TO POISON WINNER OF DERBY AND VALUABLE PRIZE ANIMALS

Militants Making Good the Threat That They Are Resolved to Stop at Nothing Now.

LONDON, May 7.—Miss Cross, the owner of a Pekinese spaniel, received a postal at Southampton on May 3, which read as follows:

"We are very sorry that your pretty dog must be sacrificed, but our rules are inexorably enforced. We are resolved to stop at nothing now. Every valuable prize-winner or favorite, such as the winner of the Derby, shall be maimed or destroyed until we get votes for women. You and other owners of valuable property can only enjoy peace by helping to get the vote."

(Signed) "MONKS HOOD."

It was this Southampton spaniel which won the championship. It became sick after the judging and died shortly afterwards. Miss Cross sent particulars of the matter to Scotland Yard in an endeavor to trace the sender of the postal card.

A lively discussion at a meeting of the Women's Liberal Federation last night resulted in the defeat, by a vote of 620 to 298, of a motion that no local association shall be eligible to incorporate in the federation unless it pledges itself not to support any candidate for parliament who will not promise to support woman suffrage to the utmost of his ability.

An acute difference on the suffrage question was manifested during the division, but a great majority of those present cheered an assertion by one of the delegates that Premier Asquith had not broken his word, and that the government had not betrayed the cause of women.

Mrs. F. D. Acland, wife of the parliamentary Under Secretary for Foreign Affairs, said it was useless to deny that the woman suffrage cause was now at low water mark. She deplored the futile violence of the militants.

J. O. WILGRESS PASSES AWAY

Former Manager Bank of Montreal in This City Dies in England.

A cablegram was received last evening announcing the death in London, England, of Mr. J. O. Wilgress, former manager of the Bank of Montreal branch in Brantford.

Deceased was born at the family home near Montreal, and his father was a colonel in the British service. His grandfather also had a distinguished military career, and was one of the officers who served with distinction under Wellington in the Peninsular war.

He entered the service of the Bank of Montreal when a young man, and for a long time was connected with the head office in that city. He was made manager of the Calgary branch, next of the Brantford branch, finally at Hamilton. He was justly recognized as one of the best bank managers in Canada, and the manner in which he built up the Ambitious branch was simply remarkable.

THE LATE J. O. WILGRESS

But, his health broke down under strain, and he was given six months' leave to take a trip to Europe. He was an ardent horseman, and owned several noted animals, those who knew him best believed a most charming personality. He leaves a wife and two children. His funeral is that Mrs. and Miss Wilgress are now on the ocean, having been hastily summoned to his bedside.

Will Not Go Into Force

A special despatch to the Courier from Toronto says that the new Library Board Act will not go into force until it is proclaimed, and that said proclamation is not likely to be made.

A London Fire.—Fire of unknown origin destroyed Walden's livery barn on Queen's avenue shortly after 5 o'clock yesterday, suffocating thirteen horses and destroying wagons, sulkeys and other contents. The total damage is roughly estimated at six thousand dollars. Four horses were saved.

HUGE SUFFRAGETTE PARADE VIEWED BY OVER 100,000.

MISS EDMONSTON MISS MADGE UDALL

More than one hundred thousand people witnessed the huge suffragette demonstration in New York on May 3, in which thirty thousand of the supporters of the "Votes for Women" cause took part. The principal part of the demonstration was a parade which stretched along Fifth avenue for several miles, and the passing of this through the city took the greater part of the day. Many prominent women who are identified with the cause came from different parts of the country to march in the procession and to deliver speeches.

DISGRACEFUL TACTICS PURSUED BY PROUDFOOT IN THE HOUSE

Member of Opposition Adds His Testimony to Baseless Character of Charges Preferred Against Prime Minister and Provincial Secretary—Representative for Centre Huron, Worsted in Committee, Reads to Legislature Letter Addressed to Discredited and Dismissed Official.

TORONTO, May 7.—With both sides showing a disposition to refuse to fight over the report of the Committee on Privileges and Elections opened in the Legislature yesterday afternoon and continued until late at night, W. Proudfoot, member for Centre Huron, the man who made the charges against Sir James Whitney and Hon. W. J. Hanna, led the attack for the Opposition. Mr. Proudfoot came armed with a load of notes, documents and papers, and proceeded to take up the whole afternoon enlarging upon the subject matter of his charges.

The Centre Huron member is a deliberate gentleman. He never hurries or allows himself to be hurried. He rambled on and on until, lunched upon of his stride time and again as Sir James Whitney brought him sharply to task for unfairness, but never showing signs of letting up. He only at 6 o'clock, when many of the members had disappeared behind newspapers, and the curious spectators in the galleries had begun to yawn and move for the exits, that he sat down.

The most notorious Maisonville letter, used by the former Government official in his unsuccessful efforts to blackmail Hon. W. J. Hanna, was read to the House by Mr. Proudfoot. The reading of this letter, which was referred as an exhibit by the Committee on Privileges and Elections, was expected to create a sensation, but the sensation did not materialize. The letter from beginning to end is full of hearsay, largely a retelling by Thorne to Maisonville of things he had been told by Taylor of the Taylor-Scott Company.

But if the reading of the letter failed to stir things up, Mr. Proudfoot's subsequent references to it, by which he used statements made there as facts, made up for it. The Liberal member was criticized in a scathing manner for using the stories of "Tom, Dick and Harry," unproved, and unsubstantiated, in his attempts to blacken the reputation of the Prime Minister and his colleague.

On one occasion a statement by Mr. Proudfoot with reference to "forceful" methods Taylor had decided to use brought an emphatic declaration that no man had ever given such testimony anywhere. "If he did," said Sir James, "he was a falsifier, and the man who repeats it is a traducer like the hon. gentleman."

Mr. Rowell protested, but Sir James insisted that so long as Mr. Proudfoot went on as he did he proposed to express his opinions. A minute later Mr. Proudfoot again offered by using statements in the letter as facts, and this time the Prime Minister hit back harder than ever. A rapid cross-fire followed, and the Speaker had to step in. The evening session saw the debate well on its way. A vigorous reply to Mr. Proudfoot came from C. R. McQueen of Dufferin, with W. S. Johnston of West Hastings supporting him. The most striking statement of the evening came from two Opposition members, Dr. McQueen of Wentworth and H. Munro of Glenora, both of whom paid unusual tribute to Hon. Mr. Hanna, coming as they did from the Opposition bench. Dr. McQueen voiced his high regard for the Provincial Secretary, stating that he would be the first to congratulate him if he was freed of the charges made against him.

From the Glenora man came a clear statement in reply to a challenge by Hon. Mr. Hanna that he had no information that would lead him to believe there had been any wrongdoing with regard to coal or underfeed stokers, and that he would not want to leave the impression that he was making any such charge.

Proudfoot preface his references to the charges by reviewing the proceedings before the Public Accounts Committee and the Committee on Privileges and Elections. He told of his unsuccessful attempts to get the Thorne letter to Maisonville in as evidence, and announcing his intention of reading it to the House promptly went ahead.

The letter, addressed to "My dear Harry," tells Maisonville of Taylor's claim against the Government and his notion that the Government were not going to grant the fiat.

"The House was in session," it says, "I don't know whether the Government intended to refuse the fiat or whether the delay was due to red tape or laziness. Taylor says the first, Hanna says red tape. Anyway 'T' decided to rush things, so he called on the Hon. W. J. H. and made brief mention of the following pertinent facts and some others:

"$500 cash paid by T. to W. J. H.; self-funding stokers—their refusal and acceptance by W. J. H.; coal tenders, the time, manner, and company for opening same; the deceased and disgraced Hon. St. John and his pertinent remarks re W. J. H. and the ruin of the Whitney Government, and some others of more or less importance, all of which led to language on each side of a class strictly prohibited in the Bible. But that did not get the fiat, so G. C. T. called again. Encore the foul language; still no fiat; so G. C. T. called upon Sir James Whitney. How this came out is hard to judge. W. J. H. says it was undoubtedly the most unpleasant five minutes G. C. T. ever put in, and that the fiat would have been issued anyway—in due time. G. C. T. says the fiat came in quick time; so it did, bearing a condition that it should not be used within three months, which gave the House time to adjourn."

The letter then tells of delays in getting the case to court, and of Taylor's call upon Hon. Mr. Hanna, and his threat that the case be brought to trial before December 11 (election day) or the Minister would be forced to resign. Then follows a recitation of the circumstances of his being invited to settle the case as arbitrator. "I asked him (Hon. Mr. Hanna) how he figured the trial, etc., would settle the matter of the personal attack," continues the letter. "He admitted it would not settle it, and that it was up to him to resist if 'T' made public his charges whether he proved 'em or not."

"McNaught," it states further, "had been brought into the thing at my suggestion, by Taylor going to him and telling his story in full. McN. went to Hanna and Whitney, who went to the House beyond Taylor's charges when he was trying to get the fiat—had evidently been assured somehow that there was nothing to it; and it was all a bluff and all over. Hanna had been delaying the game all Summer by making various proposals for settlement, and when everything was apparently arranged—demanding as a final condition a letter from Taylor contradicting and withdrawing his charges re Hanna. 'No letters' became the slogan, and password of T. S. and Co."

Going on, Thorne tells of further negotiations by which, according to his version, Hon. Mr. Hanna agreed to arbitration, but not unless Taylor retracted. Thorne then says he went to McN. (Mr. McNaught).

Visited Mr. McNaught.

"So I went to McN.," says the letter. "I told him that I knew some of T.'s charges were true, and that I knew 'T.' could and would prove them. McN. had probably made some inquiries; for he was true, said he knew some of them were true. Then I told him how I proposed to settle the deal and that T. could not be expected to say he lied when he knew he told the truth, and that if H. wanted to save his head he would have to get along without the letter. McN. saw H., and later McN. phoned me 'O.K.' but that to put H. right before Whitney the suggestion must come from McN. I agreed to this, and suggested that the whole thing, including all details of arrangements should be left to me. McN. agreed."

Then follows an outline of the meeting and the agreement to arbitrate.

MOTOR CAR JUMPS SIDEWALK FATALLY INJURES PEDESTRIAN

Ten-year-old Toronto Lad Pinned to Wall of Building—The Driver Not to Blame.

TORONTO, May 7.—While trying to avoid a collision with a rig which was coming down Lippincott St., late yesterday afternoon, Mr. Geo. C. Campbell, of 41 Wilcocks street, ran his automobile on to the sidewalk at the corner of Harbord street and fatally injured a ten-year-old boy named Arthur Pike, of 14 Brunswick Ave., just coming down the sidewalk.

The big touring car caught him and pinned him to the wall.

With Mr. J. Walford of 321 Jarvis street, and Dr. Harry Clark, Mr. Campbell was driving west along Harbord street. Just as he reached Lippincott street a horse and rig came along at a fair rate of speed. To avoid a collision Mr. Campbell thought he would do, but was unable to keep on the road. The car kept on its southward course and had jumped the sidewalk and caught the newboy before it could be stopped. The window of the corner shop was broken, but the machine glided along the sidewalk and finally stopped before any of the occupants were injured. The disabled and badly damaged auto still rests at the corner with a policeman in charge, and remained there until an expert came up this forenoon to make a perfect examination of it.

A number of people who saw the accident went to the St. Andrew's market police station to inform the police of the accident, and all blamed the driver of the rig, while exonerating Mr. Campbell. He himself went to the station, but after the accident had been communi-

RETAILERS HOLD MEETING

Objects of Association Were Discussed by Local Business Men.

A meeting of the Retail Merchants of Brantford was held last night in the Conservatory of Music Auditorium.

The purpose of the meeting was to hear addresses from T. J. Maher, Western representative of the Retail Merchants Association of Canada, (Incorporated), Mr. N. C. Cameron of Peterborough, Treasurer of the Ontario Board, of said association, and Mr. E. M. Growen of Toronto, Dominion Secretary of the Association, all of whom explained the progress that is being made by the Association in securing legislation that will benefit the merchants generally, and which will also tend to protect the honest merchant in doing a legitimate trade and would therefore protect public as well.

The merchants present were very enthusiastic over the work and decided that such an association was required in Brantford and very willingly formed a membership roll and appointed a committee of local merchants to secure the co-operation of the other merchants.

The Western representative will remain in the city for a few days to assist in perfecting the organization of the Brantford branch of the Retail Merchants Association of Canada.

SIR WILFRID DOESN'T KNOW

London Paper Says His Naval Strategy is Very Bad

LONDON, Wednesday, May 7.—Commenting on Sir Wilfrid Laurier's speech in Toronto on Monday night, the Daily Telegraph (Unionist) says this morning:

"When the leader of the Canadian Opposition asserts that 'Defence, like charity, begins at home,' it is difficult to reconcile such a declaration with the recognition of world peace which the British flag has assured for the Empire in the past, or with any liberal conception of co-operation for the future. It is apparent that in dealing with naval affairs Sir Wilfrid is moving in an unfamiliar atmosphere, using terms of strategic significance which he does not understand."

"The Canadian ex-Premier is reported to have remarked that Great Britain, in pursuance of her 'new naval strategy,' has concentrated her efforts in home waters whereas formerly she had vessels in every sea. There is no such naval strategy. The strategic principles underlying disposition of fleets have undergone no change. Owing to developments on the continents of Europe, we have today more than one sea frontier; it is necessary to build up a considerable naval force in the Mediterranean, which is a vital artery of Imperial relations and important trade, vital to Canadian interest. Canadian credit and commerce."

The Telegraph then throws out a suggestion, and says the discussion of naval problems in the dominions points to an absence of unity of thought between the Admiralty and statesmen overseas the 'only remedy for this increasing confusion of words and acts is a conference. The mistake committed last summer was in dealing with Premier Borden in isolation. There should have been a conclave of the Empire. Only thus could the late unhappy incidents in Canada have been prevented. The time was ripe for a free and full exchange of views between the Imperial ministers and their naval and military experts on one hand and responsible ministers for the overseas states on the other. The opportunity will occur again as soon as the naval bill has passed the Dominion House of Commons."

"The whole Empire will suffer in prestige if the Imperial aid offered by the Canadian Government is after all withheld by a vote of the Senate, as Laurier's speech suggests. The mere possibility of such an affront to a responsible Cabinet and to the ideal it cherishes ought to be avoided at all costs."

WHITE SLAVERS IN THE CITY?

An Attempt in Eagle Place—Are Operations Being Conducted Here?

What indications of attempted operations of white slavers is the topic of conversation among the residents of Echo Place. The rumor has it that on Monday night a young lady who was on her way home from the business section of the city to the southern section of the city, and when near the corner of Erie and Eagle Avenue, was accosted by a middle-aged lady who asked her the way to Cayuga street, to which she replied, "I'm just going that way, come along and I'll show you." The elderly lady accepted the invitation and walked along with the girl who soon found herself becoming sick and dizzy and screamed. The girl said that woman put her hand on the back of her head and was administering chloroform. After the girl screamed, the woman ran and jumped into a carriage, which was following close behind, and drove away. The Eagle Place folk say that the case looked very much as if white slavers were operating in the city.

Some months ago the police received a report that a similar attempt had been made in Grandview district.

Six Nations Council

At the regular monthly meeting of the Six Nations Council, held at Ohsawaken yesterday, the case of Thomas Turner, who is at present living on the Reserve in a destitute condition, was taken up, and it was decided to get in communication with his sisters, who reside in the United States. They have been sending small sums for his maintenance, and it will be ascertained if they cannot contribute a little more to his upkeep.

A Record

The information was laid yesterday afternoon and also the information was given that Simons was in the city. He was served with a summons at the Grand Trunk station yesterday afternoon, just as he was about to leave the city. It is also alleged that "booze" is procurable on Sunday.

THOSE CHARGES

The Proudfoot charges against Sir James Whitney and Hon. Mr. Hanna were again ventilated in the Ontario House yesterday.

A majority report of the committee of enquiry declared that nothing of an unworthy nature had been disclosed against them. A minority report, on the other hand, asserted that both had been caught red-handed in a nefarious transaction, and indicated what is described as a most incriminating stolen letter.

Contra readers are familiar with the circumstances. The charge is that a firm having unsettled claims against the government contributed $500 to the Conservative campaign fund, and that settlement was then speedily in order. As to the latter point, Mr. Cartwright, Deputy Minister, has sworn that he made settlement on his own initiative, and that no pressure was placed upon him by either Whitney or Hanna.

As to the ethics of party fund contributions, that is a somewhat difficult subject. Both the Conservative and Liberal sides have a strong feeling that there can be no doubt at all about that. The keeping up of organizations, both general and local, is expensive work, and cash from party adherents has to be obtained, and is obtained. As to that, it may be remarked that it has never been alleged that the $500 in question was used for improper purposes.

One amusing feature is the holy horror of the Toronto Globe.

That paper swallowed the Minnie M. trip, with its gang of pluggers, who voted for dead men and asses, and were told that they need not fear to kiss the Bible, as the book to be handed them had only the covers, and the inside was secular stuff. It also swallowed the attempted bribing of Gagey, ballot-burner, and all the rest of it, of the Rose regime. It did have one virtuous spasm when it pretended that the barnacles must be removed with an "iron hand." Nary a barnacle was budged, and the Globe will continue to fight for and uphold a Government responsible for so much rascality that the people rose in their might and almost wiped the Liberal following out of existence.

Now, forsooth, in this $500 episode the organ sees nothing but the blackest and most criminal rascality.

What do you think of that?

SOME SAMPLE GRIT BOSH

The Peterboro Examiner, owned by Hon. Mr. Stratton, in its issue of Monday had the following editorial:

Information has come to the Examiner that there will be an organized effort to create a "row" at the great Laurier meeting in the Arena, Toronto, to-night. This is a most improbable and probable thing, and it is not that the Ontario people of intellect and culture, Toronto, in the good, can contemplate the wanton selfishness of laws of publicity as to offer such an indignity to the most distinguished being Canadian, who has never forgotten either courtesy or fairness in his attitude to his opponents. It is probable, too, for if the Conservative majority of Parliament at Ottawa have so far departed from British feeling as to use the accidental majority to gag their opponents, representing half the people of Canada; if the dominant majority of the House, of which Toronto sends five, are really representative, they could not expect that their denial of free speech in Parliament would be reflected in their constituents in Tory Toronto to the Good.

The above is the kind of absolute trash with which some Grit papers and their readers, whom they evidently do not regard as possessed of any ordinary intelligence.

As a matter of fact, "Tory Toronto" has always shown the greatest possible courtesy to Sir Wilfrid, although every properly slamming his candidate whenever they have the opportunity.

BETTER HIGHWAYS

One of the most pressing needs of Ontario is improved roadways.

Why in the name of common sense the residents of towns and villages and country districts have been content to passively put up with bad roads is something which the average mortal is quite unable to fathom.

In this connection it is announced that the appointment of a Highway Commission for the Province is likely to take place shortly.

The difference between good roads and bad roads is the difference between progress and stagnation. The tax for good roads is fractional compared with that levied by bad roads.

Recipients of this year's convention of Ontario Good Roads Association (at which practically every county in the Province was represented) follow:

LIBERALS NOT ENCOURAGED

Toronto Meeting Did Not Bear the Fruit Expected of it.

OTTAWA, May 7. — An Opposition caucus was the first result of the return of the four Liberal champions from Toronto. The caucus unanimously decided to insist on ratification of the closure.

It became perfectly apparent before the end of the day that the heart-searching council of Ontario Liberals in Toronto, which the Arena meeting was the outward and visible accompaniment, brought small comfort to the men who have stood between Canada and the defence of the Empire on the sea. Sir Wilfrid Laurier went to Toronto to find out, with the aid of special trains, what Ontario Liberals thought of his naval policy. He found out, and to-day the Opposition looked as if it had seen its grandmother's ghost. Sir Wilfrid was not in the least deceived by the big turnout for his evening meeting. He has had such a turnout before in Toronto, and he has not come back to Ottawa thinking this one meant anything before than painstaking organization.

The Opposition will go on talking in the House until the closure is applied. They will not be averse to "gag" a number of times and call upon their friends of the Senate to throw out the Naval Bill. They began to-day. Their desire to have the bill passed under closure will be gratified, probably before the end of the week.

The Liberal Senators are talking of doing what the Commons Liberals want them to do, but they are not a unit; some of the more prominent and responsible Liberals in the Upper House are known to be averse to being made the "goat" by the blockers in the Commons. They realize that their action, if they kill the Naval Bill, will react upon the Senate, without the least hope of bringing about a dissolution, and this prospect does not look to them as a good business. A considerable number of their colleagues are, however, eager to frustrate the will of the elected majority in the House of Commons, whatever the consequence to themselves. The blockers in the Commons are endeavoring to keep them in that frame of mind.

ATTEMPT TO WRECK OLD CATHEDRAL

Dastardly Attempt Made By Militants in Old Land To-day.

LONDON, May 7.—An attempt to wreck the ancient St. Paul's Cathedral by a bomb early to-day is attributed to the militant suffragettes. The verger who conducts sightseers through the massive edifice was making his rounds at about 8 o'clock this morning when he noticed a ticking sound near the high altar. Upon investigation he found hidden a heavy parcel done up in brown paper. He immediately placed it in water and inflated it over to the police, who found a suffragette newspaper wrapped up with the bomb. This attempt and the placing of two other bombs in other parts of the city this morning made it appear that the militant suffragettes had entered anew on their havoc-working campaign. Following the defeat of the woman suffrage bill in the House of Commons last night. Shortly after the discovery at the cathedral the police found a similar parcel lying on the steps of a newspaper office in Fleet street, and a tin canister believed to contain explosives was found on the steps of a wholesale drug company near St. Paul's.

Arrests were made following the discoveries, and it is doubtful if the police have clues to the identity of the bomb throwers. The various parcels are awaiting examination by experts.

The bomb from St. Paul's Cathedral was examined at the Bridwell police station and later at the Home Office by the Government experts.

The bomb was painted black and contained two detonators attached to among other things with a substance resembling pieces of coal. The police are confident that it was placed in position by militant suffragettes or persons in their employ.

The general public is admitted to the choir aisles of St. Paul's Cathedral between eleven o'clock in the morning and half past three in the afternoon. The cathedral was closed entirely at six o'clock last evening and it appears certain that the bomb was deposited before that hour. It was found beneath a chair beside the bishop's throne at the end of the choir.

The dean conducted evensong near the bishop's throne last evening but neither he nor the verger then noticed the package, or heard the ticking of the clock.

DOINGS IN LEGISLATURE

Debate on Committee's Report Continued To-day.

Toronto, Ont., May 7.

When the Legislature opened at ten o'clock this morning, I. Hart of Simcoe opened the debate of the report of the committee on privileges and elections. He complimented some of the Opposition on the manly stand they had taken. As to the criticism that the Liberals had only a small representation, that was owing to the fact that the electors of Ontario had sent such a small number of Liberals to the legislature.

Mr. Hart reviewed the proceedings in the committee, claiming that the withdrawal of the Liberal members was a carefully staged game, played in a way which could deceive nobody.

Referring to Proudfoot as the "lord high executioner," in the case, the speaker intimated him with being afraid to take the oath. The Liberals had yesterday detailed scraps of conversation heard on street corners and read scraps from newspapers but had failed to bring up any of the evidence given before the committee in which reputable men on both sides of politics had declared there was no truth in the charges.

Before the committee, said Mr. Hart showed that "this man, Maisonneville and his associates, Mr. Proudfoot and the leader of the Opposition has not one jot or tittle of evidence that was worth looking at by honest men."

"The committee hear dman wyt-witnes," said Mr. Hart, "and these same witnesses proved that this man Maisonneville and his associat, Mr.

on duty in St. Paul's for several weeks for the express purpose of preventing militant suffragette outbreaks, but they observed nothing wrong.

Several parts of the cathedral usually opened to the public were closed to-day.

Suffragette "arson squads" were also busy early this morning. They burned down a pavilion on the cricket field at Bishops' Park, Fulham in the west end of London; and also set fire to an unoccupied house at Finchley in the north of London. Suffragette placard and quantities of chemicals were found in the vicinity of both fires.

No trace of the destroyers of St. Catharine's Church, Hatcham, which was burned yesterday, has been discovered. The woman arrested on the charge of placing an explosive on the steps of the Grand Hotel was discharged to-day for lack of proof.

Another mysterious fire broke out at a timber yard in Lambeth to-day, the fourth of this kind in London within a few days. It was extinguished before much damage had been done.

Proudfoot, acted as anything else but honest men."

Z. Mageau, Sturgeon Falls, paid a high tribute to Hon. W. J. Hanna, therefore any remarks he should make would refer to him as a public servant.

IS YOUR CHEST "WHEEZY?"

Tightness and wheezing means your trouble is deep-seated. To delay is dangerous. Inflammation must be drawn out at once. Rub the throat and chest with Nerviline, and put on a Nerviline Porous Plaster. Relief comes in an hour. The counter-irritant effect of the plaster relieves the tightness and strain, draws out the soreness, eases the pain. The penetrating qualities of Nerviline enable it to soak to the very core of the trouble, and you experience a feeling of warmth and relief that proves the danger is past. For weak chest, sore throat and tendency to colds, the Nerviline Treatment beats all others, try it.

A MEETING AT HOSPITAL

The Governors Discussed Various Matters Yesterday.

The Hospital Board met yesterday afternoon. Directors present: C. H. Waterous, President; G. Watt, Dr. Bell, T. H. Preston, F. D. Reville, Mr. Symonds, A. Bunnell, Mr. Sanderson, Warden Kendrick. A letter was received from Miss Blott expressing hearty thanks for kind resolution of the Board.

A report was read from Miss Carson, superintendent, showing that during April 72 patients were admitted and 50 discharged. During the period there were six deaths. Number in residence at the Hospital at the time of the report 52. Miss Carson also reported that she was having a great deal of trouble with the nightwatchman and the orderly each wanted more pay.

With regard to domestic help, an employment bureau bringing out Old Country girls will be consulted. It was decided to increase the stipend of the orderly from $25 to $30 a month and that the case of the nightwatchman be looked into. Miss Carson also recommended that an electric fan be placed in the kitchen, and this it was decided to grant. Schultz Bros will be notified that they can put a laundry over the engine house at a cost of $1,525.

Dr. Bell reported that when the nurses removed to the new home there would be four or five extra rooms. A letter was also read from the Otis, Fenson Co., offering to change the present hydraulic elevator to an electric elevator at a cost of $1,235. After discussion it was decided to first consult Mr. C. Herod of Brantford.

Mr. C. H. Waterous, reported that Mrs. J. Waterous, president of the Ladies' Aid had phoned him that the association were prepared to assume responsibility for electric lighting in the Nurses' Home. They were asked to go ahead with a "God bless you." The ladies also wished to know the color of the walls and it was decided to have a joint meeting with them and the buildings and grounds committee of the board.

An offer was read from Mr. Frank Johnson to have the Dufferin Rifles band play a sacred concert in the hospital grounds Sunday week. It was gratefully accepted and a vote of hearty thanks passed to the Salvation Army band for a similar consideration recently.

The question as to whether the lighting of the hospital should be Western Counties or Hydro Electric came up. Mr. C. H. Waterous was empowered to look into the matter. It was reported that $10,000 worth of insurance had been placed on the new home for the nurses and the matter of insurance on the new main buildings, which are fireproof, was left over.

Mr. Symonds asked as to the provision of a silent ward for obstetrical cases, instead as now of having other patients disturbed. It was pointed out that such a ward was provided in the new building now under course of construction. A number of accounts were passed and the meeting then adjourned.

Shot Down

Young Clerk Was Victim Before Thousands in Brooklyn.

NEW YORK, May 7—David Mizner, a young clerk, was the victim of a spectacular murder in a busy section of Brooklyn last night. Three gangsters who had trailed him across the Williamsburg bridge, shot him down in sight of thousands on the bridge plaza, firing several times into the body after the man fell. One of the men slipped away while his companions held up the crowd, firing into the air before making an attempt to escape. Followed by hundreds of men and women the two men fled into buildings, but were captured by police. A girl who burst through the crowd and threw herself on the murdered man's body, declared that it was that of her brother. She was Lillian Mizner.

The two men captured were Salvatore Andrella and Chas. Friedman. The police say that the killing was probably due to a feud between the "Bear Cat" Levy gang and "Ciarella" gang. Mizner is said to have been a member of the former.

AN EXPLANATION RE ICE CREAM.

The proprietor of the Blue Ribbon Confectionery store, 70 Erie avenue, wishes to express his regret to those of his patrons who were unable to get served with ice cream on Saturday night last and assures them that he will triple his supply in the future so that there will be no further disappointment. The run on Neilson's ice cream was beyond all our expectations which only shows how much the Brantford people appreciate its excellent qualities. Remember the address, 70 Erie avenue.

Wise mothers who know the virtues of Mother Graves' Worm Expeller always have it at hand, because it proves its value.

WILL PROTEST LEGISLATION

Brantford Library Board Does Not Like New Library Act.

The regular monthly meeting of the Public Library board was held in the board room at 8 o'clock last night. Those present were D. J. Waterous, chairman; F. W. Ryerson, Lt. Col. Howard, M. K. Halloran, T. Hendry and E. J. Carlin.

Books and Newspapers. The committee on books and newspapers brought in a report authorizing the purchase of 100 books on fiction. The committee deem it necessary not to spend money at the present time on standard works, but feel that it is necessary that all books on fiction should be kept up to date and thus supply the public.

The Board Protests. With regard to the proposed new Public Library act the board on a motion of Mr. Thomas Hendry, seconded by Mr. E. J. Carlin, passed the following resolution:

"That this board strongly protests against the impending changes in the Public Libraries Act, whereby the government of the libraries will be placed in the hands of the teaching profession, and we hereby endorse the formal protest of the Executive of the Ontario Library Association which was filed with the Minister of Education on May 2nd, and that a copy of this resolution be forwarded to the Minister of Education and W. S. Brewster." Carried.

Buildings and Grounds. The Buildings and Grounds committee brought in the following report:

The architect Mr. Lloyd D. Barber has completed the plans and specifications for the proposed extension to the Public Library building. Mr. Barber and the members of your committee met and carefully went over the plans and specifications, and believe that they are now complete in every detail, copies of which are here for your inspection. We recommend that tenders for the work be now asked for.

The tenders are being called for. The alterations and extensions to the Library will principally affect the stock room and will make the library with regard to the standard works practically a reference library.

The Armenians of the city are holding a mass meeting in Victoria Hall on Friday night, at which Mayor Hartman has been asked to preside, to discuss the abolition of Turkish rule.

A Coincidence.

On Market street a store has been divided. On one side of the partition a barber shop has been established, and for the other side a notice is in the window announcing that a gentleman named "Shear" will occupy the premises.

St. Andrew's Club.

The St. Andrew's Athletic Club held their weekly meeting last night, when general business of the club was discussed. A tennis club has been formed, and is under the supervision of the sports committee. The club expect to start playing by Victoria Day.

A Presentation.

Sergt. R. Murray of A Company was made the recipient of a beautiful gold pocket and fob, inscribed with the regimental motto, "The eye of his regimental coat for the West, on Monday night after drill, subscribed for by his comrades in A Company. Roy has been with the company for the past ten years, and as sergeant since 1906 has always done faithful and efficient service. A good shot, ever a willing worker, Sergt. Murray was most popular with the boys, and though it is with regret he leaves A Company, all wish him the greatest success in our grand West. Captain Colquhoun made the presentation, and in a very fitting speech thanked Sergt. Murray for all his good work, wishing him all the best possible success in his new home.
Sergt. Murray replied very feelingly, thanking the boys for all their kindness.

Zion Church Guild.

On Monday evening a very pleasant and profitable evening was spent by the Young People's Guild of Zion Church. It being educational meeting, Miss Jessie Mitchell presided, and Mr. A. W. Burt, principal of the B. C.
I., gave an address on "Dickens." The speaker sketched the career of the great English novelist, and read selections from "David Copperfield," which showed his characteristics, and incidents from his life as recorded by himself in that book. Mr. Burt very cleverly impersonated "Dickens," Miss Dickens' father, and other characters. His denunciation of the villain, Heep, proved most dramatic and thrilling. The address was most entertaining and created a vivid interest in the further reading of the works of Charles Dickens. Miss Olive Hall played a delightful piano solo, after which the meeting closed with the Mizpah benediction. This was the closing meeting of the educational department for the season, under whose auspices the members of the Guild have enjoyed many profitable hours during the past winter.

LOOK YEARS YOUNGER! GRAY HAIR
DARKENED BEAUTIFULLY WITH SAGE

Says Sage and Sulphur Will Stop Falling Hair and Cure Dandruff.

Common garden sage brewed into a heavy tea with sulphur and alcohol added, then left to age and carefully filtered will turn gray, streaked and faded hair beautifully dark and luxuriant; remove every bit of dandruff;
stop scalp itching and falling hair.
Just a few applications will prove a revelation if your hair is fading, gray or dry, scraggy and thin. Mixing the Sage Tea and Sulphur recipe at home, though, is troublesome. An easier way is to get the ready-to-use tonic, costing about 50 cents a large bottle at drug stores, known as

"Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy," thus avoiding a lot of trouble. Some druggists make their own but it isn't nearly so nice as "Wyeth's."

While wispy, gray, faded hair is not sinful, we all desire to retain our youthful appearance and attractiveness. By darkening your hair with "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur" no one can tell, because it does it so naturally; so evenly. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush and draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. Do this to-night and by morning all gray hairs have disappeared, after another application or two it will be restored to its natural color and be even more glossy, soft and luxuriant than ever.
Local druggists say they are selling lots of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur" and it surely helps folks appear years younger.

The Brantford Roofing Company have made rapid strides since their incorporation and are now one of the foremost and well known concerns in the Dominion of Canada.

Trades and Labor.

bor Hall to-night.

Cadets Get Prizes.

Cadets carried off two prizes at the Canadian Cadet Tournament at Tor-

Oxtoby and the Collegiate Institute trustees. The prizes secured were as follows: The R. S. Williams' silver bugle—Shooting, junior cadets—1st, Brantford Collegiate Institute; 2nd, Bolton Avenue school. Officers of the 36th Peel Regiment silver cup—valuable cattle, is as many months, caused by a disease upon which veterinary surgeons disagree as to its nature. Another farmer living near Ayr, has had his herd quarantined recently by a Dominion Government official who paid a visit to his farm, as there were some cattle of his suffering from a form of the disease.

Disgraceful Tactics Pursued by Proudfoot

Thorne, in the letter, states that during his investigation "some very improper suggestions and advances were made by certain persons" but the letter does not give names. At the end of the letter are significant postscripts.

"Please return copy of agreement, copy of award, and McNaught's letter," evidence that for some reason Thorne was putting in the hands of Hon. Mr. Hanna's bitter enemy documents to back up even such a tall statement as his letter was.

The final postscript reads: "The Whitney Government, as such, were as close to an overthrow as December 1 as it is possible to go. The fuse was ready and the match lit."

Many Questions Asked.

When Mr. Proudfoot finished reading he had to face a volley of thrusting questions from Government benches.

"Who is Harry?" asked Sir James, with pointed sarcasm.

Mr. Proudfoot thought the Prime Minister could draw his own conclusions.

"Where did you get the letter?" asked one member. How much did you pay for it?" asked another.

Mr. Proudfoot, amid a chorus of jeering, insisted that the letter had not been secured from Maisonneville by himself or his colleagues, that he did not know Maisonneville, then G. H. Ferguson, chairman of the Committee on Privileges and Elections, pointed out that Mr. Proudfoot had only read from a copy, and the Hon. member had to promise to deposit the original with the Speaker.

In agreeing he expressed surprise that the Government members should be so anxious for it when they had refused to accept it when it had been proffered in the committee. They would have touched it then with a ten-foot pole.

The Centre Huron member then proceeded to criticize the action of the committee in shutting off inquiry into the coal contracts and self-feeder matter, while allowing Hon. Mr. Hanna to make what he termed a "grand stand play" with his statement.

"That," he said, "was only a little piece of by-play. It looked as though the whole thing had been framed up so that the statement would be brought out in that way."

For this rash remark Mr. Proudfoot was thoroughly rebuked.

"I would like to call to the hon. member's recollection," Mr. Hanna remarked quietly, "that under oath in the box I said it was not framed up. That it was not a matter of arrangement between me and the Chair."

Mr. Proudfoot accepted the Minister's statement, but persisted that the object of the committee had been to get the statement made public, while refusing to permit the Opposition to introduce any evidence upon the points covered.

Sought Legal Advice.

Taking up the refusal of the committee to accept the Maisonneville letter, Mr. Proudfoot read an opinion by Sir Alan Aylesworth that the letter was admissible as evidence. From that he passed on to a perusal of the Criminal Code, quoting extracts and letters from counsel to the effect that the action of Taylor in giving the $500 contribution was an offence against the code, and of Hon. Mr. Hanna in receiving it also an offence. A letter from H. Dewar, K.C., Mr. Proudfoot's counsel, expressed the opinion that s. 158, read in connection with s. 69, made the Minister guilty of a criminal offence, although possession could not be entered after the expiration of two years.

Mr. Proudfoot next turned to a consideration of the subject matter of the charges, and had not gone far before he found himself in deep water. Calling himself by the Maisonneville letter he recited as facts that the methods used to get the file were those set forth by Thorne as given in the letter.

"The Speaker," protested Sir James, "is that man to be allowed to read and repeat falsehood after falsehood because he reads it from the letter. No man ever gave testimony that effect and if he did he is a liar, and the man who repeats it is a traducer, like the hon. gentleman."

Mr. Rowell rose to protest, but Sir James said that the language was warranted. "I venture to say," he said, "I believe no other hon. gentleman would dare to stand up retelling what he does not know to be true, but what he has no knowledge of its truth. As long as he stands there reading statements against myself made by some Tom, Dick, or Harry, as long as he is allowed I will be silent."

The Centre Huron member retorted that if the statements made had not been proved it was because he was not allowed to present evidence by which they could have been proved.

Mr. Ferguson objected to this. Mr. Proudfoot, he said, had been given ample opportunity to ask witnesses with reference to statements made in the letter. The committee objected that when the counsel for Mr. Proudfoot attempted to put the letter in evidence.

The hon. member began again to deal with statements made in the letter and again Sir James objected.

"This man dares to stand up here with a face of triple brass," said Sir James, "and suggests that because Tom tells Dick that you have proved that what Tom said to Dick was true, I ask whether the time has not come when this man should be put down."

Mr. Proudfoot asked the speaker if the Prime Minister's language was parliamentary, and was told in reply that he should confine himself more closely to the subject matter of his charges.

A moment later Sir James arose to object to audible comments by persons under the galleries whom he described as the "tail" of the Opposition. A warning by the Speaker prevented a repetition of the incident.

Mr. Proudfoot went on for another hour, "droning" as Sir James put it, interrupting when weariness forced him to it. He covered the whole case and quit only when he had exhausted his material.

Brewster Speaks.

W. S. Brewster (South Brant), declared as a member of the committee that there wasn't a single iota of evidence taken before the committee that in any way implicated Sir James Whitney in these charges.

"The mistake made by those who preferred the charges was that they failed in the first principle of British law, that a man is innocent until he is proved guilty. They assumed that Sir James Whitney and Hon. Mr. Hanna were guilty."

Mr. Brewster held up to public gaze the spectacle of the Opposition members of the committee making a dramatic and indignant exit from the committee room when they found their case had collapsed.

"I say here, and I say it boldly," said Mr. Brewster, "that not a word has been proved in that investigation that reflects upon the honor and integrity of the Provincial Secretary, either as a man or a Minister."

The Brant member insisted that Thorne's letter to Maisonneville was properly ruled out, since that at the time that letter was attempted to be put in Thorne himself was in the box to give evidence.

The inquiry into the coal tenders was also properly prevented, since Mr. Proudfoot had, through skillful counsel, avoided making charges with respect to the matter.

In closing he declared that Sir James Whitney and Hon. W. J. Hanna had come out of the investigation with clean hands, that there had not been even a suggestion that one dollar of the people's money had been improperly spent by any department, but that a minister of the government had been guilty of a corrupt act any kind.

Respects Mr. Hanna

Dr. McQueen of North Wentworth came next. His opening remark was greeted with ironical applause by the Government members.

"At no time have I stood up to speak with more reluctance than I do now," he said.

The cheers did not disconcert the doctor.

"But I am not ashamed to stand here," he added. Continuing, he said that he deeply regretted the charges made against Hon. Mr. Hanna.

"Why do you regret it?" asked Dr. Forbes Godfrey.

"I regret it because I respect the man," replied the Wentworth member, going on to pay a warm tribute to the devotion of the Provincial Secretary to the public interest.

"I'd be the first man to congratulate him if he was entirely free of blame," he said, going on to declare that, whether the Minister was guilty or not, the people were not able to tell because a full investigation had not been given. Only through an inquiry by a Royal Commission could the matter be cleared up.

J. W. Johnson (West Hastings), as a member of the Public Accounts Committee, ridiculed the efforts of the Opposition before that committee to dig up something upon which they could base charges. They had utterly failed to do so, and the people passing judgment upon the facts proffered at that statement of the case agreed with that statement of the case.

H. Munro (Glengarry) wanted to move the adjournment of the debate when his turn came, but he had to go on. He criticized the committee for being predisposed in favor of Sir James and Hon. Mr. Hanna, and elaborating this argument declared that the members had "cheered the prisoner."

"Mr. J. Foy suggested that he amend this, and the members cried 'Withdraw,' which the Glengarry member did."

Mr. Munro passed on to protest against the shutting out of enquiry and brought Hon. Mr. Hanna to his feet.

"Do you make the slightest suggestion in any shape or form with regard to coal tenders?" he asked.

"No, I don't," replied Mr. Munro. "Is there a member of the Opposition or a man in this House who could for one second stand up in his place and make a suggestion of wrong doing in regard to coal tenders or underfed stokers?"

"I am not making any charges," said Mr. Munro. "I have no information that would lead me to believe there was anything wrong. I don't wish to leave the impression of making charges against anybody." But Mr. Munro insisted that if there were nothing to hide they should have been no barking of inquiry as he held there had been.

The news received in this city last evening of the death in England (whether he had gone in the quest of health) of Mr. Wilgress, came as a great shock to him many Brantford friends. Mrs. Wilgress and Miss Dorothy are now in mid-ocean, having sailed from New York last week, on the receipt of the message conveying the news of his illness at London.

Do many housekeepers know I wonder; that newspapers are said to be quite as efficacious in keeping away moths as camphor, cedar, tar, or any other preparations?

All that is necessary is to wrap the winter wearables securely in newspapers and stow them away in the closet. Moths will not eat through newspaper which they detest, and in the autumn one's last season's wear will not betray by its haunting odor of moth balls, the hibernation through the summer. It is most important, however that articles to be put away shall be thoroughly aired and sunned first, to prevent any danger of the hatching of already deposited larvae after the wrapping up has been done. Several thickness of newspaper should be used for each garment and the ends of the bundle should be sealed with drops of sealing wax, the bundle also being securely tied with strong twine. On no occasion should pins be thrust through the newspaper to afford ingress to the pests.

The Amir of Afghanistan has taken up golf keenly, says the Bombay correspondent of the London Daily Mail. He has good links made in the neighborhood of Kabul. The natives have been much puzzled by the well kept greens, but recognizing that the game is a royal one, they have put the holes to practical purpose. They have got into the habit of placing petitions into the holes at night in the hope that they will reach the Amir when he is putting on the next day. But his Majesty's temper apparently has not been improved by the royal game. He resents this attempt to take advantage of his creations, and has ordered that all such petitions are to be burned unread.

A young beaver in Regent's Park Gardens, London, was once placed at work upon a tree twelve feet long and two feet six inches thick, just as the town clocks sounded the hour of noon. The beaver began by barking the tree a foot above ground. That done he attacked the wood. He worked hard, alternating his labor with dips in his bathing pond. He bathed and labored alternately until four o'clock in the afternoon, when he ate his supper of bread and carrots and paddled about in his pond until half past five o'clock. Ten minutes later when only one inch of the tree's diameter remained intact, he bore upon his work and the tree fell. Before it fell the beaver ran as fast as men run when they have fired a blast. Then as the tree lay on the ground he portioned it out mentally and began to gnaw. He worked at intervals all night; cut the log into three parts, rolled two of the portions into the water, and reserved the other third for his permanent shelter. The work done, he took a bath.—Harper's Weekly.

Busy Days

By WALT MASON

Throughout the land the cheerful grangers are planting corn or sowing seeds, or heading off the pesky dangers that come from amplitude of weeds. The gleaming plowshare splits the prairie, the harrow drags its length along; the hired man lifts a folksong merry, and listens for the dinner gong. Oh, every thinking man indorses the horny-handed son of toil who deftly prods his mules, or horses and leaves his trade mark on the soil. In town we're trading, selling, buying, producing nothing as we go, the while the husbandman is trying to make his corn and taters grow. In town we do a lot of talking of things that don't amount to shucks, and while we keep the welkin rocking, the farmer's raising hens and ducks. The grand old granger still produces the things that make the whole world fat, the hogs, the turkeys and the geese—there is no nobler job than that! While statesmen raise their useless shindy, while speculators blow their foam, while jaysmiths wend their pathway windy, the farmer's raising wheat and corn. So let us watch the earnest tiller pursue his miles across the flats; he is our bulwark and our pillar—to him we should take off our hats.

Canadian League Umpires and Batting Orders Announced

President Fitzgerald of the Canadian League announced that the following umpires will preside at the opening of the league games this afternoon: "Jocko" Halligan at London with St. Thomas. William Black at Guelph with Hamilton. Peter Daly at Brantford with Ottawa. McLaughlin at Berlin with Peterboro. The St. Thomas and London series are thus given the only arbitrator who has had experience in the Canadian League, as Halligan is the only member of last season's staff. Little difficulty is expected this year in the way of umpires, as President Fitzgerald has three excellent men in reserve should any of the above not be up to expectations. The opening day line-ups have been announced by the various club managers and everything is in readiness, and the only thing that will stop the big season all days in the four Canadian League cities is bad weather.

SPORTING COMMENT

By FREE LANCE

Brantford fans will like Frank Shaughnessy, the Ottawa manager. He blew into town last night with his Senatorial aggregation, tickled to death to have the opening clash with Brantford on a fair field. "Shag" was enthusiastic about his team. He has two pitchers, Lill and Rogers, who he says will set the world on fire, starting of course, in the Canadian League. Furthermore, Shaughnessy says his club will keep within the salary limit this year, and he will only carry 12 men. If he keeps his word, the Senators won't be quite so formidable as last year.

Manager Kane was escorted over to the ball game early this afternoon. His ankle is improving, but he is far from able to play ball yet. The team will have the benefit of his advice in the pinches, and that will help a whole lot. Amby will sit on the bench and direct team play. He is quite confident he has a good infield.

The new players recently secured by the Red Sox are worth all the recruits put together. Lindeburn is quite satisfactory. Tesch is a wonder, and Diem, who plays centre, looks also good. In fact, the workout yesterday surprised the railbirds, who sat up and remarked, "Let's have Ottawa."

Shaughnessy of Ottawa has had the same trouble filling the shortstop position as Brantford has had. He released Strawbridge last night and secured Tully from Reading, Pa. If Tully does not arrive to-day, Rowe will play short and Rogers right field. "Shag" has a world of confidence in the latter's ability to hit, declaring that if he could hit like him, Ty Cobb would have to go over the fences. From what we know of Rowe, he is also some ball player.

We authoritatively deny the rumor that Hon. W. J. Hanna will pitch the first ball to-day and Proudfoot receive it.

Some baseball fever in this town! Stores closing, schools off at 3 o'clock, and everybody baseball bugs!

We are glad to hear reports that Hamilton has a good ball team, in spite of the fact that they don't deserve it.

McCarthy, the Red Sox recruit catcher, will be held for a week or so, if not all summer. He is a fine hitter, and if he shows something on his next try-out he may land a berth.

The Day With the Platers.

Mausolus was the first of the King's Platers to do his day's task. He was so much the first that his work was completed before the watches were set for him. It was done about 4.30 in the morning and was said to be a mile in 1.46 2-5. (Continued on Page 10)

The Trinity Cricket Club will re-organize next week under a new name and will affiliate with the Brantford Cricket Association, there are several vacancies on this team and all cricketers who have not joined any club are requested to send their names to Mr. C. Bowden, of Ontario street or to J. F. Van-Lane, 212 Brant avenue, the acting secretaries of the club.

Grace church will be stronger than ever this season, Captain Usher being very confident of landing the Roberts and Van-Lane Cup. Lovers of cricket generally will be delighted to know that the Rev. H. F. D. Woodcock will play for Grace church in several of their games this year. Major Ashton will also play more regularly than last season.

The Opener To-Day Notes About Red Sox

Shaughnessy and Kane, two Irishmen fighting for supremacy. Could anything be more grand?

Don't forget the fact after its all over that Ottawa will be a team of sluggers. That's our dope.

Nothing flashy about Del'Orcutt, but a good ball player just the same.

Has the Mayor developed any speed?

Can Brewster bring the ball?

The Red Sox should be fast on the bases.

Diem, the new centre fielder is a grand thrower. He whips them in line.

Lindeburn is more than meeting expectations.

Kane is able to take a short hop on his weak ankle.

Donovan will probably pitch to-day.

Shaughnessy says nervousness will show itself to-day. Whoever knew ball players had nerves before?

The Courier will carry the scores on brand new bulletin boards.

Never were so many autos over there before.

If baseball interferes with—Oh shucks. What's the use saying it.

Honestly! Wouldn't you like to win that opening game?

What we want to-day is base hits and plenty of them. (Continued on Page 10)

FIRST GAME SATURDAY FOR HILL CHARITY CUP

Great Interest Taken in Football Game to be Played This Week—Proceeds For Tuberculosis Hospital.

Next Saturday the first match for the John Hill Charity Cup will be played at the Tutela grounds between Eons of England and Cockshutt's United. There should be a large attendance at this game for it is for a good cause and as there is not means of charging any admission, those in charge of the game will take up a collection among the crowd and depend upon their generosity for the "gate receipts." Both teams are rounding nicely into condition and the Hill Cup series are concerned, as the winner will with some other team, and so on down the line until the cup is won.

The teams will jump into the game the minute the whistle blows and those who take the trouble to journey to the Eagle Place grounds should be amply repaid for the trouble. The game should be fast and will no doubt be a strenuous one for the reason that the team that is defeated is down and out as far as the Hill Cup series are concerned, as the winner will with some other team, and so on down the line until the cup is won.

G. G. Gentry, who's wide knowledge of the game is well known in the city, will referee the match and he can be depended upon to keep the players well in hand and keep the game on the go and not allow it to lag.

There are two things in connection with the football league in the city that stand out very prominently, that is the good feeling among the players of the different teams and the clean-playing of the players during a match. So far, no case of undue roughness has been reported and this is assuredly due to the support of the footballers. The league officials requested that the games be all clean and have instructed the referees to that effect. The players have so far responded to this request. As long as the teams play clean football, they will assuredly have the support of the football enthusiasts and other people in general.

The game will start at 6 p.m. which give those who attend the baseball game in the afternoon plenty of time to get to Tutela Park to see the game.

The boys are all playing the game for the love of it, and deserve the hearty support of citizens who will no doubt turn out strong to this game as the proceeds "The Collection or the pass round of the hat will be given to the Tuberculosis Fund. So it is up to all who can possibly attend the game to be there and drop a quarter in the hat.

Remember the date, Saturday, May 10th. Remember the place, Tutela Park. Remember the teams, S.O.E. vs. Cockshutt's United. Remember the cause, Tuberculosis Hospital Fund.

Cockneys Downed the Cubans.
LONDON, Ont., May 7.—The Cuban Giants went up against London yesterday in a slashing conflict at Tecumseh Park and were defeated by a 5 to 4 count, much to the satisfaction of the 500 followers of the local Canadian Leaguers. The score:

TO SEE WORLD AND BUY RANCH IS AMBITION OF McCARTY

"I Don't Wish to Fight all My Life"—McCarty.

CHICAGO—"I don't wish to be a fighter all my life. I hope to make enough money in a few years to buy a ranch and settle down. But before I do this I want to make a trip around the world to see what other countries look like. Billy McCarty says I'm too young for such a trip, but he's forty years old and hasn't been around the world yet. So if I follow his advice, I'm gracious only knows if I'll ever make the trip."

Self-Styled
Seated on the table on which he had just been rubbed down and swinging his feet in schoolboy fashion, Luther McCarty, the self-styled champion white heavyweight of the world, who is cow-boy in his heart, a youth in manners and mind and an anarchist in all things, replied as above to a query by a reporter as to whether he intended to go to Europe to show the Englishmen and Frenchmen how well he can box.

McCarty had just concluded a strenuous day's training and a three-round bout with Al Kubiak. He had been working like a beaver using all his strength. After it was over he showed no signs of distress. Kubiak was puffing and blowing like a walrus after his hard exertions, but Luther to use a turfman's phrase "did not puff enough to blow out a candle."

Good Lungs.
This was visible proof of the fact that he has powerful lungs and that he can go a long hard battle without being distressed.

McCarty is nothing if not spectacular. He loves the limelight. Publicity is as the breath of life. Confidence is his middle name and he doesn't care who knows it.

Just Hates Himself.
He is self-reliant to a degree. This has spelled success for him and has enabled him to work his way from obscurity as a cowboy with little or no knowledge of boxing, to the kingpin among the white hope brigade. But if he could not "show off" much of the fun of being a champion fighter would be lost. To him the crowd's applause is meat and drink. He likes to be pointed out and to have the crowd say "that is Luther McCarty, champion fighter of the world."

Advertises Himself.
In order to gain this adulation of the fans McCarty spends much of his time mounted on a horse and dressed in the picturesque clothes of a cowboy. He has all the showman's inclination and desire to advertise himself. Dressed in a fancy velvet shirt, with woolly chaps incasing his legs, a big sombrero crowning his head and seated in the deep saddle the cowboy looked at once like a real cowboy. He was riding a fine bay horse named Rye, Larchmont and New Rochelle.

In the Saddle.
He is in the saddle at 6 o'clock in the morning and takes long rides. This in itself keeps him in good physical condition and when later he begins his training stunts in the gymnasium it is as hard as nails and ready for a strenuous bout with the gloves to finish up his day's work. He is not lazy and is willing to work hard to perfect his physical condition. He will never lose a bout because he is out of shape for a hard battle. Fans may always depend on him to be in shape to do his best when he enters the ring.

The Brants held their final practice yesterday afternoon and they looked fit and fine.

The addition of a shortstop and two new outfielders in the person of Lindeburn in left and Diem at center seemed to put new life and vigor in the boys.

For the first time this spring the Brants looked themselves yesterday afternoon when they jumped into practice full of confidence.

The boys displayed great form and have taken new life and from this out will make things hum.

"What a difference a few hours make," was once applied to the Red Sox, for what on Monday looked like a broken down outfit in a few hours was transformed into a fine looking team.

Wagner seems to be the man with the steam, and is going at an awful clip, but he has now a side partner who will keep him company.

Lady Marjorie's Love

"Delightful!" exclaimed the Countess. "But last night, when I drove home from the Vicarage it was a perfect deluge! I am so glad to see the sunshine—I hope it may last, for a perfectly selfish reason. I suppose you know that I am about to cease my shameless intruding upon Mr. Chadburn's courtesy, Mr. Barrington?"

"I think I understood that you meant to leave the Castle shortly. Was that Jack's bark and the scamping patter of his feet? He wondrously easily."

"Almost immediately," assented the Countess. "So soon indeed that if nothing unforeseen occurs I expect to take my departure on Saturday—the day after to-morrow. And that at once explains why I so hope the fine weather may last—I am a shivering traveler—and brings me to the fact, as I wished to say, I should so much have liked to thank Mr. Chadburn personally for his kindness, and I wrote to say that I hoped I might have the opportunity. To my great disappointment, I find that that is not possible. Mr. Chadburn writes to tell me that he regrets that business must detain him in town until Monday or Tuesday. Most provoking, is it not?"

Barrington gave no sign of his own inward conviction that Mr. Chadburn's "business" was nothing but an adroit excuse to avoid the thanks of her ladyship. That the master of Castle Marlingford would have appeared there long before but for the presence of the Countess he had known perfectly well, almost from the date of his own arrival. He did not know what reply he must bestow. Marjorie was coming at last. Without looking toward the staircase he saw her little black figure appear upon it, and saw also the dowager from the distant table raise her head and include her granddaughter and himself in a comprehensive glare. But the old eyes behind their twinkling glasses must have been excessively sharp indeed to see anything but the most formal and perfunctory courtesy in the greeting that passed between them. Barrington bowed merely as Mr. Chadburn's agent had a right to bow.

"Good morning!" The eyes she tried to raise fluttered and sank before they met his; she turned to her stepmother. "Good morning, Fenella!"

"Good morning, my dear," the Countess's cold eyes rested coolly and carelessly upon the pale face. "So you have made up your mind to come down," she added. "After keeping shut up all yesterday I really wonder whether you meant to appear at all. You look miserably white. Does your head ache?"

"Yes, it is a little. Fenella, Marjorie stammered guiltily, "I—I did not sleep well."

"You look as if you had not slept at all, child. The rain disturbed you, perhaps," Lady Marlingford's tone changed. "Speaking of being disturbed," she said, "I really wish you would get that tiresome dog quiet. He was barking terribly in the night—it was enough to awaken the whole household! What was the matter?"

"Oh," she said, with a breathless, frightened gaze, "I thought they would never go."

"They are both gone." It was the slightest and wide with apprehension, her hands shook as she clasped them in her lap, her face was as white as a lily.

MAKES RHEUMATISM PROMPTLY DISAPPEAR

Chronic, Crippled-up Sufferers Find Relief After Few Doses of New Remedy are Taken

It is needless to suffer any longer with rheumatism, and be all crippled up, and bent out of shape with its heart-wrenching pains, when you can surely avoid it.

Rheumatism comes from weak, inactive kidneys, that fail to filter from the blood, the poisonous waste matter and uric acid; and it is useless to rub on liniments or take ordinary remedies to relieve the pain. This only prolongs the misery and can't possibly be cured.

The only way to cure rheumatism is to remove the cause. The new discovery, Croxone, does this because it neutralizes and dissolves all the poisonous substances and uric acid that lodge in the joints and muscles, to scratch and irritate and cause inflammation, and cleans out and strengthens the stopped-up, inactive kidneys, so they can filter all the poison from the blood, and drive it on and out of the system.

Croxone is the most wonderful medicine ever made for curing chronic rheumatism, kidney troubles, and bladder disorders. You will find it different from all other remedies. There is nothing else on earth like it. It matters not how old you are, or how long you have suffered, it is practically impossible to take it into the human system without results. You will find relief from the first few doses, and you will be surprised how quickly all your misery and suffering will end.

An original package of Croxone costs but a trifle at any first-class drug store. All druggists are authorized to sell it on a positive money-back guarantee. Three doses a day for a few days is often all that is ever needed to cure the worst back-ache or overwork urinal disorders.

LONDON, May 6.—Miss Nina Boyle and Miss Anna Minro, militant suffragettes, who were arrested last evening, while attempting to hold a meeting in Hyde Park, when brought up at the police court today and charged, choosy fourteen days imprisonment in preference to the payment of a fine of five dollars each. "Of course we will not pay," they told the magistrate.

Dahlen Outwitted Evers BROOKLYN, May 7.—Brooklyn took the first game of the Chicago series here yesterday by a score of 4 to 3. Dahlen outwitted Evers in a battle of managerial wits over pinch hitters. In the seventh with the score 3 to 2 in favor of Chicago, Whear scored the tying run on singles by Fisher and Smith, the former taking second on the throw in. Erwin was sent to bat for Miller and he was passed intentionally. Evers expecting Ragzin to come next. Instead Dahlen called on Hummel, who furnished the hit that scored the winning run. Hank O'Day made his debut as an umpire. Score—

Boston's Lucky Run BOSTON, May 7.—With Wagner back in the game, Pittsburgh was defeated by Boston yesterday in a ten inning contest, the score being 3 to 2. The finish was a sensational one. Sweeney singled in the tenth, sacrificed, and Kirk batting for Mann lifted a high one to left. Carey, as he caught it bumped into the fence of the bleachers, the ball falling over and Sweeney came home with the winning run and Kirk was credited with a double. Score—

Ball Notes

The fans who have watched the players work out every day were kept hopping up and down on their seats in the stand yesterday when they noticed the vast and great improvement in the team play.

With Tesch playing shortstop, Wagner, the lightning second base man has at last found a player who is his equal in speed and fielding and the two should, if no unforeseen acci-dent occurs, make the greatest pair in the Canadian league.

The two seem to play to gether like old timers, and with a little more practice and confidence, in each other Tom Nelson will have a great and fast pair.

Tesch can field, that has been proven without a doubt, but can he hit? This remains to be seen. Well if he can hit half as good as he can field, the opposing teams will have their hands full.

Diem, the outfielder secured at the last moment, showed up well at practice back in the field and at bat, and should give a good account of himself in the near future. Evers and Orcutt can be depended upon to be there when the occasion demands, and now that Tesch has not acquainted with the combination of infield looks even better than ever and should compare very favorably with any infield in the Canadian League if not the superior of any other.

GRAND TRUNK SYSTEM NEWS ITEMS

Monday 6th May, 1913

Together Mr. P.C.B. Harvey, Dominion Parks Commissioner and Lt. Col. Maynard Rodgers, newly appointed Superintendent of Jasper Park are arranging for the building of several thousand dollars worth of roads in this new playground on the Grand Trunk Pacific main line. This will include one from Fitzburgh in the heart of the Rockies to Pyramid Lake, which has already gained the reputation of being one of the loveliest spots in the park. Trails will also be opened to the spectacular "Punch Bowl" Falls.

In addition to the splendid hotel to be erected in the Park by the G. T. P. Mr. T. Weiss of Minneapolis has made arrangements for the construction of a modern tourist house which will cost about $100,000.

Another attraction to be added this year is a buffalo herd stocked from the finest specimens in the Buffalo Park at Wainwright which are being divided into four separate paddocks for the purpose of more scientific breeding.

An official Grand Trunk Pacific party, including Mr. J.E. Dalrymple, Vice President, Mr. G.T. Bell, As- sistant Passenger Traffic Manager, Capt. G.H. Nicholson, Manager of the G.T.P. Steamship Co.; Mr. W.P. Hinton, General Passenger Agent; and Mr. A. E. McMaster, General Agent, recently visited the Granby Mines in the vicinity of Prince Rupert and were much impressed with the development work that has been done there.

The outstanding feature is the amount of actual mining that has taken place. Over three miles of tunnel have been dug and sufficient ore blocked out to keep the smelter busy for at least twelve years. It is estimated that when the smelter is completed and operations are to be conducted at full strength the works will support a population of from 2,500 to 3,000. At the present time more than 500 men are employed.

Another mammoth blast that will go down in civic history was fired the other day at Prince Rupert when a solid half of rock was reduced almost to dust by 50 tons of powder at an expenditure of $5,000. As usual notice was given beforehand and hundreds of citizens were attracted by the prospect of so spectacular an occurrence. The report, according to description was not sharp but deep, muffled and far-reaching. A cloud of inky smoke shot up blotting the eastern end of the harbor and distant mountains from view. Hundreds of yards from shore the surface of the harbor was a yellow froth. Then the smoke settled and thinned and what was left of the hill could be distinguished. There was a great heap of shattered and crumbled rock ready for the steam shovel.

FINE TELEPHONE SWITCH-BOARD

The Bell Telephone Company has just completed the installation of a new switchboard at the C. P. R. Windsor street station at Montreal, which is the largest commercial switchboard in Canada with a capacity of twelve hundred lines. The telephone is situated in the old tower and is well lighted and ventilated and of such a size that if it is necessary at any future time to extend the switchboard, ample room for such extension is provided. In arranging this important department the com- pany had the comfort of the opera- tors in mind and a special rest room has been prepared immediately above the operating room. This is furnished with easy chairs, sofas and reading and writing materials and everything has been done to make their quarters comfortable and home like. The new switchboard is what is known as the No. 4 lamp signal multiple board and has a great many improve- ments which were lacking in the old one, such as lamp-signals, audible busy tests and lamp disconnect sig- nals. At the present time it takes eight operators to handle the busi- ness, and has an ultimate capacity for ten positions. The board has been divided into two sections, the first four handling the originating business and the other four the in- coming business. Each position con- sists of two panels, making sixteen for the whole board. At the mo- ment the board is wired for five hun- dred local lines, the limit capacity as stated being twelve hundred lines. There are two hundred and twenty local lines and one hundred and sixty trunk lines. There are two hundred and twenty local lines in use and fifty trunk lines which will shortly be increased by fifty and forty respectively. During one day a total of 7,780 calls were handled, an average of 100 calls per operator per day. The other day a single hour record of calls showed the handling of 1,028.
