

WILL ASK CITY COUNCIL FOR LOCAL OPTION ELECTION

At Meeting of Representative Citizens Last Evening it Was Decided to Submit a Resolution to Council to Have Election in January.

Last night a public meeting under the joint auspices of the Royal Templars of Temperance, Brant County Temperance Alliance, W. C. T. U., and the Ministerial Alliance was held in the Y. M. C. A. The attendance was large and there was not a dissenting voice as to the advisability of putting on an election this coming January.

The time of petitioning the council for a local option vote expires November 1st, and therefore the meeting decided to submit the resolution asking the council to refer the matter to the people. If the council refuses to do this, then there will be no campaign, but the consensus of opinion last night was that no difficulty would be met with in that respect.

LOSS OF PIROT SEVERE BLOW TO SERBIANS

Leaves Road Open to Nish, and Invites a Strong Bulgarian Advance.

OFFICIAL REPORT ISSUED FROM SOFIA

Russian Fleet BombarDED Varna From Water and Air For Two Hours.

Amsterdam, via London, Oct. 30.—The following official communication from Sofia, dated October 27, has been received here: "After four days of obstinate fighting our troops have defeated on the entire front the Serbian army operating in the Timok valley and before Pirot."

SET SAIL FOR BULGARIA

Copenhagen, Oct. 30.—Large consignments of Russian troops have set sail from the Black Sea ports of Odessa and Sebastopol for the Bulgarian coast, the Berlin Tageblatt says.

SEVERE BLOW

Sofia, Oct. 30.—(Delayed)—The fall of Pirot this morning (Wednesday) was a severe blow to the Serbian army, since the reduction of this strong position leaves open the road to Nish and invites a strong Bulgarian advance towards the center of old Serbia.

MUST BE ON GUARD ALWAYS AGAINST HUNS

"Keep Silent, Be Careful, the Enemy is Listening," is Warning issued.

PREMIER BRIAND MAKES STATEMENT

No Change of Policy by New Cabinet, Which is Greeted Favorably in Paris.

Paris, Oct. 29, 9:55 p.m.—The Minister of War has sent to the military governors of Paris and Lyons and the generals commanding the military districts of France large placards reading as follows: "Keep silent; be careful, the enemy is listening."

London, Oct. 30.—The Times today publishes the following statement from Premier Briand, head of the new French cabinet: "I desire to declare emphatically to our allies as well as to our enemies that the change in the ministry is in no way a sign of change of policy. The policy of France is summed up in the words, 'VICTORY.'"

Paris, Oct. 30.—The new French cabinet is greeted by the press of Paris with sympathy and encouragement. The chief note in editorial comment is a demand for prompt, decisive action for "government which governs" independently of party considerations and solely with a view to victory.

The Figaro relies upon "the admirable qualities of Premier Briand and the good fortune of France." Stephen Pichon, former minister of foreign affairs, in The Petit Journal, calls upon the people to do everything possible to facilitate the heavy task before the new cabinet.

The Rappel says that the cabinet "holds all the trumps for reassuring the country, comforting its allies and disquieting the enemy." It declares that the Republic should be proud to have at its head representatives of all the great parties.

The leading Socialist organ "L'Humanite" says that the announcement of the new ministry will cut short the hopes of those who wished to trouble the parliamentary waters.

Gustave Herve, editor of Le Guerre Sociale and once distinguished as an anti-military agitator, calls the cabinet "a grand ministry of victory."

Excelsior expects the new ministers to practice among themselves and their followers the spirit of "sacred union."

First Prize for Austrian.

Stockholm, via London, Oct. 3.—It has been decided to award the Nobel prize in medicine for 1914 to Dr. Robt Barany, of Vienna university, for his work in the physiology and pathology of the ear. The prize for 1915 will be reserved until 1916.

WHILE THE CANNONS WERE ROARING IN FLANDERS

SHRAPNEL BURSTING OVER ALLIES' TRENCHES IN FLANDERS.

All reports from the scene of the recent titanic struggle in France and Flanders emphasize the overwhelming importance of the artillery in preparing the way for the actual advance of the infantry. For two days and nights preceding the infantry assaults the German trenches and entanglements were drenched with a rain of shell fire such as has never before been witnessed. The view above shows the smoke cloud caused by a 10.5 shrapnel shell bursting over the Allies' trenches. What fifty such shells bursting close together would look like we must leave to the imagination of the reader. In the foreground, near the sandbagged dugouts, is a 150 millimetre German shell which fell into the Allies' trenches, but did not explode.

Sir Charles Tupper Died This Morning

THE LATE SIR CHARLES TUPPER By Special Wire to the Courier. OTTAWA, Oct. 30.—A cablegram from Sir George Perley in London, to Sir Robert Borden, announces the death this morning of Sir Charles Tupper.

Roumania Worrying Greece

Athens, Greece, Oct. 30.—The favorable attitude which Roumania is reported to have adopted towards the Entente powers is engaging the close attention of the Greek government and general staff. A definite outcome of the negotiations of the Entente allies at Bucharest is awaited anxiously.

Good Results.

London, Oct. 30.—The Liverpool Post publishes a list of twenty German ships, aggregating more than 28,000 tonnage, sunk by British submarines in the Baltic Sea between Oct. 11 and 23 as follows: Luella, Germania, Director Reppenhausen, Nicomedia, Walter Leonhardt, Svania (or Svanon), Gertrude, Pyrgos, Emgard, Babylon, Pernambuco, Soderhamn, Johannes Russ, Dalarfven, John Wuit, Electra, Rondsburg, Glaven and two named Hernoasand.

KING GEORGE IS IMPROVING

Bulletin Issued Shows His Majesty Getting Sleep With Less Pain.

London, Oct. 30.—King George, who was injured on Thursday by being thrown from his horse while reviewing troops in the field, continues to improve. An official statement issued to-day says: "The King's condition shows further improvement. There has been some sleep and the pain is diminishing. Temperature and pulse are normal."

GEN. JOFFRE IN ENGLAND

Arrived Yesterday and Held Conference With Important Personages.

London, Oct. 30.—General Joffre, the French Commander-in-Chief, came to London yesterday. He went to the war office on his arrival. Shortly afterwards he and Earl Kitchener, the War Secretary, left together in an automobile.

General Joffre subsequently attended a conference in Downing St., at which were present Premier Asquith, Earl Kitchener, A. J. Balfour, David Lloyd George and several British and French military officers.

Earl Kitchener gave a dinner at York House, St. James' Palace, last night in honor of General Joffre. A distinguished company was present to meet the French Commander-in-Chief.

New American Minister.

Sofia, Oct. 29, via London, Oct. 30.—Louis Einstein, the first American minister credited solely to Bulgaria, presented his credentials to-day.

SERBIAN CAPITAL REMOVED; POSITION VERY DESPERATE

Austro-Germans Gradually Working Way Towards Great Serbian Arsenal—Severe Fighting on Austro-Italian Front.

London, Oct. 30.—The position of Serbia is becoming more desperate daily. Nish is threatened by the Bulgarians, while the Austrians and Germans are gradually opening the way towards the great Serbian arsenal at Gragyevez. Rome reports that the Serbian capital has been removed "to a certain point."

With the exception of the unofficial report that the French are now firmly in possession of Strumitza, no news has been received concerning the military movements of the Entente allies in the Balkans. From Bulgarian sources, admissions have been received that the sea ports recently bombarded suffered severely. A despatch says the Russian troops have set sail from Odessa and Sebastopol for the Bulgarian coast.

VANGUARD NEARING TORONTO

Big March of Forces From Niagara Continues—One Casualty in 58th.

Bronte, Oct. 30.—The artillery left Niagara Camp yesterday and remained in St. Catharines over night. As these guns are urgently needed by General X., it is expected the enemy will do his utmost to stop them from going forward and if possible to capture them. In order to protect the field pieces on the road the reinforcement draft of the 62nd Battalion is accompanying the artillery as an escort. The enemy believes that if he could secure one of these guns and mount it on Grimsby heights he could command the road through the village and stop the train. In such an event the rest of the reinforcements would have to be taken to Toronto by water and risk the submarines. Official reports state that the foe's submarine menace is a joke. General Loggie, Inspector-General of Communications, has no serious fears in that direction, as the daily sailings from Toronto are continuing as in times of peace.

The enemy made a weak attack this morning on the rear-guard of the 74th as it left Grimsby for Hamilton. Hamilton gave a warm welcome to the 74th, who marched into the city apparently little the worse for their 20-mile tramp. The scouts, who were relieved of their greatcoats, scoured the fields on each side of the road as they came along. This extra work was very severe upon the pioneers, Lieut. Mills takes no chances that might endanger the safe passage of the column. The 74th are reputed to have the most efficient scouts.

Only one casualty was reported by the 68th, as they encamped at Meriton, near Bronte, at 4 o'clock last evening. The men carried twelve pounds more weight in their kit than the other battalions, and they have the name of being the smartest battalions in the

MR. THOMAS RETURNING TO ENGLAND

At Sir Robert Borden's Request Shell Committee Put Under Imperial Control.

Ottawa, Oct. 30.—Sir Frederick Donaldson, the British expert from Woolwich Arsenal, and Gen. Mahon, who has been acting as technical advisor to Mr. D. A. Thomas, returned to Ottawa from their inspection trip to Maritime Province steel industries and were afterwards in conference with members of the Shell Committee. It will be remembered that the object of their eastern visit was to look over Canadian steel plants with a view to their adaptability for the manufacture of heavy artillery. While no definite statement is available at this stage, and while the two experts will visit all Canadian plants before compiling their report, it is learned that so far they have been favorably impressed with the availability of the industries they have inspected for a special purpose to which they may be put. Mr. D. A. Thomas leaves on Sunday for New York, en route home to England. While in New York, however, he will undergo a slight operation for an ailment which has been troubling him for some years, but the nature of which was not determined until he underwent an examination recently by New York physicians. Mr. Thomas stated yesterday that he would return to Canada from time to time. He expressed absolute confidence as to the outcome of the war. "We will win," he said, "but it will take time. We will probably have reverses and periods of depression, but we are going to win."

AWARDS FOR SHELLS. Good progress was made yesterday by the Shell Committee with the tenders received for the latest shell orders and it is understood that a number of awards have now been issued on a statement yesterday morning dealing with the reorganization of the Shell Com-

CANADA CALLS TO ARMS ANOTHER 100,000 MEN

Ottawa Announces That Authorized Force at Present is to be Increased to 250,000 Men—Authorized Force Now is 150,000, Although 173,000 Have Joined.

Ottawa, Oct. 30.—One hundred thousand more men for overseas service are to be called in Canada. The announcement was made after last night's Cabinet Council that, following the appeal issued recently by the King, it had been decided to take this step, thereby increasing the Canadian forces to a quarter of a million.

The estimate based on this information is as follows: Forces despatched overseas, including small garrisons at Bermuda and St. Lucia, 101,500 under training and on guard and outstep, thereby increasing the Canadian force to a quarter of a million.

The official statement issued by the Prime Minister is as follows: "The Government received through H.R.H. the Governor-General, on the 25th inst. a cable message from the Secretary of State for the Colonies setting forth the recent appeal made by His Majesty the King for an increase in the forces of the Empire, which are required to secure victory and enduring peace. Since that date the Government has secured from the various countries and enlistment depots in Canada a statement of the number of men already enlisted and under training in this country, as well as complete information respecting the number despatched overseas. "The estimate based on this information is as follows: Forces despatched overseas, including small garrisons at Bermuda and St. Lucia, 101,500 under training and on guard and outstep, thereby increasing the Canadian force to a quarter of a million. The forces actually authorized up to the 8th of July last were 150,000 men. Having regard to the appeal issued by His Majesty and taking into consideration the necessities of the war, the government have concluded to increase the authorized forces by 100,000 men. Accordingly an Order-in-Council has been passed increasing the authorized Canadian forces for the purpose of the war to 250,000. Steps will be taken in the immediate future to enlist the additional number of men required to bring the Canadian forces up to the number thus fixed."

The Situation.

Official announcement is made that the Dominion Government has authorized the raising of 100,000 more troops in Canada, making a total quota of a quarter of a million. That the response will be hearty does not admit of any question.

It is reported from Athens that allied forces have achieved a victory in Bulgaria, and Germany's supposition that she would have a comparatively easy task in connection with the Balkans has already gone by the board.

On all hands it is considered that the German invasion of Russia has ended disastrously for the Kaiserites. They have made progress, it is true, but at appalling cost, and they have most emphatically not attained their objective.

The reports of Italian progress continue to be reassuring.

Satisfactory Result.

It is very satisfactory to hear that the offer to the citizens of Brantford of short date bonds, bearing interest at 5 1/2 per cent, is meeting with a very notable response. In this regard it might be mentioned that the Province of Saskatchewan is selling at approximately 6 per cent. Such local investment means not only warranted faith in the community and its financial standing, but also offers a class of safe home investment, which is far preferable to having the money sent outside for oftentimes dubious enterprises. If the amount spent by Brantfordites in silver and other mines, wild cat land speculations and other directions, had the chance to be invested in such an offering as these Treasury certificates, a great many residents would be far happier to-day and the community that much the richer.

Much better to reap the benefits locally than to have observant outsiders reap them.

Sir Charles Tupper.

The death of Sir Charles Tupper removes the sole remaining Father of Confederation. He had very nearly reached the century mark, and the characteristic energy and vitality which marked his whole career, were present practically to the end, certainly in the matter of mental vigor.

Without any question, Sir Charles was one of the big men, not alone of the Dominion, but also of Empire. He was a tower of strength in the unification of the various Provinces, and without him, Nova Scotia never would have entered. To achieve that result, he took his political life in his hands.

When other hearts failed in connection with the construction of the Canadian Pacific Railway, he remained a pillar of strength in carrying this great enterprise to an ultimate success, and in countless other directions he served his country and its interests with very marked ability. He is the last of the big men to go in connection with the laying of the foundations broad and true for this present great country. In an Imperial sense, also, he rendered most valuable service.

Sir Charles did not have the magnetic personality of Sir John Macdonald, but he possessed a clearness of vision and a determination of purpose which were both exceptional and the stability and the progress of Canada were ever foremost in his thoughts. A big man has fallen, and history will give him a very high place indeed among the great ones of his period.

RECEPTION TO REV. MR. ROSE LAST NIGHT

The large lecture room of Park Baptist church was completely filled last night with friends of the Rev. C. W. Rose, upon his first visit to Brantford, since leaving for Amherst, N.S., where he is pastor of a very large church. Rev. Dr. Hooper acted as chairman, and after singing the hymn "All Hail the Power of Jesus Name," the Twenty-third Psalm was repeated in unison, after which prayer was offered by the Rev. Mr. Rose. Rev. Dr. Hooper gave the introductory address. Other speakers were Deacon Howie, S. G. Read, Mr. O. Morris, Dr. Stacey and Mr. Jos. Ruddy.

Mr. Rose gave a very fine speech, giving reminiscences of his summer vacation spent on the estate of Prof. A. Graham Bell in Cape Breton. A number of ministers of other denominations were present, and all expressed appreciation of Mr. Rose's work, and their pleasure in seeing him so well, and also wished to be kindly remembered to Mrs. Rose and little daughter. Altogether a very enjoyable evening was spent by Rev. Mr. Rose, his former parishioners and friends.

Rev. Mr. Rose will be present at Park Church and will assist in the service to-morrow, Sunday morning.

LOSS OF PIROT

The capture of Pirot followed three days of desperate fighting, ending at nightfall on October 26. During the night the Serbs evacuated the city, sacrificing all their heavy baggage and leaving huge stores of ammunition and war material in the hands of the Bulgars. It is asserted here that the Serbian losses were extremely heavy. The fall of Pirot and Zajecar together with the junction made by the Austro-German and Bulgarian forces north of Negotin have altered the position of the Serbians it is considered here, extremely critical. Serbian forces near Nitrovița and Prishina are retreating north in the direction of Novipazar with the purpose evidently of joining the main groups of their army in the interior where it is said a state of siege is rapidly approaching, since the Serbs are on the verge of being completely cut off.

Sofia, Bulgaria, Oct. 27.—The capture of Zajecar was of distinct importance to the Serbians, both as a frontier fortress and as a railway junction. Zajecar was defended by a Serbian first line division, supported by about 10,000 men of the third reserve. The Bulgarian forces numbered about two brigades.

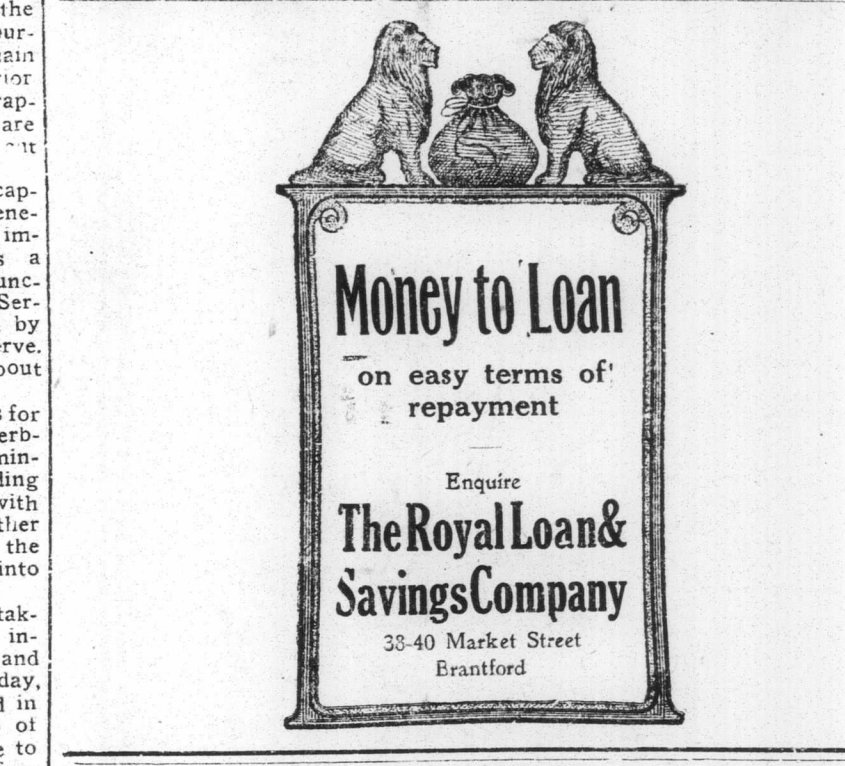

The most thorough preparations for defence had been made by the Serbians whose resistance was determined. Every mountain crest surrounding the fortress was literally covered with barbed wire entanglements and other obstacles. From these positions the Serbians poured a terrific fire into the Bulgarian lines.

Three outlying positions were taken more than a week ago, but the inner line and the southern, eastern and northern works held out. Monday, however, the Bulgarians succeeded in taking heavy artillery to the top of the mountain when they were able to direct their fire at the Serbian detachments.

The Serbians were subjected to a preliminary bombardment on Monday and early yesterday. This was followed by a Bulgarian infantry attack of the most desperate character. The Bulgarians were often obliged to climb all four steep slopes to Serbian positions. Now and then the attacking parties were shot down or thrown back, but they returned to the assault and shortly before noon carried all the Serbian defenses.

The Bulgarian artillery did most effective work. Its fire was said by Serbian prisoners to have been the worst they had ever experienced. The shrapnel exploded unerringly at a height of 50 feet above the Serbian positions. This, together with the impetuous rushes of the Bulgarian infantry, compelled the remaining Serbians to surrender.

All accounts agree as to the valor of the Bulgarians. Extraordinary exertions were required to scale the dizzy heights at Zajecar. The Bulgarian infantry removed their shoes to obtain a better footing on the slippery rocks. Like untamable beings they rushed up the slopes. Gaps in their lines were filled up instantly from following reserves.

Reaching the summit the infantry did such effective work with the bayonet that the Serbians who still were inclined to fight, held up their hands quickly. It is asserted the Bulgarian losses were slight, in view of the magnitude of the action.

march. They left Niagara with 1,125 men and have now 1,125.

There is no doubt that the smart appearance and the general good record of the 5th on the road is due to some extent to the men having the full equipment with shoulder straps. The men of the 37th complained that all the weight of their kits being slung onto the belt, caught them across the stomachs and tended to make them stoop in a long march. The 74th have not the shoulder straps, but they have their outfit in a knapsack slung over their shoulders.

27TH REACH TORONTO

The 37th has supplied several drafts for overseas and is composed largely of men from the north country, many coming from the Soo district. A good many of the men have seen active service in the British army in various parts of the Empire. Toronto will give them a real Canadian greeting to-day, for they are among the first to proceed to Flanders, or rather Newmarket. They have set the pace and borne the brunt of the fighting on the route, and not once have they been held up by the enemy. Moving forward they swept the bandits aside and sent them straggling and limping to their caves. They have in consequence suffered the greatest number of casualties.

The 83rd departs from Niagara Camp for St. Catharines at noon to-day, and the 75th have left St. Catharines to-day, making a total of five battalions and one artillery brigade on the road.

PORT CREDIT IN STATE OF SIEGE

Port Credit is in a state of siege. Outposts of the camp are everywhere, sleeping in batches in gardens and fields along the roadway, while a sentry marches up and down with fixed bayonet, stopping pedestrians and vehicles with "Halt! Who goes there." One democrat was stopped and searched in the dark, and something was heard moving in the back. The sentry thought the vehicle was packed with Huns, but found only two live hogs.

ATTACK ON 37TH

The 37th was attacked at Lorne Park yesterday afternoon. The enemy advanced in close formation, but was mown down with machine guns. Col. Bick stated that he had only sustained eighteen casualties since leaving Niagara, and that he had reported

RECEPTION AT HUMBER

(3) E. G. Darney.
(4) "Emden"—behind the bridge, showing effect of shells from Australian cruiser "Sydney."

Sydney, N.S.W.—The Australian Minister for Defence has announced that a capture action, headed by Lt. C. Darney, against the German cruiser "Emden" now in a port at Sydney Island, which was driven on the sea fight against the H.M.S. "Sydney" last November.

The cruiser, who is an old Canadian Pacific Railway man, having gained his other experience in that capacity in November, has a total of 1000 men and a crew of 1000. He thinks that when the "Emden" was blown up by the "Sydney" by her captain, the commandant had in his mind some scheme other than permanently surrendering the "Emden". It is said that the "Emden" often ran its ship up on the beach, and with the fall of tide let his men to come down the hull. He was able to do this because of the peculiar shape of the ship's hull, which was not being specially designed for service in shallow water.

There is every reason to believe, thinks Mr. Darney, that given reasonable opportunity, Capt. Muller would have backed away from the reef. What settled the "Emden", however, was the final broadside of the "Sydney"—four of which pierced the stern, just below the waterline. This is the only damage done to the hull below water—the plates everywhere else being struck as a belt. It is proposed to plug these holes with concrete, remove the top hammer, already smashed, and set the salvage pumps to work and with the help of a powerful pump, there is every reason to suppose that she will be taken to the nearest port and have her engines attended to, and, if possible, she will then be decored under her own steam to the different parts of Australia, where she will be exhibited for the present.

The Commonwealth Government has received the right to purchase the "Emden" on her arrival at Sydney at a price to be fixed by arbitration.

AWARDED DIPLOMAS TO GRADUATING NURSES

Pleasant and Pretty Function Yesterday at Nurses' Home When Four Nurses Were Honored on Occasion of Their Graduation.

Honored by the presence of Mayor Spence and several city Aldermen, the graduating nurses of the Brantford Hospital were yesterday afternoon presented with their diplomas before a large audience, at the nurse's home. Mr. C. H. Waterous, president of the Board of Governors, presided. After opening prayer by Dr. Mackenzie, he thanked the ladies and gentlemen who had honored them with their presence and outlined the very onerous duties nurses were called upon to perform. Mr. Waterous told, on behalf of the Board of Governors, how highly they appreciated the friendly attitude of the people of Brantford toward the hospital and extended to them a hearty invitation to visit the new buildings at any time.

A fitting address was also given by Dr. J. A. Marquis, who spoke very highly in praise of the Board of Governors, and Miss Ford, the Superintendent. Dr. Marquis said Miss Ford's ability was recognized not only throughout Brantford, but throughout the whole of America. He also praised the nurses on their cheerful looking faces, saying that sympathetic cheerfulness was one of the essentials to good nursing, and although it is in some cases not easy to be cheerful, he believed that forbearance and tact were two of the greatest virtues. Miss Ford, the Superintendent, read a very excellent paper on the work of the past year and gave a few words of advice to the nurses, and presented them with their diplomas.

The graduates were: Miss Lulu Simpson, Miss Gertrude Best, Miss Georgina Barwick and Miss Margaret Gilchrist.

Mayor Spence gave a short speech and presented the graduating nurses with class pins on behalf of the Board of Governors.

Mrs. Julius Waterous, President of the Hospital Aid Society, made a few well chosen remarks, and presented the young ladies with thermometers on behalf of the hospital aid.

The graduates also received beautiful bouquets, gifts from their sister nurses.

UNDER ORDERS.

"Under Orders" is the name of the new war play written by Albert Cowles, which will be presented at the Grand Opera House on Saturday, October 30th, by the Princess Producing Company, Inc. It deals with war in all its pomp and panoply, not the sordid side which many of the yellow journals of to-day would have one believe is the rule instead of the exception, and incidentally has a clean and pretty love story running through it. It is said that there is not a dull moment in the play, that from the rise of the curtain to the end, it is replete with new and thrilling situations. Probably the most intense and touching scenes in it is shown in the first act. This scene in which Patricia O'Grady gets up in the crowd of men and women assembled, brings forth no end of men willing and anxious to "take the King's shilling." It is made most impressive when old Mrs. Emmett brings up her only son to offer his services for his King and his country; this recruiting scene will be carried home in one's thoughts, for it is a fine exhibition of the patriotism that is being daily displayed by thousands all over the United Kingdom and Provinces. Plenty of exciting and comedy scenes, a charming love story and an excellent cast are all conducive to a highly meritorious performance. Remember, this is a play, not a picture.

Paris, Oct. 30, 2:35 p.m.—French progress last night at Bois-en-Hache, and the repulse of a German attack this morning near Souchez are set forth in the official announcement given out by the French War Office this afternoon.

The text of the communication follows: "In the Artois district last night we made progress at Bois-en-Hache and occupied a section of the enemy's trenches.

"To the southeast of Souchez the Germans this morning undertook an attack in the vicinity of Hill No. 140. They were repulsed by a curtain of fire from the French machine guns.

"In the Champagne district the fighting is still going on in the vicinity of the position known as 'La Cortine' with the greatest ferocity. On four different occasions the enemy has endeavored to recapture from us the trenches we took possession of yesterday. These four counter-attacks all completely failed before the energetic resistance of our troops, who were successful everywhere in retaining the advances made.

"There has been no other important action on the remainder of the front.

STOP DANDRUFF! HAIR GETS THICK, WAVY, BEAUTIFUL

Save your hair! Beautify it! It is only a matter of using a little Danderine occasionally to have a head of heavy, beautiful hair; soft, lustrous, wavy and free from dandruff. It is easy and inexpensive to have pretty, charming hair and lots of it. Just get a 25-cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine now—all drug stores recommend it—apply a little as directed and within ten minutes there will be an appearance of abundance; freshness, fluffiness and an incomparable gloss and lustre, and try as you will you can't find a trace of dandruff or falling hair; but your real surprise will be after about two weeks' use, when you will see new hair—fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair—sprouting out all over your scalp—Danderine is, we believe, the only sure hair grower; destroyer of dandruff and cure for itchy scalp and it never fails to stop falling hair at once.

If you want to prove how pretty and soft your hair really is, moisten a comb with a little Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair—taking one small strand at a time. Your hair will be soft, glossy and beautiful in just a few moments—a delightful surprise awaits everyone who tries this.

In The World Of Labor

A Budget of News For Those Interested in Labor

Gleaned From the Exchanges and Other Sources

LABOR AND THE WAR

It is satisfactory to know that at the present time throughout the length and breadth of this broad Dominion no individual has any need to enquire as to what stand the Canadian members of the International Trades Union movement have assumed in regard to the war.

LABOR WAS VIEWED WITH SUSPICION.

For some time after hostilities had commenced there were certain interests, that, perhaps from ulterior motives, some of them at least, viewed the number of labor organizations with undignified suspicion and positive dislike, and did not scruple to impute to them all sorts of disloyal and unpatriotic motives.

TRADE UNIONS ALWAYS STOOD FOR PEACE.

It was recognized that the Trades Unions had always resolutely opposed militarism and armaments and were irrevocably ranged upon the side of peace and boldly proclaimed that the interests of the workers all over the world were similar and identical. That one word, International, however, was supposed to cover much that the general public failed to understand, and it was therefore presumed, in advance, that the men who carried union cards would be found arrayed against the Empire and the Government.

The Loyalty of Canadian International Unionists Stands Unchallenged.

To-day, as has been stated, the action of the Canadian International Labor movement has been so clean cut and unequivocal that not even its most pronounced opponents dare any longer question its loyalty. It has been tried and not found wanting in any particular, for, as a matter of fact, the members of labor unions throughout the entire Dominion have volunteered for the defence of the Empire, not by hundreds, but by thousands. Thousands of Canadian Trades Unionists at the front.

In Toronto, one local organization alone, the builders' laborers, has five hundred enlisted members, the street railway employes union nearly three hundred, and the others are represented by lesser numbers that total up to hundreds, fifties, etc., and what is more, the unions are keeping these members good upon the books by paying their international dues, have voted grants to the Red Cross and other patriotic agencies, and are looking after the welfare of the families of members at the front.

Industrial Canada

FROM COAST TO COAST

Two big industrial concerns have just been incorporated in Montreal. The O'Brien Munitions Company, capitalized at two million dollars, and the Standard Steel, at two hundred thousand dollars.

Canada's wheat harvest this year amounts to 338,258,000 bushels, which beats any previous record by 104,541,000 bushels, or 45 per cent. more than was raised in 1913, which entirely outclassed all yields up to that time.

In New Westminster, B. C., the hours of labor for printers are seven and a half on newspapers and eight in job offices. The scale of wages in newspaper offices is $30 per week, for day work, and $33 for night work. The scale in job offices is $27.50 per week.

Owing to a dispute with the management of the Cruxoy Mine near Granby, B. C., the miners walked out to stay until their grievances were duly considered. Inside of three days the mine owners experienced a change of heart. Negotiations were opened with the union and the trouble was amiably adjusted.

The maintenance of way employes were more largely represented at the recent Vancouver convention of the Trades and Labor Congress of Canada than any other organization, having some thirty-eight delegates in evidence. This looks pretty good for the trackmen who are certainly coming strong.

The Canadian General Electric Company, according to statements of its manager, Mr. Frederick Nicholls, has a very satisfactory volume of orders on hand. It is stated unofficially that new orders amounting in value to between ten and eleven million dollars have been received. This ought to boom the big plant in Electricville.

Eddie O'Dell, general organizer of the Boot and Shoe workers' International Union, did some effective work in Vancouver while attending the recent convention of the Trades and Labor Congress in that city. He held several successful meetings which were well attended by workers of the craft, and as a result it is probable that a strong local union will be chartered at an early date.

Trades unionists in Winnipeg are beginning to take interest in the approaching municipal elections. The Trades and Labor Council has requested the Board of Control to post the voters' lists in the various fire halls, so that the workers may check up before registration as to whether their names are on it or not. It is probable that there will be a number of labor candidates in the field.

The St. Catharines Public School Board has decided to purchase Golden Rule text books to be used in teaching literature in the schools, these will be provided free for the use of the scholars and will afford considerable relief, especially to the parents of the poorer children. It should prove to be the incentive to inaugurate a system of free text books in the educational institutions of the Garden City.

The first sitting of the commission on workmen's compensation, which was just appointed by the British Columbia Government to gather information for its guidance in forming a new workmen's compensation act for the Province, held its first session in Vancouver on September 29th. This commission consists of three members, one appointed by the Government, one by the manufacturing interests and the third by the Labor Unions. J. H. McVeigh, editor of the Federationist, is the Labor representative. Evidence will be taken in all parts of the States as well as in the Province of Ontario, which it is claimed, has the best act now in operation. In fact the Government expects to model its coming legislation as far as possible, on the Ontario measure.

The Northwest Typographical Conference with which is affiliated twenty four local organizations in Washington, Oregon, British Columbia and Idaho, has taken up the question of employment statistics in order to keep its members acquainted with conditions as they exist in every trade in the various centres throughout the jurisdiction of the conference. Returns to hand which are published in the October issue of the Typographical Journal go to show that Vancouver, B. C., had suffered largely from unemployment of members than any other city from which returns were received. The average of saleable time lost by members in Washington, Oregon and British Columbia was 47 per cent, while in Vancouver it was 62 per cent. In Victoria a better showing was made with a percentage of 33.

Out of 12,659 accidents reported for the nine months ending Sept. 30th, 201 were fatal and under the old employers' liability act the dependants left behind would in very few cases indeed have received any remuneration whatever, but thanks to the labor unions, the families of the deceased will be provided for now that their breadwinners have been taken from them.

In 5,933 cases compensation was also awarded by the board. It is to be noted that five per cent. of these were permanent or partially permanent disabilities while the injured doubtless had families dependent upon them. The figures totalled up show that two per cent. were fatalities, five per cent. permanent or partial permanent disability and ninety-three per cent. involved only temporary disability. As has been shown 5,933 cases were awarded compensation, 471 were settled by employers, 127 were disallowed, 689 were being adjusted and 1,467 cases reports are still incomplete. It will therefore be seen that the contentions previously advanced, that if the act was put in operation it would drive manufacturers out of the Province was an utterly absurd statement and not borne out according to statistics shown.

JUDGMENT OF SIR WM. MEREDITH IS AMPLY VINDICATED. In fact the Ontario manufacturers are not over-pleaded by the assessments and the cost of workmen's compensation in the province is far less than in the case of many states across the border line where the benefits are not so great, so that the first nine months' operations of the act goes to show that the judgment of Sir Wm. Meredith has been amply vindicated and that the act is being justly and intelligently installed by many of the manufacturers in their establishments as in operation, the number of fatalities and accidents will probably be largely decreased, which will no further tend to lighten the cost to employers.

ONE DESIRABLE AMENDMENT FIRST AID TO THE WOUNDED. The chairman points out that in one particular, amendment to the present act is desirable in order to provide first aid to the injured as the overwhelming majority of cases show that the injured employees are back to work within seven days and therefore receive no compensation, and others who are off for short periods with minor injuries, find that the compensation is not sufficient to enable the workmen to pay his own expenses. Doubtless the trades unionists ask that the amendment be incorporated in the act. It is satisfactory to learn that the act is working out so well.

Two More U. S. Papers Placed Under the Ban. Ottawa, Oct. 30.—The Postoffice Department has placed under the ban two more United States papers, The Narod List, a Croatian daily paper published in New York, and The Irish Voice, a Chicago weekly. Both papers are debarred the use of the mails, and any person found having them in his possession is liable to a fine of $5,000 or five years imprisonment.

The coal mine operators in British Columbia are much exercised over the fact that Tom Richardson, the British Labor M.P., of the Imperial Parliament, is at the present time in the province for the purpose of engaging miners to go to England, where a shortage of labor exists. Despite the fact that many of the local mines in the Pacific Province and Western Canada have been running for months on short time and with stoppages, and that many miners have been unemployed for long periods of time, they have entered a strong protest against the British authorities seeking to secure such help. This certainly seems strange when many miners' families are in sore distress and actually waiting for the bare necessities of life, as such action dates from patriotic motives or because the coal barons want a surplus of mine labor available in order to ensure a lower rate of wages and longer dividends? We have our suspicions and there are others like us.

BENEFITS OF COMPENSATION. The Ontario Workmen's Compensation for Injuries Act has now been in operation for a period of nine months and many arguments that were advanced against it at the time the question was before the Provincial Legislature have been found, as was forecasted by labor's representatives at the time, to have been entirely groundless.

COST TO ONTARIO MANUFACTURERS IS LESS THAN IN ADJACENT STATES. Chairman Price, of the Workmen's Compensation Commission, states that results to date have been eminently satisfactory and points out that the assessments upon employers in the Province for the first year of the operation of the act have been far lower than the rates for first year of operation in New York, Washington and other states.

RESULTS JUSTIFY CONTENTION OF LABOR REPRESENTATIVES. The total amount collected from employers during the first year in Ontario was $1,471,000 and it will probably take less than $1,000,000 to pay up all obligations in full, leaving a balance of $471,000. This is a remarkably good showing and goes to prove that the contentions of the labor representatives when the question was discussed in the House were indeed far nearer to the truth than those which did serve on behalf of the employers. Indeed, results have shown that the arguments of the latter were somewhat overdrawn and far fetched.

BENEFICIAL RESULTS OF TRADES UNION AGITATION. Out of 12,659 accidents reported for the nine months ending Sept. 30th, 201 were fatal and under the old employers' liability act the dependants left behind would in very few cases indeed have received any remuneration whatever, but thanks to the labor unions, the families of the deceased will be provided for now that their breadwinners have been taken from them.

In 5,933 cases compensation was also awarded by the board. It is to be noted that five per cent. of these were permanent or partially permanent disabilities while the injured doubtless had families dependent upon them. The figures totalled up show that two per cent. were fatalities, five per cent. permanent or partial permanent disability and ninety-three per cent. involved only temporary disability. As has been shown 5,933 cases were awarded compensation, 471 were settled by employers, 127 were disallowed, 689 were being adjusted and 1,467 cases reports are still incomplete. It will therefore be seen that the contentions previously advanced, that if the act was put in operation it would drive manufacturers out of the Province was an utterly absurd statement and not borne out according to statistics shown.

REICHSTAG MUST HAVE SOME SAY

Federated States Not to be Put in Background When Peace Proposals Come.

By Special Wire to the Courier.

Berlin, Oct. 30.—(In Montreal Gazette)—Cold weather, bringing the first snow fall, has given a salutary chill to the premature hopes of excessive optimistic Germans who have been talking about peace by Christmas or saying that the war could not last through another winter.

There is a very strong feeling, however, not only among people in general, but also in well informed circles, that the turning point of the war has been passed, and the Balkan campaign is bringing the peace goal appreciably nearer.

The Tageblatt, in an editorial, says that the Reichstag must have a say in framing the conditions of peace. It comments:

"The German people still seem far away from peace. Still less is it possible to see to-day in what form peace will come. For this and other reasons, therefore in discussing the question of what responsible factors will have to work together in the reestablishment of the peace of the nations, the Reichstag must not be left out of the picture. Just as it would be impossible to shove to one side the right of the Kaiser and his responsible advisers, it is necessary in this particular case to make no decision that would mean the relegation of the federated states into the background.

Moreover, the German people, who have had to bear the immense burdens of this war, have more than a merely written right to throw the whole weight of their will in the scales through their chosen representatives on the occasion of making peace."

BOTHA WINS SLANDER CASE

Defendant Sentenced to Fine or Three Months, and Will Appeal.

By Special Wire to the Courier.

Johannesburg, South Africa, Oct. 30 via London.—The jury in the case brought by Premier Botha against a Nationalist candidate for Parliament at the recent election, named Mannik, rendered a verdict against the defendant to-day.

Mannik was charged with having slandered the premier during the campaign, by asking what he had done with gold bars, valued at $3,750,000 left in possession of Botha and two other persons on the departure of Paul Kruger from South Africa. Mannik asserted the gold never has been accounted for. He was sentenced to imprisonment for three months or to pay a fine of $2,500. The case will be appealed.

Kaiser Will Investigate

Amsterdam, Oct. 30.—As a result of the world-wide protest against the execution of Edith Cavell, Emperor William has prohibited further execution of spies in Belgium until he can investigate the cases personally, says The Telegraph.

A remarkable incident occurred recently at Edinburgh at a recruiting meeting addressed by Sergt. Ripley, V.C. After he had spoken, the Sergt. announced the Victoria Cross from his breast and allowed it to be passed from hand to hand. After some time, as it did not reappear, the chairman asked for its return. There was no response. The chairman then addressed the crowd in scathing terms. He said he hoped the cross would prove a curse to the person who was keeping it. Later the Cross was found and handed to the police.

KIDNEY TROUBLE CURED AT 82.

Intense Power of Dr. Cassell's Tablets again Proved.

Back pains so severe as to be like knife-thrusts.

Operation said to be the only chance of Cure.

So Weak and Wasted he could hardly drag about.

Now in Splendid Health through DR. CASSELL'S TABLETS.

Age makes no difference to the extraordinary curative power of Dr. Cassell's Tablets; they cure old or young, from the infant in its mother's arms to the white-haired grandparent bowed with the weight of years. That is the one conclusion to be drawn from the testimony to Dr. Cassell's Tablets, which grateful people in the Mother Country are constantly giving to their Canadian brothers and sisters.

Here, for example, is Mr. Benjamin de Grey, of 2, Clifton Terrace, Queen-street, Sparkbrook, Birmingham, England, telling how Dr. Cassell's Tablets cured him of acute kidney trouble when nothing else tried could even relieve. And Mr. de Grey is 82 years of age. He says:

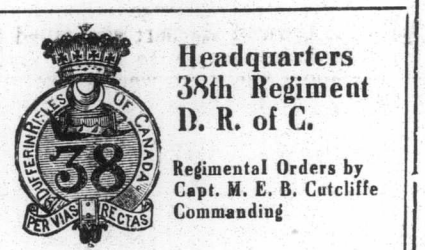

"A few years ago I began to have a dull, heavy feeling after everything I ate, and this was very soon followed by gnawing pain across my back and other indications of kidney trouble. At all times this pain was with me, but it became sharp as knife thrusts when I had to straighten up from a sitting or stooping position. I was told it was kidney trouble. I knew that, but no sort of medicine I had had any sort of good. I cannot describe the suffering I underwent. It could not rest anywhere, and I was so weak by this time that I could hardly drag about. I had lost flesh terribly, too. Often I was bathed in perspiration from the torture I had to endure. I would have given the world for a little relief, but nothing at all helped me.

"I was told that an operation was the only thing left for me. But at my age I did not like the idea of that, so again I took medicine, which again proved useless. I was worn out with pain and want of rest, when at last I got Dr. Cassell's Tablets; yet almost from the first they relieved me. I got better and better, till now I am cured and in splendid health."

My mother is now sixty-seven years of age, and has suffered for about thirty years from a functional complaint which made her unable to move sometimes. About two months ago she contracted a chill, which affected her kidneys, and she was unable to get up from her bed, and to move at all caused her intense suffering. We tried all sorts of things for her, but she got no better; in fact, I thought she was never going to be well again. However, reading about Dr. Cassell's Tablets, I decided to get her some, and from that time she improved wonderfully. She is now better than she has been for years, and it is all due to Dr. Cassell's Tablets, and the Tablets simply worked wonders.

"I have taken them myself for severe backache brought on by strain, and they soon cured me, too."

Higher house rents demanded by some property owners in Glasgow have raised a great deal of protest. A few days ago a number of tenants in the Parkside district declined to pay the increase in rents, and insisted that their rents at the lower rate to the house agent by postal order. The agent called personally on the tenants and returned the postal orders. As he went from house to house he was followed by a large crowd, who hissed and threw peasal at him. The police had to be summoned to guard him.

The severest rainstorm experienced for many years recently visited the northern counties of Scotland. Heavy rain fell for over forty hours. Drains and burns overflowed their banks and the heavy flooding in some districts carried away bridges and parts of roadways. Traffic by road or railway was stopped. A large stone bridge which carries the main road over the River Nairn was swept away. Near Brodie Station the Buckle Burn overflowed its bank and for nearly a quarter of a mile the line was covered with ten feet of water. On some parts of the Highland Line culverts have been washed away. At Nairn the River Nairn rose fifteen feet, and swept away the Jubilee Suspension bridge.

MAGNIFICENT NEW STORE OPENS TODAY

Crompton's Fine New Building Last Word in Beauty and Elegance of Design.

Just as the kiddies have been eagerly looking forward to the witches on broomsticks and all the other alluring mysteries of Halloween, so the fair sex of Brantford have been anxiously waiting the witchery of smart costumes, the allure of the frilleries of fashion, and the display of tempting things that the opening of E. B. Crompton and Company's big new store to-day will bring.

On the same corner site so long famous to the feminine shoppers the beautiful new building rises Phoenix-like from the ashes of the old. No pains have been spared by the architect, builder and decorator, and the result is a thing of beauty, both without and within.

Let us join the crowd of shoppers, and take a little trip over the store, for it really is a journey of adventure to travel through this cosmopolitan store, and get acquainted with all its new departments, as well as recognize those we have been long familiar with, but which appear glorified in their new dress and surroundings.

Just a moment before we enter, let us pause for a moment to recognize those who have been long familiar with, but which appear glorified in their new dress and surroundings.

As we enter, the interior unfolds itself to the eye, a harmony of white pillars, and white shaded indirect lights—no tawdry garish note to mar the whole.

The sweet strains of music from the Lomas orchestra add much to the enjoyment of our visit. One realizes that to-day E. B. Crompton and Company are "at home" to their friends and patrons.

To the right as we enter we find with perfumes and powders of every kind for Missy's dressing table to the case, stationary leather goods, and ribbons, and further to the rear, the staple goods and fancy linens with exquisite Madeira and Irish embroideries for the housewife.

Turning to the left, we visit the glove and hosiery counter, and here the guests are also displayed. In the neckwear section every conceivable frill and fancy of "Dame Fashion" seems to charm the money.

Passing up the broad stairs, we come to the second floor, where we find the guests in the most ready to wear, to suit any woman's taste. Here also are the Millinery Department, Waists, Corsets, and the White-wear Section, where one may revel in hand-embroidered lingerie and all sorts of "frillies."

A new feature, opening shortly, will be the Manicuring and Hairdressing parlor, which innovation will be greatly appreciated.

On this floor too is the delightful Rest Room, which is really restful to every sense. The comfy fumed oak chairs, with Jacobean finish and Spanish leather cushions, invite the tired shopper to sit down.

Surprise Party For Miss Raynor

A very pleasant event took place on Thursday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Raynor, 28 Mt. Pleasant St. when their daughter, Miss Essie Raynor, was surprised by a party of about 75 friends.

The party of the evening was the unrolling of many mysterious bundles, which proved to be an abundant "shower" of useful kitchen utensils.

Another pleasing feature of the evening was a presentation to the two young people concerned. This took the form of a beautiful electric reading lamp, given by the Young People's Society and choir of Balfour St. Church, of which church both Miss Raynor and Mr. Dewar are members.

Accompanying the lamp was a suitable address to which feeling reply was given. The rest of the evening was spent in games and music, and after lunch had been served, the party broke up, singing "Auld Lang Syne" and "For They Are Jolly Good Fellows."

CADETS FROM AUSTRALIA ARE TOURING HERE

Will Arrive in Toronto in Two Weeks for Several Days' Stay.

Toronto, Oct. 30.—The thirty-five lads representative of the Commonwealth of Australia's universal military training system, at present engaged on a tour of the Dominion, will arrive in Toronto on Saturday, Nov. 13, and will be the guests of the city for five or six days.

During their sojourn in Toronto the specially chosen lads from the sister Dominion the Southern Seas will study our principal industries, their manufacturing plants, and their schools, which must draw our students to a closer touch with the conditions in the Antipodes.

The party is in direct charge of Lieut. J. J. Simons, who is one of the leading orators and biggest Imperialists in Australia, and he has made a splendid impression in the western cities, where the lads have been royally received in social and business circles.

Toronto has much to show these young cadets, and they will receive a hearty welcome when they arrive, and at the same time the brotherly message of good will left by them and the talks on the trade possibilities between Canada and Australia, which will be one of the features of Lieut. Simons' speeches, must draw us closer together in the bonds of imperial brotherhood.

WAR BOOTY SOLD BY HUNS

German Papers Published in Belgium Full of Advertisements of Loot.

Paris, Oct. 30.—(Correspondence of The Associated Press)—The inhabitants of Loos, who had lived a year under German rule, in sight of the British lines before the town was recaptured September 26th, have been transported to the Pyrenees to be sheltered there until their town, now under the continual fire of German batteries, becomes inhabitable again.

They brought with them copies of papers published by the German authorities in the French language in Belgium and circulated in Northern France in which there appear numerous advertisements that are occupying the attention of the French authorities on the supposition that they refer to war booty taken in France and Belgium and put on sale by the Germans.

One advertisement runs—"A thousand and second-hand electric motors and dynamos for sale." Among the others are the following:

"Sensational offering of 2,500 machines, new or nearly new at half their value, including crushers, rolling mills, mixers and hydraulic presses, pumps, steam boilers and locomotives."

"Selling out at factory prices, 500 pianos, first makes." "One hundred and fifty thousand bottles of Champagne for sale at prices that defy competition."

The houses inserting these advertisements are said to be German firms that have established themselves in Brussels since the occupation.

Revenue in Ireland is Picking Up

Dublin, Ireland, Oct. 30.—Ireland is gradually becoming self-supporting in a political sense, the latest revenue returns showing that for the past year the taxes come within $1,300,000, of equalling the expenditures. For 1913 the deficit was $6,100,000, and for 1912 it was over $7,000,000.

An official report on relations between Ireland and Great Britain shows how the proportion of the population of Ireland has fallen in relation to that of the United Kingdom as a whole, as follows: Census Great Britain Ireland P.C. 1841... 18,500,000 8,175,000 31 1861... 23,100,000 5,800,000 25 1881... 29,700,000 5,475,000 18 1901... 37,000,000 4,450,000 11 1911... 40,830,000 4,350,000 9 7

BASEBALL RECORDS OF THE BIG LEAGUE TEAMS

New York, Oct. 30.—The records made by the major league clubs in 1915, errors and men left on bases for the season just closed turned out to be interesting study. In the National League, the Philadelphia Phillies won the pennant made next to the largest number of runs with 101, total of hits. The Phillies also had fewer men left on bases than any other club and made next to the least number of errors. The Philadelphia Phillies were third in run making, seventh in hitting, first in number of batted runners and made less errors than any of their rivals. St. Louis had the greatest number of runs; Cincinnati led in hits, Chicago and Boston in runners left.

The Boston Red Sox, World's Champions and American League pennant winners, were third in the run-making in the junior league; first in number of hits; kept the errors down next to the lowest total, but were runners marooned than any other club except Detroit. The Philadelphia Phillies, runners up to the Red Sox, made more runs than any other American League combination; were second in hitting; fourth in errors, and first in left on bases. The Chicago White Sox were second in run making; third in hits; third lowest in errors and second lowest in base runners left.

The following tabulation shows the number of games played, won, lost and tied together with the total of runs, hits, errors, and left on bases for the season of 1915, in both leagues.

LUCKY BARRY

New York, Oct. 30.—Some baseball players achieve riches in the "Ball of Fame," and others have records wrecked in the World's Series. Jack Barry, however, is in a class by himself. All Jack does is to jump from one club to another as pennant season wax and wane and collect an annual share of the post-season receipts.

Since 1910 Barry has played in five world's series thereby enriching his bank roll to the extent of $14,821.15. This comes close to hitting 1,000 in the Financial League.

MORAN NEARER TO J. WILLARD

Victor Over Jim Coffey is a Clever Boxer and Might Beat Willard.

New York, Oct. 30.—Frank Moran, through his decisive defeat of Jim Coffey, has crowded a bit nearer to a bout with Jess Willard. That the title-holder will agree to meet Moran in a ten-round battle with or without decision is quite unlikely. Willard by no stretch of imagination can be termed a whirlwind fighter. In order to win on points or knockout inside ten rounds the conqueror of Johnson would have to travel at a pace far in excess of anything he has shown to date.

In a twenty or twenty-five round contest Willard would be in a position to wear down his opponent in the slow, deliberate manner characteristic of his fighting methods. Some idea of Moran's ability over a distance route can be gathered from the fact that he fought twenty rounds with Jack Johnson in Paris on July 4, 1914. Although he lost the decision on the points the same would have been true of Willard had his battle with Johnson in Havana last April been limited to a similar number of rounds.

English as She is Some Times Written

New York, Oct. 30.—When it comes to a battle between pugilists promoters and Old Noah Webster, the latter is always outclassed. In a recent bid for publicity the English Language was counted out as follows:

"Next Saturday evening at the critical A. C. (3) three star ten round bout in the star theatre on Broadway, the evening, John Hine, who has not boxed in a couple of months will swap punches with that tough light weight, Tabasco Bill, included in the evening, Sailor Samson will meet Joe Dinny. This bout promises to be a sure enough slug-ging bee. The last bout of the evening will bring together Torry Mike, who has beaten everybody that he has met in his last ten bouts, will meet that tough welter-weight, Jim Pooke. Pooke is training like a Trojan for this bout as it will mean a bout with the present champion.

Music and Drama

D. W. Griffith's mighty spectacle, "The Birth of a Nation," begins its engagement at the Grand Opera House soon.

Nothing like this wonderful attraction has even been seen upon the local boards. And it is given here exactly as it is being presented in New York City where the big drama has broken every record in the stage history of the first city in the country.

In addition, the piece has played up record engagements in Chicago, Boston, San Francisco, Los Angeles, Toronto and Montreal.

It covers a wide range of American history and touches only the highest points of interest in the great events that led up to and terminated the Civil War. The force that slavery played in producing this crisis is traced from its inception to its abolition. While the basic theme is historical in its foundation, its intent is the fundamental one of true drama. These forces which make for these results have been marshalled upon a larger scale than was ever shown before. Where directors of vast spectacle have dealt with hundreds of 18,000 people fill his stage which has a vast territory for background, 3,000 horses pass before your view in wild dashes over miles of country roadway. The decisive battles of the Civil War are reproduced in faithful detail, and you see the great armies fought again just as they were waged 50 years ago. Cities were built up only to be destroyed, to lend force and verity to the dramatic narrative. One enormous battlefield is shown stretching over an area of square miles, and upon these planes and trenches 20,000 soldiers clash in a mimic warfare that is as real as if you were an eyewitness of the actual occurrence.

Holding the great effects in tether is a story as tender and true as love and romance can be pictured. There are tears and smiles, noble sacrifices and heroic deeds of personal valor. Youthful dreams of love's fruition are rent asunder by the demons of war; home ties snap before the call to arms, and suffering such as cannot be imagined is depicted in the crude manner that history is made when men surrender reason to passion and engage in a deadlock of armed resistance.

You see the war start after being shown the causes which precipitated it. You see the great generals of the contending sections playing their desperate games of human pawns moved into the field of slaughter. Then comes the agreement for peace, and Lincoln sets about his superhuman task of healing the wounds by the application of that great love which made him the towering figure of his age. A fanatic's bullet stills the heart which beat so evenly for all humanity. The South is thrown back into a worse fate than war. Their lands are overrun by a hungry horde of venal politicians and grafters. The poor negro is ejected into a false, unending standing of liberty, and in his ignorance is led into excesses by these scoundrels of fortune. Out of it comes the ghastly armed crusaders of a terrible era to once more set things aright and return the lands and liberties of peace to their rightful owners, and over the land's misere sounds the chorus of brotherly love in an allegorical dream which visions the reunion of the divided sections and the welding of that national spirit which has made this nation so great after its baptism in its own blood.

A wonderful score of operatic reaches accompanies the narrative. It is all done upon a most stupendous scale. No detail has been overlooked. The drama is outlined and told in the most graphic form that has yet been devised by the brain of man for such a purpose. No wonder this work is epoch-making. It has set up new standards which it will be difficult to equal for many years to come.

GET RID OF HUMORS AND AVOID DISEASE

Humors in the blood cause internal derangements that affect the whole system, as well as pimples, boils and other eruptions. They affect all the organs and functions, membranes and tissues, and are directly responsible for the readiness with which some people contract disease.

For forty years Hood's Sarsaparilla has been more successful than any other medicine in expelling humors and removing their inward and outward effects. It is distinguished for its thoroughness in purifying the blood, which it enriches and invigorates. No other medicine acts like it, for no other medicine is like it.

WIRELESS HAS OPENED POLAR SEA ROUTE

Vessels Sail Through Arctic Being Advised by Wireless Regarding Ice.

London, October 30.—(Correspondence of The Associated Press)—Wireless telegraphy has opened a polar sea route from central Russia to Great Britain. Wireless stations established by the Russian Government in the Arctic keep the vessel advised as to the channels free from ice. Acting on their information, two large vessels chartered by a Siberian trading company have just arrived at Grimsby with cargoes from the Yennessi and Obi districts of Central Siberia, valued at $1,750,000.

The Obi and Yennessi are huge rivers with a great depth of water, taking steamers of any size. But it was not until lately that their navigation was put in practice.

Owing to the use of the trans-Siberian railway by the Russian Government for war supplies, there are 3,000,000 tons of wheat held up in Siberia, besides enormous quantities of other produce. If this can be got out, it will improve Russian exchange, which is now a serious problem among the Allies.

Next year the company proposes to take about thirty steamers over the new White Sea route, laden with Siberian products. Even if the war ends before this time, it is pointed out that the Siberian railway will be more or less tied up with back business and the returning of troops.

SCENE OF "DER TAG" NOW IN ASIA MINOR

British Power Falls When Turk Wins, Not When Huns Clear North Sea.

Budapest, Hungary, Oct. 30.—(Correspondence of The Associated Press)—The political and economic position of Germany appears a great necessity, declares Herr Soli, the German Minister of Colonies, in an interview with the correspondent of the Associated Press. After emphasizing the importance of the present move in the Balkans from the point of view of German colonial policy, Herr Soli continues:

"It is necessary for us not only to maintain our previous colonial possessions, but even to increase them, irrespective of the European issues of the settlement in Europe after the war. Our motto will be, after the conclusion of the war, to establish a connected Colonial Empire destined to fill up the gaps in our economic life in accordance with the necessities of our position.

"Our only enemy from a Colonial point of view is England. How the future Germany overseas will be built up depends on the result of our war with England. At the very moment when we restore communications with the Straits and Constantinople and drive the Allied forces into the sea in Gallipoli, together with the Italians and any others attaching themselves to these, the events that will follow will develop like those in a well-written play.

"The Turkish army will advance through Asia Minor and Taurus, in order to concentrate for a further advance at Damascus. Every new army corps which will pass through the Kilikia Gate of the City of Saladin will aggravate the terror of London. On the day when the English army on the Nile, with the Australians, the Canadians and Indians capitulates before the Turks, or when they have to retreat, their position in the face of a German attack.

The Czar has conferred the Russian Order of St. Anne, 4th Class, on a lieutenant of the 1st Lowland Field Company, R.E. The decoration bears the words, "For valor in war." It was given for taking charge of an infantry company, whose officers had all been killed, and who were on the point of retreating, and enabling them to maintain their position in the face of a German attack.

CHAPTER IV.
What Will the Harvest Be?

A FRENZY of fear and rage overcame her when she found herself in the madhouse committed by Judge Stanley without warrant of law, and she screamed and struggled. The warden and a burly warden overpowered her with difficulty, placed her in a straitjacket and threw her upon the cot in the cell and locked the clanging door and left her.

A wild idea suddenly seized Hagar. She staggered to her feet and gazed around. Above her cot, some eight feet from the floor of the cell, was a small barred window. Hagar listened for a moment at the iron barred, heavy oak door, then she unlocked the door, slipped the sleeves of the straitjacket against the flame of the candle. The leather thong in the eyelets at the back of the straitjacket smoked and burned; then, with a great effort, she parted the smoldering thong. To release her from the straitjacket, now her arms were free, but the work of a few moments.

Mounting the table, she drew up the oaken stool and with its sturdy legs she pried the bars from their cemented sockets. The ground was only some ten feet below. She held to the ledge of the window a moment and then dropped. She struck the earth without injury and made off in the darkness, a free woman.

On this very night Colonel Stanley had sent for the doctor to take away the little girl.

At Stanley hall the old nurse was preparing little Esther for the night journey. In his library Colonel Stanley gazed in the lamplight at the diamond from the sky and the sealed document he had prepared that would betray the Stanley secret. He heard the sound of the opening of the long French window by the fireplace, and ed, panting, but resolved to have her own. At this apparition the colored arose and faced the wild intruder. "I have come for the child," said Hagar hoarsely. Colonel Stanley felt a sudden pang through his heart. It was the last shock the doctor had foretold for him. He gave a moaning, guttural cry and sank back a dead man!

Hardly knowing what she did, Hagar swept into her bosom the diamond from the sky and the sealed document with other papers on the table. Then, turning, she softly opened the library door and so softly crept by the stairs. Led by unerring instinct, she opened the door upon the landing and entered the room where the child, her own son, the putative heir of Stanley hall, lay sleeping. She marked the elegance of his surroundings as the risen full moon shone in the window, lighting it fully. What should she do? If she left her child here she would be cheating the cheaters. What would be the wild and lawless upbringing she could give her son in comparison to all that would be his as heir of Stanley hall?

As she faltered she heard footsteps outside, and, gazing out cautiously, she held the old colored nurse descending with the little girl, the rightful heir of Stanley hall. Hagar huddled upon the landing place and listened. A wild shriek arose from the colored nurse as she entered the library and discovered her dead master. Then the bell rang in the servants' quarters and the nurse pulled on the bell rope of the old nurse in the library. And shortly afterward Hagar could hear the nurse was joined by old Ned, the colored butler.

Just at this instant Dr. Lee drove up outside, and soon the great knocker on

The Colonel Faced the Wild Intruder. The front door was clanging its iron summons through the house. Two old servants rushed to the door and broke the news of the tragedy to the friend of the dead man. Hagar stole unseen down the staircase and into the library once more. There, cloaked and hooded, stood the little girl whimpering "Wake up, daddy, and kiss me!" Hagar paused. "An eye for an eye!" she muttered. Then, lifting the little girl in her arms and stifling her cries of fear and alarm, Hagar, with her burden, passed out of the low French window by which she had first entered and closed it after her.

As the doctor with the two frightened colored servants stood over the dead man in the library, and before the old nurse had noticed the absence of the child, Hagar had come around the mansion to the front. Loosening the strap that held the horse, she entered the doctor's carriage, still holding the girl in her arms.

The next morning the news of his young's death reached Judge Stanley. With it were vague rumors and whispered suspicions. Other news came, too—news of the escape of the gypsy man and woman and the disappearance of Dr. Lee's horse and buggy. The judge stayed not to rejoice at the death of his enemy. He refused even to tell his wife what strange business called him here, with a pistol in the holster at his saddle side.

In a narrow dell in the Blue Ridge Judge Stanley tracked down his prey. Hagar had abandoned the doctor's exhausted horse and the now broken zig-zag, bearing the child on her slung shoulder, was climbing the rocky trail when she heard the rattle of horse hoofs and heard the voice of Judge Stanley call upon her to halt. She turned to see the judge on horseback down below, his army pistol leveled at her.

Hagar held up the child, not so much to shield herself as that its pretty innocence might soften the hard heart of the relentless pursuer. But, whether by accident or design will never be known, the heavy explosion of the pistol echoed among the rocks. The bullet whistled past the blushing Hagar and the terrified child. The horse reared at the crack of the pistol, throwing his rider, breaking the neck of the vengeful judge and dashing his brains against a jagged rock.

Raising the child to her shoulder and supporting her there with her strong right hand, Hagar looked down upon her dead persecutor and called upon him with a gypsy's curse the death of the vulture she had preferred for him when first they met. Then she climbed over the summit of the ridge with her precious burden and was gone.

Eighteen years have passed since Judge Stanley's shattered body was found in the mountains, the seat of death upon his lips.

Behold Arthur Stanley 21, master of Stanley hall and wasting his substance in riotous living.

A hand grenade was recently found in a compartment of a railway train at a Glasgow station, by a porter, who was examining the carriages. The grenade, which is one of the type used by the British Army, was handed over to the police. It is surmised that the grenade was the property of some soldiers back from the trenches.

WILL WE EVER WALK ON AIR?

Train Of Thought Inspired By A Letter About "Fruit-a-tives"

MR. D. McLEAN

Orillia, Ont., Nov. 28th, 1914. "For over two years, I was troubled with Constipation, Drowsiness, Lack of Appetite and Headaches. I tried several medicines, but got no results and my Headaches became more severe. One day I saw your sign which read 'Fruit-a-tives' make you feel like walking on air. This appealed to me, so I decided to try a box. In a very short time, I began to feel better, and now I feel fine. Now I have a good appetite, relish everything I eat, and the Headaches are gone entirely. I cannot say too much for 'Fruit-a-tives', and recommend this pleasant fruit medicine to all my friends."
