of things that aren't as tasty by themselves; it strengthens her own soups and there's double the variety in the menu when Edwards' Soup is on the pantry-shelf.

Buy a packet to-day.

Edwards' desiccated Soup is made in three varietiss Brovenn,Tomaro, Whitc. The Brown variety is a thich Brown variety is a nourishing soup prepare nourishing soup preparea from best veef and fresh vegeables. The other fow . por paokat SOUP are purely vegetable seupti Edwards' desiccated Soup is made in Ireland by Irish labour. There, and in England it is a household word limest tragedy, the sublimest hope that the nation affords. The remote, all but friendless women who go down into the dark valley, and from whom no complaint is heard, bear an appalling risk of loss to the province, to the Dominion, which they ought not to suffer, and which they ought not to suffer, and which is too often accepted as a matter of course.

There must always be, of course, deprivations on the frontier. But when human life is about to yield its increase, it should have as tender a care as the increase of the field has while it waits for cars. The record in the family Bible is as superior to the stud book pedigree, as the stars are to the dust. The pionas the stars are to the dust. The pioneer is seldom rich. Expert help is often eer is seldom rich. Expert help is often bejond his means. The tale of lives lost at the most precious, most jeopardous period is formidable as soon as it is gathered together. Probably in conis gathered together. Probably in conjunction with the Commission for the junction with the Commission for th Provincial Immigration Service would ascertain the exact conditions in a given pioneer area, and take steps to organize are apt to inflict loss on the country, and dread of which materially retards the immigration of sensitive women who are not deficient in courage, but are merely endowed with saving caution. merely endowed with saving caution.
This is pre-eminently a field for the activity of existing women's organizations, and has been touched by some of tions, and has been touched by some of them. The demand for skilled nursing them. The demand for skilled nursing in cities and well settled areas is very great, and is being admirably met. It would probably be found that for pioneer settlements the prinoipal need is eer settlements the principal need is for middwives who are not necessarily to practical experience have the into practical experience have the intensely human qualities that may destroy the effects of the lonely isolation which accentuates the crisis in the fate which accentuates the crisis in the fate of immigration has never been sufficiently regarded. If it were fully appreciated and its more poignant difficulties anticipated it would be much easier to abtract able families to Canada.

Home Economics Swan Lake, Manitoba.
The meeting of the Home Economics was opened by the reading of the minutes of the last meeting which were dent, Mrs. Gordon, most feelingly voiced the sentiments of the whole society in the words of regret with which she expressed the sense of loss under which expressed the sense of loss under which the society is suffering in the death of one of its most valued members, Mrs. Murray Simpson, and the loss of a clever little helper in the person of Delta Hartwell, who so often brightentions.
After a vote of condolence had been passed to those so sadly bereaved, the matter of finally settling on a programme for the current year was entered upon, and after discussion, the programme was drawn up. The president also spoke again on the need for systematic caretaking of the cemetery, which is a duty women can cemetery, which is a duty women can a day for this work should be chosen at the next meeting in May. The need of society was also urged by the president, who asked each member to try and bring a new rearuit to the next meeting. ing. The subject for the programme at this two papers, contributed by Mesdames Hodgson and Downey, were read. It was soon evident that the choice of was soon evident that the choice of ladies and subject had fallen happily; both papers were interesting and well thought out; Mrs. Hodgson discussed home-making more from the religious and parental standpoint. Mrs. Downey, while taking an eqtally serious view of the subject, showed the absolute need the subject, showed the absolute need for true unity and co-operation, not only between husband and wife, but also between parents and children. The reading was listened to with interested attention and a vote of thanks was unanimously passed to the two ladies who had added, not only to the entertainment of the afternoon, but who had ful filled the 'raison d'etre of the society that of giving helpful ideas and sugges. tions to their fellow members.

Tag Day.
At the meeting which was held on Saturday, April 27 th, to organize for Tag Day here, the following officers were chosen:- Captain, Mrs. G. B. Gordon; treasurer, Mrs. W. E. Gardner; seeretary, Mrs. B It has be It has been decided this year to enlist the help of the principals of the five school districts in our ward as the easiest and most thorough way of canvassing the territory to be covered, and a second meeting was therefore called a sercond meeting was Render's store, Swan Lake, and the secetary was directed to write and ask the following ladies and gentlemen to be present:Miss Blackbu E. Ross, of Swan Lake; Mr. A. Sparling, of Norquay; and the Principals of St. Gustave and Oak Hill schools, to meet and confer with the officers men. meet and confer with the officers mentioned above. The secretary was also directed to write and ask permission of Mr. E. M. Wood, of the Provincial Board of Health for the Tag Day in list, ward being a me mere suitable day for as and offering better chances of, collections than Friday, May 31st.

The Loss of the Asia in Georgian Bay, 1882,

The portrait below is that of Christy Ann Morrison, the only lady survivor, and one of the only two survivors of and one of the only two survivors of the ill-fated steamer Asia, which was lost on the Georgian Bay, Thursday, September 14th, 1882 , with fully 125 persons on board. Miss Morrison, with persons on board. Miss Morrison, with seventeen others, took refuge in the cap-

Miss Christy Ann Morrison. tain's boat. The terrific storm soon re duced the number to seven, including captain and mate. One after another five of these strong men, though inure to hardships, succumbed t? the therre of the s $^{2}$ orm, and died from sheer ex haustion, while Miss Morrison and he sole companion, Mr. D. A. Tinkiss, stil ing eighteen hours in the boat they drifted ashore on Friday morning. A ter escaping the perils of the deep the suffered the pangs of hunger for two additional days, until, through the assistance of an Indian they reached sistance of an Indian they reache Parry Sound. These are the barest out lines lines of one of the most astonishing deliverances on record, and it must be admitted they entitle the subject of this sketch to the title of "Heroine" so uniand people of Canada.

NA-DRU-CO Dandruff Eradicator is compounded and guaranteed by the Its forg Drug Firm in the British Empire. Its formula is based on real, scientific Expert chemists hair and it from ingre dients which do NOT include anything that can possibly injure the scalp or change the color of the hair.
Supplement Na-Dru-Co Dandruff Eradicator with Na -Dru-Co Hair Tonic and Dressing, and you can bring the hair to a splendidly preparations are put up in 50 c . and $\$ 1.00$人 N D (lias $\qquad$ Limited 202

No Man Should Rest Content

while the welfare of his family depends merely upon his own uncertain existence.
Life Insurance will make their welfare permanent.
And the best in Life Insurance is found in the Policies of The Great-West Life Assurance, Company HEAD OFFICE - WINNIPEG

Ask for a Pocket Memo. Book-Free on request.

Solves Labor Problem of Farmer

The only "One Man Macher"for 160 to 640 Acre Farms as a stationary engine for power purposes, and as a tractor for hauling poads, etc The demand for the Hackney Auto Plow has been enormous-over 10,000 for spring delivery, sold. We are now accepting orders for summer and fall delivery. All orders filled in the order received. Placing your order early will ment. Send for illustrated cang your order early will save yourself disappoint 4.

$$
\begin{gathered} \text { As } \\ \text { which } \end{gathered}
$$

$$
\begin{aligned} & \text { As we } \\ & \text { which ca } \end{aligned}
$$

$$
\begin{aligned} & \text { which ca } \\ & \text { absurd } \\ & \text { sleepless } \end{aligned}
$$

$$
\begin{aligned} & \text { sloepless } \\ & \text { of distu } \\ & \text { disease, } \end{aligned}
$$

The Home Doctor.

Sleep.

The Best Cure for Insomnia By Woods Huchinson, M.D. As we know of no drug or procedure which can produce sleep, it is obviously absurd to expect any "saire cure" for sleeplessness. This is is invariably a sign of disturbance of balance, or of incipient of disturbance ond shald be treated only by careful investigation and removal of its cause, when found. And there wril be nearly as many cat even say what parferers. we physical habit is most fretieular bad quently to blame. So that the number of "good things to do for sleeplessness, whieh ha limited. ${ }_{\text {The }}$ one procedure which most univerTally one procespos to sound sleep, is one which is within the reach of all, and that is getting well tired. To work hard enough every day to get comfortably tired, particularly muscularly, is the tired, partieularly muscuarly, is excessive best eure. for bestigue may, of course, produce it. fate Sleep is not solely or even chiefly a matter of the brain, but of all the active ter of the brain, but of all the active tissues of the body and especially the tissues of the body and especialy he muscles. We must be symmetrically fatigued, or as we say "tirea all over," in order to sleep well. many exceptions, laboring men and all those engaged in active out-door occupathose engaged in active out-door occupations usually sleep well. Most of our tions asualy sleep well. Most of our "insomniacs" are men and women of "insomniacc are men ands. In fact I have been sometimes inclined to suspec that sleep is even more $a$ matter of the. muscles is even more a matcer onite. muscles than of the brain. Certain' the soundness of sleep of many professional and ness of siep of business men is directly related to the amount of muscular exercise in the open air which they have taken during the air which they have taken dring day. A brisk daily walk of from two to day. A brisk daily walk of yroml wo fouretive hypnotic. Rut even this rule has many exceptions. many exceptions.

Eating Before Sleeping.
Diet has little influence on sleep, except in so far as it may produce disturbances of digesti-- and through these of the general balance of health The hypnotic effects of certain sueh as onions, lettuce, etc., are chiefly imaginary. Even the time of the last meat he day is of relatively little im portance, except that it is well to let this be at least two or the fore retiring. But even this rule has ${ }_{\text {many exceptions, as many healthy }}^{\text {fore }}$ laboring men habitually fall asleep over their pipes directly after supper, and their pipes directly after supper, and child ren, after poking the spoon into their their, witn the bread and butter still table, wise clutched in their chubby fists.
The processes of digestion probably The processes of digestion probably go on more slowly during sleep, but they are perfectly carried out, as is iो- lustrated by the almost invariable habit among animals of going to sleep directly after a meal. Indeed a meal. the stomach or intestines seems to promote slumber. Many night-workers, for mote slamber. Many night-workers, instance, sleep much better for taking a light or even full supper just before The Right Kind of Bedroom.

It goes without saying that the bedroom should be well ventilated, especially in vie.. of the heavy storing up of oxygen in the tissues which goes on during sleep. All windows should be open from the top at least one, and better two to three feet, so that a gentle current of air can be felt blowing across the face. "Night air," as Florence Night ane gale pithily remarked, "is all the air just as pure and as at nholeshme," It is air. Night fogs and rain are only injurious in so far as they-frighten you into shutting your windows. No air that ever blew out doors is so dangerous, or poisonous, as that inside a bedroom with cloced windows.
The temperature of the room should be about 55 degrees to 60 degrees F , if possible. If markedly below this the possible. If markedly below this the amount of covering required is apt to amount of covering to interfers with the become so great ase respiration of the skin. The clothing should be as light as is iconsistent with warmth, the mattress elastic but firm, the pillow as high as the breadth of the shoulder, so as to keep the neck and head horizontal or slightly above when lying on the side. The good, hard com mon-sense of humanity has solved all these problems, and the modern hair-mattress, or its equivalent, single pillow and blankets, or cheese-cloth cover aerated by turning the hose on it, can hardly be much improved on.

Heard Upon the Inside.

By. C. Schubel.
"Oh! Oh! Oh!" writhed one of the two conical brothers occupying the cav ly of the chest and extending from the Lungs. "There goes-ugh! that abom inable coughing and hacking again, and sore as 1 am. Not enough-oh! ugh!that I am cramped to death by thos noterabie cuest-into oremain sunk into me.
"Ugh! Gracious!
If straighten up, but for a moment, an send down a waft of God's longed-for air, I could feel relieved from the stench and the mold of this black, stifing hole.
The little-oh ugh! he does deign to send this way merely reaches the surface of me, nothing more.
"He is- -h, me! oh, my!-yes, a fool, fool, for here he is constantly pratt fool, for here he is constantly pratt ling about glorious rights and freedom ling about glorious rights and rreedom, and yet-ol! ugh!-he forces a million of these fellows-germs-to remain confined in my dark, mushy cells where-oh, me!-they only make the more merry and feast and thrive and are tearing me! oh, my!"
"Confound you, groaner," piped a weak, debilitated and thin voice from weak, debilitated and thin voice from oown the vauited" secon not enough that of the dungeon. "Is it not enoun a bloodless, nervous and dyspeptic frailty as I am should be decaying away here below and partly through your faults, without your iirritating disturfaults, without your irritating distur bances? ? It was the Stomach speaking bances?" It was the Stomach speaking again, and there goes a a clog of blood from me -a a great relief! But what did you call me? A groaner? Contemptible, slrunken, flabby, measly pigmy. It is you who have heped to bring me the Had you and your insipid assistants done your labor half aright you might have prepared, from the ailment receiv ed, sufficient and better nutriment fot ed, sufficient and betre nutriment for all of us. Then I I might have been bet ter sustained in the resistance I was offering up here against the fool, our master:" "Insipid assistants!" exclaimed the infuriated small intestines un a boly, to gether with the burly Liver and the yether with the burly Liver and the Spleen and the Pancreas. Then the Liver, becoming a little aroused from his sluggishness, continued: "Ungrate ful, filth-covered thing! Have you so 别 soon forgotten when you first became unfit for work through vermin o'er swarming you, how 1 , perhaps too read iy, assumed your purifying duties to ether with my own of storing bile? gether with my own of storing biee I took the venous nutriment that should have gone your way from the great pumping station and purge. it for you and now that I am exhausted througl you and that my connective tissues Chickened by the poisonous drink our master sips, prevent my further work now you call me insipid! Rare grati tude!" "Good!" piped the squeamish Stomach animated a trifle in turn by the Liver's Words. "How can you, sir, you groaner assume to condemn? Do you not know how long I struggled in this place to ward off the heaped abuse which has ex. ward off the heaped abuse which has ex

STARTLING VALUE

 in Watches and Rings
H. SAMUEL'S colossal business has for three generations held its own in producing the finest Watch and Jewellery Bargains in the world. This wonderful rganisation is able to deliver safe and sound to nyone, anywhere, articles of guaranteed qualit direct from the Old Country This means an enormous saving for the purchaser of the usual agents fees and the large profits of a smaller organization. A postcard will BIG FREE BOOK of 3,000 BARGallis a glance at which will show you the advanages of dealing direct with H. SAMUEL at next-factory prices. A few examples:

 H. SAMUEL, $\begin{gathered}55 \text { Market } \operatorname{sireet} \text { ( } \\ \text { Manchester, } \\ E N G .\end{gathered}$

Sewing Machine Sale

McBEAN BROS. Grain Commiscon

, 9 Merchants
As navigation is now open we wed.
 UNDEARTAND this business THOROUGHLY and that COUN TS.
 GOOA GRAIN EXCHANGE, WINNIPEG, MAN.

[^1]68

SEVERE COLD

DEVELOPED INTO

PNEUMONIA

DOCTOR SAID HE WOULD

 NOT LIVE.Next to consumption there are more deaths from pneumonia than from any other lung trouble.
There is only one way to prevent pneumonia, and that is to cure the cold just as soon as it appears. Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup will do this quickly and effectively.
Mr. Hugh McLeod, Esterhazy, Sask. writes:-"My little boy took a very severe cold, and it developed into pneumonia The doctor said he would not live. I got Syrup and he began to improve right way. He is now a strong, healthy child, and shows no signs of it coming back."
Do not be talked into buying any oth Norway Pine Syrup, but insist on getting the original Dr. Woods. It is put up a a yellow wrapper; three Manufactured only by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

$$ 3.50$ Recipe FREE For Weak Men.

Send Name and Address TodayYou Can liave it Free and Be Strong and vigopous.

PREVENTS SLEEPLESSNESS

If your dealer cannot supply you, the Mathieu Co Sherbrooke
P, S. L. Mathieu Co., Sherbrooke, P. Q. Q., sends box postpaid on receipt of price.

The Westepn Home Monthly.

| is I who should lament and groan. For | $\begin{array}{l}\text { great impelling station. It was the the }\end{array}$ |
| :--- | :--- |
| a long time, aye, for a very, very long | Heart. "You are both of you fools. | a long time, aye, for a very, very long Whe, I resented the insults offered me. When first those tunnel-loads of food, unfit for service, were sent down his unitit for service, were sent down his broad gullet, how did I cast them forth again with all the pride of my clean self! I called the Sentient Terve unto self! I called the Sentient Terve unto my aid and up and through the brain my aid and up and through the brain his sporting sped until the head of him his sporting sped until the head of him (our master) sought to split! Excessive sweets, drugs, solden soda-bread and all the leaden weights of frying-pan and swimming grease I warred against "I I could no more.

pease me for the wrongs I As if to appease me for the wrongs I bore he soon began to send down sips of that vile tuff which is now ending stuff which is now ending me. My walls, once flushed and rosy with the nillion tiny veins and minute nerves are corroding now and deadened through this same stuff, and I must crave the fuid, wildly and unnaturally crave for it to stimulate me in my little work, am decaying, decaying, decaying, sir!" "Your tale, Stomach, is sad and I regret the epithets I flung down to you, any charge of guilt you may entertain ny charge "See! migh! Oh! Here he is againght - -sending down volumes of that ry, poisonous and suffocating smoke me in my work. Its yellow fumes pene- adopted a devil-the-outcome manner, a trate into my cells and dry the little blood that still nourishes them. It fills cepting the abuses as they come.

The Stomach: "Hurrah! Rah! Rah the bronchus till the blood sent to it to Hurrah!, Rah! Rah! Ziss! Bang e purged must be returned twice pois-Hurrah!,
The whole abdominal region resound help it if I fail in my work? ed and the rumbling cheer reuld "No, do not blame me, Liver, for the heard echoing through the passages of work that you must do. I am sore and and am half rone now. and am half gone now. "Enough of all your lamentations," roke in a strong voice, coming from the

Ilustrate Embroidery a:ticle on page 69 8225 -Collar and Cuff Set, 60 cents. Does not my faithful pumping allow you ocontinue to exist. For how, without ee secretion, and without secretion how ould your digestion be accomplished ? "Hold on," squeamed the Stomach "Hold on," squeamed the Stomach.
"How without my digestion, and how How without my digestion, and how without nutrition could a new supply of irculating matter. be carried up to you "be pumped, sir?" Silence! Both are fools, or else these mentations long since would have ceas-What do you think the master eeds despite all your groanings? When nee a man will barter his good health gratify his lusts, what matters it if the thraldom all of us are sold $\%$ " in the thraldom all of us are sold ?"
"Behold me! I have long since learned to bear my lot. Tough as I am, I ave given up the fight and now I simply erform my work half-sluggishly, not caring how or when the order comes to top. I weakened his brain by the bad ood sent up there, but what good the oss of memory, the impaired powers of ttention and the lassitude brought on? He has sunk the deeper in folly which he has adopted.
"Aye, Liver, can you remember the happy days? We used to laugh at our work and dance with the joy thereof; but he, yonder, has become as sluggish and listlless as myself and with me has wREAL ESTATE BUSINESS

Free 40 Page Book '
 Co-Operative Representative estate company in CANADA Representatives are making $$ 2,000$ to $$ 10,000$ a year withot
 Good judgment Your Own Master

OOMINION CO.OPERATIVE REALTY CO

NA-DRU-CO
LAXATIVES
Women's commonest ailment -the root of so much of their ill-health-promptly yields to the gentle but certain ac of Na -Dru-Co Laxatives. 25c. a box at your druggist's.
onal drug and chemical co.
or canada, limiteo.

MONEY $$ 3.00$ To $$ 12.00$ A DA tow everyone can buy. Guaranted. Agents-rare chance to mike money. Write quick for MILORD MFG. C0, 521 Milford Bldg. MIIFORO, OHIO

A GREAT JEWELLERY PACKAGE Manitoba Novelty Co.

When writing advertisers please
When writing advertisers please
Mention The Western Home Monthly

Attractive Embroideries.

The rage for Punch Embroidery still remains unabated and our readers by means of the article on this beautiful work which appeared in our 8502-Waist on 45 incl Voile, 75 cents. Mare number have been made familiar with this work. Some beautiful waists and collar and cuffs sets are being shown and the prices of these articles when purchased ready made are very high, but the mat rials are inexpensive and the work easily done so that and the work easily done so that one can easily possess either one or both of these beautiful articles.

The waist illuytrated here has been embroidered on voile with ffective Cotton and background with a beautiful design of ronventional roses. As we explained kefore the design merely requires to be outlined as this leaves the linen in relief against the lace like back rround. The Collar and Cuff sot has been embroidered on hite linen and as the design is small it has been embroidered solidly in solid padded satin stitch and these dainty sprays show up effectively with a punched linen background. These Collar and Cuff Sets are suitable to wear with either the dainty onepiece summer gown or a coat and skirt costume. The edges of this set are not buttonholed, but are effectively finished with a pretty cluny edging. Either white or cream linen may be used for this coat set and if linen. These waists are now being stamped with an extra allowance for sleeves which may be set in if preferred although the one piece or kimona waist in spite of all predictions to the contrary is still being used. A stal.ped envelope will bring a diagram for doing the fashionable punch work embroidery and special needles may bs supplied at 5 cents each. For illustration of collar and cuff set see Page 68.
 and our readers have already showing two new examples of this effective and simple work an.. would say that the finished effect is exqu site. One of the effect is exqu site. One of the most charming ideas is to use several tones of one shade and this idea is illustrated on the embroidered set pictured hére. The graceful festoons 1 ve been embroidered with pink, using embroidered with pink, using five shades, while the bow knots are embroidered solidly in satin stitch, in pale greens, outlined with black.

The designs for this em broidery are closely set groups of daisies, each petal of which is rovered by one long, straight stitch of double Roya Floss which fully covers stamped outlines. Care must be taken not to draw the stitches too tightly, and a better result is gained if each er result is gained if each titch is taken from the centre of the flower out, instead of carrying the thread

6550-Cushion, 50 cents. petal from centre. The centre of the flower consists of two large French Knots made by threading the needle with strand each of black and gold silk. This embroidery looks well on either white, cream or tan backgrounds. Green is used for the little straight petals which give a leaf effect at the back of the daisies. A at the back of the daisies. A scarf may be supplied to match this design and other arrangements of this beautiful embroidery will be found on this page. Another idea on this page. Another idea which is being very much used in this Millefleur Em broidery is to use a combination of shades, as pink, mauves, greens, blues and yellows, in fact all the colors o he rainbow may be used, keeping, however, each flower in one color. The de will be retained. Peaders will please understand that the prices quoted are for stamped linens only as we do not only as we do not supply finished embroideries. Any other information regardint: the working of any of these designs will be furnished on receipt of a of thice designs. When ordering allow at least one wees from the time the order

SILVER--PLATED DISHES FOR TABLE SERVICE

The useful qualities of any fine table piece make it a welcome wedding gift, but when to these are added the highest quality both in material and workmanship it is all the more acceptable.

We illustrate an entree and breakfast dish, which permits of a variety of uses, and is made of heavy "Dingwall" silver plate on a hard metal base. It sells complete for

$$ 18.00$

D. R. DINGWALL LIMITED JEWELLERS WINNIPEC

If You will send us 35 c.

For eight skeins of ART EMBROIDERY SILK which is sufficient to embroider a 15 inch Cream Linen Centre Piece, stamped for the new HEATHER EMBROIDERY.

We will give you FREE, this Centre Piece, and sufficient Cream Lace to edge this as illustrated, also a diagram lesson which will teach any woman this beautfiul embroidery which is simple but effective.
Send to-day, as this generous offer is good for a short time only.
This offer is made to convince every woman that our ART EMBROIDERY SILKS are the best made.
belonng pall contceul limite.
Dept. L.
Montreal, P.Q.

Our Catalogue

 Will Save You MoneySend us a postcard to-day and ask for a copy of our latest cat alogue containing full particulars and prices of Wigs, Toupees, Pompadours, Swifches Curls, Bangs, Pufís.
We are the recognized mail order hair goods house of the West.
SEAMAN & PETERSEN The Now York Malr Store 283 Smith Stroet, winnlpeg

ALways.pecify"Kleinerts" A Drees Shieldo to your dressmaker and thus safesuard your gowns against the fatal effects of perspiration.

Kleinert's are made in many shapes and sizes for every need. Can be washed in hot water to destroy odor and germs, and ironed back to original whiteness and freshness.

Write for our Dress Shield Book "2"
I. B. Kleinert Rubber Co. 84-86 West Wellington St., Toronto It the name "Kleiner", is not on the shield

Prevents Baldness

Healthy scalps
don't get bald
ADONIS HED-RUB
-antisceptic and delightfulkeeps the hair roots clean an vigorous-the hair soft and vigorck. Guaranteed by all druggists to cure dandruff.
50 c and $$ 1.00$ bottle

Fashions and Patterns.

I

SMART MODELS FOR SILK AND $\mid$ exceedingly good effect, and stripes of LINEN.
The prest well be called a silk $\left\lvert\, \begin{aligned} & \text { one is not to be limited to any one treat- } \\ & \text { ment } \text { In the back view line., is trim- }\end{aligned}\right.$

| The present may well be called a silk | ment. In the back view line. is trim- |
| :---: | :--- |
| season for a great many kinds are being | med with embroidery and with tucking | season for a great many kinds are being extensively worn. In the illustration and the result is excellent, while thinare shown two models, which are espec- ner and lighter materials, such as voile 7423-Costume for Misses and Small Women. 7411-Semi-Princesse Gown. ially well adapted to taffeta and to silks and the simple lawns and batistes, can ially well adapted to taffeta and lo and of a similar kind and also to linen and be treated in the same way with success. other fabrics that take tailored finish with success. gipl's costume includes a

The young gill The young gipl's costume includes a blouse that is belted in the Russian style blouse is so popular this season and sleeves that can be made either in three-quarter $\begin{aligned} & \text { the bands on the skirt finished with oor the } \\ & \text { pink }\end{aligned}$ or full length. Long sleeves have taken $\begin{aligned} & \text { pinked out fuchings or with flat puffings } \\ & \text { that are so much liked in that particular }\end{aligned}$ a great hold and unquestionably are silk. For the 16 year size will be re | fashionable, but those of three-quarter |

| :--- | :--- |
| length are equally correct and are apt to | \(\begin{aligned} \& quired 5 yards of material 27,41 / 2 yards  \& 36,4 yards 44 inches wide to make as\end{aligned}\) length are equally correct and are apt to be preferred by many wearers during 36, 4 yards 44 inches wide to make a be prefrred beather season. The simple ment indicated in the back view will be little skirt is made in two pieces with a straight band joined to the lower edge at the sides. The striped silk makes an sertion, $31 / 4$ yards of tuckiug $\pm 1 / 2$ inche wide and $3 / 8$ yard 18 inches wide for the yoke. May Manton pattern, No. 7423, is The Mat cut in sizes for misses of 16 and 18 years of age. linen makes the gown shown to the right with chemisette of white em broidery and frills of sheer white mus briodery is very smart and v ry attrac lin. It tive, altogether in the height of style, for color and material both are exceedfor color and material both are exceedingly smart, but there is scarcely any ingly smart, but there is scarcely any fashionable model to-day that can not be varied, and this one can be made with a vhorter poplum and with or without a collar, and with the blouse made plain or with a frill or with an applied band or with a frill or with an applied band of lace as indicated in one of the small lace as indicated in one of the small views. In whatever way it is treated it is exceedingly attractive and altogether fashionable, and the details therefore can be left entirely to individual prefer. can be left entirely to individual preference. The skirt is a simple three pice ence. The skirt is a simple three-piece one with the edges at the left of the front overlapped in place of being seamed. The blouse is made with, sleeves ed, The blouse is made with sleeves sewed to the armholes and the poplum is separate so that it can be used or omitted, as may be liked. Again the three. quarter sleeves are not the only ones for they can be finished with deep cuffs extending them to the wrists. Whether linen, pique, taffeta, or any other seasonable material is used, the gown is sure $\rightarrow+$ be liked, and in rddition to its other adve liked, and is easy to adjust, for the a dvantages, it is closing is made at the left of the front. For the medium size will be needed $81 /$ yards of material $27,61 / 2$ yards 36 , 5 yards 44 inches wide with $5 / 8$ yard 18 5 yards 44 inches wide with $5 / 8$ yard 18 inches wide for the chemisette, $1 / 4$ yards of muslin ruffling for the frills.

The May Manton pattern, No. 7411, is cut in sizes from 34 to 42 bust. is cut in sizes from 34 to 42 bust.
The above patterns will be mailed any address by the Fashion Department of this paper on receipt of ten cents for each. each.
COSTUME FOR MISSES AND SMALL WOMEN.

With Square or High Neck, Elbow or Long Sleeves. $\begin{aligned} & \text { pearance? } \\ & \text { me for Pri }\end{aligned}$ me for Pri and the wa measuremen

We mak parting ain

 parting andshould try grey. The younger. younger.
your comb
coll for prices

CHBEST0
Women, 16 and 18 years.
Every variation of the belted or Rus sian idea is smart this season. This cos tume can be made available for linen, lingerie materials, taffeta and for light lingerie materials, taffeta and for ligh weight wools. The skirt is made in two pieces and there is an inverted plait a

When wri mention The

For dellicious natural flavor, delicate aroma, absolute purity and food value, aroma, absolute purity and food value, the most important requisites of a good cocoa, it is the standard Sold in $1 / 6 \mathrm{lb}, 1 / 1 / 1 \mathrm{lb}, 1 / 2 \mathrm{lb}$, and 1 lb . cans, .
Trade Mark On Every Packase BOOKLET OF CHOCE RECIPES SENT WALTER BAKER & CO. LIMITED MONTREAL. Establishod 1780 DORCHESTER, CAN.

Gentlemen, Are you aware that Catarrh is caused because your hair is scanty, and a wellmade toupee would prevent that and add a hundred per cent to your ap- pearance? Send to me for Price Lists and the way to measurements.    Ladies,  We make Transformations with a parting and it looks perfect. You should try one if your hair is thin or grey. They make you look yearsyounger. Don't forget also to save younger. Don't forget also to save your combings; they make Switches acd Puffs equal to new. Send today H. E. HILLINGS, 207 Enderton Bldg., Portage Avenue, WINNIPEG, Man.

When writing advertisers please mention The Western Home Monthly.
7413 Semi-Princesse Dress for Misses and Small Women, 16 and 18 years. it requires material of only moderate width. The tunic portion is of houncing and beneath it is a foundation piece, but from plain material, from wide banding, from material trimmed or from flouncing from material trimmed or from flouncing to match the tunic in narrower width. to match the tunic in narrower width.
The blouse is cut in one piece with the The blouse is cut in one piece with the sleeves which means simple making as sleeves which lines. Square neck and well as graceful lines. elbow sleeves are both pretty and smart, but there are occasions when high neck but there are occasions when high neck and longer sleeves are desirable and the dress can be made as shown :n the back view and the neck finished with a stock collar.
For the 16 year size will be needed $21 / 8$ yards of bordered material 28 inches wide and $31 / 2$ yards 17 inches wide with and 1 yard 21 for the bands, $21 / 8$ yards of insertion and $5 / 8$ yard of tucking to make as illustrated.
The pattern, No. 7413, is cut in sizes for misses of 16 and 18 years of age, and will be mailed to any adiress Fashion Department of this paper, on In

each side that extends to the depth of the flouncing. The little blouse coatee is quite separate and closed at the front. Made with square neck and shortsleeves and of embroide ed or other sleeves and of embroide ed or other fancy material the costume is adapted fancy material the costume is adapted to afternoon wear and to luncheons and occasions of the kind. Made with high neck and long sleeves and from plain linen or pique, simply finished, it be linen or piqué, simply finished, it be comes suited to morning wear.

For the 16 year size will b $41 / 2$ yards $\$ \$$ patearial 27,4 yards 36,33 $41 / 2$ yards chpaterial 27,4 yards $36,33 / 4$ yards 44 inches wide with $21 / 3$ yards of embroidery 12 inches wide and $31 / 3$ yards of tucking, 9 yards of banding; 3 yard of tucking, 9 yards of banding; $3 / 8$ yard 18 inches wide for yol $3 \mid$ when high neck 18 inches The pattern, No. 7423, is cut in sizes for misses of 16 and 18 years of age, and will be mailed to any address on receipt of ten cents.

SEMI-PRINCESSE DRESS FOR MISSES AND SMALL WOMEN With Square or HEgh Neck, Elibow or Three-quarter Sleeves.
Flouncings and bordered materials make many of the prettiest dresses of the season. This one is very dainty in the season. This one is very dainty in effect yet extremely simple to make and Every housekeeper will appreciate a tasteful apron for waitress' wez.. This one is so simple that it can be made readily and quickly, at the same time it is dainty and becoming. The straps over the shoulders are straight and if liked they can le from embroidery. The apron is generously full without being cumbersome. It is easily without being cumbersome. It is easily adjusted, it is smart and neat in effect adjusted, it is smart and neat in effect and it fullfils every requirement. Apron aawns, linen, plain cambric and materials of the kind are approp-ate.

For the medium size will be required $33 / 4$ yards of material $36,31 / 4$ yards 44 inches wide. The pattern, No. 7421, is cut in one 7421 Waitress' Apron, One Size. size only, and will be mailed to any address by the Fashion Departmen paper, on receipt of ten cents.

PRETTY SUMMER YROCKS.
Summer fashions for the growing girls are very charming. These frocks are dainty in the extreme, yet neither involves any great amount of labor, for even the lace trimmed dress which gives even the lace trimmed dress which gives an effect of elaboration is in reality an effect of elaboration is in reaity over the seams and on straight lines.
The frock made of bordered The frock made of bordered material combines a simple straight skirt and a surplice blouse. It is espeeially adapted to bordered fabrics and in this instance flouncing has been used throughout, but it could be made as indicated in the back view and of plain material if something simpler is wanted, and it is charmthing simpler is wanted, and it is charm ing in whatever way it is created. For the various functions that are apt to occur with the closing of school, the flouncing is charming; for every-day afternoon occasions one of the pretty cotton voiles or material of the kind could be finished with scalloped edges either button-holed or bound with silk to be extromely pretty, and there are numberless other ways in which the dress could be trimmed and finished.
For the 12 year size will be needed $21 /$ yards of flouncing 30 inches wide with 3 yards 15 inches wide to make as "I Dyed Patterns

Portieres"

 The above is quoted from a letterwritten by Mrs. F. M. Bailey, of writen by Mirs. F, M. Bailey, of ence with Diamond Dyes, as follows:
"After reading with a great deal of "After reading with a great deal of interest a copy of I would do a litAnnual, I thought I would do a litjust for curiosity's sake.
"I took some of my last summer's draperies, and with a stencilled pattern, made them more beautifil than they were the day I bought them. "I wonder sometimes whether there is anything that Diamond Dyes will not do.. For years they have kept not co.. and my wardrobe constant-my home ly beautiful, and have been a saving Iy beautiful, and have been a saving greater than I could possibly figure out. "Any woman who doesn't know Diamond Dyes, doesn't know liow much real pleasure housekeeping affords," The standard uses of Diamond Dyes are for recoloring dresses, stockings trimmings, etc., rugs; portieres, draf peries, etc.
Their special uses are almost too

Diamond Dyes

 now come in Buve envelopes. And those for Cotton, Linen, or Mixed Cooretetoro avo in Here's the Truth aboui Dyos for Home Use Our experience of over thirty years has prover that no one dye will sucooitrily color overy Tharice and two deotabsee of fabitioe- animal abro or mut hizod" goods are $60 \%$ to $80 \%$, Cottionmust be tread as vegetable fibre fabric. Vegetable fibres require one ollas of dye and animal fibres another nidradically dye. As proontion - we call

Do Not be Deceived

 REMEMBER; To get the best poalble
 AND REMMEMBER: To get the best por Wool or silk.
Diamond Dyes are sold at the uniform price

Valuable Books and Samples Free

Send us your dealer's name and addrees- $-\frac{1}{2}$ In whether or not he

The wells & Richardson Co., Limited 200 Mountain Street, Montreal, Quebee

Is Your? Home Without a Piano?

No matter how comfortable your home may be, it is not complete, not a real home, without a piano. And there is no home, no matter how modest, that can afford to be without one, when "The House of McLean" is ready to help you own one. You will never regret the day you put a Helntzman' & Go. Plano in your home. It is the undisputed leader of all Can adian-made instruments and yet it is just as easy for you to own a Heintzman & Co Piano as it is an inferior make

OUR EASY MONTHLY PAYMENT PLAN now makes it a simple mat ter for you to own one Write for full particulars Don't delay.

SlIghtly Used PIanos

We always have on hand a quantity of second-hand and slightly used pianos, which we have taken in as part payment on new Heintzman & Co. Pianos. These can be secured on easiest payments at tremendous bargains. As an example we mention-$$ 450.00$ Emerson Plano for $$ 250.00$ $$ 550.00$ Hardman Plano for $$ 198.00$ Organs from $$ 25.00$ up on easy terms
J. J.H. McLean & Co. Ltd. Western Canada's Greatest Music House Portage Avenue WINNIPEG

Beautiful Willow Plumes PRICES 10 in . long, 10 in 9. wide $12 . \mathrm{in}$. . long....... 99.00

 Wo tut carry Fancy Feathers, Bid of paradise and Ostrich Feathers.

New York Feather Co., s stobart Block, winnipeg, man.

KELLEY ${ }^{\text {THE }}$ HESITATE FAMOUS FOR CURING LIQUOR, AND DRUG USING WITHOUT SINES OR DIGRESS WITHOUT SICNESS OR DISTRESS OVER THIRTY YEARS OF SUCCESS shown in front view; $41 / 2$ yards of plain material $27,31 / 2$ yards $36,25 / 8$ yards 44 material $27,31 / 2$ yards $36,25 / 8$ yards 44 inches wide with $5 / 8$ yard of allover lace 18 inches wide to make a shown in the back view. The dainty little lace-trimmed frock, shown to the right, is made of white shown to the right, is made of white marquisette and that material is a favor marquisette It takes becoming soft folds, it launders perfectly and it is in every way satisfactory, but nevertheless lawns, be utilized for the design. In the back view it is shown with frills of the material and narrow lace, making it some what simpler in effect. Which treatment is better depends entirely upon the use required, for both are fashionable and required, for both are fashionable and both are pretty. The five-gored skirt is Pretty 7416-Girl's Empire Dress.

7407 -Girl's Dress is made with sleeves sewed to the arm- a friend, who, in a sympathetic voice holes while the bretellos are arranged over the shoulders and give extremely becoming lines.
For the 12 year size will be require $51 / 2$ yards of material $27,33 / 4$ y .rds 36 lace, $31 / 4$ yards of wide banding and $41 / 4$ yards of narrow landing to trim as shown in the from shown in the front view; to make as shown in the back view will be shown in the back view will be needed 6 yards $27,4 \%$ yards $36,33 / 4$ yards 44 6 yards $27,4 / 4$ yards $36,33 / 4$ yards 44 inches wide with 5 yards of edging and 10 yards of insertion. The May Manson patterns of both Nos. 7416 and 707 , Nos. 7416 and 7407 , are cut in sizes for girls of 10,12 and sizes for girls of 10,12 and 14 years of age. They will be mailed to any address by the Fashion Department of this paper on receipt of ten cents of each. A prospector hold struck oil, I am told And sat up in surprise. don't you hit said:"Oh, why Something nearer your size?"

The Clock's Soliloquy "Master, behold me, here I stand What is thy will 'ti my demand To serve thee both by day and night Master, be wise, and learn of me

The Juryman was Right. A funny story is related of a juryman, telling an untruth. He came breathless. " into the court.
"Oh, my lord, if you can excuse me, ray do. I don't know which will die ostomy wife or my daughter."
"Dear me, that's sad," said the ont judge. "Certainly you are excused." The next day the juryman was met by

About the Farm.

Curing the Balky Horse. By David Buffum.

Though balking cannot be classed as a dangerous viee, no habit that horses contract is more intensely provoking A horse that is a confirmed balker has. not much more selling value than a run wway or a kicker. Very few want him away or a kicker. Very few want him and those who think they do are likely, after a real heart-to-heart experience with him, to change their minds. There something in the unbounded persona assurance of the horse that quietly and neeringly refuses to do his work which is even more exasperating to his owne than the most spontaneous and violent Thtbreak of the kicker or the runaway, This viee, however, is not hard to reat or to cure. There is no question that there is a good deal of truth in the saying that "there is always good stuff n a balker." Let us consider how this vice is first formed. It is, as a rule, contracted by horses of considerable nervous energy; dull, lazy animals are not much subject to it. The horse, perhaps from standing still too long, or from mere excess of energy, is impatient. He starts before his driver is ready, is sharply reprimanded, and very likely is jerked by the reins, which serves only to increase his impatience and irritation. The same thing happens several times. By this time his brain has been worked up to a mixture of excitement and resentment and he is in poor condition to understand clearly what is required of him, or to carry it What is required of him, or to carry it Consequently he jerks himself backward or sidewise, occasionally leaping to the collar and flying back, but not more likely to occur if he is harnessed to a wagon that is heavily loaded; but it may also occur when he is hitched to a light load. Let t_e same thing haper is the $r$ sult. that the same treatment femperaments is not best for all. This much is cershould always be given a fair trial before coeroive measures are used. Be avoiding that nervousness and irritabilicertain to be communicated to him. When you start him do so with as little delay as possible after he is ready, and always with a very easy rein. If in this way you can induce him to start and the procedure is repeated several times half the battle is won, for his temper will improve and in time he will forget to balk. If he stops on the try to fool him by saying "Whoa," then get out and pick up his forefoot as if looking for some trouble there, hammer upon it from time apon it from time to time with a stone, and fosure that in doing this you keep is' somewhat wearied. Then get into the buggy and start him up.

The Coercive Treatment
The treatment suggested above is by no means always sucessul per cent. perhaps of the really bad cases of balking can be cured in this way; ment if it does work it should be given a fair trial before coercive measures are ers during to. I have owned many balkers during my life-never hesitating, in fact, to buy a horse on account of this vice-and a very considerable number of them have been entirely cured with no other than the simple palliative If these measures here described. effective, then severer mowever, are in used. The first thing to do is to put on runaways. When the horse balks pult sharply but steadily upon the line that there for nome in the air and hold it say, for the painful pressure and constrained elevation tion wholly and to weary him. Upon the release of the pressure he will peat the dose-being careful always to use judgment as to the duration of th reatment and to show no irritation. A ery little treatment of this kind is all that is usually required, but the device or two until he shows no disposition to repeat the vice.
If severer measures prove necessary proceed as follows:-Take the horse out of the shafts and unharness him. Put a hard knot, run the halter rope through the hair above the knot, pull it until his head is drawn close to his tail and the tail and a loop a single turn round by a single jerk on the end of the rope. This is important, for it will not do to tie a knot that cannot be undone when desired. Now touch up the horse behind with your whip and he will begin hind with your whip and he will begin to turn round in a circle. Presently he will become very dizzy and, if the treatment is continued, will fall down; but this he must not be allowed to do.
Watch him attentively, and when he begins to show signs of dizziness untie the halter rope by giving it a jerk, and release him. Now while the horse is dazed, confused and dizzy-as he always is after such treatment-harness him as is after such treatment-harness him as quickly as you can, get into the buggy and drive on. This treatment rarely fails of the desired result. Occasionally, however, an sired result. Occasionally, however, a especially hardened reprobate is found when especialy hardened reprobate is found.
whose case calls for a second treatment.
In such a In such a case whirl him the other way. In the application of this treatment-and, in fact, the treatment for any vice and, in fact, the treatment for any vice constantly bear in mind that you are dealing witn an inferior intelligence. However exasperating the horse may be never give way to anger or impatience, All suceessful training is based upon All suceessful training is based upon a knowledge of the limitations equine mind. It is easy to take advantage of these limita tage of these limitations when they are pect success in this direction without the exercise of that calmness, patience and good judgment which are the indispengood judgment which are the indispen sable accompaniments of good horse manship.

Danger in Foot Wounds.
Cleanliness is the keynote to success ful treatment of any wound of a horse's body, but especially of the foot. After it has been opened and explored absolute cleanliness is required untir healing has progressed to the point where the animal may be shod. This is accomplished by the application of antiseptic packs to the foot, held in place by bandages and covered with duck or sacking to protect covered with duck or sacking to protect from wear. The whole dressing should be kept wet with antiseptic for several days, a one-to-five-hundred solution o corrosive sublimate or a two per cent.
solution of a coal tar disinfectant or lysol being splendid agents to use. The bedding should be kept as clean as possible. The frequency with which th dressing must be changed depends upo When the wound is entirely clean and ready to be covered with horn, put the pack upon the foot dry overnight, and in pack upon the foot dry overnight, and of the morning place a dry dressing of he morning place a dry dressing of boric acid or iodoform upon the wound boric acid or iodoform upon the wound covering with bandages and protective wrappings as before. In two or three days, if no more pus appear to soil the otton over the wound, it may be re garded as safe to shoe the animal, us. Do not, however, take any chances with foot wounds. If at any time the patient shows extreme pain, uneasines nd fever, loss of appetite, and so ororth cleanse and redress the wound. Some times only a very small amount of pus will be found, but this, being unable to will be found, but this, being unable to poisoning. During the time the animal is laid up the bowels should be kept as light and clean as possible. Many supposed cases

The  Western Home Monthly

is one of the few Magazines, the contents of which appeal to every member of the family. There is a laugh for the schoolboy and a chuckle for the octogenarian; a bit of brightness for the farmer's daughter and a cheerful reminiscence for the pioneer, and behind all its pictures, its wit, its criticisms, there is a fund of up-to date information.

SUBSCRIPTION PRICE:  1 Year $$ 1.00 \quad 3$ Years $$ 2.0^{00}$

WESTERN HOME MONTHLY, Winnipeg, Canada.

Enclosed find $ for years subscription to the WESTERN HOME MONTHLY.

Name.
Town Province

Are Your Walls In Style

Kalsomine and wall paper re hardly up-to-date. Tinted

 he most popular are those tinted with bastine, the sale of which has doubled during the last two years. Alabastine tints possess that soft, vel vety, restful effect considered so desirable by fashion authori can be produced quite easily. Mix Alabastine with cor combination with a flat bristle brush. Anyone can do it. Alabastine is and apply cement. Its colors are permanent. It won't rub off. You can redecer rock without scraping or washing of the previous coat. The most sanitary, durableeconomical and stylish wall decoration.

churchisAlabasti

 COTD WATIERFREE STENCILS $\begin{gathered}\text { To enable those who use Alabastine to secure the most beautiful and artistic effect } \\ \text { we will have our expert }\end{gathered}$ orators prepare suitable Color sche will have our expertand in in THE ALABASTINE CO., Limited

Several hundred subscriptions expire with the June issue. If yours is amongst the number, send in your subscription now, while you think of it of wound fever are due to the mild poisoning of constipation. Interna medication is often of value, especially the use of bacterial vaccines against blood poison and lockjaw, but thes treatments are all specific in nature, ap plicable to special forms of wounds an wound infections. Seldom do we fin two that can be treated alike with two that can be treated alike with suc cess. Consequently internal medication cess. Consequently internal medication should be applied only under the direc tion of your veterinarian.

How to Groom a Horse

By John S. Underwood.
It is often said that a good grooming is worth a feed of oats. . Although a horse cannot live on a currycomb and brush, there is no doubt that in many brush, there is no doubt that in many stables less feeding and more grooming stables less feeding and more grooming would be better for his health. Proper grooming is hard and tedious work and becomes extremely monotonous; but it must be done. Its use is twofold: to must be done. Its use is twofold: to clean the horse and to put on muscle or harden muscle that is already there harden muscle that is already there.
A horse must be kept clean if he is to be kept in good health. There are various ideas among farmers and other various ideas among farmers and other horse owners as to what constitutes cleaniness of a horse. If the mud has been scraped from the legs and there is no straw and filth clinging to the quarters many men consider that a horse has been cleaned, and all the currying he gets is by having the harcurrying he gets is by having th ness dragged off each evening. ness dragged off each evening. a horse Some people ask, "Why should a need so much grooming in a stable if he is healthy without it when out at griss is healthy without it when out at grass or running wild?" The reason is not far to seek. The horse is usually kept in a stable for hard work, or at any rate work hard enough to make the skin act. Now, when the skin acts it act. Now, when the skin acts it secretes perspiration and scurf which must be removed. Moreover, horses mhen at work are given stronger foods, the waste products of which are partly excreted by the skin. If not removed excreted by the skin. If not removed they are injurious. In the pasture a horse seldom moves faster than a walk and eats the plainest of food-grass. Hence the skin does not require so much action. It acts throughout the night, and in the morning there is always a certain amount of scurf and ways a certain amount of scurf and dirt in the coat which should be remored by grooming immediately after the horse is watered and fed. The animal should be groomed again immediately after work, and lastly just before the evening meal. A wisp should first of all be used to rub off the dirt on the outside of the coat and to dry the coat if wet; but this does not really clean it The brush is the only thing with which to clean a horse's skin and coat, for nothing else will penetrate the latter.
But if the coat be wet it must be dried with loose wisps first.
To use the brush properly the groom should stand well away from the horse, so that he has to lean his weight on the brush to support himself.. He should brush with a straight arm in the direction of the coat, but if it is at all caksweep should be a somewhat circularcomb should always be carried in one hand, and after every few strokes the take off the scurf. No one who could see the amount that comes out would ever wonder why grooming is no necessary Wary. wisping sliould begin. A wisp is made by taking a small rope of hay, tying it in a knot, dampening it and then flattening it by treading. It does not clean a horse much, but is skin and has a wonderful effect in increasing or hardening muscle. One should lay it on hard and smack the should lay it on hard and smack the horse with it. The muscles should contract at every blow. It thus acts as a sort of massage and in bad weather is There is no doubt that good wisping puts on muscle. Many horsemen about an hour and a half, but my exly groomed in half an hour is better off than one groomed slowly for an hour of a shotgun has more to do with results than the owner's aim. Unless it's bored the finest quality, there's sure to come a time when it simply "pours" out the load, insted load, instead of concentrating the shot in the compact mass that spreads out evenly and makes a kill a certainty.

The Western Home Monthly.

But it's not only the barrel that makes the the

Onee the horse is properly clean half an hours
hard an hours' hard grooming is enough The harder it is the more friction is The produced, which is the best thing in the worrd for wordal for the skin The grooming should go on until the horse is islen This can easily be ascertained by rub. bing the fingers well into the coat to see if see if any dirt or grass comes of on them.
the coot if if properly groomed will be left. Some stad groms make the strappers leave 8 diamiond pattern on the best time to groom is after exere bet exericies or work, It is then that the skin is moist and the surf is lose and

s. skin is moist and the seurf is loose and easily removed.
Then, too, the horse will rest better after being oleaned Tre work is also more agreeable to the groom as he is mot obtiged to breat tho dust. Many careleses grooms save time and labor by not cleaning their the tiom and labor by hot doaning their horses before takian them out for exercise cise in the thier hat the owner will not be likely to detect the omission, grooming before exercise, As soon ts he comes in from texerise take the the bride off, loosen the girths and shirt the he he rug over him and attend to his freet and legs
His feet should be washed out at once, care being taken not to wet the heels. These should always be kept dry for fear of grease. The legs and the body should be wisped after Sponge out the horse's nostrils and dock and then rub him with a woollen cloth. Never wash a horse's legs. I am confident that it is the commonest cause of mud fever. I cannot say whether it is the water or carelessness in drying the legs afterwards. I can siay this, however: that I have never seen mud fever in a stable where the horse's legs were brushed rather than washed. On were brushed rather than washed. On cold days or after hard work the quicker the grooming is done the better.

Some nervous horses break out into Some nervous horses break out into a cold sweat after being groomed and should shouid be carefully walched and died again. If a horse will not cool down after work, sponging out the dock repeatedly with cold water has a wonderful effect. The mane and tail should rough and dirty a mane comb may be used. Regular and sufficient exercise is highly necessary for horses kept in the stable especially if they are not work stable-especialy if they are not work ed. It makes them feed well, hardens their muscles and keeps them in health.

Some Poultry "Dont's.'

Keep pure breeds or first cross only. Don't inbreed. Don't overcrowd or overfeed. Give Clean water every day, and keep drink ing vessels quite clean-stoneware ones are best. Don't buy cheap food stuffs, quite clen-stonewa ones or mixed corn. Give green food plentifully. Keep young chicks growing by feeding "little and often," and with feeding "little and often," and with wholesome food. Have warm, but wellwholesome food. Have warm, but well keep scrupulously clean. In back yards cover runs completely, dry earth deodorizes. deodonizes. If eggs only are required, don't keep a cock to annoy ne unfertile eggs also keep longest.

Don't think that poultry keeping quires no work. It is a hard business, though a healthy and paying one.
Don't commence with a great number, but increase your stock as your knowledge increases, remembering that small numbers always do be large quantity together.
Don't forget that overcrowding is as Don't forget that overcrowding is as bad as is overfeeding, and poultry, like bourself, greatly enjoy a variety of food.
Don't keep mongrels, that is a fowl whose composition not even a Sherlock Holmes could unravel. Mongrel fowls cost as much to keep as pure birds and are never worth as much, whilst for breeding purposes they are worth nothDon' Don't keep poultry in damp, draughty houses, nor yet in dirty ones.

Don't run old fowls and chickens together, as the old ones will only knock Don't forget that bavy varies generally lay better in winter than lightly built breeds. Don't keep poultry on the wettest and worst land you have; the better it is the better they will do. you have mastered utility-it's long you ha

The I. H. C. Dissolution Suit.
Statement by Cyrus H. MoCormick, President of International Harves.

The International Harvester case differs radically. in its facts from all the so-called "trust" cases heretofore decided under the Sherman Law. The International Harvester Company was organized in 1902 for the purpose of securing econvesting machinery, and of increasing the foreign trade. It had no water in its capitalization, and it has earned only a reasonable return on its capital-less than seven per cent per than seven per cent. per annum on the average. The prices of its machines are average. The prices of its machines are now substantially the same as in 1902, notwithstanding an increase of 15 per cent. in raw material p.ices and 30 per cent. in raw material p.ices and 30 per cent. in wages. The Company has caused a ed a large saving to American farmers in the cost of agricultural implements. in the cost of agricultural implements.
It has increased the foreign trade in agri-

Air-Cooled

Plumping

 Engine
Is a Marvel for Power!

Will pump any well up to 300 ft . Will run any hand power machine such as cream separator, churn, fanning mill, grindstone, etc. ter or summer.
Cannot Freeze up or Overheat Has enclosed crank case, with A complete liligh Grade Power Plant Weighs only 225 lbs.
Sold under an absolute guarantee to give satisfaction to give satisfaction.

Write to day for descriptive literature and price literature and price.
We manufacture all sizes of Gasoline Engines up to 25 h.p. If interested in the farge sizes, write for complete catalog.
The Manitoba Windmill and Brandon, Man., Calgary, Alia Brandon, Man., Calgary, Alta.

Meadows
Power Washer

 $T^{-n}{ }^{\text {Meadows }}$.
Does Week's Washing in 10 mins.

 Ollenitoba

> Pump Co. Limited

VARICOSE VEINS, BADLEGS, are completely cured with inexpensive bome reaiment It absolutely removes the pain. swelling, tiredness and discase . Ful particuinars Tenple St. spring beild, Mass.

advisability of treating such cows.

 A noted Wisconsin veterinarian, DrDavid Roberts, is quite certain that it David Roberts, is quite certain datit it milkers, and he writes upon the subject as follows:-
Many a valuable cow and heifer have been sold at a sacrifice by the owner wing, to the fact that they were hard milkers.
The cause of hard milking cows is so little understood by the average stockman that the disposal of such animals is accounted for in that way, but if some hard milking in both cows and eifers, I am sure that no animal would Hard Milkers.
Hard milking is due to an abnormal contraction of the sphincter muscle, regulating the stream of milk from the oint of losing her milk is due to a relaxation or an abnormal expansion of the sphincter muscle at the point of the teat. Many a valuable, hard milking cow the milker has been the ract that use a milking tube and by the use of the milking tube the cow has become infected, oftentimes losing one or more quarters. It is not advisable to use a quarters tube if one can possibly get miking the along without it. thrifty dairy calves when feeding them difficult if a few gail, but it need not be lowed. Very good calves rules are folwhen fed skim-milk supplemented with grain. The skim-milk contains all of growth of bone muscle that go to make growth of bone, muscle, hide, hair, and organs of the body. The small amount of fat removed from the milk does not greatly decrease its feeding value. When calves are to be raised by hand they should be taken from the they should be taken from the cow soon after birth, for they will then after birth, for they will then learn to drink much more easily. If the cow's udder is feverish or caked, or if the calf is weak, it may prove beneficial to allow the calf to nurse for a few days. This nursing seems to decrease the inflammation of the udder. The calf should ways receive the colostrum or first milk of its mother. If the little animal is not allowed to nurse, the cow should be miked and the milk fed to the calf.
The colostrum milk has a beneficial effect upon the alimentary tract. It clears away impurities and causes the digestive organs to act digestive organs to act.
The teaching of the
The teaching of the young calf to some men. There is also a difference in calves, some learning to drink readily and others requiring several days. The calf should be allowed to become slightly hungry before any attempt is made to induce it to drink. The use of a rubbe tube fastened to the pail does not usual

The Remedy
The proper method of handling or overcoming hard milking in cows o heifers is by the use of a teat plug The teats should be washed a teat pith a germ killer solution and the teat plug dipped in the same solution, then dipped in little healing ointment sen dipped in the point of the teat. The teat plug being self-retaining should be per mitted to remain in the teats from one milkerg to another. This will positively oreome hard milking in cows and heifers.
This same treatment is exceedingly This same treatment is exceedingly valuable in the treatment of sore teats where teare, where it in at the point of the

The Care of Calves
By H. C. Mills
A successful dairyman. says: "The rearing of the heifer calves best cows in the herd sired from the dairy sire is one of the cheapest and There is of getting good dairy cows." but many mainth in this statement much to rear a calf if it is allowed to nurse the cow and that they have never been su'cessiul in raising good calves by hand. It must her admitted that a certain ly prove of much assistance, since the calf has an instinct to reach up for its the animal and back it into a corner of he stall, then allow it to suck the fing allowing it to suck the fingers. After a ew lessons of this kind the fingers may e taken from the calr's mouth and it will continue to drink for a few minute ntil it discovers the change. After a feedirigs it will drink after being started with the fingers and soon it will drink without being started in this man ner.
Points on Pail Feeding.
In feeding calves from the pail it is important that the milk shall be of the same temperature at all times. The young calrs stomach is sensitive and is fed at a temperature between 90 and 00 degrees Fahrenheit. If a hand eparator is used the skim-milk will be about the right temperature except in months old may be fed cold milk during the summer, but warm milk will give he best results during the winter. The eeding of cold milk at one time and ive troubles. Best results have always been obtained by feeding sweet milk. The Kansas Experiment Station compared sweet skim-milk with buttermilk and found that the calves which were IE SAID-"Few of us realize how much salt we eat. The fact that wo put salt on all meats and vegetables-in bread, cake and pastry-soups and sauces-butter and cheese-shows the importance of soups and sauces-buter and using an absolutely pure salt." SHE SAID-"Well, we are using WINDSOR SALT and no one could make me believ my old standby

WINDSOR WBSAIT

W AGON material must stand two destructive strains - one caused by caused by the weight of the load. These two strains affect every piece of material which enters into the construction of farm wagons. Th Going the case the quality of the material used is a very important factor.
Good, hardwood lumber is becoming so scarce that it is difficult for man facturers to obtain wood of the highest grade. Foreseeing this difficulty and having ample storage facilities, the builders of the I H C Wagons mad contracts I H C wagons:

Hamilton  Petrolia  Old Dominion Chatham

are made of choice material throughout. Read a few interesting facts about All the wood used for the more important parts of I H C wagons is care ully selected and then air-dried under cover in build. ations, which raise the wood abovo moistare line. The lumber is hel particularly that for hubs, which receives special attention, even longer Air-drying produces tough wagon lumber because the sap, instead of being driven out as by kiln-drying, dries naturally with the wood and forms esinous glue or cement, which binds the fibres of the wood together, give oughness. Air-drying of selected lumber produces just the qualities neces sary to make it resist constant vibration and load strain. AIr the wood used in H C wagons is air-dried. C wagons with the highest degree of structural material knowledge, guarantee satis actory service from every I H C wagon.
The I H C local agent knows points about I H C wagon construction tha The I H C local agent knows poins about you some things that you wil you should be familiar with. He willstow you some infingstion from him or write nearest branch house.

WESTEREN CANADIAN BRANCHES
INTERNATIONAL HARVESTER COMPANY OF AMERICA

IHC Service Bureas
The purpose of this Bureau is to furnish, free of charge to all, the bes nformation obtainahle on better farming. If you have any worthy questions concerning soils, crops, and drainage, irrigation, fertilizer, etc., make yourinauiriessoecificand send them to I H S Service Bureau.
Harvester Building. Chicago. US A

The Full Percentage of Cream

Getting the full percentage of cream from milk depends as much upon the oil used to lubricate the separator as upon the separator itself. Gummy oil will cut the fine bearings of your machine, spoil its balance and waste good cream in the skim milk pail.

STANDARD Hand Separator Oil

never gums, never rusts, never corrodes, It feeds freely into the closest bearings and insures the perfect lubrication that is essential to the free spinning of the bowl and the complete separation of cream trom milk.
It lessons the driving effort and lengthens the life of your separator.
The Imperial Oil Company, Limited

The calves fed buttermilk had no digestive trouble, however. It is important that the milk be uniform. The feeding that the milk be uniform. The feeding of old, sour milk to calves that are accustomed to sweet milk results in digescustomed to sweet milk results in digestive disturbances. The amount of milk needed by the calf depends upon the size and age. For the first three weeks from eight to ten the first three weeks from eight to ten pounds a day is usually sufficient. The pounds a day is usually sufficient. The a mount may be gradually increased until at six weeks of age the animal may consume from twelve to fourteen pounds. The calf rarely needs over eighteen pounds at any age before weaning. More underfeeding. Especially is this true in feeding skim-milk.
The average man thinks that because the butter fat has been removed from skim-milk to replace this in some way. As a consequence the calf is given more than it can digest. A change in the than it can digest. A change in the amount fed should be gradual. An unamount fed should be gradual.
derfeed one day and an overload the ne are usually the causes of trouble

The Calf's Grain Stomach.
After the first two weeks the calf's milk. A small amount of skim-milk may be mixed with the whole milk at first and the amount increased each feed. At the same time the amount of feed. At the same time the amount of whole milk should be decreased until at the end of a week the calf is getting skim-milk only: The calf may be taught to eat grain and hay at an taught to eat grain and hay at an early age if a little grain is rubbed into its mouth just after it has finished drinking milk. The mixing of the grain with the milk is not a good practice The action of the saliva helps in the digestion of the grain. If mixed with digestion of the grain. If mixed with the milk it is gulped down and is not mixed with the saliva.
The grain that is fed to the calf receiving skim-milk should supply the fat that the milk lacks. Cornmeal or shelled corn has proved the best supplement for skim-milk. The most extensive investigation in this subject has been made by the Iowa Experiment Station. Oilmeal, oatmeal, cornmeal mixed with flaxseed, and cornmeal alone, were fed Slightly larger gains were obtained from cornmeal.
It was found by the Kansas Experiment started at eating grain shelled corn well gave equal if not better results than cornmeal. By the time the calf is six weeks old it will usually eat about half a pound of grain a day; at two months, a pound a day; and at three or four months, two pounds a day. When the calf becomes older, approaching weaning time, it should have some oats, bran ing time, it should have some oats, bran or oilmeal in addition to the corn. The or oime in the milk is not sufficient. protein in the

How to Raise Chicks.

By R. B. Sando.
Little chickens are always interesting, but hard to raise successfully quently it is unsafe to "count one, chickens" even after they are hatched, for early losses usually rob the novice of a good many. It is the number of of a good many. It is the number of chicks raised, rather than the number hatched, that makes or mars the profits and pleasures of the business. profits
The
foundation for successful chick culture lies in the breeding fowls. Healthy, hardy chicks can be obtained only from the same kind ${ }^{4}$ of parent stock. factory results never come from scrubby or diseased stock. In order to hatch strong chicks the breeders must be well strong chicks the breeders must be well housed, well fed and otherwise properly cared for. Only perfectly formed eggs Which have been gathered before they have become chilled should be selected and the sooner they are set the better.
In a perfect hatch the pip their shells on the chicks begin to twenty-first day. As a rule it does not and out of their sherls: : if they have not sufficient vitality to free themselves sufficient vitality to free themselves they are seldom worth saving. More over, it is harmful er case the cold outside air blowing in to the machine is pretty sure to chill the chicks and remove necessary mois, ture from the hatching chamber, while in the later case the hen is likely to in the later case the hen is likely to trample on some of the chicks. trample on some of the chicks. nest or incubator is crowded that the nest or incubator is crowded, it is a good plan when it is about two-thirds over to remove all empty eggshells and eggs that are hatching. In addition, chicks that seem to need only slight as: sistance to get out of their shells may have their breathing have their breathing space picked a a little larger by the careful atendant and then slightly moistened with a warm, damp cloth. If there are any crippled or deformed chicks among those that are hatched they may as well be killed at once. It is usually a waste of once. It is usually a waste of time and energy to try to raise them; it requires more effort than they are worth.

The First Feed.
Warm, dry comfortable quarters should be provided for should be providod for the mother hen and her brood some little time before it is necessary to remove them from the nest. In case a brooder is being used, the lamp should be started at least 24 the lamp should be started at least 24 hours before the chicks are to be placed in the machine, so that it may be thoroughly warmed and the flame regulated to maintain the correct temperaremove chicks from the incubator nur sery or from the nest. No chick should ever be disturbed until it has become thoroughly dried thoroughly dried off and has had some little time to gain strength. While movlittle time to gain strength. While mov-. ing the chicks be very careful to avoid chilling them, for they are very tender and sensitive at this time. Place them in a deep basket and cover them carefully with warm clothes or burlap. fully with warm clothes or burlap.
Just before a chick emerges from the shell it takes into his body the unabsorbed remnant of the yolk of the egg, which is provided by Nature to support life for the first few days. The writer never feeds his chicks until they are never 48 hours old, and frequently not until they are 60. In extreme cases chicks have been known to thrive when given no food until they were three days given no food until they were three days old, so that to withhold food for two days is no hardship, but really the best thing to do.
No water should be given until after the chicks have had their first meal; ; after this it must be kept constantly beter this it must be kept constantly before them, for when supplied in this way there is less danger of their over drinking than when it is given only at intervals. Warm the drinking water in cold weather, and always se thet water and drinking vessels are clean and wate ree from filth and impurities. Grit and charcoal are also placed before the chicks at the same time they are given their first meal. consist of something dry; it should never be soft, sloppy stuff.' Dry bread or cracker crumbs, rolled oats, and finely chopped bits of hard-boiled egg are used by different persons. Any one of these foods is good, as well as any combination of them, since a variety is essential. There is no infallible formula for the ceesing of little chickens. One of the rather sparingly until the chicks have a good star-that is, feed a little at a me and at frequent intervals. It is al mall amount five or six times a day than to gorge them twice a day. The ry-feeding method is now in more comwet mashes of ground grains moist or cake. By the dry-feed method is meant he rearing of little chicks on small eeds and cracked grains, without any er a ration of dry grains and seeds ex clusively for the first two or three weeks, with the exception of an occa sional feed, for the sake of variety, of finely chopped hard-boiled eggs rolled in racker or bread crumbs One of the safest things for the be hick feeds. ise one of the prepared There are a number of good brands on the market. and they and brooder company, poultry supply house or flour and feed exchange. They seeds mixed in just the proper propor fions to promote thrift and rapid growth among chicks. The inexperienced feeder is thus relieved of the bother and uncertainty of balancing the ration. Chicks may be raised on this prepared feed alone until they are five or six weeks old, provided meat and green stuff are supplied. The feed may be purchased in any quantity desired lars a hundred-pound bag. It is best in the end to buy one of the better grade products, for the cheap ones of ten contain dirt and wastes that the chicks cannot use. At $\$ 2.50$ or $\$ 3$ a hundred cannot use. At $\$ 2.50$ or $\$ 3$ a hundred as anything that can be fed with satis factory results. a $_{\text {Good }}$ Home-Made Ration. There are few cases where it is not more advisable for the unprofessional poultry raiser to purchase the prepared feed than to mix it himself. In isolated eed than to mix where rairoad isolate places are poor and transportation charges excessive, it is sometimes cheaper to mix the feed at home. In this case an mix the feed at home. In this case an excellent formula is as follows:- Forty twenty pounds of cracked corn with meal sifted out, fifteen pounds of millet seed, ten pounds of hulled oats and te pounds of broken rice. pinhead oatmeal that can be procured pinhead oatmeal that can be purchase Keep the chicks scratching and dig ging for all the food they get; never

The Fishing Pouy
here they can eat without scratching This is the easiest and surest way to inure strong, rugged chicks that will no ilments. Scatter all the dry feed in itter which should be about two inches eep for chicks less than a month old. ut straw or hay is good. Chaff from rood because of the small seeds that it contains. Sawdust is bad, as the chicks When soft food is used, make sure that it is just crumbly and not sloppy. the chicks cannot foul or contaminate it uickly. Only as much should be placed wofore the chicks at one time as they verything sweet and clean, for soured food and filthy troughs are frequent auses of bowel disorders among littl hickens.
Wheat screenings are not so good as are of fair quality and can be secured cheaply. Milk is all right for an occasional feed, but the attendant must carefully guard against soiled plumage on the chicks and the general unsanitary in some form should be provided. Green cut bone and ground beef scraps are the most generally available and probably wer, feed meat in any form too freely While the chicks are still small, for it is hable to produce looseness of the bowels. Grieen food is another essentia. and the attendant. Lettuce, cabbage, ani any other kinds of vegetable matter that the fowls relish, if not fed to ex were two flocks of sheep-about twelve undred in all - feeding on beet ops under the care of two shepherd ith their dogs. Beyond the sheep, and oading beets into enormous two-wheel d carts, each being drawn by three Per heron stallions driven tandem. Beyond furrow plows working, each drawn by six white oxen. The plows, which were of the two-furrow reversible type, were uilt with a pair of wheels in front to ighten the draft, and with four plows eyed in pairs to two parallel steel beams, which were fastened to the axle ach pair of pys jand-socket joint the other so that when one was in the furrow the mate was upside down in the furrow the plowman by the end of the turned each beam half round, throwing the plow with mold-board on the right and side into the air, and bringing the The plowmen were followed by thre teams of oxen that harrowed the field nd these were followed by two grain rills. To a stranger it was a novelty o see all these operations taking place On the right of the entrance to the arm was the distillery where the beets were made into alcohol. At the time of bla-t. and while the beets were being poured in on one side of the building from the other side ox warous wer rarting offthe pulp, which, however, was not to be thrown away, but to be mixed with oats or barley for the oxen and sheep.
The principal crops raised were wheat of which, in 1911 , there were 275 acres be plowing, preparing and planting a seed bed, har making, well drilling, or the many other things that a tractor will do, the steadiest worker is an

I H C Kerosene-Gasoline Tractor

Is overtime demanded - the I H C tractor never tires; is the load a heavy one-the I H C has plenty of reserve power; is the work dusty and dirty - the It carries its own daily supply of fuel. It may be se close.to a stack without reference to the direction of the wind, without danger of fire, and, with all these advantages, it has done, is doing, and win other tractor you can buy. These are statements of fact, backed any othe by records made in actual use both in contest fields and on real farms. Investigate tractor farming. Learn how you can profitably use an HC tractor. Get all the facts from the IHC local agent. He will I HC tractor. Get all the facts from the I HC local agent. He will point out the many I C tractor features and advantages in design, materials, and construction. He will tell you about the complete I HC materials, and construction. He will tell you about the complete I H C line, which includes gasoline and kerosene tractors, $12,15,20,25$, and engines, stationary or mounted on skids or trưcks, air-cooled or water-cooled, 1 to $50-\mathrm{H}$. P. See him or write the nearest branch house for catalogue.

CANADIAN BRANCH HOUSES
International Harvester Company of America 1HC Service Rureau
The purpose of this Bureau is to furnish, free of charge to all. the best intormation obtainale on beter farming. If you have any wrthy ouestions concerning sile questions concerring soils, orops, tand draing.e. Irrigation, fertilizers, etc. make your inuiries specific, and send them to 1 HC Service Bureau, Harvester Building, Chicago, US A

THE WINNERS

Dairymen making the most money realize that it pays them well to use only high producing cows and the highest producing cream separator. That is why Mr. P. Blanchard, successful dairyman and popular agicultural speaker of Truro, N. S., who owns the prize-winning Ayr

SHARPLES

Tubular Cream Separator

Thanteos ? ${ }^{3}$

DOCTORS COULD NOT HELP MY KIDNFYS
"Fruit-a-tives" Cured Me

Chistervilile, Ont., Jan. 25th, rigi "For over twenty years, I have been troubled with Kidney Disease and the doctors told me they could do me no good. They said my case was incurable and 1 would suffer all my life. I and tried many advertised ramedies but there was none that suited my case. Nearly a year ago, I tried "Fruit-a-tives". I have been using them nearly all the time since, and am glad to say that I am cured. I have no trouble now with my cured. I have no trouble now with my credit of doing what the doctors said vas impossible. I am seventy-six ears old and am in first class health" ears old and am in first class health." GEO. W. BARKLEV. 50 a a box, 6 for $$ 2.50$, trial size 25 c .
At all dealers or sent on receipt of price by Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ottawa.

The Original and Only Genuine $\qquad$ beWare of Imitations sold on the Merits of MINARD'S LINIMENT in. Throw corn into this at evening meal. It will keep them busy and encourage circulation so much neede among penned up fowls.

To Produce Egss Abundant.

Give the birds as much corn as they can eat, and let it be the best, not the can eat, and let it be the best, not the aneap mixture. They require a change as often as possible. It is best to get the corn separately as there is not much chance of changing the food by giving them the mixture. Chop up and mix them the mixture. Chop up and mix altogether green food, and potato peelaltogether green food, and potato peelings with seraps from the house and ocings with serapp from the house and occasionally boiled lights. They ought casionally boiled lights. They ought not to be given too much fat or maize as the latter are likely to cause liver complaint. Chicken riee is very good (with the husks on). They are very relish will induce them to lay eat with a and and

$$
\longrightarrow 0
$$

The Impending War with Canada.
As our readers know, plans are already on foot in England and the United States to celebrate in 1914 the centenary of peace between the two nations. The one shining example before the world of the way to limit armaments by international a arreement is the Rush-Bagot Treaty of 1817 , under which the United States and Canada have lived for all these years in mutual peace and security. In the "Nineteenth Century" Capt. Cecil Bat tine says:-
"The British Navy will guarantee that the coasts of Canada are secure but it is a sound instinct on her part to prepare thus early to be to prepare thus early to be self-supportstruction. Should Canada be threaten ed with war on her southern frontier the military command of the great portance. An arsenal and dockyard must therefore be prepared to construc suitable eraft for a struggle on the in land waters, as remote land waters, as remote as possible from a possible raid, and having aceess to the lakes by the waterway of the Lawrence. It is a striking example of the permanent principles of strategy that the valley of the St . Lawrence is that the valley of the St. Lawrence is the key to the military supremacy in Canada now, as it was when Wolfe so gallantly, won Quebeo for England and the valley of the Hudson still leads the way to the vitals of the United the way to the vitals of the United States, if a northern invader should be States, if a northern invader should bold enough to take the initiative." We think the Captain's ideas are sound, but he does not go far enough sound, but he does not go far enough.
Let the Rush-Bagot Treaty be deLet the Rush-Bagot Treaty be de nounced. Then Canada and the United nounces. Then Canada and the States could make one continuous for 隹 tification along the shores of the st. Lawrence, and establish opposing army posts every five miles from Vancouver to Winnipeg. A thousand super-Dreadnoughts. could also be built by each nation on the Great Lakes so that no overt acts could take place there. oronto Lave to be guar, Montreal and Buffiolo submarine mines, Mont would need at least $$ 20,000,000$ for modern coast defences, while it would be absolutely necessary for Quebec to double the height of the cliffs on which she is situated, so as to prevent their being scaled a second time. Seattle and Vancouver might each keep balloons anchored a few miles up in the air to watch the war preparations of the other. and Pacific squadrons of the British and American navies should have their decks cleared for action, and 10,000 aeroplanes in either country be put in aeroplanes in either country be put in commission to repel these mutual atcommission to repel these mutual attacks in hot air. As probably ail this would not be enough to preserve the peace, we might reasonably demand peace, we might reasonably demand compulsory rifle practice in the public compulsory rifte practice in the public sehools of England and the United Schaos, and universal military service from all male citizens bet ween twentyone and forty-five, and ag. Thus and suffragetts of whatever age. Thus suffragetts of wateve age. Thus and thus only, according to our Captain thus only, according oo cur captain tain and perpetual peace, that blessed "all" understanding.

SHERWIN-WilLIAMS PaINTS & Varnishes

TME SHERWIN-WILLAMs Co. of Canada, Limited; Montreal, Toronto, Winnipeg, Vancouver

CHEW KING Cioncies   for Sale Everywhere

The Rock City Tobacco Co. Lito. QUEBEC

SOUPS

Nothing is so nice as a good Soup-generally speaking home-made Soups are nice-but you can't get them, and that's where the prepared Soups come in-CLARK'S SOUPS in pint containers are just the kind to have at hand. They are prepared just the same as in the best regulated homes, their flavors are individual and incomparable, and quality inimitable.

INSIST ON CLARKS AT ALL TIMES
The Can with the Two-Blue Label 11 Kinds-1 Quallity-11 Flavors

W. CLARK - MONTREAL

Manufacturer of the Celebrated Pork and Beane

Sulfered Wiith lene Touble For Tro Yeass.

WAS mPOSSIBLE FOR HIM TO SLEEP
Mr. Chas. W. Wood, 34 Torrance Street, Montreal,
Que., writes:-"For Street, Montrea, Que., writes:- For and years I suffered with nerve.trous impossible for me to sleep. It did not matter what time I went to bed, in the morning I was even worse doctor, and he give me a tonic a halif hour before going to bed. a hair hour berore gaing to bed. but the
"It was all zight for a time , old trouble .eturned with greater force old trouble .eturned with greater force than before. gave me half a box of Milbern's it ieart gave Nerve Pills. I took them and I got such satisfaction that I got another box, and before I finished it I could enjoy and before 11 finished it 6 a.muld and now sleep from 10 p.m. until 6 , and feel good." price of Milburn's Heart and INerve Pills is 50 cents per box, or 3 bozes for $$ 1.25$. They are for sale at all for 81.25 . They are for sale at all dealers, or will be mailed direct on on receipt of price by The Limited, Toronto, Ont.

Tobacco Habit

Liquor Habit

Marvelous results from taking his remedy for the uquare habit. saate and inexpensive home treatment: uo hypodermic injections

MOTHERS' CORDIAL OR HERBAL Is nature's own food. It contains no drugs or stimulants.
This wonderful Tonlc is simply a scientificic blend of Inand muscles-puts the expectant mother in prime condition, making childbirth, safe and easy.
Mothers, Cordial or Herbal Tonic besides being a blessing to expectant mothers, is also a powerful tonic mothers, is also a powerful tonic for all women in a run-down condition. It bumen in a run-down condition. It strengthens and purifies the blood, effecting a clear, beautiful complexion, painful menstruation-an especial benefit to those approaching the change of FREE. for interesting circular A package of Mothers' Cordial on Herbal Tonic, lasts a month. Full directions inclosed. At druggists or by mail, postpaid $$ 1.00,6$ packages $$ 5.00$ Dr. Coonley Medical Co., Windsor, Ont, Films Developed 10 CENTS PER ROLL

GIBSON PHOTO SUPPEY

Correspondence.

We invite our subscribers to make 1 it is harmful. Many things are harm | use of these columns, and an effort will |  |
| :--- | :--- |
| be made to publish all the interesting | $\begin{array}{l}\text { ful if abused. Sour dough pancakes or } \\ \text { hot biscuits, if too many are taken, will }\end{array}$ | le made to publish all the interesting letters reced. The large amount of correspondence which is sent us has, letter to appear in print. We would point out that we cannot send names these columns, but anyone wishing to writers should with any of the letter stamped envelope, which we will address and send to the party named. We publication and to be forwarded from persons who are not subscribers, and we wish to say that so great is the work incurred that we really cannot promise non-subscribers. We think this only fair to our large number of subscribers, as they should be given the prior use of as they sho this column.

Dancing from a Different Viewpoint Saskatchewan That there are two sides to all questions is usually admitted, but since few ageous enough to place themselves on record in its defence, some may infer that this is the one exception to the rule and that it is wholly a one-sided ques east casual of observers must ad the and that it is increasingly popular is pate regard it as wrong is hardly to be what their judgmost people will not do speak his views as an individual, not wishing to influence anyone who may onestly entertain a different opinion diametrically oppasite views should hold questions and each be honest, is wholly because of the different viewpoint. A carpenter looking at a tree thinks of its ree sees a beautiful home for the same tree sees a beautiful home for a squirrel Different viewpoints. So it may be pardonable if all persons do not get the same viewpoint as Josephus in respect to the dance and dancers. He condones skating as a healthful, joyous exercise We grant it. But what shall be done with the nine out of ten who have no ice? One wearies of constant reading.

There must be action. The fact is that we are social beings, satisfied only when in company with other beings like our in company with other beings like our. selves. And the problem to be solved is is how to spend the time, innocently and enjoyably during this period of personal contact. Josephus says do not dance. position assumed in certain dances ren ders it exceedingly doubtful. An illusmore forceful. You go to church and sit very close to another man's wife or impure thoughts? If you were to go to that man's home and sit as close and as long, would it be tolerated? Different viewpoint. Many of the most viewpoint. Many of the most enjoyable tractive personalities, so the position as sumed signifies little. If one cannot dance innocently I dance innocently I would advise him to try to find other enjoyment. The writer try to find other enjoyment. The writer is not unmindful of the criticisms upon certain city dances, nor is he ignorant certain city dances, nor is he ignorant of the conditions of their existence When What are the facts? The employers use the girls to help them in amassing their wearn, and what do they give in return? Usually a starvation wage and the freedom of the the freedom of the city. Results, the girls sick unto death of loneliness seak girls sick unto death of loneliness, seek the recreation provided by those whose the recreation provided by those whose sole purpose is gain, while the employer wrap sole purpose is gain, while the employer wraps the sanctimonious robe of a self satisfied conscience about him and "I wash my hands," and leaves the erring ones to the tender care of the charit ing ones to the tender care of the charritable institutions for reform or to go unheeded and unsung to the "Bridge of Sighe unheeded and unsung to the "Bridge of Sighs." Do you know from personal perience the absolute, from personal ex-intolerable loneliness of

CRITICAL TIME OF WOMAN'SLIFE

From 40 to 50 Years of Age. How It May Be Passed in Safety.

So. Wellington, B.C. - "For a year during the Change of Life I was all run IFr. down. I was really was very desponden and thought I was going to die, but af ter taking Lydia E Pinkham's Vegeta ble Compound and Blood Purifier my Blood Purinier my returned. I am ver thankful to you an A. Sessed several women who suf I have advised several women whe fered as I did to try your remedies. You may publish this if you wish."-Mra David R. Iskis, South Wellington, B.

No other medicine for woman's ills has received such wide-spread and unquali medicine which has such a record of suc cess as has Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegeta ble Compound. For more than 30 year it has been the standard remedy for wo man's ills such as inflammation, ulceration, tumors, irregularities, periodic pains and nervous prostration, and we ing the period of change of life
If you have the slightest doubt that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegeta ble Compound will help you, writo to Lydia E. PinkhamMedicineCo (conidential) Lynn, Masso, forad vice. Your letter will be opened, ead and answered by a woma LADIESA safe, reliable and effectua cine. A specia favorite wit married ladies. Can be depended upon.

Mailed securely sealed upon receipt of \%1,00.
Correspondence
Chemistendential Dinenvertivan

Cure that Bunion No need to suffer bunion torture another day.
DR. SCHOLL'S BUNION RIGHT removes the cause of your bumion or enlarged toe joint by permanently

WiviveE

 "

Winnipes

Winnipeg, June, 1912.

Are you one of those to whom every meal is another source of suffering ?
Na-Dru-Co Dyspepsia Tablets vill help your disordered stomach to digest any reasonable meals, and will soon restore it to such perfect condition that you'll never feel that you have a stomach. Take one after each meal. 50c. a Box at your pruggist's. Made by the National, Drug and Chemical Co. of Canada, Limited.

BETMER THANT GPAMETMGG.
Spanking
Bod-wetting.
does nore There bod-wetting. There 1s a constitutional cause for this trouble. Mirs. M. Sumcause for this trouble, Mrs. M. Summers, Box W. 86, Wind ${ }^{\text {Mor }}$. Ont., wil send home tree to any mothier her successful heme hoone treatment with full instructions. your chlldren trouble you in this way.
Don't blame the chlld, the chances are it can't help ite This trene teanment also eures adults and aged persons troubled with urine difflculties by day or night.
 Are the aoknowledged leading remedy for all Female complaints. Recommender by the Medial

 -
 SYNOPSIS OF CANADIAN NORTHWEST LAND REGULATIONS.

 - $\quad$ house worth $\mathbf{~ \$ 3 0 0 . 0 0 .}$. W.CORY,

NEW SEASON COSTUMES From Maker to Wearer

Very little of our boasted "common brotherhood of mankind" there. Which is respoosibile, the dankind dhare, or employer? different viewpoint. Suppose some d people, employers, their wives, sons and anghters would attend these dances and surround them with different influences, would it not be more of Christian would than met be more of a church? church? Not the mere dance, but conditions make the wrong. - Besides, what ditions make the wrong. Besides, what shall these girls do? A serious question. shall these girls do? A serious question.
If parents would teach their children to dance from babyhood, dance with them, accompany them to dances, give dances for them at home, instead of waiting for them to grow up and slip away to earn of some one else, thinking they are doing something wrong, it might be surprising what pleasure would result to both children and parents. A delightful, jolly, innocent, good time for all. You retain their in governing children, and keep them well in hand. I do not believe with some that we must wait tit we we are dead before we can have a good time. And I know there can be lots of god mole now there can be lots of good wholesome fun without wickedness, and until some one will provide a better substitute I shall feel at liberty to emulate that worthy, elderly gentleman, so cleverly deseribed cleverly described by a favorite writer, as having danced at Ohristmas time till his calves fairly twinkled.
Frankorly

More Homelike.
Elfros, Sask., Mar. 30, ' 12. Dear Editor,- Will you spare me just small space in your most valuable majazine, which $I$ have been a subscriber to for three years, and have reeeived it to for three years, and have réeeived it like I would a letter from home. I al-take other papers, but 1 think yours the best for best for the western home, and like to see so many stories written by the prairie province stories writs, whiten by the more home like. I like the stories written ones under the heading of "In Lighter Vein," and, "Think, all young men should read "The Young Man and His Problem." I once heard the writit speak, and I would go quite a long way, to hear him again. I will close, and hope to hear from some of the fair sex be. tween the tween the ages of 15 and 20 , and will sign myself,

A Critical Reader:
Viscount, Saskk, 8-3-1912 Dear Editor,-Still another voice; anoin your merry circle. great west that it is impossible to let alone writing, although my hopes for coming yp with some of the writers in our oolumns (I call it ours, as every one of us considers ourselves as members). Now 5 nm a good writer, and will not ask for such a great name as some. say the lucky Doctor Doctor made for himself when trying to overthrow the longing to it. Debutante in your and some encouraging hints when she pictures him in the evening when he is supposed to be reading the correspon dence columns. Goodness, what imagina tion she must have; you bet she knows how to hande the doctor, or in other words get on the right side of him; she says he has got them all going.
But in my opinin on the go so far. As to the statement that the lucky Doctor has won, I dont believe it, it has yet to be proved. If he don't follow up it is because he's got cold feet and can't cure them, and he all know he can't run a farm. But where his victory comes in is beyond my comprehension, perhaps Debutante will come prehension, perhaps Debutante will come forward and tell. Now, for the dancers. This subject is most worthy of a few any means. I admire Curly Bill's poin of view. I think he is far more reason able than Jo righteous. Some people condemn dancare just as bad, if not worse You may think that the writer of the epistle is think that the writer of thes epistle is a godless person, and, of oursed , I w whl leave it to you, for you may be right
"HOW TO PRESERVE STRENGTH AND RETAIN THE POWERS,"

 Giving out of the Vital Forces ty, Premature Deeline and Loss of Power in Men. The most popular and praticieal treatitese publisised on the Lawas governing Lite, with Special Chapters

 Address-CHMRLES GORDON, NO. 100, Gordonholme D (Mention this Paper)

HOW I ENLARGED MY BUST

Afior Maiousiciode irame wiootio

A WOMAN'S SECRET LAID BARE.

How I watohed my buet krowit ileo odey by dav and A SUPERB DEVELOPMENT IN ONE MONTH'S TINE.

FREE COUPON for READERS of WINNIPEG WESTERN HOME MONTHLY, Cut out tive coupon and send today (or write and mention No. Ros8 C) with oupr name.

address.

CANCER

R. D. EVANS, Discoverer of the famous Evans' Cancer Cure, desires all who suffer with Cancer to write to him. Two days' treatment oires external or internal cancer. Write to R. D. EVANS, Brandon, Manitoba, Canada

If the liver IS Lazy
STIR IT UP BY THE USE OF MILBURN'S LAXA-LIVER PILLS.

They stimulate the sluggish liver, clean the coated tongue, sweeten the breath, clean away all waste and poisonous matter from the system, and prevent as well as cure all sickness arising from as well as curdered condition of the stomach, liver and bowels.
Mrs. Matthew Sullivan, Pine. Ridge, N.B., writes.int for a long time. I tried most everything I could think of, but none of them seemed to do me any good, but when I at last tried Milburn's Laxabut when I at last tried Miliourn'll again; thanks to The T. Milburn Co. I would not be without them if they cost twice Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills are 25 cents per vial, or 5 vials for $$ 1.00$, for sale at all dealers or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

Old Sores, Lumps
ip Breeses, Growths removed and heal. semoved and heal. ed by a simple Home Treatment rouble, we will send No pain, Describe the tr book and tesimonials free.
THIE CANADA CANCER instirute, Limited Home Made Syrup

Antificial

Limbs
To show our artiticial limbst wearer is $t$ make a sale. They, are , neat strong, light.
pand practical We can fit yo We can fit you out at short no tice with the best that money can buy.
Write for further nformation, also state what kindo mpoctation yor J. H. Garson

357 Morre Dame Avenue, Winnipeg

| pise a game of cards either; that is, |
| :--- |
| good game of whist E.T.C. It think | sharpens one's intellect, especially on a winter evening when there is nothing else to pass the time away. I don't nor any more degrading than a game o chess or checkers, Curly Bil, come again, let's hear some more logic, some more good sense, and Phil, too; you are all right; give it to some of those Pur tans joy themselves at a dance just because they are afraid of hurting their moral character. Let me tell you sober ones that there is nothing immoral about dant there is nothing immoral are not dancing as long as the dancers are noter of an immoral mind or temperamentthat is my only conviction. Well, as hope to see this in the magazine, wish ing the paper and all its r suceess, I will sign myself $\Delta$ Girl from Manitoba Napinka, Man, Mar. 17, 1912. Dear Editor, - Here comes another one to join your jolly erowd. I have been reading your paper for a number of years, and enjoy it very much. I read Josephus letter in the January issue, and as for what he says about daneicin L think he is very wrong $I$ think he is very wrong, as 1 do not see any harm in it, and if it wasnt for a any harm in it, and if hit wasn for little dance once in a while through the winter I think that we would be all dead by spring. But I did not write for that reason, so I will not say any more. I am very fond of all kinds of fun, es am very fond of all kinds of fun, pecialy dancing and card playing. pecialy dancing and card playing. think the bachelors of the west must be very lonesome, when they do not have any one who will meet them with a smile, and have 2 warm meal ready for smile, and have a warm meal ready for them when they come in from a hard them when they come in from a hard day's work; Ithink they should get a day's work; hurry on and get ome one to help them.

It is all right for It is all right for a woman to milk in the summer, when a man has a lot to do, or even feeding the pigs when he hap. do, or te be away, but anything else pens pens to be away, tnink the men ought to do it. I do no mind a man smoking a cigar once in a while, or even taking a glass of beer, while, or even taking a glass of bee but as for chewing swearing and smok ing a pipe $I$ do not approve of it. Now if any one of the young men between 18 and 25 wish to correspond with me, 18 and 25 wish to correspond with me my address is with the editor. $\begin{aligned} & \text { Honey Kid. }\end{aligned}$

An Opinion on Card Playing.
Ont., March 14, 1912.
Dear Editor,-I Ontas so kindly reecived on my former visit into your friendly circle, that I have decided to call again.
Will you most kindly answer my wilio you most kindy answer my anxious knock, and extend your hospitality to me a second time. Several correspondents have ventured opinions on the propriety of the card table, but as far as I have read far as with the subject at any length, so am taking up the cudgel myself. When I speak of card playing, it is to be understood that I refer to the friendly game played merely as ane would be so unscrupulous as to defend the professional card playing of gambling dens and some play cards will doubtless make it wour play cards who doave never taken any boast that you have harm out of this pastime. Consider its harms and see. In the first place, card playing has a fascination which cannot fail to be detrimental to those who indulge in it. How often do young and old alike gather round for a game and play atway hour after hour, oblivious of the passing of time. In the small hours the passing of time. In the small hours of the morning, when their unnatural excitement gives way to fatigue, they retire, and during the day, their sluggish spirits remind them of their excesses.
Considered in this light, card playing is Considered in this light, card playing is a , dissipation, which, especially in the case of those naturally weak and nervous, affects the health, sometimes seri ous, affects the health, somet meses seriously. Another evil of card playing is the the tendency it has to engender dishonesty. How many card players can deny liaving ever cheated in a a game, having ever given or reecived signs to wing and ging Win a game by trickery? 1 doub whether one in hundred han truth-fuly claim such honesty. You see, it is fuly claim such honesty. You see, it is so easy to indicate to your partner by a certain gesture, which card you wish him to play; and often when the player game for him, the temptation is too much to resist. After the irss few him much, and when he learns to cheat to win a game, he will not find it so scale in more important matters. The same spirit prompts both, and from one ably the greatest objection to card play ing is the fact that it is with cards that most o t the gambing is done. ocourse there will be no gambling in a friendly social game, but the social game lead ap to gambling. No gambler ever jayed started out in the (harmless?) friendly way and becime proficient in that, firs You may argue that gambling has no attraction for you; but what about that boy whom you taught and encourage in the game, and whom you told that a little social diversion could do no harm Will he withstand the temptation? How do you know that he may not ruin his life at the gaming table, with you to blame for it? Monte Carlo counts it suicides by the thousands, and nearly all those victims Iearned the game under Judgment of rriendship. And when ar raigned before the Great White Throne many will have to answer for having led others into othem on the road to utter ruin. Are you your bröther's keeeper Listen! ones that bellieve in one of these bette for him that a mill stone were hanged about his neck, and that he we abou drowned in the depths of the sea, ", Cherful Critit

Doing Good Work.

Rosetown, Mar. 27, 1912 Dear Sir-I am enclosing a letter to Mona, would you be kind enough to for ward it. I am not a aubseriber, but my brother is, and we both live together on seription, and I gave my March number to a. aneightor of mine, and $I$ am trying to to get him to subseribe for the W.H.M reading in it it for both old and young Wishing you and your paper good luck and a prosperous year. I hope we can do better next time we pay for our subbétter next time we pay for our subscription, and not keep you waiting so long; we have had crops getting frozen.

The Garden of the Gulf. I have been a reader of the W.H.M for some months, and consider it in young. I alwass read the correspondence column first. This is my first letter, seen one frould write, as I had never so often called the "Garden of the Gulf. am a farmer's daughter. I have epent some of my life in the city, but like the country as well, if not better. I like music, but skating is time. As for work, I like sewing and cooking best. I am 22 years of age cooking best. 4 am e2, years or age height 5 feet 4 inches, weight 120 lbs have dark brown hair and eyes. would like to hear from Kid Caldwel in the December issue, and any others who would write to me, will find my ad dress with the editor. Trusting I have paper success, I will sisn my melf, Star of the East.

Where Shall We Draw the Line? British Columbia, March 16, 1912 Dear Editor, -I am very much pleased merits of dancing has ben opened in the Bill advances against Josephus, seeing in dancing what hundreds of Christial people never for a moment imagine, "is gong to congratilate (urry bill on hav ing such a normal mind that he could dance and yet was inr the there was no
"ile

I rom Royal Ophthalmic-Hospital, Lond Steele Block, $\quad 360$ Portage Ave., Winnipeg

BRACELET AMD RIIIG FREE

should mak arraying he sending her whose brea peppermint. line. All rig no whisky; le say crank, b Draw the lir rules and re hours. Some drink before ittle on the girls think t but, alas, it either be br stand for hà will continue ing to his
the family
"Come out separate," Epworth Lea p-Lift Up. by the harm able amus little girls looking out
Dr. T. A. Goodchild, Eye Specialist.

closer and outside mes dancin

 mes danepeople wh served tha serkes, of ju thko allow who dancing part be eimpeache the question
heve not rea ane not rea an young suen be understoo be have results, but people who people wno cate dancing certainly an to such an an flourishing | flourishing |

| :---: |
| musements | promptly sh sh ${ }^{\text {server }} 8 \mathrm{p}$ p. is a 2 sin aga

if it it were botlle of footsteps,

WANTED Reliable parties to do Machine Knit ting for us at home. $$ 7$ to $$ 10$ per wee easily earned. Wool, etc., furnished free.
Distance no hindrance. For full par

The Canadian Wholesale Distributing CO. Orillia, Ont

Can I, by own life sw up, lift to t/ make goo
should make any mother pause before a good time, demands innocent fun, the arraying her daughter in soft dreamy robes with bare arms and low neck, and unch as our Canadian home woud suche inspiration to the world sending her to waltz with a partner whose breath smells deliciously ofpeppermint. Curly Bill says draw the line. All right. One family party touch say crank, breaks up the dance too soon Draw the line again: form a club with rules and regulations. All right; there we are, no whisky, no gambling, no late drink before of the young men take little on the quiet; our unsuspecting girls think they belong to a select club but, alas, it is hollow-hearted, and wil either be broken up by the few, who will continue to deteriorate. Our friend Josephus was sounding a note of warning to his own family, I understand; ing to his own family, I understand; the family that have answered the call, "Come out from among them and be ye Epworth The Christian Endeavor and p-Lift Up.". Suppose we call dancing by the harmless epithet of a "Question little girls with. blue or then, dea eyes, looking out and forward into glorio womanhood, the question for you is: Can I, by attending dances, make my own life sweeter or truer; can I be an mplift to my friends and help them t.) make good in life? Now, young man if you wish to be strong and do what is such as to give inspiration to the worl You seize the flower the bloom is shed. -I should certainly very much like to write to Girlie, but I have so many cor respondents that I better refrain in jus tice to them. She closes wishing every body success in life, and I will close by sending your readers or everybody summing up of success by Bessie A. tioned. "She has achieved success who has lived well, laughed often and loved much; who has gained the respect of in childrent who has filled his niche and ac complised his task; who has left the world better than he found it, whether by an improved poppy, a perfect poem or rescued soul; who has never lacked ppreciation of earth's beauty, or failed he best in others and given the best he had; whose life was an inspiration, whose memory a bendiction." A Homebuilder.
$\square$
Arguments Worth Thinking About. Manitoba, March, 1912. Dear Editor,--In reply to Josephus's nworthy sermon on dancing, I would unworthy sermon on dancing, I woutd say that I agree with him, that the modern dance is the reverse to that of worth while, can you build up a robust physique by dancing, or sharpen your intellectual powers, or stand firm when a little stimulant is offered? If you can do these things I am glad. Now look around critically and be candid. How many of your companions are likely to than before one winter's dancing cam paign? Last year The Christian Herald, after decrying the evil influence of this amusement, suggested some inventiv that would take its place, that woul amuse without weakening and sullying Only a few months ago I read an artic deploring this evil, and aseribing the downfall of many young girls as one o the results. His deductions were no guess work, but founded on sad testimonials. Now where shall we draw the truly says, "The world has a million roosts for us but only one nest. Home! Let us protect the Canadian home. Th strong man says, "If drink maketh my brother to offend, then will I take no more while I live." The pure woman will say when she has studied the ques tion, "If dancing maketh my sister to offend, then I will attend no more danc ing parties; but do all in my power to other ways." If there were more girls like Girlie who, though she likes to hav

Sensational Revelations

Medal Presented to the Discoverer of Sequarine, the Wonderful New Princtiple of organte Llite.
Mystic Serum which Cures Nervous and Organic Diseases and makes the Old Young. More Swift and Effective thpn any Remedy hitherto known. For a number of years scientists have been vainly seeking for a brinciple of seeking for a principle of organic life which has hitherto baffled the ingenuity of the most deeply learned to unearth-viz., the primary force or element which is the factor of natural disease immunity within the human body. doborious experiments he had discovered this greatly sought vital principle in the form of a serum created a sensation such as rarely agitates the minds of scientists.
The new serum
The new serum, named Sequarine in honour of the discoverer, is regarded by physicians as a wonderful revarded by physicians as a wonderful new weapon with which to combat disease and prolong life, and its discovery is spoken of as one of the greatest triumphs certainly of more practical value then any serum hitherto known. Those present. at the meeting of the Paris Biological at the meeting of the Paris Beological Society, where the Professor revealed the Society, where the Professor revealed the composition and explained the action of Sequarine, expressed the opinion that this serum will render obsolete the present this serum will render obsolete the $p$. methods of treating many diseases. methods of treating many diseases.
Its diversity of application was found so great as to be almost beyond belief whie its swiftness and certainty in curing every case were truly wonderful. It is a every case were truly wonderfu. arrector of functional disorders at the same time Experiments and tests made by phy sicians resulted in astonishing revelations of the marvellous curative powers in of the marvellous herent in Sequarine.
herent in Sequarine.
It was found efficacious in a very wide range of diseases, among which were the following:- $\begin{array}{ll}\text { NTervousness, } & \text { Dyspepsia, } \\ \text { Neurasthenia, } & \text { Liver Complaints, }\end{array}$ Neurasine, Anaemia, Anaomia, Gout, Sciatica, Kidnoy Disease
Tiabotes,
A doctor observed that one of the man advantages of treatment with Sequarine is that no violent or harmful drug is introduced into the system when taking it This remarkable remedy is purely an animal extract, and its use can in no case be otherwise than beneficial. Every organ and nerve centre of the body is favourably and nerve cen affected by it
OLD PEOPLS MADE TO LOOK AND FEEL YOUNG.
At a meeting of the tenth Congress of reat French scientist, said: "Preserva ion of his life through several centuries depends solely on man. By multiplying the white corpuscles in the blood (phago-ates) we increase the co-efficient of vital ytes) we increase the co-efficient of vita This new departure in Therapetitics wil oon come to the front. Part of the grea urative and healing power of Sequarin body it increases the number of phagocytes with startling rapidity. In addition o its highly beneficial action in multiply ng the blood corpuscles, Sequarine cause ncreased nerve potency and very active tissue respiration and purification. This tissue respiration and purification. This accounts for its being a specific for diseases of such widely different character

Indigestion, Indigestio
General Weakness Influenza, Sequarine is, in fact the staminal force within the body which decreases gradually in volume as old age approaches, thereby permitting diminution of physical and mental power which result in the phenomenon known as "the weakness of old age," By introducing it into the system the aged, or prematurely aged, may actually cause youthful strength and buoyancy. In the words buoyancy, In the words of Professor Goizet:-BROWN-SEQUARD, R.S., F.R.C.P. London P.R.S., F.R.C.P, London Professor of Medicine at the College of France, the discoverer of Sequarine and founder of Sequarine is a restorative of strength and not a stimulant. It increases - the patient's vitality and his complaint. This serum is in fact a source of life more powerful than the interchange of blood or any remedy in use to fight against old age and illness.
Mankind will ih the near future regard Mais Serum as one of the principal ractors in life prolongation and health preservation. It will then be found in every home just as bread and other necessaries are

ABSOLUTISLY FREF
Sequarine will cure any ailment which arganism. In order to disseminate knowledge of its peculiar poteney and properties a book has been prepared which gives the distinctive qualities, actions, and uses of Sequarine. Copies of this book may be obtained free of charge by writing for it.
The Sequarine book is a gift well ful serum was discovered, gives details of Dr. Brown-Sequard's experiments to determine its powers, and tells how, after learning its manner of action, he startled a gathering of the world's most famous a gathering of the world's most famous men of thought by demonstrating its almost miraculous properties. It relates almost miraculous properties; It relates why the greatest of the world's physicians regard the discovery of Sequarine as the most important addition to medical science since Harvey's discovery of the circulation of the blood, and' why they eagerly adopted Sequarine as an entirely new force with which to combat diseaseand prolong hife. It gives instancess of cures effected which would be incredible cures effected which would be incredible but for the status of those who certify Last, but not least, the free Sequarine Book describes. fully the diseases for which this serum is an infallible remedy, which this serum is an infallible remedy, reveals the secret of its composition, and eveais the secret may obtan Seduarine tells how anyone make obe the Sequarine Serum treatment and take in the privacy of home. The treatment is as simple and agreeable as it is swift and effective.
Sufferers from any ailment who wish to enjoy again the superb power of that perfect health which is the companion of flawless digestive system, pure and rich blood, and a steady and powerful to apply for this interesting and instrucvaluable information which has never before been published -information which, if acted upon, will surely mean a restoration to health.
The Booklet can be obtained free rom C. RICHTER & CO., Manufacturing Chemists, 59-61
New Oxford $\underset{\text { turing }}{\text { Chemists, }}$ Sireet, London, England.

Whenever you feel a headache coming on take NA-DRU-CO Headache Wafers They stop headaches promptly and surely Do not contain optum. morphine, phenaceln, acgist's mational drug and chemical co. of canada, lmited.

Superfluous Hair

Moles，Warts and Small Birthmarks are successfully and per－ manently removed by Electrolysis．This is the only safe and also be beautifully shaped and arched by heavy eyebrows may are several poor methods of performing this work，but in the hands of an expert it may be done with very little pain， leaving no scar．I have made this work one of my special ties，and with fifteen years＇experience the very best method in use，and a determination to make my work a success，I can guarantee satisfaction．Write for booklet and further particulars．
MRS E．COATES COLEMAN 224 Smith Street，Winnipeg

Phone Main 996

12 Tumors Removed Without An Operation or growths cose somused 12 tomors pelled．Some were as large to be ex ex． egg，and others smaller，down to egg，and others smaller，down to to the size of a walnut． my case in your advertisement，for it is the solid truth，and pen cannot describe all the good his has done for me．Mrs．Louise E．Bolte－ rige， This，letter gives an indication of the positive benefits that always follow the use of Orange that ally．It it is an applied treatment and comes in direct contact with the sut

Your Druggist Stops That Itch

$\begin{aligned} \text { If you are suffering from eczema，} \\ \text { Psoriasis，or any other kind of skin }\end{aligned} \left\lvert\, \begin{gathered}\text { and a few other ingredients，that has } \\ \text { wrought such wonderful cures all over }\end{gathered}\right.$ Psoriasis，or any other kind of skin trouble，drop in on your druggist for in－ trouble，drop in on your druggist for in－ stant relief，We will promise stop that itch in two seconds． Hundreds of druggists have told us how they had sold other remedies for skin troubles，but none that they could pound of Oil of Wintergreen，Thymol the countryy． This compound known as D．D．D．Pre－ scription，will cool and heal the itchy a regular bottle from your druggist and see，or send for a free trial bottle to the D．D．D．Laboratories，Dept．M．， 49 Colborne St．，Toronto． skating，in lots of respects，but not in the way Josephus is trying to explain himself．He tells us dancing is not a wholesome recreation，and charges of im－ purity，immodesty and worldliness is laid against the party or person who dances． Now，I judge from this letter of the January number of the W．H．M．that Josephus has a lot to learn before he can criticize dancing．I think，in the first place，it would be a good idea for him to study the ball room etiquette， and after he has done that，he may lear be to dance too，and probably he would be able to talk about something which he knew a little about．He would also find out that the modern dances which he find out that the modern dances which he think I can venture to say that there is not one person（who is a dancer）out of every five hundred in this country that dances the ripple．And，again，Mr． Josephus，I will give you another little of，and that is a young lady does not have to dance with any Tom，Dick or Harry，as you seem to think they do． A young lady can pick her company at a dance，as well as she can at church，or any other social gathering．It is all right for people with evil minds and jealous feelings to bar such enjoyment jealous feelings to bar such enjoyment， but on the other hand I think it is good pastime and sport for the person who noble career to put in the lonely winter months on the desolate prairie．Another thing，a lady and gentleman can get in thing，a lady and gentleman can get in any attitude the any attitude they prefer while dancing． and I would like Mr．Josephus to point out to me the improper attitudes of the an improvement on the ancient plain waltz，both in attitude and skill；also the new style of these other dances am about to mention：the German schot tische，Military schottische and Jersey， which are danced in a different way to him that a young couple sitting in church or driving in a buggy or auto，or even sitting in the parlor of their par－ ents or friends，can take any attitude ents or friends，can take any attitude preferable to them，as that of dancing， and tell me，sir，is our rising generation many indulge in dancing？And，com－ paring them with the statement you gave，they act more like beasts and out－ gave，they act more like beasts and out－ laws than anything else．Now there is laws than anything else．Now there another point of yours，which $I$ can squash very quickly．You are comparing that of the ripple with about twenty other different dances，like comparing a game of poker with that of a game of game which is known to be indulged in in the hame of good living people．It will take up too much room in your valuable paper to point out to the criticizer where the most of his points When you talk about a man that，see ing a round dance for the first time，say－ ing he would horse whip a man if he caught him dancing whip a man if he should have two wives，and instead of him getting jealous of someone else，he would get some one else jealous of him， and I would advise any young lady to and I would advise any young lady to slight the young gentleman with such an evil and joalous disposition，because if matrimony was ever their luck with such a case as this，I am sure it would be a failure as regards happiness． myself have attended somewhere about wenty dances this winter，and I have wanted to be hugged．I am proud to say that I，like all the rest of our prairie boys and girls，pick our company，and do boys and girls，pick our company，and do not want to belong to the gyratory hug－ ging societ ging society．I am also pround to live in chief amusement of the day，and you will find less abandoned girls，than you will in the older countries． will．find there is not ten per cent．of the working class that the working class that knows how to dance，and $I$ am safe to say that is where you can find the majority of these abandoned characters．If those people street walking，they would not be where they are today．I do not think it nece they are today．I do not think it neces－ sary for a minister，or bishop，or priest， or any leader of any denomination to or any leader of any denomination to warn their people against any amuse ments．which they prefer to indulge in， warn their people against any amuse－ ments which they prefer to indulge in， for as a rule the party，he or she which ever it may be that belongs to a church has enough good in them to condur themselves in any company，and may be the means of enlightening some poor reglected girl of her ignorance，and do good where a minister might not have a chance to be present．Now，Josephus， you have to show me and our prairie girls and boys，who，I know，will sup－ port me in my argument，where 化位 harm is in a sociable dance among neigh－ bors．Perhaps，Josephus will say：They do not have to dance for amusement； why not play games 9 for amusement； why not play games ？I say，there can be far more harm taken out of games than there is out of dancing．Yours Sod Buster．

One of Five．
Ontario，April， 1912.
Dear Editor，－I have been a reader of your paper for a number of years and would now feel lost without it．I enjoy reading the letters each month and thought I would write and get a few correspondents if they would care to write to me．I am a farmer＇s living on a large farm of two hundred and fifty acres，am quite tall，have dark hair and blue eyes and am the middle one of five so have hard scratching for fair play．I like to hear about the great day and meet some of those Western bachelors who give such glowing ac－ counts of their work up there．Maxine．

Will Exchange Post Cards． Manitoba， 1912.
Hello all！How＇s everybody？Hav been a silent reader of the cor：espondence column for quite a long time，but I just can＇t keep stilh any longer．I have been a reader of the Western Home Monthly for some time and like it better than any other Canadian magazine I have come across．It is full of good reading come across．It is full of good reading matter from cover to cover and I read nery bit of it too．One of the best features is the＂correspondence＂I think． Many good letters are to be found here， while others are，to be very mild，exceed ingly foolish．Well never mind ngly foolish．Well never mind，there＇s some good in every one．I think it is fine scheme to form a lot of acquaintan－ 24；have black hair chap between 20 and ；have black hair and brown eyes．Am ery fond of music and an occasional dance．Would be glad to get some respondence just to pass the time．Shall e exceedingly pleased to exchange post ards and will answer all that may be sent．My address is with the editor Will sign myself， Dynamite Joe．

Contains Good Reading
Dear Editor，－Althoatchewan， 1912. recent subscriber to your valuable only a have read several conies before and when I take up the W．H．M．I feel that am going to read something worth read ing．It contains just the subjects you are looking for that other paprs leave are looking for that other papirs leave out．Old and young alike，can find good out．Oid and young alike，can find good， instructive reading in the W．H．M． read with interest the correspondence column and would certainly like to join column and would certainly like to join the circle．I am one of the great army he circle．I am one of the great army Western Canada．I see a lot of the girls disapprove of the use of the weed in any way．I do not drink whisky or chew to－ acco but I can do justice to a pipe of girls who disapprove of a fellow taking n odd smoke must be the cross kind．I know fellows who don＇t smoke，but then they are not nearly so contented as those who co．A fellow has no right to smoke where there are ladies present but think it a great help to the lonely months away．I live on a half section of land in a well settled country and who would care to write．Will answer all letters．I will sign myself
The Candy Kid

Woman＇s Rights．
Dear Editor，－I beg space for a few ines if you see fit to print this．I am

Burdock

Blood Bitters

 CURES ALL SKIN DISEASESAny one troubled with any itching, Ing, inritating skin disease can place elance on Burdock Blood Bitters il reliance on Burdock Beod bhat other Tt always builds up the health and ength on the foundation of pure, rich od, and in consequence of a permanent and lasting Mrs. Richard Coutine, White Head, it rheum on my hands for two years, it itché so I did not know what to I trieci three doctors and even went - Montreal to the hospital without getting any relief. I was advised ther so Burdock Blood Bitters, so bottles, and before I had the second used Ifound a big change, now cured."
Burdock Blood Bitters is manufactured Burdock Blood Bitters is manufactured only by The T. Milburn Co., Limited oniy by Toronto, Ont.

$3.50 Recipe Free  For Weak Kidneys.

Believes Urinary and Kidney Reieves Urinary and Kidney Iroubles, Backache, Straining, swelling, Itc.

Stops Pain in the Bladder, Kidneys and Back.

Wouldn't it be nice within a week or so to ahee ith stationes and pains in the back; th

THICK, SWOLLEN CLANDE

ABSOREINE $\stackrel{A}{4}$ thompanohors

 Fetherstonhaugh & Co. Gerald s. ROXBURGH,B.A.Sc. Resident 209-210 bank of Nova Scotia, Porlage A ve. (Opp. Froe Pre WINNIPEG, MAN.When writing advertisers please her as good a home as she leaves. I would like the opinion of ladies on that question. Although I am successful, Foretimes think I have waited too long me, the lonelier way. There are a a large number of bachelors here, is it any wonder, what have many of us to offer a woman? A home you say, but what are from 1 J to 100 miles from a many If a woman goes back on the' prairie and helps to make a home, what has she? The laws of Saskatchewan give a wo man no legal share. Boys, play fair, let us be the first to demand of the governsteads for women. At the same time, women will use their influence, it can be accomplished. That law is fit for the primeval age. Men, when you get a stove and washing machine in the house? When you eet a harrow cart does th kitchen floor have an oil cloth? When feed and water are handy at the barn, is fuel and water handy at tne any of the boys or giris will correspond with me I will gladly answer. I love fun and any clean sport.
Only a

Homesteads for Women.
Dear Editor,-I Ont., May Ist. dent for some time and enjoy readin your columns very much. I am going to take as my topic "Homesteads for Wo homestead it would help to build our great West with better settlers. I know if the girls would put forth an effort and get down in earnest and try we could get that petition passed it would sure also that the boys would be very willing to help. I sent to Mrs. Graham, 662 Agnes street, Winnipeg, for petition form and if any of you will drop her a Now if we are going to accomplish this we must get busy. Would not that mak farming more interesting and home steading would not be that very lone some life that some class it to be but we must have ambition to carry out our plans. Now I hope that every girl will try and probably all our correspondents ther, we will not be like strangers but as though we had lived together all ou prosperous Happy-Go-Lucky has been but probably his better half will soon spend it for him. I was inspired by the lette written by Conundrum th kno. he wil sympathize with me in this great cause Start at the bottom and climb up. Now, Mr. Editor, I think I have taken enoug of your valuable space, but will say be fore I close 1 am a farmer's daughte wishing to write med to ar fom and with you, Mr. Editor, and thanking yo for publishing this, I will sign myself, Signs of Spring.

Ont., April 17, 1912. ested reader of your valuable magazin for over a year, I thought I would write a few lines to say how much I appreciate it. I take a great interest in the page under the heading "The Young Woman ander the heading "The Young Woman all women. The sugar season will soon be over now and the beautiful month of May will be here. It seems to put new life into a person to see the bre suds opening up on the trees. My brother is a subscriber to your paper and he say as indeed we all say, that we would no do without it. Well, Mr. Editor, I must lose now if I wish this to escape the gaping jaws of the $W$. P. B. I will leave out my description, suffice it is to say am a farmer's daughter, between 15 and 20 , and would be glad to hear from any , I will sign myself May flower

Many patent medicines have come and gone So occupy a foremost place among remedies fo coungs and a colds. and as a a prevenong ive of decay o the lungs It is a standard medicine that widen erne a giyceric compound, extracted from native medicinal roots-sold for over forty yeart with great satisfaction to all users. For Weak Stomach, Biliousness, Liver Complaint, Pain in the Stomach afters. Forting, Heartburn, Bad Breath, Belching of food, Chronic Diarrhee and other Intestinal Derangements, the "Discovery" ia, time-proven and most efficient remedy.

The genuine has on its de wrappe You can't afford to acoept a scocrot nostrum as a substitute for this non-aloohoic, medicine or xNown comprsirtion, not even though the urgent deaier may thereby make a little bigger profit.
Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets regulate and invisorate stomaoh, liver and Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets regulate and invigorate sto bowels. Sugar-coated, tiny granules, easy to talke as oandy.

Your Vitality Can Be Restored

 ion net ahadow of a doubt as to what $I$ can thus do. BUT there is a a ingle condition, one reatriotion 1 put, a cerrain solemp promise 1 exact from you before you coan exact a promise from me ; namely you must unconditionally agree now at once and foiever to discontinue any debilitating ex now at onoe and forever to discontinue any debilitating ox-ceas or dissipation that you may be indulging ; with this out Cess or dissipation that you may be indulging; with this out of the way, I will do all the rest. Remember what I say no matter what your present condition, no matter what has happened in the past, just forget it and put yourelf happened in the past, Just forget $i t$ and put yourself in my hands ; everything will come out as you wish it. I uee no hands ; everything will come out a drues, no lotions, no medicines ; plese no folieh drugs, no otions, no mediciness ; place no foolish restrictions upon you ; Just lead, an natural life, get all the enjoyment you posibly oan all the enjoyment you posiblby gan but oease diesiption ;always ire-member that

 and anipe ripe jour koeps keope th nece neatit ningle
ning Hingle Vilta
the world ably ever

Sunday Reading.

The Dream.
Margaret Steel Anderson.
You may sing of the race as you will-I sing the goal, I sing the goal, he beauteous goal, that draws the bleeding feet,

And turns the bitter hardship into (Bweet, Ih, I pray the goal may be the place, thought it was the while I ran the race!)
You may sing of the fight as you willI sing the prize, stands, Reason and hope for all his agonies struggling limbs and ever-straining (But oh, I pray the prize be no less Than 1 conceived it, panting in the fight!).

You may sing of the work as you will-Far-throned beauty and far-beck'ning That ca fame, Sun to his day and star upon his night (But oh, I pray the aim be what I sought sought
And vision wrought!)
Howe'er it be, 0 Watcher of the race, Lord of the vict'ry, Giver of the prize, face, Thee for the dream before 1 thank The mine eyes! this I dare; to think Thou has not wrought Or drought naught!
-American Magazine.

Liberality of Mind.

Wherever the horizon of the mind is circumscribed and limited by the conventionalities of custom or habit, failure is certain to ensue. Success can only attend the efforts of a mind that soars above, the beaten track and ex plores the untrodden wilds, and whose as the universe. a man than as the universe. A man who shuts nimself up within himself, or who is content to be led by any uninstructed pedagogue who comes along, will never be a success in anything. Self is narrow, shallow, isolated. There is no row, shallow, isolated. There is no The mind cannot expand unless comes in contact with other and nobler minds. It is by exchange of ideas that life is enriched. To remain shut up life is enriched. To remain shut up within one's self is to lose life. it is by assimilating, the ideas of others that one's mind is enriched and enlightened, and liberality of mind expands the soul; opens its florets, as it were, and infuses new life forets, as it were, and infuses new infe into it, thus fitting it to execute satisfactorily the duties that devolve upon it.-Betts.

The Mission of the Twelve.

G. Campbell Morgan, D.D

Golden Text; "Freely ye have received, Two matters need to be carefully borne in mind as we approach the study of this lesson: first, that whereas for The lesson as arranged some portion portion must not be omitted by the teacher in preparation; nor can it be wholly lost sight of in teaching. It need not all be read perhaps in the class, but its content must be reckoned cessary in the examination of this pastice then enjoined. and so dismiss them.
sage carefully to distinguish between the abiding and essential things, and those which were transient, because largely local. The abiding things are those of the principles revealed. The transient things are those of the prac

As the abiding things are those of supreme importance to us, we may refer supreme importance to us, we may refer to the others by way of introduction

The equipment which the Lord be nowed upon His disciples for the workwas of miracles in the material realm was not intended to be perpetual in the ministry for which He was preparing them. He gave them power not only o heal the sick, to cleanse the lepers, and to cast out devils, but also to raise preted spiritually, then so also must all the rest. It is manifest also that the exclusion of Gentiles and Samaritans from the sphere of their operations was temporary only. It is equally evident that the instructions for travel were suited only to that country, and that time; and cannot have application to modern conditions. And finally, the forms of persecution described were the actual forms which it took in the first day of the fulfilment of their larger mission, and have largely ceased to-day.

All these the Cross, the Resurrection, and Pentecost. Beyond these His cost. Beyond these, His messengers He had promised they should do. The new wonders wrought were miracles of healing, of resurrection, of cleansing, of healing, of resurrection, of cleansing, of exorcism in the spiritual realm. It may be that at different times some of they are always accidentals rather than essentials. This applies both to material miracles and to forms of persecuSamaritans is over for ever, as witness the commissions, and especially the last Word of Jesus with regard to the Charch's responsibility, in which He charged His disciples that they should and previous studies as the Son of God minative susfering Saviour. In an illuHis view of the needs of men. He saw ed, as sheep not having a sheatter The result of this was that He was wher moved with compansion. Further back than that we cannot go, and need not.
It is an unveiling of the consciousness of God in the presence of the need of man, and it brings us to the source o all His giving to us, and consequently to the source of all the streams of our text to illuminate the illewing the con tide find that He gave them authority. In their cases it was authority over unclean spirits ner of disease, and all maner all man ness. That is to say, He gave, and ever gives, ability to deal with the needs to which we are sent. We find also that He gave them fellowship in His suffering. They also were to be as sheep in ing. They also were to be as sheep in the midst of wolves. If the Master the house had been called Reelzasbub, so also would they of His houschold. Yet further He gave them ascone further He gave them insehold. Yet strength and

They are of grace, apart from merit.
They are bestowed on the one condition of submissive reception. They are, moreover, to be bestowed at a cost to ourselves, and demeanour.
Our giving is Our giving is to be as our receiving in measure. The income is the measure of the expenditure. When the income ceases the expenditure may. With equal cecuracy it may be said when the ex our mission is larger than that of the twelve in this their first mission, so also s our equipment by the indwelling our giving be greater than theirs.
The influence of a really good home is better equipment for life than the ossession of a college degree Why buy mixtures known as alum vell., and at no more expense, get Magic Baking Powder? The ingredients are plainly printed on each package. See if authorized to guarantee that "Magic"

You have probably been there yourself--perhaps are right now.

Bright women all over Canada are getting away from this---they welcome MOONEY'S BISCUITS as a most acceptable substitute for their own bread and biscuits.

MOONEY'S PERFECTION SODA BISCUITS

are the crispest, creamiest crackers made.
Better still, they are baked in Winnipeg; right at your very door. They come to you fresh as the product of your own oven.
Use MOONEY'S and be sure of a biscuit that is absolutely fresh; a biscuit that will satisfy the family. You can have them in air-tight packages or sealed tins as you prefer.

LET MOONEY DO IT

[^0]:

[^1]:    When writing advertisers please mention The Western Home Monthly.

